Laſche emmanché. Lazie, idle, ſlothfull, weake, feeble, looſſe ioynted, faint-hearted.

Emmancher. To helue; to ſet a haft, or handle on; (and hence) alſo, to ſet in order, bring into faſhion, make as it ſhould be.

Emmancheure: f. A heluing; a ſetting on of a haft, or handle; alſo, the vpper part, or ſetting on, of a ſleeue.

Emmanchoir: m. The hole, or eye of a hatchet, &c, whereinto the handle is put.

Emmanné: m. ée: f. Full of, or bedeawed with, Manna.

Emmanoté: m. ée: f. Manacled, handfaſt.

Emmanoter. To manacle; to handfaſt, or tie the hands together.

Emmantelé: m. ée: f. Becloked; couered with, wrapped as in, a cloke; See Emmentelé.

Emmaroté: m. ée: f. Wearing a Scepter; or, a fooles bable.

Emmarré: m. ée: f. Caſt into the Sea; alſo, as Amarré.

Emmarrer. To caſt into the bottome of the ſea; alſo, as Amarrer.

Emmartelé: m. ée: f. Put into a iealouſie; poſſeſſed, or perplexed with a reſtleſſe paſſion.

Emmarteler. To put into a iealouſie, poſſeſſe with loue; beſot, or perplexe with any reſtleſſe paſſion.

Emmati: m. ie: f. Mated, amated; decayed; quailed, allayed, abated in vigor; mortified; faded, vpon withering.

Emmatir. To mate, or amate; to quaile, abate, or allay ſome part of the vigor of; alſo, to mortifie, make fade, wither, decay.

Emmaſsé: m. ée: f. Piled, heaped, gathered together.

Emmatrelé. Hoarſe; troubled with a poſe, or ſtuffed with cold: ¶Pic.

Emmatriculé: m. ée: f. Matriculated.

Emmatriculer. To matriculate; to ſweare of an Vniverſitie, to incorporate, or confirme, by oath, in a Societie.

Emmayé: m. ée: f. Decked, hung, or ſtrewed with May flowers &c.

Emmayer. To decke, hang, ſtrew, or furniſh with greene bearbes, boughes, or May flowers.

Emmeché: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with match, or candle-weeke; alſo, ſnuffed.

Emmecher. To furniſh with a match, or candleweeke; alſo, to ſnuffe.

Emmelie. A quiet kind of daunce, as the Pauin, Meaſure, &c: ¶Rab.

Emmelioré: m. ée: f. Bettered, improued, amended.

Emmeliorer. To better, improue, amend.

Emmené: m. ée: f. as Amené.

Emmener. To bring, or lead vnto; to fetch in, or to; Looke Amener.

Emmener par force. To hale, pull, dragge, force to come away with him.

Emmener vne choſe à ſon proffit. To make profitable vſe of a thing; to deriue, conuey, or draw a thing vnto his owne benefit.

Emmenoté. as Emmanoté. Manacled.

Emmentelé. as Emmantelé; Wrapped in a cloke, couered, as with a cloke; bemantled, becloked.

Beuf emmentelé de noir. A blacke, or blackiſh Oxe; a blacke-bodied Oxe.

Corneille emmentelée. The Winter-crow, whoſe backe, and bellie are of a darke aſh-colour; we call her a Royſton Crow.

Emmenteler. To couer with, to wrap in, a cloke, or mantle; to cloke, mantle, bemantle.

Emmenuiſé: m. ée: f. Small, or made ſmall; peecemealed, in little peeces, or parcels.

Emmenuiſer. To make ſmall, to peecemeale, to reduce into little parcels, or peeces.

Emmerdé: m. ée: f. Beturded; berayed with ordure.

Emmerder. To beturd, or beray with ordure.

s'Emmeſler. To meddle, to deale much; to buſie, peſter, intangle himſelfe with.

Emmeſnager. To ſet a houſe, or houſhold in good order; to play the good husband.

Emmeublé: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with mouables.

Emmeublement. Furniture; or, a furniſhing with mouables.

Emmeubler ſa maiſon. To furniſh his houſe with ſtuffe, proviſion, mouables.

Emmeurer. as Emmurer.

Emmi. Through, or in the middeſt of.

Courrir emmi les rues. To ruxne along, or about, the ſtreets.

Emmiellé: m. ée: f. Honied, made of honie, ſeaſoned, or ſweetened with honie; ſweet as honie; alſo, inticed, inueagled, allured, tolled, or drawne on by ſweet meanes.

Emmiellement: m. An allurement, inticement, pleaſant inducement, ſweet prouocation; alſo, a dreſſing, ſeaſoning, ſweetening, annointing with honie.

Emmieller. To behonie; to ſweeten; dreſſe, annoint, mingle, mingle, or season with honie; also, to allure, inueagle, intice, winne, draw, or toll on; pacifie, or appease, with sweet meanes.

Emmielleure, or Emmiellure: f. Sweetnesse, honiednesse; or, as Emmiellement.

Emminer. To put into a mine.

Emmitouflé: m. ée: f. Muffled, hooded, hudled, or hidden within furres, or furred clothes.

Emmitoufler. To muffle, hood, hide, shrowd, lap, or keep himselfe warme in furres, or furred clothes.

Emmitré: m. ée: f. Bemitered; crowned, or hooded with a Myter.

Emmitrer. To bemyter; to crowne, or hood with a Myter.

Emmoeller. Seeke Esmoeller.

Emmoncelé: m. ée: f. Heaped, piled, compacted; gathered, packed, or made vp together.

Emmonceler. To pile, compact, packe; assemble, gather, or make vp into a heape; to heape together; Looke Amonceler.

Emmont. as Amont; Vpward.

Emmorrionné: m. ée: f. Couered, or armed, with a Murrion, or Headpeece.

Emmorisque: com. Moorish, Mauritanian, Moore-like; that sounds, or sauors, of the Moore.

Emmortaisé: m. ée: f. Mortaised; ioyned, or closed by mortaise.

Emmortaiser. To mortaise; to ioyne, or close by mortaise.

Emmouflé: m. ée: f. Couered, or kept warme, as the hand, with a mittaine; also, bemuffled, wrapped, or lapped close within (warme) clothes.

Emmoufler. To put on his mittaines; to couer, or keepe warme his hands with mittaines; also, to bemuffle, hide, wrap, or lap vp his whole bodie within (warme) clothes.

Emmuré: m. ée: f. Immured; walled about, incloſed with, or within a wall; flanked, or defended by walls.

Emmurer. To immure, or wall about; to close vp into a wall, or betweene two walls; to flanke, or defend with walls.

Emmuſelé: m. ée: f. Muffled.

Emmuſeler. To muffle.

Emmuſqué: m. ée: f. Bemusked, perfumed with musk.

Emmusquer. To bemuske, or perfume with muske.

Emolli: m. ie: f. Mollified, softened.

Emollient. Softening, mollifying, assuaging.

Emollir. To soften, mollifie; make gentle, or pliant.

Emologation: f. An admission, allowance, approuement, or approbation of; a consent, or assent vnto.

Emologué: m. ée: f. Admitted, allowed, accepted, approued of, assented, or consented, vnto.

Emologuer. To admit, intertaine, accept, approue, allow of; to consent, or assent, vnto.

Emolument: m. Emolument, profit, commoditie, benefit, gaine.

Emonctoire: m. An Emunctorie; a kernellie place of the bodie, that serues for the voyding of such humors as be superfluous in, or offensiue vnto, a principall, or noble part: such be vnder th'eares for the braines, th'armepits for the heart, and the groine or share for the liuer; also, a snuffer.

Emondé. as Esmondé. Cleansed, cleered, purged.

Orge emondée. Naked Barlie; whose huske falls of it selfe from the graine, as soone as it is ripe.

Emonder. To cleanse, &c; Looke Esmonder.

Emorcer. as Amorcer. To baite, inueagle, beguile.

Emorcher. To put powder into the touch-hole of a peece.

Emotté: m. ée: f. Whose clods be broken.

Emotter. To breake clods, or turues on the ground.

Emouce: m. ée: f. Dulled, blunted.

Emoucer. To dull, blunt; breake, or spoyle the edge of.

Emouchail: m. A flie-flap.

Emoucher. Seeke Esmoucher.

Emouchon: m. A holy-water sprinkle.

Emouſſé: m. ée: f. Rid, or bared, of mosse.

Emouſſer. To rid, or bare, of mosse.

Emouvant. Mouing, stirring vp.

Empacqué: m. ée: f. Il s'eſt empacqué. He is most wilfull, obstinate, or obstinately sullen; from the sheepe Pacos (whereon th'Indians, in stead, or for want, of horses, carrie their marchandise) which being angred, lie downe with their burthens, and will not rise for any blowes, vntill their mood be fully past, and digested.

Empacté: m. ée: f. Heaped, compacted, or packed vp close together; also, crusted, or hard baked.

Empacter. To heape, compact, or pack vp close together; also, to crust, or bake hard.

Empaillé: m. ée: f. Bestrawed; filled, made, furnished, with straw.

Empaindre. Violently to assaile, or set vpon; to strike, or hit with violence.

Empaint: m. te: f. Violently assailed, shocked, set on; hard pressed; furiously hit, or strucken.

Empaint en mer. Entred farre into the sea; a great way in the sea.

Empainte: f. A violent shocke, impression, assailing, or setting on.

Empalé: m. ée: f. Impaled, or spitted on a stake.

Empaler. To impale; to spit on a stake; to thrust a stake in at the fundament, and out at the mouth; (a manner of death inflicted on offendors by the Turks.)

Empaletoqué: m. ée: f. Muffled, or lapt vp about the chinne, as with a Cassocke, or Gaberdine.

Empalin: m. as Empan; Or, a little spanne.

Empalmé: m. ée: f. Strucken with the paulme of the hand; hit full, or taken right (as a Ball) with an open hand.

Empalmer. To strike (or box) with the paulme of the hand; to hit full, or take right, a Ball, &c, with an open hand; to giue a sound whirret, or full blow therewith.

Empampré: m. ée: f. Decked with Vine braunches.

Empan: m. A spanne.

Empanaché. Beplumed, feathered; decked, adorned, stucke, or set out with feathers, or plumes of feathers; wearing, or hauing, a plume; and hence;

Armet bien empanaché. Whose creſt is beautified with a goodlie plume.

Empanage. as Appennage.

Empaneré. Put into panniers, or wicker baskets.

Empanarer. To put into panniers, or wicker baskets.

Empanné. as Empenné. Feathered.

Empantouflé: m. ée: f. Impantosled, or wearing pantosles.

Livre empantoflé. A Booke with a thicke couer.

Empaqueté: m. ée: f. Made vp in, or into, a packet, bundle, or fardle.

Empaqueter. To packe vp, to make vp in, or into, a packet, bundle, or fardle.

Empaqueteur : m. A packer vp of.
Emparagé. That hath his due part, or portion.
Fille emparagée ſuffiſamment, ou deuëment. Fitly matched, equally maried; no way diſparaged by her match.
Emparché : m. ée : f. Impounded; put into a pound.
Emparé : m. ée : f. Seiſed, caught hold of, laid hands on; got into his poſſeſſion, or got poſſeſſion of.
Emparement. A ſeiſing, or laying hands on; a catching hold, or taking poſſeſſion of.
Emparence : f. Defence.
Emparenter. To ioyne in kindred, to make one of kinne to another.
Emparer. To ſeiſe, or lay hands on; to catch hold, or take poſſeſſion of; alſo, to aſſemble, or gather forces together for the performance of one puſh, or brunt.
Emparfumé : m. ée : f. Perfumed, ſweetned with odors.
Emparfumer. To perfume, or ſweeten with odors.
Emparlé. homme bien emparlé. An eloquent, or well-ſpoken man.
Emparle-ſilence. A dumbe ſhew, or ſpeaking by ſignes.
Emparlier. A Counſellor, Barreſter, Pledder, imparler. (vieil mot.)
Empas : m. Shackles, fetters, or paſternes for vnrulie, or vnbroken horſes.
Empaſté : m. ée : f. Cruſted, or baked hard; kneaded, put, or made into paſt; impaſted.
Empaſtelé : m. ée : f. Crammed (as pullein) with rolls of paſt.
Empaſteler. To cramme pullein with rolls of paſt.
Empaſtement : m. Paſt; or, a paſting, or bedawbing with dough; or, a making of dough into paſt.
Empaſter. To knead, or make into dough, or paſt; to paſt; to bedawbe with dough, or paſt.
Empatement. as Empiettement.
Empatenoſtré : m. ée : f. Full of, loaden with (Paternoſters, or) Beads; hypocriticall, ſuperſtitious; that hath a paire of Beads, or is neuer without a paire of Beads, hanging at his girdle.
Empatronné. Seiſed on; made Lord, or Maiſter of.
s'Empatronner de. To ſeiſe on, to make himſelfe the Lord, and Maiſter, to take on himſelfe the Seigniorie, and commaund of.
Empatté. as Eſpaté.
Empattement. as Eſparement.
Empaulmé : m. ée : f. Impaulmed; fully griped, ſeiſed, or taken into the hands.
Empaulmer. To impaulme; to gripe, ſeiſe, lay full hand on; to take into his hand; alſo, as Empalmer.
Empavoiſé : m. ée : f. Defended, ſhielded, couered, or ſhrowded vnder a Targuet, or Targuet-fence.
s'Empavoiſer. To defend, ſhield, or couer themſelues, as with Targuets.
Empayſer. To grow natural to, or inward with; to thriue, or proſper, in, as one of, a countrey.
Empeau : m. An Impe to graffe.
Empeigne : f. The barre-pinnes of a peece of caske.
Empeigné : m. ée : f. Faſtened within the teeth of a combe; alſo, ſcratched with a combe; (¶ Rab. as Empiegé; inſnared;) alſo, pinned, as the barre of a peece of caske.
Empeigner. To combe; to pricke, rub, ſcratch, dreſſe, currie, as with a combe.
Empeigner le bout d' vne douve. To pinne the bar of a peece of caske.
Empeinte. de cett' empeinte. At this puſh, at this ſhocke; at this verie inſtant; Seeke Empainte.

Empennaché. as Empanaché.
Empenné : m. ée : f. Feathered, as an arrow.
Empenner. To feather, as an arrow.
Empennon : m. The feather of an arrow.
Empereur : m. An Emperour; alſo, the Sword-fiſh.
Emperier : m. ere : f. Imperiall; belonging, or like, vnto an Emperour.
Grandeur emperiere. The higheſt greatnes, or greateſt dignitie, a moſt ſupreame authoritie.
Emperiere : f. An Empreſſe.
Emperlé : m. ée : f. Impearled, bepearled; inriched, adorned, or ſet thicke with pearle.
Emperler. To impearle, or bepearle; to inrich, decke, or ſet thicke, with pearle.
Emperruqué : m. ée : f. Imperiwigged, that weares a Periwig, or Gregorian.
Empeſché : m. ée : f. Impeached; let, hindered; peſtered, incombered; alſo, buſie, buſied, occupied, imployed; alſo, ſeiſed, entred vpon, or taken into his owne hands; alſo, withſtood, or kept backe; alſo, ſhut, or dammed vp.
Empeſché de ſa perſonne. Vnweldie, beauie-bodied, purſie, groſſe.
Poictrine empeſchée. Stopped; obſtructed, or troubled with obſtructions; and (more particularly) as in Poictrine.
Faire l' empeſché. To be (or ſeeme) verie buſie, to beſtirre himſelfe hard, in a matter; alſo, as in;
Vous faictes bien de l' empeſché. You make as though.
Empeſche-maiſon : m. A trouble-houſe; a lazie, vnprofitable, or comberſome gueſt; one thats good for nothing, or fit for no imployment, in a houſe.
Empeſchement : m. An impeachment; a let, ſtop, hinderance, impediment, obſtacle; diſturbance, comber, trouble; difficultie; buſineſſe; alſo, withſtanding; alſo, a ſhutting, or damming vp.
Empeſchement de fief. A ſeiſing, or ſeiſure of, an entrie made vpon, a fief.
Empeſchement de perſonne. Vnweldineſſe of bodie.
Empeſcher. To hinder, let, barre, ſtop; impeach; peſter, trouble, diſturbe, incomber; buſie, toyle, hold occupied, keepe imployed; alſo, to withſtand, or keepe backe; alſo, to ſhut, or damme vp.
Il ne peut empescher le fief mouvant de luy. Hee cannot ſeiſe on, or take into his poſſeſſion, the &c.
Qui peut, & n' empeſche, peche : Prov. He ſinnes, that may, and will not, hinder euill.
Empeſé : m. ée : f. Starched; alſo, hauing a wherle, or ioyned to a wherle (as a ſpindle hath, or is.)
Empeſer. To ſtarch.
Empeſté : m. ée : f. Infected, or viſited with the plague; alſo, plaguie, peſtilent, peſtiferous.
Empeſter. To infect, or viſit with the plague; to ſet the plague on, giue the plague vnto.
Empeſture. f. A peſterment, incombrance, intricacie, trouble, intanglement.
Empeſtré : m. ée : f. Impeſtered, intricated, intangled, incombred.
Empeſtrement : m. A peſtering, intricating, intangling, troubling, incombring.
Empeſtrer. To peſter, intricate, intangle, trouble, incomber.
Empetuoſité : f. Looke Impetuoſité.
Emphaſe : f. An Emphaſis; a ſtrong or vigorous pronunciation of a word; an expreſſe or earneſt ſignification fication of an act; a significant force in either.

Emphastique: com. Emphastically, spoken, or done with an Emphasis; (hence) also, vigorous, forcible, earnest, expresse.

Emphatiquement. Emphatically, effectually.

Emphyteose: f. The making of a thing better then it was when it was receiued; land improued in goodnes, or, an estate vpon condition to improue it; an improuement.

Emphyteosien. A Farmer, or one that taketh land, or other commodities, on condition, to better, and improue them.

Emphyteote. as Emphyteosien.

Emphyteuse. as Emphyteose.

Emphyteutique. Whence;

Seigneur emphyteutique. That raises, or improues, his rents.

Empiece. Not of a great while.

Empiegé: m. ée: f. Ensnared; taken, or intangled in a snare.

Empieme. as Empyeme.

Empienne de soulier. Th'vpper leather of a shooe.

Empierré: m. ée: f. Turned into stone.

Coeur empierré. An obdurate, hard, stonie, or flintie heart.

Empierrement: m. A turning into stone.

Empierrer. To turne, or transforme, into stone.

Empieté. Pawed, pounced, clawed, talented; that hath pounces, &c; also, seised, held, griped in clawes, or clouches; also, vsurped; also, intangled, or fettered by the feet.

Empietement. A seising, griping, holding, as in clawes, clouches; &c; an vsurpation of another mans right; Looke Empiettement.

Empietement d' vne montaigne. The foot, or bottome of a hill.

Empieter. To seise, gripe, hold within the pawes, clawes, pounces, talents, clouches; to set forward the foot therby to catch at a thing; also, to vsurpe another mans right.

s'Empieter. To fetter, ensnare, intangle himselfe by the feet.

Empietté. as Empieté.

Empiettement. as Empietement; Also, the foot, or bottome of; and hence;

Empiettement de colomne. The Basis, or foot of a pillar.

Empieture: f. The footing, or bottome of a thing; the part whereby it stands on, or is setled into, another thing.

Empillé: m. ée: f. Piled, heaped on.

Empillier: m. ere: f. Bepillered; set on pillers; made with pillers.

Empiné: m. ée: f. Turned into a Pine tree.

Empirance: f. An impairing, or impairement; the wast, losse, or decay of a thing by vse, or wearing; also, the proportion of allay, or imbusement, in coines of gold, or siluer; which is, in peeces of gold of 23 Carats fineneśse, a foure and twentieth part of siluer, & copper, or of either; and in peeces of siluer of 11. d. fineneśse, a twelft part of copper.

Empire: m. An Empire, or Emperie; also, empire; Imperiall dominion, Seignorie, Souueraigntie; preheminence; iurisdiction, rule, gouernment; the higheśt dignitie, the greateśt sway, the mośt supreame power, mośt absolute authoritie.

Empire. à l' empire. Impairing, decaying, waxing worse and worse, mending as sowre Ale in the Summer; Look Monde.

Empiré: m. ée: f. Impaired, wasted, decayed, growne worse for the wearing; imbased.

Empirement: m. as Empirance; Or, a growing worse and worse.

Empirer. To impaire, imbase, or make worse; also, to wast, weare, decay in goodneśse, grow worse and worse, or worse for the wearing.

Il ne l' empire en rien. He is euen as good as he.

Femme mauvaise qui n' empire, encore n'est elle pas la pire: Prov. A bad woman that paires not is not the worst of women.

Empireume: m. A marke of fire, scorching, or burning; a remainder of warmth, or heat; a sparkle, or small fire.

Empirique: com. An Empiricke; a Physition which without regard either of the cause of a disease, or of the constitution of the patient, applies those medicines whereof he hath had experience in others, worke they how they will.

Empistolé. Armed with a Pistoll.

Empistoler. To arme, or furnish, with Pistolls.

Emplacé: m. ée: f. Placed, planted, seated, setled.

Emplacement d' vne ville. The seat of a towne.

Emplacer. To settle, seat, place, plant.

Emplage: m. A filling.

Au feur l' emplage. Looke Furemplage.

Emplaidé: m. ée: f. Impleaded, sued.

Emplaider. To sue, to implead, to bring an action against.

Emplastration: f. A plaistering, or dawbing; a laying of plaister; also, an emplastration; a grafting by inoculation without a Scutcheon; and, in Physicke, th'applying of a salue, or plaister.

Emplastre: m. A plaister.

Emplastré: m. ée: f. Plaistered, beplaistered; couered with a plaister.

Emplastrer. To plaister, or beplaister; to couer with a plaister.

Emplastreure: f. A plaistering, or beplaistering; also, a plaister.

Emplastreux: m. euse: f. Full of plaisters; also, belonging to, or seruing for, a plaister.

Emplatement: m. A flatting; a laying flat vnto; a making broad, or flat; also, a flat, or broad, part of.

Emplette. as Emploicte.

Empli: m. ie: f. Filled, replenished; complete; top-full, vp to the necke, mouth, or brinke.

Emplier. as Employer.

Emplir. To fill, replenish; gorge; make, or stuffe vp to the top.

Emplir vne femelle. To serue, bag, make her great, fill her panniers, giue her her paiment, get her with yong.

Achever d' emplir. To performe, finish, fulfill, accomplish, make complete.

Emploi: m. Vse, or imployment of a thing; as Employ.

Emploicte: f. as Employ; Also, busineśse, occupying, trafficke; trade, commerse; also, a bargaine made, purchase bought; or, a thing whereon money hath beene, or may be, well imployed; also, vtterance of commodities.

Femme qui est encores de bonne emploicte. That is yet of a tollerable age; that hath yet some good stuffe in her; with whom, as yet, prettie sport might bee made.

Marchandise d' emploicte. Ware that sells well, that vtters quickly, that goes away apace; marchandable ware.

Emploicter. To traffique, trade; bargaine, chaffer for; beſtow, or imploy money in.
Emploite. as Emploicte.
Emplomber. To lead; couer with lead; ſet in lead.
Emplotonné: m. ée: f. Wound vpon a clue, made into a bottome, conglomerated.
Emplotonner. To wind vpon clues, to make into bottomes, or, to make bottomes of; to conglomerate.
Employ: m. Imployment, vſe, dailie occupation of, neceſſarie buſineſſe for, a thing.
Employé: m. ée: f. Imployed, applied, vſed, buſied, occupied; beſtowed, conferred, diſpended, layed out.
Employement: m. An imploying, applying, vſing, occupying; a beſtowing, diſpending, diſtribution, laying out.
Employer. To imploy, applie; vſe, occupie, buſie; confer, beſtow, diſpend, diſtribute, lay out.
s'Employer. To indeuor, labour, be earneſt vpon, to ſet himſelfe about; to giue, applie, or addict himſelfe vnto.
Emplumaſſé: m. ée: f. Beplumed; decked, adorned, garniſhed, ſet out with, ſtucke full of, plumes, or plums of feathers.
Empluмé: m. ée: f. Feathered, befeathered; ſet, ſtuck, adorned, garniſhed with feathers.
Regnard qui dort la Matinée n'a pas la langue emplumée: Prov. The ſleepie Fox hath ſeldome feathered breakefaſts.
Emplumer. To feather, befeather; ſticke, ſet, garniſh, or dreſſe with feathers.
Emply. as Employ.
Empoché: m. ée: f. Impoaked, impouched.
Empocher. To impouch, to put into a pouch, or budget; to bag, poake, or pocket vp.
Empoigné: m. ée: f. Seiſed, griped, caught, got into the fiſt, layed hold of.
Empoigner. To ſeiſe, gripe, catch, lay hands on, attach, take, lay hold of.
Empoignure: f. A handle; or the part whereof hold is taken.
Empoinctant. Pointing on; making a point for, giuing a point vnto.
Empoincter. as Empointer.
Empoint. bien empoint de faire &c. About, readie, or likelie, to doe &c.
Mal-empoint. Vnhandſome, vntrimmed, foule, ſluttiſh, in ill plight, out of array.
Empointer. To point on; make a point for, giue or ſet, a point vnto.
Empointer les doigts ſur le luth. To finger a Lute; alſo, handſomely to ſet, couch, or place, the fingers ends thereon.
Empois: m. Starch.
Empoiſonné: m. ée: f. Poiſoned, impoiſoned; venomed.
Empoiſonnement: m. A poiſoning, impoiſoning; venoming.
Empoiſonner. To poiſon, impoiſon; venome.
Empoiſonneреſſe: f. A poiſonnereſſe, a woman that impoiſons.
Empoiſonneur: m. A poiſoner, impoiſoner.
Empoiſonneuſe: f. as Empoiſonnereſſe.
Empoiſſé: m. ée: f. Pitched, bepitched; couered, or dreßed with pitch; alſo, ſtarched.
Empoiſſer. To bepitch; to dreſſe, or couer with pitch; alſo, to ſtarch.
Empoiſſonné: m. ée: f. Filled, ſerued, furniſhed, with fiſh.

Empoiſſonnement. A ſtoring of a pond, &c, with fiſh.
Empoiſſonner. To furniſh or fill, to ſerue or ſtore, with fiſh.
Empor: m. A Mart towne; a place wherein an vniuerſall Faire is kept.
Emporté: m. ée: f. Carried, borne, taken, conueyed away; alſo, woon, gained, gone away with.
Il a emporté à la chandelle. He hath (out-ſit all commers) out-bid all cuſtomers; he hath gotten it, by bidding the moſt for it.
Emportement: m. A carrying, bearing, taking, or conueying away.
Emporte-piece. See Cautere.
Emporter. To carrie, beare, conuey, or take away; to win, gaine, get, or goe away with; alſo, as Importer; alſo, to bring, or beare vnto.
Emporter la balance, ou le poids. To beare downe the ballance; to ouerweigh, or weigh more then.
Autant en emporte le vent. So much breath is loſt; (vſed, when one, hauing ſpoken to ſuch as heare, or heed, him not, will ſignifie, that he hath loſt his labour.)
Il ſe laiſſe emporter du vent. Hee runnes on freely without ſtopping; alſo, he is inconſtant, flitting, variable, vnſteadie, light; or ſuffers himſelfe to be ſwayed altogether by his owne giddie humors.
Le ventre emporte la teſte: Prov. Said of Apoſtataes, who in hope of eaſe and preferment abandon a knowne truth; ſaid alſo of thoſe, who aboue all things reſpect their bellies; or by an exceſſiue diet ruine, or dull, their vnderſtandings.
Empoudré: m. ée: f. Beduſted, or powdered; filled, or defiled, with duſt.
Empoulдrer. To beduſt; to fill, or defile, with duſt.
Empoule: f. A little wheale, bliſter, puſh, water-fowle; a riſing of the skin, ſuch as comes after netling, &c; alſo, a ſmall bubble on the water.
Empoulé: m. ée: f. Bliſtered, pimpled, or vneuenly puſt vp in many places, as the skin after netling; bubblie; or raiſed, or riſing, in bubbles, as water in a great ſhowre of raine.
Empoulément. Swellingly, bubblingly, puffe-like, or puſh-like.
Empoulure: f. A bliſtered part of the bodie; a place full of wheales, powkes, puſhes.
Empouppant. Being, or blowing, as wind in the poope of a ſhip.
Empouppé. Hit in the poope; driuen, or blown forward by a wind in the poope.
Empoupper. To hit the poope; to be, or blow, as wind in the poope of a ſhip; to driue, ſet, or beare forward, as a full wind doth a ſhip.
Vn vent empouppe mon navire. My ſhip goes with a full, or fore, wind.
Empourpré. Impurpled; clothed, or decked with purple.
Vn traict empourpré de ſang. Died, diſtained, imbrued with bloud.
Empourprer. To cloth, adorne, or enrich with purple.
Empraignant. Printing, imprinting, preſſing in.
Emprainte: f. as Empreinte.
Empré. Medowie, turned into a medow, growne a medow, and fit to beare hay.
Empréer. To make a medow of; to turne paſture, or corne-grounds, into medowes; to turne medow.
Empreignée. With child, conceiued; bagd.
Empreinct. The Palſie, wherein anyone of the ſides loſeth both ſence, and motion.
Empreinct. as Empreint.
Empreincte: f. A ſtampe, a print; as Empreinte.

Empreincte. Bagd, full, with yong, that hath taken.
Empreindre. To print, ſtampe, ſet, preſſe, or thruſt hard in; alſo, to aſſaile, or ſet on with violence.
Empreint: m. te: f. Printed, ſtamped, preſſed, thruſt hard in; alſo, violently aſſailed, furiouſly ſet on.
Empreinte: f. A ſtampe, a print, impreſſion, hard ſetting in; a violent aſſault, a furious and forcible onſet.
Emprendre. as Entreprendre; To vndertake.
Empres. Hard-by, neere-hand, cloſe adioyning. (v.m.)
Empreſſé: m. ée: f. Preſſed, ſqueezed, thruſt, crowded, or ſtrained together.
Fort empreſſé. Verie buſie, forward, ſawcily intruding into matters; hard layed to, or put extreamely to his ſhifts, to his plunges.
Empreſſer. To preſſe, ſqueeze, thruſt, crowd, or ſtraine together.
Empreut. One; the firſt word of reckoning, or numbring; or, as we ſay, Imprimis.
Empris. as Entrepris; Vndertaken.
Empriſe. as Entrepriſe.
Empriſonné: m. ée: f. Impriſoned, layed by the heeles.
Empriſonnement: m. An impriſonment, a ſhutting vp, a full reſtraint of libertie.
Empriſonner. To impriſon, to caſt in priſon, to lay by the heeles, to ſhut vp.
Emprunelé: m. ée: f. Belonging to the apple of the eye.
Emprunt: m. A borrowing.
Mis à l' emprunt. Charged with a priuie Seale.
Emprunté: m. ée: f. Borrowed.
Il n' eſt pas emprunté en ſon diſcours. His ſpeech is naturall, or his owne; hee is beholden to no bodie for it.
Emprunter. To borrow.
Emprunter le nom d' autruy. To vſe, or abuſe another mans name in a matter.
Il ne choiſit pas qui emprunte: Prov. Borrowers (we ſay beggers) are no chuſers.
Emption: f. A purchaſing, a buying.
Empuanti: m. ie: f. Beſtunke, filled or defiled with ſtench, perfumed or annoyed with ill ſauors.
Empuantir. To beſtinke; to fill with ſtinke, annoy with loathſome ſmells, perfume with filthie odors.
s'Empuantir. To wax vnſauorie, to beginne to ſmell.
Empunaiſi: m. ie: f. as Empuanti.
Empunaiſir. as Empuantir.
Emputé: m. ée: f. Appeached, accuſed, complayned of.
Emputement: m. An imputation, aſperſion; accuſation, or bill of complaint.
Emputer. To appeach, accuſe, complaine of; to lay an imputation, caſt an aſperſion, on.
Emputeur: m. A ſecret accuſer; a pickthanke, tell-tale, complainer, apeacher, informer.
Empyeme: m. An inward collection of corrupt matter in any part of the bodie, but eſpecially betweene the breaſt, and lungs.
Empyré. ciel empyré. Th' Imperiall, or higheſt heauen; the manſion, and dwelling place of God, and his elect.
Empyreume: m. A drie, and accidentall heat, or fierie qualitie; or, as Empireume.
Emuctoire. Looke Emonctoire: ¶Rab.
Emulateur: m. An emulater, imitator, or enuier of another; a competitor, concurrent, or corriuall.
Emulation. Emulation, counterfeiting, imitation with deſire to excell; alſo, enuie.
Emulgeant. Milking; Looke Emulgent.
Emulgence: f. A milking, or ſtroaking.
Emulgent. veine emulgente. One of the two maine branches of the hollow veine; which goe to the reines, and there is diuided into diuers others; ſome call it the pumping veine.
Emulſion: f. An emulſion; any kind of ſeed &c, brayed in water, and then ſtrained to the conſiſtence of an Almond milke; alſo, any kind of creame, or milkie humor.
Emut. as Eſmeut.
Emutiſſement: m. The muting, or droppings of birds.
Emyne. A kind of meaſure; as Emine.
En. (Relating to a thing meant, or mentioned before, ſignifies) thereof; as, Il m' a faict tort, il s'en repentira; alſo, any, or none, thereof; whence; vous parlez d' argent, en avez vous? ie n'en ay point.
En avoir; whence; En as tu? Haſt thou that I asked for? haſt thou the thing I inquired after? alſo, as in; I' en aura. (blowes being vnderſtood) I ſhall be well beaten; my skin-coat will be ſoundly curried.
I' en ay bien avallé: &; Ie m' en ſuis bien donné. I haue taken in my liquor freely.
I' en ay trop. (at Bowles, &c;) I am too hard thrown.
Il y en a en ce monde à qui ne chault. There be ſome in this world that care not.
En eſtre; whence; En voulez vous eſtre? Will you make one?
C'en eſt faict. (The buſineſſe is) alreadie diſpatched, or finiſhed; (the man is) vtterly vndone, or but a dead man.
Cela n'en eſt pas. (at game) That is no play.
I' en ſuis ainſi. I am in this taking; ſuch is my caſe, it is euen ſo with me.
Qu'en eſt il? What of that?
Que vous en eſt il? What is that vnto you?
Nous en venons tout maintenant. We come from it, or from doing it, but euen now.
En. (Relating to a place before mentioned, ſignifies) thither; as; Il va en France; vous en allez vous? alſo, thence, or from thence; as, Ie viens du temple, en venez vous auſsi?
En. Set before Verbes of motion (as in the laſt example) without reference vnto a place certaine, or ſpecified before, hath little, or no ſignification; as in, Ie m' en vay; en quel lieu m' en fuiray-ie?
En. A Prepoſition; hath diuers ſignifications; as in, into; at, on, or vpon.
En amont. Vpward; en bas; Beneath, below, downward.
En apres. Afterward.
En ce diſant. The while, or whileſt he ſaid this.
En outre. Moreouer, furthermore.
En pour. (Vulgarly) in lieu, in ſtead.
En tout advenement. Whatſoeuer happen; howſoeuer it be.
En viſion d' eſprit. By a viſion.
Adopter en filz. To adopt, or chuſe one for his ſonne.
C'eſt fait en homme, en beſte. This is done like a man, like a beaſt.
Enaigri: m. ie: f. Sharpened; exaſperated; angered; made, or growne worſe and worſe.
Enaigrir. To make, or grow ſharpe; to anger, exaſperate, make a matter the worſe.
s'Enaigrir. To grow worſe and worſe.
Enameré: m. ée: f. Made bitter.
Enamerer. To make bitter.
Enamouré de. Enamoured of, in loue with.

s'Enamourer de. To grow enamoured of, to fall in loue with.
s'Enarbrer. A horse to rise so high that he is like to fall backward.
Enarché: m. ée: f. Arched; couered with an arch.
Enarcher. To arch, or couer with an arch.
Enarmes: f. The handles of a shield, or targuet.
Enarthrose: f. A full, and perfect vnion, or uniting of bones, the head of the one being wholly receiued, and shrowded, within the hollow end of the other.
Enasé. Noseless; Looke Esnasé.
Enaser. To cut off the nose; to deprive of a nose.
Enaspri: m. ie: f. Sharpened, made eager, exasperated.
Enasprir. To sharpen, make eager, exasperate, hurt with sharpenesse.
Encacqué: m. ée: f. Incagged; put into a cag.
Encacquer. To put into a little barrell, or cag.
Encadené: m. ée: f. Chained, tied in, or with, a chaine.
Encadener. To chaine, or tie in a chaine.
Encagé: m. ée: f. Incaged, imprisoned.
Encager. To incage; to shut within a cage; to imprison.
s'Encaillouïr. To become hard, or flintie, or, as hard as flint.
Encaissé: m. ée: f. Put into a case, or chest.
Encaisser. To put into a case, or chest.
Encaloché: m. ée: f. That wears high wooden shooes.
Encaly: m. ie: f. Hardened, or kernelled, as the skinne of a mechanicall, and toyling hand.
Encant: m. vendre à l'enc. To sell by Portsale, or Outrope; Seeke Incant.
En vn encant tiens la bouche coye: (Prov.) vid. Be not hastie to ouerbid another.
Encapé: m. ée: f. Cloked, hooded; couered with a hood, or cloke.
Encapeliné. Wearing a little, flat, narrow-brimd hat; or, armed with a scull of yron.
Encapeluchonné: m. ée: f. Wearing a Cowle, as a Monke; incapuched, wearing a Capuche.
Encaper. To hood, or cloke; to furnish, or couer with a hood, or cloke.
Encapitonner. To hood, or couer the head.
Encapuchonné. as Encapeluchonné; Or, hooded.
Encapuchonner. To incapuche; to hood with a Capuche, &c.
Encarené: m. ée: f. Carried-in; or layed on the side, (as a ship.)
Encarener vne nef. To carrie-in a ship, to lay her on her side.
Encarné: m. ée: f. Incarnated; made fleshie, or fat.
Encarner. To incarnate, fatten, or make fleshie.
Encarré. nef encarrée. Gravelled; or, as Encarené.
Encarrer. To levell at; or, as Acarer.
Encassé: m. ée: f. Cased, incheste; made vp in, put vp into, a case, or chest.
Encasser. To case, or incheste; to make vp in, or put vp into, a case, or chest.
Encastellé: m. ée: f. Incastellated, or narrow-heeled, (as a horse.)
s'Encastteller. To grow incastellated, or narrow-heeled.
Encastelure: f. A being incastellated, or growing narrow heeled; a vicious, or painfull narrownesse in a horses heele.
Encastillement: m. as Enchastlement; An incheasement.

Encavé: m. ée: f. Hollowed, or made hollow; also, lodged in, let downe, or laied into, a Sellar; also, frequenting, or dwelling in, Sellars, &c.
Encaver. To hollow, to make hollow.
Encaver les nids des poules. To make places in walls for hennes to lay, or sit, in.
Encaver les vins. To lay, or let downe, wines into a Sellar.
Encaveur: m. A hollower, or maker of things hollow.
Encaveure: f. An hollowing, or making hollow; also, a concauitie, or hollownesse.
Encaunché: m. ée: f. Pestered, intangled (and thereby) stucke fast, or hindered from going on: ¶ Orleannois.
Encauste: m. Enamell, or varnish; any such flourishing, wrought with fire.
Encaustique. Enamelled, varnished; wrought with fire.
Enceinct: m. cte: f. Girded, enuironned, compassed.
Vne femme enceincte. A woman great with child.
Enceincte: f. les enceinctes d'vne esglise. A close; or, the wall or circuit of, or the pillers set round about, the close of a Cathedrall, or great Church; also, as Enceinte.
Enceindre. To gird, compasse, enuiron, inclose, hemme in, set about with.
Enceint. as Enceinct.
Enceinte: f. as Enceincte; Also, the walke of a Deere, the place of his ordinarie haunt, or passage.
Encellé. as Ensellé.
Encens: m. Incense; Frankincense.
Encens Amomite. A kind of whitish Incense, which in handling becommeth soft like Masticke.
Encens d'Arabie. Arabian Incense; the second, or next in goodnesse, vnto the male.
Encens blanc. White Frankincense.
Encens d'Inde. Indian Incense; of a faint, and withered red colour, is made round by art; (And this is held to be, our ordinarie Frankincense.)
Encens masle. Male Incense; the whitest, and best kind of all others; of a selfe round; and, broken, fattie within.
Herbe d'Encens. Wormewood.
Manne d'Encens. Looke Manne.
Encensé: m. ée: f. Censed; perfumed with Incense.
Encensement: m. A censing; a perfuming with Incense.
Encenser. To cense, or perfume with Frankincense.
Encensier: m. A starre in heauen; called the Altar, or Censer; placed vnder the sting of the Scorpion.
Encensier: m. ere: f. Censing, perfuming.
Herbe encensiere. Fleabane, Conyza, Fleabane Mullet.
Encensoir: m. A Censer; a censing, or perfuming pan.
Souffler à l'encensoir. To drinke hard; to plie the pot; (for they that vse to blow the Censer, becomming drie, steale often to the wine-pot prouided for the Communion; and there sucke vp as much wine, as before they let out wind.)
Encentrer. (Sometimes vsed for Entrer) to grosse.
Encepé: m. ée: f. Set in the stockes; also, loaden with graine.
Enceper. To set in the stockes; also, to clap irons on the legs of.
Encercelé: m. ée: f. Incircled, encompassed; bound about with hoopes, as a wine vessell, &c.
Encerclé: m. ée: f. Incircled, encompassed; hooped, bound about.

En-

Encercler. To incirc… bind about.
Encernant. Enuironi… in, or about.
Encerné: m. ée: f. … hooped in, or about.
Enchafouiné: m. é… scruuie, as one that, … know not how.
Enchagriné: m. ée: … melancholie; grieue…
Enchagriner. To ve… with carefulnesse.
Enchainé: m. ée: f… tyed in, decked or in…
Enchainement: m. … decking with, chayn…
Enchainer. To ench… chaines; to decke, o…
Enchainure: f. A ch… as Enchesneure.
Enchalassé: m. ée: … vine, by poles, &c.
Enchalasser vne vig…
Enchambré: m. ée … chamber; also, mort…
Enchampre: f. A … using toole.
Enchancré: m. ée: … canker.
Enchancrer. To can…
Enchanté: m. ée: … ched.
Enchante-coeur. … ting.
Enchantelé: m. ée: … propped vp by stakes
Enchanteler. To sup… stakes, as vines.
Enchanteler du b…
Enchantement: m…
Enchanter. To cha… eyes, deceiue the vn…
Enchanteries. Cha… lusions, iugling tric… legerdemain.
Enchanteusement.
Enchapelé: m. ée … lands; also, hatted,
Enchapeler. To dec… lands; also, to hat, …
Ench…ement d'u… tes, of a chimney.
Enchaperonné: m… French-hood.
Enchaperonneme… iutting, or ouer-ha… Roofe.
Enchaperonner. … (French) hood.
Enchappé. wearin…
Enchappeler. as E…
Encharacteré: m. … printed in characte…
Encharacterer. To … racters.
Encharboutté: m. … en knots, as haire …

Encercler. To incircle, or incompaſſe; alſo, to boope, or bind about.

Encernant. Enuironing, incompaſſing, incircling, booping in, or about.

Encerné: m. ée: f. Enuironed, incompaſſed; incircled, booped in, or about.

Enchafouiné: m. ée: f. Out of tune, out of temper, ſcurule, as one that, through cold, hurkles like a cat, or is know not how.

Enchagriné: m. ée: f. Made melancholike, filled with melancholie; grieued, vexed, afflicted.

Enchagriner. To vex, afflict, make melancholicke, fill with carefulneſſe.

Enchainé: m. ée: f. Enchayned, chayned; bound or tyed in, decked or inriched with, chaynes.

Enchainement: m. A chayning; a binding in, or bedecking with, chaynes.

Enchainer. To enchayne, to chayne; to bind, or ty in chaines; to decke, or inrich with chaynes.

Enchainure: f. A chayning; a chayne; chaynage; alſo, as Encheſneure.

Enchalaſſé: m. ée: f. Propped, underſet, beld vp, as a vine, by poles, &c.

Enchalaſſer vne vigne. To prop, or underſet a vine.

Enchambré: m. ée: f. Inchambred; lodged as in a chamber; alſo, mortaiſed, encloſed within.

Enchampre: f. A chizell; a cutting, caruing, or grauing toole.

Enchancré: m. ée: f. Cankered, feſtered, growne to a canker.

Enchancrer. To canker, or feſter, as an old ſore.

Enchanté: m. ée: f. Charmed, inchaunted; bewitched.

Enchante-coeur. Heart-charming, heart-inchaunting.

Enchantelé: m. ée: f. Supported, underſet, borne or propped vp by ſtakes, as a vine, &c.

Enchanteler. To ſupport; beare, ſtay, or prop, vp with ſtakes, as vines.

Enchanteler du bois. To pile vp wood.

Enchantement: m. An inchaunting, or charming.

Enchanter. To charme, inchaunt, bewitch; bleare the eyes, deceiue the vnderſtanding.

Enchanteries. Charmings, inchauntments; deceits, deluſions, iugling trickes, ſubtill conueyances, ſleights of legerdemain.

Enchanteuſement. Charmingly, inchauntingly.

Enchapelé: m. ée: f. Crowned, or decked with garlands; alſo, hatted, or couered, as with a hat.

Enchapeler. To decke, or crowne with chaplets, or garlands; alſo, to hat, or ſet a hat on the head.

Enchaſſement d'une cheminée. The head, or broad ton, of a chimney.

Enchaperonné: m. ée: f. Hooded, or attired with a French-hood.

Enchaperonnement: m. A hooding; alſo, the outſtitting, or ouer-hanging of the eaues, or bottome of a Roofe.

Enchaperonner. To hood; or couer the head with a (French) hood.

Enchappé. wearing a coape; attired in a coape.

Enchappeler. as Enchapeler.

Encharacteré: m. ée: f. Incharactered, written, or printed in characters.

Encharacterer. To incharacter, to write, or print, in characters.

Encharbouté: m. ée: f. Confuſed, or crumpled; ruffled in knots, as haire that hath beene long vncombed.

Enchardonné: m. ée: f. weeded, rid, of thiſtles.

Enchardonner. To weed out thiſtles.

Enchargé: m. ée: f. Bid, commaunded, charged; inioyned; giuen in charge; alſo, cloyed, or ouer-charged.

Encharger. To bid, commaund, inioyne, charge, giue in charge to doe a thing.

Encharger l'eſtomac. To ſurfet; to cloy, or ouercharge the ſtomacke with too much meat.

Femme qui encharge. That growes big on't; who burniſhes, or whoſe bellie increaſes.

Encharné: m. ée: f. Incarnated, fleſhed; whereon fleſh is bred, or made grow.

Encharné au coeur. Rooted, or fleſhed, in the heart.

Encharnelé: m. ée: f. Propped, vnderſet, vpheld, as a vine.

Encharneler vne vigne. To prop, or vnderſet a vine.

Encharner. To incarnate, fleſh, breed fleſh on, make the fleſh grow; A tearme of Chirurgerie.

Enchaſſé: m. ée: f. Enchaced, ſet into; alſo, driuen, or hunted away.

Enchaſſement: m. An enchacing, or enchacement; alſo, a driuing, or hunting away.

Enchaſſer. as Chaſſer; to driue, or hunt away. (Pic.

Enchaſſer en or &c; to enchace, or ſet, in gold, &c.

Enchaſſeure: f. An enchacement; an enchacing, or ſetting in; and particularly, the ſtocke of a band, or cuffes.

Enchaſſillé de menuiſerie. Compaſſed, bound, held in, by a frame, or band of wainſcot; ſet in a wainſcot frame.

Preſſe enchaſſillée. A Printers Preſſe with a Tympan.

Enchaſſiller. To ſet in; to encloſe, compaſſe, bind, hold, in with a woodden frame.

Enchaſſure. Looke Enchaſſeure.

Enchatonner. as Enchaſſer; to enchace.

Enchaucié: m. ée: f. Chaced, purſued; (An old word.)

Enchaulmé: m. ée: f. Thatched, or couered with ſtraw.

Enchaulmer. To thatch, or couer with ſtraw.

Enchauſſeure: f. A ſhooing; alſo, the meaſure of a foot, taken to make a ſhooe by.

Enche. as Anche.

Encheinure. as Enchainure.

Encheminer. as Acheminer; to ſet in the way.

Enchemiſé: m. ée: f. Couered, or clothed with, put into, a ſhirt, or ſmocke.

Enchenard: m. Part of a womans, &c.

Enchepé: m. ée: f. Set in the ſtockes.

Encheper. To ſet in the ſtockes; alſo, to clap ſhackles, or boults on the legs of.

Enchere: f. A bidding, or out-bidding; the making or offering, the raiſing or enhauncing, of a price; any Portſale, Outrope, or bargaining, wherein he that bids moſt for a thing is to carrie it.

Folle enchere. is, when one hath bid too much for a thing, and then would go from his bargaine, but cannot; whence; Droict de folle enchere; See Droict.

Il en payera la folle enchere. He ſhall ſmart for it; he ſhall deerely abuy his being ſo buſie, luſtie, foole-hardie.

Mettre enchere ſur. To outbid; or, bid money for what another is about to buy.

Mettre à l'enchere. To raiſe, or enhaunce the price of; to make deere; to ſet, or hold, at a very high rate;

to

to let goe vnto him that will bid moſt.

Encheri: m. ie: f. Raiſed, or enhaunced (alſo, riſen) in price; made, held, or growne, deere; alſo, let goe, or paſſed ouer vnto ſuch as haue bid moſt; alſo, endeered, or deerely cheriſhed.

Elle ne faiſoit de l'encherie. She played not the cut-throat; ſhe ſet not the dice on her cuſtomers; ſhe held not her ware very deere.

Encherie: f. The Preparatiue vnto Melting, or Extraction; the firſt part of Alchimie.

Encherissement: m. An ouerpriſing; a raiſing, or enhauncing of a price; a riſing in price, a growing very deere; alſo, an out-bidding; alſo, an endeering, or deere cheriſhing.

Encherir. To raiſe, or enhaunce the price of; to ouerpriſe, or make too deere; alſo, to riſe in price, or grow deere; alſo, to out-bid, or bid more then another; alſo, to let a thing go vnto out-bidders; alſo, to endeere, or cheriſh deerely.

Encherisseur: m. A high-bidder, or out-bidder of others; a raiſer or enhauncer of the price of things, in an Outrope, or Portſale.

Encherner. as Encharner. To fleſh.

Encherre. as Encherir.

Enchesneure: f. A chayne, or chayning; alſo, a rew, courſe, or ſucceſſion of things linked together.

Enchet: m. A falling, or dropping; as of water, or of mettall that melteth.

Enchevallé: m. eé: f. Set, or lapped, as one foot ouer another.

Enchevaller. A horſe to ſet, or lap, one foot ouer another.

Encheveſtré: m. ée: f. Haltered; tyed, or fettered in a halter, or horſe-coller; inſnarled, intangled, as a horſe with his owne coller; alſo, inueagled; inſnared.

Encheveſtrement. A haltering, or fettering; a being intangled with his owne halter, or coller; alſo, an inueagling.

Encheveſtrer. To halter, fetter, tye in a halter, put in a coller; to inſnarle, intangle, as a horſe with his owne coller; alſo, to inueagle; or any way, to inſnare.

Encheveſtrure: f. A haltering, or tying in a horſe-coller; a fettering, inſnarling, intangling.

Encheveſtrure de cheminée. The Mantle-tree of a chimney.

Encheux. as Ançois; (vieil mot.)

Enchiffré: m. ée: f. Cypbred; expreſſed, or ſet downe, in cyphers.

Enchiffrené: m. ée: f. Whoſe noſe is ſtopt with a cold, or a rheume; that hath the murrhe, or poze.

Enchiffrer. To cypher.

Enciré: m. ée: f. Waxed, waxie; mingled, couered, or ſeared with; made, compounded, or full of, wax.

Encirer. To wax; to couer, or doe ouer with wax; to make, or compound of wax.

Encis: m. The murthering of a great-bellied woman, or of the infant within her bellie.

Enciſé: m. ée: f. Cut vp, or into.

Enciſer. To cut vp, or into; to make an inciſion.

Enclave: f. A mortaiſe, or inlocking; an entrie into, or within, another thing; a lying one within another; alſo, a march, bound, or limit of Territorie, or Iuriſdiction; a Precinct, or Libertie.

Les enclaves d'une Province. The marches, bounds, or limits thereof (eſpecially ſuch as ly intermingled with thoſe of another Prouince.)

Enclavé: m. ée: f. Inlocked, cocketed, mortaiſed, cloſed, or entered into, or within, another; layed, or lying within another; alſo, within the marches, or limits of.

Enclavement: m. An inlocking, or mortaiſing; a cloſing, or ſhutting; alſo, an entring within another; a laying, or lying, one within another.

Enclavemens. as Enclaves.

Enclaver. To cloſe, mortaiſe, locke, ſet, or ſhut one thing within another; alſo, to enter into another; to lay, or ly, as peeces of ſeuerall mens land, one within th' other.

Enclaveure: f. as Enclavement; or, a mortaiſe, or mortaiſed cloſure.

Enclin: m. An inclination, diſpoſition, addiction, naturall affection, inſtinct, or humor vnto.

Enclin: m. ine: f. Inclined, bent, prone, giuen, addicted, or diſpoſed, vnto.

Encliné: m. ée: f. Inclined, declined; bent, bowed, crouching, or ſtooping downeward; humbled, readie, or likelie, to fall.

Encliner. To incline, decline; bend, bow, looke, ſtoope downeward; to decay; to begin, or be readie, to fall; to hang to the ground-ward.

S'encliner. To crouche, ducke, lout; make low courteſies; to humble himſelfe before another.

Enclorre. To include, incloſe, compaſſe, hedge, imparke, infould; ſhut in, or vp; alſo, to comprehend, containe, or compriſe.

Enclos: m. An incloſure, or incloſing.

Enclos: m. ſe: f. Incloſed, enuironed, ſhut vp, kept in, on euerie ſide; imparked, infoulded, compaſſed, hedged in on all parts; alſo, contained, comprehended, compriſed.

Encloſtré: m. ée: f. Incloiſtered, ſhut vp within a cloiſter.

Encloſtrer. To incloiſter, to ſhut vp within a cloiſter.

Encloſture: f. An incloſure, or incloſing; a cloſe, or place hedged in.

Enclotir. To earth; to driue a Fox, or Conny into an earth, or berrie.

Encloucher. To prompt, or tell one what he ſhall ſay; (an old word.)

Encloüé: m. ée: f. Nayled; faſtened, pricked, cloyed with a nayle.

Ie m'y ſuis encloüé. I am ingaged therein to my great hurt, or diſaduantage.

Enclouër. To nayle, to driue in a nayle; to faſten with a nayle.

Enclouër artillerie. To cloy a peece of Ordnance; to driue a nayle, or yron pinne, into the touch-hole thereof.

Enclouër vn cheval. To pricke a horſes foot in the ſhooing.

Encloüeure: f. A pricke in a horſes foot.

Il y a bien de l'encloüeure. There is ſomwhat amiſſe, or ſome notable flaw in the matter.

Il ſe doubta bien de l'encloüeure. Hee miſtruſted, that all was not well, that there was ſome miſchieuous plot in working.

Encloyer. To cloy, choake, or ſtop vp.

Enclume: f. An Anuyle; alſo, a little bone ſeated within the eare, and ſeruing, together with other parts, as a principall Inſtrument to diſtinguiſh the ſounds brought vnto it.

Couché entre l'enclume, & les marteaux. Lodged betweene two extreame dangers, or difficultics; perplexed, or afflicted which way ſoeuer he turne him.

A l'enclume le marteau: Prov. A quarrelling, mutinous, or litigious fellow ſhould be matched with one

thats

thats worſe then himſelfe; or, a hard heart needs hammering.

A dure enclume marteau de plume: Pro. By gentleneſſe, and patience we ſurmount all difficulties: So doe skilfull Enginers oppoſe bags of wooll, and walls of ſoft earth, vnto the furie of the Cannon.

Enclumeau: m. A little Anuile.

Encoche: f. A nocke, or notch; as Coche.

Encoché: m. ée: f. Nocked, or notched, as an arrow; alſo, faſtened, tyed faſt, moored, as a cable, or a ſhip with cables.

Encocher vne fleiche. To nocke an arrow; to put the nocke thereof into the bow-ſtring.

Encocher les gumenes. To faſten, or ty them faſt, to moore a ſhip with them.

Encochure: f. A nocking, notching, ſnipping, nicking; alſo, a nocke, notch, or nicke; alſo, a faſtening, or mooring.

Encocur. as Encueur.

Encoffré: m. ée: f. Incoffred; layed, or put, vp in a coffer.

Encoffrer. To incloſe, lay, or put vp, in a cheſt, or coffer, &c.

Encoigné: m. ée: f. Made corner-wiſe; thruſt into a corner; alſo, wedged, or faſtened in with wedges.

Encoigneure: f. A cone, or corner; alſo, a corner-peece, or part, of.

Encoigneure de chemin. A ſhort, or narrow turning of a way; a ſtrait corner whereinto one winds before he be aware.

Encoleure: f. The neck-peece; or, a neck-like peece of any thing; alſo, the part wherein one member, or peece is ioyned vnto another; and, ſuch a ioyning; (whence) alſo, the ſetting on of the head, necke, or creſt, &c; alſo, the countenance, geſture, or behauior of a man; the reyne of a horſe, or, the poſture, or carriage of his creſt; alſo, a barre, necke, or narrow peece, of land lying betweene two ſeas.

Encoleure du bras. The wriſt, or part of the arme thats next vnto it.

Encoleure du pied d' un arbre. The bottome of the ſtocke, bodie, or trunke; the ſetting on of the foot, or of the root, thereof; the necke of the foot.

Encollé: m. ée: f. Necked; hauing a faire, ſtiffe, and big necke; alſo, put about the necke of.

Long encollé. Necked like a Crane.

Encoller. To put about the necke.

Encollure: f. as Encoleure.

Encoloré: m. ée: f. Full of colours, much coloured, coloured all ouer, all in colours.

Encombre: f. as Encombrier; alſo, the rubbiſh, or ruines of falling, or decayed buildings.

Encombré. Troubled, peſtered, incombred; diſquieted.

Mariage encombré. Looke Encombrer; or, Mariage.

Encombrement: m. An incombring, peſtering, moleſting, troubling; an annoyance; or, as Encombrier.

Encombrer. To comber, incomber, perplex, peſter; hinder, trouble, giue much buſineſſe vnto; to afflict, vex, annoy; diſquiet, moleſt; put vnto great labour, toyle, trouble.

Encombrer le mariage de ſa femme. A husband to alien his wiues land, whether it be with, or without, her conſent; See Mariage.

Encombrier: m. A comber, incombrance, peſterment; hinderance; trouble; moleſtation, affliction, vexation, annoyance, miſchiefe; misfortune.

Encomiaſtique: com. Praiſing, commending, extolling to the skies.

Encommencé: m. ée: f. Begun, commenced, vndertaken, gone about, or in hand with.

Encommencement. A beginning; an vndertaking, or taking in hand.

Encommencer. To commence, begin, goe about, fall in hand with.

Encommenceur: m. A commencer, beginner, vndertaker.

Enconché: m. ée: f. Trimmed, dreſt, arrayed; Nous voilà bien enconchez; we are fairely dreſt, we are euen well handled.

Encontenancé: m. ée: f. Bold, audacious; well behaued; of a ſetled countenauce; ſeldome, or neuer out of countenance; that hath put a good face on the matter.

Encontenancer. To geſture it; to ſet a face on; to put on a geſture, or behauior.

Encontre: f. (a Subſtantiue) An encounter, a meeting; an encountring, or ſhocke of enemies; alſo, hap, lucke, chaunce, fortune.

Encontre. (a Preposition) Towards; againſt, oppoſitely; right againſt, ouer against, iuſt on the other ſide.

Aller encontre quelqu'un, ou luy aller à l'encontre. To goe meet one.

Encontré: m. ée: f. Incountred, or met with; lighted, or happened, on.

Encontrer. To incounter, or meet with; to light, or happen on.

Enconvenancé: m. ée: f. Couenanted, conditioned; contracted, indented with.

Enconvenancer. To couenant, condition, indent, or contract with; to promiſe vnto.

Encoqueluché: m. ée: f. Sicke of the Coqueluchoe, or new diſeaſe; alſo, hooded.

Encoqueluchonné. Hooded; wearing a hood, or Spaniſh Capuche.

Encoquillé. Poiſſon en. Shell-fiſh.

Encorbellement. as Corbeau; or, a ſhouldering, or ſupporting, by Corbels, or Brackets.

Encordé: m. ée: f. Becorded, bound with cords.

Encordelé: m. ée: f. Corded, ſtrung, or ſtringed; faſtened, or made vp with cords, or ſtrings; alſo, caught, fettered, intangled, or inſnared therewith.

Encordeler. To ſtring, or becord; to bind, faſten, packe, or make vp; to catch, fetter, intangle, or inſnare, with ſtrings, or little cords.

Encorder. To cord, becord, ſtring; to bind, faſten, or make vp; to fetter, intangle, or inſnare, with cords.

Encordonné: m. ée: f. Twiſted of many ſtrings; twyned, plaited.

Encordonner. To twiſt, plait, or twyne of many ſtrings.

Encore. Yet, as yet, euen yet.

Encore lors. Euen then, euen to that time.

Encore pas. Not yet, or, not that, neither.

Encore de preſent. Euen now, as yet, vntill this very time.

Encore que. Albeit that, though that.

Mais encores. But for all that.

Encoremes. The ſignes of Vrine; eſpecially thoſe that ſwim on the top thereof.

Encornal: m. The Hounds of a Maſte.

Encorné: m. ée: f. Horned; trimmed, nocked, or tipped with horne; alſo, put into a horne, or cornet; alſo, put into the nocke of; alſo, wearing, or hauing hornes.

En-

Encorner. To haſt, nocke, tip, or trim, with hornes; alſo, as Encorneter.; alſo, to put into the horned nocke of.
Encorneté: m. ée: f. Incornetted; put into a horne; wrapped vp, as ſpice, &c, in a cornet, or coffin.
Encorneter. To put into a horne; alſo, to wrap vp in a cornet, or Grocers Coffin, ſpice, &c.
Encornure: f. A haſting, tipping, or trimming with horne; alſo, the hornes, or horned head, of a beaſt.
Encorny. Lieu encorny. A place thats hard (and ſmooth) as horne; or, as Pelouſe.
Encoronné: m. ée: f. Crowned.
Encoronner. To crowne; to decke, or adorne with a crowne.
Encotonné: m. ée: f. Bumbaſted, or ſtuffed with cotton.
Encotonner. To bumbaſt, to ſtuffe with cotton.
Encotonner de barbe le menton. To furniſh the chin with ſoft, and tender haire; to make it bud, ſhoot, or put out abundantly.
Encoüardé: m. ée: f. Made cowardlie, bereaued of courage.
Encoüarder. To make a coward, bereaue of courage.
Encoüardi: m. ie: f. Growne cowardlie, become daſtardlie, faint-hearted, white-liuered.
Encoüardir. To wax a coward, proue a daſtard, become faint-hearted, grow white-liuered.
Encoulcure. as Encoleure.
Encoulpé: m. ée: f. Accuſed, or blamed for.
Encoulper. To appeach, accuſe, blame for, lay the fault, caſt the imputation, of a matter on.
Encoulpeur: m. An accuſer, appeacher, promooter, informer.
Encoultré: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with a culter.
Encoultrer. To furniſh (a Plough) with a culter.
Encouragé: m. ée: f. Incouraged, heartened, imboldened.
Encouragement: m. A heartening, imboldening, incouraging, incouragement.
Encourager. To hearten, imbolden, incourage; to put mettall into, giue ſtomacke vnto.
Encourement. A puniſhment, or penaltie incurred.
Encourir. To incurre; to runne, or fall into; to get, or procure vnto himſelfe; to vndergoe a danger, diſgrace, penaltie, &c.
Encourrayé: m. ée: f. Bound, or furniſhed with leatherne thongs.
Encourrayer. To bind, or furniſh, with leatherne thongs.
Encourtiné: m. ée: f. Becurtained; ouer which a curtaine is drawne; couered or hanged with, ſhadowed by, hidden behind, a curtaine.
Encourtiner. To becurtaine; to draw a curtaine ouer; to couer or hang with, to ſhadow by, to hide behind, a curtaine.
Encouru: m. uë: f. Incurred, runne into.
Encoutelaſſé: m. ée: f. Armed with a ſhort ſword, or cuttleas.
Encoutelaſſer. To furniſh, or arme with a curtleax, or cuttleas.
Encraſſé: m. ée: f. Bedawbed, begrymed, begreaſed by ſlouenlyneſſe; growne thicke with filth, and ordure.
Encraſſer. To begryme, begreaſe, beray, bedawbe with ſlouenlie filth, or ordure.
Encre: m. Inke; alſo, blacking.
Encrené: m. ée: f. Nicked, notched, indented on; or, as Encroüé; whence;
Beſicles encrenées ſur le nez. Lodged, or ledged, on both ſides of the noſe.
Encreſmé. Creamie, creamed; full of creame, made of creame.
Encreſmer. To fill, or furniſh with creame.
Encreté: f. Bitterneſſe; alſo, inkineſſe, or blackneſſe.
Encreuſé: m. ée: f. Hollowed; alſo, boorded, or layed vp in holes, or hollow places.
Encreuſer. To hollow; alſo, to boord, or lay vp, in holes, or hollow places.
Encrier: m. An Inke-maker.
Encrier: m. ere: f. Inkie; of, or belonging to, Inke.
Encrou. as Eſcrou.
Encroüé: m. ée: f. Lodged, as a cudgell in a tree; hanging on, or ledged in. ¶Norm.
Encrouër. To lodge, as a cudgell in a tree; to hang on, or ledge in.
Encrouſté: m. ée: f. Pargetted, rough-caſt; becruſted, or whereon a ſcab is ſet.
Encrouſtement: m. A pargetting, rough-caſting, a ſetting of a cruſt, a bringing of a ſcab on.
Encrouſter. To parget, rough-caſt; make cruſtie, bring a ſcab on.
Encruché: m. ée: f. Put into an earthen pot; alſo, as Encroüé.
Encrucher. To put into an earthen pot.
Encrudi: m. ie: f. Made, or become, raw.
Encrudir. To make, or become, raw.
Encueur: m. The Stithie; (a diſeaſe of horſes, and cattell.)
Encuict: m. cte: f. Raw, vndigeſted, not yet concocted, not fully boyled, not throughly baked; alſo, hard through heat.
Encuiraſſé: m. ée: f. Hardened, growne hard, thicke, rough, or harſh; alſo, bound hard.
Vn linge encuiraſſé. A linnen cloth growne ſtiffe with naſtineſſe, and ordure.
Encuiraſſer. To harden, thicken, make rough, harſh, thicke, or ſtiffe (with ordure, &c.) as leather; alſo, to bind hard.
Enculé: m. ée: f. Set, or ſetled vpon the tayle; nether, or lower part; poſſed downe; alſo, planted, or ſtucke downe with the bottome turned vp, or doubled; ſet aſlope, or with an imbowed bottome.
Enculé: m. ée: f. Accuſed, appeached; detected, bewrayed.
Enculement: m. A detection, diſcloſing, bewraying, appeaching, accuſing.
Enculer. To appeach, accuſe, informe againſt; bewray, detect, diſcloſe.
Enculeur: m. A detecter, diſcloſer, appeacher, accuſer, betrayer, bewrayer.
Encuvé: m. ée: f. Put into a fatt, or tub.
Encuver. To put into a fatt, or tub.
Encyclopedie: f. The perfection of all knowledge, and liberall ſciences; an art that comprehends all others; or, learning that comprehends all Arts.
Encyliglotte. The tongue-ſtring.
Encyrer. as Inciſer.
Enda. In faith, in deed, in ſooth, in truth, truſt me, on my word.
Endaims. Looke Andaims.
Endamoiſellé. Effeminated, growne womaniſh; attired in gentlewomans apparrell.
Endare; & endare; and he went his way.
Endazé: m. ée: f. Earneſt, or haſtie in a matter.
Endebté: m. ée: f. Indebted, in debt, brought into debt.

En-

Endebtement: m. A debt; or being indebted; a bringing into debt.
Endebter. To bring into debt.
s'Endebter. To be indebted; to owe.
Endelechie: f. Assiduitie, continualnesse, perennitie, perpetualnesse, or, perpetuall motion; as, Entelechie.
Endemené: m. ée: f. Wanton, liuelie, stirring, waggish, lasciuious, that loues to be fisking, fidging, or frigging.
Endementiers. In the meane while, in the meane time, space, or season; (an old word.)
Endenté: m. ée: f. Indented, snipt on the edges, notcht in the sides.
Endenter. To indent, snip, notch, iag on the edges; also, to set, or make teeth in.
Endernier. The last, or, the later end.
Endesvé: m. ée: f. Mad, furious, raging; earnest, vehement, full of ardor.
Endesver. To rage, be mad after, or most hot vpon, a thing; to long for vehemently, lust for exceedingly, desire most feruently, affect most immoderately.
Endetter. as Endebter.
Endiablé: m. ée: f. Possessed with a diuell; full of diuellishnesse; diuellish, horrible; damned, hellish.
Endiabler. To possesse with a diuell, to fill with diuellishnesse.
Endiamenté: m. ée: f. Set with Dyamonds.
Endicté: m. ée: f. Indicted, accused, informed, complained of.
Endictement: m. An indictment, accusation, information, or bill of Complaint.
Endicter. To indict, accuse, appeach; informe against; complaine vpon, charge with an offence.
Endicteur. An indicter, accuser, informer.
Endimanché: m. ée: f. Attired for high-dayes, or, that hath his hollyday face on.
Endité: m. ée: f. as Endicté; also, demonstrated, manifested, shewed, or pointed at, with a finger.
Enditement. as Endictement.
Enditer. as Endicter; also, to demonstrate, manifest, bewray, declare, shew, or point at with a finger.
Endive: f. The hearbe Endiue.
Endive crespe. Curled Endiue.
Endive grande. Great garden Endiue.
Endive petite. The lesse Endiue, bitter garden Endiue.
Endive sauvage. Wild Endiue (whose stalke is full of a milkie iuice.)
Endizeler les gerbes. To stonke, or shocke vp sheaues of corne; to set, or make them vp in (tenne-sheaued) halfe-thraues.
Endoctrinable: com. Docible, teacheable, instructable.
Endoctriné: m. ée: f. Taught, instructed; nurtured, trayned vp, in learning, &c.
Endoctrinement: m. Instruction, teaching, nurture, a trayning vp in learning, &c.
Endoctriner. To teach, instruct; nurture; to traine, or bring, vp in the knowledge of Learning, or Arts.
Endoille. as Andouille.
Endommagé: m. ée: f. Indommaged, incommodated, hindered.
Endommagement: m. A losse, dammage, indommagement, or indommaging.
Endommager. To indommage, incommodate, hinder; bring, or breed losse vnto.
Endoré: m. ée: f. Gilt all ouer; beset, inriched, adorned with gold.
Endorer. To gild all ouer; to beset, inrich, adorne with gold.
Endormant. The Serpent Cenchris, whose stinging breeds rottennesse, and a continuall sleeping.
Endormi: m. ie: f. Sleepie, drowsie, heauie, lazie, sluggish, euer asleepe, that sleepes as he goes; also, asleepe, husht, quiet, calme, appeased, at ease, at rest.
Eau endormie. A calme, still, or standing water.
Fol est qui se fie en eau endormie: Prov. Men of a still, sad, sleepie, melancholicke disposition are not to be relyed on; for either they can doe little, or that which they doe is full of trecherie, and dissimulation.
Membres endormis. Astonied, benummed, asleepe.
Endormi comme vn Envent. Looke Envent.
Homme endormi corps enseueli: Pro. There is as much vse of a dead corse, as of a drowsie creature; or, a drowsie bodie is little better then a dead.
Endormie: f. The hearbe Henbane; or Poppie.
Endormir. To lay, or lull asleepe; to cast into a sleepe; to calme, quiet, appease, bring to rest; also, to astonish, or benumme.
Endormir sur l'une & l'autre aureille. To giue much ease vnto, bestow all wished contentments on; to bring a-bed (say we.)
Endormir vn trompe. To set a Top.
s'Endormir. To fall asleepe; to be fast, or sound asleepe; to giue himselfe to sleeping.
s'Endormir sur les iniures. To be vnsencible of wrongs; dully to foreslow, or cowardly to delay, the reuenge thereof.
s'Endormir sur le mestier. See Mestier.
s'endormir sur le rosty. To sleepe vpon the offer of a great aduantage, faire opportunitie; or lazily to neglect, or foreslow the acceptance of them.
s'endormir en sentinelle. To sleepe when he hath most cause to watch; to laze it when he hath most need to looke about him.
Endormissement: m. Sleepinesse, drowsinesse, or sluggishnesse; also, a bringing, laying, or lulling asleepe.
Endormisson de membres. Numnesse, vnsenciblenesse, benumming, astonishment, or stupiditie of the Members.
Endos. as Endossement.
Endosé. That hath his share, or portion of; whose part is limitted, or prescribed vnto him.
Endossé: m. ée: f. Indorsed; put vpon the backe; also, backed, or hauing a backe; whence;
Vn banc endossé. A Bench, a Forme, hauing a backe, or stay for the backe; also, the Bench thats next, or ioyning to, a wall.
Espée bien endossée. A sword thats well, or strongly backt.
Endossement: m. An indorsing, or indorsement; also, a putting on the back; also, a backing, or setting a backe vnto.
Endosser. To indorse; also, to backe, or put a backe vnto; also, to put on the backe; whence;
Endosser vn harnois. To arme himselfe; to put on his harnesse; to get an Armor on his backe.
Endosseure: f. The backe, or backe-part of any thing; also, an indorsement.
Endoüairé: m. ée: f. Endowed; indued with.
Endoüairer. To endow, to indue with.
Endouille: f. as Andouille. A linke; a chitterling.

En-

Endouiller: m. The Browantler, or lowest branch of a Deeres head.
Endoulouri: m. ie: f. Grieued, pained.
Endoubté: m. ée: f. Vncertaine, staggering, doubtfull, in doubt.
Endroict: m. The Superficies, face, or side of a thing; also, a Coast, Quarter, Place, or Part; and hence;
En cet endroict. Hereabouts.
Robbe à deux endroicts. A gowne thats made alike on both sides, or is as good on the one side as the other.
Chascun en son endroict. Euerie one in his qualitie, state, place, ranke; euerie one to his power; as much as lyes in euerie one.
Nager à l'endroict. To swim on the bellie.
Nul endroict sans son envers: Prov. No outside without an inside.
Endroict: m. ćte: f. Direct; and hence;
Parjure endroict. A plaine oath-breaker, or palpable faith-breaker; a most false man. (An old phrase.)
Endroict. (Prepos.) By; neere, or nigh to; about; round about; also, with, towards, in respect of.
Endroict moy. For my part, as for me.
Endroit. as Endroict.
Endue. vne femme bien endüe en la saincte Escriture; a woman thats skilfull, or well seene, in the Scripture.
Enduict: m. Looke Enduit.
Enduict: m. icte: f. Dawbed, plaistered; also, annointed, bismeared, rubbed ouer with; also, as Enduit.
Enduire. To plaister, dawbe; annoynt, bismeare; doe, rub, or couer, ouer with; also, to indue, or digest, as a hawke doth her meat.
Enduisement: m. A plaistering, dawbing; annoynting, bismearing; doing, rubbing, or couering ouer with.
Enduiseur: m. A plaisterer, dawber, annoynter, smearer.
Enduisson: f. as Enduisement; or, Enduit.
Enduit: m. Plaister; also, a bed, or lay of plaister; also, a plaistering, or couering ouer, as with plaister; also, a dawbing, annoynting, smearing, or bismearing.
Enduit: m. te: f. Plaistered &c; as Enduict; also, indued, or digested, as meat by a hawke.
Enduite: f. as Enduit; a plaistering; also, a bed, or lay of plaister.
Endurable: com. Indurable, bearcable, tollerable, sufferable.
Endurant. Induring, patient, suffering, abiding, bearing with.
Endurci: m. ie: f. Hardened, indurated, confirmed, obdurated.
Endurcir. To indurate, harden, obdurate, confirme.
s'Endurcir. To wax hard, grow stiffe, abide long, sustaine with constancie; beare off with head and shoulders.
Enduré: m. ée: f. Dured, lasted, continued; borne, indured, sustained, suffered, abidden, tollerated, vndergone.
Endurement: m. A during, lasting, long continuance; an enduring, suffering, tolleration, bearing, standing to it, abiding by it.
Endurer. To dure, last, continue long; also, (& most properly) to indure, tollerate, suffer, beare, sustaine, abide, vndergoe.
Endurer de quelqu'vn. To vse one respectfully, or tenderly; to deale with him kindly, intreat him fauourably, beare with much at his hands.
Endurer faut pour durer: Prov. Such as will dure must indure.
L'on endure tout fors que trop d'aise: Prov. Looke Aise.
Le papier endure tout: Prov. as, foule blurres, false reckonings, all kind of hard, or ill words.
Enduvetter. To bedowne; to fill, or stuffe, with downe.
Eneauë. Watered; seasoned with, turned into water.
Eneauër. To turne into water; to mingle, or season with water.
Enenda. In faith, in truth, in sooth, trust me, on my word, in verie deed.
Energie: f. Energie, effectuall operation, force, efficacie.
Enervation. an eneruation, weakening, enfeebling; also, the synewie seperation of the Muscles.
Enervé. Eneruated, weakened, enfeebled; also, feeble, weake, tender, effeminate, without force, without pith, without vigor.
Enerver. To eneruate, weaken, debilitate, enfeeble; to bereaue of force, of pith, of vigor.
Enfagotté: m. ée: f. Put into a fagot; made vp in the forme of a fagot.
Enfagotter. To put into a fagot; or, make vp in the forme of a fagot.
Enfaissé: m. ée: f. Made vp into a bundle, or trusse.
Enfaisser. To packe, or trusse vp; to make into a packe, bundle, trusse.
Enfaistau: m. A Ridge-tyle, Creast-tyle, Roofe-tyle.
Enfaisté: m. ée: f. Roofed; or, as Enfesté; in Maison Enfestée.
Enfaisture: f. A ridge, or a ridging; or the frame of a ridge, roofe, or house-top.
Pieces d'enfaisture. Sparres, rasters, ridge-peeces of timber.
Enfance: f. Infancie, childhood.
Enfanchonnets. Nephewes; or, the children of our children.
Enfançon: m. A little infant; a babie, or sucking child.
Enfangé: m. ée: f. Bedurtied, bemyred, bemudded.
Enfangement. A bedurtying, bemyring, bemudding.
Enfanger. To bedurtie, bemud, bemyre; to spatle, beray, or durtie all ouer with myre.
Enfanson. as Enfançon.
Enfant: m. An infant; a child.
Enfant de choëur. A Quirrester.
Enfant de choëur de la messe de minuict. A rake-hellie night-walker.
Enfans de famille. Yonkers of account, youthes of good houses, children of rich parents (yet aliue.)
Enfant de France. The sonne of a King of France.
Enfant de la mate. A ruffin, hackster, swash-buckler, swaggerer, mad shauer; also, a cut-purse.
Enfans perdus. Perdus, in warre; (ordinarily) gentlemen of companies, reserued for, and exposed vnto, all desperate services.
Enfans rouges. Children brought vp in a certaine Hospitall at Paris, & attired in red, (as ours of Christs-church in blew.)
Enfant sans soucy. An anthrift, spend-good, careless companion; also, a Jugler, Buffoone, or Tumbler.
Enfans de la terre. Licentious, dissolute, sensuall, persons; those that are wholly swayed by their voluptuous, or or intemperate, humors; those that make earth their heauen, or haue their heauen on earth.

Enfans trouvez. The name of a Parisien Hospitall, wherein children, found by chance, are nourished.

Bons enfans. The name of the most auncient Colledge in the Vniuersitie of Paris.

Vn fait d'enfant. A trifling, simple, boyish, or childish part.

Enfans deviennent grands gens: Pro. Children, in time, grow men; or (aboue say) boyes will be men one day.

Enfans sont richesses de pauvres gens: Prov. Children are poore mens riches: (In other Countries, whose people are industrious, they may perhaps be so; but in ours, for the most part, store of children make poore men plaine beggers.)

Ce que l'enfant oit au fouyer, est tost conu iusques au Monstier: Pro. What children heare at home soone flyes abroad.

De petit enfant petit dueil: Pro. A little mourning serues for little children.

Il faut laisser son enfant morveux plustost que luy arracher le nez: Prov. Better a snottie child then a noselesse.

Qui voit enfant, il voit neant: Pro. He that sees an infant, sees nothing (belike because it alters so quickly.)

Soleil qui luisarne au matin, femme qui parle Latin, & enfant nourry de vin, ne viennent point à bonne fin: Pro.

Enfantant. Bringing forth a child.

Enfanté: m. ée: f. Bred, brought forth, or, brought to bed of a child.

Enfantement: m. A bringing to bed, a birth, or bringing forth of children; the time of a womans trauell.

Enfanter. To bring forth a child, to be deliuered, as a woman, of child.

Enfantiere. Femme en. A child-bearing woman, or woman that lyes in child-bed.

Enfantil: m. ile: f. Childish, boyish, trifling, simple, fond.

Enfantilement. Childishly, fondly, boy-like.

Enfantillage: m. Childishnesse, boyishnesse, childish humors.

Enfantiller. To play the child, or play as children doe; to trifle, to toy it.

Enfantin. as Enfantil.

Enfantinement. Childishly, boyishly, infant-like.

Enfardelé: m. ée: f. Packed, or made vp into a fardle, or bundle.

Enfardeler. To packe; to make vp into a fardle, or bundle.

Enfariné: m. ée: f. Bemealed; whited, or strewed, ouer with meale.

Bien enfariné. Flush, mellow, cupshotten, that hath his beadgeere soundly; (a metaphor taken from flower cast on meat, that it cleaue not to the Gridiron, & so burne; for here his drinke is as flower to keepe his liuer from burning his meat.)

Enfariner. To bemeale; to white, or strew ouer with meale.

Qui entre dans vn moulin il convient de necessité qu'il s'enfarine: Pro. He that goes into a Mill must needs be bemealed; he that touches pitch must needs be defiled.

Enfeconder. To fertilize; to make fruitfull, or fertile.

Enfelonni: m. ie: f. Become fierce, waxt curst, growne cruell.

s'Enfelonnir. To become fierce, wax curst, grow cruell.

s'Enfeloniſſant. Becomming fierce, waxing curst, growing cruell.

Enfer: m. Hell.

Couleur d'enfer. A darke, and smoakie browne.

Ou rendre, ou prendre, ou mort d'enfer attendre: Prov. The theefe that restores not, or is not punished in this life, hath cause to expect damnation in the next.

Enferger. To shackle, or fetter.

Enferges: f. Shackles, fetters, yrons for the legs.

Enfermé: m. ée: f. Shut, kept, locked vp close; vnder locke and key; also, inclosed, hedged, or hemmed in.

Enferme: com. Infirme, weake, feeble, vnable; crasie, broken, sickish.

Enfermement: m. A shutting, locking, or keeping vp; an inclosing, hedging, or hemming in.

Enfermer. To shut, locke, or keepe close vp; to inclose, hedge, or hemme in.

Enfermerie: f. An Hospitall, or Spittle for sicke, or maimed people; also, a Cloister, or Fryerie.

Enfermier: m. An ouerseer of the sicke in Hospitals; also, the Porter of a Fryerie.

Enferré: m. ée: f. Shackled, layed in yrons, chained vp; also, pierced, or thrust into, with an yron blade; as;

Il s'est enferré. He hath run, or fallen, vpon his owne sword; he hath run himselfe quite through.

Enferrer. To shackle, chaine vp, or lay in yrons; also, to strike, runne, pierce, or thrust into, with a sword, &c.

Les Enfers. Hell; Seeke Enfer.

Enfestau: m. A Roose-tyle, or, a Ridge-tyle.

Enfesté: m. ée: f. Kept holyday; or, solemnized with a holyday; also, roofed; whence;

Maison enfestée. Whose roofe is furnished, or tyled.

Enfester. To keepe holyday; to solemnize with a holyday; to make holyday for the sake, or make a holyday in remembrance, of.

Enfester vn edifice. To tyle a house, or, to finish the roofe thereof by tyling it.

Enfueillé: m. ée: f. Couered with, or hidden among, leaues.

s'Enfueiller. To couer himselfe with, or hide himselfe among, leaues.

Enfiellé: m. ée: f. Made bitter as gall; filled, or mingled, with gall.

Enfieller. To make bitter; to fill, or mingle, with gall.

Enfieri: m. ie: f. Growne proud, loftie, statelie.

s'Enfierir. To wax proud, grow statelie, become loftie, take much vpon him.

Enfievré: m. ée: f. Driuen, put, or cast into an ague.

Enfievrer. To put, or cast into an ague; to driue into a feauer.

Enfilé: m. ée: f. Threaded as a needle; also, put on a thread, as pearle, &c; also, intangled, insnared, caught fast.

Enfiler. To thread; also, to intangle, or insnare; also, to stab, or pierce into.

Enfiler la venelle. To runne away.

Il en cuida bien enfiler son aiguille. He thought to haue gotten much by the bargaine, & meant to feather his neast well by it.

Enfinceux: m. euse: f. Wanton, lasciuious, petulant; or, as Endemené.

Enfistulé: m. ée: f. Infistulated; that hath gotten a Fistula.

Enflambant. Inflaming, firing, or, setting on a light fire.

Enflambé: m. ée: f. Inflamed; inkindled, set on a light fire.

Amende enflambée. Looke Amende.

Enflambement: m. An inflaming, firing; incensing, inkindling; an inflammation.

Enflamber. To inflame, fire, set on a light fire; blister with heat; incense, inkindle; fill with ardor.

s'enflamber de courroux. To fume, chafe, wax as hot as a toast.

Enflammant. Inflaming, inkindling, firing, or setting on a light fire.

Enflammé: m. ée: f. as Enflambé.

Enflé: m. ée: f. Swollen; risen; puffed up, strouted out.

Enfle-boeuf: m. The long-legd Beetle, or Ox-fly.

Enflecheures: f. The ratlings; the cordie steps whereby Mariners clambe up to the top of a Maſt.

Enflement: m. A ſwelling; riſing; raiſing; puffing up, ſtrouting out.

Enfléuent. Swellingly; puffingly, ſtroutingly.

Enfler. To ſwell, raiſe, blow, or puffe up; alſo, as s'enfler. To ſwell, riſe, wax big, ſtrout out.

Enfletcher. To pierce, or ſhoot into with arrowes.

Enfleure: f. A ſwelling, riſing, inflation, puffing up, ſtrouting out.

Enfleurer. as Enfleurir.

Enfleurir. To beflower; to ſpread, ſtrew, ſet, or decke, with flowers.

Enfleuronner. as Enfleurir.

Enflure: f. as Enfleure.

Enfoiri: m. ie: f. Berayed, beſquattered, beſhitten.

Enfoirir. To beſquirt, beſquatter, beray, beſtate.

Enfolaſtré: m. ée: f. Fooliſhly enamoured, or doating on, fondly in Loue with.

Enfoncé: m. ée: f. Sunke deepe, gone farre, into; fallen into the bottome of; as Enfonſé.

Enfoncement: m. A ſinking; a bulging; a driuing, or dinging farre in; a beating, or forcing downe; a breaking, going, or working deepe into; alſo, a ding, dint; hole, bottome hollow.

Enfoncer. as Enfonſer.

Enfondrant. Sinking, drowning, ouerwhelming (as in a puddle, or mire,) alſo, yeelding, as a ſoft thing to the force, or violence of a hard.

Enfondré: m. ée: f. Sunke, drowned, ouerwhelmed, plunged into the bottome of (a puddle, or mire;) alſo, extreamely dinted, or beaten farre in.

Enfondrer. To ſinke; drowne, ouerwhelme, plunge into the buttome (of a puddle, ſlough, or myre.)

Enfondrer vn chemin. To weare, or make great holes in a way; to make a deepe way.

Enfondrer vn harnois. To make a great dint in an armour.

Enfondu: m. uë: f. Mucke-wet, wringing-wet.

Enfonſé: m. ée: f. Sunke, gone deepe; driuen, forced, or fallen, downe into the bottome of; bulged; beaten farre in; broken open; wrought deepe into.

Il a enfonſé la matiere. He hath thruſt himſelfe very farre, he hath runne himſelfe ouer head and eares, into the matter.

Enfonſer. To driue, or force downe to the bottome; to beat deepe, or thruſt farre, into; to bulge.

s'enfonſer. To ſinke, or goe deepe; to fall downe into the bottome; to ouerwhelme himſelfe, to run ouer head and eares into.

Enfonſer vn arc. To bend a bowe very hard; or, to draw a bowe as farre as it will bend.

Enfonſer vn huis. To beat in, or breake open, a dore.

Enfonſer vn lict. To board the bottome of a bed.

Enfonſer de la marchandiſe en de tonneaux. To packe vp wares into Dryfats, or Tunnes.

Enfonſer le poignet. To greaſe in the fiſt, to corrupt with gifts or bribes; alſo, to gaine, or grow rich, by ſuch corruption.

Enfonſure: f. A beating or dinging, a ſinking or thruſting, farre in; or, as Enfoncement.

L'enfonſure d'un chalit. The boorded bottome of a Bedſtead.

L'enfonſure du teſt d'une noix. The bottome of a Nutſhell.

Enforcé: m. ée: f. Strengthned, confirmed, giuen force vnto; or whereunto force is giuen.

s'Enforcer. Alors s'enforça la feſte. Then did the feaſt increaſe.

Enforci: m. ie: f. Inforced, confirmed, ſtrengthned.

Enforcir. To inforce, confirme, ſtrengthen; add power, or-phy force, giue ſtrength, vnto.

s'enforcir. To grow ſtrong, became luſtie, wax courageous, or vigorous; take heart, recouer his force, packe vp his crummes.

Enformé: m. ée: f. Formed, faſhioned.

Enformer. To forme, faſhion, add ſhape, or making vnto.

Enforti: m. ie: f. Strengthned; faſtened; inforced, fortified; alſo, thickned (as cloth is by fulling.)

Enfoüé: m. ée: f. Conuerted, or turned, into fire.

Enfoüer. To conuert into fire, to turne to fire.

Enfouï: m. Digged in; buried, interred.

Enfouïr. To dig in; to burie, interre, bide, or lay, in the ground.

Enfouiſſement: m. A digging; an interring, or burying, or biding in the ground.

Enfourché: m. ée: f. Forked, made forkewiſe.

Enfourchir. To beſtorke; alſo, to beſtride.

Enfourchure: m. as Fourcheure.

Enfourné: m. ée: f. Put into, or ſhut vp in, an ouen; alſo, begun, ſet on worke, taken in hand.

Enfournement: m. A putting into, or ſhutting vp in, an ouen; a ſetting in; alſo, the beginning, or firſt part, of a matter.

Enfourner. To put or ſet, place or ſhut vp, in an ouen; alſo, to begin, ſet in hand, or on worke.

s'Enfourner en. To vndertake, enter into, imbarke himſelfe in.

Il eſt auſſi ſage qu'oncques puis n'enfournâſmes nous. He is euen as wiſe as he was at firſt; a couxcomb he was, and a cokes he is.

A l'enfourner on faict les pains cornus. Pro. A buſineſſe is ſooneſt marde while it is abeginning; or, at the ſetting in is moſt hurt done; for then are faults moſt eaſily committed, and (a little ouerſeene) hardly amended; of a like ſence is;

Qui mal enfourne tire les pains cornus. Pro. He that begins (a matter) vntowardly, ends (it) ilfauoredly.

Enfouy. Digged in; buried, interred; layed, put, or bid, in the ground.

Enfouyr. as Enfouir.

Enfractueux: m. euſe: f. Intricate, mazelike, inuolued, perplexed; that hath many turnings, and windings.

Enfractuoſité: f. A manifold winding, turning, involution, intricacie, compaſſe.

Enfraincт: m. ête: f. Infringed, violated, broken.

Enfraindre. To infringe, violate; breake in peeces.

Enfrangé: m. ée: f. Befringed; edged with fringe.

Enfranger. To befringe; to edge, or ſet, with fringe.

En-

Enfriché: m. ée: f. Growne wild, ouergrowne with shrubs, or weeds; for want of tillage &c.

s'Enfricher. To grow wild, or be ouergrown with shrubs, or weeds, as Land for want of tillage &c.

Enfroidiuré. Ie suis enfroiduré. I haue gotten a cold, I haue taken cold.

s'Enfroidurer. To take cold, to get a cold.

Enfroqué: m. ée: f. Attired in, or couered with, a Monks hood, or Cowle; and hence;

Cerveaux enfroquez. Monkes, Friers, &c.

Enfroquer. To attire in, or couer with, a Cowle; & hence, to make, or institute a Monke, &c.

Enfruité: m. ée: f. Stored, filled, or garnished, with fruit.

Enfruiter. To store, fill, or garnish, with fruit.

Enfueillé: m. ée: f. Leaued, stucke or set, stored or furnished, with leaues.

Enfueiller. To beleafe; to stick or set, store or furnish, with leaues.

s'Enfueiller. To hide, or shrowd himselfe among leaues.

s'Enfuir. To fly, take his heeles, run away, get packing as fast as he can, shew a faire paire of heeles.

s'enfuir en cachette. To giue the slip, flinch away priuily, slinke out of companie.

Le vin s'enfuit par dessus. The wine spils, or runnes ouer, at the top of.

Qui s'enfuit on l'enfuit: Prov. Men follow those that fly.

Enfumé: m. as Canthare. A duskie sea-fish, that liues vpon slime, and ordure.

Enfumé: m. ée: f. Smoaked, or besmoaked; perfumed or smothered, with smoake; hanged or dried, in the smoake; also, smoakie; and, of a smoakie-browne, or duskie-russet, colour; smoakie-coloured.

Enfumement: m. A smoaking, or besmoaking; a perfuming with smoake, or hanging in the smoake.

Enfumer. To smoke, or besmoake; to smother or perfume, with smoake; to hang or dry, in the smoake.

Enfurié: m. ée: f. Inraged, inflamed with furie, stark mad.

Enfusté: m. ée: f. Inpiped, or incasked; ioyned or fastened into, entered or put into, the staues, or side-boords, of Cask.

Engage: m. A pledge, pawne, gage, ingagement.

Engagé: m. ée: f. Ingaged, impledged, pawned.

Engagement: m. A pawning, ingaging, impledging, laying to pawne.

Engager. To pawne, impledge, ingage, to lay to pawne, or to pledge.

Engageur: m. A pledger, ingager, pawner.

Engageure: f. as Engagement.

Engaigne: f. A wyle, deceit, sleight, craft, fraude.

Engaigné. as Enginé. ¶Pic: also, egged vrged, prouoked.

Engaigner. To cosen, gull, deceiue; also, to charme, or inchaunt; also, to egg, incite, set on, prouoke.

Engain: m. Anger, choller; ¶Pic: also, a deceit, wile, sleight, cosening tricke.

Engainé: m. ée: f. Sheathed; put into a sheath.

Engainer. To sheath, to put vp into the sheath.

Engane-pastre. The little bird called, a water-wagtayle.

Enganer. To deceiue; and (more particularly) a nurse to conceale her being with child; whereby she defrauds her charge of due nourishment. ¶Langued.

Enganté: m. ée: f. Begloued.

Mitaines enganteés. Mittaines like gloues.

Engarber. as Encontenancer (but with more boldnesse, and brauerie;) also, to couer.

Engardé: m. ée: f. Kept, withheld, letted, hindered, stopped, stayed from; prohibited, forbidden, stinted, repressed, restrayned.

Engarder. To withhold, keep from; let, stop, hinder, stay; prohibite, forbid, stint, restrayne.

Engarder la hardiesse de. To bridle the saucinesse, curb the boldnesse, keepe downe the stomack, of.

Engastrimyte. That speaks out of the vellie, as one that is possessed, seemes to doe.

Engastrimythes. (The same) crooked-backt-men are so termed because, commonly, their voice is hollow.

Engaunché. as Encaunché.

Enge as Engeance.

Engé: m. ée: f. Stored, furnished, filled with th'increase, or kind of; also, growen, increased, spred farre abroad.

De poules, & de pauvreté on en est bien tost engé. Pro: Chickens and pouertie come on a pace.

Engeance: f. A breed, race, brood; the seed, or off-spring of.

Engeancement. A breeding, increasing, continuing the race of.

Engeancer. To breed, grow; increase in growth.

Engelé: m. ée: f. Frozen, congealed.

Engeler. To freeze, congeale, set an ice on.

Engeleure: f. A chilblane; or, the bloud-shot which cold settles, and congeales, vpon the fingers.

Engendré: m. ée: f. Ingendred, procreated, begotten, bred; made, caused, procured, begun.

Engendrement: m. An ingendring, procreating, begetting, breeding; a causing, making, procuring, beginning.

Engendrer. To ingender, procreate, beget, breed; cause, make, procure, begin.

Engendreur: m. An ingenderer, begetter, breeder; a maker, procurer, beginner of.

Engendreure: or Engendrure: f. A procreation; or as, Engendrement.

Engeolé. as Enjaulé; also incaged, or ingaoled.

Engeoler. To attract, intice, allure, winne, inueagle, besot, inthrall (by faire and deceitfull words;) also, to incage, or ingaole; to put in a cage, to lay in gaole.

Enger. To produce, or make to grow; to store, furnish, or fill with th'increase, or kind of; also, to grow, increase, extend, or spred it selfe abroad.

Engerbé: m. ée: f. Bound vp together in a sheafe, as Corne.

Engerber. To sheafe, or bind vp (as corne) in a sheafe.

Engeronné: m. ée: f. Dandled on, or bugged in, the lap.

Engeronner. To dandle vpon the lap, as a nurse, or mother, her child.

Engigné: m. ée: f. Charmed, bewitched, inchaunted; also, cousened, beguiled, gulled.

Engigner. To charme, bewitch, inchaunt; also, to cousen, gull, deceiue, beguile.

Engigneur: m. A deceiuer, beguiler, cousener; also, an Inchaunter.

Engin: m. An engin, toole, instrument; also vnderstanding, policie, reach of wit; also, suttletie, fraud, craft, wilinesse, deceit.

Vn homme sans mal engin. A sincere, vpright, plane-dealing man.

Mieux vaut engin que force. Pro: Better be wise then strong.

Enginé: m. ée: f. Bewitched, incharmed, inchaunted, cousened, gulled, beguyled.

Enginer. as Engigner.

Enginier: m. An Engineer; a maker of Engins.
Engiponné: m. ée: f. Clothed, muffled, or lapped vp in a coat, or ſhort caſſocke; alſo, ragged, or in rags.
Englacé: m. ée: f. Growne cold as ice.
s'Englacer. To wax as cold as ice.
Englantine. An Eglantine; Seeke Anglantine.
Engle: f. as Angle; a corner.
Englentier. A Sweet-brier tree.
Engler. To ſhut vp in a corner; Seeke Angler.
Englet. Seeke Anglet.
Englobé: m. ée: f. Inglobed; comprehended, or contained within the circumference of.
Englober. To inglobe; to comprehend, or containe within the circumference of.
Englobure: f. An inglobing; alſo, a globe-like circumference, or compaſſe.
Engloutí: m. ie: f. Inglutted, ingulfed, greedily deuoured, ſwallowed vp.
Engloutir. To deuour, inglut, ingulfe, ſwallow vp.
Englué: m. ée: f. Belymed; caught, or dreſſed, with birdlyme.
Engluer. To lyme, to dreſſe, or catch, with birdlyme.
Englume. as Enclume; an Anuile.
Engolfé: m. ée: f. Ingulphed, ſwallowed vp in a gulfe.
Engolfer. To ingulfe.
Engoncé: m. ée: f. Pinn'd in by, or ſet faſt in; ſtraitned, wanting libertie, not able to ſtirre for; (a Metaphor from dores, which turne not well vpon their bindges.)
Engorgé: m. ée: f. Ingorged, rauened, deuoured, ſwilled vp, ſwallowed downe; alſo, choaked.
Engorgement: m. A glutting, rauening, deuouring, ingorging; a ſwallowing vp, as of a riuer by the ſea; alſo, a choaking, or ſtopping the throat of; alſo, a giuing of a full gorge vnto.
Engorger. To rauen, ingorge, deuoure, glut, ſwill vp, ſwallow downe.
Engorger le cours d'un moulin. To choake, or ſtop vp, a mill with too much water.
Engorger vn oyſeau. To giue a Hawke full gorge.
Engorgeur: m. A rauener, glutton, gulch, ingorger; one that, to eat the faſter, ſwallowes downe his meat whole.
Engorgeux: m. euſe: f. Ingorging, rauenous, greedie, deuouring, ſwilling vp, ſwallowing downe.
Engoüé: m. ée: f. Choaked, ſtifled, ſtrangled with too great a morſell.
Engoüer. as Anoüer; or (altogether) to choake, or ſtifle.
Engouffrer. To ingulfe.
s'engouffrer. A little thing violently to fall into, and vtterly be loſt in (or deuoured by) a greater; as a brooke when it meets with a Riuer, or a Riuer when it comes to the ſea; to ſinke downe, or deepe, as into a gulfe.
Le vent s'engouffre, & s'entonne en ce lieu là. The wind whirles, and whizzes terribly; or hath a great ſtrength, and makes a great noiſe, in that hollow place.
Engouler. To put into, or ſend downe, the throat; to deuoure, to ingorge.
Engouleur. A rauener; as Engorgeur.
Engoulphé: m. ée: f. Ingulfed; entred into, or ſwallowed by, a gulfe.
Engourdi: m. ie: f. Benummed, nummed, aſtonied, ſtupified, ſenceleſſe, aſleepe.
Eſprit engourdi. A dull, and blockiſh wit; a wit thats deuoid of inuention.

Engourdir. To numme, benumme, ſtupifie, make senceleſſe, aſtoniſh; alſo, to be, or grow numme, ſtonied, senceleſſe.
Engourdiſſement: m. A benumming, or numneſſe; an aſtonying, or ſenceleſneſſe, a ſtupiditie, or dullneſſe; a ſleeping of any limbe, or member.
Engourmelé: m. ée: f. Curded, or curdled thicke.
Sang engourmelé. Clotted bloud.
Engourmeler. To curd, or curdle much; alſo, to thicken, or clot, as bloud when it growes cold.
Engouſté: m. ée: f. Put in taſt, brought vnto a ſtomacke; alſo, inchaſed, incloſed, or ſet into.
Engrais de terre: m. The manuring, or dunging of land, whereby it growes the fatter, and fitter for any vſe.
Engrais de volaille. The franking, or fattening of fowle.
Beufs d'engrais. Fat Oxen, Beeues alreadie fed.
Tenir ſon ventre à l'engrais. To feed, franke, or fatten himſelfe.
Engraiſsant. Fattening, franking, feeding.
Engraiſſé: m. ée: f. Fed, fattened, franked; crammed; alſo, marled, or manured.
Engraiſſement: m. A franking, fattening, feeding, batling; a putting, or growing into fleſh, and fatneſſe.
Engraiſſer. To feed, franke, fatten; to put, or bring, into fleſh, and fatneſſe.
Engraiſſer vn champ. To marle, manure, or dung a field; to battle it, or make it fertile.
Le temps s'engraiſſe. The weather growes thicke.
Engraiſſiſſant. as Engraiſſant.
Engraiz: m. Looke Engrais.
Engrand. Tu es bien engrand de trotter. Thou wouldſt faine be packing; thou longeſt much to be gadding, thou haſt a moneths mind to be gone.
Engrangé: m. ée: f. Inned, or put into a barne, as corne &c.
Engrangement: m. An inning of corne &c; a putting, or ſhutting vp in a barne.
Engranger. To inne corne &c; to put, or ſhut, vp in a barne.
Engravé: m. ée: f. Ingrauen, carued, intailed.
Engraver. To ingraue, cut, carue, intaile.
Engraveur: m. A caruer, cutter, ingrauer, intailer.
Engraveure: f. An intailing, cutting, ingrauing; ingrauerie; alſo, a figure ingraued.
s'Engreger. To grow worſe, become ſorer, wax more painefull, grieuous, or troubleſome.
Engreigné. Porc engreigné. A meaſeld Hog.
Engrené: m. ée: f. Ingrained; filled, or furniſhed with Seed, or Corne.
Engrener. To ingraine; to fill, or furniſh with ſeed, corne, or graine.
Engreſlé: m. ée: f. Ingrayled, or inuecked (a tearme of Blaſon.)
Engreſlure: f. An ingrayling, or inuecking; a kind of ſmall indenting, or iagging, in a coat of Armes.
Engreſſement: m. as Engraiſſement.
Engriner. To biggen, increaſe, grow greater.
Engroigné: m. ée: f. Sullen, powting, lowring, grunting, frowning.
Engroin: m. Sullenneſſe, powting; lowring, frowning; malice, deſpightfulneſſe.
Engroiſſi: m. ie: f. Greatned; made, or growne big.
Engrommelé. Clotted, cluttered, curded thicke; gathered into knobs, or knots.
Engroſſi: m. ie: f. Greatned, increaſed, inlarged, well thriuen; batled apace; growne large, become groſſe, waxt great, made big.

En-

Engrossir vne femme. To greaten, make great, or grosse; get with child.

s'Engrossir. To thriue, increase, become grosse, grow large, wax big; to fatten, or battle apace.

Engrossissement. A growing, increasing, thriuing; (de femelles) a bagging; a being great with child, or big with young.

Engroüé: m. ée: f. Stopped, cloyed, or choaked vp, as the course of a water-mill, by weedes, &c; or as Angoüé.

Pie engroüée. A Wariangle; or a small Woodpecker, white and blacke of colour, and but halfe as big as the ordinarie greene one; called thus about Tours.

Engrigné: m. ée: f. Deceiued, cousened, gulled, beguiled.

Enguigner. To deceiue, cousen, gull, beguile.

Enguipponné. as Engiponné.

Enguirlandé: m. ée: f. Adorned, or crowned, with a garland; wearing a garland.

Enguirlander. To adorne, or crowne, with a garland.

Engyronner. To inuiron, incompasse; as Environner.

Engys. as Aupres. ¶Rab.

Enhaillonné: m. ée: f. Tattered, ragged, full of clouts, or of patches; wearing torne, or patched clothes.

Enhair. To hate, loath, detest.

Enhanné. Toyled hard, laboured extreamely, wrought vnto sweating, toyled vnto sighing.

Enhanner. To toyle hard, labour extreamely, or vehemently; worke till he sweat, or sigh withall.

Enhanté: m. ée: f. Hauing a staffe, or handle put vnto it.

Enhanter vne pique. To put the staffe into the head of a Pike.

Enhardi: m. ie: f. Heartened, animated, imboldened, incouraged; growne bold, hardie, confident.

Ie me suis enhardi, de. I presumed, or was so bold as.

Enhardir. To hearten, imbolden, animate, incourage; make hardie, giue heart vnto, put mettall into.

s'enhardir. To wax hardie, get heart, grow confident; also, to presume, or venture on.

Enharnaché: m. ée: f. Harneised; furnished, fully trapped.

Enharnachement: m. The harneis, or furniture; also, a harneising, of a horse.

Enharnacher vn cheval. To harneis a horse; to put on all his furniture.

Enharnichement. as Enharnachement.

Enhasté: m. ée: f. Spitted, put vpon a spit.

Enhaster. To spit, to put on the spit.

Enhault. Aloft, aboue; d'enhaut. From aboue.

Enhazé: m. ée: f. Very busie, keene, or eager at worke; full of imployments, that hath many yrons in the fire, or much to doe. ¶Parisien.

Il est tout enhazé à plouvoir. It is set to raine.

Enherbé: m. ée: f. Charmed, bewitched, or impoysoned, with herbes.

Enherbement: m. A bewitching, or impoysoning, with herbes.

Enherber. To charme, bewitch, or poyson, with herbes.

Enheriter aucun. To make one his heire.

Enheudé: m. ée: f. Fettered, or tethered.

Enheuder. To fetter, tether, fasten the legs, or fasten by the leg. ¶Brett.

Enhorner. To tip, or nocke with horne.

Enhort: m. An exhortation, perswasion, request; incitement, incouragement.

Enhorté: m. ée: f. Exhorted, required; perswaded, aduised; incited, animated, incouraged, vnto.

Enhortement. as Enhort; also, an exhorting, requiring; perswading, aduising; inciting, incouraging vnto.

Enhorter. To exhort, require, desire; moue, perswade, aduise; incite, incourage, animate; stirre, or cheere vp, vnto.

Enhorteur: m. An exhorter, perswader; mouer, aduiser; inciter, incourager, cheerer vp, vnto.

Enhotté: m. ée: f. Stucke fast (as a coach, &c) in the mire.

Enhui. To day, this day.

Enhuilé: m. ée: f. Oyled; annoynted, mingled, or seasoned, with oyle.

Enhuiler. To oyle; to dresse, annoynt, season, mingle, bismeare, with oyle.

Enhuiler vn homme qui meurt. To minister the Sacrament of extreame Vnction.

Enhydrer. To breed many mischiefes by the cutting off of one; or many mischiefes to breed by &c.

Enhydride. An Adder, or water-Snake. ¶Rab.

Enjablé: m. ée: f. Whose Crowes are made; or, whose head is fitted for the Crowes.

Enjabler. To rigoll a peece of caske; or, to make the Crowes; also, to make the head fit for the Crowes.

s'Enjalouser. To grow iealous.

Enjambé: m. ée: f. Strid ouer; also, incroached on.

Enjambée: f. A stride; or, as much ground as one can stride ouer.

Enjambement: m. An incroaching vpon, or, striding ouer.

Enjamber. To stride ouer; also, to incroach vpon; and hence;

Enjamber sur les marches d'autruy. To vsurpe, intrude vpon, or meddle with, another mans right.

Enjambeure: f. as Enjambée; a stride.

Enjambure. The same.

Enjavelé: m. ée: f. Made, or bound vp, as corne, into Iauels.

Enjaveler. To make vp corne into Iauels, or Gauels.

Enjaveleur: m. A maker, or binder, vp of corne into Iauels.

Enjaveliner. To arme, or strike, with a Iaueline.

Enjaulé: m. ée: f. Attracted, inticed, allured, inueagled, besotted, inthralled by faire, (but deceitfull) words.

Enjauler. To intice, attract, allure, besot, inueagle, winne, inthrall by faire, (and deceitfull) tearmes; to cog extreamely with.

Enjauleur: m. A beguiler, inueagler; guller, a fisting companion, cogging marchant, cousening mate; one that by faire speech deceiues them he deales with.

Enjauleuse: f. An inticing huswife.

s'Enjaunir. To wax yellow.

Enjeoller. as Enjauler, or Engeoler.

En-jeu. vn en. A stake at play.

Enig. with. ¶Alleman. ¶Rab.

Enigmatique: com. Enigmaticall; obscure, mysticall, hard to be vnderstood.

Enigme: m. A riddle; a darke question, an obscure, and mysticall demaund.

Enjobeliné: m. ée: f. Besotted, gulled, abused, brought into a fooles Paradise.

Enjobeliner. To deceiue, besot, bring into a fooles Paradise; to gull, to abuse.

Enjoinct: m. cte: f. Inioyned, commaunded, appointed to be done.

Enjoincté: m. ée: f. Bas enjoincté. Low ioynted.

Enjoindre. To inioyne, ordaine, appoint, or commaund a thing to be done.

Enjoler. as Enjauler. To deceiue, or beſot with faire words.

Enjolivement: m. Neatneſſe, fineneſſe, comelineſſe, handſomeneſſe, gallantneſſe, curioſitie (in attire.)

Enjoliver. To decke, adorne, pranke, trim; to make neat, fine, gallant, handſome.

Enjoliveure: f. A decking, pranking, trimming; attiring; alſo, an attire.

Enjolleur: m. as Enjauleur.

Enjonché: m. ée: f. Strewed, bedecked, or ſet out, with greene ruſhes, freſh hearbes, or prettie flowers.

Enjoncher. To ſtrew, imbelliſh, or deck; as with greene ruſhes, prettie flowers, freſh hearbes.

Enjoüé: m. ée: f. Chuffie, full-checked, ſwolne-cheeked; alſo, lecherous, laſciuious, wanton; blithe, iocond, frolicke.

Enjoyaillier. To beiewell; to decke, furniſh, inrich, with iewels.

Enjuvencé: m. ée: f. Made young, or youthfull.

Enjuvencer. To make youthfull, young, luſtie, frolicke.

Enixe: com. Earneſt, indeuoring, labouring hard.

Enlacé: m. ée: f. Snarled, intangled, inſnared.

Enlacer. To ſnarle, intangle, inſnare.

Enlaidi: m. ie: f. Growne foule, ouglie, illfauored, filthie, ſluttiſh, disfigured, out of fauour.

Enlaidir. To make foule, ouglie, illfauored; to disfigure, defile, diſtaine.

Enlaidiſſant. Disfiguring, defiling, making foule.

Enlaidiſſement: m. A disfiguring, or defiling; a making foule, ouglie, loathſome to the eye.

Enlanguagé. Bien en. An eloquent, or well ſpoken man.

Enlaſſé: m. ée: f. Hard-knit, ſtrait-bound; alſo, inſnarled, intangled.

Enlaſſement: m. A ſtrait knitting, or binding; alſo, an intangling, inſnarling, inſnaring.

Enlevé. Swollen; lifted, raiſed vp; alſo, conueyed, or caried away.

Imagette enlevée. A ſmall imboſſed image.

Enlevement: m. A lifting, raiſing, or heauing vp; alſo, a conueying, or carrying away.

Enlever. To lift, heaue, raiſe vp; alſo, to take, conuey, or carrie away (by force &c.)

Enleveure: f. as Enlevement; a ſwelling, riſing, puffing, raiſing vp of.

Enleveure d'un os. An extraordinarie, and vnnaturall ſwelling of a bone in any part thereof.

Enlié: m. ée: f. Bound, or knit vp together.

Enlier. To bind, or knit vp together.

Enlignagé. Bien en. Of a good kinred, very well allyed, of a great houſe.

Enliſſé: m. ée: f. Smoothed, ſleeked.

Enliſſeure: f. A ſmoothing, or ſleeking; Seeke Parer.

Enlourdi: m. ie: f. Growne dull, ſottiſh, lumpiſh, heauie-headed, lob-like.

Enluminé: m. ée: f. Cleered, brightened, inlightened, illuminated; ſleeked, burniſhed; alſo, limned.

Viſage enluminé. The flusht, or fierie countenance of one that hath taken, or vſes to take, a pot too much.

Enluminer. To illuminate, inlighten, cleere, brighten, illuſtrate; alſo, to ſleeke, or burniſh; alſo, to limne.

Enluminеur de livres. A burniſher of bookes; (we call one that coloureth, or painteth vpon, Paper, or Parchement, an Alluminer.)

Enluminеure: f. A burniſhing, or ſleeking; alſo, a limning.

Ennaſin. Belonging to the noſe.

Ennaſſé: m. ée: f. Intrapped, incloſed, impriſoned, or caught, as fiſh in a weele.

s'Ennaſſer. To be inthralled, impriſoned, intrapped, incloſed, or caught, as fiſh in a weele, (which is, eaſily entred, but hardly got out of.)

Ennazé: m. ée: f. Put on the noſe.

Ennazer. To put on the noſe.

Enneigé. Full of ſnow.

Ennelé. Iambes ennelées. Baker-legs.

Ennemi: m. An enemie, a foe, an aduerſarie.

Il n'eſt nuls petis ennemis: Pro. No enemie can be tearmed little: the leaſt enemie is too great for him that loueth peace.

Qui paſſe vn iour d' hyuer; il paſſe vn de ſes ennemis mortels: Pro. Looke Paſſer.

Ennemie: f. A ſhee-foe.

Ennicroché: m. ée: f. Hooked, intangled, inwrapped, or wrought one within another. ¶Rab.

Ennielle. Blaſted, as corne, &c.

s'Ennieller. Corne, vines, or fruits, to be blaſted.

Ennobli: m. ie: f. Ennobled, nobilitated, made noble, made a gentleman (moſt properly meant of one that hath bought his Gentrie of the French King, who makes many ſuch Gentlemen when he wants money.)

Ennoblir. To ennoble, nobilitate, make noble.

Ennobliſſement: m. An ennobling, nobilitating, making noble, or of gentle bloud.

Ennoirci: m. ie: f. Blacked, growne blacke, made blacke.

Ennoircir. To blacke; to make blacke; alſo, to wax blacke.

Ennombré: m. ée: f. Enumerated, numbred out; told, or counted ouer.

Ennombrer. To enumerate, or number out; to tell, or count ouer.

Ennoſſé. Almoſt choaked with a bone; Seeke Enoſſé.

Ennoüé: m. ée: f. Tyed vp, or on a knot.

Ennoüer. To make a knot, or ty on a knot.

Ennoye: f. A certaine venemous worme, which going both wayes, and hauing (as a ground-worme) her head, and tayle of one bigneſſe, is ſaid to haue two heads.

Ennuagé: m. ée: f. Ouerclouded, ouerſhadowed with a cloud.

Ennuager. To ouercloud; or ouerſhadow, as with a cloud.

s'Ennuër. To wax cloudie, as the skie before ill weather.

Ennuicté: m. ée: f. Benighted; turned into night.

Ennuicter. To benight, make night, turne into night; Looke Anuicter.

Ennuicti: m. ie: f. Benighted.

Ennuy: m. Annoy; vexation, trouble, diſquiet, moleſtation; ſorrow, griefe, anguiſh; wearieſomeneſſe, tedioſneſſe, irkeſomeneſſe; importunitie; a loathing, or ſacietie, of; a diſcontentment, or offence, at.

Ennuyé: m. ée: f. Annoyed; vexed, diſquieted, moleſted, grieued, afflicted; wearied, loathed, ouer-much importuned; offended at, or diſcontented with.

Ennuyer. To annoy; vex, trouble, diſquiet, moleſt; diſcontent, grieue, afflict, offend; wearie, loath, irke, diſtaſt; importune ouer-much.

Ennuyeux: m. euſe: f. Troubleſome, diſpleaſing, offenſiue; grieuous; loathſome, wearieſome, tedious, irkſome; diſtaſtfull; moſt importunate.

Les mauvais Muſiciens ne ſont iamais ennuyeux à eux meſmes. Harſh voices neuer are vnpleaſing to themſelues; or, men ſeldome grow wearie of their owne iarring.

Enny. as Ennoye.

Enombragé : m. ée : f. Ouerſhadowed; or as Enombré.

Enombrager. To ſhadow, couer, cloke, bide, caſt a miſt ouer.

Enombré. Shadowed, ouerſhadowed; couered, or hidden, with, or vnder, the ſhadow of.

Enombrer. as Enombrager.

Enoncé : m. ée : f. Signified, declared, denounced, publiſhed, pronounced.

Enoncer. as Annoncer.

Enondé : m. ée : f. Waued; wrought, floating, or ſhining, like waues.

Enordi : m. ie : f. Deſiled, polluted, berayed.

Enordir. To defile, pollute, beray himſelfe.

Enorgueilli : m. ie : f. Made loſtie, become proud.

Enorgueillir. To make loſtie, or proud; to puffe, or ſwell vp the mind; to giue, or bring preſumption vnto.

Enorme : com. Huge, exceſſiue, vnmeaſurable, enormous; exceeding great; diſordered, immoderate; hainous, moſt wicked.

Enormément. Enormouſly, hainouſly, vnmeaſurably, exceſſiuely, without meaſure, much amiſſe, farre out of ſquare.

Enormiſſime. Moſt enormous, or hainous; moſt wicked, moſt exceſſiue.

Enormité : f. An enormitie, hainouſneſſe; great iniquitie, or wickedneſſe; extreame want of meaſure, moderation, order.

Enortié : m. ée : f. Netled, benetled; ſtung, pricked, rubbed ouer, with nettles.

Enortier. To nettle, or benettle; to ſting, pricke, rub ouer, with nettles.

Enoſſé. Choaked with a bone; alſo, hauing a bone in his throat; alſo, hauing a bone taken out of his throat; alſo, rooted, or ſetled in the bones.

Enoyſelé : m. ée : f. Fed with, or fleſhed vpon, birds, as a Hawke.

Enperruqué. Looke Emperruqué.

Enquaiſſé : m. ée : f. Incheſted; put, or packed vp, into a cheſt.

Enquaiſſer. To incheſt; to put into, or pack vp in, a cheſt, or caſe.

Enquant. as Inquant.

Enquantellé. baſton bien enquantellé de fer. A ſtaffe well piked, or well grained, with yron.

Enquenouiller de filace. To draw a diſtaffe.

Enquerir. To inquire, aske, demaund, make ſearch, or inquiſition after.

Il ne faut pas enquerir d' ou ſoit l' homme; le vin, & le dit; mais qu'il ſoit bon. Looke Homme, Vin, &, Dit.

Enquerquenner. To yoke ſwine.

Enquerre. as Enquerir.

Enqueſte : f. An Inqueſt, Inquiſition, ſearch, inquirie, examination, or queſtioning with; alſo, the teſtimonie, or depoſition of witneſſes.

Enqueſte d' eſtabliſſement. A requeſt, or a writ, for the eſtabliſhing of a poſſeſſion.

Les chambres des enqueſtes. Looke Chambre.

s'Enqueſter. To ſearch, examine, inquire, queſtion, aske, make inquiſition after.

Enqueſteur : m. A ſearcher, examiner, demaunder, queſtioner, inquiſitor; a Iuror.

Enracinable : com. Rootable, fit to take root.

Enraciné : m. ée : f. Rooted, grounded, or ſetled in.

Enracinement : m. A rooting, or taking root.

Enraciner. To ſettle, to root in a thing; to inracinate; alſo, to root, or take root.

Enragé : m. ée : f. Enraged, raging, madde, wood, frantick, furious, outragious, beſides himſelfe, out of his little wits.

Chien enragé ne peut longuement viure : Prov. A madde Dogge liues not, violent humors laſt not, long.

Vn fol vn enragé : Prov. Once a foole euer madde; or there's little difference between a foole & a madde man.

Vilain affamé, demy enragé : Prov. Barre a clowne of his victualls, you halfe madde him.

Enragement : m. Rage, inraging; madneſſe, furie, frenzie; felneſſe; outragiouſneſſe.

Enragément. Ragingly, madly, woodly, frantickly, furiouſly, outragiouſly, Bedlam-like.

Enrager. To rage; raue, ſtorme, play the Bedlam, fare like a madde-man, be ſtarke madde.

Enrailler. as Eſrailler; To ſtare.

Enraimé : m. ée : f. Stucke, or ſet thicke with boughes; alſo, pearched, mounted, or got vpon a bough.

Enramement : m. A laying, or ſpreading of boughes; a pearching, leaping, skipping, mounting, or climbing on boughes.

Enramer. To lay, ſticke, or ſpread boughes.

s'Enramer. To pearch, or take a ſtand in a bough; to leape, mount, or climbe vpon boughes.

Enranci : m. ie : f. Growne muſtie, fuſtie, reſtie.

Enrancir. To grow muſtie, fuſtie, reſtie.

Enraqué : m. ée : f. Bemired, or ſticking in the mire: ¶Pic.

Enraſſé. as Enragé. Starke madde: ¶Rab.

Enrayé : m. ée : f. Stayed, or held backe, as a wheele by a Trigger.

Enrayer vne roue. To ſtay, or hold a wheele backe with a Trigger.

Enrayoir : m. The wheele-gate, or beame, that ſtoppeth the courſe of a water mill; alſo, a Trigger, the ſtaffe thats put before a cart-wheele, to keepe it from ouerthrowing, or ouer-haſtie going.

Enregiſtrable : com. Fit to be regiſtred, or enrolled.

Enregiſtré : m. ée : f. Regiſtred, enrolled.

Enregiſtrement : m. A regiſtring, or enrolling.

Enregiſtrer. To regiſter, to inroll.

Enrencé : m. ée : f. Growne muſtie, fuſtie, reſtie.

Enrethé : m. ée : f. Caught, intangled, inſnared, inwrapped, in a net.

Enrether. To catch, intangle, inſnare, inwrap, in a net.

Enrheumé : m. ée : f. Troubled with the rhewme, poſe, or murre.

Enrichi : m. ie : f. Inriched, made wealthie.

Il n'eſt orgueil que de povre enrichi : Prov. No man's ſo ſurlie as th' inriched begger.

Vilain enrichi ne connoit parent, ni ami : Prov. Looke Vilain.

Enrichir. To inrich, to make wealthie.

Enrichir vn conte. To amplifie, enlarge, adde vnto, it.

Qui s' acquite s' enrichit : Prov. Looke Acquiter.

Enrichiſſeure : f. An inrichment; an inriching.

Enrimé : m. ée : f. as Enrheumé.

Enrimer. To get the rhewme, the murre, the poſe. (v.m.)

Enroché : m. ée : f. Made rockie, turned into a rocke.

Enrocher. To make rockie, to turne into a rocke.

Enrocheur. tonnelier enrocheur. as Encaveur.

Enroidi : m. ie : f. Growne ſtiffe; become obſtinate.

s'Enroi-

s'Enroidir. To grow ſtiffe; to become obſtinate.
Enrollé: m. ée: f. Inrolled, regiſtred; muſtered, among others.
Enrollement. An inrolling.
Enroller. To enroll, to regiſter; to muſter, enter, or put names, &c, into a booke, or bill.
Enroollement: m. as Enrollement.
Enrotulé: m. ée: f. Inrolled; ſet downe in a roll.
Enrotuler. To inroll, to couch, or paſſe in a roll among others.
Enroüé: m. ée: f. Hoarſe, whizzing, or wheazing, of a broken ſound.
Enrouëment: m. Hoarſeneſſe, wheazing.
Enroüément. Hoarſly, or as one that wheazes.
s'Enrouër. To grow hoarſe, to get the Murre, or Poſe; to wheaze, to yeeld a broken, and vnpleaſing ſound.
Enrouëure: f. as Enrouëment.
Enrouillé: m. ée: f. Ruſtie, ruſted, cankered.
s'Enrouiller. To ruſt, to canker.
Enrouilleure. f. Ruſt, canker, ruſtineſſe of mettalls.
Enroulé. Seeke Enrollé.
Enrouler. as Enroller.
Enroullir les yeux. To roll the eyes; to ſtare, gaze, or looke about him amazedly, or madly.
Enroupié. Snottie, beſniueled, dropping at the noſe.
Enrousé. as Arrouſé.
Enrouſer. To water, to bedcaw; as Arrouſer.
Enruché: m. ée: f. Inhiued, put into hiues, abiding in a hiue.
Enrucher. To inhiue, or put into a hiue.
s'Enruiſſeler. To runne out in, or to diuide it ſelfe into, little ſtreames, brookes, channels.
Ens. In, within, inward.
Faire venir les deniers du Roy ens. To gather, and ſend vp the Kings money into th'Exchequer.
Enſablé: m. ée: f. Filled, ſtrawed, or couered with ſand; alſo, runne, or ſplit, as a ſhip, on the ſands.
Enſabler. To fill, couer, or ſtrow with ſand; alſo, to ſplit, or runne on the ſands, as a ſhip.
Enſablonner. To beſprinkle, ſtrow, or fill with grauell, or great ſand.
Enſaché: m. ée: f. Inſachelled, impoaked, put vp into a bag, ſachell, or poake.
Enſacher. To poake vp; to put into a bagge, ſacke, or poake.
Enſafrané: m. ée: f. Beſaffroned; mingled or ſeaſoned, ſtained or coloured, with Saffron.
Enſafranner. To mingle, ſeaſon, dreſſe, or furniſh; to die, ſtaine, colour, or paint ouer, with ſaffron.
Enſagi: m. ie; f. Growne ſage, made wiſe.
Enſágir. To grow ſage, or wiſe; to wax aduiſed.
Enſaiſiné: m. ée: f. Fully ſeiſed; put into abſolute poſſeſſion of.
Enſaiſinement: m. An inſeiſining; a deliuerie of, or putting into, poſſeſſion.
Enſaiſiner. To giue ſeiſin, or a ſeiſure; to put into full poſſeſſion of.
Enſalli: m. ie: f. Defiled, fouled, polluted; made naſtie, growne filthie.
Enſallir. To defile, foule, pollute; infect; corrupt; make naſtie, beaſtlie, filthie.
Enſalliſſement: m. A filing, defiling, polluting; infecting corrupting.
Enſanglanté: m. ée: f. Bebloudied; imbrued with, died, in bloud.
Enſanglanter. To bebloudie, to make bloudie; to die in bloud; to imbrue, or beſprinkle with gore.
Enſaqué: m. ée: f. Put into a ſacke, or wallet.
Enſaquer. To put vp into a ſacke, or wallet.
Enſavonné: m. ée: f. Beſoaped; waſhed, or done ouer, with ſoape.
Enſavonner. To beſoape; to waſh or lather in, to annoint or beſmeare with, ſope.
Enſceptré: m. ée: f. Wearing, or bearing, a Scepter; poſſeſſed of a Scepter.
Enſcophionné: m. ée: f. Coifed, wearing a cawle, or coife.
Enſeigne: m. An Enſigne, Auntient, Standard-bearer; He that, in warre, carries the Colours of a Companie of foot.
Enſeigne: f. A ſigne, token, marke, note, badge, argument, or preſumption of a thing; a print, trace, or tract to find it out by; alſo, an Enſigne, Standard, or Banner; the Colours vnder which a Band, or Companie of footmen ſerue; alſo, the Band, or Companie it ſelfe; alſo, a Signe hung out at a doore; alſo, a Jewell (giuen).
A bonnes enſeignes. Truely, throughly, for a certaine, in good earneſt, not onely in ſhew.
A fauſſes enſeignes. Fainedly, falſly, counterfeitly, by forged markes, or tokens; onely for a colour.
Coucher à l'enſeigne de l'eſtoille. To lie without doores all night.
Enſeigné: m. ée: f. Taught, inſtructed, leſſoned; ordered, faſhioned, trained vp; directed, ſhewed, pointed out vnto.
Enſeignement: m. A teaching, inſtruction, document, precept, inſtitution, doctrine; Leſſon, or example ſet; a diſciplining, ordering, faſhioning, directing, or training vp.
Les Enſeignements d'vn procez. Inſtructions, Bookes, Euidences, Inſtruments, Authorities.
Enſeigner. To teach, to inſtruct; to giue precepts, to ſet leſſons to; to direct, ſhew, marke, point, or trace out vnto; alſo, to faſhion, or traine vp.
Enſeigneur: m. A Teacher, or Inſtructer; and, (more particularly,) the Vſher of a Free-ſchoole; alſo, the firſt finger, pointing finger, or fore-finger.
Enſeigneurié. Inſeignorized, made Lord, or owner of.
Enſel. Sword-like, of a ſword.
Caurere ensel. See Cautere.
Enſellé: m. ée: f. Saddle-backt; alſo, ſadled.
Enſeller vn cheval. To ſaddle a horſe; (a word ſeldome vſed.)
Enſemble. Alſo, likewiſe; with, withall, ioyntly, together, one with another, one in companie of another; alſo, one againſt th'other.
Nous ſommes bien enſemble. We are good friends; or well met; alſo (angrily) I care as little as you.
Enſemblement. Together, one with another, ioyntly; all, or both at once; as well th'one as th'other.
Enſemencé: m. ée: f. Sowed, ſeeded; furniſhed with ſeed.
Enſemencement: m. A ſowing, ſeeding, or furniſhing with ſeed.
Enſemencer. To ſow; to ſet, or furniſh with ſeed.
Enſement. Likewiſe; as Semblablement. (v.m.)
Enſencement. as Encenſement.
Enſepvelir. Seeke Enſevelir.
Enſepulturé: m. ée: f. Buried, intombed, laied in a Sepulchre.
Enſepulturer. To lay in a Tombe, or Sepulchre.
Enſerpenté. Full of Serpents, couered with Serpents.
Enſerré: m. ée: f. Cloſed, incloſed, locked, or ſhut, faſt vp; kept cloſe, held hard in; ſtraitned, reſtrained, ſore preſſed, neere pinched.
Enſerrement: m. A cloſing, or ſhutting faſt vp; a keeping, or or hold close in.

Enserrer. To close, include, locke, or shut, fast vp; keepe close, hold hard in; straiten, restraine, presse verie sore, pinch verie neere.

Enseveli: m. ie: f. Buried, intombed, interred, layed in graue.

Homme endormi corps enseveli: Prov. Looke Endormi.

Ensevelir. To burie, interre, intombe, lay in a graue; also, to wrap vp a dead coarse in a winding-sheet.

Ensoigne. An Essoine; a lawfull excuse for an absent, or, good cause of discharge for an impotent, person.

Ensoigner. To Essoine; to excuse an absent, or discharge an impotent, person: ¶Wallon.

Ensoing, & Ensoingne. as Ensoigne.

Ensoitte. A Shooe-makers tacking-end; or hogs bristle.

Ensoitter. To dresse, or furnish with hogs bristles.

Ensongnie, & Ensonie. as Ensoigne.

Ensorcelé: m. ée: f. Charmed, inchaunted, bewitched, forspoken.

Ensorcelement: m. A bewitching, inchaunting, charming, forspeaking.

Ensorceler. To charme, inchaunt, bewitch, forspeake, forelooke, eye-bite.

Ensorcelerie: f. Witcherie, Sorcerie, forspeaking, eye-biting.

Ensorceleur: m. A witch, Charmer, Inchaunter, Sorcerer.

Ensoufflé: m. ée: f. Blowen, gently puffed, or breathed; also, breathing, gently puffing, or blowing.

Ensoufré: m. ée: f. Insulphured; mingled, perfumed, or dressed, with Sulpher.

Ensoulfrer. To insulpher; to dresse, mingle, fill, or perfume, with brimstone.

Ensouple: m. A Weauers Yarne-beame.

Ensoupleau: m. A Weauers Cloth beame.

Enstocatte. A field enclosed with pikes, and appointed for a single combat, by permission of the Prince, or of his Lieutenant Generall.

Ensuairé: m. ée: f. Wound vp, as a coarse in a sheet.

Ensuairer. To wind a coarse in a sheet; also, to wipe with, or lap in, a handkercher; &c.

Ensuble de tisseran. A Weauers beame; that wherwith he makes his threads to close together; or, as Ensouple.

Ensuccré: m. ée: f. Sugaric, besugared; sweetned, or seasoned, with sugar.

Vne ensuccrée. A nice, coy, quaint wench; one that euer minces it, ouer makes it goodlie.

Ensuccrer. To besugar; to sweeten, or season with sugar.

Ensué: m. ée: f. Sowed vp.

Ensuer: To sow vp; or, as Ensuerer.

Ensuerer. To wind a coarse in a sheet, &c; as Ensuairer.

Ensuyvant. Following, succeeding, next after.

Ensuyvi: m. ie: f. Followed, pursued, runne after; or come next vnto; also, imitated, or emulated.

Ensuyvre. To follow, pursue, runne, or chase after; also, to imitate, or emulate.

S' ensuyvre. To insue, succeed, follow, come immediately after, or vpon.

Qui s' ensuit on l' ensuit: Prov. Such as flie are followed.

Entablature: f. An Intablature; or, as Entablement.

Entablé: m. ée: f. Boorded, planked; seeled.

Entablement: m. A boording, or planking; a ioyning, or closing of boords; a couering, or seeling with boords; also, seeling, wainscot, boord-worke; any thing made (onely) of boords; or a close lay, course, or frame of boords vpon, or ouer, a thing; also, as Viteson.

Entablement d' vn pilier. The (square) foot, or Base of a piller.

Entaché: m. ée: f. Spotted, stained, soyled; polluted, corrupted, tainted; touched with, or guiltie of, an offence.

Entacher. To spot; staine, defile, taint, infect; pollute, corrupt.

Entacher vne besongne. To vndertake, or take vpon him &c.

Entacheure: f. A spot; also, a spotting; also, a staining; tainting, or taint; a vicious marke.

Entail: m. A mortaise, or incutting.

Entaillé: m. ée: f. Intailed, carued, grauen, cut.

Entailler. To intaile, graue, carue, cut in.

Entailleur: m. A caruer, grauer, cutter, intailer.

Entailleure: f. A caruing, grauing, incutting, intailing; also, a cut, gash, or garse.

Entalenté: m. ée: f. Much desiring, affecting, or longing after, hauing a great mind, or appetite vnto.

Mal entalenté envers. Ill affected towards, spighting, bearing a grudge vnto.

Entalenter. To breed a longing, imprint a desire in; beget an affection, giue a great appetite, vnto.

Entamé: m. ée: f. Cut, opened, or broken, vp; (alreadie) begun, or tasted of; also, exulcerated, wounded, hurt; violated; marde, spoyled.

Entamer. To cut, open, or breake vp; to begin vnto; to tast, or take an essay of; also, to violate, marre, spoyle, wound, hurt.

Entamer l' honnesteté. To disgrace, deprave, or detract from; to hurt the good name of.

Entamer le pas. To begin; to lead the daunce, or breake the yce, vnto; to make an ouerture vnto.

Entamer le peau. To exulcerate, breake, or cut, the skinne.

Entameure: f. A cutting, opening, breaking vp; a beginning, or ouerture; an assay taken of; also, an exulcerating, hurting, wounding; violating, marring.

Entant que. Seeing that, in as much, or forasmuch, as.

Entant qu' en moy est. With all my meanes, as far as I can, as much as lieth in me.

Entassé: m. ée: f. Heaped, packed, piled, laied vp together, or one vpon th'other.

Entassement: m. A heaping, piling, packing, laying vp together, or one vpon another.

Entasser. To heape, packe, pile, lay vp together, or one vpon another; to exaggerate, gather in heapes, add heape vnto heape.

Entasseur: m. A heaper, or piler vp of.

Ente: f. A graffe.

Enté: m. ée: f. Grffaed; ingraffed; fixed, fastened, or setled, in.

Entelechie: f. Absolute perfection, or efficacie; perfect motion, or essence; force mouing of it selfe; also, as Endelechie.

Entellectual: m. ale: f. Intellectuall, belonging to the vnderstanding.

Entement: m. A graffing; a fastening, or setling in.

Entendement: m. Vnderstanding, apprehension, conceit; iudgement; intelligence; naturall knowledge.

Mettre son entendement à. To giue his mind to, set his wit on; addict, or applie himselfe vnto; to intend, or attend, with diligence.

Enten-

Entendeur : m. An vnderstander, conceiuer, apprehender.

Entendible : com. Conceiuable, intelligible, vnderstandable, plaine, euident.

Entendiblement. Plainely, perspicuously, intelligibly; so as it may be vnderstood with ease; also learnedly, sensibly, vnderstandingly, with good iudgement.

Entendoire. as Entendement.

Entendre. To vnderstand, conceiue, apprehend, perceiue, iudge of; also, to learne, or heare; to haue notice, get intelligence, come by the knowledge of.

Entendre à. To studie, mind, heed, care for, looke to; addict, apply, or giue, himselfe vnto.

Il entend le numero. He is throughly acquainted with the matter.

Il n'entend que le haut Alleman. He vnderstands nothing, hee is vtterly ignorant, of it.

I'en feray comme ie l'entendray. I will doe as I see cause.

Tu l'entens mal. You are much mistaken, you take your matters amisse, you make a wrong interpretation of the matter.

S'entendre auec. To practise vnder-hand, haue secret intelligence; be in league and friendship, hould priuate correspondencie, with.

Qui mal entend mal respond. Pro: He that vnderstands wrong answers euery.

Entends-tu. Looke Enten-tu.

Entend-trois. An equiuocation of doubtfull, or double meaning.

Il fait de l'entend-trois. He answers (of purpose from the purpose,) as though he vnderstood not the question; or, he seemes to listen to somewhat else; or, makes as if he had three to answere at once, and therefore cannot satisfie euery one.

Entendu : m. ue : f. Vnderstood, conceiued, apprehended, perceiued; also, wise, cunning, wittie, skilfull, expert, knowne, well seene or experienced, in.

Entendu que. Seeing, or considering that; now that, in as much as.

Entenne : f. A scyle-yard.

Entente : f. Intention, purpose, meaning; mind, fancie, will, affection; diligence, endeauour; also, as Entendement.

Respondre à deux ententes. To answer equiuocally, doubly, ambiguously, doubtfully.

Ententif : m. iue : f. Busie, earnest, intentiue, studious, diligent, vehemently set or bent vpon, firmely resolued, constantly disposed vnto.

Ententivement. Intentiuely, busily, earnestly; attentiuely, carefully, heedfully.

Enten-tu : m. Wit, conceit, vnderstanding, apprehension.

A bon enten-tu il ne faut qu'un demy mot: Prov. A good wit needs but one word to informe it; or, a wise man fetches whole sence from halfe a word.

Entenu. ie vous suis fort entenu. I am very much beholden to you.

Enteprinse. as Entreprinse; An enterprise.

Enter. To graffe; also, to fasten, settle, or fix, in.

Enter en Canon. To lodge a short graffe (cut off with some more barke at the foote then needes to couer it,) within the tender barke of a shoote, or branch, that's little bigger then the graffe it selfe.

Enter au Coin. To graffe within a cleft made in the top of a Stock; (the ordinarie fashion.)

Enter en cornuchet; as, Enter en Canon.

Enter en petite couronne. To graffe betweene the barke and the tree; much after the fashion of, Enter en Canon; but with this difference, that the graffe must be lodged within the thick barke of a well-grown tree.

Enter en escusson. Looke, Escusson.

Enter en fenté. To graffe within a cleft made in the top of a Stock; (our ordinarie fashion.)

Enter en flusteau. as, Enter en Canon.

Enter à la hanede. as, Enter en perche.

Enter un oeillet. To fasten a bud with clay in the barke of a tree.

Enter en perche. To graffe in a willow pole; take a good big branch of willow, or of any other soft wood, pearce it with a wimble vnto the pith in seuerall places at least halfe a foot asunder; put into each hole a graffe, well closed at the foot (to keepe out water) then lay your pole along in the earth, and couer it ouer, leauing onely some two inches of each graffe to peere, & spread, aboue ground: of the substance of this pole (which quickly takes roote) they being nourished, within three or foure yeares grow prettie trees; then is it taken vp, & with a saw parted among them, to serue to root them in the next ground they are set in.

Enter en poupée. To lodge a graffe within a cleft made in the top of a Stocke.

Enter en tuyau: as, Enter en Canon.

Enteriné : m. ée : f. Admitted, allowed, approued of; confirmed, consented vnto; absolutely passed, wholly granted, and thereupon fully executed, obtained, or accomplished.

Enterinement : m. An absolute admitting, allowing, approuing, letting passe; a full graunt, or confirmation, followed by th'effect, or execution thereof; for it also imports (more then a bare approbation) an accomplishement; or, at least, a decree for it.

Enteriner. To admit, approue, allow of; to let passe, yeeld consent, or giue confirmation, vnto, and thereupon to effect, execute, accomplish; or iudge, and pronounce it to be effected, executed, accomplished.

Enterrage : m. as Enterrement.

Enterré : m. ée : f. Interred, buried, layed in a graue, hid in the earth, put into the ground, couered ouer with mould.

Aujourd'uy en terre demain enterré : Pro: Looke, Terre.

Enterrement : m. An interring, burying, buriall; also, a graue, sepulcher, or place of buriall.

Enterrer. To interre, burie, lay in a graue; to hide in the earth, couer ouer with mould, put into the ground.

Enterreur : m. An Interrer, or burier.

Enteshé : m. ée : f. Buzzed into th'eares, put into the head of; made beanie headed; also, put on the head, or, whereinto the head is put.

Entester. To trouble, or make beanie, the head; to breed, or bring, the headach; also, to put (an opinion, or conceit) into the head; also, to put the head into, or put a thing on the head.

Entesteure : f. A troubling, or making of the head very beanie; a breeding, or bringing, of the headach; also, a putting of the head into; or putting vpon the head; a hooding; also, a hole to put the head through.

Enteur : m. A graffer.

Enteure : f. A graffing.

Enteyser son arc iusques à l'oreille. To draw his bowe vp to his eare. v. m.

Enthroné : m. ée : f. Inthronized, placed in a throne.

En-

Enthroner. To inthronize, or set in a throne.

Enthusiasme: m. A rauishment of the spirit; diuine motion, or inspiration; poeticall furie.

Enthyrsé: m. ée: f. Decked, stucke thicke, wrapped about, with Ivie.

Entiché: m. ée: f. Tainted; faultie, vnsound, corrupt, corrupted, polluted; or, as Entaché; spotted, &c.

Entier: m. A graffing, or graffed stocke; also, a plot, or nurserie of graffed, or graffing stockes.

Entier: m. ere: f. Intire, whole, solide, sound; full; inuiolate; vnbroken; strong, firme, steadfast; assured, faithfull; also, sincere, honest, vnpartiall, iust; also, fast, constant, stiffe, obstinate in his opinion, whom nothing can remoue, no reasons dissuade, from a conceit once taken.

Cheval entier. A stone-horse; also, a horse that turns vnwillingly, or is not pliant to his turne.

Entiercé: m. ée: f. Sequestred, into a third hand: ¶Orleannois.

Entiercement: m. A sequestration, sequestring, or putting into a third hand.

Entiercer. To sequester, or put into a third hand.

Entierement. Intirely, wholly, fully, soundly, throughly, altogether; strongly, firmely, steadfastly, faithfully; vprightly, iustly, sincerely, honestly, vncorruptly.

Entierété: f. Entirenesse, wholenesse, soliditie, soundnesse; also, honestie, integritie, sinceritie, vprightnesse; also, constancie, or obstinacie, in an opinion.

Entimbraillé. That beares a deuice on the top, or flourish hanging from the top, of his helmet.

Entimbré. as Entimbraillé.

Entiquer. To cleaue, or sticke fast like a Ticke.

Entoilé: m. ée: f. Made of, or furnished with, linnen, or canuas; also, intangled, or caught, in toyles.

Entoiler. To make of linnen, to furnish, or garnish with, linnen cloth, or canuas; also, to intangle, or catch in toyles; or, to compasse, or hemme in with toiles.

Entoisé: m. ée: f. Bent, as a bow; lift vp, as a sword readie to execute, or strike.

Entoiser vn arc. To bend a bow.

Entoiser vne espée. To lift vp a sword with an intention to strike.

Entombé: m. ée: f. Intombed, laied in a Sepulchre.

Entomber. To intombe, interre, lay in a Sepulchre.

Entombi: m. ie: f. Stonied, benummed, clumpse, asleepe.

Entommeure. as Entoumeure; or, as Entonnoir.

Enton. A little graffe.

Entonnage: m. Tunnage, tunning.

Entonnelé. Tunned, put into caske.

Entonnelement: m. A tunning; or putting of liquor into caske.

Entonneler. To tunne (by a funnell.)

Entonné: m. ée: f. Singing, sounding, resounding; also, sung, tuned, or sounded; also, tunned, or put into a vessell with a funnell.

Entonnement. A sounding, or singing; also, a tuning, or giuing of a tune.

Entonner. as Entonneler; Also, to tune, sing, chaunt it; sound, resound; and most properly, to begin, or giue a tune, in singing &c.

Entonnoir: m. A funnell, or tunning-dish.

Entonnoir matrical. An instrument vsed for th'infusion of medicines into the matrix; it may be also vnderstood of a P.

Entorce: f. A wrinch, wring, straine, gird, griping; also, crookednesse; also, a shrewd turne, sore part, or aggriuance; an ouerthwarting.

Entorce: com. Wrie, crooked; and hence; Iambe entorce.

Entorceure. as Entorseure; And, more peculierly, a wrinch in the backe-bone which turnes, and wries the ioynts thereof, and makes it of the forme of a Roman S.

Entormé. Rounded, or incircled by; compassed about with.

Entors: m. A wrinch, wring, straine.

Entorse: f. as Entorce.

Entorsé: m. ée: f. Wrinched; wrung, strained, writed, by-straying; wrested, griped; vexed, grieued, extreamely.

Entorser. To wrinch; to wring; to straine, or wrie by straining; to wrest, gripe; vex, aggrieue, extreamely.

Entorseure: f. A wrinch, wresting, wrying; Lookе Entorceure.

Entortillé. Writhed, writhen, wrigled; wound, twirld, twined about.

Intestin entortillé. The third small gut, seated in the lower part of the Nauell; it is cleriused, and makes many turnes, which extend vnto th'Os sacrum: In it the Chylus waxing thicker beginneth to rest.

Entortillement: m. A writhing, or winding about a thing; a turning into a rundle, or circle; a twining, twisting, curling, twirling.

Entortiller. To turne, writhe, wreath, or wind about; to plie, or fould into a round, rundle, or circle; to twine, twirle, twist, curle, round.

Entortillonné; & Entortillonner. as Entortillé, & Entortiller.

Entouillé: m. ée: f. (Signifies most properly, berayed, or defiled; but the more commonly) pestered, incombered, hindered; snarled, intangled, confounded, without head or foot.

Entouillement: m. A filthie pestering, incombrance, impeachment, binderance; confusion; intanglement.

Entouiller. (Is most properly, to beray, defile, make foule: but most commonly vsed for) to pester, incomber; insnarle, insnare, intangle; (and thereby) to confound, or hinder.

Entoumeure: f. A gobbet, a great bit, or cut of meat, &c; or as Entonnoir.

Entour: m. A round, circle, rundle, compasse.

Les entours d'vn ville. The liberties, or territorie belonging to a towne; the compasse of ground, or circuit of country, thats next vnto, or about, it.

Entour. About, round about; on all sides, on each hand, of.

Tout à l'entour. In all places, countries, or quarters thereabouts.

Entouré: m. ée: f. Compassed, rounded, enuironed; inwrapped, inclosed, or hemmed in, on all sides; also, bettowred; furnished, or beautified with towers, or turrets.

Damoiselle entourée. Masked: ¶Rab.

Entourellé: m. ée: f. Bettowred; bedeckt, or begirt, with turrets.

Entourement: m. A compassing, enuironing, rounding, incircling, inclosing on all sides.

Entourement d'eaux. A surrounding of waters.

Entourer. To compasse, enuiron, goe about, round, surround; inclose, infould, hemme in on euerie side; also, to furnish, or beautifie with towers.

Entoureure: f. Lookе Entourure; & Entourement.

Entourné: m. ée: f. Rounded, inuironed, incircled, or compassed by; also, turned, or wound on; put, or wound about.

En-

Entourner. To turne, wind, or put about; alſo, to compaſſe, incloſe, inuiron, hemme in, or about.
s'Entourner. To goe round, or turne into a round forme; to twirle, or wheele about.
Entournoy. m. as Entonnoir; A funnell.
Entournure: f. A round, a circle, a rundle.
Entourtillant. Wreathing; rowling about with.
Entourtillé. as Entortillé.
Entourtillon. A wreath, twirle, rowle.
Entourtillure: f. A wreathing, twirling, twining, rowling about with; alſo, as Entortillon.
Entourure: f. A compaſſe, a compaſſing; any thing that compaſſeth, and incloſeth another; a goe-about.
Entracaſſé: m. ée: f. Halfe-broken.
Entract: m. The greeniſh ſalue called Trait.
Entrage: m. as Entrée; A fee, or cuſtome due at th'entring of marchandize into a place; alſo, a fine, or income payed for a leaſe.
Entrailles: f. The intrals, inteſtines, inwards, bowels, guts.
Entrainé: m. ée: f. Drawen, haled, or pulled away; trayned, or trayled, along.
Entrainer. To hale, draw, or pull away; to traine, drag, or trayle, along.
Entrait: m. A ſhort peece of timber indented within another peece, thereby to hold it the faſter.
Entrange. as Entrage.
Entrant. Entring; beginning; going into.
Careſme entrant. Shrouetide, or Shrouetewſday.
Vn homme entrant. A bould or audacious fellow; one that (without inuiting) thruſts into any company.
Entrape: m. A peſterment, comber, trouble, incombrance; any thing that catches, binders, or intricats, a man as he goes.
Entrapé: m. ée: f. Combered, peſtered, troubled; intricated, intrapped; caught, or confined, within a trap.
Entraper. To peſter, comber, trouble, take vp too much roome; alſo, to intricate, or as Entraver; alſo to intrap.
Entraver. To ſhackle, or fetter, the legs.
Entraverſer. To run, goe, or bind, or crоſſe; to ouerthwart.
Entraves: f. Shackles, fetters; paſterns for the legs of vnrulie horſes.
Entraveſtiſſement: m. An interueſting, or interueſture; a mutuall poſſeſſion, or ioint poſſeſſing of.
Entraveſtiſſement de ſang. Is betweene ſuch as are ioyned by mariage; where the ſuruiuor hath all, or the moſt part of that which was iointly poſſeſſed.
Entraveur: m. A fetterer, or ſhackler.
Entré: m. ée: f. Entered, gone into; alſo, begun in.
Vn viſage entré: A hollow, jaw-fallen, ſunke-in, countenance.
Entre. Betweene, amongſt, in, among, together, one with another.
Entre deux. Doubtfull, indifferent, in ſuſpence, at his owne choice whether yea or no; alſo, readie, or about.
Entre deux & as; Looke, Deux.
Droict d'entr'eux. Right ouer againſt them.
s'Entr'accointer. To become acquainted, or grow familiar, together.
s'Entr'accoller. To embrace, coll, or clip one another; to catch bould each by others neck.
s'Entr'accompaigner. To keepe companie, bould ſocietie, conuerſe together; to trauell both one way.
s'Entr'accrocher. To cleſpe, grapple, booke, or clip together; to lay faſt hold one of another.

s'Entr'accuſer. To accuſe, or appeach one another.
s'Entr'advertir. To bould intelligence together, to haue intelligence one with another.
s'Entr'affoler. To hurt, wound, fell one another.
s'Entr'aguiſer. To ſharpen each th'other.
s'Entr'aider. To giue mutuall aſſiſtance one to the other.
s'Entr'aimans. Mutuall friends, equally affecting each other; betweene whom no loue is loſt.
s'Entr'appeler. To call one another.
s'Entr'approcher. To approach one another, to draw neere together.
Entr'arraché: m. ée: f. Plucked vp heere & there, rooted out from betweene.
Entr'arracher. To pluck vp here and there, to roote out from betweene.
s'Entr'aſſener des eſpées. To ſtrike, or hit one another with their ſwords.
Entr'attacher. To ty, faſten, claſp, knit together, or one within another.
Entr'attachez: m. ées: f. Tyed, faſtened, claſped, knit together, or one within another.
Entr'avoir. To haue, or poſſeſſe, one another; Looke Fol.
Entrebaail: m. A cleft, rift, chinck, chap; halfe-gape, or yawne; halfe opening, ſmall ouerture, or diuiſion in the midle of a thing.
Entrebaaillé: m. ée: f. Halfe gaping; halfe, or yawning-open, chinked, chopped, riuen, clouen, ill ioyned, or couched together.
Entrebaailler. Halfe, or in the middle, to gape, yawne; cleeue, riue, open; or ſet open.
Entrebailler. as, Entrebaailler. s'Entrebaiſer. To interchange kiſſes; to kiſſe one another.
Entrebaſti: m. ie: f. Built betwixt.
Entrebaſtir. To build betwixt, to ioyne one building to another.
s'Entrebatre. To fight, to fall together by the eares; or ſcuffle one with another.
Entrebatu. ils ſe ſont entrebatus. They haue pummeld, or cudgelled, one another; they haue fought, or beene by th'eares, together.
Entrebayement: m. A halfe-gaping, or halfe-opening; a chinke, chap, cleft, rift betweene, or in the middle of a thing.
Entrebecqueter. To pecke at one another.
Entrebeu: m. euë: f. Halfe drunke, almoſt whiſt, whoſe cap is neere hand ſet.
s'Entrebleſſer. To hurt, or wound, each other.
Entreboyau: m. A thicke, and fat skin, that faſtens the bowels to the backe, and each of them to th'other.
s'Entrebrecher. To breake, or make breaches into, one another.
Entrebriſé: m. ée: f. Halfe broken, broken betweene, or in the middeſt; (hence) alſo, diſtinct, diſtinguiſhed; alſo, vneeuen, as a thing that is halfe burſt.
s'Entrebrouiller. To intangle, or trouble, one another.
Entrebruire. To make a rumbling, or humming noiſe, to keepe a iarring, rumor, or murmure among others.
s'Entrebruſler. To burne each other.
Entrebruſlez: m. ées: f. Burned by both parties, or both ſides; mutually burned.
s'Entrecareſſer. To cheriſh, welcome, vſe kindly, one another; to beſtow mutuall complements, to interchange kindneſſes.
Entrecaſſé: m. ée: f. Halfe broken, almoſt broken, neyther ther fullie whole, nor broken.

Entrecaſſer. Halfe, or almoſt to breake.

s'Entrecaſſer les dents. To bruiſe the teeth by gnaſhing them hard one againſt another.

s'Entreceder. To yeeld, or giue place one to th'other.

s'Entrecéler. To hide, or conceale one another.

Entre-cep. The diſtance betweene ſtocke and ſtocke.

s'Entrecercher. To ſearch for each other.

Entreceſſe. ſans en. Without intermiſſion, intermedium, reſt, pauſe; or ceaſing.

s'Entrechamailler. Armed men to hacke, or ſlaſh one another, or each other.

Entrechangé: m. ée: f. Interchanged.

s'Entrechanger. To interchange; or, halfe to alter, almoſt to change; and hence;

La veuë m' entrechange. My ſight diminiſheth, mine eyes grow dimme.

s'Entrecharger. To charge one another.

Entrechaſſe: f. A croſſe caper.

Entrechaucher. To tread vpon, to trample amongſt.

s'Entrecherir. as s'Entrecareſſer.

Entrecheris: m. ies: f. Mutually cheriſhed, made much of one by th'other.

Entrechevaucher. To ride betwixt, or among.

Entrechoc: m. An interſhocke; a mutuall, or interchangeable, ruſhing one vpon another.

s'Entrechoiſir. To cull, picke, chuſe out, one another.

s'Entrechoquer. Two armies, or enemies violently to cope one with, ruſh one againſt, or preſſe one vpon, another; to interchange, or come together with, a furious ſhocke.

Entrecler: m. ere: f. A little cleere, ſomewhat bright or light, or betweene darke and light, as in a twylight.

Entrecognoiſtre. To diſcerne from others, to know one among many others.

s'Entrecognoiſtre. To know one another, or haue acquaintance together.

Entrecogneu: m. eue: f. Knowne among others, diſcerned from others.

Entrecolomne. The ſpace, or place betweene pillers.

Entrecolomnement. A leauing of ſpace between piller and piller.

s'Entrecommuniquer. To communicate one with another.

s'Entreconvier. To lathe, bid, inuite, one another.

s'Entrecoſſer. To iurre, or butt together, as Rammes.

s'Entrecoudoyer. To iuſtle, or elbow, one another; to giue one another the elbow.

Entrecoulé: m. ée: f. Glid, ſlid, runne in betweene, or among.

Entrecoulet. To glide, ſlide, runne betweene, or among.

Entrecoupé: m. ée: f. Cut betweene, halfe cut; cut off in the middeſt; interrupted.

Entrecouper. To cut betweene, or in the middeſt; halfe to cut; alſo, to prune, cut off, or picke out, vnneceſſarie ſprigs from among the fruitfull braunches; alſo, to interrupt.

Entrecoupeuſe: f. An intercutting; an halfe cutting; an interruption, a cutting off in the middeſt.

Entrecourir. To runne on both ſides, ioyntly to runne.

s'Entrecourir. To incounter; to runne one vpon another.

s'Entrecraindre. To ſtand in feare one of another.

Entrecroiſé: m. ée: f. Thwarted, intercroſſed, wrought, or marked ouercroſſe.

Entrecroiſement: m. A thwarting, or intercroſſing, or lying one ore croſſe another.

s'Entrecroiſer. To intercroſſe; to thwart, intangle, or lie ore croſſe one another.

Entrecroiſure: f. A double croſſe, or intercroſſing.

Entrecueilli: m. ie: f. Picked betweene, gathered from among.

Entrecuellir. To picke, or gather betweene, or from among.

Entrecuiſſes. The cods of a wild Boare.

s'Entredebvoir. To owe each vnto other.

s'Entredefendre. To defend one another.

s'Entredemander des nouvelles. To aske one of another how the world goes.

Entredent. The ſpace that is betweene two teeth.

s'Entredepecer. To pull one another in peeces.

s'Entredeschirer. To teare each other aſunder.

s'Entredesfaire. To vndoe, or defeat, one another.

Entredeu: m. eue: f. Due interchangeably, betweene man and man, or from one to another.

Entredeux: m. A diſtance, a ſpace, partition, vacant place, or time betweene, or in the middeſt of; an intermedium, or interual; any thing that parts, or diuides, other things.

Il fut entredeux de le tuer. He was about to kill him; or in doubt whether to kill him or no.

Vn livre relié avec du papier blanc entredeux. A booke bound with a leafe of cleane, between each leafe of printed, paper.

s'Entrediffamer. To defame, diſgrace, diſcredit one another.

s'Entredire iniures. To raile at, or to reuile, one another.

s'Entrediſants. Telling one another, ſaying one to the other.

Entre-diſcerner. To diſcerne, or know one from the other; to make a difference betweene themſelues.

s'Entredommager. To wrong, or hinder each th'other.

Entredonné: m. ée: f. Interchanged, exchanged, giuen me for another.

s'Entredonner. To interchange, exchange, giue each to the other; s'entredonner courage. To hearten, or encourage one another.

Entredormir. To ſlumber; to lie betweene ſleeping, and waking.

Entredoubté: m. ée: f. Staggered at, ſomewhat doubted of, or whereof one is partly in ſuſpence.

Entredoubter. To ſtagger at, ſomewhat to doubt of; to be in ſuſpence.

Entrée: f. An entrie, paſſage, entrance, allie, way, or path leading vnto a place; a gate, a doore, or threſhold of a houſe; an acceſſe; a meane to come vnto a thing; an entring, or going in; a beginning, or ouerture; the firſt blow giuen, ſtone laid, yce broken; alſo, cuſtome, or impoſt, for marchandiſe brought into a place; alſo, the income paid by a purchaſer vnto his new Land-lord; alſo, a preſent, or gratuitie beſtowed on a Prince, &c, at his firſt entrie into a place.

L'entrée de table. The firſt courſe; or, the meat that's firſt ſerued vp, at table.

Entrée de vin és villes cloſes. An impoſition of v.s. Tour. vpon euerie Muid of wine brought into a walled towne, or into the ſuburbes thereof, to be ſold; firſt raiſed by Charles the ix. and ſince enhaunced by Henrie the third vnto xx.s. Tournois.

Amende de roſt entrée. Looke Amende.

Droict d'entrée. as Droict de preſence.

La ſouris qui n'a qu'vne entrée eſt incontinent happée: Prov. The mouſe that hath but one hole is ſoon caught; caught; the man that hath but one helpe's soone oretaken.

s'Entr'embrasser. To imbrace, or hug one another in their armes.

s'Entr'empoigner. To claspe (as wrastlers) one another by the wrists, or armes.

s'Entr'encourageants. Incouraging one another.

s'Entr'encourager. To hearten, or incourage, one another.

s'Entr'entendre. Vnderhand to serue one anothers purposes; to hold secret intelligence one with another.

Entr'esclos: m. ose: f. Halfe hatched.

Entr'escrire. To interline, or write betweene.

Entr'escrit: m. ite: f. Interlined, written betweene.

s'Entr'essayer à la. To trie one another at.

Entrefaicte. sur ces entrefaictes. In the meane while, hereupon, while these things were a doing.

s'Entrefaire grande feste. To make verie much one of another; to congratulate with great ioy their good haps together.

s'Entrefascher. To be angrie, or fall out, one with th'other; to brable, or brawle together.

Entrefendre. To diuide, cut betweene, cleeue in two, part in halues; also, halfe to cut, almost to cleeue.

Entrefendu: m. uë: f. Halfe-clouen, almost diuided; also, clouen in two, parted in halues.

Entrefetir. To interchange some blowes; to strike, or hit, at once, one another; also, to interfeere, as a horse.

Entrefessier: m. The space betweene the buttocks.

Entrefession: m. The space betweene the priuities, and the fundament; or as Entrefessier.

Entrefileures de drap. The space betweene thread and thread.

s'Entreflatter. To sooth each other, to smooth one with another.

s'Entrefondre. as s'Enfoncer; To runne, or sinke ouer head and eares into; or, to sinke deepe into the filthie, or dreggie bottome of.

Entrefossé: m. The distance, or space that is betweene pit and pit, or betweene ditch and ditch.

s'Entrefouëtter. To whip each other.

Entrefouïr. To dig betweene.

Entrefouler. To tread among, to trample in the middest, or thickest of.

s'Entrefrapper. To strike, or smite, each other.

Entrefrizé: m. ée: f. Frizled, or curled, one within another.

Entrefrizer. To curle, frizle, ruffle (the haire, &c.)

s'Entrefroisser. To clap, clash, knocke, breake, bruise, one against another; to crash one another in peeces.

Entrefroissez: m. ées: f. Clapped, knocked, broken, cracked, one against another.

s'Entrefrotter. To rub one against another; to interfeere; also, to beat, bethwacke, or thumpe, each other soundly.

Entrefrotture: f. A rubbing one against another; a horses interfeering.

s'Entregaller. To rub, scratch, or claw, one another.

Entregent: m. Ciuilitie, courtesie, complement, good carriage; a bold, and comelie fashion of behauiour.

Qui sçait bien son entregent. as Entregenté.

Entregenté: m. ée: f. Well behaued; that knowes good fashions (and vses them) that becomes whatsoeuer he does.

s'Entregenter. Il se sçavoit en: en toutes compagnies. Hee knew well how to carrie himselfe in all companies.

Entreget. as Entreject.

s'Entregratter. To scratch, claw, scrub, each other.

s'Entregronder. To whurre, yarre, grumble, one at another; whence;

Pendant que les chiens s'engrondent le loup devore la brebis: Prov. Looke Chien, or Brebis.

s'Entreguerroyer. To make warres one vpon another.

s'Entrehaïr. To hate one another.

s'Entrehanter. To conuerse much together.

s'Entrehapper. To catch hold one of another.

s'Entreharceler. To vexe, harrie, trouble, tug, one another.

Entreheurt: m. An interchocke; or, as Entreheurtement.

Entreheurtement: m. A scuffling, iusling, iustling, butting, bickering, together; a knocking, one against th'other.

s'Entreheurter. To iustle, butt, or iarre, one another; to scuffle, or bustle, together.

Entreheurtis. as Entreheurtement.

s'Entrehucher. To call, whoop, or whistle, one to, or for, another.

Entrejamber. To crosse legs.

Entreiant: m. as Entregent.

Entreject: m. An interposition; a casting, or putting betweene; a word cast, or speech giuen, forth by way of motion, or otherwise.

Entrejectant. Interlacing, interposing, thrusting, or casting, betweene.

Entrejecté: m. ée: f. Interposed, intermingled; cast, or thrust betweene, or among.

Entrejecter. To interpose, interlace, intermingle; cast, thrust, or forcibly put in, betweene or among.

Entreillizé: m. ée: f. Intergrated, thick lattised, crosse-barred.

Entrejoindre. To couple, or ioyne, together.

s'Entrejoindre. To clip, coll, imbrace, each other.

s'Entrejouer. To play, or sport, one with another.

Entrelacement. as Entrelassement.

Entrelaissé. Deferred, intermitted, put or left off a while, discontinued for a time.

Entrelaisser. To intermit, leaue, deferre, discontinue, slacken, put off for a time.

Entrelardé: m. ée: f. Interlarded; fat, and leane together.

Entrelardement: m. An interlarding; a mingling of different things, as fat and leane, great and small, together.

Entrelarder. To interlard; to mingle different things together.

Entrelas: m. A knot hard to be loosed, an intricate businesse, a worke much intangled; also, as Entrelassement.

Entrelassé: m. ée: f. Interlaced, intermingled; foulded, plaited, intangled, one within another; set, put, thrust in, betweene or among; interposed.

Enterlassement: m. An interlacing, intermingling, interposing; a plaiting, wrapping, foulding, or intangling one within another; a setting, putting, or thrusting in, betweene, or among.

Entrelasser. To interlace, intermingle, interlard; fould, plait, twine, or intangle one within another; to set, put, or thrust in, betweene or among.

s'Entrelasser. To wearie, or tire out, one another.

Entrelasseure. as Entrelassement.

Toicts ornez d' enterlaſſeures. Roofes decked with interlaced frets.
Entrelaſſis: m. An interlacing, plaiting, interweauing.
Entrelié: m. ée: f. Tyed together; bound betweene.
Entrelier. To tie together; to bind betweene.
Entreligne: f. An interline, or interlining.
Entreligné: m. ée: f. Interlined.
Entreligner. To interline (a writing.)
Entrelire. To read together.
s'Entrelouër. To commend one another.
Entreluicter. To wraſtle one with another.
Entreluire. To appeare, ſhine, or be ſeene among, betweene, or in the middeſt of; alſo, to giue a glimpſe, or ſhine by halfe.
Entrelunaires. Iours en. The dayes, or ſpace, wherein neither the old, nor new Moone is ſeene.
Entremander. To ſend betweene partie and partie.
s'Entremanger. To eat vp, or vndoe, each other.
Entrement: m. An entring, or going in; a beginning, an entrance.
Entremeſlé: m. ée: f. Interlaced, intermixed, intermingled; ſet, inſerted, mingled among.
Entremeſler. To intermingle, interlace, intermix; to ſhuffle vp one with another; to inſert, or ſet among.
s'Entremeſler de. To Intermeddle with; to imbark, or put, himſelfe into.
Entremets: m. Certaine choice diſhes ſerued in between the courſes at a feaſt, or banquet.
Entremetteur: m. A ſtickler, mediator, dayes-man; an intermedler, or dealer in other mens cauſes, or controuerſies.
Entremettre la beſongne. To intermit, ſlacken, deferre, diſcontinue, delay, put, or leaue it off for a time.
s'Entremettre de. To meddle, or deale with; to thruſt himſelfe into.
s'Entremeurir. To wax, or be, halfe ripe.
s'Entremignarder. To dandle, cocker, or flatter, one another.
Entremiſe: f. A meanes, or mediation; an intermedling, or brokage; a dealing betweene partie and partie; any medling in, or managing of, (other mens) buſineſſes.
s'Entremocquer. To interchange mocks, gibes, quips, ſcoffs, flouts; to ride, or deride, one another.
s'Entremordre. To bite one another.
s'Entremouiller. To wet, bedeaw, beſprinkle, moiſten, each other.
Entremoyen: m. A diſtance, intermedium, meane, or meane while.
s'Entrempeſcher. To diſturbe, or hinder one another.
Entre-mutiner. To put into a mutinie; to ſet together by th' eares.
Entremuye de moulin. The mill hopper.
Entremy. par en. Amongſt, or in the middeſt of.
Entrenaiſtre. To ſpring vp, ariſe, be borne, betweene, or among.
s'Entrenavrer. To wound each other.
Entrenavrez. Wounded, each by th' other.
Entrenoüé: m. ée: f. Interlaced, intangled; tied, or knotted betweene; alſo, ſwumme betweene, or among.
Entrenouër. To ſwimme betweene, or among; alſo, to intangle, or tie knots betweene.
s'Entrenuire. To hurt, endammage; hinder, peſter, one another.
s'Entr'injurier. To reuile, or abuſe, one another.
s'Entr'obliger. To bind, oblige, or make beholden themſelues, one to the other; to enter into mutuall bonds.

Entr'obligez. Bound, obliged, beholden, the one to the other.
s'Entr'occir. To kill each other.
Entr'oeil: m. The ſpace betweene the eyes.
Entr'oublié: m. ée: f. Forgotten in the meane while; ſlipt out of memorie ſince that time.
Entr'oublier. To forget in the meane while, or ſince then.
s'Entr'oublier. To forget each other.
Entr'ouï: m. ie: f. Heard ſcatteringly, by halues, or but here and there a word.
Entr'ouïr. To heare by halues; to heare here and there a word; to heare vnto his thinking; or to thinke hee heares.
Entr'ouvert: m. erte: f. Chopped, chawned, clouen, gaping; halfe, or almoſt open; neither fully ſhut, nor open; whence;
Les yeux cachez à doigts entr'ouverts. Couered with ſtradling, and halfe-open, fingers; rather hidden in ſhew then hindered of their ſight; or ſo hidden by them that the hider may with eaſe looke through them.
Entr'ouvrir. Halfe to open, to make way throguh; alſo, to lay (halfe) open vnto.
s'Entr'ouvrir. Halfe, or almoſt to open, to gape, cleeue, goe aſunder of it ſelfe.
s'Entrepardonner. To forgiue one another.
Entreparlement. An interrupting, a ſpeaking in a mans caſt.
Entreparler. To interrupt one that ſpeakes; to ſpeake in his tale, to hinder his ſpeech, with demaunds.
Entrepas: m. A faſt walke, a racke; a racking, or great pace of ſome horſes, that cannot amble, and muſt not trot.
Entrepend: m. Part of a womans &c.
s'Entrepicquer. To pricke, nip, taunt, quip, cut, each other.
s'Entrepigner. To combe, or claw one another; to pluck one another by the beards; to goe together by the ears.
Entreplanter. To plant, or ſet betweene.
Entreplié: m. ée: f. Interfoulded, or foulded between.
Entreplier. To fould betweene, to interfould.
s'Entrepoindre. To pricke, ſting, nettle; gird, gall, or vex, one another.
Entrepos: m. An interpoſition; or, thing thats put, in an equall diſtance betweene others; alſo, a ſetting, putting, laying.
Entrepoſer. Seeke Interpoſer.
Entrepoſition. as Interpoſition. s'Entrepouſſer. To thruſt out the harlot; to thruſt, or puſh one another.
s'Entrepouſſans. Thruſting, or crowding one another.
Entreprenant. Enterpriſing, attempting; bold, hardie, couragious, forward, aduenturous; that cares as little for his fleſh as another,
Entreprendre. To enterpriſe, attempt, vndertake, or take in hand; aſſume, or take vpon him; to venter vpon, enter into, goe in hand with; alſo, to vſurpe, or incroach vpon.
s'Entreprendre. To congeale, curdle, thicken; knit, or ioyne together.
s'Entreprendre par les mains. To ſhake hands, to ioyne hands together.
Entrepreneur. An enterpriſer, attempter, vndertaker; alſo, a Broker, Pettifogger, or intermedler in other mens contruerſies.
Marchand entrepreneur. A Marchant venturer.
Entrepreſſé. Cloſed, crowded, thruſt, preſſed in, or, one betweene another.

Entrepreſſer. To ſtop, cloſe, or preſſe in, or one betwixt another.

s'Entrepreſſer. To preſſe, crowd, or thruſt hard one another.

s'Entrepreſter. To lend one to another.

Entreprins: m. ſe: f. Vndertaken, attempted, enterpriſed.

Entreprins de ſes membres. Taken, benummed, or blaſted.

Entreprinſe: f. An enterpriſe, action, attempt, aduenture; alſo, an vndertaking, or taking in hand; alſo, an vſurpation, or incroachment vpon.

Homme d' entreprinſe. A man thats fit for great imployments.

s'Entrepromettre vne choſe. To promiſe a thing one vnto another.

s'Entreprouver. To proue, trie, aſſay one another.

s'Entrequerir. To ſeeke each other.

Entrer: m. An entrie, or going into; an acceſſe vnto.

Entrer de fief ſervi. Looke Servi.

Entrer. To enter, goe, or ſtep in; to haue acceſſe vnto; to begin to put himſelfe into.

Entrer en bettes. To fall a tipling, or quaffing; or to grow tipſie by tipling.

Entrer en combuſtion avec. To fall to deadlie feud with; to raiſe a great tumult againſt.

Entrer par la feneſtre. See Feneſtre.

Entrer en la haute game. To ſtretch, or buſie, his wits.

Entrer en quartier. To begin his waiting; to get into fauour, credit, authoritie, dealings; to come in requeſt.

Entreraclé: m. ée: f. Scraped about; filed, or poliſhed betweene.

Entreracler. To ſcrape about; to file, or poliſh betweene.

s'Entreregarder. To behold, or looke on each the other.

s'Entreregretter. To deplore, or bemoane each other; paſſionately to wiſh for one another.

s'Entrerencontrer. To meet one another, or together.

Entrerompant. Interrupting, ſtopping.

Entrerompre. To interrupt, ſtop, confound, breake off in the mids.

Entrerougir. To bluſh a little, to looke ſomewhat red.

Entreroulé: m. ée: f. Rowled betweene; or now and then.

Entrerouler. To rowle betweene.

s'Entreruer des pierres. To pelt one another with ſtones; to throw ſtones one at another.

s'Entreſaiſir bras à bras. To ſeize one another by the armes.

s'Entreſaluër. To ſalute each other.

Entreſcieures: f. Interſawings; frequent (but diſtant) cuts, or entries, made by a ſaw, &c.

s'Entreſecourir. To aſſiſt, releeue, or ſuccour, one another.

s'Entreſembler. To reſemble one another.

Entreſemé: m. ée: f. Set, ſowed, inſerted, interlaced betweene.

Entreſemer. To ſet, ſow, inſert, interlace betweene, or here and there one.

Entreſerré: m. ée: f. Stopped, ſhut, or cloſed in, or betweene.

Entreſerrer. To ſtop, ſhut, or cloſe in, or betweene.

Entreſolive. A ſpace, or quarter betweene two rafters.

s'Entreſouffrir. To endure, abide, or brooke each other.

s'Entreſouvenir de. To remember one another of; alſo, halfe to remember.

Entreſpace. An intermedium, or ſpace betweene.

s'Entr'eſpier. To ſpie, or prie into one anothers doings.

s'Entresuir. as s'Entreſuyvre.

s'Entreſurprendre. To ſurpriſe, or take napping one, another.

Entreſuytte: f. A continuation, or immediate ſucceeding one of the other; a cloſe, or neere following one of another.

s'Entreſuyvre. To follow (cloſe, or neere) one another; to ſucceed immediately, or in the necke one of the other.

Entretaché: m. ée: f. Spotted (and ſpatled) here and there.

Entretaillé: m. ée: f. Cut betweene, or in the middeſt; cut here and there; cut by peeces, and with pauſes; cut at ſeuerall times; alſo, interfeered.

Entretaillement: m. A cutting betweene, or in the middeſt; a cutting here and there; a cutting by peeces (with pauſes, or at ſeuerall times;) alſo, an interfeering; and hence, a tripping, or contrarietie, in ſpeech.

Entretailler. To cut betweene, or in the middeſt of; to cut here and there; to cut (an entire thing) by peeces, and with pauſes, or at ſeuerall times.

s'Entretailler. To cut, or hacke one another; alſo, to interfeere; to hit, (and in hitting to hurt, or bedurt) one leg with th'other; alſo, to trip, or contrarie, himſelfe in his owne ſpeech.

Entretailleure: f. as Entretaillement; Or, a cut here and there.

s'Entretaſter. To taſt, feele, eſſay, ſound, handle, or grope, another.

Entretemps: m. An intermedium, or meane while.

Entretenement: m. A coherencie, or hanging of things together; an vninterrupted continuation of matters; an intertaining; alſo, a penſion, wages, intertainment.

Entretenement de voix ſans reſpirer. The holding of a note.

Entretenir. Mutually to hold, or keepe; (both ſides) to intertaine, or continue in a courſe agreed on; alſo, (without reciprocation) to obſerue, or keepe inuiolably; alſo, to intertaine, defray, ſuſtaine, maintaine; alſo, to intertaine, or hold in talke; to chat or conuerſe with; to vſe affably, courteouſly, kindly; alſo, to intertaine, or accept of, an offer; alſo, to hold, keepe, retaine, together.

Ie ne fais point les breſches, mais ie les entretiens fort bien. (The ſpeech of an aged teacher.)

s'Entretenir. To cleaue, hold, or hang cloſe together.

s'Entretenir de. To nouriſh, intertaine, or ſuſtaine himſelfe with.

Ils s'entretiennent comme font les gruës. Said of ſuch as obſtinately follow a ſect, or faſhion.

Qui veut entretenir ſon ami n' ait nuls affaires avec luy: Prov. He that loues to continue a friend muſt haue but little to doe with him.

Entretenu: m. uë: f. Intertained; held, kept, obſerued; alſo, defrayed, ſuſtained, maintained; alſo, held in talke, or chat, complemented with, courteouſly vſed; alſo, accepted of; alſo, retained, or held together.

En-

Entretien: m. Intertainement, maintenance, meanes, nouriſhment; alſo, complement, complementing, or intertaining of one another with courteous ſpeeches.

Entretiſſeure: f. The wooſe of cloth.

Entretiſſu: m. uë: f. Wouen, or wrought betweene, as gold plate in tinſell; interlaced.

Entretiſtre. To interlace, or weaue betweene.

Entretoiſe. A croſſe quarter, or ouerthwart raſter, of timber.

Entretortillé: m. ée: f. Interlaced, much intangled, or twined.

Entretortiller. To interlace; to twine, or intangle much.

Entretoucheiment: m. A touching, ſticking, cleauing, or hanging of things cloſely together; alſo, a continuation.

s'Entretoucher. To touch one another; to abut, neighbour, or be neere one to the other.

Entretouillé: m. ée: f. Intangled, fubbled, confounded, peſtered, incombered.

Entretouiller. To mingle, intangle, confound, fubble vp things together, to peſter, to incomber.

s'Entrouver. To find each other.

s'Entretuër. To kill one another.

Entreveché: m. ée: f. Intangled, inſnarled, fettered, intricated,

Entrevecher. To intangle, inſnarle, fetter, intricate.

Entreveillé. Halfe awake, or betweene ſleeping and waking.

Entreveiller. To be waking now and then; or to lie betweene ſleeping and waking.

Entrevenir. To come in on a ſudden; to happen, or befall at vnawares; to be preſent among others; alſo, to mediate, or come betwixt.

Tels Seigneurs entreviennent au traité. Such Lords are contained, or compriſed, within the treatie.

Entrevenu: m. uë: f. Come, happened, befallen, in the meane while, or on a ſudden.

Entrever. To vnderſtand: ¶Barrag.

Entreverdir. To be greeniſh; or to be greene among other colours.

Entreverdoyer. The ſame.

s'Entreverſer. To ouerturne, or ouerthrow one another.

Entrevoché: m. ée: f. Peſtered, intangled, inſnarled, intricated.

Entreveſcher. To ſnarle, or intangle one within another; or as Entrevecher.

Entreviſé: m. ée: f. Viewed, or viſited, now and then.

Entreviſer. To view, or viſit now and then.

Entreviſité: m. ée: f. Seene, or viſited now and then.

Entreviſiter. To goe to ſee, or viſit ſometimes.

Entrevoir. Scarcely to ſee, to haue but a glimpſe of.

s'Entrevoir. To behold, or viſit, one another.

Entrevomi: m. ie: f. Vomited, ſpued, or caſt out now and then, or among other things.

Entrevomir. To caſt, or vomit out among other things; to parbreake ſometimes, or by fits.

Entroupelé. Trouped, or flocked together; aſſembled, or gathered, by troups.

Entroupeler. To troupe, heape, or flocke together; to gather in companies; to aſſemble.

Entrouper. as Entroupeler.

Entuilé: m. ée: f. Tiled; couered with tiles.

Entuiler. To tile; to couer with tiles.

Enture: f. as Entement; A graffing.

Envahi: m. ie: f. Inuaded, aſſailed, aſſaulted, ſet on.

Vne volonté de fuïr les avoit premier envahie. They had from the beginning reſolued to flie; or, feare had at firſt poſſeſt their minds, and put them into a humor of flying.

Envahie: f. An aſſault, an onſet, an inuaſion.

Envahir. To inuade, aſſaile, aſſault, or ſet vpon; alſo, to ſeiſe, apprehend; or lay hold on; (as in th'example vnder Envahi.)

Envain. A kind of Serpent; as Envent.

Envaiſſelé: m. ée: f. Inueſſelled, put into a veſſell.

Vn bel eſprit envaiſſelé. A good pot wit.

Envaſé: m. ée: f. Inueſſelled, put into a veſſell.

Envaſer. To put into a veſſell.

Envaſquiné: m. ée: f. In a long, Spaniſh, or old-faſhioned, Vardingale.

Enucleation. An enucleation, or vnkernelling; an explanation, full interpretation, abſolute expoſition, plaine manifeſtation of.

Envelope: f. Any thing that ſerues to wrap another in; a couer; a ſarplier; a wrapper; a peece of waſt paper for that purpoſe.

Envelopé: m. ée: f. Inueloped; wrapped, infoulded, incloſed, inuolued; alſo, peſtered, intangled, perplexed, incombred.

Envelopement: m. An inueloping, wrapping, infoulding; intanglement, implication, incombrance.

Envelopément. Obſcurely, intricately; comberſomely, by wrapping, or inuolution.

Enveloper. To wrap, infould, inuolue, implicate, incloſe; alſo, to peſter, intangle, inſnare, perplexe, incomber.

Envelopoir: m. as Envelope.

Enveloppe, & Envelopper; & Enveloppoir. as Envelope, Enveloper, &c.

Enveloutè: m. ée: f. Of Veluet, or cloathed with Veluet.

Enveniné: m. ée: f. Inuenomed, impoiſoned.

Envenimer. To inuenome; alſo, to poiſon th'outſide of.

Envent: m. A ſhort blind Serpent, which is thought to ſleepe all Winter; whence;

Endormy comme vn envent. An extreame ſlug.

Envergongné: m. ée: f. Much aſhamed, far out of countenance.

Envermé: m. ée: f. Filled with, or growne full of, wormes.

Enverminer. To fill with, or grow full of, wormes.

Enverré: m. ée: f. Diſpleaſed with, incenſed againſt: ¶Norm.

Envers: (A Subſtantiue) m. Th'inſide, or wrong ſide of a thing; l'envers du drap.

Mettre à l'envers. To ouerthrow, turne vpſide-down, tumble, or caſt topſie turuie.

Nager à l'envers. To ſwim on his backe.

Tourner à l'envers. To turne the inſide, or wrong-ſide, outward.

Nul endroict ſans ſon envers: Prov. No commoditie without a diſcommoditie.

Envers. (A Preposition, ſignifies) towards, neere to, about; alſo, in the preſence, or in reſpect, of; alſo, againſt.

Enverſé: m. ée: f. Inuerted; turned vpſide-downeward, or th'inſide outward; alſo, turned in and out.

Enverſer. To inuert; to turne vpſide-downeward, or the inſide outward; alſo, to turne in and out.

Envi. as Envy; With an ill will.

Envictailler. To victuall; to furnish with, or prouide of, victualls.

Envictuailler. The same.

Envié: m. The spot, or marke which a child hath on some part of his bodie, representing the thing his mother longed for, or was afrighted with, when hee was in her bellie.

Envie: f. Enuie, spight, grudge, repining; griefe, displeasure at the prosperitie, or good parts of another; a malicious emulation; also, a desire, or lust vnto, a longing after; whence;

Vous auriez bien envie de me faire peur. Belike you would faine make me afraid.

Envieux meurent, mais envie ne mourra iamais: Prov. Th'enuious die, but enuie liueth alwaies.

Il n'est envie que de moine: Prov. Looke Moine.

Envié: m. ée: f. Enuied, spighted, maligned, repined at.

Envieillir. To wax old, grow in yeares; become stale; beginne to decay; to quaile, faile, draw towards his end.

Envieillissement: m. A waxing decrepite, a growing into age, a stepping into yeares; a quailing, failing, decaying, becomming old, or stale.

Envier. To enuie; to maligne, spight, grudge, repine at the worth, or good fortune of others; also, to desire earnestly, to long for.

Envier (au ieu.) To vie.

Envieusement. Enuiously, spightfully, maliciously.

Envieux: m. A Slow-worme, or Blind-worme.

Envieux: m. euse: f. Enuious, malignant, repining, despightfull, spighting at another mans worth, or fortune.

Femme envieuse. A woman that longeth.

Envieux meurent, mais envie ne mourra iamais: Prov. Though enuious people die, yet enuie shall liue euer.

Envinaigré: m. ée: f. Seasoned with vinegar.

Envinaigrer. To season, or sharpen, with vinegar.

Enviné: m. ée: f. Stored, furnished, or seasoned, with wine.

Envirollé. Whose top, end, or tip is bound about with a ring, or hoope of yron, &c.

Environ: m. les environs d'vne ville. The compasse of ground, or circuit of country, next about it.

Environ. About; thereabouts; nigh vnto.

Et mon homme environ. And my marchant to worke, fell close to it, went roundly about it.

Tout à l'environ. All thereabouts; round about, on each side, on euerie part.

I'ay assez à faire environ les mains. I haue my hands full of businesse; I haue as much to doe as I can turne me to.

Environné. Inuironed, compassed, begirt, inclosed, hedged, or hemd in on euerie side.

Environnement: m. An incompassing, inuironing, inclosing round about.

Environner. To inuiron, incompasse, begird, inclose, hedge or hemme in, on all sides.

Envis. bien envis. Vnwillingly, loathly; repiningly.

Toutesfois est faict ce qu'envis ont fait. Looke Faict.

Envisagé: m. ée: f. Set with the visage or face towards, opposite in the forepart vnto.

Envisager. To set the face or visage towards, to looke towards or against; the forepart of a thing to be in opposition with another.

Envitaillement: A victualling; a prouiding of, or furnishing with, victualls,

Envitailler. as Envictailler.

Envis. Vies at play: ¶Rab.

Enule-campane. The hearbe called Helicampanie, Scabwort, and Horse-heale.

Enumeration: f. An enumeration, reckoning, numbring, rehearsall.

Enunciation. An enunciation, signification, declaration; a denouncing; also, a maxime, or proposition.

Envoisiné: m. ée: f. Beneighboured; compassed with, neere vnto, hard by, neighbours.

Envolé: m. ée: f. Fled away, passed hastily or swiftly, gone suddenly; escaped, got packing, departed.

s'Envoler. To flie away; to escape, depart, get packing; hie away speedily, hast away quickly, passe away suddenly.

Envoulté, qui a l'esguillette nouée. Charmed in his chiefe member.

Envouté: m. ée: f. Vaulted, arched; bowed, or bending, downwards like a vault.

Envouteiment. as Desgoustement; A distasting. (v.m.)

Envoy. A message, or sending; also, th'Enuoy, or conclusion of a Ballet, or Sonnet; in a short stanzo by it selfe, and seruing, ostentimes, as a dedication of the whole.

Envoyé: m. A speciall messenger sent by a Prince vnto his Embassador in a forreine countrey.

Le sainct Envoyé. The holie Apostle.

Envoye: f. Looke Ennoye.

Envoyé: m. ée: f. Sent; delegated; addressed or directed, vnto; also, cast or thrust, out.

Envoyer. To send; to delegate; addresse or direct, vnto; also, to cast or thrust, out.

Envoyer au grat. To send a grazing; a Maister to put away his man; (and, perhaps from this phrase came our contemptuous, Goe scrape.)

Ie le vous envoyeray par le borgne. I will send it you by Iohn Long the Carrier.

Qui envoye chetif à la mer il n'en rapporte ne poisson ne sel: Prov. See Poisson.

Qui fol envoye fol attend: Prov. He that sends a foole, staies (either) for (or as) a foole.

Envoyriner. To glase a window.

Envoyseure: f. Mockerie; an old word.

Envy. Vnwillingly, repiningly, grudgingly, loathly, against the will, much against the humor of.

A l'envy l'vn de l'autre. One to despight the other; or in emulation one of the other.

Envyré: m. ée: f. Drunke, drunken; made, or become drunke; in drinke, mellow, tipled, foxed, ouerseene.

Envyrer. To make drunke; to fox.

s'Envyrer. To be drunke, or in drinke; to be mellow, tipled, flusht, ouerseene.

Il s'enyvre de sa propre bouteille. Hee is drunke by his owne bottle; (said of one thats too farre in loue with a good part of his owne, or abuses it vnto his ruine.)

Le Tavernier s'enyvre de sa Taverne: Prov. Of the same, or like, sence.

Eolipyles: f. Hollow brasen bowles, (or balls) which being filled with water, and set by the fire vntill they bee throughly heated, yeeld forth of the narrow holes (whereof they haue many) strong puffes of wind, and continue them vntill all the water be euaporated.

Epacte. An addition; (in Almanacks) the Epact.

Epaigneul. as Espaigneul.

Epa-

Epalouir. To melt, or swelter with extreame heat.
Epanalepse: f. The repetition of a word, whereby a sentence or verse is ended, at the beginning of the next; also, a repetition after a long Parenthesis; the figure of Resumption.
Epanode. A seuer ill rehearsall of two things which at first were spoken of ioyntly; or (more generally) any returne, regression, renouation, repetition.
Epanons d'un dard. The feathers of a dart.
Epanter. as Espouvanter; to dismay.
Epatique. The hearbe Trinitie, or noble Agrimonie.
Epaular: m. An Orke; a great sea-fish mortall enemie vnto the Whall.
Epe: in stead of Et puis; a rusticall word.
Epeiche: f. A Speight; the red-tayled Woodpecker, or Highaw.
Epelan: m. A Smelt.
Epelé: m. Spealt, or spealed.
Epeler. To speale.
Eperge: f. A Brush.
Eperlan: m. A Smelt.
Ephebe: m. A mariageable youth or stripling; one that's foureteene and vpwards.
Ephectique: com. One that after long studie, & search, is more doubtfull then he was at first.
Ephemere. The hearbe Liricumfuncie, or May-Lillies; also, an ague of but one dayes continuance.
L'Ephemere Colchique. The wild Medow Saffron with the dark-red roots.
Ephemerique. Fievre eph. That lasts but a day.
Ephimeris. A Iournall, or daylie Register of things done.
Epicaie: f. Equitie, mitigation of the rigour of the Law.
Epicaïzer. To iudge according to equitie; to mitigate the rigor of the Law.
Epiche: f. A Speight; the red-tayled Wood-pecker, or Highaw.
Epicycle. A lesser circle, whose centre is within the circumference of a greater; hence, a lesser circle that comprehends, and carries about with it, a Planet, it selfe being carried about by a greater; the Seat of a Planet, or Storie wherein it is fixed.
Epiderme. The most outward thinne skinne of the bodie.
Epidimial. Maladie Epidimiale. as Epidimie.
Epidimie. An vniuersall sickneſſe, or generall infection; a most catching, or contagious disease.
Epidimique: com. Infectious, contagious, pestilent; or, vniuersall, generall, growne common, very much dispersed, among the people.
Epiecé: m. ée: f. Diuided, peecemealed, rent in peeces.
Epiecer. To peecemeale, diuide, rend asunder, pull in peeces.
Epigastre: m. All the outward part of the bellie from the bulke to the priuities.
Epigastrique. Belonging thereto.
Artere Epigastrique. Looke Artere.
Veine Epigastrique. A branch of the Iliack, or flanke veine; there are two of them; an outward, and an inward one, both which at length are ioyned with the Mammales.
Epiglottide. The couer, weesell, or flap of the throat.
Epigrammatique: com. Epigrammaticall, or Epigramlike.
Epigrammatiste. An Epigrammatist, a writer of Epigrams,

Epigramme: m. An Epigram; a Couplet, Stanzo, or short Poeme, wittily taxing a particular person, or fault; also, a title, inscription, or superscription.
Epigrer. as Escacher, & Fouler. (at Tours.)
Epilemie. A song of the superscription of a thing. ¶Rab.
Epilence. A kind of falling euill in a Hawke.
Epilepsie. The falling sickneſſe, or foule euill.
Epileptique. That hath the falling sickneſſe.
Epilogue: m. An Epilogue; the conclusion, knitting vp, or finall end, of a Play, &c.
Epilogué: m. ée: f. Concluded, ended, finished, knit vp.
Epiloguer. To conclude, or knit vp; to make a conclusion, epilogue, or finall end of.
Epinarde. A little fish; as Espinoche.
Epinete. as Espinette; a paire of Virginals.
Epinices. Feasts, verses, or songs of triumph after a victorie. ¶Rab.
Epinoche. as Espinoche.
Epinyctide: f. A wheale, or push that rises on the skinne by night.
Epiphanie: f. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth day in Christmas.
Epiphore: f. The Rhewmatieke moistneſſe, waterineſſe, or dropping of the eyes; also, violence, impression, vehemencie.
Epiphyse: f. An addition, or appendix to a bone, obtaining a peculiar circumscription within, and annexation to, it, though otherwise it be no true part of it.
Epiploïque. Veine epiploïque. See Veine.
Episcopal: m. ale; f. Episcopall; of, or belonging to, a Bishop.
Episcopaux: m. The followers, fauorites, or fauorers, of Bishops.
Episemasie: f. A note, or designation; a signification of the mind by the countenance, or gesture: Rabelais vses it (as if it were Episemanomie) for a popular shout, or acclamation.
Epistemon. A Teacher. ¶Rab.
Epistre: f. An Epistle, a letter missiue.
Epistrophe. The ending of two verses with one word; (a figure.)
Epistyle: m. as Architrave; also, a little piller set vpon a greater.
Epitaphe: m. An Epitaph; a funerall poeme, or inscription.
Epitasse d'une tragedie. The busiest part of a Tragedie.
Epithalme. A wedding Song, or Poeme; verses made, or a song sung, at a wedding, in commendation of the parties married.
Epitheme: m. A liquid medicine, applyed vnto an outward part of the bodie, by a peece of thinne linnen, or cotton dipped in it; thereby to supple the place, or coole and comfort the inward (heart, stomacke, or liuer) thats vnder it.
Epitheme: m. ée: f. Bathed, moistened, wet, bedeawed.
Epithemer. To bath, moisten, wet, bedeaw.
Epithimer. as Epithemer.
Epithin: m. The weed Dodder; especially that kind thereof, which growes twyning about the branches of Time.
Epitoge: m. A long Cloke, or Cassocke, worne loose ouer other apparrell; also, a Graduats hood.
Epitome: m. An Epitomie, Abridgement, Breuiarie.

Epi-

Epizeuxe. A figure, whereby a word, or more, hauing no other betweene them, are doubled in one sence.
Epodes. A kind of Lyricke verses; the first whereof is longer then the second.
Epotique. Drunken, swilling. ¶Rab.
Eprenas. The bloudie flix, and bellie ache, that come by the vlceration, or excoriation of the bowels. ¶Dauph.
Eptasyllabe: com. Of seuen syllables.
Epulotique. Skinne-breeding.
Epuré: m. ée: f. Cleansed, purified, clarified; also, dryed by running, drayned of liquor by wringing.
Epurer, as Espurer.
Equable: com. Euen, equall, of one sort, all alike.
Equalisé: m. ée: f. Equalled, matched, made euen; resembled, compared.
Equaliser. To equall, match, make euen; resemble, compare.
Equalité: f. Equalitie, euenesse, matchableneſſe; resemblance; indifferencie; comparison.
Equalizer. as Equaliser.
Equanimité: f. Indifferencie, moderation, quietneſſe of mind; a humor that takes all things well.
Equarri: m. ie: f. Measured, or squared out, by a Squire.
Equarrir. To measure, or square out, by a Squire.
Equarrissement: m. A measuring, or squaring out, by a Squire.
Equateur: m. The Equator, or Equinoctiall Circle; one of the six chiefe Circles imagined to be in the Firmament; thus called, because tis equally distant from the two Poles; and because when the Sunne is in it the day, and night are of equall length.
Equerre. as Esquierre.
Equestre: com. Of, or belonging to, Horsemen, Knights, or Gentlemen.
Equibiens. The Halses; or two holes in the prow of a ship, through which the Anchor-cables passe.
Equidiametral: m. ale: f. Equidiametrall.
Equidistamment. Of equall distance asunder.
Equidistance: f. An equall space, an euen distance, asunder.
Equidistant. Equally distant one from the other.
Equierre. as Esquierre.
Equilance: f. The hole or hollow, wherein the tongue of a balance playeth.
Equilibre: m. Equalitie of weight.
Equilibré: m. ée: f. Weighed in equall balances.
Equilibrer. To poise, or weigh, in equall balance.
Equinancie: f. The Squinsie, or Squinancie; an impostumous swelling about the necke.
Equinocce: m. The Equinoctiall; or equall length of day and night; It falls out in the Spring about the eleuenth of March; in Autumne, about the sixteenth of September.
Equipage: m. Equipage, furniture, good armour, fit attire; store of necessaries; full order, sufficient array.
Equipage d'un navire. (Most properly) her Marriners, and Souldiors.
Equiparable. Fit to be compared, or equalled vnto.
Equiparaison: f. Likenesse, resemblance; matching, equalitie; comparison.
Equiparé: m. ée: f. Matched, equalled; resembled, likened; compared; altogether as well done.
Equiparer. To compare, liken; match, make equall; to doe as well as another.
Equippé: m. ée: f. Equipped; armed, attired, stored with, prouided of, all necessarie furniture, prepared for an exploit, set in good order, sufficient array, full equipage.
Equiper. To equip, arme, attire, store with, prouide of, necessarie furniture; to prepare, make readie, set in array, enable, by full prouision, for an action, seruice, or exploit.
Equipolence: f. Equipolencie, equalitie in value.
Equipolent: m. Composition money; or, as Equivalent.
A l'equipolent. Accordingly, of a like value, proportionably, by euen portions, for his proportion or part.
Equipolent. Equiualent, of equall worth, of a like value, as good as the other.
Equipoler. To be of like, or equall value; to counteruaile the worth of; also, to make equall in value with.
Equipollé: m. ée: f. Counteruailed, equalled in value with.
Equipoller. as Equipoler.
Equippage: m. Equipage, furniture; &c; as, Equipage.
Equippé: m. ée: f. as Equipé.
Equippée: f. Equipage; or, a being in, or putting into, array, order, equipage; also, a suddaine, and fantasticall prank, or out-iert; a youthfull flying out of the way; and hence also, a digression.
Les equippées d'un lievre. Her running an end, an outright course.
Equitable: com. Equitable; iust, euen, equall, sincere; vpright.
Equitation: f. A riding on horseback.
Equité: f. Equitie, equalitie; euennesse; vprightnesse; mitigation of rigor; moderation of humour; mildnesse, clemencie, mercifulnesse.
Equivalent: m. Equall value; like for the like, one thing for another; or, the worth of a thing in exchange; hence; composition money; or, an yearelie composition, yeelded vnto the King by most of the commons, in lieu, and for th' abolishment, of an ancient Toll of xij d in the pound leuied vpon all small wares, victuals, and other prouision, retayled by countrey people in their ordinarie Markets: The Auvergnois, Limosins, Perigordins, & the inhabitants of some other countries thereabouts, do also pay a composition to be exempted from the Gabelle de sel, and others the like Impositions; All, to auoid the exactions, and hard dealing of the collectors, and farmers of them; for otherwise, this composition is as beneficiall to the Prince, and chargeable to the Subiect, as those Tols, and Taxes were.
Rendre l'equivalent. To acquit, requite; returne like for the like, or, one good turne for another; whence;
A pere, à Maistre, à Dieu tout-puissant, nul ne peut rendre l'equivalent: Prov.
Equivalent. (Adject.) Equiualent; of a like worth, or equall value; as good as another.
Equivoque: f. An equiuocation; a double, or diuers sence in one word, &c.
Nous sommes en equivoque. You meane one thing, and I another; or we mistake, or misconceiue, one another.
Equivoqué: m. ée: f. Equiuocated; doubtfully spoken, doubly meant.
Ie me suis equivoqué. I mistooke one word for another.
Equivoquer. To equiuocate, or vse words of diuers significations; to speake doubtfully, or with a double meaning.
Erable. The small Maple, or common Maple tree.

Grand

Grand erable. The
the Sycomore tree.
Eraige: m. An ayrie
En est il encore d left of the kind of Eraigne. as Eraige.
Eraillé. as Esraillé.
Erailler. Seeke Esrai
Erain. as Airain. Br
Erammie: m. A fi
head for want of d
Eraser. Looke Escra
Erater. To vnmilt, o
Erbergé: m. ée: f.
Erberger. To lodge,
Erchat. as Archat. per.
Erculisse: f. Liccori
Erectif: m. iue: f.
vp, making to stand
Eremodicié: m. é
lorne.
Cause eremodic
desperate.
Ereole: m. A small
Ergalie: f. The fra furnaces for Extrac
Ergastule: m. A Pr
Bridewell) for disso
Ergate: m. A windl also, a Racke for a Ergot: m. The spur dog; the heele, or t
Estre sur ses ergot to stand on tearmes Plein d'ergots. (
ons; quiddities, ca
Fendre l'ergot. T
Ergoté: m. ée: f. Spu
ed; armed, or spurr Ergoter. To rise on h
so, to wrangle, debat
Ergoteure: f. as Er
Ergotique: com. S
sions, or quiddities.
Ergotisme: m. Arg
ties.
Ergotiste: m. A wr ter.
Ergoture: f. as Er with spurres, or dea
Erigé: m. ée: f. Erect also, created.
Eriger. To raise, erect
Eriger en Duc, o
Earle.
Erigoteures. The s
of a dog, &c; Seeke
Ermaire. as Armair
Erme. Terres ermes
Ermine. The chate-sp thereof, Ermines.
Erminé: m. ée: f. F
mines.
Erminer. To furre w
Erminette. A little p
Ermitage: m. An H
Ermite: m. An Hermi

Grand erable. The great Maple (erroniously) called the Sycomore tree.

Eraige: m. An ayrie of Hawkes; or, as Herage; whence; En eſt il encore de l'eraige? What? is there yet more left of the kind of them?

Eraigne. as Eraige. ¶Rab.

Eraillé. as Eſtraillé.

Erailler. Seeke Eſtrailler.

Erain. as Airain. Braſſe.

Eramme: m. A fine, or amerciament ſet on a parties head for want of due apparance.

Eraſer. Looke Eſcraſer.

Erater. To vnmilt, or take the milt out of.

Erbergé: m. ée: f. Lodged, harboured.

Erberger. To lodge, to harbor.

Erchat. as Archat. Yellow wire made of Latten, or Copper.

Erculiſſe: f. Liccorice.

Erectif: m. iue: f. Erectiue; raiſing, aduancing, lifting vp, making to ſtand, ſetting bolt vpright.

Eremodicié: m. ée: f. Forſaken, deſert, ſolitarie, forlorne.

Cauſe eremodiciée. A matter thats giuen ouer for deſperate.

Ereole: m. A ſmall weight of two graines.

Ergalie: f. The framing, and diſpoſition of veſſels, and furnaces for Extractions, &c.

Ergaſtule: m. A Priſon, or Houſe of Correction (as our Bridewell) for diſſolute, and idle perſons.

Ergate: m. A Windleſſe, Windbeame, or Draw-beame; alſo, a Racke for a Croſſe-bow.

Ergot: m. The ſpurre of a Cocke; the dewe-claw of a dog; the heele, or tallon of a Hog.

Eſtre ſur ſes ergots. To be verie ſtatelie, loftie, ſurlie; to ſtand on tearmes, or on his Pantofles.

Plein d'ergots. (as if it were, Ergo) full of concluſions; quiddities, cauilling.

Fendre l'ergot. To runne away.

Ergoté: m. ée: f. Spurred, or hauing ſpurres; dewe-clawed; armed, or furniſhed with ſpurres, or dewe-clawes.

Ergoter. To riſe on his toes, or ſtand vpon his tip-toes; alſo, to wrangle, debate, cauill, contend.

Ergoteure: f. as Ergoture.

Ergotique: com. Sophiſticall, cauilling, full of concluſions, or quiddities.

Ergotiſme: m. Arguing, cauilling, ſophiſtrie, quiddities.

Ergotiſte: m. A wrangling arguer, a cauilling ſophiſter.

Ergoture: f. as Ergot: alſo, an arming, or furniſhing, with ſpurres, or dewe-clawes; alſo, as Ergotiſme.

Erigé: m. ée: f. Erected, raiſed, aduaunced, lift or ſet vp; alſo, created.

Eriger. To raiſe, erect, aduaunce, lift, or ſet vp.

Eriger en Duc, ou Conte. To create a Duke, or Earle.

Erigoteures. The ſpurres of a Cocke; the dewe-clawes of a dog, &c; Seeke Ergoture.

Ermaire. as Armaire.

Erme. Terres ermes. That ly waſt, deſart, and vntilled.

Ermine. The (hate-ſpot) Ermeline; alſo, the ſkin, or furre thereof, Ermines.

Erminé: m. ée: f. Furred with Ermines; poudered Ermines.

Erminer. To furre with Ermines.

Erminette. A little planing Ax.

Ermitage: m. An Hermitage.

Ermite: m. An Hermite; one that liueth alone in a deſart.

Erné: m. ée: f. as Eſrené.

Erner. To breake, or bruiſe, the reynes; to cruſh, or weaken, the backe.

Erodé: m. ée: f. Gnawne off, or about; eaten into.

Eroder. To gnaw off, or about; to eat into; alſo, to driue from field to field, from hill to hill.

Erogene. A certaine loue-procuring hearbe.

Eron. as Heron. A Herneſhawe.

Eroſion. A gnawing, or eating into.

Erraillé: m. ée: f. Spred wide open, ſet farre aſunder.

Oeil erraillé. A ſtaring eye.

Errailler. To ſpread wide open, ſet farre aſunder; (and hence) alſo, to ſtare with the eyes; to ſhale with the feet; to ſtraddle with the legs, or thighes.

Erraimme. A fine, or amerciament ſet on a plaintifs, or defendants head, for not appearing.

Erraimment. Quickly, preſently, out of hand; nimbly, readily; alſo, at randome.

Ferir erraimment. To ſtrike among the thickeſt, one knowes not whom.

Errandonner. To fly away at randome, or he cares not which way, ſo he may be gone; (an old word.)

Errant. Errant, wandering, vncertaine, rouing, roaming, ſtraying, vagabond, ſtragling.

Erraté: m. ée: f. Vnmilted; (& thereby) nimble, or light.

Errater. To take out a mans milt, thereby to make him the nimbler.

Erratique. as Errant.

Fiebvres erratiques. Agues whoſe fits hold no certain time of returne.

Erre: f. A way, path; courſe, or pace.

Erres. In the (plurall) number; as Erre; alſo, the view, or footing of a Deere.

Erre de chaſſerie. All the furniture, prouiſion, and equipage of hunting; as dogs, &c; and hence;

Prendre erre de chaſſerie. To prepare, or get, himſelfe to hunting; to begin to hunt.

Erre de la mer. The floating, or wauing of the ſea; the courſe of tydes.

Grand erre. Swiftly, faſtly, ſpeedily, quickly, haſtily, with noteable diligence, with great celeritie; whence;

Aller grand erre, ou, à grand erre, ou grand erres. To ſpeed, make haſt, hy apace, goe very faſt.

Limier de hautes erres, & bonnes. A fleet, or ſpeedie hound.

Pourſuyvre ſes erres. To purſue his firſt argument; or, to continue the ſubiect he began with.

Reprendre ſes erres. To returne vnto the way, or ſubiect from which he was diuerted; to come to his way, or matter againe.

Erré: m. ée: f. Erred, ſtrayed, wandered, roued, roamed; miſtaken, miſſed, fayled; offended, tranſgreſſed.

Errement. as Arrement; alſo, a path, ſtep, tract, or way.

Errementer. C'eſt (au ſtil du païs de Normandie) prendre expedition, & proceder en la cauſe avec ſa partie adverſe. ¶Ragueau.

Errer. To erre; ſtray; wander; miſſe, fayle, miſtake; alſo, to tranſgreſſe, offend, be faultie.

Qui ne parle n'erre: Prov. He that ſpeaks not, erres not (in ſpeech.)

Erres. de erres. Much, or verie much; (an old word.)

Erreur: f. An error, ouerſight, ouerſlip, miſtaking; an ignorance, or falſe opinion; a wandering, or ſtraying out of the right way; alſo, a miſſe, fault, offence, tranſgreſſion; In Law, an Error (not as ours, in proces or pleading, but) in an Arreſt, or Iudgement; and that two wayes;

Erreur de Droict. Error in Law; is when a Iudge hath giuen ſentence directly againſt Law; See Propoſition d'erreur.

Erreur de faict. Error in fact; is when he hath decreed againſt the Prooues made, or Euidence giuen in.

Propoſition d'erreur. A writ of Error; is procured out of the higheſt Chauncerie; oft ineſt, when Errors in fact are complained of; for it is not eaſily beleeued, that the Iudges, who can make Lawes, can erre in Law.

Errhine. A tent-like medicine applyed vnto, or put into, the noſe, to purge it, or the braine; as alſo, to ſtop bleeding; prouoke ſneezing; or to procure childbirth.

Erroné: m. ée: f. Erronious, fraught with errors; falſe.

Erronnée: f. The bearbe Centorie, Earth-gall, Feuerwort.

Erronnéement. Erroniouſly, falſely.

Ers. les Ers d'un cheval. as, Les Ars, or Harts.

Ers. des Ers. The Pulſe called Cich, Orobus, bitter Vetch, or bitter Fitch; It commonly beares a white flower, and therefore ſome doe tearme it, Ers blancs.

Ers de Crete, ou de Candie; Candian Orobus; leſſe in the cod, and ſeed then the ordinarie one.

Ers roux. The great wild Tare, Cichling, Peaſe euerlaſting.

Ers ſauvage. Wild Orobus (growes of it ſelfe among corne, and is oft miſtaken for the wild Fitch.)

Erte: f. A place that ſtands high, or is ſomewhat high to be looked at; a ſteepe, or craggie aſcent; a watch-tower.

Eſtre à l'erte. To obſerue, or watch (from a high place) to lye in wait for; to haue a nimble, or careſull eye; to be circumſpect, vigilant, warie, readie for all aduantages; to looke moſt heedfully about him.

Tirer vn ennemy à l'erte. To draw out an enemie into the field, or to fight.

Erubeſcence: f. Bluſhing, ſhamefaſtneſſe.

Eruce: f. The bearbe Rocket; alſo, the Canker-worme.

Erucé: m. ée: f. Nibled finely, licked vp daintily.

Erucer. To nible finely, to licke vp daintily.

Eructation: f. A belching, or breaking of wind.

Erudition: f. Erudition, learning, teaching, doctrine.

Erugineux: m. euſe: f. Of the colour of Verdigreece; ruſtie, cankred, or corrupted.

Eruité. as Eviré. Weakened. ¶Rab.

Eryſimon. Dioſcorides called ſo, banke Creſſes, or winter Creſſes: Theophraſtus, and Galen, two bearbes of one kind; the one called Miagrum, or gold of pleaſure; the other Cameline, or Treacle Wormeſeed.

Eryſipele. A painefull, and hot ſwelling, or impoſtumation, the matter whereof being verie thinne, and cleere, makes it looke almoſt as though it ſhined; ſome call it, the holie fire.

Es. (Of the Verbe, Eſtre) tu es. Thou art.

Es. (A Preposition, euer ſet before wordes of the plurall number, as, en, before thoſe of the Singular.) In the, at the; into, or vnto the.

Es vous; for voicy; behold; (an old word.)

Esbaaillé: m. ée: f. Clouen, riuen, gaping wide, ſet open, or wide aſunder.

Esbahi: m. ie: f. Abaſhed, aſtoniſhed, amazed, appalled.

A l'Esbahi. Baſhfully, amazedly, with great admiration, with much aſtoniſhment.

s'Esbahir. To wonder, maruell, be aſtonied, wax amazed, at.

Faire esbahir. To appall, affright, aſtoniſh, put out of countenance.

Esbahiſſement: m. A wondering, maruelling, admiration; appallment, aſtoniſhment.

Esbahy. as Esbahi.

Esbailleure: f. A gaping, or openneſſe.

Esbalançon. A horſes diſordered leape out of time, and meaſure.

Esbannoy: m. &, Esbannoye: f. as Esbanoy.

Esbanoie: f. Paſtime, ſport, recreation.

Esbanoy: m. Paſtime, ſport, recreation.

Esbanoye: f. The ſame.

s'Esbanoyer. To ſport, play, recreate himſelfe.

Esbarbé: m. ée: f. Made beardleſſe; barbed, ſhauen, ſheered; pruined, cut, or cropped off; alſo, ſmoothed.

Esbarbement: m. A barbing, ſhauing, ſheering, clipping; a cutting, pruining, or cropping, off; alſo, a ſmoothing.

Esbarber. To cut, ſhaue, clip, ſheere off, haire, ſhag, a nap, &c; alſo, to cut, picke, pruine, or crop off, ſmall ſprigs, &c; alſo, to ſmooth (a rugged thing.)

Esbarber vn livre. To cut off, or pare away, the edges, or corners, of the leaues of a booke.

Esbarluër. as Esberluër.

Esbaſé: m. ée: f. Looſſe, or ſhaken at; looſſed, or ſlipt from; driuen, or fled out of, it Baſis, ground, or foundation.

Esbaſer. To looſſe, or make looſſe, at the bottome; to dig vp, or take away, the foundation of; to ſhake from, or driue out of, it baſe, ground, or foundation.

s'Esbaſer. To ſlip from, or fly out of it Baſis, ground, foundation.

Esbat: m. Sport, paſtime, play, recreation; delight, pleaſure, dalliance, ieaſting.

Esbatement: m. A ſporting, playing, dallying, ieaſting, recreation.

s'Esbatre. To ſport, play; dally; ieaſt; paſſe away the time in mirth, and recreation.

Esbauché: m. ée: f. Rough-hewed, rudely begun; ſquared, framed, or cut groſſely out of the whole peece.

Esbauché (en peinture.) Tricked.

Esbauchement: m. A rough-hewing; a groſſe framing, ſquaring, or cutting out of a whole peece; a rude beginning; alſo, a tricking.

Esbaucher. To rough-hew; groſſely to frame, forme, ſquare, or cut out of the whole peece; to begin rudely, any peece of worke; alſo, to pruine a tree; and, in painting, to tricke.

Esbaudi: m. ie: f. Glad, merrie, cheereſull; heartened, exhilerated, cheered.

Esbaudir. To glad, reioyce, exhilerate, make merrie, hearten, cheere vp; alſo, to rouſe, awake, or ſtirre vp from ſleepe.

Esberge: m. A houſe, lodging, or harbour; alſo, an Inne.

Esbergé: m. ée: f. Lodged, harboured, houſed, ſoiourned, or aboad in.

Esbergement: m. A houſe, lodging, harbour, ſtation, place of ſtay, aboad, retreat.

Esberger. To lodge, harbour, houſe; to ſtay, abide, or ſoiourne in.

Esberger en ſoy vne faute. To commit, or be guiltie of, a fault; alſo, to take a fault vpon himſelfe.

Esberlué: m. ée: f. Dazled, dimmed, made purblind.

Esberluër. To dazle, or dimme the eyes; to make them purblind.

Esbahé: m. ée: f. Gaſt'ie, or pale of countenance; bleake, wan, as one that is affrighted, or hath had a feauer.

Esbloui. Dazeled; dimme-ſighted; or whoſe ſight is decayed.

Esblouir les yeux. To dazle, dimme, caſt a miſt before the eyes; to make them glimmer.

Esblouiſſant. Dimming, dazling, caſting a miſt before the eyes.

Esblouiſſement: m. A dazeling, dimneſſe, obſcuritie.

Esblouiſſon: f. as Esblouiſſement; or, a miſt caſt before the eyes.

Esblouiſſon de la teſte. Giddineſſe of the braine.

Esboché: m. ée: f. Rough-hewed, ſquared out, begun rudely; cut groſſely out of a groſſe peece; Looke Esbauché.

Esbocher. To rough-hew, ſquare out in great; begin rudely; cut groſſely out of the whole peece; Looke Esboucher.

Esboire. To ſoake in, to drinke vp.

Esboitement: m. A lameneſſe; or laming.

Esborgné: m. ée: f. Depriued of an eye.

Esborgner. To put out an eye, to depriue of one eye.

Esbouffer. To burſt out into a laughter; alſo, as Esboufler.

s'esbouffer à parler. To buſſe, or burſt out in ſpeech.

Esbouflé: m. ée: f. Spurted, ſpouted, or blowne (as moiſture) vpon.

Esboufler. To ſpurt, ſpout, or blow moiſture vpon.

Esbouilli: m. ie: f. Throughly boyled; ouerboyled; leſſened, or decayed, in boyling; almoſt dryed vp with boyling.

Esbouillir. To boyle throughly; to boyle to the diminution of the liquor that's in boyling; to ouerboyle, or boyle almoſt dry; alſo, to worke, as new beere, &c.

Esbouillure: f. Stuffe ouerboyled; burnt, or decayed in boyling.

Esboulé: m. ée: f. Ruinous, decaying; tumbled downe, fallen, or broken off; mouldred away of it ſelfe.

Terres esboulées. Decayed, or tyred out, by ouermuch tillage.

Esboulement: m. The ruine, decay, falling away, or tumbling downe, of a thing.

Esbouler. To rowle, or tumble downe; to fall, or burſt off; to moulder away of it ſelfe; as earth, ſtone, &c, in the hanging ſides of an old, or ill made, wall, banke, &c, thereby going to decay.

Esbouli. as Esbouilli.

Esboulu. as Esboulé; or, boyled out, or away.

Esbourgeonné: m. ée: f. Pruined, picked.

Esbourgeonnement. as Esbourjonnement.

Esbourgeonner la vigne. To pruine, ſhred, or nip off, the ſuperfluous and needleſſe buds, or ſprigs of a vine.

Esbourgeonneur: m. A pruiner, picker, or nipper off, of vine buds.

Esbourjonnage. as Esbourjonnement.

Esbourjonnement: m. A cutting off, or plucking away of, ſuperfluous buds, or ſprigs from Vines; a pruining, or ſhredding of their ſmall branches.

Esbourjonner. as Esbourgeonner.

Esbourjonneur: m. A pruiner of Vines.

Esbourré: m. ée: f. Cleanſed, winnowed, purged, taken out of it huske.

Esbourrer. To winnow, vnhuske, vnſhale; to rid, purge, cleanſe from chaffe, haire, huskes, flocks, downe, &c; alſo, to rinch, or waſh (a cloath &c.) lightly, or ſleightly.

Esbouy, for Esbloui. Dazeled. R.b.

Esbraillé: m. ée: f. Vnbraced, vnbuttoned, vntruſſed, looſely dreſſed; alſo, with his puddings about his heeles.

Esbranche: f. as Esbranchement.

Esbranché: m. ée: f. Lopped; bared, or depriued, of branches.

Esbranchement: m. A lopping; a baring, or depriuing of branches.

Esbrancher. To lop, or cut off boughes; to bare, or depriue, of branches.

Esbrandi: m. ie: f. Imbrandiſhed; caſt violently, or furiouſly vpon.

Quand le feu eſt esbrandi en pluſieurs maiſons. When fire hath violently ſeized on, or flaſhes into, many houſes.

Esbranlé, Esbranlement, & Esbranler; as, Esbranſlé, Esbranſlement, & Esbranſler.

Esbranſlé: m. ée: f. Shaken, iogged, ſhogged; brandiſhed; ſtirred, moued; made to quake; wauer, ſtagger; incline, or decline.

La partie eſt bien esbranſlée pour luy. is farre ſpent, or neere hand loſt.

Esbranſlement: m. A ſhaking, iogging, ſhogging; mouing, ſtirring; brandiſhing; wagging.

Esbranſler. To ſhake, ſhog, iog; brandiſh; moue, wag, ſtirre vp and downe; to make tremble, quake, wauer, totter, ſtagger; incline, or decline; and hence; s'Esbranſler de ſon devoir. To ſwarue from his dutie; to tranſgreſſe.

Esbranſler quelqu'un de ſon opinion. To remoue one from, or make him alter, his opinion.

Esbranſle-rocher. Rocke-ſhaking; (an Epithete for a bluſtering wind.)

Esbreché: m. ée: f. Broken, or whereinto a breach is made.

Esbrecher. To breake, or make a breach into.

Esbrillade: f. A iert, ierke, or correction, giuen a horſe with the bit, or bridle.

Esbroüé: m. ée: f. Hard-rubbed (in the waſhing;) alſo, ſnurted, or ſnuftered.

Esbrouëment: m. A rubbing hard, as in the waſhing of a naſtie cloth; alſo, a ſnurting, or ſnuſtering with the noſe.

Esbrouër. To rub hard, or together; as in the waſhing of a foule, or hard thing.

Esbrouër des narines. To ſnurt, or ſnuſter.

Esbrouëure. f. as Esbrouëment.

Esbruché: m. ée: f. Scattered, diſperſed, ſowed abroad.

Esbrucher. To ſcatter, diſperſe, or ſow abroad.

Esbu: m. uë: f. Soaked in, drunke vp.

Esbucheter. To gather, or picke vp, ſticks.

Esburré: m. ée: f. Vnbuttered; or, from which butter hath beene taken.

Laict esburré. Butter-milke, churnd milke.

Esburrer. To take butter from; to make butter-milke of.

Eſcabeau: m. A ſtoole.

Eſcabelle: f. A little, or low ſtoole.

Eſcabreux: m. euſe: f. Rough, rugged.

Eſcache: f. The Bitt called, a Scatch.

Eſcaché: m. ée: f. Squaſhed; beaten, battered, or cruſhed flat; preſſed, thruſt, knocked, ſqueezed hard together.

Eſcachement: m. A ſquaſhing; a beating, battering, or cruſhing, flat; a preſſing, thruſting, knocking, ſqueeſing hard, or cloſe, together.

Eſ-

Escacher. To squash; beat, batter, or crush, flat; to thrust, presse, knocke, squeeze, hard or close together.

Escacheur: m. A squasher; a beater, or crusher of things flat; a thruster, presser, or squeezer of things, hard or close together.

Escachure: f. A squashing; beating, or crushing, flat; a thrusting, pressing, or squeezing, hard or close together; also, a squash, crush, knocke, or squeeze, (whereby a thing is flatted, or beaten close together.)

Escadre: f. as Esquadre. A squadron; or square batallion.

Escadres isnelles. Swift, and light companies, as of birds, &c.

Escadron: m. as Esquadron; a squadron of Souldiors.

Escaffette: f. A kind of great, and long muskle-shell (resembling a little Skiffe, or Trey) wherewith the women of Picardie skumme their milke.

Escaffignon: m. A Socke; also, a Pumpe; or, a close, and single-soled shoe of thin leather.

Escaigne de fil, ou de soye: f. A skaine of thread, &c.

Escaille: f. The skale of a fish, &c; any skale, broken shell, or shale; also, as Coucon; also, the crust, or vpper laying, of a Pauement.

Escailles. (also) peeces of wood wherewith ioynts, or crannies left betweene stones, in building, are filled vp; also, the little skalie plats whereby an Armour is made plyant vnto the bodie.

Escaille d'acier, de bronze, d'erain, de fer, &c; the Offalls of Steele, &c; the skales that fly from them whē they are hammered; (very medicinable; especially those, that fall from the vnwrought brasse, or copper; whereof nayles are forged.)

Alun d'escaille. Seeke Alun.

Angelot à la grosse escaille. An old Angell: and (metaphorically) one that hath in him more stuffe and worth, then forme or fashion.

Bois d'escaille. The heart of Wood; (called so by Joyners.)

Pourpoint d'escaille. A plated Corselet made scale-fashion.

Tel cuide avoir des oeufs au feu qui n' y a que les escailles: Pro. Some weene they haue egges, that haue but shels, i' the fire.

Escaillé: m. ée: f. Skaled, skalie, hauing skales, or shales.

Mur escaillé. A wall full of cracks, or chinks.

Escaillement: m. A skaling; pilling, shaling of.

Escailler. To skale, or pull the skales of; also, to beat, bethwacke, belabor the skin-coat of.

Escailler sa ieunesse. To spend, passe; consume, or waste, his youth in dissolute, riotous, or licentious courses.

Escailler des noix. To pill, or shale, Walnuts.

Escailleur: m. A skaler; piller, shaler of.

Escailleure: f. A shaling, &c, as Escaillement.

Escailleures de pierres. Shards, or spalls; small peeces broken, or hewed, from stones.

Escailleux: m. euse: f. Skalie; full of skales, or shales.

Escaillon: m. A horses tush, or tuske.

Les Escaillons du palais. (Signifie also) the skales, or skale-like diuisions, in the roofe, or palate of the mouth of a horse.

Escalade: f. A scalado; a skaling; the taking, or surprisall, of a place, by skaling.

Escaladé: m. ée: f. Skaled; taken, surprised, or entred into, by scalado.

Escalarder des noix. To shale Nuts. ¶Norm.

Escalbotté: m. ée: f. Pilled, vnhusked.

Escalbotter. To pill; as Pease doe in boyling; to vnhuske, or loosen the huske of.

Escalé: m. ée: f. as Escaillé.

Escalier: m. A winding stayre.

Escalle. Looke Scalle.

Escallé: m. ée: f. Skaled; taken, surprised, or entred into (as a Towne) by scalado; also, gone into diuers parts, and ports; also, as Escaillé.

Escaller. To skale; to take, surprise, or enter into, by scalado; also, to goe into diuers parts, and Ports; also, as Escailler.

Escallier: m. as Escalier.

Escalonnier: m. ere: f. (Dents escalonnieres. A horses tuskes, or tushes.)

Escalque: m. An Vsher, or Sewer.

Escalventré: m. ée: f. Whose guts are squashed out, or bellie burst, by treading on it.

Escalventrer. To tread out the guts; to burst the bellie with trampling on it.

Escamme. as Escamne.

Escamne: m. A Bench, Forme, or Seat; also, a step to get vp vnto a higher thing by. ¶Pic.

Escamoté: m. ée: f. Disguised, changed, sophisticated.

Escamoter. To change, disguise, alter, sophisticate, foist in ill wares.

Escampe: f. A scaping, flitting, shifting, flying away; a speedie dislodging, quicke retyring.

Escampé. Scaped, flit, fled, auoided, recoyled, dislodged, runne away.

s'Escamper. To scape, flit, fly, auoid, recoile, retire; to runne away, or dislodge quickly out of a place.

Escandal: m. A Mariners sounding Plummet.

Escandillé: m. ée: f. Scantled; made according to the patterne or scantling of.

Escanné: m. ée: f. Stifled, throtled, strangled.

Escantuole: f. The Pumpe of a ship; or, as Escandal. ¶Rab.

Escapade: f. An escape, or escaping; and (more particularly) a licentious, rebellious, or disordered motion, in a horse; and (sometimes) the disordered, or licentious flying out of a man.

Escaper. as Eschapper.

Escapolin: m. A remnant, or parcell, of a peece of stuffe.

Escappe. A small square-edged circle, or fillet in a piller, &c; also, the bodie of a piller.

Escarade: f. The opening of the nether part of the branch of a horses Bitt.

Escaras. as Eschalas. ¶Pic.

Escarbelotte: f. A small Beetle.

Escarbillat: m. ate: f. Quicke, lustie, liuelie, frolicke, spiritfull, stirring, that will stand on no ground; also, fantastical, humorous, giddie, haire-braind.

Escarbot: m. The blacke Flie called, a Beetle.

Escarbot cornu. as Cerf volant.

Escarboté: m. ée: f. Stirred vp, as the fire.

Escarboter le feu. To stirre vp the fire.

Escarbotte: f. as Escarbot.

Escarboucle: m. The precious stone tearmed, a Carbuncle.

Escarboucle: f. The pestilent botch, or sore, tearmed a Carbuncle.

Escarbouillé: m. ée: f. Crushed, squeezed, battered, burst in peeces.

Escarbouiller. To crush, squeeze, batter, burst in peeces.

Escarbouiller la cervelle. To braine.
Escardé: m. ée: f. Carded.
Escarder. To card, as wooll.
Escardes. Cardes for wooll, &c.
Escardeur: m. A carder.
Escardeure: f. A carding.
Escare: m. A certein fish which (against the custome of all others) chewes his meate.
Escare: f. A skarre, or scab, or as Eschare.
Escargot. A snayle.
Escargot de mer. A whelke; also, a winckle, or periwinkle; (the first, the greatest; th' others, lesse kinds, thereof.)
Escarlate: f. Scarlet; also, the Scarlet apple.
Escarlatin: m. ine: f. Of skarlet, or of a skarlet hue.
Rose escarlatine. A Damaske rose.
Escarlatte. as Escarlate.
Escarmouchant. Bickering, skirmishing.
Escarmouche: f. A skirmish, bickering, brablement; a small fight, or fray.
Escarmouché. Bickered, skirmished; brabled.
Il s'est bien escarmouché. He hath talked throughly; he hath wraggled, or bestirred himselfe exceedingly in the matter.
Escarmoucher. To skirmish, bicker, brable; to bestirre himselfe like a horse that driues away flyes with his tayle.
Escarmoucheur: m. A bickerer, skirmisher; brabler.
Escarotique. Skarre-breeding; skab-bringing.
Escarouflé: m. ée: f. Scratched, torne, rent.
Escaroufler. To scratch; to teare, to rend.
Escarpe: f. A scarfe, or little wall without the mayne rampire of a fort.
Escarpé: m. ée: f. Vaulted; also, cut steepe downe; and hence;
Fossé escarpé en plomb. A dike made plum downe.
Escarper. To cut smooth, and steepe.
Escarpins: m. Pumpes; light, or single-soled shooes; also, a kind of torture.
Escarpoulette: f. A kind of swing (wherein a man sits as he swings.)
Escarque. as Escalque: ¶Rab.
Escarquiller. as Esquarquiller; to set wide open.
Escarrabillade: com. as Escarbillat.
Escarre: f. A Skarre, or hard scab vpon a wound; Looke Eschare.
Escarure: f. A womans square.
Escart: m. A discarding; a departing, or putting aside, and out of the way; also, a place of solitarie retirall.
A l'escart. Apart, aside, out of the way; asunder, one from another.
Escarté: m. ée: f. Scattrced; dispersed; dispatcled; discarded; throwne abroad.
Escartelé. Quartered; cut into quarters.
Femme bien escartelée. A woman big set, of thicke limmes, and large quarters.
Escarteler. To quarter; to slaughter, butcher, cut in quarters.
Escartellé. as, Escartelé, Quartered.
Escarter. To scatter, dissipate, disparcle; also, to discard; to set, or lay apart; also, to sheed, squatter, throw about, or abroad.
s'Escarter. To goe aside, get out of companie, slip out of the way.
Escas. The tenth penie of the value of moueables, wherein a forreiner succeeds a freeman, due vnto the townes of Seclin, & Bassée sous Lille, by their particular customes and charters.

Escassable: Meubles escassables. Moueables subiect vnto Escas.
Escavessade: f. A shake, iert, or blow, with the cord of a cauesson.
Escéer. To cut, or slyce; also, to pill.
Escelles: f. The arme-holes.
Escerné: m. ée: f. Vnkernelled, whose kernell is taken or cut out; also, opened, scraped, or scarified round about.
Escerner. To vnkernell; to take, or cut a thing cleane out of the round place wherein it was; also, to open, scrape, or scarifie a thing round about, or on euerie part or side of it.
Escervelé: m. ée: f. Braine-sicke, haire-braind, wild-braind, cocke-braind; headie, giddie, humorous; also, brained; whose braines are knocked, or dasht out; also, braineleste, or deprined of braines.
Escerveler. To braine, to knocke, or dash out the braines of; also, to take the braines out of.
Escervellement: m. A brayning.
Eschabouillé: m. ée: f. Scorched, ouerheated.
Eschafaudage: m. A scaffolding; a building or setting vp of, a presenting or shewing out on, scaffolds; also, a scaffold, or scaffold-like Stage, &c.
Eschafaudé: m. ée: f. Made into a scaffold; also, presented on a scaffold; or, caried from scaffold to scaffold, for a shew, or to his greater disgrace; also, set on the Pillorie.
Eschafauder. To build scaffolds; to present on a scaffold; to set on the pillorie; also, to deuise, inuent, plot, or practise villanie.
Eschafaudis: m. A scaffold.
Eschafaulder. as Eschafauder.
Eschafaut: m. A Scaffold, or high Stage; also, a Pillorie.
Eschaffaudage: m. as Eschafaudage.
Eschalas: m. A Pole, prop, stake, or stay, whereby a Vine, or any other weake-branched, vp-creeping, or high-growing Plant is held, and helped, vp.
L'eschalas fait tomber la Vigne: Pro. Looke Vigne.
Eschalassé: m. ée: f. Propped, sustained, underset with a pole, or stake.
Eschalasseau: m. A short, or small pole, prop, or stake.
Eschalassement: m. The propping, sustaining, or vndersetting of Vines, &c.
Eschalasser. To prop, sustaine, vnderset, or stay vp a Vine, Hop-plant, &c.
Eschalassier: m. ere: f. Of or belonging to, furnishing or bearing store of, poles, props, &c, for Vines, &c.
Eschalier: m. A winding staire; whence;
Aussi tost prest qu'un chien auroit sauté vn eschalier. Readie after a while; or as soone readie as one, that does all things with deliberation, can be; (for whether a dog leape vp or downe such a staire, he commonly takes him leisure; Looke Sauté.)
Eschallat: m. as Eschalas.
Eschalle: f. A little ringing, or tinging Bell.
Eschallier. as Eschalier.
Eschallon: m. A kind of great ladder for a high loft, &c.
Eschalon. as Eschellon.
Eschalote. as Eschalotte.
Eschalotte: f. A Ciue, or Chiue; (In which sence, the Plurall, des eschalottes, is most vsed) also, a bruised stalke of Hempe.
Se mettre en rang d'oignon, & ne valoir vn'eschalotte. To vsurpe a place, or imployment, whereof he is no way worthie.

Eſchambouillure: f. as Eſchaubouillure; a puſh.

Eſchampé: m. ée: f. Flowne out, runne, or gotten looſſe; got abroad, at libertie, or at random.

s'Eſchamper. To fly out, to take libertie, to runne looſſe, freely, licentiouſly, or at randome.

Eſchampre. as Enchampre.

Eſchancré: m. ée: f. Infected with, or eaten into, by a Canker, or cankered ſore; alſo, cut or made hollow, and into a halfe-round; ſemi-circled, halfe-rounded; alſo, neere pared, or nipped off; alſo, notched.

Souliers eſchancrez. Voided, or cut with an opening, in the ſides.

Eſchancrer. To eat, as a Canker, into; alſo, to cut or make hollow, and halfe-round; alſo, to pare very neere, nip off too too neere; alſo, to notch.

Eſchancrure: f. A halfe-round; or a halfe-round notch, dint, or hole cut, made, or eaten; alſo, an eating into; a cutting, or making hollow, and halfe-round; a notching; a neere paring, or nipping off.

Eſchandille: m. as Eſchantillon.

Eſchandillé: m. ée: f. Scantled; or, as Eſchantillé.

Eſchandillon. as Eſchantillon.

Eſchandole: f. A ſhort boord, or ſhingle, ſuch as, in ſome places, houſes are couered withall; alſo, a Thatchers Beater, or Combe and Beater.

Eſchange: f. An exchange, trucking, barter, ſcoorſing.

Eſchangé: m. ée: f. Exchanged, interchanged, chopped, ſcoorſed, bartered, trucked.

Eſchanger. To exchange, interchange, trucke, chop, ſcoorſe, barter, change one for another.

Eſchanſon: m. A cup-bearer, or cup-taſter vnto a great perſon.

Eſchanſonne: f. A woman cup-bearer.

Eſchanſonner. To play the cup-bearer; and, to taſt, or take an aſſay of another mans cup.

Eſchanſonnerie: f. The Office of a cup-bearer, or cup-taſter.

Eſchanteler. To breake into cantles; or, to cut off the corners, or edges of.

Eſchantillé: m. ée: f. Curtalled, abridged; broken, or cut into corners, or cantles.

Eſchantillon. A ſmall cantle, or corner-peece; alſo, a ſcantling, ſample, patterne, proofe of any ſort of Marchandiſe.

Vn petit eſchantillon de ieuneſſe. A tricke of youth.

Eſchantillonner. To breake off a ſmall cantle, or corner peece; alſo, to cut, or take off a ſample, proofe, patterne, or ſcantling.

Eſchapeler. as Chapeler. To chip.

Eſchappatoire: m. An euaſion, ſtarting hole, by-corner, meane to eſcape by, chinke to creepe out at; a ſhift, or excuſe; alſo, an exception againſt.

Eſchappé: m. ée: f. Eſcaped, euaded; ſhifted, ſlipt, or got ſafe away; deliuered, freed, rid, or diſcharged from; alſo, diſſolute, licentious.

La pierre eſt eſchappée. Looke Pierre.

Il n'eſt pas eſchappé qui traine ſon lien: Pro. He is not freed that trayles his ſhackles after him; or, due puniſhment euer comes at length, although ſometimes it be deferred a while.

Eſchappée: f. A ſcape, eſcape, ſlip; ſhift, euaſion.

Eſchapper. To eſcape, fly, euade, auoid, ſhift away; to ſcape, come, or paſſe through, ſafely; to free himſelfe, or get rid, from; to ſlip, creepe, or wind out of.

Eſchaque: f. Scurfe, ſcales, or dandriffe in the head, or beard.

Eſchar. as Eſchars.

Eſcharalle: f. A dead, and ſtinking fleſh, which breeds about wounds made with ſhot, or otherwiſe much bruſed.

Eſcharas. as Eſchalas.

Eſcharaveau. as Charaveau.

Eſcharbot. as Eſcarbot; a Beetle; alſo, a Saligot, Calthrop, water Nut.

Eſcharboter. as Eſcarboter. ¶Rab.

Eſcharcement. Scarcely, ſcantly, barely, hardly, miſerably, needily; ſauingly, neerely, niggiſhly, niggardly, pinchingly, pennyfather-like.

Eſcharceté: f. Scarcitie, ſcantnes, bareneſſe; pinching, neereneſſe, miſerie; alſo, baſeneſſe, or want of due alloy, in coyne.

Eſcharcette: f. as Eſcarceté (in the laſt ſence.)

Eſcharde: f. A ſplint, or ſplinter; a ſharp, & ſhort ſtumpe, of clouen wood, or flying from wood in the cleauing; alſo, a little, leane, or skraggie girle, that lookes as if ſhee were ſtarued.

Eſchardonner. To weed, or plucke vp, thiſtles; to cleere a ground, or garden, of thiſtles.

Eſchardonneur: m. A weeder of thiſtles.

Eſchardonneuſe: f. A woman that weeds, or plucks vp, thiſtles.

Eſchare: f. A skarre, or hard ſcab vpon a ſore, burt, wound; alſo, the cruſt which ariſeth vpon an actuall, or potentiall cauterie.

Eſcharfaud, ou, Eſcharfaut. as Eſchaffault. A ſcaffold.

Eſcharfaudé. as Eſchaffaudé.

Eſchargotté: m. ée: f. Pruined, as a tree; picked round about.

Eſchargotter. To pruine a tree; to picke any thing round about.

Eſcharné: m. ée: f. Fleſhleſſe; pulpleſſe, pithleſſe; depriued of fleſh; pulp, or pith.

Eſcharotique: com. Which breeds, or brings a ſcab, or skarre vpon a wound, ſore, vlcer, &c.

Eſcharpe: f. A Scarfe; a Baudricke; alſo, a rap, or wipe ouer the ſhoulder with a ſword.

Eſcharpes de cordage. The ropes which ſtrengthen, and ſettle the iaumbes, or cheekes of Cranes, or the like Engins.

L'eſcharpe d'un pelerin. The ſcrip, wallet, or pouch wherein he carries his meat.

Eſcharpeux: m. euſe: f. Scarfie; ſcarfe-like; flaunting it with many ſcarfes about him.

Eſcharre: f. as Eſchare.

Eſchars: m. arſe: f. Scarce, needie, ſcantie; ſauing, ſparing, hard, niggard, pinching, niggiſh, couetous, neere, ſtrait-handed.

Eſchars plaidoyeur hardi perdeur: Pro. A niggardlie pleader is an euill ſpeeder.

Eſcharſement. Seeke Eſcharcement.

Eſcharſeté: f. Scantneſſe, or ſcarcitie; alſo, defect, or want of weight, in coyne.

Eſchat. Droict des eſchats, & Tavernes. A certaine dutie, or impoſition vpon wine ſold by retayle, & in Tauernes; from which all Prieſts beneficed within Bourdeaux are exempted, for as much as grew in their own grounds, glebe, or Prebendaries.

Eſchaſſes: f. Stilts, or ſcatches to goe on.

Mieux vaut vn pied que deux eſchaſſes: Pro. Better is one foot then two ſtilts.

Eſchaſſeur. One that goes vpon ſtilts, or ſcatches.

Eſchaſſier. as Eſchaſſeur.

Eſchaubouillant. Scalding hot; or ſo hot, that it bliſters where it touches.

Eſchau-

Eſchaubouillé: m. ée: f. Full of hot blaines, puſhes, wheales; beblиſtered; or, hauing the Shingles.

Eſchaubouillure: f. A hot puſh, blaine, bliſter; or, a kind of inflammation, which brings with it vneuenneſſe, and ruggedneſſe to the skinne, with many little buds, or bliſters that fret it; Some call it the Shingles, ſome the running worme; others, wild fire.

Eſchaubouſé, & Eſchaubouſure. as Eſchaubouillé, & Eſchaubouillure.

Eſchaubourré: m. ée: f. Troubled, moued, in an agonie; (a word vſed about Tours.)

Eſchaudé: m. A kind of Wigg, or Symnell, faſhioned ſomewhat like a Hart; a three-cornered Symnell.

Eſchaudé: m. ée: f. Scalded with, bathed in, hot liquor.

Chat eſchaudé craint l'eau froide: &, Chien eſchaudé craint l'eau froide: Prov. Looke Chat, or Chien.

Eſchauder. To ſcald, or caſt hot liquor vpon.

Eſchaudet. as Eſchaudé.

Eſchaudure: f. A ſcalding.

Eſchaufaiſon: f. A heating, chafing, warming, making hot; alſo; a heat; or, a diſeaſe that comes of immoderate heat.

Eſchaufant. Chafing, heating, warming.

Eſchaufé: m. ée: f. Chafed, warmed, heated, ſet in a heat; alſo, hot, feruent, ardent; vehement, eager, earneſt, in a matter.

Eſchaufement: m. as Eſchauffement.

Eſchaufer. as Eſchauffer.

Eſchaufeture: f. A chafing, warming, heating; or, as Eſchaufaiſon.

Eſchauffadaſſe: f. A burnt whore. ¶Langued.

Eſchauffader. as Eſchafauder.

Eſchauffaiſon: f. as Eſchaufaiſon.

Eſchauffé: m. ée: f. as Eſchaufé.

Eſchauffement: m. A chafing, warming, heating, ſetting in a heat.

Eſchauffer. To chafe, warme, heat, make hot, ſet in a heat.

Il s'eſchauffe en ſon harnois. Said of one that growes in choler, or into paſſion, for the ſatisfying of ſome diſordinate humor.

Bonne beſte s'eſchauffe en mangeant: Prov. A good beaſt eates till he ſweat againe; or, eates that he ſweat withall; we ſay, good at meat good at worke.

Eſchaufferette: f. A little Chafing-diſh.

Eſchauffette: f. A Chafing-diſh.

Eſchauffeture: f. as Eſchaufeture.

Eſchaufure: f. A chafing, or fretting by heat.

Eſchauguette: f. A Sentrie, Watch-tower, Beacon.

Eſchauguetté: m. ée: f. Watched in a Beacon, or high Tower; beheld from high, or a farre off.

Eſchauguetter. To watch at a Beacon, or in a high tower; to eſpy, behold, ſee from high, farre about, or a farre off; to ſtand Sentinell.

Eſchauguetteur: m. A Sentinell, or Watchman in a high Tower, or at a Beacon; hence, any Spy, Scout, Eſpyall.

Eſchays. Aller eſchays. To ſhale, ſtradle, goe crooked, or wide betweene the feet, or legs.

Eſcheable: com. Eſcheatable.

Eſcheance: f. An Eſcheatage, or eſcheating; alſo, an Eſcheat (for want of heires.)

Eſchec: m. A Checke at Cheſſe-play.

Des eſchecs. The Cheſſe-men.

Eſchec & mat. Checke-mate at Cheſts; and (metaphorically) a remedileſſe diſaſter, miſerie, or misfortune.

Donner eſchec & mat à. To ſubdue, conquer, ouercome; ſurmount, ſurpaſſe; win, or get the better of, alſo, to ruine, or ouerthrow, the fortunes of.

Eſchef: m. A fall, waſting, or diminution.

Eſcheler. as Eſcheller.

Eſchelette: m. A Skelton, or Anotamie.

Eſchelette: f. The bird called a Wall-pecker; alſo, the little ſtalke of a Grape; alſo, as Eſchellette.

Eſchellage: m. as Eſchellement.

Eſchelle: f. A Ladder, or Skale; (alſo, a ſquadron of ſouldiors; in old French.)

Eſchelle altimetre. Part of an Aſtrolabe.

Mis à l'eſchelle. Set on, or faſtened vnto, a ladder with a Miter, or Paper, about his head; hence (alſo) publikely diſgraced, put vnto open ſhame (any way.)

Se voyant au pied du mur ſans eſchelle. See Mur.

Eſchellé: m. ée: f. Skaled, or climbed vp on; alſo, publikely diſgraced (by ſtanding in open Market on a ladder.)

Eſchellement: m. A skaling, or climbing vp vnto, a getting vp on, by a ladder.

Eſcheller. To climbe; to skale, or get vp vnto, by a ladder; alſo, publikely to diſgrace, or put vnto open ſhame, an Offendor, by ſetting him, in open Market, on a Ladder with a Miter, or Paper about his head.

Eſcheller vne grandeur. To aſpire vnto a dignitie, to mount vnto greatneſſe.

Eſchellette: f. A little ladder, or skale; a ſmall ſtep, or greece; alſo, a little hand-bell, ſuch as Cryers vſe.

Eſchelleur: m. A climber by, or skaler with, a ladder.

Eſchellon d'eſchelle. The round, or ſtep, of a ladder.

Tondre à eſchellons. To clip vneuenly; to notch, or make ſteps in the haire.

Eſchelon. as Eſchellon.

Eſchemeau: m. The bed of a Vine; the ridge wherein it ſtands.

Eſchemet. To ſwarme, or breed young, as Bees.

Eſchenal: m. A gutter, or channell.

Eſchenillé: m. ée: f. Rid from Caterpillers.

Eſcheniller. To rid of Caterpillers.

Eſcheoir. To happen, chance, betide, fall out, befall; to fall, or come vnto.

Eſcheoir en foy, ou main tierce; Looke Tiers.

Il n'eſchet point à vn homme de bien de mentir. An honeſt man cannot ly; or, is verie ſeldome knowne to ly.

A vn bon chien n'eſcheut oncques vn bon os: Pro. A good dog neuer lighted on good bone; an honeſt perſon rarely comes to preferment; the verier knaue the better lucke, ſay we.

Eſchequé: m. ée: f. Checkered; or (as Blaſoners) checkie.

Eſcheque-mat: m. A check-mate at Cheſts.

Eſchequier: m. A Checker, or Cheſſe-boord.

Eſcherpillerie: f. Robbing on the high way, purſe-taking, violent ſtripping, or deſpoyling of a paſſenger.

Escherui. The Skirret root.

Eſchet: m. An Eſcheat, or thing fallen to.

Eſcheu: m. euë: f. Befallen, happened, chaunced; fallen, or come vnto.

Il y avoit deux jours escheus. Two dayes were come and gone.

Eſchevé: m. ée: f. Eſchewed, ſhunned, auoided, bent or bowed from.

Escheveau: m. A skaine, or loope of thred, or ſilke.

Deſmeſler vn escheveau. To wind himſelfe out of an intricate buſineſſe, or danger.

Eſchevelé: m. ée: f. Diſcheueled, ruffled; whoſe haire fals looſſe, or in diſorder, about the eares; (a word moſt proper, and moſt vſed, in the feminine;) alſo, bared (as of haire;) made bare, or bald.

Eſchevement: m. A ſhunning, eſchewing, auoiding, bending from.

Eſchever. To ſhun, eſchew, auoid, bend from.

Eſchevin: m. The Sheriffe of a Towne; or, an Officer who (repreſenting the Roman Ædilis) lookes that the Market be duly furniſht, and well ſerued; the houſes fitly ranked, and well built; the ſtreets euen paued, or cleane kept: And where a Towne hath, by any Priuiledge, the diſpoſall of it owne Police, the Eſchevins (for there be euer more then one) diſpoſe of it; and (howſoeuer) they be in authoritie next vnto the Mayor, (or, as in Paris, to the Provoſt des Marchands) and, in the Townes that haue no Mayors, the principall Magiſtrats.

Eſchevinage: m. The Sheriffeſhip of a Towne; the Office, or Authoritie of a Sheriffe, or Eſchevin; alſo, a Sheriffes Court, or, the Iuriſdiction thereof; alſo, a Corporation; or the Incorporation of a Towne; and hence;

Droict d'eſchevinage. Looke Droict.

Eſchevilſement. as Eſchevement.

Eſcheute: f. as Eſchoëtte. An Eſcheat, &c.

Eſchez. Looke Eſchec.

Eſchif: m. iue: f. Rauenous, or greedie at meat; (a Hunters tearme.)

Eſchiffeur. A Cutter, or Pinker.

Eſchiffé: m. ée: f. Split, riuen.

Eſchiffer vne branche d'arbre. To ſplit, riue, or halfe-breake off, a branch.

Eſchimeau. as Eſchemeau.

Eſchinal: m. The head of a Sinke, couered with a Grate.

Eſchine: f. The Chyne, backe bone, ridge of the backe; alſo, (in a Pillar) a round boultell cut with egges.

Longue eſchine. A ſlimme, lunges, luske; long-backt, or ill-ſhaped, loobie.

Eſchiné: m. ée: f. Chyned, broken-backed.

Eſchinée (de Porc.) A chyne (of Porke.)

Eſchiner. To chyne; to diuide, or breake, the backe of.

Eſchineux: m. euſe: f. Of a great, and ſtrong backe.

Eſchinon: m. The chyne, or vpper part of the backe betweene the ſhoulders.

Eſchiquetté. Checkie; (a tearme of Blaſon.)

Eſchiquier: m. The Exchequer; (in Normandie) is an Aſſemblie of high Iuſticers, wherein the Decrees, Orders, Commiſſions, and Iniunctions awarded by Bayliffes, Vicounts, and inferior Iuſticers, may be cenſured, and amended; (This Aſſemblie was extraordinarie, and held at vncertaine and vnſet times, vntill that Lewis the twelfth made it ordinarie, and of it, (as it ſtill continues) a Soueraign Court;) alſo, a Cheſſ-boord; alſo, Checker-worke.

Planter à l'eſchiquier. To plant trees Checker-wiſe; to ſet them in equall diſtance one from the other; or, ſo to ſet them, as which way ſoeuer one lookes betweene them, he ſees direct Alleyes, and Rowes, in equall diſtance one from the other.

Eſchiquoté: m. ée: f. Rid, as a tree, of vnprofitable ſhoots, or ſiences.

Eſchiquoter. To cut off, or take away vnprofitable ſhoots, or ſiences from trees.

Eſchoëtte: f. An Eſcheat; land that falls to a man by Accident; Succeſſion, or Diſcent; alſo, (more generally) any Succeſſion.

Eſchoir. as Eſcheoir; To befall, happen; fall vnto.

Eſchoite: f. An Eſcheat; land fallen, &c; as in Eſchoëtte.

Eſchoitter. To ſucceed, or follow in the roome of another. ¶Bourbon.

Eſcholage. as Eſcolage.

Eſcholaſtre. as Eſcolaſtre.

Eſchole. as Eſcole.

Eſchope: f. A little, and (moſt commonly) low ſhop; ſuch a one as one of our meaner Seamſters, or Pedlers hath.

Eſchoppe. as Eſchope.

Faire eſſay à l'eſchoppe. To lay a ſmall, and thinne peece of ſiluer, &c, vpon a hot burning coale, thereby to try the value, and alloy of it; (a Goldſmithes phraſe.)

Eſchoué: m. ée: f. That hath eſcaped after a ſhipwracke; alſo, runne a land, faſt on ground, as a ſhip.

Eſchouër. To run, or touch vpon a banke, ſhelfe, or ſhore, and there make ſhipwracke.

Eſcient. Wittingly, of ſet purpoſe.

Eſcient. à bon eſcient. In deed, in earneſt, in good faith, in good ſadneſſe, from the heart.

A ſon eſcient. With his conſent, or knowledge; wittingly, willingly, or for the nonce.

De tel eſcient. In ſuch ſober ſadneſſe, in ſo good ſooth.

Eſcimé: m. ée: f. Topped, whoſe top, or head is cut off.

Eſcimer. To top; to cut off the tops, or heads off.

Eſclaboché: m. ée: f. Beſpotted, beſpatled, beſprinckled with water, or durt.

Eſclabocher. To beſprinckle, beſpattle, beſpot with water, or durt.

Eſclaboter. as Eſclabocher. ¶Pic.

Eſclaffer. To buſſ, or burſt, cut into a laughter.

Eſclair: m. Lightning; a leame, or flaſh of lightning; a ſuddaine blaſe, or flaſh of light.

Eſclairci: m. ie: f. Cleered, diſcouered; explaned, diſplayed; fined, clarified.

Eſclaircir. as Eſclercir.

Eſclairciſſement. as Eſclerciſſement.

Eſclaire: f. The hearbe Celandine, Swallowort, Tetterwort; (La grande Eſclaire.)

Petite Eſclaire. Little Celandine, Pilewort, Figwort.

Eſclairé: m. ée: f. Lightned; lighted; alſo, watched, obſerued.

Edifices bien eſclairez. Lightſome, or well-windowed, houſes.

Esclairer. To ſhine, gliſten, gliſter; to lighten, to flaſh out; to appeare, or manifeſt it ſelfe; to giue light vnto; alſo, to watch, or obſerue; to ſpy, or pry into.

Pourveu que ie voye esclairer, ce ſera fait; If I may ſee the gold gliſter, or ſome chinks ſtirring, it ſhall be done.

Esclaire-tout. All-ſeeing, all-lighting; all-obſeruing.

Esclaireur: m. An obſeruer, or ouerſeer of others; alſo, an aſſiſtant vnto a plaintife, or accuſer, for his benefit, and to preuent the corruption, or colluſion, which otherwiſe might be vſed in the handling of his ſuit.

Esclame: com. Gaunt, lanke, ſmall bellied.

Esclamme: f. A long, and thicke riding cloake to beare off the raine; a Pilgrims cloake, or mantle; a cloake for a traueller.

Es-

Eſclanche de mouton. A leg of Mutton (cut large with the whole bone at it.)

Eſclandre: m. A ſlaunder; a defamation, detractation, vniuſt imputation; alſo, a ſlaughter; alſo, a miſhap, danger; tumult, vprore; miſchiefe.

'A grand pecheur eſclandre: Prov. Great ſinners euer come to ſhame.

Eſclandreux. Scandalous, ſlaunderous, or ſlaunder-breeding.

Eſclandrir. To ſlaunder, defame, diſhonour, deprane, detract from.

Eſclappe: f. Groſſeneſſe, corpulencie, fatneſſe.

Eſclat: m. A Shiuer, ſplinter, or little peece of wood broken off with violence; alſo, a ſmall, and thin Lath, or Shingle.

Eſclat de lumiere. A glimpſe, or ſuddaine flaſh of light.

Eſclat de tonnerre. A clap, or crack, of thunder.

Diamond de bon eſclat. A diamond that ſhines very faire, or ſparkles much in the eye; a dyamond of a good luſter, or water.

Par eſclats. Peece-meale, in ſheeuers, into a thouſand peeces.

Eſclatant: m. ante: f. Splitting, craſhing, cracking; ringing; bright-ſhining, gliſtering, glittering, flaſhing, brandiſhing; hauing a freſh, or faire gloſſe.

Oraiſon eſclatante. An earneſt, vehement, or pearcing, ſpeech.

Eſclate. A kind of diſeaſe among children.

Eſclaté: m. ée: f. Burſt, ſplit, craſhed, ſhiuered into ſplinters; alſo ſparkled, glittered, gliſtered, flaſhed out.

Eſclater. To ſhine, ſparkle, gliſten, glitter; to flaſh out; alſo; to haue a freſh or faire gloſſe.

s'eſclater. To ſplit, burſt, craſh, breake, ſhiuer into ſplinters, or peeces.

Eſclature. A ſplitting; ſhiuering in peeces, a burſting into ſhiuers, or ſplinters; alſo, a gliſtening, ſparkling, glittering; flaſhing.

Eſclau. as Eſclave. A ſlaue.

Eſclavage: m. Slauerie, bondmanſhip; villenage.

Eſclave: m. A ſlaue, bondman, bondſlaue, bought ſeruant.

Eſclaver. To enthrall, make ſlauiſh, bring vnto ſlauerie or bondage.

Eſclavine: f. as Eſclamme; or a ſea-gowne; or a courſe, high-collered, and ſhort-ſleeued gowne, reaching downe to the mid leg, and vſed moſt by ſea-men, and Saylors.

Eſclayer. To vnhurdle, vnwattle; vnbarre; to breake open, pull away, or make way through, hurdles &c.

Eſcleche. A diſmembring; or ſeperation; alſo, a part, or peece diſmembred, or ſeperated from.

Eſcleché: m. ée: f. Diſmembred; rent, or torne from; in parcels, diuided, ſeperated from.

Eſcler. Seeke Eſclair.

Eſclerci: m. ie: f. Cleered; explaned, manifeſted, illuſtrated; fined, clarified; growne thin, light, faire.

Eſclercir. To cleere; illuſtrate, manifeſt, explane, diſplay; alſo, to fine, clariſie, make cleere.

s'Eſclercir. To wax thin in ſubſtance; to grow few, or ſmall in number; light, or faire in colour; to cleere vp.

Eſclerciſſement: m. A cleering, manifeſtation, explanation, illuſtrating of matters; alſo, a fining, or clarifying.

Eſclere, ou Eſclerre. as Eſclaire. The hearbe Selandine.

Eſclerement. Cleerely, brightly; plainly, manifeſtly.

Eſcleſche: f. as Eſcleche.

Eſclichoir: m. A Squirt, or Siringe.

Eſcliſche. as Eſcleche. ¶Wallon.

Eſcliſché: m. ée: f. Diſmembred, diuided, peece-meale, parted.

Eſcliſchement: m. A diſmembring, parting, diuiding of an entire thing.

Eſcliſſe: f. Any (ſmall) Hurdle, or any Vtenſill of watled Ozier, or Wicker, &c; hence; a Cheeſe-fat, or Chesfoord thereof; and, the Rundle, or Circlet put vnder a diſh at Table; a wicker bottome for a diſh; alſo, a twig, or ſticke of Ozier, or Wicker; and hence;

Eſcliſſes. Splents, bound about a broken leg, &c; alſo, the ſides of a Viol, or Fiddle.

Eſcliſſé: m. ée: f. Squirted; ſpurted, ſpatled, or ſpouted from (or as from) a Squirt; alſo, watled; wouen of, or made vp with, Ozier or Wicker twigs, &c; alſo, ſplented; bound vp in, or kept ſtraight by, ſplents.

Fromage eſcliſſé. Formed in the Cheeſe-fat; or, that hath ſtill on it the print of the Chesfoord.

Eſcliſſer. To ſquirt; to ſpurt, ſpatle, or ſpout from (or as from) a Squirt; alſo, to watle, or make vp with Ozier or Wicker twigs, &c; alſo, to ſplent; to bind vp in ſplents, or keepe ſtraight by ſplenting.

Eſcliſſoire. A Squirt.

Eſcliſtre. as Fouldre.

Eſclop: m. A Patten, or woodden ſhooe. ¶Tholoſain.

Eſclopé: m. ée: f. Maymed, limping, lame.

Eſcloppé. The ſame.

Eſclopper. To maime, to lame.

Eſclorre. To hatch; alſo, to diſcloſe, produce, bring forth.

Eſclorre la bouche. To open the mouth.

Eſclos: m. ſe: f. Hatched; diſcloſed; opened.

Eſclot: m. as Eſclop; alſo, a Reed, or Cane, to ſucke with; alſo, a Reſt in Muſicke; alſo, a Galley-ſlaue.

Eſclotouëre. A Clap Net.

Eſcloü: m. The print of a horſes foot.

Eſcloy: m. Piſſe, lant, vrine, lee, ſtale. ¶Pic.

Eſcluine. as Eſclamme.

Eſcluſant. Stopping, as by a Sluice; or, as Excluant.

Eſcluſe: f. A Sluice, Floud-gate, or Water-gate; alſo, a Mill-damme; alſo, any Damme, Ceſterne, or great Veſſell, whereby the water that comes from a ſpring is receiued, and kept for vſe; alſo, a paſſage betweene hils, or at the foot of a hill, which by a high, and betowred gate ſeperates the marches, or territories of one countrey from another.

Eſcodilles: f. The bulbes, or bulbed roots, of Daffodils, or Daffadowndillies.

Eſcoffier: m. A Shoomaker.

Eſcoffraye: f. A Shoomakers Stall, or the boord whereon he works.

Eſcoffret: m. as Eſcoffraye; or, a little one.

Eſcofion: m. A Coyfe, or Cawle.

Eſcofraye. as Eſcoffraye.

Eſcogriffe: m. A Luske, a great Slouch, Cluſter fiſt, foule Clunch. ¶Orleannois.

Eſcoinſon: m. A Scunche; the backe part of the iaumbe of a window.

Eſcolage: m. Schoole-hire; a ſtipend, or money, giuen for the teaching, or tutoring of a Scholler.

Eſcolaſtre: m. The Rector, chiefe Maiſter, Superintendent, or Ouerſeer, of a Schoole; alſo, an vnlearned, or meane Scholler; one that is but halfe a Scholler.

Eſcolaſtrerie: f. A Rectorſhip or gouernment of, a Superintendencie ouer, a Schoole; alſo, meane Schollerſhip.

Eſcole: f. A Schoole; or Colledge, wherein any Art is taught.

Chemin de l'eſcole. The longeſt way.

Faire l'eſcole buiſſonniere. To play the truant.

Table vaut eſcole notable: Prov. Table talke is an excellent Schoolemaſter.

Eſcolier: m. A Scholler, Learner; Pupill, Student.

Il en parle comme vn eſcolier d'armes. He ſpeakes thereof ignorantly, improperly, or from the purpoſe.

Eſcolier babillard prez le feu, & badin hors la claſſe: Pro. (Meant onely of a meere Scholler; as our) A Maſter of Art is not worth a fart vnleſſe he be in the Schooles.

Escolleté: m. ée: f. Vncollered; whoſe coller is taken off, or pulled away.

Eſcolleter. To vncoller; to diuide, plucke, or take away the coller from a garment.

Eſcolté. Soulier eſcolté. Looke Eſcouleté.

Eſcome. The blade (or broad end) of an Oare.

Eſcomé. Peis eſcomé. The ſpit-fiſh, or ſea Pike, ſo termed at Marſeille.

Eſconduire. To deny, or ſay nay vnto; to refuſe, or reiect the requeſt of.

Eſconduit: m. ite: f. Denyed; whoſe requeſt is refuſed.

Eſconjuré: m. ée: f. Driuen, or gotten, away by intreatie, or coniuring.

Eſconjurer. To driue away by intreatie, or coniuring.

Eſconſé: m. ée: f. Hidden, couered, concealed; ſet, as the Sunne. ¶Pic.

Eſconſement. as Abſconſement; a concealing. ¶Pic.

Eſconſement de ſoleil. The ſetting of the Sunne.

Eſconſer. as Abſconſer; To hide, conceale, couer. ¶Pic.

Eſcopetade. The ſhot of a Harguebuze, or ſmall Peece.

Eſcopetin. as Squiopetin.

Eſcopette: f. A Petronell, Carbine, long Piſtoll, ſhort Harguebuze; any ſuch ſmall Gun that goes off by a fire-lock.

Eſcopetterie: f. Gun-ſhot; a voley of ſhot.

Eſcorce: f. The rinde, or barke of a tree; the outward skin, or pilling of fruit.

Mettre le doigt entre le bois & l'eſcorce. Buſily to intermeddle with, or take much notice of, the differences, or vnkindneſſes that are betwixt neere friends.

Eſcorcé: m. ée: f. Barked, pilled, vnrinded; blanched; pared.

Eſcorcée: f. as Eſcorcement; alſo, the pilled, or vnrinded part of a Plant.

Eſcorcement: m. A barking, pilling, vnrinding; blanching; paring.

Eſcorcer. To barke, or vnbarke; to pill, pare, blanch, vnrind.

Eſcorceſque: m. as Corceſque.

Eſcorceur. A barker of trees.

Eſcorché: m. ée: f. Flayed; vnskinned; excoriated.

Eſcorche-cul. à eſcorche-cul. To the flaying of the buttocks; or (as in, Tirer à es.) with bare arſe kiſſing, or dragd along on, the ground.

Eſcorchement: m. A flaying, or pulling the skin off; alſo, an excoriation; and hence;

Eſcorchement des boyaux. The bloudie flix.

Eſcorcher. To flay, or plucke off the skin; alſo, to excoriate.

Eſcorcher les anguilles par la queuë. To goe the wrong way to worke.

Eſcorcher le Latin. To inkhornize it, or vſe inkhorne tearmes.

Eſcorcher le Regnard. To ſpue, caſt, vomit; (from the ſubiect to the effect; for the flaying of ſo ſtinking a beaſt is like enough to make them ſpue that feele it; Looke Regnard.)

Aſſez eſcorche qui tient le pied: Pro. The Aſſiſtant is as guiltie as the Actor; the Acceſſarie as the Principall; he does miſchiefe enough that helpes to doe miſchiefe.

Bien eſcorche à qui ne deult: Prov. Senceleſſe people may well enough be flayed; or, tis good fleecing of them that haue ſo much, as they miſſe not what is gone.

A la preuve l'on eſcorche l'Aſne: Pro. (Applyable vnto ſuch things as cannot be tryed without danger.)

Beau parler n'eſcorche langue: Prov. Faire words flay not the tongue; teare no skin, breake no bones.

Eſcorcherie: f. A flaying houſe; the place wherein ſlaughtered beaſts are vſually flayed.

Eſcorcheter. To flay; to pill the rind off, or pull the skin from.

Eſcorcheur: m. A flayer; alſo, an Outlaw, or Freebooter.

Eſcorchouër: m. A flaying of beaſts.

Eſcorchure: f. A flaying, or pulling the skin off; a gauling, or peeldneſſe of any part of the bodie.

Eſcorçu: m. uë: f. Barkie, hauing a barke.

Eſcore: com. Plumpe, or ſtraight down, in depth; whence;

La mer eſt eſcore en ceſte coſte. The ſea is very deepe, or, the channell is on this coaſt.

Eſcores. The ſtocks whereon a ſhip ſtands in the docke.

Eſcorgée: f. A thong, or belt (of leather;) alſo, a ſtripe, or laſh with a leatherne thong.

Eſcorne: f. Shame, diſgrace, contempt, ſcorne.

Eſcorné: m. ée: f. Vnhorned, without hornes, that hath loſt his hornes; hence (alſo) melancholicke, out of heart, out of countenance, aſhamed to ſhew himſelfe, as a Deere is, when he hath caſt his head; alſo, vncornered; whoſe corners are broken, or cut off; and hence; defaced, ruined; ſcorned, diſgraced.

Arbre eſcorné. A tree whoſe branches are lopt off.

Dez eſcornez. Ground Dice, blunt-cornered Dice.

Eſcornement: m. An vnhorning, or depriuing of hornes; a diſgracing; defacing; baring or bereauing of ornaments.

Eſcorner. To vnhorne, dishorne, or depriue of hornes; to cut, pull, or take from one a thing which is (or he thinkes is) an ornament, and grace vnto him; to breake off the corners of a ſquare thing; to lop, or ſhred off the boughes of Trees; to ruine, deface, diſgrace any thing.

Se laiſſer eſcorner. To ſuffer himſelfe to be ridden, made a foole, vſed like a Gull.

Eſcornicher. In ſtead of Eſcorner, or Eſcorcher. ¶Rab.

Eſcorniflé: m. ée: f. Vncornered; whoſe corners haue beene eaten, or broken off.

Eſcornifler. To knap, eat, or breake off the corners of; alſo, to ſmell a feaſt, or eat hard, at a feaſt (which another man payes for;) alſo, to pick a thanke, or carry tales for victuals; or, (vnder pretence of ieaſting, or tale-carrying) to procure himſelfe acceſſe vnto feaſts, or other mens tables.

Eſcorniflerie: f. Feaſt-ſmelling; faſt eating at (other mens) feaſts; alſo, baſe Paraſitiſme, ieaſting, or tale-carrying, for victuals.

Eſ-

Eſcornifleur: m. A baſe pickthanke, or paraſite; greedie ſeeder, or ſmell-feaſt; one that carries tales, ieaſts, or newes from houſe to houſe, thereby to get victualls.

Eſcornizer. as Eſcorner.

Eſcort: m. orte: f. Diſcreet, warie, heedie, aduiſed, circumſpect; obſeruant; that knowes well how to carrie himſelfe, in any buſineſſe wherin he meddles, or companie wherewith he meets.

Eſcorte: f. A guide; conuoy; ſafeconduct; a direction, or ſafegard for the way.

Eſcosse: f. The huske, hull, or cod of a beane, peaſe, &c.

Eſcoſſé: m. ée: f. Vnhusked, ſhaled, hulled.

Eſcoſſer. To vnhuske, ſhale, hull.

Eſcoſſois: m. oiſe: f. Scottiſh, of Scotland.

Magot Eſcoſſois. A Coot, or Moorehenne,

Eſcot: m. A ſhot; alſo, a yong ſhute of a tree; alſo, a ſplinter, thorne, or ſtumpe of a thorne offenſiue to the barefooted.

Diſner à eſcot. A dinner at an ordinarie; or, where-at euerie gueſt payes his part, or, ſhare and ſhare like.

Faiſons l' eſcot. Words vſed by the Capuchines when they ſhake their robes ouer the imbers, to auoid their vermine, and to conſume by the aire of the fire the matter whereof they breed.

Parler par eſcot. To ſpeake by turnes, to heare one another ſpeake.

Payer l' eſcot pour autruy. To pay, or be puniſhed for other men.

Il a prins, ou fait cela, ſoubs l' eſcot. He hath taken, &c, that in ſecret, vnder-hand, by ſtealth, in hugger mugger.

Il s' a beau taire de l' eſcot qui ne paye rien: Prov. He may wel ynough conceale the ſhot that payes no part of it.

Eſcotté: m. ée: f. That is within a ſhot, or hath paied a ſhot.

Eſcotter. Euery one to pay his ſhot, or to contribute ſomewhat towards it, &c.

Eſcoüade: f. The traine, or followers of a Captaine, or Leader; alſo, the companie of ſouldiors whereof a Corporall hath the leading; a ſquadron.

Eſcoüarde. as Eſcoüade; vn cap d' eſ. A Corporall.

Eſcoube: f. A bruſh; alſo, a maukin for an ouen: ¶ Langued.

Eſcoudé: m. ée: f. Depriued of his ſupport, of the ſtay whereon he leaned, of the meanes whereon he relied.

Eſcoüé: m. ée: f. Curtalled; whoſe taile is loſt, or cut off; alſo, wagged, or ſhaken vp and downe.

Eſcouër. To curtall, or cut off the taile; alſo, to wag, or ſhake a thing vp and downe.

Eſcouëtte: f. A Plaiſterers whiting bruſh.

Eſcouëttes. Sheates; Looke Eſcoutes.

Eſcouſle: f. A Kite, Puttocke, or Glead.

Eſcouillé: m. ée: f. Gelt, libd, vnſtoned; bereaued, or maimed of his ſtones.

Eſcouillé de Sybille. One of Sybells (gelt) Prieſts.

Eſcouillement: m. A gelding, libbing, bereauing of ſtones.

Eſcouiller. To geld, lib, vnſtone, cut away the ſtones of, bereaue of ſtones; alſo, to maime, or make impotent, by ſtriking on the cods, or ſtones.

Escouillon: m. A wiſpe, or diſhclowt; a maukin, or drag, to cleanſe, or ſweepe an ouen.

Eſcouillure: f. A gelding, or libbing; a cutting away of the cullions.

Eſcouiſſon. as Eſcoinſon.

Eſcoulable: com. Drainable; conſumeable; eaſie to be dried, or decayed; ſoone ſlipping, or gliding by.

La memorie de le homme eſt escoulable. Quickly paſt, eaſily raſed, ſoone gone.

Escoulant: m. as Eſcoulement; Or, a draine; or ſtrainer; alſo, a ſloping part, or place, downe which a thing eaſily glides, or is apt to runne.

Eſcoulant. Draining, or drying vp; gliding, or ſlipping by.

Eſcoulé: m. ée: f. Drained; alſo, ſtrained; alſo, deriued from one to another; alſo, ſlid, ſlipt, paſſed, runne, fled ſmoothly, glibly, quietly along, or away; alſo, conſumed, waſted, pined away by little and little.

Iour eſcoulé. A day ouerſlipt, ouerpaſt, or gone, almoſt before it was thought of.

Eſcoulement: m. A draining, or drying vp; alſo, a ſtraining; alſo, a conſuming, waſting, or pining away, as of the bodie.

Eſcoulement d' eau. A gliding, ſliding, ſlipping, ſmooth running, glib falling, gentle paſſing along, of water.

Eſcouler. To draine, or drie vp; alſo, to deriue from one to another; alſo, to ſtraine through.

S' eſcouler. To glide, ſlip, ſlide, runne quietly, paſſe couertly, along; to fall downe glibly, flie ſmoothly away; alſo, to waſt, pine, decay, conſume.

Eſcouleté. ſouliers escouletez. welted; alſo, cut, or open on th' inſtup, and tied with a lachet paſſing ouer it.

Eſcouleure: f. A ſtrainer.

Eſcoullement. as Eſcoulement.

Eſcouller. as Eſcouler.

Eſcoupellé: m. ée: f. Topped, or whoſe top is cut off.

Eſcoupeller. To top, or cut off the top of a tree. (v.m.)

Eſcoupette. as Eſcopette; A Petronell, or long Piſtoll.

Eſcourgée: f. A thong, latchet; ſcourge, or whip.

Eſcourgeon: m. Amelcorne, Starch-corne; a kind of baſe and degenerate wheat, which being ground yeelds verie white (but verie light, and little nouriſhing) meale.

Eſcourre. To thraſh, or ſeuer corne from the chaffe; alſo, to beat, or ſhake, as duſtie clothes, &c.

Eſcourſouër: m. The dale of a (ſhips) pumpe, whereby the water is paſſed out.

Eſcourté: m. ée: f. Curtalled, ſhortened, cut, or chopped off.

Escourter. To curtall, ſhorten; cut, or chop off.

Eſcouſſe: f. A ſhaking, ſwagging, ſwinging, ſhogging, iogging; alſo, a ſwag, ſwing, or violent ſway; alſo, as Reſcouſſe.

Eſcouſſe. (The feminine of Eſcoux.)

Eſcoutant. Hearing, hearkening, liſtening vnto.

Il ne ſeroit nuls meſdiſans s' il n' eſtoit des eſcoutans: Prov. None would reuile if none would heare.

Eſcoute: m. A ſpie, eaue-dropper, prying companion; alſo, a ſcout, ſcout-watch, or Sentinell; the diſcouerer, or forerunner, of an armie.

Croupir aux eſcoutes de gros morceaux. Looke Morceau.

Eſtre aux eſcoutes. To liſten, hearken, watch, or ſpie, whats done abroad; to eaue-drop, to prie into mens actions, or courſes; priuately to obſerue their lookes, or ordinarie ſpeeches.

Eſcouté: m. ée: f. Hearkened, liſtened, giuen eare vnto.

Eſcoutement: m. A hearkening, or liſtening; a hearing with attention.

Eſcouter. To hearken, heare, liſten, giue eare, yeeld attention vnto; to heed the ſpeech, obſerue the words of.

Eſcoutes. The Sheates; the double ropes which ſerue to faſten the maine ſaile behind.

Escouteur. An hearer, hearkener, liſtener, eaues-dropper.

A fol conteur ſage eſcouteur: Prov. While fooles doe ſpeake wiſe men had need to heare.

Eſcoutilles: f. The ſcutles, or hatches of a ſhip; th'ouertures, or trap doores, whereat things are let downe into the hold.

Eſcoutillon: m. A ſcuttle.

Eſcoux: m. Eſcouſſe: f. Shaken, iogged, ſwinged, ſwagged.

Paille eſcouſſe. Wherein no corne is left.

Eſcouvelle: f. A bruſh; as Eſcouëtte.

Eſcouvillon. as Eſcouillon.

Eſcouvillonner. To ſponge a peece; to cleanſe her before and after ſhe is diſcharged.

Eſcrageant. Crushing, or ſqueezing out.

Eſcragé: m. ée: f. Cruſhed, or ſqueezed out.

Eſcrager. To cruſh, or ſqueeze out of.

Eſraigne. A little houell, made of poles ſet round with their ends meeting at the top, and couered with turues, ſods, and dung, ſo thicke, that no weather can pierce it.

Eſcrain: m. A Casket, or ſmall Cabinet; a little Ring-box, or Iewell-box; alſo, the till of a cheſt.

Eſcran: m. A skreene to ſet betweene and the fire; alſo, the teſter of a bed.

Faire eſcran contre le vent. To turne his noſe into the wind, to ſet his noſe againſt the wind; or, to ſtand betweene one and the wind.

Eſcraſé: m. ée: f. Squaſht downe, beaten flat, cruſhed in peeces with much preſſing, or hard leaning on.

Eſcraſement: m. A cruſhing flat, or ſquaſhing downe.

Eſcraſer. To ſquaſh downe, beat flat, cruſh in peeces with much preſſing, or hard leaning on.

Eſcraſeur: m. A cruſher; ſquaſher, or beater of things flat by hard preſſing of them.

s'Eſcravanter. To burſt, or ſplit himſelfe.

Eſcriere. Pie eſ. The rauenous bird called, a Shrike, Nimmurder, Wariangle: ¶Savoyard.

Eſcrazé. Looke Eſcraſé.

Eſcrein: m. A skreene.

Eſcreimé: m. ée: f. Vncreamed, fleeted, as milke.

Eſcremer. To fleet, or take away the creame from milke.

Eſcreſmer. The ſame.

Eſcreté: m. ée: f. Vnchaulked; or depriued of chaulkie whiteneſſe.

Eſcrevé: m. ée: f. Riuen, clouen, burſt, or ſplit, aſunder.

Eſcrever. l' eſ. du iour, ou de la nuict. The dawning of the day; the twilight.

s'Eſcrever. To riue, cleeue, burſt, or ſplit, aſunder.

Eſcreviſſe: f. A Creuice, or Crayfiſh; (By ſome Authors, but not ſo properly, the Crab-fiſh is alſo tearmed ſo.)

Eſcreviſſe de fumier. The great, & venomous black Beetle.

Eſcreviſſe de mer. A Lobſter; or, (more properly) a Sea-creuice.

Pas d' eſcreviſſe. A backe-ſtep, a going backward.

Pierres d' eſcreviſſe. Looke Pierre.

Plus lunatique qu' vn' eſcreviſſe. More lunaticke then a Creuice.

Eſcreviſſer. To goe backeward.

Eſcreviſſes. The ioynted plates, or part, of a Cuiſſats, reſembling the backe of a Creuice.

Eſcri: m. An outcrie, or acclamation.

Eſcrié: m. ée: f. Exclaimed, cried out,

Eſcriement. as Eſcri; Or, An exclaiming, or crying out.

Eſcrier aucun. To exclaime, crie out on, call vpon one.

s'Eſcrier. To exclaime, crie out, make an outcrie; to rore, bray, or yell.

Eſcrime: f. Fencing, the Art of fencing.

Eſcrimer. To fence, or play at fence; alſo, to lay hard about him.

Eſcrimerie: f. as Eſcrime.

Eſcrimeur: m. A Fencer, a Maiſter of Fence.

Eſcrin. as Eſcrain; A Casket.

Eſcriner. To barbe; to powle, or plucke off the haire.

Eſcrinier: m. A Ioyner; and (more particularly) a Caſket-maker, Cabinet-maker.

Eſcript: m. A writing; a manuſcript, ſcrowle, ſcedule, thing written; an Indenture, or peece of euidence.

Bailler par eſcript. To publiſh, declare, offer, exhibit, put forth, ſet out, in writing.

Mettre par eſcript. To couch, digeſt, record, ſet downe in, commit vnto, writing.

Eſcript: m. te: f. Written; deſcribed or decyphered, publiſhed or declared, couched or ſet downe, in writing.

Droict eſcript. The Ciuile Law.

Eſcripteau: m. A note, or bill of ones hand; an inſcription, title; ſhort memorandum, libell, certificate; a declaration, or deſcription of a thing, in writing.

Eſcriptoire: f. A Penner.

Eſcripture: f. Writ, Scripture, writing; a ſtile, or manner of writing; the making, or writing of bookes; an inſcription, or title; a deed, writing, or euidence.

Scavoir moult d' eſcripture. To be learned, or skilfull in, or well acquainted with, moſt bookes.

Escrire. To write; ſcribble, ſcribe it; to indite, decipher, pourtray, diſplay, couch, or ſet downe, in writing; to make a booke, or worke.

Eſcrire nicement. Looke Nicement.

A mal exploicter bien eſcrire. Appliable when a man by a faire tale, or wel-couched words, indeuors to extenuate the guilt of his faults, or of his errors in proceeding.

En la peau de brebis ce que tu veux y eſcris: Prov. One may write what hee will in a Sheepes skin.

Escrit: m. ite: f. Written; Looke Eſcript.

Eſcriteau: m. as Eſcripteau.

Eſcriture: f. as Eſcripture.

Eſcrivaillé: m. ée: f. Scribled, ſcuruily penned, bauldly written.

Eſcrivaillerie: f. Scribling, bauld writing.

Eſcrivailleur: m. A ſcribler, bauld writer, paultrie penman.

Eſcrivain: m. A Notarie, Scribe, Scriuener.

Eſcrivainerie: f. Scriuenerſhip; the Art, or Act, of a Scriuener.

Eſcriviſſe. as Eſcreviſſe.

Eſcrober. To ſhog, or iog, as a cart in an vneuen way.

Eſcroë. as Eſcrouë.

Eſcrotter. To gnaw, or bite with the teeth.

Eſcrou: m. A Goalers booke, &c; as in Eſcrouë.

Eſcrouë: m. A ſcrue; the hole, or hollow thing wherein the vice of a preſſe, &c, doth turne; alſo, a ſcrowle; alſo, the booke wherein a Goaler ſets downe, and regiſters the names, and ſurnames of his priſoners, and the day, moneth, and yeare of their entrance, and diſmiſſion; alſo, a Survey of the ground held by a Cottier, or Copiholder, deliuered vnto his Landlord; alſo, a roll containing the particulars of the Courts expence in acates, &c, digeſted, and ſigned euerie day by the Steward,

Steward, and Comptroller of the houſhold, and deliuere. louer vnto the Treaſurer; alſo, the Breuiate of a caſe, or cauſe, in controuerſie; alſo, the warrant thats deliuered by a generall Aſſeſſor vnto inferior Collectors, for the leuying of a Subſidie, tax, or impoſition.

Escruoëlle: f. A little Shrimp-reſembling worme, or vermine in puddles, and ſome ſprings.

Eſcrouëllé: m. ée: f. Troubled with the Kings euill.
Ame eſcrouëllée. An infected, traiterous, or depraued ſpirit.

Les Eſcrouëlles. The Kings euill.
Herbe des eſcrouëlles. Little Celandine, Pilewort, Figwort.

Eſcroulé: m. ée: f. Shaken, tottered, ſhogged.

Eſcroulement. A ſhaking, ſhogging, tottering.

Eſcrouler. To ſhake, totter, ſhog.

Eſcroupionné: m. ée: f. Rumpleſſe; whoſe crupper is broken.

Eſcrouſté: m. ée: f. Chipped; vncruſted; vnſcabbed.

Eſcrouſtement: m. An vncruſting; or vnſcabbing.

Eſcrouſter. To chip; vncruſt; vnſcab; to pare the cruſt off, pull or pill the ſcab from.

Escrouter. To vncruſt; to chip, or pull the cruſt off.

Eſcru. drap eſcru. Raw, new, freſh, vndreſſed, vntrimmed cloth; euen as it comes from the weauer.

Eſcruë. as Accreuë.

Eſcu: m. A crowne in money; alſo, a ſhield, or targuet; alſo, a Scutcheon (of Armes; and ſometimes th'Armes themſelues) or coat of Armes.
Eſcu couronne. Is leſſe in value, by a Sous, then the Eſcu Sol.
Eſcus à l'eſtoille Pouſsiniere. Looke Eſtoille.
Eſcu du Palais. A counter.
L'eſcu du ſoc. Th'eare of the plow-ſhare.
Eſcu ſol. A Crowne of the Sunne; (the beſt kind of Crowne that is now made) hath a little ſtarre on th'one ſide.
Eſcu vieil. An old Crowne; is worth vij. s. ij. d. ſterl.
Il n'a eſcu ny targe. The diuell may freely daunce in his purſe; there is not a croſſe to fright him, or bleſſe th'owner, withall.
Il fait de ſon teſton vn eſcu. He thriues well, gaines much, increaſes mightily in eſtate.

Eſcudes. as Eſcudettes.

Eſcudettes. The hearbe Hipwort, Venus-nauell, Pennywort, Pennie-graſſe.

Eſcueil: m. A rocke; alſo, a rockie place.

Eſcuelle: f. A dish.
Eſcuelle à oreillons. A porrenger.
Grande eſcuelle. A platter, or charger.
Petite eſcuelle. A ſaucer; or ſmall dish.
Les affaires domeſtiques y vont par eſcuelles. All things are ſquandered, rioted, or diſorderly waſted, in that houſe; the like is;
Tout y va par escuelles. There is cheere in bowles; there is no ſparing, pinching, nor ſauing of any thing; and;
Mettre tout par eſcuelles. (As we ſay) to throw the houſe out at windowes.
Qui s'attend à l'eſcuelle d'autruy il diſne ſouvent bien tard: Prov. Tis long before hee bee ſerued that waits for another mans leauings.

Eſcuellée: f. A dish full of.

Eſcuelles. Hipwort, Wall-penniewort, Ladies-nauell; (an hearbe.)

Eſcuellette: f. A little dish.

Eſcueuil: m. A kind of Oake whoſe acornes are good to bee eaten; ſome hold it to be, the barren Scarlet Oake.

Eſcuier. as Eſcuyer; An Eſquier, &c.

Eſcuirie: f. as Eſcuyrie.

Eſcuiſant. Smarting, itching, netling, ſtinging.

Eſcuiſſé: m. ée: f. Hipped; or, whoſe hip, or thigh is put out of ioynt.

Eſcuisser. To hip; to put the hip, or thigh out of ioynt.

Eſculé: m. ée: f. Whoſe taile is burſt; hcele troden downe.

Eſculée: f. A dish full of.

Eſculer. To burſt the taile of.
Eſculer vne aiguille. To breake a needles eye.
Eſculer ſes ſouliers. To tread his shoocs downe at the heeles.

Eſcume: f. Scumme, droſſe, ſoame, froth.
Eſcume de Mareſchal. The refuſe, or droſſe of yron; ſmithie duſt.
Eſcume de plomb. Lead-ſoame, comes by cleere water caſt vpon hot lead preſently after it hath beene melted.
Eſcume de ſel. Looke Sel.

Eſcumé: m. ée: f. Scummed, or skimmed; refined, clarified; cleanſed in th'outward parts; alſo, ſcowred, as the ſea by a pyrat &c.

Eſcumement: m. A ſoaming; alſo, a ſcumming, or skimming; alſo, a raunging, rouing; alſo, a ſcowring of the ſeas.

Eſcumer. To ſoame, or yeeld a frothie ſlauer; to gather vnto a froth, or ſcumme; alſo, to skimme, or clarifie, liquor; to refine, or take off the (outward) filth from; alſo, to raunge, roue, deale at randome; whence;
Eſcumer la mer. To ſcowre, as a fleet of warlike ships, the ſea; to play the pyrat, to vſe piracie.

Eſcumeur: m. (Is properly) a ſcummer, or skimmer of liquor; alſo (leſſe properly, but more commonly) a pirate, or a rouer at ſea.

Eſcumeux: m. euſe: f. Foamie, frothie, filthie.

Eſcumier: m. ere: f. Of ſoame, or froth; wherupon ſome Poets tearme Venus, fille eſcumiere, becauſe ſhee is fained to haue beene bred of the ſea-ſoame.

Escumoir: m. A ſcummer.

Eſcumoire: f. The ſame.

Eſcurage: m. A ſcowring; cleanſing; feying.

Escuré: m. ée: f. Scowred; cleanſed; feyed.

Eſcurer. To ſcowre; fey, rinſe, cleanſe, or make cleane: ¶Rab.

Eſcureur. as Eſcurieu; A Squirrell; alſo, a ſcowrer, cleanſer; feyer.

Eſcurie: f. as Eſcuyrie.

Eſcurieu: m. A ſquirell.

Eſcurs. The little ſallade hearb called, Ciues, or Chiues.

Eſcuſſon: m. A Scutcheon; a ſmall targuet, or ſhield; alſo, the knop in the middle of a timber-vault where the ends of the courbed poaſts doe meete; alſo the bud of a tree, cut off with part of the barke, in forme of an ordinarie ſcutcheon, and hence.
Enter en eſcuſſon. To lodge that bud in the bark of a tree by an inciſion made thereinto of the forme of a T, or by any other hole apt to receaue it; the cleſis, and breaches therof being afterwards cloſed vp with wax, or clay.

Eſcuſſonnable: com. Fit to be ſo graffed.

Eſcuſſonné: m. ée: f. Deſended, or couered with a ſcutcheon, or ſhield.

Eſcuſſonner. as Enter en eſcuſſon; alſo, to defend, or couer with a ſcutcheon, or ſhield.

Eſcuyer:

Eſcuyer : m. An Eſquire, or Squire; alſo, he that beares an Errant knights launce & ſhield; alſo, an Vſher, or Sewer; alſo, the falſe bud of a Vine; alſo, a yong male deere which, ordinarily, keeps an old one company; alſo, a kind of yellow, and hard-rinded Peare.

Eſcuyer de Cuiſine. The clarke of a kitchin.

Eſcuyer d' Eſcuyrie. A querrie, in a Princes Stable; the gentleman of a lords horſe.

Eſcuyer trenchant. A caruer, or ſquire of the mouth; alſo a Taſter; (for he that carues to a Prince, euer taſts of what he carues, before his maſter touch it.)

Le grand Eſcuyer de France. The maſter of the horſe; who beſides his authoritie ouer all th' Officers of the kings ſtables, hath alſo (which here belongs to the Earle marſhall) Iuriſdiction ouer heralds, and purſuants; In old time the great maſter, or ſteward of the Kings houſe, was alſo called thus.

Peu peut bailler à ſon Eſcuyer qui ſon couſteau leſche: Prov. He that hath but little for himſelfe hath not much for his man.

Pour l'amour du Chevalier baiſe la Dame l'eſcuyer: Pro. (Wherein his worſhip is, often, but little beholden to her Ladieſhip.)

Eſcuyere: f. A woman-eſquire; a Gentlewoman that attends on a knight as his Eſquire.

Eſcuyrie: f. The ſtable of a Prince, or nobleman; alſo, a Querry-ſhip; or the dueties, or offices belonging thereto; alſo (in old authors) a Squires place; or, the dignitie, title, or eſtate of an Eſquire.

Eſdenter. as Edenter.

Esfarouché: m. ée: f. Frighted, ſcared, frightened, feared away; alſo, tamed, reclaimed, made gentle, inward, or tractable.

Esfaroucher. To fright, ſcare, frighten, affray, feare away; alſo, to tame, winne, reclaime, make gentle, tractable, inward.

Esfilé. as Effilé.

Esflanqué: m. ée: f. Swayed in the backe; alſo, leane, meager, gaunt, thinne-flanked, or ſhrunke in the flanke, that hath no bellie at all.

Esflanqué en cheval de poſtillon. As lanke as a poſt-horſe.

Esflanquer. To ſway in the backe; or, to make leane, meager, gaunt, thinne-flanked, ſmall-bellied.

Esflorer. To depriue of flower, or of flowers; Looke Effleurer.

Esfoiré: m. ée: f. Bedunged, bemired, berayed.

Esfrontément. as Effrontément; Impudently.

Esgail: m. A fine morning-froſt, that ſhines like glaſſe.

Eſgal. as Egual; Equall, euen, leuell.

Les Ondes ſont à l' eſgal. Plaine, ſmooth, calme.

Eſgaler. as Egualer.

Esgallé: m. ée: f. Equalled, matched, euened, leuelled.

Esgallement. Equally, euenly, alike, matchably.

Esgaller. To equall, match; leuell, euen.

Esgard: m. Reſpect, heed, regard, obſeruation; aduiſement, conſideration; reckoning, account; alſo, a report made, or account giuen, of.

Eſgards. ſont gens expers, & cognoiſants à faire viſitations, & rapports: ¶Ragueau.

Eſgaré. il s' eſt esgaré de, &c. He is wandered or ſtraied, he ſwarues or digreſſes, from; he is out of the way.

Esgaré de bouche. (Of a horſe) not ſubiect to the bit, vnſtayed, in all things diſobedient.

Mais il ne fut pas pourtant eſgaré. Yet was he not abaſhed, or put downe; he had not yet loſt himſelfe; he knew, for all that, well ynough where he was.

Esgarement: m. A ſtraying, wandering; ſwaruing, digreſſing from; alſo, a ſcattering, diſperſing, miſlaying.

Esgarement en la veuë. A ſtaring, gaſtlineſſe, amazednesſe of looke; or, an vncertaine faſhion of gazing vp and downe.

Eſgarer. To ſcatter, diſperſe, miſlay.

s'Eſgarer. To erre, wander, ſtray, roue, to flie out, ſwaruе, or digreſſe from, to runne out of the high way.

Esgargaté de crier. Whoſe throat is almoſt burſt, or welnigh riuen, with crying.

Esgaronné: m. ée; f. Trodden downe, as a ſhooe at the heele.

Eſgaronner vn ſoulier. To tread a ſhooe downe at the heele.

Eſgarouillé. yeux eſgarouillez. Wide-ſtaring, or gloring, eyes.

s'Eſgaudir. To reioyce; to be iocond, merrie, glad; to be full of glee.

s'Eſgayer. To ſport, make merrie, be gameſome; to skip, leape, or play, as duckes, or fiſh, in the water.

Eſgeré: m. ée: f. Ploughed, or broken vp, as land for fallowes.

Esgerer. To plough, or breake vp land for fallowes.

Esglantier: m. The Eglantine, ſweet Brier, Hep-tree, wild Roſe-tree.

Eſglantier odorant. The ſweet Brier.

Eſglise: f. as Egliſe; A Church.

Esgommé: m. ée: f. Vngummed, whoſe gumme is taken away.

Eſgommer. To vngumme; to take away the gumme from.

Esgorgé: m. ée: f. Whoſe throat is cut.

Esgorgement. The cutting of a throat; alſo, a whirlepoole, or ſwallowing abiſme, or gulfe.

Esgorger. To cut the throat of.

Esgorgeté: m. ée: f. Whoſe throat is cut; alſo, bare-neckt; bare, or open breaſted; or wearing a verie low, or no, coller to his ſhirt, doublet, ierkin, &c.

Eſgorgeter. as Eſgorger; Alſo, to goe bare-neckt, open-breſted; or to fould downe the coller of a garment, thereby to bare, or diſcouer the necke, or boſome.

Eſgoſillé: m. ée: f. Whoſe throat is cut.

Esgoſillement: m. A throat-cutting.

Esgoſiller. To cut the throat of.

Esgoſſe: f. A cod, huske, hulling.

Esgoüé: m. ée: f. Cloyed, ſaded, ouer full, or full vnto ſacietie.

Eſgouër. To be cloyed, ſaded, ouer full; to eat vnto ſacietie.

Eſgouſſer. To vnhuske; to pill, or ſhale huſked fruits.

Esgouſt: m. as Eſgout.

Esgout: m. A drop, or dropping, as of water from a houſe eaues; alſo, a little ſinke, channell, or gutter to void filth by.

Pluye de Fevrier vaut eſgout de fumier: Pro. Look Fumier.

Eſgouté: m. ée: f. Drained, dried, ſoaked of moiſture, by little and little.

Eſgoutement: m. A draining by dropping.

Esgouter. To draine, or make drie by little and little; to leaue neuer a drop in.

Goutte à goutte la mer s' eſgoute: Prov. The ſea by a continuall draining will grow drie.

Eſgouteur: m. A drainer, ſoaker, drier vp by drops.

Esgoutille: f. A little hole, or gullet, through which water can doe little more then drop.

Eſgoutoir: m. A draine, channell, ſinke, or low gutter in a dairie, kitchen, &c.

Eſgrailler. To ſhale, or ſtraddle with the feet, or legs.

Eſgrai-

Eſgrainer. as Eſgrener.
Eſgraphé: m.ée: f. Looſſed, pulled aſunder, pulled away from; or as Deſgraſé.
Eſgrapher. To looſſe, pull aſunder, or pull away from; or as Deſgrafer.
Eſgraphigner. as Eſgratigner.
Eſgratigné: m.ée: f. Scratched, ſcraped, rent, or torne with the nailes.
Eſgratignement: m. A ſcratching, ſcraping, tearing with the nailes.
Eſgratigner. To ſcrape, ſcratch, rend, or teare with the nailes.
Eſgratigneur: m. A ſcraper, or ſcratcher.
Eſgratigneure: f. as Eſgratignement; Alſo, a ſcratch, rend, or teare, with the nailes.
Eſgrené: m. ée: f. Fruitleſſe, barren, ſterile, without corne; alſo, vngrained, vnſeeded; depriued, as an huſk of it ſeed, an eare of it corne, or graine.
Eſgrener. To ſhake corne out of it eare; peaſe, or beanes out of their huſks; to depriue, or make barren of corne; to vnſeed, or take the ſeed out of.
Eſgrette. as Aigrette.
Eſgrugé: m.ée: f. Grated ſmall; alſo, crumbled, crummed, or broken into ſmall peeces.
Eſgrugeoir: m. The little round grater of lattin, thats kept in a caſe of the ſame, and vſed moſt for the Nutmeg.
Eſgruger. To grate ſmall; alſo, to crumble, or breake vnto crummes.
Eſgrumé: m.ée: f. Vncluſtered; vncluttered; ſhaken, or taken, from it cluſter.
Eſgrumelé. as Eſgrumé.
Eſgrumeler. To vncluſter, or vnclutter; to ſhake, or take aſunder things that hang looſſe together.
Eſgruner. To pluck grapes from their cluſter.
Eſgruné: m. ée: f. Crummed, crumbled, broken ſmall.
Eſgruner. To crumme, crumble, breake ſmall.
Eſgual. as Egual.
Eſgualation. An equalling, matching, leuelling, making like.
Eſgualé, &, Eſgualer. Seeke Egualé, &, Egualer.
Eſgue: f. A leane, ill-fauoured, carrion mare.
Eſgueré. la bouche eſguerée. Seeke Eſgaré.
Eſguerer. as Eſgarer.
Eſgueulé: m.ée: f. Gorged; whoſe throat is cut, or mouth burſt.
Eſgueuler. To gorge; to cut the throat, or burſt the mouth of.
s'Eſgueuler de crier. To ſplit his mouth by vehement exclaiming.
Eſguiere: f. An Ewer, a Lauer.
Eſguille: f. A needle; alſo, a ſmall fiſh called, a Horne-beake, Snacot-fiſh, Ganc-fiſh, Piper-fiſh; Looke Aiguille.
Eſguillé: m. ée: f. Of a needle, full of needles; wrought with the needle; pricked with needles.
Eſguillée: f. A needleſull of; alſo, a pricke, or ſtitch with a needle.
Eſguilleter. To truſſe the points.
Eſguillette: f. A point.
Eſguillettes d'armes. Looke Aiguillettes.
Eſguillette de chien. A courſe leatherne point.
Eſguillettes de ſouliers. The ſtraps.
Eſguillette nouée. The charming of a mans codpeece point ſo, as he ſhall not be able to vſe his owne wife, or woman (though he may vſe any other; ) Hence; avoir l' eſguillette nouée, ſignifies, to want erection: (This impotencie is ſuppoſed to come by the force of certaine words vttered by the Charmer, while he ties a knot on the parties codpeece-point.)
Courir l' eſguillette. To be madde after a P. to run vp and downe after her leacherie, like a ſalt bitch; to play the common whoore; (In old time common wenches were enioyned to weare a point on one of their ſhoulders, thereby to diſtinguiſh them from thoſe that profeſſed honeſtie.)
Eſguillier: m. A needle-maker.
Eſguillon: m. A pricke, a goad, a ſting, a ſpurre; a prouocation; any thing that incenſeth, ſtirreth, or vrgeth forward; alſo, an inward griefe, pinch, or biting hurt.
Eſguillons. Little ſtakes headed with yron, and ſtuck into the ground, for the galling of horſemen.
De petit eſguillon poinct on bien grande aſneſſe: Prov. A little goad can pricke a great ſhe Aſſe.
Qui contre eſguillon recule, deux fois ſe poinct: Prov. Seeke Reculer.
Tel aſne tel eſguillon: Prov. Looke Aſne.
Eſguillonné: m. ée f. Pricked, ſtung; pinched; vexed; vrged, incenſed, prouoked forward.
Eſguillonnement: m. A pricking, ſtinging; pinching; vrging, incenſing, forward.
Eſguillonner. To pricke, ſting; pinch; vex; vrge, egge; force, prouoke, incite, inſtigate, forward.
Eſguillonneur: m. A pricker, ſtinger; vrger, incenſer, prouoker, inſtigater.
Eſguillonneuſe: f. She that moueth, incenſeth, vrgeth, pricketh forward.
Eſguiſé: m. ée: f. Whetted, ſharpened, whereon a good edge is ſet.
Eſguiſer. To whet, ſharpen, ſet an edge on.
Eſguiſeur: m. A ſharpener, or whetter of blades.
Eſhanché: m.ée: f. Whoſe hip, or hanch is out of ioynt.
Eſhancher. To put a hanch, or hip out of ioynt.
Eſhancheure: f. A putting of the hip, or hanch out of ioynt.
Eſherbé: m. ée: f. Weeded.
Eſherbement: m. A weeding; a ridding of weeds, a plucking vp of graſſe, or weeds,
Eſherber. To weed; rid of weeds; plucke vp the graſſe, or weeds.
Eſhonté: m. ée: f. Shameleſſe, impudent, braſen-faced, ouer-bold, whom nothing can put out of countenance.
Os eſhonté. The forehead bone, ſo called by ſome.
Eſhontement: m. Shameleſneſſe, impudencie, vnſhamefaſtneſſe, graceleſneſſe.
Eſhontément. Shameleſly, impudently.
s'Eſhonter. To be ſhameleſſe, impudẽt, ouer-bold; to haue a braſen face; to bluſh at nothing; to be paſt grace.
Eſjetté: m.ée: f. Iected, iented, or ſquirted vp; caſt out, launched forth.
s'Eſjetter. To iert, or ſquirt vp; to eiect, caſt out, or launch forth, it ſelfe.
Eſjeuné: m. ée: f. Kept faſting, ſtarued.
Eſjeuner. To keepe faſting, to ſtarue.
s'Eſjouir. To reioyce, make merrie; be glad, blithe, iocond, pleaſant, frolicke, full of glee.
Eſjouiſſance: f. Ioy, mirth, glee, reioycing, gladneſſe.
s'Eſjouiſſant. Gladſome, frolicke, iocond, reioycing.
s'Eſjourner. To linger, tarrie long, take his leaſure, vſe delayes; Looke Sejourner.
Eſlagué: m. ée: f. Pruned, rid, or cleanſed of vnprofitable ſhutes, boughes, or branches.
Eſlaguer. To crop, and cut off vnprofitable, hurtfull, or vnhandſome branches from trees.
Eſlaguoir: m. Th'inſtrument wherwith ſuch branches are cut off.

Eſla_

Eſlaguiſsant. Pruning; cropping, or plucking off vnprofitable branches.

Eſlaïnde. An engine wherewith great ſtones are lifted vp.

Eſlançant. Violently launching, ſhooting, hurling, throwing, thruſting, puſhing forward; ſtretching out.

s'Eſlançant. Furiouſly leaping, running, ſetting, or flying vpon.

Eslancé: m. ée: f. (Violently, or with an out-ſtretched bodie) leaped, girded, skipped, launched; put, puſhed, thruſt on, or forward; throwne, caſt, hurled, flung, darted, ſhot out, or from; alſo, ſtretched vp, or out; alſo, gaunt, lanke, long, thinne or leane bodied; ſcrag-like, right like a Gangrell.

Eſlancement: m. A violent leaping, launching, skipping; putting, puſhing, thruſting on, vp, out, or forward; hurling, throwing, darting, ſhooting out, or from; a retching, or ſtretching out of the bodie in any of thoſe actions; alſo, as Elancement; alſo, a ſtitch, or pricking in the bodie, cauſed by an Impoſtume, Plureſie, &c.

Eſlancement de l'eſprit. An vnquietneſſe; a diſquieting, or ſtirring vp of paſſions; an out-ierting of the ſpirit, a ſudden motion of the mind, or tranſportation of thoughts.

Eſlancer. (Violently, or with an out-ſtretcht bodie) to thruſt, put, puſh, vp, forward, on, or vpon; alſo (and in the ſame manner) to hurle, throw, caſt, fling, dart, ſhoot out, or from; alſo, to ſtretch out, as the bodie, in any of theſe actions; alſo, as Elancer.

Eslancer vn cerf. To rowſe a Stag.

Eſlancer vn cheval. Suddenly to thruſt a horſe forward, with the ſpurre, &c.

s'Eslancer. Violently, or ſuddenly to leape, skip, iert, gird, launch forward.

s'Eſlancer ſur vn ennemy. To make furiouſly towards him, ſet fiercely vpon him; leape, or flie, at his face.

Eslangouré. as Eſlangoré.

Eſlangui: m. ie: f. Languiſhed, in languiſhment, or fallen into languiſhment.

Eſlans: m. A ſtretching out, or ierting vp, or thruſting forward, of the bodie prepared vnto a violent action, or motion, as leaping, hurling, darting, &c; hence alſo, any liuelie, violent, or ſudden motion, be it leap, skip, iert, thruſt, or ſtretch; alſo, the wild, and diſordered preſſing forward of a doing horſe.

Eslargi: m. ie: f. Dilated, widened, inlarged, greatened, increaſed; alſo, freed, inlarged, releaſed, ſet at libertie; alſo, giuen largely, dealt frankly, beſtowed bountifully.

Eſlargir. To dilate, inlarge, widen, greaten, increaſe; alſo, to free, ſet at large, giue libertie, or ſcope vnto; alſo, to giue largely, beſtow frankly, deale bountifully.

s'Eslarger en la mer. To get ſea-roome, or goe roomeward to ſea; to get, put, or make out into the maine.

Eſlargiſſant. Dilating, inlarging, widening, increaſing; alſo, freeing, ſetting at large, or at libertie; alſo, giuing, dealing, beſtowing largely, frankly, bountifully.

Eslargiſſement: m. An inlarging, dilating, widening; alſo, a freeing; a giuing of ſcope vnto, or ſetting at libertie; alſo, a large, or liberall giuing, dealing, beſtowing.

Eſlargiſſement de la prunelle. An imperfection in the eye; when the grapie Membrane being greater then it was, or ſhould be, confounds all obiects, and makes them ſeeme farre bigger then they be.

Defaillir au jour de ſon eſlargiſſement. To make default on the day of his apparance (whereto he was bound.)

Eſlavé: m. ée: f. Moiſtened, bedeawed, waſhed ouer; waſhie, deawie; waſhed away.

Eſlaver. To moiſten, bedeaw, waſh ouer; waſh away.

Eſlay: m. A Careere, or courſe on horſebacke; (an old word.)

Eſle. as Aile.

Eslection: f. An election, choice, or chuſing; alſo, an Election; the ſeat, or circuit of an Eſleu; a Towne, or Diuiſion (whereof there be diuers in each Generalitie) within which a certaine number of Eſleus doe exerciſe their iuriſdiction.

Eſleus: m. Generall Aſſeſſors of Subſidies, &c; or Magiſtrates, who, when any Aide, Subſidie, or Impoſition is to bee leuied, rate, at a certaine ſumme, euerie Pariſh, and Village of the Election, or Diuiſion wherein they reſide; and accordingly ſend their warrants vnto the particular Officers, or chiefe inhabitants thereof, for the preſent gathering of what they haue rated: They alſo take notice of the raiſing, and maintenance of publicke bankes, and cauſeyes; and of collections of money for the walling, or fortification of Townes; and (as Iudges) of all actions (whether ciuile, or criminall) that concerne, or come of, any of theſe matters. At firſt, when the Aides were not leuied but in time of warre, nor then without conſent of the people, they choſe two Aſſeſſors in euerie Townеſhip, and from that choyce gaue them this name, which they held no longer then during the leuie: But after that they grew ordinarie, and to be impoſed at the pleaſure of the Prince, the Eſleus changing their Maiſters, became his officers, & officers during their lines; yet receiue they ſtill their wages of the people, & ſometimes large Eſpices to boot: Since then they haue increaſed both in number, and authoritie, ſo much, that they are now become verie burdenſome vnto the whole countrey.

Eſleu: m. euë: f. Elected, choſen, culled, picked out.

Eſlevable: com. Fit to be eleuated, raiſed, aduanced; reared, bred, brought vp.

Eſlevation: f. An eleuation; or as Eſlevement; alſo, a rebellion, commotion, or vpriſing of people.

Eſlevé: m. ée: f. Eleuated, raiſed, lifted, bouen vp; aduanced, extolled, promoted; alſo, riſen, ſwollen, puffed vp, ſtrouted out; bolt vpright; alſo, high, loftie, hautie, ſtout; alſo, heaped, or piled on; alſo, reared, bred, brought vp.

Eslevement: m. A lifting, raiſing, heauing vp; aduancing, extolling, promoting; alſo, a mounting, riſing, ſwelling, puffing vp, ſtrouting out; alſo, a rearing, breeding, or bringing vp.

Eslever. To eleuate, liſt, raiſe, heaue vp, aduance on high; extoll, promote; alſo, to heape, lay, pile, or put one thing vpon another; alſo, to reare, breed, or bring vp.

s'Eslever. To riſe, mount, ſwell, puffe vp, ſtrout out; to grow loftie, hautie, high-minded, proud, preſumptuous.

Eſleveur: m. A raiſer, liſter, mounter, heauer vp; an aduancer; a piler vp; a rearer, breeder, bringer vp of.

Eſleveur. Eleuating, lifting, raiſing vp; and hence;

Muſcle eſleveur. Looke Muſcle.

Esleveure: f. A raiſing; or, a rearing; alſo, a riſing, or ſwelling ſwelling vp in height; an imboſſing, or outſtrouting; alſo, an imboſſement, or bunch; a thing riſen, ſwollen, or puffed vp.

Eſligible : com. Eligible; worthie, fit, or like, to be elected; in election.

Eſlingé : m. ée : f. Slender, lanke.

Eſlire. To chooſe, elect, cull, pick out.

Eſlite : f. A choice, election, picking out.

Gens d'eſlite ; mots d'eſlite. Choice people, quaint termes; men, or words, of the better ſort.

Eſloché : m. ée : f. Shaken, wagged, iogged; looſſed in the ioynt.

Eſlochement : m. A Shaking or looſſening, as of a ioint.

Eſlocher. To ſhake, wag, iog, wauer; to looſe in the ioynt.

Eſloigné ; ou Esloingné : m. ée : f. Remooued, ſent, ſet, put, baniſhed, or driuen, farre away.

Faire la part au plus eſloigné. To yeald but a ſmall part, allot a poore ſhare, vnto.

Eſloignement, ou eſloingnement. A remooving, or conueying away; a baniſhing from, a putting, or ſetting farre of.

Eſloigner ; ou eſloingner. To remooue, baniſh, driue, ſet, put, farre away; to keepe alooſe, to ſend a great way from.

S'eſloigner de. To leaue, abandon, forſake; to depart, or get him farre from.

Eſlourdement : m. A dulling, or dulneſſe; an aſtoniſhing, amazing; a dizzines, an amazement.

Eſlourdir. To dull, blunt, make beauie, ſottiſh, lumpiſh; alſo, to aſtoniſh, dizze, amaze.

S'eſlourdir. To wax dull, grow ſottiſh, proue beauie headed; alſo, to be amazed, aſtonied, dizzed.

Eſluder. To deceiue, mock, ſcoffe at; to dallie with; to auoid, or ſhift off with words.

Eſmail : m. Ammell, or enammell; (is made of glaſſe, and mettals, or Chaulx metalique ; for which Looke Chaulx.)

Eſmail de Veniſe. A kind of blacke enammell made at Venice.

Eſmaillé : m. ée : f. Enammelled.

Eſmailler. To enammell.

Eſmailleur : m. An enammeller.

Eſmaillure : f. An enammelling.

Eſmané : as Emané.

Eſmaner. Seeke Emaner.

Eſmarmelé : m. ée : f. Cruſhed, crooſed, or burſt in peeces.

Eſmarmeler. To cruſh, crooſe, or burſt in peeces.

Eſmay as Eſmoy. Thought, care, carke.

s'Eſmayer. To be ſad, penſiue, aſtonyed, careſull; to take thought.

Eſme : m. An ayme, or leuell taken; alſo, a purpoſe, intention, determination.

Eſmenuiſé : m. ée : f. Made ſmall, broken or beaten into little peeces.

Eſmenuiſer. To breake, or beate into ſmall peeces; to make ſmall; or, as Eſmier.

Eſmer. To ayme, or leuell at; to make an offer to ſtrike, &c; alſo, to purpoſe, determine, intend.

Eſmeraude : f. An emerauld.

Eſmerauldin : m. ine : f. Like an emerald, belonging to an emerauld.

Eſmeril : m. An Emrod, or Emerill ſtone.

Eſmerillon : m. The hawk termed a marlin; alſo, a ſmall peece of Ordnance, about the ſize of a Robinet.

Loyeux comme un eſmerillon. As merrie as a marlin.

Eſmerillonnant. Watching narrowly; obſeruing with a quick eye.

Eſmerillonné : m. ée : f. Liuelie, quicke, ſprightfull; or as Emerillonné.

Eſmerillonner. Looke Emerillonner.

Eſmerveillable : com. Maruelous, admirable, miraculous, wonderfull, much to be wondered at.

Eſmerveillé. Maruelled, wondered.

Eſmerveillement : m. A marvelling, wondering; admiration, admiring; a gazing at.

Eſmerveiller. To make to wonder, admire, or maruell at; to breed aſtoniſhment, or admiration in.

S'eſmerveiller. To wonder, maruell, admire; alſo, to looke, or gaze at with aſtoniſhment.

Eſmery : m. An Emrod, or Emerill ſtone; vſed by Iuellers, Lapidaries, Glaſors, &c.

Eſmeſché : m. ée : f. Snuffed.

Eſmeſcher. To ſnuffe a light.

Eſmeu : m. euë : f. Moued, or ſtirred vp; excited, incited, incouraged, prouoked, ſet on; pricked, put, vrged, or egged, forward; alſo, wagged or ſhaken vp & down.

Eſmeut : m. The mute, or dropping of a bird.

Eſmeute : f. A tumult, ſtirre, vprore, commotion, inſurrection, or riſing of people; a broyle, riot, ſedition, hurly-burly, old coyle; alſo, a priuate motion, or ſuddain inſtinct vnto a thing.

Eſmeute de chiens. A kennell of hounds that be much of a ſize, and color : See Meute.

Eſmeuti. Muted, dropped; purged.

Eſmeutir. To mute, or drop, as birds doe; hence, alſo, to purge any way.

Eſmiable : com. Crummable, crumblable.

Eſmié m. ée : f. Crummed, crumbled; mouldred; broken into ſmall peeces,

Eſmier. To crum, crumble, breake into ſmall peeces.

S'eſmier. To fall into ſmall peeces; to moulder away.

Eſmiettement : m. A crumming, crumbling, breaking into ſmall peeces.

Eſmieure : f. A crumming, crumbling; mouldering.

Eſminage : m. A meaſure in ſome parts of Burgundie, conteyning about halfe a buſhell.

Eſminal : m. Another meaſure; being the halfe of the Bichot.

Eſminotte : f. A meaſure of about ij Burgonian buſhels.

Eſmoëllé : m. ée : f. Without marrow; bereaued of pith; depriued of marrow.

Eſmoëller. To depriue of marrow; to pick marrow out of bones, pith out of trees; to bereaue of ſtrength.

Eſmoignonné : m. ée : f. Stumped, cut off at the ſtump; made a ſtump of.

Eſmoignonner. To ſtump; to cut off at the ſtump; or make a ſtump of.

Eſmonctoires. Looke Emonctoire.

Eſmonde real. Oſmond royall, male fearne.

Eſmondé : m. ée : f. Cleanſed, purged, cleered, made cleane, picked; pruned; weeded (by hand.)

Eſmondement : m. A cleanſing, purging, cleering; or making cleane; a picking; pruning; weeding (by hand.)

Eſmonder. To cleanſe, purge, cleere, make cleane; to pick (as Corne;) to prune (as trees;) alſo, to weed (by hand) or pull vp weeds (with the hands.)

Eſmondeur : m. A cleanſer, purger, cleerer, maker cleane; a picker (of Corne); a pruner (of trees) a weeder by hand.

Eſmont. as Eſmeut. (An old word.)

Eſmorche : f. Touch-powder; alſo, a tickling; alſo, the ordure that cleaues to an vnwiped, or ill-wiped arſe.

Eſmorcellé : m. ée : f. Peecemealed; beaten, or pulled, into ſmall peeces.
Eſmorceller. To peecemeale; to beat in peeces, or break into ſmall morcells.
Eſmotelé : m. ée : f. Whoſe clods are broken; alſo, conſumed, or eaten.
Eſmoteler. as Eſmotter ; Alſo, to eat, or conſume.
Eſmotion : f. An emotion, commotion, ſudden, or turbulent ſtirring ; an agitation of the ſpirit, violent motion of the thoughts, vehement inclination of the mind.
Eſmotter. To breake the clods of a plowed land.
Eſmoucé : m. ée : f. Dulled, blunted.
Eſmoucer. To dull, blunt, or take away the edge of.
Eſmouchail : m. as Eſmouchoir.
Eſmouché : m. ée : f. Rid of flies.
Eſmouche-lourdaut. A cheater, guller, conicatcher, foiſting companion ; a craftie flattering knaue ; a deceiuer of ſimple, or ſottiſh people.
Eſmoucher. To rid of, or driue away, flies.
Eſmoucheté. Flie-blowne ; alſo, pinked, or ſet with little tufts.
Eſmouchette : f. The round tuft, or head of bearbes, wherein their ſeed is contained.
Des Eſmouchettes. A paire of ſnuffers.
Eſmouchoir : m. A flie-flap ; or fan to driue away flies.
Eſmoüellé. as Eſmoëlle.
Eſmoulage : m. A grinding, whetting, ſharpening of.
Eſmouldre. To grinde, whet, make ſharpe.
Eſmoulendier : m. A ſheere-grinder.
Eſmouleur : m. A grinder, whetter, ſharpner of blades.
Eſmoulu : m. uë : f. Whetted, ſharpened, ground, that hath an edge ſet on it.
A fer eſmoulu. Violently, vehemently, throughly, in full earneſt, to the proofe, without boording, with all extremitie.
Gentilhomme frais eſmoulu. A gentleman newly forged ; a gentleman of the firſt head.
Eſmoulure : f. A grinding, whetting, ſharpening, a giuing of an edge vnto.
Eſmouſſé : m. ée : f. Rid, or bared of moſſe.
Eſmouſſer. To rid of moſſe, to plucke the moſſe from.
Eſmouvement : m. A mouing, or ſtirring vp ; an exciting, inciting, vrging, prouoking vnto ; alſo, a toſſing, agitation ; exerciſe ; wagging, or ſhaking vp & downe.
Eſmouveur : m. A mouer, or ſtirrer vp ; an exciter, inciter, incourager, prouoker, ſetter on ; a picker, putter, egger, or vrger forward.
Eſmouvoir. To moue, or ſtirre vp ; to agitate ; excite, incite, incourage, prouoke, ſet on ; to pricke, put, vrge, or egge, forward ; alſo, to wag, or ſhake vp and downe.
Eſmoy : m. Carke, care, thought, ſorrow, heauineſſe, penſiueneſſe.
s'Eſmoyer de. Earneſtly to aske, or enquire, of.
Eſmundé : m. ée : f. Rid or cleered of, cleanſed or purged from, dead, broken, withered boughes, &c.
Esmundement. as Eſmondement ; A pruning.
Eſmunder. To cleanſe ; to prune ; Seeke Eſmonder.
Eſmutir. as Eſmeutir ; To mute, or mowt.
Eſmutiſſement. as Eſmeut ; A muting.
Eſmyne. A kind of meaſure ; as Emine.
Eſnaſé : m. ée : f. Noſeleſſe ; made noſeleſſe ; whoſe noſe is cut off, or pulled away.
Ie me ſuis eſnaſé contre. I haue daſht, or almoſt burſt, my noſe againſt.
Esnaſer. To make noſeleſſe ; to cut, or pull off, the noſe.
Eſnervé : m. ée : f. Weakened, enfeebled, made ſinewleſſe, depriued of ſinewes.
Eſnerver. To weaken, infeeble, make ſinewleſſe, depriue of ſinewes, bereaue of ſtrength.
Eſor. Oyſeaux eſors. Wild, vnmade, or ill-mand hawks ; apt, when they are a-wing, to take a toy, or to flie their countrey.
Eſpace : f. A ſpace, or diſtance ; a reſpite, pauſe, intermedium.
Eſpade : f. A broad ſhort ſword.
Espadon : m. A ſhort two-handed ſword.
Espagneul : m. A Spaniell.
Espagnol : m. A Spaniard ; alſo, a Spaniell.
Le feu des Eſpagnols. A hot ſcorching Sunne.
Vn Eſpagnol ſans Ieſuite eſt vne perdris ſans orange : Prov. A Spaniard without a Jeſuite is (wee may ſay) cheeſe without muſtard.
Eſpagnol : m. ole : f. Spanish, of Spaine.
Eſpée Eſpagnole. A Rapier, or Tucke.
Eſpagnolade : f. A Spaniſh tricke, blow, bob.
Espagnole. A l'Eſpagnole. After the Spanish maner, faſhion, humor.
Payer à l'Eſpagnole. To giue knockes in ſtead of coine ; or to riſle ſuch as he ſhould requite ; (a phraſe deuiſed by ſome Dutchman.)
Eſpagnolé : m. ée : f. Spaniolized ; made Spanish, or Spaniard-like.
Corps bien Eſpagnolé. A bodie made ſlender.
Eſpagnolette : f. A Band-ſupporter of wire in workes done ouer with ſilke.
Eſpagnoliſer. To play the Spaniard ; to ſpeake, or doe like a Spaniard.
Eſpagnotter. To wooe, to court ; as Muguetter.
Espaillier. Looke Eſpallier.
Espais. Thicke ; Seeke Eſpez.
Espaiſſiſſant. Thickening.
Espaix : m. Thickneſſe, cloſeneſſe, denſitie, groſſeneſſe.
Espalé : m. ée : f. Scattered, caſt, or ſpred abroad, with a ſhouell.
Eſpaler. To ſcatter, caſt, or ſpread, abroad with a ſhouell.
Espalier : m. He that rowes with the firſt oare in a gallie ; alſo, as Eſpallier.
Eſpaller. as Eſpaler.
Espallier : m. An hedge-row of ſundrie fruit trees ſet cloſe together, their boughes interlaced one within another, and held in with ſtakes, railes, or pales ; alſo, a buttreſſe, ſhore-poſt, or ſhouldering peece (in Architecture.)
Eſpalmé : m. ée : f. Caulked, or pitched ouer, as a ſhip.
Eſpaine : m. The crampe.
Espamé : m. ée : f. Infeebled, weakened, made leane, as with faſting ; alſo, troubled with a crampe, or conuulſion, fallen into a ſwoond.
Eſpamer. To infeeble, weaken, make leane, as with faſting ; alſo, as Eſpauſmer.
Eſpampé. roſes eſpampées. Which be fully blowne.
Espampré : m. ée : f. Pruned, as a vine, of ſuperfluous ſhoots, &c.
Eſpamprement : m. The pruning of a vine.
Espamprer la vigne. To prune a vine ; to plucke, or cut, away the ſuperfluous ſhoots thereof.
Eſpan : m. A ſpan.
Espanché : m. ée : f. Squattered, ſpilled, shed, or powred out in haſt, or diſorder.
Espanchement : m. A diſordered, or haſtie ſquattering, ſpilling, sheeding, or powring out.
Espancher. To ſquatter, ſpill, sheed, or powre out diſorderedly, or in haſt.
Eſpancher de l'eau. To ſpill water ; alſo, to piſſe.
Eſpandable : com. Which may be shed, ſpilled, powred out.

Espandement : m. A ſheeding, ſpilling, powring out; a ſpreading, dilating, extending.

Espandre. To ſheed, ſpill, powre out; to ſpread, caſt, or ſcatter abroad in great abundance.

s'eſpandre. To ſpread, run abroad; ouerflow, dilate, increaſe; extend it ſelfe.

Espandu : m. uë : f. Shed, ſpilled, powred out; ſpred, caſt, or ſcattered abroad; dilated, largely extended.

Espani : m. ie : f. Blowen; ſpred abroad; ſtretched, diſplayed.

Espanir. To blow, or ſpread, as a blooming Roſe, or any other flower, in the height of it flouriſhing; alſo, to diſplay, ſtretch, or ſpread out.

Espanité. as Eſpavité.

Espanouï : m. ie : f. Blowen, diſplayed, ſpred out.

Espanouïr. as Eſpanir.

Espanouïſſement : m. A blowing, or blooming of flowers; a ſpreading, or diſplaying.

Espapilloté : m. ée : f. Beſpangled; beſpatled, beſpotted.

Espapilloter. To beſpangle; beſpot, beſpatle.

Esparcet : m. A kind of thicke graſſe, or pulſe in Dauphiné, the hay whereof is very good for cattell, and the ſeed for pulleyn; tis newly ſowen euery fourth yeare.

Esparcete. as Parietaire. Pellitorie of the wall.

Esparcetiere : f. A plot, or cloſe thats ſowed with Eſparcet.

Espardement : m. A ſcattering, ſprinkling, diſperſing, diſſipation.

Espardre. To ſcatter, diſperſe, ſpread abroad, to diſſipate, diſſolue, break into many peeces, to caſt heere and there.

Eſparer. To fling, or yerke out with the heeles, as a horſe in a high manage.

Le ciel commence s'eſparer. The skie begins to breake; or to ſcatter, or throw aſunder the cloudes that ouercaſt it.

Esparges. Sparagus.

Espargnant. Hard, neere, warie, thriftie, ſcantie, ſauing, frugall, ſparing, niggardlie, somewhat miſerable.

Espargne : f. Thrift, frugalitie, ſauing, ſparing, warineſſe, neereneſſe, parcimonie, good husbandrie; alſo, a ſtrait, compendious, or ſcantie courſe of proceeding; alſo, the Treaſurie or Exchequer of a Prince; alſo, ground reſerued, by particular men, onely for paſture.

Taillé d' espargne. Cut with ſparing worke; the incutting being filled with enamell, and the work ſet out, or appearing among it, in gold, &c.

Eſpargné : m. ée : f. Spared, ſaued, husbanded; reſerued; forgiuen, forborne; alſo, contriued, cut, or made out of.

Espargner. To ſpare, ſaue, husband; forgiue, forbeare, or beare with; alſo, to contriue, make, or cut, out of.

Sans eſpargner ne Roy ny Roc. without mercie, or reſpect of perſons; with as little fauour to one as to another; indifferently, or alike ſeuerely to all.

Bons mots n' eſpargnent nul : Prov. See Mot.

Ce que chiche eſpargne, large deſpend : Pro. That which a niggard ſaues his heire conſumes; or that which one ſpares another ſpends.

Marchandiſe n' eſpargne nuls : Prov. Ware will deceiue any bodie, ſpares no bodie.

Qui bien gaigne, & bien eſpargne devient tantoſt riche : Prov. He that gets and ſaues much, grows quickly rich.

Espargoutte : f. The hearbe Feuerfew, Fedderfew, White-wort, Mother-wort.

Petite espargoutte. Starwort, Sharewort, Cudwort.

Esparpillé : m. ée : f. Scattered, diſperſed, diſparkled; alſo, touſed, diſordered, diſheuelled, as a womans haire; alſo, ſpred, wide opened, ſet farre aſunder.

Esparpillement : m. A ſcattering, diſperſing, diſparkling of many things aſunder; a diſordering, diſheueling, or vntoward touſing of things; alſo, a ſpreading, wide opening, ſetting farre aſunder.

Esparpiller. To ſcatter, diſperſe, diſparkle aſunder; alſo, to ſet wide open, or far aſunder; alſo, to diſheuell, diſorder, touſe, as a womans haire.

Esparpiller ſon beurre. To ſpread his butter.

Esparre. The barre of yron thats nailed on a doore, and turnes at th' end on the hindge.

Espars. Scattered, diſperſed, diſſipated, diſmembred, rent, or broken into many parcels, caſt here and there.

Esparſement. Scatteringly, diſorderedly, vncertainly, here and there, all abroad, not one neere to another.

Espartant. Scattering, diſperſing, diuiding, far-ſundering.

Espartillé : m. ée : f. Diſparkled; or diſperſed; infiſed by ſmall parcells; diuided by partitions.

Espartir. To ſcatter, diſperſe, part, diuide, ſet aſunder.

Esparvain : m. A ſpauen in the leg of a horſe, or beaſt.

Esparvier : m. A Sparhawke, or Sparrow-hawke; and (more generally) a ſhort-winged hawke; alſo, a great Sweepe-net for fiſhing.

Esparvier de Montagu. A lowſe.

Herbe d' eſparvier. as Cichorée ſaulne.

Mieux vault meſtier qu' eſparvier. Better is a good occupation then hawking; or, better it is to follow a trade then a Hawke.

On ne peut faire d' hibou eſparvier : Prov. He thats a clowne by nature, cannot be gentilized by nurture; The like is;

On ne peut d' vn Pigeon faire vn vif eſparvier : Prov.

Espaſe : f. A ſword : ¶Langued.

Peis eſpaſe. Looke Spaſe.

Eſpaté : m. ée : f. Broad-footed, flat-footed; well vnderlayed; well ſpred, or of a good breadth, at the bottom; well grounded, fixed, ſetled, at the foot.

Espatement : m. The (broad) foot, or footing; the groundworke, or foundation, of.

s' Espater. To be broad-footed, or wel vnderlaid; to ſpread, haue ſome compaſſe, beare a good breadth, at the bottome; and (thereby) to be well grounded, fixed, ſetled.

Espatté. as Eſpaté.

Espattement. as Eſpatement.

Espatule : f. A (Chirurgions, or Apothecaries) little ſlice.

Espave. A waiſe, or ſtray; a chattell, or beaſt vnowned; any thing whoſe originall, or owner, is not knowne; (hence) alſo, a ſtranger borne in a farre country.

Espave & effreinte des chiens. A foule default of dogs, hauing vtterly loſt both ſight, and ſent, of the game which they hunted.

Espave : com. Maiſterleſſe; without author, or owner; alſo, forreine, farre-borne; of vnknowne birth, or beginning.

Mots espaves. Strange, new-forged, vnaccuſtomed, words.

Espavent : m. A Spauen in a horſe.

Espavité : f. The right a Soueraigne Lord hath to the lands, or goods of ſtrangers, dying within his dominions; or the being a ſtranger; as Eſpave.

Espaulart : m. A Sea-monſter, enemie to Whales; as Orque.

Espaule : f. A ſhoulder.

Par deſſus l' eſpaule. Ouer the ſhoulder, or the wrong way; and hence; Riche, ou vertueux, par deſſus l' eſpaule; (ſignifies) a verie begger, or, an arrant knaue.

Baiſſer les eſpaules. To yeeld; or vndergoe.

Faire eſpaule à. To helpe, aſſiſt, ſecond, back, ſupport.

Hauſſer l' eſpaule. To lift vp the ſhoulders; (a geſture gotten from th' Italians, and much vſed when wee refuſe to doe a thing which we are afraid, or loath, to meddle with; and imports as much, as if wee ſhould ſay, you ſhall pardon me ſir; &c.)

Porter à deux eſpaules. (In a faction) to ſhift often from ſide to ſide; to adhere ſometimes vnto th'one, ſometimes to th'other; or, to be neither conſtant, nor verie behouefull, to either.

Porter ſur les eſpaules. To carrie a burthen on his ſhoulders; alſo, to grow wearie of, or find himſelfe ouercharged with.

Pouſſer le temps à l' eſpaule. To delay, or driue off, the time; to ſpend, or paſſe away his dayes idly, but ſo ſo; or, euen as he may.

Preſter eſpaule à. To helpe to beare, to lend a helping hand vnto.

Ie me recommande à leurs eſpaules. Woe to their ſhoulders; or, their ſhoulders are like to pay for it; or, their ſhoulders are ſure of a whipping.

Sentir ſon eſpaule de mouton. To ſmell verie rank, verie ſtrong, verie rammiſh.

Tenir eſpaule à. as Faire eſpaule.

Tirer l' eſpaule. To ſhrinke in the ſhoulders, as one that likes not what he ſees, or heares.

Les belles robbes pleurent ſur des eſpaules indignes: Prov. Good clothes weepe on vnworthie ſhoulders.

Eſpaulé: m. ée: f. Whoſe ſhoulder is burſt, or out of ioynt.

Vne beſte eſpaulée. Crackt ſtuffe, broken ware; a wench that hath had a clap.

Eſpaulée: f. par eſpaulées. By fits, by ſhoues, by diuers ſhoulderings; now and then; with many pauſes betweene.

Espaulement: m. A burſting, or vnioynting of the ſhoulder.

Espauler. To burſt a ſhoulder; to put a ſhoulder out of ioynt; alſo, to ſhoulder; to ſupport with, or beare on, the ſhoulders.

Eſpauletée. as Eſpaulée; whence;

Reprendre, ou refaire vne muraille par eſpaulettées. To repaire a wall by parcells, without taking any of it downe.

Eſpaulette: f. A little ſhoulder; alſo, the wing of a gowne, doublet; &c; alſo, a buttreſſe, ſhore-poſt, or ſhouldering peece.

Maçonnerie à eſpaulettes. Vneuen worke in walls, &c, built vp by fits, and peeces, and by thoſe intermiſſions, left higher in one part then in another; or, ſhouldering, bearing, or ſtanding out in one place more then in another.

Espaulier. Belonging to, ſupporting or ſeruing for, the ſhoulder.

Veine eſpauliere. See Veine.

Eſpauliere: f. A ſhoulder peece; the peece of armour, or apparell that ſerues for the ſhoulder; alſo, a buttreſſe, ſhore-peece, or ſhouldering peece to ſupport, or ſtrengthen a wall.

Espaulu: m. uë: f. Broad-ſhouldered.

Espaulure: f. as Eſpaulement.

Espauſmer. To fall in a ſwoone. (v.m.)

Espauſmure: f. A ſwooning, or falling into a trance.

Espautré: m. ée: f. Pelted, pauted, beaten, thraſhed.

Espautrer. To paut, pelt, thraſh, beat, crush, bruiſe.

Espe. (at Blois) as Empan (in other places.)

Espeaultre. Spelt, or ſpelt-corne.

Espece: f. A kind, or ſort of.

Especial. par eſpecial. Eſpecially, particularly, peculiarly.

Espectative. eſtre à l' eſpectative. To ſtand waiting, looking, attending, expecting for.

Eſpée: f. A Sword; Rapier; Tucke; a Glaiue, Cutlaſſe, Fautheon, Hanger; Blade; alſo, a certaine round ſtaffe, that lies betweene the vpper boords of a Vine-preſſe, and the mother, or ſubſtance of the grapes; (ſometimes) alſo, valour; and, a valiant man; (c'eſt vn des meilleures eſpées de la France.)

Espée d' armes. as Eſpée de Chevalier; or, Eſtoc d' armes.

Eſpée blanche. Looke Blanc.

Espée des bleds. Corne ſedge, corne flags, corne gladen.

Eſpée de Chevalier. A ſharpe, and broad ſword, of a reaſonable length, and plaine-hilted, hauing but onely one croſſe-barre.

Eſpée Eſpagnole. A Rapier, or Tucke.

Espée Huniſque. A kind of Scimiter.

Espée de mer. The Sword-fiſh.

Espée miſericorde. Looke Miſericorde.

Espée des moiſſons. Corne ſedge, corne gladen.

Espée rabatuë. A foile.

Espée Romaine. Certaine twined, and retorted haires on a horſe; reſembling, and by ſome called, a feather.

Pied de l' eſpée. High iuriſdiction; authoritie to puniſh, or purſue, offendors with the ſword.

Sergent de l' espée. Looke Sergent.

Hardi comme vne eſpée. As bold, or hardie as a ſword (which is oft more bold then welcome.)

Iouër de l' eſpée à deux Iambes. To ſhew a faire paire of heeles; to runne away.

S'en iouër de l' espée à deux mains, To doe what he liſt withall; See Iouër.

Espelé: m. ée: f. Spealed, ſpelled; pilled, flayed.

Espelement: m. A ſpelling, or ſpealing of words; a ioyning of letters, or of ſillables together:

Eſpeler. To ſpell, to ſpeale; to ioyne letters, or ſillables together; to make of letters ſillables, of ſillables words; alſo, to flea, pill, or pull the skinne, or rind off.

Espeller. as Eſpeler; (Eſpecially in the laſt ſignification.)

Espeluche: f. Plush.

Espendre. Looke Eſpandre.

Espenaillé: m. ée: f. Torne, ragged, all to tatters.

Espeoir. Seeke Eſpoir.

Esperable: com. Hopeable, fit to be hoped for; hopefull.

Esperance: f. Hope, truſt, confidence, affiance.

En esperance d' avoir mieux tant vit le loup, qu'il devient vieux: Prov. The Wolfe growes old by hoping ſtill for better; or, while the Wolfe hopes for better bee growes old.

Esperdu: m. uë: f. Forlorne, loſt, ſtaregone, ſtarke-gone, in a deſperate or miſerable taking; alſo, diſmaied, aſtonished, appalled, amazed, abaſhed.

Esperdument. Deſperately, forlornely; diſmaiedly, amazedly; vtterly, extreamely, without meaſure.

Esperé: m. ée: f. Hoped for, truſted after.

Esperer. To hope, truſt, haue affiance, repoſe confidence, in.

Espe-

Eſperit. Seeke Eſprit.
Esperlan: m. A Smelt.
Esperlucat: m. A locke, or buſh of curled haire. (v.m.) alſo, a neat, ſpruce, pleaſant, and liuelie companion; a feat, or deſt youth.
Esperon: m. A ſpurre; alſo, a kind of fortification called, a Spurre; alſo, the ſtemme, noſe, or beake-head of a gallie.
La Iournée des eſperons. Looke Iournée.
Os de l' eſperon. The leſſe bone of the leg.
A eſperons pareils. With both ſpurres at once, and in the ſame part, of each ſide of a horſe.
Arrondir les eſperons. Looke Arrondir.
Chauſſer les eſperons à. To courſe, or purſue amaine, to giue hard chace vnto; to make one runne, or ſcud away as fire were at his taile; alſo, to haſten, or make forward, in.
Dur à l' esperon. Dull, ſluggiſh, heauie-mettalled; that will not be moued, or put forward by any inſtigation.
A morceau reſtif eſperon de vin: Prov. (A cup of ſacke agrees with a cold ſtomacke;) a reſtiue morſell needs a ſpurre of wine.
Tout cheval a beſoing d' eſperon: Prov. All men haue need of ſome correction.
Le vilain ne ſçait qu' eſperons valent: Prov. Full little knowes the clowne what ſpurres can doe; baſe people know not, or cannot vſe, braue helpes.
Esperonnade: f. A ſpurring; a iert, or pricke, with a ſpurre.
Esperonné: m. ée: f. Spurred; alſo, beſpurred, hauing ſpurres on his heeles.
Fol eſt qui eſt eſperonné, & à cheval dit, hay; Pro. Looke Hay.
Eſperonnement: m. A ſpurring; a pricking forward; an inciting, or urging onward.
Eſperonner. To ſpurre; pricke forward; incite, or vrge, onward.
s' Eſperonner. To put on his owne ſpurres; alſo, to pricke himſelfe on.
Eſperonnier: m. A Spurrier; alſo, a Bit-maker.
Esperonnier: m. ere: f. Belonging to a ſpurre; or to the leſſe bone of the leg.
Muſcle eſperonnier. A double muſcle; one of the fiue whereby we ſtretch out the firſt part of our feet.
Eſperruqué: m. ée: f. That weares long lockes, or curled haire.
Eſpervain: m. A ſplint in a horſes leg.
Eſpervier. Looke Eſparvier.
Espeſſement. Thickly, ſpiſſely, cloſe together.
Espeſſeur: f. Thickneſſe, denſitie, ſpiſſeneſſe, cloſeneſſe; maſſiueneſſe, bigneſſe, groſſeneſſe.
Eſpeſſi: m. ie: f. Thickened; compacted, cloſed hard together; ingroſſed, made big.
Espeſſir. To thicken; ingroſſe, increaſe, make big; to compact, or cloſe hard together.
Eſpeſſiſſement: m. A thickning; an ingroſſing, or making big; a compacting, or cloſing hard together.
Eſpeſsiſſeure: f. as Eſpeſſeur.
Espeuré: m. ée: f. Frighened, affrighted, affrayed, made feareſull.
Eſpeurer. To fright, affright, make feareſull, affray.
Espez: m. eſſe: f. Thicke; maſſie, groſſe, big; cloſe, neere, hard compact together.
Eſpi de bled. An eare of corne.
Eſpi d' eau. Pond-weed, water-ſpike; cat-taile.
Eſpi de lard. Séeke Eſpic.
Tuiles couchées en façon d' eſpi. Laied edgelong, or edge to edge.
Eſpiant. Spying, prying, watching, marking, obſeruing narrowly; dogging, way-laying, lying for.
Eſpice: f. Spice; alſo, the Spice-apple (whereof excellent Cyder is made.)
Eſpices. Spices, or Spice; alſo, the fees that be taken by the (French) Iudges, and their aſſiſtants, for Bookes peruſed, Conſultations had, and ſentence giuen, in a cauſe; (from the auncient manner of gratefull ſuitors; who, hauing preuailed, were woont to preſent the Iudges, or the Reporters, of their cauſes, with Comfets, or other Ionkets; which gratuitie they afterwards turned into money, and by degrees haue ſuffered it to become a dutie, and (as it is at this day) the onely, or beſt, reuenew belonging to Iudiciall places.)
L' on perd l' appareil d' vne poule, à faute d' acheter pour vn liard d' eſpices: Prov. Some to ſpare a pennie looſe the vſe of that which coſt them a pound.
Espicé: m. ée: f. Spiced; ſeaſoned, or ſweetened with ſpice.
Telle cauſe eſt eſpicée. The fees due to the Iudges, &c, vpon ſuch a cauſe bee taxed, rated, or ſet downe.
Eſpicenaire: com. Of both ſexes, male and female.
Espicer. To beſpice; to ſeaſon, or ſweeten with ſpice; alſo, to taxe, rate, or ſet downe the Iudges fees, or Eſpices, in a cauſe.
Eſpicerie: f. A Spicerie; alſo, Spices.
Es petis ſacs ſont les fines eſpiceries: Prov. The fineſt Spices are in little bags.
Espiceur: m. A taker, or taxer, of fees.
Espicier: m. A Grocer, a ſeller of Spices, a Drug-ſeller.
Espie: f. A ſpie, ſcowt, eſpiall; priuie marker, obſeruer, dogger of people; eaue-dropper, prying companion.
Eſpies. Ambuſhes, way-layings; malicious obſeruing, treacherous dogging, of people.
Eſpié: m. ée: f. Reſembling an eare of corne; alſo, eared; growne to an eare; (as le bled eſt eſpié;) alſo, ſpied, watched, way-layed, narrowly obſerued.
Lard eſpié. Seeke Lard.
Eſpiecé: m. ée: f. Peecemealed; cut, broken, or torne in peeces.
Eſpiecer. To diuide, peecemeale; cut, breake, or teare in peeces.
Espiement: m. A ſpying, ſcowting, prying, watching, marking, narrow obſeruing; a lying in ambuſh, or in wait for.
Eſpier. To ſpie, watch, marke, prie into; obſerue narrowly; to dog, lie for, way-lay; alſo, to eare, or ſhoot out in an eare, as a blade of corne.
Eſpierré: m. ée: f. Vnſtoned; rid from, cleered of, ſtones.
Espierrement. A picking ſtones off land, a ridding from ſtones.
Espierrer. To vnſtone; to rid from ſtones; to picke ſtones from.
Espierreur: m. A ſtone-picker, ſtone-gatherer.
Espieu: m. A Boare-ſpeare; a hunting ſtaffe, or Fauelin; alſo, a Partiſan, or Captaines leading-ſtaffe.
Espieur: m. A ſpier, marker, obſeruer; alſo, a ſcowt, or watchman.
Espieur des chemins. A taker, purſe-taker, theefe on the high-way, one of Robinhoods followers, one of S. Nicholas Clerkes.
Eſpii d' eau. as Eſpi d' eau.
Espinal: m. A thornie grone, plot, or place.

Eſpinarde. as Eſpinoche; A Sticklebacke.
Espinars. des espinars: m. Spinage, or Spinach.
Eſpinar femelle. A barren kind thereof, which bears no ſeed at all.
Eſpinaye: f. A thornie plot, bramble-buſh, place full of briers.
Eſpince: f. A pinching, nipping, or pricking; alſo, as Pince.
Eſpincettes. des eſ: f. A paire of Pincers.
Espine: f. A thorne, bramble, brier; a pricke, ſting, or prickle; alſo, a quill, or faucet for a wine-veſſell; alſo, a kind of Caltrop vſed in warre for the galling of horſes feet, &c.
Eſpine Arabique. Th' Arabian thorne, or thiſtle; a kind of white thiſtle.
Espine blanche. Milke thiſtle; white thiſtle, our Ladies thiſtle; alſo, the white thorne, or hawthorne.
Blanche espine. The Carline thiſtle.
Eſpine benoiſte. The Barberrie-tree.
Espine de bouc. Goats thorne; whoſe roots yeeld Gumme Dragagant.
Eſpine du dos. The backe-bone.
Espine noire. The blacke thorne.
Espine vinette. as Eſpine benoiſte.
Qui ſeme des chardons, recueille des eſpines: Prov. He that ſowes thiſtles gathers thornes.
Qui veut aller les pieds nuds ne doit ſemer des espines: Prov. He that will bare-foot goe, muſt ſow no thornes.
Trop achette le miel qui ſur eſpines le leche: Prov. Too deere's the ſweet thats bought with much affliction.
Espiné: m. ée; f. Pricked, as with a thorne.
Du filet eſpiné. Thread thats whitened, or whited.
Eſpinée: f. The chine, or backe-bone of a porke.
Espinelle: f. A kind of Rubie.
Espiner. To pricke, as a thorne.
s'Eſpiner. To pricke; alſo, to intangle himſelfe, as among briers, and thornes.
Eſpineſes. des es. Splents in a horſes legs.
Espinette: f. A paire of Virginalls.
Eſpinette organiſée. A Virginall and wind Inſtrument ioyned together; a ſet of Pipes added to a Virginall.
Espineux: m. euſe: f. Thornie, brierie, full of brambles; alſo, belonging to the backe-bone; and hence;
Muſcle eſpineux. A certaine muſcle which helpes to ſtretch out the necke.
Eſpingarderie. The Harquebuzerie; or, a troupe of Harquebuziers. v.m. (Looke Eſpringalle) : ¶Rab.
Espingardier. An Harquebuzier, or ſmall ſhot.
Espingardine: f. A ſmall (and old faſhioned) Chamber, (Peece.)
Eſpingle: f. A pinne.
Il tira ſon espingle du jeu. He ſlipt his necke out of the coller.
Eſpinglé: m. ée: f. Pinned; faſtened, or furniſhed with pinnes.
Espingler. To pinne; to faſten, or furniſh with pinnes.
Espingleur: m. A Pinner, or Pinne-maker.
Espinglier. as Eſpingleur; Alſo, a Pinpillow, or cuſhionet to ſticke pinnes on; alſo, a pincaſe, or thing to put pinnes in.
Eſpinglon: m. A little pinne.
Espinguer. To ſpring, or leape ſprightly. (v.m.)
Espinoche: f. A Sharpling, Shufling, ſtickling, Sticklebacke, or Stickleback.

Eſpinon: m. A little thorne; hence alſo, the tongue, or thong of a buckle.
Eſpinoye: m. A thicket, groue, or ground full of thornes; a thornie plot.
Eſpinoye: f. The ſame.
Espinſe. as Pinſe.
Espion: m. A ſpie, ſcowt, eſpiall; a priuie obſeruer of, or prier into, mens behauiour; a malicious dogger, watcher, way-layer of others; alſo, a ſwift Barke ſent out to ſea, for diſcouerie; alſo, the little Sea-ſhrimp, or Beard.
Espionné: m. ée: f. Spied, pried into; obſerued, watched, way-laied.
Eſpionnement: m. A ſpying, or prying into; an obſeruing, or watching of.
Eſpionner. To ſpie, or prie into; to watch priuily, obſerue narrowly; to dog, ſtaulke, way-lay.
Espionneur: m. as Eſpion (In the firſt ſence.)
Espis. The two vtmoſt, and fatteſt, peeces of a ſide of Porke, diuided (after the Pariſien faſhion) into three parts, the legs being firſt cut off for gammons.
Esplan: m. A Smelt.
Esplanade: f. A planing, leuelling, euening of wayes, by grubbing vp of trees, and remouing all other incumbrances out of them.
Eſplanadé: m. ée: f. Leuelled, planed, layed euen; diſincumbred.
Eſplanader. To leuell, plane, lay euen; remoue impediments, deliuer from incumbrances.
Eſplanderaye. A plaine way, or ſtrand.
Esplané: m. ée: f. Made plaine; leuelled, layed euen with the ground; alſo, explained, or expounded.
Eſplaner. To make plaine; to leuell, or lay euen, with the ground; alſo, to explaine, declare, manifeſt, expound.
Espleuré: m. ée: f. Full of, all-to-beblubbered with, teares; whoſe eyes are, by exceſſiue weeping, drained of moiſture.
Eſpleurer. To waile bitterly, and beyond meaſure; to weepe the eyes drie.
Eſplingue. as Eſpingle; A pinne: ¶Norm.
Esplinguette: f. A ſmall pinne: ¶Norm. Alſo, a priming yron; that wherewith the touch-hole of a peece is vſually cleanſed.
Eſploucher. as Eſplucher.
Esplouré: m. ée: f. Beblubbered with teares; Looke Eſpleuré.
Eſplourer. as Eſpleurer.
Esployé: m. ée: f. Diſplayed; and hence;
Aigle eſployée. A ſpred-Eagle.
Eſpluché: m. ée: f. Picked, or culled, as peaſe, &c; alſo, plucked, or teiſed, as flowers, wooll, &c; (hence) alſo, throughly ſifted, or ſearched into; examined narrowly, peruſed diligently.
Eſpluchement: m. A picking, or culling; a plucking, or teiſing; alſo, a through-ſifting, full ſearching, diligent examining of.
Eſplucher. To picke, or cull, as peaſe, &c; to plucke, or teyſe, as Roſes, Wooll, &c; alſo, to ſift throughly, ſearch narrowly, examine iuſtly, peruſe diligently.
Ça que ie t'eſpluche à contrepoil. Come barber and let me claw, or ſcratch, thee for thy labour.
Qui trop eſpluche les choſes il a pas vne vie aſſeurée: Prov. He liues ouerly that looks too neerely to matters.
Eſplucheur: m. A picker, plucker, teyſer, a curious, or diligent ſifter, or ſearcher into.

Eſplu-

Eſplucheures: f. The pickings, or cullings; the pluckings, or teyſings of.

Eſplugebant. A kind of riuer-fowle.

Eſpluмé: m. ée: f. Plucked, vnplumed, without feathers; bereaued, or bared, of feathers.

Esplu quer. as Eſplucher. ¶Pic.

Eſpluyé: m. ée: f. Sprinkled, ſpatled, or ſpattered vpon.

Espluyer. To ſprinkle, ſpattle, ſpatter, or caſt vpon.

Eſpoictriné, &c. Looke Eſpoitriné.

Eſpoinçonner. as Eſpoindre.

Espoinct: m. cte: f. Pricked, ſpurred; incited, prouoked, violently moued, vehemently ſtirred.

Espoincté: m. ée: f. Vnpointed, blunted; whoſe point is dulled, broken, or cut off.

Espoincter. To vnpoint, or blunt; to dull, breake, or cut off the point of.

Eſpoindre. To prick, ſpurre; prouoke, vrge, incite; ſtirre vehemently, moue extreamely.

Eſpointement: m. An vnpointing; a blunting; a breaking the point of.

Eſpointement de queſtions. A pacifying of quarrels, a quieting of altercations; alſo, a reſolution of queſtions.

Espointer. as Espoincter.

Espoir: m. Hope, truſt, confidence, affiance.

Espois d'un cerf. The top of a red Deeres head; of a fallow, the Spellers.

Espois. as Eſpez; thicke.

Eſpoiſſir. To thicken; Seeke Eſpeſſir.

Eſpoitriné: m. ée: f. Open breaſted; whoſe boſome lyes open to view.

Eſpoitronnement: m. A diſcouering of the boſome, a going open breaſted.

Eſponce d'heritage: f. A quitting, abandoning, forgoing, giuing ouer an eſtate in land.

Eſponcé: m. ée: f. Quit, left, abandoned, forgone, giuen ouer.

Eſponcer. To quit, leaue, abandon, forſake, forgoe, giue ouer.

Eſponcion. as Eſponce.

Eſponge: f. A Spunge.

Eſponges d'aſperge. The clottered root of garden Sparagus.

Eſponge d'eau douce. A certaine hearbe, that flotes on riuers, and is called, Spunge of the riuer.

Eſponges femelles. Thoſe which haue the fewеſt, and leaſt holes.

Eſponge de riviere. Spunge of the riuer; an hearbe.

Pierre d'eſponge. Looke Pierre.

Porter l'eſponge; ou, paſſer l'eſponge, ſur. To defare, or blot out.

Eſpongette: f. A little Spunge.

Eſpongette du Roſier ſauvage. A Brier-ball, or canker-Roſe ball; the round, and ſpungie excreſcence, which cleaues to the branch of a wild Roſe, brier-Roſe, or Hep tree.

Eſpongieux: m. euſe: f. Spungie; full of Spunges; light, or full of holes, like a Spunge.

Eſporle: f. A vaſſals acknowledgement of the ſeruices, and duties which he owes vnto his Lord.

Esporler. A vaſſall to acknowledge the duties and ſeruices he owes, to his Lord.

Esporte: f. A hand-basket.

Eſpoudre: m. de: f. Duſted, cleered from, cleanſed of, duſt.

Eſpoudrer. To duſt; to beat, or wipe the duſt from; to cleanſe, or cleere from duſt.

Eſpoventable: com. Dreadfull, frightfull, feareſull; horrible, gaſtfull, horride; monſtrous, terrible; able to ſcare, or amaze any man.

Eſpoventablement. Dreadfully, frightfully, feareſully, terribly, horribly, ghaſtfully, with great amazement.

Eſpoventail: m. A Bug-beare, or Scar-crow; a man of clouts to feare birds with.

Eſpoventaire. The ſame.

Eſpoventant. Frighting, flighting, skaring, terrifying, amazing with dread, filling with horror.

Eſpovente: f. Dread, fright, great feare; terror, horror, ghaſtlineſſe; aſtoniſhment, conſternation, amazement.

Ils ont prins l'eſpovente. They are mightily skared; they haue taken a terrible allarum; they are afraid of euerie feather that wags, or ſhadow that appeares; or, they ſcud away as faſt, and as feareſully, as if fire were at their tayles.

Eſpoventé: m. ée: f. Frighted, frayed, monſtrouſly afrayed, skared, terrified; appalled by dread, amazed by terror, filled with horror.

Eſpoventement: m. as Eſpovente; or, a frighting, fraying, skaring, terrifying.

Eſpoventer. To fright, flight, fray, terrifie, feare exceedingly; amaze, appall, aſtoniſh by feare; fill with horror or terror, or with horrible or terrible apprehenſions.

Eſpouillé: m. ée: f. Lowſed, rid of lice.

Eſpouiller. To lowſe, kill lice, rid of lice.

Eſpouilleteſſe: f. A woman that picketh, or killeth, lice.

Eſpouſailles: f. An Eſpouſalls, or Bridall; a wedding, or mariage.

Eſpouſe: f. A Spowſe; a Wife.

Eſpouſe du ſoleil. The Marygould; ſo called by ſome.

Eſpouſé: m. ée: f. Eſpouſed, wedded, married.

Eſpouſée: f. A Spouſe, an Eſpouſed.

Eſpouſer. To eſpouſe, wed, marrie; alſo, to defend, imbrace, vndertake, intertaine as his owne, take wholly vpon him; whence; Eſpouſer la querelle d'aucun.

Eſpouſer la gruë. See Gruë.

Eſpouſer vne rouë. To be broken vpon a wheele.

Eſpouſſe. as Pouſſe; a diſeaſe in a horſe.

Eſpouſſeté: m. ée: f. Bruſhed; duſted; wiped downe.

Eſpouſſeter. To bruſh; duſt, wipe the duſt off.

Eſpouſſette: f. A bruſh; alſo, a duſter, or duſting cloth for a horſe; and hence;

Donner des eſpouſſettes, (que ie ne die des eſtrivieres) à. Lightly to touch, (if not to tax.)

Eſpouventable, &c. Looke Eſpoventable, &c.

Eſpoux: m. A Spouſe, Bridegroome, new married man; one that is married, wedded, eſpouſed.

Eſpoys: The vttermoſt, or vppermoſt branches of a Deeres head; Looke Eſpois.

Eſpraintes. The dung of an Otter, or other ſuch vermine.

Eſpreinctes. as Eſpraintes.

Eſpreindre. To preſſe, wring, ſtraine, ſqueeſe out, thruſt together.

Eſpreint: m. te: f. Preſſed, wrung, ſtrained, ſqueeſed out, thruſt hard together.

Eſpreinte: f. A preſſing, ſtraining, wringing, thruſting together; a ſqueeſing out; alſo, a great deſire to goe to ſtoole.

Eſpreintes. as Eſpraintes.

Espre-

Espremaſon: f. The bloudie flix, accompanied with a paineſull wringing of the bowels. ¶Gaſc.

S'Esprendre. To take, ſeiſe, catch hold; alſo, to fire, to kindle.

Espreu. Tout à espreu. Expreſſely, of ſet purpoſe, for the nonce.

Esprevains. A Splint, or Spauin in a horſes leg.

Esprevier: m. A Sparhauke; alſo, any kind of ſhort-winged Hauke.

Espreuve: f. A prooſe, tryall, experiment, eſſay, attempt.

Mettre en eſpreuve. To put vnto tryall, or to the touch; to aduenture, hazard, ſee what will happen, try what may be done.

Espringalle: f. An auncient Engin of warre, whereout stones, peeces of yron, and great arrowes were ſhot at the walls of a beleaguered Towne, and the defendors thereof; (now out of vſe.)

Espringaller. To leape, ſpring, bound, ſpurt; (an old word.)

Espringarde. as Eſpringalle.

Espris: m. iſe: f. Taken, ſurpriſed, ſeiſed; alſo, inflamed, kindled, wholly poſſeſſed with.

Esprit: m. The Spirit, Soule; Heart; breath, heat; mind, thought; opinion; wit, conceit; alſo, life, courage, mettall, ſtomacke, viuacitie, liuelineſſe, or ſmartneſſe of humor; alſo, affection, fancie, diſpoſition, inclination; alſo, a ghoſt, or ſpirit.

Voicy vn'eſtoffe qui n'a que l'eſprit. (Merrily) this ſtuffe is but ſleight, or hath no ſubſtance in it.

Les Alemans ont l'esprit aux doigts: Prov. The Germans wit reſts in their fingers; viz. they are better Artiſans then Artiſts, better at handy-crafts then at head-craft.

Espronnade. as Eſperonnade.

Esprouvé: m. ée: f. Proued, tryed; approued, experimented; attempted, hazarded, aſſayed; ſearched, ſounded.

Esprouver. To proue, try; attempt, aſſay; ſound, looke, or ſearch into.

Esprouvette: f. A probe; a little inſtrument wherewith wounds, and vlcers are ſearched.

Espucer. To flea; to rid of fleas; to kill fleas.

Espucé: m. ée: f. Fleaed, rid of fleas.

Espuceter. as Eſpucer.

Espuisé: m. ée: f. Drayned; exhauſted, emptied, drawne dry (as a Well of water;) alſo, drawne out (as water out of a Well;) alſo, withered; waſted, conſumed; (as a ſubſtance whoſe moiſture is ſpent.)

Espuisement: m. A drayning; exhauſting, emptying, drawing out, or drawing dry.

Espuiſer. To drayne; exhauſt, emptie; draw dry (as a Well of water;) alſo, to draw out (as water out of a Well;) alſo, to waſt, conſume, ſoake, or ſucke vp the moiſture of.

Espuiſeur: m. A drayner; exhauſter, emptier of moiſture; alſo, a drawer of water out of a Well.

Espuiſoir: m. Any thing that ſerues to drayne, exhauſt, or emptie another thing of moiſture; and hence, the hollow ſhouell wherewith Watermen lade their leaky Boats.

Espulcer. as Eſpucer.

Espuration: f. A running, as of a ſore; alſo, a cleanſing, or clarifying; alſo, a ſtraining, or ſqueeſing of liquor from.

Espuré: m. ée: f. Cleanſed, purified, clarified; alſo, drayned, or growne dry, as a ſore that raune; alſo, ſtrayned, wrung, or ſqueeſed out.

Espurer. To runne, as a broken ſore; alſo, to run, or drop, dry; alſo, to ſtraine, wring, or ſqueeſe liquor out of; alſo, to cleanſe, purifie, clarifie.

Espurge: f. Garden Spurge, whereof there are two kinds, a greater, and a leſſe.

Espurgé: m. ée: f. Purged out; cleanſed, cleered, rid of; alſo, pruined.

Espurger. To purge, cleere, cleanſe, rid of; alſo, to pruine, or picke off the noyſome knobs, or buds of trees.

Espy. as Eſpi; alſo, as Eſpée Romaine.

Esquadre: f. A ſquadron (of footmen;) Looke Eſcadre.

Esquadron: m. A Squadron; a troope of ſouldiers ranged into a ſquare bodie, or batallion. (This word is moſt commonly meant onely of horſemen, (Bataillon of footmen) and ſometimes both of horſe, and foot.)

Esquaille: f. as Eſcaille; a ſcale, or ſhale.

Esquailler. To pill, ſhale, or ſcale.

Esqualié: m. ée: f. Leuelled, plained, ſmoothed, made euen.

Esqualier. To leuell, plaine, ſmooth, make euen.

Esqualle. as Eſcaille.

Esqualler. as Eſquailler.

Esquarcelle: f. A leatherne pouch.

Esquarquillé. Put, ſpred, wide open; ſet, ſcuered, farre aſunder; ſtradled.

Esquarquillement: m. A ſpreading, or ſetting wide aſunder; a ſtradling.

Esquarquiller. To ſpread, ſet, or open, wide; to ſet farre aſunder.

Esquarquiller les jambes. To ſtradle, ſtride, ſet the legs wide open.

Esquarquiller les yeux. To ſtare; to looke big on it.

Esquarre: f. A ſquare, or ſquareneſſe.

Esquarré: m. ée: f. Square, or ſquared.

Esquarrir. To ſquare; make ſquare; hew, or cut square.

Esquarriſſeur. A ſquarer of ſtones, or timber.

Esquarriſſure: f. Squareneſſe; or, a ſquaring.

Esquarrure: f. The ſame.

Esquartelé: m. ée: f. Quartered; diſmembred.

Esquartelement: m. A quartering; a diſmembring; Looke Esquartellement.

Esquarteler. To quarter; diſmember; cut or hew, into quarters; rent or teare, in peeces.

Esquarteleure: f. as Esquartellement.

Esquartellement: m. A quartering, diſmembring, tearing, or hewing in peeces; alſo, the caſt or caſting, proportion or compoſition, of members or quarters.

Esquarter. as Eſcarter; to ſcatter &c; alſo, to emptie quart-pots.

Esquené: m. ée: f. Broken-backed, or ſwayed in the backe.

Esquener. To breake the backe of, or ſway in the backe.

Esqueüé: m. ée: f. Curtall, curtalled; vntayled, without tayle, depriued of a tayle.

Esqueuilles: f. Dregs, ouen-ſweepings; excrements, offalls.

Esqueuillon. A Sponge, or Scourer for a peece of Ordnance; by us Escouillon.

Esqueuré: m. ée: f. Out of heart; leane, poore, pulled downe, falne away extreamely.

Esquiavine: f. A long, and violent conviction, or heating, of a ſtubborne, and vntoward Hawke.

Esquiche. The firſt rude, or ſleight draught of a Medall, or platforme, for a building.

Esquiché: m. ée: f. Embaſſed rudely done, or ſleightly drawne.

Es-

Eſquicher. To imboſſe; to make a rude, or ſleight, or the firſt, draught of a Modell, or Platforme.

Eſquierre: f. A Rule, or Squire; an Inſtrument vſed by Maſons, Carpenters, Joyners, &c; alſo, an Inſtrument wherewith Surueyors meaſure land.

Vn trait d'eſquierre. A perpendicular line, or meaſure; tearmed ſo by workemen.

A l'eſquierre. Iuſtly, directly, euenly, ſtraightly; by line and leuell, to a haire.

Aux eſquierres des Cloches, & Egliſes. Iuſt ouer-againſt the Steeples, and Churches; or, as farre as the Steeples, and Churches.

Eſquiers. as Eſquierres.

Eſquif: m. A Skiffe, or little boat; alſo, the bone Scaphoide; called ſo, becauſe it ſomewhat reſembles a ſmall Skiffe.

Eſquifon: m. A little Skiffe, a verie ſmall boat.

Eſquignon: m. A feſcue; ¶Pic.

Eſquignonné: m. ée: f. Cut, or broken off, as a lumpe, cantle, or cruſtie heele from a loafe of bread; alſo, cut, or broken into lumpes, luncheons, or cantles.

Eſquignonner. To cut, or breake off a lumpe, cantle, cruſtie heele, or peece from a loafe of bread; alſo, to cut, or breake into lumpes, luncheons, or cantles.

Eſquille: f. A little ſcale, or ſplint of a broken bone, &c.

Eſquilleux: m. euſe: f. Splintie, ſcalie, full of little ſplints, or ſcales.

Eſquinance: f. The Squincie, or Squinancie; (a diſeaſe.)

Eſquine. Bois d'eſquine. The knottie, and medicinall root of a certaine Indian Bull-ruſh.

Eſquiper. as Equiper.

Eſquirener. To breake the backe. ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.

Eſquivé: m. ée: f. Shunned, eſchewed, auoided; alſo, ſcorned, reiected, deſpiſed; alſo, ſhifted away; ſlipped aſide.

Eſquiver. To ſhun, auoid, eſchew; to ſcorne, reiect, deſpiſe; to ſhift away; to ſlinke, or ſlip aſide.

Esquoüé. as Eſcoüé.

Eſraciné: m. ée: f. Rooted vp, or plucked vp by the root.

Eſraciner. To root vp; or, plucke vp by the root.

Eſrafflade: f. A ſcratch, or ſcratching.

Eſraffé: m. ée: f. Scraped, ſcratched.

Eſraffler. To ſcrape, or ſcratch.

Eſraillé: m. ée: f. Spred, or ſet wide open; ſtaring; ſhaling, ſtradling, or ſtradled; alſo, frayed.

Oeil eſraillé. An eye whoſe lower lid (by a cicatrice, or other accident) is reuerſed, leauing that part of the white altogether vncouered.

Eſrailleiment: m. A ſpreading abroad, or ſetting wide open; a ſtaring; ſtradling, ſhaling; fraying.

Eſrailler. To ſpread, or ſet wide open; hence, to ſtare; ſtradle, ſhale; alſo, to fray, as in ſtarting.

Eſrené: m. ée: f. Feeble, weake, broken-reinde, looſe-backt; vnfit for Venerie, vtterly diſabled (that way.)

Eſrener. To maime, infeeble, breake, or cruſh the reines.

Eſſaim: m. as Eſſain.

Eſſaimer. To ſwarme, as Bees.

Eſſain: m. A Swarme (of Bees.)

Eſſais de fourrage. Scatterings, or leauings, of fodder.

Eſſangé: m. ée: f. Wet, as linnen before it be layed in the bucking tub.

Eſſanger. To wet linnen, before it be layed in the bucking tub.

Eſſardé: m. ée: f. Dry, thirſtie, lacking moiſture, thirſt vp.

Soif eſſardée. An extreame thirſt, a thirſt which can hardly be quenched.

Eſſargoter. as Eſſarter.

Eſſart: m. A glade in a wood; alſo, a peece of vntilled ground.

Eſſarté: m. ée: f. Gladed; made into a glade; or, wherein glades are made; alſo, lopped off, as the boughes of a tree; or bared, as a tree of boughes; alſo, grubd vp, as buſhes, &c, or, cleered, as a ground of buſhes, &c.

Eſſartement: m. A glading; lopping; grubbing vp of, or cleering of a ground from, ſhrubs, &c.

Eſſarter. To glade, or make glades in a wood; alſo, to lop off the boughes of a tree, or bare, as a tree, of boughes; alſo, to grub vp, or cleere a ground of, buſhes, ſhrubs, thornes, &c.

Eſſaur: m. as Eſſor.

Eſſay: m. An eſſay, prooſe, tryall, experiment; an offer, attempt; a taſt, or touch of a thing to know it by; alſo, the taſt, or Eſſay taken of a Princes meat, or drinke; alſo, the veſſell wherein out, or peece whereof, it is taken.

Eſſay de bled. A tryall, or prooſe of Corne; a courſe taken to know how much it weighes, and how much flower, meale, and branne it yeelds, when it is ground, in reſpect of that which it weighed, and was, before.

Coup d'eſſay. The Maiſter-peece of a young workeman, or of one thats but newly come out of his yeares; a beginning, entrance, onſet, attempt; a flouriſh, or preamble, whereby a taſt of a thing is giuen, or taken.

Eſſayant. Eſſaying; trying, prouing, taſting, attempting; feeling before hand.

Eſſayé: m. ée: f. Eſſayed, tried, proued, attempted; taſted, felt before hand.

Eſſayer. To eſſay; try, proue, taſt, attempt; take a taſt, make a tryall of; to feele before hand.

Eſſayer à prendre. To catch, reach, leape at; offer to take.

Eſſayerie: f. A trying-houſe.

Eſſayeur: m. An eſſayer; tryer, prouer; attempter; one that taſts, or takes an aſſay; and particularly, an Officer in the Mint, who touches euerie kind of new coyne before it be deliuered out.

Eſſe. The letter S; alſo, the forme of an S in any workmanſhip.

Eſſeau: m. A Coopers chipping ax.

Eſſedaires. A kind of warriors in old time, who marched in waggons, but fought on foot, and hard layed to, retyred againe to their waggons.

Eſſeillé: m. ée: f. Waſted, conſumed. ¶Pic.

Eſſeiller. To waſt, or conſume. ¶Pic.

Eſſein. as Eſſain; a ſwarme.

Eſſeiner. To ſwarme (as Bees.)

Eſſemé: m. ée: f. Inſeamed; vnfattened; cleanſed from, purged of, groſſeneſſe or groſſe humors; alſo, ſwarmed.

Eſſemement: m. An inſeaming, vnfattening; cleanſing; alſo, a ſwarming.

Eſſemer. To inſeame; vnfatten; cleanſe from, or purge of, groſſeneſſe or groſſe humors; alſo, to ſwarme.

Eſſence: f. An eſſence, or being; the nature, or ſubſiſtence of things.

Eſſencié. as Eſſencié.

Eſſencier. To bring vnto the ſame nature, or being, that another is of; to make, or become both of one nature, and eſſence; eſſentially to mingle with, or be ioyned vnto.

Eſſende: f. A Shingle (of wood.)

Eſſendé: m. ée: f. Maid, or beedſe, of one eſſence with,

eſſen-

essentially ioyned, or linked vnto.

Essentiel: m. elle: f. Essentiall, reall, naturall, materiall; effectuall; forcible, powerfull.

Essentier. as Essencier.

Esseppé: m. ée: f. Stocked, or whose stocke is cut.

Essepper. To stocke, or cut the stocke of.

Essette de Tonnelier. A Coopers Chipping-ax, or Addis.

Esseulé: m. ée: f. Abandoned, forsaken, left all alone.

Esseuoüere. A common Sinke, or Sewer.

Essieu: m. An axletree.

Essil: m. A Shingle, or thin boord of wood, such as we couer houses with.

Essiller. To lauish, or spend wastfully.

Essilliere: f. The clout thats layed betweene the legs of an infant.

Essiné: m. ée: f. Made leane, drawne dry, pulled downe, brought low.

Essiné comme vn harang soret. as leane as a rake, or a red Herring.

Essiner. To vnfatten, or take away superfluous fat; to pull downe, make leane, bring low.

S'essiner avec les femmes. To keepe much with women; to drayne, soake, or draw himselfe dry in their companie.

Essoin. as Essein; a swarme of Bees.

Essoine. as Exoine; also, want of abilitie in Souldiors to defend, or besiege, a place.

Essoinner. To swarme, as Bees.

Essois: m. Axletrees of Carts &c.

Essongne. Droict d'essongne. Looke Droict.

Essonnier. To essoine; to excuse, or discharge an absent, or impotent person, &c; as Essoyner, or Exonier.

Essor: m. Drought, dry weather; dryenesse, lacke of moisture; also, a withering, decaying, or comming to nought, by excessiue drought, or dryenesse; also, as Essort.

L'essor du iour. The heat, or hot, and drying time, of the day.

Aller à l'essor. To goe weather him; also, a Hawke to fly downe the wind, or goe out.

Mettre à l'essor. To drayne, soake, draw dry; to wast, consume, bring to decay by drought; also, to lay out, a drying, or in the heat of the day; or to expose vnto the ayre; to weather.

Essorbé: m. ée: f. Supped vp.

Essorber. To sup vp.

Essoré: m. ée: f. Dryed, drayned, soaked, or drawne dry; withered, or consumed by drought; also, weathered, ayred; layed out in the ayre, exposed vnto all weathers; also, mounted or soared vp; also, flowne downe the wind; fled, or carried away by the wind; gone out; also, vented, breathed, issued, or passed, out into the ayre.

Esparvier essoré. A fere Sparhawke.

Lieu essoré. An open place, a Sunnie brow, or banke.

Essoreillé: m. ée: f. Eareless, without eares; that hath lost his eares; Looke Essorillé.

Essoreiller. To make eareless, cut off eares, deprive of eares.

Essorer. To dry; drayne, draw dry; soake; to marre, make wither or decay by ouermuch drought; also, to ayre, or weather; to expose vnto, or lay out in, the weather; also, to mount or soare vp; also (being mounted) to fly downe the wind; fly his country; fly away, or goe out; also, to vent, breath, issue or passe out into the ayre.

S'essorer. To weather himselfe, or dry himselfe in the weather; also, to mount, or soare vp, &c; as in Essorer; also, to keepe himselfe dry; to shade or shrowd himselfe from wetting; to shun approaching, or threatned, stormes.

Essorillé. as Essoreillé; whence;

Cette coiffe est trop essorillée. The eares of this coife are too short, or too little.

Essort: m. as Essor; also, a soaring, mounting, eleuation, high-rising; also, a vent, issue, passage, hole to breath or breake out at.

Essourdé. as Essourdi.

Essourder. To deafen, to make deafe.

Essourdi: m. ie: f. Growne deafe, made deafe, stone-deafe.

Essourdir. as Essourder.

Essoyné: m. ée: f. Weakened, disabled of bodie, made impotent by stripes, blowes, wounds, &c; hence also, essoyned, whose absence is excused by reason of his impotencie.

Essoyner. To weaken, enfeeble, disable, make impotent by stripes, blowes, wounds, &c; also, to essoine, or excuse; Looke Exonier.

Essuccé: m. ée: f. Soaked, drayned, drawne dry, without sap, without moisture.

Essucer. To drinke, soake, or sucke vp; to drayne, to draw dry.

Essué. as Essuit.

Essueil: m. The threshold of a dore.

Essuiau: m. A dish-clowt.

Essuiau de bois. Billet-wood fastened together with young Polls, and so conueyed downe riuers.

Essuier. To wipe, cleanse, make cleane; dry vp.

Essuit: m. ite: f. Wiped, cleansed, made cleane; dryed vp.

Essuler. To exile, to banish.

Essuyé: m. ée: f. Wiped; cleansed, or made cleane on the outside; also, dryed, or dry; also, tallowed, or annointed with tallow.

Essuye-main: m. A Hand-towell; or cloth to wipe the hands on.

Essuyer. To wipe; to cleanse, or make cleane (also, to dry) the outside of; also, to tallow, or annoynt with tallow.

Est: m. l'Est. The East; or, the East wind.

Establage: m. Stabling for horses; also, a fee due for their standing in an Inne, &c; also, as Estallage; stallage.

Estable: f. A Stable; an Osterie, or Ostellerie; also, a sheepe-house, or fould.

Estable à bœufs, &c; an Ox-stall, or Ox-house.

Estable à oyes. A penne, or coope for Geese.

Estable à pourceaux. An hogge-stie, a swines-stie.

De grosse table à l'estable: Prov. He that in housekeeping spends more then he's able, may fall to horsekeeping, and dy in a stable.

Establement. Stabling, or standing for horses.

Establer. To stable; to put into, or set vp in, a stable.

Establi: m. A stall.

Establi: m. ie: f. Established; setled, assured, fixed, confirmed, made fast; enacted, ordained, stately appointed.

Establie: f. The stall of a Taylor, &c; also, as Establissement; and hence;

Brief d'establie. A writ, or Instrument for the setling, or establishment of a Possession.

Establier: m. as Estabblie; a stall.

Establies: f. Companies, squadrons, or battelions of foul-

ſouldiors; tearmed ſo in old time, becauſe they were appointed together vnto certaine places, or ſtandings; which they were to hold, or make good.

Eſtablir. To eſtabliſh; to ſettle, fix, confirme, aſſure, make ſtedfaſt, ſet faſt; to enact, inſtitute, ordaine, appoint ſurely.

Eſtabliſſement: m. An eſtabliſhment, or ſtabliſhing; a ſetling, aſſuring, fixing, confirming; alſo, an inſtituting, enacting, ordaining, appointing; in law, the ſetling of a poſſeſſion; and hence;

Enqueſte d'eſtabliſſement. Looke Enqueſte.

Eſtabliſſeur: m. An eſtabliſher; ſetler, fixer; confirmer, enacter.

Eſtacade: f. A Liſts; or place rayled in for a combat.

Eſtacher. To faſten, to tye; Seeke Attacher.

Eſtacquer. To marke for his owne; to ſet his marke vpon.

Eſtaffier: m. A Lackey, or foot-boy, that runnes by the ſtirrup; a footman, or ſeruingman that waites afoot, while his Maſter rides; alſo, an armed Sergeant attending on an Officer of Iuſtice.

Eſtaffier S. Martin. The deuill. ¶Rab.

Eſtaffillade: f. A ſtripe, ierke, or laſh with a whip, or ſtrap of leather; alſo, a ſlaſh ouer the face.

Eſtage: m. A ſtorie, ſtage, loft, or height of a houſe; alſo, a lodging, dwelling, houſe, or place of abiding; alſo, laſtage, or the balaſt of a ſhip.

L'eſtage de rez de chauſſée. The floore, or loweſt roome of a houſe.

Droict d'eſtage. A fee, or cuſtome exacted for the harbouring of forraine corne within the ports, or hauens of ſome townes in France.

Eſtager: m. A vaſſall, ſubiect, inhabitant; one that hath a houſe, or dwelling vnder one Lord, or other; a tenant, and dweller within ſuch or ſuch a Libertie, or Manner.

Eſtagier: m. as Eſtager.

Eſtagné: m. ée: f. Guelt, or lopped, as a tree.

Eſtagner. To gueld trees, to lop, or cut off their branches.

Eſtagues. Two ropes (faſtened to the middle of the maine yard) which paſſing through the Encornal, ſerue to boiſe vp the ſayle; we call them, Tyes.

Eſtaie: f. as Eſtaye.

Eſtaier. Looke Eſtayer.

Eſtail: m. as Eſtal; a ſtall.

Il leur tient eſtail. He holds them tacke, or play.

Eſtaillé. (Barbet eſtaillé.) Handſomely clipt, or ſhorne; not cut, as he lookes like a Lyon.

Eſtailleures de pierres. Shards, or peeces that fly from ſtones in the hewing, or ſquaring of them.

Eſtaillier: m. A ſtall-man; or the foreman of a ſhop; he that lookes to the ſtall, and there expoſes his ware to ſhew, and ſale.

Eſtails: m. Tyes; the ſtrings, or ropes of ſayles. ¶Rab.

Eſtain: m. Tynne.

Eſtain de Cornouaille. as Eſtain doux.

Eſtain doux. The beſt kind of Tynne; gotten in Cornwall.

Eſtain de glace. Another kind, vſed in the tinning of the backſides of Looking-glaſſes, and for the duſt of hower-glaſſes; being of a ſubſtaunce moſt thinne, ſmall, even, dry, and little ſubiect to gaining by mine change of weather.

Eſtain, Fontenay. Pewter.

Eſtainé: m. ée: f. Tynned; ſtudded.

Eſtainer. To tinne, or ſtudd; to couer, ſpang, or dect ouer with Tynne, &c.

Eſtain. as Eſtaim; alſo, fine woollen (or linnen) yarne, thread, or wooſe.

Bouc d'eſtain. The great-bearded, and long-horned wild goat, Ibex.

Eſtainct: m. cte: f. Extinguiſhed, quenched, put out; ſpent, loſt, aboliſhed, vtterly periſhed; conſumed, come to nought.

A la chandelle eſtaincte. Looke Chandelle.

Eſtaingnier: m. A Pewterer, a Tinner.

Eſtainier: m. ere: f. Of Tynne, or Pewter; belonging vnto Tynne, or Pewter.

Eſtal: m. The ſtall of a ſhop, or booth; any thing whereon wares are layed, and ſhewed to be ſold.

Eſtalé: m. ée: f. Diſplayed, opened, ſet, layed abroad, ſpred wide; expoſed vnto view, as ware, on a ſtall.

Eſtaler. To diſplay, vnfould, ſhew, ſpread wide, lay open wares on ſtalls; to expoſe vnto the view of all paſſingers, commers, cuſtomers; to place, or ſet vpon a ſtall.

Eſtalier: m. as Eſtaillier.

Eſtallage: m. Stallage.

Eſtallé. as Eſtalé; or ſet, or placed, as a commoditie, on a ſtall.

Eſtallement: m. The ſtall of a ſhop; alſo, the laying out of wares vpon a ſtall; a diſplaying; an expoſing vnto publike view.

Eſtaller. as Eſtaler.

Eſtallier. as Eſtaillier.

Eſtallon: m. The iuſt quantitie, ſcantling, patterne, or ſize, of meaſures appointed by authoritie, and commonly hung vp in ſome publike place of a towne; Looke Eſtalon.

Eſtallonnage. as Eſtallonnement; alſo, a fee due for that aſſizing; or the power, or priuiledge, to aſſize publike weights, and meaſures.

Eſtallonné: m. ée: f. (Of a meaſure) aſſized; reduced vnto the iuſt proportion of the common ſize, and ſtamped with the publike marke; Looke Eſtalonné.

Eſtallonnement: m. The aſſizing of meaſures.

Eſtallonner. as Eſtalonner.

Eſtalon. as Eſtallon; alſo, a Stalion for Mares; alſo, a ſtale (as a Larke, &c) wherewith Fowlers traine ſillie birds vnto their deſtruction; alſo, as Baliveau, a Stander in a wood; alſo, a ſhort, and thicke peg, or peece of timber, whereby two ſparres are faſtened byas-wiſe together.

Eſtalonage. as Eſtallonnage.

Eſtaloner. as Eſtalonner.

Eſtalonné: m. ée: f. as Eſtallonné; alſo, couered, as a Mare, with a horſe; and hence;

Iument eſtalonnée. A Mare which hath taken the horſe.

Eſtalonner. To aſſize meaſures; to adiuſt weights; to giue them their iuſt ſcantling, their due ſize; alſo, to make a horſe a Stalion; or to turne him among Mares; alſo, to play the Stalion, or couer Mares.

Eſtalonner vn ſoullier. To tread a ſhooe downe at the heeles.

Eſtambor: m. A peece of wood in a ſhip, that extends from the Keele to the top of the Poupe, and bends together with it; we call it, the Sterne poſt.

Eſtambres. The two thicke peeces of wood that enuiron the hole through which a Maſt paſſes the Decke, or Hatches; we call them Partnours.

Eſtamé: m. Worſted; or, as Eſtamet.

Eſtamé: m. ée: f. Tynned; or, done ouer with tynne; ſmooth, and ſleeke, as an earthen veſſell.

Eſta-

Eſtamet: m. Cloth-raſh.
Eſtameure: f. A tynning.
Eſtamier: m. A Tynner, Tynne-man; Pewterer.
Eſtamine: f. The ſtuffe Tamine; alſo, a ſtrayner, ſearce, boulter, or boulting cloth; (ſo called, becauſe made (commonly) of a thinne kind thereof.)
Paſſer par l'eſtamine. To ſtraine; to bring vnto the touch; to put vnto proofe, or tryall; to paſſe the pikes.
Eſtaminé: m. ée: f. Strayned, ſearced, boulted; paſſed through a ſtrayner, ſearce, boulter; alſo, tryed, or throughly examined.
Eſtaminer. To ſtrayne, ſearce, boult; to paſſe through a ſearce; alſo, to try, or examine the worth of.
Eſtamineux. Which vſeth a ſtrayner, ſearce, or boulter; alſo, fit to make a ſtrayner of.
Eſtampe: f. A ſtampe, impreſſion, preſſe, print, printing; alſo, as Conſole.
Eſtampé: m. ée: f. Supported, or vnderpropped, with treſtes.
Eſtampeau: m. A treſſle.
Eſtamper. To ſupport, or vnderprop with treſſles.
Eſtamperche: f. A great vpright beame, in building; a principall poſt.
Eſtancer. as Eſtançonner; to ſtay; to prop.
Eſtanceure: f. A ſupporting, or vnderpropping.
Eſtanche. A ſtanching; and hence;
Pierre d'eſtanche. The bloud-ſtone.
Eſtanché: m. ée: f. Stanched; ſtaked, quenched, quailed; ſtopped, ſtayed.
Eſtanchement: m. A ſtanching; a quayling; ſtaking; ſtopping, ſtaying.
Eſtancher. To ſtanch; ſtop, or ſtay (an iſſue of bloud, &c) to quayle; ſtake, or quench hunger, thirſt, &c.)
Eſtancheur: m. A ſtancher; ſtopper (of an iſſue of bloud, &c) quailer, ſtaker, quencher (of hunger, thirſt, &c.)
Eſtançonner. Looke Eſtanſonner.
Eſtandart: m. A Standart; a kind of Enſigne for horſemen, vſed in old time; alſo, the meaſure, or ſcantling for meaſure, which we alſo call the Standard.
Eſtang: m. A great pond, poole, or ſtanding water.
Eſtanſon: m. A prop, ſtay; treſſle; a forked peece of wood wherewith a Vine, &c, is vnderſet.
Eſtanſonné: m. ée: f. Vnderſet, vpheld, propped or ſtayed, vp.
Eſtanſonner. To prop, ſtay vp, vnderſet, vphold.
Eſtanſonner le menſonge d'un roſeau. To ſupport a ly with a reed; to maintaine an vntruth with ſleight or friuolous arguments.
Eſtant. Being; ſubſiſting; reſting; alſo, ſtanding vpon his feet, bolt vpright; whence;
En ſon eſtant. Standing, bolt vpright, vpon his feet.
Navire bien eſtant. A ſhip that is tight, ſound, whole, and without leake.
Eſtanterol. Part of a ſhip verie neere vnto the poupe. ¶Rab.
Eſtape: f. A Staple; a Mart, or generall Market; a publike Store-houſe in a ſea-towne, or towne of trafficke, wherein Marchants ſtrangers lodge their wine, oyle, corne, or other commodities which they meane to vent; alſo, a certain Place, or Towne, whereto the countrey is inioyned to bring in victuals for the prouiſion of a (marching) Armie, or Troopes; alſo, the pecuniarie contribution allowed by thoſe townes, or perſons that bring in none; (In both which ſences this word is moſt vſed plurally;) alſo, as Eſtanſon.
Vivre par eſtapes. To liue on the pennie; to haue no more then he payes for, no manner of prouiſion other then he buyes (for ſouldiors, in their marches, either do, or ſhould, pay for all the victuals they take of the countrey people.)
Eſtaphe: f. A Stirrup (for a ſaddle.)
Eſtaphilagrie: f. Staues-aker; Lowſe-wort; (an hearbe.)
Eſtappe. as Eſtape.
Eſtaques. Oliue plants, or Suckers.
Eſtarnuër. as Eſternuër; to ſneeze.
Eſtaſe. as Extaſe.
Eſtaſques. The Suckers, or ſcions that ſpring vp at the feet of Oliue trees.
Eſtat: m. The eſtate; caſe; nature, ſubſtance, being; faſhion, propertie, condition, qualitie of things; alſo, the eſtate, meanes, wealth, fortunes; trade, calling; office, dignitie; ranke, degree, which a man hath, or is of; alſo, the ſtate, head, iſſue, knot, principall point of a matter in controuerſie; alſo, the ſtate, or pompe of great perſons, appearing by the richneſſe of their apparrell, or multitude of their followers; (Tel porte grand eſtat;) alſo, the ſpeciall note and marke taken, reſpect had, or account made, of ſuch great ones; whence; Perſonnage de grand eſtat.
L'eſtat, & bon d'eſtat d'un Compte. The Remainder, or ouerplus due by, or in the hands of, an Accomptant, after all charges deducted, and allowed him.
L'eſtat d'un Decret. A particular Catalogue, or Suruey of the quantitie, and ſcite of each parcell of land thats ſeiſed by publike order.
L'eſtat d' un finance; l'eſtat de la recepte; bailler par eſtat ce qu'a eſté receu, ou frayé &c; A Collection, Booke, or Bill of Receits, and Diſburſements; any Liſt, Roll, Regiſter, Summarie, or Suruey of ſuch like matters.
L'eſtat d'une Maiſon. A certaine, and ſetled order of the gouernment, ſeruice and expence of a (great) mans houſe; alſo, the Liſt, Catalogue, Regiſter, or Check-roll, containing the names, rankes, and functions of all the officers, and ſeruants therein.
Eſtat en matiere de Regale. is that, which in the caſes of other Benefices, and Eccleſiaſticall functions, is tearmed, Recreance; Looke Recreance.
L'eſtat du Roy; as in, l'eſtat d'une maiſon.
L'eſtat d' un Royaulme. The State; or the ſtate of a Kingdome; the diſpoſition, managing, policie, conduct of, the order, courſe, proceedings held in, State-affaires.
Les eſtats; &, les gens des trois eſtats. The whole bodie of a Realme, or Prouince, conſiſting of three ſeuerall Members, Eſtates, or Orders; the Clergie, Nobility, and Comminaltie.
Les eſtats (generaux.) A Parliament; or generall Aſſemblie of the aforeſaid Orders, in a Kingdome, &c.
Les eſtats particuliers. A Prouinciall Seſſions, or Aſſemblie, for conſultation.
Deniers d'eſtat. An eſtimate made, by the Treaſurers of France, in the beginning of a yeare, of all the ſummes which are to be leuied, and receiued that yeare.
Lettres d'eſtat. A writ, or Iniunction for the ſtay of a ſuit, for a time, in caſes, when either the Counſell of one of the parties is otherwiſe buſied, or the partie himſelfe imployed in ſeruice of the State (as an Embaſſador &c) and cannot attend, or be preſent, in Court.
Non-valoirs d'eſtat. Such ſummes as (whatſoeuer account count the Treaſurers made of them in the beginning) are not by the end of the yeare got in, though the Collectors, and Receiuers did their vtmoſt.

Plus-valeurs d'eſtat. The ſummes which by the end of the yeare are payed in, ouer and beſides all theſe, that are mentioned in the aforeſaid Eſtimate (in Deniers d'eſtat.)

Reſtats d'eſtat. The ſummes due, at the yeres end, and after accounts giuen vp, vnto the Receiuers generall, and particular, by the Treaſurers of France.

Couché en eſtat. Made Officer; intertained into ſeruice, or pay.

Qui n'eſt couché en l'eſtat. Ouerſlipt, left out, forgotten, not choſen.

Faire eſtat de. To purpoſe, or make account to; alſo, to vſe, or make a practiſe of.

Faire l'eſtat de. Looke Faire.

Faire ſon eſtat. To doe his dutie, play his part, execute his office, exerciſe his authoritie.

Mettre eſtat en la cauſe. To ſtop, or ſtay the proceedings in a cauſe.

Tenir en eſtat. To keepe in order; hold in awe.

Tout eſtat, & rien au plat: Prov. All pompe, no hoſpitalitie; the bellie is ſtarued by the backe.

Tout eſtat eſt viande aux vers: Prov. Euerie creature is wormes meat.

Eſtau: m. as Eſtal; alſo, a hollow place vnder the root of a tree, that ſtands by a water ſide; alſo, the yron inſtrument wherewith Smithes hold faſt their worke in the forging thereof.

Demeurer eſtau. To ſtand ſtill.

Eſtaudeau: m. as Heſtoudeau.

Eſtaudi: m. ie: f. Sheltered, or ſhrowded, as vnder a ſcaffold, or ſtall.

Eſtaudir. To ſhrowd, or ſhelter himſelfe, as vnder a ſcaffold, or ſtall.

Eſtaudy: m. A ſcaffold, in building; alſo, a ſtall before a ſhop; alſo, a certaine defence of boords, vſed in approches, or at the entring of a breach.

Eſtay: m. A rope faſtened to the top of the maine Maſt, and holding it ſteadie when the maine ſayle is hoiſed vp; we call it, the Stay.

Eſtaye: f. A prop, ſtay, ſupporter, ſhore, buttreſſe.

Eſtayé: m. ée: f. Propped, ſupported, ſhored, underſet.

Eſtayement: m. A ſhoring, propping, ſupporting, underſetting.

Eſtayer. To prop, ſhore, ſtay, underſet, ſupport.

Eſté: m. Summer.

Eſté S. Martin. The later part of Autumne.

Cela ne faict ny hyver, ny eſté. is neither fiſh, nor fleſh; doe; neither good nor harme; (and therefore may be ſpared.)

En hyver par tout pleut; en eſté là ou dieu veut: Prov. In Winter it raines all ouer, in Summer but ſome where.

Eſté. Beene, ſubſiſted; remained, ſtood.

Il y a eſté trois iours. He hath ſtayed three dayes about it.

Tout a eſté à autruy, & ſera à autruy: Prov. Looke Autruy.

Eſteignement: m. A quenching, ſlaking, extinguiſhing, extinguiſhment.

Eſteigneur: m. A quencher, ſlaker, extinguiſher.

Eſteinct. as Eſtainct; quenched, extinguiſhed.

Eſteindement. as Eſteignement.

Eſtendible: com. Extinguiſhable, quenchable.

Eſteindre. To extinguiſh; to quench, to ſlake, or put out; to aboliſh, or bring vnto nothing.

Cela eſt plus propre à eſtendre, qu'a eſteindre, le mal. That is more apt to extend, then to extinguiſh, the miſchiefe.

Eſteinte: f. An extinguiſhment, or extinguiſhing.

Gambadans à eſteinte de chandelle; viz. vntill the candle burnt, or went, out.

Eſtel. as Eſtal; a ſtall.

Eſtelé: m. ée: f. Starrie, ſet with ſtarres; hauing (as a horſe) a ſtarre in the forhead.

Raye eſtelée. Looke Raye.

Eſteler. To beſtarre, to ſet thicke with ſtarres.

Eſteler les chevaux; Looke Atteler.

Eſtelin. as Eſtellin; a weight of eight and twentie graines.

Eſtellage: m. Stallage; alſo, as Attelage.

Eſtelle: f. A rod, or ſticke; alſo, a little ſtarre; and the rowell of a ſpurre; (barbarouſly.)

Eſteller. as Eſtaler.

Eſtellin: m. A Goldſmithes weight, containing eight and twentie graines, or the twentieth part of an ounce.

Eſtellon. as Eſtallon; a ſize, or patterne for meaſures, or proportions; alſo, a patterne of Marchandiſe, ſuch as ſhop-keepers lay forth vpon their ſtals; alſo, a Stallion.

Eſtelloner. as Eſtalonner.

Eſtelon. as Eſtalon; alſo, a croſſe-beame, or binding peece of timber.

Eſtenché, Eſtencher. Looke Eſtanché, Eſtancher.

Eſtendant. Extending, retching, ſtretching out.

Eſtendart: m. An Enſigne, or Standart; Looke Eſtandart.

Eſtendement: m. An extending; retching, or ſtretching out; a pulling or ſpreading forth; a lengthening; widening, inlarging; alſo, a planing, vnfoulding; diſplaying, ſetting, or ſhewing, abroad.

Eſtendre. To extend; retch or ſtretch, forth; pull or ſpread out; lengthen, widen, inlarge; vnfold, plane, diſplay, ſet or ſhew abroad.

Eſtendre la loy. To wreſt, or ſtraine the Law; to make large expoſitions, or vſe farre-fetcht interpretations, thereof.

S'eſtendre. To extend, or ſtretch out it ſelfe; alſo, to increaſe, propagate, or multiply exceedingly.

Eſtendu: m. uë: f. Extended; retched or ſtretched forth; pulled or ſpred out; lengthened, widened, inlarged; vnfoulded, planed, diſplayed, ſet or ſhewed abroad; alſo; increaſed, or multiplyed, or diſperſed mightily.

Tout plat eſtendu. Layed all along, or at full length; lying as flat as a flooke.

Eſtenduë: f. Extent, extenſion; an out-ſtretched proportion; length; wideneſſe, largeneſſe, greatneſſe, dilatation, ſpaciouſneſſe.

L'eſtenduë du ciel. The out-ſtretcht cope, or ſcope of heauen; all the ſpace that is betweene heauen, and earth.

Eſtendure: f. An extenſion, or extending.

Eſter. To ſtand; indure, abide by it, continue in, ſticke vnto.

Eſter à vne choſe convenuë. To keepe touch; hold tacke, ſtand to a bargaine.

Eſter à droict. To referre himſelfe vnto the Law.

Eſter en iugement. To ſue; to commence, or defend a ſuit; to ſtand to his tryall; or to referre his cauſe vnto ordinarie tryall; alſo, to appeare, as a partie, in Court.

Eſterdre le beſtiail. To litter cattell.

Eſterlin. as Eſtellin; or, a pennie ſterling; our pennie.

Esterni: m. ie: f. Strowed, spred, displayed, throwne abroad, layed along.

Esternir. To strow, spread, throw, lay abroad, or along; to display.

Esternissement: m. A strowing, spreading, displaying; laying abroad or along.

Esternuement: m. A neezing, or sneezing.

Esternuer. To neeze; or sneeze.

Herbe à esternuer. Sneesingwort, or Sneesewort of Austria, wild Pellitorie of Spaine.

Esteslé. Looke Eteslé.

Estester. Looke Etester.

Esteuf: m. A Tennisball.

Courir apres son esteuf. Foolishly to pursue a thing, which he had, and might haue held, in his hands; also, (as foolishly) to rely on, strayne himselfe for, or follow after, incertainties.

Se donner l'esteuf l'un à l'autre. To assist, or serue one anothers turne.

Il se mit encores apres son esteuf. He betooke himselfe vnto his first enterprise; or, to that he had most in his head; or (as before) he obstinately followed that againe, which himselfe let goe.

Il releva cet esteuf. He apprehended this occasion, he seised on, or made vse of, this aduantage.

Se renvoyer l'esteuf l'un à l'autre; Looke Renvoyer.

Esteule: f. Straw, or stuble growing.

Nouvelles esteules. New stuble, or stuble ground; so tearmed for the three next dayes after the sheaues are bound vp.

Estienne. Stephen (a mans proper name.)

Invention Sainct Estienne. An holyday kept by the Church of Rome, the third of August.

Miches de S. Estienne. Stones.

Estier: m. Looke Sentier.

Estimable: com. Esteemeable, valuable, priseable.

Estimateur: m. An estimator, valuer, prizer, esteemer of things.

Estimation: f. An estimation, prizing, valuing; a consideration had, or iudgement giuen, of.

Estime: f. An estimate, estimation, price, value, esteeme, valuation; an account, regard, reckoning made of; the reputation, or credit giuen to; the opinion had of.

Estimé: m. ée: f. Esteemed; thought, supposed; held, reputed; prised, valued; respected, regarded; held deere, set much by, made account of; iudged; weighed, considered.

Estimer. To esteeme; thinke, deeme, trowe, suppose, repute, hold; weigh, consider; iudge; prise, value; regard, respect, hold deere, set by, make much account of.

Estincelle: f. A sparke, or sparkle of fire; a twinckle; a flash.

Estincellé: m. ée: f. Sparkled, sparked, twinkled; also, powdered, or set with sparkles.

Estincellement: m. A sparkling, a twinkling.

Estinceller. To sparke, to sparkle, as fire; to twinkle, as a starre, or Dyamond; to sprinkle as wine; to powder, or set thicke with sparkles.

Estincellette: f. A little sparkle, a small twinkling.

Estiomene. S. Anthonies fire (a painefull swelling full of heat, and redneſſe.)

Estiomené: m. ée: f. Inflamed, or infected with S. Anthonies fire.

Estiomener. To cut off the member so inflamed, or infected.

Estire: m. The yron toole wherewith a Currier drawes the skins he receiues from the Tanpit; some call it, a Sleeker.

Estiré: m. ée: f. Strained, stretched, wrested, retched, set on the tenter hookes.

Estirement: m. A stretching, or reteching; a straining, or setting on the tenter hookes.

Estirer. To retch, or straine aboue compasse; to wrist, or stretch, to set on the tenter hookes.

Estival: m. ale: f. Of Summer, belonging vnto Summer.

Estivalet: m. A Buskin, or Summer boot.

Estive: f. The loading, or lading of a ship; also, the Hold wherein most of that lading is contained.

Estivé: m. ée: f. Loaden, or laden (as a ship.)

Estiveler. as Etiveler.

Estiver. To Summer, to passe the Summer in; to rest in Summer.

Estivet: m. A little Summer, halfe a Summer, another Summer.

L'estivet de S. Martin. The later end of Autumne.

Estoc: m. The stocke, trunke, or bodie of a tree; also, the principall stocke or stemme, direct and chiefe line, of a Familie, Kinred, or Pettigree; also, the race, kind, or sort of other things; also, a Rapier, or tucke; also, a thrust; also, a Vice.

Estoc d'armes. A kind of strong, sharpe, and short horsemans sword, broad at the handle (where it hath but one barre for defence) and narrowing to the pointwards.

Coup d'estoc. A thrust, foine, stockado, stab; also, a prick-cast.

D'estoc. Thrusting, foining; stabbing.

D'estoc & de taille. Both with the point and the edge; also, both wayes, in both kinds; or, by all kind of means, molestations, mischiefes.

Se tenir à l'estoc sans s'amuser aux branches. To adhere vnto the principall, without respect of dependants.

Estocage: m. A linage, or the chiefe stemme of a linage. ¶ Wallon.

Estoccade: f. A stoccado; stab, foine, thrust.

Estoccader. To giue the stoccado; to stab, foine at, pricke deepe into, thrust through.

Estoccage: m. iiij d vpon the sale of an inheritance, due (in some places) vnto the Landlord, and to be payed him, in lieu of a Reliefe, the same day it is sold.

Estocquer. as Estoccader; or, as Estoquer.

Estoeuf. as Esteuf.

Estoeuvier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Tennis ball.

Estoffe: f. Stuffe; matter, substance; ware, chaffer; also, the qualitie, ranke; abilitie, or worth of a man.

Chevaliers de bonne estoffe. Knights well armed, and well managing their Armes.

Estoffé: m. ée: f. Stuffed; made with stuffe; stored, or furnished with necessaries; also, carued, grauen, intayled.

Estoffer. To stuffe; to make with stuffe; to furnish, or store with all necessaries; also, to carue, graue, intayle.

Estofferie: f. The art of ingrauing.

Estoffeur: m. A cutter, grauer, caruer, intailer.

Estoillé: m. The Lizard Stellio, whose necke is full of starre-like spots.

Estoille: f. A starre; a planet; also, the herb Sharewort, Starre-wort, Cudwort.

Estoille de mer. An excrement of the sea, called the Fiue-foot, or Starre-fish.

Estoille polaire. The North starre. See Polaire.

Estoille Pouſſiniere. The seuen starres; called by some, the Henne and her Chickens.

Escus à l'estoille Pouſſiniere. Counters (for there are no such Crownes.)

Herbe

Herbe de l'estoille. Harts-horne Plaintain, hearbe Eue.

Ordre de l'estoille. ted by Iohn King of F... doned long agoe by the... comum; and retained... rie watchmen of Paris.

Pierre d'estoilles. A... buncle, wherein (setting) ny golden, sparkling, a... cerned.

La belle estoille. The... the high way betweene...

A l'enseigne de l'est... without dores all night... heauens.

On les fait croire q... lottes. They are made... ter then) spangles; vi... or abused.

A midi estoille ne l... shines; Looke Midi.

Estoillé: m. ée: f. Star... set thicke, with starres...

Estoillée: f. The hearbe... Sanicle.

Estoiller. To set with st...

Estoilleux: m. euſe: f. ... with starres.

Estoillins: m. An Orde... the breasts of their gow...

Estoitlette: f. A kind o...

Estole: f. A stole, (for th...

Estomach: m. The... bulke, bosome, or breast... also, a stomacke, lust, ap...

Vn estomach de pe... breast (the best) peece.

Les viandes nouvelle...

Prov. Looke Rebondi...

Estomaqué: m. ée: f...

s'Estomaquer à l'enc... take the pet, or pepper i...

Estomiſſeur. Vn vieil... bangling, or buzzing S...

Estomni: m. ie: f. St... senceleſſe.

Estonné: m. ée: f. D... palled, agast; abashed...

Estonnez comme... Ducks.

Estonné comme vn... ded like a Cut-arse (ta...

Estonné comme vn... of countenance, as a Be... ries.)

Estonnement: m. An... nying: a sleepineſſe, nu... leſneſſe; dulneſſe, amaz...

Estonner. To astonish, a... out of countenance; m... numme, or dull the sen...

Tout ce que tonne n... All that does thunder...

Estophe. as Estoffe.

Estoquant. Thrusting, ... the Stockado vnto; als...

Herbe de l'eſtoille. Buck horne, Crowſoot Plantaine, Harts-horne Plaintaine, Sandwort, hearbe Iuie, or hearbe Eue.

Ordre de l'eſtoille. An Order of Knighthood, inſtituted by Iohn King of France in the yeare 1351; abandoned long agoe by the Nobilitie, becauſe it grew too common; and retained at this day onely by the ordinarie watchmen of Paris.

Pierre d'eſtoilles. A kind of Orange-coloured carbuncle, wherein (ſetting it betweene and the light) many golden, ſparkling, and ſtarre-like drops may be diſcerned.

La belle eſtoille. The name of a Village that lyes in the high way betweene S. Denis and Pontoiſe.

A l'enſeigne de l'eſtoille. (Coucher à l'en. To lye without dores all night) vnder the Canopie of the faire heauens.

On les fait croire que les eſtoilles ſont des papillottes. They are made beleeue that ſtarres be (no better then) ſpangles; viz. They are extreamely gulled, or abuſed.

A midi eſtoille ne luit: Prov. At mid day no ſtarre ſhines; Looke Midi.

Eſtoillé: m. ée: f. Starrie, full of ſtarres; poudered, or ſet thicke, with ſtarres.

Eſtoillée: f. The hearbe Lyons foot, Ladies mantle, great Sanicle.

Eſtoiller. To ſet with ſtarres.

Eſtoilleux: m. euſe: f. Starrie, full of ſtarres, ſet thicke with ſtarres.

Eſtoillins: m. An Order of Friers, that weare ſtarres on the breaſts of their gownes.

Eſtoitlette: f. A kind of rich furre.

Eſtole: f. A ſtole, (for the necke of a Prieſt.)

Eſtomach: m. The Stomacke; the gorge; alſo, the bulke, boſome, or breaſt (being the ſeat of the ſtomacke;) alſo, a ſtomacke, luſt, appetite vnto, deſire of, meat.

Vn eſtomach de perdrix. The wing, and brawne; the breaſt (the beſt) peece.

Les viandes nouvelles font rebondir l'eſtomach: Prov. Looke Rebondir.

Eſtomaqué: m. ée: f. Angrie at, in a rage againſt.

Eſtomaquer à l'encontre de. To be angrie with, to take the pet, or pepper in the noſe, at.

Eſtomiſſeur. Vn vieil eſtomiſſeur de ſacre. An old bangling, or buzzing Saker.

Eſtomni: m. ie: f. Stonnied, benummed, dulled, made ſenceleſſe.

Eſtonné: m. ée: f. Daunted, aſtoniſhed, amazed, appalled, agaſt; abaſhed.

Eſtonnez comme canes. Diſmayed like ſo manie Ducks.

Eſtonné comme vn coupeur de bourſes. Confounded like a Cutpurſe (taken in the manner.)

Eſtonné comme vn fondeur de cloches. Much out of countenance, as a Bell-founder (whoſe worke miſcarries.)

Eſtonnement: m. An aſtoniſhment, aſtoniſhing, or ſtonnying: a ſleepineſſe, numneſſe, or benumming; a ſenceleſneſſe; dulneſſe, amazednеſſe; dulling, amazing.

Eſtonner. To aſtoniſh, amaze, daunt, appall; abaſh, put out of countenance; make agaſt; alſo, to ſtonnie, benumme, or dull the ſences of.

Tout ce que tonne ne nous eſtonne point: Prov. All that does thunder does not blunder vs.

Eſtophe. as Eſtoffe.

Eſtoquant. Thruſting, foyning, ſtabbing, pricking, giuing the Stockado vnto; alſo, reuiling, rayling at.

Eſtoqué: m. ée: f. Thruſt, foyned, pricked, ſtabbed into; alſo, reproched, reuiled, rayled at.

Eſtoquer. To thruſt, or foyne at; pricke, or ſtab into; alſo, to reproch, reuile, rayle at, ſcold with.

Eſtorce: f. A ſtraine, wring, wrinch; alſo, a bad part; hard meaſure offred; an vnhappie turne played.

Eſtorcir. as Eſtordre.

Eſtordant. Wringing, wrinching, wreſting, writhing.

Eſtordre. To wring, wrinch, wreſt, writhe; extort violently, take wrongfully; pull out of, or from betweene, the fingers of another.

Eſtoré: m. ée: f. Built, made, erected, edified; alſo, furniſhed, ſtored, garniſhed with, prouided of.

Tenir à Cour feſte haute, & eſtorée. To keepe at Court a plentifull, or bountifull feaſt.

Eſtorer. To build, make, edifie, erect, raiſe, reare; alſo, to ſtore, garniſh, or furniſh.

Eſtorſe: f. as Eſtorce.

Eſtorſement: m. A wringing, wreſting, wrinching, writhing; extorting, violent pulling out of the hands of another.

Eſtouble: f. Stuble, or ſtraw growing.

Eſtoubles. Stuble ground.

Eſtoudeau. as Heſtoudeau.

Vn ieune eſtoudeau ſuperbe. A proud princox boy.

Eſtouffé: m. ée: f. Stifled, ſuffocated, ſmothered.

Eſtouffement: m. A ſtifling, ſmothering, choaking, ſuffocating, ſtopping of the breath.

Eſtouffer. To ſtifle, ſmother, choake, whirken, ſuffocate, ſtop the breath.

Eſtouillon: m. A ſanne to gather wind withall.

Eſtoupade: f. A ſtoppage, or ſtopping.

Eſtoupade des reins. A certaine kernell neere about the reines.

Eſtoupe: f. Towe, heards; Ockam.

Clou d'eſtoupe. A Speeke, or ſheathing nayle, vſed in ſhipping.

Souffler aux eſtoupes. To (helpe to) continue, or increaſe, a trouble, or troubleſome buſineſſe; to keepe the wheele agate.

Il a tiſſu lin avec eſtoupe. He hath mingled, or iumbled good, and bad together.

Eſtoupé: m. ée: f. Stopped, cloſed, ſhut, made vp.

Eſtoupement: m. A ſtopping, or ſhutting vp.

Eſtouper. To ſtop, to cloſe; to ſhut, or make vp.

Eſtoupeux: m. euſe: f. Heardie, flaxie, full of towe.

Eſtoupillon: m. A ſtopple, or thing that ſtoppeth.

Eſtouppade: f. as Eſtoupade; or, a tent, or ſtopple, (of towe, &c.)

Eſtour: m. A fight, combat, conflict, ſcuffling, ſhocke, incounter; alſo, the aſſault of a towne, or fortreſſe.

Eſtourbillon: m. A whirlewind.

Eſtourdi: m. ie: f. Dulled, amazed, aſtoniſhed, dizzie-headed, or whoſe head ſeems very much troubled; (hece) alſo, heedleſſe, inconſiderate, vnaduiſed, witleſſe, vncircumſpect, raſh, retchleſſe, or careleſſe; and ſottiſh, blockiſh, lumpiſh, tusk-like, without life, mettall, ſpirit; alſo, malled, felled, or knocked downe.

Eſtourdi de baſton, ou de bateau. Extreamely benummed, or amazed; moſt vnfit, or vnreadie, for a ſuddain imployment; or, at his wits end when he is ſuddainly put to any thing; alſo, in a deſperate, or pitifull taking.

A l'eſtourdi. Amazedly; heedleſly, vnheedfully, witleſly, inconſiderately, careleſly, raſhly, at randome, as one that minds not the worke he is about, or knowes not what he does; alſo, dully, ſottiſhly, blockiſhly, heauily, drowſily, dreamingly.

De bouc eſtourdi. Raſhly, turbulently, with a hurrie.

Plus eſtourdi que le premier ſon de Matines; Looke Matines.

Eſtourdie: f. as Eſtourdiſſement.

A l'eſtourdie. as, à l'eſtourdi.

Eſtourdir. To aſtoniſh, amaze, dull, trouble the braines, deprive of wit, and heed; make giddie, or dizzie in the head; alſo, to inall, or knocke downe.

Eſtourdir ſes morceaux. To chaw his meat ill, or ſwallow it downe without chawing (hauing rouled it once about his mouth;) we ſay, to make bricke walls.

Eſtourdiſſement: m. A dulling, amazing, aſtoniſhing, depriuing of ſence, wit, heed; alſo, an amazednesſe, aſtoniſhment, ſenceleſneſſe, dizzineſſe, or the ſwimming of the head; alſo, heedleſneſſe, inconſideration, vnaduiſedneſſe, raſhneſſe, retcbleſneſſe, careleſneſſe; and ſottiſhneſſe, dulneſſe, blockiſhneſſe; alſo, a malling, felling, or knocking downe.

Eſtourgeon: m. A Sturgeon; the fiſh Sturgeon.

Eſtourneau: m. A Stare, or Starling.

Eſtrace: f. Raw ſilke thats ſo ruffled or tangled, as it cannot be wound, and therefore they are faine to card, and afterwards to ſpin, it.

Eſtrade: f. A ſtreet; a way, a high way.

Batteurs d'eſtrade. The Scouts, Forragers, or Forerunners of an Armie; alſo, Purſe-takers, Boot-halers, or S. Nicholas clarkes.

Eſtradiot: m. A light-horſe, an Albanian horſeman; a Carbine.

Eſtradiote. Chevaucher à l'Eſtradiote. To ride long, or with long ſtirrups.

Eſtragon: m. The hearbe Tarragon.

Eſtraigné: m. ée: f. Wrung, or griped within the fiſt.

Eſtraigner. To wring, or gripe with the fiſt.

Trop embraſſer, & peu eſtraigner. To haue too many yrons in the fire at once; to deale in ſo many trades (or matters) that he can thriue by none.

Eſtrain: m. Straw; litter, fodder of ſtraw, or ſtuble.

De grand train ſur l'eſtrain: Prov. From (keeping) a great traine into the ſtraw; viz. vnto beggerie.

Eſtraincte: f. as Eſtreinte.

Eſtraindre. To ſtrayne, wring hard, bind faſt, thruſt vp cloſe together; Looke Eſtreindre.

Eſtraines. as Eſtreines.

Eſtrainte: f. as Eſtreinte; alſo, a kind of cloſe buckle, or claſpe (moſt commonly of ſiluer) vſed in the faſtnings of cloakes, batbands, womens girdles, &c, and much more cloſe, and comelie then the ordinarie buckle, or claſpe.

Eſtraires. as Eſtrayeres; or as Eſpaves.

Eſtraiure: f. An Eſcheat, or Perquiſite; an Eſcheating.

Eſtramaçon: m. A downe-right blow; gaſh, or cut; alſo, a cuff, bang, rap.

Eſtrancher. as Trancher; to cut.

Eſtrangé: m. ée: f. Eſtranged, alienated, altered, ſeperated from; growne fremme, or out of knowledge, and acquaintance.

Eſtrange: com. Strange, vncouth, vnuſuall; forraine, alien, outlandiſh; vnaccuſtomed, vnacquainted; alſo, harſh, rude, od (in condition, or conſtitution.)

Eſtrangement: m. An eſtranging, or alienating himſelfe from others; a ſhunning of companie; a quitting of all vſuall faſhions.

Eſtrangément. Strangely, vnuſually, wonderfully; out of ordinarie courſe, in an vncouth manner.

Eſtranger: m. as Eſtrangier.

Eſtranger. To eſtrange, alienate; alter, diuide, ſeperate, withdraw from.

S'eſtranger de. To ſhun, auoid; leaue the haunt of; withdraw his mind, diſuſe himſelfe, from.

Eſtrangeté: f. Strangeneſſe, vnwontedneſſe, vncouthneſſe; alſo, a ſtrange act, or accident; a rare, or wonderfull matter; (In which ſence tis moſt vſed in the Plurall number;) alſo, rudeneſſe, baſhneſſe, frowardneſſe, peruerſeneſſe.

Eſtrangier: m. A ſtranger, alien, forreiner, an outlander, or outlandiſh man; alſo, a fremme bodie, that is neither a dweller with, nor of kinne vnto, vs; one with whom we haue no familiaritie, or hold no correſpondencie.

Eſtranglé: m. ée: f. Strangled, ſtifled, choaked, throtled, whirkned, ſmoothered.

Eſtrangle-leopard: m. Libbards bane, Crayfiſh wolues-bane; (an hearbe.)

Eſtrangle-loup. Wolues-bane, Wolfe-wort; (a moſt pernicious hearbe.)

Eſtranglement: m. A ſtrangling, ſtifling, throtling, whirkning, choaking.

Eſtrangler. To ſtrangle, choake, throtle, ſtifle, whirken, ſmother.

Eſtranguillon. Poire d'es. A choake peare.

Pomme d'eſtranguillon. A Crab, or Wilding.

Eſtranguillons: m. The Strangles; a diſeaſe (in horſes, &c.)

Eſtrapade: f. The puniſhment called, the Strappado.

Eſtrapaſſé: m. ée: f. Harried, ouer-toyled, oppreſſed with labour, whereof too much is taken.

Eſtrapaſſer. To harrie, ouer-toyle, oppreſſe with labour, take too much of.

Eſtraper. To mow, or cut downe ſtuble.

Eſtrapoire. as Eſtrappoire.

Eſtrappade. as Eſtrapade.

Eſtrappé: m. ée: f. Mowed, or cut downe, as ſtuble.

Eſtrapper. To mow, or cut downe, ſtuble.

Eſtrappoire: f. A kind of little, and long-handled Sickle, wherewith ſtuble is cut downe.

Eſtraſſe. as Eſtrace.

Eſtraſſier: m. One that cards, or ſpinnes ruffled ſilke.

Eſtrave: f. The ſtemme, or ſtemme-poſt of a ſhip.

Eſtravé: m. ée: f. Vnſhackled; freed from ſhackles.

Eſtraver. To vnſhackle; to free, or deliuer from ſhackles.

Eſtrayer: m. ere: f. as Espave: com.

Eſtrayeres: f. Eſcheats; the goods of ſtrangers dead without French-borne iſſue; and of baſtards, dead inteſtate, or without iſſue.

Eſtre: m. A ſubſtance, or ſubſiſtence; an eſſence, being; ſtate; alſo, the ſtocke, ſtemme, or direct line of a Pettigree, kindred, or familie.

Les Eſtres d'une maiſon. The inward conueyances, priuate windings or turnings within, entries into, iſſues out of, a houſe.

Se maintenir touſiours en meſme eſtre. To hold at one ſtay, continue in one eſtate, keepe ſtill his former ſtate, be alwayes the man he was, or the ſame man.

Eſtre. To be, ſubſiſt; remaine, abide, ſtand, reſt.

Eſtre à cheval. To ride, or ſit a horſe, or on horſe-backe; alſo, to deale vpon aduantage; alſo, to ſtand on loftie, or bigh tearmes, as one that knowes he hath the aduantage.

Eſtre apres quelqu' un. To ly at, or be earneſt with, one to doe any thing.

Eſtre deſſus. To ſtand; Looke Deſſus.

Eſtre en eau. To ſweat; or, as we ſay, to be all on a water.

Eſtre en l'eau. To be in, or vpon, the water.

Eſtre entre deux fers. Looke Fer.
Eſtre de garde. To continue long in good plight; to keepe well, beare his age well.
Eſtre du guet. To be taken napping; alſo, to be gulled, or to ſwallow a gudgeon.
Eſtre à la groſſe haleine. To gape, or gaſpe for breath; to be almoſt cleane out of breath.
Eſtre à l'herte. Looke Erte.
Eſtre du lard: tout y eſtoit du lard. All went on wheeles there; there was no hoe with them, they were ſo luſtie.
Eſtre en ſon lourdant. To ſell Sowce; to be ſicke of the Mumpes; to be troubled with the fullens.
Eſtre malade. A woman to haue her flowers.
Eſtre de Rhodais. The ſame.
Eſtre à ſoy. To be his owne Maiſter, or Man; to be at his owne command; to haue the abſolute gouernment of himſelfe, alſo, to find himſelfe; whence, Faulcon qui eſt à ſoy; a wild, or hagard Hawke; a Hawke that preyes for her ſelfe.
Eſtre ſur. Femme qui n'eſt point ſur les hommes. That is verie chaſt, or continent; that is not eager of the Man; that cares not verie much for a man; Hence alſo, Eſtre ſur le Vin. To loue Wine; alſo, to haue the right ſmacke of, or a right taſt for, Wine.
Fuſt qu'aucun raccontaſt. Whether one tell of.
En eſtre. En vouldz vous eſtre? Will you make one? (at play, &c.)
Et en ſuis là. And I am of the ſame opinion.
I'en ſuis ainſi. Such is my caſe, it is euen ſo with me.
Qu'en eſt-il? What of that? Que vous en eſt il? What is that to you?
Y eſtre. Il y eſt (at Tennis;) the Ball is in the hazard; &, Il y eſtoit. It had beene there but that I ſaued it.
Vous y eſtes. You are in the right; you haue hit it; you haue ſaid as truly, done as fitly, as is poſſible; alſo, you ſtirre not, or cannot ſtirre; you ſticke faſt, or are ſet faſt therein.
Vous n'y eſtes pas (at Bowles;) you are, or haue the rvie, wide.
Vous n'y eſtes de rien. You haue nothing to do in the matter.
Ce m'eſt Dieu. So helpe me God (corruptly.)
Quand ce fut à faire cecy, ou cela. When it comes to the doing of this, or of that.
Qui n'y eſt n'y a ſa part: Prov. He that comes not, ſhares not among them.
Tout a eſté à autruy, & ſera à autruy: Pro. All came from, and will goe to, others.
Eſtreci: m. ie: f. Streitned; pinched, ſhrunke in, plucked neere together; contracted, abridged, made or drawne ſhort, brought into a narrow compaſſe.
Eſtrecir. To ſtreiten, pinch, draw, or ſhrinke in, plucke neere together; to contract, abridge, make ſhort, bring into a narrow compaſſe.
Eſtreciſſement: m. A ſtreitning, pinching, ſhrinking in; a contracting, abridging, drawing neere, bringing narrow together.
Eſtreciſſon: f. A ſtreitneſſe, or ſtreit; a ſhrinke, pinch, contraction, abridgement.
Eſtreciſſure: f. as Eſtreciſſement.
Eſtrée: f. A houſe; an abiding, or place of abode.
Eſtreignement: m. A ſtraining, wringing, ſqueezing, faſt-griping, hard-holding, ſore-preſſing; cloſe thruſting vp together.
Eſtreiller. as Eſtriller.
Eſtreinct: m. cte: f. Strayned, wrung, ſqueezed, griped faſt; alſo, ſtreitned, pinched, ſhrunke vp, reſtrained; bound hard, kept faſt in; alſo, ſtrait, ſtrict, or cloſe.
Eſtreindre. To wring, ſtraine, ſqueeze; to ſtraiten, reſtraine, preſſe hard, thruſt vp cloſe together.
Eſtreindre les feſſes. To twindge in the buttockes, as one that's hard ſet, and muſt not yet goe to it.
Et plus gele et plus eſtreinct: Pro. The more it freezes the harder it growes.
Eſtreine: f. A New-yeares gift, or Preſent; alſo, a Handſell.
En bonne eſtreine. In good time, a Gods name, luckily may it be.
A bon iour bonne eſtreine: Prov. On ſo holie a day happie ſucceſſe betide vs (Sometimes vs alſo applyed (Ironically, and in a contrarie ſence) vnto one, that on a great day commits any grieuous offence) he hath handſelled the day fairely; or, faire betide him for his goodlie act on ſo godlie a day.
Eſtreiné: m. ée: f. Handſelled; that hath the handſell or firſt vſe of; alſo, beaten, ſwindged, cudgelled, or corrected.
Eſtreint: m. te: f. as Eſtreinct.
Eſtreinte: f. A ſtrayning, &c; as Eſtreignement; alſo, a ſtraine, gird, wring, narrow, or ſore pinch; alſo, a kind of ſiluer girdle, for women; or, as Eſtrainte.
Eſtreintif: m. A reſtringent and binding medicine, or plaiſter.
Eſtrelures. as Eſtrayers; alſo, eſcheatings.
Eſtrelin: m. An Eaſterling; one of the Eaſt parts, or of the Hanſe townes, of Germanie; alſo, a drunken huffe-ſnuff, ſwaggerer, waſh-buckler.
Eſtrelin: m. ine: f. (whence;) Livre Eſtrelin. A pound ſterling.
Eſtrene: f. as Eſtreine.
Eſtrené: m. ée: f. Handſelled; or, that hath had a New-yeares gift; alſo, cudgelled, ſwindged, corrected.
Eſtrener. To handſell, or beſtow a New-yeares gift on; alſo, to beat, ſwindge, cudgell, correct.
Eſtrette: f. A gird, pinch, nip, wrench, yerke, wring; alſo, a violent onſet on an enemie; alſo, a kind of puniſhment.
Eſtrez. A Croſſe of Gueules, (in Heraldrie.)
Eſtribort. The Starboord; or, the right ſide of a ſhip.
Eſtricqué: m. ée: f. Pranked, decked, neat, fine, ſpruce, trickt vp.
Eſtricquoyes. Iron Pinſers. (v.m.)
Eſtrié. A kind of bread, or paſte, of fine flower kneaded with water, white wine, the yolkes of egges, ſalt, and ſugar.
Eſtrié. Vn homme bien eſtrié. Soaked, drayned, drawne dry, by wenching.
Eſtrief: m. One of the three little bones that be ſeated far within the eare, and ſerue as inſtruments of hearing.
Eſtrier: m. A ſtirrup.
Alonger les eſtriers. To lengthen his (laſciuious) delight; or draw it out, and make it continue, as long as he can.
Eſtrier. To drayne, or draw dry; to ſoake, or draw liquor, ſap, iuice, &c, from.
Eſtrieu. as Eſtrier.
Eſtrif: m. Strife, debate, contention, diſcord; brabling, altercation.
Eſtrille: f. A horſe-combe, or curry-combe.
Vn manche d'eſtrille. A Dwarfe; the diminutiue of a man.
Eſtrillé: m. ée: f. Curried; alſo, bangd, thwacked, beaten, belaboured; alſo, thin, ſlender, gaunt, lanke.
Eſtriller. To currie (a horſe;) to rub ouer with a curry- combe, also, to lamme, cudgell, bang, thwacke, belabor, beat.

Cheval roigneux n'a cure qu' on l' eſtrille: Prov. The ſcabbed horſe cares not for currying.

Tel eſtrille fauveau qui puis le mord: Prov. The vngratefull iade bites him that does him good.

Eſtrilloir: m. That which is wrapped about thread, in winding, to keepe the fingers from being cut therewith. ¶Orleannois.

Eſtrindore. A kind of Brittiſh daunce. ¶Rab.

Eſtripé: m. ée: f. Vntriped, vnbowelled, with his guts, or bowels about his heeles.

Eſtriqué: m. ée: f. Pulled on, as a boot &c; alſo, as Eſtricqué.

Eſtriquer. To pull on boots, or boot-hoſe; alſo, to force a wild beaſt out of his denne, or out of thickets, into the plaine.

S'eſtriquer. To pranke, tricke, decke, or trimme vp himſelfe.

Eſtriver. To put foot into the ſtirrup; as, Il eſtrive trop; he puts his foot too farre into the ſtirrup; alſo, to ſtriue, debate, varie, contend, brawle, or brable with.

Eſtriveur: m. A ſcolder, brawler, brabler, contentious perſon.

Eſtriveux: m. euſe: f. Contentious, litigious, brabling, vnquiet, brawling, full of debate, euer wrangling with one or other.

Eſtriviere: f. A ſtirrup leather.

Bailler les eſtrivieres. To beat, or laſh, with a ſtirrup leather.

En diſant cela il donne des expouſſettes (que ie ne die des eſtrivieres) à l'autre; in ſaying that, he ſomewhat touches (perhaps be taxes) or, he lugs (if he laſh not) the other.

Eſtroicisſement: m. A contraction, ſtraitning, narrowing, reſtraining.

Eſtroict: m. A ſtrait of land betweene two hils, or of the ſea betweene two lands; and (more generally) any ſtrait, narrow place, or plot.

Mettre à l'eſtroict. To driue to a narrow ſtrait, or to an extremitie; to put vnto the pinch, or to his plunces.

Ranger à l'eſtroict. The ſame; or, as;

Tenir à l'eſtroict. To reſtraine, keepe ſhort, hold vnto hard meat, or conditions.

Eſtroict: m. ćte: f. Strait, narrow, cloſe; contracted, reſtrained; alſo, ſtrict, hard, pinching; rigorous, auſtere, ſeuere.

Large de bouche, & eſtroict de Ceincture; liberall of tongue, but ſparing in purſe.

Voila vn cheval qui eſt eſtroict, viz. Thats narrow before. ¶Pariſien.

Eſtroictement. Straitly, narrowly, cloſely, ſtrictly, hardly; auſterely, ſeuerely.

Eſtroiſſeur: f. Straitneſſe, narrowneſſe, contraction.

Eſtroiſſi: m. ie: f. as Eſtreci.

Eſtroiſſir. To ſtraiten, pinch, reſtraine, contract, make narrow or cloſe; hemme in.

Eſtroit. as Eſtroict.

Eſtron: m. A turd.

Eſtronçonné: m. ée: f. Trunked, or cut off by the trunke.

Eſtronçonner. To trunke, to cut off by the trunke.

Eſtropiat. Lame, criple, maymed, halting, wanting ſome principall member.

Eſtropié. Lamed, maymed, made criple.

Eſtropié de caboche, ou de ceruelle; frantick, witleſſe, braine-ſicke, braine-crackt.

Eſtropier. To mayme, lame, becriple, or make a criple.

Eſtrouble. as Eſtouble. Stuble.

Eſtrouſſe: f. An abſolute ſale, and deliuerie of a thing vnto him that offers the moſt for it.

Eſtrouſſé: m. ée: f. Vnpacked, vntruſſed; alſo, ſold outright, and deliuered to him that offers moſt.

Eſtrouſſer. To vntruſſe, vnpacke; vnty, or vndo a truſſe, or packe; alſo, to ſell, and deliuer a thing vnto him that offers, or giues, moſt for it.

Eſtude: f. A Studie; a priuate Cabinet or Cloſet to ſtudie in; alſo, ſtudie; diligent ſearch, muſing, meditation, beating of the braine about matters of learning; and (more generally) a care, diligence, labour, indeuour to compaſſe any matter; alſo, an affection, fancie, humor, deſire, appetite, good will, great mind, vnto.

Eſtudiant: m. A Student, a Scholler, one that followes his booke.

Eſtudie: f. as Eſtude.

Eſtudié: m. ée: f. Studied; muſed, meditated on, ſeriouſly thought of; alſo, indeuoured, laboured, diligently plied; alſo, affected, fancied.

Eſtudier. To ſtudie, muſe, meditate; beat the braines about; indeuour, labour, caſt how to get; ſe diligence in, bend the mind vnto, beſtow great care vpon; alſo, to affect, or fancie in the heart.

Eſturgeon: m. A Sturgion fiſh.

Peſcher des Eſturgeons en l'air. Seeke Peſcher.

Eſtuve: f. A Stoue; Hot-houſe, Hot-bath.

Eſtuvé: m. ée: f. Soaked, bathed, ſtued, waſhed in warme liquor.

Eſtuvée. Vne carpe à l'eſtuvée. A ſtued Carpe.

Eſtuvement: m. A ſoaking, bathing, ſtuing.

Eſtuver. To ſtue; ſoake, bathe; alſo, to warme.

S'eſtuver. To ſweat in a Hot-houſe; to waſh himſelfe in hot waters.

Quand vous avez ſi longuement demeuré à vous eſtuver, & crié à gorge rompue. When you haue ſtayed ſo long ſoaking in the raine, &c.

Eſtuves: f. Stewes; alſo, Stoues, or Hot-houſes.

Eſtuvier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Stewes, or Hot-houſe.

Eſtuy: m. A ſheath, caſe, or box to put things in; and (more particularly) a caſe of little inſtruments, as ſizzars, bodkin, pen-knife, &c, now commonly tearmed, an Ettwee.

Eſtuy d'eſcriptoire. A Pennar.

L'Eſtuy des grains. The huske, pill, hull, or hulling of corne.

L'Eſtuy d'un'Image. A Tabernacle, caſe, or couering for an Image.

Eſtuyé: m. ée: f. Sheathed, caſed; couered with, put into, ſhut vp in, a ſheath, or caſe.

Eſtuyer. To ſheath, caſe; couer with, put into, ſhut vp in, a ſheath, or caſe.

Eſtyrolle: f. The looſſeneſſe, and pilling, or clefts, of the ſkin about the root of the nayles.

Eſvachir. To flag; to ſlacken, or grow looſſe; and ratch, or ſtretch by looſſeneſſe.

Eſvaluer. To value, rate, prize, eſtimate.

Eſvanide: com. Feeble, weak, faint, of no force; withered, fruitleſſe, decayed, without vigor; ſtale, paſt the beſt.

Eſvanouï: m. ie: f. Vaniſhed; ſlipt out of ſight, gone on a ſuddaine; alſo, ſwooned, or in a traunce.

s'Eſvanouïr. To vaniſh; to ſlip out of ſight, be gone in a ſuddaine; alſo, to ſwoone, or fall into a traunce.

Eſvanouïſſement: m. A ſwooning; alſo, a vaniſhing out of ſight.

Eſvanouy. Vaniſhed; ſwooned, fallen into a traunce.

Eſ-

Eſvaſé. as Evaſé.
Eſvaſement: m. Spacioufneſſe, wideneſſe; an open and broad concauitie.
Eſvaſer. as Esbaſer; and as Evaſer.
Eſvaſure: f. An opening wide; a gaping, widening, or ſetting wide open; alſo, a hollowing, or inward ſloaping.
Esveillé: m. ée: f. Awaked, rowſed, raiſed out of ſleep; alſo, quicke, vigilant, watchfull, heedie, warie, carefull, induſtrious, diligent, wittie, readie to take hold of an aduantage.
Eſveillé & non eſveillé. Betweene ſleeping and waking.
Plus eſveillé qu' vn chat qu' on fouëtte. More nimble, or obſeruant then a cat with a whip at her breech.
Eſveiller. To waken, awake, rowſe, raiſe from ſleepe; alſo, to excite, or ſtirre vp.
Eſveiller le chat qui dort. To awake the ſleeping Lyon (ſay we;) Looke Chat.
Eſveilleur: m. An awaker, or waker; a rowſer, a raiſer from ſleepe.
Esvent: m. The vent of a wine veſſell.
Vin qui ſent l'eſvent. Wine that hath taken wind, or vnto which too much vent hath beene giuen.
Eſventail: m. as Eſventoir.
Eſventé. vn eſventé. A giddie, humorous, fantaſticall, hairebraind, raſh, vndiſcreet, light-headed fellow; one whoſe words are but wind; hence alſo, a boaſter, braggard, ſwaggerer.
Esventé: m. ée: f. Winded, tainted, mard with wind, that hath taken wind; windie; ſtale, out of ſeaſon, paſt the beſt; alſo, diſcouered, vented, found out; publiſhed, ſpred abroad; alſo, fanned, winnowed, aired, as with a fanne; cooled; or breathed with wind.
Esventelles. The ſailes of a wind-mill.
Esventement: m. A fanning, or winnowing; a giuing aire or wind vnto; alſo, a venting; or taking, or giuing, of wind; alſo, a publiſhing, or diſcouering.
Esventer. To fanne, or winnow; alſo, to puffe, blow, breath on; or yeeld wind; alſo, to deſcrie, diſcouer, vent, or find out; alſo, to diuulge, publiſh, or ſpread abroad.
s'Eſventer. To take vent, or wind.
Eſventeur: m. A fanner, or winnower of corne; alſo, a venter, or vent-giuer.
Eſventilé: m. ée: f. Fanned, winnowed; blowne, breathed on; whereunto wind is giuen.
Eſventiler. To fanne, winnow, blow, breath on; giue wind vnto.
Eſventoir: m. A fanne; flip-flap, flie-flap, or flabell, to gether wind, giue aire, or driue away flies.
Esventoire: f. as Eſventoir.
Eſventoiſe: f. A vent in caske, &c.
Eſveré: m. ée: f. Wormed, as a dog, &c.
Eſverer. To worme a dog, &c.
Eſveux: m. euſe: f. Wateriſh, full, of water.
Eſvier: m. A ſinke, or channell to void water by.
Eſviſagé: m. ée: f. Plucked by, or ſcratched on, the face.
Esviſager. To pull by, or ſcratch on, the face.
Eſule: f. The hearbe Eſula, Diuells-milke, Quacksalvers Turbith, Quacksaluers Spurge: (Apothecaries giue euerie kind of Tithymal, or Spurge, the name of Eſula: ¶Mathiolus.)
Eſule ronde. Pettie Spurge.
Eſvolé: m. ée: f. Shameleſſe, impudent, braſen-faced, ouer-bold; alſo, light, inconſtant, hare-braind, ſhittle-headed, ſhallow, that can keepe no counſell.
Faulcon eſvolé. A hawke that hath flowne away from ſome one or other; a taken-vp hawke.
Esvolement. Raſhly, ouer-boldly, ſhamelеſſly, impudently; lightly, inconſtantly; on a ſleight occaſion.
Esurial: m. ale: f. Faſting, meat forbearing.
Et. And, likewiſe, alſo, aſwell, both.
Et puis. Well then; what though; what of that; ſuppoſe, or, put the caſe it be ſo, Look Puis.
Eternel: m. elle: f. Eternall, euerlaſting, immortall, ontiuall, perpetuall, moſt durable, abiding, without end.
Eternellement. Eternally, immortally, euerlaſtingly, continually, perpetually, for euer, euermore, alwayes.
Eterni: m. ie: f. Throwne or ſtrucke downe, layed flat along.
Eternité: f. Eternitie, immortalitie, euerlaſtingneſſe, endleſſe continuance.
Eternizé: m. ée: f. Eternized, immortalized, perpetuated.
Eternizer. To eternize, perpetuate, immortalize.
Eteſies. Th'Eaſterlie winds which commonly blow in the Dog-dayes.
Eteſté: m. ée: f. Headleſſe; headed; topped, lopped.
Eteſtement: m. A heading; a topping, or lopping of trees.
Eteſter. To make headleſſe; to top, lop, or cut off all the branches of a tree.
Etheré: m. ée: f. Airie, of aire.
Ethologie: f. A morall; an Enterlude of a morall ſubiect, or wherein mens manners are acted, and expreſſed.
Etique: com. In a conſumption, meager, languiſhing.
Etiquet. A little note, breuiate, bill, or ticket; eſpecially ſuch a one, as is ſtucke vp on the gate of a Court, ſignifying the ſeiſure &c of an inheritance by order of iuſtice.
Etiqueté. Noted, titled, intitled; alſo, lodged by billet.
Etiqueter. To note, marke, or title a booke, bag, or bill, on the outſide, the better to remember, or conceiue on a ſuddaine, the ſubiect of it; alſo, to lodge by ticket, or billet, as Harbingers doe.
Etiqueter les teſmoings. To deliuer vnto a Iudge, Examiner, or Commiſſioner a breuiate, containing the witneſſes names, and the points whereon they are to be examined.
Etiquetier: m. A Harbinger.
Etiquette: f. A ticket faſtened within the mouth of a Lawyers booke-bag, and containing the titles of the bookes; and the names of them to whom they belong; any inſcription, ſuperſcription, title, note, or marke ſet on th'outſide of a thing, thereby to find it out the ſooner; alſo, a token, billet, or ticket, deliuered for the benefit, or aduantage of him that receiues it.
Beſongner à l'etiquette. To worke cloſe, hard, continually; or, to worke taske-worke.
Etirement. Looke Eſtirement.
Etiveler. To whiſtle, or whoope, as a hunter.
Etmoïde. Os Et. The bone whereof the top of the noſe is made.
Etrichoir: m. That which, in winding of thread, is (to ſaue the fingers) wrapped, or put about it: ¶Pariſien.
Ettiquet & Ettiqueter. as Etiquet; &, Etiqueter.
Ettâie; & Ettaier. Seeke Eſtaye; &, Ettayer.
Etymologie: f. Th'Etimologie; or true expoſition of words.
Etymologizer. To etimologize; to interpret, or expound words truely.
Evacuatif: m. iue: f. Euacuatiue; purgatiue.

Evacuation : f. An euacuation, voiding, emptying, purging.
Evacué : m. ée : f. Euacuated, voided, emptied; purged.
Evacuer. To euacuate, emptie, void; purge.
Evadé : m. ée : f. Euaded, escaped; slipped, passed, or got away without hurt.
Evader. To escape, euade, make an euasion, giue the slip, get away safely, passe without danger.
Evagation : f. A wandering, rouing, straying abroad; an vncertaine course of iourneying.
Evaguer. To wander, stray, roue, trauell vncertainly.
Evaluation : f. An eualuation, estimation, rating, prizing, valuing.
Evalué : m. ée : f. Valued, prized, esteemed, rated at.
Evaluer. To rate, prize, esteeme, value, set a prise on, consider of the worth of.
Evangile : m. The Gospell; good newes.
Evangelique : com. Euangelicall; of the Gospell, belonging to the Gospell.
Evangelisé : m. ée : f. Preached, as the Gospell.
Evangeliser. To preach the Gospell.
Evangeliser vn procez. c'est verifier la production, ou le rapport d'iceluy, sur les pieces, & productions des parties : ¶Ragueau.
Evangeliste : m. An Euangelist; a reporter, or bringer of good newes.
Les Evangelistes d'vn procez. Are two Counsellors, appointed by the Court as assistants vnto the reporter of a Proces: (Le Conseiller qui verifie le rapport d'vn proces, sur les pieces, & productions des parties; Et le Maistre des Comptes, qui tient les acquits du comptable, lors que l'Auditeur rapporte au Bureau, sont appellez Evangelistes: ¶Ragueau.)
Evanide. as Esvanide.
Evaporail : m. A hole, pipe, or place, to breath out at.
Evaporation : f. An euaporation, breathing, steaming.
Evaporé : m. ée : f. Euaporated, breathed out.
Evaporer. To euaporate; breath, or steame out.
Evaré : m. ée : f. Frightned, affrighted, scared.
Evarer. To frighten, scare, make afraid.
Evasé : m. ée : f. Wide open, wide spred, gaping wide.
Evasement : m. A wide opening, or wide spreading; also, the wide, open, and hollow circumference, or concauitie of a thing.
Evaser. To widen; to open wide; to gape, or set, wide open; also, as Esbaser.
Eucharistie : f. The Eucharist; the Sacrament of the bodie and bloud of Christ.
Eucharistique : com. Belonging to the Eucharist.
Iour Eucharistique. A Communion day.
Eudemon. Ones good Angell : ¶Rab.
Evé. The shrubbie hearb called, Wallwort, Danewort, and Dwarfe-Alder : ¶Langued.
Euë : f. Water.
Eué : m. ée : f. Watered, moistened, or mingled with water.
Evendiqué : m. ée : f. Claimed, or challenged; or recouered by claime, or challenge.
Evendiquer. To claime, or challenge; to recouer by claime, or challenge.
Evenement : m. An euent, successe, end, issue of a matter; also, aduenture, hope, chance, fortune, hazard; whence;
A tout evenement. Whatsoeuer come of it; howsoeuer it happen, what chance soeuer may follow.

Event : m. as Esvent; A vent.
Poulce & event. A thumbes breadth giuen betweene euerie ell in the measuring of cloth.
Eventation. A venting; also, the opening of a veine.
Eventé : m. ée : f. as Esventé.
Eventer. as Esventer.
Eventré : m. ée : f. Drawne, paunched, bowelled.
Eventrer. To draw, paunch, bowell; to pull the guts, or garbadge out of.
Euer. To water; to moisten, or mingle with water.
Everduné : m. ée : f. Whose freshnesse, or fresh taste (and sharpenesse) is decayed; also, drained of iuyce.
Everdumer. To wring, or squeeze the greene iuyce out of hearbs; to deprine of greenenesse, freshnesse, or sharpnesse.
Evergongné : m. ée : f. Shamelesse, impudent, immodest.
Everseur : m. A subuerter, ouerturner, ouerthrower.
Eversion : f. An euersion, subuerting, ouerthrow, ruine, ouerturning.
Everti : m. ie : f. Euerted, subuerted, ouerturned, ruined, ouerthrowne.
Evertir. To euert, subuert, ruine, ouerturne, or turne vpside-downe.
Evertisseur. as Everseur.
Evertuement. Lustily, effectually, with whole power, or vttermost indeuor.
s'Evertuer. To labour, striue, indeuor, trauell; inforce himselfe, vse his vtmost strength, in.
Evesché : f. A Bishopricke.
Evesque : m. A Bishop; A Prelate.
Evesque des champs. One that is hangd in chaines.
Les Trois Evesques. The name of a Parisian Colledge (built by three Bishops) wherein the kings Lectures be, at this day, read.
Debatre de la chappe à l'Evesque. Two to brabble about a thing that belongs to a third.
Devenir d'Evesque Aumosnier. To become of a Prelate a priuate man; to fall from a high, to a low, estate; (Many say rather, d'Evesque devenir Musnier; for which, Looke Musnier.)
Evesque d'or crosse de bois, crosse d'or Evesque de bois : Prov. as in Crosse.
Evesté. Marred, spoiled, ruined, vndone; (a word most vsed in east; and by the inhabitants of Blois.)
Eueux : m. euse : f. Waterish, waterie, full of water.
Euf. as Oeuf.
Eviction : f. An euiction, conuincement, or conuicting.
Evidemment. Euidently, plainely, cleerely, apparently, perspicuously, that all the world may see it.
Evidence : f. An euidence; a manifestation; cleerenesse, plainnesse, openesse, perspicuitie; apparentnesse.
Evident. Euident, perspicuous, cleere, apparent; manifest, plaine, open.
Evier : m. Seeke Esvier.
Eviere : f. An Ewer, or Lauer.
Evieux : m. euse : f. Waterish, waterie, full of water.
Terre evieuse. Sobbie earth, soyle full of springs.
Evig. Without : ¶Aleman. ¶Rab.
Evincé : m. ée : f. Euinced, euicted, conuinced, conuicted; ouercome by, ouerthrowne in, law.
Evincer. To euince, or euict; conuince, or conuict; ouercome by, ouerthrow in, law.
Evité : m. ée : f. Weakened, enfeebled, without strength, without force, without viger.
Eviscerć : m. ée : f. Drawne, bowelled, paunched.
Eviscerer. To bowell, paunch; draw out the bowells, or guts of.

Evitation. as Evitement.
Evité: m. ée: f. Auoyded, eschewed, shunned, shrunk from.
Evitement: m. An eschewing, voiding, auoiding, shunning.
Eviter. To auoid, eschew, shun, shrinke from.
Euloge: m. A praise, or benediction; also, a report made, or testimoniall giuen, of ones praise, or dispraise; also, an Epitaph, or superscription on a tombe; also, a Testament, or last will.
Evneuque: m. An Eunuch; a gelded man.
Evocation: f. An euocation; a withdrawing, pulling, or calling backe; a calling out, or forth; also, a calling before one by authoritie; a transferring, or remouing of causes vnto a higher Court by commaund of the Iudges thereof; a calling from one to another.
Evohe. The crie of madde men; or th'ordinarie acclamation of Bacchus his madde Priests: ¶Rab.
Evonyme. Spindle-tree, Pricke-timber tree.
Evoqué: m. ée: f. Called out, forth, backe, or away; withdrawne, transferred, remoued; called from one to another; also, assembled, or called together; also, summoned, or cited before.
Toute la force de la ville y fut evoquée. All the troupes in the towne were drawne together into that quarter.
Evoquer. To call out, forth, or away; to withdraw, remoue, transferre, call from one to another; also, to assemble, or call together; also, to call, commaund, or summon to come before a Iudge, &c.
Eupatoire: m. The hearbe called Agrimonie, and Liuerwort; Looke Aigremoine.
Eupatoire bastard. Bastard Agrimonie, water Agrimonie, water Hempe.
Euphorbe: m. The poisonous gummie Thistle Euphorbium; also, the causticke, and congealed sap, teare, or iuyce thereof, sold ordinarily in Apotheries shops by the name of, Euphorbium.
Euphraise: f. Eye-bright.
Euphrosine. Buglosse; also, as Euphraise.
Eur; &, Eureux. Looke Heur; &, Heureux.
Eustagues: f. Ropes in a ship called, the Ties.
Evulsion: f. An evulsion; a pulling vp; a drawing out; also, as (or mistaken, in Maison Rustique, for) Emulsion.
Euvre. as Oeuvre; A worke.
Exacerbation: f. An exasperating.
Exacerbé: m. ée: f. Exasperated.
s'Exacerber. To be exasperated, or verie angrie; to grow into great choller.
Exacté: m. ée: f. Exacted; extorted; extreamely dealt withall.
Exactement. Exactly, perfectly, fully well.
Exacter. To exact, extort, take th'vtmost of, deale extreamly with, take violently from.
Exacteur. An exacter, extortioner, hard dealer, mercilesse collector; seuere corrector; one that takes, or looks for, the vtmost, or extremitie of a debt, or dutie.
Exaction: f. Exaction, hard dealing, a taking th'vtmost or extremitie of a debt, or dutie.
Exaggeration: f. An exaggeration, or heaping together; also, an aggrauating, or adding of wrong vnto wrong.
Exaggeré: m. ée: f. Exaggerated; aggrauated; increased, amplified.
Exaggerer. To exaggerate, aggrauate, lay on load; adde heape vnto heape, or heape one on another; to augment, amplifie, increase.
Exagitation: f. An exagitation, stirring, tossing, hurrying, turmoiling, vexing, shaking vp.
Exagité: m. ée: f. Exagitated; vexed, disquieted, troubled; tossed, canuassed, hurried, turmoiled, shaken vp; also, debated, or discussed throughly.
Exagiter. To exagitate; vex, trouble, turmoile, disquiet; canuasse, tosse, hurrie, shake vp; also, to debate, or discusse throughly.
Exagone: com. Six-cornered.
Exaltation: f. An exaltation, or exalting; an extolling, high-raising, renowming.
Exaltation sainct-e Croix. Holy Rood day.
Exalté: m. ée: f. Exalted, high-raised, extolled, lift vp on high; magnified, renowmed, glorified, exceedingly commended.
Exalter. To exalt, extoll, raise high; renowme, glorifie, magnifie; commend exceedingly, lift vp vnto the skies.
Exalumineux. perles exalumineuses. Bright, shining, orient Pearles.
Examen: m. as Examination.
Examen à futur. A preexamination of witnesses, by Commission, before a suit be begun, or before the vsuall time, when it is begun, vpon doubt of their death, or absence, when they are sicklie, aged, or in imployment that necessarily will require their presence elsewhere.
Examinateur. An examiner, an inquisitor.
Examination: f. An examination, inquisition; search, inquirie after; discussion of.
Examiné: m. ée: f. Examined; searched into, inquired after; discussed, pondered.
Examiner. To examine; or minister interrogatories vnto; to search into, inquire after; discusse; weigh, ponder, thinke of.
Exangue: com. Bloudlesse; timerous, fearefull; pale, wanne.
Exanthemes. The small pocks; also, wheals, or pushes on the skinne.
Exarcat: m. The chiefe place of dignitie vnder the Emperour; the Lieutenancie of the Empire.
Exarche. A Vice-Emperour, or Lieutenant of the Empire.
Exasperation: f. An exasperation; prouocation, vrging, exasperating, vexing, bringing out of quiet.
Exasperé: m. ée: f. Exasperated; made rough, sharpe, harsh, angrie; aggrauated, incensed, prouoked, vrged vnto curstnesse, stirred vnto choller.
Exasperer. To exasperate; make sharpe, harsh, rough, or angrie; to aggrauate, prouoke, vex; incite vnto crueltie, vrge vnto curstnesse, whet vnto choller.
Exaulcé: m. ée: f. Exalted, extolled; also, heard perfectly, and to purpose.
Exaulcement: m. An exalting, extolling, magnifying; also, a perfect, and effectuall hearing.
Exaulcer. To exalt, magnifie, extoll, praise highly; also, to heare perfectly, and effectually; to lend a gentle eare vnto.
Exauthoration. A degradation, or disauthorizing.
Exauthoré: m. ée: f. Exauthorized, vnauthorized; put from, depriued of, authoritie.
Exauthorer. To exauthorize, or vnauthorize; to dispossesse of, or degrade from, authoritie.
Excalfactif: m. iue: f. Excalfactiue; heating, chafing, warming.
Excandescence: An inclination, or promptnesse vnto anger; an anger soone taken, soone come and gone.
Excavation: f. An excauation; a hollowing, a making hollow.
Excedé: m. ée: f. Exceeded, passed, gone beyond.
Exceder. To exceed, passe, go beyond.
Excellement. Excellently, exceedingly, notably, in the high- highest degree, passing well, most worthily.

Excellence: f. Excellencie, exceeding worth, prime worthinesse, principall goodnesse.

Excellent. Excellent; excelling in worth, exceeding in goodnesse, passing in value, surpassing in worthinesse.

Exceller. To excell; to surmount in worth, exced in worthinesse, passe in value, surpasse in goodnesse, all others.

Excentriqué: m. ée: f. Disclosed, laied open, brought forth, drawne out of.

Excentriquer. To disclose, lay open, bring forth, draw out of.

Excepté: m. ée: f. Excepted, reserued, forepriséd; restrained, limited; seperated from; also, besides, or, ouer and besides.

Excepter. To except, foreprize, reserue, take out of; restraine, limit; seperate, or diuide from.

Exception: f. An exception, reseruation, forepriſall, restraint, or clause that restraineth a generaltie; also (in Law) a stop, or stay vnto an Action; a Barre pleaded, or put in, by a defendant.

Excessif: m. iue: f. Excessiue, exceeding, vnmeasurable, immoderate, extreame; riotous, lauish, outlashing.

Excessivement. Excessiuely, immoderately, extreamely, too much, aboue measure.

Excessiveté: f. Excessiuenesse; extremitie, immoderatenesse, vnmeasurableneſſe.

Excez: m. Superfluitie, excesse, outlashing, intemperancie, riot, lauishing.

Excez de main non garnie. A thump, or blow giuen by a weaponlesse hand.

Exciper. as Excepter; Or, to put in an exception, or clause of assurance; to giue, or take securitie, or warrantise; to take bond, or be bound, for.

Excision: f. A wasting, destroying, razing, breaking downe.

Excitatif: m. iue: f. Exciting; rowsing, raising vp.

Excitation. An excitation, exciting, awaking; a rowsing, raising, or stirring vp.

Excité: m. ée: f. Excited, raised, rowsed, stirred vp.

Exciter. To excite, incite, stirre vp, raise, rowse; incourage vnto.

Exclamation: f. An exclamation, an outcrie, or crying out.

Exclamé. Exclaimed.

Exclamer. To exclaime, crie vnto, make an outcrie, to call alowd.

Excluant. Excluding, shutting out; reiecting.

Exclure. To exclude, shut out; reiect, refuse.

Exclus: m. use: f. Excluded, put or shut out.

Exclusе. A sluce, or pond head.

Exclusivement. Exclusiuely; debarring, or out-shutting, all others; also, outwardly, or, out of the compasse of; also, definitiuely, or without hope of appeale.

Exclusivement à tous autres. Absolutely his owne; wherein none else haue, or are to haue, ought to doe.

Excogité: m. ée: f. Excogitated; seriously thought, earnestly considered of; inuented, or found out by an earnest thinking; exactly, or studiously deuised.

Excogiter. To excogitate; seriously to thinke, earnestly to consider, intentiuely to studie of; also, to inuent by serious-thinking, deuise after an exact consideration, find out with earnest studie.

Excolé: m. ée: f. Garnished, decked, furnished, trimmed vp.

Excommange. An Excommunication.

Excommunié: m. ée: f. Excommunicated.

Excommunicement: m. as Excommange; Or, an excommunicating.

Excommunier. To excommunicate.

Excoriation. An excoriation, a flaying; or fretting the skinne off.

Excorié: m. ée: f. Excoriated, flayed; fretted, as the skinne.

Excorier. To excoriate, flay; pluck, strip, or fret the skin off.

Excortiquer. as Escorcer; To flay, pill, or pull off the rind from.

Excremens: m. Excrements; or, the purging of any part of the bodie; (hence) also, dregs, ordure, filth, or filthie euacuations.

Excrementeux: m. euse: f. Dreggie, filthie, full of excrements.

Excrescence. An excrescence; a superfluous, or vnnaturall growing out of a thing, as of a wart, wen, &c.

Excretion: f. The purging, or voiding of the superfluities, and excrements of the bodie.

Excroissance: f. An excrescence; a swelling, or shooting out beyond the parts about it; as in a bunch, knob, hulch, wheale, &c.

Excrucié: m. ée: f. Excruciated; tormented; extreamly vexed, or afflicted.

Excrucier. To excruciate; torment, vex, grieue, afflict extreamely.

Excusable: com. Excusable; that may be excused, thats worthie of excuse.

Excusation: f. An excusing, or excuse-making; some satisfaction giuen, or iustification alledged.

Excuse: f. An excuse; a colourable or tollerable answer, shift, helpe, auoidance, purgation, or satisfaction; and, in Law, an Essoine.

Elle a perdu son excuse. Said of a wanton widow, which gotten with child now wants a husband to father it on; or awed by that want, is afraid to eat her fill of the dish that she most affects.

Excusé: m. ée: f. Excused; essoined; tollerably answered, indifferently cleered, prettily well auoided.

Excuser. To excuse; colour; essoine; to answer tollerably, auoid prettily, shift off indifferently well, an obiection, charge, or imputation.

Ie ne me puis excuser de la mort, si. I cannot escape death, if.

Tel s'excuse qui s'accuse: Prov. Some when they meane to excuse, accuse, themselues.

Excuseur: m. An excuser, an essoiner.

Execrable: com. Execrable, accursed, abhominable, detestable.

Execration: f. An execration, cursing, horrible banning, or blasphemie, a wishing at the diuell.

Execré. as Execrable; Also, execrated, cursed, banned, abhorred.

Execrer. To execrate, curse, banne, abhorre, detest, wish at the diuell.

Executé: m. ée: f. Executed, acted, accomplished; put to death; distrained, or seised for a debt, &c.

Executer. To execute, performe, effect, act, accomplish, finish; to execute, or put to death; to distraine; seize, or leuie, for debt, &c.

Le mort execute le vif. The heire, &c, of a creditor may put an Obligor in execution; but not his heire; for all personall Executions end with the Obligor.

Executeur. An Executor, effecter, performer, accomplisher of what he hath in charge; also, the Executor of a Testament; also, an Executioner, or Hangman.

Sergent executeur. That distraines, or seizes a debtors goods, &c, in the behalfe of the creditor.

Execu-

Execution: f. An execution, act, performance; th'accomplishing, or doing of a thing giuen in charge; also, an Execution vpon a Iudgement, or for debt, &c.

Executoire: m. A writ of Execution; or, authoritie giuen by commission, to distrain, or seize a suitors goods, for costs of suit awarded; or for the fees due vnto the Court, or vnto his Counsell, &c.

Executoire: com. Executorie, executing, or importing an Execution.

Exemplaire: m. A patterne, sample, or sampler; an example, president, or precedent, for others to follow, or to take heed by; also, the copie, or counterpane of a writing.

Exemplairement. Exemplarily; for others to follow, or to take example by.

Exemple: m. An example, sample, patterne, or president to follow; a copie, or counterpane of a writing; one thing alledged to proue, or inforce, another that resembles it.

Exempt: m.pte: f. Exempt; freed, discharged, priuiledged; also, void of, without part in.

Exempté: m. ée: f. Exempted; priuiledged, freed from, discharged of.

Exempter. To exempt, free, discharge; acquit, release, from; to priuiledge.

Exemptible: com. Exemptible; loosse, free, quit, priuiledged; that may be remoued with ease.

Exemption: f. Exemption; freedome, immunitie, priuiledge, franchise, discharge, from.

Exenteré: m. ée: f. Drawn, paunched, bowelled, whose intralls are taken out.

Exenterer. To bowell, paunch, draw, pull out the intralls of.

Exequant. Finishing, performing, executing; also, prosecuting, pursuing; also, expressing, declaring.

Exeques. Funeralls, or funerall solemnities.

Exercé: m. ée: f. Exercised, vsed, practised; executed, managed, medled with.

Exercer. To vse, practise, exercise; to execute; handle, manage; to meddle with.

s'Exercer. To practise; to enure himselfe.

Exerceur: m. An exerciser, a practiser.

Exercice: m. Exercise; enurement, vse, practise; action, execution.

Estre en exercice. To wait; (as in alternatiue Offices, wherein attendance is to be giuen by turnes, or onely for a time.)

s'Exercitant. Exercising, vsing, practising, enuring himselfe.

Exercitation. An exercising, vsing, practising, enuring.

Exercité: m. ée: f. Exercised, vsed, practised; enured, stiled, much occupied, of good experience in.

Exercite: m. An hoast, or armie of men.

Exercité: m. ée: f. Exercised, practised in, vsed or enured vnto.

s'Exerciter. To exercise, practise, vse, enure himselfe, meddle or deale with, serue much.

Exfoliatif. trepane exfoliatif. That goes no further then the superficies of the skull.

Exfoliation d'os. An opening, or taking vp of th'onely superficies of a bone.

Exhalaison: f. as Exhalation.

Exhalation: f. An exhalation, fume, dampe, vapour arising from the earth.

Exhalé: m. ée: f. Exhaled, breathed forth, puffed out.

Exhaler. To exhale, breath forth, cast vp, puffe out, a fume, or vapour.

Exhaulsé: m. ée: f. Exalted, raised, mounted, aduanced.

Exhaulser. To exalt, mount, raise, aduance.

Exherbé: m. ée: f. Cleane weeded, grasseſſe, bared of grasse.

Exherber. To plucke vp, or weed out, hearbes, grasse, weedes.

Exheredation: f. A disinheriting.

Exheredé: m. ée: f. Dismherited.

Exhereder. To disherite, or disinherite, to deprine of the rights of inheritance.

Exhibé: m. ée: f. Exhibited; presented, offered, giuen; publickly shewed, or set forth.

Exhiber. To exhibit, offer, present; giue, deliuer; also, to shew, or set forth publickly; or as Exiber.

Exhibition: f. A presenting, offering, exhibiting; a gift, an exhibition; a shew, or setting forth.

Exhilaré: m. ée: f. Exhilerated, gladded, reioyced.

Exhilarer. To exhilerate, glad, reioyce, make frolick.

Exhorter. as Enhorter.

Exibé: m. ée: f. Exhibited, presented, shewed, or layed out vnto view; also, offered, miniſtred, brought in.

Exiber. To exhibit, shew, present, lay out vnto view; also, to offer, minister, bestow, bring in, things necessarie.

Exigence: f. Exigence, necessitie, extremitie.

Selon l'exigence du cas. According to the need of the businesse, euen as the case requireth.

Exiguer. To redeliuer, or giue vp a beast kept vnto halues; or to part the profit that hath bene made, or increase that hath come, thereof.

Exil: m. An exile, banishment, relegation.

Exilé: m. ée: f. Exiled, banished, relegated.

Exile: com. Exile, slender, thinne, fine, small; worthlesse, of little value.

Exilement: m. A banishing, an exilement.

Exilement de pais. The dispeopling of a countrey.

Exiler. To exile, to banish; or, as Exuler.

Exiler vn pays. To destroy, depopulate, make desolate, a countrey.

Eximé: m. ée: f. Leane, drained, drawne drie; also, exempted, freed, discharged from.

Eximer. To exempt, free, discharge, deliuer from; also, as Esimer.

Exinané: m. ée: f. Emptied, euacuated.

Exinanition: f. An emptinesse, an euacuation.

Existimé. as Estimé.

Exitial: m. ale: f. Banefull, deadlie, destruction-bringing.

Exiture: f. An egresse, issue, departing, or going forth; also, a ripe impostume.

Exoine: m. An Essoine; or excuse; a discharge of, or tolleration for, absence, vpon a lawfull cause alledged; a delay in Court, vpõ an Atturneys oath, or affirmation, that one of the parties is sicke, or not able to trauell; also, as Exoniateur.

Exoiné: m. ée: f. Essoined; excused, or borne with (although absent, or not appearing) by reason of sickneſſe, or some other lawfull impediment, alledged, or deposed, by another.

Exoineur: m. An Essoiner; or, as Exoniateur.

Exoinié: m. ée: f. as Exoiné.

Exolution: f. A faintneſſe, or looſſeneſſe in all parts of the bodie.

Exoniateur: m. An Essoiner; an Atturney, &c, who sufficiently excuses th'absence of another, by swearing, or affirming, that he is sicke, or not able to appeare.

Exonié: m. ée: f. Essoined; or excused; as Exoiné; or, as

as Essoyné; also, saued harmelesse.
Exonier. To essoine; to excuse one from appearing in Court, or going to the warres, by oath, that he is impotent, insufficient, sicke, or otherwise necessarily imployed; also, to saue harmelesse; Looke Essoyner.
Exorable: com. Exorable; fit, or easie, to be intreated.
Exorbitant. Exorbitant; monstrous, irregular, enormous, exceeding great.
Exorcisme: m. An exorcisme, or exorcising, a coniuring, an adiuring.
Exorciste: m. An Exorcist; or, Coniurer.
Exorde: m. An exordium, beginning, entrance, vnto.
Exostose. A swelling of the bones.
Exotique: com. Strange, forreine, outlandish: ¶Rab.
Expatriation: f. A banishment, absence, or being, out of his owne countrey.
Expatrié: m. ée: f. From home, banished, absent from, or out of, his owne countrey.
Expectatif: m. iue: f. Expectatiue, expecting.
Expectation: f. An expectation, attending, longing, looking for.
Expectative. as Expectation. son Expectative.
Benefices conferez en expectative. In reuersion, or expectance; or, which must be waited for.
Expedié: m. ée: f. Dispatched, performed, finished, expedited, rid out of the way.
Oeuvre expedié. Such a setting of pillers, &c, against a wall, as makes them, a farre off, seeme part of it, although, indeed, they touch it not.
Expedient: m. A helpe, fit meanes, deuice, tricke, shift, euasion, to auoid a mischiefe, or compasse any matter; & (particularly) a proposition, course, or meanes of agreement, to preuent further suit, or charge in suit.
Expedient. Expedient, fit, behouefull; needfull, necessarie.
Expedier. To expedite, atchieue, dispatch, performe, goe through with, hasten to an end, rid out of the way.
Expeditif: m. iue: f. Quicke, speedie, expeditiue, prompt, readie, ridding, dispatching, soone atchieuing.
Expedition: f. Expedition, riddance, dispatch of; also, an expedition, voyage, Action, warlike enterprise.
Prendre expedition. Looke Prendre.
La chose sera de longue expedition. Will be long a doing.
Experience: f. Experience; cunning, skill, knowledge, wisedome, gotten by much practise, and many trialls.
Experiment: m. A triall, proofe, experiment.
Experimenté. Tried, proued, experimented; also, as Expert; of good experience.
Experimenter. To experiment, prooue, assay, trie; attempt.
Expert. Expert, skilfull, cunning, well seene, much experienced in things.
Expertise: f. Expertnesse, cunning, skilfulnesse.
Expiation: f. An expiation, purgation, satisfaction.
Expiatoire: com. Purging, satisfying, sacrificing for.
Expié: m. ée: f. Expiated; purged by sacrifice, &c.
Expier. To expiate; to purge, or cleanse by sacrifice; to make amends, or satisfaction for.
Expilé: m. ée: f. Pilled, fleeced, robbed, extorted vpon.
Expiré: m. ée: f. Expired; breathed out, passed, or vanished, as a breath; dead, perished; determined, ended, finished.
Expirer. To expire; to die, perish, breath out his last; to passe away, as a breath, or vapor; to determine, end, finish.
Explanade: f. A plaine passage, euen path, easie way.
Explanadé: m. ée: f. Plained, planed, leuelled.
Explanader. To plaine, plane, leuell.
Explaner. To expound, expresse, explaine, make plaine; declare, manifest.
Explaudé. Publickly exploded; disgraced, or driuen away with hissing, or clapping of the hands.
Explauder. as Exploder.
Expletif: m. iue: f. Filling, making vp; fullfilling, perfecting.
Expletivement. Fillingly, compleatly, perfectly.
Explication: f. An explication, vnfolding, explanation, exposition, interpretation.
Expliqué: m. ée: f. Explicated, vnfolded, explained, interpreted, expounded.
Expliquer. To explicate, vnfold, explaine, interpret, expound.
Expliqueur: m. An explicator, vnfolder, explainer, interpreter, expounder.
Exploder. To explode; publickly to disgrace, or driue out, by hissing, or clapping of hands.
Exploict: m. An exploit; act, action, deed, worke, execution, dispatch, atchieuement, matter performed; also, an adiournement, or Citation; also, an Execution of, or vpon, a Iudgement; and a seisure by vertue thereof; also, the possession, vse, holding, or enioying, of a thing.
Exploict de Cour: C'est vne expedition de cause par defaut, ou congé, ou Congé defaut, selon la qualité d'icelle, au profit de celuy qui compare à l'audience, contre le defaillant.
Exploict libellé. See Libellé.
Exploict de Sergent. The warrant which hee hath for, also, the report, or returne he makes of, an Adiournment, Arrest, Execution, or seisure of person or goods, ordered by the Court.
Les derniers exploicts, & actes de possession. Looke Acte.
Exploictable: com. Seisable; liable vnto an Execution, or to seisure; also, as Exploitable.
Exploictation de biens. An Execution against goods; or a seisure of them by the King, a Court, or Landlord.
Exploicté: m. ée: f. Dispatched, exploicted, acted, executed, done, performed; also, seised, or taken by Execution; entred vpon, by a Lord; also, possessed, vsed, enioyed.
C'est bien exploicté à toy. You take great care of, or make great hast in, the matter sure; (Ironically.)
Exploicter. To exploit; performe, dispatch; act, execute, atchieue; also, to seise; enter vpon; put in execution; also, to hold, enioy, possesse, vse.
Exploicter chemin. To make hast, goe fast, rid way apace.
Exploicter le fief à pure perte. Looke Perte.
Exploicter le vassal. A Lord to enter on, and take the fruits of, his vassalls land.
A mal exploicter bien escrit: Pro. A faire pretence for a foule act; good words after euill deeds.
Exploicteur: m. An acter, atchieuer, executer, performer, dispatcher, doer of an exploit; also, as Sergent exploicteur.
Exploicteur. Acting, performing, executing; seruing an Execution vpon.
Sergent exploicteur. Th'ordinarie Sergeant, or Messenger of a Court, for Seisures, Executions, &c.
Exploit. Seeke Exploict.
Exploitable: com. Exploitable, dispatchable, riddable, readie to be performed, easie to be done; also, as Exploictable.
Exploiter. as Exploicter.

Explo-

Explorateur: m. An explorator, eſpiall, ſcowt, priuie ſearcher.

Exploration: f. An exploration, ſearch, or tryall by ſearch.

Exploré: m. ée: f. Searched, or proued by ſearch; looked farre into.

Explorer. To explore, ſpie, ſearch or looke farre, into; to proue, or trie, by ſearching.

Expoliateur: m. A ſpoyler, robber, bereauer, or depriuer.

Expolié: m ée: f. Diſpoyled, robbed, bereaued, or depriued of.

Expolier. To ſpoyle, diſpoyle, rob, depriue, bereaue, of.

Expoly: m. ye: f. Poliſhed, ſmoothed, ſleeked, burniſhed; cleanlie, neat, fine, trimme, polite.

Exponce. as Eſponce. A lawfull quitting, leauing, or forſaking of the poſſeſſion of land, &c.

Exponction. as Exponce.

Expolé: m. ée: f. Expoſed, ſet out, put or layed open to; a faire marke for; alſo, expounded, interpreted, explained.

Enfant expoſé. An outcaſt, or vnknowne child, that hath beene left in the fields, or at ſome doore.

Expoſer. To expoſe, lay out, put or ſet open to; alſo, to expound, interpret, explaine.

Expoſeur: m. An expoſer; an expounder, interpreter, explainer.

Expoſition: f. An expoſition, interpretation, explanation.

Expres: m. eſſe: f. Expreſſe, ſpeciall; of purpoſe; direct; manifeſt.

Par expres; & tout expres. Expreſly, ſpecially, purpoſely; namely, chiefely; directly; ſeriouſly.

Expreſsement. as Par expres.

Expreſſion: f. An expreſſion; preſſing, ſtraining, wringing, thruſting, ſqueezing hard together.

Les expreſsions. A great motion and deſire, but little or no power, to purge downewards.

Exprimé: m. ée: f. Expreſſed, ſhewed, declared, vttered, pronounced, ſignified; expounded, or tranſlated.

Eſtoit il aſſez exprimé de paroles? Could more haue beene ſaid to that purpoſe? were there not words ynow ſpent in the matter?

Exprimer. To expreſſe, declare, ſhew, ſignifie; vtter, pronounce; alſo, to expound, or tranſlate.

Exprobation: f. An exprobation; vpbraiding, reproaching, twitting in the teeth; laying in the diſh of.

Exproprié: m. ée: f. Expropriated; put from the proprietie of, depriued of all proprietie in.

Expugnable: com. Expugnable, pregnable, which may be forced, or won by force.

Expugnateur: m. An expugner, forcer, ſubduer, ouerthrower of townes, &c.

Expugnation: f. An expugnation, forcing, ſubduing, ouerthrowing of townes by violence.

Expugné: m. ée: f. Expugned, forced, won by aſſault, ouercome with violence.

Expugner. To expugne; force, breake open, or into by violence; win by aſſault; vanquiſh, conquer, ouercome.

Expulſé: m. ée: f. Expulſed, expelled; thruſt, or chaced out, by force.

Expulſer. To expulſe, expell; driue, chace, or thruſt out.

Expulſeur: m. An expulſer, an expeller.

Expulſion. An expulſion, or expelling; a forcible putting, or driuing forth.

Exquis: m. iſe: f. Exquiſite, exact, excellent, perfect; curious, daintie, choice, picked.

Exquiſement. Exquiſitely, exactly, excellently, perfectly, throughly; choicely; daintily, curiouſly.

Exſiccatif: m. iue: f. Exſiccatiue; of a drying propertie.

Exſiccation: f. A drineſſe, or drying vp of.

Extaſe: f. An extaſie; or trance; a rauiſhment, or tranſportation of the ſpirit, by paſſion, &c.

Extatique: com. In a trance, in a ſwoone, in an extaſie; in an extreame paſſion.

Extenſeur: m. An extender, drawer, ſtretcher out at length.

Extenſible. Extenſible; which may be extended, or drawne out in length.

Extenſion. An extenſion, or extending; a wreſting, wiredrawing, drawing, or ſtretching out; alſo, a kind of crampe; (extenſion des nerfs.)

Extenſion de la loy. A wreſting, ſtrayning, large expoſition, or far-fetcht interpretation, of the Law.

Les trois extenſions. The three meaſures; length, breadth, and depth.

Extention. as Extenſion.

Extenuation: f. An extenuation, or extenuating; a leſſening, impairing, diminution.

Extenué: m. ée: f. Extenuated; made ſlender, or thin; leſſened, impaired, much waſted, or decayed; fallen away, growne leane, pulled downe; looking verie thin on it.

Extenuer. To extenuate; make ſlender, or thin; to leſſen, diminiſh, impaire; waſt or decay much; pull down, make leane.

Exterieur: m. eure: f. Exterior, outward.

Exterieureté: f. Exterioritie, outwardneſſe; the ſuperficies, outſide, or vpper part.

Exteriorité: f. as Exterieureté.

Exterminant. Exterminating.

Exterminateur: m. An exterminator, baniſher; deſtroyer.

Extermination: f. An extermination, or exterminating; a caſting, or driuing forth; a ruining, or deſtroying (thereby.)

Exterminé: m. ée: f. Exterminated; driuen forth, caſt out, chaced away; & ruined, vndone, deſtroyed (thereby.)

Exterminer. To exterminate, caſt out, chace forth, driue away; to ruine, vndoe, deſtroy (by baniſhment.)

Extinction: f. An extinction, extinguiſhment, extinguiſhing; an vtter ſtinting, or putting out; an aboliſhing.

Extipiscine: f. Diuination, or ſouthſaying by th'inſpection of the intralls of beaſts: ¶Rab.

Extirpation: f. An extirpation, rooting out, or plucking vp by the roots.

Extirpé: m. ée: f. Extirpated, rooted out.

Extirper. To extirpate; root out, or plucke vp by the root.

Extiture: f. An apparance, a ſhew, or ſtanding forth.

Extorqué: m. ée: f. Extorted; wreſted from.

Extorquer. To extort, exact, wreſt from by force, take away by violence.

Extorqueur: m. An extorter, exacter, violent dealer.

Extorsion: f. Extortion, exaction; a violent wringing, or wreſting of things from others.

Extraction: f. An extraction, iſſue, deriuall, originall, drawing from.

De noble extraction. Verie well diſcended, or bred; come of a noble ſtocke, a great houſe, a worthie ſtraine.

Extraict: m. cte: f. Extracted, drawne, derined, iſſuing or comming from; alſo, taken from by force.

Extraict: m. An extract, breuiate, abridgement, ſum- ſummarie collection, or draught out of; alſo, the right of ſucceſſion in the goods of inteſtate baſtards.

Extraire: m. as Extraict; or, as Eſtrayere.

Extraire. To draw, write, or copie out; to abridge, reduce into a brieſe, or make a ſhort collection of, the principall points in a matter.

Extrait: m. as Extraict.

Extrajudiciaire: com. Extraiudiciall; done out of Court.

Extraïures. as Eſtrayeres.

Extraneiſer. To chace, driue, or baniſh into a forreine countrey: ¶Rab.

Extraordinaire: com. Extraordinarie, vnwoonted, vnuſuall, out of cuſtome, againſt the common, faſhion.

Offices extraordinaires, s'entendent ceux des finances, Aides, tailles, & des greniers à ſel, à la difference de ceux de la Iuſtice ordinaire, & du Domaine: ¶Code Henry.

Vn procez extraordinaire. A criminall action, or ſuit.

Extraordinairement. Extraordinarily; vnwoontedly, vnuſually, out of common order.

Extravagance: f. An extrauagancie; an idle digreſſion; a giddie, vnſteadie, fantaſticall action.

Extravagant. Extrauagant; idle, aſtray, out of the way.

Extravagation: f. as Extravagance; Or, an extrauagation, or extrauagating; an idle digreſſing, vaine raunging, fantaſticall gadding out of the way.

Extravagué: m. ée: f. Extrauagated, idly digreſſed, vainely raunged, gone, in a humor, out of the way; alſo, extrauagant, wandering, digreſſing.

Extravaguer. To extrauagate; roame, raunge, wander, erre in a humour, digreſſe from the purpoſe, or matter; ſtray, or gad, fantaſtically out of the way.

Extrayeur de procez. A Reporter, or Abridger, of Caſes; a breuiate-maker.

Extrême: com. Extreame; worſt, furtheſt from a meane, or from goodneſſe; exceeding ill; alſo, the laſt, or vttermoſt.

Extremement. Extreamely, in extreames; moſt badly, moſt violently; beyond meaſure, without order.

Extremité: f. The extremitie; end, or top; hemme, skirt, edge, brinke, brimme, or border; th'vtmoſt peece, laſt part, furtheſt point, of a thing; alſo, an extremitie; vice, or violence.

Extrinſeque: com. Extrinſecall; outward, from without, on the outſide.

Extrinſequement. Extrinſecally, outwardly.

Extumeſcence: f. An extumeſcence; a ſwelling, a riſing vp.

Exture. as Extiture.

Exuberance: f. Exuberancie; ſwelling, abundance, great plentie, or fruitfulneſſe, exceeding ſtore, of.

Exuberant. Exuberant; plenteous, abundant, ſwelling with ſtore of fruit.

Exuberer. To abound, be plentifull, ſwell with ſtore of fruit, beare in great abundance.

Exulceration: f. An exulceration; an eating into, or a raſing of, the skin, or fleſh, by a fretting humor.

Exulceratoire: com. Exulceratorie; exulcerating; skinne-breaking, bliſter-raiſing, making ſore, eating into the fleſh.

Exulceré: m. ée: f. Exulcerated; galled, fretted, or eaten into, as the skinne, or fleſh; alſo, exaſperated, filled with rancor.

Exulcerer. To exulcerate; or make vlcerous; to gall, fret, breake, or eat into, the skinne, or fleſh; alſo, to vex, exaſperate, corrupt, or fill with rancor.

Exuler. as Exiler; Or, to be baniſhed; or, to liue in exile.

Exultation: f. Exultation, great glee, much gladneſſe, triumphing, leaping for ioy.

Exuperance: f. Paſſing ſtore, great abundance; as Exuberance.

Exuſtion: f. An exuſtion; parching, or burning.

F

FAbagine: f. Judas tree; the kind of tree whereon (tis thought) he hanged himſelfe.

Fabal. le fa: de febues. The chaffe, hulls, or ſhalings of beanes; the cleanſing of beanes.

Fable: f. A fable, fib, lie, leaſing, falſe tale, vnlikelie thing reported; alſo, a Comedie, or Enterlude.

Fabloyer. To tell tales, talke idly, prate fooliſhly; to fable, to fib it.

Fabre: f. A forge; a ſmithie.

Fabregue: f. An odoriferous garden hearbe, which put, and kept in a veſſell full of water thriues exceedingly.

Fabric: m. as Fabrice.

Fabricateur: m. A Fabricator, framer, builder, maker, forger; inuenter, deuiſer.

Fabrication: f. A fabrication; framing, building, making, forging.

Fabricque; &, Fabricquer. as Fabrique, &c.

Fabrice: f. The fabricke; reparation, or maintenance of a Pariſh Church; alſo, the ſtate, or eſtate of the Pariſh it ſelfe.

Fabricier: m. A Churchwarden; or an Officer, that lookes to the fabricke, reparation, or maintenance of a Pariſh Church; the chiefe Officer of a Pariſh, and he that in publicke meetings repreſents it.

Fabril: m. ile: f. Fabrile; of ſtone, or timber; of, or belonging to the craft of a Smith, Maſon, or Carpenter.

Fabrique: f. A fabricke; a worke; frame, or building; alſo, the Art of making, framing, or building; alſo, the fabricke, facture, framing, or forging of things.

Fabrique d'vn' Eſgliſe. The fabricke, raparation, or maintenance of a Church; alſo, the reuenew, or affairs thereof; alſo, th' Officers that haue the ſame in charge.

Fabriqué: m. ée: f. Fabricated, framed; built, forged, made; plotted, inuented, contriued, deuiſed.

Fabriquer. To fabricate; frame; build, make, forge; faſhion, forme; plot, inuent, contriue, deuiſe.

Fabriqueur. as Fabricier.

Fabuleux: m. euſe: f. Lying, fained, fabulous, full of fables.

Fabuliſte: m. A fabler, a fibber, an ordinarie teller of fibs, or fables.

Fabuloſité: f. Fabulouſneſſe; th'inuention of lyes, tales, fables, or fained reports.

Façade: f. The foreſront, forepart, outſide, or repreſentation of the outſide, of a houſe.

Maiſon qui a belle façade. A faire, goodlie, ſeemelie, ſtatelie houſe, or front of a houſe.

Façadé. Maiſon façadé. Whoſe foreſront, or outſide is pourtrayed; alſo, of a goodlie forme, faire outſide, beautifull front.

Face: f. A face; viſage; looke, cheere, countenance; alſo, the forme, figure, proportion, ſhew, repreſentation, reſemblance; (alſo, the) ſuperficies, vpper ſide, outward part, or ſide of; alſo, a Feſſe, in Blazon.

Face

Face d' Abbé. A red, or illumined face; a fierie facies.
La face de l' architrave. The face of a (pillers) Architraue; a large fillet, or bend, that commonly, makes a fift part thereof.
De prime face. At the first; at first sight; as soone as euer I saw him.
Facé. Fessed, or barred; a tearme of Herauldrie.
Faccie. as Facetie.
Facendes: f. Businesse, doings, affaires, dealings in matters, trafficking, and plotting one with another.
Facet: m. A Primmer, or Grammer for a yong scholler.
Facetie: f. Wittie mirth, a merrie conceit, a prettie incounter in speech.
Facetieusement. Merrily, conceitedly, wittily, pleasantly.
Facetieux: m. euse: f. Facetious; merrily conceited, wittily pleasant.
Faciate: f. A forepart, or foresront.
Faciendaire: m. An Agent, or Negociator; one thats imployed in a businesse, or made th' instrument of effecting it, for another.
Faciendes: f. Looke Facendes.
Facile: com. Easie, facile, eeth, prone; gentle, gracious, tractable, pliable, soone pleased, quickly intreated.
Plus facile recompense. A recõpence sooner come by.
Facilement. Easily, with good facilitie, with little stirre, with small trouble, with no great adoe; also, lightly, quickly, readily; gently, pliably, tractably.
Facilité: f. Facilitie, easinesse; procliuitie, pliableness, aptnesse, promptnesse, readinesse; lenitie, courtesie, gentleness, good nature.
Facilité: m. ée: f. Facilitated, made easie.
Faciliter. To facilitate, or make easie.
Façon: f. The fashion; forme; outward frame, or shape; a making, proportion, workemanship; manner, behauior, order; custome, guise, wont.
Les façons de la femme en la vigne. A womans worke in a vineyard, (is twofold; the binding of the plants, or yong shutes vnto their poles; and the ridding them of their superfluous, or noisome sprigs.)
Les façons des terres labourables. As many seuerall breakings, or turnings vp, as the seed that is to be lodged in them requires.
Les façons de la vigne. Are foure; la taille; le houage; le binage; & le terçage; (For which looke in their seuerall places.)
C'est vn homme qui a ses façons. The man is a little humorous, or fantastical.
Il a toutes ses façons. He is fully prouided of, throughly furnished with, all things he hath need of; he hath all that he should haue; he hath his full due; also;
Il luy a baillé toutes ses façons. He hath coursed him soundly, hamperd him throughly, paied him home; he forbore him not, he dallied not with him; he gaue him his due.
Le livre est de sa façon. Is right of his phrase, or stile.
Il trouva façon de faire cela. He found a meanes to doe that.
Façond: m. de: f. Eloquent, well spoken, of a gracefull vtterance, of a fineer deliuerie.
Faconde: f. Eloquence, readie vtterance, gracefull speaking, sweet deliuerie.
Facondement. Eloquently.
Façonné: m. ée: f. Fashioned, formed, figured, proportioned, shaped, made, framed; also, mannered, behaued.
Façonnement: m. A fashioning; forming, figuring, proportioning, shaping, outward making, or framing.

Façonner. To fashion; forme, figure, proportion, shape, make, or frame (th' outside of;) also, to accommodate, adapt, or make fit for.
Se façonner à. To applie, or conforme himselfe, vnto.
Façonnier: m. A cloth-worker.
Facque: m. as Faquin.
Facque: f. A little pocket, or pouch.
Facteur: m. A factor; an Agent; a dealer for another.
Aujourd'hy facteur demain facteur: Prov. To day a Banker, to morrow a bankrupt.
Facteure: f. Facture, workemanship.
Factieux. Factious, seditious, troublesome, contentious.
Faction: f. A faction, or sect; a side, or partie, diuided, or dissenting, from others; also, a mutinous companie, turbulent crue, seditious troupe; also, an enterprise, action, or matter in action.
Factionnaire: com. Factious, mutinous, turbulent, seditious, much giuen to sects, or siding.
Factiste: m. A maker, a Play-maker, a Poet that writes Comedies, &c.
Factorerie: f. as Facturerie.
Facture: f. The facture, workemanship, framing, making of a thing; also, a factorship; or, the dutie, and charge of a factor.
Lettres de facture. Bills of lading.
Facturerie: A Factorie; a house for factors to trade, and abide in.
Faculté: f. Facultie; leaue, licence; aptnesse, readinesse; power, abilitie; occasion, force, opportunitie.
Facultez. Wealth, substance, riches, possessions, goods.
Fadas. as Fat; Sottish, foolish.
Fade: com. Vnsauorie, tastlesse, wallowish, waterish; weake, faint; witlesse.
Fadement. Vnsauorily, tastlesly; also, weakely, faintly; foolishly.
Fadese: f. Tastlesnesse, want of sauor, wallowishnesse, weaknesse, waterishnesse in tast.
Fadeses. Follies, toyes, trifles, fopperies, fooleries, gulleries.
Fadeseries. as Fadeses.
Fadeur: f. as Fadese.
Fadoche. The name of a certaine peare.
Fadrin: m. The Maisters mate in a ship; in a gallie, the Officer that rules the slaues.
Fafelu: m. uë: f. Puffed vp; fat cheeked; a chops.
Faffelu: m. uë: f. as Fafelu.
Fafiloches: f. Rauellings of linnen, or cloth.
Fagot: m. A fagot; a bundle of stickes.
Les tripes du fagot. The smallest stickes of the fagot.
Fagotage: m. A heaping together, a trussing vp in bundles; fagot-making.
Fagoté: m. ée: f. Made into fagots; tied, or trusse vp in bundles, or fagots; huddled, or clapped vp together.
Fagoter. To make fagots; to tie, or trusse vp in bundles or fagots; to huddle, or clap vp together.
Fagoteur: m. A fagot-maker.
Fagoteur de tabus. A contentious person: ¶Rab.
Fagouë: f. A certaine kernell vnder the kannell bone (in men slender, thicke in beasts) also, the fag-peece, or kernellie part, next vnto the necke, of a Boare.
Fagoule: f. A Grit, grampell, pungar; ¶Marseil.
Faguenat: m. A filthie rammish smell.
Fagule: f. The Crab-fish tearmed, a Pungar.
Faict: m. A fact, act, action, worke; deed; a feat, pranke, part; performance, atchieuement, exploit; also, an allegation, proposition, argument, or article, in pleading.

Le faict fort. The full price of the farme of moneyes; or the full rate of seigneuriage (agreed to vpon the farming thereof) yeelded vnto the King by the Maister of the Mint, whether he haue made any money, or no.

Les faicts nouveaux. Looke Nouveau.

Faict à faict que ie l' escris. As fast as I writ it.

`A faict, &, de faict. Seriously, throughly, roundly, in good earnest, vnto purpose, indeed.

De faict aduisé, ou de faict à pensé. Aduisedly, wittingly, willingly, of purpose, to his knowledge, with his full consent.

Tout à faict. Throughly, wholly, altogether.

Par voye de faict. By force, or violence.

Il fait bien son petit faict. He manageth discreetly his meane estate; or, by his diligence he improues, by his forecast he increases, the little he hath.

Faire son propre faict de. Looke Faire.

Du dire au faict y a grand traict: Prov. There is great difference betweene words, and deeds; we haue an old, and triuiall rime somewhat to this purpose; Saying, and doing end both with a letter; saying is good, but doing is better.

Faict: m. faicte: f. Done, acted, made, wrought, forged, composed, framed; fashioned; performed, exploited; atchieued, compaßed; finished, accomplished.

Faict au hola. Dutifull, obsequious, readie, comming at a becke, running at one call.

Faict à i'en veux. chaperon faict &c. A bold, swaggering, and lasciuious queane.

Faict à la vieille mode. Seeke Vieil.

C' est faict de moy. I am vtterly ruined, ouerthrown, vndone.

C' en est faict. The matter is alreadie passed, dispatched, finished, at an end.

Cinq mille de nombre faict. Full fiue thousand.

Ie suis faict tout au rebours de vous. I am of a contrarie humor, or opinion; I thinke, or iudge otherwise then you.

C' est vn papelard tout faict. He is a ranke dissembler, a notable counterfeit, a verie hypocrite.

Son proces est faict. He is alreadie conuicted, and condemned.

Teste bien faicte. A well-bred spirit; a learned, and discreet headpeece.

Cela vault faict; or, la chose vault faicte. The matter is welnigh dispatched, or, as good as done.

Bien faict n'est iamais perdu: Prov. One seldome looses by a good deeds doing.

Toutesfois est faict ce qu' enuis ont faict: Prov. Though gainst their wills they did it, yet tis done.

Faictis: m. istie: f. Made according to, framed after the likenesse, forged vnto the resemblance, of, another; also, neat, feat, comelie, handsome, proper, well made, well featured, well set together.

Faictissement. Neatly, handsomely, featly, trimly, fitly, gaily, exactly, quaintly, with much comelinesse.

Faicture: f. as Facture.

Faillance: f. A defection, failing; decaying.

Faille: f. The (round and out-bearing) vaile worne by Nunnes, and widowes of the better sort; also, a faile, misse, fault, or default; and hence;

Sans faille. Certainly, assuredly, without doubt; also, without missing of a iot, of a bit, of a haire, &c.

Failli: m. ie: f. Failed, slipped, erred, missed, mistaken; offended, gone astray, done amisse; also, imperfect, waning; fainting; decayed, extreamly weakned; also, deceiued, or disappointed; also, ended, surceased, left off; also, broken, or, out at heeles, as a bankrupt.

`A iour failli. At darke night, whē day was euen done.

Encore n' a pas failli qui a à ruer: Pro. He hath not misst that hath one throw to cast; or, he hath not yet misst that hath once to throw.

Faillir. To faile; slip, slide; erre, misse; mistake, misunderstand; offend, goe astray, doe amisse; also, to omit; lacke, want; also, to quaile, decay, fade; faint, or tire; also, to deceiue, or disappoint; also, to surcease, leaue, end.

Faillir par le bec. To want words; or, to faile for want of words.

Faillir de promesse. To breake promise, to go from his word.

Faillir au style. To commit an errour in pleading, or in his plea.

Il faillit à. He was welnigh, or verie neere; he had like to haue.

Il faillit belle. He had a faire scape.

Il n' est si bon qui ne faille: Prov. The best men haue their faults, the honestest their errors.

Les plus sages faillent souvent en beau chemin: Prov. The skilfullest are often deceiued in ordinarie matters.

Faillite: f. A failing, as of corne, &c, in an vnseasonable yeare; a deceiuing, disappointing; decaying wasting; fainting.

Faire faillite. To breake, or fall bankrupt.

Faire faillite à. To couzen, deceiue, disappoint; breake his word with; frustrate th' expectation of.

Payer ses creanciers en faillites. To pay his creditors in papers.

Faillon. (Dieu Colas faillon.) as Compagnon: ¶Lorrain. ¶Rab.

Faim: f. Hunger; a great appetite, or exceeding stomacke, vnto meat; and hence, an exceeding desire of, or great longing after, any thing; also, dearth, famine, extreame want of victuals.

Manger avec vne faim de biscuit. Looke Biscuit.

La faim chasse le loup hors du bois: Prov. Hunger driues the wolfe out of the wood.

`A la faim il n'y a point de mauvais pain: Prov. To him thats hungrie any bread seemes good; we say, hungrie dogs loue durtie puddings.

Fainct: m. cte: f. Fained, deuised, forged, adulterated, counterfeited, supposed; false, dissembled, seeming other then it is; Looke Feinct.

Oeuvres fainctes. Things in Masonrie so ioyned vnto a wall, that the halfe, or part of them beares out, the rest being fastened, or supposed to be, within it.

Faindre. To faine, forge, dissemble; See Feindre.

Faine: m. A Beech-tree.

Faine: f. Beech-mast, or Buck-mast; the fruit of the Beech-tree.

Faineance: f. as Faineantise.

Faineant: m. An idle, drowsie, lither, sloth-full luske; a heartlesse loytrer, a lazie fellow; one thats without wit, without vertue, without spirit; a droane, a dullard, a house-done; also, a lewd companion, loose fellow.

Faineantise: f. Idlenes, lazines, loitring, slothfulnes, lithernes; drowsines; faintheartednes, heartlesnes; dulnes.

Fainin: m. A kind of coyne.

Faintement. Falsly, faintly, fainedly, fabulously, counterfeitly, with much dissembling.

Faintise: f. Dissembling, hypocrisie, fayning, cogging, counterfeiting, forging, foisting; a false pretence, or colour.

Faire. To do, act, exploit, performe, effect, commit, work; to cause, make, forme, forge, compose, frame, giue a being, or fashion vnto; also, to counterfeit, resemble, imitate; also, to be; as Faire chaud, froid, beu temps; &c.

Faire

Faire les affres à. To fright, ſcare, affright, affray.
Faire aiguade. To water, or take freſh water into ſhips.
Faire ambezatz. To caſt aumes-ace; Look Ambezatz.
Faire armes. To fight; alſo, to fight valiantly.
Faire l'aſne. To play th'Aſſe; and particularly in a kind of card-play, to looſe a double ſtake, by looſing a game which he vndertooke to win.
Faire la babaye; ou, la babou. Scoffingly to gape, or make a mouth at.
Faire la banniere. Il fait la ban: Said of a theeuiſh Tailor, who in cutting out a garment makes ouer-large ſhreds.
Faire barbe. To aſſemble together in troups, as bees do, before, or about, the doors of their hiues, when they purpoſe to ſeeke out a new lodging; a phraſe in vſe among the countrey people of Languedoc.
Faire la barbe à vn. To barbe one; alſo, to withſtand, beard, or braue him to his teeth.
Faire barbe de foarre à. To contemne, ſcorne; couſen, delude; abuſe.
Faire barriere à. To ſtop; raile, or hemme in; alſo, to backe; ſhrowd, or ſhield.
Faire de tout bois fleches. To make vſe of anything that comes in his way.
Il ne ſçait plus de quel bois faire fleches. He knows no longer what to doe, nor whither to betake him.
Faire bon pour. To anſwer, vndertake, or giue his word for; alſo, to play the game of.
Faire vn faux bond. Looke Bond.
Faire la bouche à. To inſtruct one, or giue him his leſſon, beforehand.
Faire la petite bouche. To mince, or ſimper it; to make it goodly; to ſtand on nice tearmes; Looke Bouche.
Faire bourre voler. To play at tenis; or, as in Bourre.
Faire vn bringue à. To drinke vnto.
Faire la buée. To lay, or waſh, a bucke.
Faire la cavalcade. To courſe vp and downe on horſe-backe.
Faire de cent ſous quatre. To bring a noble to ninepence; to conſume a great ſumme quickly.
Faire vne chambre. To dreſſe vp a chamber.
Faire vne charruë de Regnards. To ſpend the time in moſt trifling imployments.
Faire les cheveux à. To powle, barbe, trim.
Faire ſes choux gras de. Greatly to inrich, or improue his eſtate by.
Faire le contre. To ſecond, or helpe forward; or as in Muſicke, to beare a burden, or ſing the plain ſong whereon another deſcants; alſo, at a card-play to hold, or vndertake, the game, as well as another.
Faire corvée. To doe a thing vnwillingly; or onely of duetie, without any hope of recompence.
Faire d'autruy cuir large courroye. To cut a wide ſleeue out of anothers cloth; to ſpend freely on another mans purſe.
Faire la cuiſine. To dreſſe meat, as a Cooke in a Kitchin; or to dreſſe vp a Kitchin.
Faire la culbute. To play the tumbler, to flie top ouer taile.
Faire le demy ſault. To caper on a paire of gallowes.
Faire le deſſus. To domineere, to ſignorize it; alſo, to hold, or ſing a treble part.
Faire d'vn Diable deux. To make an ill thing worſe by ſtriuing to amend it.
Faire le Diable de vauvert. To play reaks; to keep an old coile, a horrible ſtirre; to make a hurlyburly.
Faire ſes diligences. Looke Diligence.

Faire la dotmeveille. To counterfeit-ſleepe, to make as though he were aſleepe.
Faire eau. To leake; alſo, to take in freſh water.
Faire de l'entend-trois. To anſwer from the purpoſe, as though he vnderſtood not, or as one that will not vnderſtand, what was demaunded.
Faire envers (quelqu'vn.) To deale with, to be a meanes vnto.
Faire l'eſcole buiſſonniere. To play the truant; to lurke among buſhes when he ſhould be at his booke.
Faire l'eſcroue d'vn priſonnier. To write his name in the Goalers booke.
Faire eſpaule à. To helpe, aſſiſt, backe, ſupport, ſecond, giue ſuccour vnto.
Faire eſtat de. To purpoſe, or make account; alſo, to vſe, or make a practiſe of.
Faire l'eſtat de. To execute, or enioy th'Office, or place of another.
Faire l'eſtat de ſa maiſon. To ſettle, or ſet downe an order in; to looke into, or take a view of, the eſtate of his familie.
Faire ſon eſtat. To do his dutie; to execute, or exerciſe his Office; to performe whats fit for one of his calling, or place.
Faire le faict, & le desfaict. To doe and vndoe; to weaue Penelopes web.
Faire ſon propre faict de. To manage a buſineſſe as well, or take as great care of it, as if it were his owne.
Faire faillite. To breake, or fall bankrupt.
Faire faillite à. To deceiue, diſappoint, faile, breake with; alſo, to offend, or treſpas againſt.
Faire faire. To cauſe, procure, or force to be done; faire faire ſes cheveux. To get himſelfe powled.
Faire faucée. To pierce, breake through, runne in vpon, runne through.
Faire faute à. To faile, or forſake.
Faire ferme. To ſtand faſt; or, to make a ſtand; alſo, to ſtop, or make to ſtand.
Faire feſte à. Looke Feſte.
Faire feſte de. To reioyce at, or ioy in; alſo, to brag, boaſt, be proud, make much, of.
Faire fin. To finiſh, conclude, end; alſo, to thriue, cheeue, proſper.
Faire le fin. To make it daintie, ſeeme ſtrange where he would be bold, refuſe a thing he would be inuited to take.
Faire finance. To giue money for an Office; alſo, to gather a ſtocke of money.
Faire folie. To play the wanton, tread her ſhooe awry.
Faire force. To indeuor, ſtriue, inforce himſelfe.
Faire force de. Looke Force.
Faire les forces. A horſe to hold his mouth open, and often turne his chaps from one ſide to another.
Faire foy de. To giue credit vnto.
Faire vne fraſque à. To gull, couſen, coniecatch, put a tricke vpon.
Faire fredon ſur fredon. To vſe many nice, or curious tricks one vpon the necke of another.
Faire la fringue. To iet, brag, ſpruce it, wantonnize it.
Faire les fruicts fiens. Looke Fruict.
Faire gambades à la terre. To hang on a gallowes; or in chaines.
Faire gille. To flie, eſcape, giue the ſlip.
Faire glane. To gleane after reapers. Looke Glane.
Faire gloire. To take pride in.
Faire du grobis. To grow proud, or take a ſurlie ſtate vpon him.
Faire le groin. To powt, lowre, gruntle, or grow ſullen.

Faire vne groſſe grauité. To be ſurlie, or take much ſtate vpon him.
Faire de guedon guedon. To make it goodlie, ſeeme loath; or, ſay nay and take it, as maides (that would be no maids) doe; See Guedon.
Faire le guet. To watch, to keepe watch.
Faire le guet à Montfaucon. To be hanged.
Faire le guet au temps. To obſerue narrowly the change of ſeaſons, courſe of the ſtarres, reuolutions of the skies; to affect, or ſtudie for, weather-wiſedome; alſo, to let ſlip no aduantage that the time offers, or affoords.
Faire gros hahay. To make a huge ſtirre, or mightie ſlaughter.
Faire halte. To ſtop, ſtay, make a ſtand.
Faire haut le bois. To drinke for the heauens; alſo, ſoldiers, aduancing their pikes, to ſtop, or make a ſtand.
Faire du herr. To play the maiſter; to take more vpon him then he ſhould doe; Looke Herr.
Faire le hola. To ſtop, ſtay, bid ſtand.
Faire hon de la teſte. To ſeeme loath, or ſhew himſelfe vnwilling, to do a thing.
Faire iambes de vin. To drinke hard when he is readie to take a iourney.
Faire ſelon la jambe le coup; as;
Faire ſelon la jambe le pied. To cut his coat according to his cloth; or, to doe things proportionably.
Faire la jambette. A horſe to goe, or manage, on three legs, and gracefully hold vp the fourth.
Faire iarret. See Iarret.
Faire le ject. In a ſtorme to caſt ouerboord the loding of a ſhip.
Faire ioug à. To yeeld, or ſubmit himſelfe vnto.
Faire jour. Day to breake, or appeare; Looke Iour.
Faire jour à. To make way vnto.
Faire jour en. To paſſe, or pierce through & through.
Faire du lard. To liue idly, fare daintily, grow fat with eaſe, pleaſure, and good cheere.
Faire largeſſe. Princes to throw money among the people; See Largeſſe.
Faire largue. To make roome, giue place, leaue ſpace ynough.
Faire la lexiue. To waſh the bucke.
Faire lictiere de. To ſcorne, contemne, abaſe, tread, or pull vnder foot; to abuſe, violate, prophane.
Faire lignade. To take firewood into a ſhip.
Faire le lime ſourde. To make as though hee heard not, or cared not, what were ſpoken.
Faire de liperquam. To ſhew his authoritie to be abſolute, to take verie much vpon him.
Faire le logis à. To prouide, prepare, or take vp, a lodging, for.
Faire le long. See Long.
Faire longue. Il ne la fera longue en ce monde. He is no man of this world, hee cannot liue any long time.
Faire le loup à la carriere. See Loup.
Faire le loup plus grand qu'il n'eſt. To report, or imagine, a miſchiefe greater then it is.
Faire la lype. To pout, ſell ſauce, hang the lip.
Faire la maille bonne de. To warrant, make good, anſwer, or vndertake for.
Faire main baſſe. To put all vnto the ſword.
Faire main forte à. To ioyne ſtrongly with.
Faire main miſe. To ſeiſe vpon; See Main miſe.
Faire ſa main. To inrich himſelfe, or feather his neſt by priſes taken, purchaſes gotten.
Faire d'vne main l'autre. To applie one thing vnto diuers vſes; or after the vſe of it one way to imploy it another.
Faire mal de: (mon coeur luy fait mal. Ils me veulent faire mal de vous.) To fall out with; to hate, loath, deteſt, wiſh ill vnto; Looke Mal.
Faire vn marc. Looke Marc.
Faire le mauvais. To cracke, brag, ſwagger, keepe a ſtinking ſturre.
Faire mine. To ſeeme, or make a ſhew of.
Faire des mines. Looke Mine.
Faire la mine. To lowt, or lowre vpon.
Faire les mines. To act it, or play on a ſtage.
Faire bonne mine. Looke Mine.
Faire bonne mine, & mauvais ieu. To ſet a good face on a bad matter.
Faire le mitou. To diſſemble, play the hypocrite; to looke humbly, poorely, ſimply, ſowrely on it.
Faire la morgue. To looke ſadly, grauely, ſeuerely, auſterely.
Faire mort. On le faiſoit mort. They gaue him out for dead.
Faire la mouë aux harengieres. To be ſet on the pillorie.
Faire vn nez de Cire à. Looke Nez, or Cire.
Faire la nique. To mocke, by nodding of the head, or lifting vp of the chin; or, to bid a fig for &c.; as in Nique.
Faire ſa nuict. (When a man ſells vp his houſhold-ſtuffe, they ſay (in ſome parts of France) Il fait ſa nuict.
Faire de ſes oeufs poules. To count his chickens before they be hatched.
Faire l'oreille ſourde. To giue no eare, nor heed vnto, to be deafe of that eare.
Faire leurs orges. To ſpeed exceeding well; to make a good market, or their mouthes vp to the full.
Faire de tel pain ſoupes. Looke Soupe.
Faire le Palais. To plead, or argue at the Barre.
Faire du pall-allant. To ſtaulke, or ſtrout it; to march with a ſtatelie gate.
Faire la part au plus eſloingné; ou, au plus ieune. To part and chuſe; or to allot one but a ſmall part, but a poore ſhare out of.
Faire vn faux pas. To ſlip, miſſe his footing; erre, miſtake.
Faire les Paſques. To receiue the Sacrament.
Faire la patrouille. To be driuen to linger, and ſpend his time idly, as one thats forced to watch.
Faire vn peigne. To flie, auoid, giue the ſlip.
Faire vn pertuis dedans vn trou. To be idle, or buſie about nothing.
Faire le pet à. To bid a fart for.
Faire vn pet. To let a fart.
Faire le petit. To humble himſelfe; or vſe many courteſies; alſo, to pretend great inſufficiencie; or take verie little vpon him.
Faire le petit pain. To liue necrely, to play the nigard.
Faire ſes petits. To whelpe, kittle, kindle, farrow, &c; breed little ones, bring forth yong ones.
Faire le pied de veau. To make an vnlowardlie, or clowniſh leg; or, to vſe a fooliſh lifting vp of the leg in dauncing, &c.
Faire pieds neufs. To caſt his hoofes, as a horſe; to be deliuered of child, as a woman.
Faire de pierres pain. To make vſe of any thing; to turne to his aduantage, or applie vnto his purpoſe, any matter whatſoeuer.
Faire la pirouëtte. To whirle, or turne often about.
Faire du plaie. To talke, babble, or prattle much; to keepe

keepe an old coyle, a fil tongue.
Faire planche à. Lo
Faire de ſon poing v to be ignorant of the put himſelfe, or his vn
Faire la poule. To p
Faire pourquoy, &
ſhall be no cauſe why.
Faire le precedent.
ſitting.
Faire le preſtre Mar
both Prieſt, and Clark
Faire le procez à. To Faire le quant à mo
ſelfe; alſo, to ſeeme da
ous tearmes.
Faire quartier neuf, to riue, or cleaue from
Faire quartier à par
Faire la queuë. To d to play the coward, or are a dealing.
Faire quinaut. To p
Faire la quine à. Sc
ger.
Faire quinquenelle,
Faire race. To get ch race of horſes, dogs, & Faire ſa rafe. To get ſes, and thereby feathe
Faire vne raffle. To before him; See Raffle Faire rage. To be ve wonders, to keepe a gr
Faire de ſon Ramin
See Raminagrobis.
Faire le Regnard. T a danger approches, o
the manner; alſo, to p
Faire de renvois. Lo
Faire ſa reſte à. To ſt
ly, deale roughly with Faire le Roland. To
Faire la ronde. To w
Faire la roüe. To tur
Faire à quelqu'un
one what he ſhall ſpea
Faire le ſaut. To bre
leape, or be turned o
ſaut; in Franchir.
Faire le ſaut de la
uie.
Faire ſcalle. To land
mount, or goe vp vnto
Faire Séeſſion. To Faire le ſenaud. To a rich man to make ſ
Faire la ſentinelle.
Faire ſerment. To t
Faire la ſerpente.
out.
Faire ſoleil. Il fait ſence this Verbe is n
they ſay not, Il fait L
Faire ſtoques. Look
Faire le ſucré. To fri his ſinne.

keepe an old coyle, a filthie ſtirre, a ſcurvie adoe with his tongue.

Faire planche à. Looke Planche.

Faire de ſon poing vn maillet. To make hard ſhift, or to be ignorant of the right vſe of things; or, ſottiſhly to put himſelfe, or his vnto ouer-rude vſes.

Faire la poule. To play the coward.

Faire pourquoy, & ne fera pourquoy; and there ſhall be no cauſe why. ¶Rab.

Faire le precedent. To ſit firſt, or to come firſt vnto a ſitting.

Faire le preſtre Martin. To anſwer himſelfe; to play both Prieſt, and Clarke.

Faire le procez à. To indite, or arraigne.

Faire le quant à moy. To be well conceited of himſelfe; alſo, to ſeeme daintie, or ſtand on nice, and curious tearmes.

Faire quartier neuf, ou faux-quartier. A horſes hooſe to riue, or cleaue from the top to the bottome.

Faire quartier à part. See Quartier.

Faire la queuë. To drag, or come behind the reſt; alſo, to play the coward, or be in the rereward when blowes are a dealing.

Faire quinaut. To poſe, or driue to a Nonplus.

Faire la quine à. Scoffingly to point at with the finger.

Faire quinquenelle. To fall bankrupt; to breake.

Faire race. To get children; alſo, to breed, or begin a race of horſes, dogs, &c.

Faire ſa rafe. To get many purchaſes, to take many priſes, and thereby feather his neaſt, or fatten his purſe.

Faire vne raffle. To ſweepe, or ſnatch vp all that is before him; See Raffle.

Faire rage. To be very briefe, or very buſie; to worke wonders, to keepe a great coyle, a ſtinking ſtirre.

Faire de ſon Raminagrobis. To counterfeit grauitie; See Raminagrobis.

Faire le Regnard. To ſlinke away, to ſlip aſide, when a danger approches, or any likelihood of being taken in the manner; alſo, to play the truant.

Faire de renvois. Looke Renvoy.

Faire ſa reſte à. To ſpeake roundly vnto, handle rudely, deale roughly with.

Faire le Roland. To ſwagger; Looke Roland.

Faire la ronde. To walke, or goe the round.

Faire la rouë. To turne, or wheele about; See Rouë.

Faire à quelqu'un ſon roulet. To prompt, or appoint one what he ſhall ſpeake.

Faire le ſaut. To breake, or turne bankrupt; alſo, to leape, or be turned off a ladder; alſo, as Franchir le ſaut; in Franchir.

Faire le ſaut de la carpe. To turne ouer topſie turuie.

Faire ſcalle. To land, ſet foot on land; alſo, to aſcend, mount, or goe vp vnto.

Faire Séeſſion. To breake, to fall bankrupt.

Faire le ſenaud. To play the knaue; alſo, to miche it, or a rich man to make ſhew of powertie.

Faire la ſentinelle. To ſtand Sentinell.

Faire ſerment. To take his oath.

Faire la ſerpente. To wriggle, writhe, wind in and out.

Faire ſoleil. Il fait ſoleil. The Sunne ſhines; in which ſence this Verbe is not ſo neerely ioyned to Lune; for they ſay not, Il fait Lune; but, Il fait cler de Lune.

Faire ſtoques. Looke Stoques.

Faire le ſucré. To frig, to wriggle; to commit Diogenes his ſinne.

Faire la ſuccrée. To mince it, or make it goodlie.

Faire ſon temps. To lead his life, to paſſe his time, Il a fait ſon temps; he is growne old, or out of date.

Faire tenir vne choſe à. To ſend, or conuey a thing.

Faire de la terre le foſſé. To diſpoſe of his owne at his owne pleaſure; Looke Foſſé.

Faire teſte à. To reſiſt, or withſtand.

Faire tin; Looke Tin.

Faire le tour du labyrinthe. To returne, after much turning, into the way he firſt tooke; or to deale with a perplexed, intricate, and endleſſe buſineſſe.

Faire tout ſous ſoy. (a child) to beray himſelfe.

Faire trembler le lard au charnier. To ſwagger extreamely, threaten horribly, to vſe big, or bugs words; (Ironically.) ¶Rab.

Faire vn trou à la nuict; Looke Trou.

Faire la veille. To watch, keepe watch; liſten, or looke about him while others are aſleepe.

Faire bon ventre. To looſſen, or ſoften the bellie, to make ſoluble.

Faire verſure. To make ſhift in the world; or as in Verſure.

Faire viſage de bois à. To ſhut the dore againſt; to exclude, or ſhut without dore.

Faire le voiage de Baviere. To get, or trauell for, the Pox.

Faire voile. To ſet ſayle, to make out to ſea.

Faire voile en Levant. To ſayle Eaſtward; to be ſtolne, or pilfered away.

Faire voile à tout vent. Inconſtantly to follow all faſhions, adhere to euerie faction, profeſſe any religion thats in vſe, authoritie, or ſway.

Faire les yeux. To winke, or twinkle with the eyes.

Faire les doux yeux. To make it goodlie, counterfeit ciuilitie or modeſtie, ſeeme coy; alſo, to winke, or ſmile pretily with the eyes; alſo, to be betweene ſleeping and waking, or ſeeme to ſleepe and ſee nothing.

Faire les doux yeux à. To play at boe-peepe; or to winke laſciuiouſly, to looke flatteringly, or pitifully, at one, thereby to get ſomewhat.

Se faire; whence, Se faire tous les iours en meilleur poinct. To battle, or to grow fatter and fairer euerie day then other.

Se faire honneur. To win, or gaine honour; to procure to himſelfe great honour.

Se faire tenir. To be luſtie, play the gallant, take vpon him, doe whatſoeuer he liſt.

S'en faire accroire. Looke Accroire.

S'en faire fort. To depend, rely, build, or be bold, on; to make ſure account, or full reckoning, of.

Se laiſſer faire au clerc. To let the Clarke take his pleaſure of her, or doe with her what he will.

A que faire? To what purpoſe, to what end?

Auſſi ne feray ie. So will I not, or no more I will.

Ce fais mon. So I doe indeed, or, ſo I doe, ſo I doe.

Cela ne fait rien. It boots, or anailes, not; it makes no matter.

Cela ſe faiſoit au temps iadis. That was the old faſhion; or, thats at this day cleane out of faſhion.

Ie n'ay que faire à luy. I haue no buſineſſe, no traffick, no commerce, with him.

Ie n'en ay que faire. It touches, or concernes, not me; I weigh it not, I care not for it.

Il fait bien ſon petit faict. Looke Faict.

Il me fait mal de luy. I am ſorrie for him.

Il ne s'en fait que mocquer. He doth but mocke them.

Les faiſoit moult bon voir. They were very well worth worth looking on, it was a passing goodlie sight to behold them.

Le diable vous en feroit bien mal trouver. The diuel were in't if you should not be well withall; or, you must needs be well withall I trow.

Mon autre mari ne me faisoit pas ainsi. My other husband vsed me otherwise.

Se peut il faire? is it possible? can it be?

Avoir fort à faire à. To be extreamely pestered with, or busied about.

Bailler fort à faire à. To imploy much, taske hard, lay many businesses vpon, put vnto toyle enough.

Estre à tout faire. To be for all purposes, be fit for all vses, be readie for any thing he is put vnto.

Fais ce que tu dois, advienne ce que pourra: Pro. Doe thou thy dutie happen what hap may.

Il fait assez qui fait faire: Pro. He doeth hurt, or good enough, that makes it to be done.

Mal fait qui ne parfait: Pro. Ill does he that all does not; discontinuance of worke dishonours the workeman.

Tel fait la faulte qu'un autre boit: Prov. One doth the scathe, and another hath the scorne.

Tel fait le mieux qu'il peut qui ne fait chose qui vaille: Prov. Some doe their best, and yet doe nothing well; or, some though they doe their best doe nothing well.

Assez dort qui rien ne fait: Prov. As good one sleepe as be idle and doe nothing.

Bien dire fait rire, bien faire fait taire: Pro. Good words breed laughter, good deeds admiration.

De ce que tu pourras faire iamais n'attens autruy: Pro. For that which thou canst doe thy selfe rely not on another.

Entre dire & faire il y a grand adire: Prov. Betweene saying and doing there is great difference.

Il faut acheter Maison faicte, & femme à faire: Pro. Looke Femme.

Il ne sçait rien qui ne veut bien faire: Pro. He nothing knowes that will not do his dutie; or, vaine is the skill thats without vertue.

La fin fait tout: Prov. The end proues all; or, is all in all.

Qui bien fera bien trouvera: Prov. Well thriues he that does well; or he that does well cheeues well.

Fais: m. A bundle, fardle, packe, bunch of; also, any heauie load, charge, burthen.

Faisable: com. Feasible, doeable, effectable, makeable, which may be performed, acted, or done.

Faisan: m. A Phesant.

Faisan bruyant. The great blacke Moore-cocke; or, as Coq de bois.

Faisances. as Corvées. ¶Norm.

Faisandé: m. ée: f. Mortified, made tender, and (thereby) as daintie as a Phesant.

Faisander. To mortifie fowle, &c; to make it tender, by hanging it vp, or (otherwise) keeping it some while after it is killed.

Faisanne: f. A Phesant-henne.

Faisanneau: m. A Phesant-poot, a yong Phesant.

Faisannier: m. A keeper, or breeder of Phesants.

Faisant. as Faisan.

Faisant. Acting, doing, exploiting, effecting; making, causing, forging, framing, &c.

Faisceau: m. A little bundle, or fardle; a packet; a small bunch, or sheaue; a handfull of.

Faiseur: m. A doer, actor, performer; maker, causer, forger, framer, worker, composer.

Faiseur d'oeuvre blanche. as Taillandier.

Grands vanteurs petis faiseurs: Prov. Great promisers weake performers.

Faisible: com. Feasible, makeable, effectable, doeable.

Faisseau. as Faisceau.

Faisselle: f. A Chesford, or Cheesefat, of wicker; or of earth, pierced in the bottome to let out the whay when the cheese receiues it forme.

Faisser. as Enfaisser.

Faissine: f. A bundle, or faggot.

Faist. as Faiste.

Faiste: m. The top, height, ridge, roose of; also, the better end of a peece of cloth.

Par le fin faiste. Strictly, straitly, vnto the vtmost, to a haire.

Faistiere. A ridge-tyle, Creast-tile, Roose-tile.

Fait. See Faict.

Faitard: m. de: f. Sluggish, drowsie, lazie, slothfull, idle, negligent; also, cowardlie, faint-hearted; slow, dull, by lazinesse.

Faitardement. Slothfully, drowsily, lazily, sluggishly; also, faint-heartedly.

Faitardise: f. Sloth, sluggishnesse, idlenesse, drowsinesse, lazinesse, negligence; also, dulnes, or faint-heartednesse (bred thereby.)

Faitifs. as Faictis.

Faitis. The same.

Faitissé. as Faictis.

Faitneantise: f. Idlenesse, lazinesse; faint-heartednesse, heartlesnesse.

Faix: m. A packe, load, or burden; a weighbtie charge.

Pierres de faix. Great, or weighbtie stones.

Plier sur le faix. To shrinke vnder his burden; to find or acknowledge, the charge layed on him too heauie for him.

Cela a prins son faix. That thing is setled, sunke in as farre, pressed downe as much, as it will be.

A haute montée le faix encombre: Prov. To a high climber a burden is combersome.

Faizander. To dresse a Pullet, or Capon like a Phesant; or, as Faisander.

Fal: m. A player, or playing ring, in a Bitt.

Falaize: f. A banke, downe, or hill by the sea side; also, fine sand gotten by a water side.

Faldes: f. A paire of Bases to ride with.

Fallace: f. A fallacie; guile, deceit, wile, tromperie, a crastie tricke, cheating sleight, cousening deuice.

Fallacieux: m. euse: f. Full of fallacies; false, crastie, wylie, deceitfull, cousening, cheating, beguiling; counterfeiting; vncertaine.

Falleré: m. ée: f. Barded, trapped; decked, tricked vp.

Fallevuches: f. The sparkles, or fierie and small flakes, that arise from furnaces where in mettals are melted.

Falloir. A Verbe Impersonall; or vsed onely in the third Person.

Il fault, or, il faut. It ought, it must, it shall, it needs, it behoues, it is expedient.

C'est un faire le fault. Tis a matter of necessitie; it must needs be so; there is no remedie; there is no gainsaying of it, no striuing against it.

Il s'en fault. It misses, wants, lacks.

Il ne s'en fallut gueres que luy. He fayled but little of; he had well-nigh; he was verie neere, verie like to haue, &c.

Il te fault trop de choses. Thou art too nice, daintie, curious; nothing pleases thee; or, enough contents thee not.

Tant s'en faut que luy. So farre is it from him, so vn-

vnlikelie is it tha

Quand argent fa

missing all's amiss

Fallope. as Farlou

Heath Larke.

Fallot. as Falot.

Fallu. Fayled, want

Il ne s'en est ri

was verie neere, &c.

Faloise. as Falaize

Faloppe: f. The Larke.

Falot: m. A Cresset made of ropes wre and opē cages of y also, the bearbe Ca

Vn gentil falot. fellow indeed; a with an Ironicall

Falotement. Goo

Falotier: m. ere: set, &c.

Falouidin. See Fal

Falouque: f. A B hath some fiue or

Falourde: f. A gr bigger, and heauie

Falourdin: m. A l heauie sot, lumpish

Falouze: f. Elaph or Harts ey; beld nip, and by others, they say that if a is presently cured.

Falsifiable: com. dulterated; forge

Falsification: f. adulterating, sophi

Falsifié: m. ée: f. forged, foisted in;

Falsifié de col, traine is vnsteadi

Falsifier. To falsifie terfeit, or marre praue, or spoyle, b

Falvise: m. A kind

Fame: f. Fame, cre

Famé. Personnage honest reputation neighbors.

Fameilleusement starued.

Fameilleux: m. eu long fasting.

Famelic, ou fame hunger.

Fameux: m. euse much credit, of g

Famfreluches.

Familiarement. priuately; homel

Familiarizor an ted, become bold, boldly, familiar by

Se familiariz

Familiarité: f. F tome, friendship

vnlikelie is it that he.

Quand argent faut tout faut: Prov. When money is missing all's amisse.

Fallope. as Farlouse. The Chit, the Meddow Larke, or Heath Larke.

Fallot. as Falot.

Fallu. Fayled, wanted, lacked, missed.

Il ne s'en est rien fallu que. He had well-nigh, he was verie neere, or like to haue; he fayled but little of, &c.

Faloise. as Falaize; especially in the later sence.

Faloppe: f. The Chit, Meddow Larke, or Heath-Larke.

Falot: m. A Cresset light (such as they vse in Play-houses) made of ropes wreathed, pitched, and put into small, and opē cages of yron; also, a craftie, subtill, wilie mate; also, the bearbe Cats tayle.

Vn gentil falot. A trimme mate, sweet youth, fine fellow indeed; a good companion sure; (Ironically, or with an Ironicall allusion to our word, fellow.)

Falotement. Good-fellow-like.

Falotier: m. ere: f. Seruing for, or belonging to, a Cressel, &c.

Falouidin. See Falourdin. ¶Rab.

Falouque: f. A Barge, or a kind of Barge-like boat, that hath some fiue or six oares on a side.

Falourde: f. A great faggot; or, a bundle of slicks thats bigger, and heauier then an ordinarie faggot.

Falourdin: m. A luske, lowt, lurden, a lubberlie slouen, beauie sot, lumpish hoydon.

Falouze: f. Elaphoboscum, Gratia Dei, Harts fodder, or Harts ey; held by some Authors to be the wild Parsenip, and by others, wild or bastard Dittany; Howsoeuer, they say that if a Hart stung by a Serpent eat of it, he is presently cured.

Falsifiable: com. Falsifiable; which may be falsified, adulterated; forged, sophisticated.

Falsification: f. A falsification, or falsifying; a forging, adulterating, sophisticating.

Falsifié: m. ée: f. Falsified, adulterated, sophisticated; forged, foisted in; altered, depraued.

Falsifié de col, ou de queuë. A horse whose necke, or traine is vnsteadie.

Falsifier. To falsifie; sophisticate, adulterate, forge, counterfeit, or marre with counterfeiting; to alter; to deprane, or spoyle, by altering.

Falvise: m. A kind of Serpent; as Cenchre.

Fame: f. Fame, credit, report, reputation, renowme.

Famé. Personnage bien famé. A man of good credit, of honest reputation, that hath a good report among his neighbors.

Fameilleusement. Greedily, hungrily, as if he were starued.

Fameilleux: m. euse: f. Hungrie, starued, pined, kept long fasting.

Famelic, ou famelique: as Fameilleux. Pinched with hunger.

Fameux: m. euse: f. Famous, renowmed, notable, of much credit, of great reputation.

Famfreluches. as Fanfreluches.

Familiarement. Familiarly, friendly, boldly and plainly, priuately; homelie, or domestikly.

Familiarizer auecque. To grow familiar, drive acquainted, become bold with any one; to vse friendly, priuately, boldly, familiarly.

Se familiarizer à dire. To dare.

Familiarité: f. Familiarities; more acquaintance, affectome, friendship; homelie, or ordinarie vsage of, priuate conuersation with.

Familier: m. ere: f. Familiar, friendlie, well acquainted, much conuersant, with; also, tame, inward, bousall; vsuall, homelie, or diuarie.

Famille: f. A familie, or household; a kindred, stocke, house, linage, generation of.

Enfans ou fils de famille. Youthes of good houses, rich young men, (whose parents are liuing.)

La famille d'Archimbaud plus y en a & pis vaut: Prov. A knot of naughtie packes; a state, or familie swarming with leud, and dissolute companions; a disordered, corrupted, vicious Familie, or State.

Famine: f. Famine, dearth, a generall hunger.

Famuse: m. as Cenchre.

Fan: m. A Fawne, or Hind-calfe; the young one of any such beast; as also, of an Elephant.

Fanal: m. The Lanterne of a ship, or galley; also, a huge lanterne, standing on the top of a tower, and seruing to guide ships, by night, vnto, or into, a Hauen.

Fanatique: com. Mad, frantick, in a frenzie, besides himselfe, out of his little wits; also, rauished, or inspired with a Propheticall furie.

Fandesteuf. as Faudeteul. (vieil mot.)

Fané: m. ée: f. Vaded, withered; putrified, corrupted; or, as Fenè.

Fanegue: f. A certaine measure that containes about as much as the (French) bushell.

se Faner. To fade, wither, wax dead; or, as se Fener.

Fanessant. Withering, fading; rotting, corrupting.

Fanfare: f. A sounding of Trumpets, or a comming into the Lists with sound of Trumpets, at a publike Iusts; hence (also) any publike brauado, or flourish; any loud-resounding brag, or ostentation.

Fanfarer. To sound, or resound, as Trumpets; to challenge, or braue one another with sound of Trumpets; to brag, vaunt; make a great flourish, or brauado.

Fanfaronnades: f. Resoundings of Trumpets; gallant, brauing, or bragging acclamations.

Fanfreluchet. To swyue, to leacher; also, to trifle it.

Fanfreluches: f. Loose threds, or hanging shreds in rags, and torne clothes; any such trash, excrement, riffraffe; or, as Finfreluches.

Fanfreluches antidotées. Vanities, fopperies, fooleries, fond tricks.

Fangas: m. A heape of mud, or durt; See Fangeat.

Fange: f. Mud, mire, durt, filth.

Fangeas. as Fangeat.

Fangeat: m. A durtie, or muddie slough on the high way.

Fangeux: m. euse: f. Durtie, muddie, mirie, filthie, bedashed, bemired, bedabled.

se Fanir. as se Faner; to wither; to corrupt.

Fanné: f. as Fâme; Beech-mast.

Fanner. as Faonner.

Fanon: m. as Fanal; also, the dewe-clap of an Ox, &c; also, a Fannell, or Maniple; a scarfe-like ornament worn in the left arme of a sacrificing Priest; also, an Enseigne, or Ranner; also (in Blason) any large bracelet, that hangs downe (in fashion of the aforesaid Maniple) from the arme.

Fantasiant. Fantying, imagining; faining.

Fantasie: f. The fancie, or fantasie; opinion, humor, imagination, conceit, affection, iudgement; the mind of a bodie; also, a vision, representation, or image of things conceiued in the mind; also, the Musicall lesson, learned a Fantasie.

Il a pris subitement vne fantasie. He hath taken a toy.

Fan-

Fantaſié: m.ée: f. Fancied, imagined, fained; made, or painted fantaſtically; alſo, affected.

Fantaſier. To imagine, deuiſe, conceiue, inuent; caſt about, thinke of, reuolue in mind; repreſent by imagination; alſo, to fancie, or affect.

Fantaſme. as Fantoſme.

Fantaſque. as Fantaſtique.

Fantaſquement. Fantaſtically, humorouſly, conceitedly, skittiſhly, giddily.

Fantaſſin: m. A footman in warres.

Fantaſſin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, a footman; and hence;

Forces fantaſſines. Footmen, or a power of footmen.

Fantaſtique: com. Fantaſticall, humorous, new-fangled, giddie, skittiſh; inuentiue, conceited.

Fantaſtiquer. To conceiue, imagine, deuiſe, caſt about, repreſent in the imagination; alſo, to affect fantaſtically; to fill with, or feed on, idle fancies.

Fantaſtiqueries: f. Fantaſticall tricks, humorous toyes; idle thoughts, vaine imaginations.

Fantoſme: m. A ſpirit, ghoſt, bug, hobgoblin; viſion, apparition; falſe imagination; hence alſo, a skarrecrow.

Fantoſmeries: f. Strange fancies, extrauagant conceits, idle viſions, odde imaginations, caſtles in the ayre.

Fanuiſe. as Cenchre; and ſhould be Falviſe, or Famuſe.

Faon. as Fan: m. A Fawne.

Faonné. Fawned.

Faonnement: m. A fawning.

Faonner. A Doe to fawne, or bring forth yong.

Faque: f. A pocket, or poutch; a ſatchell, or ſacke.

Faquin: m. A Porter, or Packe-bearer; any baſe-conditioned fellow.

Comme vn faquin porte faix ainſi vn baſton la paix: Pro. Looke Baſton.

Faquinage: m. Portage; the fee, or furniture, belonging to a Porter.

Far: m. A high Tower, or Beacon at the mouth of a Hauen, wherein continuall lights are kept anights for the direction of ſea-faring people; a Lanterne on a Watch-tower by the ſea ſide.

Farain. Pain farain. A kind of great, and verie yellow houſehold bread, of the better ſort.

Faras: m. A great confuſed heape; alſo, a mixture of ſundrie graines together, called Bolymong.

Faraſſe: f. A Creſſet; alſo, the courſeſt of Hempe, Swingle foot herds, courſe towe.

Farce: f. A (fond and diſſolute) Play, Comedie, or Enterlude; alſo, the lyg at the end of an Enterlude, wherein ſome pretie knauerie is acted; alſo, a Pudding, Haggas, Liuering; any ſtuffing, in meats.

C'eſt vne vraye farce. Tis a meere ieaſt, a very mockerie.

Il ioue ſa farce. He playes his prankes; he acts his part.

Farcer; ou, ſe farcer de. To mocke, deride, flout, or gibe at.

Farcereau: m. A maker of Playes; a deuiſer of ieaſts; an inuentor of lyes.

Farcerie: f. A playing, ieaſting; an acting, or making of Playes, Ieaſts, Enterludes; a counterfeiting.

Farceſque: com. Counterfeit, Player-like.

Farceur: m. A Comedian, or Stage-player; a common ieaſter, or counterfeicer of mens geſtures.

Farci: m. A Haggas-pudding.

Farci: m. ie: f. Stuffed, franked, fed, filled vp.

Tout farci d' eſcus. That hath ſtore of crownes; a great monyed man.

Farciere: f. One of the three skins which enwrap an infant in the wombe.

Farcin: m. Scurfe; a leaproſie proceeding of melancholie, choller, or fleagme exceedingly aduſt, and filling the skin with blacke wan ſpots, and dry parched ſcales; alſo, the farcie in a horſe.

Farcineux: m. euſe: f. Leaprous, ſcuruie, beſcabbed.

Farcir. To fluffe, cramme, fill vp; to franke, to feed.

Farciſſeure: f. A fluffing, cramming, filling vp.

Fard: m. Fard; painting (properly, Ceruſe, or white Lead) alſo, any coloured, or adulterate beautie; a deceit, pretence, falſehood, couſenage, blearing of the eyes.

Fardé: m. ée: f. Farded; coloured, painted, of an adulterate luſter; whoſe beautie is diſguiſed, or borrowed.

Fardeau: m. A fardle, burthen, truſſe, packe, bundle.

Donner le fardeau ſelon le chameau. Looke Chameau.

Plus couſte la corde que le fardeau. The ſuit countervailes not the charge one hath beene at about it.

En grand fardeau n'eſt pas l'acqueſt: Prov. Greatneſſe makes not a burthen gaineſull; or the gaine reſts not in the greatneſſe of a burthen; tis not the great, but the good burthen one thriues by.

Petit fardeau poiſe à la longue: Prov. We ſay, light burthen farre beauie.

A vn chaſcun ſon fardeau poiſe: Prov. Euerie one finds his owne burthen beauie enough.

Fardeler. To truſſe, or packe vp; to reduce, or make into fardles, burthens, bundles.

Fardelet: m. A fardlet; a little fardle.

Fardement: m. A painting, a colouring with fard; a beautifying with borrowed, or falſe colours; a pranking, or ſetting out of things, the ſooner to ſell, or the better to ſhew, them.

Farder. To paint, colour, diſguiſe, tricke vp, ſet out, with falſe beauties; to poliſh with a borrowed luſter; to vſe pretences; to deceiue the eares, or bleare the eyes with faire, but counterfeit, matters.

De toute femme qui ſe farde donne toy ſoigneuſement garde: Pro. Take heed of any woman that doth paint.

Fardeur: m. A painter, colourer, diſguiſer, counterfeiter; a tricker vp, or ſetter out, of a thing with borrowed, or falſe ornaments.

Fardeur de chevaux. A Horſe-courſer.

Fare. as Far.

Farfadet: m. A little ſpirit, yong hobgoblin.

Farfanterie. Looke Forfanterie.

Farfelu: m. uë: f. Druggellie, ſhort and thicke, as thicke as long; or, as Fafelu.

Farfonte. A Wrenne.

Farfouillé: m. ée: f. Towſed, ruffled, berumpled by riſling; diſorderly ſearched, or diſordered by ſearching into.

Farfouiller. To ruffle, towſe, crumple, berumple with riſling; to ſearch diſorderedly, or vntowardly; or, to diſorder by an vntowerd ſearch; alſo, to dabble, or paddle in the water, famble in the dust, or rake in the mire.

Fariboles: f. Trifles, niſles, ſlim-ſlams, mby-mbammes, idle diſcourſes, ſmall tatling tales of a drab, or of a naſted horſe.

Farigoulier. as Frigolier. The Time tree.

Farine: f. Meale, or flower.

La farine de Febvrier. Snow.

Fa-

Farine folle. Meale-duſt, or Mill-duſt; the meale that flyes vp and downe a Mill.
Farine volante. as Farine folle.
Badin ſans farine. An arrant Doult, noble Aſſe, notable Cokes, egregious Cocks-combe.
Paiſtry de folle farine. Compounded of light, or ſleight ſtuffe; a vaine-headed, or idle-humored woodcocke; one that hath no manner of ſubſtance in him.
Pour recueillir farine il verſe l'huile. (Of an vndiſcreet husband, who to ſaue a pennie looſes a pound.)
Vanner ſa farine au vent. To ſquander away his reuenue in vaine, and idle humors.
La farine du diable va moitié en vent ou au ſon: Pro. Little good comes of that the diuell hath, or doth; or, ill gotten goods come to little good.
Saſſe bonne farine ſans trompe ny buccine: Prov. Fare well, and hold thy peace.
Farineux: m. euſe: f. Mealie, beflowred, bemealed; made white, or done ouer with meale; alſo, dry, as meale.
Lepre farineuſe. The white Leproſie.
Farline: f. An Iriſh Rug.
Farlouſe. The little Medow Larke, or Heath Larke.
Farne. A kind of Oake.
Faron: m. The weeke of a Linke, or Torche.
Farouche: com. Wild, ſauage, vntamed, fierce, vntractable, fell, cruell, froward, ſhrewd, curſt.
Faroucheté: m. ée: f. Made wild, ſauage, vntractable, cruell, ſhrewd, froward, curſt.
Farrage: m. A mixture of ſundrie graines, and ſeeds gathered from the winnowings of corne (as alſo, diuers ſorts of courſe graine, and pulſe mingled) and ſowed pell-mell together for Winter forrage, or fodder.
Farragiere: f. A plot, or peece of ground ſowed with the winnowings of corne; or with courſe corne, and pulſe mingled all together.
Farre. as Foarre.
Faſché: m. ée: f. Diſpleaſed, angred, offended; vexed, grieued, moleſted, diſquieted, annoyed; troubled, importuned, wearied, cloyed, brought vnto a loathing of.
Faſcher. To anger, diſpleaſe, offend; vex, grieue, irke, diſquiet; annoy, trouble, moleſt; importune, wearie, toyle, harrie, cloy, bring to a loathing of.
Faſcherie: f. Offence, vexation; anger, diſpleaſure; annoyance, trouble, diſquiet, care, griefe; importunitie; irkſomeneſſe, wearineſſe, loathſomeneſſe, or a loathing of.
Faſcheuſement. Offenſiuely, troubleſomely, tediouſly, harſhly, moſt vnpleaſingly, painefully; angrily, frowardly.
Faſcheux: m. euſe: f. Offenſiue, troubleſome, tedious, importunate, irkſome, loathſome; harſh, grieuous, painfull, moſt vnpleaſing; alſo, angrie, froward, vnquiet, peeuiſh, ouerthwart, croſſe, aduerſe.
Faſcheux à ferrer. Stubborne, ſurlie, obſtinate, headie, vnrulie, ſelfe-willed.
Temps faſcheux. An ill, hard, ill fauored, or vnfortunate ſeaſon.
Faire le faſcheux. To make it daintie; to ſtand on ſtrict, nice, or curious tearmes.
Faſcinateur: m. A Charmer, Sorcerer, Inchaunter.
Faſcination: f. A charme, or Inchauntment; a bewitching, ey-biting, forſpeaking.
Faſcine: f. as Faſſine.
Faſciné: m. ée: f. Charmed, bewitched, ey-bitten, forſpoken; diſfigured, or transformed by Inchauntments.
Faſciner. To charme, bewitch, ey-bite, forſpeake; to diſfigure, or transforme by Inchauntments.

Faſeoles: m. Faſels, long Peaſon, Kidney Beanes, Sperage Beanes, French Beanes, Romane Beanes, Garden Smilax; Looke Phaſeoles.
Faſqué: m. ée: f. Loaden.
Faſsade. The foreſront, forepart, or outſide of a houſe.
Faſſe: f. as Naſſe; a Weele, or a Bow-net.
Faſſine: f. A faggot, bauin, kidd, or bundle of ſticks.
Faſte: m. Pride, ſcorne, contempt, diſdaine, loftineſſe, haughtineſſe, arrogancie, ſurquedrie.
Faſtide: com. Tedious, loathſome, irkſome, vnpleaſing.
Faſtidioſité: f. A loathing, or abhorring, as of meats, by an ill diſpoſed ſtomacke.
Faſtueux: m. euſe: f. Proud, loftie, ſcorneſull, diſdainfull, arrogant, high-minded.
Fat. Fooliſh, foppiſh; vn fat; a ſot, an ideot, a nimnie, a noddie, an aſſe, a gull.
Fatal: m. ale: f. Fatall, deſtined; appointed by, belonging to, deſtinie; alſo, ineuitable, vnauoidable.
Fatalement. Fatally, by deſtinie.
Fatalité: f. Fatalitie, or fatalneſſe; alſo, vnauoidablenes, as of a thing appointed by deſtinie.
Fatalizer. To deſtinate, appoint, or deſigne vnto an ineuitable iſſue.
Fatidic: m. ique: f. Preſaging, prophecying, fore-telling.
Fatidique: com. A Prophet, preſager, fore-teller of things to come.
Fatidiquement. Prophetically, preſagingly.
Fatigable: com. Wearying, tyring; troubling; or, which may be wearied, tyred; troubled.
Fatigation: f. A wearying, tyring, cloying, troubling; alſo, as Fatigue.
Fatigue: f. Wearineſſe, tedioufneſſe; trauaile, trouble, vexation; labour, toyle, ouer-much paines.
Fatiguer. To wearie, tyre, trouble, cloy, ouer-toyle; to giue no reſt vnto.
Fatiſte: m. A maker, or a Poet that makes Playes.
Fatraille. Traſh, trumperie, things of no value.
Fatras: m. A confuſed heape, or bundle of traſh, toyes, trifles, vaine and idle things, fooleries, fopperies.
Vn fatras de clefs. A bunch of keyes. ¶Rab.
Il ſçait tout le fatras. All the packe; all that roguerie, or roguiſh plot is he acquainted with.
Fatraſſé: m. ée: f. Patched, botched, ill fauoredly ſet on; confuſedly heaped; fooliſhly put together; alſo, trifling, vaine, idle; made, or conſiſting of, traſh.
Fatraſſier. Trifling, paltrie, vaine; alſo, confuſed, bungling, hudled or fumbled together botcher-like.
Fatrer. To botch, patch, or bungle vp a thing, like an vnskilfull workman.
Fatrin. as Fatraille.
Fatrouiller. To triſle, toy, foole it, play the fop; inuent, or buſie himſelfe about, idle and friuolous vanities; alſo, as Fatrer; to botch.
Fatrouilleur: m. A triſler, dallier, vaine fellow; alſo, a botcher, patcher, bungler.
Fatuité: f. Fooliſhneſſe, doltiſhneſſe, blockiſhneſſe, dulneſſe, ideotiſme, ſottiſhneſſe.
Fau: m. A Beech tree.
Favale: f. Beane ſtraw, or a Beane ſtalke.
Faval: m. The chaffe, ſhalings, hullings, offals, or cleanſing of Beanes.
Favas: m. as Faval; alſo, a Beane cloſe; alſo, (but leſſe properly) Beane ſtraw.
Fau-bourgs. Looke Faux-bourgs.
Fauce-foy: m. A faith-breaker, a trecherous companion.

Fau-

Fauceol. A little Sythe.
Faucer. To ſtand, as a crooked blade; See Faulſer.
Fauchagé: m. A mowing; or the hire of a mower.
Fauche. A reaping; mowing; harueſt.
Fauché. Mowed, cut cloſe by the ground, or cleane away.
Il a fauché, & fené. He hath made a cleane houſe, or ſhop; he hath left himſelfe nothing in them; all is gone, ſpent, conſumed, loſt.
Fauchement: m. A mowing.
Faucher. To mow; to cut cloſe by the ground; to ſweepe, or cut cleane away; alſo, to diſpatch, or rid buſineſſe apace; and hence (of a Clarke.)
Il fauche bien. He writes verie ſwiftly.
Faucher l'herbe ſous les pieds à. To ſupplant; alſo, to preuent.
Faucheſon: f. A mowing; or, ſeaſon good to mowe in.
Fauchet. A Sythe, or toole to mowe with.
Faucheur: m. A mower.
Fauchon: m. A Fauchion, Curtleax, or Hangar.
Faucille: m. as Focille; and (in a horſe) the bought, or peſtle of the thigh.
Faucille: f. A Sickle.
Ie ne mettray la faucille en ſa moiſſon. I will not meddle with his matters, deale in his profeſſion, incroach vpon his intereſt, looke into his dealings; I will not procure to my ſelfe any gaine, aſſume to my ſelfe a reward, thats due vnto his labor.
Faucillon. A little ſickle.
Bois à faucillon. Bruſh wood, ſmall wood.
Faucon. See Faulcon.
Fauconniere: f. A Faulkoners bag, or powch.
Faudeſteul, & Faudeteul. as Fauldetueil.
Faudiere: f. The Pouldron, or skirt-peece of an Armour.
Faudrinier: m. as Fourdrinier.
Faverots: m. A kind of ſmall Beanes; or, as Faverottes.
Faverottes: f. Earth-nuts, Kipper nuts, Earth-cheſtnuts.
Faveur: f. Fauor, grace, good opinion; kindneſſe, loue, good-will; ſupport, maintenance, protection; alſo, a fauor beſtowed, and worne for the giuers ſake.
Faviere: f. A Beane-field, land, or plot.
Faulce. as Faulx; a Sythe.
Faulcé. as Fauſſé.
Faulcon: m. A Faulcon; and (generally) any long-wingd Hawke, or Hawke thats made vnto the Lure.
Faulcon gentil. A Faulcon gentle; the beſt, and boldeſt kind of Faulcon; ſomewhat leſſe, but much better, then the Pelerin.
Faulcon gerfaut. A Gerfaulcon.
Faulcon lanier. A Lanner, or a Lanneret.
Faulcon de mer. A kind of ſmall-mouthed Mullet that hath long finnes like wings.
Faulcon nocturne. The night-Faulcon; a kind of Scrichowle.
Faulcon pelerin. Looke Pelerin.
Faulcon ſacre. A Saker.
Faulcon Tunicien. A Barbarie Faulcon.
Bec de faulcon. A kind of Pollax, borne ſometimes for ſtate by the Peeres of France, and ordinarily by the French Kings Pentioners.
Faulconneau: m. The peece of Ordnance called a Faulcon; alſo, a young, or little Faulcon.
Faulconnerie: f. Faulconrie; Hawke-manning; or, the art of keeping Hawkes.
Faulconnier: m. A Faulkoner.
Faulconniere: f. A hawking bag.
Faulde: f. as Giron. ¶ Langued.
Fauldetueil: m. A low, large, and eaſie foulding chaire, hauing both a backe and elbowes.
Fauldiere: f. as Faudiere.
Fauls: m. Looke Faux.
Fauls: m. faulſe: f. Falſe, counterfeit, vntrue, lying, deceiuing, vnfaithfull, trecherous; double, hollow-harted, halting with friends.
Fauls adveu. The vaſſals challenging, or acknowledging of a wrong Iuſticer, or Landlord.
Fauls germe. A Moone-calfe. Looke Germe.
Fauls pas. Looke Pas.
Fauls rompu. Vn f. A ſubtill fellow, one that hath bin much beaten to the world.
Fauls viſage. A Viſard, or Maske.
Queuë faulſe. An vnſteadie, much whisking, or ſtenwagling, traine of a horſe.
Faulſaire: m. A forger of writings, a falſifier of Euidences; one that counterfeits another mans hand with a falſe intent; alſo, a trecherous violater of his faith; Look Faux.
Faulſé. as Fauſſé; pierced, &c; alſo, forged, falſified, counterfeited; alſo, ſtanding, or made crooked, as a ſword by a fall, &c.
Faulſe-braye: f. A falſe braye (in fortification;) Looke Braye.
Faulſeé: f. A breach (as in a wall, &c;) alſo, a transpiercing, violent piercing; ſtriking, or charging, through and through.
Faulſe-foy. Vn f. A faith-breaker.
Faulſement. Falſely, vntruly, deceitfully, counterfeitly.
Faulſer. To falſifie, forge, counterfeit; to deale vntruly in; alſo, as Faucer.
Faulſer compagnie. To forſake, or abandon the companie which one hath ſworne, vndertaken, or promiſed to keepe; alſo, to part, or breake companie, to leaue anie companie.
Faulſer vn eſcu, ou vn haubert. To pierce, to ſtrike, or to runne, through a ſhield, &c; to make a breach into it.
Faulſer les gonds. To force, or breake aſunder, the hindges.
Faulſer vne troupe. To charge through, and through a troupe.
Faulſet: m. A fayning, in ſong; alſo, a diſcord.
Chanter en faulſet. To faine; alſo, to ſing louder and louder, or to riſe from note to note, in ſinging.
Voix en faulſet. Looke Voix.
Faulſet: m. A faucet; See Fauſſet.
Faulſeté: f. Falſehood, vntruth, lying, trecherie.
Faulſeteux: m. euſe: f. Moſt falſe; fraught with vntruths, full of lyes.
Fault. Il fault. It ought, it behooues, &c; Looke Falloir.
Faulte: f. A fault; a ſinne, vice, delict, offence, treſpaſſe, tranſgreſſion; alſo, an error, ſlip, miſſe, fayle, default, omiſſion; alſo, want, lacke, need, pouertie, penurie, ſcarcitie of; alſo, a baulke vntilled betweene two furrowes.
Faulte d'homme. Looke Homme.
Sans faulte. Pure, innocent, perfect, ſpotleſſe, blameleſſe, faultles; alſo, aſſuredly, certainly, without doubt, without fayling, not to miſſe.
Faire faulte à. To fayle, diſappoint, or ſhrinke from.
Tirer à faulte. To miſſe what he ſhot at; and ſo, Voler à faulte. To miſſe his flight, or what he flew at.

Qui

Qui a fait la faulte ſi la boive: Pro. Let him that did the wrong, incuire the penaltie.

Tel fait la faulte qu' un autre boit: Prov. Th' one playes the pranke, and th' other payes for't.

Faultif: m. iue: f. Faultie, offending, miſdoing, fayling, ſubiect, or apt to doe amiſſe.

Faultrage. as Preage.

Faulveret. A little bird like a Reed-Sparrow, which buildeth her neaſt among Beanes; or, as Fauvette.

Faulx: m. as Faux.

Faulx: f. A Sythe (to mowe with.)

La faulx paye les prez: Prov. The keene Sythe giueth Meades their due.

Faulx: m. faulſe: f. as Fauls.

Faulx-bourgs: m. The ſuburbes of a towne; Looke Faux-bourgs.

Favorable: com. Fauourable, gracious, propitious; kind, friendlie, louing.

Favorablement. Fauourably, propitiouſly, kindly, graciouſly, louingly.

Favori: m. A fauourite, or minion; one thats in fauour.

Favori: m. ie: f. Fauoured, graced, countenanced; kindly vſed.

Favoriſant. Fauouring, gracing, affecting, cheriſhing.

Favoriſé: m. ée: f. Fauoured, graced, countenanced; affected, loued, cheriſhed.

Favoriſer. To fauour, grace, countenance; affect, loue, cheriſh.

Favoriſeur: m. A fauourer, ſupporter; furtherer.

Favorit. as Favori.

Favorite: f. A Princes Miſtreſſe; a Sweet-heart, or ſhe-fauourite.

Favot de febves: m. A Beane-ſtacke; alſo, as Faval.

Fauperdrieux: m. A Hawke ſomewhat leſſe then a Kite, yet higher; her beake, and tallons not ſo crooked as thoſe of other Hawkes; her legs ſmall, and yellow; her traine, and tip of wings, blacke; the top of her head, and bottome of her throat, of a reddiſh white; the reſt of a darke tawnie colour.

Fauquet: m. A ſhaling wry-legd fellow. Pic.

Fauſſonnerie: f. A forging, or falſifying of Euidences; a falſe counterfeiting of another mans hand.

Fauſſaire. as Faulſaire; or, an Impoſtor.

Fauſſé. Pierced, runne, thruſt through; alſo, violently burſt, broken, diuided; Looke Faulſé.

Fauſſée: f. as Faulſée.

Fauſſer. as Faulſer.

Fauſſet: m. A faucet, for a Hogs-head, &c.

Par le petit fauſſet. Niggardly, ſparingly, ſcantly, in ſmall meaſure.

Fauſterne. The hearbe called, round Birthwort.

Faut. Il faut; it ought, it muſt, &c; See Falloir.

Faute. A fault, offence; want of; See Faulte.

Fauteur: m. A fautor, fauourer; furtherer, helper; ſupporter, protector; a partaker, a companion.

Fautier. as Faultif; faultie, blame-worthie.

Fautrage. Droict de f. Looke Droict.

Fauve: com. Fallow, deepe-yellow, Lyon-tawnie, light-dunne.

Beſtes fauves. (A generall word for) all kind of Deere, wild Goats, and ſuch like beaſts.

Fauveau: m. A dunne horſe; alſo, a Puffin, or Fork-fiſh.

Tel eſtrille fauveau que puis le mord: Prov. Some mike but bad return of a good turne; or, th' vngratefull vſe thoſe worſt that haue beene beſt vnto them.

Fauveau. Yellowiſh, darke yellow, dunne, ſomewhat fallow.

Fauvette: f. A yellowiſh bird ſomewhat leſſe then the Nightingale, whereunto ſhe reſembles both in ſinging, and ſhape; ſome call her, a Linget.

Fauvette rouſſe. A certaine ruddie bird, which is no bigger then the end of a mans finger.

Faux: m. A Beech-tree; alſo, falſehood, falſeneſſe, or a falſifying; Hence, the Crime tearmed among Lawyers;

Le Faux. Which is the falſifying of Writs, Inſtruments, or Euidences; and the bearing of falſe witneſſe; and the coyning of falſe money; and the wilfull vſing of falſe weights, or meaſures.

Faux à Connils. A Clapper, or imperfect Warren of Conies.

Faux du corps. The Waſt, or Middle.

Le faux d'un harnois. The part thereof thats next vnto the Taſſes; called ſo, becauſe it is the weakeſt, or made the ſleighteſt.

Peine de faux. Was, in auncient Rome, confiſcation of goods, if the offendor were a freeman; and death, if a ſeruant, or ſlaue, by the Law Cornelia: But the Lawes of France, making no ſuch difference, inflict Death, on all that forge Contracts, or beare falſe witneſſe (in a Court of Iuſtice;) or falſifie the Kings Chauncerie Letters, and Seales; and vpon all Exchequer men, that haue falſified Accompts, Rolls, Acquittances, or Diſcharges, &c.

S' inſcrire en faux. is, to vndertake, that an Euidence, &c, is falſe; or, to vndertake, in a Court of Iuſtice, to proue it falſe, or falſified; alſo, to accuſe of, or charge with, falſehood, or falſeneſſe, any thing.

Maintenir de faux. To challenge, or except againſt, a Deed; to offer to proue it falſe, or forged; (Celuy qui veut Maintenir de faux ſomme la partie que produit la piece, de declarer s'il s'en veut aider; & apres ſa declaration de s'en aider, ſe fait l'inſcription en faux contre la minute originale, laquelle l'accuſé doit faire repreſenter, & mettre au greffe.)

Faux: f. as Faulx; a Sythe.

Faux: m. fauſſe: f. Falſe; Looke Fauls.

Faux. à faux. (Aduerbially) amiſſe, not rightly; to no purpoſe, vainely; and hence;

Ce coup tomba à faux. This blow was loſt; or, hit not the intended place, but was defended, auoided, or put by.

Faux-bond. A falſe trick, a faithleſſe part, a trecherous pranke; a deceitfull, or couſening, action.

Elle a fait vn faux-bond. She hath played falſe, or trod her ſhooe awry.

Faux-bourdon. The drone of a Bagpipe.

Faux-bourgs: m. The ſuburbes of a Towne; whence;

Iardin aux faux-bourgs vaut cent ſolz au rebours: Prov. A Garden in the ſuburbes is worth a hundred pound backwards; (which diuers of our fond citizens haue to their coſt found true.)

Faux-feu. A fayling, miſſing, or not taking of effect; a deceiuing, or diſappointing; alſo, a ſhrewd turne, or ill office, done vnder hand.

Fauxmarcher. To ſtep, or goe awry; to ſet the foot ill in going; alſo, to ſlip, or ſtumble, by ſuch going.

Faux-marchure: f. A wrinch, or ſtrayne in a bone, or ioynt of the foote, &c, got by a ſlip, or wry ſtep.

Fauxoiſeau: m. as Fauperdrieux; or (more generally) any rauenous bird which hath not the name of a Hawke.

Faux-pas. A falſe, or hollow peece of ground that ſinkes vnder the feet in going; alſo, a ſlip, or miſſe in footing; a ſlipping, an error, a miſtaking.

Fauxperdriau. as Fauperdrieux.

Fayant: m. A Beech tree.

Fayerie: f. as Féerie; or, a fancie, imagination, illuſion, or viſion of Fairies.

Fayfort: m. A warranting of the goodneſſe, and ſufficiencie of ſale ware; or, as Le faict fort.

Faymidroict. Baſe, or low iuriſdiction; called ſo by the cuſtomes of Solle.

Fays. as Fais. ¶ Langued.

Fayſſe: f. A ſwath-band for a child. ¶ Langued.

Faziols: m. Faſels, long Peaſon, Kidney Beanes, French Beanes, Romane Beanes.

Fé: f. as Foy; faith (an old word;) par la fé Dieu; (now turned by the countrey people into, Par la feſte Dieu) by the faith I owe to God.

Fé Dieu (an Interiection of admiring;) ſi telle choſe aduint onc; Oh God man, or, Gods me, ſuch a thing was neuer.

Feable. as Feal. Honeſt, truſtie, faithfull; alſo, worthie of account, of reputation.

Onction feable. The pruining, or annointing which a Hawke giues her feathers, by the moiſture ſhe ſucks from her Crupper.

Feablement. as Fealement. Honeſtly, loyally.

Feage: m. Fee ſimple; or, an inheritance, or houſe held in fee ſimple.

Feal: m. ale: f. Faithfull, truſtie, loyall, true, honeſt.

Fealement. Faithfully, truſtily, loyally, honeſtly.

Fealté: f. Fealtie; fidelitie, faithfulneſſe, loyaltie, truſtineſſe.

Feauté. The ſame.

Febé: m. A double ſecret, or ſecret ſtorie; a thing hidden; (Originally, this is the word thats ſpoken, or, as a queſtion demaunded, in the Cake-choice of King and Queene at the later end of Chriſtmas, by him that would haue a peece of the Cake.)

Feble. as Foible. Feeble, weake.

Febricitant. Sicke of an ague.

Febrifique: com. Ague-breeding; full of the feauer; aguiſh, apt for feauers.

Febril: m. ile: f. Feauerie; of a feauer; aguiſh, belonging to an ague.

Febve: f. A Beane.

Febve Egyptiaque. The Beane of Egipt; a water plant that beares a Roſe-coloured flower, and a verie great leafe; (the fruit, or Beane, and the root thereof (tearmed by ſome, Colocaſia) are medicinable, and no ill meat;) alſo, the fruit of the Lote tree.

Febve eſpeſſe. Orpine, Liblong, or Liuelong; (an herbe.)

Febves frittes. The Note; or Character ff in the Ciuile Law, ſignifying Digeſta; (tearmed ſo by yong Students.)

Febve de mer. A kind of hard, ruddie, and writhen ſhell-fiſh.

Febves peintes. French Beanes, or Beanes of Rome; as Febves de Rome.

Febve Pontique. as Febve Egyptiaque.

Febve de porc. The weed Henbane; ſo called in former times.

Febves de Rome. Kidney Beanes, Sperage Beanes, French Beanes, Phaſels, or long Peaſon.

Febve ſauuage. The wild Beane-plant, whoſe flowers be of a bright Crimſon colour, and whoſe peaſe-like pulſe is moſt vnſauorie.

Bailleur de febves à my-croiſt. A couſener, cheater, impoſter, deceiuer, conycatcher.

Comme vne febve en la gueule d'un Lion. We ſay, like a Beane in a Monkes hood.

Trouuer la febve au gaſteau. To find what one looks for, to meet with a thing for his purpoſe.

Quand les febves ſont flories les ſots commencent leurs folies: Prov. When Beanes doe flower youth enters into follie.

Febveux: m. euſe: f. Beanie, full of Beanes, yeelding Beanes.

Febvre: m. A Black-ſmith.

En forgeant on deuient febvre: Prov. Continuall practiſe begets cunning.

Febrier: m. as Fevrier.

Fecal: m. ale: f. Durtie, dreggie, vnſetled, vnfined.

La matiere fecale. Dung, or excrements.

Fece: f. Lees, dregs, grounds; any thicke ſubſtance ſetled in the bottome of liquor.

Fecond: m. de: f. Abundant, ranke, full, fertile, fruitfull, plentifull.

Fecondement. Fully, fertilly, fruitfully, abundantly.

Feconder. To make fertile, fruitfull; ranke, abundant.

Fecondité: f. Fruitfulneſſe, fertilitie, ſtore, fulneſſe, plentie, abundance of fruits.

Fecot: m. The yongling of an Ewe (or of any other ſuch beaſt) newly come out of her bellie.

Fecture. as Facture; the finiſhing, or making vp of.

Feculent: m. te: f. Thicke, muddie, dreggie.

Fée: f. A Fairie.

Feé: m. eée: f. Fatall, appointed, deſtined; alſo, taken, bewitched, or foreſpoken; alſo, charmed, inchaunted.

Féerie. Par féerie. Fatally, by deſtinie, by appointment of the Fairies.

Fein: m. Hay. See Foin.

Feinct: m. cte: f. Fained, forged, ſuppoſed, &c; as Fainct.

Feincte: f. A ſmall, or yong Sbad; the riuer Pilchard.

Feindre. To faine, diſſemble, forge, cog, foiſt, counterfeit, pretend, play the hypocrite, make falſe reſemblances, or offers; alſo, to imagine, ſuppoſe, deuiſe.

Il feignoit à marcher. He hung an arſe, dragd behind, came but ſlowly forward, or on.

Se feindre. To make ſhew of one thing, and doe another; to ſuffer of purpoſe his aduerſarie to preuaile againſt him; to diſable himſelfe more then he needs; to proceed coldly in a matter; to come ſlowly forward; to drag behind; any way to forbeare, or doe leſſe then he can doe.

Se feindre au train de derriere. A beaſt to fauour his hinder parts; or, to halt behind.

Sans ſe feindre. Diligently, ſeriouſly, carefully, indeed, in very good earneſt, throughly, home.

Feine: f. Beech Maſte; alſo, a kind of apple, the cyder whereof is of long continuance.

Feinte: f. An Apparition, or Phantaſme; alſo, a dumbe ſhew; alſo, one that repreſents, or acts it; alſo, a Sharp, in Muſicke.

Feintement. as Faintement; faintly; fainingly.

Feintiſe: f. Diſſebling, faining, cogging, &c. See Faintiſe.

Feletin: m. Flannen; or, a ſtuffe like Flannen, whereof hangings are (ſometimes) made.

Felice: com. Happie, luckie, bleſſed, proſperous; fauourable; alſo, good, fat, fertile, fruitfull, abundant in increaſe.

Feli-

Felicité: f. Felicitie, happineſſe, bliſſe, proſperitie, great lucke, exceeding good fortune.
Feliciter. To make proſperous, happie, luckie.
Feliciter avec vn de. To reioyce, or congratulate with one for.
Felin: m. A certaine weight; (among Goldſmiths, ſeuen graines, among Lapidaries, two carrats) alſo, the ſtuffe, or thin woollen cloth, called Wadnall.
Felle. A kind of fiſh-net, forbidden to be vſed.
Felle: com. Fell, ſpightfull, diſdaineſull, cruell, fierce, furious, vntractable, outragious.
Fellé: m. ée: f. Crazed, cracked, flawed, a little riuen, or broken.
Felleure: f. as Fellure.
Felleux: m. euſe: f. Full of bitterneſſe.
Fellin. as Felin.
Fellon. as Felon.
Fellonie. Looke Felonnie.
Fellure: f. A ſmall craze, cracke, or flaw (in a Jewell, Glaſſe, Pot, &c) no bigger then a haire.
Felon: m. A ſickneſſe of the ſtomacke, tearmed, the cholericke paſſion; or, a flux (accompanied with vomiting) that proceeds of choller.
Felón: m. ne: f. Fell; fellonious; furious, deſpightfull, cruell, curſt, pitileſſe, harſh, rough, froward, vntractable, outragious.
Regard felon. A grimme, ſterne, terrible, frowning, lowring, ſoure, miſchieuous looke.
Amour vainc tout fors que le cœur felon: Prov. Loue conquers any thing but a fellonious heart.
Felongne: f. Selandine the greater, Swallowes hearb, Swallow-wort, Tettar-wort.
Felonie: f. as Felonnie.
Felonnement. Felly; fellonioully; furiouſly, deſpightfully, cruelly, curſtly, harſhly, frowardly; grimly, ſternely, ſourely; outragiouſly.
Felonnie: f. Fellneſſe, curſtneſſe, deſpightfulneſſe, ire, anger; vntractableneſſe, crueltie, vnmercifulneſſe, outragiouſneſſe; alſo, diſobedience; trecherie, treaſon; any ſuch hainous falſehood, or offence, committed by a vaſſall againſt his Lord, or by a ſubiect againſt his Soueraigne, whereby he looſes, or is worthie to looſe, his eſtate.
Felouque: f. as Falouque.
Felure: f. A flaw, craze, or ſmall cracke.
Femelin: m. ine: f. Womaniſh, effeminate; weake, tender, delicate.
Femelle: f. The female, or ſhee of man, or beaſt.
Femelles. The rings which beare vp the Rudder of a ſhip; we call them, Gudgeons.
Femelle. Female; of the female ſex, or kind.
Femellette: f. A little female creature.
Femier: m. A Bayliſe, or ouerſeer of the Husbandrie, in a Gentlemans houſe.
Feminin: m. ine: f. Feminine; or, as Femelin; effeminate.
Femme: f. A woman; a wife; a female.
Femme de chambre. A chamber-maid.
Femme de corps. A Villeneſſe, or woman of a ſeruile condition.
Pomme de belle femme. The name of a certaine beautifull, delicate, and iuicie, apple.
Follettes femmes. The hearbe Orage, or Oracke.
Sage femme. A Midwife.
En femme. Effeminately, womaniſhly, woman-like, nicely, tenderly, daintily; weakely; faintly, fearefully.
Femme, argent, & vin, ont leur bien, & leur venin: Prov. A woman, coyne, and wine haue good, and bad things in them.
Femme de bien vaut vn grand bien: Prov. An honeſt woman is worth much.
Femme bonne qui a mauvais mari a bien ſouvent le cœur marri: Prov. The good wife of a wilfull man hath many a wofull day; The like is;
Femme qui a mari mauvais a peu ſouvent le cœur en paix.
Femme bonne vaut vne couronne: Prov. A vertuous dame is worth a Diademe.
Femme fiere en toute ſaiſon veut eſtre maiſtre de ſa maiſon: Pro. The proud ſhroe ſcornes to be a ſubiect.
Femme lechereſſe ne fera ia porée eſpaiſſe: Prov. Looke Porée.
Femme mauvaiſe qui n' empire encore n' eſt elle pas la pire: Prov. An ill wife that growes not worſe is not of wiues the worſt.
Femme trop piteuſe faict ſa famille teigneuſe: Pro. The ouer gentle huſwife marres her houſehold.
Femme ſe plaind, femme ſe deult, femme eſt malade quand elle veut: Pro. Women lament, weepe, ſicken, when they liſt.
Femme prudente, & ſage eſt l'ornement de ſon meſnage: Prov. Looke Prudent.
Femme qui envis file porte chemiſe vile: Pro. Beggerie, and naſtineſſe are the fruits of ill huſwiuerie, and lazineſſe.
Femme qui ſes levres mord, & qui ſon alleure tord, ſe meſle du meſtier ord, ou fait à ſoy meſme tort: Pro. The wife that bites her lips and treads askue, is to her husband, or her ſelfe, vntrue.
Femme qui perd ſa honte eſt ſans eſtime, & conte: Pro. A woman that hath loſt her ſhame, hath loſt reſpect, eſteeme, good name.
Femme rit quand elle peut, & pleure quand elle veut: Pro. A woman laughes when ſhe can, and weepes when ſhe will.
Femme ſafre, & yvrongneſſe, de ſon corps n' eſt pas maiſtreſſe: Pro. Looke Yvrongneſſe.
Femme ſage, & de façon de peu remplit ſa maiſon: Pro. The wiſe, and well-behaued woman fils her houſe with little; or, a woman wiſe, and prouident by thrift doth ſtocke her tenement.
Femme ſotte ſe cognoiſt à la cotte: Prov. The fooliſh woman's by her weeds diſcerned; the womans garment ſhewes how fond ſhe is.
De femme volage, & friande, En tout temps bon heur nous defende: Pro. From women light, and lickorous, good fortune ſtill deliuer vs.
De toute femme qui ſe farde, donne toy ſoigneuſement garde: Prov. Let no womans painting breed thy ſtomacks fainting.
Qui femme a noiſe a: Prov. Looke Noiſe.
Qui femme croit, & Aſne meine ſon corps ne ſera ia ſans peine: Prov. (Belike becauſe the one is (ſometime) falſe, as the other is euer fooliſh.)
Toutes les femmes ſe reſemblent: Pro. All women are (in good, or bad) alike.
A peine cognoiſt on la femme, & le Melon: Prov. (The meaning is, vntill they be broken, or cut vp; and, the outſide is often the beſt part of them.)
A qui Dieu veut aider ſa femme luy meurt: Prov. The wife of him whom God will helpe ſoone dyes.
Aux Receveurs les honneurs, & aux femmes leurs douleurs: Prov. Receiuers get preferment, fooliſh women paine; or (as truly for the matter) womens paine brings them honour, Receiuers honour breedes their paine.

Beauté de femme faſcheux reſveille-matin: Prov. Looke Reſveille-matin.

C'eſt folie de ſe prendre aux femmes, & aux beſtes: Prov. Hee's mad that quarrels (with women, or beaſts.)

Ce n'eſt rien, c' eſt vne femme qui ſe noye: Prov. Tis no great matter though a woman drowne her ſelfe.

Chaſcun cuide avoir la meilleure femme: Pro. Euerie Ape thinkes her puppie the faireſt.

Deux pots au feu ſignifient feſte, & deux femmes font la tempeſte: Prov. Two pots well fild are ſignes of a feaſt; two women ill-wild of a ſtorme.

Il faut acheter maiſon faicte, & femme à faire: Pro. (For by building is many a man vndone; and with a widow (if ſhe liſt) any man ſhall haue ynough to doe.)

Il ne ſe faut fier ni à femme, ni au giron: Pro. Looke Giron.

Il n'eſt ſi bon que femme n'aſſotte: Prov. The beſt man may b'aſotted on a woman.

Les hommes donnent aux femmes ce qu'ils n'ont pas, & ne peuvent avoir: Pro. viz. Milke.

Par trop trotter la poule, & la femme ſe perdent facilement: Prov. A gadding henne, and houſwife are ſoone loſt.

Qui perd ſa femme, & cinq ſols c'eſt grand dommage de l'argent: Pro. He that looſes his wife, and ſix pence hath ſome loſſe by the money.

Soleil qui luiſarne au matin, femme qui parle Latin, & Enfant nourry de Vin, ne viennent point à bonne fin: Prov. A learned woman ſeldome proues a good one.

Tout ce que Clerc laboure folle femme devore: Prov. All that the Clarke toyles for his Punke deuoures.

Vn homme de paille vaut vne femme d'or: Prov. A man of ſtraw is worth a woman of gold (for rude, or violent purpoſes will ſome ſay.)

Femmelette: f. A pretie little wife, or woman.

Femmette. A little wife, low woman.

Femois: m. A certaine (forbidden) fiſh-catching Net, or Engine.

Fenaiſon: f. Hay time, Hay-harueſt; the ſeaſon wherein Hay is gotten.

Fenaſſe: f. as Sainct-foin.

Fenault: m. A Hay-loft, or Hay-houſe.

Fendant: m. A ſlaſh, gaſh, wype, great cut, or downeright blow; alſo, a cutter, backſter, ſwaggerer, ſwaſh-buckler.

A poincte, & à fendant. Both thruſting, and ſtriking; in all extremitie; by all meanes, euerie way.

Fendant. Cleauing, ſlitting, chapping, cloppen, riuing aſunder.

Geler à pierres fendant. To freeze extreamely.

Fendaſſe: f. A cleft, rift, chop, choane.

Fendement: m. A cleauing, chopping, chapping, diuiding, riuing, or cutting aſunder.

Fendeur: m. A cleauer, ſlitter, a riuer; a diuider.

Fendeur de naſeaux. A cutter, ſwaggerer, ſwaſh-buckler.

Fendillé: m. ée: f. Clouen, riuen, chapped, opened in, or broken into, ſmall rifts, or chinks.

Fendiller. To cleaue, riue; chap, choane, open, or breake, in ſmall chinks, or rifts.

Fendre. To cleaue, ſlit; riue; diuide, or cut, aſunder.

Se fendre. To cleaue, riue, gape, chap, chinke, or choane; to open, breake, or goe, aſunder of it ſelfe.

Fendre l'ergot. To run his countrey; or, to run away.

Fendre à noyau. To take the eſſay of a Deere.

Fendre les pieds à. To runne away from. Il luy faudroit fendre les pieds, & l'envoyer paiſtre, comme vne pecore. (Applyable to an vnmannerlie logarhead) he ſhould be turned to the hogs-trough; or, ſent a grazing; he is fitter to feed with beaſts then with men.

Fendre le vent. as Fendre l'ergot.

Fendu: m. The ſlit, or clouen ſide of a thing.

Fendu: m. uë: f. Cleft, ſlit, riuen, clouen, diuided, cut aſunder; opened, or open; gaping, chappie, full of cranies, full of choanes.

Levre fenduë. A Hares mouth; See Levre.

Oignon fendu. A Scallion.

Radis fendu. The cleft Raddiſh, double Raddiſh, many-rooted Raddiſh.

Bien fendu de gueule. Wide-mouthed, ſparrow-mouthed, mouthed vp to the eares.

Fené: m. ée: f. Withered; alſo, weathered; made as, or into, Hay.

Il a fauché & fené. He hath conſumed, or loſt all; or, he is at his height, at his beſt; he hath got all he is like to get.

Fener. To make Hay, or make into Hay.

Se fener. To fade, wither, wax deadiſh; to decay.

Fenerateur: m. An Vſurer.

Feneration: f. Vſurie, or the practiſe thereof.

Feneratoire: com. Vſurious.

Feneſtrage: m. windowes; or, the faſhion, ſeat, caſt, placing, or contriuement thereof.

Feneſtre: f. A window.

Feneſtre baſtarde. A falſe window; or faſhion of ſloping window (as in ſome ſhops) yeelding a falſe light.

Feneſtre dormante; ou à voirre dormant. A Dorre window, or cloſe window of glaſſe, &c.

Feneſtre Flamende. A fiue-cornered window of timber-worke, bearing out, in the vpper parts, from the roofe of a houſe, &c; and ſetled, in the bottome, vpon the height of the houſe wall.

Pain de feneſtre. Houſehold bread, wheaten bread; bread made of vnboulted corne.

Entrer par la feneſtre. To come vnto by indirect courſes, to enter the wrong way; (whence belike we ſay that a baſtard came in at the window.)

S'ils ne veulent paſſer par là qu'ils paſſent par la feneſtre. If they will not take that courſe, let them doe worſe (or amiſſe) and ſpare not.

Feneſtré: m. ée: f. Windowed, hauing windowes, open, pierced.

Feneſtrelle: f. A little window.

Feneſtrier: m. ere: f. Belonging to a window; alſo, placed in, or looking out at, a window; whence;

Fille feneſtriere, & trotiere rarement bonne menagere: Prov. Seldome proues gazer, or gadder a good houſwife.

Feneur: m. A hay-maker.

Feneux: m. euſe: f. Hayie, full of hay.

Fenicte. A little Shad-fiſh.

Fenier: m. as Fenil.

Fenil: m. A hay-loft, hay-mowe, hay-houſe; a Reeke, or Stacke of hay; alſo, the Racke wherein hay is put.

Fenné. Withered.

Fenoil: m. [illegible]

Fenons: m. [illegible] ſoft wrapped [illegible] within a peece of [illegible] leauen. [illegible] or legs, about the [illegible] and keepe them in [illegible]

Feno-

Fenouil: m. The hearbe Fennell; alſo, the ſeed thereof.
Fenouil de Barbarie. Fennell giant, great Fennell, Barbarie Fennell.
Fenouil doux. Sweet Fennell (in all reſpects bigger then the ordinarie one, and therfore diſtinguiſhed from it.)
Fenouil marin. Rocke Sampire, Creſtmarin.
Fenouil de porceau. Sow-fennell, Hogs-fennell, Horeſtrange, Horeſtrong, Sulpherwort, Brimſtonewort.
Fenouil Romain. The hearbe Anniſe, or Anniſeed.
Fenouil ſauvage. Wild Fennell, horſe Fennell, great Fennell.
Fente: f. A cleft, riſt, ſliſter, chinke, ſlit, cranie, chap, choane.
Fente en poil. A cleft in a bone, as ſmall as any haire.
Fenugrec: m. The hearbe, or ſeed, Fenigreeke.
Feodal: m. ale: f. Feodall; of, or belonging to, a Fief; alſo, held (by homage and fealtie) as a Fief; alſo, poſſeſſing diuers fiefs; Looke Feudal.
Seigneur feodal. A Lord Paramont, or chiefe Lord; one of whoſe fief diuers other fiefs are held, by homage and fealtie.
Cela nous appartient par forfaiture du Seigneur feodal. We haue no poſſibilitie of right vnto that.
Feodalité: f. The eſtate of a Feodall, or chiefe Lord; the poſſeſſion of, or Seigniorie ouer, diuers fiefs; feudalitie, or feodalitie; alſo, a tenure in fief; or, by homage and fealtie.
Feodé: m. ée: f. Infeoffed; giuen vnto in fief; alſo, held in fief, or in fee.
Sergent feodé. Looke Sergent.
Fer: m. Iron; alſo, the head of a Pike, Launce, Arrow, &c; alſo, the tag of a Point.
Fers. Shackles, fetters, boults, irons; alſo, horſe-ſhooes.
Fer d'archail. Iron wire.
Fer blanc. White Lattin.
Fer de cheval. Vn fer de cheval. A horſe-ſhooe; Le fer de cheval. A kind of Axſeed, or ſmall Pulſe, called Horſe-ſhooe.
Fer de guerre. The ſteelie, and ſharpe head of a Pike, Launce, or horſemans ſtaffe.
Fer maillé. Feneſtre à fer maillé. An Iron-grated window, whoſe barres are not (or ought not to be) aboue foure ynches aſunder.
Fer de Moulin. A Mill-ring, or Mill-rind; called by Heralds, an Inkmolyne.
Fer à ravaler. A Tanner, or Leather-dreſſers ſhauing knife, beame knife, or working knife.
Fer de richard. as Fil d' archal; or, great Iron wire.
Fer de rochet. A Burre; or, the blunt, or dulled head of a tilting ſtaffe.
Vieux fers. Old Iron; old, or broken things of Iron; alſo, old rags; any ouer-worne traſh.
A fer eſmoulu. Extreamely; or, in good earneſt; Looke Eſmoulu.
Entre deux fers. In equall ballance; of a like, or iuſt weight, of the ſame ſubſtance, qualitie, proportion, goodneſſe.
Elle n'a eu fer à Pied. She is vntainted, pure, vndeſiled, ſhe hath not yet beene manned; ſhe hath not yet beene broken vp.
Barre le fer. To play at blunt, or at feyles.
On frotte tant le fer qu'a la fin il s'eſchauffe: Pro. Cold Iron by much rubbing will grow hot; Applyable vnto a dull ſpirit; which by much vrging enters into choller.
Fere: f. A wild beaſt.
Fercules: m. The things whereon Images, or Pageants are carried; alſo, Beeres for dead men.
Fereluche. as Freluche; a moat, &c.
Feri: m. ie: f. Hit, ſtrucken; wounded, hurt.
Feriage. as Feage.
Ferial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, a holyday; idle, reſting, vacant, vnoccupied; alſo, iocond, merrie, pleaſant; alſo, ridiculous.
Vn ferial beuveur. A ſquare drinker, a faithfull drunkard; one that will take his liquor ſoundly.
Feriat: m. A vacation time; an idle, or play day.
Feries: f. Holydaies, feaſtiuall daies, reſting daies, idle times, Wakes, Vacations, or vacant ſeaſons; properly ſuch holydaies as Monday and Tueſday in Eaſter wecke, &c.
Ferin: m. ine: f. Wild, ſauage, beaſtlie, cruell.
Ferir. To bit, ſtrike; wound, hurt.
Mal ioue qui fiert la ioue: Prov. He makes but ill ſport whoſe play tends to hurt.
Fermage: m. Farmage; the profit made of, reuenue comming in by, a farme.
Fermail: m. The claſpe of a booke, &c.
Fermaille: f. A ſmall buckle, or claſpe.
Feneſtre à fermaille. A window that ſhuts with a haſpe; or (in ſtead of, à fer maillé) as in Fer.
Fermaillé: m. ée: f. Buckled; haſped; claſped; alſo, garniſhed, or ſet thicke with ſmall buckles.
Fermailler: m. A Buckle-maker, or Claſpe-maker.
Fermailler. To buckle, haſpe, claſpe; alſo, to ſet, or garniſh with ſmall buckles.
Fermaillet: m. A Carkanet, or border of gold, &c, ſuch as Gentlewomen weare about their heads, or hoods; alſo, an inchaunted image, collar, or chayne, worne about the necke, as a preſeruatiue againſt poyſon, witchcraft, wounds, &c; alſo, a ſmall buckle, or claſpe.
Fermance: m. A certaine officer within the iuriſdiction of La Solle.
Fermant: m. A buckle, haſpe, or claſpe; alſo, a ſhutter; any thing that (ſurely) binds, faſtens, cloſes.
Fermant. Shutting, ſtopping vp, cloſing, ſealing, locking, faſtening, making vp.
Fermative: f. An affirmation, aſſeueration, or proteſtation of right vnto a thing in controuerſie, made before a Iudge, by him that pretends it.
Ferme: f. A Farme, or Leaſe; a thing farmed; a Toll, Rent, Mannor, or Demeſne in farme; alſo, the farming thereof, or an eſtate therein by farme, or leaſe; alſo, a farme, or farme-houſe in the countrey; alſo, as Fermative.
Les fermes du Roy. Thoſe parts of his Reuenue, or Demeſne, which may be let out.
Ferme: com. Firme, ſtable, ſure, faſt, ſteadie, ſetled, certaine, aſſured; conſtant, ſtedfaſt; alſo, decreed, ratified, confirmed, eſtabliſhed.
Faire ferme. To ſtand ſtill; to make a ſtop, or ſtand; alſo, to ſtop, cauſe to ſtop, make to ſtand (faire ferme à.)
Fermé: m. ée: f. Cloſed, ſhut, faſtened, locked, ſealed vp; incloſed, kept in; made vp.
Ferme, Adverb. (as Fermement;) and hence; Ferme à ferme (in Horſemanſhip) anie Aire done in a little roome, and a iuſt time.
Fort & ferme. Verie hard, verie much, amaine, ſtiffely; extreamely, exceſſiuely, exceedingly; fiercely, violently, vehemently; aſſuredly, confidently.

Fermeille: f. as Fermaille.
Fermeillet: m. as Fermaillet.
Fermemént: m. A closing, shutting, fastening, locking, sealing, making vp.
Fermément. Firmely, fastly, surely, steadily; soundly; certainely, assuredly; constantly, stedfastly.
Fermentation: f. A fastening, setling, assuring; also, a fermentation; a raysing, as of paste with leauen, a leauening; also, a working, as of ale or beere; also, an infusion, or infusing; a setting, or letting stand, diuers simples together, in the Sunne, ouer a furnace, or among horse dung, vntill they be fully incorporated, or their substances throughly mingled.
Fermenté: m. ée: f. Setled, fastened, assured; wrought; raised, as beere, or bread; also, infused, steeped.
Fermenter. To settle, fasten, assure, make firme; also, to worke, as ale or beere; also, to infuse; or ly steeping; as in Fermentation.
Fermenter la paste. To leauen it; or, to make it rise, as leauen doth.
Fermer. To shut, stop, close, locke, seale, fasten, or make vp; also, (a demaundant, and defendant) to affirme, or protest before a Iudge, holding their hands within his, that they haue good right vnto the thing they sue for.
Fermesse: f. as Fermeté.
Fermeté: f. Stabilitie, steadinesse, firmenesse; constancie, stedfastnesse; certainetie, sureuesse, assuredneſſe; also, a fortresse, or place of strength.
Fermeture: f. A closing, shutting, fastening, locking vp, or in; also, the end of a place (for where it is shut vp, it endeth;) also, the classpes of a booke.
Fermeur: m. A shutter, closer, fastener, locker, stopper, maker vp of.
Fermeure: f. as Fermement.
Fermier: m. A Farmer; a Lessee; also, a chiefe Hind, or Husbandman; a Bayliſe, or Ouerseer of another mans Husbandrie.
Fermier du Revendage du Roy. Looke Revendage.
Fermier: m. ere: f. Farming; taking to, or enioying by, farme.
Prevost fermier. A certaine Officer, who had all publike fines and amerciaments, and was (before Charles the eights time) Iudge of all causes, and controuersies raised by reason of his Office.
Sergent fermier. That hath farmed his place (which by Law he should not doe.)
Fermoirs: m. The classpes of a booke; or, as Fremoirs.
Fernel: m. A certaine beame in the prow of a ship.
Feroce: com. Cruell, fierce, curst, vntractable; hard-bearted, sterne, rigorous, austere.
Ferocité: f. Fiercenesse, crueltie, vntractableneſſe; rigor, austeritie, sternenesse.
Feronnier: m. An Iron-monger.
Ferrage: m. The shooing of horses; also, any worke of, or working in, Iron.
Droict de ferrage. Looke Droict.
Ferraille: f. (Old) Iron worke; Iron implements, Iron tooles.
Ferrailles. Old Iron.
Cette ferraille de moines. These old, rustie, out-cast Monkes.
Ferrailleries: f. Iron worke, implements, or tooles.
Ferran: m. as Aguillade.
Ferrandier: m. A dresser of Hempe.
Ferrant. Shooing a horse, &c; whence;
Mareschal ferrant. A farrier.
Ferrasse: f. The smooth, and long-tayld Skate called, the Forke-fish; also, the coursest of Hempe, Swinglefoot herds, course Towe.
Ferrat. Shod (as a horse with Iron.)
Barbe rase pied ferrat: Pro. Looke Barbe.
Ferré: m. ée: f. Shod (as a horse with Iron;) also, couered, headed, tipped, or bound about, with Iron; also, hard; obdurate, stiffe; stubborne, obstinate.
Ferré à glace. Frosted, or shod with frost-nayles; hence also, steadie-footed, sure of foot, seldome slipping, neuer fayling, or falling.
Gosier ferré à glace. A paued mouth; See Gosier.
Eau ferrée. Wherein a peece of hot Iron, or Steele hath beene quenched.
Mangeur de charrettes ferrées. A terrible buffe, scarre-crow, braggadochio.
Il n'y a cheval si bien ferré qui ne gliſſe: Prov. The wisest erre; the best offend; he that hath surest footing sometime falls.
Ferrement: m. An Instrument, or toole of Iron.
Ferrements de la Messe. The ornaments, implements, or instruments, belonging to the Masse.
Ferrementiporte. A wandering Priest that euer carries about with him those ornaments, or implements; also, a carrier of tooles, or heads of speares, or blades of weapons.
Ferrer. To shoe a horse, &c; also, to couer, head, or bind about, with Iron.
Ferrer vne ceincture. To set buckles vnto a girdle.
Ferrer les cigales. To spend the time in trifling; to vndertake a foolish businesse; to loose time altogether.
Ferrer la mule à. To bring in an extraordinarie, or false reckoning vnto; any way to play the close theefe with.
Ferrer les oyes. as, Ferrer les cigales.
Il est fort difficile à ferrer. He is verie stubborne, selfe-willie, vnrulie, froward; hee will hardly be tamed, hee will carrie no coales.
Ferret: m. The tag of a point.
Ferreur: m. A flax-combe, or hatchell (of Iron.)
Ferreux: m. euse: f. Of Iron, as hard as Iron.
Ferriere: f. A kind of big Dutch Leatherne bottle; also, a place to keepe Iron in; also, a powch to put horse-nayles in; or, a great case, or powch of leather (closed, as a Portemantue, with chaine, and locke) wherein tooles for the shooing of horses are kept, and carried; also, a kind of Adamant.
Ferronnerie: f. An Iron mill, or forge; also, an Ironmongers shop.
Ferronnier: m. An Ironmonger; one that sels vnwrought Iron in Barres &c.
Ferruginosité: f. Rust of Iron.
Ferrumination: f. A soldering, cimenting, fastening together, properly, in matters of Iron.
Ferrure: f. The shooing of horses; or, as Ferrement; also, Iron worke.
Fers. Looke Fer.
Fertile: com. Fertile, fruitfull, abundant, full, ranke, batle, flore-bringing, much-yeelding.
Fertilement. Fertilly, fruitfully, abundantly, rankely, plenteously.
Fertilité: f. Fertilitie, fruitfulnesse, rankneſſe, fullneſſe, fatneſſe; plentie, flore, abundance.
Fertilizé: m. ée: f. Fertilized, made fertile, or fruitfull.
Fertilizer. To make fruitfull, fertile, ranke, abundant; also, to increase, grow fertile, fruitfull, &c.

Feru : m. uë: f. Strucke, hurt, bit, wounded, beaten, knockt.
Mal feru. A malander in the bought of a horses knee.
Nerf feru. In a man; the disease of frenzie or madnesse; in a horse; a sinew sprung in his knee, or other ioynt.
Ferve. par ferve. According to, after the rate of: ¶Bourbonnois.
Fervement. Feruently, hotly, ardently, earnestly, eagerly, fiercely, vehemently.
Fervent: m. ente: f. Fervent, hot, ardent, scaulding, scorching, burning; chafed; eager, angrie, fierce; vehement, earnest.
Fervesti; &, Fervestu. (Old words) clad in, or armed with, yron.
Ferveur: f. Feruor, feruencie; heat, burning, ardor, anger, violence; bastinesse; vehemence, eagernesse, earnestinesse.
Ferulacé. Round; also, of the kind of th'hearbe Ferula.
Ferule: f. A Ferula, or Paulmer vsed in Schooles for correction; also, the hearbe Ferula, Sagapene, Fennell Giant; also, a reed, or cane.
Ferules. Splents for broken legs, armes, fingers, &c.
Ferun: m. Rankenesse, rammishnesse; extreame, or strong vnsauorinesse.
Ferure: f. A stroke, hit, striking, hitting.
Fessé. Crazed; as Fellé.
Fesse: f. A buttocke; a haunch; a breech, or one side of the breech.
La fesse tonduë. Bare-breecht; that hath not a rag to couer his taile withall.
Commere de fesses. A gossip for the buttockes, an arse gossip, a gossipping bawd.
Corrumpu comme la fesse d' vn Postillon. Seeke Postillon.
N' y aller que d' vne fesse. To go slackly, or vnwillingly to worke; to worke by halues.
Il cerche trop bas la Charité qui fouille prés des fesses: Prov. Tis an vntoward charitie thats groped for neere to the buttocks.
Fessé: m. ée: f. Breecbed, scutched, jerked, whipt, or beaten on the buttocks.
Fesseau. as Faisceau.
Fesse-breviaire: m. A Priest that quickly whips ouer, or mumbles vp, his Breuiarie; any one that sayes ouer his ordinarie prayers too fast.
Fesse-cul. A Pedanticall whip-arse.
Fessée: f. A scutch on the breech, a lash on the buttocks, a ierke on the posteriorums.
Fesse matthieu. An Vsurer; a Banker; a Returner, or letter out of money, vpon interest, or by exchange.
Fesse pain. A great eater of bread.
Fesse pinte. A tipler, bibber, quaffer, can-killer, pot-whipper, suithfull drunkard.
Fesser. To breech, beat, whip, scourge, on the buttockes.
Fesses: f. The buttockes, the breech, the bumme; Looke Fesse.
Fesse-tonduë. A bawdie companion, a notable whipster; or, a knauish Epithite for a smell-smocke; Looke Fesse; (for it hath also another sence.)
Fesseur. A whipper, scourger, breecher.
Fessier: m. ere: f. Belonging to the breech, or buttocks.
Muscles fessiers. Three muscles in the breech, a great, middle, and little one; all which doe serue to stretch out the thigh.
Fessiffier. To worke, doe, play with the buttockes; to leacher it.
Fessu: m. uë: f. Fat-bumd, well-breeched, great buttockt.

Fest. as Faiste; whence;
Gibet à fest. A gibet that hath a topping, or chaplet made ouer it.
Festage. An yearely duetie paid vnto certaine Lords for euerie roose, ridge, or house-top within their iurisdiction, or Seigneurie; also, a feasting, or feasts due by certaine Prelates vnto their Chapters.
Festard: m. arde: f. Sluggish, drowsie, lazie; dull, slow; faint-hearted.
Festardise: f. Sloth, sluggishnesse, drowsinesse; also, duinesse, slownesse; cowardise, faint-heartednesse; (bred by sloth.)
Feste: m. The ridge, or top of a house; Looke Faiste.
Feste: f. A feast; a holy-day; a festiuall day; (Looke Fe.)
Feste à baston. A publicke feast, wherat all the companies of an incorporate Towne goe in (a kind of) Procession.
La feste Dieu. Corpus Christi day.
La feste des festes. Palme-Sunday.
La feste des morts. All-soules day.
La guerre est la feste des morts: Prov. Warre is the dead-mans holy day.
Festes au palais. Such holy-dayes as are not Hall-dayes.
La feste des rameaux. Palmes-Sunday.
La feste des Rois. The Epiphanie, or Twelfth-day in Christmas.
La feste du Sacré. The Coronation day; or, the feast of the dedication of a Parish Church, &c.
La feste de tous Saincts. All-Saints, All-hallowmasse, All-hallow day.
La paix est la feste de tous Saincts: Prov. Peace is the holie mans holy-day.
Les festes du village. Wakes; Ales; Plough-mens feasts, or holy-dayes.
La petite feste dieu. Th'Octaues of, or, some eight dayes after, Corpus Christi day.
Chanter devant la feste. To triumph before the victorie.
Estre bien avant de feste. To liue merrily, or in iollitie.
Faire feste à. To flatter, smooth, fawne on, make fayre weather vnto.
Faire feste de. To ioy in, reioyce at, be glad of; to brag, boast, be proud, make much, of.
Apres la feste & le Ieu, les pois au feu: Prov. After feasting and iollitie, sobrietie.
Apres la feste on grate la teste: Prov. (viz: After a feast made.)
Crinons en teste gastent la feste: Prov. One humorous, or discontented guest marres a whole feast.
Deux pots au feu significent la feste, & deux femmes font la tempeste: Prov. Two pots oth'fire a feast, two women a storme, portend.
Le fol reste apres la feste: Prov. The foole doth rest after a feast; or (more properly) after a feast once made a foole for euer.
Les grillons gastent la feste: Prov. See Grillons.
Il n'est pas touiours feste: Prov. Feasts last not alwayes; or, we must not alwayes thinke to feast it; euerie day is not Sunday (say we.)
Festé: m. ée: f. Festiuall, kept holie; feasted.
Fester. To feast it, keepe holy-day, make a vacation.
Festide. as Faschierie.
Festier. as Festoyer.
Festiere: f. A ridge-tile; or (being turned) a gutter-tile; See Faitiere.

Feſtin. A feaſt, or banquet.
Droict de feſtin, Looke Feſtage.
Il a eſté au feſtin de Martin baſton. He hath had a triall in Stafford Court, or hath receiued Jacke Drums intertainment.
Feſtination: f. Feſtination, ſpeed, haſt, quicke proceeding.
Feſtivant. A feaſter, or feaſt-maker.
Feſton: m. A garland, bundle, or border of fruits, and flowers; eſpecially in grauen, or imboſſed works; alſo, a noſegay.
Feſtondienne. (as much as) Par la feſte de dieu; Corruptly; or by one that dares not ſweare out.
Feſtoyant: m. A feaſter, or he that feaſts.
Feſtoyant: m. ante: f. Feaſting, banquetting; cheriſhing, making verie much of.
Feſtoyement. A feaſting, banquetting; a cheriſhing, or kind intertaining of.
Feſtoyer. To feaſt, banquet, intertaine with feaſts, and banquets; to cheriſh, vſe kindly, make much of; alſo, to celebrate an holy-day.
Feſtu: m. A feskue; a ſtraw, ruſh, little ſtaulke, or ſticke, vſed for a feskue.
Foible comme vn feſtu. As weake as a ruſh; or (as we ſay) water.
Coigner feſtus. To ſpend the time verie fooliſhly; or to looſe it altogether.
Ie n'en donneroye pas vn feſtu. I value it not of a ruſh; I would not giue a ſtraw for it.
Rompre le feſtu avec. To fall out, or at oddes with a friend.
Profit ſans vertu ne vaut vn feſtu: Prov. Diſhoneſt gaine's not worth a chip; or, no ſcoundrell to th' vnhoneſt rich man.
Feſtuſer. See Fetuſer.
Fetardiſe: f. Sloth; cowardiſe; as Feſtardiſe.
Feteur: f. Stinch, filthineſſe, ill ſmell, or ſauor.
Fetide: com. Stinking, filthie, ill-ſmelling.
Fetiſse. liqueurs fetiſſes. Made, or compounded liquors.
Feton. as Feſton; Alſo, the frush, or middle of the ſole of a horſes foot.
Fetuſé: m. ée: f. Touched, or wiped ouer with a feskue; alſo, tickled by ſuch a touching.
Fetuser. To touch, or wipe ouer with a feskue; alſo, to tickle by touching with a feskue.
Feu: m. Fire; alſo, as Foüage; (alſo, a houſe, or familie; in old French;) alſo, light.
Le feu. A kind of light, (neere a foot long) made of old clouts ſteeped in tallow, & writhen like a torch; wherwith Fowlers catch Duckes, Teales, Pochards, &c, in the night; alſo, a ſcab, tetter, or ſcurfe among cattle.
Feu S. Anthoine. Saint Anthonies fire; a ſwelling (full of heat and redneſſe) that beginnes of a bliſter; and growes to a ſcab, or ſore, like a tetter; and in the end mortifies the part (eſpecially the bone) it hath ſeiſed on.
Feu ardent. (as Coulevrée blanche.) White Brionie, wild Nep, Tetter-herrie; The Wallons (ſayes Gerard) call Garden Nightſhade, Feu ardent.
Feu de behourdis. A bone-fire. (v. m.)
Le feu des Eſpagnols. A hot, ſcorching, or ſhining Sunne.
Feu Gregeois. Wild-fire; or the beſt kind therof; ſuch as will burne within the water, &c.
Feu d' Helene. as Feu S. Herme.
Feu S. Herme. Saint Helens, or S. Hermes fire; a Meteor that often appeares at ſea; Looke Furole.
Feu S. Marcel; ou, feu Martial; as Feu S. Anthonie.
Feus miſsiles. Squibs; or, any fireworkes throwne to a miſchieuous end.
Feu Perſien. An inflamed, and painfull impoſtumation, the bloud or matter whereof being very thin, makes it looke almoſt as if it ſhined: ſome call it, the holie fire; the Grecians, Eryſipelas.
Feu de riqueraque. le mau fin feu de riqueraque. Wild-fire; or as Feu Perſien.
Les feus du Roy. An yearely reuenew of ij. s. Pariſis paid vnto the King by th' inhabitants of diuers villages in the Prouoſtſhip of Laon, thereby exempted from certaine Appeales.
Feu Sacré. Looke Sacré; or, as Feu Perſien.
Feu ſauvage. The ſhingles, running-worme, or wild fire.
Feu volage. A ring-worme, or tetter.
Pierre à feu. A flint-ſtone; alſo, the Marcaſite, or fire-ſtone.
Attiſer le feu avec l' eſpée. To prouoke an angrie, or angred perſon.
Avoir le feu à la teſte. To be hot, haſtie, cholericke; fierce, furious; alſo, to be forward, hazardous, aduenturous.
Avoir les pieds au feu. Il ſemble qu'il ait les pieds au feu. Said of one that in a reſtleſſe humor, will not ſettle, or cannot ſit ſtill, any where.
Iecter le feu par la gorge. To ſpit fire; to be in a great furie, fume, chafe; or, to keepe a terrible ſwaggering, a horrible ſtirre.
Ie n'iroye pas du banc au feu. I would not ſtep ouer the doore, I would not moue one foot, for it.
I'en mettray le doigt au feu. I dare anſwer for, I may preſume on, I am aſſured of, it.
Verſer de l' huyle ſur le feu. To adde fuell to the fire, ſay we (better acquainted with wood then with oyle) to furniſh a violent paſſion, or humor with matter to work on.
Vivre à pot, & à feu avec. See Pot.
Le feu eſt bon en tout temps: Prov. (Belike it ſhould be, le bon feu; for fire ſometimes does miſchiefe too much.)
Le feu eſt demie vie de l' homme: Pro. (And worth his whole life vnto him; for without it either he cannot liue, or ſhall doe verie little.)
Le feu plus couvert eſt le plus ardant: Prov. The more that fire's kept downe the more it burns; ſuppreſſed heat workes vehemently.
Il n'eſt feu que de gros bois: Pro. Great wood makes the beſt fire.
Amour de putain feu d' eſtoupe: Prov. (Th' expoſition is) qui luit fort, & dure peu.
En petite cheminée fait on bien grand feu: Prov. Men ſometimes make great fires in little chimneyes (to their coſt.)
Qui a affaire de feu le doit cercher: &, Qui a beſoing de feu le cerche avec le doigt: Prov. He that wants neceſſaries muſt take any paines for them.
Tortuë buſche fait droict feu: Prov. The crooked log makes a ſtraight fire.
Verde buſche fait chaud feu: Prov. Looke Buſche.
Feu: m. feuë: f. Dead, deceaſed, departed.
Feu mon pere. My late father.
Feüaige: m. as Foüage.
Feuchere. as Feuchiere.
Feuchiere: f. Fearne, brakes.
Feuchiere aquatique. Water Fearne, Oſmund, Oſmund

mund royall, Osmund the Waterman, S. Christophers hearbe.

Feuchiere des chesnes. Oake-fearne, pettie-fearne, mosse-fearne, pild Osmund.

Feuchiere femelle. She fearne, female fearne, common fearne, brakes.

Feuchiere masle. Male fearne, great fearne.

Feudal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, a Fief, Mannor, Fee, or Fee simple; also, held in fief, or in fee; also, holding diuers Fiefs.

Cour feudale. A Court Leet, or Baron; the Lords Court, whereto his vassalls, and tenants owe suit and seruice.

Homme feudal. (Signifies both) a Lord that hath tenants holding of him; and (the more commonly) a vassall, or tenant.

Retraict feudal. The power of redemption which a Landlord hath by the priuiledge of his Seigneurie.

Seigneur feudal. A Lord Paramount, or chiefe Lord.

Fief de condition feudale. A Fee simple; or, an absolute, and hereditarie fief; (for some fiefs descend not.)

Feudalité: f. as Feodalité; Especially in the last sence.

Feudataire: com. Owing fealtie, holding by fealtie; also, held by fealtie, or, held of another.

Feve. as Febue; A beane.

Feverondes: f. The eaues, or easings of a house.

Feugiere. Fearne.

Feugiere de chesnes. The hearbe Oake-fearne, pettie fearne, pild Osmund.

Feuille; &, Feuillée. See Fueille; &, Fueillée.

Feuillure. Seeke Fueillure.

Feultre: m. Felt; a felt, a peece of felt; Looke Feutre.

Feultré: m. ée: f. Made of felt; couered with, or, as with, felt.

Feultrer. To make of, couer with, felt.

Feulu. as Fueillu.

Feur: m. The cost and charge a husbandman is at in the tilling, & reaping of his ground; also, as Foire; a Faire; also, a rate, or price set on a thing; and hence;

A feur de. According to, after the rate or proportion of.

Au feur l'emplage. The same.

Si boute tel feur telle vente. Looke Bouter.

Fevre: m. A Blacke-smith; Look Febvre.

Fevrier: m. (The Moneth) Februarie.

La farine de Fevrier. Snow.

Fevrier le court pire de tous: Pro. Because it is commonly the foulest; and thereupon wee call it, Fill-dike.

Aujourd'huy Fevrier demain Chandelier: Prov. Looke Chandelier.

Pluye de Fevrier vaut esgout de fumier: Prov. We say, Aprill showres bring in May flowers.

Toute Chatte a son Fevrier: Prov. Euerie dog hath his day (say we) or (more properly) euerie woman hath her wanton fit.

Feurmariage. as Formariage: Bourgognois.

Feurolles. Night-fires; Looke Furole.

Feurre. as Foarre; Straw.

Vn Seigneur de feurre combat bien vn vassal d'acier; Looke Seigneur.

Feurs. The Plurall vnto Feur; onely in the two first sences.

Feustre. as Feultre; Or the thicke, hairie, and felt-like stuffe, vsed by Sadlers for stuffing, & in stiffenings.

Feutraict. A man drawne out of his countrey, bounds, or borders; also, wine, corne, or such commodities taken thence.

Feutre: m. Felt; also, a filter; a peece of felt, or thicke woollen cloth to distill, or straine things through.

Feutré: m. ée: f. Wrought thicke, as felt; also, stuffed, or stiffened, with felt.

Feutré d'herbe. Set thicke, or ouergrowne, with grasse.

Feyturage: m. A charme, or inchauntment.

Fez. as Faix; A burden.

Fi. (An Interiection;) et fi fi va t'en d'icy; Fie vpon thee, get thee hence, I cannot abide thee; Looke Fy.

Maistre fi fi. A Gold-finder, Dung-farmer, cleanser of iakes, feyer of priuies.

Fiable: com. as Feable; Trustie; or credulous; that easily trusteth.

Fiacre. The name of a Saint.

Fic, &, Fil S. Fiacre. Looke Fic, &, Fil.

Mal S. Fiacre. A kind of scab, or great wart in the fundament; or in a womans priuities.

Fiançailles: f. A publicke betrothing of a couple before their full mariage; (and sometimes) also, mariage it selfe; whence;

Fiançailles chevauchent en selle, & repentailles en croupe: Prov. Repentance sits full close (or dwells next doore) to mariage.

Fiance: f. Trust, credit, affiance, assurance, confidence.

A ma fiance. Vpon my word.

Fiancé: m. ée: f. Affianced, betrothed, handfast, promised, sure vnto.

Fiancé à la corde. Condemned, or destined, vnto the gallowes; for whom the gallowes grone.

Fiancer. To affiance, betroth, promise, make fast, assure, vnto.

Fiansailles: f. A publicke betrothing of man and woman before full mariage; Looke Fiançailles.

se Fiant. Trusting, beleeuing, hoping on, or in; intrusting vnto, committing to the trust of.

Fiat: m. Trust, assurance, affiance.

Fibres: f. The small strings, or haire-like threads of roots; also, the fibers, threads, or strings of muscles, & veines; in Lincolne-shire they are tearmed Cheyres.

Fibreux: m. euse: f. Fibrous; full of haire-like threads, or strings.

Fic: m. A certaine scab, or hard, round, and red sore, in the fundament, called also, Fic S. Fiacre.

Ficelle: f. Packthread.

Fiche: f. A Gardeners dible, or setting yron.

Par ma fiche. By my fey.

Planter à la fiche. See Planter.

Fiché: m. ée: f. Fixed, fastened, setled; thrust, planted, set farre in, firme, steadie, sure, sticking fast in; also, decreed, established, resolued on.

Croix fichée. A croisse Fitchet (in Heraldrie.)

Fichement: m. A fixing, fastening, setting, setling.

Fichément. Fixedly; setledly.

Fiche-pain. The vermine called an Eare-wig; some also call so the wood-louse.

Ficher. To fix, fasten, settle; to driue, sticke, set, thrust, plant fast, or farre in.

Fichet. arbre de fichet. A tree that is come of a twig, or tender scion planted.

Ficheur: m. A fixer, fastener, setler, or setter in.

Fichetre: f. A fixing, fastening, driuing, sticking, planting, setting, thrusting farre in.

Fichu: m. ue: f. as Saugrenu; Or absurd.

Ficotte. par ma ficotte. A diminutiue of, ma foy, or

ma

ma fique; as we say, by my feckins.
Fiéte. A little Shad-fish.
Fictil: m. ile: f. Earthen, or, made of earth.
Fiction: f. A fiction, inuention, lie, fib, cog; a thing imagined, fained, or foisted in.
Dire fans fiction. To speake sincerely, confesse plainly, professe from the heart.
Fidei-commis: m. A Feoffement in trust.
Fideiusseur: m. A suretie, pledge, caution.
Fidele: com. Faithfull, trustie, loyall, true, sure of his word, or to his side; also, religious.
Fidelement. Faithfully, loyally, trustily; vnfainedly, truely, surely; religiously.
Fidelité: f. Fidelitie, faithfulnesse, loyaltie, trustinesse; truth, sinceritie, vnfainednesse.
Serment de fidelité. Th'oath of fidelitie made by all Prelates vnto the King, at their inuesture, in acknowledgement of his Soueraignetie, and of th'obedience, and fidelitie which they owe him; This, although they hold no fiefs in right of their Prelacies; for if they doe, they also doe both homage, and fealtie for them.
Fidelium. The last Prayer thats said for the dead.
Il passe plusieurs choses par vn fidelium. He huddles, or shuffles vp many things vnder one; he sleightly dispatches, runnes, or goes ouer the matters committed vnto him.
Fidicule: f. The Harpe of heauen; a companie of starres which resemble a Harpe.
Fiduciale. Part of an Astrolabe turning round about the border, or edge thereof; th'Index, or hand of an Astrolabe.
Fié: m. ée: f. Trusted, beleeued, hoped on or in; also, intrusted, trusted with, committed vnto the trust of.
Fiebvre: f. A feauer; Looke Fievre.
Fiebvrette: f. A slight ague.
Fiebvreux: m. euse: f. Full or sicke of, subiect vnto, a feauer; also, feauer-breeding, ague-bringing.
Fied. as Fief: ¶ Bourgognois.
Fief: m. A Fief; a (Knights) fee; a Mannor, or inheritance held by homage, and fealtie; and giuen at the first, in trust, and vpon promise of assistance, or seruice in the warres: (A learned Frenchman defines it, L'heritage tenu à foy & hommage, baillé à aucun pour la fiance qu'on a euë en luy: Another; La terre concedée à cause de confiance, ou foy promise par le preneur d'icelle, d'assister son Seigneur en guerre: which both together make good my definition:) Also, a tenure, or estate in fief, or in fee. This word was first heard of after the conquest of Gallia by the Francs *(or auncient French men) when their Soueraigne Princes, reseruing some land for their owne Demaines, distributed the rest (by whole countries, or large territories) among their Captaines, and principall followers, on condition, that they should hold of them, and aid them in their warres; In which distribution respect was also had of, and prouision made for, th'inferiour French souldiours (whereof the more, or fewer those Captaines had vnder them, the greater, or lesse were their portions) whereupon the Captaines, hauing (as formerly their Princes) reserued somewhat for their particular demaines, they diuided the best part of the rest among them, to be held of themselues by the same tenure, and on the same condition, that they held the whole of the King: (Hence came th'*Arriere fiefs:) Th'other part they shared among the naturall inhabitants of the countrey, on much baser conditions (expressed in the word Cens:) In those times all Fiefs were determined by the death of the feoffees, and reuocable at the will of the feoffor: But not long after they became (as the most of them are now) patrimoniall, or hereditarie.
Fief abregé. A fief abridged, restrained, or not noble; a fief that wants, and is not capable of, iurisdiction; a tenure in Censiue; or in Socage.
Fief ample. A full, or whole fief, or Knights fee; for which the Lord of whom tis held hath the tenants best horse (or if he had none 60. s. Tour.) and part of his armor, for a Heriot.
Fief de Basoche. Looke Basoche.
Fief boursal. The fief, or portion of a fief, that belongs to a younger brother.
Fief en chef; &, fief chevel. A Noble fief; an inheritance held in Capite, and hauing iurisdiction.
Fief de condition feudale. An absolute fee simple, or hereditarie fief; (for some fiefs descend not; say the Feudists.)
Fief de danger. Such a fief as is forfeited vnto the Lord of whom tis held, if it be entred into by the tenant (vnder any title other then of lineall discent) before homage and fealtie done, or at the least, offered.
Fief de dignité. A Noble fief; such a one as hath some title of dignitie (as a Countie, Vicountie, Baronnie, or Chastellenie) annexed vnto it; a fief that dignifieth (a gentleman; for a Roturier, vnlesse he haue it by lineall discent from his grandfather, or be withall ennobled by the King, receiues no manner of dignitie by it.)
Fief dominant. A fief, or Mannor belonging to a Lo. Paramount; a fief held in chiefe, and whereof many others hold.
Fief d'Hauber, ou d'Haubert. Any fief, or inheritance, whose owner is bound to serue in the Kings wars with an Haubergeon, or coat of maile; (whereto one addes, a horse, a sword, a shield, and an helmet.)
Fief liege, ou lige, ou tenu en plein lige; as Fief ample; Held directly, and without mesne, of the Crowne.
Fief mort. An inheritance that yeelds the Lord no manner of profit other then a bare rent; and therefore may bee tearmed, a Fief sec.
Fief noble. A Noble fief, or Mannor; the marks whereof be, Antiquitie, Jurisdiction, Censiue, a dependancie of diuers inferiour fiefs; and (onely in some places) a faire house with ditches, or a mote round about it; but the most certaine marke of it (for the King may at any time erect a Noble fief; and the Iurisdiction, a thing seuerall, may be diuided from it) is, that it be held either of the Crowne, or of some other fief thats held immediately thereof.
Fief ouvert. Is when no vassall, or tenant presents himselfe to do the seruices, and pay the rights which be due vnto the Lord thereof; or when by the change of the tenant (by death, or otherwise) the Lord wants those rights, and seruices.
Fief Patrimonial. See Patrimonial.
Fief en Regale. A Noble fief, held immediately, and in Capite of the King; or, as Fief de Dignité.
Fief restrainct. as Fief abregé.
Fief de revenuë. A fee; a rent charge, or annuitie in fee, out of land.
Fief rural. Is (by the Customes of Nevers) a fief that wants Iurisdiction, a moted house, and all other such markes of Nobilitie, and antiquitie.
Fief servant. A mesne, (or inferiour fief; a fief that holds of a fief Dominant.
Fief vif. In opposition to Fief mort; that yeelds the Lord no more profit then a bare rent.

Francs

Francs fiefs. Free, o
Franc.
Menu fief. An inferior ther without iurisdiction
Plein fief. A full, or who of iurisdiction, and good
Clercdes fiefs. Looke C
Entrer de fief servi: Th at his first entrie, done th eldest brother for the wife, &c; and thereby th
Hommes de fief. Free fiefs, bound to assist the L Courts he keepes, and a wrongfull iudgements gi
Sergent du fief. Looke S
De son domaine faire f part of his fief, and therof it to be held of him by a n
De son fief faire son do demaine a fief that held
Exploicter le fief à pur solute se sure of the inher
Relever vn fief. Seeke R
Tenir fief. To enioy an i fed of land in his demesne
Tenir en fief. To be seise fee, or in the qualitie of a
Qui fief nie fief perd. forfeits his estate.
Fieffal: m. ale: f. Feoffall; Looke Iurisdiction.
Fieffe: f. as Fief: ¶ Norm
Fieffé: m. ée: f. Infeoffed; as a fief, or in fee.
Domaine fieffé (ou non held by homage and fealt which no homage is due:
Goutteux fieffez. A fit commonly, descends, which
Heritiers fieffez. Whom or to whom he makes liue belonging to them.
Sergent fieffé. Looke Se
Fiefferer. To infeoffe; to gran heritance in fee.
Fiefferme. A fee farme.
Fieffvé; &, Fiefvé. as F
Fiefvement: m. A feoffem
Fiel: m. Gall; or, the Gall.
Fiel de terre. The hearb Centorie, common Centori
Pierre de fiel. Seeke Pie
Fiefler. To make bitter.
Fielleux: m. euse: f. As bit or of gall.
Fiens: m. Dung, or dore; w
Fiens de chien, & marc iour de Iugement: Prov ter day, say we.
Fiente: f. Dung, turd, filth, or beast; especially of ve &c.
Fienté: m. ée: f. Dunged; passed, manured or mingle or beshit.
Fienter. To dung, shite, scu compasse, mingle, or mana

Francs fiefs. Free, or affranchising fiefs; or as in Franc.
Menu fief. An inferior fief, of small value, and altogether without iurisdiction; opposed vnto;
Plein fief. A full, or whole fief; an intire Knights fee; of iurisdiction, and good worth.
Clerc des fiefs. Looke Clerc.
Entrer de fief servi. The homage, &c, due by a vassall at his first entrie, done well-enough by another; as by the eldest brother for the yonger, by a husband for his wife, &c; and thereby the Lords entrie preuented.
Hommes de fief. Freeholders; or Lords of (inferior) fiefs, bound to assist the Bailli of the Iurisdiction in the Courts he keepes, and answerable, or finable, for all wrongfull iudgements giuen therein.
Sergent du fief. Looke Sergent.
De son domaine faire son fief. A vassall to alien part of his fief, and therof create a new tenure, or cause it to be held of him by a meane tenure.
De son fief faire son domaine. To reunite, vnto his demaine a fief that held of him.
Exploicter le fief à pure perte. To make a full, or absolute seisure of the inheritance forfeited vnto him.
Relever vn fief. Seeke Relever.
Tenir fief. To enioy an inheritance feodall; to be seised of land in his demesne as of fee.
Tenir en fief. To be seised of a right, or priuiledge, in fee, or in the qualitie of a fief.
Qui fief nie fief perd. He that denies his tenure, forfeits his estate.
Fieffal: m. ale: f. Feoffall; of a fief; in fee, held in fee; Looke Iurisdiction.
Fieffe: f. as Fief: ¶Norm.
Fieffé: m. ée: f. Infeoffed; giuen, or granted in fee; held as a fief, or in fee.
Domaine fieffé (ou non fieffé,) A Noble inheritance held by homage and fealtie; (or an vnnoble one for which no homage is due:) ¶Norm.
Goutteux fieffez. A fit Epithite; for the gowt, most commonly, descends, which way soeuer the land goes.
Heritiers fieffez. Whom the Lord puts in possession; or to whom he makes liuery and seisin, of th'inheritance belonging to them.
Sergent fieffé. Looke Sergent.
Fiefferer. To infeoffe; to grant, passe, alien, a fief, or an inheritance in fee.
Fiefferme. A fee farme.
Fieffvé; &, Fiefvé. as Fieffé.
Fiefvement: m. A feoffement, or an infeoffing.
Fiel: m. Gall; or, the Gall.
Fiel de terre. The heerb Earthgall, Feuerwort, small Centorie, common Centorie, Centorie the lesse.
Pierre de fiel. Seeke Pierre.
Fieller. To make bitter.
Fielleux: m. euse: f. As bitter as gall; full of bitternesse, or of gall.
Fiens: m. Dung, or dure; mucke, manure.
Fiens de chien, & marc d'argent feront tout vn iour de Iugement: Prov. All will be one at the later day, say we.
Fiente: f. Dung, turd, filth, ordure, excrements of man, or beast; especially of vermine, as Foxes, Badgers, &c.
Fienté: m. ée: f. Dunged; fild or filled, couered or compassed, manured or mingled, with dung; also, shitten, or beshit.
Fienter. To dung, shite, scumber; also, to fill, feed, couer, compasse, mingle, or manure, with dung.

Fienteux: m. euse: f. Full of dung, turds, ordure.
Fientifié: m. ée: f. Beshitten, berayed, beturded.
Fier: m. ere: f. (of one sillable) Proud, arrogant, insolent, scornefull, disdainfull, high-minded; fell, fierce, eager, bloudie, cruell, sauage, vnmercifull, inhumane; also, bold, stout, confident, courageous, audacious.
Il en est fier comme vn asne d'vn bast neuf. He is as proud of it as an Asse of a new packesaddle (which if he were not an Asse he would not be proud of.)
Femme fiere en toute saison, veut estre maistre de sa maison: Prov. Looke Femme.
se Fier. (of two sillables) To trust, or intrust vnto; to beleeue, or haue affiance, to put his hope or confidence, in.
De qui ie me fie dieu me garde: Pro. God preserue me from him whom I trust.
Fierement. Proudly, insolently, hautily, arrogantly, fiercely, cruelly, sauagely, inhumanely, vnmercifully; also, boldly, stoutly, audaciously.
Fieret: m. ette: f. Somewhat loftie; a little fierce.
Fiereté: f. Pride, insolencie, statelinesse, arrogancie, surlinesse, disdaine, scornefulnesse; cruelties, fiercenesse, inhumanitie; also, boldnesse, audacitie, stoutnesse, mettall, spirit.
Fierettement. Somewhat hautily, insolently, arrogantly; a little fiercely, sauagely, cruelly.
Fier-humble. Stoutly-humble; a stout heart humbled.
Fiert. A Verb Impersonall; Cecy fiert à. This is likening to, or, agrees well with.
Fierté. as Fiereté.
Fierte: f. A shrine, or coffin wherein the bones of Saints are inclosed.
Ficul. as Filz; A sonne: ¶Pic.
Fievre: f. An ague, a feauer.
Fievre ardente. A burning feauer.
Fievres blanches. The agues wherwith maidens that haue the greene sickenesse are troubled; and hence;
Il a les fievres blanches. Either he is in loue, or sicke of wantonnesse.
Fievre continuë. See Continu.
Fievre de Dol. The French pockes.
Fievre intermittente. Any ague that comes and goes by-fits.
Fievre de veau. (qui tremble quand il est saoul.) Trembling after meat; sicknesse vpon surfetting.
De fievre en chaud mal. From ill to worse, out of the frying-pan into the fire.
Tes fortes fievres. A pestilence take thee, a plague choake thee.
Fifre: m. A Fife; a Flute, or little pipe accorded with a Drumme, or Taber.
Figé: m. ée: f. Fixed, setled, fastened; compacted, closed together.
Laict figé. Milke thickened, or curded, as with the runnet.
Sang figé. Bloud clotted, or cluttered together, as when it is cold.
Figement: m. A fixing, fastening, closing; (and hence) also, a thickning, curding, or curdling.
Figer. To fix, fasten, setle, close, or compact together.
Se figer. To thicken, curd, clutter, curdle, coagulate.
Figon: m. A louer, or ordinarie eater, of figs.
Figue: f. A fig; also, the disease in a horses hoofe, called, the fig.
Figue de Caresme. A drie fig, a Lenten fig.
Figue folle. The fruit of th'outlandish Siccamore, or Mulberrie-fig tree; it resembles the wild fig, but is, withall, the sweeter of the two, and without seeds: It ri- ripens, not (especially if the tree be ouerladen) vntill it be scraped with an yron hooke: Also, a fig date; or any fig that opens of it selfe, and discouers it seeds, as it growes.

Figues primerouges. The first figs that come vpon the tree; starueling-figs.

Figué royalle. A Date.

Ces figues sont trop hautes. These dainties are aboue our reach; they cost too much, they grow too deere.

Il n' est ny figue ny raisin. He is neither fish nor flesh; hot nor cold; there is nothing in him.

Moitié figues moitié raisins. Betweene ieast and earnest; or, halfe th'one halfe th'other.

Figueraye: f. An Orchard of fig trees.

Figuerie: f. as Figuiére.

Figuier: m. A fig tree.

Figuiére: f. A fig-yard; an Orchard of fig trees.

Figuratif: m. iue: f. Figuratiue, spoken by a figure.

Figure: f. A figure, shape, image, forme; fauor, likenesse; resemblance, representation, counterfeit; fashion, making of; also, a figure, or flourish of Rhetoricke.

Figure accordée. An exact survey of land in controuersie, drawne by the consent of both parties.

Veuë figure. A description, of a place by the eye; or of a place which is present, and in th'eye.

Figuré: m. ée: f. Figured, fashioned, delineated, painted, represented, portrayed; also, figuratiue, in figures, by a figure.

Velours figuré. Looke Velours.

Figurement: m. A figuring, shaping, forming, delineating, representing, pourtraying.

Figurer. To figure, paint, picture, draw, delineate, pourtray, represent; to forme, shape, fashion; imagine, conceiue.

Figurine: f. A prettie little image, picture, counterfeit, figure.

Fil: m. Thread; also, a thread, line, or string; also, a streak, small dash, or stroke; also, a file, rank, order, course, row, ray; also, an infection, or imperfection in trees, whereby their barkes come to be gnawen, and eaten into.

Fil d'archal. (Great) yellow wire, made of copper, or latten.

Fil de caret. Packthread.

Fil d'eau. à fil d'eau. With the streame.

Fil d'entendement. Sharpnesse of wit, nimblenesse of apprehension, quicknesse of conceit.

Fil d'vn espée. The edge of a sword; Looke Passer.

Fil d'Espinay. A kind of loosse-twisted, and (somewhat) course thread; made at Espinay, a towne in Artois.

Fil S. Fiacre. A great wart, hard swelling, or excrescence of flesh.

Fil de Florence. A fine, & hard-twisted thread, made in Florence.

Fil d'or traict. The smallest gold wire.

Fil perlé. Looke Perlé.

De fil en aiguille. From point to point, from one end to the other, all wholly ouer.

De droict fil. Directly on, straight forward, with the thread, as euen as a thread.

Donner de droict fil. To hit iust; to passe right on.

Tout d'vn fil. Wholly, altogether, without stop, or intermission.

Bailler le fil. To cog, foist, sooth, flatter, smooth, deceiue, gull, gloze with.

Bailler le fil à. To set an edge on.

Cousu de fil blanc. Manifest, euident, apparent.

Fourni de fil & d'aiguille. Furnished with necessaries, readie for all essayes.

A toile curdie chet n'ande le fil: Prov. The worke that's well begunne God helpes to end; or, begun worke, and God will helpe to end it. (Some expound more prophanely.)

Filace: f. Line flaxe, dressed flaxe, flaxe made readie for the distaffe; Looke Fillasse.

Filacier: m. ere: f. Fit, readie, or easie to be spunne.

Filamens: m. Filaments; little strings, strees, or veins, in veines, plants, roots &c; the beard of a root.

Filamenteux: m. euse: f. Full of those strings &c.

Filandier. A man that spinnes.

Filandiere: f. A Spinster; a Flaxe-woman; also, a kind of small boat.

Filandié: m. ée: f. Streaked with, or full of, small threads, fibers; filanders.

Filandrerie: f. Spinstrie, spinning.

Filandres: f. The filanders; small wormes that breed in bruised, surfeited, or foule-fed, hawkes; also, nets to catch wild beasts with.

Filant. Twisting, or spinning.

Filant les mousstaches. Twirling, twining, or often stroking, his mustachoes.

Filat: m. Congar; so tearmed about Marseilles.

Filé: m. A net to catch wild beasts, or fishes with; a toile, hay, drag-net, &c; also, a snare, snarle, ginne.

File: f. A file, ranke, direct, and euen row of.

A la file. One after another, one by one, in due course, all on a row.

Filé: m. ée: f. Twisted, spunne, drawne out; made into thread.

Filée: f. The Eagle tearmed, a Bone-breaker.

File-habits. Clothes-spinning.

Filer. To twist, spin, draw out threads; also, to linger, delay; prolong, extend in length; also (among Mariners) to loosen, vndoe, and make vp.

Filer doux. To sooth, smooth, flatter, or giue faire words; also, to beare much and say little.

Filer gros. Ils filent bien gros. They worke rudely, deale grosly, proceed sottishly.

Filer prim. To runne thinne, or by little and little.

Filer de la soye. To take a purse; to rob by the high-way side.

Faire filer quelque chose. To draw a thing out in length, to make it goe a great way.

Au temps passé Berthe filoit: Prov. In old time the greatest women were the greatest huswiues; Looke Berthe.

Dame qui trop se mire peu file: Prov. Seeke Dame.

Femme qui enuis file porte chemise vile: Pro. Beggerie, and sluttishnesse are the fruits of ill huswiferie, and of lazinesse.

Fileret. as Filleret.

Filerie: f. A spinning; or, spinstrie; also, a friendly meeting betweene the young men, and maids of a countrie towne; where they play at many sorts of (actiue) games, while these both spinne, and looke on.

Filet: m. A little thread, string, or twist; also, as Filé; also, the fillet of a beast; also, a horses watering bit.

Filet carré. A small square part, or member of a piller; &c; a square fillet.

Filet d'huyle. A small drop, or threading of oyle.

Les Filets d'vn mords. as Bracelets.

Avoir le filet. To be tongue-tied.

Fretaillé de filets. Looke Fretaillé.

Filette: f. Yarne.

Fileul: m. A Godsonne.

Fileure: f. Thread spunne; or, the spinning thereof.

Fil-

Fil-gros. Shoomakers

Filiastre: m. A sonne

mer marriage.

Filiation: f. The being

Filiére: f. A cryance;

of an Hagard, or you come vnto the fist, or row; also, a Lyon-peece

waier.

Filipende. as Filipen

Filipendulé: f. Filipe

Fillains: m. The tackl

Fillandrerie. See Fila

Fillasse: f. as Filace.

La fillasse de nostre strings of a Cobweb.

Fillastre: m. A sonne

Fille: f. A daughter;

wench.

Fille de France. A

Kings daughter.

Fille de ioye. A who pet, cockatrice, commo

Filles penitentes. as

Fille perduë. A desp

Fille de ioye.

Filles repenties. A

beene professt whores;

Belle fille. A step-da

marriage, daughter in

Les sept filles de la

wikes, or Towne-ships

vnto the Chastelet of en Laye, Tornan &

lehery, & Gonnesse

D'une fille deux gen

hire, drawne from se

vse of one thing.

Se fier en vne fille

Frotter.

Fille aimant silence

Pro. The loue of silenc

Fille brunette est de

The nut-browne lasse passe.

Fille fenestriere; &

nagere: Pro. A gazin

good housewife.

Fille honneste, & mo

dotée: Pro. An hone

hath wealth ynough fo

Fille oiseuse raremen is rarelie vertuous; or,

to doe naught.

Fille oisiue à mal pen

still thinks of sinne; a

Fille qui donne s'aba is easily gotten.

Fille qui prend elle s

(much) is as good as ta

Fille trop veuë, Robb

tenuë: Prov. A maid

are disesteem'd, and be

Mauvaise fille se moc

the filthie bird beray h

Les sottes filles à mar

à garder: Prov. Wenc

some cattell to keepe.

Fil-gros. Shoomakers thread.
Filiaſtre: m. A ſonne in law, ſtep-ſonne, ſonne by a former marriage.
Filiation: f. The being a ſonne; the eſtate of a ſonne.
Filiére: f. A cryance; or a long thread tyed to the lunes of an Hagard, or young Hawke, when ſhe is taught to come vnto the fiſt, or lure; alſo, a net; alſo, a ranke, file, row; alſo, a Lyon-peece, or Ridge-peece, of timber; a ſide-wauer.
Filipende. as Filipendule.
Filipendulé: f. Filipendula, Dropwort, red Saxifrage.
Fillains: m. The tackling of a ſhip; ſmall tackle.
Fillandrerie. See Filandrerie.
Fillaſſe: f. as Filace.
La fillaſſe de noſtre Dame. The ſmall, and ſlender ſtrings of a Cobweb.
Fillaſtre: m. A ſonne in law, or ſtep-ſonne.
Fille: f. A daughter; alſo, a maid; girle, modder, laſſe, wench.
Fille de France. A daughter of France, the French Kings daughter.
Fille de ioye. A whore, punke, harlot, queane, ſtrumpet, cockatrice, common hackney, pleaſant ſinner.
Filles penitentes. as Filles Repenties.
Fille perduë. A deſperate filth, graceleſſe flurt; or, as Fille de ioye.
Filles repenties. An Order of Nunnes, which haue beene profeſt whores; Conuertits.
Belle fille. A ſtep-daughter; daughter by a former marriage, daughter in law.
Les ſept filles de la Preuoſté de Paris. Seuen Bayliwikes, or Towne-ſhips, which belong, and are ſubiect, vnto the Chaſtelet of Paris; viz. Poiſſy, S. Germain en Laye, Tornan & Torcy en Brie, Corbeil, Monlehery, & Gonneſſe en France.
D'une fille deux gendres. A ſeuerall commoditie, or hire, drawne from ſeuerall parts, or parties, for the vſe of one thing.
Se fier en vne fille? Allez vous y frotter. Looke Frotter.
Fille aimant ſilence eſt douée de grand ſcience: Pro. The loue of ſilence in a maid's great ſcience.
Fille brunette eſt de nature gaye, & nette: Prov. The nut-browne laſſe for mirth and neatneſſe doth ſurpaſſe.
Fille feneſtriere, & trotiere rarement bonne meſnagere: Pro. A gazing, and gadding maid ſeld proues good houſwife.
Fille honneſte, & moriginée, eſt aſſez riche, & bien dotée: Pro. An honeſt maid of manner lie behauiour, hath wealth ynough for any man to haue her.
Fille oiſeuſe rarement vertuëuſe: Prov. An idle maid is rarelie vertuous; or, a maid that does nought learnes to doe naught.
Fille oiſiue à mal penſiue: Pro. The ſloathfull maid ſtill thinks of ſinne; a maiden ſit-ſtill thinks on ill.
Fille qui donne s'abandonne: Pro. A maid that giues is eaſily gotten.
Fille qui prend elle ſe rend: Pro. A maid that takes (much) is as good as taken.
Fille trop veuë, Robbe trop veſtuë, n'eſt pas chere tenuë: Prov. A maid oft ſeene, gowne too oft worne, are diſeſteem'd, and held in ſcorne.
Mauvaiſe fille ſe mocque de ſa mere: Prov. So does the filthie bird beray her neaſt.
Les ſottes filles à marier ſont faſcheux troupeaux à garder: Prov. Wenches fond of mariage are troubleſome cattell to keepe.
Quand la fille peſe vn auque on luy peut mettre la cauque: Prov. See Cauque.
Autant ſe priſe beau varlet que belle fille: Prov. A faire lad thinkes himſelfe good ynough for any laſſe, or thinkes as well of himſelfe as any laſſe; a Jack's at all times worthie of a Gill.
Entre promettre, & donner ſe doit la fille marier: Pro. See Promettre.
La Goutte en la hanche la fille en la pance: Prov. The Gout in the hanch, a girle in the panch; viz: If a woman feele often paine in her backe, flanke, hips, legs, & knuckles, 'tis a ſigne that ſhe is withchild of a girle.
Mere piteuſe fait ſa fille roigneuſe: Prov. A gentle mother breeds a ſcuruie daughter.
Fille-femme. A crackt peece, one that hath got a clap; one that goes for a maid, (but is none.)
Filleret: m. ette: f. Maidenlie, white-liuered, effeminate.
Fillerie. as Filerie.
Fillet. A watering bit for a horſe; or, as Filet.
Fillette: f. A girle, yong maid, little wench; alſo, a firkin, barriquet, ſmall wine veſſell.
Fillette de Bourgongne. The halfe of a Muid; holds nine Stiers, and the Stier eight (French) pintes.
Filleul: m. A god-ſonne.
Filleule: f. A god-daughter.
Filliaſtre. as Fillaſtre.
Filliere. as Filiere.
Filloche: f. A little thread.
Fillol: m. as Filleul; A god-ſonne.
Fillole: f. A buddie knob in a vine, like a wart.
Fillot: m. A god-ſonne.
Filoire: f. A ſpinſter.
Filon. A veine of mettall in a mine.
Filoſelle: f. Ferret-ſilke, or flurt-ſilke; and the ſtuffe Filozella, being all, or the better halfe, of ferret-ſilke.
Fils: m. A ſonne; a boy; a man-child.
Fils de putain. A whoore-ſonne; a baſtard; Looke Putain.
Beau fils. A ſtep ſonne; or ſonne by a former mariage.
A pere amaſſeur fils gaſpilleur: Prov. See Pere.
Filtration: f. A ſtraining, diſtilling, or paſſing of ſimples, &c, through a felt.
Filtré: m. ée: f. Strained, diſtilled, or paſſed, through a felt.
Filtrer. To ſtraine, diſtill, or paſſe, through a felt.
Fimport: m. A forme of, or, courſe in, Law, binding a plaintife to fetch in, & make ioyne in ſuit with him, all ſuch as can pretend any right, intereſt, or portion in the thing which he meanes to recouer: (By the cuſtomes of Britaine.)
Fimporter. A plaintife to fetch in, and make ioyne in ſuit with him, all ſuch, as pretend any right, intereſt, or portion in the thing he meanes to ſue for.
Fin: m. le fin de l'eſlay de monnoye. The remainder, ouerplus, or ſurplusage thereof.
Fin: f. A fine, end, iſſue, concluſion, ſucceſſe; alſo, a finiſhing, ceaſing, ending; alſo, a ſeame, or veine, in a quarrey of ſtone; alſo, a barre, excluſion, refuſall, or exception, vrged, or pleaded in iſſue; & ſometimes th'iſſue it ſelfe.
Fins de non proceder. Are no better then dilatorie pleas; as an exception, againſt the iuriſdiction of the Court, or by reaſon of the qualitie of the perſon vnfit to be impleaded therein, &c.
Fins de non recevoir. Looke Recevoir.
Fin de terre. A Promontorie in Britaine, ſo tearmed, becauſe it is one of th'ends of France.
Bonne fin. faire bonne fin. To thriue, cheeue, increaſe, or proſper well.

Faucon de bonne fin. A well-liking, or well-prouing hawke.

`A toutes fins. Of force, of neceſſitie, howſoeuer: wee come by it, by hooke, or crooke, by any meanes whatſoeuer.

La fin fait tout: Prov. The end does all in all.

`A la fin ſçaura on qui à mangé le lard: Prov. The theeſe will be at length diſcouered (howſoeuer he conceale, or, how cunningly ſoeuer he carrie, himſelfe.)

Telle vie telle fin: Prov. Such as his life ſuch was his end.

Fin: m. fine: f. wittie, craftie, ſubtile, cunning, wilie, fraudulent, cautelous, beguiling; alſo, fine, ſmall, prettie, curious; perfect, exact, pure, exceeding good, of the verie beſt; alſo, moſt, very vtmoſt.

Anguille fine. The female Eele; called ſo in Languedoc.

Fin à dorer. A notable impoſter, cheater, couſener, conicatcher.

Fin comme vne mouche. As craftie as a fox; and; Vne fine mouche. A ſubtile fox, or peece of fleſh.

Le mau fin feu de riqueraque; Looke Feu.

Du fin fond. Out of th'vtmoſt depth, or bottome, from the verie middeſt of.

Par le fin faiſte. Strictly, ſtraitly, exactly, by line and leuell, to a haire, or to th'vtmoſt, in all extremitie.

Pour le fin moins. At the leaſt.

Chargé de la plus fine. Thats paied ſoundly, powdered throughly, that hath his load of the moſt delicate pockes; alſo, as in Chargé.

Faire le fin. To be ſqueamiſh, make it daintie, ſeeme ſtrange, refuſe an offer (cunningly, and with a hope to be the more inuited.)

Mais à fin contre fin. But craft met with cunning, or, two craftie knaues were therein verie well met.

Fin contre fin n'eſt bon à faire de doubleure: Pro. Craft in both parties hinders all attonement.

Fin. Adverb. and hence.

Fin à tel jour. Vntill ſuch a day; and; fin que; vntill that, whileſt that.

Fin de conte. Finally, to conclude, to be briefe, to make ſhort, to make haſt.

Fin de propos, il diſoit, que. The laſt he ſaid was, or in the end he ſaid, that; or (as in Fin de Conte) to make an end; he ſaid, that.

Pour le fin moins. At the leaſt.

Tout fin. Euen now, ſtraight; hard by; alſo, wholly.

Tout fin à Noel. Verie neere to Chriſtmas, when it was almoſt chriſtmas.

Tout fin mere nu. All diſcouered, ſtarke-bellie naked; as naked as my naile.

Finablement. as Finalement.

Finage: m. All the ſmall cordage in a ſhip; tackling.

Finages: m. Th'vtmoſt limits or liberties, the furtheſt bounds or borders, of a countrey, or citie.

Finaiſon. Quand argent faut finaiſon nulle. No bargaine, or ſatisfaction, without money.

Final: m. ale: f. Finall, finiſhing, laſt, concluding, vtmoſt; alſo, ſubiect vnto a concluſion, or end; and hence;

Creature finale. A mortall creature; a creature that muſt end one time or other (his dayes.)

Fin finale. The laſt end of all; a peremptorie concluſion, or iſſue.

Finalement. Finally; at length, at the laſt; in ſumme, in concluſion, in the end.

Finance: or; Finances: f. Wealth, ſubſtance, riches, goods; alſo, a Princes reuenew, or treaſure. (The French word Threſor ſignifies (moſt properly) the Kings demaine, which conſiſts of ordinarie reuenewes; but Finance (more generall) comprehends both the demaine, and all extraordinarie leuies; as th'Aides, taxes, impoſitions, &c.)

Perte de finance. Loſſe of publicke treaſure by a robberie, &c; the ruine, or decay of a priuate eſtate by exceſſiue, or needleſſe vſurie.

Prendre à perte de finance. Looke Prendre.

Faire finance. To giue money for an Office; alſo, to make, or gather, a ſtocke of money.

Financé: m. ée: f. That hath yeelded ſome treaſure, or a reuenew (to the king;) or (more generally) diſburſed.

Financer. To yeeld a reuenew, or treaſure to the king, &c; alſo (more generally) to diſburſe; to giue, or paymoney for.

Financier: m. A financer, or Exchequer-man; a Receiuer, vnder-Treaſurer, or Teller, in th'Exchequer.

Fine de poules: f. Hennes dung, or ordure.

Finé: m. ée: f. Ended, finiſhed, determined, concluded, accompliſhed; come to an iſſue.

Fineménr: m. An end, iſſue, concluſion, expiration; or, an ending, determining, finiſhing of.

Finément. Subtilly, craftily, ſlily, wilily, cunningly; hence, alſo, induſtriouſly; prouidently, diſcreetly, warily, cautelouſly; & guilefully, deceitfully, fraudulently, or, with a fraudulent intent.

Finer. as Finir; To end; alſo, to obtaine, get, recouer; ouerrule, commaund, preuaile with; alſo, to furniſh, or affoord; alſo, as Affiner; to trie, cleanſe, fine.

Ie ne me puis finer d'argent. I cannot come by any money.

Homme de qui on fine aiſément. A gentle, or tractable fellow; one thats eaſily won, or ſoone preuailed with.

Finerot chemin fin. A way that is about 18-foot broad: ¶Bourgong.

Fineſſe: f. Craft, ſubtiltie, gnile, deceit, policie, cunning, fraud, ſleight, ſlineſſe, wilineſſe.

Fineſſes de verre. Shallow trickes; ſuch as are eaſily lookt into; or ſeene thorow.

Finet: m. finette: f. A pettie craftie ſlaue; a ſlie rogue, a wilie mate, a ſubtile companion.

Finfreluches: f. Shales, or ſcales, or ſcalie excrements; as dandriffe, &c; or, as Fanfreluches.

Fingard: m. de: f. Lazie, lither, idle, ſlothfull, ſluggiſh, dull, retchleſſe, careleſſe, negligent.

Fini: m. finie: Finiſhed, ended, concluded, determined, accompliſhed; alſo, preſcribed, limited, ſtinted; compaſſed, comprehended.

Finir. To end, conclude, finiſh, determine, accompliſh; alſo, to define; preſcribe, limit, ſtint; comprehend, compaſſe.

Finiſſant. Ending, determining, defining, limiting.

Le cercle finissant. The Horizon; Looke Cercle.

Finiteur: m. The circumference of a piller, from the top to the bottome thereof.

Finoinct. A kind of peare; good raw, or roaſted.

Fins: m. The marches, borders, frontiers, vtmoſt ends, or limits of a countrey.

Fiole: f. A violl of glaſſe, &c.

Fiquatelle: f. A womans privities.

Fique. par ma fique. By my ſockins.

Fiquer. as Ficher; To faſten: ¶Pic.

Firmament: m. The skie, welkin, firmament.

Firme: com. Firme, ſtrong, ſtable; See Ferme.

Firmeté: f. Strength, firmeneſſe; Looke Fermeté.

Fiſcal: m. ale: f. Fiſcall, belonging, or comming to the publick purſe, treaſure; Treaſurie, or Exchequer.

Pro-

Procureur fiſcal. A Lord high Iuſticer i ordinarie Atturney, who pleads, and proſecutes within his circuit, all cauſes wherein either the publicke, or his Lords inheritance, or both, be intereſſed.

Fiscalins: m. Children, or freed men maintained, or nouriſhed in the Kings houſe, or vpon his land.

Fiscelle: f. Packthread.

Fiſcellette: f. Small packthread.

Fitellé: m. ée: f. Fuzellie; or, bendie counterbendie; a tearme of Blazon.

Fiſq: m. as Fiſque.

Fiſque: m. The publicke purſe; the publicke reuenew, or Treaſure; a Treaſurie, or Exchequer.

Fiſſaigne. A certaine tumbling tricke.

Fiſſau. A Fitch, or Fulmart.

Fiſſaye: f. A quicke, and violent daunce much vſed by the French.

Fiſſelle. as Fiſcelle; Packthread.

Fiſſure: f. A cleft, rift, chinke, chop.

Fiſſuré: m. ée: f. Cleft, riuen, chinked.

F ſt. il fiſt. He did; See Faire.

Fiſticin: m. ine: f. Of Piſtachoes, or fiſticke nuts.

Fiſtique. The Piſtachoe, or fiſticke nut.

Fiſton: m. A little ſonne, or boy.

Fiſtonneau. (The diminutiue of Fiſton) a verie little ſonne, or boy.

Fiſtule: f. A pipe, or flute; a tap, or faucet; alſo, the running ſore called an Iſſue, or Fiſtula.

Fiſtuleux: m. euſe: f. Full of Fiſtulaes; or of holes, like a ſponge.

Fivatier: m. A vaſſall, copieholder, or cuſtomarie tenant, properly, the vaſſall, or tenant of a Lord Cavier.

Fivele: f. A buckle. ¶ Langued.

Fixe: com. Fixed; ſetled, faſtened, ſure, ſteadie, vnmouable.

Fizain: m. Spindle-tree, pricke-timber.

Fizellé. as Fiſellé.

Flabellation. A fanning, airing, or giuing of wind vnto.

Flabellé: m. ée: f. Fanned, aired, blowne on, that hath wind giuen to it.

Flac: m. A flat, flap, ſtampe, or clap giuen by a thing that is violently thrown againſt a wall, or vnto the ground; and the report, or ſound made by hands, &c, ſtrucke, or hit, one againſt the other.

Mettre à la flac. To emptie a purſe (of the ſound an emptie purſe makes) alſo, as Flacquer; or, ſuddainely (and with a hurrie) to ruine, caſt downe, ouerthrow.

De grand vilain grand flac: Prov. He that liues villanouſly falls violently; or, the fall of a great rogue makes a great report.

Flaccide: com. Weake, flaggie, limber, flagging, hanging looſſe; faded, withered.

Flaccon. as Flaſcon.

Flacconner. To plie the pot; to quaffe, or tipple hard.

Flache: com. Weake, limber, flaggie; lolling, drooping, hanging downe the head; withered, faded; faint, effeminate.

Flacon. as Flaſcon; A (great) leatherne bottle.

Flacquer. To make a thing to flap, ſlamp, or clap, by caſting it violently againſt a wall, or to the ground.

Il la vous flacca là. He ſquaſht, ſlat, or ſquat her downe there; he gaue her an arſepoſſe; he made her buttockes ring with the fall he gaue her; there he clapt her, and ſo left her.

Flaflà. as Flagorneur; A blab.

Flagellation: f. A whipping, ſcourging, laſhing, ierking.

Flagellé: m. ée: f. Whipped, laſhed, ierked, ſcourged.

Flageller. To whip, ſcourge, laſh, ierke.

Flageol. as Flageolet.

Flageoler. To pipe, or play on a whiſtle.

Flageoler en l'oreille. To flatter; to whiſper.

Flageolet: m. A pipe, whiſtle, flute; alſo, as Flageollet.

Flageoleur: m. A piper, a whiſtler; alſo, a couſener, cheater, coniecatcher, notable deceiuer.

Flageollet: m. Iris, flag, or Flowerdeluce.

Flagorner. To blab, tattle, tell tales, report idle newes; alſo, priuately to appeach, diſgrace, detract from others, thereby to pleaſe the hearers.

Flagorneur: m. A blab, tell-tale, tatler, tale-carrier; alſo, a pickthanke, priuate detractor, ſecret accuſor; one that by ſuch baſe Offices hopes to win fauour.

Flagrance d'vn delict. Plaine apparencie, or palpableneſſe, of an offence; the crying of a ſinne.

Flagrant: m. ante: f. Flagrant, ardent, burning, flaming; earneſt, feruent.

Prendre au faict flagrant. To take at it, or in the manner; to apprehend vpon the deed doing, or preſently after.

Flaine: f. A ticke for a bed.

Flair: m. Sent, ſmell.

Flairé: m. ée: f. Sented, ſmelled, vented, winded; alſo, perfumed.

Flairement: m. A ſenting, ſmelling, ſauoring, venting, winding.

Flairer. To ſent, ſmell, vent, wind; alſo, to perfume, caſt a ſmell, yeeld a ſauor, breath out a ſent.

On flaire cela. There is great doubt, or ſuſpition had thereof; or, men begin to diſcouer it, vent it, find it, out.

Flaireur: m. A ſenter, ſmeller, venter.

Flaironné: m. ée: f. Sented, ſmelt, vented.

Flaironner. To ſent, ſmell, vent; ſucke vp his breath at his noſethrills often together.

Flaiſtri: m. ie: f. Marked, branded, burnt, as a rogue, in ſome apparent member, with an hot yron; alſo, publickly defamed, openly diſgraced, knowne for a knaue.

Flaiſtrir. To burne in the hand, or eare, to brand in the forehead, to marke for a rogue, with an hot yron; alſo, to defame publickly, diſgrace openly; blemiſh the reputation of, lay a foule imputation on; alſo, as Fleſtrir.

Flaiſtriſſure: f. A diſgracefull brand, or marke; an open blemiſh; alſo, a fading, or withering.

Flaitrir. as Flaiſtrir.

Flaman: m. A certaine reddiſh, long-bild, and long-leged, Sea-fowle; of the bigneſſe of a Stork, or ſomewhat bigger, and indifferent good meat.

Flambant. as Flaman.

Flambant. Flaming, ſhining, gliſtering, yeelding a bright luſter.

Flambart. as Furole; S. Hermes fire; alſo, the hearbe Water-torch, or Cats taile.

Flambe: f. A flame, a great blaze of fire; alſo, the blew Flowerdeluce (called otherwiſe) Garden flags; alſo, as Spaſe.

Flambe baſtarde. Sedge, Gladen, Glader, Swordgraſſe, Water-flag, yellow-Flag, Lauers, Leuers.

Flambe blanche. The white Flowerdeluce; alſo, the Flowerdeluce of Florence, of whoſe Aromaticall root our Orice powder is made.

Flambe de riviere. Water-flag, water Flowerdeluce; or, as Flambe baſtarde.

Flambé. Flamed, blazed, gliſtered; alſo, baſted with flaming, or hot ſcaulding lead.

Flambeau: m. Is (generally) a light; or any thing that yeelds a flame, and is carried, in the darke, for light; and (particularly,) a linke, or torch of wax, hauing neither any roſen in it, nor woodden handle vnto it; and, the great wax candle, thats vſed, for ſtate, in the houſes of great men.

Il porta le flambeau en ces ſecrets. He diuulged, or diſcouered, he led men to the knowledge of, theſe ſecrets.

Flambelot: m. A ſmall torch, linke, or light.

Flamber. To flame, to blaze; to ſhine, gliſter, yeeld a great luſter, giue much light; alſo, to baſt (meat) with flaming, or hot ſcaulding lard.

Flamberge: f. A ſword: ¶ Barrag.

Flambillon. A ſmall flame, light, or linke.

Flambo. A kind of long, ſlender, & flame-coloured ſea-fiſh: ¶ Langued.

Flamboyant. Flaming, blazing, ſhining, radiant.

Couleur flamboyante. A flame-colour.

Flamboyantement. Flamingly, ſhiningly, radiantly, moſt brightly.

Flamboyer. To flame, ſhine, blaze, giue much light.

Flamend: m. de: f. Of Flaunders, Flemiſh, belonging to a Fleming.

Feneſtre Flamende. Looke Feneſtre.

Flamiche: f. (In Paris, and thereabouts they call ſo) a kind of better bread then ordinarie, reſerued for the Maiſters, and Miſtreſſes own mouthes; as alſo, a cake made of butter, cheeſe, flower, and yolkes of egges; after baking glazed ouer with ſugar, and roſewater.

Flamman. as Flaman.

Flamme: f. A flame, or great blaze.

Des flammes. The greater kind of thoſe round muſcles, or cockles which the Latines tearme Chamæ, and which, being eaten, inflame the mouth like pepper; the leſſe, & leſſe-inflaming ones are tearmed, flammettes.

Flammeche. as Flammeſche.

Flammerolles: f. Fire-Drakes; ſtrange repreſentations of fire, appearing, ſometimes in the skie; or, as Furoles.

Flammesche: f. A ſparke, or ſparkle.

Flammette: f. A little flame; alſo, the hearbe Crowfoot; alſo, a kind of Launcet, pointed like a broad arrow head, wherewith Chirurgians vſe to open a veine.

Des flammettes. Look des flammes, vnder flamme.

Flammie: f. Th'Office, or dignitie of a (Pagan) Archprieſt; a Flaminſhip.

Flamme-vome: com. Flame-vomiting.

Flammuche. as Flamiche.

Flammule: f. The hearbe called vpright Clamberer, or vpright Virgines-bower; alſo, the hearbe called, Spearwort, or Speare-Crowfoot.

Flanc: m. The flanke, or ſide; alſo, a flanker (in fortification;) alſo, a coping, planchet, or plate of mettall readie to be ſtamped on, or coyned.

Mal de flancs. A continuall ſtitch in the ſide; or, a Pleureſie.

Aller du flanc. To pant.

Batre les flancs. To pant hard.

Donner le flanc à tous propos. To yeeld vnto, or be won by, euerie word.

Tirer des flancs. A horſe to ſtrike (often) at his owne flanke.

Il a tourné en mes flancs. I bore him; I carried him in my bellie.

Flançais. A draught-horſes drawing traces; thoſe that run along his ſides.

Flancars: m. Side Langes; Armour for the flankes, or ſides of a barbed horſe.

Flanchere: f. A flanker, ſide peece, or flanking peece of timber, in building.

Flannet: m. A doucet, or little cuſtard.

Flanquers: m. as Flançais; alſo, as Flancars.

Flanqué: m. ée: f. Flanked, ſtrengthened with flanks, fenced, defended; accoaſted.

Flanquer. To flanke, ſtrengthen with flankes; accoaſt, runne along by the ſide of; to defend, ſupport, or ſtraie; to be at ones elbow for a helpe at need.

Flans: m. Flawnes, Cuſtards, Egge-pies; alſo, round planchets, or plates of mettall; See Flanc.

Flaons: m. Round planchets, or plates of mettall, readie to be ſtamped, or coyned.

Flaque: com. Weake, feeble, faint, flaggie; See Flache.

Flaſche. as Flache.

Flaſcon: m. A (great) leathern bottle.

Terre loing de ſoy n'apporte que flaſcons, & bouteilles: Prov. Ground that lies farre off yeelds nought but pots, and bottles.

Flaſconner. as Flacconner.

Flaſque. as Flaſcon; Alſo, a flaske, or box for powder; alſo, the carriage of a peece of ordnance; the frame whereon it lyes.

Flaſquet: m. A little flaske.

Flaſsade: f. The couering of a bed; alſo, the daintieſt kind of Ray, or ſmooth Thornebacke.

Flaſtereau: m. A kind of flat Naveau.

Flaſtrer. To marke, burne, or brand with an hot yron.

Flaſtri: m. ie: f. Marked, burnt, or branded with an hot yron.

Flaſtrir. as Flaſtrer; or, as Flaiſtrir.

Flatant. Flattering, fawning on, colloguing with, clawing, ſmoothing, ſtroaking.

Flatard: m. de: f. The ſame.

Flaté: m. ée: f. Flatered; ſoothed, ſmoothed, ſtroaked, fawned on, glozed with.

Flatelet: m. A Hallibut (fiſh.)

Flatement: m. A flattering; ſoothing, ſmoothing; fawning on, colloguing or glozing with.

Flatement aux chevaux. A ſtroaking of them with the hand; alſo, the popping, or ſmacking vſed by riders.

Flater. To flatter; ſooth, ſmooth, fawne on, gloze or collogue with, vſe faire words, giue (ouer) good tearms vnto; alſo, to claw, ſtroke, clap gently.

Sans flater le dé. Plainely, Sincerely, roundly, without making the matter better then it is.

Qui flate il grate: Prov. He that flatters, thriues.

Flatereau: m. Halfe a flatterer, one that ſomewhat flatters.

Flatereſse: f. A flattering, or cogging wench.

Flaterie: f. Flatterie, fawning, glozing, adulation, aſſentation, ſoothing, ſmoothing, cogging, fiſling.

Flateur: m. A flatterer, glozer, fawner, ſoother, fiſler, ſmoother; a claw-backe, Sycophant, pickthanke.

Flateuſe. as Flatereſle.

Flateuſement. Glozingly, fawningly, flatteringly.

Flatré: m. ée: f. Branded in the forehead, bored through the eare, marked for a knaue.

Flatrer. To brand, burne, or marke with an hot yron; See Flaiſtrir.

Flatri. as Flatré.

Flatriſſement: m. A branding in the forehead, a burning through the eare; an open marke of diſgrace; a publicke defamation.

Flatti: m. ie: f. Flatted; beaten, or made flat.

Flattir. To flat; to beat, or make flat.
Flatueux: m. euſe: f. Flatulent, windie, full of windie humors.
Flatulent. as Flatueux.
Flatuoſité: f. Flatulencie, windineſſe, fulneſſe of wind.
Flaveſle: f. Trifling. (v. m.)
Flayau: m. A flaile to threſh with.
Fleau: m. as Flayau; Alſo, the beame of a great Balance; alſo, the tendrell, or tender ſhute of a vine, whereby it catcheth hold on what is next vnto it; It is alſo much vſed, by metaphor, for a ſcourge, plague, or iudgement of God.
Les Fleaux des poiſſons. The finnes of fiſhes.
Les Fleaux des rameaux des arbres. The ſmall tops, or twigs, of branches.
Fleble: as Foible.
Fleche: f. A ſhaft, an arrow; alſo, a peece of wood in the beakehead of a ſhip; the ſprit ſayle whereof it ſerues to hold in.
Fleche d' vn arbre. The trunke, or bodie of a tree.
Fleche de lard. A flich of bacon.
Faire de tout bois fleches. Looke Bois.
Il ne ſçait plus de quel bois faire fleches. He knows no longer what wood to make arrowes of; viz: what ſtuffe to make vſe of, what helps to relie on, what friends to recourſe to.
Flecheurs. Benders, pliers, bowers; and (more particularly) the muſcles that ſerue to bow the ioynts of the fingers.
Flechi: m. ie: f. Bent, bowed, plied; moued, turned; gone, awrie, or on th' one ſide.
Flechir. To bend, bow, plie; to moue; turne, goe, awrie, or on th' one ſide.
Facile à flechir. Gentle, pliant, flexible, tractable, turnable; tender; inconſtant; mouable; ſoone bent, eaſily bowed.
Flechiſſant. Yeelding, plying, bending, bowing vnto.
Flechiſſement: m. A bowing, bending, plying.
Flechiſſure: f. A bought, or crookedneſſe; alſo, a bending, crooking, bowing.
Flection. as Flechiſſement.
Flegart. A common place, or, way: ¶ Pic.
Flegmatique: com. Flegmaticke; full of fleame; breeding fleame; ſubiect vnto fleame.
Flegme: m. Fleame.
Flegmon: m. A hot, and red ſwelling, or inflamation of bloud, called by Phyſitians a Flegman.
Fleiche. as Fleche.
Fleſchade: f. A wound, or pricke of an arrow.
Fleſche. as Fleche; Alſo, a kind of water graſſe.
Fleſchier: m. An Archer.
Fleſchiſſant. as Flechiſſant.
Fleſtri. as Flatré; Alſo, faded, withered; quailed, decaied.
Fleſtrir. as Flatrer; Alſo, to fade, wither; flag, droope; decay, or drie vp; to quaile, faile, or fall away.
Laiſſer fleſtrir pour graine. To let run to ſeed; See Graine.
Fleſtriſſeure: f. A withering, fading, quailing, decaying; a failing, drooping, flagginеſſe, falling away; alſo, as Flaiſtriſſure.
Fletan. as Flettan.
Fletelet. A Hallibut, or holy-but fiſh.
Flettan. The greateſt kind of Sole-fiſh.
Flette. A lyter; a ſmall barke; alſo, a Flounder.
Fleve: com. as Foible.
Fleumatique: com. Flegmatick, ſubiect vnto flegme.
Fleume. as Flegme.
Fleur: f. A flower; bloome, bloſſome; a catkin, or blowing.
Fleurs. A womans monethlie flux, or flowers.
Fleur d' aage. The prime, or moſt flouriſhing time, of ones age.
Fleur d' amour. Flower-gentle, Flower-amour.
Fleurs blanches. The Whites; (a diſeaſe well knowne among women.)
Fleur des Chardons. Thiſtle-downe.
Fleurs cordiales. les trois fleurs cordiales. The three cordiall flowers; Roſes, Bugloſſe, and Bourrage flowers.
La fleur du cuir. The graine, or vpper part of leather.
Fleur d' eau. The water Lillie, water Roſe, yellow, or white Nenuphar.
Fleur d' erain. Little red, and ſhining graines, that fall from the ſmoake ariſing of cleere water caſt vpon melted, liquid, and red-hot braſſe; (of great vſe in Phyſick, and Chirurgerie.)
Fleur de farine. Flower, or the fineſt meale; alſo, meal-duſt, or mill-duſt.
Fleur d' huyle. as Mere goutte.
Fleur S. Iaques. Ragwort, Staggerwort, Stauerwort, S. Iames-wort.
Fleur à jaulnir. Dyers weed, greening weed, wood-waxen, baſe broome.
La Fleur de mouton. The beſt of the rack; & the ribs of the breaſt which be not vnder the ſhoulder.
Fleur de la pierre Aſsienne. The ſaltiſh mold, or boare, that growes on that ſtone; an excellent preſeruer of the things which are ſeaſoned withall.
Fleur de ſel. as in Sel.
Fleur du vin. The mother of wine; the white, or mouldie ſpots that float on the top of old wine.
Choux fleurs. Collie-florie, Cypres Coleworts.
Couleur de fleur de Peſcher. A Peach colour.
La noble fleur. Flower-gentle, Veluet flower, Flower amour, Flower valure.
A fleur. Blanchir de la toile à fleur. To bleach, or whiten linnen.
A fleur d'eau. Cloſe by the water, betweene wind and water.
A fleur de terre. Cloſe vnto, euen with, hard at, the ground.
La fleur n' eſt que cendre. The beſt is but traſh; the faireſt no better then a dead flouriſh.
Fleurage: m. Flourineſſe; a heape, or aboundance of flowers.
Fleurant le plan de la terre. as à Fleur de terre.
Fleurant comme le calemard d' vn retraict. Smelling, or caſting a ſent, like the funnell of an Aiax.
Fleurdeliſé. Branded, or marked for a rogue, with the print of a Flowerdeluce, betweene his ſhoulders, &c.
Fleurdeliſé d' or. Set, inriched, flouriſhed, beautified, with golden Flowerdeluces.
Fleurdeliſer. To ſet a Flowerdeluce betweene the ſhoulders with a hot yron (the marke of a rogue;) alſo, to flouriſh, beautifie, ſticke, ſet thicke, with Flowerdeluces.
Fleurée: f. The froath, ſoame, or vpmoſt flowerie ſcumme of a thing that boiles.
Fleuret. Courſe ſilke; floret ſilke.
Meſler la ſoye avec le fleuret. To mingle good and bad, fine and courſe, deere and cheape, together.
Fleuretant. Sleightly running, lightly paſſing ouer; onely touching in the paſſing by; alſo, venting, or winding.
Fleureter. Sleightly to run, lightly to paſſe ouer; onely to touch a thing in going by it (metaphorically from the little Bees nimble skipping from flower to flower as ſhe feeds;) alſo, as Fleuretter.

Fleuretis de paroles. Fine tearmes to ſmall purpoſe; an idle flouriſh of words.
Fleurette: f. A little flower, ſmall bloome, or bloſſome.
Fleuretté. Fleurettie (a tearme of Blazon;) alſo, vented, or winded.
Fleuretter. To vent, or wind; alſo, to ſneake, or eaue-drop it; alſo, as Fleureter.
Fleureux: m. euſe: f. Flowerie; ſtored with choice of flowers; alſo, fragrant, odoriferous, ſweet-ſmelling.
Fleuri: m. ie: f. Flouriſhing, flowred, bloſſomed.
Choux fleuris. Colle-florie; Cypres cole.
Paſques fleuries. Palme-Sunday.
Vieilleſſe fleurie: White, or gray-headed.
Fleurin: m. as Florin; Or, a Low-Countrey coyne worth about ij.s.ſterl.
Fleurir. To bloſſome, bloome, flower, bring or beare, flowers; alſo, to proſper, excell, flouriſh, be renowmed, come into credit, haue much reputation in the world.
Fleuriſſant. Blooming, bloſſoming, flouriſhing, bearing many flowers; alſo, proſperous, renowmed, had in eſtimation.
Fleuron: m. A Fleuron, or Fleuret; a ſmall flower, little bloſſome, young bloome.
Fleuronné: m. ée: f. Flouriſhing; decked, or ſet thicke, with yong flowers, bloſſomes, bloomes.
Croix fleuronnée. A croſſe botonie; (in Blazon.)
Fleuronner. To bloome, to blow; to beginne to bloſſome.
Fleurtis: m. A flouriſh, or flouriſhing.
Fleurtis des oyſillons. The warbling of little birds.
Fleury. as Fleuri.
Fleute: f. A flute; a pipe.
Le fleute d' vn Alambic. The beake, or noſe of a Limbecke.
Fleute d' Aleman. A Lamprey; called ſo in ſome places by reaſon of the little holes which ſhe hath in th' vpper part of her bodie.
Il y a de l'ordure dans leurs fleutes. All goes not wel with them; ſomewhat is amiſſe among them.
Ils ont accordé leurs fleutes. They are agreed vpon the matter.
Ce qui eſt venu par la fleute s'en retourne avec le Tabourin: Prov. What the pipe hath gathered the Taber ſcattereth; goods ill gotten are commonly ill ſpent.
Robin ſe ſouvient tousjours de ſa fleute: Prov. Looke Robin.
Fleuter. To play on the flute.
Fleuteur: m. A Fluter, a Piper.
Fleuteuſe: f. A Flutereſſe; a woman that playes on a flute.
Fleutrer. See Flatrer.
Fleuve: m. A floud, ſtreame, riuer.
Le fleuve paſſé le Sainct oublié: Prov. The danger once paſt our vowes are ill paid.
Flexible: com. Pliant, flexible; tractable; ſoone bent, quickly bowed, eaſily won or changed; good to be dealt with, fit to be wrought on.
Flexir. To bend, bow, plie; turne, wind about.
Flexueux: m. euſe: f. Intricate, crooking or crooked, full of cranklings, that hath many turnings, winding in and out.
Flexuoſité: f. Flexuoſitie; a moſt crooked, or manifold turning; an intricate, or often winding in and out.
Flez. A Flounder.
Flic: m. A iert, or ierke; a twang, a dash, a flat, or flamp; alſo, an arrow, or ſhaft.
Fliche de larde: f. A flich, or ſide, of bacon.
Flin: m. A thunder-ſtone; a kind of ſtone wherwith Cutlers ſharbuſh their blades; or as Eſmeril.
Flion. A kind of tender, and daintie ſhell-fiſh, not much vnlike a Cockle, but that the ſhell thereof is ſomewhat whiter, and much ſmoother.
Flique de lard. as Fliche: ¶Pic.
Flis: m. A flight-ſhaft.
Fliſquant: m. ante: f. Whisking, jerting, twanging.
Flo: m. The high-water marke, at ſea; Looke Flot.
A flo. Floating, or ſwimming vpon the ſea.
Choſes du flo. Flotſens, or flotzams; goods that lie floating, or ſwimming on the top of the water.
Floc de laine. A locke, or flocke of wooll.
Floc de Moine. as Froc.
Floccard: m. A faſhion of head-attire put on by the betrothed maidens of Lyons, and left off when they haue beene maried a twelue-month.
Floche. Looke Floſche.
Flocon. as Floc.
Flocquars: m. Taſſels, puffes, or tufts, as of Sarcenet thats drawne out of, or cut vnder, another ſtuffe.
Flocquer. To puffe out, as Sarcenet in a breech cut after the Swiſſe faſhion; to hang forth looſe, to ſit bagging, flagging, or befrumpled, as an ouer-wide garment.
Flocquoir: m. A ſquirt.
Floflotant. Flowing, floating, ſurging; ſounding like waues, or billowes.
Floflotement. A floating, or ſurging; a bubling, or tempeſtuous noiſe.
Flofloter. To float, ſurge, or waue vp and downe; alſo, to make a ſurging, bubling, or tempeſtuous noiſe.
Flon. as Felon; Alſo, a white-meat made of milke, egs, butter, and meale; or, as;
Flondelaict: m. A certaine baked-meat that ſomewhat reſembles our flawne.
Floquer. See Flocquer.
Floquet. gentil floquet. A ſweet youth, ſpruce companion; minion, milk-ſop: ¶Rab.
Floquets de poil. Flockes, or locks of haire.
Florable. The herb Cheeſe-runnell, or Cheeſe-renning, our Ladies Bedſtraw, petite Mugwet, Maides-haire.
Floraux. Ieux Floraux. A certaine wittie, & pleaſant contention among French Rimers, or Poets; a ſiluer Eglantine being the reward, or prize, for the beſt doer, and a Marigold for the ſecond.
Florée: f. The blew ſcumme of woad boyling in the Dyers lead; which fleeted off, and dried vnto powder, ſerues Painters, and Silke-Dyers for diuers vſes.
Florencé. croix florencée. A croſſe flurt; (in Blazon.)
Floret: m. A foile; or ſword with the edge rebated.
Flori: m. ie: f. Bloomed, bloſſomed, flouriſhing, in the flower; whence;
Quand les febues ſont flories, les ſots cõmencent leurs folies: Prov. Looke Febue.
Floride: com. Liuelie, freſh, luſtie, flouriſhing.
Florin: m. A Florin, or Franc; an ancient coine of gold in France, worth ij.s.ſterl. not currant at this day; (though Languedoc, and the countries adioyning retaine the name ſtill, in a peece thats worth 18.d.ſterl.)
Florin de Metz. Is worth iij.s.ſterl.
Florin au traict. Wants ſomewhat of iij. s. (29.s. Tour.)
Florin de Vic. Goes for 33.s.Tourn.
Qui a Florin, latin, rouſsin, par tout il trouve chemin: Prov. (Wherin, by florin, ſtore of coyne is vnderſtood.)
Floſche: com. Flaggie, weake, ſoft; as a boneleſſe lump of fleſh.
Soye floſche. Sleaue ſilke.

Flot:

Flot: m. A waue, ſurge or flowing of any wate
Flo; the high-water m
Le flot de Mars. The in about the Equinoctia
Le flot de Septembr bout the Autumne Equ
A flot griffe graffe. loſt on the waues.
Tout ce que vient d' Prov. What's got by ther.
Flotage: m. A floati top of.
Le premier flotage new ſhip.
Flotelant. as Floflotan
Floter. as Flotter.
Floton: m. A tuft, lock
Flottage. as Flotage.
Flottant. Floating, flo alſo, ſayling, or ſwimm
Flotte: f. A Brewers Co
Flotte de gens. A cr panie, multitude, ſtrea
Flotte de marrein. ned together, and ſent
Flotté: m. ée: f. Flo toſſed, moued; carri waues.
Bois flotté. Looke Bo
Flottement: m. A flo
Flotter. To flote; houe boyle, flow, ſurge, riſe
Floüet: m. ette: f. We ¶Norm.
Vne main floüette.
Floüin: m. A Barke of er decked then a Gall Barke; and going bot bankes) and fitted bot call it a Ry-boat, or a from Ry, ſayes Nicot.
Flour. as Fleur; a bloſ
Flouré: m. ée: f. Flo
Flourir. See Fleurir.
Fluction: f. An iſſue,
Fluctuation. A ſurgin wauering, vncertaine
Fluctuer. To float, ſu water; to be toſſed, t uer, doubt, hold an v taine eſtate, be at no ſtantly.
Fluer. To flow, runne, water.
Fluëurs de femme. A
Fluïde: com. Flowing waterish; thinne, fe currant, ſmoothly ru
Fluïdement. Flowin ly; thinnely; weake ly along.
Fluïdité: f. A flowin neſſe; thinneſſe; fla
Flusteau. A little Flut
Fluſte-bergiere. A ter Plantane.

Flot: m. A waue, ſurge, floud; or, the wauing, floating, or flowing of any water; alſo, a tyde, or the tyde; or, as Flo; the high-water marke at ſea.

Le flot de Mars. The great Spring-tydes which come in about the Equinoctiall, or thirteenth, of March.

Le flot de Septembre. The like tydes, comming in about the Autumne Equinoctiall.

A flot griſſe graffe. Floating, ſurging, ſwimming aloft on the waues.

Tout ce que vient d' Ebe s' en retournera de flot: Prov. What's got by one hand will be loſt by another.

Flotage: m. A floating, ſurging, ſwimming on the top of.

Le premier flotage d'un Navire. The launching of a new ſhip.

Flotelant. as Floflotant.

Floter. as Flotter.

Floton: m. A tuft, locke, or puffe of.

Flottage. as Flotage.

Flottant. Floating, flowing, ſurging, wauing, as water; alſo, ſayling, or ſwimming on the water.

Flotte: f. A Brewers Cooler; alſo, a fleet of ſhips.

Flotte de gens. A crue, rout, a troupe, flocke, a companie, multitude, ſtreame, of people.

Flotte de marrein. A raft, or float-boat of timber ioyned together, and ſent downe a riuer.

Flotté: m. ée: f. Floating; ſet aflote; alſo, ſhaken, toſſed, moued; carried vp and downe by, or on, the waues.

Bois flotté. Looke Bois.

Flottement: m. A floating, ſwimming, wauing.

Flotter. To flote, houer, ſwimme aloft on the water; to boyle, flow, ſurge, riſe in waues, or billowes.

Floüet: m. ette: f. Weake, waſhie, tender, delicate, nice. Norm.

Vne main floüette. A ſoft, or daintie hand.

Floüin: m. A Barke of ſome fortie, or fiftie tunne; higher decked then a Galley, and lower then an ordinarie Barke; and going both with ſayles, and oares (without bankes) and fitted both for fight, and burthen; we may call it a Ry-boat, or a Ry-man (for the faſhion of it came from Ry, ſayes Nicot.)

Flour. as Fleur; a bloſſome, or flower.

Flouré: m. ée: f. Flowrie (in Blaſon.)

Flourir. See Fleurir.

Fluction: f. An iſſue, flux, flowing.

Fluctuation. A ſurging, floating, ſwimming; a doubting, wauering, vncertainetie, inconſtancie.

Fluctuer. To float, ſurge, waue vp and downe, as the water; to be toſſed, turmoyled, diſquieted; alſo, to wauer, doubt, hold an vncertaine courſe, haue an vncertaine eſtate, be at no certainetie, behaue himſelfe inconſtantly.

Fluer. To flow, runne, ſlip, ſlide, glide, or paſſe along, as water.

Fluëurs de femme. A womans monthlie flowers.

Fluïde: com. Flowing, running, waſhie, flaſhie, moiſt, wateriſh; thinne, feeble, weake, as water; alſo, glib, currant, ſmoothly running along.

Fluïdement. Flowingly, running; moiſtly, wateriſhly; thinnely; weakely; alſo, currantly, glibly, ſmoothly along.

Fluïdité: f. A flowing, moiſtneſſe, waſhineſſe, wateriſhneſſe; thinneſſe; flaſhineſſe; weakeneſſe.

Fluſteau. A little Flute, or Pipe; Seeke Enter.

Fluſte-bergiere. An hearbe, which ſome hold to be water Plantane.

Flute. as Fleute; alſo, a certaine peece of ſmall Artillerie.

Fluter, & Fluteur. See Fleuter & Fleuteur.

Fluviatile: com. Of a riuer, ſtreame, or water; belonging to, or bred in, a riuer, ſtreame, or water.

Flux: m. A flowing, running, ſtreaming, or ruſhing out; a current (or tide) of water; alſo, a flux, flix, laske, looſeneſſe; a (thinne, or liquid) iſſue; alſo, a fluſh, at Cardes.

Cela eſt encores en flux. That is as yet in action, or vpon th'increaſe.

Paſſe ſans flux. Paſſe, I am not fluſh; alſo, let-goe, no matter, or not a pinne matter.

Fluxible: com. Fluxible, fluide, or flitting.

Fluxil: m. ile: f. Fluxie, fluent, flowing, flitting, running.

Fluxion: f. A fluxion; a running, flowing, or floating of waters; alſo, a flux, flix, or iſſue.

Foarre: m. Straw; alſo, litter, or ſodder.

Foarreux: m. euſe: f. Full of, well furniſhed with, ſtraw.

Focile: m. The arme from the elbow to the wriſt; the leg, or ſhanke from the knee to the ankle; each conſiſting of two bones.

Focile grand. Th'vpper of thoſe two bones, being the longer, and greater.

Focile mineur; ou, petit focile. The vndermoſt, and leſſe of them.

Fodine: f. A quarrey, or mine; a place or pit whereout any thing is digged.

Foetide. as Fetide. Stinking.

Foeu. Seeke Feu; A fire.

Fogat. A kind of engine to catch fiſh with.

Fogner. To grumble; powt, lowre.

Fogon d' vne navire. as Fougon.

Foiblage de poids. Want of weight, ſcant weight.

Foible: com. Feeble, weake, ſtrengthleſſe, faint, forceleſſe.

Foible comme vn feſtu. We ſay, as weake as water.

Le fort portant le foible. One with another, good and bad together, ſome better to make amends for the worſe.

Qui a le reſſort foible. That wants erection.

Foiblement. Feebly, weakely, faintly; without ſtrength, without force, without vigor.

Foibleſſe: f. Feebleneſſe, weakneſſe, want of ſtrength; faintneſſe, infirmitie; a fainting, or falling into a qualm; alſo, want of due weight, or, ſcant weight, in coine.

Foibleſſe de coeur. Daſtardie, faint-heartednes, cowardiſe, want of courage.

Foie. as Foye.

Foignaſſe: f. Medicke fodder, Spaniſh Trifolie, Snaile Clauer.

Foigne: f. A long ſtaffe that hath at th'one end a ſquare caſting-net; vſed moſt by ſea-fiſhermen.

Foigner. To powt, lowre, grumble, murmure, or be offended, at; alſo, as Feindre; and hence;

Ils ne ſe foignoyent de gueres. They diſſembled, or forbore, but a little.

Foin: m. Hay; alſo, a great white Moath, or night-flie, that ſomewhat reſembles a Beetle.

Foin d' arriere ſaiſin. Fog, late Math, lateward Hay.

Foin de Bourgongne. Spaniſh Trifolie, Medick fodder, Snaile Clauer.

Foin dur. Hard Hay, S. Peters wort, ſquare or great S. Iohns graſſe.

Foin Grec. (The bearbe, or ſeed) Fenigreeke.

Sain

Sain foin, ou ſainct foin. Spaniſh Triſolie, Medicke fodder, Snayle Clauer.

Bailleur de foin à la mule. A Cheater, Couſener, Conycatcher.

Chapitreur de foin. A skarre-crow; one that ſeemes better then he is, or aſſumes more then he ſhould.

Bailler foin en corne. To deceiue, gull, couſen, ſell a bargaine, giue a gudgeon.

Bailler de l'avoine pour du foin. To looſe by an exchange, to giue cake for bread.

Botté de foin. Ruſticke, ruſticall, clowniſh, Boore-like, rude; alſo, ignorant, ſimple, ſillie.

Il y a du foin, il n'y a que les beſtes qui s'y amuſent. Your hopes are verie meane, or vaine; the thing you gape for's moſt vnworthie of you.

Se remplir de foin, ou de paille. To ſtop his guts with, to glut himſelfe on, any thing; (from a horſe, that wanting Hay falls to his Litter.)

Tirer du foin aux chiens. To ſpue, caſt, vomit (after a ſurfet.)

Tourner les truyes au foin. To anſwer from the matter, to ſpeake from the purpoſe.

Foin en corne: Prov. A good warning, or marke, for the auoiding of a dangerous perſon; a thing worne to giue notice that the wearer is not to be ſafely accoaſted; (from the auncient Romanes, who vſed to ty a wiſpe of Hay about the one horne of a ſhrewd, or curſt Beaſt;) and hence;

Il a du foin aux cornes. He is a dangerous beaſt; a fierce, proud, ſturdie, ſurlie, vnſociable, fellow.

De mauvais payeurs foin, ou paille: Prov. For a deſperate debt take any ſatisfaction, of an ill paymaiſter any thing.

Foine. as Fouine. A Foyne, or Polecat.

Foine. A Pigeon-houſe, that hath one entrie on the top, without other hole, or window for light, or ayre; alſo, as Faine; Beech-Maſt.

Foinil: m. A Hay-ſtacke, Hay-reeke, Hay-mow; Hay-loft, Hay-houſe.

Foirard: m. A ſhitten fellow; alſo, a kind of white Vine, or grape of no great worth; ſo tearmed, of the propertie it hath to looſen the bellie.

A cul de foirard touſiours abonde merde: Prov. A filthie tale ſeld wanteth filthie Auditors.

Foire: f. A Faire; a Mart; a generall Market.

Il s'eſt bien trouvé de la foire. He hath made a good match, or market; he hath ſped very well; (Applyable vnto one that hath gotten a good wife.)

On ne s'en va pas des foires comme du marché; Looke Marché.

Foire: f. Squirt, thinne dung; a laske.

Faire barbe de foire à. To diſgrace, violate, wrong extreamely, abuſe egregiouſly.

A ſaincte Foire chandelle de merde: Prov. A gift agreeable to her nature, or humor; fit (and filthie) Lettuce for her (ſtinking) lips.

Foirelle: f. French Mercurie, garden Mercurie.

Foirer. To ſquirt, to ſhite thinne, as in a laske; alſo, to beſquirt, or beray with ſquirting.

Foiret: m. as Foret.

Foireux: m. euſe: f. All to beſhitten, or berayed with ſquirting; alſo, hauing the ſquirt, troubled with a lask, looſe behind.

Foirolle: f. as Foirelle.

Fois: m. Le fois du corps. The waſte, or middle.

Fois: f. A time, turne, courſe, bout; (A word that hath euer another before it.)

L'autre fois. Th'other time; Les autres fois, th'other times; & Autre fois (an Aduerbe, and moſt vſed as one word;) heretofore, in times paſt; while-eare; ſometimes, at another time.

Quelque fois. Sometimes, one time or another.

Toutes fois. Neuertheleſſe, notwithſtanding.

Toutes fois & quantes. Euerie time and tide; as often as.

Vne fois; once: deux fois; twice: trois fois; thrice: quatre fois; foure times; (and ſo forward, reckoning by ſo many times.)

De fois à autre. Ofiſoones, now and then, euer and anon; one time after another.

Par fois. Sometimes, or by times, now and then.

Foiſon: f. Store, plentie, abundance, great fullneſſe, enough.

A foiſon. Copiouſly, plentifully, abundantly.

Foiſonnant. Abounding with, hauing plentie of.

Foiſonner. To abound; be full, haue plentie of.

Foiſonneux: m. euſe: f. Plentifull, abundant, full of, well ſtored with.

Foite-cul: m. A Pedant; a whip-arſe.

Foiter. as Fouëtter.

Fol: m. A foole; aſſe, gooſe, calfe, dotterell, woodcocke; noddie, cokes, gooſecap, coxcombe, dizard, peagooſe, manie, naturall, ideot, wiſakers; alſo, a Biſhop, at Cheſſe; alſo, a kind of great Canarie bird, ſo called, becauſe ſhe neuer linnes wagging her head.

Il en eſt plus affotté qu'un fol de ſa marotte. He dotes more on it then a foole on's bable (which, we ſay, hee'le not giue for the Tower of London.)

Fol eſt qui ſe coupe de ſon propre couteau: Pro. He is an aſſe that hurts himſelf with his own helps; or, abuſes his owne good parts to his owne deſtruction.

Fol eſt qui s'enyvre de ſa propre bouteille: Prov. Of the ſame ſence; or, he is an aſſe thats beſotted on his owne good parts.

Fol eſt qui eſt eſperonné, & à cheval dit hai: Prov. He is an aſſe that hauing ſufficient, doth vſe inſufficient helpes.

Fol eſt qui eſt à table, & n'oſe manger: Prov. He is an aſſe that hauing wealth enough dares not vſe it; or being where tis to be had, dares not put for it.

Fol eſt qui iette à ſes pieds ce qu'il tient en ſes mains: Prov. He is an aſſe that throwes at his heeles what hee holds in his hands; viz. that neglects his own (whatſoeuer.)

Fol eſt qui perd la chair pour les os: Prov. He is an aſſe that looſes fleſh for bones; viz. that leaues important, to follow paultrie, matters.

Fol eſt qui de ſon poing fait coing: Prov. He is an aſſe that preſumes too much on his owne ſtrength, or knowes not the right vſe of his owne things.

Fol & avoir ne ſe peuvent entr'avoir: Pro. A foole and wealth cannot poſſeſſe each other.

Fol qui beaucoup deſire choiſit, & prend le pire: Prov. The greedie foole that all would purſe, by haſtie choiſe lights on the worſe.

Fol ſe doit nommer en face qui bien aſſis ſe deſplace: Prov. He ſhould be call'd a foole to his face, that being well doth quit his place.

Fol quiert iuſques au crever ce qui ne ſe peut trouver: Pro. (Meant eſpecially of the Alchymiſt.)

Fols ſont ſages quand ils ſe taiſent: Prov. Fooles are wiſe vntill they ſpeake.

Le fol eſt ſot quant & quant, mais tout ſot n'eſt pas fol: Prov. All fooles be ſots, but all ſots be not fooles.

Le fol reſte apres la feſte: Prov. Looke Feſte.

Vn fol adviſe bien vn ſage: Prov. A foole may ſometimes giue a wiſe man counſaile.

Vn fol cerche ſon malheur: Prov. A foole doth ſeeke his owne miſhap; the curious ſearcher finds himſelfe vnfortunate.

Vn fol vn enragé: Prov. Once a foole, euer a mad man; or, he that hath played the foole once, will, ere he leaue, play the mad man.

Vn fol fait touſiours le commencement: Pro. The foole begins, but neuer ends, a buſineſſe.

A fol avantureux n'eſt meſtier d'avoir ſens: Prov. An enterprizing foole needs little wit.

A fol ne faut point de ſonnette: Prov. (So quickly his words, and geſture tell you what he is.)

Au fol la marotte: Prov. We ſay alſo, Giue the foole his bable; or, whats a foole without a bable?

Il eſt bien fol qui cuide touſiours vivre: Prov. He is a verie aſſe that thinkes he ſhall liue euer.

Il eſt bien fol qui à fol ſens demande: Prov. Hee's a true aſſe that lookes for wit in an aſſe.

Il eſt bien fol qui s'oublie: Prov. He is a right foole that forgets himſelfe.

De ce que fol penſe ſouvent en demeure: Prov. A foole oft finds himſelfe ſhort of his reckonings.

Mettez fol à par ſoy il penſera: Prov. Leaue a foole alone, and he will bethinke himſelfe (what he hath to doe.)

Qui fol envoye fol attend: Pro. Secke Envoyer.

Qui fol va à Rome fol en retourne: Prov. Let no foole hope to become wiſe by trauelling (at leaſt, we vſe to ſay of ſome of our giddie Trauellers) he is come home as verie a foole as he went.

Quoy que fol tarde, iour ne tarde: Prov. While fooles doe pauſe the day is ſpent; time ſtayes not the fooles leiſure.

Si le fol n'alloit au marché on ne vendroit pas la mauvaiſe denrée: Prov. If fooles went not to Market ill wares would be kept.

Si le fol ne folie il perd ſa ſaiſon: Prov. A foole that would ſeeme wiſe is moſt vnſeaſonable; or, the foole is moſt ſuſtie when he is leaſt fooliſh.

Si tous les fols portoient marotte, on ne ſçait pas de quel bois on ſe chaufferoit: Prov. If all fooles bables bore, wood would be verie deere.

A barbe de fol on apprend à raire: Prov. By ſhauing a foole one learnes to ſhaue.

A barbe de fol hardi raſoir: Prov. The razor may boldly graze on a fooles beard.

A barbe de fol le raſoir eſt mol: Prov. A foole brookes any diſgrace; A foole's not ſenſible of any wrong.

A conſeil de fol cloche de bois: Prov. When loggarheads conſult logs ſerue for bells.

En larmes de fol ne ſe doit on fier: Pro. The teares of a foole are not to be truſted.

Belle promeſſe fol lie: Prov. Seeke Promeſſe.

Bonne iournée fait qui de fol ſe delivre: Prov. He does a good dayes worke that gets cleere of a foole.

Douces promeſſes obligent les fols: Pro. Faire promiſes oblige th' improuident.

En defaut de ſage monte vn fol en chaire: Prov. Looke Sage.

Grand beſoing a de fol qui de ſoy meſme le fait: Prov. He needs a foole too much that will needes play the foole.

On croit d' un fol bien ſouvent qu'il ſoit Clerc, pour ſes veſtemens: Pro. Graue clothes make dunces often ſeeme great Clarkes.

Promettre ſans donner eſt fol reconforter: Prov. Fruitleſſe promiſes appeaſe none but fooles.

Qui commet affaire à vn fol s'appreſte à le ſuyvre: Prov. (Leaſt hee wiſh hee had gone about it himſelfe; alſo) he that imployes a foole may follow him for companie; for wiſe men vſe to imploy wiſe men.

Tout eſt perdu ce qu'on donne à fol: Pro. All that is giuen to a foole is caſt away; (whereupon ſome Critick will perhaps conclude, that all the labour beſtowed on this word hath been misbeſtowed.)

Fol: m. folle: f. Fooliſh, fond, ſimple, witleſſe, ſoppiſh, idle, vaine.

Farine folle. Meale-duſt, or Mill-duſt.

Paiſtri de folle farine. A ſleight, vaine, or idle fellow.

Figue folle. A Fig-date; alſo, a Sicamore fig; the fruit of the outlandiſh Sicamore, or Mulberrie Figtree.

Paille folle de bled. The vpmoſt thinne rind, or outſide, of ſtraw.

De fol iuge breve ſentence: Pro. A foole ſoone giues his verdict.

Vuides chambres font les Dames folles: Pro. Looke Chambre.

Folaſtre: com. Wanton, laſciuious, toying, fond, effeminate.

Folaſtrement: m. Wantonneſſe, ribaldrie, laſciuious toying, effeminacie, fooliſh daliance.

Folaſtrément. Wantonly, fondly, laſciuiouſly, effeminately.

Folaſtrer. To play the wanton, teacher it, vſe laſciuious tricks.

Folaſtrerie: f. A faſhion of taking Woodcockes; alſo, as Folaſtrement.

Folatre, Folatrément. as Folaſtre, Folaſtrément.

Folatrer. as Folaſtrer.

Folatreries: f. Fond trickes, laſciuious prankes, wanton faſhions, effeminate actions.

Folatrie: f. Wantonneſſe, fopperie, foolerie.

Folement. Fondly, ſimply, foppiſhly, witleſly, fooliſhly, vnaduiſedly, raſhly.

Folet: m. A prettie foole, a little fop, a yong coxe, none of the wiſeſt.

Folet: m. ette: f. Somewhat fond, prettie and foppiſh, a little fooliſh, or, young and fooliſh.

Eſprit folet. An Hobgoblin, Robin-goodfellow.

Poil folet. A young moſſie beard; alſo, the firſt downe of young birds.

Foleton. as Folet.

Folie: f. Follie, ſimplicitie, fooliſhneſſe, fondneſſe, vnaduiſedneſſe, foppiſhneſſe, indiſcretion, ideotiſme; alſo, a kind of ſpiced bread.

Folie aux garçons. Lecherie; and hence;

Faire folie. A woman to play falſe, enter a man more then ſhe ought, or tread her ſhooe awry.

Folie faire, & folie recognoiſtre, ſont deux pairs de folie: Prov. Hee's doubly fond that iuſtifies his fondneſſe.

C'eſt folie de ſe prendre aux femmes, & aux beſtes: Prov. Mad is the man that brables with women, and beaſts.

Courtes folies ſont les meilleures: Prov. Short follies are the beſt; or, the beſt of a fond act is the ſhortneſſe of it; or, follies the leſſe while they laſt the more they are to be borne with.

En amour eſt folie, & ſens: Pro. In loue there is both wit, and witaldrie.

Il peche ſagement qui fait folie par conſeil: Prov. He wiſely failes whom counſell makes to faile; or, faults done b' aduiſe are moſt excuſable.

Qui le bien void, & le mal prend, fait folie en bonescient: Prov. He that sees what's good, and takes what's bad, is guiltie of wilfull ideotisme.

Folier. To play the foole, doe like an asse, behaue himselfe like an ideot.

Il n'est si sage qui ne folie aucunes fois: Prov. The wisest man is fooliish now and then.

Si le fol ne folie il perd sa saison: Prov. A foole is most absurd when he playes not the foole.

Follasses: f. The hearbe Beets.

Follastrerie: f. as Folastrerie.

Follet; or, Esprit follet. An Hobgoblin, Robin-good-fellow, Bugbeare.

Follettes. Orage, Atriplex, golden hearbe.

Follicule: m. A little bag, powch, or sacke; also, a huske, hull, peele, or skin inclosing seed.

Follier. as Folier.

Folliner. To play the wanton, to vse lasciuious tricks.

Fomentation: f. A fomentation, or fomenting; a comforting, cherishing, easing, assuaging; a thing applyed in a bladder, spunge, &c, (if it be moist) or within a bag, or quilt (if it be dry) either to cherish, comfort, or ease the part it is layed on, or to make way, by opening the pores, for ointments, or plaisters to be layed on it.

Fomenté: m. ée: f. Fomented; cherished, comforted, refreshed, eased.

Fomenter. To foment; cherish, comfort, refresh, ease, or assuage the paine of; as in Fomentation.

Foncé: m. ée: f. Furnished, well grounded, whose ground is strewed, or stored with; also, headed, that (as a peece of caske, &c) hath a head, or bottome set into it.

Fonceau: m. A little bottome, hole, hollow, or deepe place.

Fonceau d'un Canon. The big, or broad end of a Canon bitt.

Foncer. To head a peece of Caske; to set a bottome, or head into any such vessell.

Foncier: m. ere: f. Fundamentall; or, of the soyle, for the soyle, belonging to the soyle.

Cour fonciere. A Court Baron; or, Court of base Jurisdiction.

Iustice fonciere. Low Iurisdiction, or a kind thereof, exercised by the Lords of Fiefs, for the recouerie of their rights from their vassalls; and often too farre strained, and therefore disallowed, and forbidden, by the Customes of diuers Prouinces.

Rente fonciere. A Rent-seruice, Rent-charge, or Fee-farme-rent; an accession vnto Cens; or, a second charge imposed on land vpon the second graunt thereof, called thus, because the soyle is euer after lyable vnto it.

Seigneur foncier. The (direct) Lord of a Fief; the Lord of the Soyle.

Serfs fonciers. Such as hauing beene conquered by the auncient French, receiued lands of them, on the Condition of doing them any seruice; these were by no means permitted to change the habitation they first betooke them to.

Fond: m. A bottome, floore, ground, foundation, deepe, or depth; also, land, soyle, mould; a plot, or peece of ground; (vn fond.) also, the drawing out of a (cut) garment; also, the head of Caske, or of any hollow vessell; also, a Marchants stocke, whether it be money, or money worth.

Fond de terre. So was the Tax, or Aide (which in the yeare 1412 should haue beene imposed on euerie Arpent) called.

Vn bon fond de deniers. A good round summe of money, gathered before hand for the bearing out of, or going through with, an action; and hence;

Il n'a point de fond. He is not within, or not in the leather, or hath it not in the leather; he wants wherewithall; he hath made no prouision, or but small prouision of money.

A fonds de cuve. Throughly, fully, largely, home.

Fossé faict à fonds de cuve. Broad, and flat-bottomde.

De fond en comble. See Comble; or, Fons.

A fin fond de. From the verie middest; out of the depth, or bottome of.

A plein fond. Large, deepe, side, full enough.

Donner fond. To cast anker; or, to let fall an Anker.

Labourer en fond. To plow verie deepe.

Mettre à fonds. To sinke (a ship) &c.

Au matin les monts, au soir les fonds: Pro. Looke Mont.

Il est plus aisé se tirer de la rive que du fond: Pro. It is more easie to leaue a busines in the beginning, then in the middest of it; or, a man may better desist when he hath but entered, then when he is farre engaged.

Fond de cire: f. The melting of wax.

Fondalité: f. Fundalitie; right of, or interest in, the soyle; the title or estate of the Lord of a soyle.

Fondamental: m. ale: f. Fundamentall; belonging to a foundation, or ground-worke.

Pierre fondamentale. The principall stone, the chiefe strength of a foundation.

Fondamment. as Fondéement.

Fondant. Founding, or grounding; also, melting, resoluing; consuming, wasting away; also, sinking, falling, or comming downe on a suddaine.

Fondateur. A founder, maker, creator, builder, first inuentor, chiefe deuiser, principall author of.

Fondation. A foundation, or ground-worke; the first building, or erection of.

Fonde: f. A sling, to cast stones with.

Fondé: m. ée: f. Founded, grounded; built; erected, established; resting in, consisting of.

Fondé par dessoubs. Vnderset, vnderlayed, or layed vnder.

Ie suis fondé en equité. The right is on my side; I stand on iust, and honest tearmes; my cause I am sure is good.

Nous y sommes aussi bien fondez l'un que l'autre: Our causes are much of one goodnesse, or much after one; we haue both reason alike.

Fondéement. Pleurer fondéement. To weepe extreamely, to resolue, or melt, into teares.

Fondegue: f. A Marchants ware-house, or store-house.

Fondelse. A kind of Engine for batterie; vsed in old time.

Fondement: m. A foundation, ground, ground-worke; a principall stay, chiefe meanes; good beginning, or way; also, a melting, resoluing; wasting, consuming away; also, the fundament.

Il faisoit grand fondement de. He relyed, or built verie much vpon.

Rien ne peut estre grand qui n'a bon fondement: Prov. Nothing that wants a good ground can be great.

Fonder. To found, ground, lay the foundation of, make a beginning to; to build, settle, rest, or stay vpon.

Fon-

Fonderie: f. Bell-founding, the trade of melting, or of casting things in mettall.

Fondeur: m. A melter, or trier of mettals; a founder.
Estonnez comme fondeurs de cloches (quand la fonte n'a pas bien pris) extreamly amazed, appalled, abashed out of countenance.

Fondier: m. A slinger; one that throws stones out of a sling.

Fondileures: f. Chops, rifts, choanes, in a womans ouer-full breasts.

Fondrailles: f. The grounds, lees, or dregs of liquor.

Fondre. To melt, or cast, as mettals, &c; to resolue, as snow before a hot Sunne; also, to powre, or shead abroad; also, to sinke; fall, or goe downe; and hence;
Fondre d'enhaut. To stoope; to fall downe plump, to come downe amayne, as an eager, and high-flying hawk do's vpon her prey.
Fondre à terre. The same; or to stoope, as a hawke; to drop as a partridge.
Se Fondre. to melt, waste, resolue, consume away; to sink downe on a suddaine.

Fondreau. as Fondrillon.

Fondrée: f. as Fondrilles.

Fondriere: f. A bog, or quagmire; also, a great bottome, or large, and deep valley; also, as;

Fondrilles: f. The grounds, dregs, lees, or thick-growne bottome of liquor that hath stood any time; the settlings of liquor.

Fondrillon: m. A bottom to wind silke, thread, or yarne on; also, a knot tangled in thread.

Fondroyer. To hang downe to the ground; to hang low, or towards the ground; to hang so low that it touches the ground.

Fonds: Looke Fond; also, a font; looke Fons.

Fondu: m. uë: f. Melted, resolued; cast as mettall, founded, as a thing of mettall; consumed, worne, wasted vnto nothing.
Bastiment fondu. Sunke, or fallen, downe.
Poix fonduë. Tarre.

Fondure: f. A founding, melting, or casting of mettals; &c.

Fonge: m. A Mushrome, or toadstoole.

Fongeux: m. euse: f. Spungie; light, or full of holes, as a spunge.

Fongnement: m. A frowning, powting, louting, louring; also, a discontented grombling.

Fongner. To frowne, powt, lowt, loure, glow, sell sowre, also, to gromble.

Fons. Looke Fond.
De fons en comble. From the very foundation; or, from the top to the bottome; wholly, throughly, fully.

Fons: m. A font to baptise children.
Lever vn enfant des fons. To be a childs witnesse, or Godfather, at the font.
Tenir vn enfant sur le fons. To Christen a child; to name the childe; as, Lever.

Font. as Fontaine; and hence;
Au matin vers les monts, au soir vers les fonts: Prov. Looke Mont.

Fontaigner: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a fountaine; or, as Fontenier.

Fontaine: f. A fountaine; spring, source; well; also, a Cocke, or spout in a fountaine; and, the quill, or faucet of a wine-vessell.
La fontaine de meschanceté. The head, root, originall source, principall cause, of wickednesse.
Fontaine de la teste. The mould of the head.
Endurer la soif aupres d'une fontaine. To starue in a Cookes shop, we say.
A petite fontaine boit on à son aise: Pro. Looke, Boire.
Qui n'a laine boive à la fontaine: Pro. Let him that hath no wooll (viz. no wealth) drink water.

Fontaineux. Full of springs, or fountaines.

Fontainier. as Fontaigner.

Fontanel: m. elle; f. veine fontanelle. The principall veine in the thigh of a horse, &c.

Fontanelle f. A running sore; or, an issue made for a griefe or sore; as Cabrol.

Fonte: f. A melting, founding, or casting of mettalls.
Torche de fonte. A kind of great linke, all of wax; Looke Torche.

Fontenelle. A little spring, a small fountaine; also, as Fontanelle; an issue.
Fontenelle de la teste. The vpper part of the head forward.

Fontenette. as Fontenelle; a little fountaine.

Fontenier: m. A fountaine-maker; a digger of wells, a searcher for springs; a conduit-maker, a conueyer of water from springs to conduits.

Fontenil: m. A small fountaine.

Fontenille: f. The same.

For: m. A Court, or common place for pleading; as, Le For l'Eveſque. The bishops Court: ¶ Parisien.

For. (In Composition) signifies, out or without; as in Forclos, &c, and sometimes also, badly or ill; as in Forconseiller, &c.

Foradjour. as Adiour.

Forage. droict de fo. Loure pots of wine vpon euery peece thats sould by retayle, due vnto the lord of the Iurisdiction wherein tis sold; In some places it is also, two pots vpon euery peece thats sould in grosse; Looke Droict.

Forain: m. ine: f. Forreine, strange, alien, outlandish.
Chemin forain (de Boullenois) Is to be fiftene foot broat.
Domaine forain. An ancient imposition of iiij d. Tour. in the pound, vpon marchandice, &c; or, as Resuë.
Imposition foraine. An imposition of xij d. Tour. in the pound vpon marchandice, and commodities imported, or brought into the Realme (onely within Paris there is but vi d. taken.)
Prevost forain. Seeke Prevost.
Traite foraine. Is as Imposition foraine; but leuyed vpon commodities transported, or carryed out of the Realme.

Forains: f. The Customes, or Tolls that are leuyed in faires, and markets.

Forans. A certaine receptacle for Sea-water (whereof salt is made) conueyed into it out of others by a trunk, or pipe of wood.

Forban. as, Ban; or an exclusion.

Forbanni: m. ie: f. Expelled, banished, cast forth, driuen out.

Forbannir. To banish, reiect, expell, cast forth, driue out.

Forbannissement: m. A bannishment, expulsion, exclusion, out-casting, forth-driuing.

Forbatu: m. uë: f. Canuased, or beaten throughly; swinged out of doores.

Forbe: f. as Fourbe. A cunning, and coosening tricke.

Forbeu: m. euë: f. Mellow, fine, cup-taken, pot-shotten, whose fudling or barley Cap is on.
Cheval forbeu. A horse that hath drunke being too hot, and is thereby foundered.

Se Forboire. To surfet with drinking, to be somewhat ouer- ouerſeene, or too blame; to take a dram too much; to drinke vntil he ſtare àgaine; alſo, to founder, as a horſe, by drinking when he is verie hot.

Forbours. as Faulxbourgs. Suburbes.

Forçable. Forceable, compellable.

Forçat: m. A galley-ſlaue; alſo, a game at draughts, wherein one muſt take his aduerſarie when he may, or elſe be himſelfe is taken.

Force: f. Force, might, ſtrength, power, abilitie, vigour, vehemencie; vertue, effect, operation, energie, efficacie, powerfull working; violence, conſtraint, compulſion, rauiſhment; (alſo, ſtore, plentie, aboundance, many of; whence, Force eſcus; force arbres.)

Force forcée. Of force, of neceſſitie, will he nill he, in ſpight of his teeth.

A force. With great might, with much indeauor; whence, Couru à force. Hardly, eagarly, or extreamly, purſued.

La force luy en eſt demeurée. He hath got the victorie; the vpper hand, the better end of the ſtaffe, in the matter.

Ce que luy ſera force. Which he ſhall be faine, or forced, to doe.

Faire force. To indeauor, labour, ſtriue, inforce, himſelfe.

Ie ne fais point force de cela. I care not for, I force not of, I am not mooued by, that thing.

Mieux vaut engin que force: Pro. Better be wiſe then ſtrong.

Forcé: m. ée: f. Forced, compelled, conſtrayned; alſo, rauiſhed, as a woman; alſo, burſt open, broke through; alſo, hard layed too, brought vnto a narrow ſtrait, hard pinch, ill paſſe.

Force forcée. Of neceſſitie; Looke Force.

Forcement: m. A forcing; a compelling, or conſtrayning; alſo, a burſting open, or breaking through.

Forcenant. Chien forcenant. A dog thats eagar in chace, hot after his game, and will ſtand long.

Forcené: m. ée: f. Mad, wood, frantick; raging, furious, out of his wits.

Forcenement: m. Madneſſe, raging, furie, woodneſſe, frenzie.

Forcener. To be mad, frantick, furious.

Forcenerie. as Forcenement.

Forcer. To force, compell, vrge, conſtraine; alſo, to violate, force, or rauiſh (as a woman;) alſo, to breake open (as a dore;) alſo, to lay hard vnto, or bring into extremitie (as dogs doe a deere after a long chace;) alſo, to ouercome, ſubdue, force, paſſe through by force; (forcer les gardes d'une porte.)

Forcer de la laine. To pick, or teaſe woll: v.m.

Forces: f. A paire of ſheeres.

Faire les forces. A horſe to hold his mouth open, and turne his chaps often from one ſide to the other.

Forcette: f. A cizar, a ſmall paire of ſheeres.

Forceur: m. A forcer, compeller, vrger, conſtrainer; a violent ſubduer, conqueror, ouercommer.

Forchaſſer, come vn arc. To caſt, or ſhoot awrie, as a bow, that is ſtronger on one ſide then of another.

Forcheminé. Wandered, gone out of the way.

Forcheminer. To wander, ſtragle, take a wrong courſe, goe out of the way.

Forchette. Looke Fourchette.

Forclorre. To exclude, reiect, expel, ſhut out; to diſmiſſe from, or, not admit vnto.

Forclos: m. oſe: f. Excluded, reiected, expelled, ſhut out; diſmiſſed, or debarred from.

Forcluſion: f. An excluſion, or ſhutting out; a diſmiſſing; or debarring from.

Forcommand: m. A putting out of poſſeſſion, or a voiding of poſſeſſion, by order, or commaund of a Court.

Forcommandé: m. ée: f. Voided, outed, or put out, of poſſeſſion.

Forconſeillé: m. ée: f. Ill aduiſed, counſelled amiſſe.

Forconſeiller. To giue ill counſell.

Forconte: m. A miſreckoning, or miſcounting.

Forconté: m. ée: f. Miſreckoned, counted amiſſe.

Forconter. To miſreckon, or count amiſſe.

Fore: f. as For; a Court.

Foré: m. ée: f. Bored, pierced; wherein holes are made.

Forer. To bore, pierce, make holes in.

Fores. De fores. Without, forth of.

Foreſt: m. Looke Foret.

Foreſt: f. A Foreſt; a great, (and priuiledged) wood, or wooddie wilderneſſe; Some (Frenchmen) haue generally interpreted it (from the Latine words foris, & ſta) a Place whereto the acceſſe, and entrie is forbidden, by the owner, vnto others; and hence, it ſeemes, that priuiledged fiſhings, or large waters (wherein none but the Lords thereof could fiſh) were alſo tearmed, Foreſts.

Foreſtain: m. ine: f. Wooddie, wild, forreſt-like.

Foreſtier: m. A forreſter, or foſter; a Keeper of, or in, a forreſt; a Raunger, Woodman, or Wood-warden; an Officer that lookes to the Kings woods, or forreſts; (In old time the Gouernours of Flanders (for the French) were tearmed Foreſtiers;) alſo, a forrainer, alien, ſtranger.

Foreſtier: m. ere: f. Woodie, forreſt-like; of, or belonging to, a forreſt; wild, ſauage; alſo, forraine.

Sergent foreſtier. Looke Sergent.

Føret: m. A Gimblet, or Piercer.

Forfaict: m. A crime, ſinne, fault, miſdeed, offence, treſpaſſe, tranſgreſſion.

Forfaict: m. cte: f. Offended, ſinned, miſdone, treſpaſſed; alſo, offending, ſinning, miſdoing.

Forfaicture. as Forfaict; a tranſgreſſion; alſo, a forfeiture, or confiſcation.

Cela nous appartient par forfaicture du ſeigneur feodal. Thereto we haue no poſſibilitie of right.

Forfaire. To ſinne, offend, commit a fault, miſdoe, tranſgreſſe, treſpaſſe againſt; alſo, to forfeit.

Si truye forfaict les pourceaux le ſouffrent: Pro. Pigs fare the worſe for harmes done by the Sow.

Forfaiture. as Forfaicture.

Forfait. as Forfaict.

Forfan: m. A knaue, rogue, raſcall, rakehell, varlet, villaine, vagabond, baſe fellow, filthie ſlaue, naughtie packe, leud companion.

Forfanter. To play the rogue; to marre all he meddles with.

Forfanterie: f. Roguerie, knauerie, villanie; alſo, a crue of rakehellie ſcowndrells.

Forgagé: m. ée: f. Redeemed, had from pawne.

Forgager. To redeeme, or fetch out, a pawne, &c.

Forgas: m. A ſeiſure, or ſale of goods, vpon execution. ¶Norm.

Temps de forgas. Certaine dayes after the open ſale of goods in execution, giuen vnto the executee to proue the execution wrong full, and recouer them with coſts; or to ſatisfie his creditor; or to haue his goods againe for the money which was bid for them; which time if he neglect, they are gone for euer. ¶Norm.

Forge à fer. A Smithes Forge.

Gens

Gens de bonne forge. People of good credit, much worth, great honestie, or of an honest disposition.

Forgé: m. ée: f. Forged, made, framed; formed, fashioned.

Forgeant. Forging, framing; working at the Anuyle.

En forgeant on devient febvre: Pro. Looke Febvre.

Forgement: m. A forging, making, framing; also, a horses ouer-reaching.

Forger. To forge, make, frame, compose; hammer, deuise, coyne, inuent; also, a horse to ouer-reach, or cut his fore-feet with his hinder.

Forgeron: m. A Forger, or Forge-man; a Smith.

Forgetture: f. Looke Forjecture.

Forgeur: m. A forger, maker, framer, composer, coyner, inuentor, deuiser.

Forhu. A whoo-whup; or, the call, hooting, or whooping of huntsmen at the death of their chace.

Forhuer. To whoope, shout, hoot, hollow, crie whoo-whup.

Foriboles. as Fariboles. ¶Rab.

Forject: m. A iutting, or leaning out, or ouer; a relish, or out-footing.

Forjecture: f. The coping, or water table of a wall; a relish, or footing out of a wall, or from a foundation.

Forjet. as Forject.

Forjetter. To iut, relish, cope, leane out, hang ouer; also, as Forchasser.

Forjetture. as Forjecture.

Forissir de raison. To transgresse, or exceed the limits of reason.

Forissu: m. uë: f. Sprung, or issued out of.

Forjugé: m. ée: f. Wrongfully iudged; also, dispossessed, or outed by a Iudgement.

Forjugement: m. A wrongfull iudging, or vniust condemning of; also, a disinheriting, depriuing, dispossessing of; also, an outing vpon a Iudgement.

Forjuger. To iudge, or condemne, wrongfully; also, to disinherite, depriue, dispossesse of; also, to out by Iudgement.

Forjuger l'absent. as, Forjurer l'absent.

Forjur: m. A quitting, release, discharge of; or, as Forjurement.

Forjurement: m. A quitting, forsaking, abandoning, abiuring, renouncing; also, a selling, or aliening; also, a discharging.

Forjurer. To quit, forsake, abandon, renounce, abiure, giue ouer; to release vnto; also, to sell, alien, passe away.

Forjurer l'absent. To barre, and amerce, by decree, an absent, and wilfull defendant, or, a defendant that will not appeare.

Forjurer les factions. To quit, excuse, discharge, or leaue prosecuting of, the committers, actors, or malefactors.

Forlignant. Degenerating, growing out of kind.

Forligné. Degenerated, growne out of kind.

Forlignement: m. A degenerating.

Forligner. To degenerate, or grow out of kind; to differ in conditions from his aunceſtors; also, a villaine, bastard, or stranger, to match with a free, true-bred, home-borne woman; to marrie out of his ranke, or condition; also, land to descend collaterally, or goe out of one line into another.

Forliner. as Forligner.

Forlonge. Verie farre off; (a tearme of Hunting.)

Les chiens chassent de forlonge. The dogs are farre behind the Deere, Hare, &c.

Les chiens resentent de forlonge. The dogs find of the Deere, though he be farre off, or before, them.

Forlongé: m. ée: f. Gone farre before, left farre behind.

Forlonger. To goe farre before, leaue farre behind.

Formage. See Fourmage.

Formagerie. as Fourmagerie.

Formaillet: m. An inchaunted Image, or representation of some creature, worne about the necke, to preserue the wearer from danger; See Fermaillet.

Formalité: f. Formalitie, quaintnesse, precisenesse in outward matters; also, the strict forme of proceeding, or pleading, in law.

Perdre son procez par vne formalité. To loose his suit, by an error committed, or clause mistaken, in his declaration, &c.

se Formalizer. To take in dudgeon; to be discontented with, or oppose himselfe against.

Se formalizer pour aucun. To vndertake ones quarrell openly; to imbarke himselfe into a quarrell for another.

Formarcher. as Faux-marcher.

Formariage: m. Marriage against Law, or Custome; also, mariage out of ranke, or condition.

Amende, ou droict de formariage. Is the halfe, or third, or (as the custome is) other part of whatsoeuer a villaine is worth, forfeited to his Landlord, or Lord of the Iurisdiction wherein he liues, by marrying a woman thats free, or of a forraine Iurisdiction; this, although he haue got leaue to doe it; whereas if he doe it without leaue, he looses 60 s more; In former times bastards, and strangers, who married other then bastards, or strangers, were subiect to this penaltie; Now those in most places, and these in some, are wholly exempted from it.

Formarié. Married out of his ranke, degree, or condition; or to a woman of a forraine Iurisdiction.

Formarier. To marrie out of his ranke, degree, or condition; or to a woman of a forraine Iurisdiction.

Formation. A forming, framing, fashioning.

Forme: m. A kind of Faulcon, or long-wingd Hawke.

Forme: f. A forme, fashion; manner, method; a mould, patterne, draught, frame, representation, tipe, character; shape, resemblance, fauor, figure of; also, a cheese-fat, or chesford; also, a long Bench, or Forme to sit on; also, a Shoomakers last; also, a Hares forme.

En forme. Formally, handsomly, orderly, as it should be.

En forme de. Resembling, or like vnto.

A telle forme tel soulier: Prov. (Of a thing fitted, or fitly suited.)

Formé: m. ée: f. Formed, shaped, fashioned; drawne, pictured, printed, figured; framed.

Heretique formé. A full, resolute, arrant, heretick.

Partie formée. An accuser in, or follower of, a criminall action (in respect of his particular interest;) Looke Formel.

Formel: m. elle: f. Formall, plaine, open, flat, expresse, exact; absolute, proper, according to Art; earnest, vehement, violent, resolute, stiffe, obstinate.

Contradiction formelle. Which appeares, or is expressed, in the case, and cause.

Ennemy formel. A professed, open, or vtter enemie.

Garent formel. See Garent.

Partage reel, & formel. A partition fully executed; a reall, or actuall partition.

Partie formelle. A Complainant, or Accuser in a criminall action; as in Partie formée; (This accuser offers to ly in prison with him he accuses, vntill he haue made good his accusation; but is seldome taken at his word.)

Formelier: m. A Last-maker.

Formelizé: m. ée: f. Formed, whereunto forme is giuen.

Formelizer. To forme; to giue, or adde forme vnto.

Formellement. Flatly, plainely, directly, expreſſely, openly, wholly, vtterly, without exception; ſtiffely, earneſtly, vehemently, reſolutely; exactly, preciſely; alſo, quickly, ſpeedily, forthwith, immediatly, without delay.

Formené: m. ée: f. Diſquieted, vexed, afflicted, moleſted, harried, tormented.

Formener. To vex, diſquiet, afflict, moleſt, harrie, torment, giue much trouble vnto.

Forment: m. & formentée: f. Furmentie, Wheat; See Froument & Froumentée.

Forment. Almoſt (as in, forment guery;) alſo, exceedingly, greatly, mightily, verie much; (forment malade.)

Formentin: m. ine: f. Of Wheat.
Vne pilure formentine. A loafe, or lunchion of white bread.

Former. To forme, faſhion, ſhape; make, frame, order, diſpoſe, inſtitute; figure, draw, picture, deuiſe, repreſent.
Former le procez à. To draw an Indictment againſt.

Formerets: m. The ſmall branches of a vault, in the ends, or inſide thereof.

Formi: m. An Ant, a Piſmeare; Looke Fourmi.

Formiant. Poulx for. The pulſe that beats verie faſt, but verie weakely; (a ſigne of approching death.)

Formidable: com. Feareſull, dreadfull, terrible.

Formie: f. as Formi.

Formiere: f. An Ants hill, or neaſt of Piſmeares.

Formiliere. as Formiere; alſo, a kind of wart in the fundament, ſomewhat reſembling a Mulberrie.

Formillement: m. The prickling ſmart of Ringwormes, or Warts, like the ſtinging of Ants.

Formilles. as Herpes.

Formillon. A ſmall blacke Spider like an Ant, and ſpotted on the backe with little ſtarre-like ſpecks.

Formion: m. A ſmall Ant, or Piſmeare.

Formoret: m. A kind of ſtrong Lye whereof Soape is made.

Formort. as Formorture.

Formorture: f. An Eſcheat falling to, or ſucceſſion falling on a man, by the death of another.

Formoſité: f. Beautie, comelineſſe, well-fauouredneſſe, ſweet feature.

Formoture. as Formorture.

Formulaire: m. The ſtile, faſhion, or manner of proceeding in the Law; a Preſident for the drawing of a Deed, Patent, Pleading, &c; alſo, a womans thing.
Practicien qui entend bien ſon formulaire. A cunning pleader.

Formule: f. A ſtile in writing; a certaine rule, order, manner, faſhion of proceeding, or pleading, in Law.

Fornage. See Fournage.

Fornaiſe. as Fournaiſe; a furnace.

Fornicateur: m. A fornicator, wencher, ſmell-ſmocke, mutton-munger, whore-hunter.

Fornication: f. Fornication; lecherie committed by an vnmarried couple.

Forniquer. To play the fornicator; to leacher it, vnmarried, with an vnmarried perſon.

Forpaïſer. To wander farre out of his countrey; alſo, a wild beaſt to abandon the Couert (wherein he vſeth to lodge) and flye, or take, into the Champion.

Forparler. To miſpeake, or ſpeake ill.

se Forpaſſer d'un pas. To go a ſtep further then he needs, or ſhould.

Forpie: f. The mouth, or middle of an opened paire of ſheeres.

Forrage. as Forage.

Forregardant. Out-looking, or awry-looking.

Fors. Except, vnleſſe, but onely, without it be; alſo, without doores, or abroad; alſo, out, right out, all out.

Forſage. Ouer-weight in money; when a peece is heauier then it ſhould be.

Forſaire: m. A Gally-ſlaue.

Forſené. as Forcené.

Fort: m. A Fort, Hold, Fortreſſe; alſo, a ſtanding, or ſetled Campe, defended and girt about with ditches, rampiers, or palliſadoes, and little Baſtions; alſo, the herbe Wormewood (ſo tearmed of the ſtrong ſmell which it hath.)
Le fort d'un affaire. The chiefeſt point in, hardeſt part of, a buſineſſe.
Le fort d'une boule. The drawing part, or byas of a Bowle.
Le fort d'un cerf. The bold of a Stag; the thicket, or couert wherein he lyes, or whereto he flyes.
Les forts des foreſts. Thickets, or the thickeſt parts of forreſts.
Le fort d'un lievre. The couert of a Hare.

Fort: m. forte: f. Strong; tough, maſſiue, hardie, ſturdie, luſtie, able-bodied; mightie, forcible, powerfull, effectuall; able to beare a great ſhocke, aſſault, or brunt.
Forte clameur. A fine of ij s. vj d. Tour. due to the King within the Chaſtellenie of Montereau (vpon euerie perſonall action) for the firſt ſummons, or ſeruing of the Writ, although the parties agree, and the cauſe proceed no further; If it doe, and come to a hearing, vij s. vj d. muſt be payed; both, by the partie that firſt yeelds, or is foyled.
Forte monnoye, ſolz forts. Good money, money of the beſt ſort, or moſt value; (for 25 ſolz forts are worth 40 ſolz Tour.) A word peculiar to the Sol, and vſed when the reckoning and rates of money were grounded thereon.
Vn bois fort. A thicke wood.
Le faict fort. See Faict.
Terroir fort. A hard, or hungrie ſoyle.
Fort en bride. Stubborne, ſtout, vnrulie, head-ſtrong.
Fort comme vn Dauphin en terre. Moſt weake, moſt feeble, of no force at all.
Le fort portant le foible. Good and bad together, one with another.
Tes fortes fievres. A plague choake thee, a peſtilence take thee.
Cecy n'eſt pas fort à faire. There is no great difficultie in this; it is not hard to doe.
Ie me fais fort de cela. I take that matter vpon me; I am aſſured of it; I preſume, rely, or build on it; I dare vndertake that it will beare me out.
Faire main forte à. Looke Faire.
Fort eſt qui abbat, & plus fort qui ſe releve: Prov. He that recouers a foyle is ſtronger then he that gaue it.
Qui attend il a fort temps: Prov. viz. Thinkes his time verie long.

Fort. (Adverb.) Verie, moſt, verie much, mainely, exceedingly, exceſſiuely, extreamely, vehemently.
Fort & Ferme. Looke Ferme.
Au fort aller. At moſt, at worſt, if the worſt come to the worſt.

Fortelet: m. ette: f. A little ſtrong, pretie and forcible, or pretie and ſtrong to his age.

For-

Fortement. Strongly; forcibly, mightily, powerfully, ably; effectually; toughly, hardily; extreamely; mainly, verie much.

Fortereſſe: f. A Fortreſſe, or Hold.

Fortet. as Fortelet. Pretie and ſtrong.

Fortifiable: com. Fortifiable; which may be fortified.

Fortification: f. Fortification; the Art, or worke, of fortifying.

Fortifié: m. ée: f. Fortified; ſtrengthened, corroborated; inforced, enabled, confirmed; bardened, ſetled, aſſured.

Fortifiement: m. A fortifying, ſtrengthening, inforcing, enabling.

Fortifier. To fortifie, ſtrengthen, corroborate; enable, inforce, confirme; harden, ſettle, aſſure.

Fortiltrer. A Deere to ſhun the place wherein dogs are layed for him.

Fortraction: f. A lurching, purloyning; withdrawing.

Fortraire. To lurch, purloyne; withdraw from.

Fortrait: m. aite: f. Lurched, purloyned; withdrawne.

Fortuit: m. ite: f. Caſuall, accidentall, at aduenture, happening by chance.

Cas fortuit. An offence committed by chance-medley.

Fortuitement. Caſually, by chance, at aduenture, by hap hazard; more by hap then any cunning.

Fortunable: com. Diſaſtrous, vnfortunate. (v.m.)

Fortunal. as Fortune; alſo, a great, and ſuddaine tempeſt at ſea.

Fortune: f. Fortune; alſo, hap, chaunce, luck, lot, hazard, aduenture; alſo, deſtinie, fatall neceſſitie.

Courir fortune. To be in great danger; to incurre a great hazard (whether of ſhipwracke, or any other miſchiefe;) to be neere, or next dore, to a ſhipwracke.

Suyvre la fortune. To follow, or adhere vnto, the ſtronger ſide.

Fortune aide à celuy qui ſe veut aider: Pro. Fortune aides him that loues to aid himſelfe; fortune helps on the forward.

Fortune n' eſpargne ny ſerviteur ny Maiſtre, elle donne & reprend, tel eſt ſon eſtre: Prov. Fortune ſpares no man, keepes no couenants, obſerues no condition.

Fortune ne vient ſeule: Prov. Ill lucke comes not alone; or, one ill lucke followes in the necke of another.

Les biens de fortune paſſent comme la Lune: Pro. Fortunes bleſſings flit like the Moone; or hardly continue the age of a Moone.

Contre fortune nul ne peut: Prov. No man can withſtand his deſtinie; or, be againſt a chance.

Aſſez fait qui fortune paſſe, & plus encor qui putain chaſſe: Prov. He does much that ill fortune miſſes, but he does more that quits a whore.

Aux yeux la Lune bonne fortune: Pro. See Lune.

Mieux vaut vne once de fortune qu' une livre de ſageſſe: Prov. Better is an ounce of good fortune then a pound of good foreca ſt.

Fortuné: m. ée: f. Fortunate, happie, luckie; alſo, made fortunate, bleſſed with good hap.

Fortunément. Fortunately, happily, luckily, ſucceſſiuely, proſperouſly.

Fortuner. To make fortunate, bleſſe with good hap, giue good ſucceſſe vnto.

Forvoyer. To erre, to goe aſtray; See Fourvoyer.

Foſſailli: m. ie: f. Ditched in, trenched about; or, that hath a pit made into it.

Foſſaillir. To ditch in; to make a pit, or ditch.

Foſſat: m. as Foſſé, or Foſſe. ¶ Langued.

Foſſé: m. A long hole, or pit made into the ground; hence, a dike, ditch, or trench about a towne, fort, camp, cloſe, or houſe; Looke Foſſe.

Cul de foſſé. A dungeon, or deepe hole in a priſon for haynous malefactors.

Entre la haye & le foſſé. Betweene barke and tree; on narrow tearmes; at a ſtrait pinch; when one hath but little ſhift to make for himſelfe, when he muſt either breake through the hedge, and be ſcratched; or, wade through the ditch, and be wet.

Faire de la terre le foſſé. To diſpoſe of his owne at his owne pleaſure; or, to make reaſonable good ſhift with that he hath; or, by charging to diſcharge, by hurting to helpe, himſelfe.

De terre d' autruy remplir ſon foſſé. To make vp his mouth, or ſtuffe his purſe full, with another mans money.

Foſſe: f. Any pit, or hole; but moſt commonly that, which is round (for Foſſé is more properly a long one,) and made into, and appearing aboue, the ground (for a caue, denne, or hollow, whoſe greater part is hidden vnder ground, is more fitly tearmed, Caverne, &c;) hence, a Graue; a Mote, or Pond for fiſh; and ſometimes (though ſeldome) a ditch, trench, or deepe channell.

Foſſe coye. A priuie, iakes, houſe of office.

Foſſe à poiſſons. A little fiſh pond, or ſtue for fiſh.

Il eſt ſur le bord de la foſſe. He hath already one foot in the graue.

Mettre les clefs ſur la foſſe. A widow to renounce the adminiſtration of her husbands goods.

Vn aveugle meine l'autre en la foſſe: Prov. Looke Aveugle.

Foſſelu: m. uë: f. Dimpled; that hath a little pit, or hole in the middeſt of it.

Foſſette: f. A little pit; ſmall hole; narrow ditch, or trench; alſo, a dimple on the cheeke, or chin; alſo, the hollowneſſe that is betweene the ſhoulder blades.

Foſſette de l'oeil. The eye-pit.

Foſſette de la teſte. The nape of the necke.

Iouër à la foſſette. To play at cherrie-pit (with nuts.)

Foſſetterie: f. Pockineſſe, or the being full of pock-holes.

Foſſetteux: m. euſe: f. Full of little pits, pockars, or pock-holes.

Foſſile. Grand f. The bigger of the two bones in the leg.

Petit foſſile. The leſſe. Looke Focile.

Foſſile: com. Which is, or may be, digged.

Foſſoir: m. as Hoyau.

Entre deux comperes ſe perdit le foſſoir: Prov. Betweene two ſtooles the tayle goes to the ground; or, as vnder Compere.

Foſſourer. as Foſſoyer.

Foſſoyant. Digging, ditching, trenching.

Foſſoye: f. A certaine garment vſed in old time.

Foſſoyé: m. ée: f. Digged; ditched, trenched about.

Foſſoyement: m. A digging; a ditching, trenching, pit-making.

Foſſoyer. To dig; to ditch, or trench about; to make a pit.

Foſſoyeur: m. A digger, or ditcher; alſo, a graue-maker.

Foſſoyeure: f. A digging; a ditching, a pit-making.

Foterle. Saraſins Birthwort, or Hartwort.

Foterne. as Foterle.

Fotu: m. A fomentation, or medicine, applyed to warme, or comfort, a diſeaſed part.

Fou: m. A Beech tree.

Fou. (Buvez fou; venez fou; drinke, or come, out) corruptly vſed for Fors.

Foüace: f. A thicke cake haſtily baked, on a hot harth, by hot imbers layed on it, and burning coales ouer them;

a round Bunne ; alſo, a great Kid, Bauen, or faggot of ſmall ſticks ; Looke Fougaſſe.

Manger ſa foüace ſans pain. To eat dry bread for want of other victuals.

Foüacier : m. One that makes, or ſells, Foüaces.

Foüage. An yearelie tax, or dutie, leuied in old time by ſupreame Lords vpon euerie chymney, or houſe-fire kept within their dominions ; In Charles the fifths time it was 4 livres Tourn: ſince that time, in moſt places, the Tailles haue beene introduced in lieu thereof.

Foüaille. The reward which hunters giue their dogs at the death of a wild Swyne.

Foüailler : m. The ſindging, or dreſſing of a wild Swyne.

Foüant : m. A Muske-cat ; or, as Fouïnne.

Fouarre. as Foarre.

Foüaſſe : f. A Bunne, or Cake haſtily baked ; Looke Foüace.

Foüaſſier. A Cake-maker ; as Foüacier.

Foucque : f. A Coote, or ſenne-Ducke.

Foudre. as Fouldre.

Foudroyant. Thunder-ſtriking ; darting thunderbolts ; violently beating, impetuouſly bearing downe (as thunder, and lightning) whatſoeuer it lights on.

Foudroyer. as Fouldroyer.

Foüées : f. The ſmalleſt ſort of Bauens, Kids.

Fouere : f. la fo. The Squirt.

Foüet : m. A whip, ſcourge, rod.

Vn foüet ſans corde. A Sergeants Mace wherewith he arreſteth.

Vie foüet, & au vent. Auant, get you packing, be gone (a ſpeech wherein foüet is vſed as if one called for a whip to driue the partie ſpoken to away.)

Il n'a pas le foüet pour mener cette trompe. He is not ſufficient for ſo bouncing a weneh.

Foüettable : com. Worthie to be whipped.

Foüettade : f. A laſhing, whipping, ſcourging.

Foüetté : m. ée : f. Whipped, laſhed, ſcourged, ierked, ſwindged.

Foüettement : m. A whipping, laſhing, ſcourging, breeching.

Foüetter. To ſcourge, whip, laſh, yerke, or ierke, ſwindge, breech.

Foüetteur : m. A whipper, ſcourger, breecher, ſwindger, ierker, laſher.

Foüetteux : m. euſe : f. Fit to be whipped, ierked, ſcourged.

Foufoulet ; whence, Iouër au foufoulet. To play the whore.

Fougade : f. A Mine ; an vp-blowing fire-worke, or wild fire ; alſo, as Fougue.

Fougaſſe : f. A (thicke) cake baked on a hot harth, with hot embers layed on it, and burning coales ouer them ; Looke Foüace.

Ie vous rendray pain (ou paſte) pour fougaſſe. You ſhall haue of me one for another, or as good euerie whit as you bring.

Fouge : f. The rooting of wild Swyne among Fearne, &c.

Fouger. To root, as a Swyne ; to ſtirre vp ordure.

Fougeraye. A Fearnie plot of ground.

Fougiere : f. Fearne brakes ; Looke Feuchiere.

Fougon d'une navire. The Cooke-roome of a ſhip.

Fougoux : m. ouſe : f. Soone heated, eaſily angred ; readie, prompt vnto, ſuddainely falling into, furie ; alſo, proceeding, or carrying himſelfe, in his anger, or heat, without either feare, or wit.

Fougue : f. Inclination, or aptneſſe, vnto ſuddaine anger, or furie ; alſo, a deſperate, and ſuddaine effort, or effect of furie, or of any ſuch turbulent, and impetuous paſſion.

Foui : m. ie : f. Digged, or delued into ; mined, or wherein holes are made.

Fouïer : m. Looke Fouyer.

Fouier. as Fouiller.

Fouigner. To whyne ; powt, lowre, hang the lip, ſell Sowce.

Foullard : m. A leauie bough, or branch. ¶Norm.

Fouillé : m. ée : f. Groped, ſearched, felt, rifled ; alſo, rooted, or digged (with the noſe) for.

Fouillement : m. A groping, feeling, ſearching, rifling ; alſo, a rooting, or digging (with the noſe) for.

Fouille-merde. A Beetle (fly.)

Fouiller. To grope, ſearch, feele (all ouer ;) to rifle ; alſo, to root, or dig (with the noſe) for.

C'eſt trop bas cercher la charité de fouiller prez des feſſes : Prov. He lookes too low for charitie that lookes ſo low as the buttocks.

Fouilleur : m. A groper, ſearcher, feeler ; a rifler ; a rooter ; a digger (with the noſe) for.

Fouilleur de Taupes. A Mole-catcher.

Fouillouſe : f. A bag, ſcrip, or powch. ¶Barrag.

Fouïne : f. as Fouinne ; alſo, a kind of inſtrument in ſhips like an Eele-ſpeare, to ſtrike fiſh with ; alſo, as Faine ; Beech-maſt.

Fouïnne : f. The Foyne, wood-Martin, or Beech-Martin.

Fouïr. To dig, delue, mine, make holes in the ground.

Fouïr aux taupes. To turne vp the beeles ; goe feed wormes, make a dy.

Fouïſſement : m. A digging, or deluing.

Fouïſſeur : m. A digger, deluer ; ditcher ; labourer.

Fouïſſeure : f. as Fouiſſement.

Foulage : m. as Foulement.

Foulcre. A Coote, moore-Henne, ſenne-Ducke.

Fouldre : f. A thunderbolt.

Fouldroyant. Thundering and lightning ; darting thunderbolts ; Looke Foudroyant.

Fouldroyé : m. ée : f. Thunder-ſtricken, blaſted with lightning, and thunder ; alſo, violently beaten, or borne downe.

Fouldroyement : m. A thunder-ſtriking ; a darting of thunderbolts ; a blaſting with lightning, or (inlightned) thunderbolt.

Fouldroyer. To caſt, or dart thunderbolts ; to ſtrike, burne, or blaſt with lightning, or (inlightned) thunderbolts ; Hence alſo, to beat, or beare downe with great violence all that comes in his way.

Foule : f. A crowd, preſſe, or throng of people ; alſo, a fulling Mill.

A la foule. Thruſting, thronging, hudling, or ſhouing hard, one vpon the necke of another.

Foulé : m. ée : f. Troden, ſtamped, or trampled on ; bruiſed, or cruſhed by the feet, &c ; alſo, thronged, or thruſt together ; alſo, fuyled, oppreſſed, ouercharged ; weighed downe ; grieued, vexed, afflicted, harried :

L'hoſte eſt touſiours le plus foulé : Prov. The gueſt (or Hoſt) is alwayes charged moſt.

Foulée : f. The Slot of a Stag, the Fuſe of a Bucke (the view, or footing of either) vpon hard ground, graſſe, leaues, or duſt ; wee call it (moſt properly) his fuyling.

Foulement : m. A treading, trampling, or ſtamping on ; a bruiſing, or cruſhing with the feet, &c ; alſo, a fuyling, oppreſſing, ſurcharging, ouercharging, extreame wronging.

Fouler. To tread, ſtampe, or trample on ; to bruiſe, or cruſh, by ſtamping ; hurt, or obtuſe, by treading on ; to thruſt thruſt, or weigh downe; to leane exceeding hard againſt; to preſſe, oppreſſe, foyle, ouercharge, extreamely.

Fouler l'honneur de; To diſgrace, or ſcandalize; to reproach, or vſe opprobriouſly.
Le cheval ſe foule. The horſe is ſurbated, or heated of his feet.
Foulerie: f. as Foulement; alſo, as Fouloire.
Fouleur: m. A treader (of grapes, &c;) a ſtamper, or trampler on.
Fouleure: f. A ſtraine, or wrinch, in a ioynt.
Fouleures. as Foulées.
Fouliere. as Foulerie.
Foulis. as Foulement.
Foullage. Fullage; money payed for the thickening of cloth at a fulling Mill.
Foullé: m. ée: f. Fulled as cloth in a Mill; alſo, as Foulé.
Fouller. To full, or thicken cloth in a Mill.
Foulleure. as Fouleure.
Foullon. as Foulon.
Foullonné: m. ée: f. Thickened, or fulled.
Foullonner. To full, or thicken cloth in a Mill.
Foullouaire. as Fouloire. ¶Rab.
Fouloire. The round trough, wherein the wheele of a preſſe, often turning, or the treader, often ſtamping, cruſhes the ſtuffe that is in it.
Foulon: m. A fuller, or thickener of clothes; alſo, a fulling Mill; alſo, the great, and ſtinking Droane, or dorre-Bee.
Chardon à foulon. The Teazle, or Fullers thiſtle.
Herbe à foulon. Fullers hearbe, Sopeweed, Sopewort, Bruiſewort.
Foulque. A Coote, moore-Henne, or fenne-Ducke.
Foulure: f. A treading, ſtamping, or trampling on; as Foulement.
Foulz. Certain peeces of Veniſon cut out from betweene the necke, and the eſſay of a Deere; that part of the ſide which is next to the necke.
Foupi: m. ie: f. Crumpled, rumpled, cruſhed, trampled on, or cruſhed by trampling on.
Foupier: m. as Fripier.
Foupir. To rumple, or crumple; to cruſh, or marre the faſhion of, by ſitting, or treading on.
Fouquer. To finger, lay hold on, get into his fingers. ¶Tour.
Fouquet. The proper name of a man; alſo, a certaine game like ours, wherein one, ſetting a ſtaffe againſt his noſe, runnes tilting at a candle.
Petit Fouquet. A leacherous, effeminate, lixorous tayled fellow; a ſmell-ſmocke, wencher, muttonmonger.
Et puis adieu Fouquet. And then we may euen goe hang our ſelues; or bid farewell to all good fellowſhip.
Four: m. An Ouen; alſo, a Furnace; alſo, a great peece of timber in the prowe of a Ship, called, the Hooke.
Four balet. A Maukin.
Four à ban, ou bannal, ou bannier. A common Ouen for the tenants, or inhabitants of the Iuriſdiction wherein it ſtands.
Béer contre vn four. To halt before a cripple.
Ce n'eſt pas pour luy que le four chauffe. Tis not for him that this prouiſion is made; this is no meat for his mouth; no graſſe for his mowing.
Il ne peut eſtre enſemble au four, & au moulin. He cannot follow two buſineſſes together; he cannot be here and there too.
Mettre le pain en vn four froid. Looke Pain.
Ils luy mettoyent vn pain au four. They taught him a bone to gnaw on; or, they made him haue ſomewhat to doe.
Il a monté deſſus le four. He is at his full growth.
Il en porta la paſte au four. He bore the burthen of it; in whomſoeuer the fault was, the puniſhment fell only on him.
Le four appelle le moulin bruſlé: Prov. The micher tearmes the coward couetous; (and may be applyed to anie, that checks another for a fault whereof onely himſelfe is guiltie.)
C'eſt au four, & au moulin, ou l'on ſçait des nouvelles: Pro. For while the bread bakes, and the corne grinds, people haue ſome leiſure to tell how the world goes.
En four chaud ne croiſt herbe: Prov. Hot Ouens breed no hearbes.
Quand vn four eſt bien chaud la gueule s'en reſſent: Prov. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth ſpeaketh.
Prodigue, & grand beuveur de vin, n'a du ſien ne four, ne moulin: Prov. The ſwilling prodigall ſoone waſts, and ſells, both Mill, and Ouen, and each good thing elſe.
Fourbe: f. A fib, ieaſt, ſitton, gudgeon, mockerie, gullerie; a wyle, guile, deceit, impoſture; a couſening, cheating, conycatching tale, or tricke.
Fourbi: m. ie: f. Furbiſhed, poliſhed, burniſhed.
Fourbir. To furbiſh, poliſh, burniſh, make bright.
Fourbiſſeur: m. An Armorer; a Cutler; or, moſt properly, a furbiſher, ſcowrer, burniſher, poliſher.
Teſte à teſte comme deux fourbiſſeurs. (Which commonly worke with their heads cloſe together.)
Fourbiſſeure: f. A furbiſhing, ſcowring; poliſhing, burniſhing.
Fourbouilly. Boyled, or ſtued meat with broth, or pottage.
Fourbure: f. The foundering of a horſe.
Fourc: m. A Forke; or any thing which, forke-like, makes a ſharpe angle; alſo, a forkedneſſe.
Le fourc d'un arbre. The twiſt of a tree; (Looke Fourcheure.)
Le fourc d'un chemin. The angle, or corner of a way that parts in two; and the ſame partition, or the wayes that come thereof.
Le fourc des doigts. The part that lyes betweene the ſetting on of euerie two of the fingers; or the parting thereof.
Le fourc des ruës. That part of ſtreets whereat they are parted in two.
Fourcelle: f. The breaſt blade, or heart-blade; alſo, the channell bone, or craw-bone; Looke Fourchette.
Fourchage: m. A branch of a linage, familie, or kindred; any branch, member, or ſide of a ſtock diuided.
Fourché: m. A forke, or forkedneſſe; alſo, the forked, or double broched, top of a Deeres head.
Fourché: m. ée: f. Forked, diuided in two, ſet, or made forke-wiſe; alſo, hanged.
Fourche: f. A Forke, Pitch-forke, or Prong; alſo, a gibbet, or paire of gallowes; whence;
Fourche patibulaire. (An appurtenant, or marke of high Iuriſdiction) ſtanding on two pillars, it belongs to a Seigneur haut Iuſticier; on 3, to a Lo. Chattelain; on 4, to a Baron; & on 6, to an Earle: (And yet by the cuſtomes of Blois the Moyen Iuſticier may haue that with 2 pillars; and by the cuſtomes of Auxerre, thoſe that ſtand on 3 or 4, belong to high Iuſticers; and elſewhere thoſe that ſtand on 4, belõg only to Lo. Chattelains; but theſe proportiõs are nothing ſo proper, nor ſo general, as the former.)

Fourche à trois pointes. A Trout-ſpeare, or Eele-ſpeare.

Coups de fourche baillez par quelques femmes à leurs maris; Hornes like forked tines.

Panſer vn cheval à la fourche. To dreſſe a horſe but ſleightly; or, to giue him blowes in ſtead of currying.

Paſſer ſoubs la fourche. To yeeld his necke to the yoake; abandon his freedome; ſubmit himſelfe vnto thraldome.

Traicter à la fourche. To ſwaddle, baſt, lamme, ſwindge well fauoredly; to vſe hardly, intertaine rudely, deale roughly with.

Fourché: m. ée: f. as Fourchu.

Fourche-fiere: f. A long Staffe, or Quarter ſtaffe, hauing at the one end a forke, and at the other a Pike.

Fourche-fiere à trois pointes. A Trowt-ſpeare, or Eele-ſpeare.

Fourchelle. A little forke; or, as Fourchette.

Fourchément. Forkedly; alſo, crookedly.

Fourcheon. A forket; the tooth, or graine of a forke.

Fourcher. To forke; to cleaue, or diuide in two; alſo, to ſtay, or make a ſtand, as a Muskettier does when he ſets downe his reſt; alſo, to be hanged.

Ce chemin fourche, ou ſe fourche. This way parts in two.

La langue luy fourche. He ſtuts, or trips with his tongue.

Fourcheran. Drageon fourcheran. The (Vine) ſprig that ſhoots out betweene two branches.

Fourchette: f. A forket, or ſmall forke; alſo, the breaſt-blade, or heart-blade; (the forked, or triangular griſtle which cleaues to the bottome of the breaſt-bone;) alſo, the putting of the neck-ioynts out of ioynt; alſo, a horſes Fete-lock; alſo, a Musket-reſt.

Fourchette d' enhaut, ou ſuperieure. The crawbone, canell-bone, neck-bone, throat-bone.

Fourcheu. as Fourchu.

Fourcheure: f. A forkineſſe, or forkedneſſe; a fork-like diuiſion, or cleauing; alſo, that part of the bodie from whence the thighes doe part; (I thinke we call it the Twiſt.)

Fourcheure d'un arbre. The twiſt of a tree; the top of the bodie, where it begins to be diuided by the maine branches.

Fourchier: m. A cord vntwiſted in the middeſt, and (a ſtone being put thereinto) vſed as a ſling.

Fourchier à trois dents. (A triple-toothed forke) a Trout-ſpeare, or Eele-ſpeare.

Fourchon. as Fourcheon.

Fourchon du raiſin. The ſtaulke of a cluſter of grapes.

Fourchu: m. uë: f. Forked; diuided, or clouen in two.

L'Arbre fourchu. A ſtanding on the hands with outſtretcht legs.

Pied fourchu. Beſtes à pied fourchu. Halfe-hooſed, or clouen-footed beaſts; as Neate, Sheepe, Swyne, &c.

L'Impoſt du pied fourchu. The toll that is payed in Fayres, or Markets, vpon the ſale of any of thoſe kind of cattell.

Fourchument. Forkedly, forke-like.

Fourchure: f. The part of a mans bodie, whence his thighes part; Looke Fourcheure.

Fourdrines: f. Sloes; ¶Pic. alſo, wild, or mountaine, Plummes.

Fourdrinier. The blacke thorne that beareth Sloes; alſo, the wild, or mountaine, Plumme tree.

Fourgangnement: m. A recouering of, or a reentring into, land, for non-payment of Rent. ¶Wallon.

Fourgangner. To recouer, or to reenter into land, for non-payment of Rent. ¶Wallon.

Fourgon: m. An Ouen-forke, (tearmed in Lincolnſhire, a Fruggin) wherewith fuell is both put into an Ouen, and ſtirred when it is (on fire) in it.

A telle paelle tel fourgon: Prov. One filthie knaue matcht with another.

La paelle ſe mocque du fourgon: Prov. The Peele derides the Ouen-forke; one ſlouen, or neighbor another.

Fourgonner. To put fuell into an Ouen; alſo, (and the more properly) to toſſe, or ſtirre it (being on fire) in the Ouen, with a Fruggin.

Que fourgonnes tu la? What a ſtirre, what a rumbling, what a puddering, keepeſt thou there?

Fourgonneur: m. An Ouen-tender, or Ouen-ſtirrer; one that lookes to an Ouen, with a Fruggin, or forke, in his hand.

Fourmage: m. Cheeſe.

Fourmage de Bans. A cheeſe made of Goats milke, or as the Angelot.

Fourmage de Betune. A kind of cheeſe made of Sheepes milke.

Fourmage de Loüans. A kind of hard cheeſe, made at a village of that name.

Fourmage eſt bon quand il y en a peu: Prov. The leſſe cheese the better; or, cheeſe is good when a miſerable hand giues it; according whereunto they ſay alſo, Tout fourmage eſt bien ſain qui vient de chiche main.

Fourmage de taupe, & pain d'Argus: Pro. Heauie cheeſe, and light bread (are, commonly, the beſt.)

Nul ne pele ſon fourmage qui n'y ait honte, ou dommage: Prov. No man pares his cheeſe without ſhame, or loſſe.

Qui a fourmage pour tous mets, il le doit couper bien eſpez: Prov. He muſt not ſcant his cheeſe that hath nought elſe to feed on.

Fourmageon: m. A little cheeſe.

Fourmagere: f. A cheeſe-preſſe.

Fourmagerie: f. Cheeſe ware, a commoditie of cheeſe; alſo, a cheeſe-houſe, or cheeſe-dairie; a roome, or place, wherein cheeſe is vſually made.

Fourmageur: m. A cheeſe-ſeller, Cheeſemonger, marchant of cheeſe.

Fourmageux: m. euſe: f. Cheeſie, full of cheeſe, belonging vnto cheeſe.

Fourmagier: m. A cheeſe-monger; alſo, a great eater of cheeſe.

Fourmagiere. as Fourmagere.

Fourman. Vn grand pain fourman. A great wheaten, or white loafe; (ſo great, that the mouth of an ordinarie Ouen is filled withall.)

Fourme. A kind of net for water fowle.

Fourment. Wheat; See Froment.

Fourmentée: f. Furmentie; boyled wheat.

Fourmenter. To yeeld, or bring forth, wheat.

Fourmentier: m. ere: f. Wheat-yeelding, wheatie, of wheat.

Fourmi: m. An Ant, Piſmire, Emmot.

Fourmi d'Inde; ou, Dardoiſe fourmi. Looke Dardoiſe.

Ventre de fourmi. A ſwag-bellie.

Plus ioyeux que fourmis en grain. More frolicke then Ants in a heape of corne.

Souffler les fourmis dans leurs fourmilieres. To blow Ants into their holes. Looke Fourmiliere.

Four-

Fourmiant. frappement fourmiant. Such a ſoft, and gentle ſtroake as is giuen by the touch, or feet, of a creeping Ant.

Fourmier. as Fourmiller.

Fourmiere: f. An Ants hole, or neaſt; a hillock, or banke full of Ants; alſo, a diſeaſe of hawkes, making the hornie part of their beakes to pill.

Fourmiller. To abound, or ſwarme in great troupes, as Ants in their neaſts, or caues; alſo, to paine, or pricke, as the ſtinging of Piſmeares.

Fourmilliere: f. An Ants hole, or neaſt; a hillocke, or banke full of Ants.

Vne fourmilliere de gens. A great number, a huge troupe, of people crowding together like Ants.

Souffler les fourmis dans leurs fourmillieres. To blow Ants into their holes; to ſtriue againſt the ſtreame, or draw on himſelfe a miſchiefe by ſtriuing to expell it; (for the more one labours, by blowing, to get them in, the more he prouokes them, and makes them to come out.)

Fourmion: m. A little Ant, ſmall Piſmeare.

Fournage: m. The fee taken by a Lord of his vaſſalls, and tenants, bound to bake in his common ouen; or for a permiſſion to vſe their owne, alſo, as Foüage.

Fournaillé: m. ée: f. Baked (in an ouen.)

Fournailler. To bake (in an ouen.)

Fournaiſe: f. A furnace.

Fournaiſer: m. ere: f. Belonging to a furnace.

Fourneau. A little ouen.

Fournée de pain; A batch, or ouen full of bread.

Prendre vn pain ſur la fournée. To get a ſnatch at his wench before ſhe be maryed.

Fourni: m. A bakehouſe.

Fourni: m. ie: f. Furniſhed, fraught, appointed, prouided of, ſupplied with; in a compleate faſhion, with full equipage.

Lance fournie. Seeke Lance.

Fournier: m. A baker; or one that keepes, or gouernes a common ouen.

Fourniere: f. A woman-baker, or ſhe that keepes a common ouen.

Fournil: m. A bake-houſe.

Fournillé: m. ée: f. Baked (in an ouen, or bake-houſe.)

Fourniller: m. ere: f. Much in a bake-houſe; haunting the bake-houſe.

Fourniller. To bake (in an ouen, or bake-houſe.)

Fourniment: m. Full fraught, prouiſion, furniture; perfection; that which compleats, or makes vp a thing; alſo, a furniſhing, or fraughting.

Le fourniment d' vne Piſtole. A caſe for a Piſtoll.

Le fourniment des reins. The muſcles of the backe, about the kidneyes.

Fournir. To furniſh, fraught, ſupplie, miniſter, find, prouide of, accommodate with.

Fournir à vn appointment. To performe, fulfill, or accompliſh the conditions of an agreement.

Fournir la complaincte. Looke Reſaiſir.

Autrement on n'en fournira pas. Otherwiſe one ſhall not get him, one ſhall haue no helpe, or vſe of him.

Fourniſſement: m. A furniſhing, or furniſhment; a fraughting, ſupplying, fitting with, prouiding of, things neceſſarie; (In Law, C'eſt le ſequeſtre de la choſe contentieuſe en matiere poſſeſſoire, & de complainte, & le reſtabliſſement des fruicts, qui doit eſtre faict es mains du Commiſſaire: (Ragueau.)

Fourniſſeur: m. a furniſher, fraughter, prouider, ſupplier.

Fourniture: f. Furniture, fraught, prouiſion; a full meaſure, or ſupplie of neceſſarie implements, or equipage.

Fournoyé: m. ée: f. Baked (in an ouen.)

Fournoyer. To bake (in an ouen.)

Fourquat: m. A kind of plough vſed in Languedoc.

Fourque. as Fourche; A forke; a paire of gallowes.

Fourquier: m. A Brewers ſtirrer.

Fourrage: m. Forrage for horſes; alſo, fodder for cattell.

Fourrage des corbeaux. A falſe knaue, a filthie lewd fellow, crowes-meat, one for whom the gallowes grones.

Fourragé: m. ée: f. Foddered; forraged, rauaged, forrayed.

Fourragement. A foddering; forraging, rauaging, forraying.

Fourrager. le four. as Fourragement.

Fourrager. To fodder; alſo, to forrage, prey, forray, goe a forraging; to ranſacke, rauage, boot-hale it.

Fourrageur: m. A fodderer; a forrager, a purueyor of victuall for horſes, and cattle; alſo, a boot-haler.

Fourré: m. A kind of fiſh-net ſtretched out with hoopes in the forme of a whale-bone ſleeue.

Fourré: m. ée: f. Furred; alſo, entred, thruſt, or put far in; ſheathed, caſed; lodged within.

Coups fourrez. Interchanged blowes.

Paix fourrée. A counterfeit peace; a peace made with a purpoſe to be broken.

Fourreau. A ſheath; a ſcabbard.

Le fourreau d' vne beſte. The thicke skin wherein the yard, or pizzle of a beaſt is ſheathed.

Le fourreau d' vne halebarde, harquebouſe, piſtole, &c. A caſe for a halbeard, harguebuſe, piſtoll, &c.

N' admirons le fourreau pour meſpriſer la lame. Let not a faire outſide make th' inſide leſſe eſteemed of.

Fourrelier: m. A ſcabberd maker.

Fourrer. To put, thruſt, or throw into, to lodge in or hide within, a hole or hollow thing; Hence; to caſe; and to ſheath; alſo, to furre; alſo, as Fourrager.

Se fourrer en. To enter boldly, thruſt freely, pierce far into; alſo, to ingage, or intangle himſelfe in.

Se fourrer es biens d'autruy. To intrude vpon the gouernment of other mens goods; to diſpoſe of them vnbidden, or whether th' owners will or no.

S'y fourrer iuſques aux oreilles. To plunge himſelfe vp to th' eares in.

Fourrer vn gasteau. To butter a cake.

Fourrer la main à. To bribe, to greaſe the fiſt of.

Fourreur: m. A Furrier; a Skinner; alſo, a Forrager.

Fourreure: f. See Fourrure.

Fourrie: f. Pillage, forrage; rauaging, boot-haling, ranſacking.

Fourrier: m. An Harbinger.

Le fourrier de la Lune a marqué le logis. Appliable to a woman that hath her flowers.

Fourriere: f. A caue, or cloſe ſeller, to lay wine, or oyle in.

Fourrons. An opprobrious name, or nickname, giuen by the Tholoſains vnto the Sergeants, or attendants, of the Captaine of the watch.

Fourrure: f. Furre, furring, skins to furre with.

Fourſer. To ſpawne, as carpes in a pond.

Fourvoyé: m. ée: f. Strayed, erred, ſwarued, gone out of the way; that hath miſſed, or miſtaken the way.

Fourvoyement: m. A ſtraying, erring, wandring, going out of the way.

Fourvoyer. To miſſe, or miſtake the way; to erre in, ſwarue from; roue, wander, ſtray, or goe, out of, the way.

Ce nous ſera fort ioyeux, & ſi ne te fourvoyeras de de rien. This will be a great pleasure to vs, and no hinderance vnto you, or no whit out of your way.

Il ne se fourvoit point qui à bon hostel va : Prov. He goes not out of his way that goes to a good Inne.
Qui trop se haste en cheminant, en beau chemin se fourvoye souvent : Prov. He that makes too much hast oft wanders in plaine way.
Fousser. as Fouir; To dig; & (more particularly) to dig, or turne vp, a vineyard, somewhat before the vines begin to bud.
Fousselette. as Fosselette.
Fousteau. as Fouteau.
Fouteau : m. A Beech tree.
Foutoir : m. A (battering) Ramme; also, a rammer; or, a rammer head for a peece of Ordnance.
Fouton : m. A Snite; so called, because she wags her taile verie much.
Foutouër : m. The warlike Engine called a Ramme, wherewith, in old time, walls were battered; Looke Foutoir.
Foutre. To leacher.
Foutu. vn foutu. A scowndrell; a fellow of small accompt.
Foutu : m. uë : f. (The Participle of Foutre.)
Fouyasse. as Fouace : ¶ Bourbon.
Fouyer : m. The harth (of a chymney.)
Le Fouyer d'une arquebuse. The fire-pan, or touch-pan of an Harquebuse.
Fouyer de Galere. The Cooke-roome in a galley.
Ce que l'enfant oit au fouyer est bien tost cogneu iusques au Monstier : Pro. Little pitchers haue wide eares (wee say; and it seemes by this prouerbe that) little children haue long tongues.
Fouynne. as Fouïnne.
Fouzil. as Fusil.
Foy : m. Le foy du corps. The middle, or wast.
Foy : f. Faith, trust, confidence, assurance, beliefe in; credit giuen; also, loyaltie, faithfulnesse, trustinesse; also, fealtie; also, fee simple; also, a ring closed with a band in band.
Demission de foy. Looke Demission.
Homme de foy. A vassall, tenant, subiect, that owes, or holds by, fealtie.
Possesseur de bonne foy. He that possesses a thing vpon a title which he knowes, and is, good.
Possesseur de mauvaise foy. Is he, that either by force detaines another mans goods, or vses them, knowing that they belong to another.
En bonne foy ? Is it possible? is there any such matter? can it be so?
En bonne foy. (without interrogation) In good earnest, in good sooth, in good sadnesse.
Il y va à la bonne foy. He goes roundly, plainly, simply, sincerely, to worke.
Il y va aussi à la bonne foy que le loup qui mangea la chevre. (Said of a great deceiuer.)
Faire foy de. To beleeue, trust, giue credit vnto.
Mis sous sa foy. Left to his owne discretion, or gouernment; giuen ouer to himselfe.
Tomber, ou venir en foy tierce. An inheritance to fall into a third hand, or come vnto the hands of a third heire; Looke Tiers.
Foy de Granes : Prov. Treacherie, or treason.
Nul n'a trop pour soy de sens, d'argent, de foy : Prov. No man hath for himselfe too much wit, faith, or pelfe.
Foye : m. The liuer.
Foye marin. The sea Liuer; a kind of Breame-like fish, that is but seldome seene; also, a slinking excrescence resembling a sodden liuer, and cleauing, in the bottome of the sea, vnto the weed Alge.
Iamais homme ne mange foye que le sien non ait ioye : Prov. The liuer of the liuer-eater, is comforted and much the better.
Foyer. as Fouyer.
Foyes : f. The slot of a Stag, the view of a Bucke, the footing of either.
Foyne. as Faine; Beech mast: ¶ Bourbonnois.
Foynne. as Fouïnne; A Foine, or Polecat.
Frac. On ne trouve chez luy ni fric ni frac. There's nothing to be had, or gotten, at his house.
Fracas : m. Violent breaches; extreame bruises; wracks, destruction; hauocke, hurlyburly.
Fracassé : m. ée : f. Broken, crashed; extreamly crushed; wracked; battered; ruined, made hauocke of.
Fracasser. To crash; to breake, batter, bruise, or crush, extreamely; to wracke, destroy, ruine, make hauocke of.
Fracasseur : m. A crasher, violent breaker, batterer; or crusher.
Fracein : m. as Vlcere ambulatif.
Fracteur : m. A breaker; also, a bankrupt; and hence the prouerbe;
Aujourd'uy facteur demain fracteur.
Fraction : f. A fraction, or fracture; a breaking, bursting; rending, tearing in peeces.
Fracture : f. A fracture, breach, or bursting.
Fracture faicte en raifort. Looke Raifort.
Fracturé : m. ée : f. Burst, broken.
Fragate : f. A Frigate.
Fragile : com. Fraile; brittle, soone burst, easily broken, weake; mortall.
Fragilité : f. Frailtie, fragilitie, brittlenesse; weakenesse.
Fragment : m. A fragment; a peece, or parcell, of a broken thing; a gobbet, or shard.
Fragrant. Fragrant, odoriferous.
En fragrant delict. While th'offence is fresh in memorie; or, presently after the committing thereof.
Fraiche. The feminine of Frais; Looke Frais; or Frez.
Fraile : com. Fraile, brittle, weake, easily broken.
Fraille. as Fraile.
Faillé : m. ée : f. Crumbled in peeces, broken into small crumlockes, or mammocks.
Frailler. To crumble in peeces, to breake into small crumlockes (brittle things.)
Frain : m. A bit; the part of a bridle which is in the horses mouth.
Prendre le frain aux dents. To be verie earnest; or, to goe forward notwithstanding any commaund, or aduice, to the contrarie.
Ronger son frain. To bite of the bit.
A vieille mul frain doré : Pro. Said in derision of an old woman, that hath newly, trimd vp, or sleeked ouer, her selfe.
Fraire. To surfet; to fill full; also, to swell, rise, or increase, as a womans dugs, when the menstruall bloud begins to dilate the veines of the matrix.
Frairie : f. A Frierie; a brotherhood.
Frais. as Fraiz.
Frais. le fr. (d'vn homme.) The fresh, new, or late steps, tract, or footing of a man.
Frais : m. Fraische : f. Coole; fresh; young, new, lustie; vnfoiled; vntoiled; also, fresh, or, without salt; Looke Frez.
Fraischement. Freshly; See Freschement.

Fraiſcheur: f. Coolenesse; freshnesse; newneße; lustinesse.

Fraise: f. A strawberrie; also, a ruffe; also, a calues chaldern.

Fraisé: m. ée: f. (Looke Frezé;) pain fraisé. A Panadoe of the crummes of stale Manchet, steeped some while in two or three changes of water, and then boiled in a pipkin with butter, or in chickin or capon broth, & often stirred with a spoone vntill it be readie.

Fraisier: m. A strawberrie-plant; or, the hearb that beareth strawberries.

Fraisſé: m. ée: f. Broken, burst (into many small peeces.)

Fraisle: com. as Fraile; Fraile.

Fraisler. To breake, to burst (into many small peeces.)

Fraisſure: f. Brittlenesse, frailtie.

Fraisſuſement. Brittlely, weakely; of a fraile strength; in a fraile manner.

Fraisne: m. An Ash tree.

Fraiz: m. Costs, expences, charges.

Peindre à fraiz. To paint with water-colours on a greene, or new-mortered, wall.

Fraiz: m. Fraiſche: f. Looke Frais; or, Frez.

Fraize: f. as Fraise.

Fraizé. febves fraizées. Pilled, or shaled, beanes.

Fralaté: m. ée: f. Racked, or drawne off the Lees; also, powred out of one veßell into another, as wine.

Fralatement: m. A racking of wine; a drawing it off the lees; or shifting it out of one vessell into another.

Fralater. To racke wine, to draw it off the lees; to shift, or powre it out of one vessell into another.

Framboiſe: f. A Raspis, hindberrie, framboiseberrie; also, a pleasing smell or sauor in wine, or fruites; and hence;

Ce vin ſent ſa framboiſe. This wine smells delicately.

Framboiſier: m. A Raspis bush; the plant, or shrub, that beareth Raspises.

Franc: m. A franke, or stie to feed, and fatten hogs in.

Franc. A peece of money worth, in old time, but one Sol Tournois; now it goes for twentie; which amount vnto ij.s. sterl.

Franc Bourdelois. Is but 15. Solz Tourn. 18. d. sterl.

Franc à cheval. An old peece of gold worth betweene vj. and vij.s. now it goes, as th'ordinarie Franc, but for ij.s. sterl.

Franc à pied. Another worth about foure, or fiue shillings sterling.

Franc: m. Franche: f. Franke, free; at libertie; subiect vnto no man; exempt from subsidies, dueties, or seruices; also, franke, liberall, bountifull; courteous, gracious; also, valiant, hardie, forward, bold, courageous; also, plaine, round, open-hearted; sincere, honest; without any fault, or ill qualitie; also, tame, naturall, kindlie, seasonable, well tempered, of the right stampe.

Franc aleu. Free tenure; or, a free tenant; Seeke Alleud.

Franc archer. One trained bow-man in euerie Parish, well armed, and readie vpon summons, and at a rate certaine, to march; in regard whereof he is exempted from all taxes, and subsidies.

Franc argent. as Francs deniers.

Francs Bourgeois. Free Burgesses; which pay no yeerlie fines for their freedome, nor so many amerciaments of Courts as others; although they yeeld some other contributions, and seruices, vnto their Lords.

Francs deniers en vente de fief, &c. A lessens freeing, or discharging of the purchaser from those fines which he were otherwise to pay, at his entrie, vnto the Landlord.

Francs devoirs. Looke Debvoir.

Franc fief. A free, or affranchising, fief; as all Fiefs be (and therefore one sayes, that Franc is a generall, and perpetuall Epithite vnto a Fief;) whereof, at first, none were capable but les Francs (a people of the Germane Franconia) who conquered Gallia; nor ought any to hold them at this day, but such as are noble, free-borne, and exempted from subsidies; yet if a villeine get one of them it makes him a free-man, though not a Gentleman; but he cannot hold it without his Lords permission, and a licence from the King; and hence;

Droict de francs-fiefs. The fine thats due vnto the King vpon the purchase of a fief by a Burguer (of an vnpriuiledged towne; for Paris, and some others are priuiledged) Roturier, Villeine, or other ignoble person: (this was certaine, viz: six yeres value if the land were held of the King, and three yeares, if of another Lord; but now it is whatsoeuer th'Officers of th'Exchequer will set downe;) also, the power of enabling them to purchase fiefs; a point of Soueraigntie peculiar to the King.

Impoſition de francs fiefs. The same (in the first part.)

Franc homme. A vassall, or tenant that owes fealtie.

Franche ſalaiſon. as Franc-salé.

Francs Taulpins. Trained men; souldiers leuied in villages, or made of husbandmen.

Franche verité. An inquirie of disorders committed within a Iurisdiction, or Mannor (by especiall order, & authoritie from the Lo. thereof) before any actuall complaint, or apprehension of offenders be made; a priuie Sessions.

Cave franche. A fat well seasoned, or fit to receiue new wine.

Pierre franche. The (soft white) free stone.

Repeuë franche. A meale come freely by, or which costs th'eater nothing.

Roſe franche. A red Rose.

Sergent franc. An Officer which some vassalls may keepe to looke vnto their woods, and to seise, and detaine such beasts, as are found Dammage fesant within them.

Terre franche. Mould, pure soyle, soyle of it selfe; a soyle without sand, grauell, stones, or tuph.

Franc au collier; franc au traict. That drawes, or labours hard; that does, falls to, goes through with, his businesse lustily, roundly, willingly, freely.

A la franche Marguerite. In the plainest fashion, after the homeliest maner.

Refuſer tout à franc. To refuse absolutely, denie resolutely, vtterly, altogether; and to deprive himselfe, by such a refusall, of all power, or means of acceptance, or yeelding afterwards.

Franc de Carreau. A certaine play with a peece of money at a square crossed: ¶Rab.

Francarchers: m. Archers, or trained bow-men, that serue on foot; exempt from Subsidies, because bound to march, on a sudden, and at a certaine monethlie rate, whensoeuer they be commanded.

Franc-a-tripe One that feeds on free-cost; or, A tall trencher-man, glutton, bellie-god; one thats bountifull to his guts, free to his paunch; one that loues his bellie well.

Franc-eſtu: m. The Garden Globe; an excellent apple.

France. (The kingdome of) France.
De France. An honourable addition, beſtowed onely on the French Kings children (as Enfant de France; ) or on th'immediate Officers of the Crowne (whence, Conneſtable de France; Chancelier de France; Admiral de France, &c.)
Franc-fief. Looke Franc.
Franc-gontier. A good rich Yeoman, ſubſtantiall yonker, wealthie chuffe.
Franche-mariette. The name of a great, and tender apple, ſpotted with red on th'one ſide.
Francheiment. Frankly, freely; liberally, bountifully; ſincerely; plainely, roundly, boldly, without halting, with an open heart.
Franchemulle d'vn mouton. A ſheepes call, or bell.
Franchi: m. ie: f. Freed, quit, vnthralled, ſet at libertie, deliuered; redeemed, diſcharged; alſo, leaped, or iumped, on, or ouer.
Le coup eſt franchi. Ouerthrowne, out-gone.
Franchir. To quit, free, deliuer, vnthrall; redeeme, diſcharge; alſo, to leape, iumpe, or bound, on, or ouer; hence;
Franchir le Rubicon. Looke Rubicon.
Franchir le ſault. To out-leape, exceed, goe beyond (ordinarie, or fit limits;) and particularly, to grow prophane, to make a ieaſt, or (at leaſt) haue no care, of religion.
Franchiſe: f. Franchiſe, freeneſſe, libertie, freedome, exemption; alſo, good breeding, free birth, tameneſſe, ſeaſonableneſſe, kindlineſſe, right kind; alſo, a Sanctuarie, Franchiſe, Libertie, Priuiledged place; alſo, the diſcharge of a debt.
Francier. To ſpeake fine, and eloquent French; (Ironically.)
Franciſque: f. A kind of axe; as Ancon; or a faſhion of ſword vſed by the auncient French.
François: m. Francis (a proper name.)
Mal S. Francois. Want of money.
François: m. oiſe: f. French, of France.
Compagnie Françoiſe. A wench (among wanton Church-men.)
Vins François. Wines that are gotten below the bridge of Sens, and in the countries on either ſide of the riuers of Marne, Seine, and Oiſe.
A la Françoiſe. After the French faſhion; raſhly; retchleſly, careleſly, leauing all at randome.
Iamais François ne furent veus recreus de bien faire: Prov. Frenchmen were neuer ſeene wearie of well doing.
Quand le François dort le Diable le berſe. A Prouerbe deuiſed by the Flemings in taxation of the veſtleſſe humor of the French.
Qui fut François ſi fut courtois: Pro. If he a French man were, courteous he was.
Françoiſe: f. as Franciſque; Alſo, the name Frances (for a woman.)
Francolin: m. A delicate red-legged fowle, of two kinds; one ſomewhat reſembles our Godwit, and feeds altogether on fiſh; another (more like to a Partridge) liues among hills, and high grounds, and is the rarer, & deerer, and (perhaps) the daintier of the two; In ſome parts of Naples they are bigger bodied then Hennes, and haue verie long bills, necks, and feet.
Francolin de mer. A kind of ſmall, and ſmooth-skinned Tunnie, held verie daintie, and much eſteemed of by the inhabitants of Creet, and Candie, neere whereunto it is moſt commonly taken.
Il eſt muet comme vn francolin pris. He vſes very few words, or fewer then he was wont; (for this fowle being at libertie ſings (after her faſhion) but in a cage is ſilent.)
Francoly. as Francolin: ¶Rab.
Francoule; or, Francourle. as Francolin; or (as ſome imagine) our Moore-game, or Grouſe: ¶Rab.
Francquieſme. A certaine free tenure, or Mannor, differing from a Fief, and conferring on ſuch as hold by it, or owe it, many priuiledges.
Franc-ſalé. A priuiledge of ſelling, and buying of ſalt (for priuate vſe) without paying any cuſtome for it; enioyed by th'inhabitants of Auvergne, Rhetelois, and the countries adioyning.
Francſoreau. The name of a certaine peare.
Franctopin: m. A clowne, carle, churle, chuffe, cluſterfiſt, hind, boore; or as Franc taulpin.
Frange: f. Fringe.
Frangé: m. ée: f. Fringed; edged with fringe; alſo, wrimpled; notched, ſnipt, or iagd on the edges.
Fuſtaine frangée. Courſe tufted fuſtian; the courſe fuſtian-like ſtuffe, thats tufted in fringe-like rewes.
Franger. To fringe; to edge, or ſet with fringe; alſo, to crumple; wrimple, iag, or ſnip on th'edges.
Frangible: com. Frangible, breakable.
Frapart. as Frappart.
Frappart: m. A knocker, ſtriker, beater.
Frappart: m. arde: f. Knocking, rapping, ſtriking, beating.
Frere frappart. A luſtie, ſtrong, tough Frier; a good boxer, a ſound knocker; a notable ſtriker, a bellie-bumper.
Frappé: m. ée: f. Strucke, knockt, rapt, hit; wounded; alſo, blaſted, as with lightning.
Cela eſt frappé à la porte d'vn treſpaſſé. All that is labour loſt, done to no purpoſe, ſpoken to deafe eares, or ſhewed vnto blind eyes.
Tous frappez à vn meſme coing. All of one opinion, faſhion, or faction.
Frappement: m. A ſtriking, knocking, rapping, bitting, ſmiting, daſhing; clapping; alſo, a blaſting.
Frapper. To knocke, rap, clap, thumpe, hit; bat, ſtrike, ſmite; alſo, to daſh; alſo, to blaſt; Looke Batre.
Frapper coup ſur. To giue a blow vnto.
Frapper dedans. Violently toruſh, enter, or breake in vpon.
Frapper d'eſtoc. To foyne, thruſt, or giue a thruſt vnto.
Frapper d'eſtoc & de taille. To ſtrike euerie way, in all faſhions, on all hands; to lay about him like a madman.
Frapper en paulme. Looke Paulme.
Frapper des pieds contre terre. To ſtampe with the feet.
Frapper à route. To rooſe a Deere with a linehound.
Tel cuide frapper qui tue: Prov. Some kill thoſe whom they would but ſtrike.
Tel ſe cuide bien garder qui ſe frappe ſur le nez: Prov. Some thinking to defend, offend, themſelues.
Touſiours ne frappe l'on pas ce à quoy l'on viſe: Prov. One alwayes hits not what he aimes at.
Frapperie: f. Knocking-ſtuffe; or, as Frappement; a knucking, rapping; &c.
Frappe-teſte. A certaine Spider whoſe ſting is neere, or in, her head.
Frappeur: m. A rapper, knocker, clapper, bitter, thumper; ſtriker, ſmiter, boxer.
Frarachage. as Frareſche.

Fra-

Frarachaux: m. Coheires, coparceners, partners in an inheritance, or ſucceſſion.
Frarager. as Frareſcher. (v.m.)
Frareſche: f. Partition of lands among brethren, neere kinſmen, or coheires.
Frareſcher. To part land, or a ſucceſſion, as brethren, or coheirs.
Frareſcheur: m. A partner, a coparcener, or coheire.
Frareuſeté: f. The cuſtome, courſe, or title of Partition among brethren, coparceners, or coheirs: ¶Wallon.
Frareux: m. euſe: f. Parted, or partable among coparceners; alſo, belonging to a coparcener: ¶Wallon.
Frarieparage: m. Fraternitie, brotherhood. (v.m.)
Fraſque: f. A gull, gullerie, mockerie; alſo, an odde trick, ſtrange pranke, idle part.
Frater. A Frier; (a word vſed moſt commonly in mockage.)
Fraternel: m. elle: f. Fraternall, brotherlie, belonging to a brother.
Fraternellement. Fraternally; brotherly.
Fraterniſer. To fraternize, concurre with; be neere vnto; agree as brothers.
Fraternité: f. Fraternitie, brotherhood.
Frateſque: com. Frier-like; of, or belonging to a Frier; alſo, hypocriticall; ſuperſtitious.
Fratre: m. A Frier; a brother; a confederate.
Fratricide: m. A murtherer of his owne brother.
Fratriſſeau: m. A nouice; a yong, and vnexperienced Frier.
Fraudateur. as Fraudeur.
Fraudation: f. A defrauding, deceiuing, beguiling.
Fraude: f. Fraud, guile, deceit, couſenage, gullerie, couin, cheating, trumperie.
Fraudé: m. ée: f. Defrauded, deceiued, beguiled, couſened, cheated, circumuented, diſappointed.
Frauder. To deceiue, defraud, beguile, circumuent, fetch ouer, couſen, cheat, gull, diſappoint.
Fraudeur: m. A defrauder, couſener, deceiuer, cheater, beguiler.
Fraudulemment. as Fraudulentement; and the better French (ſayes Nicot.)
Fraudulent. Fraudulent, craftie, deceitfull, couſening, cheating, wilie, cunning.
Fraudulentement. Fraudulently, deceitfully, craftily, guilefully, cunningly.
Frauduler. To deceiue; as Frauder.
Frauduleuſement. as Fraudulentement; or, full craftily, moſt deceitfully.
Frauduleux: m. A deceiuer, cheater, couſener, craftie mate, wilie packe, ouerreaching companion.
Frauduleux: m. euſe: f. Moſt craftie, fraudulent, guilefull, deceitfull.
Fraux: m. Commons; or common, publicke, and void grounds, wayes, places; or, as Fros.
Frax. A kind of rauenous fiſh (or as Lamie) called thus about Bayonne.
Fraxinelle: f. Baſtard Dittanie, falſe Dittander.
Fray: m. A Frier; alſo, the ſpawne of fiſh; whence;
Quand la grenouille n'eſt plus en fray. When the frog is emptie, or without ſpawne; or, when ſhee hath done breeding.
Frayable. chemin frayable. An vſuall, beaten, or well-troden, way.
Frayé: m. ée: f. Hit ſideling, grated vpon, raked along on; alſo, rubbed; and raſed, fretted, much worne by much rubbing; alſo, defrayed; alſo, burniſhed.
Chemin frayé. A way much vſed, or trod on; a beaten way.

Frayement. A hitting ſideling, a grating vpon, a raking along on; a rubbing, fretting, raſing, wearing of things by often hitting one againſt another; a burniſhing.
Frayer. To hit ſideling; to grate vpon; to rake along on; alſo, to rub; and to raſe, or fret by often rubbing; alſo, to burniſh (as a Deere his head) by rubbing; alſo, to weare, beat downe, make plaine, ſmooth, or euen by much vſing, or treading on; alſo, to ſpawne, as fiſhes, &c; alſo, to defray, or beare the charges of.
Frayeur: f. Feare, dread, fright, affrighting, terror, ſcaring, horror.
Frayeure: f. as Frayement.
Frayeux: m. euſe: f. Fearefull, dreadfull, terrible, horrible.
Frayoire. The racke-ſtaffe, or nog of a mill; the little peece of wood which rubbing againſt the hopper makes the corne fall from it.
Frayouër: m. A Deeres burniſhing of his head.
Fredaine: f. A gudgeon, mockerie, wile, gullerie; a deceitfull part, a roguiſh pranke, a knauiſh or couſening deuice.
Fredinfredailler. To leacher: ¶Rab.
Fredon: m. A Semie-quauer, or Semie-ſemie-quauer, in Muſicke; and hence, Diuiſion; and a warbling, ſhaking, or quauering.
Faire fredon ſur fredon. To heape curioſitie vpon curioſitie, to adde one nice point vnto another, or vſe many together.
Fredonner. To ſhake, diuide, warble, quauer in ſinging, or playing on an inſtrument.
Fredonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of Semie-ſemie-quauers; or of quauering, ſhaking, warbling; diuiding much.
Fredonniſé. Shaked, quauered, warbled, diuided.
Fredonniſer. as Fredonner.
Fregate: f. A Frigate; a ſwift Pinnace.
Fregolier. The Lote tree, or Nettle tree.
Freguereul. The little fiſh called, a Mennow.
Frein. See Frain.
Frelan: m. A rough, and prickled ſhrub, called, Butchers-Broome, Kneeholme, and Petigree; alſo, a Butchers Broome, or a rough bruſh, made thereof.
Frelaté. vin frelaté. That is ſhifted out of old into new veſſells; or drawne off the lees, and kept in bottles; we ſay, racked.
Frelatement: m. A racking of wine; or as Fralatement.
Frelater. To racke, or draw wine from the lees, and put it into a new veſſell; Seeke Fralater.
Frelateur: m. A racker of wine.
Frelaut. A good fellow: ¶Rab.
Frelon: m. A Hornet; alſo, a Dorre, or Drone-bee; (See Freſlon) alſo, as Frelan.
Freloque: f. A tatter that hangs downe trailing from a garment, &c.
Frelore: com. Vndone, forlorne, loſt, caſt away: ¶Rab.
Frelot. as Frelaut.
Freluche: f. A moat; a ſmall ſtraw, or lint.
Freluquet: m. A French halfe-pennie; alſo, a ſpruce dwarfe, or prettie dapper fellow.
Frelus. as Frelore; or, Ouerthrowne horſe and foot.
Fremiller. as Fourmiller.
Fremir. To quake, tremble, ſhiuer, ſhake; be exceedingly moued, either with anger, or feare.
Fremoirs: m. The claſpes of a booke; alſo, a Joyners ſtraight Chizells.
Frenaiſie: f. Frenzie, rauing, lunacie.
Frenatique: com. Frantick, rauing, lunaticke, beſides him-

himselfe, out of his little wit.

Frenouiller. To fidder, to rake, to pudder in: ¶Blesien.

Frequence: f. Frequencie; a great haunt, meeting, resort, companie, assemblie of.

Frequentation: f. A frequentation, frequenting, haunting, resorting, often assembling, thicke setting together.

Frequenté: m. ée: f. Frequented, haunted, much visited, often resorted vnto.

Frequenter. To frequent, haunt, vse much, visit often, resort many times vnto.

Frerage. as Frarescheor, A partition made betweene brothers, coheires.

Frere: m. A brother; also, a Frier.

Frere d'armes. A brother in Armes; (a title thats vsed betweene Prince and Prince, or where th'one is a Prince; whereas ordinarie Knights tearme themselues onely, Compagnons d'armes.)

Freres de la Cour. Fellow vassalls, or tenants holding of their Lord in one manner, or by one kind of tenure, and hauing equall authoritie in his Courts.

Frere de laict. A foster brother; the sonne of a mans Nurse.

Freres des Lombards. (as Harpies;) Moles, or Moon-calues; tearmed so because they are often ingendered with a liuing child; and if without, yet being bred in the same wombe, and nourished with the same milk, they may in scorne bee called brothers of the perfect children; See Lombard.

Freres vterins. Harpies, monsters, monstrous children; Moles, or Moone-calues; by the same reason.

Le frere veut bien que sa soeur ait, mais que rien du sien n'y ait: Prov. The brother would haue his sister rich, any way, but at his charges.

Ire de freres ire de Diables: Prov. Brothers anger diuellish anger.

Il n'y a terme qui passe par delà celuy de frere: Prov. Calls he me brother? how can he call me more? no friendlie tearme exceeds the tearme of brother.

Frere-lay. A seruant, or houshold Officer in an Abbey, or Couent.

Frerer. To swell; also, to itch; Looke Fraire.

Frereschеur. as Frarescheur; A coparcener.

Frereux. Cousin frereux. A Cousen-germaine by the brothers side; my fathers brothers sonne.

Freric: f. A Frierie.

Frerot: m. A shaking, or shifting, fellow.

Fres: m. Charge, cost; expence.

Fres: m. Fresche: f. as Frais; Fresh, new; coole; or as Frez.

Fresange. One hog, or more, due vnto the Maister of the waters, and forrests of Aubigny (and elsewhere) by the farmers of the Mastage, and brousage thereof.

Fresaye: f. A Scrich-owle.

Frescades: f. Refreshments, or things-refreshing; as (in Summer-time) light garments, coole aire, cold places; bowres, or shades, ouerspred with greene boughes.

Freschedent: m. A glutton, rauenor, greedie fellow, good trencher-man; one that eats as if he had beene hunger-starued.

Freschement. Newly, lately, freshly, euen now, but a small while agoe; also, coolely.

Frescheur: f. Freshnesse; coolenesse.

Freschin. A certaine bitter-sweet apple; also, rankenesse; or, the smell, or sent of vermine, as Foxes, Polecats, &c.

Vn freschin de salive. Sweetnesse, or freshnesse, of spittle.

Fresillon. Priuit, Primprint.

Fresle: com. Fraile, weake, feeble, brittle, soone broken.

Freslé: m. ée: f. Furled; vndone, or slackened, & made vp.

Fresler. To furle; to slacken, or vndoe, and make vp.

Freslon: m. A Hornet; also (but lesse properly) a Dorre, or Drone Bee; also, the shrub called Pettigree, Butchers Broome, Kneeholme, and Kneehuluer.

Irriter les freslons. To prouoke angrie persons.

Les abeilles ne deviement point freslons: Prov. Looke Abeille.

Freslonné: m. ée: f. Bitten, or stung with Hornets.

Fresnaye: f. A groue, or wood of Ash trees.

Fresne: m. An Ash tree.

Fresne champestre. The field Ash, great Ash, common Ash.

Fresne de montaigne. The wild Ash, Whicken tree, Quicken tree, Quicke-beame tree.

Fresne petit. Bastard, or false, Dittanie.

Fresne sauvage. as Fresne de montaigne; The Whicken tree, &c.

Fresnier: m. ere: f. Of Ash, Ashen, belonging to an Ash.

Fresnin: m. ine: f. as Fresnier.

Fresnoy: m. A groue, tuft, or wood of Ash trees.

Fresquades. Looke Frescades.

Fressurades: f. Complements of outward courtesie in matters of intertainment, or salutation; as, the bowing of the knee, or a stooping to touch one anothers knees; also, trifling, fondnesse, toying, idle gestures, actions to no purpose; also, a horses lifting vp of his legs.

Fressure, ou Fresure. The inwards, or intrailles; as Fres. de mouton. A sheepes plucke.

Fressure de pourceau. A hogs haslet.

Fret: m. The fraught, or fraight of a ship; also, the hire thats payed for a ship, or for the fraught thereof.

Fretail de perles. Refuse, or ragged Pearles, Pearles of small value.

Fretaillé: m. ée: f. Cut, hackt, notcht, iagged.

Chemise fretaillée de filets. A shirt, or smocke wrought in frets about the skirts.

Frete. A Verrill; th'yron band, or hoope that keeps a wooden toole from riuing.

Freté: m. ée: f. Hired, fraughted, and furnished, as a ship.

Fretel. A kind of whistle which the Sowgelders of France vsually carrie about them.

Freter. To hire a ship of burden; & to fraught, or load her, hired.

Freteure: f. A fraughting, loading, or furnishing of a (hired) ship.

Fretille: f. Straw: ¶Barrag.

Fretillant. Lasciuious, wanton, lustfull, ticklish, wrigling, frigging, itching; busie, mouing, wagging; nimble, stirring; standing on thornes, longing to be at it.

Fretillard: m. arde: f. The same; or, as Fretilleur.

Fretiller. To moue, wag, stirre often, stand on no ground; to wriggle, frig, tickle, itch, lust to be at it.

Fretilleur: m. A lasciuious, wanton, ticklish, lustfull companion; also, a busie bodie, a restlesse fop, one that often stirres, or figs vp and downe, as if he had an itch on his breech.

Fretillon: m. A little nimble dwarfe, or hop-on-my-thombe; a Jacke of the Clocke-house; a little busie-bodie, medler, Jacke-stickler; one that hath an oare in euerie mans Boat, or his hand in euerie mans dish.

Fretin: m. Furniture, fraught, prouision; also, the size, largenesse, or goodnesse of Cod, or Greene-fish; (a tearme

tearme in that ſence applied vnto that onely fiſh;) alſo the frie of any fiſh.

Le menu fretin. The leaſt ſize, and worſt ſort, of Cod; of people, the meaneſt commoners, raſcall vulgar, baſe rout.

Fretinfretailler. as Fredinfredailler.

Fretrots. A Sect of Religious men, and women (which wore a ſecret Crowne on their heads) inceſtuous, as the Adamites, by night, and ſuppreſſed in the yeare 1310.

Fretté. Frettie; a tearme of Blaſon.

Frettin: m. as Fretin.

Freux: m. A Rooke, or white-billed Crow.

Frez: m. as Freſcheur; Coolneſſe.

Frez: m. Freſche: f. New, freſh, recent, raw, greene; ſound, luſtie, newly come, lately done; alſo, coole; alſo, freſh, or without ſalt.

Bouche freſche. A lickorous, or hungrie palate; one whoſe ſtomacke is alwayes readie, whoſe appetite euer awake; alſo, as in;

Tant vous avez la bouche freſche. What fine tearms you vſe; what goodlie words you come out with; (Ironically.)

Gueule freſche. One that hath a notable good ſtomacke,

Frezaye. A Scrich-owle.

Freze: f. A calues chalderne; alſo, a ruffe.

Entrer en freze. Silke-worms to begin to mount vpon the boughes layed for them (In which mounting they ſpinne their ſilke.)

Frezé: m. ée: f. Set, as a ruffe; or, (more properly) ruffled, or ſet ruffflingly, after the manner of the (thicke) French ruffe;

Febves frezées. Pilled, or ſhaled beanes.

Frezillon: m. Priuet, Primprint.

Friable: com. Bruiſeable, eaſie to be broken.

Friand. vn fr. A ſweet-lips, picke-morſell, curious feeder, lickorous companion, daintie-mouthed fellow; an eatnell, ſlap-ſauce, lick-diſh.

Friand: m. de: f. Saucie, lickorous, daintie-mouthed, ſweet-toothed; alſo, delicate, of a pleaſing ſmacke, taſt-inticing, delicious in taſt.

Navire friand à la voile. A ſhip that ſayles exceeding well; an excellent ſayler.

Trebuchet friand. An alluring trap, ſweet poiſon, pleaſing bait.

De femme volage, & friande en tout temps bon heur nous defende: Prov. Looke Femme.

Friandeau: m. A ſweet-lips; Looke Friand.

Friandement. Saucily, lickorouſly; ſweetly, deliciouſly.

Friander. To feed daintily, taſt curiouſly, eat lickorouſly, picke the beſt morſells out of meat; to loue, or to liue on, ſweet and daintie acates.

Friandiſe: f. Daintineſſe, or lickorouſneſſe of taſt; a curious choice, or chuſing of meats; alſo, delicious fare, and hence;

Friandiſes. Dainties, Jonkets, ſweet meats, curious acates.

Qui a le nez tourné à la friandiſe. Said of a light houſewife; (belike from the affinitie thats betweene a lickorous tongue, and a leacherous taile.)

Fribours: m. A kind of counterfeit Doubles; (The Huguenots haue alſo beene tearmed ſo by ſuch as accounted them counterfeit ſtuffe:) ¶Poictevin.

Fric. On ne trouve chez luy ny frac ny fric. There is no prouiſion to be got, no intertainment to be had, at his houſe.

Fricandeaux: m. Short, skinleſſe, and daintie puddings, or Quelkchoſes, made of good flesh and hearbes chopped together, then rolled vp into the forme of Liuerings, &c, and ſo boyled.

Fricaſſé: m. ée: f. Fried; alſo, ſpent, or ſquandered away.

Fricaſſée: f. Any meat fried in a panne; alſo, a kind of charge for a Morter, or murdering peece, of ſtones, bullets, nailes, and peeces of old yron cloſed together with greaſe, and gunpowder.

Fricasser. To frie; alſo, to ſpend, or ſquander all away.

Friche. en friche. Wild, vntilled, ſauage, deſert, neglected, vnhusbanded, vnmanured.

Bois en friche. Wood newly lopt, or cut, and let ſtand vntill it be growne vp againe.

Terre delaiſſée en friche. Land vntilled; or once tilled, and afterwards neglected; whereby it becomes ouergrowne with ſhrubs, and weeds.

Friction: f. A friction, or frication; a frigging; rubbing, chafing.

Frid. as Frit.

Fries: f. The view, or footing of a Deere.

Friez. terres laiſſées en friez. Looke Friche.

Frigaler. To feed curiouſly, daintily, lickorouſly; to picke (onely) the beſt morſells out of a peece of meat.

Frigalet: m. A lickorous, or daintie-mouthed youth; a ſlap-ſauce, picke-morſell, ſweet-lips.

Frigalleries: f. Dainties; lickorous morſells, luſhious acates.

Frigoule: f. The hearbe Time: ¶Langued.

Friller. To ſhiuer, chatter, or didder for cold.

Frilleux: m. euſe: f. Chill, cold of nature.

Frimas; ou Frimats: m. A rime, or thicke miſt, which in Winter moſt commonly falls, and leaues behind it a whitish, or frothie hoare.

Avalleurs de frimats. Couſening knaues, idle companions, loytering rogues; alſo, a nickname for Judges; who vſing to riſe, and goe abroad early, ſwallow a great deale of miſt in their dayes.

Frime. Il n'en fit point de frime. He ſhewed no paſſion, he ſeemed not to be moued, at it.

Frime. bled frime. Cow-wheat, Ox-wheat, Black-wheat, Horſe-flower.

Fringant. Gay, ſpruce, compt, gallant, fine.

Fringoter. To quauer, to diuide in ſinging; alſo, as Fringotter.

Fringoteries: f. Frets; cranklings, wrigled flourishings, in caruing, &c.

Fringotter. To fret; or worke frets in gold, ſiluer, &c.

Fringue. faire la fringue. To frig, or wantonnize it, &c; as Fringuer.

Fringuer. To iet, or braue it; to be fine, ſpruce, trimme, neat; alſo, to minionize, or wantonize it; and (more particularly) to leacher, or laſciuiouſly to frig with the taile, in leachering.

Fringuereau: m. A ietter, ſpruce minion, gay fellow, compt youth; alſo, a licentious, or laſciuious perſon.

Fringuerie: f. A ietting, ſpruceneſſe, trimneſſe; alſo, leacherie, taile-frigging, ſenſuall wantonneſſe.

Frinſon. as Pinſon.

Friolé: m. ée: f. Conſumed; rauined, deuoured (cracklingly, or with a noiſe, as ſtubble by the fire.)

Frioler. To conſume, rauine, deuour, (cracklingly, or with a noiſe, as fire does ſtubble) alſo, to braue it.

Friolet. A lickorous boy; or as Vn-friand.

Friollet. as Frioler.

Fripaillé: m. ée: f. Foiled, or torne, with wearing, and handling; ragged, or full of iags.

Fripé: m. ée: f. as Frippé.
Veſtments fripez. Old clothes new trimd, and expoſed vnto ſale; Brokers ware; friperie.
Friperie: f. A friperie; Brokers ſhop, ſtreet of Brokers, or of Fripiers.
Fripe-ſauce: m. A ſnap-ſauce, licke-diſh, lickorous fellow: ¶Rab.
Fripier: m. A Fripier, or Broker; a mender, or trimmer vp of old garments, and a ſeller of them ſo mended.
Fripiére: f. A woman that ſells, or trimmes vp, old garments.
Fripon: m. A rag, or tattered clowt; alſo, an vnworthie fellow; one that vſeth, or is giuen to, baſe trickes, and ſhifts; or, one that hath no inclination to any goodneſſe; whence;
Fripon de College. A wag, a rakehell; or one that loues to be gadding abroad when he ſhould be at his booke.
Frippé: m. ée: f. Rubbed much; alſo, worne vnto rags (by much rubbing;) alſo, beatẽ, banged, belammed; ſpoiled, robbed; roughly handled; alſo, as vnder Fripé.
Frippe-lippe: m. A lickorous ſlaue, a ſaucie cõpanion: ¶Rab.
Fripper. To rub vp and downe; to weare vnto rags (by often rubbing;) alſo, to beat, bang, belamme, belabour; vſe roughly, deale hardly with; rob, deſpoyle.
Frippon. as Fripon.
Fripponnerie: f. A baſe ſhift, or ſhifting tricke.
Friquandeaux. as Fricandeaux.
Friquenelles: f. Slender, and ſmall chitterlings, or links; (¶Rab.) alſo, a raſcall companie, or a roguiſh crue of baſe, and rude biſonians; ignorant clownes, ſcoundrels, ſhagrags.
Friquet: m. A little ſlice, or ſcummer, to turne fiſh in a frying-pan; alſo, a ſticke of Lickorice; alſo, a kind of ſparrow that keepes altogether about Wallnut trees.
Friquette: f. A lingell, ſmall sklice, little ſcummer; alſo, a prettie, nimble, gay, iollie, blithe, laſſe.
Frire. To frie.
Il n'y a que frire. There is nothing to be had, no good to be done; we haue not wherewithall.
Il n'y a plus que frire. All is conſumed, waſted, ſpent, gone.
Il ne luy chaut d' avoir paeſle puis qu'il n'y a plus que frire. He cares not for that which he cannot vſe; or, he eſteemes not of a thing longer then he hath vſe for it.
Friſcades. as Freſcades; Freſh aire, coole places, &c.
Friſe. drap de friſe. Friſe.
Friſé: m. ée: f. Curled, frizled, braided, criſped, ruffled; See Frizé.
Friſer. as Frizer; Alſo, to cut a ſtroake, at Tennis.
Friſeure: f. A frizling, curling, criſping, ruffling; alſo, as Frizure.
Friſon: m. A Dutch tankerd; alſo, a man, or horſe, of Frizeland.
Friſotté: m. ée: f. Criſped, curled, ruffled in many knots.
Friſquaire: com. as Friſque.
Friſque: com. Friske, liuelie, iollie, blithe; briske, fine, ſpruce, gay.
Friſſement d'un traict. The whizzing ſound of a flying arrow.
Friſſon. A ſhiuering, quaking, diddering, through cold, or feare; a trembling, an horror.
Friſſonnant. Shiuering, ſhrugging, diddering, ſhuddering.
Friſſonner. To tremble, quake, ſhrug, ſhiuer, didder, ſhudder, earne, through cold, or feare.
Friſſure: f. as Frizure.
Friſure: f. A light hurt; raſe, or ſcratch; alſo, as Friſeure.
Frit: m. A bending, or leaning inwards; (a Maſons tearme.)
Frit: m. ite: f. Fried; alſo, waſted, ſpent, conſumed.
Reſine frite. Drie clarified Roſen.
Sa part eſt frite de. He may roaſt all his part thereof vpon his finger, or put it into his eye, and neither hurt finger, nor eye.
Friteau: m. A Fritter; alſo, as Fritou.
Fritou: m. A kind of ſhell-fiſh of a ſpannes length, and ſomewhat like a Mullet.
Friture: f. A frying.
Frivole: com. Friuolous, vaine, ſleight, idle, trifling, of no value.
Frivolement. Friuolouſly, vainely, triflingly, to no purpoſe.
Frivuſcule: m. A toy, trifle, niſle, friuolous matter.
Frizailles: f. Friſes, or, peeces of friſe.
Frize: f. The cloth called Friſe; alſo (in Architecture) the broad and flat band, or member, thats next below the Corniſh, or betweene it and th' Architraue; called alſo by our workemen, the Frize.
Frizé: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled, criſped, braided, ruffled; alſo, razed or grazed along on; touched lightly, paſſed ſleightly ouer; onely, or but a little, ſcratched.
Frizer. To frizle; criſpe; curle (as water blowne on by a gentle wind) ruffle, braid; alſo, to touch lightly, or paſſe ouer ſleightly, th' vpmoſt part of; to raze, or graze along on; to ſcratch a little.
Frizer la queuë. To leacher; or, to wriggle the tayle (in leachering.)
Frizer les carreaux. To ſtrike a ball vnder the line (at Tennis.)
Frizons: m. Frizled, or raiſed worke of gold or ſiluer wire, &c; alſo, ſtone pots printed.
Frizoté: m. ée: f. Frizled, curled, braided.
Frizoter. To frizle, curle, braid, ruffle.
Frizure: f. A frizling, &c; as in Friſeure; alſo, the raiſed worke which is vpon cloth of gold, or Tiſſue; bodkin worke.
Froc: m. as Frou.
Froc de moine. A Monkes Cowle; or Hood.
Ietter le froc aux orties. A Monke to abandon his Order, and profeſſion; (and hence) alſo, to Apoſtatiſe it.
Frocs. Common, or void grounds, waies, places; or as Fros.
Frodiere. A coole place; alſo, a deepe caue neere vnto Bezançon, in which there is great ſtore of yce all Summer.
Frodille. as Aphrodille.
Froid: m. Cold, cooth; coldneſſe, chilneſſe.
Avoir froid. To be a cold.
Avoir froid aux pieds. To be in ill tearmes, or ill at eaſe (in eſtate, or mind) to haue no liſt (or cauſe) to laugh, or to be merrie; alſo, to be iealous.
Batre à froid. (A metaphor from Smithes) to proceed ſlowly, or, goe but ſlackely to worke; to worke a thing out with extreame toyle; or to beſtow much toile & get but little forward; and hence, alſo, to labour in vaine; alſo, as Branſler la pique.
Dieu donne le froid ſelon le drap: Prov. God ſends his cooth according to their cloth; viz: ſuch afflictions as he knowes them able to beare.
Froi[illegible]de: f. Cold, a cold, breame, chill, coole, Winter-like;

ter-like; alſo, ſlacke, ſlow, remiſſe, backward in proceeding; alſo, feareful, faint, weake, impuiſſant, that cannot performe nuptiall rites.

Avoir les pieds froids. as Avoir froid aux pieds; Looke Froid.

Dieu t'en doint vne froide ioye. God ſend thee much ill lucke with, or but ſmall ioy of, it.

Froidelet : m. ette : f. Chillie, coldiſh.

Froidelettement. Chilly, coldiſhly.

Froidement. Coldly, chilly; ſlackly, remiſly; weakely, faintly.

Froidilleux. Chill; See Frilleux. (v. m.)

Froidure : f. Coldneſſe; Winter-weather.

Froidureux : m. euſe : f. Verie chill, verie cold.

Froilon : m. as Freſlon; A Hornet.

Froiſſé : m. ée : f. Craſhed, burſt, or broken, in peeces; alſo, cruſhed, quaſhed, bruiſed; alſo, daſhed, knocked, or clattered together.

Froiſſement : m. A craſhing, burſting, or breaking in peeces; alſo, a cruſhing, quaſhing, bruiſing; alſo, a daſhing, knocking, or clattering together.

Froisser. To craſh, burſt, or breake in peeces; alſo, to cruſh, quaſh, bruiſe; alſo, to daſh, knocke, or clatter together.

Froiſſer la iachere. as Iaſcherer : ¶Norm.

Froiſſis : m. as Froiſſement; or, A ruſhing, clattering, craſhing, iuſtling, buſtling, knocking of armed bodies one againſt another; alſo, fallow ground, plowed lands.

Le froiſſis des cauſes. The conflict, or contradictions of aduerſe allegations, or pleadings.

Froiſſure : f. as Froiſſement; or, A craſh, or breach.

Fromage. as Fourmage; Cheeſe.

Froment : m. Wheat; alſo (any kind of) bread-corne; See Froument.

Fromentée : f. Furmentie, or, ſodden wheat.

Fromentin : m. ine : f. Of, or belonging to, wheat.

Pilure fromentine. A white loafe; See Pilure.

Froncé : m. ée : f. Gathered, plaited, folded; wrinkled, crumpled, frumpled.

Froncer. as Fronſer.

Fronceure : f. as Fronſure.

Froncis : m. A plait, fold, gathering; a wrinkle, or crumple; or as Fronſure.

Le froncis du ſourcil. The knitting of th' eyebrowes.

Froncle : m. The hot, and hard bumpe, or ſwelling, tearmed, a Fellon, or vncome.

Fronde. A ſling, or engine wherewith ſtones are caſt; alſo, a (greene, or leauie) branch, or bough.

Fondé : m. ée : f. Caſt, burled, or flung from a ſling.

Frondelée : f. The caſt or ſhot of, (alſo) a rap or blow from, a ſling.

D'vne meſme frondelée. At once; at one iert, or aſſay, with one ſtone.

Frondelet : m. A baked-meat ſomewhat reſembling a Flawne.

Fronder. To caſt, burle, or throwe out of a ſling.

Frondillon. read Fondrillon; A bottome to-wind ſilke, thread, yarne, &c, on : ¶Rab.

Frondoyer. To branch; to yeeld, or bring forth leaues, or leaued branches.

Fronſé. as Froncé.

Fronſer. To gather; plait, fold, wrinkle, crumple, frumple.

Fronſer la bouche. To twinge the mouth in, or draw the mouth cloſe together.

Fronſer le front. To frowne, or knit the browes.

Fronſure : f. A gathering, wrinkling, frumpling; frowning.

Front : m. The forhead; the brow; the front, or forepart of a thing.

Baiſſer le front. To humble, or ſubmit himſelfe; to bow downe the head in ſigne of humilitie, or of ſubmiſſion.

Eſchauffer le front à. To nettle, warme, chafe, ſet in a heat, put in an anger.

Qui a le front rompu. as Effronté; or, An impudent fellow.

Frontal : m. A frontlet; or forhead-band; alſo, a medicine applied to the forhead to prouoke ſleepe, or eaſe paine.

Le frontal. The torture of tying a cord about the forhead, & wreſting it vntil the eyes be readie to ſtart out.

Frontal : m. ale : f. Of the forhead; belonging to the forhead.

Apparence frontal. An open face, cleere countenance, vnwrinkled forhead.

Os frontal. The forhead bone.

Veine frontale, ou du front. Looke Veine.

Fronteau : m. A fillet, frontlet; forhead-cloth; alſo, the the forepart of a cart, or tumbrell.

Fronteau d' vné porte. The haunſe of a doore.

Fronteau volant. The ſight, or viſer of an helmet.

Frontiere : f. The frontire, marches, or border of a countrey.

Frontiere d' vne bride. The frontſtall, or headſtall of a bridle.

Frontiger. To front, or accoaſt; alſo, to reſt, or dwell on the frontiers of.

Frontiſpice : m. The frontiſpice, or forefront, of a houſe, &c.

Frontoyant. Fronting, affronting, neere vnto a front.

Frontoyer. To front, affront, be neere vnto a front.

Froqueur : m. A mender of highwayes : ¶Pic.

Fros : m. Flouds, riuers, meares, ponds, ſprings; all kind of common waters; or, as Frocs : ¶Pic.

Frotis : m. A common place, or void ground in a towne; (an old word.)

Frotte : f. as Frete.

Frotté : m. ée : f. Rubbed, fretted, chafed; alſo, bathed; alſo, lambd, thwackt, baſted, beaten.

Frotte-botte. A baſe drudge; boot-rubber, maker of boots cleane.

Frottée : f. as Frottement.

Frottement : m. A chafing, rubbing, fretting; a lamming, thwacking, ſwinging.

Frotter. To rub; to chafe; to fret, or grate againſt; alſo, to bathe; alſo, to cudgell, thwack, baſt, or knock ſoundly.

Se frotter le cul au panicaut. To doe vaine, or idle things; to ſpend the time in trifles; or in lazie, and vnprofitable exerciſes.

Frotter leur lard enſemble. To coape, grapple, cloſe, or ſtuffle together; alſo, to leacher it.

Frotter à quelqu' vn ſon lard. To bethwacke one ſoundly.

Il ne s' y fait pas bon frotter. It is not good medling with it; the matter is ſomewhat too hot for our handling; (of which ſence is;)

Ne t' y frotte pas. (ſaid by way of aduiſe vnto one that meanes to quarell with a man of more ſtrength, and better meanes, then himſelfe) meddle not with him.

Se fier en vne fille? Allez vous y frotter. Truſt a maid? not I; you may if you will: Or (becauſe Frotter hath, in this phraſe, a double ſignification) thus; Rely on a maid? not I; you may lie on her if you will.

On frotte tant le fer qu' à la fin il s' eſchauffe: Pro. Cold humors may at length be vrged vnto choller.

Frottis: m. as Frottement.

Frottoir: m. A rubbing, or friction; alſo, a rubber, a rubbing cloth.

Frou. A publick, and common place, free for euerie man to reſort vnto, or make vſe of; hence, a waſt ground, highway, &c; ¶Pic.

Frouelle. An agnell, pinne, or warnell in the toe.

Frouër. To crumme, crumble, breake ſmall.

Froument: m. wheat; alſo, any kind of bread-corne.

Froument quoüé. A ſofi, hairie, earie, or ſpikie flower, ſhaped like a Foxes taile, and therefore called Foxtaile.

Quiers tu meilleur pain que de froument? Prov. (A taxation of ouer-much curioſitie, or daintineſſe) would you haue better bread then's made of wheat.

Frumenté. A kind of ſweete, and pleaſing white grape.

Froumentée: f. Furmentie; wheat boyled, pottage of of wheat; or, as Frumentée.

Froumenteux: m. euſe: f. Wheatie; full of, or abounding with, wheat.

Froyé: m. ée: f. Rubbed, grated vpon; fretted, raſed, much worne by much rubbing; or, as Frayé.

Froyement: m. A rubbing; or often hitting againſt; See Frayement.

Froyer: m. A rubber; alſo, a raſpe.

Froyer. To rub; fret, raſe, grate vpon; hit, or ſmite often one againſt another; See Frayer.

Fructifier. To fructifie; to increaſe, or abound with fruit; to beare-fruit.

Iamais grain ne fructifie ſi premier ne ſe mortifie: Prov. See Grain.

Fructueux: m. euſe: f. Fruitfull, copious, plentifull; commodious.

Fructuoſité: f. Fruitfulneſſe; plentie, ſtore, abundance of, fruit.

Fructure: f. The fructure, vſe, fruition, poſſeſſion, or enioyment of.

Frugal: m. ale: f. Frugall, thriftie, ſparing, prouident, ncere, temperate in expence.

Frugalement. Frugally, thriftily, ſparingly, ſauingly.

Frugalité: f. Frugalitie, thriftineſſe, good husbandrie, ſparing, ſauing, moderate or ſmall expence.

Fruict: m. Fruit (of the earth; trees; plants; females; our actions;) returne, or increaſe, of profit made, in time, out of the things one hath, or doth; or, as in;

Fruicts. All the reuenew, or commoditie raiſed out of a thing (whether it bee mouable, or immouable) or receiued by the occaſion, or meanes thereof.

Fruicts civils. Looke Civil.

Fruicts naturels. Are ſuch as come onely by the nature of a thing, or both by nature, and culture; as pears, apples, hay, corne, &c.

Faire les fruicts ſiens. To applie vnto his owne vſe, or t' enioy in his owne right, the profits of land forfeited vnto him.

Fruictier: m. A Fruiterer, fruit-ſeller, Coſtermunger; alſo, an Orchard, or ground wherein fruit growes.

Fruictier: m. ere: f. Fruit-bearing, yeelding fruit; alſo, full of, ſtored with, abounding in, fruit.

Fruictiere: f. A Fruit-wife; or woman that ſelleth fruits.

Fruïr. To enioy, hold, haue; take the profit, keepe the poſſeſſion, make a continuall vſe, of.

Fruitage: m. Fruitage, fruits.

Fruiterie: f. A Fruiterie; or place to keepe Fruit in.

Fruition: f. Fruition, enioying; vſe, or poſſeſſion of a thing.

Frumentau. The wild Mulberie; (a low ſhrub.)

Frumenteau. A kind of white vine.

Frumentée: f. Furmentie; or wheat ſteeped in water, then pilled, or skinned; then dried in the Sunne; then ground a verie little, as oatmeale, and reſerued for pottage, Panadoes, &c.

Frumentelle. A certaine peare good to be dried; and dried, continuing longer then any other.

Fruſtration. A fruſtration, defrauding, deceiuing, diſappointing, beguiling of an expectation.

Fruſtratoire: com. Fruſtratorie; fruſtrating, diſappointing, deceiuing; alſo, void, vaine, tale, fruſtrate, of no force, to no purpoſe.

Fruſtratoirement. Voidly, in vaine, with no effect, vnto no purpoſe.

Fruſtré: m. ée: f. Diſappointed, fruſtrated; put by; deceiued, beguiled.

Fruſtrer. To diſappoint, fruſtrate, put by, make looſe; deceiue, defraud, beguile the expectation, or hopes of.

Fryez: m. The view, or footing of a Deere.

Fuchiere. as Feuchiere.

Fueillade: f. A greene arbor, or bower; a ſhadie place vnder trees; alſo, the ſhadow of leaues, or of leauie trees.

Fueillage: m. Branched worke, in Painting, or in Tapiſtrie.

Le menſonge eſt mal à couvert ſous ce fueillage. A lie is but ill countenanced by ſuch pretexts; thoſe colours are not ſufficient to couer an vntruth.

Fueillame: m. A bunch of leaues.

Fueillants: m. An Order of begging Friers that weare habits of a browniſh colour.

Fueillar: m. A greene, or leauie braunch, or bough of a tree; alſo, a cloſe theefe, pilferer, night-robber.

Fueille: f. A leafe (of an hearbe, or tree) alſo; a ſheet, or leafe, of paper; alſo, a flaw in yron-worke; alſo, the foyle of pretious ſtones, or looking glaſſes; and hence; a grace, beautie, or gloſſe giuen vnto; a colour, pretence, or excuſe made for, a matter.

Fueille d' vn eſpée. The blade of a ſword.

Fueille d' Inde. An Aromaticall leafe, that (as ſome hold) ſwimmes on pooles, and ditches without any apparent root; yet Gerard ſayes, it is the leafe of a great tree, which growes in Arabia, and Cambaia, farre from any water, and calls it Tamalapatra, Tembul, and Malabathrum.

Fueille de poulmon. A Lobe of the lungs; whence;

Il ne ſçait de quelle fueille de poulmon reſpirer. He knowes not what to doe, whether to betake him, how to behaue himſelfe; he is euen readie to goe hang himſelfe.

Fueilles de ſcie. The teeth of a ſaw; in Blazon, a feſſe indented.

Vin de deux fueilles. wine thats two yeares old.

Bourſe liée avec fueilles de porreaux. Thats readie, or eaſie, to be opened.

Porter des fueilles au bois. To preſent gifts to the rich, or beſtow things on thoſe that haue alreadie as much as they can vſe.

Les

Les mauldiſſons ſont fueilles qui les ſeme les recueille : Prov. Thoſe that curſe often ſhall accurſed be.

Qui a peur des fueilles ne doit aller au bois : Pro. (like our) let him that feares the wagging of feathers keeepe from among wildfowle.

Qui ſe garre deſſous la fueille deux fois ſe mouille: Prov. Hee's doubly wet that ſhrowds him vnder trees.

Telle racine telle fueille : Prov. We ſay; ſuch as the tree ſuch is the fruit.

Fueillée : f. as Fueillade ; An arbor, or bower, framed of leauie plants, or branches ; a greene arbor.

Fueiller. To leafe, or leaue; to beare, or bring forth leaues; to wax greene with leaues.

Fueillet : m. A leafe (of a booke.)

Fueilleté : m. ée : f. Leaued; alſo, looked, or turned ouer, as the leaues of a booke; ſeriouſly peruſed, throughly examined, ſtudied hard, read much vpon.

Gaſteau fueilleté. A cake of puffe-paſt.

Fueilleter. To turne, or looke ouer, the leaues of a booke; to peruſe, examine, ſtudie hard, read much on, bookes.

Fueillette : f. A wine veſſell, or meaſure containing about eleuen and a halfe of our gallons.

Fueillette d' Avignon. Is ſomewhat bigger then the demie Seſtier of Paris.

Fueilletter. as Fueilleter.

Fueilleux : m. euſe : f. Leauie, full of leaues.

Fueillir. as Fueiller.

Fueillu : m. A kind of round, red, and verie ſweet apple.

Fueillu marin. Sea-weed, Sea-moſſe, Lungwort, Oiſter-greene ; a broad-leaued hearbe.

Fueillu : m. uë : f. Leauie, full of leaues.

Vent fueillu. A Weſterlie wind.

Fueillure : f. Leauineſſe; alſo, leaues ; alſo, leafe-worke, or a leauie flouriſhing.

Fugitif : m. iue : f. Fugitiue; gadding, flitting, run-away, runagate, quickly gone, of no continuance, of no ſure abiding, of no certaine ſtay; inconſtant, giddie, fickle; (alſo) full of euaſions.

Fugue : f. A chace, or report of Muſicke, like two, or more parts in one.

Fuir. To flie, eſcape, runne faſt, ſcoure, ſcud, or ſlip away; to ſhew a faire paire of heeles; alſo, to ſhunne, auoid, eſchew, refuſe to deale with; alſo, to flinch, dally, delay, excuſe, put off, ſhift off, vſe euaſions.

Remede contre la peſte par art, fuir toſt, & loing, retourner tard : Prov. According to the Latine, Citò, longè, tardè.

Fuirolles. Fire-drakes; or, as Furoles.

Fuite : f. A flight, eſcape, ſlip, running away; a ſhunning, anoyding ; euaſion, ſhift, excuſe, delay.

Sans eſtre pourſuyvi le meſchant prend la fuite: Prov. Selfe-guilt (if nothing elſe) makes ſinners flie.

Fuitif. as Fugitif.

Fulci : m. ie : f. Supported, vnderſet, vpheld, vnderpropped, ſuſtained ; fortified.

Fulcir. To vnderſet, vnderprop, ſupport, ſuſtaine, vphold, ſtay, fortifie.

Fuligine : f. Soot, ſootineſſe ; ſmoakineſſe.

Fuligineux : m. euſe : f. Sootie, blacke ; ſmoakie.

Fulmination : f. A thunder-striking.

Fulminatoire : com. Fulminatorie; thundering, lightening; deſtroying, terrible.

Fulminer. To thunder, lighten, ſtrike with thunder, blaſt with lightening; to ſtorme, rage, take on like a Diuell.

Fumage : m. A dunging, manuring, fatning with dung.

Fumat : m. Ray, or Scate-fiſh : ¶Langued.

Fumé : m. ée : f. Dunged, manured, fattened with dung; alſo, fumed, ſmoaked ; euaporated ; beſmoaked ; hung, or dried in the ſmoake.

Fumeau : m. A brand, or ſmoaking ſticke.

Fumée : f. Smoake ; a fume, reeke, ſteame ; a vapor, an exhalation.

Fumée des Peintres. Painters ſoot, or bleach ; got in glaſſe-houſes, and vſed alſo by Chirurgians.

Fumeés : f. The dung, or excrements of Deere, called by woodmen, fewmets, or fewmiſhing.

Fumées en plateaux. Flat grattiching, or fewmiſhing.

Fumelle. See Femelle.

Fumement : m. A dunging, or manuring of th'earth ; alſo, a ſmoaking, fuming, recking; a bloating, beſmoaking, or hanging in the ſmoake.

Fumer. To ſmoake, reeke ; fume ; euaporate ; bloat, beſmoake, hang, or drie in the ſmoake ; alſo, to dung, manure, fatten with dung.

Fumeron. A little dung-hill, a ſmall heape of dung.

Fume-terre : f. The hearbe Fumitorie.

Fumeuſement. Smoakily, fumingly, reekingly.

Fumeux : m. euſe : f. Smoakie, fumie, reeking; alſo, hot, fumiſh, cholericke.

Fumier : m. A mexen, dung-hill, heape of dung.

Relevé du fumier. Raiſed from a dung-hill ; of a late Clowne become a lame Gentleman.

Chien ſur ſon fumier eſt hardi : Prov. We ſay the ſame of a Cocke.

Pluye de Fevrier vaut eſgout de fumier : Prov. We ſay, Aprill ſhowers bring in May flowers.

Fumier. Of dung; as Eſtable fumiere; a ſtable full of dung.

Fumieres : f. as Fumées.

Fumigation : f. Fumigation ; a ſmoaking, or perfuming with ſmoake.

Funain. mettre vn navire en funain. To moore a ſhip, or tie her vnder a lee ſhore.

Funambule : m. A Tumbler that walketh, & doth tricks, vpon a rope.

Function : f. A function; a charge, or office exerciſed, or executed.

Fundigue. A ware-houſe, or ſtore-houſe.

Fundique. as Fundigue.

Funebre : com. Funerall ; mourning, deadlie, or dolefull ; done at, or belonging vnto, funeralls.

Honneurs funebres. Looke Honneur.

Funebrement. Mourningly, dolefully ; in manner, or after the faſhion, of a funerall.

Funerailles : f. Funeralls, burialls.

Funeſte : com. Mournfull ; deadlie, mortall ; vnluckie ; lamentable ; abbominable, deteſtable.

Funge : m. A muſhrome, or toad-ſtoole.

Fungoſité : f. Spungineſſe; hollownes, thinneſſe, lightneſſe.

Fungueux : m. euſe : f. Hollow, ſpungie ; thinne, light; muſhrome-like ; full of muſhromes.

Fur. au fur de. Proportionably, according to, after the rate of.

Furain. Looke Funain.

Furas. in ſtead of Fatras : ¶Rab.

Furculaire. Os furculaires. The points of the forepart of the ſhoulders meeting a little below the necke.

Furemplage. au furemplage de. Proportionably, according to, after the rate of.

Furet : m. A ferret.

Fureté : m. ée : f. Ferreted ; ſearched, hunted, boulted out ; narrowly pried, neerely ſpied into.

Furetet. To ferret; ſearch, hunt, boult out; prie, looke, ſpie narrowly into euerie corner of.

Fureteur: m. A ferreter, ſearcher; prier, ſpier.

Fureur: f. Furie, rage, madneſſe; fierceneſſe, outragiouſneſſe; extreame wrath, anger, impatiencie.

Furfuré: m.ée: f. Brannie, ſcalie like branne.

Furfures. Dandriffe; the ſcurfe, or ſcales, which fall from the head in combing.

Furgon. See Fourgon.

Furial: m. ale: f. Raging, furious, furie-like; horrible, outragious.

Furibond: m. de: f. Wood, madde, raging, furious.

Furie: f. Furie, madneſſe, frenzie, woodneſſe.

Furies. The Furies of hell.

Furieuſement. Furiouſly, madly, ragingly, woodly, wrathfully, bedlam-like.

Furieux: m.euſe: f. Furious, raging, moſt impatient, franticke, madde, wood, brainſicke, outragious.

Furiole. See Furole.

Furlucqué: m. ée: f. Searched, ferreted, hunted out.

Furole: f. A little blaze of fire appearing by night on the tops of ſouldiers launces, or at ſea on the ſayle-yards, where it whirles, and leapes in a moment from one place to another; ſome Mariners call it S. Hermes fire; if it come double tis held a ſigne of good luck, if ſingle, otherwiſe.

Furt: m. A robbing, theft, ſtealth, filching, purloining, pilfering.

Furtif: m.iue: f. Filching, theeuiſh, felonious; alſo, nimbd, pilfered, imbezelled, ſtollen, conueyed away.

Furtivement. Theeuiſhly, felonioufly, filchingly, by ſtealth; priuily, cloſely, vnderhand; at vnawares.

Furuncule: m. A felon, or whitlaw.

Fuſain. Spindle-tree, Prick-wood, Pricke-timber.

Fuſé: m. ée: f. Diſſolued, melted; ſpred, ſcattered.

Chaux fuſée. Slaked, or ſleckt lime.

Fuſeau: m. A ſpindle; or ſpoole; alſo, as Fuſée; alſo, a ſticke to ſet Acornes with; alſo, (in caſes of ſucceſſion) the feminine line.

Fuseau des champs. Wild baſtard Saffron.

Demeſler vn fuſeau. To handle, manage, deale in; or, to debate; vnpeſter, diſpatch, rid away, a buſineſſe.

Ie ſçay bien avec lequel i'ay à demeſler ce fuseau. I know well ynough whom I haue to doe with in this buſineſſe.

Le fuſeau doit ſuyvre le gorreau: Prov. While the husband labours abroad the wife muſt not idle it at home; or, a wife is to follow her husband in what courſe of his fortune ſoeuer.

Fusée: f. A ſpoole-full, or ſpindle-full, of thread, yarne, &c; alſo, a ſquib; alſo, as Fuzée.

Fusée avec ſes peſons; as Aſtragale; becauſe commonly the worke on it reſembles many ſpooles and werbles threaded, or ioyned together.

Cela meſlera nos fuſées. That will iumble, confound, or make alike, our imployments, cauſes, occaſions.

Recherchons le bout de noſtre fuſée. Let vs returne vnto our matter.

Il en ſçait toute la fuſée. He is acquainted with the whole matter, he knowes it all from the one end to the other.

Commencement n'eſt pas fuſée: Prov. He hath not done, that hath begunne, a buſineſſe.

Sur petit commencement on fait grande fuſée: Pro. Great miſchiefes often haue but ſmall beginnings.

Pour devider la fuſée il faut trouver le bout du fil: Prov. Looke Devider.

Fuſelé: m.ée: f. Spunne vpon a ſpindle, or ſpoole; alſo, made like a ſpindle, or ſpoole.

Fuſelier: m. A ſpindle-maker, a maker of ſpooles.

Fuſible: com. Fuſible; meltable, which may be melted.

Fuſier. as Fuſain; Spindle-tree.

Fuſil: m. A fire-ſteele for a tinder-box; alſo, the ſteele wherewith a Butcher whets his kniues.

Pierre à fuſil. A flint-ſtone.

Fuſiller. as Fureter. To ſearch, or ferret euerie corner of.

Fuſque: com. Duskie, browne, darke, ſwart, tawnie, of a Moores hew.

Fuſt: m. Any ſtaffe, ſtake, ſtocke, ſtumpe, trunke, or log (thats headleſſe; or, vnderſtood without it head;) hence; the ſtaffe of a ſpeare; the ſteale of a dart, or iauelin; alſo, the ſtocke, or carriage of a peece of Ordnance; alſo, the great beame of a wine-preſſe; alſo, fuſtines.

Fuſt de ſelle. The tree of a ſaddle.

Aulner fuſt à fuſt. To giue hard, ſtrait, or ſcant meaſure, where ell is laid cloſe vnto ell.

Livrement de fuſt, & terre. A forme of Liuerie and ſeiſin vſed in ſome parts of France.

Mettre le doigt entre le fuſt, & l'eſcorce. Buſily to meddle with, or take notice of, the differences which are betweene priuate, or neere friends.

Fuſtaille: f. Caske; veſſells for wine.

Fuſtaillier: m. A Cooper, or Caske-maker.

Fuſtaine: f. Fuſtian.

Fuſtaine frangée. Tufted fuſtian in fringelike rewes; therein differing from Fuſtaine houpée; which is iuſted all ouer.

Fuſtaine à grain d'orge. Buſtian.

Fuſtaine houpée, ou mouſchetée. Tufted fuſtian; a courſe fuſtian-like ſtuffe thats tufted all ouer.

Fuſtainier: m.ere: f. Of fuſtian, belonging vnto fuſtian.

Fuſtaye. A wood, or forreſt of high trees; and hence;

Bois de haute fuſtaye. Great trees, high trees; properly ſuch, as haue not been cut, nor lopt of (at the leaſt) 30 yeares, or as ſome affirme of 100 yeares; for no leſſe time ſerues to make of a Copſe, vn Bois de haute, ou bonne fuſtaye.

Vne choſe de haute fuſtaye. A gallant, ſtatelie, loftie, worthie, notable, thing.

Fuſte: f. A foiſt; a light gallie that hath about 16, or 18 oares on a ſide, & two rowers to an oare; alſo, caske; any veſſell, or peece, for wine; as a Pipe, Hogshead, &c.

Fuſte de ſelle. The tree of a ſaddle.

Fuſté: m. ée: f. Fuſtie; taſting of the caske, ſmelling of the veſſell, wherein it hath beene kept; alſo, ſtocked, branchleſſe, without boughes, as a tree; alſo, rifled, ranſacked, vnfurniſhed by violence of all it had, or held.

Fuſtée: f. Bois de fuſtée. Branchleſſe wood; naked, or powled trees.

Fuſter. To ſtocke a tree; to cut off, or bare it of, it branches; alſo, to rauage, ranſacke, rifle, carrie away by violence all thats in a place.

Fuſterne: f. Th'vpper part of a Firre tree, full of ioynts, or knots.

Fuſtier. Any Artificer that works in wood; as a Carpenter, Joyner, &c.

Fuſtigation: f. A whipping, ſcourging, breeching; alſo, a lamming, thwacking, baſting with a cudgell.

Fuſtiger. as Fuſtiguer.

Fuſtigué: m.ée: f. Whipped, laſhed, ſcourged, breeched; alſo, cudgelled, lammed, curried, baſted, bethwacked.

Fuſtiguer. To whip; ſcourge, laſh, breech; alſo, to cudgell, belabour, currie, lamme.

Fu-

Futile: com. Light, vaine, vnprofitable, foolish.
Futur: m. ure: f. Future, succeeding, hereafter, to come.
Examen à futur; Looke Examen.
Fuy: m. ye: f. Fled, escaped, gone, euaded, slipt aside, runne away.
Tous les prisonniers s' en sont fuys de sa bourse. All the prisoners are got out of his purse; viz. he is purse penniless, or he hath not a pennie left him.
Fuyant. Flying, escaping, euading, got away; shunning, auoiding, eschewing; excusing, delaying; loathing, loth to deale with; also, momentarie, of small continuance, quickly past, soone gone.
Fuyard: m. A kind of Stock-doue.
Fuyard: m. A coward, a flyer, a runne-away; also, a shunner of companie; also, a halter, flincher, delayer, shifter, one that draweth backe when a matter comes to an vpshot, or to the pinch, and point of tryall.
Fuyard: m. de: f. Momentarie, soone gone, flitting, running, passing away; also, cowardly flying, running away for feare; whence;
Fuyard en lievre. Scudding away like a Hare (with dogs at her heeles;) or gone vpon the first, or least, apprehension of danger.
Fuye: f. A Pigeon-house; also, a flight of Pigeons.
Fuyeur: m. A flyer, coward, runneaway; runner; flincher.
Fuzain: m. Spindle tree, Prick-wood, Pricke-timber.
Fuzé: m. ée: f. as Fusé.
Fuzée: f. as Fusée; also, the barrell, or the axletree of a Crane.
Fuzelier: m. A Spindle-maker.
Fuzil. as Fusil.
Fy. as Foy; Faith; (Pic. Par ma fy. By my fecke.
Fy. (Interject.) Fy, away, fy away, fy fy, out vpon it.
Maistre fy fy. A Dung-farmer, Gould-finder, feyer of Priuies.
Fy d' avoir qui n' a ioye, & d' amours sans monnoye: Pro. Fy vpon meanes without mirth, and a mistresse without money.
Fy de ieunesse, & de beauté desgarnie d'humilité: Prov. Fy vpon youth, and beautie deuoid of humilitie.
Fy de manteau quand il fait beau: Pro. Fy vpon a cloake in faire weather.
Fy de plaisirs, d'estats, & d'or, qui de vertu n' a le thresor: Prov. Out vpon honor, wealth, and pleasure, which of vertue want the treasure.
Fy de science, & d' art, qui en raison n' a part: Prov. Fy on Knowledge, and on Art, which in reason haue no part.

G

GAban: m. A cloake of Felt, for raynie weather; a Gabardine.
Gabaonite: m. A maker of such Cloakes, or Gabardines.
Gabarre: f. A Lighter; the boat whereby ships are loaden, and vnloaden.
Gabarrier: m. A Lighter-man.
Gabellage: m. A customing; an imposing, or paying of custome.
Gabelle: f. (Any kind of) impost, impesition, or custome; especially that which is payed vnto the King vpon sale of salt; and hence;
Gabelle de sel. The Impost of salt; first begun by Philip the Long, who took for it a Double (ij d Tour:) vpon the pound; after whō Philip de Valois doubled that; and Charles the seuenth raised it vnto vj d, which was doubled by Lewis the eleuenth; since whose time it hath been altered, from so much vpon the pound, vnto a rate vpon euerie Muid; as vncertaine as the former (being sometimes 30 pound, sometimes 44 pound, and sometimes 45 pound) and rising, or falling, at the will and pleasure of the Prince.
Gabelle de Tonnieu. A certaine Impost taken by the Duke of Buillon vpon euerie Tunne, and Hogshead of Wine transported, or sold by Great.
Gabellé: m. ée: f. Customed for; on which an Impost is layed.
Gabeller. To pay custome for; also, to impose a custome, lay an Impost, on.
Gabellier: m. A leuier, or gatherer of, Impost.
Gabeloux: m. A scoffing knaue, gibing marchant; cogging companion.
Gaber. To mocke, flout, ride; cog with; to gull, cheat, cosen, fetch ouer.
Gaberies: f. Mockes, flouts; tales, fibs, foists, gleekes, gudgeons, gulleries.
Gabes. as Gaberies.
Gabet: m. A white leaper; so called about Bourdeaux.
Gabeur: m. A mocker, flouter; cogger, foister; cheater, cousener; seller of bargaines.
Gabgregeux: m. Rogues, varlets, rascals, scowndrels, base fellowes.
Gabian. as Gavian.
Gabie: f. The vpper part of a Mast whereto the shrouds are fastened; the head of the Mast.
Gabinet: m. A Cabinet.
Gabion: m. A gabion; a defence for Canoniers, made of great baskets filled with earth.
Gabionnade: f. A ranke, or defence, of gabions.
Gabionné: m. ée: f. Gabioned; fenced, or fortified with gabions.
Gabionner. To defend, or fortifie with gabions; to make a defence of gabions.
Gabors: m. The Ribbes, or Knees of a Ship.
Gabot: m. A white leaper; as Caquot; also a red fish, or Gurnard; also, as Gavot.
Gaboux: m. ouse: f. Full of flouts, mocks, ieasts, derision, scoffes.
Gache. as Gasche.
Gacher. as Gascher; also, to feed, or surfet on.
Gachis: m. A dashing, or flashing of water; also, the stroake of an Oare, or noise which it makes in rowing.
Gades: f. Red Gooseberries, beyond-sea Gooseberries, bastard Currans, common Ribes.
Gadille. as Gadrille.
Gadiller. To padle; iog, or stirre vp and downe.
Gadouard: m. A Gould-finder, Lakes-farmer, feyer of Priuies; also, a Scauinger.
Gadouë: f. Durt, filth; dung, or dure.
La charrette de la gadouë. A common Dung-cart; or Scauingers Carre.
Gadriers. as Gades. Red Gooseberries.
Gadrille: f. The little bird called a Robin-red-breast.
Gadriller. (A wench) to raump, or play the rig.
Gadrouillette: f. A minx, gigle, flirt, callet, Gixie; (a fained word, applyable to any such cattell.)
Gaffe: f. An Iron hooke wherewith sea-men pull great fishes into their ship.

Ga-

Gagate: f. The blacke ſtone called, Iet.

Gage: m. A gage, pawne, pledge; alſo, a wager; and, a ſtake at play; alſo, a guerdon, reward, or ſalarie; alſo, a diſtreſſe, or moueable taken for a diſtreſſe.

Gages. Plural. Wages, hire, ſtipend, intertainement; alſo, goods taken by a Sergeant vpon an Execution.

Gage de bataille, ou de combat. A gage, or pledge (and moſt commonly, a gloue, or gantelet) throwne down by one that offers, or vndertakes, to fight with another.

Amende de gage. Looke Amende.

Clameur de gage pleige. C'eſt vne Action proprietaire, & poſſeſſoire enſemble; quand aucun ſe doute qu'autre face entrepriſe ſur ſaiſine poſſeſſoire, ou droicture à luy appartenant.

Gagé: m.ée: f. Gaged, pledged, pawned; alſo, taken to pledge, or in pawne; alſo, betted, or layed, as a wager; alſo, waged, as battell; alſo, diſtrained, or taken, as a diſtreſſe.

Gagement: m. A gaging, pawning, impledging; alſo, a betting, or laying; alſo, a waging of battell; alſo, a diſtraining, or taking as a diſtreſſe; alſo, the obligation, aſſurance, or pawne of an obliged debtors goods.

Gage-mort: m. as Mortgage; alſo, the pawne, or fee giuen for the deliuerie of beaſts found Damage-feſant.

Gager: m. as Gaiger.

Gager. To gage, or ingage, to pledge, or lay to pawne; alſo, to take in pawne; alſo, to bet, or lay a wager; alſo, to wage battell; alſo, to diſtraine, take a diſtreſſe, or take as a diſtreſſe.

Gager l'amende. To diſcharge, or pay the amercement.

Gager perſonnes en ſon domaine. To arreſt their bodies, or ſeize vpon, as a pawne, ſomewhat about them.

Gager le rachapt. To pay, or offer to pay it downe.

Gagerie: f. A diſtraining; a diſtreſſe; or, as Gagement.

Gagerie de rachapt. as in Gager.

Simple gagerie. A diſtraining, without carrying away the diſtreſſe.

Gages. A kind of artificiall ſtone (made of Bitumen) the ſmoake whereof driues away Serpents; (Looke vnder Gage.)

Gageure: f. A wager; alſo, a reall and actuall offer.

Gagier: m. An hireling, or ſtipendarie; one that hath, or taketh, wages.

Gagnole: f. A little, long, ſmall-eyed, and leſſe-mouthed fiſh, couered, in ſtead of ſcales, with a hard, and cruſtie skin; Some hold it to be a kind of Hornebeake.

Gagrille: f. The Robin-red-breaſt.

Gahets. A generation of poore, irreligious, and verie laborious leapers, in Gaſcoigne.

Gai. as Gay; Merrie, iocond, buxome, blithe.

Gaian: m. A fiſh (and by Geſners deſcription, the ninth kind of the fiſh Turdus) not much vnlike a Pearch, and of colour in ſome parts yellow, in others, greene; onely it hath a white line running along from the gylls to the tayle; Some alſo call ſo, the fiſh Auriol.

Gaiderope. The vnſauorie, or ill-taſting oyſter, tearmed in Latin, Spondylus.

Gaige-plege. A kind of Iuriſdiction, or Court, in Normandie, wherein the parties muſt bind themſelues by pawnes, or ſureties, to continue, or make good, their ſuites.

Gaiger: m. A Church-warden, or ouerſeer of a particular Churches buſineſſes.

Gaignable: com. Gettable, winnable, gaineable; to be got; auaileable, commodious, profitable.

Terres gaignables. Rich, or fruitfull ground; arable grounds that yeeld much, or are of great, increaſe.

Gaignage: m. The crop, or fruits of tilled, or planted grounds; the gaine, reuenue, profit, or increaſe thereof; alſo, a Ground, Coaſt, or Countrey, wherein there growes plentie of corne, and hearbes; a fruitfull Plot, or Place; alſo, a Farme (ſo tearmed by the inhabitants of Champaigne;) alſo, a kind of graine.

Gaignages. (Hunters tearme ſo) all kind of corne-grounds, and gardens, wherein there grow no trees.)

Bon gaignage fait bon potage: Prov. Fruitfull crops yeeld fattening ſops; or, good hearbes good pottage yeeld.

Gaignaux. Prez gaignaux. Fertile medowes, which yeeld a double crop, or may be twice mowed.

Gaigne: f. Gaine, profit, increaſe, commings in; or, as Gaignage in the firſt ſence.

Gaigne couſtumiere. The part, or portion of goods whereunto, by cuſtome, the ſuruiuor of a married couple ſucceeds.

Gaigné: m.ée: f. Gained, woon, procured, gotten.

Ie te le donne gaigné. I graunt it, I yeeld it thee; I confeſſe thy action; I giue thee the bucklers.

Il a bien gaigné la mort. He hath well deſerued to dye.

Sans l'avoir gaigné. Without cauſe, without deſert.

Gaigneau. Pré gaigneau. as Gaignau. ¶ Poictevin.

Gaigne-denier. A Porter; or, a day-Labourer; who, in old time, tooke for his dayes worke but a Denier; (but then it was of ſiluer, and worth vj d ſterl.)

Gaigne-iournée. A Labourer by the day.

Gaigne-pain. as Gaigne-denier; (and hence, Vn bon gaigne-pain. A painefull Labourer; a thriftie, and prouident workeman;) alſo, the trade, art, exerciſe, occupation, or meanes, whereby one gets his liuing; and thence will the French ſouldior tearme, oft times his Sword, and ſometimes his Harguebuſe, Son Gaigne-pain.

Gaigner. To gaine, get, win; procure, purchaſe, obtaine; to profit, or thriue by; to atchieue, attaine; reach, or come vnto; alſo, to ouercome, conquer, win; alſo, to merit, or deſerue.

Gaigner ſon avoine. Looke Avoine.

Gaigner les champs. To runne away.

Gaigner chemin. To make haſt, rid way apace.

Gaigner le devant par derriere. To outſtrip, ouerrun, or get before, one by a contrarie courſe; or, to preuent the deſignes of another by policies contrarie to his.

Gaigner les gigoteaux; To betake him to his heeles; to fly as faſt as his legs will carry him.

Gaigner le hault. To runne his country; to fly as if fire were at his tayle.

Gaigner le hault bout. To win the ſpurres, to carry away the beſt prize; alſo, to take the higheſt place at a table.

Gaigner païs. To ſteale on, to rid way.

Gaigner peine &c. pour gaigner peine & papier ie le fais brief. To ſaue labor, and ſpare paper I write the leſſe.

Gaigner au pied. To run away.

Gaigner le temps. To diſpatch; to rid away time apace.

Gaigner leur vie à reculons. To liue by going backward; viz. by rope-making. ¶ Rab.

Gaigner le tour du roule. See Roule.

Aſſez

Aſſez gaigne qui malheur perd : Prov. He gets ynough that miſſes an ill turne.
Iamais ne gaigne qui plaide à ſon ſeigneur; (ou qui procede à ſon Maiſtre:) Pro. No man euer throue by ſuing his Lord or Maiſter; (for either God bleſſes not ſo vndutifull a ſtriſe, or ſucceſſe followes not in ſo vnequall a match.)
Marchand qui ne gaigne perd : Pro. The marchant looſes when he gaines not; and yet;
Il n'eſt pas marchand qui touſiours gaigne : Prov. He trades not cunningly that alwaies gayneth.
Qui bien gaigne,& bien deſpẽd ne luy faut bourſe à mettre argent : Pro. Looke Deſpendre.
Qui bien gaigne,& bien eſpargne devient tantoſt riche : Prov. He that gets well, and ſpares wiſely, ſoone growes rich.
Tel change qui ne gaigne pas : Prov. Some change for the worſe.
Gaignerie : f. A tilled ground; alſo, tillage, or tilling; alſo, the profit thats made of tillage, or of the beaſts that be vſed therein.
Gaigneur : m. A gainer; getter, winner, obtainer; one that thriues by, or makes a profit of, his trafficke, labor, induſtrie.
Mon gaigneur. My Hind, Husbandman, Ploughman; one that labours, and by his labour gets, for me; one that labours to make me liue, or gaine.
Hardi gaigneur hardi mangeur : Pro. A ſore toyler, a ſound trencherman; they that worke hard eat hard.
Mieux vaut bon gardeur que bon gaigneur : Pro. See Gardeur.
Gaillard : m. The round houſe, or hinder caſtle, of a ſhip.
Gaillard : m. arde : f. Luſtie, liuelie; frolicke, buxome, cheerefull, blithe, iocond, pleaſant, gameſome; braue, gallant; valiant; well diſpoſed, in good tune; alſo, raſh, or ſomewhat vndiſcreet, by too much iollitie.
Galop gaillard. See Galop.
Il a le cerveau vn peu gaillard. He is a little humorous, lyuiſh, fantaſticall, new-fangled, light-headed.
Ouurier gaillard cele ſon art : Prov. The induſtrious workman proſtitutes not his Art.
Gaillardement. Liuely, luſtily; cheerefully, pleaſantly; gallantly, like a gallant.
Gaillardet : m. See Guaillardet.
Gaillardeté : f. Luſtineſſe, liuelineſſe; cheerefulneſſe, pleaſantneſſe, iocondneſſe, glee; gallantrie, brauerie; alſo, raſhneſſe, follie, indiſcretion; or an act raſhly, fooliſhly, or vndiſcreetly done, by the headineſſe, iollitie, or too much forwardneſſe, of youth.
Gaillardiſe : f. as Gaillardeté; (and the better, and more vſuall word.)
Gaille. Perdrix gaille. The French Partridge; a kind of great browne Partridge, that hath a red beake, and red legs.
Gaimaux. Prez gaimaux. as Gaignaux. ¶Lodunois.
Gain : m. Gaine, profit, lucre, aduantage, gettings, increaſe, commoditie, commings in.
Gain de cauſe. A victorie, or ſpeeding in a ſuit.
Le petit gain emplit la bourſe : Prov. Many a little makes a mickle; or, light gaines make heauie purſes.
Gaine : f. A ſheath, or ſcabberd.
Dans vne gaine d'or vn couſteau de plomb : Prov. A leaden ſword in a golden ſheath; a godleſſe heart in a goodlie bodie.
Selon la gaine le couſteau : Pro. Like ſheath like knife.

Gaineaux. Prez gaineaux. as Gaignaux.
Gainette : f. A little ſheath, or ſcabberd.
Gaing : m. as Gain.
Gaings. The fruits growing on, or comming of, tilled grounds; or the profit comming in by ſowing of grounds.
Gains. as Gaings; and comprehends all kinds of graine, pulſe, and ſuch like fruits (tenants encore par les racines. ¶Nicot.)
Gaiole, for Gayole; See Gayole.
Gaiole. as Gayole : f. A Cage. ¶Pic.
Gaioler. To pratle, tatle, chatter, like a bird in a Cage.
Gaion. A Jay.
Gajure : f. A wager.
Gajure de rachapt; See Gagerie.
Gaiz (for Guez.) Foords, or ſhallow places.
Gal : m. A Cocke; alſo, a Derce, or Gold-fiſh. ¶Langued.
Gals eſcouillez. Capons; Eunuches. ¶Rab.
Galactite. Pierre galactite. See Pierre.
Galaffre : m. A rauenous feeder, greedie deuourer, glutton, gulch, cormorant.
Galaffrerie : f. Gourmandizing; rauenous, or greedie feeding.
Galange. as Galangue.
Galangue : f. Sweet Ciperus, Engliſh Galingale; or the Aromaticall root thereof.
Galaxie : f. The Milkie way in the Firmament.
Galbanon. Galbanum; a gumme, or liquor iſſuing out of the Syrian Ferula, or Fennell giant.
Galbe. A Wenne; alſo, garbe, comelineſſe, gracefullneſſe; alſo, the bellie, or forepart, of a doublet.
Galbé : m. ée : f. Bien galbé. Comelie, graceſull, well-behaued, hauing a good garbe.
Galbuge. See Garbouil, or Grabuge.
Gale. A Gall-nut, or Oake-apple; ſeruing both for dying, and making of inke.
Galeace : f. A Galeaſſe.
Gale-bon-temps. A merrie grig, a good fellow, good drunkard, pot-companion.
Galée : f. The top, or ſcuttle, of a galley.
Gale-feſſon. A ſcratcht-bum, or ſcabd-arſe.
Galefreté : m. ée : f. Rigged, or trimmed vp, as a ſhip.
Galefreter. as Calfeutrer; To trimme, to rig vp a ſhip.
Galefretier : m. A rigger, trimmer, mender of ſhips; alſo, as Galefrotier.
Galefrotier : m. An idle vagabond; a poore ſcabbie knaue.
Galemar : m. A Pennar.
Galemment. Gallantly, brauely, goodlily, nobly, worthily.
Galeote. A kind of Lizard, thats an enemie vnto all ſerpents. ¶Rab.
Galerand : m. The Fowle tearmed a Bittor. ¶Brett.
Galere. A Galley; See Gallere.
Galerie. as Gallerie; a Gallerie.
Galerien : m. A Galley-ſlaue; a Souldior, or Marriner in a Galley.
Galerien : m. enne : f. Of, or belonging to, a Galley; haunting, or frequenting the Gallyes.
Galerite : f. The (Medow) Larke.
Galerne : f. A North-weſt wind.
Galerneux : m. euſe : f. North-weſterlie.
Galetage : m. Garrets; Galleries; alſo, Garret-worke.
Galetas : m. A Garret.
Galette : f. A broad thin cake; alſo, a little itch, or ſcab.

Ga-

Galier: m. A lade, or dull horse.
Galiffre: m. A greedie feeder, a rauenous eater.
Galiffré: m. ée: f. Greedily fed on, rauenously eaten.
Galiffrer. To deuoure, eat greedily, feed rauenously.
Galimachuë. as Massiuë; a club. ¶Pic.
Galimassiuë: f. A club.
Galimatias. Iargon de Gal. Gibbrish, Fustian language, Pedlers French.
Galingal. The Aromaticall root of the rush called Cypresse, and English Galingale.
Galin-Galois, ou Galin-galon. A merrie scabd whoreson.
Galion: m. A Gallion, or great ship of warre; See Gallion.
Galiot: m. A Pirate, a Rouer; one that robs, or scoures the seas with a Galliot; also, a Rower in a Galley, or Galliot, whether he be a slaue, or doe it voluntarily; also, the hearbe Auens, Bennet, or Blessed.
Galiote: f. A Galliot; a small Galley, or Galley-like vessell, hauing twentie-Oares on a side, and two or three Rowers to an Oare; much vsed by Turkish, and Moorish, Rouers.
Gallangue: f. as Galangue; also, the sea-Toad.
Gallant homme. A gallant, goodlie; noble, worthie, vertuous; also, a subtill, wise, craftie, cunning, wylie, fellow.
Gallanterie: f. Gallantnesse, worthinesse, brauerie, stoutnesse, frankenesse of humour; also, a knauish pranke.
Gallantise: f. Gallantnesse, nobleness, brauerie; also, a gallant, and merrie pranke; a pleasant, and noble, or open-hearted humor.
Galle. Noix galle. The fruit called a Gall; also, an Oake-apple.
Galle: f. A galling, fretting, itching of the skin; a dry scab, or scurfe.
Galle S. Main. The wild scab.
L'Amour, la touse, & la galle ne se peuvent celer: Prov. Loue, scabs, and coughing will not bee concealed.
Gallé: m. ée: f. Rubbed, scrubbed, scraped, scratched; also, intertained with varietie of sport, game, or glee.
Gallée. as Gallere; a Galley.
Gallemar. A Pennar.
Galler. To gall, fret, itch; also, to rub, scrape, scrub, claw, scratch where it itcheth; also, to be verie iocond, or full of glee; to intertaine with varietie of sport, game, or glee.
Galler le bon temps. To make merrie, to passe the time pleasantly, to play the good fellow.
Gallerand: m. A Bittor. ¶Breton.
Gallere: f. A Galley; also, an Inkborne.
Vogue la gallere. Let the world wag, slide, goe how it will; let goe a Gods name; not a pinne matter whether we sinke or swimme.
Gallerie: f. A Gallerie, or long roome to walke in; also, mirth, glee, pleasantnesse, good sport.
Galleriens: m. Galley-slaues.
Galles: f. The plurall of Galle.
Gallet: m. The shoulder peece, or point; the hinder (and vpper) part of the necke; in a horse, the Withers.
Gallette: f. A kind of wreathed cake.
Galleverdine: f. A Gabbardine; a long Coat, or Cassock of course, and (for the most part) motley, or partie-coloured, stuffe.
Galleux: m. euse: f. Scabbie, scurvie, mangie, itchie.
Gallicelle: f. as Biaut, or Sequenie.

Gallico. Prendre au gal: ou de gal: To surprize; take napping, or vnprouided; (A Prouerbiall phrase, that seemes to haue beene deuised either in commendation of the liuelinesse, and quicknesse of the French, whereby they are able to surprize others; or, as a taxation of their negligence, and carelesnesse, which make them apt to be surprized by others.)
Gallie: f. Garbe, or gracefulnesse.
Gallien: m. A Galley-slaue.
Gallier: m. A scurvie fellow, shifting companion; or, as Galier. ¶Rab.
Gallimart: m. A Pennar, a case for pennes.
Galline: f. A Gurnard; so called about Marseillis.
Gallion: m. A Gallion, an Armada, a great ship of warre; also, the hearbe Cheese-runnell.
Galliot: m. The hearbe Auens, hearbe Bennet, hearbe Blessed.
Galloches: m. Schollers in Vniuersities, admitted of no Colledge, but lying in the Towne, and being at libertie to resort vnto what (publike) Readers, or Lectures they please; tearmed thus, because, in passing the streets, they commonly weare Galloches.
Galloches: f. High woodden Pattens, or Clogs, &c; as in Galoche.
Gallochier: m. A Messenger, or Foot-post; one that goeth to and fro on errands; Looke Galochier.
Gallon: m. Brawne, or hardnesse of the flesh, or skinne; also, as Galon.
Les gallons des cheveux. Hard curled locks.
Gallonné: m. ée: f. Stroaked, cherished; gently rubbed, or clawed; also, edged, laced, or tyed with galloone lace.
Gallonner. To stroake, cherish, claw, or clap on the back; to smooth; to rub gently; also, to edge, or lace with galloone.
Gallop. as Galop.
Galloper. See Galoper.
Gallopins: m. Vnder Cookes, or Scullions in Monasteries.
Galoche: m. as Gallochier.
Galoche: f. A woodden Shooe, or Patten, made all of a peece, without any latchet, or ty of leather, and worne by the poore clowne in Winter.
Galocher. To behaue himselfe rudely, vnciuilly, rustically; to play the clowne; also, to trot, or wander vndiscreetly vp and downe.
Galochier: m. A maker of Galoches, or woodden shooes.
Galochier: m. ere: f. Base, meane, poore; also, clownish, rude, vnciuill, rusticall, without manners; as those are that, ordinarily, weare those woodden shooes.
Galoise: f. A scurvie trull, scabbie queane, mangie punk, filthie whore.
Galon: m. Galloone lace.
Galonné: m. ée: f. as Gallonné; and hence;
Tresses galonnées. Lockes plaited, or tyed vp with galloone lace.
Galonner. as Gallonner; and, to plait, bind, or ty vp with lace.
Galop: m. A (horses) gallop; or galloping.
Galop gaillard. The Gallop Galliard; or, a Passa-salto; or, one pace, and a leape.
Aller le grand galop. To runne in hast, to fly apace; to passe a full carriere.
Galopade: f. A galloping.
Galopé. Galloped; also, coursed, chased; curried, vsed somewhat roughly, taken vp roundly.
Galoper. To gallop; also, to course, currie, vse rudely, take take vp for halting; giue chase vnto.

Galopins. as Gallopins.

Galvardine: f. A Gabardine.

Galvol: m. A Shittlecocke.

Gambade: f. A gamboll, yew-game, tumbling tricke.

La gambade du rocher. The rocke gamboll; the being throwne headlong from a rocke.

Faire gambades à la terre. To hang, or hang in chaynes.

Payer en gambades. To runne away when he should pay.

Les vieilles gens qui font gambades, à la mort sonnent des aubades: Prov. Old peoples frisking doth presage their ending.

Gambader. To turne heeles ouer head, make many gambols, fetch many friskes, shew tumbling trickes.

Gambadeur: m. A tumbler, a maker of gambols.

Gambage. Droict de g. A fee, or dutie of foure pottles vpon euerie brewing, payed vnto diuers Lords within the Countie of Boullenois.

Gambayer. To wag the legs in sitting, as children vse to doe.

Gambe. as Iambe; a leg, or shanke. ¶Pic.

Le plus en gambe. The best footman, the swiftest runner, the quickest goer, the lightest of his legs.

Gambeson: f. A fashion of long horsemans coat; See Gobisson.

Gambi: m. ie: f. Bent, crooked, bowed.

Gambier. To wag the legs in sitting, as children vse to doe. ¶Pic: also, to walke, or goe.

Gambiller. as Gambier.

Gambir. To bow, crooke, bend.

Gambre: m. The sea-creuisse.

Game: f. Gamut (in Musicke.)

Foi à la haulte game. An arrant foole, notable coxe, true dunce; an Asse in graine.

Entrer en la haulte game. To busie, or pester his braines with many matters; to enter into deepe, and serious meditations; to stretch his wits.

Nous sommes hors toute la Game. We are out of all good compasse; or, quite off the hindges.

Gamelle: f. A woodden bowle.

Gammare: m. A Lobster, or sea-Creuisse.

Gamme: f. A chime; also, as Game.

Sonner la gamme. A chime to sound at certaine houres.

Gan. as Gant; a Gloue.

Ganabin. The Northerne wind. ¶Rab.

Gances: f. Loopes (of twist, lace, &c.)

Ganché: m. ée: f. Let fall (as in a strappado) on sharpe stakes pointed with yron, and thereon languishing vntill he dye.

Gandalin: m. A bawd, or carrier of loue-messages.

Gandole. as Gondole; a Gondola.

Ganglion. A waterie impostumation in the throat.

Gangrene: f. A Gangrene; the rotting, or mortifying of a member.

Gangrené: m. ée: f. Rotted, putrified, mortified, become senceless, fallen into a Gangrene.

Gangules: f. Kernels, or wartles in the throat.

Ganif: m. A pen-knife.

Ganivet: m. A little pen-knife.

Ganivetier: m. A pen-knife-maker.

Ganse: f. A loope (of lace, &c.)

Gant: m. A Gloue.

Gans de nostre Dame. The hearb called Fox-gloues, London buttons; and, our Ladies gloues; (a name which is also giuen vnto the male Coniza, or great Fleabane.)

Gans d'ocaigne. Dogs leather gloues oyled in the inside to keepe the hands moist, and coole.

Droict de gans; &, ventes & gans. A paire of gloues, or in lieu thereof money (more, or lesse, as is the custome of seuerall places) due, and payed as an Income by a purchaser vnto the Lord Censuel, or of the soyle.

Gante. as Iante. ¶Pic.

Gantelée: f. The hearbe called Fox-gloues, our Ladies gloues; (which name (also) the male Coniza, or great Fleawort hath) and London buttons.

Gantelet: m. A gantlet, or arming gloue.

Hausser le gantelet. A Marchant to put into his Booke, or Bill, that which was neuer taken vp; to ouerreach with false reckonings.

Plier le gantelet. To yeeld, stoope, submit himselfe; to confesse himselfe ouercome.

Gantes. as Iantes; the felles of a Cart-wheele. ¶Pic.

Gantier: m. A Glouer.

Ganymedes. The name of a Troian boy, whom Iupiter so loued (say the Poets) as he tooke him vp to heauen, and made him his cup-bearer; hence, any boy thats loued for carnall abuse; an Ingle.

Gaquiere. as Iachere; Land which lyeth lay; a fallow field, sowne euerie other yeare. ¶Pic.

Gar. Vn regard à gar. A squint looke; the cast of a skenning eye.

Garagnon: m. A Stallion.

Garance: f. The hearbe Madder; with whose root Dyers make cloth Orange tawnie; or, for a need, red; and ioyning it with woad, blacke.

Garance sauvage. Wild Madder; (Some also call so the hearb Woodroofe, or Woodrowell.)

Garancé: m. ée: f. Dyed with Madder.

Garand. See Garant, or Garent.

Garans de palenc. Two slender cords tyed to the bottome of the great pullie of a mast, and passing from that, through diuers others.

Garant: m. A vouchee; warrant; warranter of the thing he hath passed vnto another; a supporter, defender, maintainer, protector; also, an author, in a report; See Garent.

Se bouter à garant. To take Sanctuarie; to fly into a safe, or strong place for refuge.

Tenir fort à garant. To hold off; (a sea tearme.)

Garantage: m. A warranting, or warrantie.

Garanti: m. ie: f. Warranted, protected, saued harmelesse.

Garrantie: f. Garrantie, warrantie; or warrantise; protection, maintenance, defence, supportation.

Recours de garrantie. See Recours.

Garantir. To warrant; or passe by warrantie; to saue harmelesse; to protect, support, defend, keepe safe from danger.

Garavelle: f. The name of a delicate Peare, thats ripe in August.

Garbe: f. A garbe, comelinesse, handsomenesse, gracefulnesse, good fashion.

Garber. To spruce it; to adorne, decke, set forth, make fine, comelie, neat, gracefull.

Garbin: m. A Southwest wind.

Garbot: m. A kind of fish about Orleans.

Garbouil: m. A garboyle, hurlyburly, great stirre, monstrous rambling, horrible rumbling.

Garburge: f. as Garbouil.

Garce: f. A wench, lasse, girle; also, (and as wee often meane by the first) a Punke, or Whore.

Avoir de l'eau vers les garces. To haue sap, and moisture enough to satisfie his priuate lecherie withall.

Amour de garçe & saut de chien ne dure si l' on ne dit,tien: Pro. Looke Amour.

Garchote: f. A water fowle,somewhat lesse then, but otherwise resembling,a Mallard.

Garçon. A boy,lad; youth,stripling; See Garson.

Folie aux garçons. Leacherie, whoredome,incontinencie,lasciuiousnesse.

C'est vn mauvais garçon. He is a shrewd (or tall) fellow; one that will throughly both lay, and looke, about him.

Garçonné: m. ée: f. Leachered withall; swyued, ridden by boyes.

Garçonner. To play the boy; also, to leacher; to defile a woman, deflowre a maid; play the lasciuious boy with.

Garçonniere: f. A leacherous,or lasciuious queane.

Gardant. Garding,warding,keeping,preseruing, reseruing for himselfe,or others.

Garde: m. A Guardian,Warden,Keeper; any Officer vnto whose keeping a thing is entrusted; hence;

Garde de bois. The Warden of, or a Keeper in, a Wood,or Forrest.

Garde des Coffres. The (keeper of the) Priuie Purse; or,as Threforier des menus.

Garde general de l'Artillerie. The Warden generall, or chiefe Warden,of the Artillerie; keepes a reckoning of all the peeces of Ordnance that be within the realme; to which end he takes particular Inuentories from all Commaunders of Fortresses,&c, containing the number,size,and qualitie thereof, and informes himselfe by them of all their store,and wants: He also visites the places themselues, to see whether the Peeces bee well kept,and safely bestowed: After all which, he deliuers ouer the said Inuentories vnto the Controller generall, who hauing registred, redeliuers, them. This Officer hath a Deputie resident in euerie one of the tenne generall Gouernments of France.

Garde de Iustice. A royall Prouost, or Iudge, that keepes either the Kings (inferior) Courts, or the Courts of a Lord Iusticer; and is inferior, in all respects, vnto a Bailli.

Garde des Livres de la Chambre des Comptes. The keeper of all the Records of that Court.

Garde d'un Malade. A Keeper; one that lookes to a sicke bodie.

Garde des Monnoyes. The Warden of the Mint; an Officer,who is to be present at all finings,allayings, and prouings of Mettall; and ouersees both the deliuerie thereof to the workemen,and them in their working; to which end he weighes, and viewes euerie peece, and forces them, at their owne charge, to new-make the light,and mishapen ones,or censures them otherwise as he thinkes good: The Money being full made, he deliuers it vnto the Maisters; to whō,though in place he be inferior,yet may he at any time call them to an accoūt, for as much as they haue receiued from him.

Gardes des Portes. Wardens of the out-Ports; Officers, that looke there be no probibited commodities transported, or imported; They also receiue of Marchants the Bills that containe all the parcels they haue bought, and the acquittances of duties payed, within land; and onely they,and the Searchers, may arrest the bodies, or goods of such, as,to deceiue the King of his custome, or to transport forbidden commodities, would slip out of the Realme by oblique Passages,odd Creekes, decayed Ports,or any by-wayes.

Garde de la Prevosté. A rurall Prouost;or,as Garde de Iustice.

Garde des Salines. The Warden of the (Kings) Saltpits; an Officer that deliuers out the salt vnto Marchants, and, together with the Clarke thereof, keepes a Register of the quantitie deliuered, of their names to whom it is deliuered,and of the places whereunto it is carried.

Garde des seaux. The keeper of the Seale; one in euerie Chancerie established in the seuen(inferior) Parliamentall,and in the Presidiall,townes; whither when any of the Maisters of Requests are come in circuit, he is bound to bring, and deliuer vp vnto them the Seale, whereof at all other times he hath the absolute charge, and keeping.

Garde du seel Royal. The Commissioner, who in the sickenesse,absence, or suspension of the Lord Chancelour is appointed to seale,and passe Letters Patents,&c; or he,that hath the keeping of the ordinarie(royall) seale of contracts,or of iudiciall dispatches: For the vse of which Seale there is no fee taken of the Secretaries,nor of the Lord high Chamberlaine of France (who keepes the Kings Priuie Signet while he attends) nor of some other Officers of the Crowne.

Garde: f. Gard, ward, custodie; safe, or long keeping; the reseruing, or preseruing of a thing for priuate vse; also,the Guard of a Prince; (and hence) the charge of, or looking vnto, a thing; and, heed, care, obseruation, vigilancie,aduisement; also,defence,maintenance,protection, safetie; also,the Wardship of an infant,or heire; (wherein Garde is most commonly meant of direct, Bail of collaterall, kinsmen; or of an againe-married mother,or grandmother.)

Les gardes d'un canon. The branches of a Canon-bit.

La garde d'un'espée. The hilt of a sword.

Les gardes d'un sanglier. The dewe-clawes, or hinder-clawes of a wild Bore.

Garde faicte. Is, when beasts that are kept in other mens grounds make spoyle, or doe hurt by the craft, or fault of their keepers.

Garde gardienne. A Priuiledge of the Schollers and Officers of Vniuersities,and of the Priests,Prelats,and Possessors of some Churches, Abbeyes, Colledges, Hospitals,&c; and of the Officers of the Crowne, and Kings house,not to be impleaded before other then their peculiar Iudges.

Garde liges. Seeke Lige.

Denier de garde. A certaine summe,or small piece of money, payable, by old Leases, in stead of Rent, those yeares wherein the ground lay fallow,and could not be eared.

Droict de garde noble. See Droict.

Poire de garde. A Warden,or a winter Peare.

Prevost de garde; ou,en garde. An vnder Iudge to a Bailli; or, the Deputie of a Prouost, or vnder-Prouost.

Il n'a garde de s'y laisser aller. He hath no mind,list, maw, stomacke, humor,to goe thither.

Il n'a garde de s'en vanter. I beleeue he will not brag thereof in hast; or,he is not verie hastie, forward, willing,to brag thereof.

Se donner de garde. as Prendre Garde.

Estre de garde. To keepe, or continue long,vntainted; to beare age verie well.

Faire la garde. To make fast; (a phrase vsed by reelers, or winders of yarne.)

Prendre garde. To heed; looke well,haue an eye,vnto; beware, take heed; prevent by fore-sight, prouide that a thing doe not happen.

La

La mauvaiſe garde paiſt ſouvent le loup: Prov. Ill watch doth fatten the Wolfe; or, the ſleepie ſhepheard fattens the hungrie wolfe.

Gardé: m. ée: f. Warded, garded, kept; preſerued, ſaued; ſhielded, defended, protected, maintained; watched, heeded, marked, obſerued, regarded, looked vnto.

Garde-bras. A Vambrace; Armour for an arme.

Garde-corps: m. A Yeoman of the Gard; an Halberdier, or Sergeant, that gards, or attends on, the perſon of a Prince, Commaunder, or publicke Officer.

Garde-fol: m. as Garde-ſerre.

Garde-fols; &, Garde-foux. Rayles, ſtayes, or ſleight walls on th'outſides of a bridge, high walke, Terrace, or open Gallerie.

Garde-fort. as in Garde-fols.

Garde-main. A ſtrong gloue for a Maſon, or Stone-cutter to worke with.

Gardemaneur. A creditor, or any other placed by order of Law in a debtors houſe; the which he may keepe vntill he be ſatisfied, or haue ſecuritie for ſatisfaction.

Gardemanger. An Ambrie, Gardemanger, cupboord to keepe meat in.

Garde-nappe: f. A wreath, ring, or circlet of wicker, &c; ſet vnder a diſh at meale times, to ſaue the Table-cloth from ſoyling.

Garde-notes. Notaire garde-notes. Looke Notaire.

Garde-poing: m. A Vamplate.

Garde-porte: f. A peece of Tapiſtrie hung before an open dore; a dore-peece.

Garder. To keepe; ward, gard; ſaue, preſerue; ſhield; protect, maintaine, defend; watch, heed, marke, obſerue, regard, or looke vnto.

Se garder de. To refraine, forbeare, abſtaine from; to hold off, beare backe, reſtraine himſelfe.

Garder le change. A hound to keepe vnto his firſt game without chaunging; to runne, or hunt, his owne.

Garder vne fille à graine; To let a maid runne to ſeed; to keepe her long without a husband; See Graine.

Garder la lune des loups. Fooliſhly to care for that which cannot doe amiſſe.

Dieu gard la Lune des loups. See Loup.

Dieu gard de mal qui voit bien & ne oit goutte. For my part I conceiue no iot of it; or, care not for it if I conceiued it; or, will not beleeue it though I know it to be ſo.

Il la luy garda bonne. He owed him a good turne; or, (the contrarie) he bore him a grudge for it, a long time after.

Sainct Anthoine te gardera. Thou art, or wilt proue, but a Hog, or a Sow.

A qui eſt l'aſne ſi le garde. Let him that owes the Aſſe looke to him; (a Prouerb applyable vnto any thing thats in danger of ſtraying.)

Bon chaſteau garde qui ſçait ſon corps garder: Prov. A good fort ſaues he that can ſaue his bodie.

De qui ie me fie dieu me garde: Pro. (For, in truſt is Treaſon, ſay we.)

Il ne ſe garde pas bien qui ne ſe garde touſiours: Prov. He lookes not, that ſtill lookes not, to himſelfe; or, he gards not well, himſelfe, that alwayes gards not.

Qui garde ſon diſner, il a mieux à ſouper: Pro. He that keepes his dinner hath the more to ſup withall; youth preſerued breeds an able old-age.

Qui n'a qu'un oeil bien le garde: Prov. He that hath but one eye had need make much of it, had beſt looke well to it.

Tel ſe cuide bien garder qui ſe frappe ſur le nez: Prov. Looke Frapper.

Garderobbe: f. A Wardrobe; alſo, a houſe of Office; alſo, a cloth, or cloake worne, or caſt ouer a garment, to keepe it from duſt, raine, &c; alſo, the hearbe Sothernwood.

Garde-ſerre. The reſt of the locke of a Harguebuſe.

Gardeur: m. A Keeper, Warder, Warden, Gardien, Ouerſeer, looker vnto.

Gardeur de beſtiail. A Paſtor, Heardſman, Neatheard.

Mieux vaut bon gardeur que bon gaigneur: Prov. (A degree beyond the Latine, Non minor eſt virtus quam quærere parta tueri.)

Gardien: m. A Warden, Keeper, Gardien; a Sequeſtree; one vnto whoſe keeping a thing is committed.

Gardien de biens. A Sequeſtree, or keeper of the goods of an indebted, or condemned perſon, ſeiſed by order of Law.

Gardien d'un enfant mineur. A Gardien; one that hath the wardſhip, or tuition of a child vnder age.

Gardien: m. enne: f. Keeping, warding, garding; obſeruing, ouerſeeing, looking vnto.

Garde gardienne. See Garde.

Pere gardien. The chiefe Ouerſeer, Controller, or Viſitor of a Frierie.

De pere gardien filz garde-rien: Prov. A retchleſſe ſonne of a wretched father.

Gardin. as Iardin; a Garden. ¶Pic.

Gardon: m. A certaine freſh-water fiſh that reſembles the Cheuin; onely his head is leſſe, and bodie broader; Some hold it to be the freſh-water Mullet; others (more probably, though Geſner ſay otherwiſe) the Roche, or a kind thereof.

Plus ſain qu'un gardon. More liuelie, and healthfull then a Gardon (then which, there is not any fiſh more healthfull, nor more liuelie.)

Ils iettent les gardons pour tirer des brochets. They reiect ſmall, to obtaine great, matters.

Gardouche. A Store-houſe, or Garner.

Gardoüer: m. A little Pond, or Stue, to keepe fiſh in.

Gare. Intonation de gare & ſerre. The ſounding of Drumme, or Trumpet, whereby ſouldiors are warned to ſtand cloſe, and looke vnto themſelues.

Gare le heurt. (The voice of them that driue horned-beaſts) warre hornes.

Sans dire gare. On the ſuddaine, at vnawares; before any word ſent, or warning giuen.

Garé. Terre garée. Old fallow ground.

Garence. as Garance; Madder.

Garenciere: f. A Field, or Plot of ground, ſowed with Madder; a Madder-yard, or Madder-ground.

Garendie. as Garentie; Warrantie.

Garene. as Carine; and, as Garenne.

Garené. as Garenné.

Garrenne: f. A Warren of Connies, &c; alſo, a (certaine, or limitted) fiſhing in a riuer.

Garenné: m. ée: f. Warrenned; made into a Warren; incloſed; priuiledged, reſtrained from common vſe; made priuat, or belonging to a priuat perſon, as a warren &c.

Garrenneux: m. euſe: f. Haunting, or lodging, or liuing in Warrens.

Garennier: m. A Warrenner.

Garent: m. A warranter, Protector, Defendor; ſecurer, vndertaker for; a ſeller with warrantie; a Vouchee; alſo, Warrantie.

Garent abſolut. One that vndertakes a ſuit for another, wholly ridding, and diſcharging him of it; (This warrantie is proper vnto reall actions.)

Garent contributeur. One that vndertakes but part of a ſuit for another; whom he leaues to follow the reſt at his owne charge.

Garent formel. as Garent abſolut.

Garent ſimple. One that is vouched to aſſiſt, and ioyne with the voucher in the proues, and defences needfull in a perſonall action.

Qui tire à garent & garent n'ha, ſa cauſe perduë il a. (Cela eſtoit de la vieille pratique; & n'a plus de lieu; The rigour thereof being qualified.)

Garentage: m. Warrantie, warrantize, warrantage.

Garenti: m. ie: f. Warranted, ſecured, vndertaken for, borne out, ſaued harmeleſſe.

Garentie: f Warrantie, ſecuritie; protection, defence.

Garentigionné. Inſtrument ga. An authenticall Inſtrument, made by a Notarie publicke, and ſignifying, that execution is readie to come out againſt a confeſſing, and almoſt condemned, debtor; By the cuſtomes of Bayonne tis alſo a kind of inrolled Bond, whereby both a mans bodie is ſubiect vnto arreſt, and his goods to execution.

Garentir. To warrant, make good, vndertake for, ſell, or paſſe with warrantie; to ſecure, ſaue harmleſſe, defend, protect, beare out.

Garentiſſement: m. A warranting, vndertaking for, making good; a ſecuring, ſauing harmeleſſe, protecting, defending.

Garentiſſeur: m. A warranter, &c; as Garent.

Garenty: m. One that is warranted.

Garer. To ware, bewaie, take heed of; to ſhun, eſchew, auoid by ſlipping aſide; See Gare.

Garet. See Gueret.

Gargamelle: f. The throat.

Garganton: m. A great glutton, or belly-god, one that waſts his ſubſtance on good cheere.

Gargantua. Great throat. ¶Rab.

Gargareon: m. The forepart of the throat.

Gargarization. as Gargarizement.

Gargarizé. Gargled, gargarized.

Gargarizement: m. A gargling, or gargarizing; a gargariſme.

Gargarizer. To gargle, to gargalize.

Gargaſſane: f. The Wind-pipe.

Gargate: f. as Gargaſſane; or, the throat-pipe. ¶Pic.

Gargatte: f. The Vuula; a little peece of ſpongious fleſh reſembling a Cocks ſpurre, and hanging downe in the roofe of the mouth, neere the paſſage into the noſethrils.

Gargouille: f. The weeſle, or weaſen of the throat; alſo, the mouth of a Spowt, repreſenting a Serpent, or the Anticke face of ſome other ouglie creature; alſo, a gutter that receiues, and voids the raine falling on diuers rooſes, or houſes; alſo, a bubble, or puffe, made by wind on the water; alſo, the ioynt of a flat bindge; or, ſuch a ioynt as is in the flat bindge of a window, or ſmall doore.

Gargouillé. Gargled, gargarized; alſo, ratled in the throat.

Gargouillement: m. A gargling, or gargarizing; alſo, a ratling in the throat.

Gargouiller. To gargle, or gargarize; alſo, to ratle in the throat.

Gargouillis: m. A gargling; or gargling noyſe.

Gargoulle. as Gargouille.

Garguelques: f. A faſhion of ſtrait venetians without codpeeces.

Garguette. as Gargatte.

Garguille: m. (A nickname for) an odd, mad, or fooliſh companion; ſuch a one as we (ſomewhat contemptuouſly, or to his derogation) ſtile, a certaine fellow.

Garguillon: m. The Pipe, or throat-pipe, whereby meat paſſeth into the ſtomacke, or craw of birds.

Garieur: m. A warrantor. ¶Gaſc.

Garignon: m. A huckle-bone; whence, Iouër aux garignons. To play at Cockall.

Garigues. as Guarigues.

Gariment: m. Garrantie, or warrantie. ¶Gaſc.

Ienir en gariment. To hold part of a fief otherwiſe then by ſucceſſion, and vpon couenant, to pay, or yeeld for it ſome dutie which is noble, and no way roturier.

Garine: f. The ſhrub Ciſtus, or Hollie-roſe.

Garingal. as Galingal.

Garinnon. See Garignon.

Gariofilé. Aromatique gar. A certaine compoſition (wherein there are Cloues) good for the paſſions of the heart.

Garioller. To whiſtle, chirpe, or warble, as birds.

Gariophyllate. Hearbe Auens, Bennet, or Bleſſed.

Gariot: m. The wind-pipe of a horſe, or other beaſt.

Garipot: m. The wild Pine, or Pitch tree.

Garite: f. A place of refuge, and of ſafe retyrall in a rowt, diſaſter, or danger; the recourſe of ſuch as are diſcomfited; (hence) alſo, the dungeon of a fortreſſe, whither the beleaguered ſoldiors make their laſt retire, and flight; alſo, a by-way, or path that leads one aſide, and out of the high way; alſo, a Sentrie, or little lodge for a Sentinell, built on high.

Prendre la garite. To fly, ſlip o' th' to-ſide, run away.

Garlande. as Ghirlande; a Garland; and hence;

Garlande d'argent. Is due in ſome parts of Auvergne vnto a widow by the heire of her deceaſed husband, and ought to be of the value of their nuptiall bed.

Garnache: f. A frocke for a Carter.

Garlet: m. A little Plaice.

Garnement: m. Prouiſion, furniture, or munition layed in for the maintenance, or defence of a Place; alſo, a rakehell, ſlip-ſtring, raſcall, naughtie-packe, lewd vnthrift, graceleſſe patch, vngracious wretch, one fit w̃ the gallowes groane; (In which ſence it is vſed either (Ironically) alone, or with the Adiectiue Mauvais; as;)

En mauvais garnement. Lewdly, naughtily, wickedly, vnthriftily, vngraciouſly, roguiſhly, villanouſly.

Garni: m. ie: f. Garniſhed; prouided, ſtored, ſupplyed, furniſhed, full of; decked, trimmed, adorned, beautified, ſet out with; perfected, throughly wrought.

Poing garni. An armed fiſt; a hand that holds a ſtone, or weapon, to ſtrike withall.

Garniment. as Garnement.

Garnir. To garniſh; prouide, ſtore, ſupply, furniſh, accommodate, fill with; decke, adorne, trimme, beautifie, ſet forth with.

Garnir vne accuſation. To accuſe throughly, to bring in much euidence, many witneſſes againſt.

Garnir à caution. To prouide, or bring in ſureties, or a ſufficient pawne for the ſecuritie of a debt, &c.

Garnir la main. To take a thing to pawn, or morgage; alſo, to ſeize, or diſtraine, vpon an execution, for debt; or (more properly) an arreſted debtor to pay down what he owes, or to giue ſaleable goods, to the value of the debt, for the ſecuritie thereof.

Garnis. A kind of engine to catch fiſh with.

Garniſon: f. Store of furniture; prouiſion, munition, preparation; alſo, the garriſon of a towne; alſo, a garriſon towne.

Gar-

Garniſon de main. A taking to pawne, or in mortgage; alſo, a ſeiſing, or diſtraining vpon an execution, or otherwiſe, for debt, for arrerages of rent &c; or (more properly) preſent payment of a debt; or ſaleable goods deliuered by the arreſted debtor, for the ſecuritie thereof.

Le magiſtrat envoya le demandeur en garniſon en la maiſon du defendeur. Put him in poſſeſſion, or ſent him to take poſſeſſion, of the defendants houſe.

Garniſſement: m. A garniſhment, or garniſhing; a furniſhing, ſtoring, ſupplying; a decking, trimming, adorning, ſetting forth, with; alſo, a taking to pawne, or in mortgage; alſo, the giuing of aſſurance, or ſecuritie for a debt, &c.

Garniture: f. Garniture, garniſhment, furniture; proviſion, munition, ſtore, neceſſarie implements; alſo, a ruffe-band; alſo, any kind of ornament, or attire.

Garniture de doigts. A gloue; ring; finger-ſtall; thimble, and ſuch like.

Garniture d'eſperon. A ſpurre-leather.

Garniture d'un pourpoint. The facing; (alſo) the quilt of a doublet.

Garon: m. Pickle of fiſh; or, the liquor wherein ſalt fiſh hath beene reſolued, or long ſoaked; alſo, the little Anchoua-like fiſh, Garum, whereof (being beated in a diſh, with oyle or butter, and thereby melted) the beſt kind of that liquor is made.

Garot. as Garrot.

Garoû. Wild, ſauage, hideous, cruell.

Garoüage. Aller en garoüage. (A married man) to goe a caterwawling, or ſteale abroad by night a wenching.

Garoupe: f. The ſhrub called, Spurge Oliue, and widow wayle. (Prouençal.

Garous. (A Syncope of the words, Gardez-vous, or Garez-vous; take heed, turne aſide, looke to your ſelues;) See Loup-garou.

Garoute: f. A Carrot root.

Garrau. as Garrot.

Garrer vn bateau. To hale, or pull a boat aſhoare, or vnder a ſhed; (there to trimme her;) alſo, to moore, or tye her vnto a key, or vnder a lee ſhore.

Se garrer deſſous. To skowke; ſhadow, ſhrowd, or put himſelfe, vnder; whence;

Qui ſe garre deſſous la fueille deux fois ſe mouille: Prov.

Garrigues. as Guarrigues.

Garrobe. The Carob-beane-cod; See Carrobe.

Garrobier: m. The Plant that beares Carobs.

Garrot: m. A boult for a Croſſebow; alſo, the Wythers of a horſe, &c; alſo, a wring, or pinch in the Wythers; alſo, the Cudgell wherewith a Carrier, &c, winds vp, and ſtraines hard, the cord he binds his packe withall.

Garroté: m. ée: f. Strained, or wound vp, as a pack-cord with a cudgell; alſo, hard tyed, or bound with cords.

Garrotement: m. The ſtraining, or winding vp of a cord with a cudgell; alſo, a binding, or tying hard with cords.

Garroter. To ſtraine, wring, or wind vp a pack-cord with a cudgell, &c; alſo, to bind faſt in, tye hard with, cords, &c.

Garrulité: f. Garrulitie, prating, pratling, tatling, chattering, cackling, buſie talking, much babling, ouermuch chat.

Gars: m. A lad, boy, ſtripling, youth, yonker; wag.

Aller à gars. To hunt after lads; (a wench) to goe a caterwawling.

Garſcher. To chap, as the hands, or lips doe in a ſharpe wind. (v.m.)

Garſe: f. A wench, laſſe, girle; and (as we commonly vſe the firſt) a punke, or whore; See Garce.

Garſette: f. A yong laſſe, little wench; pretie whore.

Garſon: m. A lad, boy, youth, ſtripling; See Garçon.

Faire le garſon. To play the ſot; vſe apiſh, or childiſh, tricks.

Garſon-fillette. An Hermaphrodite.

Garſonnaille: f. A crue of lads, a troupe of boyes.

Garſonner. To play the boy, or vſe boyiſh tricks.

Garſonner la femme d'autruy. To lye with another mans wife.

Garſonnet: m. A little boy.

Garſote: f. The water-fowle called, a Teale.

Garſouiller la femme d'autruy. as Garſonner.

Garuche: f. A torturing wheele, vpon which the accuſed hauing heauie bolts, or yrons on his legs, is hoyſed on high, vntill he confeſſe.

Garvences: f. Fitches; Chichlings.

Garum: m. Pickle of ſalt fiſh; or liquor wherein it hath beene reſolued, or long ſoaked; See Garon.

Garzignole: f. The name of a delicate Peare thats ripe in Auguſt.

Gaſche: f. An Oare, or Scull to row with; alſo, a ſtaple for a locke; (alſo, a cake. (Norm.)

Gaſchement: m. A rowing; alſo, a flaſhing, daſhing, or plaſhing, as of water in rowing; alſo, a making of morter; or, a mingling and beating of lime, or clay with water, as in the making of morter.

Gaſcher. To row, or pull at an Oare; alſo, to daſh, plaſh, flaſh (as water in rowing;) alſo, to make plaiſter, or morter; to beat lyme, clay, or ſand and water together (as in the making of morter.)

Gaſcher du gros. To ſhite; alſo, to ſpue; to purge vpwards, or downewards.

Gaſcher du poiſſon (ſalé.) To water it, to caſt water on it; or lay it in water.

Gaſchettes pour tenir les doigts fermes. Splints for broken, or crooked, fingers.

Gaſcheur: m. A Rower; alſo, a flaſher, or daſher of water.

Gaſcheux: m. euſe: f. Flaſhie, plaſhie, waſhie, daſhing, beſpatling.

Gaſchis d'eau: m. A daſhing, plaſhing, or flaſhing of water, in rowing; See Gachis.

Gaſcon: m. A Gaſcon; one of Gaſcoigne; alſo, the Mackerell (fiſh.)

Gaſconner. To ſteale, filch, pilfer.

Gaſon: m. A greene ſodd, a ſodd of graſſie earth; alſo, a banke made of, or hill couered with, greene ſodds; any fine graſſie, or moſſie, banke.

Gaſouillement: m. A warbling, whiſtling, or whizzing noyſe.

Gaſouiller. as Gazouiller.

Gaſouilleur: m. A warbler, chirper, whiſtler, or whizzer.

Gaſpillé: m. ée: f. Waſted, lauiſhed; careleſly, prodigally.

Gaſpiller. To ſquander, waſt, laſh out, lauiſh away needleſly, careleſly, prodigally.

Gaſpilleur: m. A ſpend-all, waſt-good, vnthrift, lauiſher, ſquanderer, prodigall and careleſſe waſter; whence;

A pere amaſſeur fils gaſpilleur: Prov. A waſtfull ſonne ſucceeds a wretched father.

Gaſſe: f. The weed called, Darnell, Ray, and Ivray.

Gaſt: m. Waſt, ſpoyle, &c; or, as Gaſtement.

Gaſtadour: m. A Pioner.

Gaſté: m. ée: f. Marred, ſpild, ſpoyled; rotten, viciate, corrupted, waſted, cõſumed; ruined, defaced, ouerthrowne, deſtroyed, vndone; ſoyled, defiled, ſtained, perverted; beſotted.

Gasteau: m. A (great) Cake.
Le gasteau ne cuict pas pour luy. The cake's not baked for him; his part is like to be least in it; he is not like to licke his lips after it; (applyable vnto any thing thats in hand for another then him that lookes for it.)
Il a sa part au gasteau. He hath a hand in the practise; a part in the fruit, or punishment, thereof.
Partir le gasteau. To assigne vnto euerie conspirator the part he is to act, or share he is to haue, in a Practise.
Trouver la febve au gasteau. To meet with the thing he lookes for, to light on that which will serue his turne.
Gasteau, & mauvaise coustume se doivent rompre: Prov. A (good) cake, and an ill custome should be broken.
Gaste-bois: m. An vnskilfull Carpenter.
Gastelet: m. A little cake; also (the name of) an excellent Cyder-apple.
Gastelier: m. A seller, or maker of cakes.
Gastement: m. A marring, spoyling, spilling; a wasting, consuming, corrupting; a soyling, defiling, distaining; a ruining, defacing, destroying.
Gaste-museau: m. A little round lumpe, or bunne, made of fine meale, oyle, and raisins; a Lenten loafe.
Gaste-pavé: m. A gadder, wanderer, earth-planet, pauement-beater, street-wearer, way-wearier; one that does nought but trot vp and downe the towne.
Gaster: m. The bellie. ¶Rab.
Gaster. A woman to cast her child.
Gaster. To wast, marre, spill, spoyle; viciate, corrupt, inuert, peruert, seduce, depraue; infect; violate; soyle, defile, distaine; consume, ruine, vndoe, deface, destroy, turne vpside-downe.
Vous ne sçauriez rien gaster. You can do no harme; (a Bowlers phrase.)
Gastereſſe: f. A woman that marreth; wasteth; destroyeth.
Gaste-santé. Vnholesome, infectiue, health-spoyling.
Gasteur: m. A marrer, spoyler; waster, consumer; soyler, defiler; seducer, peruerter; defacer, destroyer.
Gastier. An Officer appointed by Iustice, at the nomination, and request of the inhabitants of a place, to gard and watch the fruits of their Grounds, & Vineyards, and to keepe them from being imbezeled, or spoyled by men, or beasts.
Gastine: f. A Waste, a Desart; a Rocke, or sandie Ground; also, a Close, or Pasture inclosed, and enioyed in common; a Commons belonging to particular men, and the particular Commons of a Towneship, or Parish; also, a kind of earth found in Mynes of Iron, and helping to melt it; also, the name of a Crosse in Paris, planted where once the house of one who bore that name (and was burnt for Religion) stood.
Gastis: m. Waste, spoyle, or a trespasse done in grounds by (a strangers) beasts.
Gastrepiploique. Veine gas. The third branch of the trunke of the Porte veine, issuing side-wayes out of the right side thereof, and spreading abroad in the bottome of the ventricle.
Gastrimythe: m. A belly-god.
Gastrique. The second branch of the trunke of the Port-veine.
Gastrolatre. A belly-god; one that makes a god of his bellie. ¶Rab.
Gastromantie: f. Diuination by the bellie.
Gastroraphie: f. The stitching vp of a rent, or diuided, bellie.
Gastrotomie: f. The section, or cutting vp of the bellie.
Gate. as Iatte; A bowle, or mazer. ¶Pic.
Gathe: f. A little Shad-fish. ¶Bourdel.
Gatte: f. The top of the maine Mast. ¶Norm.
Gattouiller. as Chatouiller; To tickle.
Gau. as Geau.
Gavache: m. A countrey clowne, or clusterfist; and hence, any scowndrell, or base companion.
Gavache: com. Lennow, flaggie, limber; also, licentious, dissolute, sensuall, gluttonish; also, clownish.
Gavar: m. arre: f. Shaling, splay-footed, or baker-legd; (at Tours.)
Gaubison. as Gobisson.
Gauché: m. A blow with the left hand.
Gauche: com. Left, left-handed; being on the left hand; belonging to the left side; wrong, siniſter, awry.
Pied gauche. A splay foot.
Planté sur le pied gauche. Looke Planté.
Gauché: m. ée: f. Wrong, wryed, crooked, awry.
Gaucher. as Gauchier; and, as Gauche.
Gauchi: m. ie: f. Wryed; bent, or turned awry, or from the right side; also, auoided by turning awry.
Gauchier: m. ere: f. Left-handed, key-fisted.
Gauchir. To wry; to turne, bend, wrythe from the right, or any way aside; also, to shun, or auoid by turning awry; and hence;
Gauchir au coup. To eschew a blow by winding, turning, bending, or wrinching of the bodie.
Gauchir le coup. To giue a winding blow, to thrust, or strike indirectly; to ayme at one place, and strike another.
Gaudé. See Gaudez.
Gaude: f. The stalke of a certaine plant, wherewith Dyers make their clothes yellow, and afterwards (adding Woad) greene; we may call it, Dyers weed, or greening weed; also, a small shower of raine.
Gaudebillaux: m. The fat tripes of stall-fed Oxen.
Gaudées: f. Babling prayers; or, as Gaudez.
Gaudence. An Estate in an Inheritance, let from nine to nine yeares, and so forward for euer.
Gauderon. as Goderon.
Gauderonné. as Goderonné.
Gauderonner. To trimme, decke, or pranke vp a thing; See Goderonner.
Gaudez: m. Prayers (whereof the Papists haue diuers) beginning with a Gaudete.
Gaudi: m. ie: f. Scoffed, flowted, played on, ieasted at.
Gaudine: f. A pleasant lasse, a gamesome wench.
Gaudinette. The diminutiue of Gaudine.
Gaudipise: f. A codpeece. ¶Rab.
Gaudipisé: m. ée: f. Codpeeced; or, wearing a codpeece.
Gaudir. To be frolicke, liuelie, iollie, pleasant, merrie; gybe, ieast; play the good fellow, make good cheere.
Se gaudir de. To flowt, scoffe, ieast at, be pleasant with.
Gaudissant. Flowting, gybing; ieasting, being merrie with.
Gaudisserie: f. A ieasting, flowting; merriment.
Gaudisseur: m. A ieaster, flowter, gyber; a pleasant-headed fellow; also, a glutton, pot-hunter, Ale-house-haunter, (drunken) good fellow.
Gave: f. The gorge, or craw of a bird, whereinto her meat is at first receiued, after shee hath swallowed it.
Gaveau: m. A Hole, Stue, or little Pit to keepe fish in.

Gavellé. (Ceux qui font le ſel l'appellent gabellé, ou gavellé, quand il eſt eſſuyé. ¶Ragueau.)
Gavereau: m. A kind of ſea-fowle that ducketh verie much.
Gauffre. as Gaffre.
Gauffré: m. ée: f. Printed (as a garment;) alſo, ſet with puffes.
Gauffrer. To print (a garment;) alſo, (but ieſſe properly) to decke, or ſet out, with puffes.
Gauffreure: f. The printing of a garment &c; alſo, (but ieſſe properly) a decking, or ſetting out with puffes.
Gauffrier: m. A Waferers Iron, or Print; a Wafer-mould, or Wafer-print.
Donner es gauffriers. To leacher, to firke.
Gauge. as Iauge.
Gaugo. à gaugo. See Gogo.
Gavian: m. A Mew, or ſea-Mew.
Gavier: m. The throat.
Gavion: m. The gullet, or throat-boll.
Gaulde. as Gaude.
Gaule: f. A pole, big rod; long ſtaffe, or pearch.
Gaule de gibiere. A hawking Pole.
Donner vn coup de gaule par ſous l'huis; To lurch ſecretly, or giue a priuie lift vnto; to do a ſhrewd turne, or bad office, vnder hand.
En Normandie l'on vendange avec la gaule: Pro. The Grapes of Normandie (viz. Apples, and Peares) are gathered (or beaten downe) with poles.
Gaulé: m. ée: f. Beaten with a cudgell; beaten downe with a pole; alſo, robbed, or deſpoyled of.
Gaulée: f. A beating, or dinging downe (as of fruit, &c) with poles; and hence; a cudgelling, baſting, thwacking, lamming; alſo, the decaying, or burting of trees by an exceſſiue, or vnſeaſonable beating downe of their fruit.
Gauler. To ding, beat, or fetch downe with poles; and thence, to cudgell, thwacke, baſt, belamme; alſo, to rob, riſle, or deſpoyle of.
Gaulcur: m. An vnlearned, or countrey Surueyor, that meaſures land onely by the Pole.
Gaulge. as Iauge; A gage for caske.
Gaulger. as Iauger.
Gaulgeur: m. A gager of wine veſſels.
Gaulois: m. iſe: f. Of France, French, a Frenchman.
Gaultier: m. A mad whorſon, mad wag, rakehell, good-fellow; alſo, a noddie, ninnie, gooſecap, coxcombe, ideot; and, as Garguille.
Gaultiere: f. A whore, punke, drab, queane, gill, flirt, ſtrumpet, cockatrice, mad wench, common hackney, good one.
Gavot: m. A little ſharpe-toothed, ſcaleleſſe, liuelie, and ſlipperie ſea-fiſh, that at firſt ſight reſembles a gudgeon, or the little ſea-dragon; he lyes much vnder ſtones, and among rockes; where he is taken (at an ebbing water) ſometimes to the takers paine; for if he looke not verie well to him, he will nip him by the fingers.
Gavote: f. A (kind of) Brawle, daunced, commonly, by one alone.
Gaupe: f. A waſpe. ¶Norm. alſo, as Gaultiere; and hence;
C'eſt vne laide gaupe. She is a filthie ouglie whore; or (as we ſay) a foule Scawpe.
Gauque: f. as Cauque; a tent for a wound.
Gaurrier. as Gorrier; Arrogant, proud, huffing.
Gauſſe d'ail. A cloue of Garlicke.
Gauſſé. Mocked, flowted, ſcoffed, gybed, ieaſted at, ridden, derided.
Gauſſer. as Goſſer; To mocke, flowt, ſcoffe, gybe, ieaſt at, ride, or deride.
Gauſſeur: m. A mocker, flowter, gyber, ſcoffer, ieaſter, derider.
Gautier. Toile Gautier; A kind of Seare-cloth; or, Linnen, dipped in a melted Salue.
Gautte: f. A Shad-fiſh; called ſo about Bayonne.
Gay. as Geay: m. Alſo, a Iay; and ſometimes (but leſſe properly) a Corniſh Chough, or Iacke Daw.
Gay; whence, Hur le gay. Drunken, cup-ſhotten, ſoundly whitled, throughly tipled.
Gay: m. gaye: f. Merrie, frolicke, blithe, iollie, cheerefull, iocond, pleaſant, gladſome, buxome, light-hearted; luſtie, liuelie; alſo, willing, heartie; reſolute; quicke, readie, prompt, in action; alſo, light, or bright, of colour.
Perdrix gaye. as Gaille.
Gayable: com. Wadeable, which may be waded ouer.
Gayac: m. Gwacum, Lignum vitæ, Pockewood.
Gaye: f. Iet.
Gayé: m. ée: f. Waded ouer.
Gayement. Merrily, gladly, ioyfully, iocondly, blithely, pleaſantly; cheerefully, luſtily, willingly, with a heart, with a good will.
Gayer: m. A Foord, or wadeable paſſage ouer a riuer.
Gayer. To wade.
Gayet: m. Iet.
Gayeté: f. Mirth, glee, liuelineſſe, cheerefulneſſe, ioyfulneſſe, alacritie, gladneſſe; readineſſe, willingneſſe, heartineſſe.
Gayetier: m. One that makes all manner of ſmall toyes in Iet; alſo, one that carries people ouer a foord on his ſhoulders.

Gaymau. Pré gay. as in Prez guimaux.
Gayole. A cage; alſo, a priſon. ¶Pic.
Gayole d' un moulin. The trundle; or, a paire of trundleheads.
Gayoler. as Gaioler.
Gayon. A kind of ſmall fiſh.
Gayvé: m. ée: f. Wayued; left, forſaken, abandoned, relinquiſhed, quitted.
Gayver. To wayue; to leaue, abandon, relinquiſh, quit, forſake.
Gayves. Choſes gayves. Weiſes; things forſaken, miſcarried, or loſt; which, not being iuſtly claymed in a yere and a day, may be lawfully retained by the finder, or by the Lord of the Mannor wherein they were found.
Gazaille: f. A Commons, or common field, wherein the inhabitants of ſeuerall pariſhes haue diſtinct parts.
Gaze: f. Cuſhion Canuas; the thinne Canuas that ſerues women for a ground vnto their Cuſhions, or Purſe-worke, &c; alſo, (the ſleight fluffe) Tiffanie; alſo, a Mantle, Fall, Scarfe, or long peece thereof; alſo, wealth, ſubſtance, riches, goods; and, a Princes Treaſurie.
Gazeau. as Gazon.
Gazel. as Gazelle.
Gazelle. A kind of wild Goat.
Gazette. A certaine Venetian coyne ſcarce worth our farthing; alſo, a Bill of Newes; or, a ſhort Relation of the generall occurrences of the Time, forged moſt commonly at Venice, and thence diſperſed, euery month, into moſt parts of Chriſtendome.
Gazon: m. A greene ſodd, or turfe of earth; alſo, rich, and fat land; See Gaſon.
Gazonné: m. ée: f. couered with greene ſodd.
Gazouil. as Gazouillis.
Gazouillard: m. arde: f. Singing, chirping, or warbling, as a bird; that makes a whiſtling, or whizzing noiſe.

Gazouiller. To ſing, whiſtle, chirpe, as many birds together; alſo, to warble, as a young bird when it firſt begins, or learnes, to ſing; alſo, to make, or yeeld a whiſtling, or whizzing ſound.
L'oiſeau gazouille ſelon qu'il eſt embecqué: Pro. Looke Embecqué.
Gazouilleux. as Gazouillard.
Gazouillis: m. A ſinging, chirping, warbling, whiſtling, whizzing; the confuſed voice, or ſong of many birds, &c, together.
Gazouillis de fontaine. The trickling fall of water from the cocke, or ſpout, of a Fountaine.
Gé: m. Yeaſt.
Geais: m. Du g. Iet.
Gealloye: f. A meaſure containing about twelue of our quarts.
Geant: m. A Giant; a man of a huge ſtature, or ſize.
Celuy qui eſt ſur les eſpaules du geant voit plus loing que celuy qui le porte: Prov. We, hauing the aid of our anceſtors knowledge, vnderſtand ſomewhat more then they did.
Geante: f. A Gianteſſe; a woman Giant.
Geanterie: f. Giantrie; the generation, race, kind, or brood, of Giants.
Geantin: m. A young, or little Giant.
Geantin: m. ine: f. Giantlie, Giant-like, huge-bodied, big made.
Geantiſer. To Giantize; to make as big as a Giant; alſo, to play the Giant.
Geau: m. A Cocke.
Geay: m. Jet; alſo, as Gay.
Gect: m. A caſt, or throw, as at dice; alſo, the draught of a Fiſh-net; alſo, a Marriners ſounding lead; alſo, a gard, or welt; alſo, a full ſet of Counters.
Les gects d'un oyſeau. A Hawkes Ieſſes.
Gectons: m. Counters.
Gede. A waſhing Bowle.
Gehainer. To grone, or grunt.
Gehenne: f. A racke, or torture; a place, or inſtrument of racking, and retching torments.
Gehenné: m. ée: f. Racked; retched, or ſtretched vpon a racke; tortured, tormented.
Gehenner. To racke, torture, torment; to retch, or ſtretch vpon the racke.
Gehenneux: m. euſe: f. Full of racking.
Gehi: m. ie: f. Racked, tortured; or wrung out by extreame torture.
Gehine: f. as Gehenne.
Gehir. To racke; to wring out a confeſſion by extreame torture. (v.m.)
Geindre. To grone; mourne, lament, complaine (as the oppreſſed) grieuouſly; alſo, to crooe, crooke, or mourne as a Doue.
Geine: f. as Gehenne.
Geiné: m. ée: f. Racked; retched, or ſtretched vpon the racke; tortured, tormented in racking; alſo, extorted by torture.
Geiner. To racke, torture, torment; to retch, or ſtretch vpon the racke; to extort confeſſions by torture.
Geiſſes: f. A kind of flat, or ſquare Peaſe, reſembling ſomewhat the Chichling. ¶Langued.
Gel. as Gelée.
Gelais. Arbaleſte à gelais; a Stone-bow.
Gelamine: f. A kind of minerall earth.
Gelaſin: m. A wrimple in the face, or, a dimple in the cheeke of one that laugheth.
Gelatine: f. An excellent white-broth made of the fiſh Maigre.

Gelé: m. ée: f. Frozen; congealed, thickened, or ſtiffened with extreame cold.
Gouttes gelées. Iſicles.
Avoir le bec gelé. To be tongue-tyed.
Il eſt gelé de ne rien faire. He is euen ſtarued with idleneſſe.
Gelée: f. A froſt; alſo, gellie.
Geleniabin. Honey mixt with Roſes. ¶Arab. ¶Rab.
Gelement: m. A freezing, or congealing, by cold.
Geler. To freeze; to thicken, or congeale with cold.
Et plus gele, & plus eſtraint: Prov. The more the earth freezes the cloſer it growes.
Geleur: m. A freezer.
Geline: f. A Henne.
Geline d'Aphrique. A Guinnie, or Barbarie Henne.
Geline de bois. as Gelinote de bois.
Creſte à geline. The hearb Coxcombe, Pennie-graſſe, yellow and white ratle.
La journée d'une geline. An egge.
Laict de geline. See Laict.
Pied de geline. Hennes-foot, Hennes-Claw, hedge or yellow Fumentorie; alſo, a trench, ditch, or pit vnder ground, whereby marſhes, and ouer-moiſt corne-lands are drayned; it is fed by many branches, filled with ſtones (through which the moiſture hath ſufficient paſſage) and couered all ouer with earth.
Geline qui poind, & ne pond: Prov. A barren ſhrew.
La geline pond par le bec: Prov. A Henne layes as ſhe is fed.
En Aouſt les gelines ſont ſourdes: Prov. In Auguſt Hennes are deafe.
Iamais graſſe geline n'aima chapon: Pro. A wanton wife neuer loued a defectiue husband.
Iamais chapon creſter n' aima geline: Prov. See Creſter.
Noire geline pond blanc œuf: Prov. A black Henne may breed a white Chicke; a black woman a beautifull child.
Pour graſſe que ſoit la geline elle a meſtier de ſa voiſine: Prov. How rich, or powerfull ſoeuer a man be, he may haue need of his neighbors.
Qui naiſt de geline il aime a grater: Prov. Cat after kind good Mouſe-hunt.
Gelinette: f. A little Henne.
Gelinette d'eau. A Coote.
Gelinette ſauvage; as Gelinote; or, as Francolin, (in the laſt ſence.)
Gelineux: m. euſe: f. Of, or belonging to, Hennes.
Gelinier: m. A Henne-houſe, or Henne-rooſt.
Gelinote: f. as Gelinote de bois.
Gelinote de bois. The pied, or peckled Pheaſant, or wood Henne; ſomewhat rounder bodied, and much daintier meat, then an ordinarie Henne.
Gelinote de Numidie. The Guinnie Henne.
Gelure: f. Ice, froſt; alſo, a freezing.
Gembette. as Iambette. ¶Rab.
Geme. Tarre; or Pitch.
Gemeau: m. A twinne.
Gemeaux. Two muſcles of equall bigneſſe, the one outward, the other inward, which ſpringing from the root of the thighes Condyles, and meeting in the middle of the leg, make one big griſtle, that ends on the heele; their office is, to turne the thigh a-round inwards.
Gemelier: m. ere: f. Double, or twinne-like.
Arteres gemelieres. Looke Artere.
Gemelle: f. A ſhe twinne.

Gemi-

Geminé: m. ée: f. Iterated, doubled, redoubled.
Geminer. To double, iterate, redouble.
Gemir. To grone; sigh, sob, mourne, complaine grieuously, as those which are oppreſt, or ouercharged.
Gemiſſable: com. Moſt lamentable, fit to be groned for, or ſighed at.
Gemiſſement: m. A groning; ſighing, wailing, ſobbing, mourning, heauie lamentation.
Gemme: f. A gemme, a iewell, a pretious ſtone; alſo, pitch.
Gemmé. couleur gemmée. A pearle, or peacocke colour.
Gemmeux: m. -euſe: f. Pretious, rich, full of gemmes, iewells, pretious ſtones.
Genaux: m. Caſters of Natiuities.
Gencive: f. A gumme.
Souliers à double gencive. Double ſoled, or two-ſoled, ſhooes.
Gendarme: m. A man of Armes; a horſeman armed at all points; one that ſerues in compleat armor, and on a great horſe.
Genſdarmes des Ordonnances. The ordinarie men of Armes of France; firſt reduced by Charles the ſeuenth (in the yeare 1444) into certaine Companies, & vnder particular Orders; Part whereof be; that the Gendarme muſt be, at the yongeſt, betweene 20 and 21 yeares old; and muſt haue beene, at leaſt, one yeare, an Archer (which no man ſhould bee but a Gentleman borne, and bred; or one that hath beene a Captaine, Lieutenant, Enſigne, or Sergeant Maior of a foot-Companie ſix yeares:) He muſt alſo keepe three horſes; two for ſeruice, and one for his baggage; In regard whereof, &c, he hath 400. l. Tourn. of ordinarie, and yerelie, intertainment; (Theſe Genſdarmes were at firſt only 1500; but ſince they haue bin increaſed vnto 100 Companies.
se Gendarmer. To ſtrout, or ſquare it like a mã of arms; to put the better leg before; alſo, to tricke, ſet out, or ſtirre vp, himſelfe; to prepare himſelfe for a ſcuffling; to arme himſelfe with all his helps, againſt a warre.
Gendarmerie: f. The Gendarmerie, men of Armes, or compleat horſemen, of an armie; a troupe of great horſe.
Gendre: m. A ſonne in law; (by the mariage of a daughter.)
D'une fille deux gendres: Prov. Two friends gotten by one good office performed, or fauour done; a ſeuerall gaine drawne from ſundrie men by the venting, or vſe, of one thing.
Tel eſt le gendre comme le ſoleil d'hyver: Prov. viz: That does but a little good, and that but a little while.
Gendreſſe: f. A daughter in law (by the mariage of a ſonne.)
Genealogie: f. A Genealogie; Pedegree.
General: m. A Generall, or chiefe Commaunder, of an Armie; or of an Order of Friers, &c.
Les Generaux des Aides. Were at firſt foure Commiſſioners deputed for the leuying of th' Aides throughout all the kingdome; to which end each of them had aſſigned him certaine generall Prouinces, whoſe particular Townes, Dioceſſes, and Diuiſions be rated at ſuch ſummes as he thought they could beare: At length by reaſon of the warres they were made ordinarie Officers; and haue ſince increaſed much in number, and ſomewhat in authoritie; being Aſſiſtants, and next in degree, vnto les Preſidens de la Cour des Aides; whereof they are ſtiled ordinarily, Conſeillers generaux, or Generaux Conſeillers.
Les Generaux des finances. The Treaſurers, or diſpoſers of the publicke treaſure; or as Threſoriers de France.
Les Generaux des Monnoyes. Are Counſellors aſſiſtant vnto the Preſidents of the Court of Moneyes, & th'ordinarie riders of circuit for that Court; In which ſeruice halfe of them (by halfe-yerelie turnes) are ſtill abroad, (licenſing, and ſwearing of Goldſmithes, and giuing them authoritie to fine their Laveures; viſiting, and ſearching the houſes of money-changers; and prouiding, in generall, that th'Orders of that Court be duely obſerued, and the breakers thereof quickly reformed, or informed againſt) whileſt th'other halfe attend, and ſit in, the Court, without any vacation, from before eight vnto ten of the clocke in the forenoone, and from three to ſiue in the afternoone. Theſe are alſo tearmed Conſeillers generaux de la Cour des Monnoyes.
Les Generaux prouinciaux, & ſubſidiaires, des Monnoyes. Whereof there is one belonging to euery one of the ſeuen (inferiour) Parliaments, within the precincts whereof he rides his circuit, with authoritie like vnto the Generaux that be ſent from the Court of Moneyes, vnleſſe they meet; for then he giues them place, and does nothing before he haue acquainted them withall.
Les quatre Generaux. The foure high Treaſurers of France; or may be alſo meant of the Generaux des Aides, who in their firſt inſtitution were but foure.
General: m. ale: f. Generall, vniuerſall; common, or kindlie, vnto all.
Conſeillers generaux de la Cour des Aides; &, de la Cour des Monnoyes; as Les generaux des Aides; & des Monnoyes.
Les Threſoriers generaux. Tearmed otherwiſe, Les Threſoriers de France; whereof there is a number certaine in euerie Generaltie; Looke Threſorier.
La Generale: f. An Admirall gallie, or ſhip.
Generalement. Generally, vniuerſally, all-comprehending, altogether.
Generalité: f. Generalitie, generalneſſe, vniuerſalitie; alſo, a Generaltie; a place of generall receit of the Finances; whereof there be at this day, 21; viz.: Paris, Rouen, Caen, Nantes, Tours, Bourges, Poictiers, Agen, Tholouſe, Montpellier, Aix, Grenoble, Lyon, Dijon, Chaalons, Amiens, Orleans, Lymoges, Soiſſons, and Moulin; each hauing it peculiar limits, and Officers.
Generateur: m. An ingenderer, begetter, father, progenitor; creator.
Generatif: m. iue: f. Generatiue; ingendring; of an ingendering facultie, or breeding power.
Generation: f. A generation, linage, brood, kind; alſo, an ingendring, begetting, breeding.
Generatrice. humeur gen. Which breedeth, or ingendereth.
Generé: m. ée: f. Ingendered, begotten, bred, brought forth; made, created, forged, framed.
Generer. To beget, or ingender, as the male; to breed, or bring forth, as the female; to make, forge, create, frame.
Genereux: m. euſe: f. Generous; noble, genile, worthie, gallant; of a braue humor, of an excellent race, of the right ſtampe, of a good kind; alſo, valiant, couragious, hardie, ſtout.
Plaids genereux. Seſſions; Aſſiſes: ¶ Valenciennois.
Vin genereux. Strong, luſtie, mightie wine.

Gene-

Generosité : f. Generositie; gentilitie, gentrie; generousneſſe, nobleneſſe, great worthineſſe; braverie of diſpoſition, gallantneſſe of humor; courage, valour, ſtoutneſſe.

Geneſie : f. Generation, natiuitie; alſo, a kind of hearb of ſundrie colours.

Geneſt : m. Broome; (eſpecially that kind therof which is called, Baſtard Spaniſh Broome.)

Geneſt d'Afrique. as Geneſt d' Eſpaigne; Spaniſh Broome:

Geneſt d' Eſpaigne. Spaniſh Broome; (ſome alſo tearme Gaude ſo, becauſe they reſemble one another.)

Geneſt eſpineux. Furres, Whinnes, Gorſe, Thorne-broome.

Petit geneſt. Sweet Broome, Heath, or Ling.

Geneſtay : m. A Broome cloſe.

Geneſte : f. Ordinarie Broome, or the Broome whereof Beeſomes are made; alſo, a kind of garden hearbe reſembling Beets.

Geneſteux : m. euſe : f. Full of Broome.

Geneſtier : m. ere : f. Of Broome, belonging to Broome.

Geneſtriere : f. A ground, or countrey full of Broome, or Iuniper.

Genet : m. A kind of bit with a round port; a bit for a Genet; a Genet-bit.

Genethliaque. Birth, natiuitie.

Genethliatique. A Caſter, or Calculator, of Natiuities.

Genette : f. A Genet, or Spaniſh horſe; alſo, a bit for a Genet; alſo, a kind of Weeſell, blacke-ſpotted, and bred in Spaine.

Vne houſſe à la genette. A verie ſhort foot-cloth.

Ordre de la genette. Seeke Ordre.

Chevaucher à la genette. To ride with verie ſhort ſtirrups.

Genevre : m. Iuniper.

Genevrier : m. A ſhrub, or plant of Iuniper.

Genevrier rouge. Cedar Iuniper; the crimzen, or pricklie Cedar.

Gengive : f. as Gencive; A Gunne.

Genial : m. ale : f. Geniall; belonging to lucke, or chance; or to a mans nature, diſpoſition, inclination.

Genie. la g. Ones good, or bad angell; alſo, his nature, inſtinct, inclination, originall diſpoſition.

Geniculiere. The hearbe Salomons ſeale, Scala cœli, White-root, or White-wort.

Genillette. A Henne : ¶Savoyard.

Genin : m. A Wittall.

Geniſſe : f. A beyfer.

Mener la geniſſe au taureau. To play the Baud, ſell a Virginitie, proſtitute a maid.

Genital. Genitall, fit for breed, apt to beget, ſeruing to ingender.

Genitif : m. The Genitiue caſe.

Genitif : m. iue : f. Naturall, ingendering, of an ingendering faculti e.

Genitoires : m. The genitories, or genitalls; the priuie parts, the inſtruments of generation.

Geniture : f. A race, linage, progenie, generation; alſo, a birth; an ingendering, breeding, begetting.

Genne : f. as Gehenne.

Genner. as Gehenner.

Genoillet : m. The hearbe called White-root, or White-wort, Salomons ſeale, and Scala cœli.

Genoilliere : f. as Genoillet.

Genouil : m. A knee; alſo, a certaine peece of crooked wood in the poope of a ſhip.

Rompre l'anguille au genouil. To attempt impoſſibilities; to labour in vaine.

Genouillé : m. ée : f. Knottie; kneed; full of ioynts, as the ſtaulke of ſome hearbes.

Genouillée : f. Kneed graſſe; alſo, as Geniculiere; Some alſo call the hearbe Stitchwort ſo, becauſe it is full of ioynts.

Genouillere : f. Salomons ſeale, Scala cœli, White-root, White-wort.

Genouilleres : f. Pullie-peeces (Armour) for the knees.

Genouillet : m. A little knee; alſo, a knot, or ioynt in the ſtaulke of an hearbe, or of corne; alſo, as Genoillet.

Genre : m. Kind; a kind of.

Gens : m. Men, people, folke; nations, inhabitants of a countrey; alſo, the ordinarie attendants, or followers of a great man.

Gens d' armes. Compleat horſemen, men of Armes; Looke Genſdarmes.

Gens de comptes. The Officers, or Ouerſeers of the Chamber of Accompts.

Gens de corps, ou de corſage. Villeines; or ſuch as hold by a ſeruile tenure.

Gens d' egliſe. The Miniſterie, Clergie, Church-men; Prelates, Prieſts, Friers, &c.

Gens de Iuſtice. Counſellors, Judges, Juſticers, Magiſtrates, Officers of Juſtice.

Gens de main morte. as Gens de poeſte.

Gens de meſtier. Artificers, or handicrafts-men.

Gens d'Ordonnance. Trained horſmen; or, as Genſdarmes des Ordonnances.

Gens perdus. Deſperate people; alſo, ſouldiors expoſed vnto the greateſt hazards; the forlorne hope.

Gens de pied. Footmen; or th'Infanterie of an Armie.

Gens de poeſte, poſte, ou pote. Yeomen, Roturiers, ignoble vaſſalls, or tenants; vnnoble perſons.

Gens de robbe longue. Lawyers; alſo, all others, whoſe ciuile profeſſiõ enioyns them, ordinarily, to weare long gownes.

Les gens du Roy. The Kings Counſell learned.

Gens de ſac & de licol. Raſcalls, rakehells, rogues, vagabonds, loytering ſcoundrells; alſo, begging Friers.

Gens de ſuitte. Villeines; Looke Suitte.

Gens de voirie. Scauingers, Dung-farmers, Gold-finders.

Gens de bien ſont touſiours gracieux : Prov. Good men are euer gracious, affable, courteous.

A gens de bien on ne pert rien : Prov. One ſeldome looſes by dealing with, or dwelling neere, honeſt men.

De gens de bien vient tout bien : Prov. From good men comes all goodneſſe.

Les gens de bien ſont tousjours bien, ont touſjours bien, & ſont tousjours bien : Prov.

Il y a gens & gens : Prov. There are of all ſorts, good and bad; there is much choice of, great difference in, men; one ſhould not expect (that cannot deſerue) as much as another.

Tant de gens tant de guiſes : Prov. As many differrent natures as nations; as many ſeuerall faſhions as folke.

Gens-d'-armes. Looke Gendarme.

Genſeny : m. The little ſweet flower Jaſmine, Gelſomine, or Geſſe.

Gent : f. A nation, people; ſtocke, race, kind, linage, familie, kindred; Looke Gens.

Gent : m. gente : f. Neat, ſpruce, fine, compt, prettie, picked, picked, well arrayed, featly suited, quaintly dressed, handsomely attired; also, gentle, pliant, soft, easie.

Le gent corps. Aunciently signified one of a small stature; and may yet be applied to a prettie dapper man, or (if a woman) to a pretie soule.
Gente: f. as Iante.
Gentement. Neatly, sprucely, finely, comptly, prettily, featly, quaintly, handsomly; also, gently, easily, softly, gingerly.
Gentiane: f. Gentian, Bitterwort, Fellwort, Baldmoine, or Baldmonie.
Gentiane grande. Great Gentian; beares a yellow flower.
Gentiane moindre. Crossewort Gentian; bearing a blew flower.
Gentiane petite. Little Crossewort Gentian; beares a small red flower.
Gentienne. as Gentiane.
Gentifaime: f. A Gentlewoman.
Gentil: m. ile: f. Gentle, tame, tractable, mild; affable, courteous, gracious; kind, louing; pliant, soft, supple, tender; smooth; also, comelie, sightlie; prettie, quaint, neat, fine; well-fashioned, well-behaued; goodlie, faire; gallant, noble; delightsome, pleasant; also, Gentile, Pagan, Heathenish; (When Gallia was conquered by the Francs, or ancient French, the Gaules, who were at that time Christians, teamed the Cõquerors, by reason of their Heathenish Religion, Gentils, or Gentils-hommes.)
Gentil bois. Wild Line, wild Flax.
Bois gentil. Spurge-Flax, German Oliue Spurge, Mezereon, Dwarfe Bay.
Ouvrier gentil à l'hospital: Prov. The fine workeman dies in an Hospitall; (whether his pride, idlenesse, or ill-husbandrie seldome failes to send him;) Looke Ouvrier.
Gentilesse: f. Gentrie, Gentilitie, Nobilitie.
Gentilesses. Prettie conceits, deuises, knacks, feats, trickes.
Gentilhomme: m. A Gentleman; also, a certain hollow engine (set thick on th'outside with pikes, and charged with powder and shot) which discharged, scatters it selfe, to the ruine of those it lights on; Looke Gentil.
Gentilhomme seruant. A waiter, or attendant on the King, at meale-times.
Gentilhomme de ville. A Gentleman of the first head, an vpstart Gentleman.
Viure comme vn Gentilhomme. He sweares after a thousand pound a yeare.
Gentilhommeau: m. A small, or single-soled, Gentleman; a Gentleman of low degree.
Gentiliser. To gentilize it, liue as the Heathen, play the Pagan.
Gentilisme: m. Paganisme, Heathenishnesse.
Gentilité: f. The same.
Gentillastre: m. A meane Gentleman; a new Gentleman, one that is scarce a Gentleman; one that passes, or affects to goe, for a Gentleman, though he be none.
Gentillastreté: f. Poore gentrie, meane gentrie; vsurped, or new gentrie.
Gentillement. Gently, louingly, kindly, graciously; softly, smoothly, tenderly; neatly, quaintly, handsomely; nobly, gallantly.
Gentils. les Gentils. The Gentiles, Pagans, Heathen people.
Gentiment. as Gentement; or as Gentillement.
Gentre. Looke Iantre.

Genuflexion: f. A bowing, or bending, of the knee.
Geoffroy. Geffrey; a proper name.
Geographie: f. The description of the earth; Geographie.
Geographique: com. Geographicall, earth-describing.
Geolage: m. A Goalership; or the being in Goale; also, the fee thats due to a Goaler at th'entrie, and departure of a prisoner.
Geole: f. A Goale, or Prison; also, a cage, or coope for birds; also, the pinne, or circle in the middle of a white, or marke, at shooting.
Geoliage. as Geolage.
Geolier: m. A Goaler; a Keeper.
Geoliere: f. A Goalers wife, a woman Goaler.
Geollage. as Geolage.
Geolle, & Geollier. Looke Geole, & Geolier.
Geomantie: f. Diuination by points, and circles made on the earth: ¶Rab.
Geometrie. Geometrie; the measuring, or proportioning of figures.
Geometrien: m. A Geometrician; a professor of, or Maister in, Geometrie.
Geometrique. Geometricall; of, or belonging to, Geometrie.
Pied Geometrique. The Geometricall foot; is fiuure hand-breadthes, or sixteene fingers-breadthes.
Geraffe. as Giraffe.
Geratien. A kind of blackish stone.
Gerbe de blé. A sheafe of corne.
Faire gerbe de foarre à dieu. To mocke, scorne, abuse, delude, defraud God of his right; or (in matters of Religion, and conscience, where bountie is required) to play the micher; In the Jewes law it was held a great impietie in any man to giue the Leuites chaffe, or straw, in stead of corne; thence came this Prouerbe, wherein many, abusiuely, vse Barbe, in stead of Gerbe.
Gerbé: m. ée: f. Bound vp (as corne) into sheaues; also, ranged, ranked, or placed in order one vpon another.
Gerbée: f. A shocke, halfe-thraue, or heape of sheaues; also, a bundle of straw.
Gerber des javelles. To bind corne of swath into sheaues; to sheafe vp corne.
Gerber des tonneaux. To raunge, or set wine vessels one vpon another.
Gerbier: m. A stacke, or halfe-thraue, of corne; also, a great Garner to keepe salt in.
Gerbiere: f. A reeke, or stacke, of corne.
Gercé: m. ée: f. Chapped, riuen, cleft, chawned, with cold.
Gercer. To cleeue, riue, cut in many places, and by small clefts; to chinke, chap, chawne (as the North wind does) the face, hands, &c.
Gerceure. as Iarsure; or Gersure.
Gere: f. The Hebrew halfepennie, somewhat more then our pennie, 40 of them going to the ounce.
Geré: m. ée: f. Done, wrought, executed, managed, handled; also, carried, brought, or borne.
Gerer. To doe, make, worke, exercise, execute, manage, handle; also, to carrie, or beare.
Gerfault: m. A Gerfaulcon; the greatest of Hawks; called also, Faulcon gerfaut.
Germain. (A proper name for a man) German.
Germain: m. ine: f. Germaine; come of the same stock, bred of the same kind; neere of kinne, of all-one race.
Germaine. The name of an Apple, that yeeldes verie cleere, and pleasant cyder.

Ger-

Germandrée : f. Germaunder, Engliſh treacle (an herbe.)
Germandrée aquatique, ou d'eau. Water Germander, Scordion, Garlicke Germander.
Germandrée baſtarde. Baſtard, or wild Germander.
Germe des arbres, herbes, &c : m. A yong ſhute, ſprout, bud, ſpring, or twig of trees, &c.
Germe des auix, oignons, &c. The middle ſtaulkes which are betweene the blades, and roots of Garlicke, Onions, &c.
Germe d' vn oeuf. The ſperme of an egge ; the little ſtring which is on either ſide of the yolke of a raw, or a reare, egge.
Faulx germe. A Moonecalfe; a hard ſwelling, or ſhapeleſſe peece of fleſh in the wombe, which makes women beleeue they are withchild when they are not.
Germe. A faſhion of open boat, or barke without hatches, vſed in the Leuant Seas for the tranſportation of marchandiſe, and paſſengers.
Germé : m. ée : f. Budded, burgeonned, ſprouted, ſprung out, put forth.
Germement : m. A ſprouting, budding, burgeoning, putting forth, ſhuting out, of trees, &c.
Germer. To ſprout, bud, burgeon, ſpring, put forth, ſhute out, yong ſprigs, buds, tenderells, &c.
Germeux : m. euſe : f. Sprouting, budding, burgeonning ; alſo, full of yong ſprigs, or buds ; alſo, full of ſeed.
Germination : f. A ſprouting, &c ; as Germinement.
Geron. Looke Giron.
Gerre : f. The ſmall, or white Cackerell fiſh ; or as Picarel.
Gerſe : f. A woodlouſe ; or Ladicow.
Gerſé : m. ée : f. Looke Gercé.
Gerſure : f. A cleft, riſt, chinke, chap, chawne ; alſo, the neb of a pinne.
Geſante. vne geſ. A woman that lieth in.
Geſier. as Ieſier. The guiſerne of a bird.
Geſine : f. A lying in child-bed ; a lying in.
Bras à la poictrine, jambe en geſine : Prov. Keepe a ſore arme to thy boſome, a ſore leg in thy bed.
Geſir. To lie ; to lie downe, along, or long by it ; to lie in child-bed, or in the ſtraw, as a woman ; alſo, to conſiſt, or reſt in ; alſo, to remaine, or abide.
Geſir aupres. To lie neere vnto, to bound, abutt, or border vpon.
Nous ſçavons ou giſt le lievre. Seeke Lievre.
Ma vie euſt ieu en cela. My life had lien therein, or depended thereon.
Tant gratte la cheure que mal giſt : Prov. One often ſpeeds the worſe for being too curious, or deſirous of ſpeeding well ; Looke Cheure.
Tout ce que giſt en peril n'eſt pas perdu : Prov. All is not loſt that is in danger.
Geſne. as Gehenne; Racking, torture.
Geſſe : f. A common ſinke, or ſewer ; a gutter for the voiding of ordure : ¶Bretton.
Geſſes. A kind of peaſe ; as Geiſſes.
Geſtation : f. A bearing, or carrying.
Geſte : m. Geſture, faſhion, behauiour, carriage, demeanor ; alſo, a making of ſignes, or countenances ; a motion, or ſtirring of any part of the bodie.
Geſtion : f. An action ; or, an acting, doing, exploiting.
Geſver. as Gueſver.
Get : m. A caſting, or throwing out ; alſo, a ſet of counters ; alſo (the blacke hard earth, or minerall, called) Jet.

Getiſſe. terre getiſſe. Such as is threwne out of a houſe, &c.
Gets. Looke Gects.
Gettéen : m. enne : f. Of Jet ; blacke as Jet.
Getter. as Ieter ; To caſt, &c.
Gettonner. To bud, ſprout, or ſhute out.
Gettons : m. Counters.
Gettons des arbres. Buds ; Looke Iectons.
Geve : f. A cage, coope, or open basket, to keepe chickens, &c, in.
Geural : m. A Certificate, Paſſeport, or Safeconduct for a traueller.
Geure. as Giure.
Ghirlande. A garland.
Giaret : m. A ſmall bright-coloured ſea-fiſh, not much vnlike to, but that it is ſomewhat leſſe (and yet bigger ſcaled) then, the Cackarell : ¶Marſeillois.
Gibbar. A kind of ſlender, and long-noſed Whale, that hath a bulch backe, and a pipe on his forhead, out of which he ſpouts water with great violence.
Gibbaſſe : f. A pouch, or budget ; alſo, a great bunch, or hulch-like ſwelling.
Gibbe : f. A bunch, or ſwelling ; a hulch ; any thing that ſtands poking out.
Gibbecier : m. A pouch-maker.
Gibbeciere : f. A pouch, bag, poake, budget.
Gibbet : m. A gibbet, gallow-tree, paire of gallowes ; (In France all Gentlemen that haue Haute Iuſtice, haue alſo (or may haue) gibbets (for th'executing of malefactors) within their territories, though (ordinarily) with ſome difference in making, or faſhion, according to their difference in eſtate, or dignitie ; for the gibbet of the (ſimple) high Iuſticier hath but two pillers ; the Lord Chattelaines, three ; the Barons, foure ; the Earls, ſix ; and the Dukes, eight ; And yet theſe differences are more preciſe then generall ; for all cuſtomes agree not in them.)
Que gibbet veut dire cecy ? What a miſchiefe meane you by this ?
Il eſt plus malheureux que le bois dont on fait le gibbet. He is a moſt vnfortunate man.
Au gibbet le repentir vient trop tard : Prov. Too late he repents that repents at the gallowes.
Les beaux hommes au gibbet : Pro. Faire men come often to foule ends ; the properer the men the worſe their lucke.
Gibbeux : m. euſe : f. Hulch, bunched, much ſwelling, imboſſed.
Gibbeyer. as Gibboyer.
Gibbier : m. Game (of any kind that's hunted, or hawked at ; but moſt properly, the later) fowle ; whence ;
Gaule de gibbier. A hawking powle.
Cecy n'eſt pas de voſtre gibbier. This is not your trade, not your profeſſion ; this is no ſubiect for you to ſpeake, no courſe for you to deale, in ; you are here out of your proper element.
Chacun à ſon gibbier. Euerie one to that bee is fit for, to that he hath skill in.
Eſtre en beau gibbier. To be faire and fat ; to like exceeding well.
Gibboſité : f. The being bulch-backt ; ſwelling, bunchineſſe.
Gibboyer. To hawke ; hunt ; fowle, or ſhoot at fowle.
Gibboyeur : m. A Fowler, or Gunner ; one that ordinarily ſhoots at fowle.
Gibet. as Gibbet.
Gibets. Little packets of grapes wrapt vp in fig leaues, whereby they are preſerued freſh two yeres together.

Gibier. Looke Gi
Giblet : m. A gi
Gibolée : f. A ſi
Giboulée. as Gi
Gierogliphique ing to, Gierogli
Giez. as Gects ;
Gifflard : m. arc puft vp, in the fi
Giffle : f. A chee either ſide of th beld.
Gigandal : m. like.
Gigantal. The ſa
Gigantin : m. dinarie ſtature,
Gigantomachi the gods.
Gigot (de mout the whole bone lyne from whic
Gigoteau : m. Gaigner les gi ſhew his heeles,
Gigotte. chauſſ
Gile. as Gille.
Gille. faire gille And hence will be packing, be g
Gilles. (A proper Mal de S. Gi Pomme de S. G Vis S. Gilles. vnder the ſteps. Faire Gilles.
Gimbelet : m.
Gimbreter. To leacher it.
Gimbreteux : uious.
Gimpier : m.
Gindre. See Gei
Gingembre : Gingembre Gingembre Dittander ; ſom nie Pepper.
Gingembré : with Ginger.
Gingioule : f. ble good taſt, h it hath beene
Gingioulier : the Gingioule
Ginglyme : m. bone within a
Ginguets : m. in the yeare and moiſt, the Ginguette : f. bout Tours.
Gippon : m. A ter threwne v Cottonner l laſt the bellie, finely.
Gips : m. Mor

Gibier. Looke Gibbier.
Giblet : m. A gimlet, or piercer.
Gibolée : f. A swift, great, and sudden showre of raine.
Giboulée. as Gibolée.
Giérogliphique : com. Giérogliphicall ; of, or belonging to, Giérogliphickes.
Giez. as Gects ; A hawkes gests.
Gifflard : m. arde : f. Chuffie, full-cheekt ; swollen, or puft vp, in the face, and throat.
Giffle : f. A cheeke, or chap ; or (most properly) the bag on either side of the chap, wherein meat is hidden, or beld.
Gigandal : m. ale : f. Huge, monstrous big, Giant-like.
Gigantal. The same.
Gigantin : m. ine : f. Huge, big-bodied, of an extraordinarie stature, Giant-like.
Gigantomachie : f. The warres of the Giants against the gods.
Gigot (de mouton.) A leg (of mutton) cut large with the whole bone at it, and so roasted ; some also, call so a lyne from which the chine is taken.
Gigoteau : m. A knuckle ; or, the bonie end of the leg.
Gaigner les gigoteaux. To betake him to his legs, to shew his heeles, to runne away.
Gigotte. chausses à la gigotte. Looke Chausses.
Gile. as Gille.
Gille. faire gille. To flie, giue the slip ; runne away ; And hence will some in choller say ; Avant gille ; Out, be packing, be gone.
Gilles. (A proper name) Giles.
Mal de S. Gilles. A kind of Canker, or Fistula.
Pomme de S. Gilles. A certaine greene sweet apple.
Vis S. Gilles. A fashion of winding staires, vaulted vnder the steps.
Faire Gilles. as Faire gille.
Gimbelet : m. A gimlet, or piercer.
Gimbreter. To play the wanton, to doe lasciuiously, to leacher it.
Gimbreteux : m. euse : f. Leacherous, wanton, lasciuious.
Gimpier : m. A maker of Crepines for hoods.
Gindre. See Geindre.
Gingembre : m. Ginger.
Gingembre blanc. White Ginger.
Gingembre de iardin. The hearbe Dittanie, or Dittander ; some also call so, the plant that bears Guinnie Pepper.
Gingembré : m. ée : f. Begingered ; seasoned, or strewed with Ginger.
Gingioule : f. A longish, and yellow fruit of a reasonable good tast, but inferiour to the Loteberrie, for which it hath beene mistaken by some Authors.
Gingioulier : m. The narrow-leaued tree that beares the Gingioule.
Ginglyme : m. A mutuall receiuing, or lodging of one bone within another.
Ginguets : m. Sower wines ; a tearme first giuen them in the yeare 1555, which being extraordinarily cold, and moist, the grapes could not possibly ripen.
Ginguette : f. Small, poore, or sower wine ; called so about Tours.
Gippon : m. A (short) Cassocke ; also, a rag, clowt, or tatter throwne vp and downe.
Cottonner le moule du gippon. To eat much ; to balast the bellie, stuffe the guts ; to feed soundly, or excessiuely.
Gips : m. Morter, Plaister, Parget.

Giraffe : f. A certaine spotted, and long-necked beast, (gotten (as tis thought) by a Cammell on a female Panther) whose fore-legs are much longer then her binder ; both which shee moues, as shee goes (in their seuerall turnes) together.
Girandin : m. A certaine Snyte-like bird, that vses to wind, or wheele about, in rising.
Giralole : f. A Giralole ; or precious stone, of the kind of Opalls, that yeelds an eye-like luster, which way soeuer you turne it, vnlesse it be towards the Sunne ; for then it casts forth beames like the Sunne.
Giraudette : f. The name of an Apple.
Girbe : f. The Cawle, or Kell, wherein the bowels be wrapped.
Giré : m. ée : f. Veered, or turned with the wind ; twirled, whirled, or twyned about.
Girelle : f. A little sharpe-nosed rocke-fish in the Italian seas, that bites fishers, and swimmers, like a flea.
Girer. To veere, or turne with the wind, to twerle, whirle, or wheele about.
Girets : m. Armour for the thighes of horses.
Giroflade. as Girofleé : ¶ Langued.
Giroflade de mer. A certaine Gillouer-like excrescence growing on rockes.
Girofle. cloux de girofle. Cloues.
Giroflé : m. ée : f. Set, stucke, sweetened, or seasoned with Cloues.
Girofleat. Made of Cloues, or of Gilloflowers.
Girofléé : f. A Gilloflower ; and, most properly, the Cloue Gilloflower.
Girofléé jaulne. The Winter, or wall Gilloflower.
Girofléé de Inde. A kind of Tansie that beares a flower like a Gilloflower ; or, as Oeillet d'Inde ; the French Marigold, African Gilloflower, or Gingioline flower.
Girole : f. The Skirwort, or Skirret-root.
Giromantie : m. Diuination by circles : ¶ Rab.
Giron : m. The lap, or bosome.
Tender le giron en la iustice. A defendant to appeare, and confesse the Action.
Il ne se faut fier ni à femme, ny au giron : Prov. (For neither of them keepes verie surely the things entrusted vnto them.)
Gironnée : f. A lapfull, or bosome full of.
Gironomique : com. Circular : ¶ Rab.
Girouet : m. as Girouëtte.
Girouëtte : f. A fane, or weather-flag ; also, (but nothing so properly) a weather cocke.
Girouëtté : m. ée : f. Furnished with a fane, or weathercocke ; also, inconstant, variable, turned by euerie wind, as a fane.
Girousle. as Girofle.
Giroule. as Girole ; A Skerret root.
Gisant : m. The lowest of the three railes of a Cart, &c.
Le gisant d' vn moulin. The Bed, Bedder, or vndermill-stone.
Gisant : m. ante : f. Lying, layed along.
Gisante : f. A woman that lies in.
Gisié : m. The eyserne of birds.
Giste : m. A bed, couch, lodging, place to lie on, or to rest in.
Giste d' vn lievre. The sirme of a hare.
Droict de giste. Looke vnder Droict.
Tost attrapée est la souris qui n'a pour giste qu' vn pertuis : Prov. Looke Souris.
Giste de boeuf : f. A rand of beefe ; a long, and fleshie peece, cut out from betweene the flanke, and butrocke.
Gith. Hearbe gitben, Bishops wort, Saint Katherines flower, Nigella Romana.

Gith

Gith ſauvage. Wild Gitben, wild Nigella.
Gitte : f. A ſprig ; or putting out, in a branch.
Giver. as Girer.
Givereau : m. A pide, or black and white water-fowle, ſomewhat leſſe then a ducke.
Giure : m. A white, or boare froſt vpon trees after great, and long freezing.
Glace : f. Ice ; alſo, the glaſſe of a looking-glaſſe.
Alun de glace. Roche Allum ; ſo tearmed becauſe at firſt it is melted, and made into great flakes, like yce.
Eſtaim de glace. Looke Eſtaim.
Ferré à glace. Shod with froſt-nayles (whence) alſo, ſteadie-footed, ſure of foot, ſeldome ſlipping, failing, or falling.
Goſier ferré à glace. An hardened or ſenceleſſe palate, a paued mouth.
Glacé : m. ée : f. Frozen, congealed, hardened, turned into, couered ouer with, yce ; alſo, benummed, or grown fenceleſſe by extremitie of cold ; alſo, fleſh-baſted, as the lining of a cloke, &c ; alſo, inſerted, or foiſted, as a word, line, chapter, &c, into a booke.
Glacer. To freeze ; harden, congeale, turne into yce ; to couer, or ouercaſt with yce ; alſo, to benumme, beclumpſe, make ſenceleſſe, by extreame cold ; alſo, to fleſh-baſt ; or ſtitch downe the lyning of a garment thereby to keepe it from ſagging.
Glacer vn mot. To inſert, put ; thruſt, or foiſt, a word into a writing.
Glacial : m. ale : f. Ycie, ouergrowne with yce, euer frozen, or congealed by extreame cold ; alſo, extreamely cold.
Glacis : m. A place made ſlipperie by wet lately fallen, and frozen on ; alſo, a ſloaping banke or cauſey ; alſo, a ſloaping, ſloapeneſſe, gentle bending downewards ; and hence ;
En glacis. Sloaping, aſloape, gently inclining, declining by little and little.
Glaçoir : m. A lakes, or Priuie.
Glaçons : m. Iſicles, or flakes of yce ; alſo, flawes in ſtones reſembling flakes of yce.
Gladiateur : m. A Fencer, or Maiſter of Fence.
Gladiation : f. Fencing.
Glagou : as Glayeul ; or, Sedge ; alſo, a dot, or collop of fleygme ſpet out.
Glaieul. as Glayeul.
Glainage : m. A gleaning.
Glainé : m. ée : f. Gleaned.
Glainer. as Glaner ; To gleane.
Glaineur : m. A Gleaner.
Glaire : f. Grauell ; ſand, and ſmall pible ſtones ; or, ſand mingled with ſtones ; alſo, a whitiſh, and ſlimie ſoyle.
La glaire d' vn oeuf. The white of an egge.
Glaireux : m. euſe : f. Slimie ; alſo, grauellie, full of grauell.
Terre glaireuſe (in Maiſon Ruſtique.) as Terre glaize.
Glais. as Glayeul ; Corne-flag, Corne-ſedge, Corne-gladen.
Glaitel. as Glais.
Glaive : m. A Gleaue, or Sword ; alſo, a Launce, or horſemans ſtaffe.
Glaize. terre glaize. A moiſt, and ſlimie white ſoyle.
Glammet : m. A Mew, or Sea-mew.
Gland : m. An Acorne ; Maſt of Oakes, or other trees.
Gland de Iupiter. A Cheſtnut.
Gland de mer. A kind of Muſcle, or ſhell-fiſh, that ſomewhat reſembles an Acorne.
Gland onguentaire. The Aromaticall nut, or fruit, whereof the Perfumers oyle of Benne is made.
Attendre le gland qui tombe. To liue in expectation of profit, or preferment (at Court, &c.)
Glandage : m. Maſt ; alſo, Maſtage ; the ſeaſon of turning hogs into the woods ; the feeding of hogs, by Maſt in woods ; th' Agiſtment, or laying of ſwine into maſtie woods.
Glandagé : m. ée : f. Fed, or nouriſhed (as hogs) with maſt.
Glandager les porceaux. To feed, or nouriſh hogs with Maſt ; to agiſt, or lay, ſwine in maſtie woods.
Glandaux. The name of a kind of Oliues.
Glande : f. A kernell ; a fleſhie ſubſtance filled with pores, and growing betweene the fleſh and skin.
Glande pituitaire. A certaine kernell in the head, which receiues the excrements contained in the Tunnell thereof.
Glandée. bonne glandée. Good ſtore of Maſt, a good yeare for Acornes.
Glandéer. To get, or gather Maſt.
Glandeux : m. euſe : f. Maſtie, full of Maſt, well ſtored with Acornes.
Glandier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to Maſt ; alſo, as Glandeux.
Glands : m. Pellets, Bullets.
Glandulaire : com. Kernellie ; of a kernell, like a kernell, in kernells.
Glandule : f. A little kernell.
Glandule carniforme. A great, fleſhie, and ſoft kernell, conſiſting of many ſmall ones, & placed vnder the ventricle, to keepe it from touching the back, which otherwiſe would hurt it ; we call it (eſpecially in edible beaſts) the Sweet-bread.
Glanduleux : m. euſe : f. Kernellie, full of fleſhie kernells.
Glane : f. A gleaning ; alſo, the corne thats gleaned, or left for the gleaner.
Il y a aſſez de champ pour faire glane. There is ſtuffe ynough to worke on, meanes enow to profit by.
Glané : m. ée : f. Gleaned.
Glanement. A gleaning ; as Glaneure.
Glaner. To gleane ; to picke vp eares of corne after reapers.
Qui glane il ne fait pas ce qu' il veut : Prov. Somewhat like our, Beggers muſt be no chuſers.
Glaneur : m. A gleaner.
Glaneure : f. A gleaning, or gathering vp of looſſe eares of corne, left by reapers ; a leaſing of corne.
Glangion : m. A little Sea-cui, or Cuttle-fiſh.
Glap : m. The barking of a dog.
Glappier. as Clapier.
Glappir. To barke like a dog, to yealpe ; yawle, bawle.
Glappiſſement. A barking, or yealping ; a bawling, or yawling.
Glappiſſeur : m. A barker, yealper ; bawler, yawler.
Glas : m. Noiſe, crying, bawling ; alſo, yce ; alſo, a knell for the dead.
Glas. Bled glas. Bought Wheat.
Terre glaſe. Fat earth.
Glaſon. as Glazon ; A clod, ſod, or turfe of earth.
Glaſonneux : m. euſe : f. Cloddie, ſoddie, turfie ; full of clods, of ſods, of turues.
Glaſſé : m. ée : f. Seeke Glacé.
Glaſſer. as Glacer.
Glaſſis : m. A ſtrong penthouſe vpon the walls, or the rampire, of a fortreſſe ; alſo, a ſloaping cauſey, damme, or banke, neere the water ; See Glacis.

Glaſ-

Glaſſon. as Glaçon.
Glaſſouër: m. A Jakes, or Priuie.
Glaſtre: m. Ouſe, or mud of the ſea.
Glatir. To barke; yawle, bawle.
Glatiſſant. Barking; yawling, bawling.
Glatiſſement: m. A barking, or bawling.
Glatiſſeur: m. A barker; bawler, yawler.
Glatteron: m. The Burre Docke, Clote Burre, great Burre.
Glattir, Glattiſſement, Glattiſeur. as Glatir, &c.
Glaumet: m. A Sea-cob, or Sea-gull.
Glavoir: m. A braying, yelling, skreaking, bawling, outcrying: (¶Bleſien.)
Glay. as Glas; A noiſe: ¶Pic. alſo, as Glaye.
Glaye: f. The blew Lillie, or Flowerdeluce.
Glayeul: m. Corne-flag, Corne-ſedge, Corne-gladen, right Gladen, Glader, Sword-graſſe.
Glayeul baſtard. Sedge, wild flags, water flags, yellow wild Ireos, baſtard Flowerdeluce, water Flowerdeluce, Lauers, or Leuers.
Glayeul jaulne. The ſame.
Glayeul de maraiz. as Glayeul baſtard.
Glayeul puant. Stinking Gladen, Spurge-wort, wild Ireos.
Glayeul de riviere. Sedge, Water-flags, Sword-graſſe, Gladen, Glader, wild Flags; yellow, baſtard, or water, Flowerdeluce, Lauers, and Leuers.
Glayeul ſauvage. as Glayeul puant.
Glaz. as Glace: ¶Rab.
Glazeux: m. euſe: f. Cloddie, turfie; clammie, fat, clayiſh.
Glebe. Glebe; land belonging to a Parſonage: ¶Norm.
Glene. A ſmall hollowneſſe in a bone; and (moſt properly) the outward concauitie of the ſhoulder-blades.
Gleneur: m. eure: f. Gleaning, or gathering after.
Glenoïde. as Glene.
Gleteron. as Glatteron; The Clote Burre.
Glette: f. The froth of an egge; alſo, the gellie of any thing that congealeth; alſo, the flegme, or filth, which a hawke throwes out at her beake, after her caſting.
Gletteux: m. euſe: f. Slimie, frothie, flegmie, filthie.
Glic. jouer au glic. To leacher; to play at faſt and looſe.
Gliceau. A bottome of thread. (v.m.)
Glimpe. A light made of the ſtaulke, or ſtemme of an hearbe dried, and afterward greaſed ouer.
Glincer. as Gliſſer; To glide, or ſlide. (v.m.)
Glire. read Dire, or, luy dire: ¶Rab.
Gliron: m. A Dormouſe.
Gras comme glirons. We ſay, fat as pigs, or hogs, &c.
Gliſcher. as Gliſſer: ¶Pic.
Gliſſade: f. A ſlip, or ſlipping; a gliding, ſliding; ſtealing or creeping along; alſo, glibneſſe.
Gliſsant. Slipping; gliding, ſliding; ſtealing, wrigling, or creeping along; alſo, ſlipperie; or, whereof no certaine hold can be taken.
Gliſsé: m. ée: f. Slipped; ſlid; crept, or ſtollen along.
Gliſseau: m. A bottome of thread.
Gliſsement: m. A ſlipping, &c; as Gliſſade.
Gliſser. To ſlip; to ſlide, or glide; creepe, wriggle, or ſteale along; to be ſlipperie; to runne glib; to trickle downe by little and little.
Il n'y a cheval ſi bien ferré qui ne gliſse: Prov. The beſt ſhod horſe doth ſlip ſometimes.
Mieux vault gliſser du pied que de la langue: Pro. Better the foot ſlip then the tongue trip.
Gliſse-tousjours. Euer gliding, ſtill wrigling, alwayes mouing.
Gliſsoire: f. A ſlipperie place.

Glix: m. A Dormouſe: ¶Rab.
Globe: m. A Globe; a round bowle, or ball.
Globeux: m. euſe: f. Globie; round like a globe, of, or belonging to, a globe; full of globes.
Globuleux. as Globeux.
Gloc. The clocking of a henne: ¶Langued.
Glöe. A clouen peece of wood: ¶Norm.
Gloire: f. Glorie, fame, reputation, renowme, a great name, or generall commendation; the conſent of good men in the praiſe of.
Faire gloire. To take a pride.
Gloire vaine aſſez fleurit, porte fueille, & point de fruit: Prov. Vaineglorie brings forth nought but flowers, and leaues; or, vainegloríe hauing bloſſomd, periſheth.
Gloriation. A glorying, boaſting, vaunting, bragging, cracking.
Glorieſte: f. Small glorie, little praiſe, not much commendation; alſo, a little roome in the top of a tower; alſo, a little banquetting houſe in a garden.
Glorieuſe: f. A kind of Scate-fiſh that hath a head like a Toad, and a venimous pricke in her taile; called ſo, becauſe of her ſlow, and (ſeeming) ſtatelie, manner of ſwimming.
Glorieuſement. Glorioufly, renowmedly; with great reputation; alſo, proudly, vainely, boaſtingly, vainegloriouſly.
Glorieuſeté: f. Pride, boaſting, vaineglorie, cracking, vaunting, ſelfe-loue, ſelfe-liking.
Glorieux: m. euſe: f. Glorious, famous, renowmed, notable, excellent, exceedingly eſteemed, much praiſed, much praiſe-worthie, highly commended, of great reputation; alſo, proud, vaunting, boaſting, vaineglorious, cracking, bragging; ſelfe-conceited, ſelfe-louing.
Glorifié: m. ée: f. Glorified; magnified, renowmed.
Glorifier. To glorifie; to bring vnto glorie; to renowme.
se Glorifier. To vaunt, cracke, brag, boaſt of his owne acts; to commend, or magnifie, himſelfe.
Glorin. A kind of Scate, called, the Forke-fiſh.
Gloſe: f. A gloſſe; comment, or expoſition.
Gloſé: m. ée: f. Gloſſed; expounded, commented on.
Gloſier. A kind of white Vine, verie fruitfull.
Gloſſateur: m. A Gloſſer, an Interpreter; one that writes a Gloſſe, or Comment vpon a text.
Gloſſement: m. The clucking, or clocking of a brood Henne.
Gloſſer. To clucke, or clocke, as a Henne.
Glouglouter. To guggle; to ſound like a narrow-mouthed pot, or ſtrait-neckt bottle, when it is emptied.
Glouſſant. poule glouſſante. A clocking Henne.
Glout: m. gloute: f. Gluttonous, greedie, deuouring, rauenous.
Glouteinent. Gluttonouſly, rauenouſly, greedily.
Glouteron: m. The Clote, Burre Docke, or great Burre.
Petit glouteron. The Louſe Burre, Ditch Burre, leſſe Burre Docke.
Glouton: m. A glutton, deuourer, cormorant, rauiner; greedie-gut, bellie-god, great eater; alſo, a knaue, raſcall, filthie fellow.
Chair de mouton manger de glouton: Prov. See Mouton.
Glouton: m. onne: f. Gluttonous, greedie, rauinous.
Gloutonnaire: com. Gluttonous, greedie, deuouring, gormandizing.
Gloutonnie. Gluttonie, a rauining, deuouring, or great eating, a gormandizing, or greedie feeding.
Gloux. Gluttonous, greedie, deuouring: ¶Rab.
Glu de foarre: m. A bundle of ſtraw.

Glu: f. Glew; or(more properly)birdlime.
Glu de Damas. Birdlime of Damascus; is made of the Sebesten,or Assyrian Plumme.
Gluant: m.te: f. Glewish, glewie, clammie; glewing, cleauing, sticking to, like birdlime, whatsoeuer it toucheth.
Gluaux: m. Lime-twigs.
Gluber. To flay,or pill.
Gluc. ergo gluc. (A word vsed by the Schollers of Paris,in derision of an absurd conclusion;) Well concluded Roger; wisely brother James.
Glué: m. ée: f. Limed; caught with, or intangled by, birdlime; also,glewed.
Gluement: m. A glewing; a fast-ioyning, sure-closing; a liming, a catching with, or intangling in, birdlime.
Gluer. To lime; to glew; to ioyne,or close verie fast, as with birdlime,or glew; to catch with, or intangle in, birdlime.
Glueur: m. A glewer.
Glueur: f. Glewinesse, clamminesse.
Glueux: m. Glewie, full of glew; also, as Gluant.
Gluits: m. Long,and whole straw.
Gluon: m. A lime-twig.
Glutinosité: f. Glutinositie, glewinesse, clamminesse.
Gluy. as Gluits; Straw.
Glyphonoire: m. as Clifoire; A Plaisterers bosse: ¶Rab.
Goache. perdrix g. The gray Partridge.
Goalon. A slouen; one that weares his clothes vnhandsomely, or puts them on carelesly; so tearmed about Blois.
Gob. l'avalla tout de gob. At one gulpe,or,as one gobbet,he swallowed it.
Gobeau: m. A bit,gobbet, or morsell; also, a violl, or strait-mouthed vessell(of glasse;)also,a Maser,or great Goblet.
Gobelet: m. A Goblet, Bole, or wide-mouthed cup to drinke in; also, the flower Crowfoot, Gold-knap, Yellow Craw.
Le gobelet du gland. The head, shell, or cup of an Acorne.
Le gobelet d'vne Rose. The bud of a Rose when it is almost full-blowne; or(more properly)the fiue-leaued Cup,or huske thereof; called, by some,the fiue brothers of the Rose.
Le retraict du Gobelet. The Butterie, or Winesellar.
Gobelets. des gobelets. Crowfoot,Gold-knap,yellow Craw, Butter-flowers.
Gobelin: m. A Goblin,Hob-goblin,Robin-good-fellow, Bug.
Gobelin. face gobeline. A crimzon face; the visage of a plie-pot.
Gobeliner. To play the Goblin; to rumble, or make a horrible noise,like a Goblin.
Gobe-mouche. as Moineau de haye.
Gobequinaut: m. A greedie feeder,a rauenous, and ouglie deuourer; one that makes bricke-walls of his chaps,or hastily swallowes whole,and vnchawed gobbets.
Gober. To rauine, deuoure; feed greedily, swallow great morsells,let downe whole gobbets.
Gobe quinault. Supper vp tis cold ynough, downe with it whoresonne.
Goberge: f. A kind of Haddocke,or Cod-fish.
Goberger. To cast,vomit, spue.

Gobier.chant gobier. Plaine,homelie,ordinarie,without Art.
Gobisson: m. A fashion of long,and quilted horsemans cassocke,or coat,vsed in old time.
Gocourt. as Court; Short: ¶Rab. (v.m.)
Godal: m. A tit, a iade: ¶Norm.
Godde. vne laſche godde. A sloathfull hylding.
Goddon: m. A filthie glutton; or swiller; one that hath a vile wide swallow.
Gode. as Godde.
Godeau: m. A Gardeners setting yron.
En godeau. Right downward;(a Gardeners tearme.)
Godeluré: m.ée: f. Fumbled,crumpled,ruffled.
Godelureau: m. A gull, fop, asse, coxcombe; a proud woodcocke.
Godemare. The disease called, the Night-mare; also,a sound made,or word cast out, at a feast, whereby the guests are warned to forbeare eating for a certain time; (This Godemare was a King of Bourgongne, so redoubted by the French, that th'onely sound of his name astonied them, & made them desist from that they were in hand with: yet was he at length surprised by Clotaire in Autun, and the terrour of his name turned into a ieast.)
Godemiche: f. A Dildoe.
Goderon: m. The set of a (single)ruffe,after the Spanish(or plaine)fashion; also, the setting thereof; also,a ruffe so set; also, as Godran; also, a fashion of imbossement vsed by Goldsmithes,&c,and tearmed knurling.
Goderon de beau langage. affectation in speech,the trimming of the tongue, with quaint phrases, choice tearmes,&c.
A goderons. Wrought with knurles.
Goderonné: m.ée: f. Set, as a ruffe; pitched,or tighted, as a ship; also, knurled, wrought or set with knurles.
Oeufs goderonnez. Whose white,and yolke are beaten together with a little verjuice.
Goderonner. To set,a ruffe; to pitch or tight a ship; to worke, or set with knurles.
Godet: m. An earthen Bole; a stone Cup, or Jug.
Godichon. mon godichon. My pillocke.
Godillon: m. A girdle: ¶Poictevin.
Godin: m.ine: f. Neat, fine, trimme, spruce, comelie, proper, handsome.
Godinet: m.ette: f. Prettie,dapper, feat, peart,indifferently handsome.
Godinette: f. A prettie peart lasse; alouing, or louelie girle.
Godiveaux. See Goudiveaux.
Godran: m. Ship-pitch;or,the Pitch(and Tarre)wherwith ships are tighted,or trimmed.
Godron. See Goderon.
Godronné: m. ée: f. as Goderonné.
Godronner vne fraise. To set a ruffe.
Goerin. as Gorret.
Goés. The name of a kind of Grapes.
Goëtie: f. The Blacke Art, diuellish Magicke, or witchcraft.
Goffe: com. Dull, sottish, doltish, lumpish, blockish, heauie headed,gresse-witted, sadden-brained.
Goffre: f. A wafer; also a bonnie combe; also a kinde of scurfe, like to the ordinarie one, but that the humor it yeelds is more like, in colour, to bonie.
Gogaille. (A cheerefull, or cheering word, much like our) frolick.
Gogayer. as Goguer.

Gogo. à gogo. With full contentment, or his bellie full,

Gogue: f. A ſhecpes paunch; and thence, a haggas made of good hearbs, chopt lard, ſpices, egges, and cheeſe; the which incorporated, and moiſtened with the warme bloud of the (new-killed) beaſt, are put into her paunch, and ſodden with other meat.

Gogues. Follitie, glee, ioyfulneſſe, lightheartedneſſe; and hence;

Eſtre en ſes gogues. To be frolick, luſtie, liuelie, wanton, gameſome; all-a-boight, in a pleaſant humor, in a veine of mirth, or in a merrie mood.

Goguelu: m. uë: f. Proud, cocket, ſcornefull, braggard, vainglorious; that takes more ſtate vpon him then becomes him.

Goguelureau. A proud coxcombe; one thats of no worth at all, how well ſoeuer he thinke of himſelfe.

Goguenarder. To buffoonize it; breake ieaſts, tell merrie tales.

Goguenelle: f. A fained title, or tearme, for a wench; like our Gixie, Callet, Minx, &c.

se Goguer. To be moſt frolicke, liuelie, blithe, cranke, merrie; to take his pleaſure, ſport at eaſe, make good cheere, ſet cocke-a-hoope, throw the houſe out at windowes; enioy all wiſhed delights, or affected contentments.

Goguette. A ſmall ſheepes haggas; (made, as before, in Gogue;) alſo, a kind of blackiſh, and ſhort-tailed Cherrie.

Avoir vne femme en ſes goguettes. To haue his full pleaſure of a woman.

Eſtre en ſes goguettes. as Eſtre en ſes gogues; or to be ſet vpon the merrie pinne.

Gohée: f. A welcome, ioyfull ſalutation, or heartie intertainment at meeting: ¶Norm.

Goiart: m. A long hedging bill, or booke; a Welſh booke.

Goibier: m. ere: f. Baker-legd; alſo, ſplay-footed, ſhaling, ill-fauouredly treading.

Goie: f. A little hand-bill, hedging booke, or hedging knife.

Goiffon: m. A Gudgeon: ¶Lionnois.

Goilant: m. A certaine white Sea-fowle as big as a Pigeon, which when tempeſts approach flies vp vnto freſh waters.

Goildronneur. A pitcher, trimmer, or tighter of ſhips.

Goimpre. as Goinfre.

Goinfre: m. A wag, ſlipſtring; knauiſh lad; a merrie conceited whoreſonne, a notable good fellow, an excellent companion.

Goiran. as Bondrée; A kind of ſhort-winged Eagle, that liues altogether on fiſh.

Goitre: f. A Wenne; a ſwelling, bunch, or lumpe of fleſh vnder the throat; verie common among thoſe which dwell about the Alpes, becauſe they vſe to drinke much cold, and vnwholeſome water.

Goitreux: m. euſe: f. Full of wennes; or hauing a Wen vnder the throat.

Goitrons: m. Waddles, or wattles; the two little, and long excreſcences, which hang, teat-like, at either ſide of the throat of ſome hogs; alſo, the wennie bags that breed vnder the throats of the moſt inhabitants of the Alpes, by reaſon of their continuall drinking of water.

Goiveau. Il fait goi. It is deawie; (a ruſticall word.)

Golette de maille. as Holette.

Golfe: m. A gulfe, whirlepoole, or bottomeleſſe pit; alſo, a boſome, or gulfe of the ſea betweene two Capes, or high lands.

Gomar: m. le gom. d' vn Boulengier, ou Paſſiſſier. A kneading table; the boord whereon they worke their bread, or make their pies.

Gomene. as Gumene.

Gomir. To vomit, caſt, ſpue. (v.m.)

Gomiſſement: m. A vomiting, caſting, ſpuing.

Gomme: m. Gumme.

Gomme Arabic. Gumme Arabicke; comes from the ſhrub Acacia, the Ægyptian thorne.

Gomme Elemmy. Seeke Elemy.

Gommé: m. ée: f. Gummed; ſtiffened, thickened, mixed, or ſeaſoned with Gumme.

Cire gommée. Wax mingled with Rozen, and Turpentine.

Gommement: m. A gumming; a thickening, or ſtiffening, with Gumme.

Gommene: f. See Gumene.

Gommer. To gumme; to ſtiffen, thicken, ſeaſon, or annoint, with Gumme.

Gommeux: m. euſe: f. Gummie, full of Gumme, ſtiffe by gumming, thicke with Gumme.

Gomorrhean: m. A Sodomite, a Buggerer.

Gomphoſe. A faſtening of one bone within another, as of a nayle, or wedge into a peece of wood; ſo are the teeth ſet into the Jaw bone.

Gonagre. The Gowt in the knees.

Gondole: f. A Gundola, or Venetian Wherrie.

Sa teſte ſe berſe en gondole. His head totters like a boat in a ſtorme.

Gondolier: m. A Venetian Wherrie-man.

Gonds d' vne porte. The hookes, or hindges of a doore.

Sortir les gonds. To grow impatient, fall into extreames, flie out, forget his duetie; proceed with too much violence, or vehemencie.

Goneſſe. A Village neere vnto Paris, wherein excellent bread is made; and hence; Pain de Goneſſe.

Gonfalonnier. as Gonfanonnier.

Gonfanier: m. An Enſigne, or Standerd-bearer.

Gonfanon: m. A little ſquare Flag, or Penon at the end of a Launce; or (more particularly) an old faſhioned Banner, or ſquare Standard, borne on the top of a Launce; ſuch as, euen to this day, is vſed in the warres mades by the Pope; and hence;

Le gonfanon de l' Egliſe. The Generall of the Churches forces (before whom ſuch a Standard is carried.

Gonfanonnier: m. A chiefe Standard bearer.

Gonin. Maiſtre Gonin. A notable Jugler, nimble or actiue Tumbler, one thats perfectly ſeene in trickes or cleanlie conueyances; (and thence) alſo, a ſubtile whoreſonne, wilie or ſlie mate, a Maiſter in craft, or his crafts Maſter.

Gonnelle: f. A whole Petticote; the bodies, and skirts being ioyned together.

Gonomphe. A kind of box: ¶Rab.

Gonorrhée: f. The running of the reines.

Gont-fanon. The royall Standard; (ſo tearmed in old time) or as Gonfanon.

Gontier. franc gontier. A rich Chuffe, good Yeoman, wealthie whoreſonne; a ſubſtantiall fellow.

Gorbion: m. as Euphorbe.

Gorde. as Corde; A rope.

Gorgaillet: m. A Quaile-pipe.

Gorge : f. The throat, or gullet, (most properly) the bottome of the mouth; or, the most deepe, and inward part thereof; in a woman, the outward, and vpper part of the breast, betweene the necke and pappes; also, the gorge, or craw of birds; and, a meale, or gorge giuen vnto birds (especially Hawkes)

Gorge droicte. in Architecture; as Nasselle.

Gorge renversée. A gullet reuerst, or an Ogee.

Gorge-rouge. A Robin-red-breast.

Ietter le feu par la gorge. To fume, chafe, take on extreamely, play terrible reakes.

Passer le pied sur la gorge à. Looke Passer.

Rendre sa gorge. To cast, vomit, spue.

Rire soubs gorge. To laugh in his sleeue.

Tenir le pied sur la gorge à vn. To haue one at his mercie, his throat vnder his feet; his necke vnder his girdle.

Voler sur la gorge. To exercise, or labour hard, on a full stomacke.

Gorgé : m. ée : f. Gorged, crammed, filled with.

Gorgée de vin. A gulpe, or swallow; as much wine as one lets downe his throat at once.

Gorgément. Vp to the throat.

Gorger. s'en gorger de viandes. To gormandize it, or fill-gorge himselfe, to eat vntill his bellie cracke.

Gorgerette : f. A Gorget, Mocket, Bib, or breast-cloth.

Gorgerin : m. A Gorget of maile; also, a Carkanet (worne ouerthwart the breast) also, the necke-peece, or coller, of a garment; and sometimes the necke, or throat it selfe; and hence;

Il est bien vuidé du gorgerin. He hath a goodlie wide throat, or swallow.

Gorgerin. (in Architecture) is a small round member, accompanied with a square one, in the foot, or bottome of the Chapter of a Piller, &c; a small Boultell (with a fillet vnder it) in the Chapter of a Piller, &c.

Gorgerin : m. ine : f. Of, or belonging to, the throat.

Escrouelles gorgerines. The Kings euill (in the throat.)

Gorge-rouge. A Robin-red-breast.

Gorgette. A prettie little throat, or mouth.

Gorgias : m. as Gorgerette; A Gorget.

Gorgias : m. ase : f. Gorgeous, gaudie, flaunting, braue, gallant, gay, fine, trimme; quaintly clothed, richly attired, sumptuously apparelled; also, glorying, delighting, or pleased, in brauerie; also, feeding, or batling with mirth.

Gorgiasement. Gorgeously, gaudily, gayly, gallantly.

se Gorgiaser. To flaunt, braue, or gallantize it; to cut it out of the whole peece; also, to be proud of, or please himselfe in, the brauerie of his apparell.

Gorgiasetè : f. Brauerie, gallantnesse, fineneſſe, trimnesse, gorgeousneſſe, gaudinesse.

Gorme : f. The thicke humor which young horses void at their narrells, or by the ouerture made vnder their throat; some call it the Strangles.

Gormette. as Gourmette.

Gorre : f. A Sow; (also, the French Pockes; ¶Norm.) also, brauerie, gallantnesse, gorgeousneſſe, pompe, magnificence, sumptuousneſſe.

Femmes à la grande gorre. Huffing or flaunting wenches; coſtlie or flatelie dames.

Gorreau : m. as Gorret; Also, the thread, or quantitie, of flax, &c, thats drawne, at once, from a distaffe, in spinning.

Gorrerie : f. Gallantrie, brauerie, sumptuousneſſe in apparell, flatelineſſe of gesture; also, pride, vaunting, vaineglorie.

Gorret : m. A little Sheat, or Barrow-pig.

Poisson, gorret, & cochin, vie en l'eau & mort en vin : Prov. (Such flegmaticke meates requiring much wine to be drunke with them.)

Gorrette : f. A cap; also, a iuſtle, iurre; thumpe, or thwacke.

Gorrier : m. ere : f. as Gorgias; or (more then it) gallant both in apparell, carriage, and gesture; also, proud, braggard, vaunting, vaineglorious.

Gorrierement. Brauely, gaudily, gallantly; proudly, vainegloriously.

Gorron : m. A Sheat, or little yong hog.

Gort : f. A weare in a running water; or, as Gourt.

Gosaran. A necklace, carkanet, border; an ornament for the bosome, or necke.

Goscoté. See Coscoté.

Gosier : m. The throat; and (most properly) that part of it which makes the head of the Larinx.

Le mal de gosier. The Squinancie, or Squinzie.

Gossampine : f. The Bumbast, or Cotton-bush; the plant that beares Cotton, or Bumbast.

Gosse : f. as Gousse; Also, a scoffe, gibe, flowt.

Gosse d'aulx. A cloue of Garlicke.

Gossé : m. ée : f. Mocked, flowted, scoffed at; boorded with.

Gosser. To gibe; deride, mocke, flowt, scoffe at; boord, or ieast with.

Gosserie : f. Mockerie, scoffing, flowting, gibing.

Gosseur : m. A scoffer, mocker, flowter, giber, ieaſter.

Gotereux. as Goitreux.

Gothique : com. Gothlike; rude, cruell, barbarous.

Goton : m. in stead of Groton; A little grot.

Goualon. as Goaion.

Gouasche. A kind of Partridge; as Goasche.

Goubeau. as Gobeau.

Goubelet. as Gobelet; Also, a kind of little round pie resembling our Chuet.

Goubelettes : f. Little vessells of tinne made like gobblets: but without feet; vsed by Juglers, & Inchaunters.

Gouber : m. An aunders-meat, or afternoones repast.

Goude ; f. A Marigold.

Goudeau. as Godeau.

Planter au goudeau. as Planter à la barre; See Barre.

Goud-fallot. A boone companion, a good fellow: ¶Rab.

Goudiveau : m. A kind of open Pie, made of minced veale, butter, hearbs, and spice, baked together, and afterwards hard yolks of egs put on the top of it; also, a figure in caruing, like that pie; or, a long painted Quall.

Goudronné : m. ée : f. Set (stiffe) as a ruffe; also, pitched, or tighted, as a ship; See Goderonné.

Goudronner. To set a ruffe; also, to pitch, trimme, or tight a ship. See Goderonner.

Goueastre : m. as Goitreux; That hath a wen, bunch, or swelling, vnder his throat.

Goueſt. The name of a fruitfull vine, whose wood is of a tawnie colour.

Gouët : m. A kind of little short knife, wherewith in France the boyes cracke nuts, and pill greene wallnuts; a little cut-purse knife.

Gouët. faulcon gouët; whose feathers are ill marked, mailed, or coloured; we call such a one, a drop Hawke.

Gouffre : m. A gulfe, whirlepoole, deepe hole, or vnmeasurable depth (of waters) that swallowes vp whatsoeuer approaches, or comes into, &c.

Vn gouffre d'argent. A moſt vnſatiable ſwallow-wealth, waſt-coyne, ſpend-good.

Gouffreux: m. euſe: f. Gulfie, full of gulfes; infinitely deepe; (vnſatiably) deuouring, or ſwallowing vp whatſoeuer approaches, or comes into, it.

Gouge. as Vouge; Alſo a Joyners Googe; alſo, a Souldiors Pug, or Punke; a Whore that followes the Camp: alſo, the Hammer wherewith trees are marked in the King Forreſts.

Gouhourde: f. A Gourd.

Goujar. A Gudgeon.

Goujar de mer. The Sand-eele, or Sea-Gudgeon.

Goujat: m. A Souldiors boy.

Goujataille: f. A troupe of Souldiors boyes; a crue of crackropes, a knot of ſlipſtrings.

Goujate: f. A Souldiors wench; as Gouge.

Goujaterie: f. la g. Souldiors boyes, or the young rakehells that follow a Campe.

Gouillarder; &, Gouillardiſe. as Goularder; &, Goulardiſe: ¶Savoyard.

Gouillart. as Goulard; A glutton, or greedie-gut.

Gouinfre: m. A mad-cap, merrie grig, pleaſant knaue, conceited whoreſonne.

Goujon: m. A Gudgeon-fiſh; alſo, the pinne which the truckle of a pullie runneth on; alſo, the Gudgeon of the Spindle of a wheele; any Gudgeon.

Govions: m. Shackles, or fetters, for priſoners.

Gouïr. as Iouïr. To enioy: ¶Pic.

Gouju: m. uë: f. Full-cheeked, plump-faced, chuffie, or puft vp in the face.

Goulard: m. A rauenor, deuourer, ſwallower, gully-gut, greedie feeder.

Goulard: m. arde: f. Rauenous, greedie, deuouring, that hath a great ſwallow.

Goulardé: m. ée: f. Eaten greedily, deuoured haſtily, gulped, or goggled downe.

Goularder. To eat greedily, feed haſtily, deuoure extreamely; to rauine, goggle, glut vp, ſwallow downe, huge morſells, or mouthfulls.

Goulardiſe: f. A rauening, deuouring, haſtie or greedie feeding.

Gouldron. as Goultran; alſo, as Gouderon.

Gouldronné: m. ée: f. Pitched, or tighted, as a ſhip; or, as Gouderonné.

Gouldronner. as Gouderonner.

Goulée: f. A throatfull, or mouthfull of &c.

Elle n'en peut finer ſinon à la goulée. She can get but a ſnatch and away; there is no lying for her at rack and manger; See Goullée.

Gouléeur. as Arpenteur; or, as Gauleur; A Surueyor of land, that meaſures onely by the Pole.

Goulet: m. A gullet; the end of a Conduit pipe whereat it diſchargeth it ſelfe; alſo, the mouth, or necke of a Violl, Bottle, or other long, and narrow-necke Veſſell; alſo, the hole, or earth of a Fox, or Badger; alſo, a narrow brooke, or deepe gutter of water.

Goulet de cheminée. The funnell, or tunnell of a chimney.

Goulet de feneſtre. A narrow loopehole, or long crannie, in the wall of a Priſon, &c, ſuch a one (eſpecially) as hath a round, or is wideſt, in the middle.

Goulette de vin. A gulpe, mouthfull, or ſmall quantitie of wine.

Goulfe. See Golfe.

Goulfi: m. ie: f. Swollen, or puft vp; full, plumpe, fat, well-fed.

Goulfre. as Gouffre.

Goullardiſe. as Goulardiſe; Alſo, ribaldrie; licentious or diſſolute tattle.

Gou[illegible]ée. à la g. Priuily, ſecretly, by ſtealth; or, as in [illegible]lée.

[illegible]ot: m. The pipe of a ſinke, or gutter.

Goultran: m. Ship-pitch.

Goulu: m. uë: f. Gluttonous, greedie, rauenous, deuouring, vnſatiate, ſwallowing vp.

Gouluëment. Greedily, gluttonouſly, rauenouſly, like a gully-gut.

Gouphon: m. The hindge of a doore, window, &c; ¶Langued.

Goupil: m. A Fox. (v.m.)

À goupil endormy rien ne tombe en la gueule: Prov. He that knowes what's fit to be done, and vſes to ſleepe when it ſhould be done, liues a beaſt, and dies a begger.

Goupille: f. The yron pinne that goes through the ioynt of a hindge, or haſpe of a claſpe.

Goupillon. as Guepillon; An holie-water ſprinkle; alſo, the bruſh of briſtles wherewith glaſſes, &c, be rinched; alſo, as Toupillon; a ſtopple; alſo, a yong, or little Fox; whence;

Faire le goupillon. To play the Truant.

Gourat. for Goujat.

Gourd: m. as Gourt; or, A whirlepoole; or deepe (and long) hole in a riuer, or other water; alſo, as Gourgue.

Gourd: m. de: f. Numme, aſtonied, aſleepe, ſtiffe, ſenceleſſe, benummed, as the hands with much cold; alſo, drouſie, ſlow, dull, beauie, lumpiſh.

Gourd-foulement: m. A cruſhing, or bruiſing; a mortifying, by violent handling.

Gourdi. Numme, benummed, aſtonied, ſtonnied (by coldneſſe.)

se Gourdir. To be numme, ſenceleſſe, aſtonied, ſtonnied, (by the extremitie of cold.)

Gouret. as Gorret; A Sheat, or Barrow big.

Gourfoulé: m. ée: f. Cruſhed, bruiſed; mortified, by violent handling, &c.

Gourfoulement. as Gourd-foulement.

Gourfouler. To cruſh, or bruiſe; to mortifie, by a violent handling, &c.

Gourgias. as Gorgias; Alſo, proud, loftie, ſtatelie, ſtanding on his pantofles: ¶Rab.

Gourgue de moulin: f. The Conduit of a water-mill; the water-courſe, or ditch, that is directly vnder the wheele.

Gournade: f. A cuffe on the mouth, a paſh on the noſe.

Gourmand: m. A glutton, gormand, bellie-god, greedie-gut; a great eater, monſtrous feeder, gully-gut.

Gourmandant. Gluttonizing, or gormandizing; alſo, proudly brauing, taunting, miſuſing.

Gourmander. To rauine, deuoure, glut, gormandize, or gluttonize it; ſwill vp, ſwallow downe greedily; alſo, proudly to domineere, inſult, or crow ouer; inſolently to taunt, checke, take vp; imperiouſly to curbe; miſuſe, abuſe.

Gourmandereſſe. A gluttonneſſe.

Gourmandeur: m. A glutton; (a word whereby Rabelais meanes, and deſcribes, a Cannon of a Cathedrall Church.)

Gourmandiſe: f. Gluttonie, gormandizing; deuouring, rauining; exceſſiue eating, immoderate feeding.

Gourmandiſe tue plus de gens qu'eſpée en guerre trenchant : Prov. More are killed by ſurfeting then by the ſword.

Gourme : f. The Strangles ; the thicke humor which young horſes void at their narells; alſo, foame, or a foamie ſlime.

Gourmé : m. ée : f. Curbed; alſo, cuffed on the mouth, paſhed on the noſe, or face; alſo, purged from ſlime, or foame.

Gourmer. To curbe (a horſe;) alſo, to knocke, buffet, pommell, cuffe, paſh on the mouth, or face.

Se gourmer. To void his ſlime, to purge his foame.

Gourmet : m. A Wine-cunner ; a Wine-marchants Broker ; one whom he truſts with the watching, and imployes in the venting, of his new-come commodities.

Gourmeter. To curbe.

Gourmette : f. A curbe.

Tenir en gourmette. To curbe, or keepe in awe.

Gourmetté : m. ée : f. Curbed.

Gourmetter. To curbe.

Gournauld : m. A Gurnard fiſh.

Gournay. The name of a towne in Normandie.

Vous avez paſſé ſur le pont de Gournay. You are without care, ſhame, or feare; you dare doe any obſcene thing openly.

Gourneau. A Gurnard.

Gourré. Beguiled, cheated, couſened, conie-caught : ¶Barr.

Gourrier. as Gourgias; or, as Gorrier.

Gourt : m. A violent ſtreame, or gulfe of waters; or, a whirlepoole, or deepe hole in a water.

Gouſſe : f. The huske, ſwad, cod, hull of beanes, peaſe, &c.

Gouſſe d'aulx. A head of Garlicke.

Gouſſé : m. ée : f. Deuoured, ruined, eaten; ſtuffed with eating.

Gouſſepillé : m. ée : f. Shaken, or tugged, as a Cat by a Dog ; alſo, vnhusked, ſhaled, vncaſed, ſtripped.

Gouſſepiller. To ſhake, or tug, as a Dog doth a Cat, &c; alſo, (and moſt properly) to vnſhale, or take pulſe out of the ſwads ; and hence, to ſtrip, or vncaſe.

Gouſſer. To eat, ruine, deuoure; to ſtuffe, or fill with meat.

Gouſſet : m. A Guſſet; the peece of Armour, or of a ſhirt, whereby the armehole is couered; alſo, a Bracket in Joyners worke.

Gouſſu : m. uë : f. Coddie, hullie, huskie, ſwaddie.

Gouſt : m. The taſt ; alſo, a ſmacke, or ſauor; alſo, a good conceit, or liking, vpon the firſt eſſay, of a thing ; alſo, a little skill, inſight, or experience in a matter; alſo, as Eſgouſt ; or th'end of a gutter whence the raine falls, in drops, from a horſe.

En cela eſt le gouſt de la noix. Looke Noix.

Gouſté : m. ée : f. Taſted ; ſauored, ſmacked ; eſſayed ; touched vpon ; felt, or conceiued a little ; digeſted indifferently ; admitted of, wherein ſome inſight, or experience is had.

Gouſter : m. A nunchion, drinking, aunders-meat, afternoones-collation, mouthes-recreation.

Gouſter. To taſt, or take an eſſay of ; to taſt, ſauor, touch vpon ; feele, or conceiue a little ; alſo, to admit of, digeſt indifferently, take a liking to, begin to affect, or fancie ; alſo, to haue ſome experience, a little inſight, meane knowledge, in.

Goute : f. as Goutte.

Gouté : m. ée : f. Gowtie, or troubled with the gowt.

Goutran : m. Ship-pitch ; or Pitch wherewith ſhips are tighted.

Goutte : f. A drop of water, &c ; alſo, a little, a iot, a whit, a verie ſmall deale.

La mere goutte. Vnpreſſed wine, or oyle; that which of it ſelfe, and without preſſing, comes from the grapes or Oliues, as ſoone as they are ſettled in the Preſſe-trough.

Goutte à goutte. By little and little, by degrees, drop after drop, or, one drop after another ; and hence ;

Goutte à goutte on emplit la Cuve : &, goutte à goutte la mer s'eſgoutte : Prov.

Boire la goutte ſur l'ongle. To leaue emptie bowls, make cleane cups ; drinke vp all but ſo much as will ſtand on the drinkers nayle.

Ie n'y voy ny grain ny goutte. I ſee it not a whit, I diſcerne it not a iot ; I perceiue, or conceiue it not at all.

Dieu garde mal qui voit bien, & n'oit goutte. For my part, I am loath to conceiue it, though I ſee it, well enough.

Il eſt bien povre qu'ne voit goutte : Prov. Hee's verie poore that wants his eye-ſight.

Goutte : f. The Gowt.

Goutte crampe ou, crappe. The Crampe ; or, a Conuulſion.

Goutte de lin. The weed called Dodder ; See Lin.

Goutte maurequine. as Goutte ſerene.

Goutte nouée. The Gowt in any of the ioynts.

Goutte ſerene. Blindneſſe, or extreame dimneſſe of ſight, cauſed by the obturation of the Opticke Sinewes.

Goutte Sciatique. The Sciatica; a pain, ache, or ſtitch in the hippes.

La goutte en la hanche, la fille en la pance : Pro. Looke Fille.

A la goutte le medecin ne voit goutte : Prov. (As they find (by the little helpe they find) that haue it, and take Phyſick for it.)

Goutteron : m. A Viol, or Cruet wherein Oyle, or Vinegar is ſerued to the table ; alſo, a ſmall Ewer, or Lauer ; alſo, a little drop.

Goutte-roſe. An extreame redneſſe of the face ; pimpled, and ſet thicke with rubies, or fierie ſpeckles.

Goutteux : m. euſe : f. Gowtie, full of the Gowt.

Gouttiere : f. A gutter ; a channell.

Gouttieres. The little furrowes that runne along the head, or hornes of a red Deere.

Bonnets à quatre gouttieres. Foure-cornered, or ſquare, caps.

Gouttreuſe. A certain white, long-beaked, and tongleſſe bird, that hath a great red pouch hanging from her neather beake to her breaſt ; otherwiſe (in bigneſſe, and ſhape) ſomewhat reſembling a Swanne.

Gouvernail : m. The rudder, or ſterne of a ſhip.

Gouvernal. The ſame.

Gouvernant. Gouerning, ruling, ſwaying, maiſtering; ordering, ouerſeeing ; tempering, moderating.

Gouvernante : f. A Gouerneſſe, a Commaundreſſe.

Gouverné : m. ée : f. Gouerned, ruled, cõmanded, ſwained, maiſtered; ordered, ouerſeene; tempered, moderated; alſo, intertained with talke, held with diſcourſe.

Gouvernement. The rule, gouernment, command, abſolute ſway of; a power, empire, dominion, regiment, authoritie, ſeigneurie ouer; alſo, a gouerning, ruling, commanding, maiſtering; full order in, totall conduction, whole direction of.

Le

Le faict, & gouvernement d'une republique. The policie, or course of proceeding in State-matters; the managing of publicke businesse in a country.

Gouverner. To gouerne, rule, commaund, maister, sway; ouersee; to seignorize, or haue authoritie, ouer; also, to guide, order, direct, conduct, looke vnto, haue the charge of; also, to temper, moderate, restraine; also, to intertaine with discourse.

Qui gouverne bien la bouche. That is a temperate feeder.

Qui gouverne bien son cas. One that lookes well to his businesse.

Ie le gouvernay teste à teste environ vne bonne heure. I conuersed with him hand to hand; I held him chat, or in discourse; I intertained him with talke, an houre together.

Celuy gouverne bien mal le miel qui n'en taste: Prov. Hee's but an ill cooke that licks not his owne fingers; Looke Miel.

Gouvernaresse: f. as Gouvernante.

Gouverneur: m. A Ruler, Gouernour, Commaunder, Ouerseer.

Gouvert. as Gouvernement.

Gouytrouz. as Goitrons; Swines wadles. ¶Rab.

Goy: m. A little hand-bill, Vine-hooke, or Vine-knife.

Goyart. A long hedging bill, or Welsh hooke.

Goye: f. Ioy. ¶Pic. also, as Goy.

Goyelle: f. A kind of Cheese-cake; as Talmouse. ¶Pic.

Goyon. A Gudgeon.

Gozal: m. A sitting Pigeon. ¶Rab.

Grabat: m. A poore mans bed; a course Mattresse, a Straw-bed; also, a Couche.

Grabeau: m. A garbelling of spices, &c; (hence) also, a curious examination, neere sifting of, precise search into, matters.

Grabellé: m. ée: f. Garbelled; also, neerely examined, precisely sifted, narrowly looked, curiously searched, into.

Grabeller. To garbell spices &c; (and hence) also, to examine precisely, sift neerely, looke narrowly, search curiously, into.

Grabué. An Ironicall allusion to Gradué; a Graduate.

Grabuge: f. A great coyle, stirre, garboyle, turmoyle, hurlyburly.

Grabuger. To keepe a foule coyle; to make a great stirre, or monstrous hurlyburly.

Grace: f. Grace, fauour, good will, good liking, good opinion; credit, reckoning, reputation; also, beautie, seemelinesse, comelinesse, handsomenesse; a Decorum; a grace in, or becomming of; also, vertue, honestie, integritie; a good disposition, an inclination vnto goodnesse; also, a pardon, forgiuenesse, remission; dispensation; (In old time the Licence procured by Gentlemen for Roturiers to buy their Fiefs, (when they wanted money to follow the warres) was also tearmed Grace.)

Graces (Plurall.) Thanks.

Grace de Sainct Canart. The bestowing of a thing which the bestower cannot keepe; or, a fauour done because one cannot doe withall.

Grace de Sainct Paul. A certaine little stone thats good against the biting, and stinging of venemous beasts (as the Cosseners say that would sell it.)

Bonne grace. as Bonne-grace; also, a Snuffkin, or Muffe.

Lettres de grace. Are generally, such as proceed from the meere grace, liberalitie, bountie, or goodnesse of the Prince; and which he may refuse without violation of common right, or of the Lawes; as Pardons, Remissions, Gifts, Graunts, Dispensations, Priuiledges, Patents of Offices, Warrants for money, &c; more particularly, a Pardon for Murther, Manslaughter, or of a person condemned for an offence, which the Law, of it selfe, cannot dispence with; (in which sence, this word grace is also generall, both to Remission, and Pardon, sayth Rageau; though another make it a species vnto Remission;) And this Pardon is to be procured from the King himselfe, and in the highest Court of Chancerie.

Moines de grace. An Order of white Monkes, which weare on their breasts a great red Crosse.

Avec grace. Gracefully, decently, pleasingly, plausibly, with a good fashion, in comelie sort, after a handsome manner.

De grace. Of courtesie, I pray you heartily, I beseech you sir.

Pour grace. The same.

N'aurois-ie bonne graee de? Would it not become me well to?

Graces: f. The three Graces; viz. Aglaia, Thalia, and Euphrosine, reputed the daughters of Iupiter and Venus, and adored as Goddesses, by the auncient Painims; whence;

Il a besoing de sacrifier aux Graces. He is a harsh, unpleasant, rough-hewed, currish, or churlish, fellow.

Grachinoier. as Grafigner.

Gracieulement. as Gratieusement.

Gracieuseté: f. Graciousnesse, fauourableneesse; affabilitie, courtesie; humanitie, benignitie, gentleneesse; also, as Gratuité.

Gracieux: m. euse: f. Gracious; gentle, affable, courteous, benigne, plausible, debonaire; See Gratieux.

Gracieux seigneur. A shaleleese fish, of a long forme, euer cleauing vnto Rockes, and so daintie, and seldome found, that countrey people hold him a fit present for their Landlords.

Gradation: f. A Gradation, step, degree, stayre.

Grade: f. A degree, state, or dignitie; aduancement vnto greatnesse; a step, stayre, greese.

Gradé: m. ée: f. Graduate, or hauing taken a degree.

Gradot: m. A Gurnard.

Gradué. A Graduate; one that hath taken a degree in an Vniuersitie.

Gradué: m. ée: f. Graduated, hauing taken a degree.

Homme non gradué. (Opposed vnto, Homme marié) a single, or vnmarried man.

Graduel. A Masse-booke, or part of the Masse, inuented by Pope Celestine in the yeare 430.

Graduellement. Gradually, by degrees, orderly, step after step, from hand to hand.

Grafigner. To scratch, or scrape; to rend, or teare vp with the nayles.

Graffe. Griffe graffe. By hooke or by crooke, scamblingly, catch that catch may, any way.

Graffions. In old time the Lieutenants of Earles were, now a kind of the best sweet Cherries are, called so.

Graier: m. The Officer that gathers the Kings right of Grarie in woods, and forrests.

Graigneur. as Greigneur; Greater. ¶Norm.

Grail'ant. as Grailleux.

Grailla: m. A Rooke, or white-bild Crow.

Graille: f. The same.

Graille: com. as Gresle; Slender.

Grailler. To winde a Horne hollowly; to blurre a Trumpet; to speake hoarsely, or with a broken voice; to sing harshly, harshly, vntuneably; to croake, or cry like a Rooke.

Grailleux: m. euse: f. Speaking hoarsely, sounding hollowly, or harshly; blurring; ratling in the throat; croaking like a Rooke.

Grain: m. Graine, corne; seed; also, a graine, or bitt of salt, sand, &c; a Moat; (and hence, a little, iot, whit;) also, the kernell, or little stone of a Grape, or other Berrie; also, a Grape; also, a Barlie-corne, or the fourth part of an ynch, in measures; also, a graine, or the foure and twentieth part of a pennie-weight; (also, a whirle-wind, or storme of wind, at sea. ¶Norm.)

Grain bernage. The peculiar corne of one countrey; or corne that grew on a mans owne land, or in his owne soyle; also, Messelin; or, Wheat, Rie, and Barlie mingled together.

Grains de ladrige. Spots of leaprosie; mezild spots.

Grain de sel. A graine of salt; Vn gros grain de sel. A great ball, or stone, of salt.

Grain de Turquie. Turkie corne, Turkie wheat, Indian wheat, Mays.

Grain sur bord. Scant, or hard-stricken measure of corne, salt, &c.

'A grain d'orge. In a triangular forme.

Ie n'en ay grain, ne goutte; &, Ie n'y voy ny grain, ny goutte. I neither haue a iot, nor see a drop, of it.

Il y a plus de paille que de grain. There is more trash then good stuffe to be had.

Ioyeux comme fourmis en grain. As merrie as an Ant on a Corne-heape.

Iamais grain ne fructifie si premier ne se mortifie: Prov. Seed neuer comes to fructifie vntill it first haue mortified.

Nul grain sans paille: Prov. No corne without straw (or chaffe;) good and bad are commonly together.

Tel grain tel pain: Prov. Looke Pain.

Vin de grain est plus doux que n'est pas Vin de presse: Prov. The first Wine is better then the second expression; good offices willingly done are of much more worth then such as be extorted.

Vn sac percé ne peut tenir le grain: Prov. A sacke thats full of holes can hold no corne.

Grainant. Seeding, running to seed.

Graine: f. The seed of hearbes, &c; also, graine, wherewith cloth is dyed in graine; Scarlet dye, Scarlet in graine; whence;

Graine d'escarlate. as in Chermes.

Graine de Paradis; Graines of Paradise; or, the spice which we call, Graines.

Graine de perroquet. Wild Saffron, bastard Saffron, mocke Saffron, Saffron dort.

Graine des vers. as Mort aux vers.

Laisser vne fille flestrir pour graine. To keepe a maid long without a husband; of such a one may be sayd, she is let runne to seed, as well as of hearbes vngathered, for that onely purpose; Garder vne fille à graine, ou grenie, hath the same meaning.

Grainé: m. ée: f. Seeded, runne vnto seed.

Grainer. To seed; or, to runne vnto seed.

Temps de grainer. The season of laying Swine; the time wherein they are driuen into forrests, and woods, for Mastage, and other feeding.

Grairie. as Grarie.

Grais: m. A kind of Potters clay, or earth, fit to make vessels of; also, a hard, and sparkling-browne free-stone; as Grez; also, the name of a certaine vine that hath a verie big stocke.

Graisle: com. as Gresle.

Graisleté. as Gresleté.

Graissayer. To lispe.

Graisse: f. Fat, seame, grease.

De haute graisse. Full, plumpe, goodlie, fat, well-fed, in good liking.

Il n'y a pas grande graisse. There is not much good to be done, wealth to be had, profit to be gotten, gaine to be made.

Graissé: m. ée: f. Greased, annointed, or smeared with fat.

se Graisse-fondre. To swelt, swelter, founder.

Graissement. Fatly, grossely, greasily.

Graisser. To grease; to annoynt, or smeare with fat.

Graisset: m. The little (venomous) greene frog, or toad.

Graisseure: f. Fattinesse, greasinesse, greasing.

Graisseux: m. euse: f. Fattie, greasie, full of grease.

Graissier: m. One that loues fat things; also, a Grasier, or fattener of cattell.

Graissin: m. Fat mould, or dung to manure ground with.

Graller. To parch, as Pease, Nuts, &c. ¶Blesien.

Grame, ou Gramen. Couch-grasse, Quitch-grasse, Dogs-grasse; also, any kind of grasse; and hence;

Grame de Manne. Manna-grasse, Deaw-grasse, (whose seed the Hollanders eat, as we doe Oatmeale.)

Grame de Parnasse. Pernassus grasse, white Liuerwort.

Grame piquant. Pricking, or sharpe Dogs-grasse.

Grainigne. Couch-grasse, Quitch-grasse, Dogs-grasse.

Grammaire: f. Grammer; the Art of Grammer.

Grammairien: m. A Grammarian; a Professor of Grammer.

Grammatical: m. ale: f. Grammaticall; of, or belonging vnto, Grammer.

Gramment. as Grandement; Greatly. (v.m.)

N'a pas gramment. It is not long agoe.

Gramouse: f. A dish made of slices of cold meat fryed with Hogs seame, and serued vp in sauce of beaten eggs, and verjuice boyled, a while, in a little of the broth wherein the meat was sodden.

Grampé: m. ée: f. Taken with the Crampe; or, not able to stirre, as one that hath the Crampe.

Grampelle: f. The sea-Crab tearmed, a Grampell, Grit, and Pungar.

Granche: f. as Grange; also, the Carkasse of a fowle.

Grand: m. Le grand des biens, ou de la terre; the whole (masse of) substance, or inheritance, thats to be parted among Coheires. ¶Breton.

Grand: m. grande: f. Great; big, large; huge; mightie; substantiall; also, high, lostie, statelie.

Le grand bras. The whole arme and hand together.

Grands iours. A generall, and extraordinarie Sessions called by Commission, or Letters Patents, from the King, (most commonly) after a warre, ciuile broyle, or Insurrection, whereby the course of Law, and proceedings of Iustice haue beene impeached; Looke Iour.

Grand d'oye. Good store, a great deale, abundance, numbers of.

La grande piece. Looke Piece.

Le grand vendredi. Good Friday.

On a veu d'aussi grand vent venter; We haue heard as big words as these without trembling; or, little ynough hath beene seene to come of as great words; a Mountaine hath beene brought to bed of a Mouse ere now.

Grand bandon fait grand larron: Prov. Great libertie makes great theeues.

Grand bien ne vient pas en peu d'heure: Pro.

Rome was not built on a day.

Grand debonnaireté a maintes hommes greué: Prov. Many haue rued their great courteſie.

Grande moiſſon l'obeiſſant recueille: Prov. Great is the gaine of thoſe that are obedient.

Le grand bœuf apprend à labourer au petit: Prov. The old Ox learnes the young to draw.

Les grands bœufs ne font pas les grandes iournées: Prov. The greateſt Ox rids not moſt worke.

Le plus grand eſt le premier pourry: Prov. The greateſt is the ſooneſt rotten.

A grand cheval grand gué: Prov. A tall horſe can make ſhift with a deepe foord; or, what needes a tall horſe for a ſhallow foord?

A grand danger grand courage: Prov. Great dangers are by courage great orecome; or, much danger needs much courage.

A grand homme grand verre: Prov. A little glaſſe befits not a great gulch.

A grand pecheur eſclandre: Prov. Great ſhame is the great ſinners meed.

A grand peſcheur eſchappe anguille: Pro. An Eele eſcapes from th' expert Angler.

Aux grands eſt deu grand honneur: Prov. Great reuerence is due vnto great perſons.

Aux grands honneurs grands envieux: Prov. Enuie the companion of honour.

De grande maladie vient on bien en grande ſanté: Prov. Sound health comes after ſore diſeaſes.

De grand peché grand pardon: Prov. A gracious pardon for a foule offence.

De grand train ſur l'eſtrain: Prov. Looke Eſtrain.

De grands vanteurs petis faiſeurs: Prov. Great braggers little doers.

De grand vilain grand flac: Prov. A great offendor merits a great fall; or, a noyſome knaue deſerues a noyſome knocke; or;

De grand vilain lourde cheute. A great offendor hath a grieuous fall.

En grand fardeau n'eſt pas l'acqueſt: Prov. Hee gaines not moſt that carries moſt; not weight but worth, not greatneſſe but goodneſſe, makes a burthen gainefull.

En grande pauvreté n'y a pas grande loyauté: Prov. Thoſe that are verie poore are not verie loyall.

Il n'eſt ſi grand iour qui ne vienne à veſpre: Prov. The longeſt dayes haue euenings; (all earthlie things an end.)

De petit eſguillon poind on bien grande aſneſſe: Pro. A little goad ſets on the great ſhee Aſſe.

Douce parole rompt grand'ire: Pro. A gentle anſwer quayles fell anger.

Du petit vient on au grand: Prov. From little men come to great; viz. from a meane eſtate vnto much wealth; from errors to wilfull diſorders; from veniall to mortall offences, &c.

En adventure giſent grands coups: Prov. While things are doubtfull great things may be done.

En petit buiſſon trouve on grand lievre: Prov. A little groue may harbor a great Hare.

En petite cheminée fait on bien grand feu: Prov. A little chimney can bold a great fire.

En petite maiſon Dieu a grand part: Prov. Looke Maiſon.

En petite teſte giſt grand ſens: Prov. In a little head great wit.

Enfans deviennent grands gens: Prov. (Wee ſay) boyes will be men one day.

Il faut haſarder vn petit poiſſon pour prendre vn grand: Prov. We muſt aduenture a pennie to gaine a pound.

Il n'eſt nager qu'en grand'eau: Prov. (Wee ſay) there is no fiſhing to the ſea.

Le cœur fait l'œuvre, non pas les grands iours: Prov. Not long dayes, but ſtrong hearts, diſpatch a worke.

Les petis ruiſſeaux font les grandes rivieres: Pro. Narrow brookes make nauigable riuers.

Mort n'eſpargne ny petit ny grand: Prov. Looke Mort.

On ne fait pas à grands coups douce vieille: Pro. Hard ſtroakes yeeld but harſh Muſicke.

Petit homme abat bien grand cheſne: Pro. A low man can fell a tall Oake.

Petite pluye abat grand vent: Prov. (So ſayd a mad fellow, who, lying in bed, bepiſt his farting wiues backe.)

Grand. In ſtead of Grandement; whence;

Feneſtre, ou Porte toute grand ouverte. Wide open.

Grandelet: m. ette: f. Somewhat great, prettie and big.

Grandement: m. Greatly, bigly, largely; hugely, mightily; exceedingly, extreamely; earneſtly, vehemently; verie much.

Grandeſſe: f. as Grandeur.

Grandet. as Grandelet; Biggiſh, greatiſh.

Grandeur: f. Greatneſſe, bigneſſe, largeneſſe; hugeneſſe; mightineſſe; fullneſſe, ampleneſſe; highneſſe, loftineſſe, ſtatelineſſe.

Grandeur de lieu. Spaciouſneſſe, capacitie, wideneſſe.

Grandiſſime: com. Huge, mightie, exceſſiue, exceeding great.

Grands-iours. Looke Iour.

Grand-ville. The name of a ſoure apple.

Granes. Foy de Granes: Pro. Treacherie, treaſon, vnfaithfulneſſe, diſloyaltie.

Grange: f. A Barne, for corne; alſo, a Grange.

La grange eſt prés des bateurs. Said of a Nunnerie thats ſeated neere a Priorie.

Grangeage: m. Corne; or fruits layd vp in barnes; alſo, a fee payed for Corne-roome in a Barne.

Paſſer grangeage d'un champ. To leaſe out a corne-field, or the crop thereof.

Grangée: f. A Graunge, or countrey houſehold.

Grangée de bled. A Barne-full, or aboundance; a large heape, or huge quantitie of corne.

Granger: m. A Farmer; a Barne-keeper.

Granger: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Barne.

Grangeux: m. euſe: f. Of a Barne, full of Barnes.

Grangier: m. as Granger.

Grangiere: f. A Farmers wife; or, a woman that keeps a Barne.

Grangouſier. Great ſwallow, mightie throat. Rab.

Granit oriental. An orientall Garnet; a ſtone verie neere as good, and well-coloured, as the Rubie.

Granulé: m. ée: f. Reduced into ſeed, or graine.

Granuler. To reduce into ſeed, or graine.

Granuleux: m. euſe: f. Grainie, ſeedie; alſo, in graines, or little ſeed-like peeces.

Graphide: f. A deſcription, or delineation. Rab.

Graphigné: m. ée: f. Scraped, ſcratched, or clawed.

Graphigner. To ſcratch, to ſcrape, to claw.

Grapillon. See Grappillon.

Gra-

Grapir. To creepe, crawle, or climbe vp (hardly, and with ſome paine.)

Grappage: m. Cluſter-gathering, Grape-gathering, Vintage, Wine-harueſt.

Grappe: f. A bunch, or cluſter, of grapes.

Grappe de mer. A thing in the ſea couered as it were with the flowers of a Vine; otherwiſe of a rude, and ouglie ſhape.

Il ſembloit mordre à la grappe. He ſpake ſo heartily, ſo earneſtly, ſo hotly, that he ſeemed to act what he vttered.

Grappelle: f. The Lowſe-burre, Ditch-burre, leſſe Burre docke.

Grapper. To gleane after grape-gatherers.

Grappes: f. The Scratches (in horſes legs.)

Grappetant. Gleaning after grape-gatherers.

Grappetté. Gleaned, or gathered (as grapes.)

Grappeuſe: f. A grape-gleanereſſe; a woman that gleanes after grape-gatherers.

Grappil: m. The graple of a ſhip.

Grappillage: m. Grape-gleaning.

Grappiller. To gleane after grape-gatherers.

Grappilleur: m. A grape-gleaner.

Grappillon: m. A little cluſter of grapes.

Grappin: m. as Grappil.

Grappu: m. uë: f. Grapie, cluſteric, full of cluſters of grapes.

Grarie: f. The Kings right, part, or fee, in euerie ſale of wood made in the foreſts of his ſubiects, due vnto him by reaſon of the Iuſtice done, and good order kept, within them, by his Officers; he doth alſo challenge thereby a part in the propertie of the ſoyle, demaine, fruits, and reuenue thereof; (for generally, la grarie is a Right that one hath in the propertie, and ſoyle of another mans woods, and forreſts; whereby he lookes for a part of the price when they are ſold, and of the fruits, &c, when they are gathered.)

Gras: m. Vn gras. A broad, or bawdie, tale.

Le gras de la iambe. The calfe of the leg.

Gras: m. graſſe: f. Fat, greaſie, well-fed; groſſe, quarrie; purſie; alſo, fertile, much-yeelding, fruitfull.

Le gras boyau. The Inch pinne, or Inne-pinne; See Boyau.

Le gras double. The fat tripe; or, that part of the paunch which yeelds the fatteſt, and thickeſt tripes.

Cauſes graſſes. Bawdie ſuits, immodeſt actions.

Pain gras. Thats doughie, or not baked ynough.

Parler gras. A liſping; or not pronouncing of R.

Paroles graſſes. Ribauldrie, laſciuious ſpeeches.

Son gras. Bran that hath ſome meale among it (whereby it feeles ſmooth, full, or fattie;) Some call it Pollard.

Vin gras. Fat, oyſie, or greaſie, wine.

Gras comme vn cochon. as fat as a Pig.

Gras comme vn gliron. as fat as a Dormouſe.

Gras comme vn moine, ou comme vn pourceau; as fat as a Frier. &c.

Dormir la graſſe matinée. To ly long in bed; or ſleepe all the morning long; (for, morning ſleepe is thought to fatten ſuch as vſe it.)

Il en fait ſes choux gras. He gaines well, gets much, thriues apace, &c.

Graſſelet: m. ette: f. Fattiſh, fattie, ſomewhat fat, in pretie good liking.

Graſſeſſe: f. Fatneſſe, greaſineſſe; groſſeneſſe.

Graſſet. as Graſſelet.

Graſſette: f. The bearbe Orpine, Liblong, or Liue-long.

Graſſeur: f. Fatneſſe; groſſineſſe, fleſhineſſe.

Graſſier. To liſpe. (v.m.)

Graſſure. as Graſſeur.

Grat: m. Paſture, feeding, grazing for cattell; alſo, a ſcraping, ſcratching, or clawing.

Envoyer au grat. To ſend a grazing; a maiſter to turne away his ſeruant.

Gratant. Scratching, ſcraping, clawing, rubbing, ſcrubbing.

Gratant le cul au ſoleil. Idly, ſlouthfully, lazily, like a lowſie begger.

Grate: com. Gratefull, acceptable, pleaſing vnto.

Graté: m. ée: f. Scratched, ſcraped, clawed, ſcrubbed.

Grate-cul: m. A Hep; the fruit of the wild Brier, &c.

La Roſe en fin devient vn grate-cul: Prov. The Roſe at length becomes a Hep.

Grateleux: m. euſe: f. Scabbie, itchie, ſcuruie.

Gratelle: f. Itch; or ſcurfe.

Gratement: m. A ſcratching, ſcraping, clawing, ſcrubbing; alſo, an itching, which makes one ſcratch.

Grater. To ſcratch, to ſcrape, to ſcrub, claw, rub.

Grater païs. To flye, take his heeles, truſt to his legs, runne away.

Tant grate la Chevre que mal giſt. (A Prouerbe applyable to ſuch as cannot be quiet when they are well.)

Trop grater cuit trop parler nuit: Prov. Too much ſcratching hurts the skin, too much talking the whole bodie.

Apres la feſte on grate la teſte: Prov. Repentance begins where feaſting ends.

Qui flate il grate: Prov. Great flatterers are great ſcrape-goods.

Qui naiſt de geline il aime à grater: Prov. He that's borne of a Henne loues to be ſcraping.

Qui ſuit les poules apprend à grater la terre: Pro. Henne-followers turne earth-ſcrapers; wee quickly learne the bent of thoſe we much frequent.

Grateron: m. The ſmall Burre called Gooſe-ſhare, Gooſe-graſſe, Loue-man, Cleaner, and Clauer.

Gratia Dei. Elaphoboſcum, or Harts fodder, held by ſome Authors to be a kind of wild Parſenip, and by others the wild, or baſtard Dittanie; wee call other bearbes, viz. Hedge Hyſſope, and blue Cranes-bill, or Crowfoot Cranes-bill; and Dwarfe, or low Ciſtus, Gratia Dei.

Gratieuſement. Graciouſly, courteouſly, affably, reſpectiuely; benignely, gently, fauourably.

Gratieuſeté: f. Graciouſneſſe, fauourableneſſe; affabilitie, courteſie, reſpectiueneſſe; humanitie, benignitie, gentleneſſe.

Gratieux: m. euſe: f. Gracious, courteous, affable, reſpectiue, debonaire; gentle, benigne, fauourable; full of humanitie; alſo, in good grace, or in great fauour, with; See Gracieux.

Gens de bien ſont touſiours gratieux: Prov. Honeſt people are euer full of reſpect.

Gratification: f. A gratification, or gratifying; the doing of a pleaſure in lieu of a pleaſure done.

Gratifié: m. ée: f. Gratified; honeſtly recompenced, thankfully requited.

Gratifier. To gratifie; requite, recompence; conferre a benefit on, doe a pleaſure vnto (in thankfulneſſe.)

Gratigné: m. ée: f. Scratched, ſcraped, clawed.

Gratigner. To ſcratch, claw, ſcrape.

Gratin: m. The remnant of childrens pap, left in, or ſticking to, the bottome of the skellet wherein it was

Gra-

Gratiole: f. The hearb called Hedge-hyſſope, and Gratia Dei.
Gratitude: f. Thankefulneſſe, grateſulneſſe.
Graton de porc. Of the fat that houlds th'entrals, being melted, there remaines a fleſhie part, which cut in peeces, is thus tearmed (at Paris.)
Grattement. See Gratement.
Gratter. as Grater.
Grattoir: m. A bread-grater, or great grater.
Gratture: f. A ſcratch, a ſcrape; a ſcratching, or ſcraping.
Gratuit. don gratuit. A free gift.
Gratuité: f. A gratuitie, or free gift.
Gratuitement. Freely; of meere good-will; without hope of recompence, or of returne.
Grauade: f. A reproach, taxation, or hard tearme; alſo, any hard meaſure.
Gravage de la mer. The ſands, the ſea ſhore.
Gravaigne. The wild gooſe tearmed a Barnacle.
Gravan. The name of a ſmall ſea-fiſh; as Belenne.
Gravant. Grauing, caruing, cutting; alſo, creeping, climbing, or ſcrambling vp a thing.
Grave: f. Sand, or grauell; alſo, the pulſe Ax-fitch, hatchet-fitch, ax-ſeed, ax-wort.
Grave: com. Graue, ſtatelie, ſolemne; ſeuere, auſtere; ſtayed, ſetled, cõſtant; ſage, diſcreet, aduiſed; ſad, important, heauie; greeuous.
Gravé: m. ée: f. Graued, carued, cut; pearced, or entered into.
Gravée: f. A ſhaking. ¶Norm.
Grauelé. cendres gravelées. Aſhes made of wine-lees burned.
Gravelée. Tartar; old lees of wine.
Gravelleux: m. euſe: f. Grauellie, full of the ſtone.
Gravelle: f. Small grauell, or ſand; ſuch as is in ſprings, or ſtreames; alſo, the ſtone.
Gravelleon: m. The ſtone.
Gravement. Grauely; ſolemnly; ſeuerely, auſterely; ſetledly, conſtantly, ſtayedly; ſagely, diſcreetly, aduiſedly; ſadly, heauily.
Graventer. as Greuanter.
Graveolence: f. An euill ſmell, ſmacke, or ſauour.
Graver. To graue, cut, carue; pierce, or enter into.
Graveur: m. A grauer, caruer, cutter.
Graveure: f. A graüing, caruing, cutting; piercing.
Graui: m. ie: f. Climbed, ſcaled, crawled, ſcrambled, crept vp, or vpon.
Gravier: m. Grauell; ſand mixed with ſmall ſtones.
Gravir. To climbe, ſcale, crawle, ſcramble, creepe, vp or vpon, by little and little.
Graviſſant. climbing, ſcaling, creeping vpward.
Gravité: f. Grauitie; ſtate, authoritie, ſolemnitie; ſeueritie, auſteritie; ſtayedneſſe; a ſage and ſetled faſhion of behauior, and carriage; alſo, importance, beauineſſe; greeuouſneſſe.
Faire vne groſſe gravité. To walke like an Alderman; be ſurlie, take a great deale of ſtate vpon him.
Gravoir: m. A heape of grauell.
Gravois: m. Grauell.
Gravonner. To proke, or dig, with the fingers, into the ground; (hence) alſo, to ſearch out.
Gravouer. as Gravier.
Graux: m. Sluces, or open paſſages, made of purpoſe to let the Sea into ponds, or low places.
Graye: f. The Rooke, or white-bild Crow; alſo, the Corniſh Chough; See Grole.
Grayerie. See Grarie.
Gré: m. will, willingneſſe; allowance, liking; accord, conſent; affection; hart, mind; wiſh, deſire, humor; alſo thanks, thankfulneſſe, grateſulneſſe, ora grateſull and good acceptation.
A gré. Willingly, freely, without conſtraint, of himſelfe, of his owne free will, with his whole conſent; alſo, with good ſucceſſe, after a mans wiſh, vnto his liking.
A mon gré. Willingly, by my good will; after my mind, according to my fancie or humor, euen as I would haue it.
En gré. Gratefully, thankfully, acceptably, in good part.
Tout de gré. Wittingly, willingly, of ſet purpoſe.
Porter gré à quelqu'un de. To take thankfully at the hands of, to acknowledge himſelfe beholden to, one for.
Ie vous en ſçay bon gré. I like you well, or giue you hartie thanks, for it.
Bon gré mal gré va le Preſtre au Sené: Prov. Needes muſt he goe whom the Diuell (neceſſitie) drieueth.
Greal. ſang greal; Looke Sangreal. ¶Rab.
Greau. A diſh, or diſh-full of. ¶Bourg.
Grebe. as Griaibe.
Grebonde: f. A ſeruice at Tennice, wherein the ball runnes not along on the houſe, but bounds on the ſide thereof.
Grec: m. A Greeke, or Grecian, one of Greece; alſo, a booke vſed in Popiſh Churches.
Il eſt Grec. He is a moſt craftie, or ſubtill Courtier.
Grec: m. Grecque: f. Greeke, Greekiſh, Grecian; of, or belonging to, Greece.
Beauté Grecque. A figgie plumpneſſe, or fatneſſe of bodie; (for the Grecians hould the fat bodie the faireſt.)
Foing Grec. The hearbe, or ſeed, fenegreeke.
Ortie Grecque. The Roman, or male, Nettle.
Vent Grec levant. A Northeaſt wind.
Relier vn livre à la Grecque. To make the backe thereof plaine.
Grecanizant. Grecanizing, or Greciani zing it; ſpeaking Greeke; imitating a Grecian.
Grecizer. To Grecianize it; to play the Grecian; or to ſpeake Greeke.
Grecques: f. Gregs, Gallogaskins, wide venitians.
Grecs: m. A wild bores vpper tuſhes.
Gredillé m. ée: f. Frizled, curled, criſped; alſo, puckered, or crumpled, by heat, &c; alſo, flattered, or ſoothed.
Grediller. To frizle, curle, or criſpe the haire, &c, with a hot Iron; alſo, to crumple, or pucker with heat; alſo, to ſooth, flatter, or feed with good words.
Grée: f. An agreement, accord, attonement. ¶Bret.
Greé m. ée: f. Agreed vnto; allowed of.
Gréer. To agree, or giue conſent, vnto; to approue, allow; accept, admit, of.
Gref. See Grief.
Greffe: m. Th'Office of a Pregnotarie, Secondarie, or chiefe Clerke to a Court; a Regiſtrie; a Clerkes Office.
Droict de greffe. 63: s. 9: d. Tour. due, in diuers places, vnto the king vpon euery ſale of wood.
Greffe: f. A graffe; a ſlip, or yong ſhoot fit to be graffed.
Greffe de Monſieur. The name of a certaine great ſweet apple.
Greffé: m. ée: f. Graffed, ingraffed.
Greffer. To graffe; or ingraffe.

Gref-

Greffier : m. A Regiſter, Pregnotarie, or principall clerke to a Court; a Secondarie in an Office, or Court; a clerke of Aſſiſe, or of Inrollments.
Greffiere : f. A Notareſſe, Regiſtreſſe; a ſhe Clerke, a Regiſters, or Clerkes, wife.
Greffiers : m. A kind of white hounds; as Bauds.
Gregeois : m. oiſe : f. Grecian, Greekiſh, of Greece.
Feu gregeois. Looke Feu.
Gregual : m. A Northeaſt wind.
Gregues : f. Wide Slops, Gregs, Gallogaſcoines, Venitians; great Gaſcon, or Spaniſh, hoſe.
Gregueſque. as Gregeois.
Gregueſques : f. Slops, Gregs, Gallogaſcoines, Venitians.
Greigneur. Great; alſo, greater, larger, bigger; elder.
Greinſelle : f. A Gooſeberrie.
Grelace : f. Great Hayle.
Grelle. as Greſle. Hayle.
Grelot. Trembler le grelot. as Grelotter.
Grelotter. To ſhake, tremble, didder, quake for cold; to ſay an Apes Pater-noſter.
Grelurette. as Gurluret.
Gremeaux de ſang. Clots of congealed bloud.
Gremeler. as Grommeler.
Gremil : m. The hearb Gromill, Grummell, or Graymill, Peare-plant, Lichewall.
Grenade : f. A Pomegranet; alſo, a ball of wild-fire, made like a Pomegranet.
Grenadier : m. A Pomegranet tree.
Grenadille : f. A Pomegranet bloſſome; alſo, a little Pomegranet.
Grenage : m. Graine, corne, ſeed; or the growth, or increase thereof.
Grenaille : f. Graine, or ſeed; alſo, the gold, ſiluer, &c, taken out of water, whereinto it had beene throwne red hot out of the Crurible; ſo tearmed, becauſe it is commonly in graines.
Grenaille de bronze. The ſkalie duſt, or ſubſtance lying on braſſe, &c, after it hath beene melted; and falling from it of it ſelfe, or with a little blowing.
Grenat : m. The precious ſtone called a Granat, or Garnet; alſo, a Carbuncle of a Pomegranet colour.
Grenat rouge. A kind of botch, or pockie ſore.
Grenatier : m. The little border ingrauen about a ſeale; ſo tearmed, becauſe tis like a row of Pomegranet kernels.
Grenatine : f. A ſmall Granat, or Garnet; alſo, marble ſpotted red, whether naturally or artificially.
Grene : f. as Graine.
Grené : m. ée : f. Seeded; eared.
Marbre grené. Sparkled, or ſpotted marble.
Grenée. Pouldre de groſſe grenée. Great graine powder fit for the Canon.
Grener. To ſeed, as hearbes; to eare, as corne.
Greneterie : f. The place, or Office, wherein the Controllers of the Kings Garners reſide.
Grenetiers : m. Ouerſeers; Keepers, or Controllers, of the Kings ſalt-Garners.
Grenie. Garder vne fille à grenie. See Graine.
Grenier : m. A Garner; a Corne-loft; a roome to keepe ſalt, or corne, in.
Grenier à coups de poing. A knaue; one that often deſerues to be pommelled.
Grenier à morpions. A filthie lowſie fellow, or one thats full of Crab-lice.
Monter au grenier ſans chandelle. To light in a turd.

Grenil. as Gremil. Hearbe Grummell, &c.
Grenouillant. Swilling, quaffing; bibbing, ſipping; alſo, croaking, like a Frog.
Grenouille : f. A Frog, a Paddocke.
Grenouille peſchereſſe. The ſea-Frog, ſea-diuell, ſea-toad.
Grenouiller. Continually to bib, tiple, ſip, ſwill in drinke; to ſpend his whole time in potting; alſo, to croake, or cry like a Frog.
Grenouillere : f. A froggie place; as Grenouilliere.
Grenouillette : f. A little Frog.
Grenouillette : f. Crowfoot, Kings Kob, gold Cups, gold Knops, butter Flower.
Grenouillette aquatique. Water Crowfoot, marſh Crowfoot.
Grenouillette de bois. Wood Crowfoot, ſweet Crowfoot.
Grenouillette dorée. Gold-Crap, golden Crowfoot, gold-haire Crowfoot, yellow Craw.
Grenouillette heriſſonnée. White Crowfoot, or Vrchin Crowfoot.
Grenouillette petite. White Crowfoot; or, as Grenouillette de bois.
Grenouilliere : f. A froggie place.
Grenouillon : m. A little Frog.
Grenu : m. uë : f. Grained; full of graine, of ſeed, of graines.
Gres. as Grez.
Greſil : m. Hayle, drizling; alſo, reeme, or the white froſt that hangs on trees.
Greſillé. Drizled on; couered, or hoare, with reeme.
Greſiller. To bayle, drizle, ſleet; reeme to fall; alſo, as Greziller.
Greſillon : m. A Cricket.
Greſillonné. Whitiſh, or hoarie, as graſſe with froſt, &c.
Greſillonner. To creake, or chirpe like a Cricket.
Greſle : f. Hayle.
Greſle : com. Thin, ſmall, ſlender; lanke; little, pretie; diminiſhed; alſo, ſhrill, or ſqueaking.
Greſlé : m. ée : f. Hayled on; alſo, pockie, or that hath the pocks.
Greſlement. Thinly, ſmally, ſlenderly; lankely; prettily; alſo, ſhrilly, or ſqueakingly.
Greſler. To hayle.
Greſler ſur le perſil. To dominiere ouer a weake aduerſarie; to ſhew himſelfe bold, and ſtout againſt one thats not able to reſiſt him.
Greſlet : m. ette : f. Little, prettie, deft, ſmalliſh.
Greſleté : f. Smallneſſe, littleneſſe, exilitie, ſlenderneſſe, thinneſſe.
Greſleux : m. euſe : f. Haylie, full of hayle, ſubiect vnto hayle; ſtormie.
Greſlier : m. ere : f. Haylie; of, or belonging to, hayle.
Chapeau greslier. A hat for the hayle, or to be worne while it hayles.
Greſſe. as Graiſſe; Fat; greaſe.
Greſſer. as Graiſſer.
Greſſiet : m. A liſper, one that liſpeth.
Greſſier : m. ere : f. Fattie, greaſie.
Gretiller. To crackle; See Greziller.
Grettes de lin : f. The hards, or towe of flax.
Grevable : com. Grieuous, paineſull; alſo, likelie to burſt.
Grevance : f. A grieuance, or aggrieuance.
Grevant. Grieuing, aggrieuing, vexing, oppreſſing.
Grevanté : m. ée : f. Grieued, aggrieued, vexed, oppreſſed.
Grevanter. To grieue, aggriene, moleſt, vex, oppreſſe.

Greve: f. The place of Execution, in Paris.
Ange de Greve. A Porter, or burthen-bearer; alſo, one that hangs on a Gibbet.
Faict Cardinal en Greve. One thats beheaded at the Greve.
Greve: f. Sand, or Grauell; and, a ſandie Strand, or Shore; alſo, the ſhanke, ſhinne, or (fore-part of the) leg.
La greve des cheveux (&, les cheveux departis en greve.) The ſhedding, or ſhading of the haire; the parting thereof on the forehead (after the old faſhion.)
Grevé: m. ée: f. Grieued, aggrieued, pained; vexed, hurt; moleſted, annoyed; wronged, oppreſſed, ouercharged, ouerburthened; alſo, burſt, or whoſe bowels are fallen into his cods.
Grevelure. The mayle of a Hawke.
Grever. To grieue, aggrieue, paine, vex, hurt; afflict, annoy, trouble, diſquiet, moleſt; wrong, iniure, ouercharge, ouerburthen, oppreſſe; alſo, to dig into, or make hollow, with the nayles.
Greves: f. Bootes; alſo greaues, or armour for the legs.
Grevcure: f. An inward rupture, or burſting (of the lower part of the bellie) or an extraordinarie ſwelling of the cods, by the bowels falling into them; a burſting, or being burſt.
Grevolable: com. Deſeruing the Rope; for whom the Gallowes groane.
Greux. Les greux: m. The nayles. ¶Pic.
Grez: m. A greetie, browne-gray, ſhining, hard, and long-laſting free-ſtone, good to paue with; and (ſmall-broken) to ſcowre braſen, or pewter veſſell; See Grais.
Grezillé. Wrigled; crumpled; crackled; curled, frizled, twirled.
Greziller. To wrigle, or ſtirre as a liue fiſh on a hot gridiron; to crumple together, as leather, or parchment in the fire; alſo, to crackle, as a ſhell in fire, or ſalted fleſh on coales; alſo, to curle, twirle, frizle haire &c.
Grezillons. Hawkes bells; alſo, as Grillons; alſo, little gobbets of fat, or ſalt meat broyled; alſo, crumplings, or twirles, as of haire curled.
Griache. as Griesche. ¶Rab.
Griaibe. A ſea-Mew. ¶Savoyard.
Griais: m. A kind of daintie red-legd Partridge; or, as Perdrix griesche.
Griais. Gray; or, of the colour of a Starling.
Griblettes: f. Collops.
Gribouiller. To rumble, or croake (as the guts doe through windineſſe.)
Gribouillis: m. The rumbling, croaking, or ſtirring of the guts; alſo, a fained name for a diuell.
Gribouri: m. A Goblin, Robingoodfellow, walking ſpirit that rumbles in houſes a nights.
Grief: m. An aggreuance, wrong, iniurie; oppreſſion; vexation, moleſtation, trouble.
Bailler griefs en plaidoirie. An Appealant to alledge the wrongs, and points of iniuſtice, done vnto him by the ſentence, from which he hath appealed.
Grief: m. ieve: f. Grieuous, offenſiue; noyſome, troubleſome; heauie, wrongfull, obnoxious.
Griesche: com. Gray; or peckled as a Stare; alſo, ſharp, or prickling; rebence;
Ortie griesche. The male, Romane, or Greeke nettle; (a ſtranger in England;) ſome alſo call ſo the ſmall, red, ſtinging, nettle.
Perdrix griesche. The ordinarie, or gray, Partridge.
Pie griesche. The Wariangle; (a rauenous bird.)
Grieux: m. A villaine, theeſe, raſcall. (v.m.)
Grifes. See Griffes.
Griffade: f. A clawing; a ſcratch, or griue with the clawes; a ranche, or clinch with a beaſts paw.
Griffe: m. A kind of big Tumbler, or dog thats bodied (but not deepe-hung) like the Talbot.
Griffe: f. A Claw, nayle, tallon.
Griffe grafle. By hooke or by crooke, ſquimble ſquamble, ſcamblingly, catch that catch may.
On cognoiſt le Diable à ſes griffes: Prov. The diuell is knowne by his clawes.
Griffé: m. ée: f. Clawed, or hauing clawes; alſo, griped, or graſped with clawes.
Griffer. To gripe, graſpe, ſeize, catch, lay hold on with clawes, &c; alſo, to ſeize, or catch at violently, greedily, and wrongfully.
Griffon: m. A Gripe, or Griffon.
Pied de griffon. A Griffons foot; an inſtrument (made like the foot of a Griffon) wherewith Surgeons draw moles, or the parts of a dead child, out of womens wombes; alſo, as Pommelaye, or Pomelée.
Griffonner. To write faſt, and ill; to ſcribble, to ſcrall it.
Griffu: m. üe: f. Hauing great clawes, or ſharpe tallons.
Grigne: com. Wrinkled.
Grigner. To grinne.
Grignette. Perdrix g. The ordinarie Partridge.
Grigneur. Greater, huger, larger, mightier.
Grignon de pain. A cruſtie peece of bread, or corner of a loafe.
Grignoté: m. ée: f. Gnawed, knapled, or nibled away.
Grignoter. To mumble, or eat, like a Conny, or Squirrell; alſo, to gnaw, knaple, or nible away.
Gril: m. A Gridiron.
Grillant. Broyling on a Gridiron; alſo, grating vp; alſo, gliding, ſliding, glib-running, trickling, along.
Grille: f. An Iron grate.
Grille de bois. An Engine made of ſtickes, or peeces of wood, bound together, and applyed vnto the wry necke of a beaſt, thereby to force it vnto ſtraitneſſe.
Les grilles d'une feneſtre. The grating, or barres of a window.
Grillé: m. ée: f. Broyled on a Gridiron; hence, alſo, parched, withered, or dryed vp with extreame heat; alſo, glid, or ſlipped along; alſo, grated, or cloſe barred vp.
Grillement: m. A broyling on a Gridiron; alſo, a parching with extreame heat; alſo, a gliding, or ſliding along; alſo, a grating, or ſhutting vp with grates.
Griller. To broyle on a Gridiron; alſo, to ſcorch, parch, or dry vp with extreame heat; alſo, to grate; ſet a grate before, ſhut vp with grates; alſo, to glide, ſlip, ſlide, ſteale, trickle, runne, glib along; alſo, as Griſſer; alſo, to ſit rumpled, or in plaits, as a garment thats too ſide-waſted; alſo, to ruffle, or ſnarle, as ouertwiſted thread.
Grillet: m. A Hawkes bell; alſo, as Grillon.
Grilletier: m. A Cricket-catcher; alſo, a maker of Hawkes bells.

Grillettć: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with bells, as a Hawke.

Grilleux: m. euſe: f. Gratie; full of grates; made like a grate.

Grillon des champs; a Graſhopper; de cheminée; a Cricket.

Il a beaucoup de grillons en la teſte. He is in his dumpes; his head is much troubled, full of crochets, or of Proclamations.

Les grillons gaſtent la feſte: Prov. Loud bablers are euer offenſiue at feaſts; a Prouerbe taxing Buffoones, and Sycophants, who with their idle chat are troubleſome to all that heare them.

Grillons. A kind of manacles, or torment for the fingers.

Grillot: m. (The name of) a certaine apple thats ripe about Auguſt.

Grillotier: m. A Gridiron-maker; alſo, a maker of Rattles, Curralls with Bells, and ſuch like toyes for children. ¶Rab.

Grillottement: m. A ringing, rickling, ratling, or crackling; alſo, a ſhogging, or iogging.

Grillotter. To ring, rickle, ratle, crackle; alſo, to ſhog, or iog.

Grimace: f. A crabd looke; a face, wry mouth, ill-fauoured countenance made; a mowing, or Apes face.

Grimacer. To make a face, or a wry mouth; to mowe.

Grimacier: m. A caruer; or maker of ſuch Monkeyes, or Antickes, as in ſumptuous buildings ſeeme to ſupport great arches, pillars, beames.

Grimaſſeur: m. A maker of mouthes, or faces.

Grimau, ou Grimaud. as Grimauld.

Grimaude: f. A kind of Owle; as Cheveche.

Grimauderie: f. A ſchoole, or crue of Petties, or of meane Grammer ſchollers.

Grimauld: m. A grim-faced fellow; a crabbed, wayward, froward, vnpleaſing perſon; alſo, as Grimaude; alſo, a Grammar-ſchoole boy.

Grimbetilolletée. as Beſongnée. ¶Rab.

Grimelet: m. as Grimouche; or, a ſmatterer in matters of learning.

Grimoire. A booke of coniuring, or exorciſing, much in vſe among Popiſh Prieſts.

Mots de la Grimoire. Coniurations, Exorciſmes; coniuring, or exorciſing tearmes.

Grimouche: m. A paltrie Pedant, meane Grammarian.

Grimpement: m. A climbing, crawling, creeping, ramping, running, vpwards.

Grimpe-mur. A climbe-wall, one that ſcrambles vp a wall.

Grimper. To climbe, crawle, creepe, ſcramble, vp; to rampe, or runne vpwards, as plants that are et againſt a wall.

Grimpereau: m. The little climbing, and reſtleſſe bird called, a Wood-pecker.

Grimpeur: m. A climber; a crawler, creeper, ſcrambler, vpwards.

Grimpreau. as Grimpereau.

Grimpure: f. as Grimpement.

Grincé: m. ée: f. Gnaſhed, or craſhed together.

Grincement: m. A gnaſhing, grinding, or grating of the teeth together.

Grincer les dents. To gnaſh, grind, grate, or craſh the teeth together for anger.

Grinceur: m. An angrie gnaſher of the teeth.

Grinches. as Guiſnes noires; A kind of blacke ſweet Cherries.

Grineur. for, Plus grand; Greater. (v.m.)

Gringalet: m. A merrie grig, pleaſant rogue, ſportfull knaue; conceited whoreſon.

Gringette. See Grignette.

Gringoriane. Eau Gringoriane. Holy-water; tearmed ſo, becauſe firſt inuented by a Pope Gregorie.

Gringotement: m. A quauering, or ſhaking with the voice.

Gringoter. To warble, quauer, ſhake with the voice.

Gringotis: m. A quauering, warbling, diuiſion.

Gringuenaudes: f. The filth which, after purging, ſticks to the taile.

Gringuenotant. Warbling, quauering, ſhaking of the voice.

Gringuenoter. as Gringoter.

Gringuenoteur: m. A warbler, ſhaker, quauerer; one that in ſinging vſeth to diuide much.

Gringuenotis: m. as Gringotis.

Grinon. as Grillon; A Cricket.

Grinſon: m. A Spinke, Sheldaple, Chaffinch.

Grinſſer. as Grincer; alſo, to crackle, or claſh.

Grio: m. New Barlie ſteeped in water, then dryed by a fire, and then fryed, and kept for (phiſicall) vſes.

Griote: f. A kind of tart, or ſoure Cherrie.

Griote ſeiche. as Grio.

Grioter. To gather thoſe Cherries.

Grioteux: m. euſe: f. Grauellie; alſo, light.

Griotier: m. A ſoure Cherrie-tree.

Griotier à roſes. A certaine great tree that reſembles the double-flowred Cherrie tree.

Griotte: f. Grauell; alſo, the meale, or floure of parched, or fryed Barlie; or, as Grio.

Grip: m. Rapine, violence; or, a violent catching, forcible taking, of other mens things.

Allons au Cap de grip. Let's abroad for a prize, or purchace; (a phraſe of Pirates, when they would to ſea.)

Gripauline. The hearbe Motherwort.

Griphe. as Griffe.

Gripher. as Griffer.

Gripp'argent: m. A Gripe-money, or Catch-coyne; a greedie, or couetous Judge, Magiſtrate, Officer, Lawyer.

Grippé: m. grippée: f. Seiſed, graſped, caught at greedily, griped, or taken violently.

Grippement: m. A griping, ſeizing, graſping.

Grippeminaud. A griping, catching, greedie, couetous, cruell fellow.

Grippeminer. To gripe, graſpe, ſeiſe greedily, cruelly, couetouſly.

Gripper. To ſeiſe, gripe, graſpe; clinch, catch, or ſnatch, at; lay violent hold, or couetous hands, on.

Pouldre à gripper. Any laſciuious, or luſt-begetting, Powder.

Grippets: m. The rumples of an ouer-long, or ill-made garment; alſo, the rufflings, or ſnarles of ouer-twiſted thread.

Grippeur: m. A griper; catcher, ſnatcher, greedie taker, violent ſeizer of other mens goods.

Gris: m. A kind of weeſell, or little beaſt of a bluiſh colour; alſo, grayneſſe, or the colour gray; a gray.

Gris de Minime. See Minime.

Gris pommelé. A daple gray.

Gris

Gris violant. Mallow

Gris: m. iſe: f. Gray, lig- hoarie, whitiſh.

Nihil gris. Looke Nihi

Perdrix griſe. The ord

Le pied gris. The Hob, of his euer-duſtie, or du Grillard: m. A Badger, B- ſea-Cob, or ſea-Gull.

Griſaſtre: com. Grayiſ

Griſer. To grow gray-ha

Griſle. as Grille.

Griſlement: m. A cra- broyling.

Griſon. Pierre de griſo is but ſoft when it is ta- terward growes verie h

Griſon: m. onne: f. - grizle; oldiſh, or ſomew

Oyſeau de bon, griſ

Griſonné: m. ée: f. G

Griſonnement: m. Gra- a growing whitiſh.

Griſonner. as Griſer.

Griſonneure: f. Grayn- the growing hoarie, &c

Grisser. To crackle, or (li

Elles griſſoient d'ar treamely to ſee it; or, they ſaw it.

Grive: f. The great Thru- ſtle; alſo, the Throſtle.

Grive ſiſalle. Looke Si

Grivelé: m. ée: f. Pec (blacke and white, or d Grivelée: f. A Bill, S blacke, and white.)

Grivelement: m. Pec eſpecially ſuch a one as or dunne and white.

Griveleure: f. A peck

Grivette. A Throſtle, or

Grivolé: m. ée: f. Peck white, like the bellie of

Grivolement. See Gri

Grivoler. To peckle, or lours; or (moſt properly and white.

Grivolure: f. as Grive

Grizonner. as Griſer.

Gro-bec: m. A certain bird, ſomewhat leſſe t

Grobianiſme. Grobia parts, or precepts.

Grobis. Faire du grob much ſtate vpon him.

Groée: f. A great qu- ſtirred things; whenc

A la groée. The bo on the ground; a Mu

Groigner. To nuzle, o

Groignon. A kind of

Groin de porceau. Th

Le groin de lievre terfeited by wanton ther.

Groin de Porc. Th der-blade, ſo tearme

Gris violant. Mallow-flower colour.
Gris: m. ise: f. Gray, light-russet, grizle, ash-coloured, hoarie, whitish.
Nihil gris. Looke Nihil.
Perdrix grise. The ordinarie gray Partridge.
Le pied gris. The Hob, Clowne, Boore, Hind; so called, of his euer-dustie, or durtie shooes.
Grisard: m. A Badger, Boason, Brocke, or Gray; also, a sea-Cob, or sea-Gull.
Grisastre: com. Grayish, hoarie, whitish.
Griser. To grow gray-haired; to wax hoare-headed.
Grisle. as Grille.
Grisslement: m. A crackling noyse, as of meat in the broyling.
Grison. Pierre de grison. A kind of free stone, which is but soft when it is taken out of the Quarrey, but afterward growes verie hard.
Grison: m. onne: f. Gray with age; whitish, hoarie, grizle; oldish, or somewhat old; and hence;
Oyseau de bon, grison guerebon: Pro.
Grisonné: m. ée: f. Growne gray, hoarie, whitish.
Grisonnement: m. Grayneſſe, hoarineſſe, whitishneſſe; a growing whitish.
Grisonner. as Griser.
Grisonneure: f. Grayneſſe, hoarineſſe, whitishneſſe; or, the growing hoarie, &c.
Grisser. To crackle, or (like a shoe) to creake.
Elles grissoient d'ardeur de le voir. They longed extreamely to see it; or, their desires were on fire vntill they saw it.
Grive: f. The great Thrush called a Fieldfare, or Feldifare; also, the Throstle.
Grive sisalle. Looke Sisalle.
Grivelé: m. ée: f. Peckled, speckled; meneld, mayled, (blacke and white, or dunne and white.)
Grivelée: f. A Bill, Scroll, or Scedule; (because it is blacke, and white.)
Grivelement: m. Peckledneſſe; or, a speckled colour; especially such a one as is composed of black and white, or dunne and white.
Griveleure: f. A peckledneſſe, or speckledneſſe.
Grivette. A Throstle, or Mauis.
Grivolé: m. ée: f. Peckled, speckled, meneld, black and white, like the bellie of a Snayle.
Grivolement. See Grivelement.
Grivoler. To peckle, or speckle; to spot with diuers colours; or (most properly) with black and white, or dunne and white.
Grivolure: f. as Griveleure.
Grizonner. as Griser.
Gro-bec: m. A certaine ash-coloured, and great-headed bird, somewhat lesse then a Thrush.
Grobianisme. Grobianisme, slouenlineſſe; vnmannerlie parts, or precepts.
Grobis. Faire du grobis. To be prowd, or surlie; to take much state vpon him.
Groée: f. A great quantitie, or number of stirring, or stirred things; whence;
A la groée. The boyish strambling for nuts, &c, cast on the ground; a Musse.
Groigner. To nuzle, or to root, with the snowt.
Groignon. A kind of Peach.
Groin de porceau. The snowt, or nose of a Hog.
Le groin de lievre. A Hares mouth; often counterfeited by wantons, with lippes thrust out together.
Groin de Porc. The head, or vpper part of the shoulder-blade, so tearmed by Anatomists; also, the hearbe Dandelion, Priests Crowne, Pisse-abed.
Faire le groin. To powt, lowre, frowne, be sullen, or surlie; to hang the lip, or sell sowre.
Rengourmer le groin à. To cuffe soundly; or, to pash on the mouth.
Groiselier: m. A Gooseberrie shrub.
Groiselles. Gooseberries; Thorn-berries; Fea-berries.
Groiselles noires. Blacke Gooseberries, blacke Ribes; an ill-tasting kind of the beyond-sea Gooseberrie.
Groiselles d'outre mer. as Groiselles rouges.
Groiselles rouges. Red Gooseberries, beyond-sea Gooseberries, Garden Currans, bastard Currans.
Groisellettes transmarins. as Groiselles rouges.
Groisse: f. as Grosseſle.
Groisselet. as Groiselier; the Gooseberrie Shrub.
Groizil: m. Broken Glasse.
Grole: f. A Rooke, or white-billed Crow; also, a Cornish Chough; or, the red-billd Rooke.
Grolle: f. The round circle in the white, at Butts; ¶Poict.
Grollé: m. ée: f. Parched, or carled, as Peaſe, Beanes, &c.
Grollier: m. A Cobler.
Grollier. Noyer grollier. A Wallnut-tree thats so young, or little, as it may yet be shaken. ¶Rab.
Gromé: m. ée: f. Buffetted, cuffed.
Grommelement: m. A grumbling, muttering, murmuring.
Grommeler. To grumble, repine, murmure, mutter betweene the teeth.
Grommeleur: m. A grumbler, mutterer, murmurer.
Grommeleux: m. euse: f. Grumbling, muttering, murmuring; also, rugged, rough, cardie, clottie, clustering, clusterie.
Bruit grommeleux. A confused, buzzing, humming, or deepe noyse.
Grommellement: m. A grumbling, muttering, murmuring.
Grommé: m. ée: f. Buffetted, cuffed.
Grommer. To buffet, or cuffe.
Gronau: m. A Gurnard. ¶Langued.
Groncer. To roare, as the sea in a storme.
Grondeller. To rumble; or, to roare, as a tempestuous water that beats against rockes, or roots growing to the bankes thereof.
Grondement: m. as Gronderie.
Gronder. To whurle, whurre, yarre, like a dog that is angrie; also, to grunt, groane, grumble (with threatning) against a commaundement.
Gronderie: f. A grunting, grumbling; whurling, yarring.
Grondeur: m. A grunter, or grumbler; a whurrer, or yarrer.
Grondin. A Hog. ¶Barrag.
Grondir. as Grondeller.
Grongnard: m. arde: f. Grunting; also, powting, or frowning.
Grongnement: m. A grunting.
Grongner. To grunt, like a Hog.
Gros: m. Greatneſſe, bigneſſe; or, the great, summe, or grosse of; also, an imposition vpon Wine, sold by great.
Le gros d'un'affaire. The most difficult, and most important, part of a busineſſe.
Le gros d'une armée. The Batallion which hath the moſt and beſt men in it; or, the thickeſt, and greateſt troope in the Groſſe, or bodie, of an armie.

Le gros de la gorge. The throat-boll; the Dew-lap.

Le gros d'une herbe. The ſtemme, or ſtalke of an hearbe.

Le gros d'une ville. The moſt rich, eminent, and able perſons in a towne.

Vendre en gros. To ſell by great; to vent, or vtter his commodities by whole-ſale.

Gros: m. The coyne called, a Groat; alſo, a Dramme, or the eight part of an ounce, of Gold, or Siluer; of other wares, the 32 part of an ounce; or, the 256 part of a pound.

Gros de Iacques Cœur. An old coyne of fine ſiluer, weighing three deniers, and firſt deuiſed at Bourges, by one of that name, in the yeare 1448.

Gros de Lorraine. A coyne worth ij s.viij d.Tour.

Gros de Mets. Is of the ſame value.

Gros de Neeſle. Is worth iij d ſterl.

Gros de Naples. Silke Grogeran.

Gros: m. groſſe: f. Groſſe, great, big, thicke; alſo, beauie, ſad, weightie; alſo, dull, blunt, rude, ſottiſh, blockiſh.

Groſſe haleine. à groſſe haleine. Blowing hard, or with full breath.

Eſtre à la groſſe haleine. To gaſpe, or gape for breath; to be almoſt out of breath.

Les groſſes maiſons de la ville. The richeſt houſes; or, the moſt powerfull, and moſt eminent families, in the Towne.

Gros mal. The falling ſickneſſe; or, foule euill.

Gros voyers. Such as haue meane, or middle Iuriſdiction.

Groſſe teſte. Il a vne groſſe teſte. He is a verie blockhead, grouthead, ioulthead.

Il n'a pas la teſte ſi groſſe. He is not ſo wiſe, or not ſo well ſeene in matters; he is not of ſo deepe a reach, of ſo great an vnderſtanding.

Amende groſſe. A fine, or amerciament of vj s.ſterl. or vpwards.

Gros comme le bras. As big as an arme; as ſure as a club.

Filer gros. Looke Filer.

Regarder d'un gros oeil. To frowne, looke big, or ſowre on; to caſt a ſurlie eye at.

Gros-bec. An aſh-coloured, and great-headed bird, ſomewhat leſſe then a Thruſh.

Gros-doux. A kind of faire, great, and ſweet apple.

Groſelier: m. A Gooſeberrie ſhrub.

Groſelier rouge. The ſhrub that beares the red Gooſeberrie, beyond-ſea Gooſeberrie, red Corinthes, or baſtard Corants.

Groſelles. as Groiſelles. Gooſeberries.

Gros-grain. The ſtuffe Grogeran.

Groſlé: m.ée: f. Tottered, rocked, ſhaken.

Febves groſlées. as Groulées.

Groſler. To rocke, totter, or ſhake, as a weake building in wind; alſo, as Graller.

Groſlier. See Grollier.

Gros-menil. The name of a certaine hard, and rough-skind Peare.

Gros-oeil. The name of an excellent apple for Cyder.

Groſſe: f. A Groſſe, or twelue dozen; alſo, as Groſſeſſe de femme; alſo, the ingroſſement of an Inſtrument, Pleading, Euidence, &c; or an Inſtrument &c ingroſſed.

Groſſelles. as Groiſelles.

Groſſement. Groſſely, rudely; beauily, ſadly, bluntly, blockiſhly.

Groſſer. To rattle in the throat.

Groſſerie: f. Great worke, things wrought by great; alſo, rudeneſſe, groſſeneſſe; alſo, Groſſerie; wares vttered, or the vttering of wares, by whole-ſale.

Groſſeſſe de femme. A womans groſſeneſſe, greatneſſe, or being great with child.

Groſſeur: f. Groſſeneſſe, bigneſſe, thickneſſe, greatneſſe, fullneſſe.

Groſſier: m. A Grocer; or, as Marchant groſſier.

Groſſier: m. ere: f. Groſſe, rude, vnpoliſhed; blockiſh, dull, clowniſh, lumpiſh.

Marchant groſſier. That ſells onely by Great, or vtters his commodities by whole-ſale.

Noix groſſiere. A Wallnut.

Groſſierement. as Groſſement.

Groſſir. To grow big, to wax fat, thicke, or groſſe.

Groſſiſſement: m. Thick-making; or, a growing big, fat, groſſe.

Groſſoyé: m.ée: f. Ingroſſed; written faire, or in great and faire letters.

Groſſoyer. To ingroſſe; to write faire, or in great and faire letters.

Grote: f. A coole roome vnder-ground for the Summer; or, as Grotte.

Groteſque. as Grotte.

Groteſquer. To lurke in caues, dennes, and obſcure places.

Groteſques: f. Pictures wherein (as pleaſe the Painter) all kind of odde things are repreſented without anie peculiar ſence, or meaning, but onely to feed the eye.

Groton: m. A little grot, cauerne, or hole; alſo, as Croton.

Grotte: f. A grot, caue, denne, cauerne, hole, (vnder the ground.)

Groüée. La groüée des fruicts; That fruit which falls in the night; wind-falls, night-falls, or night-wind-falls.

Groueteux. as Grouetteux.

Grouette: f. Grauell; or, a grauellie ſoyle.

Grouetteux: m. euſe: f. Grauellie; ſtonie.

Grougnaut: m. A Gurnard. ¶Langued.

Grougouler. To rumble, or croake, like the guts.

Grouiller. To moue, ſtirre, ſcrall; to make ſhew, or giue ſignes, of life by ſtirring; to ſpring, as a child in his mothers wombe; alſo, to rumble, as thoſe that in a houſe remoue beauie things; alſo, to ſwarme, abound, or breake out confuſedly in great numbers.

Grouillier: m. as Grollier.

Grouillis: m. A ſtirring heape of wormes, or other vermine; alſo, the ſpringing of a child in the wombe.

Groulard. The bird called, a Bunting.

Groulé. Febves groulées. Parched, or carled, Beanes.

Grouller. as Grouiller.

Groumeler. To murmure, grumble, mutter.

Grouppade: f. A certaine loftie manage, which muſt be beaten with a liuelie, and ſetled meaſure; the turne being more wide, and the horſes hinder parts more raiſed, then in an ordinarie curuet.

se Groyer. To boaſt, vaunt, cracke of his deeds.

Gruage. Couſtume de gruage. The cuſtome, order, or manner, of ſurueying, meaſuring, rating, and deliuering, of wood ſold in forreſts, &c.

Gruan: m. Oatmeale.

Gruant: m. Oatmeale, Groates.

Gru-

Gruau. Course meale, or, the great of corne; also, a young Crane; also, as Grio; also, a Shittlecocke.
Gruaux d'avoine. Oatmeale, Groates.
Gruë: f. A Crane; also, the Engine so called; also, a sot, asse, goosecap, hoydon, lobcocke.
Gruë franche. Free lading and vnlading at a wharfe; (a Priuiledge due vnto some Marchants.)
Bec de gruë. as Col de gruë; also, a Cranes bill (or Pinsers fashioned like a Cranes bill) wherewith Surgeons pull bullets, and arrow-heads out of wounded bodies.
Col de gruë. The hearbe Cranes-bill, Herons-bill, Stockes-bill, Pinke-needle; also, the hearbe Doues-foot; also, the hearbe Robert; (The later two being seuerall kinds of the first.)
Teste de gruë. as Col de gruë.
Danser la gruë. To hop; or daunce vpon (onely) one leg.
S'entretenir comme font les gruës. Obstinatly to follow together one sect, side, or faction.
Gruë: com. Simple, sillie; sottish, foolish; and hence;
Le monde n'est plus gruë. The world growes wise adayes.
Gruërie. as Grurie; also, the walke of a Gruyer.
Droict de gruërie, & garenne. A royaltie belonging vnto some Lords Iusticers, who haue thereby the hunting, brousage, and pawnage of their subiects, or vassalls, woods.
Grugeoir: m. A small Grater; as Esgrugeoir.
Grugeons. The smallest, or most writhen fruit on a tree; wrilings. ¶Norm.
Gruger. To grudge, repine, mutter (v. m.). also, to crumble, or breake into small peeces; or, as Esgruger.
Grurier: m. as Gruyer; Part of whose Office is, the keeping of the Hammer wherewith the wood, and timber that's felled for sale, or for the vse of Commoners, in Forrests, is marked.
Gruierie. as Grurie.
Gruiner. To gruntle, or grunt like a Hog.
Gruir. To crunkle, or creake, like a Crane.
Gruirie. as Grurie.
Gruin. as Grain. ¶Langued.
Gruine: m. A knot, bunch, cluster; clutter; also, a twinckling, or sparkling, as of a Dyamond.
Gruneau de sang: m. A clot, or clutter of congealed bloud.
Grumelement: m. A grunting, as of Hogs.
Grumeler. as Grommeler.
Grumeleux: m. euse: f. Clottie, cluttering, clusterie.
Bois grumeleux. Rough, knottie, rugged wood.
Grumer. To shite grapes; or, to void a dung that shewes the dunguer to haue eaten grapes; (a word applyed most vnto wild Swine.)
Grumeux. as Grumeleux.
Gruo. Barley flower dryed by the fire, &c; as Grio.
Gruolleux: m. euse: f. Grauellie, stonie.
Gruotte. as Griotte.
Grupé: m. ée: f. Grasped, seised, griped.
Grupement: m. A grasping, or griping; a seisure.
Gruper. To seise, gripe, grasse.
Ie le vous gruperay au truc. See Truc.
Gruppade: f. A violent gripe, seisure, grasse, catching, snatching at.
Grurie: f. Is a right of Iurisdiction (most properly) in the woods, and forrests that belong to another man; and consists of the notice taken of, and of the amerciaments and confiscations raised by, the offences committed therein. This right belongs wholly to the King in all the woods that be incloſed within his forrests, by-reason whereof, the amerciaments and confiscations are euer adiudged vnto him, and the restitutions and dammages vnto the Proprietaries: (And yet if another haue so great a proportion of woods incloſed within, or toyning vnto, the Kings forrests, that he must of necessitie keepe Officers to looke vnto them, and haue withall (by Prescription, or Charter) this right, or a Iurisdiction, within them; he may exercise it by his Officers, without the unpeachment of the Kings;) also; the Office, or the walke, of a Gruyer.
Grurie du charbon. Such a like Iurisdiction ouer the makers of Charcoale; as also, a propertie in part thereof, belonging to the King, in whose woods soeuer they be made.
Grus: m. Gruell; or water wherein any corne is boyled; Corne-broth; and hence;
Grus de froment. Furmentie.
Grus d'orge. as Orgemondé.
Gruser. To grieue, or to repine, at.
Grusler des pois. To parch Pease.
Gruyau: m. Oat-meale; or the course meale of any other corne; the great of corne.
Gruyer: m. A principall forrester; a chiefe Warden, or Verderer; a maister Sergeant in a forrest; for this name is generall, and proper vnto all these seuerall officers; who in the title, and right thereof, belonging to the King, haue authoritie, to cause his Ordinances to be kept, & to punish the breakers thereof (as well within other Lords woods, as within his) either by setting amerciaments on their heads, or by confiscating of their cattell (the whole benefit whereof is, in most places, adiudged vnto him) yet if the fact committed (in his forrests) require a greater penaltie then 60 s. Tourn. they must referre it ouer to the censure of the maisters of the Forrests; also, as in Gruier.
Gruyer: m. ere: f. Of a Crane; also, made (as a Hawke) onely for the Crane.
Gruyerie, & Gruyrie. as Grurie.
Gruyo sec. as Grio.
Gryllon: m. A Cricket, or Grasse-hopper.
Gryotte. as Griotte.
Grypaume: f. The hearbe Motherwort.
Gryper. See Griper.
Grys. as Gris.
Gusillardet: m. A Streamer, Pennon, or Pendant, in Ships, &c.
Guainier: m. The tree called, Iudas-tree; (belike because he hanged himselfe on one of that kind.)
Guaire. as Guere; Little.
Guaive. Choses guaives. Waifes, or straies; or, things quitted, abandoned, forsaken, left at randome.
Gualebaut: m. A boyse-cup, or tosse-pot.
Guaranion. A kind of horse; (an old word.)
Guarantir. as Garantir; To warrant.
Guarbances: f. Fitches, Vetches.
Guarde-manger. See Garde-manger.
Guardon. as Gardon.
Guare guare. War, war; take heed, take heed.
Sans dire guare. On a suddaine, at vnawares, before any warning giuen, without bidding beware.
Guarent. See Garent.
Guari: m. ie: f. Healed, whole, cured, recouered, of a disease.
Guarigues. Plaine champian fields. ¶Rab.

Guarir. To heale, cure, mend, recouer, make whole, restore vnto health.
Bon eſt le medicin qui ſe ſçait guarir: Prov. He is a good Phiſition that can heale himſelfe.
Guariſon: f. Health; curing, healing; recouerie, amendment.
Qui veut la guariſon du Mire, il luy convient tout ſon mal dire: Prov. He that would cured be muſt all his ill confeſſe.
Guariſſable: com. Healeable, cureable, recouerable,
Guarite: f. as Garite.
Guarrot. See Garrot.
Guaſtaliens. An Order of religious people, conſiſting both of men and women, and inſtituted the yeare 1537 by the Counteſſe of Guaſtala, a Mantuan Ladie.
Guaſtier: m. One that is hired to tend other mens grounds; or, as Gaſtier.
Guatte: f. The ſmall, or young Shad, the riuer Pilchard. ¶Bayonnois.
Guault. The name of an apple, that yeelds very pleaſant, and cleere Cyder.
Guayac. Guacum, Lignum vitæ, Pockewood.
Guayer. as Guéer.
Guaynier. as Guainier.
Guayre. as Guere. ¶Provençal.
Gué: m. A Foord; a ſhallow part of a riuer, where it may be waded ouer.
A grand cheval grand gué: Prov. A great horſe a great Foord muſt haue.
Gueable: com. Wadeable; fit, likelie, or eaſie, to be waded ouer.
Guedde, ou Guede: f. as Gueſde; (Courſe) Woad.
Guedé: m. ée: f. Stuffed, ſtrouting, crammed full of, or filled vp with, meat and drinke.
Guedon. Faire de guedon guedon. To mince, or ſimper it; to be nice, quaint, ſcrupulous of receiuing what inwardly is longed for; to ſay nay and take it, as men ſay maids doe; whence;
Et apres guedon. (Of women which do a thing after they haue made it ſtrange a while;) and afterwards they fall to it with a better ſtomacke then they had refuſed it.
Guedouar. as Gadouard.
Guedóufle: f. A ſmall oyle-pot, or bottle (moſt commonly) couered with leather; a ſmall Burrachoe.
Guedouille: f. as Guedoufle.
Guedouſſe de vinaigre; (Corruptly for Guedoufle.) A ſmall vineger bottle.
Guéé: m. éée: f. Waded ouer; alſo, rinced.
Guéer. To wade.
Guéer vn cheval. To waſh, or water a horſe in a riuer.
Guéer du linge. To rince linnen.
Guelphe: com. Of the Guelphian faction (in Italie;) alſo, factious, or ſeditious.
Guementé: m. ée: f. Asked, or inquired after; alſo, lamented, or complained of.
se Guementer. To aske, or inquire after; or, as Se Guermenter.
Guenaud: m. A begger; alſo, a digger of graues.
Guenchir. To ſtart, ſhrinke, or wrench aſide, thereby to auoid a comming blow. (v.m.)
Gueneau: m. The throtle, or throat-boll. ¶Bleſien.
Guenille: f. A rag; or old, and tattered clowt.
Guenipe: f. as Guenille.
Guenon: f. A Monkie; alſo, an Ape; whence;
Guenon de mer. as Singe de mer.
Guenonnée: f. A moſt beaſtlie wench; one that hath beene ridden by a Monkie.
Guenot: m. A Shepheards Familiar; a Spirit, or Hobgoblin, which (as ſome of thoſe ignorant Swaynes imagine) preſerues, and defends from wolues, and theeues, the ſheepe of him he belongs to. ¶Bleſien.
Guenupe: f. A little Monkie, or Marmouſet.
Guépillon. A holie-water-ſprinkle.
Guepillonneux: m. euſe: f. Sprinkling, bedewing, caſting water vpon.
Guerb. Common of paſture for a mans beaſts throughout all his neighbours grounds; (In ſome parts of Brittanie.)
Temps de guerb. Is from mid September to the middle of Februarie.
Guerdon: m. Guerdon, recompence, meed, remuneration, reward; alſo, as Gardon.
Guerdonné: m. ée: f. Guerdoned, rewarded.
Guerdonnement. A guerdoning, recompencing, remunerating, rewarding.
Guerdonner. To guerdon, remunerate, recompence, reward.
Guere. But little, ſmall, ſcant, ſcarce, rare; but a while, not long, but a little, not much.
Guere ſouvent. Rarely, ſeldome, not often, not many times.
Il ne s'en fault guere. There wants not much; there ſcarce wants any; tis like, or verie neere.
Gueres. as Guere; and hence;
Il n'y a gueres. It was but lately; it is not long agoe.
Quand il n'eſt gueres de Lune. When it is but yong Moone.
Gueret: m. Fallow, or fallow ground; land well manured, laboured, tilled; fitted, and prepared for ſeed, &c; alſo, mould, or ſoyle; alſo, mud, or filth.
Gueret vieux. Terres de g. Ground which hath lyen fallow a whole yeare at leaſt.
Guereté: m. ée: f. Layed, or made fallow; manured; laboured; fitted for ſeed, &c.
Guereter. To lay, or make land fallow; to eare, manure, till; to labour, or prepare for ſeed, &c.
Guergueſſes: f. Wide Slops, or Gallogaskins, great Gaſcon, or Spaniſh hoſe.
Gueri: m. ie: f. Healed, cured.
Guerir. as Guarir; To heale; to cure.
Guerir aulcun de tous ſes maulx; To kill one.
Gueriſon. See Guariſon.
Gueriſſable: com. Healeable, cureable.
Gueriſſeur: m. A healer, or curer.
Guerite: f. as Garite; or, a place of retreat, or biding hole (whereof diuers were wont to be made) in thicke Rampiers, for the preſeruation of thoſe that, in a ſurprize, had the lucke, or leiſure, to get into them; alſo, a Sentrie, or Watch-tower.
Guerité. Murs gueritez. Rampiers furniſhed with ſuch defences, or places of retreat; or Sentries.
Guerle: f. A Siue made of a skin dryed, and pierced full of holes.
Guerle: com. Squint-eyed, or gogle-eyed.
Guerler. To ſift (through a Guerle.)
Guerluſet. (Somewhat like our Shagrag;) a by-word for a beggerlie ſouldior.
se Guermenter. To lament, mourne, complaine, groane; alſo, to fret, afflict, or vex himſelfe; alſo, to aske, or enquire after; (an old, and ruſticke word.)

Guer-

Guernette: f. A Prawne: ¶Pariſien.
Guernier. See Grenier.
Guerpi: m. ie: f. Left, quit, forſaken, abandoned, relinquiſhed, giuen ouer; alſo, crept, crawled, gone forward by little and little.
Là guerpic. (In ſome ancient cuſtomes doth ſignifie) a widow.
Guerpie: f. as Guerpine; Alſo, a creeping, crawling, moouing forward by little and little.
Guerpine: f. A quitting, leauing, abandoning, relinquiſhing, forgoing, forſaking.
Guerpir. To quit, leaue, abandon, relinquiſh, forgoe, forſake; yeeld, or giue ouer; alſo (in a contrarie ſence) to ſeiſe, get, lay hold on, take poſſeſſion of; alſo, to creepe, crawle, moue, or goe forward by little and little.
Guerpiſon: f. as Guerpine.
Guerre: f. Warre; warfare; diſcord, ſtriſe, contention, debate.
Guerre guerroyable. Open, or mortall, warre.
Bonne guerre. Faire play; or, the keeping of Quarter; a taking, and ranſoming, of priſoners in warre.
Droict de guerre. See Droict.
Fer de guerre. The ſharpe head of a horſemans ſtaffe.
Tour de vieille guerre. A notable ſleight, plot, ſhift; an excellent ſtratagem.
Sentir la vieille guerre. To be of the old ſtampe, cut, faſhion, or humor.
La guerre eſt la feſte des morts: Prov. Warre is deathes holy-day.
Argent faict guerre: Prov. Money makes warre: viz: incites men to vndertake, and enables them to vndergoe, it.
Homme mort ne fait guerre: Prov. A dead man deales no blowes.
Mieux vaut en paix vn oeuf qu' en guerre vn boeuf: &, Mieux vaut ſervitude en paix que ſeigneurie en guerre: Prov. Looke Paix.
Nulle terre ſans guerre: Prov. No land without warre; he that hath land is ſeldome out of law; The like is;
Qui a terre, ſi, a guerre: Prov. He that hath ſoyle hath ſuits.
Tousjours ne dure orage ne guerre: Prov. Nor ſtorme, nor ſturre, continues euer.
Guerrier: m. A Warrier, a Martiall man.
Guerrier: m. ere: f. Warlike, Martiall, valiant, or forward in warre; alſo, contentious, brabling, litigious.
Guerrier. To warre, make warre vpon, fight, or contend againſt.
Guerrite. A kind of defence in a rampier; See Guerite.
Guerroyable: com. Warrable; fit to be warred on; See Guerre.
Guerroyant. Warring, fighting, contentious.
Guerroyé: m. ée: f. Warred or contended againſt, brabled or brawled with.
Guerroyement: m. Warre, warfare, or warfaring.
Guerroyer. To warre; fight, or contend againſt; brabble with; make warre vpon.
Guerroyeur: m. A Martialiſt, or Warrior; alſo, a fraymaker, ſwaggerer, contentious perſon.
Guery: m. ye: f. Healed, cured.
Guesde: f. Woad, or Wade; both hearbe, and ſtuffe thats made of the leaues thereof; Many of the French Dyers call the courſer ſort of the ſtuffe Guesde, and the finer Paſtel; moſt writers confound them; we call the hearbe Garden or tame Woad, therein to make it differ from;
Gueſde ſauvage. Wild Woad; which growes of it ſelfe in grounds wherein th'other hath beene ſowne; and differs not much from it but in ſtaulke, wherein this is the tenderer, browner, and ſmaller of the two.
Gueſdé: m. ée: f. Woaded; died with Woad.
Gueſpe: f. A Waſpe.
Guèspée: f. A neaſt, or ſwarme of Waſpes.
Guespier: m. A Woodwall, Wood-pecker, Eat-bee (a little bird;) alſo, a kind of Spider that ſomewhat reſembles a Waſpe.
Gueſpiere: f. A Waſpes neaſt.
Guespilleur: m. as Gaſpilleur; A ſquanderer.
Guespillonné: m. ée: f. Beſprinkled, bedewed with a ſprinkle.
Guespillonner. To beſprinkle, or bedew, as with a holy-water ſprinkle.
Guespine: f. A waſpiſh dame; or (as our Cockney of London) a nickname for a woman of Orieans.
Gueſt. harang gueſt. A ſhotten, or leane herring.
Gueſtré: m. ée: f. Hauing ſtartups on.
Gueſtres: f. Startups; high ſhooes, or gamaſhes, for countrey folkes.
Guesvé: m. ée: f. Waiued; refuſed, abandoned, giuen ouer.
Gueſve. Seigneur gueſve. A Landlord vnto whom ſurrender is made of the ground held of him.
Choſes gueſves. Waiſes, ſtrayes, or things left, quitted, abandoned.
Gueſvement: m. A wayving, a refuſing; alſo, a reſignation, or ſurrender of land.
Gueſver. To waiue, refuſe, abandon, giue ouer; alſo, to ſurrender, giue backe, reſigne, redeliuer.
Gueſveux: m. euſe: f. Plaſhie, flaſhie; alſo, beplaſhed.
Guet: m. Watch, ward, watch and ward; alſo, heed, obſeruation, carefull ſpying, diligent looking about; alſo, the watch, or companie appointed to watch.
Guet à pens; ou, à penſé; ou, appens; ou, appenſé. An ambuſh prepared, or laid with a purpoſe to intrap, deceiue, or deſpoyle the partie watched for; alſo, the act done, or offence committed, by the meanes of ſuch an ambuſh; and hence;
De guet à penſée. Wittingly, willingly, aduiſedly, deliberately, of ſet purpoſe; and, with a malicious intent, or a reſolution to doe miſchiefe.
Archers du guet. Looke Archer.
Chevalier du guet. The Captaine of the ordinarie watch of Paris.
Droict du guet. A Prerogatiue ſome Lords (inhabitants of the borders of the ſea coaſt) haue ouer their tenants, euerie one of whom they may compell to watch the coaſt one day in a moneth (whether there be occaſion or no) or to pay for each default 5 s. Tourn. which are often changed into a certaine quantitie of corne, hennes, &c, according to the cuſtome of the place, or the compoſition made with them; alſo, Caſile-gard, or Caſtle-ward; See Droict.
Accouſtré pour aller au guet. Throughly tipled, ſoundly whitled, that hath ſeene the diuell.
Aller de guet à ſes affaires. To goe ſlowly, lazily, drouſily, ſleepily about his buſineſſe.
Eſtre du guet. as Avoir la caſſade; me voila bien du guet. I am now plainely couſened, beguiled, ouerraught; I am come to a faire paſſe, I am finely dreſt indeed.
Faire le guet à Montfaucon. To be hanged (we may ſay at Tiburne; Montfaucon being a hill (neere Paris) whereon the common Gibbet ſtands.)
Faire le guet au temps. To obſerue narrowly the courſe;

course; and reuolutions of times, and seasons; Looke Faire.

Tenir le guet. To watch and ward.

Bon guet chasse malaventure: Prov. Good heed preuents misfortunes, (or expells them.)

Guettable. Watchable; subiect vnto watching, and warding.

Guettant. Watching, warding; prying, spying; heeding, marking, obseruing; dogging, staulking after.

En guettant, & espiant. Craftily, falsly; en aduantage, at vnawares.

Guette: f. A watchman, warder; spie, espiall; a scout-watch; also, a Sentinell, or watch-tower in a castle, or fortresse.

Guetté: m. ée: f. Watched, warded; also, pried, or spied into; narrowly obserued, maliciously dogged.

Guettement: m. A watching, warding; prying; heeding, obseruing; dogging, lying in wait for.

Guetter. To watch, ward, watch and ward; spie, prie, looke about; marke, heed, note, obserue narrowly; dog, staulke after, lye in wait for.

Guetteur: m. A watcher, warder; spie, espiall; prier, busie obseruer of.

Guetteur de chemins. A way-layer, a robber on the highway, a purse-taker, one of Saint Nicholas Clerkes.

Gueu. as Queux; A Cooke.

Gueüant. Begging in the highway; or, like a rogue any way.

Guever. See Guesver.

Gueüer. as Gueuler.

Gueüesse: f. as Gueuse; A woman begger.

Gueule: f. The mouth; also, (and most properly) the throat, gullet, pipe, or passage, wherby meat is sent from the mouth downe to the stomacke; also, the stomacke it selfe; or the mouth or Orifice thereof.

Gueule droitte. (In Architecture) as Nasselle.

Gueule renversée. as Cyme.

Harnois de gueule. Meat, victualls, mouth-armour, throat-harnesse.

Marchandise de gueule. Victualls, Kitchen ware.

Mot de gueule. A iest, or merrie word.

Tonneau à gueule bée. A Tunne whose head is beaten out; or, thats open at the one end.

Bien fendú de gueule. Well mouth clouen, that hath a goodlie wide mouth.

Au chat cendreux jamais ne tombe rien en gueule: &, à regnard endormi rien ne chet en la gueule: Prov. Sluggish, or idle people neuer get any thing to purpose; w. sav, of idlenesse comes no goodnesse.

Au chat lescheur bat on souvent la gueule: Prov. Looke Chat.

Gueules. Gules; red, or sanguine, in Blazon.

Gueullard: m. The muzzle, or mouth of a beast; also, a wide-mouthed fellow; also, an imbosse (like the head of a Lyon) vpon auncient buskins.

Gueulle: f. See Gueule.

Gueus: m. A begger; an idle rogue, a louzie tattered vagabond.

Gueusant. as Gueüant.

Gueuse: f. A woman begger, a she rogue, a great, lazie, and louzie queane; a Doxie, or Mort; also, a great lump of melted yron, rude, and vnfashioned, euen as it comes from the furnace.

Gueuser. To beg on the highway, like a rogue.

Gueuserie: f. Beggarie; a canting, or begging.

Guey: m. as Gué; A foord.

Gueuze. as Gueuse.

Gui: m. See Guy.

Guichet: m. A wicket; or hatch of a doore.

Madame du guichet (A nickname for a Midwife.)

Guichetier: m. He that keepeth the wicket of a prison.

Guidage. A Passport, or Writ of safe conduct.

Guide: f. A guide, leader, conductor, director; also, a certain little sea-fish that continually swimmes before the Whale; also, a kind of disease, or sore, in a horses withers.

Guidé: m. ée: f. Guided, conducted, directed.

Guideau: m. A kind of fish-net.

Guider. To guide, lead, direct, conduct; set, or keepe, in the way.

Guideymant. The needle of a sea-compasse.

Guidon: m. A Standard, Ensigne, or Banner, vnder which a troupe of men of Armes doe serue; also, he that beares it.

Guieor. as Guide; An old word.

Guier. as Guider; To guide. (v.m.)

Guieres. as Guere.

Guiges: f. The handles of a Targuet, or Shield.

Guignade: f. as Guignement.

Guignement: m. A winking, or aiming at a thing with one eye.

Guigne-queuë. The little bird called, a Wagtaile, or Dish-washer.

Guigner. To winke, or aime at with one eye; to leuell at a thing, winking; also, to blinke; to winke and looke askew.

Guigneur: m. A winker; an aimer with one eye, as a Gunner taking his leuell; also, a blinker.

Guignons de roches. The corners, or edges of rockes.

Guigneron. A Gold-finder, a Dung-farmer.

Guilée: f. A great shower of raine.

Guilhedin: m. A gelding.

Guillardet. as Gaillard: Rab.

Guillaume. (A name;) William; also, a nickname for a gull, dolt, fop, foole.

Guillaume baillez moy la lance. A play (or punishment) wherein one thats hudwinkt rides on anothers backe, and calling thus, hath a shitten staffe raught him.

Guille: f. The quill, or faucet of a wine vessell; also, the keele of a ship; also, guile, craft, deceit.

Guille de beurre. A peece of butter made of the fashion of a finger.

Guillé: m. ée: f. Beguiled.

Guillebardeau: m. A toole, or instrument.

Guillée. as Guilée.

Guillemine: f. A certaine Edict against some exorbitant priuiledges of the Church; deuised, and published by Guillaume Poyet, a Chancellor of Fraunce.

Guillemins: m. An Order of Hermites, instituted by Guillaume, Duke of Guienne, and Earle of Poictou; Seeke Les Blancs Manteaux, in Manteau.

Guillemot: m. A certain three-towed fowle, that somewhat resembles a Plouer.

Guillenard: m. Part of a womans &c.

Guiller. To couzen, beguile, deceiue. (v.m.)

Guilleret: m. ette: f. Merrie, frolicke, pleasant, liuelie; also, red about the gills, as one that is cup-shotten, or hath drunke somewhat hard.

Guillerie de passereaux: f. The chirping of Sparrowes.

Guillery: m. as Guillerie.

Guillochis: m. A kind of flourishing in Masonrie, or Carpentrie.

Guilloquet. Part of a womans &c.

Guillot : m. A proper name for a man ; and hence ;
Guillot le Songeur. A dreaming fellow, a dull sleepi loggar-head.
Logé chez Guillot le Songeur. Put into a dump, muse, dreame, driuen into a studie.
Guilmin : m. A noddie, ninnie, coxe, ideot.
Guilon : f. A rigge ; a wanton, or wandering, girle.
Guilverdons : m. Great gobbets of liquid meats, as of oysters, &c.
Guimauves : f. Marsh Mallowes, moorish Mallowes, white Mallowes.
Guimauves sauvages. The wild Mallowes called, Veruine Mallowes, cut Mallowes, & Simons Mallowes.
Guimaux prez guimaux. Fertill medowes, which are mowed twice a yeare. ¶Rab.
Guimpe, or Guimphe : f. as Guimple.
Guimpier : m. A maker of Crepines.
Guimple : f. The Crepine of a French-hood.
Guinche : f. A sword, or hatchell for a flax-wife.
Guincher. To wrigle, writhe, wrinch a toeside.
Guindage : m. A hoising, or lifting vp ; or an engine to lift vp things with.
Guindal : m. An engine to lift vp stones, or timber with.
Guindé : m. ée : f. Lift, or hoysed vp.
Guinder. To hoyse, or lift vp on high.
Guinder les cieux. To bow downe the heauens.
Se Guinder. To bound, skip, or leap vp ; also, to knit, or gather himselfe together.
Guindereſſe. la g. de la misaine. The mizen halliards ; the rope whereby the mizen sayle is hoysed vp.
Guindol. See Guindal.
Guindoles. as Guindoules.
Guindoules : f. The fruit called, Iuiubes.
Guindre : f. A reele, or wheele to winde silke on.
Guines. See Guisnes.
Guinguois. de guinguois. Slouenly, vneuenly, vnhandsomely, awry ; also, huffingly, swaggeringly, aswash.
Guinson. as Pinson.
Guipilon. An holiewater sprinkle.
Guipure : f. A grosse black thread (couered, or whipt about with silke) whereof corded hat-bands be made.
Guipures d'or. Goulden (and wreathed) Aglets, or Tags.
Guirlande : f. A garland.
Guirlandé : m. ée : f. Begarlanded, wearing a Garland ; bedecked, or set out, with Garlands.
Guisarme : f. A kind of (offensiue) long-handled, and long-headed, weapon ; or (as the Spanish Visarma*) a staffe, that hath within it two long pikes, which with a shoot, or thrust forward, come forth.*
Guise : f. Guise ; manner, fashion, custome, vsage ; humor.
Chascun a sa guise : Pro. Euery one as he likes.
Tant de villes tant de guises : Pro. In euery towne be seuerall customes, or fashions.
Guisnes : f. A kind of little, sweet, and long cherries ; tearmed so, because at first they came out of Guyenne*; also, any kind of Cherries.*
Guisner : m. A sweet-cherrie tree.
Guiterne ; or Guiterre : f. A Gitterne.
Gulpe : f. A wound, or bloud-wipe ; (in Blazon, a golp ; and must be purple.)
Gulpine : f. A quitting, leauing, abandoning, forsaking, wayuing, giuing ouer an estate in land.
Gulpir. as Guerpir. To quit, leaue, waiue.
Gumenes : f. The tackling of a ship.
Guoguette. as Gogue.
Le cœur luy dit guoguette. He is exceeding merrie, liuelie, iocond, frolicke ; his hart leaps for ioy.
Guorre : f. as Gorre ; A sow. ¶Rab.
Guoy : m. A little hand-bill, vsed for the cutting, and pruining of Vines.
Gurleret. A nickname, or by-word for a beggarlie souldier.
Gurpir. To quit, forgoe, leaue, abandon.
Gurpilon. : f. A quitting, forgoing, leauing, abandoning.
Gules. The ball of the eye ; so tearmed in blazon ; and must euer be sangume.
Gutale, ou Guttale. Ale, good Ale.
Guttural : m. ale : f. Gutturall ; belonging to the throat.
Guy : m. Misseltoe, or Misseldine.
Guy de Flandres. A kind of morter wherewith fret-worke is made.
Guyberges. as Guymberges.
Guybourc. The name of a certaine greene, and sweet apple.
Guymauves. as Guimauves.
Guymberges. Flourisht worke in seeling, or vaulting.
Guynettes : f. Yong Guinnie hennes.
Guynnes. as, Guisnes.
Guypierre. as Guipure.
Guypure. as Guipure.
Guyron. That which we call Geronne, in blasing of Armes.
Guysarme. as Guisarme.
Guysarmier. One that serues with a Guisarme.
Guyure : f. A snake, an adder.
Gy : m. Plaister, morter ; looke Gyp.
Gymnaste. Exercised ; or, nimble at exercise. ¶Rab.
Gynecocratie : f. Feminine rule, or authoritie, the gouernment of a woman.
Gyngois. à gyngois. as, de Guinguois.
Gynocratie : f. The Gouernment of a woman.
Gyp, or Gyps. Morter, plaister ; or, a kind of white stone whereof plaister is made.
Gypsé : m. ée : f. Like morter, or plaister ; also, mortered, or plaistered.
Gyraffe : as Giraffe.
Gyrine : f. The frog tearmed, a Tadpole.
Gyroflée : f. A gilloflower. See Giroflée.
Gyroles : f. Skirret roots.
Gyron. as Guyron (a tearme of blasonrie.)
Gyrouët : m. A fane ; or weathercocke ; See Girouëtte.
Gyrouëtte : f. as Gyrouët.
Gyrouëtteux : m. euse : f. Flitting, wauering, inconstant, giddie, vnsteddie, as a fane, or weathercock.

H

HA. (The third person of the Present tense of the verb Avoir*)* Il ha : He hath.
Ha. An Interiection, sometimes denoting a wish ; as ha s'il m' estoit permis ! sometimes griefe ; as, ha, quelle fascherie ! Ah, or alas, what a trouble ! sometimes threatning, or anger ; as, ha meschant tu es mort. Ha villaine thou art dead.
Ha ha. An Interiection of feare, or of wonder (vpon the seeing, or finding of a thing on a suddain) A ha ; also, of laughter (then acompanied with hé*) as,* ha ha hé.
Haaler. as Hasler.

Habarre : f. A Lyter ; See Gabarre.
Habatre. as Abbatre.
Habeliné : m. ée : f. Diſtempered ; or, (as ſome haue vnderſtood it) all-to-bepiſſed : ¶Rab.
Habile : com. Able; ſtrong, luſtie, powerfull, hardie; quicke, nimble, actiue, réadie, cunning, expert; ſufficient; fit for, handſome in, apt vnto, any thing be vndertakes, or is put vnto.
Habilement. Ably; ſtrongly, luſtily, hardily; nimbly, quickly, readily; aptly, fitly, with good decorum; cunningly, expertly; ſufficiently.
Habileté : f. Abieneſſe, abilitie; ſtrength, luſtineſſe; quickneſſe, lightneſſe, actiuitie, nimbleneſſe; aptneſſe, readineſſe, handſomeneſſe, dexteritie; cunning; ſufficiencie.
Il ne tient ia qu' à vne habileté de main. There needs no more but one right blow; one blow well ſet on would ſerue the turne.
Habilité. as Habileté.
Habilité : m. ée : f. Enabled; fitted; confirmed; auowed, allowed of.
Habiliter. To enable; confirme, giue ſtrength, or power vnto; to apt, or make fit for; to auow, or allow of.
Habiliter vn mineur. To enable an infant to ſue, or anſwer in law, by appointing him a Gardian who may doe it for him.
Habiliter vn proces. C'eſt quand les parties droiſſent leurs procedures, pieces, & productions avec inventaire, pour en mettre les ſacs par devers le Iuge, pour avoir droict, & iugement : ¶Ragueau.
Habillage de poullailles. The dreſſing thereof; as the pluming, drawing, &c.
Habillé : m. ée : f. Dreſſed, clothed, arrayed, attired, apparelled; furniſhed; decked, adorned.
Habillé comme vn brûſleur de maiſons. In tattered, or deſperate, array.
Habillement : m. Apparell, clothing, array, attire; a ſute of apparell; alſo, a garment, rayment, veſtment, or veſture; alſo, armour, or harneſſe; and hence;
Habillement de teſte. An helmet, or headpeece.
Habiller. To cloth, dreſſe, apparell, array, attire; to furniſh; alſo, to decke, trimme, adorne.
Habit : m. A garment, raiment, veſtiment, or veſture; apparell, or a ſute of apparell; alſo, an habit; a faſhion ſetled, a vſe or cuſtome gotten.
Il n'eſt pas ſi fol qu'il en porte l' habit. He is not ſo fond as he ſeemes, or makes ſhew for.
L' habit ne fait pas le moine : Prov. Tis not the habit (but the heart) that makes a man religious.
Habitable : com. Inhabitable; which may be dwelt in.
Habitacle : m. An habitacle, or habitation; a dwelling, or abiding place.
Habitant : m. An inhabitant, or inhabiter; a dweller, or abider in a place.
Habitant. Inhabiting, dwelling, abiding in.
Habitation : f. An habitation, or inhabitation, a dwelling, or place of abiding.
Habité. Dwelt, inhabited, lodged, remained, abead.
Habiter. To dwell, inhabit, lodge, reſide, remaine, wone, abide, or liue in a place.
Habitual : m. ale : f. Habituall; cuſtomarie, continuall; alſo, wholly poſſeſſing.
Habituation : f. An habit, vſe, or cuſtome; a manner gotten, faſhion ſetled, forme taken.
Habitude : f. Cuſtome, vſe, acquaintance, familiaritie with.
L' habitude de corps. The eſtate, plight, liking, or diſpoſition of the bodie.
Avoir habitude avec. To conuerſe, or commerce; to meddle, deale, or haue much to doe, with.
Habitué : m. A houſhold ſeruant, or attendant; one that dwells with, and weares the Liuerie of, him he belongs to.
Habitué : m. ée : f. Vſed, enured, accuſtomed, framed, or made, vnto; ſetled, well practiſed, that hath got an habit, in; alſo, well ſhaped, well liking, of good conſtitution of bodie.
Habituer. To vſe, accuſtome, enure, make, or frame, vnto; to ſettle, practiſe, breed an habit, in.
Hable : m. A Port, or Hauen.
Habler. To ſpeake; whence;
Quand Marthe file, & Ambroſe hable, leur cas eſt triſte, & pitoyable : Prov. When wiues doe ſpinne, and husbands babble, their caſe is hard, and lamentable.
Hableur : m. A talkatiue perſon, a man full of words.
Habordean : m. The fiſh Haberdine.
Habrizer. To get into the ſhade, or ſhrowd himſelfe vnder a couert; alſo, to ſleepe.
Hache : f. An axe; alſo, a crooked peece of land ſomewhat reſembling the bowed beake of an axe; alſo, the bearbe Smallage; (for which looke Ache*) alſo, a Torch.*
Hache d'armes. A Battle-axe, or Maſe of Armes.
Hache royalle. The Affodill, or Aſphodill flower; eſpecially (the ſmall kind thereof called) the Speare for a King.
Haché : m. ée : f. Hacked, ſhred, ſliced, chopped, cut, or hewed in peeces; alſo, hatched, as the hilt of a ſword.
Hachement : m. A hacking, ſhredding, ſlicing; hewing, or cutting in peeces.
Par hachemens. In peecemeale, ſlices, or ſhreds; as a hachee; or, as ſmall as meat in a hachee, or fleſh to the pot.
Hacher. To hacke, ſhread, ſlice; hew, chop; cut in peeces (as with an axe;) alſo, to cut the aire, as a bird that flies apace; alſo, to hatch a bilt.
Hachereau : m. A little axe; an Addis.
Hachette : f. A hatchet, or ſmall axe.
Hachis : m. A hachey, or hachee; a ſliced gallimaufrey, or minced meat.
Hacquebute : f. An Haquebut, or Harguebuze.
Hacquebuter. To ſhoot in, or with, an Harguebuze.
Hacquet : m. as Haquet; Alſo, a little Ceſterne, or open veſſell, for the rinſing of glaſſes, or cooling of wine in Summer.
Hacquetier. as Haquetier.
Hadea. (An Interiection of perceiuing, or ſurpriſing) ha are you there?
Hadot : m. A ſalt Haddocke.
Hadou. as Hadot.
Haffres : f. Fright, aſtoniſhment; Looke Affres.
Haffreux. as Affreux.
Hagard : m. arde : f. Hagard, wild, ſtrange; froward, contrarie, croſſe; vnſociable, vncompanable, incompatible.
Faulcon hagard. A Hagard; a Faulcon that preyed for her ſelfe long before ſhe was taken.
Hagiographe : com. Written holily, or ſacredly.
Haglé : m. ée : f. Mailed; ſpeckled as the coat of a hawke.
Haglure : f. The maile (or ſpeckledneſſe) of the coat of a hawke.
Hahay. faire gros hahay. To make a great ſtirre, or mightie ſlaughter.
Haï : m. Haïe : f. Hated, loathed; deteſted, abhorred.

Il eſt povre qui eſt de Dieu haï: Prov. Poore is the man whom God abhorres.
Qui de ſes ſubiects eſt haï n'eſt pas Seigneur de ſon païs: Prov. The Prince thats hated, is not Lord, of his countrey.
Hai. An Interiection, of encouragement, as, hai avant; On afore there hoe; alſo, of complayning, as, hai hai hai vous me bleſſez; Alas, fie, out, you hurt me; Looke Hay.
Haias: m. A kind of Beech tree.
Haict. Seeke Hait.
Haie: f. A hedge; Looke Haye.
Hailler: m. A great thicke buſh, or buſhie place; a thornie plot, ground full of briers, thicket of brambles.
Haillier. as Hailler.
Haillon: m. A clowt, a tatter, a rag; alſo, an old, torne, or tattered garment.
O les beaux haillons. (So ſay they in ſome parts of France, when they ſee a man moſt richly attired.)
Haillonné: m. ée: f. Cut into rags, or tatters; whereof clowts are made.
Diſcours haillonnez. Ragged, or patched diſcourſes.
Haillonner. To cut into rags, or tatters; to clowt, or make clowts of.
Haillonneux: m. euſe: f. Ragged, torne, tattered; full of clowts, patches; rags, or tatters.
Haim: m. A (fiſhing) hooke.
Haine: f. Hate, hatred; loathing, deteſtation; malice, rancor, a grudge, ill-will.
Haine de Prince ſignifie mort d'homme: Prov. A Princes hate imports the death of man.
Nul bien ſans haine: Prov. No happineſſe without hatred.
Haines. les haines: f. The bips; or, as l'Eine.
Haineur: m. A hater, loather, deteſter, abhorrer.
Haineuſeté: f. Hatefulneſſe, odiouſneſſe; or an extreame deteſtation of.
Haineux: m. euſe: f. Full of hate; hating, loathing, deteſting extreamely; alſo, hatefull, deteſtable, moſt odious.
Haïr. To hate; loath, deteſt, abhorre, ſlight, malice, repine at, beare ill-will vnto.
Oncques n'ayma bien qui pour ſi peu haït: Prov. He neuer ſoundly loued that hateth for a toy.
Haire: m. A leane, or ill-fauoured curtall; a carrion iade; (hence) alſo, a wretched or miſerable fellow; a poore ſnake.
Haire: f. A Sackcloth; a ſleeueleſſe ſhirt, &c, made of rugged haire, and worne (as a penance, or fleſh-tamer;) alſo, a Temmes, Boulter, or Strainer; alſo, a ſhrewd, or villanous pranke; and hence;
Bailler la haire. (Seeke Bailler;) &;
Faire mille haires à. To vexe, trouble, diſquiet, moleſt extreamely.
Haireux: m. euſe: f. Rough, rugged, harſh, like Sackecloth.
Hairon: A heron, herne, herneſhaw.
Hairon marin. The Sword-fiſh.
Haironneau: m. A yong heron.
Haironnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a heron; alſo, heron-like; hence, long, tall; ſlender; leane, ſtarueling, meager; lanke.
Faulcon haironnier. A hernet, a faulcon made eagely to the heron.
Haironniere: f. A herons neaſt, or ayrie; a herneſhaw, or ſhaw of wood, wherein herons breed.
Haïssable: com. Hatable; fit, or worthie to be hated.

Haiſtre: m. A Beech tree.
Hait: m. Liuelineſſe, luſtineſſe; gladneſſe, cheerefulneſſe; willingneſſe; readineſſe.
Cela eſt bien à mon hait. That fits my humor, pleaſes my fancie; ſorts to my wiſh, iumpes with my deſires.
Haité: m. ée: f. Linelie, luſtie, ſound, blithe, buxome; cheerefull, diſpoſe.
Haiter. To like well of, or be well pleaſed with; alſo, to cheere vp.
Haitié. as Haité.
Haitoudeau: m. Looke Heſtoudeau.
Hal: m. An aſhie coloured Scate-fiſh, whoſe skinne is powdered all ouer with browne ſpots: ¶Norm.
Halachie: f. A Shad-fiſh: (¶Marſeillois.)
Halainé: m. ée: f. as Halené.
Halbrené: m. ée: f. Beſhitten, ill berayed; alſo, ſad of looke, or, all out of heart; as a man diſcontented, or tired, or hurt; Looke Hallebrené.
Faulcon halbrené. A Faulcon thats ragged, or broken-feathered.
Halcion vocal. The Nightingale of the riuer.
Hale: m. Sunne-burning, or th'extreame heat of the Sunne.
Hale: f. An open Market houſe, or hall, ſtanding on pillers; (as that vnder which meale is ſold in Newgate Market; or that of the Wooll Staple in Weſtminſter;) alſo, a common hall, or Towne-houſe.
Les hales. Such a Market houſe, hall, or ſhambles, wherein fleſh, and other victualls are ſold.
Halé: m. ée: f. Sunne-burnt; as Haſlé; alſo, veered, as a cable; alſo, hounded, or ſet, as a dog at.
Halebant. as Albrent.
Halebarde: f. An halbert; alſo, a kind of copper good to make Ordnance of.
Halebardier: m. An halberdeere; one that ſerues, or fights, altogether with an halberd.
Halebran: m. A Teale; alſo, as Albrent (in the two former ſignifications thereof.)
Halebreda: com. A great, vnweldie, long, miſhapen, ill-fauoured, or ill-faſhioned, man, or woman; a luske, a ſlouch; a ſoſſe.
Halebrent. as Halebran.
Halecret: m. A Corſlet.
Halecreté. Armed with a Corſlet.
Haleine: f. Ones breath, or wind; breathing.
A la groſſe haleine. See Gros.
Pouſſer à toute haleine. To thruſt with all his force, to labour tooth and nayle.
Haleineux: m. euſe: f. Long winded, full of breath.
Halené: m. ée: f. Breathed on; winded, vented; ſearched, or ſmelt out; whoſe nature is diſcouered, whoſe humor's found out.
Halené de la flatterie. Fed with the breath, or ſucking vp th'aire, of flatterie.
Halenée: f. A breathing, venting, winding, exhaling; alſo, a breath, exhalation, wind.
Halenement: m. A breathing, or blowing on; a venting, winding; a ſmelling, or ſearching out.
Halener. To breath, or blow vpon; alſo, to vent, ſmooke, wind; ſmell, or ſearch out; and (by metaphor) to diſcouer th'inclination, or find the humour, of.
Haler. To Sunne-burne, or ſcorch in the Sunne; to bleach, or make ſwart, a thing, by diſplaying it in a hot Sunne; alſo, to hound, or ſet, a dog at.
Haler vn cable. To veere a cable; to let it out, or let it runne out, at full length; or to ſurve out it needfull.

Hale-

Haletant. Purſie, ſhort winded, panting, breathing faſt.

Haletement: m. A (painfull, or faſt) panting; a thicke breathing, or letting in and out of the breath; alſo, a breathing, exhaling, euaporating, or venting out.

Haleter. To pant, or blow apace; to breath faſt, or draw the breath verie thicke, and painfully, as one thats readie to die; alſo, to breath, exhale, euaporate, or vent out.

Haleter apres les beautez d' vne femme. Extreamly to long for, or luſt after, them; (a metaphor from the manner of a dogs wooing.)

Haliboron. as Aliboron.

Haligornes: f. Traſh; old or outcaſt fluffe.

Haliine: m. A kind of ſea Purſlane much eaten in Sallades.

Haliter. as Haleter; Alſo, to excite, or ſtirre vp.

Halitre: m. as Haſle.

Hallage. droict d' hallage. Hallage; the toll thats due to the Lord of a Faire, or Market, for ſuch commodities as are vented in the Hale of the place.

Halle. as Hale: f.

Halle. (An Interiection, of cheering, or ſetting on of a dog;) ha boy, now now.

Hallebatté. ¶Rab. as Hallebotté.

Halleboter. To gleane after grape-gatherers; (hence) alſo, to rake, or gather together.

Hallebotté: m. ée: f. Flaggie, or ill-filled, like the;

Hallebottes: f. The prettie-big, and bladder-like tops, or flowers, of a certaine weed, containing ſome two or three little red ſeeds apeece.

Hallebrené: m. ée: f. Sad, creſt-fallen, heauie-looking, drooping; off the hindges, cleane out of heart (as a mooting ducke; or a ragged hawke;) alſo, beſhitten, bedunged, grieuouſly beraied.

Hallebrent. as Albrent.

Hallecret. as Halecret.

Hallefeſſier: m. A ſcoundrell; a baſe, contemptible, or ſcruuie fellow; (This word is often applied vnto, and (as ſome thinke) was deuiſed for, the flattering attendant, or prying inſtrument, of a tyrant.)

Hallené. as Halené.

Hallener. as Halener.

Haller. To hallow, or incourage dogs with hallowing; alſo, to hound, or ſet them at.

Halleron: m. Part of a womans &c.

Halles. les Halles. as les Hales.

Halleter. Seeke Haleter.

Hallier. as Hailler.

Halmyrach: m. An Admirall.

Halot: m. as Bruine; A hot, and blaſting miſt.

Halte. faire halte. To ſtop, ſtay, make a ſtand.

Hambour: m. A kind of barrelet, or firkin.

Hambourg. as Hambour.

Hamé: m. ée: f. Hooked, furniſhed with a booke.

Hameau: m. A hamlet; a ſmall village.

Hamech. Confection h. A purging compoſition; tearmed thus by the deuiſor thereof.

Hameçon: m. A little fiſh-booke.

Hameçonné: m. ée: f. Behooked; full of, or furniſhed with, fiſh-bookes.

Hameçonner. To behooke, to furniſh with fiſh-bookes.

Hamesson. as Hameçon.

Hameſſonné. as Hameçonné.

Hamet: m. A ſmall fiſh-booke.

Hampe: f. The breaſt, briſket, or eſſay of a Deere.

Hampe d' halebarde. as Hante.

Han. The groane, or forced, and ſigh-like voyce, wherwith woodcleauers, &c, keepe time to their ſtroakes.

I'ay chanté à ſon han. I haue ſpoken with him: ¶Barragouin.

Hanap: m. A drinking cup, or goblet.

Hanche: f. The haunch, or hip; alſo, as Anche.

La goutte en la hanche la fille en la pance: Prov. The gowt in the haunch, a girle in the paunch (of a great bellied woman.)

Hancher. To gnaſpe, or ſnatch at with the teeth. (vieil mot.)

Hanchois: m. A Pilchard (fiſh.)

Hanchu: m. uë: f. Big haunched, well-bumme-growne, great bipt.

Handon: m. A kind of Dragon, whoſe biting is not venomous.

Hanebane: f. (The weed) Henbane.

Hanebane iaulne. Yellow henbane, Engliſh Tobacco.

Hanede. Whence, Enter à la hanede. as Enter en perche; (vnder the word Enter.)

Hanegue: f. A corne meaſure, containing about ſix Pariſian buſhells.

Haneton: m. A Locuſt, or huge flie, which hath ſix tawnie, and ſolide legs; and foure wings; two (the vpper, and larger) tawnie of colour, and ſomewhat thicke; the other two yellowiſh, and verie ſlender: Now the naturall ſtupiditie of theſe flies, or their violent and raſh manner of flying; and their ingendering (like ſilke-wormes) backward, and taile to taile; or their holding each by others taile (as they lie in holes, and hollow trees, all Winter long) haue produced the prouerbs following.

Eſtourdi comme vn Haneton. As dull, or beedleſſe, as an Haneton.

Parentage d' hanetons. Lecherous alliance; kindred intertained vpon a luſtfull proiect, or with a wanton purpoſe: (Tis alſo applied vnto ſuch, as (like the Princes of the houſe of Auſtria) match, for the moſt part, in their owne families.)

Hannicroches. as Hannicrochemens.

Hannebane. as Hanebane.

Hannicrochemens: m. Subtilties, intanglements, cauills, troubleſome vexations.

Hanni. Neighed like a horſe.

Hannir. To neigh.

Elles ne hanniſſoient à autre avoine. They longed for no other thing; their minds ran on, their teeth watered at, nought elſe.

Hanniſſement: m. The neighing of a horſe.

Hannon: m. A Cockle, tearmed ſo at Roan.

Hanſe: f. The Hanſe; a companie, ſocietie, or corporation (for ſo it ſignifies in the booke of the Ordonnances of Paris, and in ſome other old books) of Marchants; Or (as a Ciuilian interprets it) a certaine ſocietie of Marchants combined together for the good vſage, and ſafe paſſage, of Marchandiſes; alſo, an aſſociation with, or the freedome of, the Hanſe; alſo, the fee, or fine, which is paid for that freedome.

Hanſe Teuthonique. An aſſociation with the Marchants of the Hanſe; or, a participation with, or communication of, the priuiledges granted (any time theſe 300 yeares) by ſoueraigne Princes vnto the Germane Marchants, trafficking vnto London in England, Bruges in Flanders, Berges in Norway, & Nonogrod in Ruſſia.

Hansé: m. ée: f. Free of the Hanſe; or ſworne of the companie of Hanſe Marchants; whence alſo, ſworn, & made free, of any Companie, or Corporation.

Hanſer.

Hanſer. To make free of the Hanſe, or of any ciuile companie, or corporation.
Hante : f. The ſtaffe, or ſhaft of a Iauelin, Halberd, &c.
Hanté ; m. ée : f. Haunted, frequented, much reſorted vnto.
Chemin fort hanté. A way verie much vſed, a full-beaten way.
Hantement : m. A haunting, frequenting, or frequent reſorting vnto ; alſo, as Hanuſe.
Hanter. To haunt, frequent, reſort vnto ; to be familier with ; to conuerſe, or commerce with.
Hantise : f. An ordinarie haunt, or haunting ; frequentation ; commerce, conuerſation ; familiaritie, or great acquaintance, with ; much reſort vnto.
Hape. as Happe.
Happe : f. A claſpe, or, the hooke of a claſpe ; or a hooke to claſpe with ; alſo, the clowt, or band of yron thats nayled vpon th'arme, or end of an Axletree, and keeps it from being worne by th'often turning of the Naue (of a wheele.)
Clou à happe. A clowt-nayle.
Happé : m. ée : f. Caught, happed, ſnatched, or graſped at.
Happée : f. A catch, a graſpe, a ſnatch.
Saiſine d' happée. A violent ſeiſure of, or entrie into, another mans land ; a forcible entrie, or diſſeiſin.
Happelopin : m. A catch-bit, ſycophant, ſmell-feaſt.
Happelourde : f. A thing that makes a faire ſhew, but is of no worth at all ; hence, a counterfeit Jewell ; and a fellow in whom there is nothing good but an outſide ; alſo, an arrant, and (almoſt) apparent lie ; a gull, fib, foiſt ; a faire tale fit onely to catch fooles ; alſo, a groſſe part in behauiour.
Happement : m. A catching.
Happer. To hap, or catch ; to ſnatch, or graſpe at.
Happe-ſoupe. A ſpoone.
Haquebute : f. An Haquebut, or Arquebuſe ; a Caliuer.
Haquebutier : m. An Arquebuſier, or ſmall ſhot.
Haquenée : com. An ambling Horſe, Gelding, or Mare.
Haquet : m. A Dray ; or low, and open Cart, ſuch as London Brewers vſe.
Haquetier : m. A Dray-man.
Har : f. A with of greene ſtickes ; the band of a fagot.
Sur paine de la har. Vpon your life, vpon paine of the haulter ; (Malefactors in old time were, and at this day in ſome barbarous countries are, hanged with withes.)
Harang : m. A Herring ; Looke Harenc.
Harangeſon : f. Herring-ſeaſon.
Harangiere : f. A Herring-wife ; alſo, as Harengue.
Haranguant : m. as Harangueur.
Haranguant. Pleading vnto, diſcourſing before.
Harangue : f. An Oration, Pleading, Declaration ; ſet ſpeech, long tale.
Harangué : m. ée : f. Pleaded before, preached vnto, held with a long diſcourſe.
Haranguer. To make an Oration ; to hold with a long diſcourſe ; to plead before, to preach, or ſpeak long, vnto.
Harangueur : m. An Orator, or Oration-maker ; a Pleader ; a Preacher.
Haranier : m. ere : f. Of, belonging or like vnto, a Herring.
Haranſor. as Harencſor. A red Herring.
Haras : m. A Race ; horſes, and mares kept onely for breed.

Haraſſé : m. ée : f. Tired, or toyled out ; weakened with ouertoyling ; harried, moleſted, hurried ; vexed, importuned, troubled, turmoiled, tormented.
Haraſſer. To tire, or toyle out ; to ſpend or weaken, wearie or weare out, by ouertoyling, or taking too much of ; alſo, to vex, diſquiet, importune, harrie, hurrie, turmoile, torment.
Haraſſier : m. The owner, or ouerſeer of a Race.
Haraud : m. The forme of a Hare ; alſo, a certaine crie vſed in Normandie ; Looke Haro.
Haraudé : m. ée : f. Openly reuiled, reproached, rayled at, exclaimed againſt, cried out vpon.
Harauder. To reuile, reproach, raile at, or ſcould with, openly ; to exclaime againſt, or crie out vpon.
Harault. as Haraud, or Haro ; (and hence ;)
Le monde luy crie harault. The world exclaimes, cries out, or bids fie, vpon him.
Harce. Looke Herce.
Harcelé : m. ée : f. Vexed, harried, hurried, turmoiled, much troubled, or annoyed ; and prouoked, incenſed, or vrged (withall.)
Harceler. To vexe, harrie, turmoyle, hurrie ; trouble, moleſt, or diſquiet, much ; alſo, to prouoke, incenſe, or vrge (therewith ;) alſo, to haggle, hucke, hedge, or paulter long in the buying of a commoditie.
Harceleur : m. A firebrand, make-bate, ſtirre-ſuit ; a brabling, litigious, or contentious fellow.
Harcelle : f. A little with.
Hard. as Har.
Hardage. as Hardes.
Harde : f. A heard, flocke, or troupe of wild beaſts ; alſo, an egge laied with a ſoft skin, or filme (about it) in ſtead of a ſhell ; a ſoft-ſheld egge ; a wind egge ; alſo, a hoord.
Hardes. (The Plurall of Harde ; alſo) furniture, ſtuffe, implements, baggage, neceſſarie chaffer.
Hardé : m. ée : f. Loaden with ſtuffe, or neceſſarie baggage ; alſo, trucked, bartered, exchanged.
Hardeau : m. A little with, or fagot-band ; alſo, a yong lad, or boy ; alſo, a clowniſh fellow that thinkes verie well of himſelfe.
Hardelle : f. A little with, or fagot-band ; alſo, a troupe, or heard of beaſts ; (and) a rout, or crue of men ; alſo, a girle, yong maid, laſſe, or mother.
Hardiment : m. Hardineſſe, boldneſſe, audacitie, ſtoutneſſe ; (an old word.)
Harder. To trucke, barter, ſcoarſe, exchange.
Hardes. Looke Harde.
Hardeux : m. euſe : f. Full of, or loaden with, ſtuffe, or baggage.
Hardi : m. ie : f. Hardie, daring, ſtout, bold, confident, aduenturous ; valiant, couragious.
Hardi en couppe-bourſe. As confident, or impudent, as a cut-purſe.
Hardi comme vne eſpée. Looke Eſpée.
Hardi gaigneur hardi mangeur : Prov. Good at meat good at worke, ſay we.
Hardie langue coüarde lance : Pro. A hardie ſpeech a heartleſſe ſpeare.
Mieux vaut coüard que trop hardi : Prov. Better no heart then too much hardineſſe.
Hardiement. as Hardiment.
Hardieſſe : f. Hardineſſe, boldneſſe, audacitie, ſtomack, ſtoutneſſe, mettall ; courage ; confidence in, or aſſurance of, his owne force, abilitie, valour.
Hardillon : m. The thong of a buckle.
Hardiment. Hardily, boldly, ſtoutly ; aduenturouſly ;

confidently; couragiously.

Hardiment parle teſte ſaine: Prov. Looke Sain.

Hardiment heurte à la porte qui bonne nouvelle apporte: Pro. He that brings goodnews boldly knocks at doore.

Hardoüer: m. A reſorting, or, a repaire, vnto.

Hardré. Oeuf hardré. A wind egge, or ſoft-ſheld egge.

Hare-levrier. Hoo hoo, loo loo, now now, hoe dogs.

Harelle: f. A troupe, heard, flocke; alſo, a popular commotion; (for ſo was once tearmed one begun, at Roan, by the oppreſſed people.)

Harenc: m. A Herring.

Harenc de mar. A great, fat, & full-rowed Herring.

Harenc de la nuict. A red Herring.

Harenc ſaur, ou ſauret; & ſor, ou ſoret. A red Herring.

Eſsimé comme vn harenc ſoret. As leane as a rake; as lanke as a ſhotten Herring.

Droict d' harenc. A certaine number of Herrings, heretofore due, euerie Lent, vnto the Treaſurors, and Officers of the Chamber of Accompts, but at this day allowed them in money.

La caque (ou la poche) ſent touſiours l' harenc: Prov. The poke ſtill of the Herring ſmells; Our nature will, doe what we can, ſubſiſt.

Harengade: f. A fiſh that reſembles a little ſhad, called ſo at Marſeillis.

Harengerie: f. A Herring celler, ſhop, or market; the place wherein Herrings are kept, ſhewed, or ſold; alſo, a ſelling of Herring, or the Herring ſellers trade.

Harengeson: f. The ſeaſon of Herring fiſhing; the time when Herrings are in ſeaſon; Herring ſeaſon.

Harengiere: f. A Herring-wife; a woman that cries, or ſells Herrings.

Faire la mouë aux harengieres. To ſtand on the Pillorie.

Harer vn chien. To hound a dog at, or ſet a dog on, a beaſt, &c; alſo, to incourage him by ſome voyce, or by clapping on the backe, when he is ſet on.

Harfleur. Signifies as much as, le Contreflus de la mer.

Hargas. faulcon hargas. A Sore Faulcon.

Hargneux. Peeuiſh, wrangling, diuerous, ouerthwart, croſſe, waiward, froward; ill to pleaſe, euer complayning, neuer quiet; hence alſo, verie litigious; alſo, as Hergneux.

Chien hargneux a touſiours les oreilles deſchirées: Prov. A brabling curre is neuer without torne eares.

Haricot: m. Mutton ſod with little turneps, ſome wine, and toſts of bread crumbled among; tis alſo made otherwiſe, of ſmall peeces of mutton firſt a little ſodden, then fried in ſeam, with ſliced onions, and laſtly boiled in beefe broath with Parſley, Iſop, and Sage: And in another faſhion, of liuers boyled in a pipkin with ſliced onions and lard, verjuice, red wine, and vineger, and ſerued vp with toſts, ſmall ſpices, and (ſometimes) chopped hearbs.

Haridelle: f. A poore tit, or leane ill-fauoured iade.

Harié: m. ée: f. Harried, vexed, moleſted, importuned, toiled, turmoiled.

Harier. To harrie, hurrie, vex, trouble, diſturbe, diſquiet, moleſt, importune, annoy; toyle, turmoyle.

Harigot. A kind of Jigge.

Harle: f. A kind of Sheldrake.

Harlou. in ſtead of Hare-loup. A word wherewith dogs that hunt, or aſſaile, a Wolfe, are cheered, and incouraged.

Harmene. A barbarous name for, a little Baſiliske.

Harmonie: f. Harmonie, melodie, tunableneſſe, a ſweet conſent of ſounds; alſo, a coniunction of bones by a ſingle line which fits them one to th' other (and ſo are the bones of the noſe conioyned.

Harmonieux: m. euſe: f. Harmonious, muſicall, melodious, tunably ſounding, ſweetly reſounding.

Harmonique: com. as Harmonieux.

Harnaché: m. ée: f. Harneſſed, as a horſe.

Harnachement: m. The harneſſe of a horſe.

Harnachemens. as Harnas.

Harnacher vn cheval. To harneſſe, or make readie, a horſe; to put on his furniture.

Harnacheur: m. A harneſſer of a horſe; a Groome of a ſtable; alſo, a bungling Armourer, or Harneſſe-maker.

Harnas de cheval. A horſes harneſſe, or furniture.

Vn harnas de Mouton. The head, and plucke of a ſheepe.

Harnas de roture. A plough.

Harnois: m. Armour, harneſſe; alſo, a teame, cart, or carriage, &c; alſo, as Harnas.

Harnois de gueule. Meat, victualls, acates, mouth-armor, bellie-furniture.

Harnois noirs. Reiſters, Rutters, Piſtoliers on horſe-backe.

Il s'eſchauffe en ſon harnois. He heats himſelfe in his armor; ſaid of one that grows in choller, or falls into paſſion, for the ſatisfaction of ſome other intemperate humor.

Harnois ne vaut rien qui ne ſe defend: Prov. Defend thy ſelfe or elſe all armor's vaine.

Haro. ou Harol. Crier Haro ſur. To crie out vpon, or make huy and crie after; (vſed in Normandie by ſuch as are outraged, or in ſome high degree wronged; thereby ſeeming to implore th' aid of their Duke Rol, who is reported to haue beene a moſt iuſt Prince;) In which caſe thoſe that are within the hearing thereof muſt purſue the malefactor, or elſe they pay a fine.

Clameur de Haro, ou Haro crié. A claime, or proteſtation of ſuch as are in poſſeſſion of land which others goe about to put them from; it muſt be made before a Sergeant, or two witneſſes, and then is a ſufficient warrant for the holding of the poſſeſſion.

Haroder. as Harauder.

Harondelle: f. A Swallow; Seeke Arondelle.

A la nouvelle venuë des harondelles. (A deſcription of the Springs approach.)

Harou. as Haro.

Harpade: f. A catching, or ſnatching at, a griping, or ſeizing on, with the clawes.

Harpail: m. A troupe, flocke, heard, crue, rout.

Harpaille. Seeke Herpaille.

Harpailleur: m. A keeper, or ouerſeer of Deere; alſo, as Arpailleur.

Harpanter. To ſuruey, or meaſure land.

Harpaut. The name of a ſhepheards dog.

Harpe: f. A Harpe; alſo, the iaumbe, or ſide of a doore.

L' harpe d' vn chien. A dogs claw, or paw.

Il mania tresbien ſes harpes. He ſtirred his fingers verie nimbly.

Harpechorde: f. An Arpſicord, or Harpſicord; a Dulcimer.

Harpens: m. A kind of night-bird: ¶ Dauphinois.

Harper. To harpe, or play on a Harpe.

Se harper l' vn à l' autre. To grapple, graſpe, haſpe, claſpe, imbrace, cope, cloſe, together; to ſcuffle, or fall together by th' eares.

Harpes. in ſtead of Hardes: ¶ Rab.

Har-

Harpeur : m. A Harper; one that playes on the Harpe.
Harpi : mie : f. Greedie, deuouring; catching, ſnatching, graſping at.
Harpie : f. A Harpie; Looke Harpye.
Harpon : m. A crampiron wherewith Maſons faſten ſtones together.
Harpoy : m. Poiſon; (an old word.)
Harpye : f. An Harpie; one of thoſe monſtrous, and rauenous birds which Poets faine to haue had womens faces, hands armed with talons, and bellies full of an ordure wherwith they infected all the meat they touched; and hereof are the monſtrous brood (Moles, or Moonecalues) of ſome women ſo tearmed.
Harpye de cuiſine. A moſt rauenous, and filthie deuourer.
Harquebouſade : f. The ſhot of an Arquebuſe.
Harquebouſe ; &, Harquebouſé. as Harquebuſe ; &, Harquebuſé.
Harquebuſade : f. as Harquebouſade.
Harquebuſe : f. An Arquebuſe, or Caliuer; Looke Arquebuſe.
Harquebuſe de chaſſe. A fowling peece.
Harquebuſé : m. ée : f. Shot, or ſhot at with, ſlaine with the ſhot of, an Arquebuſe.
Harquebuſer. To ſhoot, or ſhoot at with, to kill with the ſhot of, an Arquebuſe.
Harquebuſier : m. An Arquebuſier, or ſmall ſhot.
Harquebutier. The ſame.
Harry. (A Carterlie voice of exciting) Hay ree.
Harry bourriquet. Rudely, clowniſhly, confuſedly; or braying out in a lowd, and harſh accent, ſuch as the French Millers vſe in the driuing of their Aſſes; Looke Bourriquet.
Hars. as Har.
Harſe : f. A Harrow.
Harſelle : f. A little with.
Harſeller. as Harceler.
Harſement : m. A harrowing; alſo, a ſtiffe, or vpward ſtanding.
Harſer. To harrow; alſo, to ſtand vp ſtreight, or ſtiffe.
Harſeur : m. A harrower.
Hart : f. A with; alſo, a haulter; Looke Har.
Les harts. The ſhoulder veine, or necke veine of a horſe, whereat moſt commonly he is let bloud; or as les Ars.
Haſard : m. Hazard, aduenture, ieopard, fortune, chance.
Haſardé : m. ée : f. Hazarded, aduentured, ieoparded, committed vnto fortune, or chance.
Haſarder. To hazard, aduenture, ieopard, ſet on ſixes and ſeuens, committed vnto fortune and chance.
Il faut hasarder vn petit poiſſon pour prendre vn grand. A little, for a great gaine muſt be hazarded.
Haſardeur : m. A hazarder, venturer, ieoparder, aduenturer.
Haſardeuſement. Hazardouſly, aduenturouſly, hab nab, hittie miſſie, on ſixes and ſeuens.
Haſardeux : m. euſe : f. Hazardous, venturous, aduenturous.
Haſchehſach. A fained voyce of coughing, in Rabelais.
Haſcher. as Hacher : Rab.
Haſe : f. An old female Conie, or Hare.
Haſeau : m. A Breame of a middle ſize.
Haſle : m. Sunne-burning; or th'extreame, and ſcorching heat of a Summer Sunne.
Haſlé : m. ée : f. Sunne-burnt; ſcorched in the Sunne.
Haſler. To Sun-burne, or ſcorch in the Sunne; to bleake, or make ſwart a thing by diſplaying it in a hot Sunne; alſo, to hound, ſet a dog, or turne a dog looſe, at.
Haſte : m. A ſpit, or broach.
Armes d'haſte. Looke Armes.
Haſte : f. Haſt, ſpeed, ſwiftneſſe, quickneſſe, poſting ſuddenneſſe.
Haſte ne vient ſeule : Prov. Haſt neuer comes alone; viz: hath euer ſome trouble or other t'accompanie it.
Haſté : m. ée : f. Haſted, ſpeeded, quickly got, come, or done; ſet on apace; alſo, haſtie, or ſpeedie; alſo, requiring haſt.
Haſtelé : m. ée : f. Bound vp with ſmall ſplints.
Haſtelettes : f. Little ſplints, wherwith Faulconers bind vp their hawkes broken legs.
Haſteleux : m. euſe : f. Haſtie, full of haſt, quicke, ſpeedie, nimble, ſwiftly mouing.
Haſtemenuë : f. A hogs haſlet.
Haſter. To haſten, accelerate, ſpeed, quicken, ſet forward apace; alſo, to hedge, or incloſe with a hedge.
S'haſter. To haſt, make haſt, goe faſt, moue quickly, run ſpeedily, hie apace.
Qui trop ſe haſte en cheminant en beau chemin ſe fourvoye ſouvent: Prov. The more haſt the worſe ſpeed; they that make too much haſt miſtake the faireſt way.
Haſtereau : m. The throat-peece, or forepart of the neck, of a hog (belike frõ the Wallons, by whom a mans throat, or necke is thus tearmed;) alſo, one liuer or more of a calfe, &c, wrapped vp (whole, or ſliced, and ſeaſoned with good hearbes, and ſpices) in the call of the beaſt, and afterwards roaſted, or fried, and ſerued vp hot with Oranges, or in ſome good ſauce: (This diſh, as alſo another (if not more) dreſſed in another faſhion, is called Haſtereaux.)
Haſterel : m. as Haſtereau; or, A hogs haſlet.
Haſteur : m. A hedger, or hedge-maker.
Haſtif : m. Haſtie, ſudden, raſh, quicke, ſpeedie, forward, ſoone-comming, hying apace.
Poires, ou pommes haſtives. Haſtings; ſuch as are ſooneſt ripe.
Haſtilles : f. Th'inwards of a beaſt; as a hogs haſlet, calues gather, ſheepes plucke, &c.
Haſtiveau : m. An haſtie, raſh, inconſiderate, harebraind Aſſe; alſo, a haſting apple, or peare; and hence;
Roſes d'haſtiveau. Verie forward Roſes.
Haſtivel. as Haſtiveau; or, A ſoone-ripe apple called, the S. Johns apple.
Haſtivement. Haſtily, headlong, ſuddenly, raſhly; quickly, ſwiftly, ſpeedily, forwardly; apace, in a moment, on a ſudden, out of hand.
Haſtiveté : f. Haſtineſſe; raſhneſſe; acceleration, ſpeedineſſe, ſwiftneſſe, quickeneſſe; poſt-haſt-making.
Hatelier. as Attelier.
Hattereau. Looke Haſtereau.
Hau. An Interiection of calling; Haw, beare ye me, hoe there.
Haubans : m. as Aubans; The ſhrowds of a ſhip.
Haubelon : m. Hops.
Haubereau. as Hobreau.
Haubergeon : m. (The Diminutiue of Haubert;) a little coat of maile; or, only ſleeues, and gorget of maile.
Haubergeon de femmes. The rall wherewith they beare vp their gownes about their hips.
Maille à maille on fait les haubergeons : Prov. Linke after linke the coat is made at length; peece after peece things come to full perfection.
Haubergeonnier : m. A maker of coats of maile.
Haubert : m. A coat of maile; alſo, as Haulbert; a high, or chiefe Lord.

Droict d' haubert. A certaine priuiledge enioyed by diuers Norman Lords; it consists of many parts, and the most of them of high Jurisdiction.

Fief d' haubert. An inheritance (held immediately, and in Capite of the King) whose owner is bound to serue, on horsebacke, in compleat armor, & with a coat of mayle, shield, sword, and helmet, in the warres.

Have: com. as Havé; and hence, yeux haves. Full-drained, hollow, sad, or sunke-in eyes.

Havé: m. ée: f. Soaked, withered, wasted; also, dreadfull, disfigured, wild-looking, ghastlie, ghost-like.

Havée: f. A gripe, or handfull; also, a bootie, or prey; also, a toll exacted by the executioner of some townes vpon small wares, and fruit sold on Market dayes.

Havement. Greedily, rauinously, couetously.

Haver. as Happer; or, To hooke, or grapple with a hooke.

Haveron. as Aveneron; Wild Oats.

Havet: m. A little hooke; also, a boat-hooke, or pole hauing a hooke at th'end; also, a little dandiprat, short hop-on-my-thombe.

Havi: m. ie: f. Parched, scorched, withered, burnt vp, as grasse by a hot Sunne.

Havi de froid. Stiffe, clumpse, benummed.

Havir. To scorch, parch, wither, burne or drie vp, as a hot Sunne doth grasse, &c.

Haulbert: m. A high, or chiefe Lord; Looke Haubert.

Haulche: f. A raising, or out-bidding, in an Outrope, or Outcry. ¶Wallon.

Haulcher. To raise, or out-bid, in an Outrope, or Outcry. ¶Wallon.

Haulchié: m. ée: f. Raised, out-bid: ¶Wallon.

Haulchier. as Haulcher.

Haulsage: m. as Haussage; Also, pride, arrogancie, surquedrie, powerfull oppression.

Haulsaire: com. Loftie, statelie, proud, arrogant, high-minded (by a presumption of abilitie, or power.)

Haulse: f. The vnderlaying of a shooe, or peece of leather that vnderlayes it.

Haulsé: m. ée: f. Hoysed, &c; as Haussé.

Haulse-bec: m. A lifting vp of the chinne in scorne, or mockerie; also, a blow, or chocke vnder the chinne.

Haulse-col: m. A Gorget; or, Armour for the necke.

Haulse-menton: m. A crutch-like prop of wood, seruing to beare vp the head of one thats fallen into extreame weakenesse; also, a lowd lye, proud foist, false or vaine brag.

Haulse-pied. A net, or engine wherewith Wolues, Badgers, Foxes, &c, are caught.

Haulser. Looke Hausser.

Haulserée: f. The drawing, or haling of Barges, or great Boats vp a riuer by the force of men ashore.

Haulserie: f. A hoysing, raising, aduancing, heauing vp, setting aloft; also, loftinesse, hautinesse.

Hault. Looke Haut.

Haultain: m. aine: f. Hautie, loftie, statelie, proud, high-minded, surlie, disdainfull, arrogant.

Faulcon haultain. A high-flying hawke.

Vent haultain. The South wind.

Faire le haultain. To be high in th'instep, stand on his pantofles, take state vpon him; also, to be extreamely in choller.

Haultainement. Hautily, loftily, proudly, arrogantly, disdainfully.

Haultaineté: f. Hautinesse, loftinesse, statelinesse, pride, arrogancie, disdainfulnesse.

Haultban. Droict d' haultban. The summe of 6 solz Parisis leuied yearely to the Kings vse of euerie Baker (and of some other Artificers) within the towne of Paris.

Haultbaniers. Such Artificers as are subiect to the Haultban.

Haultbert. as Haubert.

Haultbois: m. A Hobois, or Hoboy.

Haulte-contre: com. The Countertenor part in singing; also, (a Countertenor) he that beares it.

Haulte-lisse. Tapisserie de haulte-lisse. Large, and rich Tapistrie.

Haultement. as Hautement.

Haulteſſe: f. Height, hautinesse, highnesse, excellencie, sublimitie.

Haulteur. as Hauteur.

Haultmuré: m. ée: f. High-walled; compassed, or flanked with high walls; also, tall and foule, slim, slangam, luskish, loobie-like.

Vn plat de souppes haultmurées. A dish of browes whose soppes are heaped roofewise one vpon another.

Hault-murer. To compasse, fortifie, or flanke with high rampiers.

Haumelotte: f. An Omelet, or Pancake of egges.

Havoir. Seeke Avoir.

Havre: m. A Hauen, Port, Harbor for shipping.

Havre: com. Grim, fell, horride, ghastlie.

Haussage: m. A hoysing, raising, heauing vp, lifting high; also, as Haulsage.

Haussaire: com. as Haulsaire.

Haussant. Hoising, raising, heauing vp.

Hausse: f. A scoope to lade, or fetch vp water.

Iouër à la hausse qui baisse. To play at titter totter, or at totter-arse; to ride the wild-mare.

Haussé: m. ée: f. Hoised, raised, aduanced, eleuated, bouen vp, lifted high, set aloft.

Hausse-bec: m. A disdainfull casting vp of the head, or lifting vp of the chinne.

Hausse-col. as Haulse-col.

Hausse-cul: m. A French Vardingale; or (more properly) the kind of roll vsed by such women, as weare (or are to weare) no Vardingales.

Hausse-plie: f. A Vardingale (tearmed so by citizens wiues.)

Hausse-plié: m. ée: f. Furnished with a Vardingale.

Hausse-queuë: f. The yellow Water-wagtaile.

Elle s'en va à hausse-queuë. See Queuë.

Hausser. To hoise, raise, eleuate, heaue vp, lift high; set aloft, aduance.

Hausser l'espaule. To lift vp the shoulders; to vse the Italian shrug, an argument of vnwillingnesse, or feare to dee; or of a forced, and silent contentment of, or consent vnto, what is done.

Hausser le gantelet. To ouerreach with false reckonings; a shopkeeper to put more in his booke then the chapman had of him.

Hausser les mousteches. Ce seroit pour luy bien hausser les mousteches. That would set him on the hoight.

Hausser le rastelier à. See Rastelier.

Hausser vn soulier. To vnderlay a shooe.

Hausser le temps. To spend or passe away the time in quaffing, swilling, carousing.

Iouër à la hausse qui baisse. Looke Hausse.

Haut. (Substant.) A high place; whence; Gaigner le haut. To run his country, to flie away; S'en aller en haut. The same.

Sur le haut de son age. Being well in yeares, well stept into yeares.

Haut:

Haut : m. haute : f. High, tall; hautie, loftie; great, noble, honorable; chiefe, eminent, excellent; ſumptuous, magnificent, moſt glorious; alſo, deepe, ſecret, profound; weightie, of importance; alſo, lewd.
Haut coſté. A Surloine.
Haute cour. The Court of a King, or great Lord.
Hautes erres. Limier d'hautes erres. A fleet hound.
Haute fuſtaye. Bois d' h : f. Looke Fuſtaye.
Haute heure. Late, or farre on the day (from morning to noone.)
Haute game. See Game.
Haut homme. A great, eminent, moſt noble, right honourable perſonage.
Haute Iuſtice. High iuriſdiction; Looke Iuſtice.
Haute lice. as in Haute-lice.
Haute luicte. de h. l. Violently, forcibly, with extremitie, by maine ſtrength.
La Haute main. (Sometimes) the vpper hand.
Haut mal. The falling ſickneſſe.
Le haut mal de la corde. Hanging.
Haute mer. en h. m. In the wide, or deepe ſeas, farre in the ſea.
Haut nez. Chien d' h. n. A well-ſented, or cold-noſed dog.
Haut parage. Looke Haut-parage.
Haut paſſage. An impoſition of ſeuen pence in the pound, vpon woolls, clothes, linnens, canuaſſes, &c.
La haute piece. A Poldron; or the vpper part therof.
Chambre haute. A dining chamber.
Iour haut. High adayes, late, farre on the day.
Matiere haute. Weightie, important, myſticall, excellent ſtuffe.
Haut d' aureilles. Deafe, or thicke of hearing.
Haut à la main. Proud, ſurlie, ſtatelie; a ſtriker, one with whom there is but a word and a blow.
Tenir la bride haute à. To awe, reſtraine, keepe ſhort, hold in.
Haut. (Adverb.) Highly, aboue, aloft, on high; alſo, lowdly, or alowd.
Haut & bas la cheminée. The crie of Chimney-ſweepers.
Haut le pied. s'en aller h. le p. To runne away apace, or, as faſt as his feet can carrie him.
Faire haut le bois. (Pikemen) to make a ſtand; alſo, to quaffe, tipple, carouſe for the heauens.
Faulcon trop haut aſsis. Whoſe ſtaulkes, or legs are too long.
Taillables haut & bas. Taxable at the will and pleaſure of the Lord.
Qui plus haut monte qu'il ne doit deſſus haut chet qu'il ne vouldroit : Prov. He that climbes higher then he ſhould, falls lower then he would.
Hautaignes : f. Vines which (as hops) embrace, & creep vp on, long poles.
Hautain. Seeke Haultain.
Hautainement; &, Hautaineté. as Haultainement; &, Haultaineté.
Haut-bert. A high, or chiefe Lord.
Haut-coſté. A Surloyne.
Haut-d'-ais. A cloth of Eſtate.
Haute : m. A Docke to mend, or build ſhips in.
Haute. vn' h. de manche. The wing of a ſleeue.
Haute-contre : com. The Countertenor part, in ſinging, &c; alſo (a Countertenor, or) he which bears that part.
Haute-lice. Tapiſſerie de haute-lice, ou hautes liſſes. Tapiſtrie of rich ſtuffe, or high price; the beſt, and largeſt kind of Tapiſtrie.
Haute-liſsier : m. A maker of (rich, and large) Tapiſtrie.
Hautement. Highly, tally; hautily, loftily; greatly; nobly, honourably, eminently, excellently; ſumptuouſly, magnificently; deeply, profoundly; weightily, importantly.
Hauteſſe : f. Looke Haulteſſe.
Hauteur : f. Height, length, tallneſſe; eminence, altitude, eleuation; alſo, depth, or deepneſſe.
Haut-gourdier : m. A deſperate bankrupt; one that hauing but little to looſe, cares for himſelfe but a little.
Hautin : m. The Sea-pike, or Spit-fiſh.
Hautins. as Autins.
Haut-licier : m. as Hauteliſsier.
Haut-mal : m. The falling ſickneſſe.
Haut-parage. The higheſt Peeredome; a title, or tenure whereby the Peeres, & Princes of the bloud, of France, hold their land; or (more generally) a tenure in Capite; for (as that tenure) it moues wholly, and directly of the Crowne.
Haut-paſſage. Looke Haut.
Hauvens : m. Pentbouſes of cloth hung before ſhop-windowes.
Hay : m. Haye : f. Hated, &c; as Hai.
Hay. An Interiection of forwarding, or of incouragement; Looke Hai.
Fol eſt qui eſt eſperonné & à cheval dit hay : Prov. The aſſe hauing ſpurres on, cries On to his horſe; or he is an aſſe, who furniſhed with ſound meanes, makes vſe of ſleight ones.
Haye : f. A hedge; a fence of ſhrubs, thornes, &c.
Haye vive. A quick-ſet hedge.
Anguille de haye. The blackeſt hedge or dunghill Adder; not verie venomous.
Mords à haye. A Scatche.
Combatre, ou marcher, en haye. s. By files.
Pendre entre la haye, & le bled : &, entre la haye, & le foſſé. To ſurpriſe, take vnawares, or ſet vpon on a ſudden.
Qui fait haye ſouvent dit haye : Prov. Looke Haye Interiect.
Hayé : m. ée : f. Hedged; incloſed with a hedge.
Haye. (An Interiection of complayning, or crying out for paine) Oh, alas, out alas.
Qui fait haye ſouvent dit haye : Prov. He that makes hedges often prickes his fingers.
Hayer. To hedge; alſo, to hate.
Hayeſon : f. Hedge-making; alſo, hedging time, or, the ſeaſon to make hedges in.
Hayeur : m. A hater, loather, deteſter.
Hayneux. as Haineux.
Hayon. as Tente.
Hayreux : m. euſe : f. Leane, ſcraggie; poore; miſerable, wretched, forlorne; alſo, as Haireux.
Hayt. de bon hayt. Willingly, freely, heartily, cheerfully.
Hazard; &, Hazarder. Looke Haſard; &, Haſarder.
Haze. as Haſe.
Pomme d'Haze. The name of a certaine long yellow apple.
Hé. An Interiection of calling. Vien ça hé. Come hither hoe.
Heaulme : m. An helmet; the headpeece of a man of Armes; alſo, the Helmet cherrie, Heart-cherrie, French cherrie; Looke Heaume.
Heaulme doré, & ouvert. A gilt, and open helmet; which on the top of a coat of Armes denotes, that the bearer is either a Vicount, Baron, or Chattelain; (Look for more touching this in Ouvert.)
Heaulmerie : f. An Armorers ſhop, or warehouſe; alſo, the name of a ſtreet in Paris, wherein many Armorers dwell.

Heaulmier : m. An Armorer, or Helmet-maker; alſo, the Heart-cherrie tree.
Heaulmiere : f. The Rudder-port of a ſhip.
Heaume: m. An helmet, the headpeece of a man of arms; alſo, the helme, or rudder of a ſhip; alſo, the Heart-cherrie, French cherrie, Spaniſh cherrie; Looke Heaulme.
Heaumé. Wearing a helmet, armed with an helmet.
Heaumer. To put on an helmet, to arme his head with an helmet.
Hebbe de la mer. Th'ebbe, or ebbing of the ſea.
Hebene : m. Heben, or Ebonie; the blacke, and hard wood of a certaine tree growing in Æthyopia, and the Eaſt Indies.
Hebené : m.ée : f. Blacke, Heben-like; made of Ebonie.
Sourcils hebenez. Blacke, diſmall, frowning, lowring browes.
Hebenin : m.ine : f. Of, or belonging to, Ebonie.
Heberge : f. A houſe, lodging, harbour.
Hebergé : m. ée : f. Houſed, lodged, harboured.
Hebergement : m. as Heberge.
Heberger. To lodge, harbor, dwel, abide in; alſo, to lodge, harbour, houſe, giue houſe-roome, lend a dwelling vnto.
Hebeté : m. ée : f. Dull, ſottiſh, witleſſe, blockiſh, blunt, ſlow, ſenceleſſe, heauie headed; alſo, dulled, blunted; made blockiſh.
Hebeter. To dull, blunt, ſot, make blockiſh.
Hebraïſme : m. Hebrewiſme; the ſpeech, faſhion, or diſpoſition of the Hebrewes.
Hebrieu : m. An Hebrew, or Jew; alſo, the Hebrew, or language of the Hebrewes.
Il entend l'Hebrieu. He is drunke, or (as we ſay) learned: (from th' Analogie of the Latine word Ebrius.)
Hecatombe. A Sacrifice wherein an hundred beaſts were killed.
Hectique : com. Sicke of an Hectick, or continuall Feauer; (hence) alſo, meager, leane, dried vp, in a Conſumption.
Hederiforme : com. Faſhioned like Ivie.
Veine hederiforme. A certaine veine which paſſes downe along by the ſides of the wombe.
Hedre. as Heſtre; A Beech tree.
Hedret. Looke Haidroict.
Hee. (An Interiection of lamenting) Ay me.
Hei. as Hé.
Helaine : m. Elecampane, Scabwort, Horſebeale.
Helas. Alas, wellaway, welladay.
Helenites. An Order of White Friers, that weare a yellow croſſe on their breaſts.
Heleoſeline : m. Smallage.
Helepolle. A great woodden engine wherewith, in old time, the tops of rampiers were battered.
Heleſie : f. A many-coloured garden hearb, in proportion ſomewhat like Beets.
Helictrope : m. The hearbe Turneſole, Ruds, Wartwort; alſo, a precious ſtone which, as a burning glaſſe, receiueth, and reterteth the Sunne-beames.
Helixine. Barren, or creeping Ivie.
Helvenaque. The name of a kind of grape.
Hematide. Pierre Hematide. The Bloudſtone.
Hemicraine : m. The Megrum, or headache by fits.
Hemicranique : com. Troubled with, or ſubiect vnto, the Megrum.
Hemicycle : m. An Hemicicle, or halfe circle.
Hemine : f. as Emine.
Hemiolie. So much, and halfe ſo much againe; (an Arithmeticall proportion.)
Hemiplexie : f. A dead Palſie, in halfe of the bodie.
Hemiſphere : m. An hemiſphere; halfe the compaſſe of the viſible heauen.
Hemiſtique : com. A halfe verſe.
Hemitrité. la fiebvre hemitritée. An Ague compounded of a continuall Tertian, and an intermittent Quotidian.
Hemorrhagie : f. An abundant flux of bloud.
Hemorrhoïdal : m.ale : f. Veine hemorrhoïdale. A ſmall branch of the ſpleene veine comming to the fundament; alſo, a certaine veine in the necke of a womans wombe; (Looke Veine.)
Hemorrhoïde : f. An iſſue of bloud by the veines of the fundament.
Hemorrhuës : f. The ſame, called ordinarily, the Emrods, or Piles.
Hemy. (An Interiection of lamenting) Ay me, alas for me.
Hen heu hasch. Fained words, wherewith Rabelais expreſſeth a coughing.
Hen hen. Oh hò: ¶Rab.
Hennir. To neigh, or whinnie like a horſe; Looke Hannir.
Henniſſement : m. The neighing, or whinnying of a horſe.
Henouars : m. Salt-Porters, carriers of ſalt, whereof onely 24 be allowed, within Paris, to carrie it from the Salt-wharfe vnto the Garners, & Warehouſes of Marchants.
Henricus. A golden Crowne worth about two French Crownes.
Henry : m. (A proper name) Henrie, Harrie; alſo, a coine of gold worth about 6 s.ſterl.
Bon Henry. Roman Sorrell, round Sorrell, Tours Sorrell; alſo, the hearbe which we call, Good Henrie, and All-good.
Double Henry. Is worth about 14 s.ſterl.
Ducat Henry. Is ordinarily worth more by 6 d.ſterl. then the Crowne of the Sunne.
Heouſe. Holly, or the Holme tree.
Hepathique : f. The moſſe called Liuerwort, and ſtone Liuerwort; alſo, the hearbe golden Trefoyle, noble Liuerwort, three-leaued Liuerwort, noble Agrimonie, hearbe Trinitie.
Hepatique : f. The ſame.
Hepatique : com. Hepaticall; of, or belonging to, the liuer; alſo, Liuer-helping; comforting a whole, or curing a diſeaſed, liuer.
Aloës hepatique. The middle (in goodneſſe) of the three ſorts of Aloes.
Heptaphon. (¶Rab.) Seuen-fold.
Heptomagene : m. The ſeuenth male.
Herage : m. An ayrie of hawkes; and hence, a brood, kind, ſtocke, linage.
Herauder. To blaze; publickly to denounce, manifeſt, or commend.
Herault : m. An Herauld; a King of Armes.
Heraut. as Herault.
Herbage : m. Herbage, Paſture; or that which is payed for the herbage, or paſture of cattell; alſo, Common of paſture in other mens woods, or grounds.
Herbage mort. Is a penie, or halfepenie Tourn. paied by euery poore Cottager, or cuſtomarie tenant vnto the Lord that hath high, or meane Iuriſdiction ouer him, for euerie ſheepe he hath, if he haue not aboue ten, or (as in ſome places) twentie.
Herbage vif. Is euerie tenth ſheepe (where the tenant hath more then ten, or twentie) choſen by the Lord, or his Officer: Theſe Rights grow due from Chriſtmas eue to Midſummer, and then are leuied.

Franc

Franc herbage. ſheepe goe in groun then the Lord hath them.
Herbageux : m. cu fraught with hearb
Herbaut. The nam that appeared moſt
Herbaux. Certaine heritances are, by t
Herbe : f. An hearb
Herbe d'Aloes. Aigreene.
Herbe de l'Amb bacco.
Herbe d'arondel tarwort.
Herbe aux aulx.
Herbe de l'aune beale.
Herbe de Sainct baraes hearbe.
Herbe de benjoi
Herbe beurreuſ weed.
Herbe aux caille
Herbe au cerf. H Dei.
Herbe au chanc wort.
Herbe chandelie ſo, Mullein, Higtap lein (a kind thereof
Herbe chaperon hood, with the Pur
Herbe au charpe beale, Sickle-wort, Browne Bugle ſo; o Lumbes tongue, ſm foyle, or Yarrow, H good for wounds, a
Herbe au chat, o
Herbe aux chat ante.
Herbe aux chev Cytiſus buſh.
Herbe à chien. the dogs Cole.
Herbe de Chriſt noir; ſo tearmed mas.
Herbe du cigne.
Herbe clavelée. loue or liue in idle
Herbe aux cloc bells.
Herbe de cœur. card calls ſpotted ſlip of Ieruſalem,
Herbe copiere. meat.
Herbe à coqu. T
Herbe à cotton. ton-weed, petite
Herbe ſans cou tongue.
Herbe cucube.
Herbe aux cuill

Franc herbage. Free herbage; is when the tenants ſheepe goe in grounds held by a free, or noble tenure, for then the Lord hath neither Mort, nor Vif herbage for them.

Herbageux: m. euſe: f. Graſſie, herbie; full of graſſe, fraught with herbes.

Herbaut. The name of a merrie Diuell, or Hobgoblin, that appeared moſt commonly on horſebacke. ¶Rab.

Herbaux. Certaine duties, or charges, whereto ſome inheritances are, by the cuſtomes of Poictou, lyable.

Herbe: f. An herbe; weed; plant, wort; alſo, graſſe.

Herbe d'Aloes. Herbe Aloe, ſea Houſeleeke, ſea Aigreene.

Herbe de l'Ambaſſadeur. Nicotian, or French Tobacco.

Herbe d'arondelles. Celandine, Swallow-wort, Tettarwort.

Herbe aux aulx. Sauce alone, Jacke of the hedge.

Herbe de l'aune. Helicampane, Scabwort, Horſe-heale.

Herbe de Saincte Barbe. Winter Creſſes, Saint Barbaraes herbe.

Herbe de benjoin. Laſerwort, Magydare.

Herbe beurreuſe. Cudweed, Chaffweed, Cotton-weed.

Herbe aux cailles. Plantaine, Yaybred.

Herbe au cerf. Harts fodder, wild Parſenip, Gratia Dei.

Herbe au chancre. Heliotropium, Torneſole, Wart-wort.

Herbe chandeliere. Colewort, or Cabbage herb; alſo, Mullein, Higtaper, Torches; or, Candle-weeke Mullein (a kind thereof.)

Herbe chaperonniere. Wild Larkes-heele, or Monkshood, with the Purple flower.

Herbe au charpentier. Prunell, Hooke-heale, Selfe-heale, Sickle-wort, Carpenters herbe; Some alſo call Browne Bugle ſo; others (the more properly) Ribwort, Lambes tongue, ſmall Plantaine; and others call Millfoyle, or Yarrow, Herbe à charpentier, becauſe tis good for wounds, and cuts.

Herbe au chat, ou de chat. Nep, Nip, Cats-mint.

Herbe aux chats. The ſame; alſo, as Ortie puante.

Herbe aux chevres. Shrub Treſoile, milke Treſoile, Cytiſus buſh.

Herbe à chien. The Burre called Dogs Burre; alſo, the dogs Cole.

Herbe de Chriſt. Chriſts herbe; or, as Ellebore noir; ſo tearmed, becauſe it flouriſheth about Chriſtmas.

Herbe du cigne. Looke Cigne.

Herbe clavelée. Paunſie, Harts-eaſe, cull me to you, loue or liue in idleneſſe, two faces vnder a hood.

Herbe aux cloches. Withywind, Bindweed, Hedge-bells.

Herbe de cœur. Hartwort, or Hartwint; (The Picard calls ſpotted Comfrey, Sage of Ieruſalem, or Cowſlip of Ieruſalem, thus.)

Herbe copiere. A kind of wild Parſenip thats not ill meat.

Herbe à coqu. The Cowſlip, or Paigle.

Herbe à cotton. Cudwort, Chaffweed, Cudweed, Cotton-weed, petie Cotton.

Herbe ſans couſture. Adders tongue, Serpents tongue.

Herbe cucube. Garden Nightſhade.

Herbe aux cuilliers. Spoonewort, Scurvie-graſſe.

Herbe d'Encens. Wormewood.

Herbe Encenſiere. The ſame, or, Fleabane, Flea-bane Mullet.

Herbe d'Eſcarlate. The Skarlet Oke, or Skarlet Holme-Oke.

Herbe des Eſcrouëlles. Little Celandine, Pilewort, Figwort.

Herbe d'Eſpaigne. Spinage.

Herbe d'Eſparvier. The Haukeweed called yellow Cichorie.

L'Herbe à eſternuër. Sneeſingwort, wild Pellitorie of Spaine.

Herbe de l'eſtoille. Crowfoot Plaintain, Harts-horne Plantaine, Buckhorne, hearbe Iuie, hearbe Eue.

Herbe forte. Sarracens Conſound, Comfrey, or Woundwort.

Herbe à foulon. Fullers hearbe, Sopewort, Mockegillouers, Bruiſewort.

Herbe à vne fueille. The hearbe called One blade, or One-leaſe.

Herbe de S. Iacques. S. Iames his wort, or flower; countrey people call it Staggerwort, Stäuerwort, and Ragwort.

Herbe à iaulnir. Dyers weed, welde, yellow weed; alſo, baſe Broome, Wood-waxen, Greene-weed, or Greening weed.

Herbe de S. Iean. Thin-leaued Mugwort; ſome alſo call Clarie ſo.

Herbe impie. Hearbe impious, wicked Cottonweed, Chaffweed, or Cudweed.

Herbe de S. Innocent. Centinodie, male Knot-graſſe, Birds tongue, Swines graſſe.

Herbe Iudaïque. Jewes hearbe, Tetrahit, Glidewort (a kind of Balme.)

Herbe aux ladres. Speedwell, Ground-heele, Paules Betonie, male Fluellin.

Herbe à laict. Spurge, Tithimal, Milke-weed, Wolues milke.

Herbe au laict. The ſame; alſo, Milke-wort, ſea Milkewort, ſea Trifolie, blacke Saltwort.

Herbe aux langues. Tongue-wort, Tongue-blade, Pagan tongue, Double Tongue, Horſe tongue, Lawrell of Alexandria.

Herbe Laurageoiſe. Woad.

Herbe à limaçon. Medicke Fother, Snayle Clauer.

Herbe au loup. See Loup.

Herbe à cent maladies. Monnie-wort, hearbe two-pence, two-pennie graſſe.

Herbe de Saincte Marie. Our Ladies Mint, Speare-Mint, common garden Mint; alſo, Coſtmarie, and Alecoſt; by ſome alſo the hearbe Crowfoot, or yellow Camomill; by others, Hogs-bread, Swines-bread, or Sowbread, is called ſo.

Herbe marine. Sea graſſe, or weed of the ſea; Slanke, Wrake, Lauer.

Herbe à maſſes. Water torch, Cats tayle, reed Mace, marſh Beetle or Peſtle, Dutch Downe.

Herbe à tous maux. as Nicotiane.

Herbe militaire à millefueilles. Knights Millfoyle, ſoldiors Yarrow, yellow or little Yarrow, yellow Knighten Yarrow.

Herbe aux mites. Purple, or Mothe, Mullein.

Herbe Mithridate. Scordium, water Germaunder (ſo called of King Mithridates, the firſt finder thereof.)

Herbe moniale. Wild Larkes-heele, purple Monkes flower.

Herbe au moyneau. as Morgeline.

Herbe nervis. (or more properly, Neris.) Roſe-bay, Roſe-tree, Oleander.
Herbe de noſtre Dame. as Orvale; ſo called in Languedoc.
Herbe nouée. Centinodie, Knot-graſſe, Birds-tongue, Swines graſſe.
Herbe de la nuict. An hearbe, or Arbor plant, whoſe flower, ſhut vp all day, opens onely anights.
Herbe du papier. The Egyptian great ruſh Papyrus, whereof the firſt paper was made.
Herbe de paralyſie. The Cowſlip, or Ox-ſlip, tearmed otherwiſe Palſie-wort, and pettie Mullein.
Herbe aux pattes. Fole-foot, Colts-foot, Horſe-foot, Hall-foot.
Herbe aux perles. Perle-plant, Lich-wall, Grommill, Gremill.
Herbe de S. Pierre. Sampire, Creſtmarin.
Herbe à piment, as Piment.
Herbe aux pouilleux. Lice-bane, Staues-aker, Louſe-wort, Louſe-powder.
Herbe aux poulmons. Sage or Cowſlip of Jeruſalem, Sage of Bethlem, ſpotted Comfrey, Lungwort; alſo, the moſſe called Lungwort, or Oiſter-greene.
Herbe aux poulx. as Herbe aux pouilleux.
Herbe poyvrée. Dittander, Dittanie, Pepperwort.
Herbe du grand Prieur. Tobacco, or the hearbe Nicotian.
Herbe puante. A fourth kind of ſmall Flea-bane Coniza; of a ſtrong ſmell, or ſtinking ſauor.
Herbe à pulces. Fleawort; alſo, Fleabane, or Fleabane Mullet; (The ſeedes of that are like, the ſmell of this is death, to fleas.)
Herbe à punaiſes. Fleabane, Coniza, Fleabane Mullet.
Herbe Robert. Hearbe Robert; a kind of Storkes Bill.
Herbe de S. Roch. Coniza, Fleabane.
Herbe de la Roine mere. French Tobacco.
Herbe ſaincte. Nicotian, Tobacco.
Herbe Sardonique. Crowfoot of the fallow field, or Crowfoot of Illiria.
Herbe Savonniere. Sopewort, Sopeweed, Struthie, Bruiſewort, mocke Gillouer; alſo, wild Roſe Campion, Crow-ſope.
Herbe ſauvage. A weed, or Wilding.
Herbe aux ſcorpions. Scorpion wort, Scarpion graſſe, Caterpillers.
Herbe aux ſerpens. Snakes Bugloſſe, Vipers Bugloſſe, Vipers hearbe, wild Bugloſſe the leſſer.
Herbe de S. Simeon. Simeons Mallow, Verueine Mallow, cut Mallow.
Herbe ſolaire. The Marigold.
Herbe au ſoleil. A verie great, round, flat, and faire yellow flower, which turnes with the Sunne, and euer lookes towards it; the ſtalke it groweth (ſingle) on, dryed (though verie great, and betweene twelue and fifteene foot long) is verie light; being little other then ſo much pith wrapped vp in a ſolide, and woodie rinde, which makes it ſtrong, and fit to ſerue for a Prop.
Herbe du ſoleil. The Marigold; alſo, Heliotropium, Turneſole, Wartwort.
Herbe du tac. Lungwort, wood Liuerwort; (a kind of Moſſe.)
Herbe aux taincturiers. Madder.
Herbe terreſtre. A third kind of Sideritis, or Iron-wort; an hearbe thus called, becauſe it growes cloſe to the ground.
Herbe aux tigneux. The butter Burre.

Herbe tore. Broad-leaued Aconitum, Wolues bane, Wolfewort.
Herbe de la Trinité. Hearb Trinitie, Paunſie, Hartseaſe, two faces vnder a hood; alſo, Hareſoot, or Harefoot Trefoyle.
Herbe qui tue les brebis. Moneywort, hearbe two-pennie, two-pennie graſſe.
Herbe de tunicis. Frothie or ſpatling Poppie, white Ben; alſo, the hearbe Sweet Williams.
Herbe au Turc; &, Herbe du grand Turc. Rupturewort, Burſtwort.
Herbe veluë. as Herbe à cotton.
Herbe du vent. The wind flower.
Herbe vermineuſe. Purple or Mothe Mullein.
Herbe aux Viperes. Wild Bugloſſe the leſſer, Snakes Bugloſſe, Vipers Bugloſſe, Vipers hearbe.
Les bonnes herbes. as Herbettes.
Arracher les bonnes herbes, & planter les mauvaiſes. To ſupplant vertue, and ſupport vice; or, to plucke vp vertue to ſet vp vice.
Couper l'herbe ſous les pieds à. To ſupplant.
Manger ſon bled en herbe. To turne his cattell into his corne; to ſpend (the value of) his reuenue before it come in.
Mettre toutes les herbes de la S. Iean. To imploy all his skill on, or meanes in; (Diuers imagine, that the hearbes, which are to be kept for the whole yeares ſtore, are better, gathered on Midſummer day, then on any other; and therefore be Markets extraordinarily furniſhed, on that day, with all ſorts of new-gathered hearbes.)
Reduict à l'herbe. Brought to extreame want, in great neceſſitie, full of pouertie.
L'herbe qu'on cognoiſt on la doit lier à ſon doigt: Prov. Thoſe, or that, which a man knowes beſt, he muſt vſe moſt.
En four chaud ne croiſt herbe: Prov. Graſſe growes not in hot Ouens.
Il faut que l'herbe ſoit bien courte quand on ne trouue que repaiſtre: Prov. Commons muſt needs be ſhort where no meat's to be come by.
La mauvaiſe herbe croiſt touſiours: Prov. An ill weed growes apace.
Herbé: m. ée: f. Fed with graſſe; layed on the graſſe; turned into graſſe.
Herbeillé: m. ée: f. Fed on, or with, graſſe.
Herbeiller. To feed on, or with, graſſe.
Herbelette: f. A ſmall hearbe; or ſmall graſſe.
Herber. To graze, or feed on graſſe; to lay on the graſſe; to turne into, or out to, graſſe.
Herbergage: m. A lodging, or dwelling.
Herberge: f. A houſe, harbour, lodging.
Herbergé: m. ée: f. Inhabited, or dwelt on.
Herbergement: m. A lodging, tenement, or houſe lyen in; alſo, a lodging, harbouring, dwelling.
Herberger. To harbour, lodge, or dwell in a houſe.
Herbergerement: m. An harbour; houſe, tenement, lodging, dwelling.
Herbergerie: f. The ſame.
Herberie: f. Hearbes; increaſe, proniſion, or ſtore, of hearbes; alſo, a birds weaſon, or wind-pipe; a beaſts gullet, or throat-bole.
Herbette: f. Small graſſe; or, a ſmall hearbe.
Herbettes. Lettuce, Burrage, Purſlane, Sorrell, and ſuch like boleſome hearbes; tearmed ſo by the vulgar.
Herbeux: m. euſe: f. Graſſie, hearbie; full of graſſe, or of hearbes.

Herbier: m. An Herball; alſo, an Herballiſt; alſo, a Gardener, or Hearb-ſeller.

Herbiere: f. An Hearb-wife; alſo, the weaſon, or wind-pipe of a bird; and, the throat-boll, throat-pipe, or gullet of a beaſt.

Herbis: m. Graſſie, or well-growne, Paſtures.

Herbiſte: com. An Herbiſt, or Herballiſt; one that vnderſtands the nature, and temper of hearbes.

Herboriſer. To gather hearbes; to be much among them; or, to obſerue, examine, or ſtudie their ſeuerall natures; to play the Herballiſt.

Herboriſte: m. as Herbiſte.

Herbregé: m. ée: f. Commonly dwelt on, vſually lodged, or lyen in.

Herbregement: m. as Herbergement.

Herbreger. To dwell on; commonly to lodge, or ly in.

Herbregerie: f. A lodging, or dwelling; a tenement to lodge, or houſe to dwell, in.

Herbu: m. uë: f. Graſſie, hearbie.

Herce: f. A Harrow; alſo, a kind of Port-cullis, thats ſtucke (as a Harrow) full of ſharpe, ſtrong, and out-ſtanding (Iron) pinnes.

Herces. Pikes, or ſharpe Iron pinnes vpon gates.

En vne herce bien dentée n'y faut nulles dents: Prov. A thing well done needs no addition.

Herceler. Seeke Harceler.

Hercement: m. A harrowing.

Hercer. To harrow; alſo, to ioult, or iuſtle one thing againſt another.

Herceur: m. A harrower; he that leads, and guides the harrow horſes.

Herceure: f. A harrowing.

Hercher. as Hercer. ¶Norm.

Herculiane, & Pierre Herculienne. A Loadſtone.

Herdertifler. The great, or maiſter Deuill. ¶Rab.

Herdre. To cleaue, or ſticke faſt vnto; (an old word.)

Here. as Haire.

Hereditable: com. Hereditable, inheritable.

Hereditaire: com. Hereditarie, ſucceſſiue; comming by inheritance, belonging to an inheritance.

Heredital. The ſame; or, as Herital.

Quint heredital. See Quint.

Heredité: f. An heritage, inheritance, patrimonie.

Hereſiarche, ou Hereſiarque; an arch-hereticke.

Hereſie: f. Hereſie; obſtinate, or wicked error.

Hereſié: m. ée: f. Growne hereticall, turn'd Hereticke, grounded in hereſie; as obſtinate, or impious, as an Hereticke.

Hereſte de poiſſon. as Areſte.

Heretique: com. An Hereticke.

Hergne: f. Burſting; or a rupture within the cods; alſo, waywardneſſe, peeuiſhneſſe, frowardneſſe; alſo, a ſtarueling or ill-thriuing tree, a ſtocke tree; alſo, a ſucker that ſprings vp from the root of a tree.

Hergneux. Burſt; alſo, froward; Looke Hargneux.

Herigoté: m. ée: f. Dew-clawed; hauing ſpurres, or dew-clawes.

Herigotes: f. Dew-clawes; alſo, ſpurres.

Herigoteure: f. The hauing of dew-clawes, or ſpurres.

Heripé. as Herupé.

Heriper. as Heruper.

Heriſſé: m. ée: f. Set, ſtaring, or ſtanding vp, like briſtles, or the haire of an affrighted creature; horride; rough, rugged.

Heriſſement: m. A ſetting vp of the briſtles; a ſtaring, or horride ſtanding vp, as of briſtles; alſo, as Heriſſonnement.

Heriſſer. To ſet vp his briſtles; to make his haire to ſtare.

Se Heriſſer. His haire to ſtare; alſo, to ſhiuer, or yearne, through feare.

Heriſſon: m. An Vrchin, a Hedgehog.

Heriſſon de mer. The ſea Vrchin; a fiſh whoſe outſide ſomewhat reſembles the land-Vrchin.

Parez l'heriſſon il ſemblera Baron: Prov. Good clothes hide much deformitie; or, a clowne well cloathed ſeemes a Gentleman.

Heriſſonné. as Heriſſé.

Heriſſonnement: m. A ſuddaine quiuering, ſhiuering, or yearning, by the ſence, or apprehenſion of an abhorred thing.

se Heriſſonner. as s'Heriſſer.

Heritable: com. Inheritable; alſo, held in fee ſimple, or for euer.

Heritablement. Inheritably, in fee ſimple, for euer.

Heritableté: f. An Inheritance; the ſoyle inherited. ¶Wallon.

Heritage: m. An Inheritance, Heritage, Patrimonie.

Rentes à heritage. Looke Rente.

Mettre les mains à l'heritage. To fall on his hands to the ground.

De ieune Advocat heritage perdu: Prov. The land is loſt which a young Lawyer pleads for.

Vie n'eſt pas ſeur heritage: Prov. Life (though it be free-hold) is no inheritance (no ſure hold;) or, life's no inheritance to build on.

Herital: m. ale: f. Of inheritance; alſo, inherited, or held in fee.

Heritance. as Heritage; (an old word.)

Herité: m. An Inheritance, or heritage.

Herité: m. ée: f. Inherited; gotten, or come vnto, by diſcent.

Il eſt herité en ces marches; he hath gotten land, or an eſtate of inheritance, in theſe Quarters.

Heritel: m. elle: f. Inheritable; or, of inheritance.

Heriter. To inherite; to get, or come vnto by inheritance, or diſcent; alſo, to get land of inheritance, or an eſtate of inheritance in land.

Heritier: m. An heire, or inheritor.

Heritier conventionnel. An adopted heire by reaſon of marriage; as a ſonne, or daughter in law made by the father one of his heires, either in lieu of one of his other children, or as one among the reſt.

Heritier ſimple. An heire by diſcent.

Heritier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, an heire, inheritor, or inheritance.

Herle. as Harle.

Hermaire. as Armaire.

Hermandrée. Looke Germandrée.

Herme: m. Hermes; The name of a Saint.

Feu S. Herme. A firie meteor appearing on the tops of ſhip-maſts at ſea; Looke Furole.

Herme: com. as Ferme. ¶Gaſc. alſo, deſert, waſt, vntilled; ſolitarie, vnhaunted, vnfrequented.

Hermile. A little round member in Architecture, tearmed otherwiſe Aſtragale.

Hermmer. To furre with Ermines.

Herminette: f. A little planing Axe.

Hermitage: m. An Hermitage.

Hermite: m. An Hermit.

Hermite marin. as Branchuë; A kind of ſmall red Crayfiſh.

Bernard l'Hermite. The ſame.

Le Regnard eſt devenu hermite: Prov. The Fox doth preach (beware your Geeſe.)

Hermitreſſe: f. An Hermitreſſe; a woman Hermite.

Her-

Hermodacte. Hermodactill, Dogs bane, wild Bulbe, Meade or Medow Saffron, the ſonne before the father.

Hermole: f. Burſtwort, Rupturewort.

Herné: m. ée: f. Burſt; hauing a rupture about the Priuities.

Herniaire: f. as Hermole.

Hernie. Burſting; or, a rupture within the cods.

Heroë: m. A Worthie; a Demygod; one whom his valor hath deified, or immortalized.

Heroïne: f. A Ladie of admirable beautie, or of moſt excellent parts; a moſt worthie Ladie.

Heroïque: com. Heroicall; moſt worthie, noble, gallant, high-minded, or valiant.

Heron: m. A Heron. Looke Hairon.

Herouët. (The name of) a certaine great, yellow, and ſoft apple.

Herpail: m. A troope, beard, flocke, a crue, a rowt.

Herpaille: f. A knot, or crue of beggarlie, and roguiſh vagabonds, that liue by pilfering, or vpon the ſpoile.

Herpailleur: m. A ſeller of old trinkets of Iron, &c.

Herpé: m. ée: f. Graſped, ſnatched, caught at greedily; griped, hooked, violently ſeiſed; alſo, Harpe-like, ſhaped or faſhioned like a Harpe; out-breaſted, and well voided or lanke in the Groine, like a well-made Greyhound.

Herpelu. A Stiuer, or French ſhilling. ¶Barrag.

Herper. To graſpe, ſnatch, catch, clinch greedily; to gripe, hooke, ſeize violently, lay violent hands on.

Herper contre terre. To creepe, or crawle.

Herpes: f. The Shingles, Running worme, or wild fire.

Herr. Maiſter, or Sir. ¶Aleman.

Vous faictes du herr. (A ruſticall texation of a ſawcie yong man, or ſeruant;) you are verie cockit, or luſtie; you take too much vpon you.

Herre: m. A rogue, beggar, vagabond.

Herry: m. The fiindament, or arſe-gut.

Hers. (An Interiection of calling) hoe, here ho.

Herſe: f. A harrow; alſo, a kind of Portcullis; Looke Herce.

Herſelé. Seeke Harcelé.

Herſement: m. A harrowing.

Herſer. To harrow; alſo, to vex, turmoyle, diſquiet, hurrie, torment.

Herſeur: m. A harrower; alſo, a vexer, or tormentor of.

Herſoir. Yeſternight.

Herte. Eſtre à l'herte. Looke Erte.

Hertringue. I drinke to you (in Dutch.) ¶Rab.

Herupé: m. ée: f. Whoſe haire ſtares, or ſtands an end; alſo, briſtlie, prickled, rough, horride; alſo, towſed, diſcheuelled, diſordered.

Heruper. To diſcheuell, towſe, or diſorder the haire; to make it ſtare, or ſtand illfauoredly.

S'Heruper. To ſet vp the briſtles, as one that growes into choller; alſo, his haire to ſtare; or, as Se Heriſſer.

Heruppé. as Herupé.

Heſitation: f. Heſitation, doubtfulneſſe, vncertainetie; ſtammering, ſtaggering.

Heſité. Doubted, ſtucke at; ſtammered, ſtaggered (in opinion.)

Heſiter. To doubt, feare, ſticke, ſtammer, stagger (in opinion.)

Heſpalier: m. A Sayler, or Marriner.

Heſperie. The Weſt Tower. ¶Rab.

Heſtoudeau. A Cockerell, or great Cocke chicke; alſo, a Caponet; and in ſome few places (wherein any ſort of yong, big, or well-grown pullein is termed thus) a Pullet.

Heſtre: m. A Beech tree.

Heſtreau: m. A yong, or little, Beech tree.

Hetaudeau. as Heſtoudeau.

Heteroclite: com. Irregular, extraordinarie, not declined as other Nownes.

Reſolu comme Pihourt en ſes heteroclites. Looke Reſolu.

Hetique: com. as Hectique.

Heù: m. A (Dutch) Hoy; alſo, a Lighter.

Heu haſch. Fained words for a Cough. ¶Rab.

Heudri: m. ie: f. Muſtie, corrupted, putrified; ſtained, or ſpotted, as vn-ayred linnen.

Heudrir. To muſt, corrupt, putrifie; to ſpoyle, or marre by ill keeping, or want of ayring.

Heulet: m. A Hoult, or little Iſle cut out of the land of purpoſe to be ouerflowed euerie tyde by the ſea; that of the froth thereof (then left behind, and gathered after) ſalt may be made.

Heullant. Yelling, howling.

Heur: m. Hap, lucke, fortune, chaunce.

Le bon heur toſt ſe paſſe qui n' en a ſoing: Prov. Good fortune quickly ſlips from ſuch as heed it not.

Heure: f. An houre; alſo, time, ſeaſon, ſpace; alſo, the clocke.

Heures. A Prayer booke for certaine houres; Looke after Heurelival.

L'heure de complie. Compline-time; Euening-ſong tide, the edge of the euening.

Heures equinoctiales. The 24 equal parts, or houres, whereof a naturall day conſiſts.

Heures d'horologes. The ſame; or, equall, or euen houres (ſuch as clockes make) one iuſt as long as the other; ordinarie houres.

Heures ineſgales. The 12 vnequall parts of the artificers day; which laſts (all the yeare long) from the riſing to the ſetting, of the Sunne.

Heures des Planettes. as Heures ineſgales; Vnequall houres; ſuch as are ſometimes longer, ſometimes ſhorter then, and ſometimes like vnto, the ordinarie houres.

Haute heure. Farre on the day; (the ſeaſon from about eight in the morning vntill noone.)

`A l'heure. At that houre, at that inſtant, than, in the time of.

`A l'heure que. When, whileſt that.

`A la bonne heure. Happily, luckily, fortunately, in good time, in a good houre.

De bonne heure. In good time; alſo, early, betimes.

Pour l'heure. Than, at that inſtant, for that preſent.

Sur l'heure. as Pour l'heure.

Tout à cette heure. Now, euen now, incontinently, forthwith, preſently, at this verie inſtant, by and by.

L'heure a ſonné. It hath ſtrucke eleuen; (a Lawyers phraſe.)

Toutes heures ne ſont pas meures: Prov. All times are not in ſeaſon for all things.

Il n'eſt qu'une mauvaiſe heure au jour: Pro. There is but one ill (or vnluckie) houre in the day.

Heuré: m. ée: f. Set, or appointed an houre; limitted, ſtinted, or tasked by the houre.

Bien heuré. as Heureux.

Heurelival. The name of a ſoure apple, fit to make Cyder.

Heures: f. A Latine booke of prayers, appropriated vnto certaine houres in the morning, and then ſaid of dutie by Shauelings, and in deuotion by others.

Heureté: f. Happineſſe, bleſſednesſe, bliſſefullneſſe, proſpe- prosperitie, felicitie, fortunateneſſe.

Heureuſement. Happily, bleſſedly, bliſſefully, fortunately, proſperouſly.

Heureuſeté: f. as Heureté.

Heureux: m. euſe: f. Happie, bleſſed, bliſſefull, proſperous, luckie, fortunate.

Il eſt bien heureux qui ſe meſle de ſes affaires: Prov. He is verie happie that followes his owne buſineſſe; (then is the dullard that cannot, the ſluggard that will not, and the vnfree that muſt not, doe it, verie vnhappie.)

Heurlement: m. A howling, or yelling.

Heurler. To howle; Seeke Hurler.

Heurlerie: f. as Heurlement.

Heurt: m. A ſhocke; puſh, or daſh; a violent meeting, or conflict, ſcuffling, or incounter; a knocke, or knocking together of; alſo, a peece of high ground; alſo, the top, or vpper part of a mountaine.

Tout à heurt. Headie, all-ahead.

Baſtir en heurt. To build high, or on the vpper part, or ſide, of a hill.

Gare le heurt. See Gare.

Ils ont eu tant de heurts. They haue beene ſo much afflicted; they haue receiued ſo many ioults; ſo many miſchiefes haue aſſaulted them.

Heurtade: f. A ſhocke, knocke, iurre, ioult, puſh, daſh.

Heurtant. Shocking, puſhing, knocking, iurring, joulting; violently meeting.

Heurté: f. as Heureté.

Heurte. à toute heurte. Still, euer, euerie foot, now and then.

Heurté: m. ée: f. Knocked, puſhed, joulted, iurred, violently hit againſt.

Heurtement: m. A knocking, joulting, puſhing, daſhing, ſtriking, iurring, violent hitting againſt.

Heurter. To knocke, puſh, iurre, joult, ſtrike, daſh, or hit violently againſt.

Heurter des pieds. To ſtampe, or applaud by often ſtamping.

Se Heurter à vne pierre. To ſtumble at a ſtone.

Heurter la teſte contre l'huis. To runne his head againſt the doore; to take wax off the doore with his head.

Hardiment heurte à la porte qui bonne nouvelle apporte: Prov. He that brings good newes boldly knocks at doore.

Heurtes: f. Small Azure balls; tearmed (in Heraldrie) hurts on men, and tongue-moles on women.

Heurtis: m. as Heurtement.

Heuſe. Looke Houſe.

Heuſſe: f. The Linch pinne, whereby the arme of th' axletree is kept within the naue of a Cartwheele &c.

Heyron: m. as Hairon; alſo, a ſea-Mew. ¶Savoyard.

Hiacinthe. Looke Hyacinthe.

Hiacinthin: m. ine: f. Light-blue; Purple, Violet; of the colour of a Iacinth (flower.)

Hibernal: m. ale: f. Winterie; of, or belonging to, the winter.

Hibou: m. An Owle; the ordinarie great Owle.

Hibou cornu. as Moyen duc. See Duc.

On ne peut faire de hibou eſparvier: Prov. One cannot make a Hawke of an Owle.

Hideur; f. Dread, horror, quaking, feare, (or the cauſe thereof) a thing horrible, and feareſull to behold; alſo, ghaſtlineſſe, terribleneſſe, ouglineſſe, hideouſneſſe.

Hideuſement. Hideouſly, ghaſtly, grimly, horribly, terribly, feareſully.

Hideux: m. euſe: f. Hideous, grimme, dreadfull, ghaſtlie, terrible, horrible.

Hie: f. A Rammer, or Pauiers beetle; alſo, a Commaunder, or water-Pile Sledge, wherewith great ſtakes are driuen downe into the ground.

Hié: m. ée: f. Rammed in, driuen, or beaten downe.

Hieble: m. Wallwort, dwarfe Elderne, Danewort.

Hiement: m. A ramming; a driuing downe of ſtones, or piles into the ground.

Hier. To ramme; to beat, or driue downe ſtones, or piles into the ground; alſo, to beat flat, or ſadden (as a floore) with beating.

Hier. Yeſterday.

Devant hier. Two dayes agoe.

Hier vachier huy chevalier: Prov. Looke Vachier.

Hieracite. Pierre h. A kind of Bloud-ſtone, or ſtone that ſtaunchetb bloud.

Hierarchie: f. An Hierarchie; a ſacred Principalitie, a holie Gouernment.

Hiere piere. A certaine yellow, and verie bitter compoſition in powder.

Hierobotane: f. Veruine, Junoes teares, holie hearbe, Mercuries moiſt bloud.

Hierre: m. Ivie; Seeke Lierre.

Hierre terreſtre. Ground Iuie, Alehooſe, Cats foot, Gill-creep-by-the-ground.

Hileux: m. euſe: f. Blacke-tayled, or blacke on the tayle, as a Beane is.

Hillots: m. Fellowes; ¶Gaſc. ¶Rab.

Hinard: m. arde: f. Wry-neckt, wry-headed.

Hinnellement. Seeke Iſnellement.

Hipate: f. A ſixt; or the proportion of ſix, in Muſicke.

Hipocras: m. (The compound wine called) Hipocras.

Hipocras d'eau. Methеglin; wine, or drinke made of honey and water.

Hipogriphe: m. Looke Hypogriphe.

Hipothecaire. Seeke Hypothecaire.

Hipothequé: m. ée: f. Ingaged, morgaged, layed to pawne.

Hipothequer. To pawne, ingage, or morgage (immoueables.)

Hippiatrie: f. Horſe-phiſicke.

Hippocras. as Hipocras.

Hippogloſſe: m. Horſe-tongue, Double-tongue, Tongue-blade.

Hippopotame: m. A water-horſe (liuing in the riuer Nilus) that hath feet like an Ox, backe and mane like a Horſe, tuskes like a Bore, and a winged tayle.

Hirable. as Giraffe.

Hiraudie: f. A paltrie garment (In old French.)

Hircin: m. ine: f. Goat-like; of a Goat.

Branche hircine. Brank-Vrſin, Beares-claw, Beares-breech.

Hire: f. A Rammer, or Beater.

Hireté. as Heredité; (an old word.)

Hirondelle, or Hirundelle; A Swallow; Seeke Arondelle.

Hirondelle de mer. as in Arondelle; alſo, the ſmall aſh-coloured Mew, which, after the departure of the ordinarie ſea-Mew, flyes alone, and in flying fiſhes along Riuers.

Hirondelle de rivage. A ſea Swallow; a little bird that builds in the banks of riuers.

Hiſnel. Seeke Iſnel.

Hiſope: f. (The hearbe) Hiſope.

Hiſtoire: f. A Hiſtorie, Storie, Chronicle, Relation.

Hiſto-

Hiſtorial: m. ale: f. Hiſtoricall; of, or belonging to, a Hiſtorie.
Hiſtorié: m. ée: f. Flouriſhed, wrought, or beautified, with ſtorie-worke; alſo, contained in Hiſtories.
Hiſtorien: m. A Hiſtoriographer, Chronicler, Storie-writer.
Hiſtorier. To write, or compile Hiſtories; alſo, to flouriſh, or beautifie Wainſcot, or Tapiſtrie with Hiſtories, or Storie-worke.
Hiſtrion: m. A Comedian, Enterluder, Stage-player.
Hiſtrionique: com. Player-like; fit for, or belonging to, a Stage-player.
Hiulque: com. Gaping as the earth in drought; full of chaps, or chinkes; ill couched, ioyned, or ſet together.
Ho: m. A Groſſe, or great troupe of Cauallerie; many troupes of horſemen together.
Hobain. as Aubain.
Hobeine. as Aubaine.
Hober. To ſtirre, moue, remoue from place to place; (a ruſtie, and ruſticall word.)
Hobere: m. as Aubere.
Hoberger. To fly; or, to ſaue himſelfe by flying.
Hobille: f. A Ierkin, Iacket, or Coat. ¶Pic.
Hobin: m. A Hobbie; a little ambling (and ſhorne-maned) horſe.
Aller le hobin. To amble, or pace, like a Hobbie.
Hobineux: m. euſe: f. Hobbie-like; or belonging to a Hobbie.
Hobreau: m. (The Hawke tearmed) a Hobbie; alſo, a mungrell, or halfe-gentleman; one whoſe father, or mother were of meane parentage.
Hoc: m. as Croc; alſo, as Ho.
Hoche: f. A nicke, or notch, on a Tallie, &c.
Hochebos. A kind of Boat (an old word.)
Hochebride: m. A retcheleſſe rakehell, a deſperate or careleſſe companion.
Hochecüe. as Hoche-queuë.
Hochement: m. A ſhaking, wagging, iogging, iobbing, nodding.
Hochepli: m. A Vardingale.
Hochepot: m. A hotch-pot, or Gallimaufrey; a confuſed mingle-mangle of diuers things iumbled, or put together.
Hoche-prunier. A Plum-tree ſhaker; a mans yard.
Hoche-queuë: f. A water Wagtayle.
Hocher. To ſhake, wag, iog; nob; nod.
Hocher du nez. Diſdainefully to ſnuffe at.
Hocher de la teſte. To nod, or caſt vp the head; as one that would ſeeme to refuſe a thing offered, or deny a thing ſpoken.
Hochet de petis enfans. A Rattle, or Clacke wherewith children play.
Hocquet, & Hocqueter. as Hoquet, & Hoqueter.
Hocqueteur: m. A Basket-carrier. (v.m.)
Hocqueton: m. A (ſleeueleſſe, and ſhort) Iacket, Coat, Cassock, or Ierkin (at Court) a Coat for one of the Gard; Looke Hoqueton.
Hocton. as Hocqueton; and hence;
Qui a le loup pour compaignon porte le chien ſous l'hocton: Pro. Let him thats yoakt with a knaue be armd with a cudgell.
Hodé: f. Toyle, tiring, weariſomeneſſe.
Hodé: m. ée: f. Wearied, tired, ouer-toyled.
Hoder. To wearie, tire, ouer-toyle.
Hoe. An Interiection of wondering; as Hoho; alſo, reprehenſion; whence, vous eſtez bien hardi, hoe; alſo, of forbidding to touch a thing; as when they ſay, Allons hoe.
Hogner. as Hoigner.
Hoguiné: m. ée: f. Vexed, moleſted, annoyed, infeſted, offended.
Hoguinement: m. A vexing, moleſting, annoying, infeſting, offending.
Hoguiner. To vex, trouble, diſquiet, annoy, moleſt, infeſt, offend.
Hoguines: f. The peeces of Armour which couer the armes, thighes, and legs.
Hoho. (An Interiection of wondering) what hoe! is it poſſible!
Hoigne: f. A grumbling, muttering, murmuring, repining; whyning; (The Normand Towne Valoignes hath beene ſurnamed La Hoigne, becauſe the inhabitants thereof are by nature verie litigious.)
Hoigner. To grumble, mutter, murmure; to repine; alſo, to whyne as a child, or dog.
Hoir: m. An heire, or inheritor; (In ſome French lawes (wherein the Appennages of the Sonnes of France are treated of) an heire male, and in ſome auncient Farmes and Leaſes, a direct heire, is vnderſtood by this word.)
Hoir de quenouille. An inheritrix, heire female, daughter and heire.
Hoirie: f. An heritage, inheritance; heiredome; inheriting.
Holà. (An Interiection) hoe there, enough, ſoft ſoft, no more of that if you loue me; alſo, heare you me, or come hither.
Faict au hola. Dutifull, obſeruant, readie, at a becke, at call.
Faire le hola. To ſtop, ſtay, interrupt, bid ſtand; alſo, to part a fray.
Holette de maille. A ſhirt of Mayle.
Holocauſte: m. A ſacrifice killed, and layed whole on the Altar.
Holos. for Helas. ¶Rab.
Holoſteon. Hairie ſmall Plantaine, flouring ſea Plantaine; alſo, mountaine Plantaine; alſo, the hearbe called Stitchwort, or All-bonie.
Holothurie: f. A certaine thing found in the ſea, yet neither Plant, Fiſh, nor fit to be eaten.
Holotte: f. A Madge-howlet, or little Owle.
Hom. as Homme; a man. (vieil mot.)
Homage. Looke Hommage.
Homar: m. A ſea-Creuice, or ſmall Lobſter.
Grand homar. The great, or ordinarie, Lobſter.
Homelette. as Aumelette; an Omelet, or Pancake of egges.
Homenage. as Hommage. ¶Bearnois.
Homenas. A good ſillie cokes. ¶Rab.
Homicide: m. Manſlaughter, or murther; alſo, an homicide, man-killer, murtherer.
Homicidé: m. ée: f. Killed, ſlaine, murthered.
Homicider. To ſlay, kill, murther (a man.)
Homicidere: com. An homicide, man-killer, murtherer.
Hommace: f. A Virago; a manlie, or ſtout woman.
Hommage: m. Homage.
Hommage de bouche, & des mains. Is done by a vaſſall with head vncouered, hands ioyned, and a kiſſe receiued; and bindes him to fight for his Lord onely in defence of the land whereof hee holds.
Hommage de devotion. Which is giuen to the Church in Frankalmoine, and carries with it neither fief, Iuriſdiction, nor any other dutie.

Hom-

Hommage lige. Is done by the vaſſall vngirt, and bare-headed, with ioyned hands layed on the Euangeliſts, and a kiſſe receiued in the taking of his oath; and binds him to become an enemie to all his Lords enemies, and to follow him all his life time againſt all men (except the King.)

Hommage plein. Full, or abſolute homage; or, as Hommage lige. (And yet ſome Cuſtomes make them differ; Seeke Lige.)

Hommage ſimple. as Hommage de bouche, & des mains.

Hommagé: m. ée: f. Held by homage; for which homage is due, or done.

Hommager. To owe, or doe homage vnto; alſo, to reuerence.

Hommaſſe: f. as Hommace.

Homme: m. A Man; alſo, a tenant, &c; (Looke the next marginall word.)

Homme de bras. An Artificer, or Handicraſts man; one that gets his liuing by the labour of his hands.

Homme de Capeline. A reſolute, or valiant fellow.

Homme de peine. A laborious, or painefull fellow; an extreame toyler, or traueller; alſo, as Homme de bras.

Homme de bon creſme. A plaine, honeſt, ſincere, open-hearted companion.

Il le despecha comme vn homme de ſon païs. He vſed him rudely, or contemptibly; he handled him like a clowne as he is; he baffled, or abuſed him.

Homme aſſailli à demy vaincu: Prov. He thats aſſaulted is halfe ouercome.

Homme chiche iamais riche: Prov. Looke Riche.

Homme endormi corps enſeveli: Prov. A ſleeping, is no better then a dead man.

Homme matineux ſain, alaigre, & ſoigneux: Pro. Looke Matineux.

Homme mort ne fait guerre: &, Homme mort ne mord point: Prov. A dead man fights not; we ſay; A dead dog bites not.

Homme mutin, bruſque Rouſſin, flaſcon de vin prennent toſt fin: Prov. A factious aſſe, free horſe, good cup of wine, are quickly ſpent.

Homme ruſé tard abuſé: Prov. Looke Ruſé.

Homme ſeul eſt viande aux loups: Prov. The lone man is Wolues meat.

Homme à deux viſages n'agrée en villes, ny villages: Prov. Looke Viſage.

Les hommes donnent aux femmes ce qu'ils n'ont pas, & ne peuvent avoir: Prov. viz. Milke.

Les hommes ſe rencontrent, & non pas les montagnes: Prov. Not hills, but men, doe vſe to meet.

Vn homme de paille vaut vne femme d'or: Prov. Looke Femme.

Eſtre homme de bien c'eſt meſtier iuré, il ne l'eſt pas qui veut: Prov. Euerie one cannot be honeſt that would (for ſome by ignorance, and others by neceſſitie, are, or muſt be, knaues.)

Celuy eſt homme de bien qui eſt homme de biens: Prov. He is a righteous, that is a rich, man (ſayes the worldling.)

A grand homme grand verre: Prov. Looke Verre.

De meſchant homme bon Roy: Prov. A froward man becomes a good King.

Autant chemine vn homme en vn iour comme vn limaçon en cent ans: Pro. Seeke Limaçon.

Bon poete mauvais homme: Prov. A good Poet an euill perſon.

Il ne faut pas enquerir d'ou ſoit l'homme mais qu'il ſoit bon: Prov. No matter whence one comes ſo be be good.

Le bœuf par la corne, & l'homme par la parole: Prov. An Ox (is bound) by the horne, a man by his word.

Tant travaille, & tracaſſe l'homme qu'il ſe rompt, ou ſomme. Looke Travailler.

Tant vaut l'homme tant vaut ſa terre: Prov. A man is priſed by his land; See Terre.

Vne ſcience requiert tout ſon homme: Prov. One Art requires a whole man; a man that will be perfect in an Art muſt follow nothing elſe.

Homme: m. A Tenant, Liegeman, Vaſſall, Subiect.

Homme de corps. A villaine, or one that holds by a ſeruile tenure.

Hommes de la Cour du ſeigneur. Such as owe ſuite and ſeruice to his Court.

Homme feudal. Is, in ſome Cuſtomes, the title of a Lord; but in the moſt, of a vaſſall.

Homme de fief. A Vaſſall, or Tenant in freehold; and ſometimes the Lord of a Fief.

Hommes de la loy (de Gand.) The Magiſtrats (of Gaunt.)

Homme ſans moyen. That holds immediatly (and by homage) of the Crowne.

Homme de paix. A vaſſall that ought to be at peace with his Lord; or ought (by the vertue of his homage) to keepe the peace made by his Lord; or one that hath ſworne friendſhip, and fellowſhip with a greater then himſelfe.

Homme de plejûre. A vaſſall that is, or may be, a Bayle, Pledge, or Suretie for his Lord.

Hommes proffitables. Of whom the Lord makes profit, or from whom he hath his reuenue.

Homme de ſervice. That holds his land by fealtie, and certaine manuall, or meane, ſeruices.

Homme de ſervitude. A villaine; or one that holds by a ſeruile tenure.

Homme vivant, mourant, & confiſcant. A Vicar, Subſtitute, or Deputie for a Church, Colledge, or Cominaltie; at whoſe death the Lords of their fiefs are to haue ſuch rights as would haue beene due out of them at the death of a temporall, or ſingle, tenant.

Droict d'hommes. A Priuiledge which the Kings Officers haue, in ſome places, to qualifie, and leſſen the exceſſiue taxes impoſed by Lords on their Tenants, whom otherwiſe they might tax at their pleaſure.

Faute, ou defaut d'homme. Want, or omiſſion of due homage, fealtie, or ſeruices; whereby the Landlord is enabled to ſeize into his hands the fief out of which they be due.

Hommeau: m. A dwarfe, dandiprat, little man, low fellow.

Hommelet, & Hommenet. as Hommeau; or, a verie little man.

Hommeſſe: f. A Virago; a manlie, or ſtout woman.

Hommet. as Hommeau.

Homocentricalement. In one Center.

Homogené: m. ée: f. Of one kind. ¶Rab.

Homologation: f. An admiſſion, allowance, approuement, or approbation of; a conſent vnto.

Homologué: m. ée: f. Admitted, accepted, allowed, approued of; aſſented, or conſented vnto.

Homologuer. To admit, accept, allow, approue of; to aſſent, or conſent vnto.

Homonceau: m. A pettie, or paultrie, fellow.
Homonyme: f. An equiuocation, or word of diuers significations.
Homonyme: com. Equiuocall.
Homonymie: f. An equiuocation; or, a double, or different sence in one word.
Homs. as Homme; a man. (vieil mot.)
Hon hon. (An Interiection expressing wonder, or a fearefull apprehension of approaching mischiefe;) aha, aha.
Faire hon de la teste. To seeme loath; Seeke Faire.
Hondelée de foing. A load of Hay.
Hondresondre: m. A drunken, or swaggering Dutchman. ¶Rab.
Hongner. as Hoigner.
Hongre: m. An Hungarian; also, a guelded man, or horse; an Eunuch, a Guelding.
Honneste: com. Honest, good, vertuous; iust, vpright, sincere; also, gentle, ciuill, courteous; also, worthie, noble, honorable, of good reputation; also, comelie, seemelie, handsome, well befitting.
Honnestement. Honestly, vertuously, sincerely, vprightly; gently, ciuilly, courteously; worthily, nobly, with good credit; handsomely, decently, in a good fashion.
Honnesteté: f. Honestie, vertue, goodnesse, integritie, truth, sinceritie; iustnesse, vprightnesse; humanitie, courtesie, ciuilitie, gentlenesse; worth, or worthinesse; freedome of nature, open-heartednesse, a noble disposition; decencie, a Decorum.
Honneur: f. Honour; renowme, reputation, credit, praise, glorie, fame, great account, high reckoning, much estimation; worship, reuerence; dignitie, promotion; also, an Honour; or, an honourable estate, inheritance, or title, bestowed by a Prince, or great Lord.
Honneurs funebres. Funerall solemnities, rites, or rights.
Le morceau d'honneur. The last bit of a dish of meat; Looke Morceau.
Vefve d'honneur. Honours widow; a woman that had a good report, but now hath lost it.
Ventes, & honneurs. Looke Vente.
Pressé de son honneur. Hard set, sore layed to, that must needs goe to it, that must of necessitie purge, or vntrusse; (a mannerlie phrase.)
A tous seigneurs tous honneurs: Pro. Giue to all Lords all th' honours due vnto them.
Qui d'honneur n'a cure honte est sa droicture: Prov. Shame falls on him that cares not for (true) honour; or, he that his credit doth not weigh, reproch attends him, sham's his pay.
Qui n'a honte il n'aura ja honneur: Prov. Hee that wants shame shall neuer much credit winne.
Honni: m. ie: f. Reproached, shamed, disgraced, dishonoured, defamed; cursed, reuiled, outraged, in words; (also, spotted, blemished, fouled, polluted, defiled. ¶Pic.)
Honnir. To reproach, disgrace, dishonour, defame, shame; reuile, curse, or outrage, in words; (also, to spot, blemish, pollute, foule, file, defile. ¶Pic.)
Honnorance. as Honoraire.
Honorable: com. Honourable, noble; worthie, famous, renowmed; reuerend, worshipfull; great, high, statelie, magnificent, sumptuous.
Amende honorable. Seeke Amende.
Honorablement. Honorably, nobly; worthily, famously, renowmedly; reuerently, worshipfully; stately, magnificently, sumptuously; in a high degree, after a gallant manner.
Honoraire: m. An honourable Present giuen to a Prince, Embassador, or great Officer at his first entrie; also, a fee due, by custome, or for aduice giuen, paines taken, or seruice done; hence, also, a Donatiue bestowed on Souldiors.
Honoraire: com. Honourable; or worthie of honour.
Chevaliers honoraires. Such as are Knights by the priuiledge of their birth, and not in the right of any Order; (as all Noblemen, from the Duke to the Chattelain, are.)
Honorance: m. as Honoraire; (especially in the last sence.)
Honoré: m. ée: f. Honoured; reuerenced, renowmed, praised, prised; much respected, greatly esteemed, highly accompted of.
Honorer. To honour; renowme; reuerence; praise exceedingly, prise highly, respect verie much.
Honorifique: com. Honourable, honour-breeding, noble, worthie, worshipfull.
Honouars: m. Looke Henouars.
Honte: f. Shame; shamefullnesse, or shamefastnesse; also, discredit, infamie, ignominie, imputation, disgrace.
A leur courte honte. With much disgrace vnto them, to their exceeding shame.
Dire honte. To infame, defame, reuile, reproach, dishonour, cry shame on, or out vpon.
Femme qui perd sa honte est sans estime, & conte: Prov. Looke Femme.
Il ne va pas du tout à honte qui de demie voye retourne: Prov. He that turnes backe (hauing beene halfe way) goes not at all for shame.
Qui a honte de manger a honte de vivre: Prov. He that's ashamed to eat's ashamed to liue.
Qui n'a honte il n'aura ja honneur: Prov. Looke Honneur.
Qui d'honneur n'a cure honte est sa droicture: Prov. His meed is shame that weighes not his good name.
Qui vit à compte vit à honte: Prov. He basely liues that reckons all hee spends; (yet is there small difference betweene him that knowes not what he spends, and him that spends he knowes not what.)
Tel cuide vanger sa honte qui l'accroist: Prov. Some thinking to reuenge, renue, their shame.
Vieil peché fait nouvelle honte: Prov. Old sinne inflicts new shame.
Honteux: m. euse: f. Shamefast, bashfull, belo, modest, backward, fearefull; also, shamefull, infamous, ignominious, dishonourable, reproachfull, dishonest; also, belonging, or seated neere, to the priuie parts; whence;
Artere, or veine honteuse. Looke Artere, & Veine.
La partie honteuse. The groine, or part whereon the Pubes groweth.
Honteux comme vne truye qui emporte vn levain. As shamefast as a Sow that slaps vp a Sillibub.
se Hontir. as se Hontoyer.
se Hontoyer. To be ashamed of; to blush, or be bashfull, at; to hang downe the head for shame.
Hopelande: f. as Houpelande.
Hopperie: f. A whooping, or showting.
Hoquet: m. The hickocke, or yexing.

Hoqueter. To yex, or clocke; to haue the Hickup, or Hickocke.
Hoqueton: m. A (faſhion of) ſhort Coat, Caſſocke, or Iacket, without ſleeues, and moſt in faſhion among the countrey people.
Hoqueton argenté. A Coat for one of the Kings Gard.
Hoqueton de guerre. A Souldiors Caſſocke, a Horſemans coat-armour.
Hoqueton orfavriſé. as Hoqueton argenté.
Horaprime. as Oraprime.
Horcentric, ou Horcentrique. Out of the Center, cleane without the compaſſe of; (Mathematicians apply this word to the Sunne, when the Center thereof, being at the full height of his Epicycle, is furtheſt from the centre of the earth.)
Horche. à horche. Looke à Ourſe.
Hord. as Heurt.
Hordeat: m. Barlie water; drinke made of Barlie.
Hordoux. Slouenlie, greaſie, naſtie, filthie.
Hore. de là en hore. From that time to this.
Horée; f. A great ſhower of raine.
Horepole: f. A Whirlepoole (fiſh.)
Horion: m. A duſt, cuffe, rap, knocke, thumpe; alſo, a luncheon, or big peece.
Horizon: m. A Horizon; ſo much of the Firmament as wee can behold; or, a circle diuiding the Firmaments halfe-Sphere, which we ſee, from that halfe which we ſee not.
Horloge: m. A Clocke, or Dyall.
Horloge d'eau. A Clepſydra, or water Dyall; a veſſell out of which water runnes continually, and in a certaine proportion for euerie houre.
Horloge à ſablon. An Houre-glaſſe.
Horloge au ſoleil. A Sunne-dyall.
Horloge des villageois. The Marigold; (ſo tearmed becauſe it ſheweth them, by the changes of turning towards the Sunne, how the day paſſeth.)
Il n'eſt horloge plus iuſte que le ventre: Pro. The bellie is the beſt, or trueſt Clocke.
Horloger: m. as Horlogeur.
Horlogeur: m. A Clock-maker, or Dyall-maker.
Hormale. as Orvale.
Horminin: m. Clarie; or (as Mathiolus affirmes) ſo miſtaken by diuers Herballiſts; (for Clarie beares a Carnation flower (ſayes he) or a whitiſh one (ſayes Gerard*) and* Horminium a purple one; beſides, the ſeed of Clarie is round, that of Horminium long; notwithſtanding which differences, it may well ynough paſſe for a kind of Clarie.)
Hormis. Sauing, excepting, beſides, onely, but, otherwiſe then.
Horo. I ſee him; (a Hunters tearme, or voice, whereby he ſignifies that he hath the ſight of the beaſt in chaſe.)
Horologeur. as Horlogeur.
Horologier. The ſame.
Horoſcope: m. The Horoſcope, or Aſcendant of a natiuitie; a diligent obſeruation of the iuſt time wherein one was borne; alſo, the part of the firmament which riſeth euerie houre from the Eaſt.
Horreau: m. A Mackerell. ¶Marſeillois.
Horreur: f. Horror, loathing, deteſtation, abhorring; alſo, dread, or feare.
Horrible: com. Horrible; terrible; deteſtable, execrable, abhominable; hideous, moſt ouglie.
Horriblement. Horribly; terribly; hideouſly; execrably, abhominably.
Horribler. To make horrible, or moſt ouglie.
Horribleté. Horribleneſſe; terribleneſſe; hideouſneſſe.
Horripilation: f. A ſuddaine quaking, yerning, ſhudering, ſhiuering, or quiuering; alſo, a growing rough with haire.
Horripiration: f. Smart; or, a ſuddaine quaking, &c; as Horripilation.
Hors. Out of, without.
Hors d'icy. Hence.
Du coſté hors le montoir. On the wrong, or the other, ſide of the horſe.
Du tetin en hors. From his verie infancie, euer ſince he ſucked.
Horſmis. Looke Hormis.
Hortailles: f. All kind of Gardening Vtenſiles; or, as Hottailles.
Hortatif: m. iue: f. Hortatiue, exhorting.
Hortie. as Ortie; a Netle.
Hortolages: m. Hearbes, fruits, roots, Garden ſtuffe; things growing in Orchards, or Gardens.
Hortolan: m. A delicate bird (of the bigneſſe of a Larke) that hath a reddiſh beake and thighes; a necke, and breaſt ſtreaked with yellow and greene; a Scarlet bellie ſpotted with Aſh colour, and the feathers of his wings and tayle in ſome parts blacke, in ſome red, in ſome aſh-coloured.
Hory ho, hay & ho. (The ordinarie harſh accent, or voice, of Carters.)
Hoſcher. as Hocher; alſo, to ſwyne.
Hoſeaux. Looke Houſeaux.
Hoſpillé, & Hoſpiller. Seeke Houſpillé, & Houſpiller.
Hoſpitable: com. Hoſpitable; alſo, inhabitable, or fit to dwell in.
Hoſpital: m. An Hoſpitall, a Spittle.
Aller à l'hoſpital. Ie m'en vay à l'h. My fortunes are in the wane, or at a verie low ebbe; I may goe whether I will for any thing I haue.
Envoyer à l'hoſpital. To begger, vndoe, turne (in a poore pickle) out of doores.
L'Ouvrier gentil à l'hoſpital: Prov. Seeke Ouvrier.
Hoſpitaler. To receiue into, (and) to relieue within, an Hoſpitall.
Hoſpitalier: m. The Maiſter of an Hoſpitall; alſo, a Knight of the religious Order of the Hoſpitall.
Hoſpitalier: m. ere: f. Verie hoſpitable, vſing hoſpitalitie, that keepeth a good houſe.
Hoſpitalité: f. Hoſpitalitie, good houſe-keeping.
Hosquet. as Hoquet.
Hoſt: m. An Hoſt, or Armie; and (more particularly) a Troope, Squadron, or Batallion of Souldiors ranked, not in file, but cloſe together; a Squadron, or Batallion trooping, or in troopes.
Hoſt banni. as Ban & Arriereban.
Hoſtage: m. An Hoſtage, Pawne, Suretie, Pledge; (A terme of payment being expired, the Debtor muſt deliuer Hoſtages; to wit, three, or foure, who goe to an Inne, and there continue (hauing both wages, and their charges allowed them by him) vntill he haue taken order.)
Hoſtager: m. ere: f. Giuen in hoſtage, layed in pawne, left in pledge for.
Hoſtarde: f. A Buſtard.
Hoſtau. as Hoſtel. ¶Langued.
Hoſte: m. An Hoſte, Inne-keeper, Inne-holder; alſo, a gueſt; alſo, a tenant, or vaſſall.

Compter ſans ſon hoſte. To reckon without his hoſt; to make himſelfe ſure of things which are wholly at the diſpoſition of others.

Qui compte ſans ſon hoſte il faut qu'il compte deux fois: Prov. Twice muſt he reckon without his hoſt who reckons.

Vne fois faut compter à l'hoſte: Prov. Our reckoning muſt be made one time or other.

L'hoſte & le poiſſon, paſſé trois iours, puent: Prov. A gueſt and fiſh after three dayes are fuſtie.

L'hoſte eſt touſiours le plus foulé: Pro. (Applyable to Goſſipping feaſts;) The intertainer's alwaies troubled moſt.

Tel hoſte tel hoſtel: Pro. Like hoſt like houſe.

De meſchant hoſte bon reconduiſeur: Pro. A needie hoſt (or gueſt) is a friendlie guide.

Il ſe peut bien ſeoir ſans contredit qui ſe met là ou ſon hoſte luy dit: Prov. Hee that ſits where his hoſt him bids, may lawfully keepe his place.

Le ſanglier n'eſt qu'un hoſte: Prov. Becauſe hee raunges continually from wood to wood, from forreſt to forreſt.

Meſtier n'avons d'hoſte à chere marrie: Prov. A ſoure-fac't hoſt (or gueſt) may well enough be ſpared.

Hoſtel: m. An Hoſtell, Houſe, Lodging; Hall, Place, Palace; (This word is commonly a marke of Greatneſſe; as L'Hoſtel de Bourbon; L'Hoſtel de ville, &c; other inferior Houſes being tearmed Maiſons, and Logis.)

Hoſtel Dieu. A Spitle, or Hoſpitall.

Hoſtel de ville. A Guild-hall, common Hall, Towne-houſe.

Vn corps d'hoſtel. See Corps.

Maiſtre d'hoſtel. A Steward, or Clarke of the Kitchin.

A l'hoſtel priſer, & au marché vendre: Prov. Priſe goods at home, but ſell them in the market.

C'eſt l'hoſtel du Roy Petaud où chaſcun eſt Maiſtre: Prov. Applyable to a diſordered houſehold, wherein euerie one commaunds, and does, what he liſt.

Il ne ſe fourvoit point qui à bon hôſtel va: Prov. He goes not out of his way that goes to a good houſe.

La belle chere amende beaucoup l'hoſtel: Prov. Good cheere makes good amends for a bad houſe; or, a bad houſe by good cheere is much amended.

Qui toſt vient à ſon hoſtel mieux luy en eſt à ſon ſouper: Prov. He fares the better that comes earlie home.

Tel hoſte tel hoſtel: Prov. The hoſt, and the houſe are (commonly) alike.

Hoſtelage: m. Hoſpitalitie; alſo, a bed, or nights-lodging (for a gueſt.)

Droict d'hoſtelage. Looke Droict.

Pains d'hoſtelage. A certaine dutie payed (within the Seigniorie of Dunois) by vaſſalls vnto their Lords, in regard of the houſes wherein they dwell.

Hoſtelé: m. ée: f. Lodged.

Hoſteler. To lodge; to giue, lend, or hire out lodging vnto; alſo, to lodge, or take a lodging, in.

Hoſtelerie: f. An Inne; an Hoſterie; a victualling houſe, wherein meat and lodging may be had for money.

Hoſtelier: m. An Hoſt, Inne-keeper, Inne-holder.

Ris d'hoſtelier: Prov. A ieering, or fained laughter; a diſſembling cheerefulneſſe; mirth onely from the teeth outward.

Hoſtellage. Looke Hoſtelage.

Hoſteller. To lodge; giue, or affoord lodging vnto; alſo, to take, or haue a lodging in.

Hoſteſſe: f. An Hoſteſſe.

Belle hoſteſſe c'eſt vn mal pour la bourſe: Prov. A faire hoſteſſe is a foule pick-purſe; or, the beautie of an Hoſteſſe is the purſes bane.

Hoſtie: f. A ſacrifice, or thing ſacrificed.

Hoſtiere. Gueux d'hoſtiere. Such as beg from doore to doore.

Hoſtierie: f. An Hoſpitall; alſo, an Hoſterie, or little Inne.

Hoſtigement de fief. A declaration in open Court, to whom a fief belongs after the deceaſe of him that held it laſt; or for the ſecuritie of a debt.

Hoſtigié. Heritage hoſtigié. Whoſe true owner is named in Court; as in Hoſtigement.

Hoſtile: com. Hoſtile, hatefull, enemie-like, belonging to an enemie.

Hoſtilement. Hoſtilely, hatefully, deadly, mortally, with deadlie feud.

Hoſtilité: f. Hoſtilitie, feud, enmitie, deadlie hatred, mortall hate.

Hoſtiſe: f. as Oſtize.

Hot. Looke Hoſt.

Hottailles: f. (All kind of) Baskets, Doſſers, &c.

Hotte: f. A Scuttle, Doſſer, Basket to carrie on the backe; (The right Hotte is wide at the top, and narrow at the bottome;) See Buttet.

Hotte de cheminée. The firſt part of the funnell of a chimney, reaching from the Mantletree to the middle thereof.

Mors à hotte. A flat Cannon; or, a Scatch bit.

Hottée: f. A Scuttle-full of.

Hotter. To beare a Scuttle, to carrie a Doſſer, on the backe.

Hottereau: m. A Scuttle; a ſmall (wide-mouthed, and narrow-bottomd) basket.

Hotteur: m. A Basket-carrier, or Scuttle-carrier; one that carries a Doſſer on his backe.

Hottier. as Hotteur.

Hotton: m. The ſtaulke of an eare of corne.

Hottons. Broken peeces of eares, or of corne, and other ſuperfluities, diuided by the winnower from the cleane, and whole corne, and reſerued for Pullein.

Hou hou hou. Hootings, or whoopings; voices wherewith Swine are ſcared, or infamous old women diſgraced.

Hoüage: m. A digging, or turning vp of the ground; an opening at the root, with a Houë.

Hoüaller. To yawle, wawle, or cry out aloud. ¶ Bleſien.

Hoüay. How now. ¶ Pariſien.

Houbelande. as Houpelande.

Houbelon: m. Hop, or Hops.

Houbiller vne vache. To milke a Cow.

Houcle. A Surgeons Inſtrument, wherewith the mouth of a wound is ſtitched, and drawne together.

Houë: f. An Inſtrument of Husbandrie, which hath a crooked handle, or helue of wood, ſome two foot long, and a broad, and in-bending head of Iron.

Houë fourchuë. A grubbing ax; or forked pickax, whoſe double tongue bends inward as the head of the ordinarie Houë, and is vſed for ſtonie ground, whereinto the other cannot well enter.

Houë platte. A dible, or ſetting ſticke.

La petite houë. The fee belonging to the Millers, and Bakers that grind, and make bread of, prouant corne;

corne; viz. to thoſe, a cupfull vpon euerie buſhell; to theſe, all the branne.

Houé: m. ée: f. Digged vp, into, or about; turned, or broken vp, as the earth; opened at the root as a tree with a Houë.

Houëau. as Hoyau.

Houëment: m. A digging vp, into, or about; a turning, or breaking vp of the earth; an opening at the root with a Houë.

Houër. To dig vp, into, or about; to breake, or turne vp ground; to open a plant at the root, with a Houë.

Houet: m. A Tentar hooke.

Houeur: m. A digger; or, one that workes with a Houë.

Houille: f. Sedge, or Fenne-graſſe; alſo, a kind of Mineral (in the countrey of Liege) that makes verie good fires.

Houiſche. (An Interiection whereby ſilence is impoſed) huſht, whiſt, iſt, not a word for your life.

Houlette de berger. A Sheepe-hooke, or Shepheards Crooke.

Houlette de connil. A Rabbits neaſt.

Houlle. The waues, or the rolling of the waues, of the ſea. ¶Rab.

Houpe: f. as Houppe.

Houpé: m. ée: f. Tufted, or taſſelled; ſet, or trimmed with tufts, taſſels, or pretie lockes; alſo, whooped at, or vnto.

Fuſtaine houpée. Looke Fuſtaine.

Houpelande: f. A Shepheards Cloke, Pelt, or Gabardine; (hence) alſo, a ſhort gowne, or long cloke with ſleeues.

Houpelu: m. uë: f. Lockie, taſſellie, tufted; or, as Houpé (in the firſt ſence.)

Houper. To tuft; to trimme with taſſels, or pretie locks; alſo, to whoope vnto, or call a farre off.

Houpier d'un Arbre: m. The tuft, thicke top, or topping of a tree.

Houplande. as Houpelande.

Houppe: f. A tuft, or topping; a taſſell, or pretie locke.

Houppelande. as Houpelande.

Houppier. as Houpier.

Houquet: m. The Hickock.

Hourd: m. A Scaffold. ¶Pic. alſo, as Heurt; and hence;

Ou eſt meu le hourd. Where blowes are walking, thumpes giuen, thwackes dealt; or where there is ſuch rude buſtling together.

Hourdage: m. A faſhion of walling, or couering for walls, of reeds wrought like hurdles, and dawbed ouer with loame, or clay.

Hourde. as Harde (in the firſt ſence.)

Hourdé: m. ée: f. Loaded, burthened; alſo, couered with hurdles, or with reed wrought hurdle-wiſe, and dawbed ouer with loame.

Hourder. To charge, burthen, load; alſo, to couer with hurdles, or with reed wrought hurdle-wiſe, and dawbed ouer with loame, or clay.

Hourdis. as Hourd; alſo, hurdles, or reeds wrought like hurdles, and couered ouer with loame.

Hourque: f. A Hulke, or huge Fly-boat.

Hourt: m. A boiſterous incounter, a violent conflict, or ſhocke; Looke Heurt.

Hourvaris. The doublings of a purſued Hare, or Deere.

Hous. as Houx.

Houſe: f. A drawer, or courſe ſtocking worne ouer a finer, by countrey people.

Houſé: m. ée: f. That hath drawers on; (hence) alſo, booted.

Tel eſt houſé qui n'eſt pas preſt: Pro. Sayd of one thats furniſhed many wayes, and yet wants his principall helpe.

Houſeau: m. A courſe drawer worne ouer a Stocking in ſtead of a Boot.

Il a laiſſé les houſeaux. He hath got him to (his laſt) bed; he is euen as good as gone; he is no better then a dead man.

Houſée: f. as Houſeau; alſo, an Hipocras-bag, or hoſe to ſtraine Hipocras through; alſo, a ſhower of raine.

se Houſer. To pull on drawers, to draw on bootes.

A l'an ſoixante & douze, temps eſt que l'on ſe houſe: Prov. At 72 we had need to thinke of our laſt deed.

Houſleau: m. The Hollie, Huluer, or Holme tree.

Houſpaillier: m. A Horſe-keeper; a Groome of, or Lad in, a Stable.

Houſpillé: m. ée: f. Tugged, towſed, lugged, hurried; ruffled, diſordered; torne, ragged, tattered.

Houſpillée. as Houſſepillée.

Houspillement: m. A violent pulling, dragging, lugging, tugging, towſing; tearing of ones garments, or of one by the garments.

se Houſpiller l'un l'autre. To tug, lug, hurrie, teare one another; to ſhake, or towſe, as one dog doth another.

Houſſe: f. A ſhort mantle of courſe cloth (and all of a peece) worne in ill weather by countrey women, about their head and ſhoulders; alſo, a foot-cloth for a horſe; alſo, a Couerlet, or Counter-point for a bed (in which ſence it is moſt vſed among Leapers, or in Spitles for Leapers.)

Houſſé: m. ée: f. Couered with a foot-cloth, as a horſe; with a Blanket, as a Bed; or with a ſhort, and courſe Mantle, as a countrey woman; alſo, ſwept, or made cleane, as a chimney, or the ſeeling, &c, of a duſtie houſe.

Houſſée de pluye. A ſhower of raine.

Houſſepaillée: f. A ſluttiſh dragle-tayle, whoſe gowne euer ſticks full of ſtraw.

Houſſepailler. as Houſpiller.

Houſſepailleur. as Heſpalier; or Houſpaillier. ¶Rab.

Houſſepillée: f. A ragged ſlut, a tattered huſwife; one whoſe gowne hath neuer a whole peece about it.

Houſſepillement. as Houſpillement.

Houſſer. To ſweepe, or make cleane a chimney, or the vpper parts of a duſtie roome, with a long beeſome; alſo, to couer with a foot-cloth, or put a foot-cloth on.

Houſſer vn arbre. To ſhake a tree.

Houſſeur: m. A ſweeper; or one that ſweepes with a Houſſoir.

Houſſeuſe: f. A woman that ſweepes, duſtes, or makes cleane, a houſe with a Houſſoir.

Houſſine: f. A Switch, or Whisker; (moſt properly) a riding rod of Hollie; a Hollie wand; a crop of Hollie.

Houſſiner. To ſwindge with a Switch; to bang, or beat with a Hollie-rod.

Houſſineux: m. euſe: f. Full of Hollie-wands, or Switches.

Houſſoir: m. A bruſh, or beeſome of Butchers broome; and (more generally) any broome tyed to the end of a long ſtaffe, or pole, for the ſweeping of chimneyes, or the vpper parts of duſtie roomes.

Houſſon: m. Kneehull, Kneebuluer, Kneeholme, Pettigree, Butchers Broome.

Houſſouer. as Houſſoir.

Houſſu: m. uë: f. Hairie, high-haired, rugged with haire.

Crins houſſus. Thicke lockes, or tufts of haire.

Mouton houſſu. A ſheepe well woolled, or of great burthen.

Houſſure de laine: f. A fleece, or great locke of wooll.

Houtarde: f. A Buſtard.

Houtin. as Autin.

Houx: m. The Hollie, Holme, or Huluer tree.

Petit houx. Kneeholme, Kneebuluer, Pettigree, Butchers Broome.

Houzé. Looke Houſé.

se Houzer. Looke se Houſer.

Hoyau: m. The French Mattocke; or an Inſtrument of Husbandrie, hauing a ſtrait and ſtrong helue of wood ſome two foot long, and an yron head ſome foot and a halfe long, and about three ynches broad.

Hoyé: m. ée: f. Cruſhed, tired, ouertoyled; alſo, lame, or impotent, by nature.

Hu: m. as Huée.

Hua: m. A kind of black Kyte (rare, if at all, in England) whoſe tayle is not forked.

Huan. as Hua.

Huant, ou chat huant. The rough-legd Owle; or, as in Chat-huant.

Huant. Hooting, ſhowting, crying out, making hue and cry.

Huard: m. A Buzzard-like Eagle that preyes altogether vpon Coots, and wild-Ducks.

Huau: m. as Hua.

Huaume: m. The helme of a Ship.

Hubi: m. ie: f. Liuelie, ſprightfull; alſo, well batled, well amended in fleſh, &c.

Hubir. To rayſe, make thriue, cauſe to grow, by holeſome dyet, and other good vſage.

Il s'en faut hubir le mieux qu'on pourra. We muſt make as good ſhift with it as we can.

Hubit: m. A briſtling, or ſetting vp of the briſtles.

Huchant. Calling for; whooping, or hallowing vnto.

Huchant en paume. Whiſtling for, or calling vnto by whiſtling in the fiſt.

Huche: f. A Hutch, or Binne; a kneading Trough, or Tub; alſo, a Mill-bopper.

Huché: m. ée: f. Whooped, called, or hallowed vnto.

Huchement: m. A whooping, or hallowing for, a calling vnto.

Hucher. To whoope, or hallow for; to call vnto.

Huchet: m. A Hutchet, Bugle, or ſmall Horne; ſuch a one as Poſt boyes vſe.

Hué: m. ée: f. Hooted, or ſhowted after; exclaimed, or cryed out vpon; followed with hue and cry.

Huée: f. A ſhowting, or hooting; an exclamation, outcry, or hue and cry, of many voices together.

Huer. To hoot, ſhout, exclaime, cry out, make hue and cry.

Huerie: f. A hooting, ſhowting, acclamation, crying, outcry.

Huet. A proper name; alſo, a Nick-name; and hence;

Ie conſens eſtre appellé Huet. Then call me Cut and ſpare not.

Huetant. as Huant.

Huette: f. An Howlet, or the little Horne-Owle; as Hulotte.

Huge. as Huche.

Hugrement. Brauely, gallantly. Rab.

Huguenots: m. Huguenots, Caluiniſts, Reformiſts; thoſe of the Religion in France; (at firſt tearmed thus of a Gate in Tours called Hugon, neere vnto which they aſſembled when they ſtirred firſt; or of the beginning of their firſt Proteſtation, Huc nos venimus.)

Huguenot: m. otte: f. Gent Huguenotte. as Huguenots.

Huguenotterie: f. Huguenotiſme, Caluiniſme.

Huguenottique: com. Huguenot-like; of, or belonging to, a Huguenot.

Hui. (Adverb.) To day, this day; Looke Huy.

Hui mais. as Meshuy.

Huict. Eight.

Huictaine: f. An eighth; the number of eight; alſo, (a proportion of) eight dayes; whence;

A huictaine. Eight dayes hence, or within eight dayes.

Huictante. Eightie, foureſcore.

Huictieſme: m. An eighth part; and (more particularly) the eighth pennie of the price of retayled Wine, Cyder, and other ſuch drinkes, payed vnto the King by the retayler thereof; (This Impoſt was begun in, and hath continued ſince, the raigne of Charles the ſixt, Anno Dom. 1382.)

Huictieſme: com. The eighth.

Huile: com. Oyle.

Huile de Maguelet. Oyle of the Arabian Cherrie Macalet.

Huile Omphacin. Oyle thats made of greene, or vnripe Oliues.

Huile d'onction. The oyle vſed in Popiſh Baptiſme, and Extreame Vnction.

Huile de pierre. A ſoft, and ſulphurous mould or earth, which is eaſily inflamed by any fire thats neere it, and once fired will not be quenched, eſpecially not by water, which caſt vpon it, makes it burne the more vehemently; Looke Naphte.

Huile ſacrée. Oyle of Amber; called ſo of it admirable, and ſecret vertues.

Huile ſainct. Holie Oyle; the Oſle wherewith children in baptizing, and others in dying, are among Papiſts annointed.

Huile Saincte, ou de Sapience. Looke Sapience.

Huile ſambacin. Oyle of Jeſſomin flowers; good againſt cold diſeaſes.

Huile ſambucin. Oyle of Elders.

Huile Sicyonien. Is made of Oyle Ompbacin twice boiled with a leſſe quantitie of cleere water in a wide-mouthed Copper veſſell.

Huile de vie. Oyle of Vitriall, called ſo of it excellent propertie.

Huile Virginal. Virgins Oyle; the Oyle that comes from the Oliue of it ſelfe, and without preſſing.

Huile de Zambach. as Huile Sambacin.

Pour recueillir farine il verſe l'huile. To gaine a ſmall commoditie he wilfully looſes a great one; Or (becauſe there is no ſuch difference betweene Meale, and Oyle) to gaine one thing he looſes another.

Tirer de l'huile d'un mur. To draw Oyle out of a wall (an impoſſibilitie.)

Verſer de l'huile ſur le feu. To poure Oyle vpon fire; to feed any violent paſſion.

Qui

Qui meſure l' huile il s'en oingt les mains : Prov. He that meaſures oyle beſmeares his fingers.

Huilé: m. ée : f. Oyled, annointed, or ſeaſoned with oyle; alſo, as Huillé.

Huilement : m. An oyling; a ſeaſoning, annointing, or beſmearing, with oyle.

Huilerie : f. An oyle-celler, oyle-ſhop, oyle-houſe; a roome to keepe oyle in.

Huileux : m. euſe : f. Oylie, full of oyle.

Huille. as Huile ; Oyle.

Huillé : m. ée : f. as Huilé ; Alſo, ſtained with oyle, or ſtained for euer, as a garment thats ſpotted with oyle.

Huis : m. A doore.

Huis de derriere. A back-doore : Iuſtices qui n'ont point de huis de der : High, and Soueraigne Courts, from which there is no appealing.

Huis verd. A peece of Tapiſtrie, or of Darnix hanging before a doore.

A huis clos. Priuily, ſecretly, in hugger mugger.

A huis ouvert. Openly, plainely, fully, wholly, in open Court.

Dependre l' huis de la maiſon. To heaue, or throw, the doore off the hindges, in ſigne of a ſeiſure of the houſe for non-payment of the rent, &c.

Donner vn coup de gaule par ſous l' huis. To ſupplant, or giue a priuate lift vnto.

Le diable n'eſt pas touſiours à vn huis : Prov. The deuell is not euer at one doore.

Tant de povres ne ſont pas bons à vn huis : Prov. So many beggers at one doore, ſo many ſuitors for one thing, are not good, or, are not like to ſpeed.

Huiſſerie : f. Th' Office of an Vſher, Meſſenger, or doore-keeper in a Court ; alſo, dooreſhip ; th'appurtenances, or furniture, of a doore ; ſtuffe for a doore.

Huiſſeries. The iaumbes, lintells, and groundſils of doores.

Huiſſet : m. A wicket, or little doore.

Huiſſier : m. An Vſher, or doore-keeper of a Court, or of a chamber in Court ; alſo, a Meſſenger, or Apparitor.

Huiſſiere : f. A woman doore-keeper.

Huit. as Huict ; Eight.

Huitieſme. as Huictieſme.

Huitre : f. An Oyſter.

Les huitres d' vne poule. The two daintie morſells on the ſides of the bottome of a Hennes backe-bone.

Huitriere : f. A bed of Oyſters ; the place wherein Oyſters are got, fiſhed, or found.

Huleu : m. The name of a Stewes in Paris.

Hullement : m. A bowling, or yelling.

Huller. To howle, or yell.

Hulotte : f. A Madge-howlet ; or a ſmall kind of hairie-legd, and rough-footed Owle, which hath ſticking out on either ſide of her head a little tuft of feathers.

Hum hum. A coughing accent, or voyce.

Humable : com. Suppable.

Humaige : m. as Humée. (v.m.)

Humain : m. ine : f. Gentle, courteous, friendlie, ciuile, mild, affable, tractable ; alſo, humane, manlike ; of, or belonging to, a man.

Humainement. Gently, courteouſly, mildly, affably, tractably, friendly, ciuilely, humanely.

Humanité : f. Humanitie, courteſie, ciuilitie, gentleneſſe, mildneſſe, affabilitie, tractableneſſe ; alſo, humanitie, or mans nature, humane condition, or ſtate.

Humanthin. as Bernadet.

Humble : f. A kind of Trout, or Trout-like fiſh ; Looke Vmble.

Humble : com. Humble, ſubmiſſe, lowlie ; creeping, ducking, crooching ; alſo, poore, ſimple, baſe, low ; dejected, abiect.

Humble-fier. Meeke and mild well dealt with, ſtout and forward being abuſed.

Humblement. Humbly, ſubmiſly, lowly, alow ; with creeping, and crooching ; with great reuerence ; alſo, baſely, poorely, ſimply.

Humbleſſe : f. as Humilité.

Humé : m. ée : f. Supped, ſipped, or ſucked vp ; fetched, or drawne in with the breath.

Il m'a humé le ſang. He hath handled me cruelly, or put me downe extreamely, by the bitterneſſe of his ieaſts.

Humectation : f. An humectation, moiſtening, wetting.

Humecté : m. ée : f. Moiſtened.

Humecter. To moiſten.

Humée : f. as Humet ; or, A broath for a ſicke man.

Humement : m. A ſupping, ſipping, or ſucking vp ; drawing or fetching in with the breath ; alſo, a bibbing, ſwilling, bowſing.

Humer. To ſup, ſip, or ſucke vp ; alſo, to fetch, or draw in, as the breath, or with the breath ; alſo, to bib, ſwill, quaffe, bowſe.

Humer la parole. Fooliſhly to ſup, or ſucke vp, his owne words ; to ſpeake abruptly, or vndiſtinctly ; ſcarce to be able to ſpeake, or not to ſpeake of a long time, through feare, abaſhment, or amazement.

Humer la parole à. To tongue-tie, or depriue of ſpeech, by a ſudden amazing, or ſcaring.

Humer la ſang à. Looke Humé.

Humeraire : com. Of, or belonging to the ſhoulder.

Humeral : m. ale : f. Humerall ; or, as Humeraire.

Veine humerale. Seeke Veine.

Humerie : f. A ſupping, ſipping ; ſucking vp ; alſo, a bibbing, ſwilling, bowſing.

Hume-ſang. The hearbe Burnet.

Humet : m. A broath, pottage, cawdle ; any liquid, and ſupping meat ; alſo, a ſup thereof.

Humetter. To ſup, ſip, or bib ; alſo, to wet, or moiſten.

Hume-veſne. A ſucke-fiſt ; one that layes his noſe on his next fellowes bumme.

Humeur : m. A ſupper vp of.

Humeur : f. Humor, moiſture, ſap, iuice, wet, liquor.

Humeux : m. A ſucke-pinte, or ſwill-pot ; a notable drunkard.

Humide : com. Humide, moiſt, wet, wateriſh, iuicie, ſappie, full of liquor.

Humidité : f. Humiditie, moiſture, ſappineſſe, iuycineſſe, wetneſſe, wateriſhneſſe.

Humier : m. Th' Occupant of a thing whereof another is th'owner ; one that reapes the profit of, though he haue no propertie in, a thing.

Humiere : f. as Humerie ; Alſo, th'occupancie of another mans land, &c.

Humilié : m. ée : f. Humbled, brought low, caſt downe, pulled vnder, taken a hole lower.

Humiliez : m. The Humiliſts ; Gray Friers of the Order of S. Bennet.

Humilité : f. Humilitie, humbleneſſe, lowlineſſe, abiection, ſubmiſſion, meekeneſſe, gentleneſſe.

Humoire. A cloſe bit, or bit without any libertie for a horſe.

Humoral : m. ale : f. Humorall ; of humors ; moiſt, iuycie, ſappie.

Fiebvre humorale. An Ague bred of the abundance, or or corruption of humors in the bodie.

Flux de ventre humoral. A lask, or looſſeneſſe without inflamation.

Vertu ſubſtantifique, & humorale. Any ſtrong, or ſubſtantiall liquor, as mans ſeed, &c.

Hune: f. The ſcuttle of the maſt of a ſhip.

Huniſque. Eſpée Huniſque. A kind of Scimiter vſed in old time.

Hupe: f. A little woollen thread, or tuft in the top of a cap; alſo, the creſt, or cop on the head of a bird; alſo, the Whoope or dunghill Cocke (a bird that neſtles in mans ordure.)

Hupé: m.ée: f. Copped, creſted, high-crowned; (hence) alſo, tall of ſtature; alſo, proud, cocket, loſtie, ſtatelie; that beares himſelfe high, that thinkes well of himſelfe.

Pigeons hupez. Copped, or creſted Pigeons, called about London, Turne-pats.

Hupée: f. as Huquée.

s'Huper. To raiſe, or ſet vp his creſt againſt; to become proud, loſtie, ſtatelie.

Huppe. as Hupe.

Huppé. as Hupé.

Huque: f. A Huke, or Dutch Mantle, or Dutch womans Mantle.

Huquée: f. Il n'y a qu' vne huquée. (Much like our Northerne Weebit;) you haue but a little (ſayes the clowne, when you haue a great) way thither.

Hur le gay. Soundly whitled, throughly tipled, that hath ſeene the diuell.

Huraut: m. A great, or full-growne wild boare; a boare thats (at the leaſt) three yeares old.

Hurbec. as Liſet; The worme called a Vine-fretter, or diuells goldring.

Hure: f. The head of a Beare, Wolfe, wild Boare, or any other ſauage, and dangerous beaſt; (hence) alſo, a ſtaring, horride, vnkembd, or ill-kept, pate of haire.

Hure à hure. Face to face; or as in Huze.

Huré: m.ée: f. Staring, rude, vnkembd, briſtlie, horride like a wild Boares head.

Hurebais. Vine-fretters, the diuells gold-rings.

Hurgon: m. Blits, red Beets.

Hurlé. Yelled, bowled.

Hurlement: m. A bowling, or yelling.

Hurler. To bowle, to yell.

Hurler avec les loups. To bowle when others yell; to follow the faſhion how rude, or vile, ſoeuer it be.

Hurque: f. A bulke.

Hurt. as Heurt.

Hurte-biſe. One that ſcuffles with, or kickes againſt, the Northerne wind: ¶Rab.

Hurteller. To trample on with the feet.

Hurter. as Heurter.

Hurtis: m. Shockes, knockes, or knockings, daſhes, bits.

Hus. du hus. The Elder tree.

Huſche. Looke Huche.

Huſciame: m. Henbane.

Huſſite: m. A Bohemian coyne; ſo tearmed in memorie of Iohn Hus, the Bohemian Proteſtants firſt (burnt) Martyr.

Huſſité: m. ée: f. Turned Proteſtant.

Huſtaudeau: m. A cockerell, or big cocke chicke; alſo, a Caponet; alſo, as in Heſtaudeau.

Hutaudeau. as Huſtaudeau.

Hute: f. A cote, or cottage; Looke Hutte.

Huter. To build, or ſet vp; (alſo) to lodge, or lurke in, a cote, or cottage.

Hutin: m. A brabling, brawling, ſcolding, chiding, clamor, acclamation; mutinie, contention; diſquiet, vexation, trouble, annoyance.

Hutin: m.ine: f. Brabling, clamorous, mutinous, contentious, vnquiet.

Hutinement: m. as Hutin.

Hutiner. To chide, reuile, reproach, brabble with, brawle on, ſcould at; alſo, to vex, trouble, diſquiet, harrie, annoy.

Hutineux: m.euſe: f. Clamorous, contentious, mutinous, full of brabling, verie troubleſome.

Hutte: f. A cote, or cottage; alſo, the cloth or buſh behind which men hide themſelues in ſtaulking for the Wolfe.

Venir de la maiſon aux huttes. To fall from wealth to beggerie, from ſomething to little or nothing.

Hutudeau. as Huſtaudeau.

Huvelot. Haut huvelot. Vp-heaped, well heaped on: ¶Norm.

Huy. (Adverb.) To day, this day; alſo, the voice wherewith Carters turne their horſes on the right hand.

D'huy. as D'icy: ¶Rab.

Hier vachier huy chevalier: Prov. Hee's now a Knight who laſt day was but a clowne.

Tels ſont huy qui demain ne verront pas: Prov. Some that are blithe to day to morrow will be blind.

Huyé: m. ée: f. Hooted at, ſhowted after; exclaimed on, cried out vpon, followed with huy and crie.

Huyer. To hoot at, ſhowt after, exclaime on, crie out vpon, follow with hue and crie.

Huyle: f. Oyle; Seeke Huile.

Huylé: m.ée: f. Oyled; ſeaſoned, annoynted, biſmeared, or ſpotted with oyle.

Huyler. To oyle; to ſeaſon, annoint, biſmeare, or ſpot with oyle.

Huys: m. A doore; Looke Huis.

Huyſſier. as Huiſsier.

Huyſtres: f. Oyſters; Looke Huitres.

Huze à huze. Side by ſide, cheeke by iowle; face to face, right ouer against.

Hyacinthe: m. The blew, or purple Iacint, or Hyacinth flower; we call it alſo, Crow-toes.

Hyacinthe Oriental. The Orientall blew Jacint (a beautifull flower.)

Hyades: f. The fiue (or ſeuen) rainie ſtarres which be in the head of the Signe Taurus.

Hyaſcyame: m. Henbane.

Hybleanne: f. The Bee (ſo tearmed becauſe ſhe feedes much on the dwarfe Elderne.)

Hydrargire. Quicke ſiluer, liquid ſiluer.

Hydraulique. voix hy. The ſound of (running) waters; or Muſicke made thereby.

Hydre: f. An Hyder; a water Adder.

Hydrie: f. A water pot, or bucket to drew water with.

Hydrocele: f. The being burſt; or the falling downe of humors into one of the ſtones.

Hydrographie: f. A Sea-card.

Hydromantie: f. Diuination by the obſeruation of water, or by ſpirits appearing in it.

Hydromel: m. Metheglin; or drinke made of water and honie ſodden together.

Hydrophobie: f. An extreame feare of water, and of euerie kind of liquor; (cauſed by melancholie, or by the biting of a mad dog.)

Hydropique: com. Sicke of, or ſubiect vnto, the dropſie.

Hydropiſie: f. The dropſie.

Hye: f. as Hie.

Hyeble: m. Dwarfe Elderne, Danewort, Wallwort, Woodwort.

Hyer. as Hier.
Hyere: f. A powder compounded of Aloes, and other (bitter) simples.
Hyeuſe. as Yeuſe.
Hygienique: f. Health-preſeruing Phyſicke.
Hymenean: m. anne: f. Of, or belonging to, a wedding, or marriage.
Hymenée: f. A wedding, or marriage; alſo, a wedding ſong, or ſong of ioy at a wedding; alſo, a certaine filme, or thicke skinne, which is broken when a maid is made a woman.
Hymne: m. A hymne; a ſong of praiſe.
Chanter l' hymne du Cigne. To ſing, or ſpeake, his laſt.
Hynaire: m. A Saker paſſenger.
Hyoide. Os hyoide. The forked bone which is at the root of the tongue.
Hypate: f. as Hipate.
Hypenemien: m. enne: f. Windie, barren, fruitleſſe, like the egges layed by an vntroden henne: ¶Rab.
Hyperbole: f. An Hiperbole; an exceſſe in depreſſing, or aduancing.
Hyperbolic: m. ique: f. Hyperbolicall, exceſſiue, vnlikelie, paſſing all credit, beyond the limits of truth, without the ſcope of beliefe.
Hyperdulie: f. The higheſt worſhip, worſhip that belongs onely to God.
Hypernephelifte: m. A contemplator of high matters among the clowds.
Hypocauſte: m. A ſtew, ſtoue, or hot-houſe.
Hypochondres: m. The flankes, or ſoft parts vnder the ſhort ribs.
Hypochondres de tous les diables. By the bellie, and bowells of all the diuells.
Hypochondriaque: com. In, or of, the Hypochondres; alſo, troubled with a windie melancholie in thoſe parts.
Hypociſte. Th'excreſſence that ſhoots vp from the root of the ſhrub Ciſtus, or Hollieroſe; alſo, the medicinable iuyce extracted from it, and hardened by druggiſts.
Hypocras. as Hipocras.
Hypocriſer. To diſſemble, or counterfeit goodneſſe, to ſet a good face on a bad mind, to play the hypocrite.
Hypocriſie: f. Hypocriſie, diſſembling, counterfeit goodneſſe, fained holineſſe.
Hypocrite: m. An hypocrite, a diſſembler, a counterfeit companion.
Oeil d' hypocrite. An often-twinkling eye.
Hypocriteiment. Hypocritically, diſſembler-like.
Hypogaſtre: m. The lower part of the bellie, from the nauell to the Pubes, or haire of the priuities.
Hypogaſtrique: com. Of, or belonging to, the Hypogaſtrum.
Veine hypogaſtrique. Looke Veine.
Hypogée: m. A vault, celler, or ſuch like vnder-ground roome, arched ouer head.
Hypogriphe: com. (A monſter) halfe horſe halfe Griffon.
Hypopie: f. Bealing, or matter growing, or gathering in a cruſhed eye; alſo, a bone vnder the eye.
Hypoſarque: f. A kind of dropſie, or ſwelling of the bodie, bred of the fulneſſe of cold, and flegmaticke, humors.
Hypoſtaſe: f. A ſubſtance; alſo, a reſidence in vrine ſitting towards the bottome thereof.
Hypothadée. Giuen, or deuoted vnto, God.
Hypothecaire. Debtes hypothecaires; ſont celles qui ſont deuës par Obligation emportant hypothecque generale, ou ſpeciale, ou par iugement, ou acte engendrant hypotheque; comme eſt la dation de tutele.
Hypotheque: f. An ingagement, mortgage, or pawning (of an immouable.)
Hypothequé; &, Hypothequer. as Hipothequé; &, Hipothequer.
Hyppodrome: m. A courſe, or running place for horſes; alſo, a place wherein horſes are broken, rid, managed, or made.
Hyrundelle. Seeke Arondelle.
Hyrundinier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Swallow.
Hyſgin: m. A light red, or bright bay; or a kind of purple ſtaine made by the black-berrie.
Hysser. To hoyſe vp; (A Mariners tearme.)
Hyſſope: f. Hiſop.
Hyſterique. Affection hyſterique. The ſuffocation of the matrix.
Hyver: m. The Winter.
Cela ne faict ny hyver, ny eſté. That is little to the purpoſe, makes little to the matter, does neither good nor harme.
En hyver par tout pleut, en eſté là ou Dieu veut: Prov. Looke Plouvoir.
Si l' hyver eſtoit outre la mer, ſi viendra il à S. Nicolas parler: Prov. Were Winter beyond ſea, yet would it haue a ſaying to S. Nicholas; (whoſe feaſt is on the ſixt of December.)
A la S. Pierre l' hyver s' en va ou il reſerre: Prov. Looke Reſerrer.
Qui paſſe vn iour d' hyver il paſſe vn de ſes ennemis mortels: Prov. One of his mortall foes h'auoides that auoides a Winters day.
Hyvernal: m ale: f. Winterie, Winterlie, Winter-like; of the Winter.
Hyverné: m. ée: f. Wintered.
Hyvernée: f. The Winter ſeaſon.
Hyverner. To winter; alſo, to dig, or dreſſe a vineyard in Winter, or immediately after the Vintage.

I

IA. (An Aduerbe of time) nigh, welnigh, welneere, almoſt, lacking but a little; alſo, neuer; alſo, a Particle whereby a Negatiue is inforced; as, Il ne viendra ja; he will not come at all.
Ia ſoit que. Though, although, notwithſtanding, albeit that.
Iables: m. The Croes of a peece of caske; the furrow, or hollow (at either end of the pipe-ſtaues) whereinto the head-peeces be enchaſed.
Iabler. To make the Croes of Caske; viz: a furrow or hollow (at th' ends of the pipe-ſtaues) whereinto the head-peeces may be enchaſed.
Iabol: m. A truckle, or pullie.
Iabot: m. The craw, crop, or gorge of a bird.
Iacée: f. Hearbe Trinitie, Hearts-eaſe.
Iacent: m. ente: f. Lying.
Iachere: f. Fallowes, fallow ground, lay-land, plowed lands; alſo, any earth that lyes idle.
Iacinthe: m. The pretious ſtone, called a Jacint; alſo, as Hyacinthe.
Couleur de Iacinthe. Purple, blew, or violet; the colour of an Hyacinth flower.
Iacobin: m. A Jacobin, or white Frier.
Cracher vn Iacobin. To ſpit out a collop, or dot of flegme.

…it que. Looke Ia.
…t; m. A proper name for a man, and a Diminutive of Iacques.
…tin: m. Another, the Diminutive of Iacot.
Iacqué: m. ée: f. Jacked, or, that's armed with a iacke; Lat. Iaqué.
Iacquelet: m. A Jacke of the Clocke-house; or, the little man that strikes the quarters in a Clocke.
Iacquemard: m. A coate, or shirt of maile; also, a great statue of wood, against which, in old time, young souldiers vsed to ride.
Iacquemin: as Iaquelin.
Iacques: m. Iames, Iacob.
Iacques bons homs. The substantiall men of the Parish.
Iacques du tour. The name of a verie delicate, and tender meate.
Fleur de S. Iacques. Staggerwort, Stauerwort, Ragwort, Saint Iames his herbe, Saint Iames his flower.
Herbe de S. Iacques. The same.
Iacquet: m. A Parasite, claw-backe, beggerly tale-carrier; a smell feast, or trencher-friend; Looke Iaquet.
Iacquette: f. Looke Iaquette.
Iactance: f. A bragging, boasting, vaunting, cracking, grand ostentation.
Iactateur: m. A boaster, vaunter, cracker, bragger, braggard, braggadochio.
Iactation: f. as Iactance; Also, a swinging, tossing, shaking vp and downe.
Iacter. To brag, vaunt, boast, crake, also, to swing, tosse, tumble, or shake vp and downe.
Iacture: f. Losse, damage, decay, much hurt, great hinderance; a casting away, as of a ships lading in a tempest.
Iadeau: m. A bowle, or mazer.
Iadis. (Adverb.) Of old, in times past, before time, formerly, heretofore.
Iaet: m. Iet, or Ieat.
Iagayette: f. A kind of short speare hauing a bone head, and to be throwne, as a dart, on horsebacke.
Iagleur. See Glayeul.
Iaguette: f. A Pie, Pie-annat, Megatapie.
Iaiant. Looke Geant.
Iaibeau: m. A little pit, or hole full of water to keepe fish in.
Iaiet: m. Feat.
Ialaye: f. A wine measure, or vessell for wine, &c, containing twelue (French) Pintes; also, a Soe, or Tub.
Ialet. See Iallet.
Iallage: m. as Forage; Also, a Ialaye-full of wine, &c.
Iallay. as Ialaye.
Ialle: f. A chilblane, or a red swelling that comes of cold; (Blefien;) also, as Ialaye.
Iallée. as Ialaye; Also, a Soe-full, or Tub-full.
Iallet: m. A little casting bowle.
Iallet embrasé. A fire-ball.
Arc à iallet. A stone-bow.
Ialli: m. Spurted out, sprouted vp.
Iallir. To spurt out, sprout vp, spin vpward, as water forced out of a spout.
Ialliſſement: m. A spurting, sprouting, spouting, or spinning vp (of water.)
Ialousement. Iealously, suspitiously, zealously.
Ialousie: f. Iealousie, suspition, mistrust; also, a lattice window, or grate to looke through; also, the flower called, Flower gentle.

Ialoux: m. ouſe: f. Iealous; mistrustfull, suspitious.
Ialoux comme vn Tigre. Looke Tigre.
Iamais. vn iamais. A verie long time, a mightie while, an euer lasting age.
Iamais. (Adverb.) Neuer.
A iamais. Eternally, euer lastingly, for euer; A grand iamais: &, A tout iamais. For euer and a day, for euer and euer.
Iambages: f. The iambes, or side-posts of a doore, &c.
Iambe: f. The leg, or shanke (extending from the knee to the ankle;) also, (in Architecture) a Carbell; or peece, and, the iambe, or side-post of a doore, &c.
Iambe de Dieu. Looke Dieu.
Iambe de pourceau. A pestle of porke; a gammon.
La grande iambe. The whole thigh, leg, and foot; so tearmed by Anatomists.
Os de la iambe. Is properly, the bigger bone of the leg; the shin-bone.
Iambe deça iambe delà. Straddling, with wide-open legs.
Donner le croc en iambe à. To giue a fall, or foile vnto; to supplant, ruine, ouerthrow.
Faire iambes de vin. To drinke hard before a iourney.
Iecter le chat aux iambes. Looke Chat.
Iouër de l'espée à deux iambes. To make the most vse he can of his legs; or, to weld them as nimbly as a Fencer a two-hand sword; to runne away.
La queuë entre les iambes. Much ashamed, or out of countenance, as one that's taken in the manner; also, foulie disgraced or shamed, with shame ynough.
Selon la iambe le coup: selon la iambe le pied: & selon la iambe la seignée: Prov. Ratably, proportionably, with effort answerable to force, according to the measure of his meanes.
Danse du loup la queuë entre les iambes: Prov. Lecherie.
Ils ont du coeur, mais les iambes leur faillent. They haue more stomacke then strength, more courage then meanes.
Qui n'a coeur ait iambes: Prov. Let him that hath not a heart haue heeles; or let him that dares not vse his hands bestirre his heeles.
Iambette: f. A little leg, or shanke.
Donner la iambette. To giue a trip, or foile.
Faire la iambette. A horse to goe on three legs, and gracefully to shift, and hold vp, the fourth.
Iambier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, the leg.
Iambier. as Gambier.
Iambiere: f. A greaue, leg-harnesse, or armor for a leg; also, a leg, leg-peece, or part of the bodie about the leg.
Iambon: m. A gammon.
Iambonnier: m. A begger (also, a seller) of bacon, or of gammons of bacon.
Iamboyer. To iet, or, wantonly to goe in and out with the legs; also, to crosse the legs often in dauncing.
Iamme: f. Pearle.
Ian. as Iean; Iohn; also, a cuckold.
Ian le blanc. A Hen-harme, or white Kite; also, the consecrated bread, or bodie of Christ in the Popish Eucharists; (tearmed so by the Caluinists.)
Ian gipon. A gull, sot, ninnie, fop, cokes.
Iancer vn cheval. To stirre a horse in the stable till hee sweat withall; or (as ours) to iaunt; (an old word.)
Iane: f. A certaine vessell, or measure, for vineger, &c.
Ianequin. (A Diminutiue of Ian;) Ienkin, or Iacke.
Ianet. Iacke.
Ian-femme. An Hermaphrodite; one that is both man and and woman; also, an effeminate meacocke, faint-hearted milkesop.

Iangler. To iangle, pratle, tattle saucily, or scurvily.

Ianglerie: f. Iangling, saucie pratling, scurvie tatling, scurrile iesting.

Iangleur: m. A iangler, saucie pratler, scurvie tatler, scurrile iester.

Iannet d'eau. Nenuphar, water Lillie, water Rose.

Iannette: f. Iug, Annie; (a womans name.)

Iannin: m. A wit-all; one that knowes, and bears with, or winkes at, his wives dishonestie.

Ianniſſaires: m. Ianizaries; the Turkes principall footmen, and of his Gard.

Iannot: m. (A Diminutive of Ian) Ienkin, or Iacke.

Iannot. as Iannot.

Ians-femme. Looke Ian-femme.

Iaspillhommes. Gentlemen: (Rab.

Iaues: f. The fellowes of a wheele; the peeces (of wood) whereof the rime consists.

Ie Ian: m. Ianuarie.

Iaper. To bawle; yawled, bayed, bawled.

Iappement: m. A barking; yawling, baying; bawling.

Iapper. To barke, or bay like a dog; to yawle, to bawle.

Chien qui iappe ne mord pas: Prov. The dog that barkes much bites but little.

Vn vieil chien iamais ne iappe en vain: Prov. An old dog never barkes in vaine; the warning, or aduise of an old man is euer to some purpose.

Iapperie: f. Looke Iappement.

Iappeur: m. A barker, bayer; yawler, bawler.

Iaque: m. Iames; also, a Iacke, or coat of maile; and more, a Iacke for the bodie of an Irish greyhound, &c. made commonly of a wild Boares tanned skinne, and put on him when hee is to coape with that violent beast.

Iaquelin: m. & Iaqueline: f. Diminutiues of Iaques.

Iaquelot: m. & Iaquelotte: f. Other Diminutiues of the name Iaques.

Iaquemin; &, Iaquemine. Others.

Iaquerie de Beauvoiſin. (The name of) an insurrection of the people, incensed against all gentlemen, in king Iohns time; suppressed by Charles the Wise, and the king of Nauarre, while Iohn was in England.

Iaques: m. Iames; Looke Iacques.

Iaquet: m. A Pilgrim to S. Iames of Compoſtella; also, a Parasite, sycophant, clawbacke, picktbanke, flatterer, smell-feast.

Marche ceſa Iaquet. Looke Marcher.

Tu dis vray Iaquet. True Roger, say we, and vse it (as the French that) in scorne, and to the disgrace, of a liar.

Iaquette: f. (A proper name for a woman; also) a Pie-annat, or Megatapie; also, a filthie dungeon, or loathsome hole in a prison; also, a iacket, or short and sleeuelesse country-coat, hauing plaine, or (the more properly) gathered, skirts.

Tourner ſa iaquette. Looke Tourner.

Iaquetter. To prattle, babble, tattle; or to claw, flatter, fawne on; to play the Iaquet.

Iaquiers: m. The Rebells before mentioned (in Iaquerie) tearmed so, because they wore a fashion of lackets vsed by the souldiors of those times.

Iar: m. A Gander.

Pied de iar. The hearbe Goose-foot, or wild Orage.

En iar. A cater-wawling, or bitch-hunting.

Iarbe. Looke Gerbe.

Iarcé: m. ée: f. Cleft, rift, chapt, chinked, chawned.

ſe Iarcer. To cleaue, riue, chap, chawne (as the hands in cold weather.)

Iarceure: f. Looke Iarſure.

Iard. as Iar; Also, the first great receptacle, or pond of salt water whereof salt is made.

Iardeau: m. A codded weed that windes about corne, and intangles it.

Iardereau. as Iardeau.

Iardin: m. A Garden.

C'eſt vne pierre iettée en ſon iardin. This bone is cast at him to gnaw on; in this taxation he is meant though he be not mentioned.

Cette pierre tomboit en ſon iardin. This matter much concerns, or came neere, him; turned to his preiudice, touched his freehold.

Iardin aux faux-bourgs vaut cent ſolz au rebours: Prov. Looke Faux-bourgs.

Iardinage: m. as Iardinement; Also, a Garden.

Iardiné: m. ée: f. Gardened; made into, or wrought as, a Garden.

Iardinement: m. A gardening; a working in, or a keeping of, a Garden.

Iardiner. To make a Garden, keepe a Garden, worke, or labour, in Gardens.

Iardiner les oyſeaux ſur des billots. To weather Hawkes, or set them out a weathering, vpon blockes in Gardens, &c.

Iardinet: m. A small Garden.

Iardinier: m. A Gardener.

Iare. A iarre.

Iargeot. Looke Iargot.

Iargon: m. Gibridge, fustian language; Pedlers French; a barbarous iangling.

Iargonnement: m. as Iargon; or, A speaking fustian.

Iargonner. To speake fustian, or gibridge; to iangle, chatter, babble, confusedly.

Iargonneur: m. A chatterer, gibridgemunger, counterfeit rogue that speakes fustian, or a language, which either himself, or his hearers vnderstand not.

Iargonnois: m. Fustian, gibridge, pedlers French.

Iargot: m. A kind of course garment worne by country people.

Iargouiller. To warble, chirpe, or chatter.

Iargueul: m. The weason, or windpipe of birds, whereout they warble.

Iargnage: m. A swaggering; or a swaggerer.

Iarnat: m. A ruffian, swaggerer, swashbuckler, blasphemous or foule-mouthed huffe-snuffe.

Iarnigoi: m. The same; or, a nickname for a swaggering, and swearing souldior, &c; from;

Iarnigoy. as much as, Ie renie Dieu; (an old, and rusticall blasphemie.)

Iarre: m. The name of a codded, and corne-intangling, weed.

Iarret: m. The hamme, or hough.

L'oeuvre fait iarret. Crookes, bends, or giues, inward.

Roidir le jarret. To stretch out the hammes, as one that feeles the pangs of death; to make a die.

Iarretade: f. A boughing, a slash ouer the hammes.

Iarretiet: m. ere: f. Baker-legd, that goes in at the knees.

Cheval iarretier. An enterfeering horse.

Iarrons d'vne roue. The fellowes of a wheele.

Iarrouſſes: f. A kind of tares, or small vetches.

Iarrus. Wake-robin, Starchwort, Rampe, Aaron, Calues-foot, foot, Cuckoe Pint.

Iarryc: m. The Oke tree: ¶Perigordin.

Iars. A Gander; Looke Iar.

Iarſer. Looke Iarcer.

Iarſure: f. A cleft, riſt, ſliſter, chinke, chap, chawne; hence, the neb of a pen; alſo, a cleauing, riuing, chapping, chawning.

se Iarter. To garter himſelfe; to tie his garters.

Iartier: m. A garter.

Iartier: m.ere: f. Of, belonging to, or ſeruing for, a garter; gartering.

Veine iartiere. The garter veine, or hamme veine; the fourth branch of the thigh veine deſcending vnto the bought of the hamme, where it gets this name.

Iartiere: f. A garter.

Iaſard: m. A prater, pratler, babler, tatler, chatterer, iangler, idle talker.

Iaſarde: f. A prating goſſip, a pratling houſewife; a tittle tattle; a wench whoſe tongue neuer lies.

Iaſement: m. as Iaſerie.

Iaſer. To prate, prattle, babble, tattle, chatter, iangle, talk verie idly.

Iaſeran: m. A flagon chaine; alſo, a bracelet, or necke-lace of that chain faſhion; alſo, a coat, or ſhirt of great, and cloſe-wouen, maile; alſo, the hoope of a ſhackle.

Iaſereau. as Iaſard.

Iaſerie: f. A prating, pratling, babling, iangling; tittle tattle, garrulitie, idle chat.

Iaſeur. as Iaſard.

Iaſmin: m. Jaſmin, Jeſſemine, Jelſomine, Jeſſe; (an arbor plant.)

Vnguent Iaſmin. An oyntment made (not of Ielſomine flowers, as many imagine, but) of white Violets.

Iaſpe: m. A Iaſper ſtone.

Iaſpé: m. ée: f. Of Iaſper; coloured like, or made to reſemble, the Iaſper ſtone.

Iaſper. To paint (or by painting to make looke) like a Iaſper; to counterfeit the Iaſper ſtone.

Iate: f. A Bowle, a Mazer.

Iatte: f. The ſame; or, a meaſure about Tholoſe containing neere a Pariſian pinte.

Iau: m. A Cocke; alſo, a Barbell; or, as Dorée, a Dorce, fiſh.

Iavar: m. as Iavard.

Iavard: m. A ſwelling in the hollow of the paſterne of a horſe.

Iavarre: m. as Iavard.

Iavelé: m. ée: f. Swathed, or made into ſheaues.

Iaveler. To ſwathe, or gauel corn; to make it into ſheaues, or gauells.

Iaveleur: m. A ſwather, or binder vp of corne into gauells.

Iavelier: m. A corne-pike, or pitchforke, wherewith ſheaues of corne be loaden, and vnloaded.

Iaveliere: f. The ſame.

Iavelin: m. as Iaveline.

Iavelin de barde. A barbed horſemans Iavelin.

Iaveline: f. A Iavelin; a weapon of a ſize betweene the Pike, and Partiſan.

Iavelinier: m. One that beareth, vſeth, or ſerueth with, a Iavelin.

Iavelle: f. A gauell, or ſheafe of corne; alſo, a bauen, or bundle of drie ſticks.

Iavelot: m. A Gleaue, Dart, or ſmall Iavelin.

Iavelotier: m. A Darter, one that beares, vſes, or throwes, a ſmall Iavelin, or Dart.

Iauge: f. A Gage; the inſtrument wherewith caske is meaſured; alſo, an yron Leauer; alſo, the ſoyle of ground; whence, Labourer à iauge. To plough deep, or as deep as there is any ſoyle.

Iaugé: m. ée: f. Gaged, or meaſured as caske, &c.

Iaugeage: m. The gaging, or meaſuring of caske, &c.

Iauger. To gage, or meaſure a peece of caske, &c.

Iaugeur: m. A gager, or meaſurer of caske, &c.

Iavioler. To gabble, prate, or prattle.

Iavioleur: m. A gabbler, prater, pratler.

Iaule: f. A cage; a priſon; or, a place enuironed with an yron grate, or woodden lattice, for th'incloſing, or ſafe-keeping, of a thing.

Iaulge. Iaulger. &, Iaulgeur. as Iauge. Iauger. &, Iaugeur.

Iaulnaſtre: com. Yellowiſh.

Iaulne: m. Yellow colour.

Iaulne d' eau. The yellow water Lillie, or water Roſe.

Le jaulne d' vn oeuf. The yolke of an egge.

Iaulne paille. Straw colour.

Iaulne: com. Yellow.

Bec jaulne. Looke Bejaune.

Terre jaulne. Gold.

Iaulnement. Yellowly; of a yellow hew.

Iaulnet d' eau. The yellow water Lillie, or water Roſe.

Iaulnet: m. ette: f. Yellowiſh, a little yellow.

Iaulnette: f. Hardway, S. Peters wort, ſquare S. Iohns graſſe, great S. Iohns wort.

Iaulni: m. ie: f. Growne yellow.

Iaulnir. To make yellow.

Herbe à jaulnir. Looke Herbe.

Iaulniſſe: f. The Iaundice; alſo, the Yellowes.

Iaulniſſure: f. A yellowneſſe; alſo, a yellowing, or making yellow.

Iay: m. as Gay; A Iay; alſo, the Shrinke, or Wariangle (called ſo by ſome.)

Iayon: m. The Iay.

Iazer. Looke Iaſer.

Iazeran. as Iaſeran; Flagon-chaine.

Iazerane. à la jaz. Of a flagon-chaine faſhion.

Ibice: m. Th'Ibix; a ſwift, and long-horned wild Goat, or beaſt like a Goat, liuing among the ſnowie tops of the Alpes, and other cold mountaines.

Iceluy: m. Icelle: f. He; ſhe; the ſame man, or woman.

Ichneumon: m. The Indian, or (more properly) the Ægyptian Rat, Pharoes Mouſe; a mortall enemie, as to the Crocodile, ſo to all Serpents, and therefore vſually tamed, and made houſall, by the people of Ægypt.

Ichoreux: m. euſe: f. Whayiſh, wateriſh.

Ichthyomantie: f. Diuination by fiſh: ¶Rab.

Ichthyophagie: f. Fiſh-eating.

Ici. (Adverb.) Here; in this place.

D'ici. Hence, from hence.

D'ici pres. Hard by, neere at hand.

Icoſaëdre. One of the fiue regular bodies in Geometrie; conſiſts of twentie equiangle triangles.

Icoſimité. See Lychnocoſimité: ¶Rab.

Ictere: m. The yellow Iaundice.

Icterique: com. Sicke of, or troubled with, the yellow Iaundice.

Ictide. Belette Ictide. Seeke Belette.

Icy. as Ici.

Ideal: m. ale: f. Ideall; imaginarie, conceiued in th'imagination; onely in fancie.

Identité: f. Identitie, likeneſſe, the being almoſt the very ſame.

Ides: f. The Ides of a Moneth; the eight day after the Nones.

Idi-

Idiome: m. An Idi

Idiot: m. An ideot, ninnie, ſillie cokes; one that hath no wealth.

Idiotiſme: m. Ideotiſhneſſe; alſo, propr

Idoine: com. Apt, cient; commodious

Idoineté: f. Aptne cie, ſufficiencie.

Idolatre: m. An Ido

Idolatrer. To Idolat

Idolatrie: f. Idolatr Idols.

Idumois. fruict Idu mea.)

Ie. (A Pronowne) I: ſ ſigns in ſtead of No

I'en veux. Looke I'

Iean: m. John; alſo, Decollation S. Ie John; a holy-day (guſt.

Herbe de S. Iean rie.

Mal, ou Maladie, La Nativité de S.

Pomme de S. Iea

Ie me faiſois appe old excellent, I w

Mettre toutes les his skill, or meanes gined moſt fit for th

Ie to be vſed the reſt

an. (An Interiecti I denie it flatly.

Iean-Almy. The n cellent cyder.

Iecoraire: com. O

Veine iecoraire

Iect: m. A counter garment.

Le premier iect draught of a writi

Faire le iect. To

Iecté: m. ée: f. Ca violently ſent forth

Terre iectée. L

Le dé ſoit iecté what will let's ha

Meſchante parol

Prov. A bad wor broad.

Iectée: f. A caſt, ho

Iectement: m. A darting; putting

Iecter. To caſt, hurl lently; put, or puſh

Iecter l'ancre tance; to imploy meanes.

Iecter la barre.

Iecter la bourſe

Iecter ſa ceinct bare-headed, to his whole eſtate dle to the ground.

Idiome: m. An Idiom, or proper forme of ſpeech.
Idiot: m. An ideot, or naturall foole; a ſot, ſop, doult, ninnie, ſillie cokes; alſo, an idle, or vnprofitable perſon; one that hath no charge, no function in a Common-wealth.
Idiotiſme: m. Ideotiſme, naturall follie, ſimplicitie, ſottiſhneſſe; alſo, propriette in a language.
Idoine: com. Apt, meet, fit, proper; conuenient, ſufficient; commodious; durable, ſubſtantiall, ſound.
Idoineté: f. Aptneſſe, fitneſſe, meetneſſe, conueniencie, ſufficiencie.
Idolatre: m. An Idolater, a worſhipper of Idols.
Idolatrer. To Idolatrize it, to worſhip Idols.
Idolatrie: f. Idolatrie; the worſhip, or worſhipping of Idols.
Idumois. fruict Idumois. Dates (for they grow in Idumea.)
Ie. (A Pronowne) I: ſometimes vſed by the vulgar Pariſians in ſtead of Nous; as Ie ſommes; We are.
I'en veux. Looke I'-en-veux.
Iean: m. John; alſo, a double game at Ticktacke.
Decollation S. Iean. The feaſt of the beheading of S. John; a holy-day (in ſome places) kept the 29 of Auguſt.
Herbe de S. Iean. Thin-leaued Mugwort; alſo, Cherie.
Mal, ou Maladie, de S. Iean. The falling ſickneſſe.
La Nativité de S. Iean. Mid-ſummer day.
Pomme de S. Iean. as Haſtivel.
Ie me faiſois appeller Maiſtre Iean en cela. I was old excellent, I was held verie good, at that.
Mettre toutes les herbes de la S. Iean. To imploy all his skill, or meanes on; (This day being by many imagined moſt fit for the gathering of ſuch hearbes as are to be vſed the reſt of the yeare; Looke Herbe.)
Iean. (An Interiection) ie le vous nie. By your fauor ſir, I denie it flatly.
Iean-Almy. The name of a ſweet apple that yeelds excellent cyder.
Iecoraire: com. Of, or belonging to, the liuer.
Veine iecoraire. The liuer veine; Looke Veine.
Iect: m. A counter to caſt withall; alſo, a hemme of a garment.
Le premier iect. The firſt, rude, or faſt-penned draught of a writing.
Faire le iect. To throw the lading of a ſhip ouerboard.
Iecté: m. ée: f. Caſt, throwne, hurled, flung; darted; violently ſent forth; put, or puſhed out.
Terre iectée. Looke Iectice.
Le dé ſoit iecté. Set all on ſix and ſeuen; come on't what will let's hazard it.
Meſchante parole iectée va par tout à la volée: Prov. A bad word blurted out (ſoone) roaueth all abroad.
Iectée: f. A caſt, hurle, throw, fling; Looke Ietteé.
Iectement: m. A caſting, hurling, throwing, flinging; darting; putting, or puſhing forth.
Iecter. To caſt, hurle, throw, fling; dart, or ſend out violently; put, or puſh, forth.
Iecter l'ancre ſacrée. To implore the diuine aſſiſtance; to imploy, or eſſay his laſt helpes, his chiefeſt meanes.
Iecter la barre. To lie.
Iecter la bourſette. Looke Bourſette.
Iecter ſa ceincture à terre. A debtor vngirt, and bare-headed, to giue vp, or yeeld ouer, in open Court, his whole eſtate vnto his creditors, by throwing his girdle to the ground.
Iecter le chat aux iambes. Looke Chat.
Iecter le feu par la gorge. To ſpit fire like a diuell, or Dragon; to rage, or be mad with anger; to be in a horrible chafe.
Iecter fleurs. To bloome, or bloſſome, fruits; to yeeld, or bring forth, fruit.
Iecter les gens à païs. To ſet the men on land, to put them aſhore.
Iecter ſon lard aux chiens. To be lauiſh, prodigall, waſtfull; to ſpend his meanes vnworthily, or vntowardly; to caſt his money away.
Iecter le manche apres la coignée. To throw the helue after the hatchet; after one loſſe to aduenture for another.
Iecter la pierre & cacher le bras. Looke Pierre.
Iecter vne pierre à coup perdu. Ie ne iecte cette pierre &c. I ſpeake not this in vaine, I am ſure I hit it now.
Iecter vne pierre au iardin de. Looke Iardin.
Iecter à ſes pieds ce qu'il tenoit es mains. Fooliſhly to leaue the certaine for th'vncertaine.
Iecter la plume au vent. To grow careleſſe, to abandon himſelfe vnto the blind direction of fortune; to let the world wag, or goe as it will; See Vent.
Iecter ſa teſte. A Deere to mue his head.
Iecter ſon vent. To breath his laſt; to giue vp the ghoſt.
Il iectera aux autres la pouldre aux yeux. He will outgoe all his competitors, outſtrip all his concurrents; the victorie will ſure enough be his; Looke Pouldre.
Il ſe laiſſe iecter de la pouſsiere aux yeux. He ſuffers duſt to be throwne in his eyes; viz: He is willingly blinded, beſotted, or hindered.
Il ſe iecte ſur tout cuir. Any thing ſerues his turne, any ſauce his ſtomacke, any meat his mouth; ſo hungrie a dog will feed on durtie puddings.
Iecteur: m. A caſter, hurler, thrower, flinger, darter.
Iectice. Terre iectice. Earth newly caſt vp out of a ditch, or furrow.
Iectigation des eſpaules. A wagging, or ſhrugging of the ſhoulders.
Iectisse. as Iectice.
Iecton: m. A ſhute, ſience, twig, ſprig; alſo, a ſwarme of Bees.
Iecton à iecton. Shute by ſhute, from twig to twig, one ſience after another.
Iectonner. To ſhute, ſprig, bred ſiences, put forth twigs.
Iehan. as Iean.
Iehanne: f. Joane (a womans name.)
Iehannette: f. Jug, or Finnie.
Ienice: f. A Heyfer, or young Cow.
Ienin. Cocu ienin. An arrant cuckold.
I'-en-veux. à la i'. Laſciuiouſly; as one that will haue a licke at it.
Iens: m. An hearbe like Roſemarie, much vſed in the cleanſing of gold oare.
Iercer. as Iarcer.
Ieré: m. ée: f. Brought, carried, borne; or, as Geré.
Iervir. Whence; Ie me iervi tant à prendre cette medecine. I had ſo much adoe to take &c.
Ieſier: m. The giſerne of birds.
Ieſſemin. as Iaſmin.
Ieſuitains: m. An Order of White Friers, which weare hoods on their heads like women, & ſhaue their beards continually.

Iesuite: m. A Iesuite; a Priest of the societie of Iesus.
Vn Espagnol sans Iesuite est vn Perdrix sans Orange. A Spaniard without a Iesuite is (like) a Partridge without an Orange.
Iet: m. Ieat.
Iette: f. The same.
Ietté: m. ée: f. Cast, throwne; Looke Iecté.
Iettée: f. A cast, hurle, throw, fling; also, a iettie, or iuttie, a bearing out, or leaning ouer, in buildings; also, the banke of a ditch, or th'earth cast out of it when it is made; which commonly is a marke of propertie to the owner of the land whereon it lyeth.
Ietter. as Iecter.
Iettien: m. enne: f. Made of Iet.
Iettonner. See Iectonner.
Ieu: m. A play, sport, game, pastime, recreation; also, play, sport, &c, mirth, ieast; also, a lesson on the Lute, &c; also, the alley wherein they play, at Paille-maille; also, the vpper end of a Tennis court (next to the house) or so much of it as is comprised within the streake of chaulke, &c, drawne ouerthwart the court.
Ieux Floraux. A wittie contention (among Rimers, or Poets) wherein the price for the best doer is an Eglantine, for the second a Marigold, of siluer.
Ieux de Princes. Are such as please them that play them.
Vn ieu de violles. A set, or chest of Viols.
`A ieu couvert. Secretly, priuately, couertly, vnder hand, in hugger mugger.
Le ieu ne vaut pas la chandelle. The businesse will not quit cost; it is not worth the money thats spent, or paines thats taken, about it.
`A beau ieu bel argent, & `A beau ieu beau retour. Square play, roundly, throughly, in good earnest; as good as is brought; one good, or bad turne for another.
Il y aura beau ieu si la corde ne rompt. We shall haue sport ynough if the time, or our intelligence, faile vs not.
Il y a plus de mine que de ieu. Looke Mine.
Faire bonne mine, & mauvais ieu. To beare a great misfortune in a cheerefull fashion; to looke merrily, or set a good face on't, how much soeuer he be troubled.
Iouër le gros ieu: & Iouër ses ieux. Looke Iouër.
Mettre en ieu. To produce, to bring or shew forth; also, to stake, in play.
Pour ne monstrer son ieu. For feare of discouering his enterprise, or publishing his designes.
Trier son espingle du ieu. To slip his necke out of the coller; to flinch, or withdraw his stake, when he likes not the course of the play.
`A vray dire perd on le ieu: Prov. By speaking truth men (often) loose their game.
Apres la feste & le ieu les pois au feu: Prov. Those that will make good shift, must after play vse thrift.
Il n'est ieu qu'a ioueurs: Prov. There's no good play but among Gamesters; or the best playing is with them that vnderstand what they play.
Il fait bon laisser le ieu quand il est beau: Prov. 'Tis good leauing at play when it is at the fairest, or 'tis good to leaue (when one hath got) at play.
Les paroles font le ieu: Prov. Words bind the gamester; make the game.
Ieudy: m. Thursday.
Ieudy absolut. Maundie Thursday, Sheere Thursday.
Ieun: m. A fast, or fasting.
Ieunastre: com. Youthlie, somewhat young.
Ieunastrer. To youth it; or play a young part; or behaue himselfe like a young man.
Ieune: f. as Ieun.

Ieune: com. Yong; youthlie, youthfull; tender; lustie.
Faire la part au plus jeune. Looke Part.
Ieune en sa croissance a vn loup en la panse: Pro. A youth in growing hath a Wolfe in his guts; viz. eats rauenously, greedily, or verie much.
Amour se nourrit de ieune chair: Prov. Yong flesh is a great nourishment to loue.
Ieunement. Yongly, youthfully, youth-like.
Ieuner. To fast; to abstaine from food.
Assez ieune qui povrement vit: Prov. He that liues poorely fasts sufficiently.
Ieunesse: f. Youth, yong age; also, youthes, yong people; also, a youthfull pranke, a tricke of youth.
Appellez vous cela ieu de ieunesse? par Dieu ieu n'est ce. (An equiuocation) If that be play I know not whats called paine: ¶Rab.
Ieunesse oiseuse vieillesse disetteuse: Prov. An idle youth a needie age.
Fy de ieunesse, & de beauté desgarnie d'humilité: Prov. Looke Fy.
Si ieunesse sçavoit, & vieillesse pouvoit, iamais povreté n'auroit: Prov. If youth knew what to doe, and age could doe what it knowes, no man would euer be poore.
Ieunet: m. ette: f. Somewhat young, or verie young; prettie and tender.
Petite brebiette tousiours semble ieunette: Prov. The little Ewe seemes alwayes young.
Ieuneur: m. A faster.
Ieuneux: m. euse: f. Much fasting, abstemious, meat-forbearing.
Ieuse. The barren Scarlet Oke, Holme Oke, French Oke.
If: m. An Yew, or Yew tree.
If barbu. So does th' Author of l'Hippiatrique (most ignorantly) tearme th' Italian Tasso barbasso, which is no kind of Yew (though Tasso be the Yew tree) but the hearbe Mulleyn, Hig-taper, Longwort.
Ignave: com. Lazie, lither, sloathfull, sluggish; also, cowardlie, without spirit, mettall, vertue, or force.
Igné: m. ée: f. Burning, fierie; also, fired, burned.
Ignise: f. A burning, or firing: ¶Norm.
Ignition: f. A burning, firing, or firinesse; the being red-hot, as gold is before it melt.
Ignominie: f. Ignominie, infamie, obloquie, dishonour, discredit, reproach.
Ignominieusement. Ignominiously, infamously.
Ignominieux: m. euse: f. Ignominious, infamous, dishonourable, shamefull, disgracefull, reproachfull.
Ignoramment. Ignorantly, vnskilfully, vnlearnedly, simply, vnwittingly, vnknowingly.
Ignorance: f. Ignorance, vnskilfulnesse, want of learning, lacke of knowledge.
Ignorant. Ignorant; vnlearned, vnskilfull, simple, wanting the knowledge of.
Tout meschant est ignorant: Prov.
Ignoré: m. ée: f. Ignored, not knowne.
Ignorer. To ignore, or be ignorant of, to want skill, not to know.
Iky. for Icy; Here: ¶Pic.
Il: m. elle: f. He, the same; also, it.
Ila. Adverb. as Illec.
Iles: m. The flankes; or the sides of the lower part of the bellie (so tearmed by Anatomists.)
Os des Iles. Looke Os.
Iliade de maux: f. As many misehiefes as befell the Troians, at the siege, and destruction of their Citie.
Iliaque: com. Of, or belonging to, les Iles.

Iliaque paſsion. Th'Iliacke paſsion: a painfull wringing in th'vpper ſmall guts obſtructed, or full of wind, or troubled with ſharpe humors.

Artere, ou veines Iliaques. Looke Artere, ou Veine.

Ilias: f. vne Ilias de maux. as Iliade.

Ilicine. Looke Chelydre.

Illation: f. An illation, inference, concluſion; a reaſon, or allegation that inforceth.

Illec. (Adverb.) There, thither, that way, on that ſide; to, or in, that place.

D'illec. thence; from that way, ſide, or place.

Illegalité: f. Illegalitie, lawleſneſſe, diſorder, vnruline ſſe.

Illegitime: com. Illegitimate; vnlawfully, or baſe, born.

Illegitimement. Illegitimately.

Illeteré: m. ée: f. Illiterate, vnlearned, ignorant.

Illicite: com. Illicitous, vnlawfull.

Illicitement. Illicitouſly, vnlawfully.

Illimité: m. ée: f. Boundleſſe, vnlimited.

Illiné: m. ée: f. Softly annointed, gently rubbed on.

Illiner. To annoint ſoftly, gently to rub on.

Illiquide: com. Obſcure, doubtfull; or, which is not euident or cleere.

Illudé: m. eé: f. Deluded, illuded, mocked, flowted, ſcorned.

Illuder. To illude, delude, mocke, flowt, ſcorne.

Illuminateur: m. An illuminator, inlightner; illuſtrator.

Illumination: f. An illumination, inlightning, illuſtration; an opening of the eyes.

Illuminé: m. ée: f. Illumined, illuſtrated, inlightened, brightened; cleared, beautified.

Illuminer. To illuminate, brighten, inlighten, giue light vnto; to beautifie, cleere, illuſtrate.

Illuſion: f. An illuſion; fantaſie, falſe viſion; a mockerie, or gullerie; an impoſture, or tricke of forgerie, put vpon dull, or dazeled eyes.

Illuſoire: com. Illuſorie, illuding; alſo, vaine, idle, to no purpoſe at all.

Illuſtrateur: m. An illuſtrator; a brightner, cleerer; beautifier; dignifier.

Illuſtration: f. An illuſtration; explanation, euidence; a brightning, or beautifying.

Illuſtre: com. Illuſtrious, excellent, famous, renowmed, honourable, moſt worthie; alſo, cleere, bright, lightſome, ſhining.

Illuſtré: m. ée: f. Illuſtrated; explained, made euident, cleered, brightened; alſo, dignified, honoured.

Illuſtrer. To illuſtrate; explaine, cleere, brighten, make euident; alſo, to dignifie, make famous, bring honor vnto.

Illuvion. as Alluvion; Alſo, filthineſſe, naſtineſſe, vncleanneſſe.

Ilz: m. The Yew tree. ¶ Norm.

Image: f. An image, figure, counterfeit, reſemblance, repreſentation of; alſo, a Iewell, or Brooch to weare in the hat.

Imagé: m. ée: f. as Imager: m. ere: f.

Imager: m. as Imagier.

Imager: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, images; adorned, or furniſhed with, images.

Imagette: f. A little Image.

Imagier: m. An Image-maker, a caruer of Images.

Imaginaire: com. Imaginarie, fained, onely in conceit, in name onely, done for a faſhion, all in ſhew.

Imaginatif: m. iue: f. Imaginatiue, inuentiue; alſo, conceited, full of new deuiſes.

Imagination: f. Imagination, fancie, conceit, thought; a ſurmiſe, or ſurmiſing.

Imaginative: f. as Imagination.

Imaginé: m. ée: f. Imagined, thought, conceited, ſurmiſed.

Imaginer. To imagine, thinke, deuiſe, conceiue, ſurmiſe.

Imbecille: com. Weake, feeble, ſtrengthleſſe, faint, forceleſſe.

Imbecillement. Weakly, feebly, faintly, forceleſly.

Imberbe: com. Beardleſſe, without a beard.

Imbibé: m. ée: f. Imbued; moiſtened, bedewed; ſoaked, or drunke in.

Imbleſſable: com. Vnhurtable, vnwoundable.

Imbriago: m. A (moſt venomous) kind of the Sea-hare; alſo, the beardleſſe Sea-barbell, or Sore Mullet.

Imbrocation. as Embrocation.

Imbu: m. uë: f. Imbrued, died, diſtained; indued, taught, inſtructed; full of.

Imbuvable: com. Vndrinkable, vnfit to be drunke of.

Imitable: com. Imitable, followable.

Imitateur: m. An imitator; counterfeiter, follower of.

Imitatif: m. iue: f. Imitatiue, imitating, done by imitation.

Imitation: f. Imitation, counterfeiting, following.

Imitatrice: f. An imitatrix.

Imité: m. ée: f. Imitated, counterfeited, followed.

Imiter. To imitate, counterfeit, follow th'example of.

Immaculé: m. ée: f. Immaculate, vnſpotted, without blemiſh, cleane, pure, neat.

Immangeable: com. Vneatable, vnfit to be fed on.

Immanité: f. Immanitie; inhumanitie, cruelti e, felneſſe; outragiouſneſſe; hugeneſſe, exceſſiue greatneſſe.

Immarceſſible: com. Incorruptible, vnuadeable, vnwitherable.

Immariable: com. Vnmarriable, paſt marriage.

Immateriel: m. elle: f. Immateriall; without matter, ſtuffe, or ſubſtance; impalpable, vntouchable.

Immatriculé: m. ée: f. Matriculated; inrolled, regiſtred, or entred into.

Immatriculer. To matriculate; to inroll, regiſter, enter into.

Immediat: m. ate: f. Immediate, next vnto; preſently ſucceeding, ſoone following.

Immediatement. Immediately; without interpoſition, or meſne; alſo, preſently, without pauſing, as faſt as may be, by and by.

Immedicable: com. Immedicable, vncurable; not to be heated, or helped.

Immemorial: m. ale: f. Without the compaſſe, reach, or ſcope of memorie.

Poſſeſsion immemoriale. Poſſeſsion held by preſcription, or time out of mind.

Immenſe: com. Immenſe, infinite, huge, exceſsiue, vnmeaſurable, proportion-exceeding, paſsing great.

Immenſité: f. Immenſitie; vnmeaſurableneſſe, hugeneſſe, infiniteneſſe, boundleſſe largeneſſe, paſsing greatneſſe.

Immeuble: m. An immouable, or thing vnmouable; as land, rent, &c.

Immeuble: com. Immouable, vnmouable.

Immiſcé: m. Intermedled with, dealt farre in.

s'Immiſcer. To intermeddle with, to deale farre in.

Immiſericorde: f. Vnmercifulneſſe, want of mercie, inhumanitie, crueltie.

Immiſericordieuſement. Vnmercifully.

Immiſericordieux: m. euſe: f. Vnmercifull.

Immixte: com. Simple, vnmixt, without mixture.

Immobiliaire: com. Vnmouable, immouable.

Immobile: com. Immouable, firme, ſetled, aſſured, ſtedfaſt, not to be ſtirred.

Immobilement. Immouably, firmly, ſteadfaſtly, aſſuredly.

Immobilité : f. Steadfaſtneſſe, firmeneße, aſſuredneſſe, vnmouableneſſe.
Immoderé: m.ée : f. Immoderate; exceſſiue, intemperate, outlaſhing, diſordinate, outragious.
Immoderément. Immoderately; exceſſiuely, intemperately, diſorderedly, diſordinately, outragiouſly.
Immodeste: com. Immodeſt; wanton, vnchaſt, laſciuious; malapert, ſaucie, vnmanerlie.
Immodeſtement. Immodeſtly; wantonly, ſhameleſly; malapertly, ſaucily.
Immodeſtie : f. Immodeſtie; wantonneſſe; malapertneſſe.
Immolateur : A Sacrifice-offerer.
Immolation : f. An immolation, ſacrifice, offering.
Immolé : m.ée : f. Immolated, ſacrificed, offered.
Immoler. To offer, to ſacrifice, to offer ſacrifice.
Immonde: com. Vncleane, ſmeared, berayed, polluted, foule, filthie, naſtie, ſluttiſh.
Qui veut la conſcience monde, il doit fuïr le monde immonde : Prov. Looke Monde.
Immondice: f. Filth, vncleanneſſe, naſtineſſe, pollution, ſluttiſhneſſe, ordure.
Immondicité : f. Vncleaneneſſe, filthineſſe.
Immortaliſation : f. An immortalization, an immortalizing.
Immortaliſé : m. ée : f. Immortalized, eternized.
Immortaliſer. To immortalize, eternize, make immortall.
Immortalité: f. Immortalitie, eternitie, euerlaſtingneſſe; fame ay-during; a perpetuall memorie, life, renowme, name.
Immortel : m.elle : f. Immortall, eternall, euerlaſting, euer-liuing, neuer ending, ay-during.
Immortellement. Immortally, eternally, euerlaſtingly, perpetually, for euer and euer.
Immuable: com. Vnchangeable, ſteadfaſt, firme, ſetled, conſtant, reſolute.
Immuablement. Vnchangeably, ſteadfaſtly, conſtantly; reſolutely.
Immune: com. Exempt, free, priuiledged, diſcharged from.
Immunité : f. Immunitie, freedome, exemption, libertie, priuiledge, franchiſe.
Immutable. as Immuable.
Impact : m.acte: f. Hard faſtened; Looke Empacté.
Impacter. as Empacter.
Impalpable : com. Impalpable, vnfeelable.
Impar. Odde, vneuen, vnequall, vnlike.
Impartir. To impart, or communicate with; to make partaker of.
Impaſſibilité : f. Impaſſibilitie, vnſenſibleneſſe, vnpaſſionateneſſe; alſo, impatience.
Impaſſible: com. Impaſſible, ſenceleſſe, vnpaſſionate, vnperturbed; alſo, impatient, which cannot ſuffer, or will not beare with.
Impatiémment. Impatiently, too paſſionately; furiouſly, violently, vehemently.
Impatience : f. Impatience, too much paſſionateneſſe; violence, furie.
Impatient. Impatient, ouer paſſionate; too hot, violent, vehement; that cannot beare, that will not indure.
Impatroniſation : f. An impatronization; th'abſolute Maiſterie, Seigneurie, or poſſeſſion of.
Impatroniſé : m.ée : f. Impatronized, maiſtered.
s'Impatroniſer de. To maiſter, conquer, get abſolute poſſeſſion of, lay ſure hold on, take as his owne.
Impendent. Impendent, banging ouer, or vnto; neere approaching, neere at hand, hard by.
Impenetrable : com. Impenetrable, vnpierceable.
Impenſes : f. Coſts, charges, expences.
Imperatif : m. Th'Imperatiue mood in Grammar.
Imperatif: m.iue : f. Imperatiue, imperious, cõmanding.
Imperatoire : f. Maiſterwort, falſe Pellitorie of Spaine.
Imperceptible : com. Imperceptible, vnperceiuable.
Imperceptiblement. Vnperceiuably.
Imperer. To rule, ſway, command, ſeigneurize, domineere, haue abſolute authoritie ouer.
Imparfaict : m.cte : f. Imperfect, vncompleat, laine, vnfiniſhed, inſufficient.
Imperfection : f. Imperfection; lameneſſe, inſufficiencie, weakeneſſe.
Imperforation : f. A cloſing, or ſhutting vp for want of boring, or piercing.
Imperial : m.ale : f. Imperiall, Emperor-like.
Couronne imperiale. Th'Imperiall Lillie, or Crowne Imperiall; a great, beautifull (but ſtinking) flower.
Imperiale : f. The name of an hearbe (miſtaken by ſome moderne Herbariſts for Smyrnium, or Candie Alexanders) that hath many excellent vertues; alſo, a kind of bit for a horſe; alaſo, field-bed.
Imperiale de Flanders. A certaine coine worth about 8 s. ſterl.
Impericon. S. Johns wort.
Imperieuſement. Imperiouſly, Lordly, proudly, loftily, Soueraigne-like.
Imperieux : m.euſe : f. Imperious, Lordlie, ſtatelie, loftie, commanding, proud.
Imperioſité : f. Statelineſſe, Lordlineſſe; auſteritie, ſeueritie; Imperiouſneſſe.
Imperiſſable : com. Vnperiſhable, which cannot miſcarrie.
Imperiſſible. The ſame.
Imperit. Vnskilfull, vnlearned; vnexpert, vnexperienced; rude, ſimple, ignorant, eaſily deceiued.
Imperitement. Vnskilfully, vnlearnedly; vnexpertly, ignorantly, nouice-like.
Imperſonnel : m.elle : f. Imperſonall, that hath no perſons.
Imperſonnellement. Imperſonally, without perſons.
Imperſpirable : com. Not to be breathed into, not to be pierced with aire.
Impertinemment. Impertinently, vnproperly, vnfitly, to little or no purpoſe.
Impertinence : f. Impertinencie, vnfitneſſe, vnproperneſſe; a thing thats to no purpoſe.
Impertinent. Impertment, vnfit, vnproper; cleane from the matter.
Impetigine : f. A ringworme, tetter, drie itching ſcab.
Impetrable : com. Impetrable, obtainable vpon requeſt.
Impetrans de letters Royaulx. Patentees; or ſuch as haue got the Kings letters Patents.
Impetration : f. An obtaining by ſuit, procuring by intreatie, compaſsing by requeſt.
Impetré : m. ée : f. Obtained by ſuit, procured by intreatie, compaſsed by requeſt.
Impetrer. To get by prayer, obtaine by ſuit, compaſse by intreatie, procure by requeſt.
Impetueusement. Impetuouſly, boiſterouſly, violently, with a vehement ſwing, or forcible sway.
Impetueux : m.euſe : f. Impetuous, boiſterous, vehement, violent, raging, furious, moſt forcible, ſweeping away whatſoeuer is before it.
Impetuoſité : f. Impetuoſitie, boiſterouſneſſe, great violence, raging force, ouer-bearing furie.
Impie : com. Impious, wicked, vngodlie, graceleſſe, vngracious, irreligious, regarding neither God nor man.

Impiement. Impiously, vngodlily, gracelesly, vngraciously, without respect of God, or of man.
Impieté: f. Impietie, vngodlinesse, vnrighteousnesse, gracelesnesse, villanie, wickednesse, a vile part, an irreligious pranke.
Impiteux: m. euse: f. Pitilesse, incompassionate, bloudie, sauage, cruell, void of humanitie, without mercie.
Impitoyable: com. as Impiteux.
Implacable: com. Implacable, vnpleasable, vnappeasable.
Implantation: f. An implantation, or implanting; a setting, or fixing into.
Implanter. To implant, to fix, or set into.
Implication: f. An implication, infolding, intangling, involution, incombrance.
Implicité: f. An implicitie, intanglement, incombrance, obscure involution.
Impliqué: m. ée: f. Infolded, involued, enwrapped; intangled, incombered, pestered.
Impliquer. To infold, involue, enwrap; intangle, pester, incomber, bring into the briers.
Implorateur: m. An implorer, beseecher, crauer, begger, humble and earnest intreater.
Imploration: f. An imploring, crauing, begging, beseeching; an earnest, humble, or lamentable intreating.
Imploré: m. ée: f. Implored, besought, begged, craued; humbly, earnestly, or lamentably intreated.
Implorer. To implore, beseech, craue, beg of, lamentably to request, to intreat with teares.
Imployable: com. Inflexible, vnbowable, indurate, obstinate.
Impoli: m. ie: f. Vnpolished, rude, out of trimme.
Impollu: m. uë: f. Vnpolluted, vntainted, vndefiled, without blemish, or staine.
Importable: com. Intollerable, vnsupportable, not to be borne.
Importamment. Importantly, weightily, forcibly.
Importance: f. Importance, force, weight, momẽt, value.
Important. Important, weightie, forcible, of great consequence.
Importer. cela importe moult. That imports much, thats of great consequence.
Importueux: m. euse: f. Without port, hauen, or harbor.
Importun: m. une: f. Importunate, vrgent, earnest with; troublesome, vnmanerlie, vnreasonable.
Importunément. Importunately, vrgently, earnestly; troublesomely, vnmanerly, too much; also, vnfitly, to no purpose.
Importunité: f. Importunitie, vrgencie, earnestnesse, much suing, often intreatie, great solicitation.
Imposé: m. ée: f. Imposed, put to, laid on; inioyned; also, taxed, charged with, exacted from; also, accused of.
Imposer. To impose, to put vnto, or lay vpon; to inioyne; to tax, charge with, exact from.
Imposer à aucun quelque cas. To accuse of a crime; to cast, or lay an imputation on.
Imposition: f. An impost, or imposition; a tax, exaction, charge laid on; also, an accusation, or imputation; an imposing, or laying on; (whence, Imposition de mains.)
Imposition de francs fiefs. An imposition, or fine imposed by way of licence, to enable a Roturier, or Yeoman, to hold a purchased fief; The rate of it hath been certaine, viz: six yeres value, if the land were held immediately of the King; and three yeares value, if it was held by a mesne tenure; but now it is vncertaine, and set downe by the Officers of th' Exchequer.
Imposition foraine. Is 12 d. (within Paris but 6 d.) in the pound vpon all kind of cattell, corne, victuals, and wares imported, or exported; (but where this imposition is paid, subsidie is spared.)
Imposition de nouveaux acquests. The fine which Churchmen pay to the king for purchases of land in Mortmaine; Looke Acquest.
Impossibilité: f. An impossibilitie.
Impossibiliter. To make impossible.
Impossible: com. Impossible, which cannot be done.
Impost: m. An impost, custome, imposition.
Impost de francs fiefs. Looke Imposition.
Impost du pied fourchu. The toll thats leuied vpon each head of cattell sold in Markets, and Faires.
Impost de sa personne. Vnweldie, vnfit to trauell, vnable to take paines.
Impoſte: m. The springer of an arched gate; the moulding that beares th'arch.
Imposteur: m. An imposter, cousener, deceiuer, beguiler; a iugler, a mountebanke, a cheating Quackesaluer.
Imposture: f. Imposture, guile, deceit, falshood, cousening, iugling; a tricke of legier demain; also, slaundering, or a slaunder.
Impotence: f. Impotencie, disabilitie, infirmitie, weaknesse, debilitie, feeblenesse.
Impotent. Impotent, vnable, power-wanting, infirme, lame, feeble, weake.
Impourveu. Seeke Improuveu.
Imprecation: f. An imprecation, curse, banning.
Impreciable: com. Vnprisable, vnualuable.
Impregnation: f. A bagging, or getting with young; a filling, a conceiuing.
Impremedité: m. ée: f. Vnpremeditated, suddain, vnthought of before.
Imprenable: com. Impregnable, vnexpugnable, which will not be forced.
Impreſcriptible: com. Without the compasse of prescription; which by no length of time can be alienated, or lost.
Impreſtance: f. Prest, or impest money, receiued, and to be imployed for another.
Imprevoyance: f. Improuidence.
Imprimé: m. vn im. A printed worke (a word vsed when one will not vouchsafe it the name of a booke.)
Imprimé: m. ée: f. Printed, imprinted; stamped, sealed.
Imprimer. To print, imprint, make an impression; to stampe, seale; set, or thrust, hard in.
Imprimerie: f. A print, impression; seale, stampe; also, a printing; also, a Printing house.
Imprimeur: m. A Printer.
Improbable: com. Improbable, vnprouable.
Impropere: m. An exprobration, vpbraiding, or twitting in the teeth; a reproach, or imputation; also, a nickname, or disgracefull title.
Improperer. To exprobrate, vpbraid, reproach, lay in the dish; cast, or twit in the teeth; also, to nickname, or miscall.
Impropre: com. Vnproper, vnapt, vnfit, not feat; vnnaturall, inconuenient.
Impropreiment. Improperly, vnaptly, vnfitly, vnfeatly; inconueniently.
Improviſte. `A l'im. as `A l'improuveu.
Improuveu: m. euë: f. Vnprouided for, vnlooked for, vnheeded, vnbought vpon.
`A l'improuveu. Suddenly, at vnawares, before it was thought of, or looked for.
Imprudemment. Imprudently, incircumspectly, improuidently, vnaduisedly; ignorantly, vnwittingly.

Imprudence : f. Imprudencie, improuidence, incircumspection, inconsideration, vnadui sednesse ; ignorance.
Imprudent. Imprudent, improuident, inconsiderate, vncircumspect, vnadui sed, ignorant.
Impudemment. Impudently, shamelessly, malapertly, ouer-boldly, with a brasen face.
Impudence : f. Impudence, shamelessnesse, vnshamefac'dnesse, malapertnesse, ouer-boldnesse.
Impudent. Impudent, shameless, vnshamefac'd, brasen faced, malapert, sawcie, ouer-bold.
Impudicité : f. Wantonnesse, vnchastnesse, incontinence, filthinesse, obscenitie, vncleannesse of life.
Impudique : com. Lasciuous, wanton, vnchast, obscene, shameleisse, incontinent, vncleane.
Impudiquement. Vnchastly, lasciuously, wantonly, obscenely, shamelessly, incontinently, vncleanely.
Impugnance : f. A resistance ; or as Impugnation.
Impugnateur : m. An impugner, withstander, fighter against.
Impugnation : f. An impugning, withstanding, resisting, fighting, or stirring against.
Impugné : m. ée : f. Impugned ; stirred, or fought against, resisted, withstood.
Impugner. To impugne ; fight, or stirre against ; resist, withstand.
Impuissamment. Impotently, vnpowerfully.
Impuissant. Impotent, vnpowerful, infirme, abilitie-wanting.
Impulsé : m. ée : f. Vrged, pushed, or thrust vpon, forced, constrained, prouoked vnto.
Impulser. To pushe, thrust, or vrge vpon ; to force, constraine, prouoke vnto.
Impulseur : m. A pusher, or thruster vpon ; an vrger, prouoker, inciter, solicitor, instigator.
Impulsif : m. iue : f. Impulsiue, pushing, or thrusting vpon, vrging, stirring, inciting, prouoking, vnto.
Impulsion : f. An impulsion ; pushing, or thrusting vpon ; an vrging, incitement, prouocation, earnest solicitation.
Impuni : m. ie : f. Vnpunished, quit, freed.
Impunir. Quit, scot-free, without punishment.
Impunité : f. Impunitie ; freedome from, or without, punishment.
Impur : m. ure : f. Impure, foule, slattish, vncleane, filthie, naughtie, vile, dishonest, obscene.
Impurement. Impurely, foulely ; filthily, vncleanely, naughtily, dishonestly, obscenely.
Impureté : f. Impuritie, filthinesse, pollution, vncleannesse, dishonestie, naughtinesse, obscenitie, lasciuousnesse.
Impurité : f. as Impureté.
Imputation : f. An imputation ; reproach, blame, or fault laid to the charge of.
Imputé : m. ée : f. Imputed, attributed, ascribed vnto ; laid vnto the charge of.
Imputer. To impute, ascribe, or attribute vnto ; also, to accuse, or charge with ; to lay an imputation on.
Imputeur : m. An imputer ; a putter of things vpon, an attributer of things vnto, others.
Inabordable : com. Vnboordable, vnaccoestable, vnapproachable, not to be arrived vnto.
Inaccessible : com. Inaccessible ; which cannot be come vnto.
Inaccoustumé : m. ée : f. Vnaccustomed, strange.
Inacostable : com. Vnaccostable, vncompanable, sauuage, austere, vnsociable.
Inactionable : com. Vnsuable ; not to be touched, or troubled by any suit.
Inadmissible : com. Vnadmittable, vnreceiuable, vnacceptable, vnallowable.

Inadvertamment. Incircumspectly, inconsiderately, vnadui sedly, negligently, vnwarily.
Inadvertence : f. Inconsideration, vnwarinesse, improuidence, vnadui sednesse.
Inaguerri : m. ie : f. Growne, or become warlike ; meete stuffull in warfaring, trained vp to the warres.
Inalienable : com. Vnalienable ; which cannot be sold, or passed away.
Inamendable : com. Vnamendable, incurable, vnrecouerable, past reformation, beyond all helpe.
Inamolliſſable : com. Obdurate, most hard, which cannot be softened, or will not be tender.
Inanimé : m. ée : f. Soulelesse, without a soule.
Inanité : f. Emptinesse, vanitie, vacuitie, vaudnesse.
Inanition : f. as Inanité ; or, An emptying.
Inapercevance : f. Dulnesse, blockishnesse, sottishnesse.
Inaſcature du col. The bowing, or bought of the necke.
Inaſſociable : com. Vnsociable, vnaccompanable, hagard, sauage, froward, austere.
Ination. Looke Inanité.
Inaudite : com. Vnheard of, neuer heard before.
Inauguré : m. ée : f. Inaugurized, consecrated, dedicated.
Incagant. Becacking, beraying ; disgracing.
Incaguer. To becacke, or beray ; also, to defame, or disgrace.
Incant. as Encant ; An outrope, or outcrie of goods.
Incapable : com. Vncapable ; vnable to receiue, or conceiue.
Incapacité : f. Incapacitie, vncapableneſſe ; vnabilitie of receiuing, or conceiuing.
Incaquer. as Incaguer.
Incarnadin : m. A carnation ; or more properly, a deep, rich, or bright, carnation ; (This word hath often th' addition of, d'Eſpagne.)
Incarnadin : m. ine : f. Carnation ; of a deepe, rich, or bright carnation.
Incarnat : m. ate : f. Carnation, & more particularly, light, or pale carnation ; flesh-coloured, or of the colour of our damaske Roſe.
Incarnatif : m. iue : f. Flesh-bringing, flesh-breeding.
Couſture incarnative. The stitching, or sowing vp of wounds, &c, by Chirurgians.
Incarnation : f. An incarnation, or assuming of flesh ; also, carnation colour.
Incarné : m. ée : f. Incarnate, made flesh, brought into flesh.
Diable incarné. A diuell in the shape of a man, an incarnate, or verie diuell.
Incarner. To incarnate, or make flesh ; to bring into, or fill vp with, flesh.
Incaſtré : m. ée : f. Incastelled ; strongly inclosed, or lodged, as in a castle.
Incendiaire : com. An incendiarie, firebrand, setter of houses on fire.
Incendie : m. A burning, firing, setting on fire.
Incentriquer. To incenter, or place within a Center.
Inceratif : m. iue : f. Incerative, waxing ; cleauing, or sticking vnto.
Inceré. Looke Inseré.
Incertain : m. An incertaintie.
Incertain : m. aine : f. Vncertaine, doubtfull, vnsure ; wauering ; vnknowne.
Incertainement. Vncertainly, vnsurely, doubtfully.
Incertaineté : f. Vncertaintie, vnsurenesse ; wauering ; doubtfulnesse.
Incertitude : f. Incertainetie, suspence, wauering, staggering, doubtfulnesse.

In-

Incessamment. Incessantly, continually, without any manner of intermission.
Incessible: com. Vnceassable, vnendable, vndeterminable.
Incession: f. A pace, gate, or going; also, a hot-bath for the lower parts of the belly.
Inceste: m. Incest; carnall copulation with one thats neere of kinne.
Incestueux: m. euse: f. Incestuous; full of, begotten in, polluted with, incest.
Incidemment. Incidently; by chaunce, by occasion, by the way, vpon the by.
Incident: m. An incident, circumstance, or by matter; a thing which comes indirectly into a fact, or question; or (being not properly of the substance thereof) arises from it collaterally, or side-wise; in Law, a small controuersie springing from, or depending on, the maine suite (or as originally;) also, a chaunce, accident, casualtie; also, a shift, sleight, euasion, excuse.
Par incident. Vpon occasion; by meere chance.
Incineration: f. A reducing, or burning vnto ashes.
Incirconcis. Vncircumcised.
Incis: m. A rocke, or hard ground; cut to giue passage vnto a Spring; (a Law-tearme.)
Incisé: m. ée: f. Cut into; slit, launced; grauen, intayled.
Inciser. To cut into, to make an incision; to launce, open, slit; also, to carue, graue, intayle.
Incisif: m. iue: f. Cutting, launcing, opening, incision-making.
Incision: f. An incision, or in-cutting; a launcing, opening; intayling.
Incisoires: m. The foure fore-teeth, wherewith we bite, or cut, our meat.
Incitant: m. (Substant.) as Incitateur.
Incitant. (Particip.) Inciting, urging, stirring vp.
Incitateur: m. An inciter, or stirrer vp; a prouoker, egger, vrger.
Incitation: f. An incitation, instigation, prouocation; a stirring vp; an incensing, egging, vrging; incouraging.
Incité: m. ée: f. Incited, instigated, or stirred vp; vrged, egged, incensed, prouoked; incouraged.
Incitement: m. An inciting, or incitement.
Inciter. To incite, instigate, or stirre vp; to egg, vrge, prouoke; incense; incourage.
Incivil: m. ile: f. Vnciuill; barbarous; vncourteous; ill-nurtured, rude, vnmannerlie, clownish, churlish.
Incivilement. Vnciuilly; barbarously; discourteously; rudely, vnmannerly, clownishly, churlishly.
Incivilité: f. Inciuilitie; barbarousnesse; rusticitie, rudenesse, clownishnesse, churlishnesse, vnmannerlinesse; also, want of a ciuill cause, or subiect.
Inclemence: f. Inclemencie; rigor, sharpenesse, austeritie, seueritie; fellnesse, mercilesnesse, want of pitie.
Inclement. Vnclement; rigorous, austere, sterne, sharpe, seuere, pitilesse, mercilesse.
Inclinant. Inclining; bending, or leaning towards; disposed, affected, addicted vnto.
Inclination: f. An inclination; a bending, leaning, or bowing, towards; a humor, disposition, or affection, vnto.
Incliné: m. ée: f. Inclined; bent vnto.
Incliner. To incline; bend, bow, leane, towards; to haue a humor or disposition, to beare good will, or carrie an affection, vnto.
Inclite: com. Excellent; renowned, famous, glorious.
Inclusivement. Inclusiuely, comprehensiuely, as obtained within; also, absolutely, vtterly, indefinitely.
Incogneu: m. euë: f. Vnknowne, vnkend, vncouth, strange, ignoble, obscure.
Incolumité: f. Incolumitie, safetie, healthfulnesse.
Incombustible: com. Incombustible, not to be burnt.
Incommendable: com. Discommendable.
Incommensurable: com. Vnmeasurable.
Incommesurable: com. The same; or, not to be measured by one, and the same measure.
Incommode: com. Incommodious; vngainefull, vnprofitable; dommageous, hurtfull, noisome, hindering; also, vnfit, vneuen, vnseemelie, vnseasonable.
Incommodément. Incommodiously, vngainefully, vnprofitably; noisomely, hurtfully, vnto ones hinderance; also, vnfitly, vnseasonably; vnhandsomely, ill fauouredly.
Incommoder. To incommodate, hinder, trouble, impeach, disturbe, disease; breed harme, bring losse, vnto.
Incommodité: f. Incommoditie, hinderance, trouble, disturbance; dammage, displeasure, losse, hurt; inconueniencie; vnaptnesse, vnfitnesse, vnseasonablenesse.
Incommuable: com. Immutable, vnalterable, vnchangeable.
Incommune: com. Vncommon; or, not common.
Incommunicable: com. Vncommunicable, inconuersible, vncompanable; harsh, churlish, froward.
Incommutable. as Incommuable.
Incomparable: com. Incomparable, matchlesse, without peere.
Incompatibilité: f. Incompatibilitie, iarring, disagreement.
Incompatible: com. Incompatible, iarring, disagreeing, not induring one another.
Incompetence: f. Incompetencie; vnsufficiencie; vnfitnesse.
Incompetent Incompetent; vnfit; vnsufficient.
Incomprehensibilité: f. Incomprehensiblenesse, vnconceiueablenesse, innumerablenesse.
Incomprehensible: com. Incomprehensible, vnconceiueable, vast, infinite.
Incongelable: com. Vncongealeable, not to be congealed.
Incongruë: com. Incongruous, vnagreeing; absurd, ill-fauoured, vnfit, against forme, against rule.
Incongruité: f. Incongruitie; vnfitnesse, ill fauorednesse; absurditie, irregularitie.
Inconsiderant. as Inconsideré.
Inconsideration: f. Inconsideration, indiscretion, vnaduisednesse, rashnesse.
Inconsideré: m. ée: f. Inconsiderate, vnaduised, vnregardfull, rash, indiscreet.
Inconsideréement. Inconsiderately, vnaduisedly, vndiscreetly, rashly, vnregardfully.
Inconsolable: com. Inconsolable, vncomfortable; not to be comforted.
Inconsolablement. Vncomfortably, in a desperate taking, most wofully.
Inconstamment. Inconstantly, vnstedfastly, mutably, waueringly.
Inconstance: f. Inconstancie, vnstedfastnesse, ficklenesse, lightnesse, waueringe, mutabilitie, changeablenesse.
Inconstant. Inconstant, vnstedfast, fickle, flitting, light, wauering, mutable, changeable.
Inconsumptible: com. Vnconsumeable, euerlasting, aye-during.
Incontaminé: m. ée: f. Vncontaminated, vnpolluted, vnspotted.

In-

Incontestable: com. Not to be contested, or stood on.
Incontinemment. Incontinently, vnchastly, disorderedly, vnstayedly, immoderately, without any gouernment of himselfe.
Incontinence: f. Incontinence, immoderation; an vnbridled appetite vnto the satisfaction of lust, or lustfull affections.
Incontinent. Incontinent, immoderate, vnchast, of an vnbridled appetite, loosse of life.
Incontinent. (Adverb.) Incontinently, instantly, immediatly, presently, suddainly, forthwith, out of hand, as soone as may be.
Inconvenable: com. Inconuenient, improper, vnfitting, misbecomming.
Inconvenance: f. A misbecomming, vnhandsomenesse, vnfitnesse, vnseemelinesse, vnbeseeming.
Inconvenient: m. An inconuenience, or vnfit thing; also, a misfortune, mischiefe, mishap.
Inconvenient. as Inconvenable.
Incornifistibuler. To plod, or dunce vpon; to beat the braines about.
Incorporant. Incorporating; ioyning in one bodie.
Incorporé: m. ée: f. Incorporated, imbodied with; reduced vnto, or ioyned in, one bodie.
Incorporel: m. elle: f. Vncorporall, bodilesse, without a bodie.
Incorporer. To incorporate; to make one, or of one bodie; to ioyne wholly together.
Incorrect: m. cte: f. Incorrect, faultie, corrupt.
Incorrectement. Incorrectly, faultily, corruptly.
Incorrection: f. A fault, error, thing not corrected.
Incorrigible: com. Incorrigible, vnreformable, vnamendable.
Incorrompable: com. Vncorruptable; not to be corrupted, seduced, or woon, by gifts &c.
Incorruptible: com. Incorruptible, euerlasting, eternall.
Incoulpable: com. Inculpable, vnreproueable, perfect, faultlesse, blamelesse.
Incrasser. To incrassate, thicken, or make thicke.
Incredible: com. Incredible, vnbeleeuable.
Incrediblement. Incredibly, past beliefe.
Incredule: com. Incredulous; vnbeleeuing, or hard of beliefe.
Incredulité: f. Incredulitie, vnbelieuing, lacke of beliefe.
Increpation: f. An increpation, chiding, reproofe, rebuke.
Increpé: m. ée: f. Chidden, taunted, rebuked, reproued, blamed; accused.
Increper. To taunt, rebuke, chide, blame; reproue; accuse.
Incroyable: com. Incredible.
Incroyablement. Incredibly.
Incrustation: f. A pargetting, rough-casting; a crustinesse, ruggednesse, thicke scabbednesse.
Incrusté: m. ée: f. Growne to a scab, or crustinesse; pargetted, rough-cast.
Incruster. To set a scab, or crust on; to make rugged, and thicke, as a crust; (and hence) to parget, or rough-cast.
Incuisable: com. Vnfit, or vnpossible, to be sodden.
Inculcation: f. An inculcation; a frequent repetition.
Inculpé: m. ée: f. Blamed, or accused for, charged with, faultie of; also, blamelesse, innocent, perfect, vnreproueable.
Inculqué: m. ée: f. Inculcated; forcibly thrust, pressed, or beaten into; also, often repeated, vrged often.
Inculquer. To inculcate; to thrust, presse, or beat forcibly into; also, to repeat, or vrge one thing verie often.
Incurable: com. Incurable, vnhealeable, in a desperate estate.
Incurie: f. Carelesnesse, retchlesnesse, negligence, improuidence.
Incurieusement. Vncuriously, plainely, after a homelie manner.
Incuriosité: f. Plaineneße, vnaffectation, bluntneße.
Incurrir. To incurre; Looke Encourir.
Incursion: f. An incursion, inrode, forray, inuasion.
Indagateur: m. A diligent searcher.
Indague: com. Disboneſt, vnworthie, filthie, base, vile.
Indalgos. A Gentleman. Rab.
Indamnisé: m. ée: f. Indemnified, saued harmeleße.
Indamniser. To indemnifie, discharge, or saue harmeleße.
Indamniser. as Indamniser.
Indar: m. A Turkie Cocke.
Indé: m. Indico; light Blue, Blunket, Azure.
Inde: f. Indía, the Indies.
D'Inde. A Turkie Henne.
Coq d'Inde. A Turkie Cocke.
Fourmi d'Inde. The Indian Ant; a beast thats as big as a Wolfe.
Fueille d'Inde. Looke Fueille.
Indecemment. Vndecently, vnhandsomely, vncomelily; vnfitly, inconueniently.
Indecent. Vndecent, vnseemelie, vncomelie; vnfit, inconuenient, vnmeet.
Indecentement. as Indecemment.
Indecis: m. ise: f. Vndecided, vndetermined, not cleered, remaining yet in the decke.
Indecision: f. An vndecision; a doubtfull, vndetermined, or vncleered state of things.
Indecisions. Are, in an Accompt, les parties qui ne sont iugées, & decidées definitivement.
Indecrotable: com. Alwaies durtie, euer dagled; or, so durtie as it will neuer be made cleane.
Indefatigable: com. Indefatigable, vnwearíable, vntirable, not to be toyled out.
Indegene: com. Home-bred; borne, or growing within the same Territorie.
Indelebile: com. Indelible, vneffaceable, vnrazeable; that cannot be put, that will neuer weare, out.
Indeleble. as Indelebile.
Indemné: m. ée: f. as Indemnisé.
Deniers indemnez. About which no cost is bestowed, no paines imployed, which come in cleere to the purse.
Indemne: com. Harmeleße, cleered of all damage, exempt from hurt, or harme.
Indemnisé: m. ée: f. Indemnized, or indammified; saued harmeleße; exempted, or freed from harme.
Indemniser. To indemnize, or indammifie; to saue harmleße; to exempt, or free, from harme.
Indemnité: f. Indemnitie; an auoiding of dammage, escape from hurt, exemption from harme.
Droict, ou profit d'Indemnité. The fine due vnto Landlords for Inheritance purchased by, or bestowed on, Churchmen: In some places it is the fift pennie of the purchase, or fift part of the value of the thing; in others, three yeares profit; in others, both that, and the sixt pennie, or part: Also, the fine due vnto the Lord of the soyle, wherein a villaine, that purchases his free.

freedome of the King, resides; also, as Droict de Formariage.

Indeterminé: m. ée: f. Vndetermined, vndecided.

Indeu: m. euë: f. Vndue; wrongfull, vniust; vnfit, unmeet, vntimelie, vnseasonable.

Indevidable: com. Vnwindable, vnreelable.

Indevot: m. ote: f. Coldly deuoted, little affected vnto.

Indevótion: f. Lacke of deuotion, want of affection; cold respect, careleſſe regard, of.

Indication: f. The Marke whereby a Surgeon is directed vnto the remedie that will beſt fit his Patient; alſo, a commending, or prizing of ſale wares.

Indice: m. An Index, hand; marke, ſigne, token; plaine argument, great preſumption, euident ſignification.

Indicible: com. Vnſpeakable, vnexpreſſeable by words.

Indicibleiment. Vnſpeakably, vnexpreſſeably.

Indict: m. ćte: f. Denounced, commaunded, appointed, impoſed by authoritie.

Indićte: m. An indiction, impoſition, denouncement, commaund, appointment.

Indiction: f. A tearme of 5, 10, or 15 yeares, vſed by the auncient Romanes in their numbring of yeares; alſo, an impoſition, tax, or tallage.

Indien: m. enne: f. Jndian; of the Jndies.

Sel Indien. Sugar; Looke Sel.

Indifferemment. Indifferently, meanely, tollerably, ſo ſo; alſo, agreeably, without any difference.

Indifferent. Jndifferent, equall, tollerable, in a meane, betweene both; alſo, agreeing, or not differing.

Indigence: f. Indigence, lacke, penurie, needineſſe, pouertie, want, neceſſitie.

Indigent. Indigent, needie, penurious, neceſſitous, lacking, in want.

Indigeſte: com. Vndigeſtiue; that diſgeſteth not; alſo, indigeſted, vnorderlie, ill-diſpoſed.

Indigeſtible: com. Vndiſgeſtible; which cannot, or will not, be diſgeſted.

Indigeſtion: f. Indiſgeſtion, want of diſgeſtion; rudeneſſe.

Indignation: f. Indignation, wrath, furie, chafing, fuming.

Indigné: m. ée: f. Wroth, wrathfull, fuming, much offended, in choler.

Indigne: com. Vnworthie, vndeſeruing, of no merit, vile, baſe.

Indignement. Vnworthily, vndeſeruingly, baſely, vilely, without merit.

Indigner. To anger, chafe, driue into wrath, put into a fume; alſo, to malice.

Indigneté: f. Indignitie, diſgrace; an affront; vnworthie vſage of.

Indiguer. as Indiquer.

Indiligent. Vndiligent, negligent, retchleſſe, careleſſe.

Indiquer. To ſhew, ſignifie, betoken, demonſtrate, declare; alſo, to detect, bewray, diſcloſe.

Indire. To publiſh, denounce, declare, bid, ſummon, proclaime.

Indirect: m. ćte: f. Jndirect, not right, ſiniſter, crooked, oblique, awry; alſo, croſſe, trauers, ouerthwart, ſidelong.

Indirectement. Indirectly, not rightly, crookedly, awry; wrongfully, by vnfit meanes.

Indiſcret. Vndiſcreet, inconſiderate, vnaduiſed, raſh, haire-braind, headie, fond, witleſſe.

Indiſcretement. Vndiſcreetly, inconſiderately, vnaduiſedly, fondly, raſhly, headily.

Indiſcretion: f. Jndiſcretion, inconſideration, vnaduiſedneſſe, fondneſſe, raſhneſſe, headineſſe.

Indiſert. Vneloquent; rude, or barſh, in diſcourſe.

Indiſertement. Vneloquently; rudely, groſſely, harſhly (in ſpeech &c.)

Indiſpos: m. oſe: f. as Indiſpoſé.

Indiſpoſé: m. ée: f. Sicklie, crazie, vnhealthfull, illdiſpoſed, ill at eaſe; alſo, diſorderlie, ill-couched, ill-ſorted; ill-fauoured.

Indiſpoſition: f. Sicklineſſe, crazineſſe, vnhealthfullneſſe, diſtemperature, indiſpoſition of bodie.

L'indiſpoſition du temps. Vntemperateneſſe, or vnſeaſonableneſſe, of weather.

Indiſſolu: m. uë: f. Vndiſſolued.

Indiſſoluble: com. Indiſſoluble, inſeperable, vndiſſolueable.

Indiſſolublement. Indiſſolubly, inſeperably, vndiſſolueably.

Indiſtinct: m. ćte: f. Indiſtinct, vndiſtinguiſhed, vndiuided, confuſed, budled.

Indiſtinctement. Indiſtinctly, confuſedly, budling, on heapes.

Indition: f. A numbring, or ſhewing of time, or of yeares; alſo, a marke, ſigne, token, or notice of.

Individu: m. An Individuum, or bodie inſeperable; a Moat.

Individu: m. uë: f. Vndiuideable, inſeperable.

Individuité: f. Indiuiduitie, inſeperableneſſe.

Indivinable: com. Vndiuinable, moſt obſcure, not to be gheſſed at.

Indivis. Par indivis. By Moats or Individuums, by parts or members vndiuidable.

Indiviſible: com. Indiuiſible, vndiuidable, inſeperable, vnpartable.

Indiviſibleiment. Indiuiſibly, vndiuidably, inſeperably, vnpartably.

Indocile: com. Indocible, vnteacheable; dull, blockiſh, dunſicall, beauie-beaded, groſſe-witted, vnapt to learne, vnfit to be taught.

Indócte: com. Vnlearned, vnskilfull, ignorant.

Indoctement. Vnlearnedly, ignorantly.

Indoleance: f. No apprehenſion of griefe, no feeling of ſorrow; vnſenſiblenеſſe of, or want of ſence in, paine.

Indomptable: com. Vntameable.

Indompté: m. ée: f. Vntamed, vnbroken; vnrulie, wild, hagard, outragious.

Indon. d'Indon. A Turkie bird, Turkie chicke, young Turkie.

Indubitable: com. Vndoubtable, vndoubted, aſsured, certaine.

Indubitablement. Vndoubtedly, aſsuredly, certainly, without all queſtion.

Indubitamment. as Indubitablement.

Induce: f. A truce, or ceſsation from warre (or from proceeding in a ſuit) for a certaine time agreed on by both parties; alſo, a Vacation, or the ſeaſon wherein a Court ſits not.

Induction: f. An induction, entrie, or leading into; alſo, an inducement, allurement, or perſuaſion, vnto; alſo, a forme of argument from particulars to vniuerſalls.

Induction d'une loy. The application of a Law; or, the comparing it with ſome other; alſo, a collection made of, or concluſion drawne from, it.

Induëment. Vnduely, vniuſtly, vnmeetly, vnfitly, by ſiniſter courſes, wrongfull proceedings, vnworthie meanes.

Induict: m. ćte: f. Induced, led, brought in; moued, perſuaded, allured.

In-

Induire. To induce, lead, bring in, or vntó; to moue, perſuade, allure.
Induire le cas d'vne loy à vne autre. To lay, or apply Law vnto Law; to conferre one Law with another.
Induit. as Induict.
Indulgemment. Indulgently, too mercifully.
Indulgence: f. Indulgence, tender-heartedneſſe; (ouermuch) mercie, or gentleneſſe; too mild intreatie, or vſage; too much libertie giuen; hence, a Pardon from the Pope.
Indulgent. Indulgent; cockering, tender-hearted; ouergentle, or tractable; too much liberti-graunting, too merciſull, too mild.
Indulgentieux: m. euſe: f. Full of indulgence.
Indult: m. A Pardon of Indulgence; the Popes Bull, or Licence, forgiuing or diſpenſing with ſinnes; remitting or permitting offences.
Indult. (Adject.) Yong, not adultus not yet of age.
Indultaire: com. One that hath an Indulgence, or Pardon from the Pope.
Induſtrie: f. Induſtrie; diligence, vigilancie; actiue carefullneſſe; indeauour; aptneſſe vnto, readineſſe in, any thing. s' Induſtrier. To labour, indeauour, beſtirre himſelfe; make himſelfe readie in, or apt for, an imployment.
Induſtrieuſement. Induſtriouſly; diligently, vigilantly, heedfully; laboriouſly.
Induſtrieux: m. euſe: f. Induſtrious; diligent, vigilant; indeauouring; laborious, painefull, heedie, readie.
Ine. as Vne, One; Poictevin.
Inécroulable. as Ineſcroulable.
Ineffable: com. Ineffable, vnſpeakeable, vnutterable; which no tongue can tell, no ſpeech deliuer, no tearmes expreſſe.
Ineffaçable: com. Vneffaceable, vndefaceable; which no time nor violence can weare out.
Ineffaceable. The ſame.
Inefficace: com. Vneffectuall, forceleſſe, vaine, idle, weake.
Ineffroyable: com. Not to be frighted, ſcarred, appalled.
Inegalement. as Inegualement.
Inegal: m. ale: f. Vnequall, vneuen; different, ill-matching, vnlike.
Inegualement. Vnequally, vneuenly; vnlikely, on different tearmes.
Inegualité. as Inequalité.
Ineloquent. Vneloquent, without eloquence.
Inenarrable: com. Wonderfull, vnſpeakeable; vnexpreſſable by any tongue, or tearmes.
Inepte: com. Inept, vnapt; vnſeaſonable; fond, idle, vaine.
Ineptement. Ineptly, vnaptly; fondly, vainely, idly, childiſhly; vnſeaſonably.
Ineptie: f. Vnaptneſſe, vnſeaſonableneſſe; fondneſſe, trifling, vainneſſe, fopperie, childiſhneſſe.
Ineptitude. as Ineptie.
Inequalité: f. Inequalitie, vneuenneſſe; disproportion, odds, difference, vnlikeneſſe.
Ineſcroulable: com. Vnſhakeable, immoueable, ſteadie, not to be ſtirred.
Ineſperé: m. ée: f. Vnhoped; vnexpected, vnlooked for.
Ineſperément. Beyond all hope, or expectation; on a ſuddaine, at vnawares.
Ineſpuiſable: com. Vndraynable; which cannot be dryed vp, or laden dry.

Inevitable: com. Ineuitable, vnauoidable; which no prouidence can put by.
Inevitablement. Ineuitably, vnauoidably.
Inexcroulable: com. as Ineſcroulable.
Inexcuſable: com. Vnexcuſable.
Inexcuſablement. Vnexcuſably.
Inexecuté: m. ée: f. Vnexecuted, vnperformed, vndone.
Inexorable: com. Inexorable, vnintreatable, churliſh, obdurate.
Inexplicable: com. Inexplicable, vnfouldable, inextricable, vnexpreſſable, vndiſplayable, vnexpoundable.
Inexpugnable: com. Vnexpugnable, impregnable; not to be forced, not to be battered.
Inexterminable: com. Vnexterminable; vnbaniſhable, not to be caſt out; not to be deſtroyed.
Inextinguible: com. Vnextinguible, vnquenchable.
Inextricable: com. Inextricable, inexplicable, whereof one cannot be rid.
Infaict: m. cte: f. Infected; impoyſoned; corrupted.
Infaicté: m. ée: f. as Infaict.
Infaicter. To infect; impoiſon; corrupt.
Infaire. as Infaicter.
Infallibilité: f. Infallibilitie, or infalliblneſſe; certainetie, aſſurance.
Infallible: com. Infallible, certaine, aſſured.
Infalliblement. Infallibly, without faile.
Infamé: m. ée: f. Infamed, defamed, diſcredited, ſhamed.
Infame: com. Infamous, ignominious, opprobrious, diſgracefull, reproachfull; alſo, defamed, detected, tainted, ſhamed, verie ill ſpoken of.
Infamément. Infamouſly, ignominiouſly, opprobriouſly, reproachfully, diſgracefully.
Infamer. To infame, defame, ſhame, traduce, diſcredit, reproach, diſgrace; to ſpeake badly, report vilely of.
Infameté: f. A diſgrace, diſcredit, imputation, infamous report.
Infamie: f. Infamie, obloquie, ignominie, diſhonour, diſgrace, diſcredit, reproach; detection; a defamation; an imputation.
Infante. I. In. The Title of a daughter of Spaine.
Infanterie: f. The Infanterie, or footmen of an Armie.
Infanticide: com. Child-murthering, infant-killing.
Infantile: com. as Infantin.
Infantin: m. ine: f. Infantine, childiſh; yong, tender.
Infatigable: com. as Indefatigable.
Intatué: m. ée: f. Gulled, beſotted, made fooliſh.
Infatuer. To gull, beſot, make fooliſh.
Infauſte: com. Vnfortunate, vnluckie, vnhappie, diſmall, ominous, dire.
Infecond: m. de: f. Vnfertill, vnfruitfull.
Infecondité: f. Infecunditie, vnfertillneſſe, vnfruitfullneſſe.
Infect: m. cte: f. Infect, infected, infectious.
Infecté: m. ée: f. Infected; poiſoned; depraued, corrupted.
Infecter. To infect; poiſon; depraue, corrupt.
Infection: f. Infection, contagion.
Infectionner. as Infecter; or, to fill with infection.
Infecundité. Looke Infecondité.
Infeodation: f. An infeoffing.
Infeodé: m. ée: f. Infeoffed; ſeiſed in fee; alſo, graunted, aliened, or ſetled in fee.
Diſmes infeodées; impropriations of tythes.
Rente infeodée. A Rent-charge; a rent wherewith land is charged for euer.
Inferé: m. ée: f. Inferred, implyed, concluded vpon things things put, or gathered, together; ſignified, ſhewed, alledged, giuen to vnderſtand.

Inferer. To inferre, imply, conclude vpon things put, or gathered, together; to ſignifie, ſhew, alledge, giue to vnderſtand.

Inferieur: m. re: f. Inferior; lower, nether; vnderling; more baſe, of ſmaller value, of leſſe meanes.

Infertile: com. Infertill, vnfruitfull.

Infertilité: f. Infertilitie, vnfruitfullneſſe.

Infeſtation: f. Infeſtation, moleſtation, annoyance, noyſomneſſe; alſo, a rauaging, waſting, ſpoyling.

Infeſté: m. ée: f. Infeſted, annoyed, moleſted; rauaged.

Infeſter. To infeſt, annoy, moleſt; rauage, waſt, or vex with frequent, and violent incurſions.

Infeudation: f. An infeoffing.

Infeudé: m. ée: f. as Infeodé.

Infeuder. To infeoffe; to paſſe, or graunt in fee; alſo, to put, or admit, into the poſſeſſion of an Inheritance.

Infiable: com. Truſtleſſe, vntruſtie, faitbleſſe.

Infibulation: f. A buttoning, buckling, or claſping together; alſo, the ringing of the priuie parts.

Inficiation: f. An inficiation, diſaffirmation, denyall.

Infidele: com. Infidell; faithleſſe, vnfaithfull, falſe, diſloyall, trecherous.

Infidelité: f. Infidelitie, faithleſneſſe, vnfaithfullneſſe, diſloyaltie, trecherie.

Infiguré: m. ée: f. Infigured, figured; marked, or noted, with a figure.

Infini: m. ie: f. Infinite, endleſſe; innumerable; vnmeaſurable.

Infiniement. Infinitely, endleſſly.

Infinité: f. Infiniteneſſe, endleſneſſe; innumerableneſſe, vnmeaſurableneſſe.

Infinitude: f. as Infinité.

Infirmatif: m. iue: f. Infirmatiue; weakening, infeebling; diſannulling, diſallowing.

Infirmer. To weaken, infeeble; diſſolue; confute; diſannull, diſallow.

Infirmité: f. Infirmitie, weakeneſſe, feebleneſſe; craxineſſe; alſo, maladie, ſickneſſe.

Inflammable: com. Inflamable, burneable.

Inflammation: f. An inflamation, firing, burning; a bliſtering heat; a kindling, an incenſing.

Inflation: f. An inflation; a windie ſwelling, or puffing vp.

Infleſchiſſable: com. as Inflexible.

Inflexible: com. Inflexible, vnbowable, vntractable, vnrelentable, hard-hearted.

Inflictif: m. iue: f. Inflictiue, inflicting; or, of propertie to inflict.

Influence: f. A flowing in; (and particularly) an influence, or influent courſe, of the Planets; their vertue infuſed into, or their courſe working on, inferior creatures.

Influer. To flow, runne, enter, or ſinke, into.

Infoliature. Boſcage, or leafe-worke, in caruing &c.

Infondre. To infuſe; to fill in; to put, or powre, into; alſo, to ſteepe.

Inforçable: com. Vnforcible, vnexpugnable, impregnable.

Informateur: m. An Informer, Promooter; ſearcher, inquirer, inquiſitor.

Information: f. An information; inſtruction; ſearch, queſt, inquiſition, enqueſt; examination.

Informé: m. ée: f. Informed; inſtructed in; examined, ſearched, or inquired after; alſo, informed againſt; alſo, vnformed, vnmade, vnfaſhioned.

Informe: com. Informe, ſhapeleſſe, ill-fauoured, faſhionleſſe; ouglie, rude.

Informer. To informe, inſtruct, giue notice of; alſo, as; S'Informer. To ſearch, inquire, examine, get information of, make inquiſition after.

Infortiat: m. One of the three Volumes of the Pandects.

Infortune: f. Misfortune, miſaduenture, miſhap, miſchance, calamitie; a diſaſter.

Infortuné: m. ée: f. Vnfortunate, vnhappie, vnluckie, ſucceßleſſe, diſaſtrous.

Infortunément. Vnfortunately, vnhappily, vnluckily, ſucceßleſly, diſaſterouſly.

Infracteur: m. An infringer, violater, breaker of.

Infraction: f. as Infracture.

Infracture: f. An infracture, infringement, violation, breach.

Infrangible: com. Infrangible, vnbreakable; inuincible.

Infraſqué: m. ée: f. Intricated, peſtered, intangled.

Infraſquer. To intricate, peſter, intangle; alſo, to feed with vaine hopes, to fet in or fetch ouer.

Infrequence: f. Vnfrequencie, ſolitarineſſe, a ſmall aſſemblie.

Infrequent. Vnfrequent, ſeldome haunting, little reſorting to, much abſent from; alſo, vnfrequented.

Infructueuſement. Fruitleſly, vnfruitfully.

Infructueux: m. euſe: f. Fruitleſſe, vnfruitfull, barren, ſterill, vnprofitable.

Infus: m. uſe: f. Infuſed, filled in, powred into, or vpon; alſo, ſteeped.

Infuſer. To infuſe, fill in, powre vpon; alſo, to ſteepe.

Infuſion: f. An infuſion; powring, or filling in; and (in Phiſicke) a conueyance of ſome liquid medicine into the bodie by Cliſter, or other inſtrument; alſo, a ſteeping of drugs, &c, in a conuenient liquor; alſo, the liquor wherein they haue beene ſo ſteeped.

Ingambé: m. ée: f. Light-legd, nimble-heeled, faſt-running, ſwift of foot.

Ingargouillat: m. The croſſe point (in dauncing.)

Ingenier. To bend his wits vnto, or beat his braines about, the deuiſing of a thing.

Ingenieur: m. An Enginer, Engine-maker; Fortifier.

Ingenieuſement. Ingeniouſly, wittily, with good inuention.

Ingenieux: m. as Ingenieur.

Ingenieux: m. euſe: f. Ingenious, wittie, inuentiue, ſharpe-witted, nimble-headed.

Ingenioſité: f. Ingenioſitie, ingenioufneſſe, quickneſſe of inuention, dexteritie of wit.

Ingenuë: com. Ingenuous, open-hearted, free, liberall, nobly affected.

Ingenuement. Ingenuouſly; frankly, freely, liberally, with an open heart, and hand.

Ingenuité: f. Ingenuitie, ingenuouſneſſe; nobleneſſe, frankneſſe, gallantneſſe of humor; an open, honeſt, franke, or liberall diſpoſition.

Ingeré: m. ée: f. Thruſt in, put on; vndertaken, or taken vpon; intruded, inſinuated; put forth.

s'Ingerer. To thruſt in, put on, offer or put forth, himſelfe (vndeſired) to intrude, inſinuate himſelfe into, take vpon him, a matter.

Inglorieux: m. euſe: f. Inglorious; baſe, obſcure, vnknowne, of no reputation, glorie, renowme.

Ingrat: m. ate: f. Vngrateſull, thankleſſe, vnthankfull, vnmindfull of benefits receiued.

Ingratitude: f. Ingratitude, vngrateſulneſſe, vnthankfulneſſe.

Ingravé: m. ée: f. Ingrauen, intayled.

In-

Ingraver. To ingraue, or intaile.

Ingredient: m. An Ingredient; a beginning, or entrance; alſo (in Phiſicke) a ſimple put into a compound medicine, or vſed, among others, in the making thereof.

Inguerdonné: m. ée: f. Vnguerdoned, vnrecompenced.

Ingueriſſable: com. Incurable, vnhealable.

Inguine: m. The gryne, or groine.

Ingurgité: m. ée: f. Ingulfed; ſwilled, or ſwallowed in; greedily deuoured.

Ingurgiter. To ingulfe; to ſwill, or ſwallow in; alſo, to rauine, or deuoure greedily.

Inhabile: com. Vnable, vnſufficient; weake; vnfit, vnmeet for; vnweldie, vneaſie, vnhandſome; idle; ſottiſh.

Inhabilement. Vnably, vnſufficiently; weakely; vnweldily, vneaſily, vnhandſomely; vnaptly, vnfitly; ſottiſhly.

Inhabilitation: f. A diſabling.

Inhabilité: f. Diſabilitie, inſufficiencie, weakeneſſe; vnfitneße, vnaptneſſe, vnweldineße; ſottiſhneſſe, want of braines.

Inhabilité: m. ée: f. Diſabled, made vnable.

Inhabilitement: m. A diſabling.

Inhabiliter. To diſable; to make vnable.

Inhabitable: com. Vnhabitable; deſert, ſauage; which cannot be abid in, or dwelt on; alſo, inhabitable.

Inhabité: m. ée: f. Vnhabited; alſo, inhabited.

Inhabiter. To inhabit, reſide, or dwell on.

Inhabitué: m. ée: f. Vnaccuſtomed, vnenured vnto; diſuſed from.

Inherence: f. An inherence; a cleauing, ſticking, ioyning cloſe in, or vnto.

Inhibé: m. ée: f. Inhibited, forbidden; hindered, withheld.

Inhiber. To inhibit, forbid; ſtay, ſtop, or withhold.

Inhibition: f. An inhibition, forbidding; counter-maund, ſtep, withholding.

Inhonneſte: com. Diſhoneſt, vnhoneſt, naughtie, lewd.

Inhonneſtement. Diſhoneſtly, vnhoneſtly, naughtily, lewdly.

Inhoſpitable: com. Vnhoſpitable, harbourleße; churliſh; no lodger of paßengers, no intertainer of ſtrangers, no houſekeeper.

Inhumain: m. aine: f. Inhumane, vngentle, diſcourteous, vnciuill; beaſtlie, cruell, rude; barbarous.

Inhumainement. Inhumanely, vngently, diſcourteouſly, vnciuilly; beaſtly, cruelly, rudely, barbarouſly.

Inhumanité: f. Inhumanitie, vngentleneſſe, inciuilitie, beaſtlineße, crueltie, rudeneſſe, barbarouſneße.

Inhumation: f. A burying, an interring.

Inhumé: m. ée: f. Buried, interred, put into the ground.

Inhumer. To burie, interre, lay in a graue, put into the ground.

Inian. By S. Iohn (a childiſh Oath;) ¶Rab.

Inidoine: com. Vnapt, vnmeet, vnfit, improper, inconuenient, inſufficient, incommodious.

Injectement. as Injection.

Injection: f. An iniection; a caſting in, or vpon; alſo (in Phiſicke) a ſquirting, or conueying of a liquid medicine, by Siringe, &c, into ſome part of the bodie, or into a hollow and fiſtulous vlcer.

Inimaginable: com. Vnimaginable, vnconceiueable, incomprehenſible.

Inimitable: com. Vnimitable; incomparable; which cannot be followed.

Inimitié: f. Enmitie, hoſtilitie, hatred, feud, ſtriſe, diſcord, variance.

Injonction: f. An Iniunction, or forbidding; a commaund importing an abſolution, inhibition, or ſtay of proceeding.

Inique: com. Vnequall, vnindifferent, partiall, wrong, vniuſt; vnreaſonable; vnrighteous, naughtie, wicked, impious.

Iniquement. Vnequally, vniuſtly, wrongfully, partially; vnreaſonably, without cauſe; vnrighteouſly, wickedly, impiouſly.

Iniquité: f. Iniquitie; inequalitie, iniuſtice, wrong, partialitie; vnreaſonableneße; vnrighteouſneſſe, naughtineſſe, impietie, wickedneße.

Initié: m. ée: f. Initiated, entered into, begun in; admitted of.

Initier. To initiate, enter into, begin in; giue the firſt inſtruction, lay a ground or foundation for; giue orders vnto; licence, or admit of, a ſocietie.

Injure: f. Iniurie, wrong, miſuſage, an abuſe, or affront offered; a treſpaße, diſpleaſure, offence, deſpight, or outrage done.

Injurié: m. ée: f. Iniured, wronged, miſuſed, abuſed; outraged; miſcalled, reproached, reuiled, rayled on.

Injurier. To wrong, iniure, miſuſe, abuſe; hurt, offend; outrage; miſcall, reproach, reuile, rayle on.

Injurieur: m. An iniurer, a wronger.

Injurieuſement. Iniuriouſly, wrongfully, offenſiuely; outragiouſly, ſpightfully, reproachfully, contumeliouſly.

Injurieux: m. euſe: f. Iniurious; wrongfull, abuſiue, offenſiue; outragious; deſpightfull; contumelious, reproachfull.

Injurieux en tripiere. Foule-mouthed like a Tripe-wife.

Injuſte: com. Vniuſt, partiall, vnequall, iniurious, wrongfull, vnreaſonable.

Injuſtement. Vniuſtly, partially, vnequally, iniuriouſly, wrongfully, vnreaſonably.

Injuſtice: f. Iniuſtice, partialitie, wrong, hard meaſure.

Innavigable: com. Innauigable; that cannot be ſayled in.

Inné: m. ée: f. Innate; borne, or bred in.

Innocemment. Innocently, guiltleſly, faultleſly, harmeleſly, ſillily, without any offence.

Innocence: f. Innocencie, guiltleſneße, vnguiltineße, harmeleſneße, integritie, ſillineße.

Innocence porte ſa defenſe: Pro. Innocence beares it owne defence.

Innocent. Innocent, Ninnie (a proper name for a man) whence;

Herbe de S. Innocent. Centinodie, Bloudwort, male Knot-graſſe, Birds-tongue, Swines-graße.

Innocent. Innocent, faultleſſe, guiltleſſe, harmeleße, without offence.

Le iour des innocents. Childermas day in Chriſtmas.

Parchemin innocent. Parchment made of an abortiue ſkinne.

Donner les Innocens. as Innocenter.

Innocenter. To breech, whip, leſh, ſon Childermas, or Innocents, day; when the Papiſts of France haue a merrie cuſtome, to ierke all ſuch as they can find in bed, or others whoſe breech they may otherwiſe eaſily come at.)

Innombrable: com. Innumerable, vnnumerable.

Innomme. Contract innommé. An equall exchange of of money, and land giuen onely for land.

Innovateur: m. An innouator; a bringer in of new customes, &c.

Innovation: f. Innouation; alteration, change of old, for new, fashions.

Innové: m. ée: f. Innouated; altered from old vnto new.

Innover. To innouate; alter, change; bring vp new customes, bring in vnwonted fashions.

Innumerable: com. Innumerable, vnnumberable.

Innumérablement. Innumerably, vnnumberably.

Innumerableté: f. Innumerableneße.

Inobedience: f. Disobedience, lacke of obedience.

Inobedient. Disobedient, vnobedient, wanting obedience.

Inoffencible: com. Inoffencible, not to be hurt.

Inofficieux: m. euſe: f. Vnofficious, vnobſeruant, vnſeruiceable, vnreſpectfull, vnkind.

Inofficiosité: f. Vnofficiousneſſe, vnreſpectiueneße, or want of due reſpect; whence, Querelle d'inoff. A ſuit commenced by Orphans, &c, whoſe parents haue, by their Wills, giuen from them all they had, or giuen them leße then by cuſtome, and the right of their birth, was due vnto them; as where a man bequeathes all, or the moſt part of, his eſtate vnto his children by a ſecond venter, neglecting thoſe he had by a former wife, though they be as toward, and well-deſerning, as the others.

Inondation: f. An inundation, deluge, ouerflowing, ſurrounding.

Inondé: m. ée: f. Ouerflowne, ſurrounded, ouerwhelmed with water.

Inonder. To ouerflow; ouerwhelme, ſurround.

Inopie: f. Lacke, need, want, ſcarcitie, penurie, pouertie.

Inopiné: m. ée: f. Vnthought of, ſuddaine, vnawares.

Inopinement. On a ſuddaine, at vnawares, ſooner then was thought, ere it was looked for.

Inquant: m. The place wherein things are ſold by Outrope, or Outcry.

Droict d'inquant. Fiue in the hundred due vnto the King (vpon things ſold by Outrope) in ſome parts of Provence.

Inquanter. To ſell, or paſſe away at an Outcry.

Inquietation: f. A diſquieting, diſturbing, diſeaſing, vexing, moleſting, troubling.

Inquieté: m. ée: f. Diſquieted, diſeaſed; vexed, annoyed, moleſted; diſturbed, troubled; alſo, buſie, reſtleße, troubleſome.

Inquietement. Vnquietly, reſtleſly, troubleſomely.

Inquieter. To diſquiet, diſeaſe, trouble, diſturbe, vex, moleſt, annoy; giue ſmall eaſe, or little reſt vnto.

Inquieteur: m. A diſquieter, troubler, diſturber, annoyer, vexer, moleſter.

Inquietude: f. Diſquiet, vnquietneſſe, trouble, moleſtation, vnreſt, carke, diſeaſe.

Inquilin: m. A Tenant; Lodger; Inmate; he that takes, or dwells in, a houſe (or part of a houſe) wherein neither he, nor his aunceſtors were borne.

Inquiſiteur: m. An Inquiſitor, ſtrict ſearcher, ſeuere examiner; one of the Holie houſe, or Spaniſh Inquiſition.

Inquiſition: f. An inquiſition; diligent ſearch, or inquirie, ſtrict examination.

Inracinable: com. Which cannot be rooted, which will not take root.

Inſail: m. The Rudder, or Sterne of a Ship. ¶Rab.

Inſalubre: com. Vnhealthfull, vnholeſome; infectiue, corrupt, noyſome.

Inſalubrité: f. Vnhealthfullneſſe, vnholeſomeneſſe; corruption, infection.

Inſatiabilité: f. Inſatietie, vnſatiableneße.

Inſatiable: com. Inſatiate, vnſatiable, vnfillable; rauenous, gluttonous, that neuer hath enough.

Inſatiablement. Inſatiately, vnſatiably.

Inſatiableté: f. Inſatietie, vnſatiableneſſe; greedineſſe, gluttonie, rauenouſneße.

Inſceu. à l'inſceu de luy. Vnwittingly to him; wherewith he was neuer made acquainted.

Inſciemment. Vnwittingly, ignorantly, vnskilfully, vnknowingly, for want of knowledge.

Inſcience: f. Vnskilfullneße, ignorance, want of knowledge.

Inſcophié. Looke Inſcrophié.

Inſcript: m. ipte: f. Inſcribed, intituled, written on; graued, pourtrayed; printed in.

Inſcription: f. An inſcription, ſuperſcription, title, note, marke (written, or ingrauen.)

Inſcription en faux. A challenge of, or exception againſt, the truth of an Euidence; a teſtimonie, or vndertaking to proue it falſe, entred in Court.

Inſcrire. To inſcribe, intitle, title, write in, or vpon; alſo, to graue, print, or pourtray vpon.

S'Inſcrire à faux, ou en faux, contre; To enter a challenge againſt; or, as in Faux.

Inſcrit. as Inſcript.

Inſcrophié. Cheueux inſcrophiez. Haire turned vp after the neateſt manner. ¶Rab.

Inſcrutable: com. Inſcrutable, vnſearchable; bottomeleße; miſticall; not to be ſounded; no way to be ſought out.

Inſculpé: m. ée: f. Inſculped, ingraued, intayled.

Inſculper. To inſculpe, ingraue, intayle.

Inſectable: com. Not to be cut; not to be diuided.

Inſecte: m. An Inſect; a ſmall fleſhleſſe, and bloudleße vermine, diuided (in ſome ſort) betweene the head, bodie, and bellie, as an Ant, Fly, Bee, &c; vnder which, the Earthwormie, Caterpiller, &c, be alſo comprehended.

Inſectible: com. Inſectible; or, as Inſectable.

Inſenſé: m. ée: f. Mad, wood, raging, furious; vnreaſonable, witleße.

Inſenſible: com. Inſenſible, ſenceleſſe, vnfeeling; alſo, vnpalpable, vnfeelable.

Inſenſibilité: f. Senceleſneſſe, vnſenſibleneſſe.

Inſeperable: m. com. Inſeperable, vndiuidable.

Inſeperablement. Inſeperably.

Inſeré: m. ée: f. Inſerted; ingraffed; ſet, put, entred, or brought in; added, or ioyned vnto; mixed, or mingled with.

Inſerer. To inſert; ingraffe; ſet, put, enter, or bring in; add, or ioyne vnto; mix, or mingle with.

Inſidiation: f. Guile, trecherie, deceitfullneße; a lying in wait for; a laying of ſnares, a practiſing of wyles, to deceiue withall.

Inſidieux: m. euſe: f. Deceitfull, trecherous, inſnaring, intrapping, lying in wait for.

Inſigne: m. as Enſeigne.

Inſigne: com. Notable, notorious; famous, renowmed; apparant, goodlie, of marke.

Inſimulé: m. ée: f. Accuſed of, charged with.

Inſinuation: f. An inſinuation; alſo, a regiſtring, or entring into a Regiſter booke.

Inſinué: m. ée: f. Inſinuated; crept, wound, or ſtolne into; gently, or cloſely incroached vpon; alſo, entred into a Regiſter, or Office booke.

Insinuer. To enter; to register; or, to enter into a Register, in Office-books; or (as a French Lawyer describes it) publier, & nommer par Acte par devant le Iuge, qui ordonne en cette faict Registre.

S'Insinuer en. To insinuate; creepe, wind, steale, conuey, himselfe into; gently to insinuate, closely to intrude vpon.

Insipide: com. Vnsauorie, smackelesse, mellowisse, withered, sapsie; also, weake of iudgement, or in discourse, fond, indiscreet.

Insipidité: f. Insipidnesse, mellowishnesse, vnsauorinesse, dullnesse of taste, want of smacke; also, fondnesse, indiscretion, weakenesse of iudgement, or in discourse.

Insipience: f. Dotage, fondnesse, sottishnesse, ideotisme, ignorance.

Insipient. Sottish, doting, witlesse, vndiscreet, foolish, ignorant.

Insister. To insist on; to vrge hard, stand much vpon, a matter; to labour, solicite, pursue eagerly, be earnest with, or vpon; also, to rest, persist, abide fast, continue firme.

Insociable: com. Vnsociable, vncompanable, inconuersable, vncompanable.

Insolation: f. A sunning; a setting, or laying open, in the Sunne.

Insolemment. Insolently, malapertly, sawcily, presumptuously, arrogantly.

Insolence: f. Insolencie, sawcinesse, malapertnesse, presumption, arrogance.

Insolent: m. te: f. Insolent, malapert, sawcie, presumptuous, arrogant.

Insolide: com. Vnsolide, vnsound; loose, weake, feeble.

Les Obligations du defunct sont insolides contre tous les heritiers; viz. All the heires are not lyable vnto them; (yet may the Creditor addresse himselfe vnto any one of them.)

Insolidement. Vnsoundly, vnsolidely, weakely, feebly; also, not roughly, wholly, for the whole.

Insolite: com. Strange, vnused, vnaccustomed, vnmeet.

Insolu: m. ue: f. Vnpayed, vndischarged, vndefrayed.

Insolvable: com. Vnpayable, vnlikelie to be payed; also, poore, or vnable to pay.

Insoluble: com. Insoluble, indissoluble, vndissoluable.

Inspecteur: m. An inspection, ouersee, controller; one that narrowly obserues, or pries into, mens behauiour.

Inspection: f. An inspection; speculation; ouerseeing; prying, or looking into; viewing, or looking on.

Inspere: m. ée: f. Vnhoped for; vnlooked after.

Insperément. as Inesperément.

Insperse: m. ée: f. Insparsed; sprinckled, or cast vpon.

Inspiration: f. An inspiration, or inspiring; a blowing, or breathing into; an instinct.

Inspiré: m. ée: f. Inspired; moued; blowne, or breathed into.

Inspirer. To inspire; breath into; moue.

Instabilité: f. Instability, vnsteadinesse, vnsetlednesse, vnfastnesse; ficklenesse, inconstancie, wauering, variablenesse.

Instable: com. Vnstable, vnsteadie, tottering, skittish, vnsetled, vnfast; flitting, wauering, fickle, skittish, inconstant.

Instablement. Vnstably, vnsteadily, tatteringly, vnsetledly, vnfastly.

Installation: f. An installation, or installing; the setting of an Officer.

Installé: m. ée: f. Installed; setled, established, placed surely in.

Installer. To install; to settle, establish, place surely in.

Instamment. Instantly; earnestly, vrgently, importunately; diligently, incessantly.

Instance: f. Instance, earnestnesse, vrgencie, importunitie, continuall diligence; also (in Law) a cause, or point in a cause, contested.

En premiere instance. At first, of the first rancke in choyse, or in the first degree, before all others.

Faire instance sur. To vrge vehemently, to stand much vpon.

Faire l'instance. C'est, debatre la chose.

Instant: m. An instant, point, moment.

Instauration: f. An instauration; reflouring, renewing, repairing, reedifying.

Instauré: m. ée: f. Restored, renewed, repaired, reedified.

Instaurer. To reflore, renew, reforme; reedifie, repaire.

Instigateur: m. An instigator; stirrer, inciter, vrger, egger on, prouoker, pricker forward; In Law, Se prend generalement & pour celuy qui seulement se plaint sans se rendre partie; & pour celuy qui intente l'accusation, donnant des preuues, & poursuyvant l'instruction du procez.

Instigation: f. An instigation, stirring, inciting, vrging; a pricke, spurre, prouocation, strong motion vnto.

Instigué: m. ée: f. Instigated, incited, vrged.

Instiguer. To instigate, incite, stirre, vrge, egge, spurre on, pricke forward.

Instillation: f. An instillation; a gentle infusion; a letting, or falling in drop by drop; a putting, or powring in by little and little.

Instiller. To drop, trill, drizle; gently to inforce; to let, or fall in drop by drop; to put in, or powre on by little and little.

Instinct: m. An instinct, or inclination; an inward stirring, motion, or persuasion; an inspiration.

Institué: m. ée: f. Instituted, enacted, ordained, established, appointed, brought in, set vp.

Instituer. To institute, enact, ordaine, decree, establish, appoint; bring in, begin, set vp.

Institutaire. (A Title of the Emperour Iustinian, who writ the Institutes of the Ciuill Law.)

Institute: m. Iustinians Booke of Institutes.

Institution: f. An Institution; Precept; Ordinance, Decree, Statute, Establishment; an ordaining, appointing, setting vp, or bringing in.

Instruction: f. An instruction, direction, document, precept; caueat; memoriall, remembrance; also, instruction, teaching, tutoring, ordering.

Instructive: f. as Instruction.

Instruer. as Instruire.

Instruict: m. cte: f. Instructed, taught, tutored; directed; forewarned; furnished, well appointed; also, suborned.

Vn procez instruict. A Cause made readie for hearing.

Instruire. To teach, tutor, instruct; forewarne, direct; fashion, traine vp; furnish with matter; prompt, suborne.

In-

Instruire vn proc
a Hearing.
Instruisable: com.
Instrument: m. A
Toole; also, a Dee mation, or Instruct helpe, direction in Instrumental: m.
strument, applyed
Instrumenter. To d
uayance, Euidence.
Instrumentier: m.
mine, so called, bec
in it vsually wraps
Parchement.
Insuave: com. Vns
Insubstantiel: m.
uaine.
Insuffisamment. I
Insuffisance: f. Insu
fitnesse.
Insuffisant. Insuffic
Insulain: m. An Il
Insulaire: com. Ins
an Iland.
Insult: m. An assau
Insulter. To insult, wrong, reproach,
reioice at, leape fu
Insuperable: com
uincible.
Insupportable: co
to be borne.
Insurger. To rise
also, to trauell
selfe.
Insurmontable: c
vnsurpassable, vn
Insuyvre. To pursu
Intariſſable: com
Integralité: f. Int
Integré: m. ée:
whole.
Integrité: f. Integ
innocencie, vpright Intellect: m. Th
tie, of vnderstan benſion, capacit
tion.
Intellectuel: m. c
derſtanding.
Intelligence: f.
cuite, conceit, f intelligence; pr or gotten, (by) pr held with.
Cela eſt de ſon appointment, or a Intelligencier: m
gnier; a Spy.
Intelligent. Vnde
pacitie.
Intelligible: com
ſie to be vnderſt
Intelligiblement
ſtandingly.
Intemperance: f
edneſſe, vnbridle

Instruire vn procez. To furnish it, or make it fit, for a Hearing.

Instruisable: com. Instructable, teachable, docible.

Instrument: m. An Instrument; Implement, Engine, Toole; also, a Deed, Euidence, Conueyance; an Information, or Instruction, in writing; also, a meane, aid, helpe, direction in a matter.

Instrumental: m. ale: f. Instrumentall, vsed as an Instrument, applyed as a meanes.

Instrumenter. To draw, and ingrosse an Instrument, Conueyance, Euidence.

Instrumentier: m. A certaine Vine-deuouring vermine, so called, because it makes the Vine leafe (wherein it vsually wraps it selfe) looke like to a rowle of Parchement.

Insuave: com. Vnsweet, vnpleasant.

Insubstantiel: m. elle: f. Vnsubstantiall; light, idle, vaine.

Insuffisamment. Insufficiently.

Insuffisance: f. Insufficiencie, disabilitie, weakenesse, vnfitnesse.

Insuffisant. Insufficient, vnable; weake, vnfit.

Insulain: m. An Ilander, or Iland-man.

Insulaire: com. Insular, Iland-like; of, or belonging to, an Iland.

Insult: m. An assault, affront, brauado, open wrong.

Insulter. To insult, crow, vaunt, or triumph ouer; to wrong, reproach, affront; contemne; also, to rebound, reioice at, leape for ioy.

Insuperable: com. Insuperable, vnvanquishable, inuincible.

Insupportable: com. Vnsupportable, intollerable, not to be borne.

Insurger. To rise vp against, or oppose himselfe vnto; also, to trauell earnestly, mainely to inforce himselfe.

Insurmontable: com. Vnsurmountable, vnexceedable, vnsurpassable, vnvanquishable.

Insuyvre. To pursue, or follow hard vpon.

Intariſſable: com. Not to be withered, or dryed vp.

Integralité: f. Integralitie, wholenesse.

Integré: m. ée: f. Integrated, perfected, made whole.

Integrité: f. Integritie, soundnesse; honestie, sinceritie, innocencie, vprightnesse.

Intellect: m. The intellect; the vertue, or facultie, of vnderstanding; also, vnderstanding, apprehension, capacitie; iudgement, knowledge, discretion.

Intellectuel: m. elle: f. Intellectuall, apprehensiue, vnderstanding.

Intelligence: f. Vnderstanding, apprehension, capacitie, conceit, sence, discretion, iudgement; also, intelligence; priuate notice of occurrences giuen, or gotten, (by) priuate intercourse, or correspondencie held with.

Cela est de son intelligence. Is done by his priuate appointment, or direction.

Intelligencier: m. An Intelligencer; an intelligence-giuer; a spy.

Intelligent. Vnderstanding, apprehensiue, of good capacitie.

Intelligible: com. Intelligible, plaine, perspicuous, easie to be vnderstood.

Intelligiblement. Intelligibly, perspicuously, vnderstandingly.

Intemperance: f. Intemperance, immoderation, vnstayednesse, vnbridlednesse, vnrulinesse, outragiousnesse.

Intemperance de l'air. Vnseasonablenesse of the ayre, or weather.

Intemperature: f. Intemperature, or distemperature of the bodie; vnseasonablenesse, or foulenesse of weather.

Intemperé: m. ée: f. Intemperate, immoderate, vnstayed, vnbridled, vnorderlie, disordinate, outragious, vnrulie.

Intemperément. Intemperately, immoderately, vnstayedly, vnorderedly, disordinately, outragiously, vnrulily.

Intempestif: m. iue: f. Intempestiue, vntimelie, abortiue, vnseasonable; also, disordered, vnreasonable; also, vnluckie, or ill-presaging.

Intempestivement. Intempestiuely, vnseasonably, abortiuely; vnreasonably; out of course; also, vnluckily.

Intendance: f. An ouersight; a gouernment, or charge ouer.

Intendants des finances. The (fiue) Ouerseers, or Controllers of the Exchequer; at first brought in by King Francis the first: (Ont superintendance sur le Threſorier de l'espargne; des parties casuelles; de l'ordinaire & extraordinaire des guerres; de l'artillerie; de la marine; des officiers domestics; & autres qui ne sont sous la charge des Threſoriers de France, sur lesquels aussi ils ont intendance, & peuvent reformer leurs estats par estimation. (Ragueau.)

Intendit: m. A principall allegation, proofe, or deposition; writings, or bookes, wherein the chiefe, or maine points of a suit are contained.

Intenté: m. ée: f. Attempted, tryed, essayed, proued; also, intended, meant, purposed; also, commenced, begun, brought, or moued, as a suit.

Intenter. To attempt, proue, essay, trie; also, to intend, meane, purpose; also, to commence, begin, moue, bring, or set on foot (a suit.)

Intenteur: m. An intender; an attempter; also, the beginner of a suit.

Intention: f. An intention, intent, purpose, drift, meaning, will, mind.

Interbasté: m. ée: f. Interbasted; basted, or quilted betweene.

Intercalaire: com. Interlaced; put, or set betweene.

Iour intercalaire. The odd day of a Leape yeare, which falleth euerie fourth yeare.

Intercalation: f. An interlacing; a setting, or putting of an odd thing betweene euen ones.

Intercaler. To interlace; to put, or set (as the odd day of a Leape yeare) betweene.

Intercéder pour. To intercede, mediate, intreat, sue, solicite; also, to vndertake, or giue his word, for.

Intercepter. To intercept, forestall, take vp, or make stay of, by the way.

Intercesseur: m. An intercessor, mediator, intreater, suitor, or suretie, for another.

Intercession: f. Intercession, mediation, intreatie, or suit for another.

Interclaire: com. as Intercalaire.

Intercostal: m. ale: f. Betweene the ribs.

Veine intercostale. A branch of the hollow veine, which feeds the spaces betweene the three highest ribs.

Interdict: m. An interdiction, prohibition, iniunction; also (in Law) a determination, or order in Court, for the possession of a thing in controuersie.

Interdict: m. ée: f. Interdicted, prohibited, inhibited, forbidden, inioyned to the contrarie.

Interdiction: f. An interdiction, prohibition, inhibition, iniunction, forbidding.

Interdire. To interdict, prohibit, forbid, inioyne, or giue charge to the contrarie.

Intereſſé: m. ée: f. Intereſſed, or touched in; dishonoured, hurt, or hindered by; wronged, grieued, pained.

Intereſſé de ſa perſonne. Of a weake, faint, crazie, or ſickly bodie.

La partie ciuile, & intereſſée. Looke Partie.

Intereſt: m. An intereſt in, a right or title vnto, a thing; alſo, intereſt, or vſe for money, &c, lent; alſo, loſſe, dammage, hurt; hinderance, wrong, ſuſtained in reputation, or eſtate; or (as a French Lawyer deſcribes it) the loſſe one hath vndergone, or profit he hath failed of, by the default of another; and hereof he makes two kinds; viz.

L'Intereſt conventionnel. Celuy qui eſt promis par convention, & contract fait entre les parties, ou vient de la nature du contract, & eſt appellé vſure au Droict Romain.

Intereſt iudiciaire: Qui vient de l'office du Iuge, ou eſt adiugé par iceluy. This is double; viz. celuy qui procede de la nature de la cauſe; (& vient des pourſuittes temeraires, fuites, calomnies, ou tergiverſations de la partie adverſe; qui ont eſté cauſe de faire à celuy qui a obtenu pluſieurs frais vains, & inutiles, leſquels ne viennent en taxe de deſpens:) Et celuy qui prent origine de la choſe meſme qui eſt controuerſée, & à eſté ſouffert à cauſe d'icelle; comme execution, empriſonnement, trouble, ſpoliation, refus de tradition de la choſe, &c; Hence, Les dommages, & intereſts.

Ie y ay grand intereſt. It neerely concernes, or touches me.

Il n'y a pas grand intereſt en cela. It greatly boots not, it is not a pinne matter.

Interject: m. An interpoſition; a ſpeech put in, a word caſt betweene.

Interjecter. To interiect, or interpoſe; to caſt, put, ſet, betweene, or among; to bring in, or foiſt into the middle of; Looke Interjetter.

Interjection: f. An Interiection (in Grammar;) alſo, an interpoſition; or, the allegation of ſome matter, or vſing of ſome tricke, in the middle of a cauſe, thereby to croſſe, or alter it.

Interjetter. as Interjecter.

Interjetter vn appel. To appeale, not in reſpect of the whole cauſe, but for ſome ſmall, or by point thereof.

Interieur: m. eure: f. Interior, inward, priuate, neere vnto.

Interieurement. Inwardly, priuatly, within.

Interiné. as Enteriné.

Interiner. Looke Enteriner.

Interlocation: f. An interlocation, interplacing, interpoſition.

Interlocution: f. An interlocution, interpoſition, or interruption of ſpeech; alſo, as Sentence interlocutoire.

Interlocutoire: com. A ſtay, prolonging, or deferring of (ſentence in) a cauſe in reſpect of ſome reaſons alledged.

Interlocutoire: com. Interlocutorie; interrupting, ſpeech interpoſing; taſting in a word that giues a ſtop to, or breeds delay in, a cauſe.

Sentence interlocutoire. An opinion, or ſentence of Court, which fully ends not the cauſe, but determines of ſome circumſtance thereof; Or (as in the Cuſtomes of Nivernois) Qui ne fait fin au procez, mais reigle les parties à faire quelque choſe pour parvenir à cette fin.

Interloquer. To interpoſe ſome ſpeech, or ſpeake in another mans tale; alſo, to delay a cauſe by ſome new allegation; or, to ſtay the whole, for a while, by ending onely ſome part thereof.

Interlunaire: m. The ſeaſon betweene the going out of the old, and comming in of the new, Moone.

Internediat. In the middle, or intermedium; that is betweene two; that lyeth, or happeneth, betweene both.

Intermettre. To intermit, or put betweene; alſo, to ſlacken, diſcontinue, giue ouer, ceaſſe, leaue, or put off for a time.

Interminant. Boundleſſe, borderleſſe, vncertaine; alſo, as Intermittant.

Interminé: m. ée: f. Vnbounded, boundleſſe, infinite, endleſſe, vndeterminable.

Interminer. To preſcribe.

Intermis: m. iſe: f. Intermitted, diſcontinued, pawſed on, left off for a ſeaſon, let paſſe for a while.

Interniſſion: f. An intermiſſion, diſcontinuance, pawſe; a ceaſing, or breaking off for a ſeaſon; a leauing, or letting paſſe for a while.

Intermittant. Intermittant, intermitting, diſcontinuing, pawſing, or ceaſing for a time; comming and going (as an ague) by fits.

Interne: com. Internall, inward.

Internecion: f. An vniuerſall ſlaughter, a generall killing.

Internément. Internally, inwardly, within.

Interoſſel: m. elle: f. Betweene bones.

Interpellateur: m. An interrupter, diſturber, troubler, incomberer; alſo, a ſuitor, or interceſſor.

Interpellation: f. An interruption, diſturbance; let, incombrance; alſo, a ſummons; requeſt, ſuit, interceſſion.

Interpellé: m. ée: f. Interrupted, let, hindered, incombered; alſo, ſummoned, or called vpon; alſo, required, or moued vnto, by interceſſion; alſo, intermiſſiue, or, that comes (as an ague) by fits.

Interpeller. To interrupt, let, hinder, trouble, incomber; alſo, to ſummon, or call vpon; alſo, to require, or moue vnto, by interceſſion.

Interpolation: f. A poliſhing, ſcowring, ſmibiſhing, new dreſſing of things.

Interpoſé: m. ée: f. Interpoſed; ſet in, put betweene; intermingled, or intermedled.

Perſonnes interpoſées. Sticklers betweene partie and partie, Arbitrators, Mediators, Daycsmen.

Interpoſement. as Interpoſition.

Interpoſer. To interpoſe; to put, or ſet betweene; to interlace, intermeddle, intermingle; alſo, to intermit, pawſe, delay, driue off.

Interpoſer ſon iugement de. To giue his iudgement, vtter his opinion, paſſe his allowance of.

Interpoſition: f. An interpoſition, or putting betweene; an interlacing, or intermingling; alſo, an intermeddling in, or ſtickling of, controuerſies; alſo, an intermiſſion, pawſing, delaying, letting paſſe, breaking off, for a time; alſo, an approbation, or allowance giuen.

Interpoſition de temps. A pawſe, reſpit, intermedium, interim.

In-

Interpretateur: m. An interpretor, expositor.
Interpretation: f. An Interpretation, Comment, Exposition; Translation.
Interprete: m. An interpretor, trucheman, expounder, translator.
Interpreté: m. ée: f. Interpreted, expounded.
Interpreter. To interpret, expound; translate, shew the meaning, tell the signification, of.
Interpreter à mal. To take in bad part, to conceiue ill, or iudge hardly, of; also, as;
Mal interpreter. To mistake, misconster; mistrust, misdeeme.
Interregne: m. An interraigne, or Interregnum; the space, or gouernment betweene the death, or deposition of one Prince, and the entrance, or election of another.
Interrogant: m. The Interrogatiue point, made thus?
Interrogant. Demaunding, asking.
Interrogat: m. A questioning, demaunding, examining.
Interrogateur. A questioner, demaunder, examiner.
Interrogation: f. An interrogation, question, demaund, examination.
Interrogatoire: f. An interrogatorie; a question ministred vnto an examinant.
Interrogué: m. ée: f. Interrogated, questioned, demaunded, examined vpon interrogatories.
Interroguer. To interrogate, question, demaund of, examine vpon interrogatories.
Interrompre. To interrupt, stop, disturbe, or breake off in the middest.
Interroy: m. A Regent, or Protector, that gouernes a State from the death, or deposition of one Prince, to the entrance, or election of another.
Interruption: f. An interruption, let, stop, disturbance, discontinuance; In Law, C'est vn acte qui entrecoupe le cours de la prescription, & ne souffre le temps prefini se continuer, & parfaire.
Intersigne: m. A signe, or token of.
Intervalle: m. An Interual, Intermedium, respit, pawse, or space betweene; also, the flesh-daies between Christmas and Ashwednesday.
Sans intervalle. Continually, incessantly.
Intervallé: m. ée: f. Respited, put in distances, done by pawses.
Intervenir. To interpose himselfe, to come in the Interim, to preuent, or come betweene.
Intervenir l'arrest. To preuent, or stay sentence in a cause.
Intervention: f. An interuention, or comming between; an interposition, a preuention.
Intervenu: m. uë: f. Interposed, preuented, come betweene.
Interversion: f. A wrongfull turning, or conueighing away of; a purloyning, deceiuing, beguiling; also, an ouerthrowing, or turning vpside downe.
Interverti: m. ie: f. Interuerted; conueyed, or turned the wrong way; hence also, purloined; and beguiled, or deceiued; also, ouerturned.
Intervertir. To interuert; conuey, or turne the wrong way; (hence) to purloine; beguile, deceiue; also, to ouerthrow, ouerturne, or turne vpside downe.
Intestat. Intestate, that dies without a will.
Droict d'intestat. A Priuiledge which the next of kinne vnto one that dyes intestate hath, to seize on all he left behind him.
Intestin: m. An intestine, inward, intrall, gut, bowell.
Intestin affamé. The hungrie gut; one of the three small guts that lye toward the right side of the vpper part of the nauell; euer kept emptie by the Mesenterick veines which passe from it vnto the Liuer.
Intestin borgne. The blind gut; Looke Borgne.
Intestin cuillier. as Boyau culier.
Intestin douzedoigtier. A small gut, or intrall seated on the right side; and which, descending obliquely towards the back-bone, ends where the circumuolution of the rest of the Guts begins.
Intestin droict. The straight gut, or arse-gut.
Intestin entortillé. The wreathed gut; one of the three small guts which lye towards the left side vnder the nauell; tis verie ruddie, and makes many windings which extend vnto the Os sacrum.
Intestins tenuës. The small guts wherein the meat passeth out of the stomacke.
Intestin: m. ine: f. Intestine, inward, priuie, hidden; despightfull, rancorous, deadlie.
Intestinal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, the Intestines.
Veine intestinale. Seeke Veine.
Intheriner. as Enteriner.
Inthiné. Looke Intimé.
Inthronization: f. An inthronization, or inthroning.
Inthronizé: m. ée: f. Inthronized; placed in a throne.
Inthronizer. To inthronize; to place in a royall throne.
Intimant. An Appeallant; or, one that cites his aduersarie vpon an Appeale.
Intimation: f. An intimation, signification, denunciation, shewing, letting to wit, or giuing to know; also, an Adiournement, Citation, or Summons of a partie in an Appeale, and in cases wherein the Judge proceeds of course to right the plaintife though the defendant appeare not.
Intimé: m. L'in. An Appeallee; the defendant in an Appeale.
Intime: com. (Most) inward, secret, heartie, especiall, deere, intirely affected.
Intimé: m. ée: f. Intimated; signified, shewed, notified, denounced; also, adiourned, cited, summoned, warned to appeare (in an Appeale.)
Officier intimé. An Officer chosen by the King, and confirmed by Parliament.
La partie intimée. as L'Intimé.
Intimément. Inwardly, secretly, heartily, deerely, intirely, effectually, especially.
Intimer. To intimate, signifie, shew; denounce, proclaime; set on broach; also, to adiourne, cite, summon, bring an Action against; (especially in cases wherein a Iudge proceeds of course to right the plaintife, though the defendant appeare not.)
Intimer le Seigneur. A Tenant to sue an Appeale against his Lord, for denying to right him in his Court.
Intimidation: f. A fearing, skaring, affrighting, terrifying.
Intimidé: m. ée: f. Feared, skared, terrified, affrighted.
Intimider. To feare, skare, terrifie, affright.
Intirable: com. Not to be drawne, or pulled out.
Intitulation: f. An intitulation, or intituling; a denomination, a description.
Intitulé: m. ée: f. Intitled, or intituled.
Intituler. To intitle; denominate; describe.

ntolerable: com. Intollerable, insupportable, vnsufferable.
Intolerablement. Intollerably, vnsufferably.
Intolerance: f. Impatiencie.
Intonation: f. A lowd noise, tune, sound; a rumbling, or thundering.
Intonation de gare & ſerre. See Gare.
Intouchable: com. Vntoucheable.
Intractable: com. Intractable, harsh, vngentle, hard; wild, hagard, vnrulie, outragious; vnsociable, inconuersible, vncompanable.
Intrade: f. Reuenue, rent, profit comming in.
Intraictable: com. as Intractable.
Intrans: m. Senior Sophisters; such as prepare themselues to commence Batchelers.
s'Intregenter. Looke s'Entregenter.
Intrication: f. An intrication, or intricating; an intangling, insnaring, pestering, fettering; Laborinth, Maze; inwrapping, inuolution.
Intrinqué: m. ée: f. Intricated, intangled, incombered, perplexed, in a Laborinth.
Intrinquément. as Intriquément.
Intrinquer. as Intriquer.
Intrinseque: com. Intrinsecall, inward, secret, familiar.
Intrinsequement. Intrinsecally, inwardly, on the inside; verie familiarly.
Intrique: f. An intricacie, Laborinth, Maze, pesterment, incombrance, perplexitie, difficultie.
Intriqué. as Intrinqué.
Intriquément. Intricately, perplexedly, intangledly; darkly; difficultly.
Intriquer. To intricate, perplex, pester; insnare, inuolue, intangle; incomber.
Introduction: f. An introduction; a leading, or bringing in, or vnto; a way, entrance, beginning to; an institution.
Introduire. To introduce; lead, or bring in; to inuent, begin, broach, bring vp; also, to enter, instruct, or trayne vp in.
Introduit: m. ite: f. Introduced, brought in, begun, broached, brought vp; entred, or trayned in.
Introite: m. An entrance, entrie, beginning, or going into.
Intronisation: f. An inthronization, or inthronizing.
Intronisé: m. ée: f. Inthronized, placed in a throne.
Intronisér. as Inthronisér.
Intrus: m. uſe: f. Intruded, thrust into.
Intruſion: f. An intruſion; a wrongfull intruding, or thrusting into the posſession of a vacant thing.
Intruz: m. An intruder; an vsurper of the posſession of a vacant thing.
Intuitif: m. iue: f. Intuitiue; which is, or may be seene into.
Intumeſcence: f. A swelling, puffing, vprising.
Invadé: m. ée: f. Inuaded.
Invader. To inuade, assaile, assault, enter, or set vpon in a forcible, or hostile manner.
Invaincu: m. uë: f. Vnvanquished, vnouercome; as yet in heart, or on foot.
Invalide: com. Impotent, infirme, vnable, strengthlesse, forceleſſe, feeble, worthlesse.
Invalider. To weaken, debilitate, infeeble, make forceleſſe, impaire the strength, debase the worth, disgrace the vertue of; also, to infringe, dissolue, confute.
Invariable: com. Vnvariable, immutable, vnchangeable; alwaies of one hue, euer in one humor.
Invaſible: com. Inuaſible, inuadible.

Invaſion: f. An inuaſion; an hostile assault, or incurſion.
Invective: f. An Inuective; a rayling, biting, opprobrious discourse, or speech.
Invectiver. To inueigh, reuile, rayle vpon.
Inventaire: m. An Inuentorie; List, Roll; Memoriall, Record, Regiſter of many seuerall things; In Law, contient vne brieve description des pieces que la partie produit.
Inventé: m. ée: f. Inuented, found out; contriued, deuiſed; fained, imagined, surmiſed.
Inventer. To inuent; to find, or spy out; to deuiſe, forge; contriue; imagine, faine, surmiſe.
Inventereſſe: f. An inuentreſſe, or inuentrix.
Inventeur: m. An inuenter, contriuer, deuiſer, finder out; an author, framer, forger; fainer, surmiſer.
Inventif: m. iue: f. Inuentiue, wittie, plotting, full of tricks, fraught with deuiſes.
Invention: f. An inuention; a finding out, or thing found out; a deuiſe, forgerie, conceit; also, a tricke, shift; surmiſe, imagination.
Invention Saincte Croix. The Inuention of the holie Croſſe; a ſolemne holyday celebrated by the Church of Rome on the third of May; also, a ſhift, or deuiſe to get money.
Invention Saincte Eſtienne. Another holyday kept the third of Auguſt.
Inventorié: m. ée: f. Inuentoried; digeſted into, or couched in, an Inuentorie.
Inventorier. To inuentorie; to take an Inuentorie of; to digeſt into an Inuentorie.
Inventorizer. as Inventorier.
Inventrice. as Inventereſſe.
Invers: m. erſe: f. Inuerted, misplaced, peruerted, wreſted to a contrarie ſence, vttered one for another; turned in and out, inſide outward, vpſide downe.
Inveſti: m. ie: f. Inueſted; inrobed, indowed; alſo, inwrapped.
Inveſtir. To inueſt; inrobe, inſtall, indow, put into poſſeſſion of; alſo, to inwrap; alſo, to ioyne (a word of Horſemanſhip.)
Inveſtiſon: f. An inueſting, or inueſture; an inrobing, inſtalling, indowing, inſtituting, putting into poſſeſſion.
Inveſtiture: f. An inueſtiture, or inueſture; an inſtitution, inſtallment, indowment.
Inveteré: m. ée: f. Inueterate, old, auncient, of long vſe, rooted by cuſtome, ſetled by continuance.
s'Inveterer. To inueterate, grow old; become rooted, or come to a habite, by cuſteme.
Invigilance: f. Inuigilancie, ſleepineſſe, drowſineſſe, lazineſſe, lacke of waking.
Invincible: com. Inuincible, vnvanquiſhable, vnſubduable, vnconquerable.
Inviolable: com. Inuiolable; moſt firme; not to be corrupted, infringed, or broken.
Inviolablement. Inuiolably; faithfully.
Inviolableté: f. Inuiolableneſſe.
Inviolé: m. ée: f. Inuiolate; ſound, pure, vncorrupted, vnhurt; vnbroken, firme, conſtant, faithfull, true.
Invitation: f. An inuitation, or inuiting; a bidding, or deſiring; an allurement, or inticement vnto.
Invité: m. ée: f. Inuited, bidden; deſired, intreated; allured, inticed vnto.
Invitement. as Invitation.
Inviter. To inuite, bid; deſire, intreat; allure, intice, vnto.
Invocation: f. An inuocation, or calling vpon.

Mots

Mots d' invocation. Coniuring tearmes.
Involontaire : com. Inuoluntarie ; againſt the will of.
Involucre : m. A couer, cloke, or thing that ſerues to hide.
Involver. To inuolue, enwrap, infould; intricate, inſnarle, intangle.
Involution : f. An inuolution, enwrapping, infoulding ; inſnarling, intricating, intangling.
Involution de procez. A iumbling, or confounding of a ſuit, in ſort, that one knowes not what to make of it, or is further from ending it then he was when he began.
Invoqué : m. ée : f. Inuoked, called vpon.
Invoquer. To inuoke, or call vpon ; to require, or intreat helpe of.
Invoqueur : m. An inuoker.
Inuſité : m. ée : f. Vnuſed, vnwonted, vnuſuall ; diſuſed, diſaccuſtomed, diſcontinued, left off.
Inutile : com. Vnprofitable, vngainfull, incommodious, vnſeruiceable; of no worth, for no vſe, to no purpoſe.
Il n'eſt iamais inutile. He is alwayes well imployed, he is neuer idle.
Inutilement. Vnprofitably, incommodiouſly, vnſeruiceably.
Inutilité : f. Inutilitie, vnprofitableneſſe, diſprofit, vnſeruiceableneſſe.
Invulnerable : com. Invulnerable, vnwoundable.
Io. as Moy : ¶Poictevin : ¶Rab.
Ioannes. c'eſt vn Ioannes. He is a Pedant, or poore Schoolemaiſter.
Ioannitiques. An Order of Monks that weare red habits, and the repreſentation of a Chalice on their breaſts.
Iobelin : m. A ſot, gull, doult, aſſe, cokes ; alſo, as Gobelin.
Iocondale. A Daller ; a peece of monty worth about 3 s. ſterl.
Iocquer. To ſtop, or ſtand ſtill, as a horſe, or cart, in the way.
Iodelle : f. A Sea-coot.
Ioeudi. Thurſday ; Looke Ieudy.
Ioffu : m. uë : f. Chuffie, fat-cheeked, ſwelled or puft vp in the face.
Ioiaulier. Seeke Ioyaulier.
Ioignant. (Partic.) Ioyning, coupling, yoaking, putting together.
Ioignant. (Adverb.) Neere vnto, hard by, cloſe adioyning, almoſt touching, bordering vpon.
Ioinct : m. A ioynt, ioyning, cloſure ; ſeame.
Ioinct : m. cte : f. Ioyned ; coupled, yoaked, grapled, put, couched, or cloſed together ; knit, aſſociated, or combined with ; alſo, raught, fetcht vp, ouertaken.
Ioinct que. (A Coniunction) furthermore, adde moreouer, as alſo that.
Ioincte : f. as Iointe.
Ioincture : f. A ioynt of the body, a knot in trees ; alſo, a ioyning, coupling, yoaking, cloſing, or couching together.
Ioindre. To ioyne, couple, yoake ; knit, cloſe, couch; aſſociate, or combine together ; to ſet neere, or bring hard, vnto ; alſo, to reach, or ouertake ; alſo, to buckle, grapple, or cope, as enemies, &c, together.
Iointe : f. A ioynt ; cloſure ; ioyning ; ſeame.
Iointée : f. A ioynt, or double handfull of; as much as can be held within both hands together ; In ſome countries of England it is called a yeaſpen, in others a goppen-ful of.

Ioletrin : m. A youngſter, or young gallant.
Ioli : m. iolie : f. Follie; gay, trim, fine, gallant, neat, handſome, feat, well-faſhioned, minion, compt, polite ; alſo, liuelie, merrie, buxome, iocond.
Iolice : f. A kind of ſoft, and tender ſtone which in froſtie weather falls vnto duſt.
Ioliement. Follily, gayly, trimly, finely, gallantly ; neatly, featly ; merrily, buxomely.
Iolier. as Geolier ; A Goaler.
Ioliet : m. ette : f. Neat, fine, tricke, feat, ſpruce, nice, prettie, and handſome.
Iolieté : f. Follitie, iollineſſe; gaineſſe, trimneſſe, fineneſſe, gallantneſſe; neatneſſe, handſomeneſſe, prettineſſe, comelineſſe ; liuelineſſe, iocondneſſe, mirth, buxomneſſe.
Ioliveté. as Iolieté.
Iombarbe : f. Houſeleeke, Sengreene; Looke Ioubarbe.
Ionc : m. A ruſh, or bulruſh.
Ionc agu. Our common hard ruſh, or ſharpe ruſh.
Ionc à cabas. The pole-ruſh, mat-ruſh, fraile-ruſh, pannier-ruſh, bull-ruſh, great water ruſh.
Ionc marin. The ſea-ruſh, or ſea-ruſh graſſe.
Ionc mariſc, ou de marez. The mariſh ruſh, ſmooth ruſh, candle ruſh.
Ionc odorant. The ſweet ruſh, Camells meat, Camells hay, Squinant.
Ionc à racines odoriferantes. Cypreſſe, Engliſh or Spaniſh Galingale.
Ioncade : f. A certaine ſpoone-meat made of creame, Roſe-water, and Sugar.
Ionché : m. ée : f. Strewed with, wrought of, ruſhes; couered, or ſpread ouer, as with ruſhes ; alſo, gulled, cogged with, deceiued, ieaſted, or toyed with.
Ionchée : f. A bundle of ruſhes ; alſo, a greene banke to ſit on, or way to goe in, ſtrewed with flowers, hearbes, graſſe, or greene ruſhes ; alſo, the ruſhes ſo ſtrewed ; alſo, a greene cheeſe, or freſh cheeſe made of milke thats curdled without any runnet, and ſerued in a fraile of greene ruſhes ; alſo, a handfull of ſmall Ivorie prickes wherewith maidens vſe to play.
Ionchement. A ſtrewing with, or making of, ruſhes ; alſo, a gulling, deceiuing, beguiling.
Ioncher. To ſtrew ; to ſpread, or couer (as) with ruſhes ; to worke, or make, of ruſhes ; alſo, to gull ; cog, or foiſt with ; lie vnto, deceiue, giue gudgeons, beare in hand with vntruthes ; alſo, to dallie, ieaſt, or toy with.
Ioncheur : m. A ſtrewer (as) with ruſhes ; a worker, or plaiter of things with ruſhes ; alſo, a lyer, cogger, foiſter, deceiuer ; or, a diſſembler, impoſter, abuſer of people with falſe tales, or ſhewes.
Ionchu : m. uë : f. Ruſhie, full of ruſhes.
Iong. as Ionc.
Iongler. To iuggle ; alſo, to play the Poet.
Iongleries : f. Jugling trickes, feats of legierdemaine; alſo, old Poeticall inuentions.
Iongleur : m. A Jugler : ¶Pic. alſo, a Rimer, or Poet.
Ionne. Young ; Looke Ieune (an old word.)
Ioquetter. To leacher ; or, to line, as a dog doth a bitch.
Iorroiſe : f. A horſe-plumme.
Ioſmin : m. The ſhrub Iaſmin, Ielſomin, Ieſſe.
Iota. A iot, point, or pricke : ¶Rab.
Iotte : f. (The hearbe) Beet, or Beets.
Iotteux : m. euſe : f. Claggie, clammie, cleauing.
Iou : m. as Ioug.
Iou. as Moy ; Me : ¶Gaſc.
Et iou mot. For my part I will be whiſt, or not ſpeake one word.
Ioüant. Playing ; gaming, ſporting, dallying, ieaſting, paſſing passing away the time.

En ſe ioüant. In ſport, game, ieaſt, boording, merrily.

Ioüarre : m. An old rimer, ballade-maker; or maker of Enterludes for children, and countrey folke to act.

Ioüart : m. A Windgall in the leg of a horſe.

Ioubarbe : f. Houſeleeke, Sengreene, Aygreene, Bullocks eye, Iupiters beard.

Ioubarbe arborée. Tree Houſleeke.

Ioubarbe femelle. as Ioubarbe à petites fueilles.

Ioubarbe à petites fueilles. The female ſmall Sengreene (with the pale-white flower) called wild Prickmadame, great Stone-crop, and Worme-graſſe.

Ioubarbe marine. Sea Houſleek, Sea Aygreen, hearb Aloes.

Ioubarbe maſle. Prickmadame, or Sengreene the leſſer, with the yellow flower.

Ioubarbe ſauvage. Mouſe-graſſe, wild Prickmadame.

Ioubarbe des vignes. Orpine, Liblong, Liuelong.

Grande Ioubarbe. Great Sengreen, great Houſleek, Iupiters beard.

Petite Ioubarbe. The male Prickmadame, or Sengreene the leſſer; alſo, Mouſetaile, Pricket, Stonehore, little Stonecrop, Wall-pepper, Countrey-pepper, Iacke of the Butterie.

Iouc : m. as Iuc; A henne-rooſt.

Ioucher. as Ioncher; To cog, to foiſt, &c; alſo, as Iucher; to rooſt, or pearch; whence;

Qui avec mal plaiſant ſe couche, ſouvent ſur luy le vent ſe iouche : Prov.

Ioudarde : f. A Sea-coot.

Ioue : f. The cheeke, the iowle.

Bailler par les iouës de. Looke Bailler.

Il luy en bailla parmy les iouës. He gaue him a ſound box on th'eare.

S'en batre les iouës. To repent throughly, or afflict himſelfe extreamely for.

Il s'en eſt donné par les iouës. He pulled, or ſnatched it violently vnto him.

Mal iouë qui fiert la iouë : Prov. He ieaſts but ill that hurts him whom he ieaſts with.

Ioué : m. ée : f. Played; gamed, ſported, dallied.

On s'eſt ioué de ſon cuir. Hee hath beene ſoundly whipped.

Iouée : f. The whole cheeke extending from the eyebrow to the chinne; alſo, a box, cuffe, whirrit, buffet on the cheeke, or eare.

Ioueigneur : m. A younger brother : ¶Breton.

Iouëlle : f. A yoake.

Iouëlles. Arched, or yoaked vines; vines ſo vnderpropped, or faſhioned that one may goe vnder the middle of them.

Iouër. To play, game, ſport; dallie, ieaſt; recreate, or ſolace himſelfe, paſſe away the time; alſo, to act, repreſent, or counterfeit (as a Comedian) the geſtures of another.

Iouër à l'amour. One to hold vp his fingers, and another, turned from him, to gheſſe how many he holds vp.

Iouër à bander & à racler contre. To deale in all extremitie againſt.

Iouër à boule veuë. Looke Boule.

Iouër à boutehors. To thruſt out the harlot; (a game in ſome vſe among Courtiers, and Competitors.)

Iouër des couſteaux. To fight; alſo, to eat hard, or beſtirre himſelfe apace, at a table.

Iouër des cymbales & manequins. To lecher: ¶Rab.

Iouër d'eſpée. To fence, or play at fence.

En Iouër de l'eſpée à deux mains. To doe what he liſt withall; alſo, to haue his hands full of; or to imploy both hands in.

Iouër le gros ieu. To play great game, to be at the faireſt; to throw away all at a caſt, to venture a whole reſt at once.

Iouër ſes ieux. To doe his feats, or play his prankes; alſo, to play reakes, or keepe a terrible coile.

Iouër ſon jeu. Il ne iouë pas aujourd'huy ſon jeu. He is cleane out of play.

Iouëz voſtre jeu. Play an aime caſt (at bowles.)

Iouër de la navette. To play faſt and looſe; or, a wench to enter a man into her Tables.

Iouër des Orgues. autant que paillarder.

Iouër au rabat. To make an abatement.

Iouër du rebec. Stubbornely to reſiſt, withſtand, or contradict.

Iouër à la ronfle. To ſnore; See Ronfle.

Iouër ſon roolle, ou roule. To play his part throughly, to lay about him luſtily.

Iouër le roule, ou roulet de. To act, or counterfeit the geſtures of.

Iouër au Roy deſpouillé. To leape ouer where the hedge is loweſt; to pull a fleece from a declining ſtate; to helpe him forward thats readie to fall.

Iouër du ſerrecropiere. To leacher : ¶Rab.

Iouër vne trouſſe. To giue a gudgeon; or, to ſerue a ſlie, or ſlipperie tricke.

Iouër de la veze. To play on the bagpipe; alſo, to fizzle.

Il iouë de moy à la pelotte. He handles me at his own pleaſure; he toſſes, or vſes me he cares not how.

Se iouër a. To mocke, deride, frumpe, ieaſt with.

Il veut ſe iouër à elle. He would be doing with her, he would faine haue a flirt at her.

Ne te iouë pas à luy; ne t'y iouë pas. (Said, by way of admonition, vnto one that intends to quarrell with a man of greater ſtrength, or meanes then himſelfe) meddle not with him.

Il ne ſe faut pas iouër au boeuf : Pro. An Oxe is not to be dallied with.

Mal iouë qui fiert la iouë : Prov. He that will ieaſt muſt doe it gently.

Iouëreſſe : f. A woman-gameſter, player, ſporter.

Iouët. A ſhittlecocke.

Iouëts. Toyes; little ſports, apiſh plaies, prettie or childiſh paſtimes.

Iouëté : f. for Ieuneſſe; (an old word.)

Iouëur : m. A player, gameſter; dallier, ſporter.

Iouëur d'eſpée. A Fencer.

Iouëur de farces. A Comedian, Stage-player, or common Player.

Iouëur de Moralitez. An Enterlude-player; alſo, a Buffoone, or profeſſed Ieaſter.

Iouëur de paſſe paſſe. A Iugler.

Il n'eſt ieu qu'à iouëurs : Prov. There is no playing with any that cannot play.

Ioufflu : m. uë : f. Chuffie, fat cheeked, ſwolne, or puſt vp in the face.

Ioug : m. A yoake; alſo, the head of a Lute, Viol, &c; alſo, the croſſe-beame of a balance; alſo, as Iouc; a henne-rooſt.

Faire ioug. To yeeld, obey, ſubmit himſelfe.

Faire faire ioug. To tame, ſubdue, bring vnder, to reduce vnto obedience.

Iougal. l'os iougal. Th'end, or outward part of the cheeke bone towards the eare.

Iougler. as Iongler.
Iougleur. as Iongleur.
Iouï: m. ie: f. Enioyed, vſed, poſſeſſed, had.
Iovial: m. ale: f. Iouiall, ſanguine, borne vnder the Planet Iupiter.
Iovien: m. A Iouialiſt; one thats naturally, and by complexion, pleaſant, or ſanguine.
Iouigleur. Seeke Iongleur.
Iouïr. To enioy; poſſeſſe, hold, occupie, vſe; to take the profit, receiue the fruit, haue the fruition of.
Iouissance: f. An enioying; poſſeſſing, occupying, holding; fruition, whole fruite, full vſe, abſolute poſſeſſion of.
Iouncher. as Ioncher; (an old word.)
Iour: m. A day; alſo, light, or day-light; alſo, the ſhadow, or luſter thats giuen vnto a picture by a skilfull workeman; alſo, a Court, or pleading place.
Iour artificiel. Th'artificiall, or tradeſmans day; continues from the riſing, to the ſetting, of the Sunne.
Iours de ceſſation. A vacation.
Iour civil. The ciuile day; continues (as Iour naturel*) 24 houres, but differs in the beginning, by the different vſe, or conſtitutions of ſeuerall nations; whereof ſome (as the Chaldeans, and Perſians) begin it from Sunne-riſing; others (as the Iewes, Athenians, auntient Ægyptians, and moderne Italians) from Sunne-ſet; others (as th'Vmbrians) from noone; and others (as th'auntient Romanes, and at this day, the French, Spaniards, Germanes, and the moſt part of the people of our world) from midnight.*
Iour de la Chandeleur. Candlemas day.
Iour egal. Th'Equinoctiall, or Equator; the day that is as long as the night.
Iour d'vne feneſtre. The hole, or whole compaſſe of a window, whereby the light comes in.
Iour de loy. A Hall day, Court day, Law day.
Iour de morts. All-ſoules day.
Iour naturel. The naturall day; conſiſts of 24 houres.
Iour de pain perdu. Shroue-tewſday.
Iour de Palais. as Iour de loy.
Iour des Roys. Th'Epiphanie, or Twelfth day in Chriſtmas.
Iour de la Saincte croix. Crouchmeſſe day.
Iour du Sainct Sacrement. Corpus Chriſti day.
Iour ſervant. Looke Servant.
Iour du toile. A day of pleading, a Court day.
Les trois iours de tenebres. The three dayes next before Easter.
Iour haut, ou haut iour. High adayes, at broad day-light, farre on the day.
Iour de ma vie. Neuer, not ſo long as I line.
Les bons iours. The holy-daies of Chriſtmas, or of any other good time.
Les Grands iours. An extraordinarie Seſſions, called by vertue of the Kings Commiſſion, or Letters Patents directed vnto certaine Iudges of the Parliament (within the precincts whereof it is to be held) and appointing them, what place they ſhall ſit in, how long they ſhall ſit it; what cauſes they ſhall deale in, and how farre they ſhall proceed in them: The Peeres of France haue alſo their Grands iours, which they hold once, or twice a yeare, for the execution of their higheſt Iuriſdiction, and for the hearing of Appeales from their owne inferiour Courts.
Vis à iour. Looke Vis.
A iour. Tranſparent; or ſo made, ſo cut, &c, as one may ſee through it in diuers places.
Au iour la iournée. Poorely, barely, needily, in more then from hand to mouth.
Au demy iour. Halfe ſhadowed, halfe appearing.
De iour. In the day time.
Pour à tous les iours. For the workie dayes, or to be vſed euerie day.
Bacchus eſtant ſorti par le iour de Iupiter; viz: Out of the ſlit he made in his thigh for Bacchus to lie in.
Bailleur de beaux iours. A cogging, glozing, or fawning companion; one that vſes many faire (but effectleſſe) words.
Bailleur de bons iours. The ſame; or, an ordinarie ſtreet-ſaluter.
Donner iour à. To grace, beautifie, giue light, or luſter vnto.
Donner iour à ſa deſpence. To labour to get his expences a reputation; or, ſo to manage them as the world may take moſt notice of them.
Faire iour. Day to breake, or to appeare; (hence, Compere ie dors, il ne fait pas encore iour. I am not for you good neighbour;) alſo, to make a hole, or open a paſſage, for light to come in at.
Faire iour à. To make way, or open a paſſage, for another.
Faire iour en. To open; to paſſe, or pierce through and through.
Pierres qui ne portent point de iour. Stones that be not tranſparent.
Trouver ſon iour. To die.
Vn iour iuge de l'autre, & le dernier iuge de tous: Prov. One day another, and the laſt all, iudges.
A bon iour bonne eſtreine: Prov. Looke Eſtreine.
A bon iour bon oeuvre: Prov. The better day the better deed; Looke Oeuvre.
Ce qui ſe faict de nuict paroit de iour: Prov. The workes of darkeneſſe are at length diſcouered.
Ia ne chante le coq ſi viendra le iour: Prov. Though the cocke neuer crow day will appeare.
Il n'eſt ſi grand iour que ne vienne veſpre: Prov. The longeſt day will haue a dawning.
Il n'eſt qu'vne mauvaiſe heure au iour: Prov. There is but one ill (or vnluckie) houre in the day.
Il ſuffit au iour de ſa miſere: Prov. One miſerie is ynough at once.
Le coeur fait l'oeuvre, non pas les grands iours: Prov. as in Oeuvre.
Longues paroles font les iours courts: Prov. Long words make ſhort dayes; a long diſcourſe makes time to ſteale away.
Nul ſoir ſans iour: Prov. Looke Soir.
On revient ſage des iours: Prov. In time fooles get experience.
Nous achetons tout fors le iour, & la nuict: Prov. All things are vendible ſaue day and night.
Quoy que fol tarde iour ne tarde: Prov. Time ſtayeth not on fools; or, though the foole ſtay, time ſtaies not.
Iournal: m. as Iournau; alſo, as Livre, ou Papier Iournal.
Iournal: m. ale: f. Iournall; daily; done in, or belonging to, the day.
Livre, ou papier iournal. A Iournall, Diarie, day-booke, Regiſter kept of dailie occurrences.
Iournalier: m. A Iourney-man; one that workes by the day; alſo, a certaine poiſonous hearbe, which being eaten of, kills within a day.
Iournalier: m. ere: f. Dailie, quotidian; ordinarie, continuall; alſo, vncertaine; to day one way, to morrow row ſowther ; whence ;

Vn homme iournalier. An inconſtant or fickle headed ; alſo, a careleſſe or unprouident, fellow ; one that is ready for the preſent.

Iournau : m. A quantitie of land not much differèt from the Arpent ; and in ſome countries (as in Champaigne) the verie ſame : Or, as much land as a yoake of Oxen can plough vp in one day ; (which is of clay-land about an Acre, and of ſandie ground about an Acre and a halfe.)

Iournau Bourdelois, ou de la ville de Bourdeaux. (Where in notwithſtanding it is but little knowne, and leſſe vſed) containes in breadth 112 foot, in length 224 foot, theſe foot (termed thereabouts, pieds de terre) are by an eighth part in three quarters longer then ordinarie ones.

Iournau de Bourgogne (en terre, ou Vigne.) Containes 360 Perches, or Poles.

Iournau de Bretaigne. Is 20 Cords long, and foure broad, of 24 foot to the Cord.

Iournau Engoumoſin. (The true Iugerum of th' antient Latines) is 120 foot broad, & 240 long ; or (which comes to the ſame proportion,) 20 fadomes broad, and 40 long.

Iournau de Xainctongne. Containes 100 ſquares, or iron chaines, each of eighteene linkes, and euerie linke a foot in length.

Iournée : f. A day, or whole day ; alſo, a day of battell, or the battell it ſelfe ; alſo, a dayes worke, or labour ; a dayes iourney, or trauell.

Iournée blanche. A holy-day, or play-day ; called ſo by ſome countrey people.

Iournée des Eſperons. The battell of Spurres, woon, in the yeare 1513, by the Engliſh vpon the French, poſſeſſed with a ſuddain feare, and preferring one paire of heeles before two paire of hands.

La iournée d' vne geline. An egge.

Iournée ſeruante. Looke Seruant.

Au iour la iournée. Onely from hand to mouth.

Il a touſiours ſa iournée faite. He is a loggerhead, or dull fellow.

Bonne iournée fait qui de fol ſe délivre : Prov. He does a good dayes worke that rids his hands of a foole.

Les grands boeufs ne font pas le grandes iournées : Prov. Looke Boeuf.

Iournellement. Daily, day by day, euerie day.

Iournel : m. A quantitie of land (in the Seigneurie of Conty in Clermont) containing 100 roods, of 24 foot to the rood.

Iournicur : m. A daily worker. (v. in.)

Iouſte : f. A luſt ; a luſting, or Tilting ; alſo, a fight, or battell.

Iouſte. (Adverb.) Neere to, nigh adioyning, hard by, towards, beſide.

Iouſter. To luſt, Tilt, or Turney ; to runne one againſt another ; alſo, to fight, or bicker ; as ;

Faire iouſter les coqs. To ſet the Cockes together by the eares.

Iouſteux : m. euſe : f. Luſting, full of luſting, that loues to luſt.

Iouvence. as Ieuneſſe. Youth.

Iouvenceau : m. A youth, ſtripling, lad, ſpringall, young man.

Argent frais & nouueau rime le iouvenceau : Prov. Looke Argent.

Iouvencel. as Iouvenceau.

Iouuer. as Iouſter (Adverb.) Alſo, according to.

Iouy. as Ioui.

Ioyallier : m. A Jeweller ; A Marchant, or maker of Jewells.

Ioyau : m. A Jewell.

Ioyaulerie : f. Jewelling ; the trade, or myſterie of Jewelling.

Ioyaulier : m. A Jeweller.

Ioye : f. Joy, mirth, glee, gladneſſe, reioycing, iocundneſſe, comfort, pleaſure, delight, lightneſſe of heart.

Ioye de papillon. Short ioy, momentarie gladneſſe.

Fille de ioye. A punke, or pleaſant ſinner.

Ioye au coeur fait beau teint : Prov. Looke Teint.

Ioye triſte coeur trauaillé : Prov. Sad mirth denotes a troubled mind.

Ioyeuſement Joyfully, merrily, gladly, blithely, iocundly, cheerefully.

Ioyeuſeté : f. Joyfulneſſe, cheerefulneſſe, iollitie, iocundneſſe.

Ioyeux : m. euſe : f. Joyfull, joyous, glad, merrie, iocond, blithe, buxome, frolicke, iolie, cheerefull, pleaſant, gameſome.

Ioyeux comme vn eſmerillon. We may ſay, as crank as a Cocke Sparrow.

Plus ioyeux que rats en paille, ou fourmis en grain. More iocond then Rats among chaffe, or Ants among corne.

Ioyeuſe, & riche vie pere, & mere oublie : Prov. Looke Vie.

Ique. Les Maux terminez en ique font au medecin la nique : Prov. Looke Nique.

Ira. (The third perſon of the Future Tenſe of the Verbe Aller ; whence ;) Il n'en ira pas ainſi. The matter ſhall not be carried in that manner.

Iracond : m. de : f. Angrie, teaſtie, cholericke, waſpiſh, fumiſh, pettiſh, quickly moued, ſoone diſpleaſed.

Iraigne. in ſtead of Araigne. Mot villageois.

Irascible : com. Cholericke, ſoone angred, ſubiect vnto anger.

Ire : f. Ire, anger, choler, chafing, fuming, pettiſhneſſe, wrath, rage, moodineſſe, indignation.

Ire de freres ire de Diables : Prov. Brothers fuire, diueliſh fullie.

Douce parole rompt grand ire : Prov. Great anger is by gentle tearmes aſſwaged.

Iré : m. ée : f. Angred, chafed, vexed, put into choler.

Ireuſement. Irefully, wrathfully, ſtomachefully.

Ireux : m. euſe : f. Irefull, wrathfull, ſtomachefull, moodie, fumiſh, choleriche, ſoone moued, quickly vexed, eaſily diſtempered.

Irin : m. ine : f. Of Ireos.

Iris : f. The rainbow ; alſo, a Flowerdeluce.

Iris de Florence. The Flowerdeluce of Florence, whoſe root yeelds our Orice powder.

Pierre d' Iris. Some call ſo, th' Opall, becauſe it reſembles a rainbow ; others, a ſtone thats of the kind, and colour, of the Girofale, but much harder then th' ordinarie one.

Irrachetable : com. Vnredeemable ; not to be bought, had, or got againe, at any price.

Irradiation : f. An irradiation ; an inlightning, or caſting of beames ; a ſhining vpon.

Irraiſonnable : com. Vnreaſonable, outragious, beaſtlie, brutiſh.

Irrecevable : com. Vnreceiuable, vnintertainable, not to be welcomed vnto.

Irreconciliable : com. Irreconcilable, vnreconcilable ; moſt contrarie, at extreame oddes.

Irrecuperable : com. Vnrecouerable, vnrepairable, wholly wholly loſt, fully gone.

Irrefragable : com. Irrefragable, vnbreakable, inuiolable, vnreuocable.

Irregularité : f. Irregularitie, vnrulineſſe, diſorder, outlashing.

Irregulier : m. ere : f. Irregular, vnrulie, without rule, disorderlie, diſſolute, lawleſſe.

Irregulierement. Irregularly, vnorderly, lawleſſy, without rule.

Irreligieuſeté : f. Irreligion, want of religion; Atheiſme, vngodlineſſe.

Irreligieux : m. euſe : f. Irreligious, without religion.

Irremarquable : com. Vnremarkable, not to be marked, no way to be noted.

Irremeable : com. Vnreturnable, or, from which one cannot goe backe.

Irremediable : com. Remedileſſe, redreſſeleſſe, recureleſſe, irrecuperable, vnrecouerable.

Irremediablement. Remedileſſy, vnremediably.

Irremiſſible : com. Vnremittable, irremiſſible, vnpardonable.

Irremiſſiblement. Vnremittably, irremiſſibly.

Irremittent. Vnintermiſſiue, continuall, without any pauſing.

Irreparable : com. Irreparable, vnrepairable, vnreſtorable, vnrecouerable.

Irreparablement. Irreperably, vnreſtorably, vnrecouerably.

Irrepaſſable : com. Vnrepaſſable, ouer which no returne can be made.

Irreprehenſible : com. Irreprehenſible, blameleſſe, vnreprouable.

Irreprehenſiblement. Irreprehenſibly, blameleſſy, vnreprouably.

Irreprochable : com. Vnreproachable; not ſubiect vnto imputation; pure, ſincere.

Irreprovable : com. Vnreprouable, faultleſſe, vnblamable.

Irrequiet. Reſtleſſe, vnquiet, actiue, buſie, turbulent, euer ſtirring.

Irreſpectueux : m. euſe : f. Vnreſpectiue, inofficious, rude.

Irreveillable : com. Vnwakable, in a dead ſleepe.

Irreveland. Vnrecealable, not to be reuealed.

Irreveremment. Vnreuerently, rudely.

Irreverence : f. Irreuerence, want of reuerence, vnmanerlineſſe, vnreſpectfulneſſe.

Irreverent. Vnreuerent, vnreſpectfull, vnmanerlie, rude, proud.

Irrevocable : com. Irreuocable, vnrecallable.

Irrevocablement. Irreuocably, vnrecallably.

Irriſion : f. Irriſion, mocking, flowting, ſcoffing at; a deriding, or laughing to ſcorne.

Irritation : f. An irritation, or ſtirring vp; an incenſing, urging, or moouing vnto anger; a prouocation; an appetite.

Irrité : m. ée : f. Stirred, incenſed, urged, nettled, prouoked, angred.

Irriter. To irrite, ſtirre, vrge, nettle, incenſe, prouoke, moue vnto anger, put into choler.

Irriter les freſlons. To prouoke an angrie perſon.

Irrogé : m. ée : f. Impoſed, inioyned; laied, or ſet vpon.

Irruption : f. An irruption; a forcible entrie; a violent burſting, or breaking into.

Iſars : m. The wild Goats of whoſe ſkinnes our Shamois leather is made : ¶Langued.

Iſchie : f. The Sciatica, or Hip-gout : ¶Rab.

Iſchine : f. The backe-bone.

Iſchion : m. The huckle-bone, or hip-bone.

Iſciatique : com. Troubled with the Sciatica; pained in the hips.

Iſlaye : f. A willow, or withie groue; a bouli, or plot wherein Oziers, or twig-withies grow; alſo, a great bundle, multitude, or quantitie of Ozier twigs.

Iſle : f. An Iſle, or Iſland; alſo, a houſe that ſtands by it ſelfe in the middle of a ſtreet.

Os des Iſles. Looke Os.

Iſlette : f. A little Iſland.

Iſleux : m. euſe : f. Iſlandie; full of, or bolonging to, Iſlands.

Iſlois : m. An Iſlander; one that dwells in an Iſle.

Iſnel : m. elle : f. Quicke, light, fleet, ſwift, nimble, actiue, liuelie, ſpeedie, readie.

Iſnellement. Fleetly, ſwiftly, lightly, quickly, nimbly, actiuely, liuelily, readily.

Iſope : f. (The herbe) Iſop, or Hiſop.

Iſopleure. A triangle, or other figure, whereof all the ſides be equall.

Iſſant. I'issant d' vn tombereau. as Timon.

Iſſant. Going, flowing, or iſſuing, forth.

Iſſir. To iſſue; to goe, or depart out; to flow forth.

Iſſu : m. üe : f. Iſſued; flowen, ſprung, proceeded from; come, riſen, bred, or borne, of.

Iſſuë : f. The iſſue, end, ſucceſſe, euent, or proofe of matters; alſo, the toll, or cuſtome paied for marchandiſe exported.

Les iſſuës d' vne beſte. The head, and intralls of a beaſt.

Droict d' iſſuë. The ſame; alſo, the fine thats due vnto a landlord vpon the ſale, or alienation of his tenants eſtate; or as in;

Ventes & iſſuës. Iſſues; or, iij s. iiij d. vpon euerie pound thats taken for land ſold by a tenant.

Iſtau. as Tel; Such a one : ¶Poictevin.

Iſte-miſte. Parler en iſte-miſte. To ſpeake nicely, ſprucely, quaintly, finically; to ſimper, or affect it, in ſpeech.

Iſthme : m. An Iſthmus; a necke, or narrow peece of land between two Seas; alſo, the bridge, or middle part of the noſe.

Iſtiomené. as Eſtiomené : ¶Rab.

Italianizer. To Italianize it; to ſpeake Italian, play the Italian, doe like an Italian.

Italienniſer. The ſame.

Item. vn item. A parcell; a ſmall peece, or ſumme.

Iteratif : m. ue : f. Iteratiue, repeating, redoubling, reinforcing.

Iteration : f. An iteration, repetition, renewment, reinforcement, redoubling, reiſoones-doing.

Iterato. C'eſt vne ſeconde Commiſsion, ou decret de la cour de Parlement, par lequel il eſt mandé de mettre à execution ce qui avoit eſté ordonné, nonobſtant le ſurſan; ou pour paſſer outre à l' execution d' vn executoire de deſpens, nonobſtant oppoſition, ou appellation, pour avoir eſté taxez en la preſence de la partie condamnée: Comme auſsi en finance l'on vſe de lettres d' Iterato, & nouveau mandement : ¶Rageau.

Iterer. To iterate, reiterate, repeat, redouble, doe eſtſoons, or againe.

Ithiobole : m. A ſwallower of bits, or morſels : ¶Rab.

Ithyphalle : m. A ſtanding vp: ¶Rab.

Itineraire : m. An Itinerarie, or directorie for the way; a Booke, or paper wherein the length, and courſe of high-wayes be delineated.

Iubé: m. as Iuppe; Alſo, a high place made for ſingers, or other Muſitians, ouer ſtages, &c.

Faire venir a iubé. To compell vnto reaſon.

Iube: f. The (thicke) mane of a horſe, &c.

Prendre vn lion par les Iubes. as in Lion.

Iubé: m. ée: f. Thick-maned, like a horſe, &c.

Iubilation: f. Iubilation, exultation, great ioy, much gladneſſe.

Iubilé: m. A Jubilie; a yeare of releaſing, libertie, reioycing.

Iucheoir: m. A rooſt, or pearch for pulleine to reſt on.

se Iucher. To rooſt, or pearch (in a rooſt) as pulleine doe; Looke Ioucher.

Iucondale: f. A Daller; a coyne worth about 3 s. ſterl.

Iudaïque: com. Iudaicall, Iewiſh, of Iurie.

Herbe Iudaïque. Jewes bearbe, Tetrabit, Glidewort.

Pierre Iudaïque. A faire white ſtone faſhioned like an Acorne, & compaſſed with many lines in equall diſtance aſunder.

Iudaïſer. To Judaiſe it, play the Jew, iiue after the maner of the Iewes.

Iudas: m. Iudas.

Aureille de Iudas. (The Muſhrome called) a Iewes eare.

Bran de Iudas. Freckles, or freckled pimples in the face.

Iudicature: f. Iudicature, Iuſtice, Iudgement; hence;

Office de Iudicature. A Iudges place.

Iudiciaire: com. Iudging, imperious; belonging to a Iudge, or Iudgement; alſo, iudiciarie, indiciall, done in Court.

Appellation iudiciaire. celle qu'on interjecte des ſentences, appointemens, & actes qui ſe donnent, les choſes eſtans conduictes en Iugement; & ſe fait tant de vive voix, que par eſcript.

Faveur iudiciaire. The fauour done by a Iudge vnto a ſuitor.

Intereſt iudiciaire. Looke Intereſt.

Iudiciairement. Iudiciarily, iudicially.

Iudiciel: m. elle: f. Iudiciall.

Iudiciellement. Iudicially; according to the law, by due courſe of law.

Iudicieuſement. Iudiciouſly, wiſely, vnderſtandingly.

Iudicieux: m. euſe: f. Iudicious, wiſe, much vnderſtanding, or of great vnderſtanding.

Ive: f. (The bearbe) Ive.

Ive arthritique. Field Cypres, bearbe Ive, ground-Pine, Forget-me-not.

Ive muſcate. The ſame.

Ive muſquée. The ſame; alſo, Pellamountaine, white Poley.

Iuene. Looke Ieune.

Iuge: m. A Iudge, Iuſtice; Commiſſarie; a righter of cauſes, a decider of quarells, an ender of controuerſies.

Iuges es finances. Certaine Officers who examine, and controll the Kings expences, and th'accounts of the Receiuors, &c.

Iuges & Conſuls des marchands. as in Conſul.

Iuge deſſous l'orme. The Iudge of a village, or of the Courts of an inferiour Gentleman; ſo tearmed becauſe he commonly ſits to heare cauſes vnder ſome Elme &c that growes in the highway before the Gentlemans gate.

Iuge pendanée. as Iuge deſſous l'orme; and called ſo becauſe he is not to ſit on a Tribunall, or high ſeat, but on ſome bench, or banke neere to the ground.

Iuges de la porte. In S. Lewis his time three of the Maiſters of Requeſts were ſo tearmed, becauſe they ſat all the day long within the bars of the Court gate, there to receiue petitions; which if they contained ordinarie ſtuffe, they diſpatched preſently, but if they were extraordinarie, or concerned the State, they acquainted the King withall.

Iuge à quo. From whom (or ad quem, to whom) a partie appeales.

Iuge veher. Looke Veher.

Il en aura la taux du Iuge. He will be ſoundly payed, or throughly plagued, for it.

Nos Iuges n'ont Dieu devant les yeux, ny ſes Saincts. An equiuocall ieaſt; for, in many Courts of France, God and the Saints are pictured in the roofes, and commonly iuſt ouer the Iudges heads.

De fol iuge breve ſentence: Prov. A fooles boult is ſoone ſhot.

Iuge: f. A ſtaulke, or branch.

Iugé: m. ée: f. Iudged, adiudged, doomed, ſentenced, decreed; determined, ordered; awarded.

Iugement: m. A iudgement, ſentence, doome, decree; determination, order, award; the finall deciſion of a controuerſie; alſo, aduice, conceit, opinion; alſo, capacitie, diſcretion, vnderſtanding, inſight into matters.

Fiens de chien, & marc d'argent ſeront tout vn au iour de iugement: Prov. All will be one at the later day (ſay we.)

Iugeolle: f. as Iugioline.

Iuger. To iudge, doome, ſentence, decree; determine, decide, order, award, cenſure; alſo, to deeme, thinke, imagine, conceiue, eſteeme; diſcerne, apprehend.

Vn iour iuge de l'autre, & le dernier iuge de tous: Pro. This day of the laſt, the laſt of all, doth iudge. Finis coronat opus.

Iugere: m. A (Romane) furlong; 240 foot long, and 120 broad.

Iugerie: f. A Court, or ſeat of Iuſtice; alſo, the iuriſdiction, liberties, territorie, or precincts of a towne.

Iugioline: f. Th'Indian oylie pulſe, or white graine Seſamum; alſo, the plant that beares it.

Iuglande. noix iuglande. A Wallnut.

Iugulaire: com. Of, or belonging to, the throat.

Veines iugulaires. Looke Veine.

Iuïf: m. A Iew.

Iuïfve: f. A Ieweſſe.

Iuïfverie: f. The Iewrie, or the part of a towne thats inhabited by Iewes; alſo, Iewdeiſme; the religion, or ſect of the Iewes.

Iuillet: m. (The moneth) Julie.

Iuillet roſat. A ſyrop made with Roſe-water and Sugar.

Iujubes: f. The fruit, or plumme called Iuiubes.

Iule: f. A ſmall worme that reſembles the many-legd Scolopendra, or Palmer; alſo, an Italian coyne worth about 6 d. ſterl.

Iulep: m. A Iulep, or Iuleb; a drinke made either of diſtilled waters and ſyrops mixed together; or of a decoction ſweetned with hunie or ſugar, or elſe mingled with ſyrops; and miniſtred commonly as a preparatiue to open the paſſage of the inward parts, and to fit the humors for a purgation.

Iumeau. as Gemeau; A twin; alſo, a yong, or little mare.

Iumelet: m. A yong, or little twin.

Iumelle. A female twin, or ſiſter twin; alſo (in Blaſon) a Barre Gemeau.

Iumelles. The cheekes, or ſide-beames of a preſſe.

Iument: f. A mare; alſo, water (in old French.)

La

La grande iument Margot qui ſe bride par la queuë. A Ship, or Gallie; See Margot.
Iamais coup de iument ne fit mal à cheval: Prov. A womans blow nere hurt the man ſhe loued.
Iune, & Iuner. as Ieune, & Ieuner.
Iunjubier: m. A Iuiube tree, or plant.
Iunonique. Belonging to Iuno: Oeſtre Iunonique. Looke Oeſtre.
Iuoil: m. A white, and tranſparent fiſh, that is no bigger then a mans finger.
Ivoire: m. Ivorie, Elephants tooth.
Ivoirin: m. ine: f. Of Ivorie, like Ivorie.
Iupin. Iupiter.
Iupineſque: com. High, Soueraigne, Iouiall, Iupiter-like.
Iupiter: m. The God, or Planet Iupiter; alſo, tinne; ſo tearmed by Alchymiſts.
Iupon. as Gippon; A ſhort Caſſocke.
Iuppe: f. A ſhepheards pelt, frocke, or gaberdine; ſuch a courſe long iacket as our Porters weare ouer the reſt of their garments; (hence) alſo, a caſſocke, long coat, looſe ierkin.
Iupper. To whoot, ſhowt, crie out alowd; (an old word.)
Iurande: f. An oath, depoſition, ſwearing.
Iuratoire: com. Swearing, or, to be ſworne.
Iurats de Bourdeaux. Are as the Eſchevins, or Sheriſes in other Cities.
Iuraye. as Yvraye.
Iuré: m. ée: f. Sworne, depoſed, that hath taken an oath.
Iurez. Sworne Maiſters in any Science, Trade, or faculty.
Taille iurée. Which is leuied, and paied without aſſeſment, or any examination of the ſubiects abilitie.
C'eſt meſtier iuré il n'en eſt pas qui veut: Prov. Looke Meſtier.
Iurée: f. A Iurie; or rather a certaine companie of ſubſtantiall perſons ſummoned, and ſworne to giue in euidence betweene partie and partie.
Les Bourgeois de Iurée. Sworne Burgeſſes, or freemen.
Droict de Iurée. An yearelie dutie payed in old time vnto the Earles of Champaigne by all their ſubiects; viz. vj. d. in the pound vpon all their mouables; and ij. d. in the pound for all their immouables; yet might any of them be quit for iiij. s. ſterl. a yeare. At this day the King, and other Lords of Iuriſdiction receiue, in ſome places, the like from their Burgeſſes, or freemen.
Taille & iurée. as Taille iurée.
Iurement: m. An oath, depoſition, ſwearing; the taking of an oath; a rapping out of an oath.
Iurer. To ſweare, depoſe, take an oath, rap out an oath.
Iurer és mains d'autruy. (The old faſhion of ſwearing) Looke Main.
Il iure comme vn Abbé; chartier; gentilhomme; prelat. Like a Tinker, ſay we.
Ivreſon: f. (Th' act of) drunkenneſſe.
Iureur: m. A ſwearer, or depoſer; one that takes an oath, or often raps out oathes; alſo, a Iuror, or witneſſe depoſed, whether to vtter the truth, or his knowledge.
Iuridiciant: m. A Iudge, or Magiſtrate; one that executes iuſtice, or deliuers the law.
Iuridicié: m. A partie, ſuitor, client; one that hath (or would haue) iuſtice done him; one that is in law.
Iuridique: com. Of, or belonging to, the law; alſo, actionable, ſuable, or which may be put in ſuit; alſo, iuſt, orderlie, iudiciall.
Iuridiquement. Iudicially, orderly, iuſtly, lawfully, according to law.
Iuriſconſulte: m. A Lawyer.
Iuriſdiction: f. Iuriſdiction; authoritie, or power to adminiſter iuſtice, and execute lawes; (En droict la Iuriſdiction ne ſignifie que la nue Iuſtice ſans commandement: ¶ Loyſeau.)
Iuriſdiction fieffale. The Iuriſdictiõ a Landlord hath ouer his Tenants; or the priuiledge he hath to heare and determine the ſuites commenced againſt them, and all other complaints, or controuerſies touching his, or their tenures.
Baſſe Iuriſdiction. Looke Baſſe Iuſtice.
Iuriſprudence: f. The skill, or knowledge of lawes; alſo, the ſtile, or forme of the law.
Iuriſte: m. A Lawyer; alſo, a great ſwearer.
Iuron: m. An oath.
Iuroye: f. Darnell, Ray, Iueray.
Ius: m. Iuyce, liquor, ſap, moiſture; pottage, broath.
Ius. Adverb. Downe, or to the ground; whence;
Ruer ius. To ouerthrow.
Mettre ius la ſaye. To put off, or lay by, his coat.
Iuſcle: f. The little Seafiſh tearmed a Cackerell.
Iuſier: m. The giſerne of a bird.
Iuſques. Till, vntill, vnto.
Iuſques à ie ne dis mot; c'eſt, iuſques au cul, ou au con.
Iuſques à vous autres. Euen you your ſelues.
Iuſquiame: m. The weed Hogsbane, or Henbane.
Iuſquiame blanc. White Henbane; called ſo of it white flower, and ſeed.
Iuſquiame iaulne. Yellow Henbane, Engliſh Tobacco.
Iuſquiame noir. Blacke Henbane; hath great and ſoft ſtaulkes, broad and downie leaues, and bell-flowers yellowiſh in the top, and browne toward the bottome.
Iuſsion: f. A commaundement, appointment, expreſſe order ſet downe, expreſſe charge giuen.
Iuſt: m. as Ius; Iuice.
Iuſte: com. Iuſt; equall, indifferent, impartiall, incorrupt, rightfull, vpright, ſincere, lawfull, reaſonable; due, right, euen, iumpe, leuell, ſtraight; full, perfect; euen as it ſhould be.
Iuſtement. Iuſtly, equally, indifferently, impartially, vprightly; lawfully; duely, euenly, ſtraightly; fully, perfectly.
Iuſteſſe: f. Iuſtneſſe, iumpneſſe, euenneſſe, true time, due meaſure, good proportion.
Iuſtice: f. Iuſtice, Law, rightneſſe, vprightneſſe, indifferencie, impartialitie; alſo, a paire of Gallowes, or place (or inſtrument) of execution; alſo, Iuriſdiction; (for which looke the next marginall word;) alſo, a Court of Iuſtice, or Iuriſdiction.
Iuſtice commutative. Equalitie in exchange.
Iuſtice correctiue. Penall iuſtice, puniſhment of offenders.
Iuſtice criminelle. That part of the law which deals with matters of life and death.
Iuſtice diſtributiue. Equall diſtribution, dealing, or dole; the giuing vnto euerie one his owne.
Iuſtice harmonique. Harmonicus, and iuſt proportion.

Iuſtice de ſerment. Triall of a cauſe by an oath miniſtred vnto one of the parties (an auntient forme of proceeding.)

Appeller, ou mettre en Iuſtice. To goe to law with; to ſue, or commence a ſuit, againſt.

Iuſtice: f. Iuriſdiction; power to adminiſter iuſtice, authoritie to execute lawes, or to keep a Court for either; Of three principall kinds, High, Meane or middle, & Baſe or low; (although the word Iuſtice ſimply, and by it ſelfe imports onely the laſt;) alſo, the precinct, libertie, or territorie, wherein a Lord may exerciſe any of thoſe kinds; alſo, the Court of ſuch a Lord.

Iuſtice cenſuelle, ou cenſiere. An action, or ſuit, for Cenſuel rights; or, power to determine of controuerſies that concerne his Cens: (A kind of Iuſtice fonciere.)

Iuſtice domaniale. as Iuſtice fonciere.

Iuſtice pour ſes droicts, & debites. Iuriſdiction vſurped by diuers Lords (of ample Cenſiues, and of many vaſſalls) for the righting of themſelues in the recouerie of duties withheld from them.

Iuſtice fonciere. (The ſecond branch of la Baſſe Iuſtice) Exerciſed by the Bas Iuſticier ouer his vaſſalls, and Tenants (at leaſt) for the preſeruation, and recouerie of his Seigneuriall dueties; (Diuers cuſtomes (as thoſe of Meaux, Valois, Xainctonge, S. Paul, and the priuat ones of Paris) haue vtterly reiected, and forbidden this kind of baſe Iuriſdiction; Others (as thoſe of Anjou, Touraine, le Mayne, and Lodunois) confound it with the firſt branch.)

Iuſtice manuelle. Quand le Seigneur, pour avoir payement des arrerages de ſa rente, ou charge, prent de ſa main namps ſur l' heritage en la preſence du Sergent, auquel il les delivre pour les diſcuter.

Iuſtice patibulaire à deux piliers. Belongs vnto a Lord High Iuſticer; Looke Pilier.

Iuſtice à ſang. So doe the Cuſtomes of Anjou, Touraine, and le Mayne, tearme La Moyenne Iuſtice; giuing the Lord thereof power to iudge, and execute theeues, and men-killers; and to that end allowing him to ſet vp a paire of gallowes.

Iuſtice du ſang, & du Larron. Power to take notice of blowes, and bloud-wipes (beſtowed in hot bloud) and of theeueries which be not capitall; conferred on the Lord of la Moyenne Iuſtice, by the cuſtomes of Picardie, and Flanders.

Iuſtice vicomtiere. la Moyenne Iuſtice; tearmed ſo in all the cuſtomes of la Gaule Belgique.

La baſſe Iuſtice. Baſe, or low Iuriſdiction; of two principall kinds; viz: Perſonall; which taketh notice of all perſonall Actions (not exceeding the value of 60 s. or not ſubiect to a greater amerciament then 7 s. 6 d. Tourn.) and reall, or fonciere; for which looke Iuſtice fonciere, and for more touching this kind of Iuriſdiction, ſee le Bas Iuſticier.

La haute Iuſtice. High Iuriſdiction, authoritie to iudge, and determine all criminall, or capitall matters (except high treaſons) and all ciuile Actions, or controuerſies, except the Royall caſes, and ſuch as concerne Gentlemen, their liberties, bigamyes; wherewith no Lord, in the onely right of haute Iuſtice, is to meddle; Seeke le haut Iuſticier.

Acte de haute Iuſtice. The condemnation of a malefactor, whether vnto death, or to indure ſome other corporall puniſhment.

Executeur de haute Iuſtice. An Executioner, or Hangman.

La moyenne Iuſtice. Meane, or middle Juriſdiction; authoritie to determine all ciuile controuerſies (except the before excepted in la haute Iuſtice;) and to proceed againſt ſome kind of malefactors, (as in le Moyen Iuſticier.)

Iuſticement: m. Th' effect, or execution of Iuſtice, or of Iuriſdiction.

Iuſticiable: com. Iuſticiable; vnder Iuriſdiction, ſubiect vnto ſuit, or lawes; that is to doe his ſuit vnto the Court of another.

Iuſticiaire: com. Of, or belonging vnto, Iuſtice, or Iuriſdiction.

Iuſticier: m. A Juſtice, or Juſticer; a Gentleman that hath (as almoſt euerie Gentleman of meanes in France hath) High, Meane, or Low Juriſdiction, within a certaine Precinct; or within his owne (or another mans) Territories: All Iuſticiers (though otherwiſe there be oddes ynough in their Priuiledges) muſt keepe Clerks; and Seales for Sentences, but not for Contracts, if they haue not Droict de Tabellionné, ou Notariat which onely ſome few high Iuſticiers haue:) They may alſo haue to the number of ſix Sergeants, and Goalers for the keeping of their priſons.

Le bas Iuſticier; ou, le Seigneur bas Iuſticier. One that hath baſe Juriſdiction (within a certaine Precinct) ouer his owne, or another mans, tenants; takes notice of reall, or perſonall Actions not exceeding the value of 60 s; or wherein a greater amerciament, or fine then 7 s. 6 d. Tour. lies not: With treſpaſſes a few Cuſtomes (as the reformed ones of Paris, and Meleun) allow him to deale, ſo they deſerue not a greater fine then that; but the moſt reſtraine him to perſonall matters, and thoſe eſpecially that concerne his own rights; (with which onely the Bas Iuſticiers of old time vſed to meddle; howſoeuer, their Iudges not content withall, haue in proceſſe of time incroached on cauſes bred in villages betweene partie and partie, touching ſeiſures, bounds, deliuerie of poſſeſſion, harme done by treſpaſſing beaſts, and other ſleight and pettie differences, that require a ſpeedie, and locall deciſion; for all which they are to keepe but foure Courts in a yeare:) Criminall perſons taken in the manner he muſt apprehend, and may keepe them in his priſon foure and twentie houres; but not longer, nor can he proceed further againſt them: Vpon euerie Confiſcation, Eſcheat, or Bien Vacant that falls within his Libertie bee may take 7 s. 6 d. Tourn. but they are ſo few, and that ſo little, as many Iuſticiers neglect it.

Le haut Iuſticier; ou, le Seigneur haut Iuſticier. A Lord of high Iuriſdiction; iudges, and determines all ciuile, and criminall cauſes (except, as in la haute Iuſtice) happening within his Libertie, or Precinct; To which end hee keepes a Iudge, or Garde de Iuſtice, at this time ſtiled higher (ſon Bailly, & Lieutenant,) who muſt bee learned, and a Graduate (for a Iudge that's no Graduate is not, in France, held worthie to pronounce the ſentence of death in an ordinarie Iuriſdiction:) And becauſe of his owne buſineſſes determinable (if they concerne the rights of his Iuriſdiction, or Seigneurie) in his owne Court, he alſo keepes a Procureur fiſcal, by the name, and worth of whom he pleads, euen as the King doth in higher Courts by his. He may hunt freely in his ſeaſons, ouer all the vnmoleſted grounds of his Liberties; Hee may fine his ſeruants, at his pleaſure; and once in his [illegible] them all ſeruice, to acknowledge no

no other Iuriſdiction then his; to preſerue, by all poſſible meanes, the priuiledges thereof; and to informe him of any that ſhall offer to incroach vpon them: He leuies to his owne vſe all fines, and confiſcations (except for high treaſon) all Eſcheats (except baſtards, & ſtrangers goods) and all Biens Vacans (except ſome kind of wreckes) accruing within his Precincts: In Normandie he cannot keepe malefactors in his priſon aboue 24 houres; after which (if he haue not the whileſt condemned them) he muſt ſend them vnto the next Supreame Lord; In other Prouinces he may keepe them longer, and euerie where puniſh, according to the cuſtomes of the countrey, all ſorts of them (euen to Sorcerers, Blaſphemers, & Idolaters;) Only he refers ouer to the kings officers, and Courts, all ſuch as commit, or be charged with, high treaſon.

Le Moyen Iuſticier. The Lord of meane, or middle Iuriſdiction; takes notice of all ciuile cauſes as well as the Haut Iuſticier (except in th'ordering of the ſeperation of goods betweene married folkes; th'interdiction of vnthriſts; & les Decrets; wherein he comes as far ſhort of him, as he goes beyond the Bas Iuſticier en le ſeellé, confection d'inventaire, emancipation, dation de tuteurs & curateurs, wherewith the Bas Iuſticier is not to deale:) But what criminall cauſes hee may take notice of is not agreed on by the cuſtomes of France; for ſome of them, as thoſe of Paris, Nivernois, and others, aſſigne him none but ſuch as are not finable aboue 60 s. (th'vtmoſt he can impoſe in any cauſe;) Others giue him power ouer Batteries, Bloudwipes, and ſleight felonies; Others ouer Manſlaughters, and capitall felonies: But others (the neereſt vnto the Common Law of France) permit him to iudge no offendors but ſuch as are to eſcape with life, & limme; And therfore his Iudge needs not be a Graduate: Nor hath he (as the Haut Iuſticier) a Procureur fiſcal (though he haue an Officer of almoſt the ſame nature, tearmed Procureur d'Office) becauſe he hath no fiſque, but onely an allowance of 60 s. Tour. out of euerie Confiſcation, Eſcheat, or Bien vacant, thats leuied, or gotten, in his Precinct.

Iuſticier. To iudge, gouerne, ſway, haue iuriſdiction ouer; chaſtiſe, correct, puniſh; execute the acts, or appointments of Iuſtice.

Iuſticier pour ſon fief. c'eſt, faire les ſaiſies.

Iuſtificatif: m. iue: f. Iuſtificatiue, iuſtifying, righting; making euen, or iuſt with.

Iuſtification: f. A iuſtification, purgation, cleering of.

Iuſtifié: m. ée: f. Iuſtified, purged, cleered,; alſo, made iuſt, euen, or equall with.

Iuſtifier. To iuſtifie, purge, cleere, excuſe; alſo, to make iuſt, euen, or leuell with.

Iuſvert: m. Greene-ſauce.

Iuveignerie: f. Youngerſhip; the condition, eſtate, or title of a younger brother: ¶Breton.

Iuveigneur: m. A younger brother.

Iuveigneurie; ou, Iuveigneurerie. as Iuveignerie.

Iuvenile: com. Young, youthfull, youthlie, childiſh.

Iuvenilement. Younglie, childiſhly, youthfully, youthlike.

K

KAlendrier: m. A Kalender, or Almanacke.
Son Kalendrier eſt rubriché: Her Kalender is full of Rubricks; (ſaied of a woman that hath her Tearmes.)

Kali. (The hearbe) Glaſſewort, Saltwort, Crab-graſſe, Frog-graſſe.

Karabe. The beſt yellow Amber; Bead Amber, Bracelet Amber. (Mot Arabique.)

Karat. as Carat.

Kareſme. as Careſme.

Karobbe; ou, Karoble; A Carob ſeed; alſo, the twentie fourth part of a grain (one of the leaſt weights thats vſed by Goldſmithes.)

Kebule. The biggeſt kind of the Mirabolan plumme; long, and ſomewhat like a Peare, or ſmall Leymon, in ſhape.

Kebus. as Kebules.

Keduſudure: m. The land Adder. (Mot Barbare.)

Keratoïde. Tunique Keratoïde. (as Cornée;) The hornie Tunicle of the eye.

Kermes. Scarlet berries, Scarlet graines; the ſeed of the Scarlet Oake.

Keſudure. ¶Rab. read Keduſudure.

Kitre. as Pois liquide; Tarre.

Kyriele; ou, Kyrielles. A multitude, or great number; alſo, a mightie coile, or noiſe.

Kyſt: m. A membrane; little skin, or bladder, within the bodie, containing ſuperfluous humors.

L

LA. An Article of the Feminine Gender (as in) La maiſon; the houſe; alſo, a Feminine Relatiue; (whence) Ne la voyez vous pas? See you not it, or her?)

La faire longue. To liue, abide, or ſtay, long.

Là. (An Aduerbe of place) There, thither, yonder, in that place; (alſo, of exhorting, or incouraging) Là, ou lalà; now now, goe to goe to; on there; againe there.

Là bas. Beneath, below; downe, downewards.

I'en ſuis là. I am of that mind, or humor.

Que diriez vous là. What would you ſay in that caſe?

Ils ne paſſeront iamais par là. They will neuer play that part, hold that courſe, yeeld vnto thoſe conditions.

Labdane: m. Labdanum; a fat, clammie, tranſparent, & ſweet-ſmelling Gumme, or liquor, gathered from off the leaues of the little ſhrub called Ciſtus Ledon; alſo, the ſweet oyle thats made thereof.

Labeche: f. A South-weſt wind.

Labeur: m. Labour, trauell, toyle, paines; worke, exerciſe; contention, diligence, indeuour.

Labeurer. Sometimes vſed for Labourer; whence;
En peu d'heure Dieu labeure: Prov. God workes his will in a ſmall while.

Labie: f. A lip.

Labier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a lip.
Veine labiere. The lip-veine; Seeke Veine.

Labile: com. Slipperie, vnſtable, fleeting, ſubiect vnto falling.

Laboration: f. A labouring, working, trauelling, moyling, toiling.

Labordean: m. A Haberdine.

Laborieuſement. Laboriouſly, painfully, toileſomely; diligently, induſtriouſly.

Laborieux: m. euſe: f. Laborious, painefull, toyleſome, difficult; induſtrious, diligent.

Labour: m. Tilth, tillage, husbandrie, labouring, ploughing, [illegible] vp of the ground.

Labourable: com. Labourable, workable, fit to be wrought on; also, nauigable.

Labourage: m. as Labour.

Labouré: m. ée: f. Laboured; wrought, trauelled, toiled; striuen, contended, indeuoured, in; also, tilled, aired, ploughed, husbanded.

Labourer. To labour, trauell, worke, toyle, moile, drudge, take paines; to striue, contend, indeuour, be diligent, in.

Labourer la terre. To till, aire, plough, breake vp, husband the ground; Labourer à bled la terre; to sow it.

Le grand boeuf apprend à labourer au petit: Pro. The great Oxe learnes the little one to worke.

Tout ce que le Clerc laboure folle femme devore: Prov. All that the Clerke can scrape his trull consumes.

Labouret: m. Shepheards purse, Shepheards pouch, Toi-wort, Caseweed, Pickepurse, poore-mans Parmacetie.

Laboureur: m. A labourer, worker, toyler; a Hind, ploughman, husbandman, labouring man; also, as Courtilliere.

Laboureur de nature. A mans yard.

Piece de laboureur salé. A peece of powdered beefe.

Labrusque: m. The wild (grape-bearing) vine.

Labyrinthe: m. A laborinth, maze; intricate matter.

Faire le tour du labyrinthe. To labour hard and be neuer a whit the neerer; also, to fall againe, after much adoe, into the matter he first handled.

Labyrinthé: m. ée: f. Made as a laborinth, framed like a maze; intricated; full of vnknowne crookes, creeks, turnings, windings.

Labyrinther. To make (or make like) a laborinth, or maze; to intricate; also, to wind, compasse, or turne many times in and out; to be full of many vnknowne crookes, or creekes.

Labyrintheux: m. euse: f. Most intricate; full of turnings, crookes, windings.

Lac: m. A lake; a great poole, or meere; also, a ginne, or snare; as in Laqs.

Lacé: m. ée: f. Laced; bound, or tied with a lace; also, snarled, or insnaring.

Lacement: m. A lacing; also, an insnaring; or a setting of snares for.

Lacer. To lace; to bind, or tie vp with a lace; also, to insnare; or to set ginnes, or snares for.

Laceration: f. A laceration, tearing, rending, dismembring, mangling.

Laceré m. ée: f. Lacerated, torne, rent, mangled, dismembred, peecemealed.

Lacerer. To lacerate, rend, peecemeale, teare, mangle, dismember.

Laceron: m. The Sow-thistle, Hares-thistle, Hares Colewort.

Lacert: m. A Lizard; also, the Viuer, or lesse Sea-dragon; tearmed so because it somewhat resembles a Dragon.

Lacerte. A fleshie muscle; tearmed so because it hath (as a Lezard) a long taile.

Lacet: m. The lace of a peticoat, a womans lace, or lacing; also, a snare, or ginne.

Lachrymal: m. ale: f. Weeping, bewailing; teare-like, dropping, moist: ¶Rab.

Laconiquement. Strictly, or sparingly (in life;) shortly, or pithily (in speech.)

Laconiser. To liue strictly, or sparingly; to speake briefely, or pithily.

Lacquay. as Laquay.

Lacque: f. Sanguine; rose or rubie, colour; (The true Lacca is an Armenian Gumme vsed in the dying of Crimsons, and afterwards (growne artificiall) imployed by Painters.)

Lacre: m. A confection, or stuffe, made of rosin, brimstone, and white wax mingled, and melted together; which growne cold is as hard as a stone, and cleaues inseperably vnto the thing thats closed with it; Our best hard wax is a kind of it.

Lactifiant: m. ante: f. as Lactifique.

Lactifique: com. Milk-breeding, milk-making, milk-yeelding.

Lacunaire: m. The maine beame of a house being somewhat arched; also, an arched seeling, or floore of boords.

Lacune: f. A puddle, pit, or ditch of standing water; also, a fenne, marsh, or waterish ground.

Lacustre: com. Lakie, belonging to a lake.

Ladane: m. The sweet Gumme Ladanum; comes of a fat dew, or liquor, gathered from the leaues of the shrub Cistus Ledon.

Ladre: com. Leaprous, lazerous; mezeld, scruie.

Herbe aux ladres. Fluellin, Speed-well, Ground-heele, Paules Betonie.

Riche comme vn ladre. Seeke Riche.

Celuy est bien ladre, il ne sent point quand on luy pique la chair. Appliable to a dullard, or a coward; one thats vnsencible and cannot, or fearefull and will not, feele the wrongs done to him.

Ladrerie: f. A Spittle for leapers, a place wherein they abide; also, leaprosie, scruinesse, meazeldnesse.

Ladrige: f. Leaprosie, leaprousnesse, meazeldnesse, scruinesse.

Ladronnerie: f. A denne of theeues.

Lagagne. Corne-rose, red Poppie: ¶Langued.

Lai: m. Breadth of cloth, &c; Seeke Lé, & Lais.

Lai: m. Laïe: f. Lay, secular; of the Layetie, none of the Clergie; temporall, vulgar.

Frere lai. A seruant in an Abbey, or Couent.

Laict: m. Milke.

Laict aigre. Whay; also, a sillibub, or merribowke.

Laict caillé. Curds, curded milke, fresh cheese.

Laict clair. Whay.

Laict esburré. Butter-milke.

Laict de nostre Dame. The white Thistle.

Le laict nouveau. Beest, or Beestings.

Laict Tabian. A milke thats verie healthfull for such as are in a consumption; of Tabia, a place in Italie, the aire whereof is said to haue the same vertue.

Laict Virginal. A milke compounded of the froth, or spume of gold steeped in vineger, and salt, infused in waters of Plantaine, Nightshade, and Roses.

Dent le laict. A coults tooth, or young tooth; also, a priuie grudge.

Eau de laict. Clarified whay; also, water of milke or drawne by stilliterie from milke.

Frere de laict. A foster brother.

Herbe à laict. Spurge, Milke-weed, Wolues-milke.

Herbe au laict. Sea Milke-wort, blacke Saltwort.

Petit laict. Whay.

Mouches en laict. A plaine matter, cleere case, euident demonstration.

Son espée a bien du laict. His sleeping sword (like a seldome-drawne vdder) hath surely store of milke in't.

Il a tetté de bon laict. He hath beene well bred; there is much worth, or a great deale of good ſtuffe, in him.

Yvre de laict caillé. Tipled, or diſtempered by a ſmall matter; whoſe weake braines are ouerturned by any weake liquor.

Vache de loing a laict aſſez: Prov. A forreine commoditie cannot be defectiue; we eſteeme that moſt that comes furtheſt.

Vin ſur laict c'eſt ſouhait, laict ſur vin c'eſt venin: Prov. Waſh thy milke off thy liuer, (ſay we.)

Laictages: m. White meates, milke meat.

Laictance: m. The fat, or ſoame of lime, or chaulke, reſembling milke, and therefore thus tearmed; alſo, as Laicte.

Laicte: f. The milt, or ſoft roe, of fiſhes.

Laicté: m. ée: f. Milkie.

Laictée: f. A litter of whelpes.

Laictence. as Laictance.

Laicterie: f. A Dairie, or milke-houſe.

Laicteron: m. The Sow-thiſtle.

Laicteron aſpre. The pricklie Sow-thiſtle.

Laicteron blanc. The white-flowered Sow-thiſtle.

Laicteron liſſé. Hares Lettuce; the ſmooth (or ordinarie) Sow-thiſtle.

Laicteron noir. The wild, and pricklie Sow-thiſtle.

Laictier: m. ere: f. Milkie, full of milke, milke-yeelding, made of milke.

L'herbe laictiere. Tythimal, Spurge, Milke-reed, Wolues-milke.

Vache laictiere. A milch Cow.

Laictifique: com. Milke-making, milke-yeelding.

Laictuë: f. Lettuce.

Laictuë aigre. The bitter wild Endiue, or narrow-leaued Endiue.

Laictuë capuſſe. Cabbadge Lettuce.

Laictuë de chevres. Lambes Lettuce, Corne ſallade.

Laictuë creſpe, ou creſpuë. Criſped, curled, wrinkled, or crumpled Lettuce.

Laictuë pommée. Cabbadge Lettuce, loafed Lettuce, headed Lettuce.

Laictuë Romaine. The greateſt kind of Cabbadge Lettuce.

Laictuë ronde. Loafed, or headed Lettuce, that grows cloſe by the ground.

Laictuë ſauvage. Wild Lettuce, greene Endiue; alſo, the hearbe Hawkeweed; alſo, the bitter wild Endiue, or narrow-leaued Endiue.

Laid: m. Laide: f. Foule, deformed, miſhapen, disfigured, ill-fauoured, ouglie, vncomelie; filthie; loathſome; vile.

Laid comme vn marpaut. See Marpaut.

Laide vilenie. as Laidange.

Laidange: m. Reproach, reuiling, railing, defamation; iniurious, opprobrious, or outragious language; a heinous imputation: (dequoy celuy qui a iniurié vn autre à tort ſe doit deſdire en iuſtice, en ſe prenant par le bout du nez: ¶Ragueau.)

Laidanger. To reuile, reproach, defame, diſcredite, raile on, outrage in words.

Laidangeux: m. euſe: f. Reproachfull, reuiling, opprobrious, defamatorie, ſlaunderous, contumelious.

Laidement. Foully, deformedly, miſhapenly, ouglily, ill-fauouredly; loathſomely.

Laideron: m. onne: f. Somewhat ouglie, prettie and foule.

Laideur: f. Foulneſſe, deformitie, ill-fauouredneſſe, ouglineſſe; filthineſſe, vileneſſe, loathſomeneſſe.

Laidoyer. as Laidanger.

Laie: f. Wood-ground, by meaſure, or quantitie of Arpens.

Laïer. c'eſt marquer les lais en vn bois taillis avant la couppe d'iceluy, pour les y laiſſer.

Laicte: f. as Layette.

Laignié: f. Wood: ¶Pic.

Laignier: m. A wood-yard, or wood-pile.

Laigs: m. Legacies; things bequeathed by will.

Laine: f. Wooll.

Laine de bois. Cotton, bombaſt, or bombace.

Laine ſourge. New-ſhorne, vnwaſhed, or greazie wooll.

Laine avec le ſuin. The ſame.

Mouton à la grande laine. Seeke Mouton.

Batre la laine. To lecher, to haire-beat it.

Demander de la laine à vn Aſne. To aske a thing of them which haue it not.

Tirer la laine. (In ſpinning of wooll) to draw the thread out; alſo, to twitch a cloake off a mans backe, and runne away with it.

A mol Paſteur le loup chie laine: Prov. A gentle ſhepheard makes the Wolfe ſhite wooll.

L'vn a le bruit l'autre lave la laine: Prov. Th'one gets the credit th'other takes the paines.

Qui n'a laine boiue à la fontaine: Prov. Let him that hath no wooll drinke at the well.

Laine-facture: f. Spinning, carding, working of woll; Cloathing; or the labour, or trade, of Clothiers.

Laineux: m. euſe: f. Woollie; full of wooll.

Marcher avec les pieds laineux. To goe ſoftly, tread gingerly.

Lairre: m. as Larron; A thiefe. (v.m.)

Lais: m. Trees, or buſhes, left as markes in a coppſe-wood; or, as Layes (in the later ſence.)

Laiſard: m. A Lizard; a Newt, an Aske; See Lezard.

Laiſarde: f. as Laiſard, or Lezard.

Laiſardin: m. Lizard-like; of, or belonging to, a Lizard.

Laiſche. as Leſche.

Laiſe: f. The breadth of a peece of cloth, ſtuffe, ground, &c.

Laiſſe: f. as Leſſe; Alſo, a leaſe of hounds, &c.

Laiſſé: m. ée: f. Left, relinquiſhed, layed apart, put off, giuen ouer, abandoned, forſaken, omitted, forgone; See Laiſſer.

Il a laiſſé ſes houſeaux. He hath tipped vp the heels; or is readie to doe it.

Laiſſer. To leaue, relinquiſh, lay apart, ſet aſide, put off, let alone, forgoe, let goe, forſake, abandon, giue ouer, omit.

Laiſſer les botes. Looke Botes.

Laiſſer courre. To hound, or let ſlip, a Dog at Deere.

Laiſſer dire. cela ſe laiſſe dire. That is commonly ſpoken; Ie me ſuis laiſſé dire cela. I was told that.

Laiſſer de l'eau en ſon moulin. To reſerue vnto himſelfe ſome worke, or ſomewhat to doe.

Laisser le ieu quand il eſt beau. To giue ouer a game at the faireſt; (Appliable either to a temperate, or an irreſolute, humor.)

Laiſſer la lancette dans la veine. Seeke Veine.

Laiſſer le monſtier ou il eſt. Not to change, or alter an auntient cuſtome (eſpecially of the Church.)

Laiſſer le moule du pourpoint. Seeke Moule.

On ne doit pas laiſſer bonne terre pour mauvais Seigneur: Prov. Rich land muſt not be left for a rigorous Landlord; nor a good countrey quit becauſe tis gouerned by a bad Prince.

Laiſſes: m. The leſſes (or dung) of a wild Boare, Wolfe, or Beare.

Laiſt: f. as Lé; or Lez.

Laitage: m. as Laittage.

Laite: f. The milt, or ſoft roe of a fiſh.

Laitille. A kind of whitiſh grey furre.

Laiton: m. Lattin (mettall.)

Laittage: m. The ballaſt of a ſhip.

Laitterie: f. as Laicterie.

Laive: f. A kind of tile.

Laiz: m. A Legacie; alſo, the increaſe that a riuer yeelds to a Lord (by an Iſland, or Hoult growing within it;) alſo, rews of ſhrubs, or buſhes marked out in a Copſe, or Vnderwood.

Laize: f. as Laiſe; Breadth.

Laizé de cuir. A ſcourge, or thong of leather.

A la grande laize. Amply, fully, or in full meaſure; alſo, at th'old rent.

Lamaneur: m. The Pilot of a ſhip.

Lambdoide. Commiſſure Lamb. A certaine ioynt, or ſeame in the hinder part of the ſcull.

Lambeau: m. A ſhread, rag, or ſmall peece of ſtuffe, or of a garment readie to fall from, or holding but little to, the whole; alſo, a Labell.

Lambeaux. Rags, or ſhreads; alſo, the ragged haire, or ragged (old) coat of a Deere.

Lambeaux de feu. Streakes, or flakes of fire.

Mis par lambeaux. Rent, or torne in peeces; ouerthrowne, ruined, ſpoiled.

Cela ne ſe trouve point es lambeaux des Iuriſconſultes. There is no law for that opinion; or, the ragged, and beggerlie interpreters of the law haue no ſuch thing among them.

Lambel: m. A Labell of three points; or a File with three Labells pendant; (The mark of an eldeſt ſonne, in Blazon.)

Lambeliner. To gull, deceiue, delude, beſot, bring into a foolcs Paradice.

Lambin: m. The great partie-coloured, and ſtinging Bumble, or Humble-bee; alſo, a great cokes, doult, hoydon, lout, loobie, fooliſh lubber.

Lambiqué: m. ée: f. Diſtilled by Limbeck.

Lambiquer. To diſtill by a Limbeck.

Lambourde: f. A Summer-tree, full of mortaiſes for th'ends of Ioyſts to lie in.

Lambrequin: m. The point of a Labell, or Labell of a File, in Blazon.

se Lambriquer le cerveau. To beat, puzzle, or toyle the head about.

Lambris: m. Wainſcot, ſeeling; alſo, a frettized, or embowed ſeeling.

Lambrissage: m. A wainſcotting, or ſeeling; alſo, an embowing, or frettizing in wainſcot.

Lambriſſé: m. ée: f. Seeled, wainſcotted; fretted, embowed.

Lambriſſement. as Lambriſſage.

Lambriſſer. To wainſcot, ſeele; fret, embow.

Lambruche. as Lambrunche.

Lambrum: m. Wainſcot, ſeeling.

Lambrunche: f. The wild grape-bearing vine.

Lambrunchement: m. Wainſcot, or, a wainſcotting.

Lambruſque. as Lambrunche.

Lame: f. A thinne plate of any mettall; (hence) alſo, a blade; alſo, a tombe, or tombe-ſtone; alſo, a great ſurge, or waue of the ſea, after a tempeſt; alſo, the reed, or ſley of a Weauers loome.

N'admirons le fourreau pour meſpriſer la lame. let not an outſide be admired to the neglect of th'inſide.

Lamen: m. as Lamentation.

Lamentable: com. Lamentable, wailefull, moneſull, dolefull, wofull, drierie, pitifull.

Lamentation: f. A lamentation, wailing, bewailing, waymenting, moaning; a pitifull complaint.

Lamenter. To lament, wayment, waile, weepe, complaine pitifully, make moane.

Lames: f. (The Plurall of Lame; alſo) th'earthie dregs, or droſſe of mettall after the firſt waſhing thereof.

Lamibaudichon. A tale of a tub, or of a roaſted horſe; alſo, a word vſed among boyes in a play (much like our Fox) wherein he to whom tis vſed muſt runne, and the reſt indeuor to catch him.

Lamie: f. A Breake-net; the greateſt, and moſt rauenous kind of Dog-fiſh.

Lamme: f. A thinne plate of mettall; a ſword blade; a ſhingle; or ſlate; a thinne planke, or boord; alſo, a braſon tombe, or tombe-plate; alſo, a Corſlet made all of rib-like ioynts to moue with, or be the more pliant vnto the bodie.

Lampas: m. The Lampaſſe (or ſwelling) in a horſes mouth.

Lampaſſé de gueules. Langued, or, whoſe tongue is red; (a tearme of Blazon.)

Lampaſt. as Lampas.

Lampe: f. A Lampe; alſo, the ſharpe-pointed Docke; (whence;)

Lampe de marais. The water Docke, water Sorrell, horſe Sorrell.

Cul de lampe. The bottome of an out-iutting roome, faſhioned like the foot of a Lampe.

De main en main vous eſt la lampe baillée. At length your turne is come; your courſe is now to ſpeake, &c.

Lampereau: m. The name of a black vine which yeelds very good wine.

Lamperon: m. A little Lampe.

Lampeux: m. euſe: f. Full of Lampes; of, or belonging to, a Lampe.

Lampier: m. A candleſticke, or branch, for a Lampe.

Lampiride: f. A Gloe-worme, or Glow-bird that ſhines by night.

Lamponner. as Lanterner.

Lamponnier: m. A vaine gooſe, a fond or idle companion.

Lampourde: f. The Cloat, or great Burre: ¶Langued.

Lamprillon: m. A Lamprill, or little Lamprey.

Lamproye: f. A Lamprey.

Lamproyon: m. A Lamprill, or ſmall Lamprey.

Lampſane: f. as Lampſans.

Lampſans: m. Docke-creſſes; (a wild pot-hearbe.)

Lampugos. A kind of Lobſters, which in cold weather hide themſelues in hollow places, and cannot be taken.

Lampugue: f. A kind of delicate ſmall-mouthed fiſh (in the Italian, or Adriatick ſea) which hath prickles both on her backe and bellie, and in ſtead of each rib ſeuen ſmall bones: ¶Marſeillois.

Lanage: m. Wollage; the trade of wooll, or gaine that's made thereof.

Lanc: m. A ſtroke in ſwimming; alſo, a ſpace, pauſe, interval, intermedium.

Lançade: f. A launch, hurle, throw, fling, darting.

Lance: f. A Launce; a (horſe-mans) ſpeare, or ſtaffe; alſo (the horſeman that beares it,) a Lanceere, or man of Armes;

Armes; alſo, the Maſculine line in a Pedegree.

Lance à boëte. A lance with a burre, or blunt head; a tilting ſtaffe.

Lance à bout d'or. A mans yard.

Lance de carriere. A ſtaffe to run at the Ring with.

Lance courtoiſe. as Lance à boëte.

Lance de S. Creſpin. A Shoomakers nawle.

Lance fournie. A man of Armes furniſhed at all points; viz. with fiue great horſes; two for himſelfe; one for his Armour-bearer; and two for two Archers to ſerue on; (beſides two others of leſſe value for his prouiſion, and baggage.)

Courir la lance. To tilt, or to runne at tilt.

Hà la bonne lance; &, o la hardie lance. (Phraſes commonly vſed in reproach, and to the diſgraece, of a Coward.)

Hardie langue couarde lance: Pro. Courageous language a cowardlie lance.

Lancé: m. ée: f. Throwne, hurled, flung, darted; alſo, pierced, pricked, or thruſt through; alſo, rowſed, or thruſt vp, as a Deere; alſo, thinne, lanke, meagar, leane, ſtarueling.

Lancelée: f. Ribwort Plantaine, Lambes-tongue.

Lanceman: m. A Compatriote, or Countreyman; (a word which the Frenchman borrowes of the Dutch to mocke him withall.)

Lancement: m. The ſame; alſo, a throwing, hurling, flinging, darting; alſo, a rowſing, or thruſting vp of a Deere.

Lanceole, & Lanceolette. as Lancelée.

Lance-peſſade: m. A Lancepeſado; the meaneſt officer in a foot-companie.

Lancer. (Violently) to throw, fling, hurle, dart; alſo, to pricke, pierce, bit, or ſtrike, as with the point of a lance; alſo, to rowſe, or thruſt vp, a Deere.

Se Lancer dedans. To runne headlong, or caſt himſelfe haſtily, into.

Se Lancer ſur. To runne fiercely, ruſh furiouſly, giue a violent, or hot charge, vpon.

Lanceron: m. A leg, or lacke; a Pickerell thats about a foot long.

Lancette: f. A Surgeons Launcet; alſo, a little lance.

Laiſſer la lancette dans la veine. Seeke Veine.

Lanceur: m. A hurler, darter, thrower.

Lanci: m. The Squinancie; alſo, a kind of ſtitch, or paine like a ſtitch.

Lancier: m. A Lance, Lanceere, Speareman; a horſeman that ſerues with a Lance; alſo, as Lanciere.

Lanciere: f. C'eſt vn ſommier mis à vn cheminée paſſant à travers le mur mitoyen d'un voiſin; alſo, as Abbée.

Lancinant. Pricking, ſtriking, or thruſting through; alſo, rending, or tearing with the teeth; alſo, waſting, or conſuming.

Lanciner. To pricke, ſtrike, open, or thruſt into (as with the point of a lance;) alſo, to rend, or teare with the teeth; alſo, to waſt, or conſume.

Lancy. as Lanci.

Lande: f. A Land, or Laund; a wild, vntilled, ſhrubbie, or buſhie Plaine.

Landgrave: m. A Lantgraue; the Earle of a Prouince.

Landie: f. The dead-lap in a womans Priuities (as in Landies;) whence;

Landie deſchiquetée. An ouglie nickname for an ouerridden Hackney (or Harlot.)

Landier: m. An Andiron.

Landies: f. The two Pterigones, or great wings within the lips of a womans Priuities.

Landits. as Lendits.

Landore: m. A rude clowne, gazing hoydon, ſtaring lowt; alſo, a leaden ſollow, poore ſneakesbie, man of dowgh. ¶Normand.

Landrivel: m. The Lanterne of a Ship.

Landyer. To cloy, wearie, trouble, be tedious vnto.

Laneret: m. The Hawke ſo called.

Lanfrelucher. To lecher. ¶Rab.

Langage: m. Language, talke, ſpeech; diſcourſe; alſo, a Language, or Tongue.

C'eſt vn langage du temps des hauts bonnets. This is an old wiues tale; or a faſhion of ſpeech cleane out of faſhion.

Langager: m. as Langageur, or Langagier.

Langager. To chat, pratle, bable, tattle, vſe many words.

Langageur: m. A prater, pratler, tattler, babler.

Langagier: m. ere: f. Prating, babling, tattling, full of tongue.

Langart. as Languard.

Langayer. To reaſon, diſcourſe, hold chat with; alſo, to worme, or ſearch the root of the tongue of a Hog, &c.

Langayerie: f. The worming of Hogs, &c.

Langayeur: m. A great talker; alſo, an Officer that ſearches the tongues of Market-Hogs, thereby to diſcerne whether they be ſound or no.

Lange: m. A kind of ſea-bird, which diuing into the bellie of a Whall, feeds on his heart.

Langeots: m. Little Swath-bands, or clouts of wooll for little children.

Langes: m. Woollen Swath-bands, or clouts for little children.

Langoureuſement. Languiſhingly; faintingly, droopingly, as one thats wholly decayed.

Langoureux: m. euſe: f. Languiſhing, drooping, pining, faint, failing in ſtrength, drayned of (naturall) moiſture, depriued of vigor.

Langouſte: f. A Locuſt, or Graſhopper; alſo, a kind of Lobſter that hath vndiuided cleyes, a long beake (or beard) and prickles on her backe.

Langouſtin: m. A great (or the greateſt) Prawne. ¶Langued.

Langoyer. To languiſh, or pine away.

Langrole: f. The Newte, Aske, or ſmall Lizard that haunteth old, and ill-kept houſes. ¶Langued.

Langrouſt: m. The ſea-Creuice; or, as Langouſte.

Language. as Langage.

Languagier. as Langagier, or Languard.

Languard: m. A blab, long-tongue, prating companion.

Languarde: f. A babling goſſip, tattling houſwife, chatting dame; a tittle-tattle, or twattle-basket; a wench whoſe tongue neuer lyes.

Languayeur. as Langayeur.

Langue: f. A Tongue (the inſtrument of ſpeech;) alſo, a Language, Tongue, Speech; a phraſe, or forme of ſpeech; alſo, a particular Nation, or People vſing a peculiar ſpeech; whence, Ceux de la langue de France, d'Angleterre, d'Eſpagne; the French, Engliſh, or Spaniſh Nation; alſo, the bearbe Adders tongue.

Langue de bœuf. Lang de beuf, Ox-tongue, rough or ſmall Bugloſſe; alſo, a kind of weapon vſed in old time.

Langue de bouc. Wild Bugloſſe, mall Bugloſſe, Vipers Bugloſſe, Vipers bearbe.

Langue de cerf. Harts-tongue, ſtone Harts-tongue; miſtaken, in many ſhops, for Scolopendria, Spleenwort, or ſtone-Fearne.

Langue de chien. Dogs tongue, Hounds tongue, Hounds piſſe.

Langue marine. A kind of long, and narrow Sole, or daintie fish like a Sole.
Langue de mer. A narrow Promontorie, or peece of land running into the sea, and resembling a tongue thrust out of the mouth.
Langue d'oyseau. An Ashen Key, or Kite-key; the fruit of the Ash.
Langue passerine. as Langue d'oyseau.
Langue de Serpent. Adders-tongue, Serpents-tongue (an hearbe;) also, a certaine tongue-resembling precious stone, (as some hold) not bred on the earth, but in heauen, whence it falls in the wane of the Moone; also, the venomous tongue of a Detractor; also, the long, narrow, and Saw-like Snowt of a West Indian sea-fish.
Langue de tripiere. That scolds like an Oyster-wife, or butterwhore.
Herbe aux langues. Tongwort, Tong-blade, Double-tongue, Horse-tongue, Laurell of Alexandria.
Avoir la langue en la bouche, non en la bourse. Sayd of a Babler, or Blab, whose tongue-strings are quickly unloossed.
Avoir la langue bien pendue. To haue an eloquent, and glib tongue in his head.
Bailler du plat de la langue. To sooth, smooth, flatter, gloze, collogue with.
Prendre langue. To learne newes, or get intelligence, abroad; to take prisoners thereby to examine what an enemie intends.
Prendre langue entre eux. To conferre, or debate a matter, together.
Tirer la langue sur. To scorne, flowt, mocke, deride.
Hardie langue couarde lance: Pro. Those that brag most, execute least.
Longue langue courte main: Prov. Those that promise most performe least.
Qui langue a à Rome va: Prov. He that knowes what, and when, to speake, may trauell any whither.
Beau parler n'escorche langue: Prov. Good words cost nothing (say we.)
Mieux vaut glisser du pied que de la langue: Pro. Better may a foot slip then the tongue trip.
Langué: m. ée: f. Langued (a tearme of Blason.)
Languette: f. A little tongue; also, the weesell, or couer of the throat; also, the point, or tongue of a Leauer; also, the tryall, or cocke of a ballance.
Languette de hault-bois. The little pipe, tongue, or tenon, which is in the mouth of a Hoe-boy, &c.
Langueur: f. Langor, languishment, pining, drooping; faintnesse, feeblenesse; wearisomenesse; want of mettall, decay of spirit, losse of vigor; a consumption; also, idlenesse, lithernesse.
Langui: m. ie: f. Languished, pined, decayed, fainted, drooped.
Langui de soif. Halfe dead for thirst.
Languir. To languish, pine, decay, waste away; to droope, faint, hang downe the head; also, to linger, idle it, be lither.
Languissant. Languishing.
Languissant d'amour. Farre spent with, or gone in, loue.
Languisson. as Langueur.
Lanice: com. Of, or belonging to, Wooll; See Laniſſe.
Lanier: m. A Lanner.
Laniere: f. A long, and narrow band, or thong, of leather; also, a leatherne string to hang keyes at.
Lanieres. Hawkes Lunes.
A courte chausse longue laniere: Prov. To short hose long points, and wide truſſing; or (which is of harder disgestion;) let one mans store supply anothers wants.
Lanifice: m. Wooll-worke; or working with wooll; spinning, carding, clothworking.
Lanifique: com. Wooll-breeding.
Laniſſe: com. Of, or belonging to, Wooll.
Bourre laniſſe. Flocks of Wooll; also, the knottie, or vneuen swellings that be in some threads of ill-spunne Wooll.
Lanoy. as Lanier. ¶Savoyard.
Lanſquenet. A Lanceknight, or Germane footman; also, the name of a game at Cards.
Lanſtringue. Drinke countreyman; (a Dutch word.) ¶Rab.
Lantagine: f. A kind of Laurell, or Bay tree, whose leafe yeelds no manner of smell.
Lantane: f. The wayfaring tree.
Lante. A kind of Spider.
Lantenaires: f. Laniers; called so, when of themselues they come into France out of Northerne Countries; in which passage the cold and salt ayre of the sea commonly defaces the beautie of their feathers.
Lanterne: f. A Lanterne; also, the scutcheon, or closure of a Tymber vault, where the ends of the branches thereof doe meet.
Lanterne de mer. A fish which some hold to be the Rochet; others the Milan Marin; others, as Arendelle de mer.
Lanterne à pagnons. A paire of trundles, or trundle beads; that which is turned about by the cog-wheele of a Mill.
Lanterne sourde. A close yron Lanterne, or theeues Lanterne.
Croire que vessies sont lanternes. To mistake verie grossely, to be of a most foolish beleefe.
Lanterné: m. ée: f. Puzled, confounded, troubled, much perplexed, distempered; miserable, wretched, in a pitifull taking, in a wofull or ill plight; also, abused, buggared.
Lanterner. To cog, foist, fib; dally, or play the foole with; also, to trouble, or be tedious vnto; also, to loyter; also, to buggar, or be buggared; also, to quaffe, reuell, feast it all night long, or many nights together.
Lanterner la cervelle. To puzle, confound, or intoxicate the braine; to fill the head with idle proclamations.
Lanternerie: f. Cogging, foisting; vanitie, foolerie; loytering, night-walking, night-reuells.
Lanternerie de cervelle. Trouble, or intoxication of the braine.
Lanternier: m. A Lanterne-carrier; also, a cogger, foister, dallying, or witlesse youngster, idle, or vaine companion; also, a night-walker; one that, when others are in bed, reuells abroad, or bankets at home.
Lanugineux: m. euse: f. Cottonie, downie; mossie; soft as cotton, or wooll; also, couered with soft, and short haire, downe, or wooll.
Lanuleux: m. euse: f. Woollie, downie, tender, soft, as plyant as any wooll.
Lanzon: m. A Pike, or Pickerell.
Lapace: m. The ordinarie, or sharpe-pointed Docke.
Lapas: m. Patience, Monks Rhewbarb.
Lapas aigu. The sharpe-pointed Docke.
Lapereau: m. A young Rabbet.
Lapes. Fierie eiaculations in the ayre. ¶Rab.

La-

Lapidaire: m. A Lapidarie, or Ieweller.
Lapidation: f. A ſtoning; a battering, or killing with ſtones.
Lapidé: m. ée: f. Stoned; beaten, battered, or killed with ſtones.
Lapidement: m. A ſtoning.
Vn lapidement de greſle. A violent pattering of haileſtones.
Lapider. To ſtone; to throw ſtones at; to batter, knocke, or kill with ſtones; alſo, to raine ſtones.
Lapideur: m. A ſtoner.
Lapifidié: m. ée: f. as Lapifié.
Lapifié: m. ée: f. Made or become ſtonie, turned into a ſtone.
Se Lapifier. To be made ſtonie, become ſtone, be turned into a ſtone.
Lapin: m. A Rabbet.
Il a memoire de lapin. He hath a verie bad memorie; or forgets, by too much haſt, wherefore he makes haſt.
Lappe: f. A Burre (of what kind ſoeuer.)
Lappe grande. The Burre Docke, Clote burre, great Burre.
Lappement: m. A lapping, or licking vp.
Lapper. To lap, or licke vp.
Lappeur: m. A lapper, or licker vp of.
Lapreau: m. A young Rabbet.
Laps: m. A ſlip, ſlide, fall, faile.
Par laps de temps. In a ſpace; with tract, or by courſe of time.
Laqs: m. A ſnare, ginne, or grinne.
Laqs courant. A nooſe, grinne, ſnitle, running knot.
Laquais: m. as Laquay.
Laquay: m. A Lackey, Footboy, Footman.
Laquay de mer. A kind of verie ſwift fiſh.
Laque. as Lacque.
Laquefenée. Membre viril.
Laquelle choſe. Which, the which; that, the very ſame, thing.
Lar: f. A mans chiefe houſe; (the right, or inheritance of his eldeſt ſonne;) ¶ Bayonnois.
Larcin. Theft; whence;
Les larrons s'entrebatent, & les larcins ſe deſcouvrent: Prov. When theeues fall out true men come to their owne.
Lard: m. Lard; fat Bakon, the fat of Bakon, or of Porke; alſo, a Flitch of Bakon; alſo, the tree of a ſaddle.
Lard eſpié. The lard of the two vtmoſt, and fatteſt peeces of a Flitch of Bakon diuided into three parts, the Legs or Gammons hauing beene formerly cut off.
Il y a du lard en luy. There is much ſubſtance, or great ſubtiltie, in him.
Crier au lard ſur. Publikely to flowt, ſcoffe at, mocke, diſgrace, deride.
Tout y eſtoit du lard. All was ſet a boight, the world ran all on wheeles, there.
Faire du lard. To liue idly, fare deliciouſly, fatten with pleaſure, and eaſe.
Frotter leur lard enſemble; Looke Frotter.
Frotter à quelqu'un ſon lard. To cudgell him ſoundly, to thwacke or belabor him throughly.
Iecter ſon lard aux chiens. To ſpend his ſubſtance waſtfully, or vnworthily; to ſquander all away.
Il a mangé le lard. He is moſt guiltie, or he onely is guiltie, of that theft.
Faire trembler le lard au charnier. To skare, with his terrible ſwaggering, euerie peece of lard that beares him.
A la fin ſçaura on qui a mangé le lard: Prov. A theefe, how cunning ſoeuer, will at the length be diſcouered.
Qui a mangé le lard ronge l'os: Prov. Let him that hath eaten the Bakon picke the bones.
Lardaſſe: f. A ſticke, thruſt, great pricke.
Lardé: m. ée: f. Larded; interlarded; ſtucke, ſeaſoned, or dreſt with lard; alſo, nipped, quipped, taunted; alſo, pricked, or pierced into, as with a larding pricke.
Larder. To lard; to ſticke, ſeaſon, or dreſſe with lard; alſo, to pricke, or pierce, as with a larding pricke; alſo, to cut, quip, nip, taunt, breake a ieaſt on.
Lardier: m. A tub to keepe Lard, or Bakon in; alſo, a boord to lay it, ſalted, on; alſo, a beaſtlie, or ſlouenlie (fat) fellow.
Lardier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, Lard.
Lardoire: f. A larding ſticke, or pricke.
Lardon: m. The little ſlice or peece of Lard, wherewith meat is ſtucke; alſo, a flowt, cut, gird, nip, ieaſt broken on.
Lardonnement: m. A quipping, cutting, girding, flowting.
Lardonner. To quip, nip, cut, flowt, gird, breake a ieaſt vpon.
Lardonneur: m. A quipper, girder, flowter.
Larege: f. The Larch, or Larinx tree.
Lareze. The ſame.
Reſine de Lareze. (Our ordinarie) Turpentine.
Larfondement: m. The diſeaſe wherein one voids his fat, or greaſe in his excrements.
Larfondu: m. uë: f. That voids his fat, or greaſe in his excrements.
Large: m. (Subſtant.) Roome, ſcope, ſpace, width, or wideneſſe.
Mettre au large. To releaſe, diſcharge, vnlooſe, vndoe, vnty; to open, widen, giue roome, or ſcope vnto.
Large: com. (Adject.) Large, wide, broad, ſpacious, roomthie; ample, great, big; open; abundant; bounteous, liberall.
Large de bouche, & eſtroit de ceincture. That promiſes much, but parts with little; or, that promiſes much more then he willingly parts with.
Autant deſpend chiche que large: Prov. The miſer matches the vnthrift in expence; (the one often waſting as much by allowing too ſcant, as the other by giuing too large, a proportion;) it may alſo be interpreted thus; The liberall doth ſpend his pelfe, the pennyfather waſts himſelfe.
Largement. Largely, widely, broadly; fully, amply, greatly; abundantly, plentifully; bountifully.
Largeſſe: f. Bountie, liberalitie; alſo, a largeſſe, or handfulls of money caſt among the people; alſo, a donatiue beſtowed on ſouldiors.
Larget: m. ette: f. Somewhat large, reaſonable wide.
Largeur: f. Largeneſſe, breadth, wideneſſe, latitude, ſpacioufneſſe; greatneſſe, ampleneſſe, bigneſſe.
Largiteur: m. A liberall giuer, beſtower, or ſpender on.
Largue: f. Roome, ſcope, ſpacioufneſſe, width, wideneſſe.
Faire largue. To giue roome, make place, leaue ſpace enough.
Prendre la largue en haute mer. To put out into the maine.
Tenir la largue. To keepe abroad, in the wide fields, or in the open high way.
Larigau. The head of the windpipe, or throat, conſiſting of three little griſtles; the inſtrument of receiuing, and letting out, breath; alſo, a Flute or Pipe is called ſo by the the clownes in some parts of France.

Boire à tire larigau. To drinke till his throat cracke withall.
Laringe. The root of the tongue; or, as Larigau.
Laringuau. The same.
Larix: f. The Larch, or Larinx tree.
Larme: f. A teare; also, a gumme-drop, the fat moisture that distills from diuers trees; and hence;
La larme du sapin. A cleere, and well-tasting liquid Rosin, that issues from betweene the barke, and inner rinde of a young Firre tree; In our shops it is commonly (but erroniously) tearmed Venice Turpentine, sayes Mathiolus.
Larmes. Beads made of the seeds of a certaine plant.
En larmes de fol ne se doit on fier: Prov. A fooles teares are not to be trusted.
Ce que Maistre donne, & vallet pleure ce sont larmes perdues: Prov. In vaine doe groomes deplore their maisters bountie.
Larmelette: f. A small teare.
Larmette. as Larmelette.
Larmeux: m. euse: f. All-beblubbered, full of teares.
Larmier: m. The eaue of a house; the brow, or coping of a wall, seruing to keepe, or cast off the raine; also, a loope-hole, or small hole in a wall to giue light; also, the eye-veine, or veine thats next to the eye of a horse.
Larmot: m. A kind of Lizard.
Larmoyable: com. Bewaylable, lamentable, wofull, worthie of teares.
Larmoyement: m. A weeping, bewayling, lamenting, shedding of teares.
Larmoyer. To weepe, wayle, whine, lament, shed teares, distill drops of moisture.
Larmoyeux. as Larmeux.
Larmuse: f. A little earth-Newte, or Aske. ¶Dauphinois.
Larnesse. as Larronnesse; a she theefe.
Larre de chats: m. Caterwawling. (vieil mot.)
Larrecin: m. Larcenie, theft, robberie, felonie, theeuerie, stealth, pilfering, filching, purloyning.
Larreciner. as Larronner.
Larrecinement. Theeuishly, pilferingly, feloniously, with a felonious intent.
Larrecineux: m. euse: f. Felonious, theeuish, filching, pilfering, nimming, imbeazeling.
Larris: m. Vnhusbanded land, vntilled ground.
Larron: m. A felon, theefe, robber, purloyner, stealer, imbeazeler, pilferer, filcher, nimmer.
Larron d'eau. Awisue in a Conduit head for the voiding of superfluous water.
Larron d'une plume. The pith of a quill; the feather, or light fluffe that is within it.
Pas de larron. A gingerlie tread, soft gate, fearefull stepping, doubtfull pace.
Les larrons s' entrebatent, & les larcins se descouvrent: Pro. Theeues brabling helpes true men vnto their owne.
D'un larron priué on ne se peut garder: Pro. There is no ward for a familiar theefe.
Tel larron tel cordon: Prov. See Cordon.
A gros larron grosse corde: Prov. A strong theefe deserues (or needs) a strong halter.
Les gros larrons ont tousiours les manches pleins de baillons: Prov. Great theeues haue euer store of gags (viz. of gifts) about them.
Les gros larrons pendent les petits; &, les gros larrons meinent pendre les petits: Prov. Applyable to such as being themselues guiltie of great faults, condemne, or punish, little ones in others.
Abandon fait larron: Prov. Things left at randon cause true men turne theeues.
Il est cault larron qui desrobbe à vn larron: Prov. He is a cunning theefe that robs a theefe.
Il semble à vn larron que chascun luy ressemble: Prov. A theefe imagines euerie one bids, stand.
Ou Marchand, ou larron: Prov. Either a marchant or a theefe; a speech verie ordinarie in the mouthes of Shop-keepers, who thereby pretend, that not comming to their wares so easily, they cannot sell them so cheape, as theeues doe.
Larronceau: m. A pilferer, filcher, little theefe.
Larronneau: m. The same.
Larronner. To steale, imbeazell, purloyne, filch, nimme, pilfer, play the theefe.
Larronnerie: f. Theeuing, stealing, pilfering, filching, purloyning.
Larronnesse: f. A she theefe.
Larronneux: m. euse: f. Felonious, theeuish, full of theeuerie.
Larronniere: f. A denne of theeues, the retreat of theeues, theeues hauen, a place of resort for theeues.
Larval: m. ale: f. Haggish, grislie, ghastlie, ghost-like, dreadfull, wan, pale.
Larve: m. A Hag, Spirit, Goblin, Night-ghost; also, a leane, pale, meagar, withered scrag; one that looks like death, or like a ghost.
Larynx. as Larigau.
Las: m. as Laqs; a snare.
Las: m. Lasse: f. Wearie, tyred, harried, ouertoyled, or faint with toyling.
Lasanon: m. The panne of a Close-stoole. ¶Rab.
Lasanophore: m. The groome of the Close-stoole.
Lasché. A fish that somewhat resembles a little Shad; (caught, and called so, about Montpelier.)
Lasche: f. (The vermine called) a Ticke, or Sheepe-louse.
Lasche: com. Slacke, loose, wide, flagging; weake, faint, vnlustie, languishing, remisse, lither, slow; cold, cowardlie, faint-hearted, vnmanlie, effeminate; lewd, vnworthie, base, trecherous.
Couture à lasche. An open seame.
Oreilles lasches. Slowching, or hanging eares.
Laschés: m. ée: f. Loosed, tyed; vnbent; released, free, deliuered.
Laschée: f. A loosing, slackening, widening, vnbending; remitting, releasing, freeing, letting goe.
Laschement. Slackly, loosely, flaggingly; remissely, weakly, vnlustily; slowly, litherly, negligently; coldly, faintly, effeminately; wickedly, lewdly; vnworthily.
Lascher. To slacken, wyden, loosse, vnbend, let out; free, release, remit, forgoe, let goe.
Lascher la bride à. To vse more gently, giue more libertie vnto.
Lascheté: f. Slacknesse, dullnesse, remissnesse; faintnesse, weakenesse, vnlustinesse; negligence, idlenesse, lithernesse; cowardise, vnmanlinesse, faintheartednesse; trecherie, lewdnesse, vnworthinesse; also, an absurd, sottish, or senceless part.
Lasdaller: m. A tyred Jade; also, a dreaming, or lazie draw-latch; also, a kind of bird.
Lasnier. as Lanier.
Lassé: m. ée: f. as Las; wearied; also, snarled, or insnared; also, laced; bound, or closed up with laces.
Lasser. To wearie, toyle, tyre; also, to lace; to bind, or close up with a lace; also, to set gimes, or grimes for birds; (& bece) also, to snarle, or insnare; also, a dog to lyne a bitch.

On

On ſe laſſe de bien chanter: Prov. The beſt contentments breed ſacietie.

Laſſeron. as Laicteron.

Laſſet: m. A ſnare, ginne, grinne; alſo, the lace of a womans Petticoat.

Laſſeté: f. Weārineſſe, vnluſtineſſe, fatigation, faintneſſe.

Laſſiere: f. A kind of net, or toyle for wild beaſts.

Laſſis. Coiffure de laſſis. A Networke Coyfe.

Laſſitude. as Laſſeté.

Laſſus, ou Laſus. Aboue, aboue yonder, there aboue, alſo, vpward.

Latage: m. A lathing; lath-worke; a couering, or cloſing, with lathes.

Late: f. A lath; alſo, a certaine fine due vpon claymes, or conteſtations within Provence.

Latent. Hidden, lurking, cloſe, priuie, ſecret, vnknowne.

Latentement. Hiddenly, lurkingly, cloſely, priuily, ſecretly.

Later. To lath, to ſet on lathes.

Laterne: f. The ſcutcheon, or knob, in the middle of a Timber-vault.

Laticlave: m. A kind of Caſſocke worne by the auncient Romans.

Latiers: m. Thoſe which in Provence exact the fine before mentioned in Late.

Latin: m. Latin; the Latin language.

Parler Latin. To ſpeake Latin; alſo, a faſhion of ſpeech vſed among priſoners, thereby to draw ſome drinking money from new-come gueſts.

Femme qui parle Latin: Pro. Seeke Femme.

Il eſt bon Latin. He is a good Latiniſt, he writes, or ſpeakes, good Latin.

Il y perdit ſon Latin. He was there grauelled, plunged, or at a Non-plus; he knew not what to make of, or what to ſay vnto, it.

Qui a florin, rouſſin, Latin, par tout il trouve le chemin: Pro. He that can ſpend, and ſpeake well, and hath a good horſe vnder him, needs not goe out of his way.

Latin: m. Latine: f. Latine of countrey, or in ſpeech; of, or belonging to, the Latine language.

Marchandiſe Latine. Excellent good ſtuffe; or, the beſt, or moſt vtterable commodities, tearmed ſo by Marchants.

Voix Latine. A raizen, or ſmacke ſoyle.

Latinément. In Latine; after the manner of the Latines.

Latinier: m. A Trucheman, or Interpretor. (v.m.)

Latiniſateur: m. as Latiniſeur.

Latiniſer. To make Latine, turne into Latine, write or ſpeake Latine; alſo, to inkhornize it.

Latiniſeur: m. One that writes, or ſpeakes Latine; alſo, an inkborniſer; one that vſes inkhorne tearmes.

Faire du Latiniſeur. A dunce, or ignorant fellow to counterfeit Schollerſhip.

Latinogotiſe: m. ée: f. Barbarous, Gibridge; mixed of Latine and the Gothes language.

Latitation: f. A hiding, lurking, lying hid; a playing leaſt in ſight.

Latité: m. ée: f. Hidden, concealed.

Latiter. To lurke, lye hid, play leaſt in ſight.

Latitude: f. Latitude, breadth, largeneſſe, wideneſſe, broadneſſe.

Latomie: f. A Quarrie of ſtones.

Latonien. Flambeaux Latoniens. The Sunne and Moone (Latonaes children.)

Latre. A Churchyard.

Latrie: f. The ſeruice, or worſhip due vnto God.

Latrine: f. A Priuie, Jakes, Houſe of Office; alſo, the ſinke of a priuate houſe.

Latrineux: m. euſe: f. Jakes-like, of a Jakes, full of Jakes, filthie, ſtinking, full of ordure.

Latte: f. as Late; a Lath; alſo, a Land-meaſure (as Perche) in ſome places longer then in others whence;

Latte de Barbezieux. is but nine foot, Latte de Montignac Charante, eleuen foot, long.

Iuſtice ſous latte. C'eſt ſous le couvert de la maiſon du ſeigneur ſeulement.

Latteron. See Laicteron.

Lavace d'eaux. An inundation, ſurrounding, rauage, or great floud, of waters (by the fall of much raine.)

Lavacier: m. ere: f. Waſhing away violently, rauaging, or ſweeping before it (as a ſwift current) all it meetes with.

Lavage: m. A water-poole, or plaſh; a peece of land ſurrounded, or drowned vp, by water; alſo, a waſhing.

Lavages. as Lavailles.

Lavage de chaux. Whiting, or white-lime, wherewith walls, &c, are white-waſhed.

Lavailles: f. Swillings, Hogs-waſh, waſhings for Swine.

Lavanche de glace, & de neige. A great heape of Snow tumbling from the top to the bottome of a Hill, and ouerthrowing whatſoeuer lyes in it way.

Lavande: f. Lauender, Spike.

Lavande femelle. White-flowred Lauender Spike.

Lavande maſle. The common, or blew-flowred Lauender Spike.

Lavande Romaine. Roman Lauender.

Lavandiere: f. A Launderesſe, or waſhing woman; alſo, a Wagtayle, or Water-wagtayle.

Lavaret: m. A whitiſh Trout, or Shad-like fiſh, bred in the Lakes of Savoy, and Dauphiné.

Lavaron: m. Another ſmall fiſh; as Cabaſſon.

Lavaſſe. as Lavace.

Lavatoire: m. A Lauatorie; a place, or veſſell, to waſh in.

Laubaut. as Clabaut; a great yelling Curre.

Laude. The toll thats payed for wares retayled in certaine Faires, and Markets within the dominion of Berry; (and elſewhere.)

Lavé: m. ée: f. Waſhed; rinſed; clenſed (with water;) bathed.

Main lavée moins levée: Pro. See Main.

A main lavée Dieu mande la repeuë: Prov. God ſends his bleſſings to cleane hands, and hearts.

En vaiſſeau mal lavé ne peut on vin garder: Prov. Wine will not keepe in an vncleane veſſell.

Lavedan: m. An yron-gray Iennet; or a horſe bred on Lavedan, one of the Pyrenean Mountaines whereon the beſt horſes of France are bred: Theſe horſes (ſayes a French Coſmographer) are more nimble, and more ſtrong then Spaniſh Jennets; but the Mountaine is not large, and therefore there be not many of them.

Lave-main: m. An Ewer, or Lauer.

Lavement: m. A waſhing, rinſing, bathing, clenſing (in water.)

Laver. To waſh, rinſe, baibe, clenſe (with water.)

Terre à laver. Fullers earth.

Laver vne brique. To looſe labor, or to labor in vaine.

Laver les mains de. as in Main.

Laver le nez à. as,

Laver la teſte à. To chide, reproue, checke, taunt bitterly; to take vp for halting; to vſe vardly, handle rudely, deale extreamely with.

Se

Se laver d'une faute. To purge, cleere, acquit himselfe of an imputation.
L'un a le bruit l'autre lave la laine. The one does what the other's said to doe; (Sic vos non vobis.)
Pour laver ses mains on n'en vend pas sa terre: Prov. Neuer did cleanlinesse any man vndoe.
Vne main lave l'autre: Prov. One serues anothers turne.

Laveur: m. A washer.

Laveure: f. The water wherewith a thing hath beene washed; also, a washing.
Laveure de miel. Liquor wherein Honie hath beene purified, or sodden.
Laveure des Orfebvres. The washing of Goldsmiths sweepes; viz. the stuffe which they find in the furnace after a melting, and among the dust of their shops after sweeping; all which they put into a vessell, and washing it, picke that which is good out of it.

Lavoir: m. A poole, or pond, whereat buckes, &c, be commonly washed; a washing place, a washing poole or pond; also (in some places) the peece of wood (some three foot long, or high) whereon a washing bason, supported by three or foure brackets, doth stand.

Laurageois: m. ise: f. Of Lauraguez; a part of Languedoc.
Herbe Laurageoise. Woad; so called, because it growes abundantly in Lauraguez.

Lauraye: f. A groue, or plot, of Laurell trees.

Laurens. Laurence.
Cloches de Sainct Laurens. Great blisters in the face.

Laureole: f. Lowrie, Lauriell, Spurge Laurell, little Laurell.
Laureole masle, Male Lauriell; hath only one stemme set verie thicke with leaues; but in all other parts resembles ordinarie Lowrie.

Laurier: m. A Laurell, or Bay tree.
Laurier Alexandrin. Laurell of Alexandria, tongue-Laurell, Tongue-blade, Horse-tongue, Double-tongue.

Lauriere: f. A plot, or groue of Bay-trees.

Laurin: m. ine: f. Of Bayes; set, or stucke with Bayes.

Lauserne: f. Shrub Trefoile, Milke Trefoile, Citisus Bush.

Lauserte. The same.

Laxatif: m. iue: f. Laxatiue, loose, soluble.

Laxif: m. iue: f. Laxatiue.

Laxité: f. Laxatiueneße.

Lay: m. A Lay, Song, Roundelay; also, as Lé; the breadth of cloth, &c; also, a dolefull complaint, passionate lamenting, pitifull wayling; Seeke Lays.

Lay: m. laye: f. Lay, secular, temporall.
Causes de lay à lay. Cases meerely temporall.
Frere lay. A seruant in an Abbey, or Couent.

Laye: f. A (wild) Sow that hath young ones.
Layes. The lesses (or dung) of a wild Bore; also, ranks of bushes, or of Copsewood, left as marks to limit how much of the rest is to be felled, and sold at once.

Layé: m. ée: f. Bois layez. Marked how farre to be felled, how much to be sold; or that hath rewes of Copsewood left growing to the same purpose.

Layer vn bois. To leaue markes (or trees, &c, as markes) in a Wood, for the felling, and sale thereof.

Layette: f. A Till, or Drawer; also, a Box with Tills, or Drawers.

Layn. Sober, modest, of a soft, or still disposition; (an old word.)

Lays: m. Trees, or rankes of trees, left in Copses; as in Layes.

Lazaret: m. A Lazaret, or Spittle for Lazers.

Lazanon: m. Seeke Lasanon.

Lazur: m. The Lazull, or Azure stone.

Lé: m. Breadth; also, the list of cloth, or Stuffe.
De deux lez. On both sides. Vn drap de deux lez. A peece of broad cloth.
D'un lé & d'autre. On both sides.
Du long, & du lé. Euerie way.

Le. (A masculine Relatiue, or Article;) the, the said, the same.

Lé: m. lée: f. Broad, wide, large; Hence, Sain & Pierre en sente lée; S. Peters in the broad way; ¶ Orleannois.

Leal: m. ale: f. Loyall, true, trustie, faithfull, honest.

Leans. (Adverb.) Within there, in that place.

Leauté: f. Loyaltie, faithfullnesse, trustinesse.

Lebeche. as Leveche.

Lebre. as Lievre.

Leconomantie: f. Diuination by water in a Bason. ¶ Rab.

Lechard. as Leschard.

Lechedoigt. à lech. Daintily, sparingly, by degrees, peece-meale, by parcels, by little and little.

Lechefrite: f. A Dripping-panne.

Lecheiment: m. A licking, or lapping vp.

Lecher. To licke, lap, slap vp.
Peu peut bailler à son escuyer qui son cousteau leche: Prov. He that pinches himselfe must pine another.
Qui va il leche, qui repose il seiche: Prov. Looke Seicher.

Lechercan: m. A slap-sauce, lick-dish, lickorous companion.

Lechereße: f. A lickerous, or sawcie woman.
Femme lechereße ne fera ia porée espaisse: Prov. The lickerous housewife seldome makes thicke pottage.

Lecheur: m. A licker, or lapper vp of; See Lescheur.

Leçon: f. A Lesson; Lecture, Document, Instruction, Precept.

Lecteur: m. A reader.
Lecteur publique. A Professor, or publicke Reader, in an Vniuersitie &c.

Lectrin: m. as Letrin.

Lecture: f. A Lecture; a Reading.

Ledanger. as Laidanger.

Lede. as Ledon.

Ledoires: f. Reproches, reuilings, defamatorie tearmes.

Ledomiet: m. The Lote, or Nettle tree.

Ledon: m. The shrub Cistus Ledon, from the leaues whereof Ladanum is gathered.

Ledoyer. as Laidanger.

Lée: f. A wild Sow.

Legal: m. ale: f. Legall, lawfull; of the Law; tryable by Law.
Domicile legal. The house thats enioyed by reason of an Estate, Benefice, or Office.

Legalité: f. Lawfullnesse, lawfull gouernment.

Legart: m. A Newte, or Lizard.

Legat: m. A Legat; the Popes Embassadour; also, a Legacie.

Legataire: com. A Legatarie; the partie to whom a thing is bequeathed.

Legater. To bequeath, or giue by will.

Legation: f. An Embassage, or Legateship.

Legement: m. A Lighter for Salt-barks; a boat wherevnto a Salt-barke (thats beanie laden, and to passe into shallow waters) discharges part of it burthen.

Legende: f. A Legend, a writing; also, the words that be about the edge of a peece of coyne.

Le-

Legendier: m. The golden Legend; a booke of the liues of the Saints.
Leger, & Legerement. as Legier & Legierement.
Legeresse: f. Lightnesse, nimblenesse, agilitie, swiftnesse, quicknesse, speedinesse, liuelinesse.
Legible: com. Legible, readable.
Legier: m. ere: f. Light, swift, speedie, fleet; quicke, nimble, actiue, readie, liuelie; fickle, inconstant, humorous, vnsteadie, flitting, shittle, wauering; also, light, sleight, spungie, of small weight.
Bestes legieres. The red and fallow Deere, the wild Goat, and the Roe.
Legier à la main. See Main.
Legierement. Lightly, fleetly, swiftly; nimbly, quickly, readily; vnsteadily, flittingly, inconstantly; also, negligently, sleightly, to no purpose.
Legiereté: f. Lightnesse, fleetnesse, swiftnesse; nimblenesse, quicknesse, agilitie, liuelinesse; also, lewitie, wauering, inconstancie, fickleneſſe; vainnesse, want of grauitie; sleightnesse.
Legion: f. A (Romane) Legion; a Band, or Squadron of 6830 souldiors; whereof 730 were horsemen, and 6100 footmen.
Legionnaire: com. Legionarie; of, or belonging to, a (Romane) Legion.
Legislateur: m. A Law-maker.
Legitimation: f. A legitimation, or legitimating; a making lawfull.
Lettres de legitimation. Letters of legitimation, are procured of the King by bastards, that they may be capable of successions, and lawfully dispose of their owne as well as other men.
Legitime: f. A portion, or childs part; a younger brothers portion, or part in the inheritance left by his father; also, the portion of inheritance which a father may giue away from his sonne; his owne free land.
Mettre sa legitime au vent. To make (an vnthriftie) sale of his portion; to squander away his childes part.
Legitime: com. Legitimate, lawfull, orderlie, iust, right; rightly borne, truly begot.
Legitimement. Legitimately, rightly, lawfully, according to the law.
Leguer. To bequeath, to leaue by will.
Legumage: m. Pulse; as Beanes, Pease, &c; any corne, &c, thats reaped, or gathered, by pulling.
Legume: m. as Legumage.
Legumineux: m. euse: f. Of, or belonging to, pulse.
Legz: m. A Legacie; a thing bequeathed, or giuen by Will.
Leiche. as Lesse.
Leicher. Seeke Lecher.
Lende: f. A nit, or chit; also, as Lande; also, a kind of Scatefish.
Lendemain. The morrow, day following, next day after.
Au Lendemain. Vntill to morrow.
Lendeux: m. euse: f. Nittie, full of nits.
Lendit: m. A great Faire kept (in a field neere to S. Denis) from the second Wednesday of June vnto Midsummer Eue; whence;
Lendits. Gate-money, fairings, or yearelie presents bestowed by the scholiers of Vniuersities (especially those of Paris) on their Tutors.
Lendole: f. The flying fish.
Lengaïer, & Lengaïeur. See Langayer, & Langayeur.
Leniment: m. An assiwaging, appeasing, tempering, mitigation, qualification; a comforting, easing, refreshing.
Lenir. To lenifie, slake, swage, temper, mitigate, sweeten, smooth, qualifie, pacifie, appease, comfort, refresh, ease.
Lenitif: m. A Lenitiue; mitigation; refreshment; an ache-asswaging medicine, greese-appeasing plaister.
Lenklat: m. A kind of Dogfish.
Lent: m. Lente: f. Slacke, slow, leisurelie, lingering, backward, remisse; lazie, drowsie, dull, heauie, none of the hastings; also, gentle, soft, facile, meeke, patient.
Lente. as Lentille.
Lentement. Slowly, leisurely; slackly, lingeringly, backwardly, remissly, negligently; faire and softly, not too fast, by little and little, without hast.
Lenteur: f. Slackneſſe, lingering, slowneſſe; remisneſſe; ease, negligence, litherneſſe; also, clammineſſe, slyimeſſe, gluineſſe.
Lenteux: m. euse: f. Nittie, full of nits.
Lentice. as Lentisque.
Lenticulaire: m. An instrument wherewith Surgeons plane, and cut away, the broken bones of a wounded skull.
Lentillade: f. The spotted and long-nosed Scate, or Thornebacke. ¶ Langued.
Lentillat: m. The spotted dog-fish called by our fishermen, the Dunne-hound, or Dunne-cow.
Lentille: f. The Lintle, or Lentill (a small pulse;) also, the weight of a Lentill; or, a small weight whereof three make but two graines.
Lentilles. Round specks, red pimples; wanne, small, and Lentill-resembling freckles, on the face, or hands.
Lentilles d'eau. as Lentilles de marais.
Lentilles de marais, ou de mer. Duckes-meat, fenne-Lentills, water Lentills, Graines.
Lentillé: m. ée: f. Freckled, sprinpeckled, pimpled.
Lentilleux: m. euse: f. Frecklie; full of red pimples, or spots.
Lentisce. as Lentisque.
Lentiscine: f. Mastick.
Lentisque: m. The Lentiske, or Mastick tree.
Lentitude: f. as Lenteur.
Leonceau: m. A Lyons whelpe, or young Lyon.
Leonin: m. ine: f. Lyonlike; of, or belonging to, a Lyon.
Leontin. as Leonceau.
Leopard: m. A Leopard, or Libbard; a beast ingendred betweene a Lyon, and a Panther.
Leopard de mer. The Cod, or Greenefish.
Leopardé. Lion Leop. Libbard-like.
Leporin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, a Hare.
Leppe: f. Sea-grasse, Sea-weed, Reets.
Lepre: f. A leaprosie.
Lepre farineuse. A white scurfe, or leaprosie.
Lepreserie: f. Leaprousnesse; scurfe, scabbinesse.
Lepreux: m. euse: f. Leaprous; scuruie, or scabbed all ouer the bodie.
Leproserie: f. A Spittle for the leaprous.
Lequel: m. elle: f. Which, the which.
Lequel des deux. Whether, the whether, which soeuer, which of the two soeuer.
Lequesat: m. A kind of sauce for Woodcockes.
Lerelot: m. The foot, or downe of a country-maidens song.
Lermier. as Larmier.
Lerot: m. A Dormouse; also, the great, and pild-eared Nut-mouse, Hasell-mouse, or Filbeard-mouse; called so, because he liueth onely on nuts.
Lerre: m. A theefe.
Lesard: m. A Lizard; See Lezard.

Leſchard: m. A lickorous, or ſweet-mouthed ſlapſawce; alſo, a micher, or miſerable niggard; one that continually licks vp, or lookes after, pelfe.

Leſche: f. A long ſlice, or ſhiue of bread, &c; alſo, as Leſſe.

Leſche de mer. A ſlymie worme, thicke as a finger, and a foot long; digged by fiſhermen (who vſe it for a bait) out of the ſand, wherein, vnleſſe it be quickly taken vp, it quickly hides it ſelfe againe.

Leſchedoigt. See Lechedoigt.

Leſcher. as Lecher.

Leſcherie: f. Sawcineſſe, lickerouſneſſe, much licking.

Leſcheur: m. A licker; a lickorous companion.

Leſcheur. (Adiect.) Often licking; lickorous.

Au chat leſcheur bat on ſouvent la gueule: Prov. The lickorous cat comes vnto many a pat.

Leſcive. as Lexive.

Leſciver. To bucke clothes; to waſh, rince, or ſcoure with lye.

Leſe-maieſté: f. High treaſon.

Leſer. To hurt, wound, annoy, offend.

Leſer la maieſté. To commit high treaſon.

Leſion: f. Hurt, wounding, harme, offence, annoyance.

Leſſe: f. A Leaſh, to hold a dog &c in; a bridle, or falſe reine to hold a horſe by; any ſuch long ſtring.

Leſſes. as Laiſſes.

Ie la voudrois pluſtoſt chevaucher que mener en leſſe. (A knauiſh phraſe in Rab.) I had rather ride her then lead her.

Leſſive. as Lexive.

Leſt. as Leſtage.

Leſtage: m. The balaſt of a ſhip.

Leſtager. To balaſt a ſhip.

Leſte. as Leſtage.

Leſté: m. ée: f. Balaſted; alſo (but not ſo properly) full fraught, or loaden (as a ſhip.)

Leſte: com. Quicke, nimble, actiue, ſpright full, diſpoſe, readie, liuelie; apt, or able for imployments; alſo, neat, comelie, handſome, quaint, or curious in attire.

Leſtement. Quickly, nimbly, actiuely, with great agilitie; liuely, merrily; alſo, neatly, quaintly, curiouſly.

Leſter. To balaſt; alſo, (but not ſo properly) to load, or full-fraught, a ſhip.

Letabonde: com. Iocond, frolicke, buxome, all-aboight, as merrie as may be.

Letargie. as Lethargie.

Lethal. m. ale: f. Deadlie, mortall; peſtiferous.

Lethargie: f. A Lethargie; a drowſie, and forgetfull ſickneſſe called by ſome, the drowſie euill.

Lethargique: com. Sicke of a Lethargie, or of the drowſie ill; (and hence) alſo, dull, heauie, ſleepie, forgetfull.

Lethe: m. Death; mortalitie; obliuion.

Lethean: m. anne: f. Deadlie, mortall, peſtilent, death-inflicting.

Letice: f. A beaſt of a whitiſh gray colour.

Letiere. Seeke Lictiere.

Leton: m. Latten (mettall.)

Letrin: m. A (Pulpit, or) Deske in a Church.

Lettager. as Leſtager.

Lettre: f. A letter, or character of the Croſſe row; alſo, a Letter, Epiſtle, or Miſſiue; alſo, a Patent, Graunt, Commaund, writ, or Decree paſſing from a Prince, or out of a Court of Iuſtice; (in which ſence it is altogether vſed in the Plurall.)

Lettres d'acquieſcement. A Letter of Atturney from a client to his counſell for the ſurceaſing, or compounding of the ſuit.

Lettres de baillie. Writs of Execution; or an execution againſt the goods of.

Lettres de cargaiſon. Bills of lading.

Lettres de committimus. A Commiſſion.

Lettres d'eſtat. Looke Eſtat.

Lettres de pas, ou de paſſe. A Paſſe, or Paſport; a Licence for the paſſage, trauell, or tranſportation of.

Les bonnes lettres. Learning.

Au pied de la lettre. Literally, ſtrictly, preciſely, according to the true ſence of the place.

Ce me ſont lettres cloſes. Theſe things are miſteries, or ſecrets vnto me.

Prendre lettres. Is (at a certaine Card-play) to craue leaue to giue ouer a game which he vndertooke to win.

Teſmoing paſſe lettre: Prov. The depoſition of a preſent witneſſe is a more efficiuall euidence then a bare proofe out of any writing.

Lettré: m. ée: f. Lettered, learned; skilfull in, or furniſhed with, good letters.

Lettriſé. Vers lettriſez. Which runne vpon the letter; or all whoſe words begin with one and the ſame letter.

Lettron: m. Gumme Cichorie, ruſh Cichorie; or, as Laicteron; the Sow thiſtle.

Letuge: m. The leakage of a ſhip.

Leu: m. as Lieu; a place; and hence;

Sans feu ne leu. Without houſe or harbor.

Leu: m. leuë: f. Red, peruſed.

Levage. Droict de Levage. Looke Droict.

Levaille: f. An vpſitting, vpriſing, or getting vp.

Levain: m. Leauen (for bread.)

Honteux comme vne truye qui emporte vn levain. Seeke Honteux.

Levandiere: f. A Midwife.

Levant: m. The Leuant, the Eaſt; the Eaſt wind, or countrey.

Coque de Levant. The ſmall medecinable ſhell, tearmed in ſhops, Vnguis Odoratus.

Vent Grec Levant. A Southeaſt wind.

Faire voile en Levant. To ſayle Eaſtward; to be ſtolne, filched, or purloyned away.

Levant. Raiſing, rearing; riſing, ariſing; leuying; leauening.

Tombant levant. Well or ill, hitlie miſſie; here or there, one way or other; (Aduerbially.)

Leuce. de Leuce. (Rab.) inſtead of, d'Ellend; Seeke Ellend.

Leucophlegmatie: f. A flegmaticke dropſie; or, as Hypoſarque.

Leucophlegmatique: com. Sicke of, or troubled with (ſuch) a flegmaticke dropſie.

Leud: m. as Leude.

Leude: m. A vaſſall, tenant, liegeman. (v.m.)

Leudes francs. Gentlemen profeſſing Arms, or Souldierie; and holding their lands of others, but paying no tax, or impoſition, to any.

Leudes ſerfs. Villaines, peaſants, husbandmen; ſubiect to all impoſitions.

Leve: m. A tricke, at Cards.

Leve: f. A Mallet (hollowed like a ſalt-ſeller at both ends) wherewith the bowle is rayſed, and caſt through the Paſſe, at Palemaille.

Levé: m. ée: f. Lifted, raiſed, reared, heaued, hoiſted, eleuated, aduanced; alſo, leauened; alſo, leuied; alſo, riſen, ariſen, got, or growne vp.

Arreſt levé. A ſentence publiſhed, or exemplified.
La main luy eſt levée. His goods, which were ſeiſed, are deliuered backe vnto him.
Au pied levé. Pourſuyvre au pied levé. To purſue hard, neere, foot hot, cloſe at the heeles.
Prendre au pied levé. To take at aduantage, or at the worſt; to ſurpriſe on a ſuddaine, or before prouiſion made.
Reſpondre à pied levé. To anſwer ſuddainely, or extempore.
La teſte levée. Boldly, confidently, with head lift vp; or holding vp the head, as one that hath gotten the better of his aduerſarie.
Leveche: f. A South-weſt wind.
Levée: f. A banke, or cauſey raiſed for the keeping in of a Riuer, or water; alſo, a leuie, or leuying of money, ſouldiors, &c; a gathering, or getting in of the profits, or fruits of land; alſo, a rayſing, hoyſing, aduancing; and, a riſing, as of the Sunne.
Vne levée de bouclier. Much adoe about nothing; a great ſhew, or much doings, to little purpoſe; mightie preparations for a meane exploit; a notable coyle, or ſturre, when it needs not.
Levement: m. A rayſing, rearing, hoyſing, aduancing, lifting, or ſetting vp; alſo, a leuie, or leuying; alſo, a leaſening.
Lever. To lift, rayſe, reare, eleuate, aduance, hoyſe, heaue, or ſet vp; alſo, to leuie, collect, gather; alſo, to leaſen.
Se Lever. To riſe, ariſe, get, or grow vp.
Lever vn arreſt. To publiſh a ſentence, or decree.
Lever boutique. To ſet vp ſhop.
Se Lever au Conſeil. To goe ſit in Counſell.
Lever le cul. Fleur fit lever le cul à. He raiſed them, or their ſiege, from.
Lever vn enfant des fons. To chriſten, or be witneſſe to, a child at the Font.
Lever des eſtoffes. To buy, or take vp, ſtuffes.
Lever la main. To take vp a tricke at Cards.
Lever la main à quelqu'un. To reſtore vnto him the goods taken from him by order, or authoritie.
Lever en ſa main. To take into his hands, or poſſeſſion; to ſeize vpon, in his owne right.
Lever le maſque à. To vnmaske; lay open, diſcouer.
Lever le menton à. To hearten, harden, imbolden, incourage, aſſure.
Lever le nez. To take courage, or heart at graſſe, to plucke vp the heart.
Lever de ſentinelle. To relieue a Sentinell, to put one in his roome; hence alſo, to diſlodge.
Lever la table. To take away.
Lever matin n'eſt pas heur, mais desjuner eſt le plus ſeur: Prov. Looke Matin.
Il a beau ſe lever tard qui a le bruit de ſe lever matin: Prov. He may well enough riſe late thats thought to riſe early; The like is;
Qui a bruit de ſe lever matin peut dormir iuſques à ſoir: Prov. He thats well thought of, may play the knaue long before he be ſuſpected, or detected a knaue; (ſo many men that are not as they ſeeme to be, beguile thoſe, who ſeeing no hurt ſuſpect none.)
Leveſche. as Leveche; alſo, common Louage, Lombardie Louage; alſo, the hearbe Alexanders.
Leveſſe. as Leveſche.
Leveton: m. Yeaſt, or Barme.
Leveur: m. A rayſer, lifter, aduancer, hoyſer, or heauer vp of; alſo, a leuier, collector, gatherer; alſo, a leaueners.

Leveure de biere: f. Yeaſt.
Levier: m. A Leauer; an Iron crow, or wooden barre to lift vp things with.
Leville: f. Darnell; or, Tares.
Levis: m. iſſe: f. Foulding, or to be foulded vp; whence; Table Leviſſe, &c.
Leviſtic: m. Louage; or, as Liveſche.
Leur. Their; C'eſt leur maiſon; alſo, theirs; as, C'eſt le leur; and, their owne, or their own meanes; whence,
Ils n'ont moyen de le faire du leur; alſo, them; as in,
Il leur a dict.
Levrault: m. A Leueret, a young Hare; alſo, a Romane beame, or ſtelleere; See Crochet.
Il y a levrault au croc. There is ſome good prey to be caught, ſtuffe to be found, thing to be had.
Levre: f. A Lip; (alſo, an Otter. (Savoyard.)
Levre fendue. A Hare-lip, or Hare-mouth.
Attaindre du bout des levres. To touch daintily, or but ſleightly.
Bailler mornifle ſur les levres. To giue a cuffe on the mouth, a thumpe on the lips.
Bailler mornifle ſur les levres du Roy. To coyne falſe money, to make falſe coyne.
Femme qui ſes levres mord, &c. Looke Femme.
Levreſque: com. Greyhound like; of, or belonging to, a Greyhound.
Levrete: f. as Levrette.
Levreté: m. ée: f. Kindled, as a young Leueret.
Levretée. A Hare-lipt, or blabber-lipt wench; alſo, a wench that hath beene buggared by a Greyhound.
Levreteau: m. A Leueret; a young, or little Hare.
Levreter. To kindle young Hares; or, a Hare to kindle.
Levreton: m. A Greyhound-whelpe, a young Greyhound.
Levrette: f. A Greyhound bitch; alſo, a moſt laſciuious and incontinent wench, a common hackney, a bitch-fox; alſo, a little tender lip.
Levrier: m. A Greyhound.
Levrier d'attache. An Iriſh Greyhound, a great Greyhound.
Pain de levrier. A Cheſſe-loafe; bread made of the courſeſt of corne.
Souppes de levrier. Breweſſe made of courſe browne bread, moiſtned with the laſt, and worſt fat of the beefe-pot.
Ha levrier. (A voice of incouragement, or excitation;) hoo, now now, hoe dog, hoe well done dog; alſo (a voice of incenſing ſuch as be readie to fall together by the eares.) Now lads, to it boyes, cuffe or cudgell one another and ſpare not.
Elle penſe que de toute taille bon levrier. She is ſo indifferent, or generall in the intertainment of ſeruants, that (ſo they be young and luſtie) ſhe cares not of what proportion, or ſtature they be. Looke Taille.
Il n'eſt chaſſe que de vieux lievriers: Prov. Old hounds doe hunt the ſureſt; old Greyhounds bite the ſoreſt.
Oncques maſtin n'aima levrier: Prov. Neuer did clowne affect a Gentleman; nor a rude peaſant a ciuill preſident.
Levriere: f. A Greyhound bitch.
Levron: m. A young, or little, Greyhound; alſo, a young wanton fellow that (as a young Greyhound) minds nothing but pleaſure.
Leurre: f. A (Faulkoners) Lure.
Oyſeaux, ou faulcons de leurre. Are, properly, ſeuen, Le Faulcon gentil, Pelerin, Tartaire, Gerfault, Sacre, Laſnier, & le Tunicien.

Leurré: m. ée: f. Lured; manned, or made vnto the lure; also, allured; also, better trayned then he was, or taught more wit then he formerly had; whence;
Il n'a pas encores esté leurré. (Said of a groſſe, rude, ignorant, and vnexperienced fellow.)
Leurrer. To lure; to manne, or make vnto the lure; also, as Desniaiſer; also, to allure, inueagle, intice.
Lexive: f. Lye (wherewith linnen is cleanſed;) also, a bucke of (linnen) clothes.
Lexiveux: m. euſe: f. Full of lye; or, as Lexivier.
Lexivier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, lye; fit for lye.
Lexivieux: m. euſe: f. as Lexiveux.
Leyau: m. A wound of the breadth, and depth of an ynch. ¶ Gasc.
Leyde: f. A certaine tax, or impoſition vpon Wine, and other commodities.
Leyette. as Layette.
Lez: m. An edge, brimme, or ſide; also, the liſt of cloth, &c; also, the breadth of any ſtuffe; also, a meaſure (eſpecially for fiſh) not much different from our Laſt; whence;
Le lez d'harenc. Containes about twelue Barrells.
Le lez d'harenc ſor. Containes tenne thouſand red Herrings.
Le lez de maquereau, ou moruë. as Le lez d'harenc.
Le lez d'un navire. The ballaſſe; also (leſſe properly) the fraight, or burthen, of a ſhip.
Le lez de Saumon. A meaſure of Salmon containing two Hambours.
Lez. Nigh, towards, hard by, neere to.
Lezard: m. A Lizard; Newte, Aske; also, a kind of ſmall Dag.
Lezard Chalcidique. A ſpotted Lizard which is very venomous, and yet, taken in drinke, healeth the hurt he did.
Lezard de mer. A kind of Mackerell.
Lezard verd. The great, and harmeleſſe greene Lizard called in Italie (where he is moſt found, and beſt knowne) Ramarro; See Liſarde.
Bec de Lezard. A Lizards beake; an Inſtrument, or paire of tongs, wherewith Surgeons draw bullets, or bone-ſplents out of the bodie.
Sel de Lezard. Looke Sel.
Lezard: m. arde: f. Of, or belonging to, a Lizard.
Plume Lezarde. A biting, ſlanderous, or defamatorie penne.
Liace. as Liaſſe.
Liage: m. A binding, tying; faſtening, knitting, vniting; haltering, fettering; ſouldering; combining together.
Droict de liage. Hoopage; or, a fee due to ſome Lords for the hooping of euery wine-veſſell their vaſſals haue.
Liairre. as Liérre.
Liais: m. A verie hard free ſtone whereof ſtaire-ſteps, and tombe-ſtones be commonly made.
Liaiſon: f. A band; connexion, colligation; knot, obligation; faſtening, tying, or cloſing hard together; also, a locking, or binding in wraſtling.
Liants: m. The bands of lead that faſten the panes of a window to the barres.
Liard: m. A brazen coyne worth three deniers, or the fourth part of a ſol.
Liarder. To beg, or get poorely, ſlowly, or by the pennie.
Liarre. Iuie; See Lierre.
Liaſſe: f. A bundle, or handfull of.
Liaſſe d'oignons. A rope of Onions.
Libament: m. A ſacrifice; a thing offered, or taſted of in the offering.

Libanomantie: f. Diuination by incenſe, or frankincenſe.
Libanot, ou Libanotis. Hearbe Frankincenſe, Roſemarie Frankincenſe, Libanotis Roſemarie, Hart-root.
Libation: f. A ſacrifice, or thing offered; a taſting in ſacrifice.
Libellance. Le Clerc, & libell. du Baillage; C'eſt le greffier.
Libelle: f. A Libell, or defamatorie booke, &c; also, a Writ, Citation, or Proceſſe, containing the ſubſtance of the ſuit; or (more properly) the originall declaration vpon any Action; also, a Bill, Certificate, Requeſt, or Supplication, in writing.
Libellé: m. ée: f. Declared vpon.
Adjournement libellé. Qui contient la demande du Demandeur, & les moyens d'icelle, afin que le defendant ſçache s'il doit plaider, ou ceder; & s'il delibere plaider qu'il vienne inſtruict, au iour de l'aſſignation, pour defendre.
Commiſſion libellée. C'eſt, narrative.
Exploict libellé. Qui contient le faict de l'exploict; ou les moyens de la demande, & concluſion du demandeur.
Mandement libellé de l'eſpargne; par lequel eſt declaré le nom de celuy auquel le Receveur general doit payer la ſomme, pour la bailler, & delivrer à vn tel, en l'acquit du Roy, à telle choſe, pour tel employ, à tel effect. ¶ Ragueau.
Libeller. To declare vpon an Action of Treſpas, Debt, Couenant, &c; as vnder Libellé.
Liberal: m. alé: f. Liberall, bountifull, franke, open-handed, free-hearted; beneficiall, gracious, helping, propitious, good vnto.
Liberalement. Liberally, frankly, freely, bountifully; beneficially, with an open hand, in full meaſure, in abundant manner.
Liberalité: f. Liberalitie, bountie, frankneſſe, largeſſe, beneficence; abundant and free giuing.
Liberation: f. A freeing, diſcharging, releaſſe, remitment of.
Liberté: f. Libertie, freedome; full ſcope, good leaue, ample or free choice; an vncontroulable condition; alſo, openneſſe, plainneſſe, boldneſſe in ſpeech or action.
Libertinage: m. Libertinage, Epicuriſme, ſenſualitie, licentiousneſſe, diſſolueneſſe.
Libidineux: m. euſe: f. Libidinous, laſciuious, luxurious, luſtfull, incontiment, lecherous.
Libidinoſité: f. Luſtfullneſſe, luxurie, laſciuiouſneſſe, lecherouſneſſe, incontinencie, fleſhlineſſe.
Libraire: m. A Booke-ſeller, a Stationer.
Librairie: f. A Librarie; a ſtudie, or ſhop, full of bookes.
Libre: com. Free, frank, at libertie, quit; open; vnbound, vnbounded, vnlimited, vnreſtrained; exempted from, not ſubiect vnto; bold; vncontroulable.
Librement. Freely, frankly, vnboundedly; at pleaſure, with full libertie, without controule; willingly, without conſtraint; boldly, without feare.
Libure: f. A little Iſle (cut out of the land) whereon Bay ſalt is gathered after euerie tyde.
Liburnique: f. A verie light, and ſwift ſhip; or ſwift, vſed by the auncient Pyrats.
Licaleil: m. A Lampe; ¶ Limoſin. ¶ Rab.
Licanthrope: com. Troubled with the frenzie, or melancholie tearmed Lycanthropie.
Lice: f. A Liſts, or Tilt-yard; also, a bitch; also, a whore (See Lyce;) also, the wooſe, or thread of the ſhittle, in weaning; also, a certaine round peece of wood in the fore-caſtle of a ſhip.

Lice de charpenterie. A frame, or double, and close-wrought rayle, or barre of timber; such as the foundations of water-worke piles, &c, are compassed with.

De haute lice. Of rich worke, much worth; high stile, excellent stuffe; hence, Tapisserie de haute lice. The best kind of Tapistrie.

Fuir la lice. To shun, or quit the field; to refuse, or abandon, the fight; (any way) to flinch.

Lice: com. Smooth, sleeke; See Lisé.

Licence: f. Licence, leaue, libertie; permission, sufferance.

Licencié: m. A Licenciate; a Batcheler of Diuinitie; one that hath his Grace for a Doctorship; In Law, one that hath leaue to plead for clyents; an vtter Barrister.

Licencié sous la cheminée. One that doth his acts in Tenebris; one that steales a Degree, or gets it without desert.

Licencié: m. ée: f. Dismissed, discharged.

Licencier. To dismisse, discharge, giue leaue, graunt licence vnto.

Licencieusement. Licentiously, freely, with full sufferance.

Licharder. To licke daintily, feed quaintly, pick vp morsels curiously.

Liche. A kind of the fish Glaucus.

Liche-casse. A lick-box, a sweet-lips. ¶Rab.

Liche-doigt: m. One that lickes his fingers one after the other; also, one that does things leisurely, or by peeces; whence;

A liche-doigt. Peecemeale, by patches or parcels, by degrees, one after another; also, daintily, or sparingly.

Liche-frite: f. A Dripping-panne.

Lichement: m. A licking; lapping, or slapping vp.

Lichene: f. A Ring-worme, or Tettar.

Licher. To licke; lap; slap vp.

Licherie: f. A licking, sawcinesse, lickerousnesse.

Licheron: m. A sawcie companion.

Licheur: m. A licker, lapper, or slapper vp of; a lickerous, or sawcie companion.

Licisque. A dog ingendred betweene a wolfe, and a dog.

Licisque orgoose. A salt bitch.

Licitation: f. A profering, or setting to sale, vnto him that will giue most; also, a prizing, or cheapening.

Licitation & decret. Fine and recouerie.

Licite: com. Lawfull; allowable.

Licol: m. A rope, halter; horse-collar; Looke Chevestre.

Gens de sac, & de licol. Rogues, vagabonds; also, begging Friers.

Licorne: f. An Vnicorne; also, Vnicornes horne.

Lict: m. A bed, couch, pallet; also, a course, ranke, bed, or laire of stone, &c, in building.

Lict brisé. Mariage broken, a maried couple parted.

Lict d'un cerf. The lodge of a Deere.

Lict de Iustice. A Iudiciall Seat, or Throne of Iustice; the Kings Seat in a Court, or in Parliament.

Lict de matlas. A Mattheresse, or Flock-bed.

Lict de parement. The bed wherein a woman lyes in; also, a Sparuer; Looke Parement.

Licts de parlement. Quilts stuffed with Chestnut leaues; tearmed so in mockage, because being stirred, or stirred on, they make a brabling, or confused noise.

Lict d'une Riviere. The channell of a Riuer.

Lict verd. A couch, or bed of ease to sit, or loll on in the day time.

En lict de chien n'y a point d'oingture: Prov. The kennell of a dog's without sweet ointments.

Le Lict est vne belle chose, qui n'y dort on y repose: Pro. A well-made bed's a good, and friendlie neast, for though one sleepe not on't, he takes his rest.

Lictée. Seeke Littée.

Lictiere: f. A Litter, or Horse-litter; also, litter for horses, &c; also, old dung, or manure.

Batre la lictiere. A horse to stay or continue in, or not to stirre out of, the stable.

Faire lictiere de. To violate, prophane, abuse; despise, contemne, make vile account, or base vse of; tread vnder foot.

Mettre à la lictiere. To ruine, ouerthrow, pull downe, put vnto most vile or base offices, tread vnder foot.

Lide: f. A kind of woodden, and warlike Engine vsed in old time.

Lie: f. The lees, dregs, grounds, thicke substance that settles in the bottome of liquor.

Tirer vn traict sus la lie. To broach a vessell below, or towards the bottome; to leacher it, or get a licke at.

Lie: com. Cheerefull, pleasant, buxome.

Dire vne chose de chere lie. To say a thing with a merrie countenance, cheerie visage, looke full of glee.

Faire chere lie. To be iocond, merrie, frolicke; to make great sport, or good cheere.

Lié: m. ée: f. Tyed, bound; fastened, fettered; obliged; annexed, or knit vnto; combined, or vnited with; holding, or hanging together.

Potage lié. Broth, or pottage thickened with the yolkes of egges, or crummes of white bread.

Lié avec fueilles de pourreaux. Weakely bound God wot; readie, or easie, to be loosed.

Où la Chevre est liée faut qu'elle broute: Pro. The Goat must brouze where she is bound; where a man is setled let him seeke to liue.

Liege: m. Corke.

Liege. Fief liege. as Fief ample; Seeke Ample.

Liegé: m. ée: f. Corked; stopped, or vnderlayed with Corke; whence;

Soulier liegé. A Corke shooe.

Lieger. To corke; to stop, raise, or vnderlay, with Corke.

Liement: m. A binding, tying, fastening, fettering, knitting, annexing vnto; a combining, or vniting with; an vnion, or adherence; a closing, gluing, souldering; a holding, or hanging together.

Liément. Merrily, blithely, iocondly, buxomely, gladsomely, with much glee.

Lien: m. A band, or tye; a line, cord, string; any thing that fasteneth, or fettereth; as a thong, rope, gyue, manacle, shackle, &c; also, a ligament, or ligature; also, the loope of a dart.

Iustice patibulaire à deux piliers, & liens par dedans & par dehors. A Gibbet standing on two pillars; a paire of Gallowes, bound both within and without; belongs vnto, or may be kept by, a Lo. high Iusticier.

Sainct Pierre aux liens. Lammas day; or the first of August.

Ce n'est que trainer son lien. He does but diuert, for a while, the plagues which will fall vpon him; or, goe whether he will, make what shift he can, he carries his payment with him; hence the Prouerbe; Il n'est pas eschappé qui traine son lien.

A meschant chien court lien; &, à petit chien petit lien; &, à rude chien dur lien: Prov. Looke Chien.

Rien ne vaut poulain s'il ne rompt son lien: Pro. The colt that's halter breakes not mettall wants.

Liens. as Leans.

Lienteric. Flux lienteric. as Lienteric.
Lienterie: f. A flux wherein meat is voided (raw, and vndiſgeſted) preſently after the eating thereof.
Lienterieux: m. euſe: f. Troubled with, or ſicke of, that flux.
Lienterique: com. The ſame.
Liepard: m. A Libbard, or Leopard.
Lier: m. The allay of coyne.
Lier. To tye, bind, faſten, knit; halter, fetter; ſoulder, vnite, combine; oblige, or make beholden to.
On lie bien le ſac avant qu'il ſoit plein: Prov. A ſacke before't be full is eaſily bound vp; there's hope of compaſſing one that's in want.
Il ne faut pas lier les Aſnes avec les chevaux: Pro. We muſt not mingle bad and good together.
Liernes: f. Slits, Enterlaſſes, or Entertoiſes of Timber.
Lierre: m. Iuie.
Lierre arboré. Tree Iuie, wall Iuie; the great, or climing Iuie.
Lierre blanc. The white Iuie, or female great Iuie, bearing a white berrie.
Lierre clavelé. as Petit Lierre.
Lierre Helix. Barren, or creeping Iuie.
Lierre noir. The ordinarie climing, or black-berried Iuie.
Lierre piquant. Rough Bindweed.
Lierre terreſtre. Ground Iuie, Alehooſe, Gill creepe by ground, Tunehooſe, Catsfoot.
Lierre trainant. as Lierre terreſtre; or creeping, and barren Iuie.
Petit Lierre. Small Iuie, ground Iuie, creeping or barren Iuie.
Lieſſe: f. Glee, mirth, gladneſſe, ioyfullneſſe, cheerefullneſſe, lightneſſe of heart.
Liet. as Liais.
Liet: m. ette: f. Glad, blithe, merie, iocond, frolicke, pleaſant, buxome, cheerefull.
Liette: f. A till, or drawer; alſo, a ca[illegible], or ſmall coffer full of tills, or drawers.
Lieu: m. A place; roome; ſeat, ran[illegible]; ſtead; [illegible], a qualitie, calling, degree, ſtate; alſo, cre[illegible]dit, eſteem, reckoning, account; alſo, a houſe, or dwel[illegible]ng place; and hence;
Lieu chevels. A Mannor-houſe. ¶Norm.
Chef lieu. A Lords chiefe Houſe, Place, or Mannor; (and, in the cuſtomes of Mons, and Valenciennes each of thoſe Townes is tearmed Chef lieu.)
Au lieu, & en lieu de. In lieu, in ſtead, in the roome of.
En temps, & lieu. Fitly, conueniently, ſeaſonably, then when it ſhould be.
Sur le lieu. There; in that verie place; alſo, preſently, incontinently, forthwith, before he ſtirred one foot thence.
Il n'a feu ne lieu. He hath nor houſe nor harbour; he hath not a hole to hide his head in.
S'il y a lieu de s'arreſter à ſon dire. If there be cauſe to ſtand on his report, if there be reaſon to build vpon his tale, if we may ſafely beleeue him.
Bonne parole bon lieu tient, & Meſchantes paroles ont meſchant lieu: Pro. Seeke Parole.
Lieve: f. as Leve.
Lieuë: f. A League; two miles.
La Lieuë de Bourgongne; Containes 50 Portées. Looke Portée.
Les grandes lieuës, comme celles d'Allemaigne; containe verie neere foure of our miles.
Les moyennes lieuës, comme celles de Dauphiné, ou de Languedoc; are about three of our miles.
Les petites lieuës, comme celles d'Italie; are little other then our miles.
Lievement. as Levée.
Lieur: m. A binder, tyer, faſtener, knitter, halterer, fetterer; ſoulderer; vniter of.
Lieure: f. as Liement; or, as Liaiſon.
Lievre: f. A Hare.
Lievres cuiraſſez, ou morionnez. So doe ſome Authors tearme poore Artiſans that watch.
Lievre marin. The ſea Hare; an ouglie, and venomous fiſh, whoſe left ſide nothing reſembles the right.
Bec de lievre. A Hares lip, or mouth; the vpper lip cleft in the middle vp to the noſe.
Memoire de lievre. Extreame forgetfullneſſe.
Oeil de lievre. An eye whoſe lids keepe open in ſleeping; alſo, one whoſe vpper lid (by conuulſion, or otherwiſe) is reuerted, and thereby hindered from conering the white.
Oreille de lievre. Seeke Oreille.
Palais au lievre. The ſmooth Sow-thiſtle; or the milke Thiſtle called, Hares Lettuce.
Pied de lievre. Hares-foot, Harefoot Trefoile, baſe Trefoile, rough Clauer.
Plus coüard qu'un lievre. More heartleſſe then a Hare (then which no beaſt hath leſſe heart.)
Fuyard en lievre. That runnes when he ſhould reſiſt; or (more properly) that runnes becauſe he cannot reſiſt.
Le lievre eſt mis au rouët. Looke Rouët.
Ie ſçay bien ou giſt le lievre. I know well which is the verie point, or knot of the matter. Voila ou giſt le lievre (to the ſame purpoſe.)
Il fait accroire que les lievres pondent, & font des œufs. (Applyable to one that is an extreame prater, and a monſtrous lyer to boot;) He would make vs beleeue that Hares lay egges.
Les chiens vous mangeront le lievre. That which you haue gaped, or hunted for will be had, or got, from you.
Prendre le lievre au tabourin. To performe impoſſibilities; whence the Prouerbe.
L'on ne prend le lievre au ſon de tambour. Applyable to ſuch, as ſtriue to be obeyed by force; or thinke by lowd, and great words to ouermaiſter euerie bodie; or preſume they can ſurpriſe a place whoſe inhabitants had notice of their comming: And is as much as to tell them, they labour in vaine; for Hares are not to be caught by drumming.
Bon eſt le lievre dont la peau couſte cent ſous: Pro. The Hare whoſe skin coſts deere is worth the hauing: we ſay of a thing bought at a high rate, it had need be daintie it coſt him ſo deere; or, it is a Hare dreſſed with Veniſon, or Deere, ſauce.
En petit buiſſon trouve on grand lievre: Prov. A little buſh may hold a great Hare; a little bodie a great heart.
Pas à pas le bœuf prend le lievre: Pro. By little and little an Ox may catch a Hare; The like is;
Vne vache prend bien vn lievre: Prov. Patient perſeuerance wins ground of haſtie vehemence; ſo may a ſlow-paced Cow ouretake the nimble Hare.
Lieutenant: m. A Lieutenant, Deputie, Subſtitute, Vicegerent; alſo, an vnder Iudge, or the deputie of a Bailli, or of a Lo. high Iuſticiers Iudge; whence;
Lieutenant civil. A Iudge of ordinarie controuerſies betweene partie and partie.

Lieutenant criminel. (Son office eſt de s'informer des crimes, & faire le procez aux criminels, par interrogatoires, recolemens, & confrontations; & en apres les iuger: cognoiſt des delicts non punis par le Iuge du lieu: cognoiſt de remiſsions, rappels de ban, & pardons: peut faire armer le peuple: ne doit aſsiſter au iugement des procez civils:) There be two ſorts of them; viz. de robbe longue, & de robbe courte, ſomewhat inferiour to th'others, as being receiued, and inſtituted by them.

On n'y peut mettre Lieutenant. This muſt be done in perſon, or cannot be done by Atturney.

Lieutrin. as Letrin.

Lieux: m. euſe: f. Full of lees, dregs, or grounds; thick in the bottome after ſtanding.

Lifrelofre: m. A huffeſnuffe, ſwag-bellie, puffe-bag; (a word coined in deriſion of the Germanes, and Swiſſers.)

Ligament: m. A ligament, or ligature; a tie, band, or ſtring; eſpecially, th'inſencible ſtring thats ſeated either within, or neere vnto, a ioynt, and is tearmed by our Anatomiſts, a Ligament.

Ligamenteux: m. euſe: f. Full of ligaments, ſtrings, ligatures.

Ligature: f. A ligature, tie, band; alſo, a binding, tying, faſtening.

Lige: m. Allegiance, or liegemanſhip; whence;

Fiefs tenus à plein lige. Fiefs held by full homage, or allegiance.

Lige: com. Liege, leall, or loyall; ſubiect, vaſſall; naturall, ones owne.

Garde lige. The gard, or defence of a Lord, or of his caſtle or principall houſe, due from the vaſſall (ſufficiently, and for certaine dayes armed) when there is need, or when he is required thereto.

Hommage lige. Seeke Hommage; Where though (in Hommage plein*) it be ſaied, that it, and* Lige be all one (becauſe the cuſtomes of moſt places confound them) yet by ſome Plein is held more abſolute then Lige.

Prince lige. A liege Lord; the Prince to whom one is by birth, and fortune ſubiect.

Seigneur lige. The ſame; alſo, a direct, immediate, or next Lord.

Tenuë lige. as Tenuë à ligence.

Ligeaulté: f. Loyaltie, or the fidelitie due by a ſubiect vnto his naturall Prince.

Ligement. Loyally, by allegiance; alſo, directly, immediately, next vnto.

Ligence: f. Liegemanſhip, allegiance, faith, loyaltie.

Devoir de ligence. The garding of a Lords caſtle, or houſe, due by his vaſſall (armed, and on horſebacke) certaine dayes, and nights in the yeare; or when he is required thereto; or otherwiſe, as the cuſtome of the place, or qualitie of his Tenure binds him.

Tenuë à ligence. A Tenure in chiefe; a direct, or immediate Tenure (ſubiect vnto the Devoir aforeſaid.)

Ligier. as Leger.

Lignade: f. Wooddage; prouiſion of wood.

Faire lignade. A ſhip to take in, or to furniſh a ſhip with, fuell, or fire-wood.

Lignage: m. A linage, progenie, ſtocke, race, kindred, familie, parentage; alſo, wooddage; and hence;

Devoir de lignage. A certaine toll taken for euerie load of wood thats brought into Rennes in Britaine.

Lignager: m. A direct kinſman; See Linagier.

Lignagier: m. ere: f. Directly akinne, of neere kindred; of the ſame ſtocke, line, houſe, race, familie; belonging to that linage.

Retraict lignagier. Seeke Retraict.

Ligne: f. A line; any ſtreake, ſmall draught, or lineament; alſo, a thread, or long ſtring; a verſe, or line in writing; a ſtocke, or branch in a pedegree, a degree of kindred; alſo, the third part of a barlie corne, or the twelfth part of an inch in meaſuring (and the laſt, and leaſt of that kind of meaſure.)

Ligne blanche. The lower part of the bellie whereat the muſcles thereof doe meet; the white line, the vmbelicall veine.

Ligne de compte. The line made (in an accompt) from the ſubiect to the ſumme; alſo, a ranke, or file of counters in caſting.

Mettre en ligne de compte. To reckon, eſteeme, account, allow of; to regiſter in the Kalender of account; to remember, or mention in diſcourſe, as a thing of ſome importance.

Ligne eſtainte. as Droict de Deſherance.

Ligne feincte. A ſuppoſed line in Geometrie; vſed often as a Demetient, when a line is ſuppoſed to runne from one point (without latitude, or thickneſſe) to another.

Ligne de perles. A thread of pearle.

Bois de ligne. Timber ſquared out by line and leuell; wrought timber; alſo, an angle-rod.

Cotte & ligne. (which ſhould rather be, coſté & ligne;) Signifies peculiar kindred; or a particular branch of a familie, or kindred; and ſo when a man giues his wife a thing, à cotte & ligne, he meanes it abſolutely vnto her, and her owne kinsfolke.

Tenir cotte & ligne. To haue the law in his owne hands, to doe what he liſt.

Biens meubles ne tiennent coſté ne ligne; aſçavoir, ne ſuivent eſtoc, coſté, ny ligne.

Tirer hors ligne. To ſumme vp; from the cuſtome of Auditors, &c, who ſet the ſumme of euerie parcell at th'end, or outſide of the ſubiect.

Lignear: m. are: f. Linear, by line, in a direct courſe, or line; alſo, belonging to a line.

Lignée: f. as Lignage.

Ligner. To line, as a dog (or dog-Wolfe) a bitch.

Ligneraye: f. A line-yard, or flax-yard.

Ligneul: m. Shoomakers thread; or, a tatching end.

Ligneux: m. euſe: f. Wooddie, full of wood; alſo, full of lines, or ſmall and long threads.

Lignier: m. A pile of wood.

Lignoul. as Ligneul.

Ligombeau: m. A ſea Creuice, or little Lobſter.

Ligoter. To prune a vine; to take from about it the ſtones, clods, or hearbes that hinder the budding thereof.

Ligue: f. A league, or confederacie; a complot, or combination of ſides, or parties which haue beene diuided; an agreement made, or alliance contracted; alſo, mutuall intercourſe of kindneſſes; alſo, an excellent Souldier, eight parts whereof be fine gold, three ſiluer, and three copper.

Ligué: m. ée: f. Leagued, in league with; confederate, combined, allied with.

se Liguer l'vn à l'autre. To make a league, to cõtract alliance, to enter into confederacie one with another.

Ligule: f. A little tongue, lingell, tenon; a ſpoone, ſlice, or ſmall ladle, vſed by Apothecaries; alſo, a ſmall (Romane) meaſure containing about a ſpoonefull; and in weight three drammes, and a ſcruple.

Ligumbault. as Ligombeau.

Liguſtic: m. The hearbe Louage.

Li-

Lilac. as Ben (of two ſillables.)

Limace : f. A Snaile(moſt properly, the dew Snaile, or Snaile without a ſhell ;) alſo, as Volute ; any thing that winds, or turnes like a Snaile-ſhell, &c.

Limaceux : m. euſe : f. Snailie, Snaile-like ; full of Snailes ; alſo, as ;

Limacial : m. ale : f. Of a Snaile, reſembling a Snaile ; winding, twirling, or turning about like the ſhell of a Snaile.

Limaçon : m. A Snaile (and moſt properly that which hath a ſhell.)

Limaçon de mer. A Winkle, or Periwinkle.

Petit Limaçon de mer. as Nerite.

Herbe à Limaçon. Medicke fodder, Snaile Clauer.

Pierre de Limaçon. The Snaile ſtone ; found in the heads of ſome (dew) Snailes ; tis white, ſomewhat tranſparent, and rugged ; it ſeemes hard, and yet, being preſſed betweene the teeth, breaks as ſmall as ſand : the vulgar hold it good for a Tertian, or Quartan Ague.

Treffle au limaçon. as Herbe à limaçon.

Faire le limaçon. To wind, twirle, or turne round about ; ſouldiers to doe the ring, or to caſt themſelues into a ring.

Autant chemine vn homme en vn iour comme vn limaçon en cent ans : Prov. A quicke workeman diſpatches as much in one day as a ſlowbacke in twentie.

Contre la nuict s'arment les limaçons : Pro. Snails arme themſelues (put out their hornes) towards night.

Limaçonner. To twirle, turne, or wind about, like the ſhell of a Snaile, or as ſouldiers that caſt themſelues into a ring.

Limaille : f. File-duſt, pinne-duſt.

Limailles : f. as Legumages ; Pulſe.

Limaire. A young Tunnie.

Limande : f. A Burt, or Bret-fiſh ; alſo, a broad Pipe-ſtaffe, or boord, prepared, faſhioned, and fit, for caske ; alſo, a ſhort cudgell.

Limas. as Limaçon.

Limaſſe : f. as Limace.

Limaſſe à eau. The little water Snaile.

Limaſſon. as Limaçon.

Limature : f. A filing ; alſo file-duſt.

Limbe de bouteille. The mouth, or brinke of a bottle.

Limbes. A low, and vnſauorie roome in priſons ; alſo, the Purgatorie of vnbaptized children.

Lime : f. A file ; alſo, as Limaçon.

Limes. A wild Boares nether tusks, or tuſhes.

Lime ſourde. A ſoft, or ſmooth file, which makes no noiſe when tis vſed ; alſo, a dreaming, ſlie, malicious knaue ; or, as in ;

Faire la lime ſourde. To giue no eare vnto ; or, to ſeeme as if he either heard not, or cared not to beare.

Limé : m. ée : f. Filed ; ſmoothed, poliſhed ; ſcraped, or ſhauen vnto a ſleekneſſe, or euenneſſe ; alſo, licked ; alſo, gleeked, or looked askew at.

Limer. To file ; ſmooth, poliſh ; to ſcrape, or ſhaue a thing till it be ſleeke, or euen ; alſo, to licke, as a Hare doth her young ones ; alſo, to gleeke, or looke askew at.

Limes ; &, Lime-ſourde. as in Lime.

Limeſtre. The cloth whereof hoods be made is called Drap de limeſtre ; and from hence thoſe that weare them be in contempt called Limeſtres.

Limeur : m. A filer.

Limeure : f. File-duſt ; alſo, a filing.

Limier : m. A Bloud-hound, or Lime-hound.

Limignon d' vne chandelle. The wicke of a candle.

Liminaire : com. Set before th'entrie, or at the beginning of ; dedicatorie ; forerunning.

Limitateur : m. A limiter, bounder, ſtinter, preſcriber.

Limitation : f. A limitation, reſtriction, reſtraint, preſcription, modification.

Limite : f. A limit, bound, ſtint ; border, frontire ; preſcription ; a condition, courſe, or compaſſe appointed one.

Limité : m. ée : f. Limited, bounded, ſtinted, reſtrained, preſcribed a certaine courſe, or compaſſe.

Limiter. To limit, bound, ſtint ; preſcribe a condition, appoint a courſe, reſtraine within a compaſſe.

Limiteur : m. A limiter, bounder, ſtinter.

Limitrophe : com. Bordering vpon, adioyning or lying neere vnto.

Limoine : f. Pyrola, Winter-greene, Winter Beets, wild Beets.

Limon : m. Slime ; or thicke, and ſlimie durt, mud, mire, puddle, dregs ; alſo, a ſlimie ſoile ; alſo, a Lemmon ; alſo, the Thill of a waine, wagon, &c ; In which ſence (becauſe a Thill conſiſts of two beames) it is moſt vſed in the Plurall number.

Limonier. Cerfs limoniers. Stags painted, as Thill-horſes, with carts at their heeles.

Cheval limonier. A Thill-horſe, or Cop-horſe ; he that goes next to the waine, &c.

Limonne. as Poncille.

Limonneux : m. euſe : f. Slimie ; muddie, boggie, durtie, mirie, puddle, filthie, full of ordure.

Limpide : com. Cleere, bright, ſheene, glazie, tranſparent.

Limure. File-duſt ; alſo, a filing.

Lin : m. Line, flax ; flaxen or hempen yarne ; linnen cloth.

Lin ſauvage. Flax-weed, wild flax, tode-flax, Flaine-wort.

Lin vif. A kind of Indian line, or linnen, which the fire purifies, but conſumes not.

Goutte, ou podagre, de lin. The weed Dodder ; (and flax it ſelfe is ſaid to haue the gowt, when one ſtaulke twines about another as it growes.)

Il a meſlé le lin avec la chanure ; &c ;

Il a tiſſu lin avec eſtouppe. He hath mingled flax with toe ; he hath iumbled good and bad together.

Linage : m. Linage, kindred ; See Lignage.

Linagier : m. A direct, or neere kinſman.

Linagier ſur linagier n'a point de retenuë. One kinſman cannot recouer the land that hath bin bought by another.

Linagier : m. ere : f. as Lignagier ; Neere akinne, &c.

Linaire. Flax-weed, Flainewort, wild flax, tode-flax.

Linarole : f. The name of a delicate Italian peare which is ripe in Auguſt.

Linceul : m. A ſheet (for a bed.)

Le plus riche n'emporte qu'un linceul : Prov. The richeſt carries but one ſheet t' his graue.

se Linder par terre. To creepe, or crawle along the ground.

Line. as Ligne.

Lineament : m. A lineament, or feature, of the face, or of any other part.

Lineature : f. A lineature, or feature.

Lineature des mains. The lines, or ſtreakes of the hands, wherein Palmiſters, and Fortune-tellers ground their coniectures.

Linée: f. A ſtocke, linage, parentage.
Lineiment. as Liniment.
Linge: m. Linnen, flaxen; alſo, a peece of linnen cloth.
Linge: com. Lanke, thinne, meager, ſcraggie, leane.
Lingere. as Lingiere.
Lingerie: f. The making, or ſelling of linnen cloth; alſo, linnen, linnen ſtuffe, things made of linnen.
Lingiere: f. A Seamſter; a woman that makes, or ſells linnen, or linnen ware.
Lingot: m. An ingot, lumpe, or maſſe of mettall.
Lingotiere: f. The mould wherein ingots are framed, or caſt.
Linir: m. A Flax-man; a ſeller of flax.
Liniere: f. A Flax-wife.
Liniment: m. A liniment, or thinne ointment; alſo, a ſmearing, annointing, gentle dawbing, ſoft rubbing on.
Linier. To ſmeare, annoint, rub ſoftly, or gently on.
Linitif: m. iue: f. Mitigating, refreſhing, paine-aſſwaging, ache-quailing; mollifying, ſuppling.
Linition: f. A ſmearing, annointing, gentle rubbing.
Linomple: f. A fine, thinne, or open-waled linnen, much uſed in Picardie (where it is made) for womens kerchers, and Church-mens ſurpleſſes.
Linon: m. as Linomple; Some alſo tearme Lawne ſo.
Linoſtolie: f. A cutting of the haire.
Linotte: f. A Linnet.
Il a vne teſte de linotte. He hath but a light, or giddie head of his owne.
Linſueil: m. A ſheet; See Linceul.
Linteau: m. The lintell, or headpeece, ouer a doore.
Lintheau. as Linteau.
Lion: m. A Lyon; alſo, the (Zodiacall) Signe Leo; alſo, a peece of coyne worth about 6 s. ſterl.
Lion de mer. The ſea Lion; reſembles both in ſhape, and bigneſſe, the land one; alſo, a kind of great Lobſter.
Dent de lion. Dandelion, Prieſtes crowne, Swines ſnowt, Piſſabed.
Pas de lion. as Pied de lion.
Patte de lion. Lyons claw, Setterwort, Settergraſſe, baſtard blacke Ellebore; alſo, as;
Pied de lion. Lyons foot, Lyons paw, great Sanicle, our Ladies mantle, (ſome alſo tearme Lyons leafe, and Lyons Turnep, pes Leoninus.)
Sault du lion. A certaine tumbling tricke vpon a ſtoole, or little bench.
Vin de lion. Terrible ſtrong wine; ſuch as makes the drinker, fell, and furious.
Batre le chien devant le lion. See Batre.
Conjecturant le lion par les ongles. Gheſſing at the Lyon by his clawes; at the humor of the man by his courſes; Looke Ongle.
Coudre la peau du regnard à celle du lion. To attempt that by ſleight which hee could not obtaine by might.
Prendre le lion par les iubes. To performe a difficult or dangerous act.
Il n'y eut iamais bon marché de peaux de lions: Prov. A Lyons skinne was neuer bought good cheape; the valiant euer ſold their skinnes full deere.
Lioneeau: m. A Lyons whelpe, or young Lyon.
Lionin: m. ine: f. Lyoniſh, Lyon-like, of a Lyon.
Lionne: f. A Lyoneſſe.
Lionneau: m. as Lionceau.
Lionneux: m. euſe: f. Full of Lyons.
Lionnier: m. A keeper of Lyons.
Lionnin. as Lionin; Alſo, of a Lion-tawnie colour.

Liperquam. faire de liper. To ſhew his authoritie, to let the world ſee his power; to beare himſelfe as one that can doe all in all; to take exceeding much vpon him: This word is (corruptly) vſed inſtead of, luy per quem (all things are done.)
Lipie. See Lippie.
Lipothymie: f. A ſwounding wherein the patient ſeems dead.
Lippaire: m. Lip-ſalue.
Lippe: f. A lip; (See Lype) alſo, as Lippie; or Lippitude.
Lippée: f. A big bit, a good morſell, a mouthfull; alſo, a meale, or bellifull of meat.
Mouche de lippée. A lickorous, or ſaucie companion.
Il avoit ſa lippée du butin. Hee had a ſhare in the bootie.
Il flatte pour la lippée. He collogues with one, of purpoſe to get a meale by him.
Lippie: f. The redneſſe, or ſoreneſſe of a bleare eye.
Lippion. Part of a womans &c.
Lippitude: f. Bleareднeſſe, or bleare-eyedneſſe; a running of the eyes accompanied with paine, and rednеſſe.
Lippu: m. uë: f. Thicke-lipped, great-lipt; alſo, pewting, or hanging the lip, as a child thats readie to crie.
Liquabilité: f. Aptneſſe to melt, or to become liquid.
Liquation: f. A melting.
Liquefié: m. ée: f. Diſſolued, melted, made liquid; clarified.
Liquerice: f. Lickorice.
Liqueur: f. Liquor, humor, moiſture, ſap, iuyce, water.
Liqueur Septembrine. Wine (becauſe tis made in September.)
Liquidation: f. An euidence, cleering, manifeſtation; alſo, a diſcuſſing, or examination.
Liquide: com. Liquid, moiſt, wet; thinne, pure, cleere; manifeſt, euident, pregnant, apparent; certaine.
Debte liquide. A cleere, ſure, ſound debt.
Liquidé: m. ée: f. Cleered, manifeſted, made euident, pregnant, certaine, apparent; alſo, diſcuſſed, examined; alſo, made liquid, moiſt; thinne, pure.
Liquider. To cleere, manifeſt, make pregnant, certaine, apparent; alſo, to examine, or diſcuſſe; alſo, to make liquid, moiſt, or thinne.
Liquider les deſpens d'vn procez. To cleere, or to correct, them; a Judge to ſet downe which ſhall be allowed, and which not; (This phraſe is applied eſpecially, to th'examination of ordinarie, and well-knowne, charges; ſuch as be the due fees of Counſellors, Attorneyes, Officers, Clerkes, &c.)
Lire: f. The muſicall Inſtrument Lyra.
Lire. To read.
Autant vaut celuy qui chaſſe & rien ne prend, comme celuy qui lit & rien n'entend: Prov. Hee that hunts, and catches nought, is much like him that reads, and conceiues nought.
Lire-liron. The burthen of a ſong.
Liripipié. Hooded, as a Graduate.
Liripipion: m. A Graduates hood.
Liripipionné. as Liripipié; Alſo, mellow, cupſhotten; or, faithfull to the pot, and therefore bearing the red-faced liuerie thereof.
Liron: m. A Dormouſe.
Liron de pain. A little gobbet, luncheon, or cantle of bread.
Lis: m. A Lillie.
Lis blanc. Th'ordinarie white garden Lillie.
Lis celeſte. The blew Lillie.

Lis d'eſtang. Water Lillie, water Roſe, the yellow and white Nenuphar.
Lis iaulne. Liriconfancie, yellow Lillie.
Lis de mer. The white ſea Daffadill, or white ſea Onion.
Lis ſauvage. Wild Lillie, mountaine Lillie; alſo, Liriconfancie, or the yellow Lillie.
Lis de vent. A guſt, or flaw of wind; alſo, an oppoſition of two contrarie winds; or as Rumb.
Aller au lis de vent. To goe cloſe by the wind, ſaile with a ſcant wind, lay tacke aboord.
Liſable: com. Legible, readable.
Liſard: m. as Liſarde; or Lezard.
Liſarde: f. A Lizard; Newt, Aske; (See Lezard;) alſo, a woman that reads much.
Liſarde verde. The great, greene, and harmeleſſe Lizard Ramarro; a friend vnto men, on whom ſhe loues to gaze, and whom ſleeping ſhe vſes to gard from the treacherous aſſaults of Serpents.
Liſer. To liſt, or border a garment; alſo, to coaſt along by a countrey.
Liſeron: m. Withiwind, Bindweed, Ropeweed, Hedge-bells.
Liſeron aſpre. Rough Bindweed.
Liſeron grand. as Grand liſet.
Liſet: m. The Vine-fretter, or diuells Goldring; (a worme;) alſo, as Liſeron; Withiwind; and hence;
Liſet petit. Small Withiwind, or Bindweed; alſo, the blacke purging Bindweed.
Liſet picquant. Rough Bindweed.
Grand liſet. The great, ſmooth, white Bindweed, Ropeweed, Withiwind, Hedge-bells.
Liſible: com. Legible, readable.
Liſiére: f. The liſt of cloth, or of ſtuffe; th'edge, or hemme of a garment; alſo, th'end, or the extreame outward part of any thing; and hence, a frontire, march, border, vtmoſt bound, or coaſt of a countrey.
Liſiereux: m. euſe: f. Preſcribing the limits, appointing or ſetting out the bounds, of ſeuerall countries.
Liſisque as Liciſque.
Liſſant. Sleeking, glazing, poliſhing.
Liſſant de gueulles. Scaled Gules; (a tearme of Blazon.)
Liſſe. as Lice; Alſo, one of the ropes wherwith the mainyard of a ſhip is hoiſed vp; alſo, a rowler of maſſiue glaſſe wherewith Curriers doe ſleeke, and gloſſe their leather.
Liſſé: m. ée: f. Sleeked, gloſſed, glazed, poliſhed; ſmooth, ſlipperie, glib.
Liſſer. To ſleeke, to gloſſe, to glaze, to poliſh, to ſmooth, to make ſlipperie.
Liſſeron: m. Th'hearbe Peruinkle, or Periwinkle.
Liſſure: f. A ſleeking, glaſing, poliſhing, ſetting a gloſſe on, ſmoothing.
Liſte: f. A liſt, roll, checkroll, or catalogue of names, &c; alſo, a liſt, or ſeluedge; alſo, a ſmall ſquare out-iutting brow, or member of a piller; alſo, as Littre.
Liſteau: m. A little liſt; roll, catalogue; ſeluedge.
Litarge. as Litharge.
Literaire: com. Of, or belonging to, letters, or learning.
Literal: m. ale: f. Learned, literall, well ſeene in liberall Artes.
Literature: f. Literature, learning.
Literon: f. as Litron.
Litharge: m. Litargie, white lead; lead mixed with the droſſe of ſiluer and braſſe.
Litharge d'argent. Siluer foame, or the ſpume of tried ſiluer; or rather, the lead wherein ſiluer oare hath beene melted (that it might be purged, and cleered from the lead, or copper that was in it) which being done by a gentle fire giues it a ſiluer hew, and thereby this name.
Litharge d'or. Gold foame; the beſt kind of Litargie; comes of lead wherein ſiluer hath beene melted by a quick, and great fire, giuing it a golden luſter, & thereby this name.
Litharge de plomb. as Plombagine; alſo, as Eſcume de plomb.
Lithiale: f. The ſtone in the bladder.
Lithomantie: f. Diuination by the caſting of ſible ſtones.
Lithortipon. for Lithontripton; Stone-diſſoluing, or ſtone-breaking; Rab.
Liticonteſter. To proteſt in a ſuit; viz. to deliuer, or lay open before a Judge the chiefe points of the declaration, and anſwer.
Litiere: f. A horſelitter; alſo, litter for cattell; alſo, old dung, or manure; See Lictiere.
Litige. Suit, controuerſie, differenee, variance, contention, ſtriſe, debate: In law, s'entend proprement quand y a Action intentée par adjournement pour la choſe contentieuſe, & de qua controverſia eſt.
Litiger. To ſtriue, wrangle, contend, maintaine a ſuit againſt; to be at variance, bold debate, goe to law with.
Litigieux: m. euſe: f. Litigious, debatefull, contentious; in ſuit; or ſubiect vnto ſuit.
Litisconteſtation: f. The deliuerie, or laying open of the chiefeſt points of a caſe, pro & contra, before a Judge; done after the declaration, and anſwer be put in.
Litispendence: f. The hanging of a ſuit; or the triall, diſceptation, or deciſion thereof.
Litorne: f. A Wing-thruſh; or the red ſpotted Thruſh, that ſeldome, or neuer, appeares in Summer.
Litre. as Littre.
Litron: m. A meaſure (moſt commonly) of wood, containing ſomewhat more then our pinte, and vſed by the Retailers of Salt, Pulſe, Millet, Rapeſeed, &c.
Littée: f. The litter of a Bitch, Lyoneſſe, &c; alſo, a bed, or cake of leaues, hay, graſſe, &c, to lay, or packe vp things in.
Litteron. as Litron.
Littre: f. A funerall girdle; the blacke wherewith the vpper part of a Church is compaſſed, at the funerall of a great perſon.
Littron. as Litron.
Lituë: m. A certaine crooked ſtaffe vſed by the Roman Augures; alſo, a Croſier, or Biſhops ſtaffe.
Liture: f. A daſh, raſe, or ſtreake through a word with a penne; alſo, a daſhing, raſing, ſtriking out, a blotting, or blurring with a pen.
Livane: f. The (bird) Pellicane.
Liveau. Seeke Niveau.
Livel. d'un livel. Leuell.
Liveſche. Lombardie Louage; alſo, Alexanders.
Livide: com. Wan, lew, bleake, pale, of a leaden, earthie, or dead, colour.
Lividité: f. Liuiditie, lewneſſe, wanneſſe, bleakeneſſe, paleneſſe, blewiſhneſſe; the colour appearing vpon a ſtroake, blacke and blew; a dead, earthie, leaden hew.
Livoy: m. A ſmall vine-booke, or vine-knife.
Livraiſon: f. A liuerie, or deliuerie; alſo, a court-diſh; a diſh furniſhed from a plentifull table with ſome part of all the meat thats on it.
Livre: m. A booke, a compoſition, or worke, in writing.

Vn livre à personnages. A Dialogue.
Il veut tousiours tenir le livre. He talkes continually, no bodie can get a word for him, he will suffer no bodie to speake.
Livre : f. A pound weight.
La livre d' Anvers. The ordinarie pound, containing 16 ounces.
La livre des Apothecaries. Containing (in many places) but 12 ounces, which we call Troy weight, and was th'auntient Romane weight: (Our Apothecaries vse the sixteene-ounce pound.)
La livre d' Espaigne. Containes 14 ounces.
La livre des Espiciers, Grosiers, &c. Containes but 12 ounces; (whereas our Grocers pound containeth 16.)
La livre de Florence, & de Gennes. Is 12 ounces.
La livre de grosserie. Containes 24 ounces.
La livre de Lyon. Is 15 ounces.
La livre marchande. Containes in some places 14, in others 18, but in the most 16, ounces; which be diuided into 32 halfe ounces, they into 64 Sezains, those into 128 Tresceaux, they into 256 Gros, and they into 512 Demi gros.
La livre des Mareschaux. The Farriers pound; containes 12 ounces, diuided into 90 drammes, they into 270 scruples, and they into 540 Oboles, or halfe pence.
La livre Medecinale. The Physitians pound; contains also 12 ounces; but they be diuided into 96 drammes, they into 288 scruples, those into 576 Oboles, they into 1728 Siliques, and they into 6912 graines.
La livre de Milan, ou de la Soye. Is but 12 ounces.
La livre du gros poids. Consists of 26 ounces.
La livre du petit poids. Is but 12 ounces.
La livre Royale. The Kings pound, Aver du poids pound, most ordinarie pound, containeth 16 ounces.
Reduicts de livres en quarterons. (Somewhat like our) brought from a noble to nine-pence.
Livre : f. A pound in money.
Livre Barrois. Is worth but 14 s. Tournois, one short of 18 d. sterl.
Livre Bourdelois. Is but 12 Solz and a halfe; or the halfe of the Parisian pound.
Livre Mansais. Is 4 s. sterl. or double the worth of the Tournois.
Livre Parisis. Is worth 20 s. of Paris, or 25 s. Tourn. which come to 2 s. 6 d. sterl.
Livre Tournois. The pound Tournois; the most ordinarie French pound; amounts but to 2 s. sterl.
Livré : m. ée : f. Deliuered, giuen, or distributed vnto.
Livrée : f. A deliuerie of a thing thats giuen; and (but lesse properly) the thing so giuen; hence, a Liuerie; Ones cloth, colours, or deuice in colours worn by his seruants, or others.
La Livrée des Chanoines. Their liuerie, or corrodie; their stipend, exhibition, dailie allowance in victuals, or money.
Livrement : m. A liuerie, or deliuerie; and hence;
Livrement de fust, & terre. Liuerie, and seisin.
Livrer. To giue; to deliuer, or distribute vnto; to bestow, or conferre on; to passe, or yeeld ouer; to put into the hands of.
Livresque : com. Bookish; of, or belonging to, a booke.
Livret : m. A Pamphlet, or little booke.
Lixive. as Lexive.
Lizant. Bordering; setting a list or border on, also, coasting along by the borders of.
Lize : com. Glib, smooth, sleeke: ¶Rab.
Lizeron : m. Withiwind, Bindweed, Hedge-bells.

Lizet. as Liset.
Lizette : f. A little grayish vermine (which gnawes, and does much hurt vnto the young buds of grasis) held to work the same effects in the yard that the Cantharides doe.
Liziere : f. as Lisiere.
Lizieux : m. Woollen clothes made at a Normand towne so called.
Loage. Seeke Loüage.
Lobe : m. The lap, or loweſt part of the eare; also, a lobe, or lappet of the liuer, &c; also, as Loupe; (also, a lie, fib, jeast, gullerie, mockerie; In old French.)
Lobeau : m. A little lobe, lap, or lappie peece of.
Lober. To gull, couſen, deceiue, beguile.
Local : m. ale : f. Locall; belonging to, or contained in, a place.
Localement : m. Locally, in a place.
Locar. bled locar. A kind of wall Barlie, called S. Peters corne.
Locataire : com. A Leſſee, or hirer of a houſe, or lodging; alſo, a hireling, one which is, or may be hired; alſo, as Locateur.
Locateur : m. A letter, or hirer out of.
Locatif. A tenant, inmate, ſoiourner; one that hireth a lodging or two to lie in.
Location : f. A hiring, or letting out of; alſo, a placing; a ſetting, or beſtowing, in a place.
Loch : m. A Loche, or Loboche; a liquid confection, or ſoft medecine, thats not to be ſwallowed, but held in the mouth vntill it haue melted, and ſo paſt by degrees downe the throat; See Lohoc.
Loche : f. The Loach, a ſmall fiſh; alſo, the dew ſnayle, or ſnayle without a ſhell.
Loche franche. Is ſomewhat leſſe, and daintier then th'ordinarie Loach, which is commonly tearmed;
Loche graſſe; and liues much in the mud.
Loche de mer. A little fiſh bred of, but neuer ſo big as, the ſea Gudgeon; ſome call it a ſea Groundling.
Locher. To ſhog, ſhake, ſhocke, wag, make a noiſe like a thing thats looſe.
Lochette : f. A Groundling, or ſmall-bearded Loach.
Locquet. as Loquet.
Locule : m. A little bag, pouch, or purſe.
Locupleter. To inrich, or make wealthie.
Locution : f. A locution, ſaying, ſpeech, manner of ſpeaking.
Lôdier : m. A quilt, or quilted counterpoint for a bed.
Lodes. as Lods : ¶Breton.
Lods. Fines of Alienation due to a Lord vpon the purchaſe of a Cenſuel inheritance held of him; Seeke Ventes; or, Droict de ventes.
Loe : f. A quantitie of fiſh taken, as a cuſtome, by ſome few Normand Lords, of euerie fiſher-boat that comes into, and moores within, their hauens, creekes or harbors; eſpecially if the boat belong vnto any of their tenants, or any inhabitant of their territories.
Loere : f. as Plongeon de Riviere.
Lof. Seeke Loo.
Loge. vn loge qui peut. A lodging at randome, a lodging where one can get it, or a ſcambling for lodgings; from ſouldiers incamping, or entring of a towne, when commonly euerie one takes the firſt lodging hee lights on.
Loge : f. A lodge, cote, ſhed, or ſmall houſe; a cabine in a ſhip; a booth in a Market, or Faire, &c.
Droict de loges. Looke Droict.
Il n'eſt pas mercier qui ne ſçait faire ſa loge : Pro.

He is not worthie to vſe a trade that cannot, with his owne hands, fit all things vnto it.

Logé: m. ée: f. Lodged, houſed, harboured; lying, ſoiourning at, abiding in, a place.

I'en ſuis logé là. I am of that mind, or humor.

Nos gens en ſont bien là logéz. Are of a right mind in that, are in the right for that.

Logeable: com. Lodgeable, harbourable, intertainable in a houſe.

Vne maiſon fort logeable. A houſe of great receipt.

Loger. To lodge, lie, ſoiourne, harbour, dwell, abide for a time; to hoſt, Inne, or lie in an Inne; alſo, to lodge, intertaine, giue houſe-roome, affoord a lodging, vnto.

Vous me logez chez Guillot le ſongeur. Look Songeur.

Se loger ſur le bleſme. To looke, or wax, pale on't.

En mauvais voiſinage ſe loge on: Prov. Secke Voiſinage.

Logette: f. A little lodge, cote, roome; booth; cabane, lodging.

Les logettes és coſſes des febues. The holes, or dimples, wherein husked beanes are lodged.

Logie. Droict de logies. Looke Droict.

Logique. Logicke; the Art of reaſoning; the way to reaſon.

Pont aux aſnes de Logique. The conuerſion of propoſitions; alſo, Looke Aſne.

Logis: m. A lodging, houſe, dwelling.

Le logis des gens de pied, ou l'on n'a point la peine de fermer les portes. A priſon.

Logiſme: m. The due, and iudicious vnderſtanding of a thing, formerly conſidered, and eſteemed of, according to reaſon.

Logiſtique: f. Th'Art of counting, the practiſe of Arithmeticke; or, that part thereof which containes Addition, Subſtraction, Multiplication, and Diuiſion.

Lohoc. A Loch, or Loboch; an Electuarie, or medicine more liquid then an Electuarie, appropriated to the lungs and windpipe, and to be licked, and let down the throat by leaſure.

Loi. as Loy.

Loïal; &, Loïauté. as Loyal; &, Loyaulté.

Loidorer. To defame, reproach, reuile, raile on.

Loïer: m. as Loyer.

Loinceau. Seeke Loinſeau.

Loing. Farre, much, a great way off.

Demander de loing. To aske a farre off, or propound a farre-fetched question, as one that would know a thing without ſeeming to deſire it.

Il ne regarde plus loing que le bout de ſon nez. He is a dull, careleſſe, idle, improuident fellow.

Pas à pas on va bien loing: Prov. Faire and ſofily goeth farre.

Petite choſe de loing poiſe: Prov. A little, or light thing farre carried proues heauie.

Loingnet: m. ette: f. Somewhat long, or farre; little off.

Loingnettement. Somewhat long, or farre off; a little way off.

Loingtain: m. aine: f. Forreine, remote, much remoued, farre diſtant, farre off, a long way to, or from.

Loingtaineté: f. Farneſſe, remoteneſſe, much diſtance from, great ſpace betweene.

Loinſeau de fil. A clue, or bottome of thread.

Loir: m. A Dormouſe.

Loiſible: com. Lawfull, allowable.

Loiſir: m. Leaſure; eaſe, reſt; vacation, ſmall doings, little to doe.

De loiſir. At leaſure, without imployment, out of worke, not troubled with much buſineſſe.

Tout à loiſir. Leaſurely, faire and ſoftly, not too faſt, by degrees; idly, litherly, ſlowly.

Loiſt. (A Verbe Impersonall;) il me loiſt. I may, I am allowed, it is lawfull for me.

Lombaire: com. as Lumbaire.

Lombales: f. The parts which be on each ſide of the nauell.

Lombard: m. The name of a fertill vine; alſo, a Lombard; one of Lombardie.

Le boucon des Lombards. An impoiſoned bit (for the Lombards are ſaid to be great impoiſoners.)

Freres des Lombards. Moles, Moonecalues, monſtrous birthes; tearmed ſo, becauſe the women of Lombardie by much feeding on bearbes, fruites, and other crudities, bring forth ſometimes thoſe monſters inſtead of children; Looke Frere.

Patience de Lombard. Patience perforce, a forced or vnwilling patience.

Les graces du Lombard ſont trois dez ſur table: Prov. For ſo much is the Lombard affected vnto that meager, and vnworthie ſport, as (by his good will) hee falls to it as ſoone as his meat is out of his mouth.

Lombard: m. arde: f. Lombard, of Lombardie.

Lettres Lombardes. Letters Patents whereby the Lombards, and other Italians are licenſed to trade, or put out money to vſe, in France.

Manche Lombarde. A ſtocke-ſleeue; or faſhion of halfe-ſleeue, whoſe vpper part is raiſed, and full of plaits, or gathers.

Poule Lombarde. A great Henne, or Henne of the Game.

Lombardie: f. Lombardie; the hithermoſt part of Italie.

Secours de Lombardie. Succour thats too long in comming; or ſo long, that its vnſeaſonable when it comes.

Lombe: m. The loyne, flanke, or haunch; the leg, or knuckle.

Lombris: m. A ground worme.

L'on. Many, ſome, they; as in, l'on dit; Some people report, the world is of opinion, men ſay.

Lonce: f. The Ounce, a rauenous beaſt.

Lonche. as Louche: ¶ Normand.

Long: m. The name of an apple whereof excellent cyder is made; alſo, length; alſo, a long, or tedious perſon.

Au long aller. At the length, in th'end, in continuance, or proceſſe of time.

Tout au long de l'aulne. Throughly, ſoundly, to ſome purpoſe, from one end of the thing to another.

En bailler tout au long à. To gull, beguile, delude, come ouer finely.

Faire le long. To linger, delay, protract, prolong, driue off the time; to be loath, to goe doubtfully, or drowſily to worke.

Long: m. Longue: f. Long; tall, ſlimme; extended, out-ſtretched; continuall, tedious, wearieſome; alſo, great, large, much.

Long bois. A Pike, or Speare.

Longue eſchine. A luske, ſlimme, long-backe; or ſlowbacke; a tall, ill-fauoured, looſſe-bangled loobie; a gangrell, a ſlangam.

Vaiſſeau long. A Gallie, Foiſt, or Brigantine; See Vaiſſeau.

A la longue. At length, in tract or continuance of time, yet at the laſt, after much adoe.

Aller long. To ſhite ouer nine hedges; to haue the ſquirt, or a laske.

Avoir les dents bien longues. To haue a terrible appetite, or extreame ſtomacke, to be continually, or cruelly, ſharpe ſet.

La faire longue. Il ne la fera longue en ce monde. He cannot liue any time, hee will not be long aliue.

Longues paroles font les iours courts: Prov. Long diſcourſes make ſhort dayes.

Longale: f. A loyne.

Longard: m. A delayer, lingerer, protracter, prolonger.

Longe: f. The loyne; or flanke; (ſome name ſo the fleſhie part of the necke, backe, and reines, cut along the back; others, more commonly, the peece that extends from the kidney to the end of the rumpe; and others call both theſe parts together, la longe;) alſo, a hawkes lune, or leaſh; and hence, any long ſtring, or line of leather, &c.

Longeaſtre: com. Longiſh, or ſomewhat long.

Long encollé: m. ée: f. Long-necked, necked like a Crane.

Longiere: f. A long narrow towell.

Longis: m. A lungis; a ſlimme, ſlow-backe, dreaming luske, drowſie gangrill; a tall and dull ſlangam, that hath no making to his height, nor wit to his making; alſo, one that being ſent on an errand is long in returning.

Longitude: f. Longitude, length, longneſſe, extenſion, continuance.

Longue: f. The loyne; See Longe.

Longuement. Longly, tediouſly, at length, long time, laſtingly, of much continuance, a great while.

Longuement proceder eſt à l'advocat vendenger: Prov. Long pleading is the Lawyers harueſt.

Longuerie. as Longueur.

Long-ueſtu. as Obole de Gueldres.

Longuet: m. ette: f. Longiſh, or ſomewhat long.

Quarré longuet. A ſquare that is more long then broad.

Longueur: f. Length, longneſſe; extenſion, tallneſſe, height.

Lonze: f. A match to keepe fire with.

Loo. The looſe of a ſhip.

Bouter de loo. To goe by a wind, to ſayle neere the wind, to lay tacke aboord.

Looh; ou, Loot. as Loch.

Lopin: m. A peece, gobbit, luncheon, lumpe, cantle, nuncheon, big morſell, or parcell of.

Lopin de laine. A locke of wooll.

Qui ſuit les lopins. A paraſite, ſmell-feaſt, trencher friend.

Qui bons lopins mange bons lopins le ſuivent: Prov. Prouiſion followes them that loue to fare well.

Lopiné: m. ée: f. Cut into gobbits, parted into cantles, diuided into lumps.

Lopiner. To cut into gobbits, part into cantles, diuide into lumps; alſo, to munch, or nuncheon it, to eat greedily in a corner.

Lopinet: m. A bit, mammocke, ſmall gobbit, little peece, or parcell of.

Loppe. as Lopin; or, A lumpe of mettall rugged and vnwrought, as it comes out of the mine; alſo, the droſſe of any mettall.

Loquacité: f. Loquacitie, talkatiueneſſe, prating, pratling, babling.

Loque: f. A rag, or tatter: ¶Pic.

Loquence: f. Speech, talking.

Loquet d'vne huis. The latch, or ſnecket of a doore.

Loqueteux: m. euſe: f. Ragged, tattered; poore, needie, beggerlie in array: ¶Pic.

Loquette: f A little rag, or tatter.

Lordault. as Lourdault.

Lorderie: f. Seeke Lourderie.

Lorgnant. Leering, looking askaunce, or askew at.

Lorgne. tique, toque, lorgne. (Words expreſſing a liberall, and free dole of blowes) thwicke thwacke; alſo, here and there, at randome, without diſcretion.

Torche lorgne. The ſame.

Lorgner. (Sowerly) to leere, looke askaunce, or askew, at; alſo, to knocke, or thumpe ſoundly, to lay vpon.

Loricard: m. A luske, lowt, lorell, ſlow-backe; an vnhandſome, or miſhapen fellow.

Loricarder. To luske, lowt, or lubber it; to loyter about like a maiſterleſſe man.

Lorion: m. The bird called a Witwall, Yellow-peake, Hickway.

Loriot. as Lorion.

Lormerie: f. Small yron-Worke, as nayles, ſpurres, &c; or, a Spurriers trade.

Lormier: m. A worker in ſmall yron, a maker of ſmall yron trinkets, as nayles, ſpurres, &c: a word moſt vſed for a Spurrier; who is alſo tearmed Lormier ſellier, becauſe hee may retaile Sadlers ware as well as ſpurres.

Lorry. An auntient towne within the Juriſdiction of Orleans.

Il eſt de le Lorry ou le batu paye l'amende. He gets the blowes, and yet payes for the bloudwipe.

Lors. Then, whilome, the whileſt that, in that time, in that ſeaſon; Lors que cela ſe fit; then when that thing was done.

Lors de l'enfantement. At the time of childbirth, or when ſhe lay in.

Los: m. Laud, praiſe, commendation; &c as Loz; alſo, willingneſſe, conſent, agreement, good will.

Tel a bon los qui l'a à tort; tel l'a mauvais qui n'en peut mais: Prov. Some are vniuſtly praiſd, ſome blam'd vnworthily.

Loſenge: f. A Loſenge; the forme, or a thing of the forme, of an ordinarie quarrell of glaſſe, &c; as in Lozenge.

Loſengier: m. A flatterer, cogger, foiſter, picke-thanke, prater; couſener, guller, beguiler, deceiuer.

Loſſec: m. The ſinke, or well, of the pumpe of a ſhip.

Lot: m. A lot, portion, part, ſhare, allowance; alſo, a pot, or veſſell containing (about) our pottle.

Lote: f. The Lote, or Nettle tree; alſo, a fiſh; whence;

Lote d'eau douce. Th'Eele powt; or a little muddie fiſh thats headed, skinned, and finned like an Eele.

Lote de mer. A ſmall-ſcaled fiſh, that hath one wattle in the end of her lower chap, and two on her vpper lip; otherwiſe reſembling in ſome parts a Cod, in others the Lamprey, but taſting more like that then this; and ſeldome caught, or ſeene on our coaſt.

Loti. as Loty.

Lotie: f. A diuiſion, partition, ſharing.

Lotir. To caſt lots for; alſo, to diuide, part, apportion, ſhare.

Lotizé: m. éc: f. Diuided, parted, appertioned, ſhared.

Lots. Fines of alienation; Seeke Lods.

Lotte: f. A Powt, or Eele powt; See Lote.

Lottir. as Lotir.

Loty: m. ye: f. Diuided by lots; parted, apportioned, ſhared.

Loüable: com. Laudable, commendable, praiſe-worthie, approuable.

La chair loüable. Holeſome, ſound, or good fleſh; Et vne ſelle loüable; vrine loüable. A good, or hopefull ſtoole, &c; ſuch as promiſes, or is a ſigne of, health.

Loüablement. Laudably, commendably, praiſe-worthily.

Loüade. as Laude.

Loüage: m. A hire, hiring, farming, letting out; alſo, the rent, or hire for things let out.

A chapt paſſe loüage. One may lawfully diſpoſſeſſe a hirer of the thing he hath purchaſed.

Loüager, & Loüagier: m. A hirer, farmer, leſſee; a lodger, inmate, ſoiourner.

Loüange: f. Laud, praiſe, commendation; glorie, fame, credit, renowme, reputation.

Loüanger. To laud, praiſe, commend, extoll, renowme.

Loüangier: m. A praiſer, lauder, commender.

Loubet. Seeke May-loubet.

Loubine: f. The ſea-fiſh, called a Baſe.

Louche: f. A little ladle, or great ſpoone: Pic.

Louche: com. as Louſche.

Loucher. To lade, emptie, or take vp with a ladle, or great ſpoone.

Louchet: m. A ſpade, or ſpade-like inſtrument, halfe headed with yron.

Les louchets d' vne bale. The corners of a packe.

Loudier: m. as Lodier; A Counterpoint, or Quilt; alſo, a ſmell-ſmocke, haire-beater, leacherous knaue.

Loudiere: f. vne groſſe loudiere. A filthie laſciuious queane, a common hackney, or hedge-whore.

Vne vieille loudiere. A beldame, old trot, ouer-ridden iade.

Loüé: m. ée: f. Lauded, praiſed, commended, extolled; alſo, hired, rented, farmed; letten, or taken, vpon rent.

Louer. as Loir; A Dormouſe.

Louër. To laud, praiſe, commend, extoll, report or ſpeake well of; alſo, to hire, farme, rent; let, or take, vpon rent.

Louëreſſe: f. A praiſereſſe, commendereſſe.

Louëur: m. A lauder, praiſer, commender, extoller.

Lougarou. Seeke Loup-garou.

Loup: m. A Wolfe; alſo, a Baſe (fiſh;) alſo, a kind of flie; alſo, the flie-deuouring ſpider; alſo, a malignant, and remedileſſe Vlcer, or Cranker, in the legs, which in th' end it wholly conſumes; alſo, a rauenous, greedie, cruell, vniuſt, fell, harſh companion.

Loup marin. A certaine Wolfe-like beaſt, which (ſayes Belon) liues altogether of fiſh, vpon our ſea-ſhore.

Couille au loup. Wild Prickmadame, great Stonecrop, Worme-graſſe.

Danſe du loup (la queuë entre les jambes.) Lecherie.

Herbe au loup. Wolues-bane, wolfe-wort (a kind of Aconitum.)

Oeil de loup. An eye of an vncertaine blackiſh colour; a duskie, or darke eye; alſo, a leering eye.

Patte de loup. The Theſſalian loue-prouoking herbe Catanance.

Pied de loup. Wolues-feet, wolues-claw, club-moſſe (a moſſie plant.)

Ris de loup. The name of a certaine peare.

Veſſe du loup. A fuſſe-ball, puck-fuſſe, wolues-thiſtle, puffe-fiſte, bull-fiſt.

Entre chien & loup. At twie-light, or cocke-ſhoot-time; in th' edge, or ſhutting vp of an euening; alſo, (of a mans ſufficiencie) indifferently, ordinarily, ſo ſo.

Perſonne ne luy demanda es tu chien, es tu loup. No man reſpected him, no bodie tooke heed, or notice of him.

Contrefaire le loup en paille. To eaue-drop it; or, to lie ſcowking, and leering in a corner, or between ſleeping and waking in bed, and vnderſtand, but take no notice, what perſons doe paſſe, or what things bee done, round about him.

Faire le loup à la carriere. Of the ſame ſence.

Faire le loup plus grand qu'il n'eſt. To make, or imagine a miſchiefe, or daunger to bee greater then it is.

Garder la lune des loups. Fooliſhly to care for that which cannot doe amiſſe, or looke to that which will not goe aſtray.

Dieu gard la lune des loups. God keepe the Moone from wolues; an ironicall anſwer vnto thoſe braggadochioes, which threaten farre greater plagues then they are able to inflict (or promiſe greater matters then they can effect.)

Hurler avec les loups. To play the rude companion in rude companie.

Marcher en pas de loup. To tread like a theefe, priuately, ſubtilly, gingerly, faire and ſofily.

Prendre vn loup par la queuë. To performe a hard, or hazardous exploit.

Regarder en loup. Sowerly to leere, or looke askew at.

Tenir le loup par les oreilles. To bee in danger, or hard ſet, on euerie ſide (for if you hold him he bites you by the fingers; if you let him goe, he will goe neere to deuoure you.)

Voir le loup. Some ſay of one whoſe voyce is growne hoarſe on a ſudden; Il a veu le loup; Others, le loup l'a veu: from a vulgar opinion, that if a wolfe get ſight of a man before he ſee him, he will aſtoniſh him, and make him ſo hoarſe (by the force of his eyes, and vigour of his breath) that he ſhall hardly bee able to ſpeake.

Deux loups mangent bien vne brebis: Prov. Two knaues with eaſe deuoure (or deceiue) one ſillie foole.

Le loup alla à Rome, & y laiſſa de ſon poil mais rien de ſes couſtumes: Prov. The wolfe went to Rome, and left ſome of his coat, but none of his conditions, behind him.

Le loup emporte le veau du povre: Prov. Vnſaciate cruelties preſſes moſt vpon the poore.

Le loup mourra en ſa peau qui ne l'eſcorchera vif: Prov. A knaue will die in a knaues ſkinne, if hee formerly looſe it not.

Le loup ſçait bien que male beſte penſe: Prov. One lewd fellow is well acquainted with the purpoſes, or ſleights of another.

Vn loup ne devore iamais vn autre loup: Prov. Thoſe that are like doe ſeldome diſagree; one knaue will euer beare with another.

A mauvais chien ne peut on monſtrer le loup: Prov. A bad dog hates to looke vpon a wolfe.

A mol paſteur le loup chie laine: Prov. A gentle ſhepheard ſtuffes the wolfe with wooll.

A petite achoiſon le loup prend le mouton: Prov. when

When Tyrants will oppreſſe th'innocent, a ſleight pretext is made ſufficient.

Au chair de loup ſauce de chien: Prov. Wolues fleſh muſt be eaten with dogs ſauce.

Bien a crié le loup qui ſa proye reſcoult: Prov. He followed the Wolfe to purpoſe that recouers his prey.

Brebis contées mange bien le loup: Prov. The Wolfe eats counted (and vncounted) ſheepe; All's one to him that loues to haue his will.

C'eſt vne bonne priſe que d'vn ieune loup: Prov. He hunts full well that catches a young Wolfe; bad plants would be plucked vp while they be young.

Depuis que la brebis eſt vieille le loup la mange bien: Prov. The hungrie feed well on tough, and drie meats.

En eſperance d' avoir mieux tant vit le loup qu'il devient vieux: Prov. The Wolfe growes old by hoping ſtill for better; or, the Wolfe, the whileſt he hopes for better, is growne old.

En fin les loups tuent le chien qui tue les loups: Prov. The Wolues at length kill dogs that killed Wolues.

En la peau ou le loup eſt luy convient mourir: Prov. The Wolfe muſt die in his owne skinne; or, the skinne a Wolfe hath preyed, let him periſh, in.

Homme ſeul eſt viande aux loups: Prov. The ſolitarie man becomes Wolues meat.

Ieune en ſa croiſſance a vn loup en la panſe: Pro. Young ſpringalls haue Woluiſh, or great appetites.

Il fait mauvais aller au bois quand les loups ſe mangent l'un l'autre: Prov. It is not good to goe to the wood when Wolues deuoure one another.

Il ne faut eſtre loup, ny en affubler la peau: Prov. One muſt neither be, nor ſeeme, naught.

Le dernier le loup le mange: Prov. Delay breeds danger; lags come to the laſh.

La faim chaſſe les loups hors du bois: Prov. Hunger makes men forgoe their ſafeſt holds.

La mauvaiſe garde paiſt ſouvent le loup: Prov. A Wolfe ill looke to oftentimes growes fat.

Mauvaiſe eſt la ſaiſon quand vn loup mange l'autre: Prov. Hard is the time when Wolues doe feed on Wolues; or, tis a hard time when one Wolfe eats another.

On crié touſiours le loup plus grand qu'il n'eſt: Prov. Report makes dangers greater then they be.

Peu à peu le loup mange l'oye: Prov. Looke Oye.

Qui a le loup pour compagnon porte le chien ſous l'hocton: Prov. He that hath a Wolfe to his mate had need of a dog to his man.

Qui parle du loup on en voit la queuë: Prov. Appliable (as Lupus in fabula) when one thats ſpoken of as abſent ſuddenly appeares.

Qui ſe fait brebis le loup le mange: Prov. He that makes himſelfe a ſheepe will be vſed as a ſheepe.

Tandis que le chien chie le loup s'en va: &c. Tandis que le chien crie le loup s'en fuit: Prov. Whileſt men attend vnneceſſarie, they looſe neceſſarie, aduantages.

Tandis que les chiens s'entregrondent le loup devore la brebis: Prov. While the dogs iarre the Wolfe deuours the ſheepe.

Tandis que le loup muſe la brebis entre au bois: Prov. Whileſt the wicked conſult th'innocent eſcape them; (Hereby alſo is meant, that opportunities may be neglected, or aduantages loſt, by tedious conſultations.)

Loup-araigne. Any kind of Spider that hunts, or watches for, flies.

Loupasson: m. A ſmall, or young Baſe; a little ſea Wolfe.

Loup-cervier: m. A kind of white Wolfe, or beaſt ingendred betweene a Hind and a Wolfe, whoſe skinne is much eſteemed by great men; yet ſome (not beleeuing that thoſe beaſts will, or can mingle) imagine it rather to bee the ſpotted Linx, or Ounce; or a kind thereof.

Loup-chat: m. The (rauenous, and ſpotted) Linx, or Ounce; or (as Geſner thinkes) the Hyena.

Loupe: f. A flegmaticke lumpe, wenne, bunch, or ſwelling of fleſh vnder the throat, bellie, &c; alſo, a little one on the wriſt, foot, or other ioynt, gotten by a blow whereby a ſinew being wreſted riſes, and growes hard; alſo, a Weauers cloth-beame; that about which his web rowles as he weaues it.

Loupeux: m. euſe: f. Full of wennes, or troubled with a wenne.

Loup-garou: m. A mankind Wolfe; ſuch a one as once being fleſht on men, and children will rather ſtarue then feed on any thing elſe; alſo, one that, poſſeſſed with an extreame, and ſtrange melancholie, beleeues he is turned Wolfe, and as a Wolfe behaues himſelfe; alſo, a Hobgoblin, Hob-thruſh, Robin-good-fellow; alſo, a night-walker, or flie-light; one thats neuer ſeene but by Owle-light; alſo, a ſutle fellow, ſlie companion, wilie fox, craftie knaue.

Loupie: f. as Loupe.

Louppe: f. as Loupe; And, in a horſe, the water Farcie.

Lourche: f. The game called Lurche; or, a Lurch in game.

Il demeura lourche. He was left in the lurch.

Lourd; m. lourde: f. Dull, ſottiſh, blockiſh; clumpſe, numme, heauie mettalled; rude, lumpiſh, lowtiſh, clowniſh, lob-like; vnhandſome, vnciuile, vnmannerlie.

A paroles lourdes ſourdes oreilles: Prov. Looke Oreilles.

Lourdaut: m. as Lourderie; and hence;

Il eſt en ſon lourdaut. He is in a ſurlie mood, or churliſh humor; he is ſicke of the mumps, or ſullens; he ſells fowce.

Lourdaut: m. A ſot, dunce, dullard, grotnoll, iobernoll, blockhead; a lowt, lob, luske, boore, clowne, churle, cluſterfiſt; a proud, ignorant, and vnmannerlie ſwaine.

Lourdement. Sottiſhly, dully, bluntly, blockiſhly, heauily; rudely, groſſely, clowniſhly, churliſhly; vnciuilely, vnhandſomely, vnmannerly.

Bien lourdement chargé de debtes. Farre indebted, ouer head and eares in debt.

Lourderie: f. Sottiſhneſſe, blockiſhneſſe; lumpiſhneſſe, clowniſhneſſe; ſurlineſſe, churliſhneße; inciuilitie, rudeneſſe, vnmannerlineſſe.

Lourdin: m. ine: f. Lourdaine; blunt, ſomewhat blockiſh; a little clowniſh, lumpiſh, rude; ſmelling of the churle, or lobcocke.

Lourdinet. as Lourdin.

Lourdiſe: f. as Lourderie.

Lourdois. en ſon lourdois. Bluntly, groſſely, rudely; after his rude, clowniſh, homelie, or ſlouenlie manner.

Loure: f. A bagpipe: ¶Poictevin.

Lourette: f. A ſmall bagpipe.

Lourpidon: f. The name of an old witch, or hag in Amadis; madis; hence, any such decrepite, and dimelish creature.

Louſche: com. Skenning, squinting, looking askew; also, dull sighted, or wanting sight; purblind, or halfe-blind.

Perle louſche. A foule pearle.

Vin louſche. Thicke, or vnsetled, wine.

Louſchement: m. A squinting, or looking askew.

Louſcher. To squint, sken, or looke askew.

Louſchet. as Louchet.

Louſſe. as Louche.

Loutre: f. An Otter.

Loutrier: m. An Otter-hunter, or Otter-catcher.

Louve: f. A she Wolfe; also, a whore.

Louve de fer. A Rammes head; or, the (pinser-like) hooke of a Crane, &c.

Louveau: m. A young Wolfe.

Louvet: m. A little Wolfe, or young Wolfe.

Louvetier: m. A Wolfe-catcher; an Officer appointed in euerie forrest, and payed for the taking, or killing of Wolues (by euerie inhabitant within two miles compasse of the place wherein he takes, or kills them) after the rate of ij.d. Tourn. for a dog Wolfe, and iiij.d. for a bitch.

Louveton: m. A little young Wolfe.

Louvette: f. A ticke, or tike.

Louvich: m. iche: f. Greedie, rauenous, deuouring, swallowing downe whole morsells for hast.

Louvichement. Wolfe-like, rauenously, greedily, deuouringly.

Louvier: m. as Louvetier.

Louvier: m.ere: f. Woluie, Wolfe-like; of, or belonging to, a Wolfe.

Melancholie louviere. A frenzie which makes the patient shun all companie, vpon a conceit that he is turned Wolfe.

Louviere: f. A Wolucrin; a gowne, or garment furred, or lined through with Wolues skinnes; also, a countrey full of Wolues; also, the denne, hole, or haunt of a Wolfe.

Louvin: m.ine: f. Woluie, Wolfe-like, of a Wolfe.

Patte louvine. The yellow, or blacke Wolues-banes; most poisonous hearbes, and little differing but in the colour of their flowers.

Loy: f. Law, the Law; Iustice, th'authoritie, course or proceeding, of Iustice; a Iudgement in, a triall by, Law; also, a Law, Statute, Ordinance, Rule or Decree that bindes; also, Iurisdiction, power, authoritie; free choyce, libertie; also, the vse, or custome of a place; also, an ordinarie or customarie fine, or amerciament of Law; also, the allay, temper, or mixture of coyne; the mettall, or matter whereof tis made.

Loy de bataille. A triall by combate.

Loy de credence. A proceeding by witnesses, who depose that they beleeue (not that they know;) like our, As this Deponent verily beleeues, &c.

Loix des lieux. (In the customes of Artoys*) the Iudges of the places; or as in* Gens de loy.

Loy oultrée, ou outre. c'est, Different determiné par enqueste, ou par brief.

Loy simple; &, simple loy. A summarie, or quicke proceeding in Law without Inquest, or Battell.

Gens, ou hommes de loy. (In diuers old Bookes, and Walloon customs) the Sherifes (who commonly were the Iudges) of townes.

Iours de loy. Law-dayes, Court-dayes, Hall-dayes.

Prisonniers estans en loy. In the hands of Iustice.

Villes de loy. Which haue their peculiar lawes, and customes; and wherein there is a seat of Iustice, and Officers of Iurisdiction.

Faire les loix à l'heure de midy, en l'aſsize. c'est faire sa demande en iustice pour avoir droict & iugement: ¶Ragueau.

Passer par la loy. To wage, or make his law; to sweare in Court that he hath duely paied the rent, or Cens demaunded of him.

Venir à la loy. To be admitted vnto such an oath.

De meschante vie les bonnes loix sont venuës: Prov. Bad liues haue bred good lawes.

Que veut le Roy ce veut la loy: Prov. What the King likes the Law allowes of; or, lawes are expounded as the King thinks good.

Loyal: m. ale: f. Loyall, faithfull; trustie, sure vnto; also, lawfull, just, allowable, reasonable.

Loyaulx Aides. Looke Aide.

Monnoye loyale. Current money.

Loyalement Loyally, faithfully, trustily; also, lawfully, iustly, rightfully.

Loyaulment. as Loyalement.

Loyaulté: f. Loyaltie, faithfulnesse, trustinesse; truth, and constancie in promises; honestie, or sinceritie in all manner of proceedings; iustnesse, vprightnesse; lawfulnesse; also, the strickle vsed in the measuring of corne.

En grande pauvreté n'y a grande loyaulté: Prov. Where pouertie is, loyaltie is not, great.

Loyer: m. Hire giuen for a house, or countrey farme; or vnto seruants, or workefolkes; hence, a stipend, salarie, wages; also, a reward, guerdon, recompence, remuneration.

Qui bon maistre sert bon loyer en attend: Prov. A franke Lords Pages, looke for good wages.

Loyette: f. A Marlin.

Loz: m. Laud, praise, commendation; credit, fame, glorie, renowme, reputation; See Los.

Lozange, & Lozanger. as Lozenge, & Lozenger.

Lozenge: f. A Lozenge; a little square cake of preserued hearbes, flowers, &c; also, a quarrell of a glasse-window; any thing of that forme; also, guile, deceit, fraud, cousenage.

Lozengé: m. ée: f. Lozenged, Lozenge-like; also, mocked, gulled, beguiled.

Lozenger. To couzen, deceiue, beguile, gull.

Lu. Light; whence;

Il n'y a ne feu ne lu. (Of a darke, cold, or vncomfortable place;) there's neither fire, nor light to be had.

Luberdine: f. An old maid.

Luberne: f. The female Libbard; a Panther.

Lubin: m. A Base, or Sea-Wolfe; also, a nickname for a Monke, or Frier; whence, Frere Lubin; the true name of a certaine Monke, who loued a neighbors house better then his owne Couent.

Lubine. as Lubin (in the first sence:) ¶Bourdelois.

Lubre: com. Lubricke, filthie, scurrile.

Lubricité: f. Lubricitie, slipperinesse, vncertaintie; lecherie, wantonnesse, incontinencie.

Lubrifier. To lubrifie, or make slipperie.

Lubrique: com. Lubricke; slipperie; deceitfull, vncertaine; stirring, fast-moving; lecherous, incontinent, wanton, lasciuious.

Lubriquement. Slipperie, vncertainely, loosely, deceitfully; stirringly; incontinently, lasciuiously, lecherously.

Luc: m. A Lute.

Luc renversé. is as much as Cul.

Lu-

Lucarne: f. A garret window, or window in the roofe of a houſe, &c.
Lucarné: m. ée: f. Hauing windowes in the roofe.
Luce: f. (A womans name) Luce; and the name of a virgine-Saint regiſtred in Kalenders on the 13 of December; Hence the Prouerbe;)
'A la Sainte Luce du ſault d'une puce; c'eſt à dire, le jour croiſt. (Or not ſo much; for that is held the ſhorteſt day of the yeare.) Lucel, & Lucet. A young Pike, a Pickerell.
Lucheran: m. A Scrich-owle.
Luchet. A ſpade; or as Louchet: ¶Langued.
Lucifugue: f. A kind of Beetle, or light-hating flie.
Lucide: com. Cleere, ſhining, bright, light.
Lucratif: m. iue: f. Lucratiue, commodious, gaine-bringing, whereof great profit is made.
Lucrative: f. Lucre, gaine, profit, commoditie, commings in; alſo, the profeſſion of the Law (becauſe it brings in ſtore of Crownes.)
Lucs. as Lus.
Luctation: f. A wraſtling, ſtrugling, ſtriuing with.
Lucte. as Luicte.
Lucté: m. ée: f. Wraſtled, ſtrugled, ſtriuen with.
Ludicre: com. Light, childiſh, toyiſh, mocking, ſportfull, gameſome.
Ludificatoire: com. Mocking, deceiuing, beguiling.
Lueil: m. Ray, Darnell.
Luet. Devoir de luets. A buſhell of Rie due by euerie tenant, and houſholder that keepes a fire, and tillage within a Pariſh in Britanie.
Luette: f. The Palate, or Vuula; a little peece of ſpungious fleſh in the roof of the roofe of the mouth.
Luettes. Little bundles of peeces of Ivorie caſt looſſe vpon a table; the play is to take vp one without ſhaking the reſt, or elſe the taker looſeth.
Lueur: f. Light, brightneſſe, cleereneſſe, luſter, ſplendor, glittering, irradiation, gliſtering, a caſting forth of beames.
Luëux: m. euſe: f. Light, bright, ſplendent, ſhining, glittering, gliſtering.
Lugubre: com. Dolefull, mourning, mournefull, ſorrowfull, wayling, funerall.
Luicte: f. Wraſtling; th'exerciſe of wraſtling; alſo, a ſtrugling, or ſtriſe with.
Vn tour de luicte en procez. A cunning tricke, trip, or paſſage in pleading, which will goe neere to ouerthrow th'aduerſe partie.
Il l'emporta de haute luicte. He carried it cleere, he bore it away by maine force; he imployed his vtmoſt ſtrength in the compaſſing of it.
Au fort bras la luicte: Prov. See Bras.
Luictement. m. A wraſtling, or ſtrugling with.
Luicter. To wraſtle, to ſtruggle, or ſtriue with.
Luicter contre les ombres. To wraſtle with ſhadowes; to be angrie without cauſe, or purpoſe; alſo, to reuile the abſent; alſo, to deuiſe things and afterwards raile at them.
L'abbatu veut tousjours luicter: Prov. No foile can quell an obſtinacie.
Luire. To ſhine, glitter, gliſter; to cleere, be bright, giue light, yeeld a radiant luſter.
Ce qu'on donne luit, ce qu'on mange puit: Prov. What we giue ſhines, what we eat ſmells.
Luiſans: m. Sparkles, or fierie and ſtarre-reſembling Meteors, in the middle region of the aire.
Luiſant. Shining, cleere, bright, beamie, luſterous, radiant, glittering, gliſtering.
Luiſantement. Brightly, radiantly, ſhiningly, gliſteningly, glitteringly.
Luiſarner. To glow, gliſten, glimmer.
Luiton: m. A Goblin, Bug, Robin-good-fellow, merrie diuell, that vſes to mocke, and deceiue, ſillie people.
Luiton de mer. A Triton, or Sea-man; a fiſh that reſembles a man.
Lumbaire: com. Of, or belonging to, the flanke, or loyne.
Arteres lumbaires. Branches of the great Arterie diſtributed all ouer the loynes, and giuing life to the marrow of the backe.
Muſcle lumbaire. One of the two muſcles which bow the thighes.
Veine lumbaire. See Veine.
Lumbrique. A ground worme: ¶Rab.
Lumer. To ſhine; to giue light, to yeeld or caſt a light.
La chandelle lume mal. Burnes dimly, or burnes but ill.
Lumiere: f. Light; brightneſſe, cleereneſſe, a ſhining; alſo, a light, candle, or lampe.
La lumiere d'une haquebute, &c. The touch-hole of an Harquebuſe, &c.
Mettre en lumiere. To publiſh, divulge, ſet forth, ſend abroad into the world.
Privé de la lumiere. Depriued both of light, and life.
Qui n'eſt point venu en lumiere. Abſtruſe, obſcure, vnknowne, that is not yet come abroad.
'A l'oeil malade la lumiere nuit: Prov. Light hurts diſeaſed eyes; or, a ſicke-eye is offended with the light.
Lumignon: m. The weeke or cotton of a candle; the match of a lampe.
Lumillette: f. The hearbe Eye-bright.
Luminaire: m. A light, a candle, a lampe, &c; alſo, a Booke of the compoſition of Phyſicall receits.
Luminette: f. as Lumillette.
Lumineux: m. euſe: f. Shining, gliſtering, moſt bright, full of cleereneſſe, yeelding a great light.
Luminier: m. A Veſterer, or Veſtrie-keeper; hee that hath the charge of the lights, and ornaments of a Church; alſo, an Agent, Attorney, or Solicitor for a whole Towneſhip.
Luminon. as Lumignon.
Lunaire: f. Lunarie, Moonewort.
Lunaire majeur; ou grande lunaire. Great Moonewort, Pennie-flower, Money-flower, Prickſongwort, Honeſtie, Sattin, white Sattin; (Alchymiſts call water Fearne Lunaria major.)
Lunaire mineur; ou petite lunaire. Small Lunarie, ſmall Moonewort.
Lunaire: com. Lunarie; of, or belonging to, the Moone.
Cicle lunaire. The Golden number; Looke Cicle.
Lunaiſon: f. A Moneth, a Moone, or the ſeaſon continuing a whole Moone; alſo, the ſhining of the Moone.
Lunatique: com. Lunaticke, in a Lunacie, frantick, wood, no wiſer then he ſhould be.
Lundi: m. Monday.
Lune: f. The Moone; one of the ſeuen Planets; alſo, ſiluer (called ſo by Alchymiſts;) alſo, the Molebut-fiſh.
Lune de mer. The Molebut; alſo, a kind of aſh-coloured Starre-fiſh of a hard, and ſhellie ſubſtance.

La bonne Lune. The later end of September, and beginning of October; the best time to sow winter-corne in, and therefore so tearmed by good husbands.

Abbayer contre la lune. Seeke Abbayer.

Avoir vn quartier de la lune en la teste. To bee halfe frantick, or haue a spice of Lunacie; The like is;

Il y a de la lune. He is a foolish, humorous, bare-braind, giddie-headed fellow.

Coucher à l' enseigne de la lune. To lie without doores all night.

Garder la lune des loups. To waste indeuors vpon subiects that need them not; or spend time in watching of that which of it selfe is safe ynough.

Dieu gard la lune des loups. An ironicall answer vnto a bragging foole, that threatens to kill them whom he cannot hurt.

Le fourrier de la lune a marqué le logis. Said of a woman that hath her flowers.

Prendre la lune aux dents. To doe impossible matters.

Tenir de la lune. To be inconstant, fickle, mutable, giddie, vnsetled, wauering.

Les biens de fortune passent comme la lune: Pro. What fortune giues vs for a boone, is quickly wasted like the Moone.

Luné: m. ée: f. Round, compasse, rounded, or bowed like a halfe-Moone.

Luner. To round, bow, compasse; and hence;

Luner vn arc. To bend a bow.

Lunette: f. The merrie-thought; the forked craw-bone of a bird, which we vse, in sport, to put on our noses.

Lunettes: f. Spectacles.

Il n'y a pas bien asis ses lunettes. He hath not obserued the matter so neerely, he hath not looked into it so narrowly, as he might, or should, haue done.

Lupasson. as Loupasson.

Lupege: f. The whoope, or dung-hill Cocke.

Lupin: m. The pulse Lupines; also, the Base, or Sea-Wolfe.

Lupoge. as Lupege.

Lurré: m. ée: f. Lured; inticed, allured.

Lus: m. A Pike (fish.)

Lus marin. A Cod, or Cod-fish; some also, call the Haddocke so.

Luserne: f. A Gloe-worme; also, as Luzerne.

Lustre: m. A luster, or glosse; a shining, or glistening; a gracefull bright colour; also, a terme of foure yeares, or fiftie moneths; also, a Censorian ouersight ouer Citizens estates, and behauiour.

Donner lustre à. To grace, beautifie, illustrate, adorne; sleeke, burnish, brighten; set a glosse on, giue a luster vnto.

Lustrer. To looke round about, view, or survey on each side, behold euerie way; to weigh diligently, examine throughly, seriously consider of, prie narrowly into; also, to purge, or cleanse by sacrifice; also, as Donner lustre.

Lustreux: m. euse: f. Lusterous, radiant, shining, glistening, glistering, glittering.

Lustrueux. as Lustreux.

Lut: m. A Lute; also, clay, mould, loame, durt; also, a kind of barke, or boat.

Luté: m. ée: f. Dawbed, closed, or done ouer, with clay; also, bemired, bedawbed, berayed, bismeared.

Luter. To dawbe, or clay; to close, or doe ouer with loame, or clay; also, to bedawbe, defile, bemire, bismeare, beray.

Luth: m. A Lute.

Lutin: m. A Goblin, Robin-good-fellow, Hob-thrush; a spirit which playes reakes in mens houses a nights.

Lutiner. To play the Goblin, or night-spirit; to keepe a foule rumbling, or terrible racket vp and down a house in the night.

Lutiz: m. Clay, loame; durt.

Lutre. as Loutre.

Lutrin: m. A deske in a Church.

Luxation: f. A luxation, loosenesse, or loosening; a being out of ioynt.

Luxe: m. Excesse, riot, superfluitie.

Luxer. To loosse, or put out of ioynt; also, to be out of ioynt, or out of due place.

Luxure: f. Luxurie, sensualitie, concupiscence, fleshlinesse; any superfluitie, or excesse in carnall delights.

Luxurieux: m. euse: f. Luxurious, voluptuous, fleshlie, lustfull, sensuall; excessiue, riotous.

Luy. He, him, the same man.

Luyton. as Luiton, or Lutin.

Luz: m. Lus.

Luzerne: f. as Luserne.; Also, Medicke fodder, Spanish Trefoyle, horned Clauer, snaile Clauer.

Luzerner. To glow, glisten, or glimmer. (v.m.)

Luzerniere: f. A close, field, or plot sowed with Medicke fodder.

Ly. as Le: ¶ Gascon.

Lyerre: m. Ivie; Seeke Lierre.

Lyasse. as Liasse.

Lycanthropie: f. A frenzie, or melancholie, which causeth the patient (who thinkes he is turned Wolfe) to flie all companie, and hide himselfe in dennes, and corners.

Lyce: f. A bitch, &c; as in Lice.

Vne fausse lyce. A lewd queane, false trull, vngracious whoore, wicked harlot.

Lychnobien: m. The weeke of a candle; or one who in stead of the day vseth the night, doing all his businesse by candle-light: ¶ Rab.

Lychnocosomité. The chiefe slight, or lanterne of the world.

Lychnon: m. A light, candle, or linke; also, the wieke of a candle, or match of a lampe; also, a lanterne: ¶ Rab.

Lycopse. A kind of the (red-rooted) hearbe Orchanet.

Lycopthalmie: f. A pretious stone of fiue sundrie colours: ¶ Rab.

Lye. as Lie.

Lyerre. Ivie; Seeke Lierre.

Lymitrophe: com. Bordering vpon, adioyning, or lying neere vnto.

Lymon. as Limon.

Lymphatique: com. Allayed, or mixed with water; also, madde, furious, bestraught; giddie, fantasticall.

Lyncée: f. A Linx; a Wolfe-resembling beast that's full of spots.

Yeux de Lincée. Sharpe, quicke, piercing eyes.

Lyncurie: f. A pretious stone bred of the congealed vrine of a Linx, and preseruing the eyes from charmes.

Lynges. as Liens; bands, &c: ¶ Rab.

Lyon. Seeke Lion.

Lyonceau: m. A Lyons whelpe, or young Lyon.

Lype. as Lippe; A lip.

Faire la lype. To powt, lowt, lowre, hang the lip, as a child that's sullen, or about to crie.

Lypothomie: f. A kind of deadlie swooning.

Lyre: f. A Lyra, or Harpe.

Ly-

Lyripipié,& Lyripipion. as Liripipié,& Liripipion.
Lyrique: com. Lyricke; of a Harpe; ſung to the Harpe; playing on a Harpe.
Lys. as Lis.
Lyſarde. Seeke Liſarde.
Lyſimachie: f. Willow-hearbe, Looſe-ſtriſe, Water-willow.
Lyſimachie rouge. The red, or codded Willow-hearbe.
Lyſteau. as Liſteau.
Lyturgie, ou Lyturgue: f. A Liturgie, or forme of Seruice vſed in Churches.

M

MA. The feminine of Mon; My.
Ma dia. Seeke Madia. ¶Rab.
Macabré. Danſe Macabré. Death.
Macaleb. The baſtard Corall, or Pomander, Priuet, of whoſe ſweet, and ſhining blacke berries, chaynes and bracelets be made.
Macalep,& Macalet. as Macaleb.
Macar: m. A mate, match, marrow, fellow.
Macareau: m. A Mackerell fiſh.
Macaronique: m. A Macaronick; a confuſed heape, or huddle of many ſeuerall things.
Macarons: m. Macarons; little Fritter-like Bunnes, or thicke Loſenges compounded of Sugar, Almonds, Roſe-water, and Muske, pounded together, and baked with a gentle fire; alſo, the Italian Macaroni; lumps, or gobbets of boyled paſte ſerued vp in butter, and ſtrewed ouer with ſpice, and grated cheeſe.
Macault: m. A ſcrip, or wallet; alſo, a cheſt filled with precious ſtuffe, and hidden, or boorded vp, in a ſecret corner.
Macé: m. (A proper name for a man) Mathew.
Ie ſuis Preſtre Macé. An equiuocall alluſion to Maiſtre paſſé. A ſworne maiſter, or freeman of a Trade.
Mace. Iuge Mace. as Iuge Mage (in Mage.)
Macée: f. Mut, or Macie; (a proper name for a woman.)
Macer: m. Is not Mace (as many imagine) but a reddiſh, aromaticall, and aſtringent rinde of a certaine Indian root.
Maceration: f. A maceration, macerating, making leane; a mortifying, weakening, or taming of the bodie by abſtinence, &c; alſo, a ſoaking, or ſteeping in liquor.
Maceré: m. ée: f. Macerated, made leane; weakened, mortified, brought low, tamed, ſubdued; alſo, allayed, ſoaked, or ſteeped in water.
Macerer. To macerate, or make leane; to mortifie, weaken, bring downe, puniſh or pull vnder the bodie; to ſuppreſſe, or ſubdue the luſts thereof by abſtinence, or hard fare; alſo, to allay, ſoake, or ſteepe in liquor.
Maceris. as Macer.
Maceron: m. The hearb Candie Alexanders, or through-bored Parſely.
Maceronne: f. as Maceron.
Mache: f. Water-torch, Cats-taile, Marſh peſtill, Douch downe; (an hearbe.)
Machecoulis. Looke Maſchecoulis.
Machefer. The droſſe of Iron.
Mache-foin. A nick-name for ſuch a Iudge, or Lawyer as takes of clients the hay his horſes feed on; or, as Maſchefouyn.

Machelier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a iaw.
Dents Machelieres. The cheeke-teeth, or grinders.
Macher. as Maſcher.
Mache-rave. A Turnep-eater: An Epithete for a Lymoſin (who feeds much on Turneps.)
Mache-rivet. A Cobler, or Shoomaker.
Macheron. as Maceron.
Maches: f. The maſhes, or holes of a net between thread and thread.
Machette: f. The Owle, or Madge-howlet; as in Cheveche.
Macheure: f. A blacke ſmutch, or ſmeare; alſo, a cruſh, or bruiſe, which leaues a blacke, or blew ſpot after it.
Macheure de fer. The droſſe of Iron.
Macheuré: m. ée: f. Smeared, ſmutched, begrymed; alſo, made blacke and blew by a cruſh, &c.
Machiaveliſme: m. Machiauelliſme; ſubtill policie, cunning roguerie.
Machiavelizer. To Machiauelize it; to practiſe Machiauelliſme.
Machicoulé: m. ée: f. Fortified with Maſchecoulis.
Machicoulis. Looke Maſchecoulis.
Machinateur: m. A machinator, framer, contriuer, deuiſer (eſpecially of bad things.)
Machination: f. A machination, frame, contriuement; a ſubtill plot, or conſpiracie; a craftie inuention, ſhifting ſtratageme, circumuenting tricke.
Machine: f. A frame, engine, toole, inſtrument, inuention, deuice.
Machiné: m. ée: f. Framed, contriued, deuiſed; plotted, conſpired; practiſed againſt.
Machiner. To machinate, frame; contriue, deuiſe; to practiſe, plot, conſpire againſt.
Machoirier: m. A horned, and great-iawed Snake.
Machonner. To chaw ſlowly, or gently; to mumble.
Machoter. To champe, or chaw ſlowly, or without any great effect.
Machoüeres: f. The iawes.
Machurer. To blacke, ſmeare, ſmutch, begryme, or diſfigure with blacking.
Le chaudron machure la poiſle. One knaue diſgraces, or ſome neighbour detracts from, another.
Macis: m. The ſpice called Mace.
Macle: f. The Maſh of a net; alſo (in Blaſon) a Maſcle, or ſhort Lozenge, hauing a ſquare hole in the middeſt.
Macle: com. Raw. ¶Rab.
Macles: f. Pot-hangers; the Irons whereupon pots are hung.
Maçon. as Maſon.
Maçonné: m. ée: f. Wrought by Maſons; built of ſtone; hewed, ſquared, layed, as ſtones by a Maſon.
Maçonner. To play the Maſon, to build with, or of ſtone; to hew, ſquare, worke, lay ſtones, as a Maſon; to worke Maſons worke.
Maçonnerie. Seeke Maſſonnerie.
Macque. A Lozenge, or Net-maſh.
Macquereau. as Maquereau.
Macquignon. Looke Maquignon.
Macreau: m. A Mackerell fiſh; Looke Maquereau.
Macreon: m. An old, or long-liued, man. ¶Rab.
Macrobe. Of old life; of long continuance, or that hath had a long time, in this life. ¶Rab.
Macroule: f. A ſea-Coot, or Scottiſh Moore-henne.
Maculatures: f. Blotting, or waſt, papers.
Macule: f. A ſpot, blot; ſpeck, ſpeckle; ſtaine, blemiſh.
Maculer. To ſpot, blot; ſpeck, ſpeckle, beſpatter; beſmeare, ſtaine, blemiſh, bewray.
Madame: f. Madame. (The title, or ſtile of a Ladie.)

Ma-

Madame du guichet. The Ladie of the Wicket; (a by-word for a Midwife.)
Monſieur vaut bien Madame: Pro. Look Monſieur.
Madamoiſelle: f. (The title, or ſtile of a Gentlewoman;) Miſtreſſe.
Madamoiſelle d'un'aulne de velours. A mechanicall, or vpſtart Gentlewoman; the proud wife of a ſhop-keeper that will needs be a Gentlewoman.
Madamoiſelle de la boutique. (Of the ſame ranke, and ambition.)
Madamoiſelle de cinquante pour cent. The ſame; or may be applyed to the loftie-humored wife of an extorting Vſurer.
Madant. Wet, moiſt; flowing; alſo, drunken with.
Madefier. To wet, moiſten, liquifie.
Madia. In good ſooth; as true as I liue; or (in ſtead of Ce m'ait Dieu) ſo God helpe me.
Madia nò. No forſooth, or, in ſooth ſir no; you ſhall be ſo good as to pardon me.
Madienc, ou Madienne. A cholericke old wines oath importing as much as, Mon Dieu, or, par mon Dieu.
Madier: m. Tymber.
Madoure: m. A dull, or ſenceleſſe loggarhead.
Madre: f. A thicke-ſtreaked graine in wood.
Madré: m. ée: f. (Of wood) whoſe graine is full of crooked, and ſpeckled ſtreakes; (of a man) ſubtill, craftie, ſhifting, full of ſetches; whence;
Ie ſuis plus Madré en ces affaires. I am better experienced in theſe buſineſſes.
Madrer. The graines of wood to be full of crooked, and ſpeckled ſtreakes, or veines.
Madreure. as Madrure.
Madrier: m. A planke, or peece of timber, whoſe graine is full of crooked, and ſpeckled ſtreakes.
Madrure: f. as Madre, or Madrier; alſo, a ſpeckled, or diuerſified ſtreaking; whence, Madrures; Speckled ſtreakes in the graine of cut wood; or the menild coat of ſome Hawkes.
Maeut. A maker of ſallads, or May-ſawces. ¶Rab.
Mafé, or Mafi. Much vſed in ſtead of, Par ma foy.
Magagnat. Maymed, &c, as Mehaigné. ¶Langued.
Magaigne. as Mehaing. ¶Langued; or, as the Italian Magagna (whence it comes) defect, imperfection, want, fault, corruption, putrifaction.
Magault. as Macault.
Magazin: m. A Magaſin, publike ſtorehouſe, or warehouſe.
Magdaleon: m. A Langate, a rowler.
Magdaleon d'entract. A ſalue ſpred vpon leather, or linnen, and hard rowled vp.
Mage. Chiefe, or principall; whence, Iuge Mage. A chiefe Iuſtice.
Place Mage. The chiefeſt, or moſt frequented place, as the Marketſtead, in a Towne.
Magicien: m. A Magician, or Negromancer; one that practiſes the blacke Art; a Coniurer.
Magie: f. Magicke, Negromancie; Coniuring, the blacke Art.
Magique: com. Magicall; coniuring; of, or belonging to, the blacke Art.
Magiſtere: m. Maiſterſhip, authoritie; ſway, cheefe rule; alſo, maiſterie, a maiſters part, or maiſterpeece.
Magiſtral: m. ale: f. Magiſtrall; of a maiſter, or magiſtrate; done by a magiſtrate, or maiſter; alſo, maiſterlike; artificiall, skilfull, cunning.
Magiſtralement. Maiſter-like, expertly, artificially, cunningly.

Magiſtrat: m. A Magiſtrate; Ruler, Gouernour, Iudge, or principall Officer in the Commonwealth.
Magiſtrature: f. Magiſtracie; gouernment, ſway, rule, authoritie; the bearing of office in the Commonwealth.
Magiſtronoſtralement. Dunſically. ¶Rab.
Magna gna. Marry gip ſir; true Roger. ¶Rab.
Magnan: m. A boore, clowne, binde, yeoman, countrey fellow.
Magnanime: com. Magnanimous, generous, of a great mind; ſtout-hearted, gallant-humored, of a loftie ſpirit, of a noble ſtomacke.
Magnanimement. Magnanimiouſly, generouſly, gallantly, valiantly.
Magnanimité: f. Magnanimitie, generoſitie, greatneſſe of mind; gallantneſſe of humor, nobleneſſe of ſpirit, ſtoutneſſe of heart.
Magniaux: m. Silkewormes. ¶Langued.
Magnie: f. A meynie, companie, number of people. ¶Bourg.
Magnificat: m. The Magnificat; (part of the Euenſong; whence;)
Chanter Magnificat à matines. To doe things diſorderly, or vſe a thing vnſeaſonably.
Magnificence: f. Magnificence; ſtatelineſſe, gorgeouſneſſe, ſumptuouſneſſe; high atchieuement, great performance; noble prouiſion.
Magnifié: m. ée: f. Magnified; highly commended, mightily praiſed, much honoured.
Magnifier. To magnifie; exalt, extoll; commend highly, praiſe mightily, honour much.
Magnifique: com. Magnificent, of high atchieuement, acting great matters, performing worthie acts; haughtie, loftie, ſtatelie, ſumptuous, maieſticall, ſolemne, graue.
Magnifiquement. Magnificently, magnifico-like; worthily, honourably, haughtily, ſumptuouſly; ſolemnely, with a maieſtie, with much grauitie, with great ſtate.
Magnigoulés: m. Wide-mouthed knaues. ¶Norm.
Magny Magna. Twitle twatle; or, as in Magna.
Magot: m. A Baboone, or Ape, thats faced like a dog; alſo, the (Scottiſh) Coote, or Moore-henne.
Maguelet. as Macaleb.
Mahaleb. as Macaleb.
Maheuſtre: m. A ſwaggerer, ſwaſh-buckler, deſperate or careleſſe yonker.
Mahonne: f. A kind of great ſhip ſomewhat reſembling the galliaſſe.
Mahutte: f. The pinion of a (birds) wing.
Mai. as May.
Maict: f. A hutch, kneading trough; ſalting tub.
Maidin: m. A Turkiſh coyne worth about a pennie.
Maie: f. The greateſt kind of ſea-Crab; round, long-legd, and verie rough-ſhelled; ſome call her, a Frill.
Maïens: m. Timelie Hay; called ſo becauſe tis commonly gotten in May.
Majeſté: f. Maieſtie; royaltie, ſouereignetie, princelineſſe, high dignitie, higheſt authoritie; a kinglie preſence or prerogatiue; a moſt honourable grauitie; alſo (in Painting) ſuch a radiant circle, or ſhadow, as is made about the head of a Saint.
Majeſteux: m. euſe: f. Maieſticall, kinglie, princelie, imperious, royall, ſouereigne, ſupreame; of great grauitie, full of maieſtie.
Majeul de rouë: m. The naue of a wheele.
Maieur: m. The Mayor of a Towne; or, as Maire; alſo, the Major, or firſt propoſition of a Syllogiſme; alſo, alſo, one that is of full yeares.

Nos maieurs. Our auncestors, or forefathers.

Le maieur d'un meſtier. Th maiſter of a Companie of artificers.

Majeur. as La majeur partie; the more; the greater part, or ſide.

Maignan. as Magnan. ¶Rab.

Maigne: com. Great; as, Charles le maigne.

Maignen: m. A Copper-ſmith, or Kettle-maker.

Maigre: m. A great, and ſkalie fiſh, hauing a wattle on his chinne; two holes on the top of his beake, neere his eyes; and two ſtones within his head, of ſome vertue (as is ſuppoſed) againſt the cholicke: The French doe tearme him thus, not becauſe he is leane, but becauſe by the whiteneſſe of his fleſh he ſeemes ſo; howſoeuer, and howſoeuer he be dreſſed, he is reaſonable good meat.

Maigre: com. Meagar, leane, ſcraggie, fleſhleſſe; thin, ſlender, gaunt, lanke; hungrie, barren; poore.

Maigre chere. Cold, or heartleſſe intertainment.

Maigre mine. Small countenance, a reſpectleſſe looke, or ſcarce a good looke.

Maigre propos. Dry, barren, faint, ſhallow, or careleſſe diſcourſe; talke whereby the hearer can profit but little.

Iour maigre. A fiſh, or faſting, day.

Maigre en cuiſſe d'heron; &,

Maigres comme pies. As leane as Rakes (we ſay.)

Maigrelet: m. ette: f. Somewhat meagar, thin, ſlender, ſomewhat leane.

Maigrement. Meagarly, leanely, ſcraggily; thinly, lankly, ſlenderly; hungrily; barrenly; dryly; poorely.

Maigret. as Maigrelet.

Maigreté: f. Meagarneſſe, leanneſſe; thinneſſe, lankeneſſe; hungrineſſe, barrenneſſe; dryneſſe; poreneſſe.

Maigue: m. Whey.

Mail: m. A Mall, Mallet, or Beetle; alſo, as Marne.

Maille: f. A (French) halfepennie; the halfe of a pennie (in weight, or money;) alſo, looke the next marginall word.

La maille Billeron. A toll taken of euerie one that ſells wares at certaine Fayres.

Maille de Lorraine. A coyne worth about iij s. Tour.

Droict de maille d'or. Looke Droict.

Faire la maille bonne de. To warrant, vndertake or anſwer for, make good.

Bonne la maille qui ſauve le denier: Prov. Well is the halfe-pennie (ſpent) that ſaues a penniie.

Maille: f. Mayle, or a linke of mayle (whereof coats of mayle be made;) alſo, a Hauther; or, any little ring of mettall reſembling a linke of mayle; alſo, a maſh of a net, the ſquare hole that is between thread and thread; alſo, a web in the eye.

Maille de boucle. The loope of a buckle; (through which the latchet paſſes.)

Maille à maille on fait les haubergeons: Pro. Looke Haubergeon.

Maillé: m. ée: f. Armed with a coat of mayle, or priuie coat; alſo, marled, as ground.

Perdrix maillée. A maylde, menild, or ſpotted Partridge.

Mailler. To arme, or furniſh with a coat of mayle; alſo, to marle a peece of ground.

Maillerie: f. A marle-pit, or marlie ſoyle; the place wherein marle is gotten.

Mailler: m. A mallet, or hammer; alſo, a battleux; alſo, as Encueur.

Frire de ſon poing vn maillet. To make hard ſhift; or be ignorant of the right vſe of things.

Peſcher au maillet. Fooliſhly to talke much, or make a great bruit, of a proiect, thereby diſcouering, and diſappointing it.

Mailleton: m. A ſmall twig, or ſhoot ſpringing from the ſtaulke of a Vine, &c; a young branch fit to be planted.

Maillettes: f. Small maſhes, or links of mayle.

Maillol: m. as Mailleton.

Maillon: m. The knot a Gardener makes in binding, with willow-twigs, the ſtakes, and vine-branches of an arbour together.

Mailloque: f. as Tierce; or the 24 part of a Seconde; and the leaſt weight that Jewellers, and Goldſmithes vſe.

Maillot: m. A ſwadling clout, or ſwathe-band; (ſometimes) alſo, a cradle; alſo, as Mailleton.

Maillotant. Powning, bruizing, beating, or breaking with a mallet.

Mailloter. To powne, beat, bruize, or breake with a mallet.

Maillotins: m. A factious multitude, which, in old time, did much miſchiefe in, and about, Paris; whence;

Maillotonnerie: f. Any factious crue, ſeditious companie, tumultuous riſing of people.

Main: m. The name of a Saint; whence;

Mal S. Main. The wild ſcab.

Main. Pour Matin. The morning; whence, Demain.

Main: f. A hand; alſo, the forefoot of a horſe; alſo, the graple of a ſhip; alſo, the yron booke that holds the bucket of a Well; alſo, a certaine three-fold hooke vſed by Wine-preſſers; alſo, a quire of paper; alſo (in Law) publicke authoritie, or power.

Main baſſe. A bad hand, ill chance, courſe lucke, hard bargaine; whence;

Faire main baſſe, & mener les mains baſſes. To put all vnto the ſword.

Main burnie. Ward, gard, cuſtodie, &c; as Main-bournie.

Main ferme. A ſteadie hand; alſo, as Main-fermè.

Les mains du foye. Certaine branches of the port-veine, which conuey the iuice of concocted meat vnto the liuer.

Main garnie. An armed hand; viz. that holds a ſtone, or weapon to ſtrike withall; (Hence, Excez de main non garnie; a blow giuen with the (onely) hand; a cuffe, or duſt with the fiſt;) alſo, as in, Garnir la main.

Main de Iuſtice. The hand of Iuſtice; viz. the authoritie, iuriſdiction, or power thereof in any kind of execution, or ſeiſure; alſo, an yuorie hand in the top of a Rod; (a marke of Royaltie, or Soueraignetie, as well as the Scepter, Crowne, or Sword.)

Main levée. A diſcharge, releaſe, deliuerie from ſuit; alſo, a reſtoring, or giuing backe of things which were ſeiſed by order; a putting one in poſſeſſion of a thing become by accident, or order, cleerely his.

Main miſe. Seiſure of the perſon or of poſſeſſions, by the Magiſtrate, or a Lord, vnto whom they are by law, or in right, or by the omiſſion of duties, and due ſeruices, eſcheated, or forfeited.

Main morte. is much like the Mortmaine of our Law; alſo, villenage, or a ſeruile tenure.

Gens de main morte condition. Looke Main-morte.

Main pleine. Sufficient goods taken, or land ynough ſeiſed, vpon an execution.

Main ſouveraine. Autheritie royall; the Kings pre- prerogatiue, or power.

Se faire recevoir par main ſouveraine. Looke Recevoir.

La bouche & les mains. Homage, and fealtie; or, the ceremonies vſed in the doing thereof; for which looke Hommage.

La derniere main. The laſt touch, worke, or act, which giues a thing it full perfection.

Diſme, & terrage à deux mains. A Lords taking of two ſheaues vpon his tenants twelue; viz. one for his tythe, another for his Terrage.

Garniſon de main. See Garniſon.

La grande main. The whole arme and hand together.

`A main. Readie, neere, at hand.

`A main armée. By force of armes.

`A main forte. By maine force, or great power; with might and maine.

`A main ſauve. Safely, ſecurely, without any manner of loſſe, dammage, or danger.

`A la main. Nimbly, readily, actiuely, at hand (quoth pick-purſe.)

Haut à la main. Proud, ſtatelie, ſurlie, ſullen, ſtubborne, a ſtriker, like ynough to lay about him.

Homme à la main, & Homme de main. A man of execution or valour; a man of his hands.

Leger à la main. (Of a horſe) light borne.

`A pleine main. Vne bouche à pleine main. A horſes mouth which is neither too hard, nor too ſenſible, and thereby giues a full reſt vnto the hand.

De longue main. Of old, long ſince, of great continuance, a great while agoe.

Tout d'une main. Hard after, all together, all vnder one.

Les mains derriere le dos; &, les mains penduës à leur ceincture. In an idle, or careleſſe faſhion.

Avoir les mains crochuës. To be a light-fingered, or lime-fingered filcher; euerie finger of his hand to be as good as a lime-twig.

Avoir les mains longues. To haue long hands, or large iuriſdiction: applyable to Princes, whoſe power ſtretches verie farre.

Avoir les mains nettes. To be honeſt, ſincere, vncorruptable, vpright.

Avoir la main ſeure. To be ſteadie handed (as he that would be a good workman muſt be;) alſo, to be honeſt, loyall, truſtie, faithfull, true in his reckonings, iuſt in all his doings.

Bailler la main. To reach a hand; alſo, a wife to giue her conſent, before a Notarie, vnto the ſale, or morgage of her inheritance.

Changer de main. To ſhift out of one hand into another; alſo, to change the Lord, or Poſſeſſor; as land is ſaid to doe vpon ſales, gifts, exchanges, death &c.

Faire main forte à. To ioyne ſtrongly with.

Faire la main. To make a hand, or make vp his mouth; to get a rich purchaſe, or great ſtake; to gaine much; to win all.

Faire, & leuer la main. To take vp the tricke (at Cards.)

Faire d'une main l'autre. To patch vp one thing with another; to ſupply the defects of the one with the exceſſe of the other.

Fourrer la main à. To greaſe the fiſt with a bribe, &c.

Garnir la main. To take a thing to pawne, or in morgage; alſo, to ſeize, or diſtraine; or (more properly) an arreſted debtor to pay the debt preſently, or deliuer valuable goods for the ſecuritie, or in conſideration, thereof.

Iouër des mains. To fight.

Iurer es mains d'autruy. To ſweare vnto, or (any way) to take an oath; for the old faſhion was, that he which tooke an oath held his hands within his that receiued it.

Laver les mains de. To purge, cleere, iuſtifie, or excuſe himſelfe of.

Mener les mains. To beſtirre the fingers; (and particularly) to deale blowes, fall to bandie ſtrokes, lay hard about him.

Mener les mains baſſes. To put vnto the ſword.

Mettre la main au baſton. See Baſton.

Mettre la main ſur le collet de. To arreſt, or take priſoner.

Mettre la main iuſques au coude. Il y a mis la m. He hath ſtept verie farre into; he hath deepely ingaged himſelfe in; he hath ſounded the depth of, the matter.

Mettre la main à l'heritage. To fall to the ground vpon his hands.

Mettre la main à la paſte. To aſſiſt, helpe, further, ſet forward.

Mettre la main à la verge. Looke Verge.

Partir de la main. To part from the hand; ſuddainely, or haſtily to paſſe, or ſtart, forward.

Prendre la main. A Notarie to take the conſent, and receiue the oath, of parties that agree to paſſe a contract.

Se ſeigner de toutes mains. To be horribly afraid, or grieuouſly diſtreſſed; or, all-to-be-croſſe themſelues in a time of affright, or extremitie.

Tendre les mains. To aske for mercie.

Tenir la main à quelque affaire. To haue a hand in, be medling with, heed or looke vnto, a matter.

Tenir la main à vn en quelque affaire. To further, fauor, helpe, or aſſiſt one in a matter.

Tenir la main pour l'un & pour l'autre. To be a newter, or equally affected to both ſides; alſo, to vndertake both for the one and the other.

Tenir ſous main. To keepe in ſecret, in priuate, in a corner, in hugger-mugger.

Tirer à la main. A horſe to preſſe vpon the hand, or ſtriue to get forward, or to goe faſter then his rider would haue him.

Tomber en main tierce. Looke Tiers.

Toucher en la main de. To ſhake hands with, or take by the hand, in ſigne of friendſhip.

Il toucha la main entre leurs mains. He layed his hands betweene theirs, or gaue them his hand that he would be theirs.

Venir aux mains. To come to bandie blowes; to buckle, grapple, cope, or fight together.

Venir es mains de. To be at the mercie, fall into the laps, come into the power, or vnder the iuriſdiction, of.

Main lavée moins levée: Prov. The more good parts one hath the leſſe he ſhould boaſt of them.

`A main lavée Dieu mande la repeuë: Prov. God ſends th' vpright all neceſſarie food.

Vne main lave l'autre: Prov. One hand waſhes the other; applyable to ſuch as giue vpon aſſurance, or hope, to be giuen vnto; or vnto ſuch as any way ſerue one another's turne.

Pour laver ſes mains on n'en vend pas ſa terre: Prov. A cleane-waſht hand makes no man ſell his land.

De mains vuides prieres vaines: Pro. Emptie hands (bad Orators) make intreatie proue idle.

C[illegible] vilain avec la main: Pro. See Connin.

Main-

Main-bonne. as Main-bournie.

Main-bournie: f. Ward, gard; gouernment, administration, ouerſight of; charge, power, authoritie ouer; alſo, the patronage, defence, or protection of a Soueraigne.

Main-de-gourre. A Hogs-foot; or, one thats banded like a Sow. ¶Rab.

Main-ferme: f. Farme, or fee-farme; a title in, or the poſſeſſion of, an inheritance (either for a time certaine, or for euer) lyable vnto rent.

Main-ferme: com. Held in farme, or fee-farme; Tous Heritages, & biens immeubles qui ne ſont fief, ſont communement appellez, reputez, & tenus heritages mainfermes. Couſt. de Cambray tit. 2. ar. 2.

Main-mettre. To manumit, or diſmiſſe; to affranchiſe a villaine.

Main-mis: m. An affranchiſed perſon; one that is freed from ſeruitude, or ſlauerie.

Main-mortable: com. Holding, or held by villenage, or by a ſeruile tenure; whence;

Main-mortable envers ſon ſeigneur. Slauiſhly ſubiect vnto the impoſitions his Lord is pleaſed to lay on him while he liues; and at his death not able to bequeath, or giue away vj d without his permiſſion.

Heritages main-mortables. Which are charged, at the Lords pleaſure, with taxes; and of cuſtome with an yearelie proportion of fleſh, bread, or corne, payable vnto him; and which come cleere into his hands, if the tenant thereof dye without lawfull heires of his bodie.

Main-morte: f. Mortmaine; alſo, villenage; or, a ſeruile, and ſlauiſh tenure.

Gens de main-morte. Be Church-men; Abbots, Monks, Fryers; Deanes, Prebends, Canons; brothers of an Hoſpitall; freemen of a corporate Towne, or Trade; the fellowes, or members of all Corporations; alſo, villaines, or ſeruile tenants.

Mainotte: f. A ſmall hand, or childs hand.

Main-pleine. Looke Main.

Mainſme. A bundle of grapes; or ſome ſix or ſeuen bunches tyed vp together; as Moiſſine.

Mainſné: m. A younger brother.

Maint: m. te: f. Many, a number, ſtore of.

Maintes fois. Often, eſiſoones, or at ſundrie times.

Maintenance: f. Maintenance; protection, ſupport, countenance, aſſiſtance.

Maintenant. Now, preſently, at this inſtant, in this verie moment.

Pour maintenant. For this time; for this once.

Maintenir. To maintaine, vphold, ſupport, protect, countenance, defend, backe, beare out; ſtand in, or vnto.

Maintenir de faux. To affirme, and offer, or ſet himſelfe, to proue, that an euidence produced by his aduerſarie is forged; Looke Faux.

Maintenu: m. uë: f. Maintained, vpheld, ſupported, defended; ſtood in, or vnto; countenanced, backed, or borne out.

Maintenuë: f. A maintenance, maintaining, vpholding, defence, countenance, aſſiſtance.

La pleine maintenuë. The full poſſeſſion of a thing; or, a poſſeſſion adiudged, and giuen after the full tryall of a ſuit, vnto him that hath moſt right.

Maintien: m. Geſture, behauior, demeanour, carriage.

Main tourner. à m. In the turning of a hand, inſtantly, ſuddainely.

Majorité: f. Maioritie; full age.

Maire: m. A Mayor; the higheſt Officer or Magiſtrate of an incorporate Towne; alſo, the Judge, or Steward of a Lord Iuſticiers Courts.

Maire de Chaſtel. as Merc.

Maire du Palais. Was, in old time, the principall Officer of the Crowne, and Steward of the Kings houſe; ſince, he hath beene called Seneſchal de France; now, the Conſtable, and Great Maiſter of France diuide his authoritie betweene them.

Le Maire du village. The Judge thereof.

Maire laine. The full-grown fleece, or well-combd wooll of a ſheepe.

Mairerie: f. A Maiordome; the office, or place of a Mayor; alſo, his iuriſdiction, or the precincts thereof.

Mairgue: f. as Maigue; Whay. ¶Auvergnois.

Mairie: f. A Maiordome, or Maiorſhip; the office, or place of a Maior, or of a village-Maior; alſo (in ſome old bookes, and cuſtomes) baſe, or low iuriſdiction.

Mais. (Adverb.) But; alſo, more, any more; (whence, Mais de; aboue, or more then;) alſo, rather.

Mais que. But what; alſo, when that, ſo that.

Plus mais. Ie ne puis plus mais ſouſtenir. I can beare no longer, or not a whit more.

A touſiours mais. Eternally, euerlaſtingly, for euer and euer.

Ie n'en peux mais. It's not my fault, it's no way long of me, I cannot doe withall.

Mais-huy. Not this day, or not as long as this day laſteth.

Maiſné: m. A younger brother.

Maiſne. Argent baillé à maiſne. Let out to vſe for the benefit of younger brethren, being infants, or orphans.

Maiſneaux. as Meneaux.

Maiſneté: f. Youngerſhip, or younger brotherhood; the eſtate, or title of a younger brother.

Maiſon: f. A houſe, or manſion; alſo, a race, or familie.

La maiſons de Monſieur Boyau. Whoſe foreparts be ſlated, and backe-parts thatched.

Maiſons au ciel. Circles drawne from the one pole to the other, to ſeperate the twelue ſignes of the Zodiake, and diuiding the whole Sphere into twelue equall parts.

Maiſon de deſpens. A Roome, or Side (of extraordinarie expence) in Priſons, wherein a condemned debtor, that will not pay, is to be kept.

Maiſon Dieu. An Hoſpitall, or Spittle, for the poore.

Maiſon de la Paix. A Court of Iudgement or Iuſtice; a iudiciall Court.

Toile de maiſon. (Courſe) Huſwiues cloth.

De vieilles maiſons bruſlées il ſçait tirer des cuilliers neufves. He can picke new ſpoones out of old houſes; (Applyable to a neere, and cunning houſe-keeper.)

La maiſon fait cognoiſtre le maiſtre: Prov. The houſe diſcouers the owner; or, looke into a houſe, you diſcerne the owner.

En bonne maiſon l'on a toſt appreſté: Prov. In a good houſe all things are quickly readie.

En petite maiſon Dieu a grand part: Prov. God hath a great ſhare in a ſmall houſe.

A l'entrée de la ville eſt le commencement des maiſons: Prov. The buildings begin at the townegate; One may gheſſe at a mans whole ſpeech by his Proeme; and by his firſt courſe what will be his whole proceeding.

Achetè paix, & maiſon faitte: Prov. Buy peace, and

and a houſe (alreadie) made; like whereunto is;
Il faut acheter maiſon faitte, & femme à faire: Pro. Purchaſe a houſe readie made, but let thy wife be of thine owne making.
Chaſcun eſt maiſtre en ſa maiſon: Prov. Euerie one is (or ſhould be) maiſter within his owne doores.
Qui fait nopçes, & maiſon, met le ſien en abandon: Prov. Much building, and often bridalls make bare paſtures, and naked ſide-walls.
Qui veut tenir nette maiſon il n'y faut preſtre, ny pigeon: Pro. He that loues to haue a neat houſe muſt keepe neither Prieſt, nor Pigeon in it.
Maiſonage: m. Timber-trees cut downe for the building of a houſe.
Maiſonnages: m. Houſes, houſing; lodgings, dwellings.
Maiſonné: m. ée: f. Houſed; furniſhed, or ſtored with houſes.
Maiſonnée: f. A houſefull, houſehold, familie.
Maiſonner. To build houſes; to furniſh, or ſtore with houſes.
Maiſonnette: f. A little houſe; a lodging, a cote, a crib, a cottage.
Maiſonnier: m. ere: f. Keeping a houſe; alſo, belonging to, or ſeruing for, a houſe.
Maiſtraille. The maine ſayle (of a ſhip.)
Maiſtral: m. The North-weſt wind. Rab.
Maiſtre: m. A Maiſter; Gouernour, Commaunder, Preſident, Principall, chiefe Ruler; a Teacher, Inſtructor; Ouerſeer; alſo, an Owner, Proprietarie, Poßeſſor; alſo, one that hath (or ſhould haue) ſufficient skill in the facultie which he profeſſes; whence, Maiſtre es arts, &c; alſo, a title of honour (ſuch as it is) belonging to all Artificers, and Tradeſmen; whence, Maiſtre Pierre, Maiſtre Iehan, &c; which we giue not ſo generally, but qualifie the meaner ſort of them (eſpecially in countrey townes) with the title of Goodman (too good for many.)
Les deux Maiſtres. The two principall ropes of a Fiſhers Draw-net.
Maiſtre des baſſes œuvres. A Iakes-farmer, or Gold-finder.
Maiſtres de la chambre aux deniers. The principall officers of the Exchequer, called ſo in old time.
Maiſtre des Comptes. Looke in Chambre des Comptes.
Maiſtre des eaux, & foreſts. The Lord chiefe Iuſtice, or Iuſtice in Eire, of the Kings Forreſts, &c.
Maiſtre des hautes œuvres. A hangman.
Maiſtre d' hoſtel. The ſteward of a (great) houſehold.
Maiſtres du Parlement. So were the Conſeillers du Parlement called in old time.
Maiſtre phy phy. A Iakes-feyer (who hath often occaſion enough to ſay phy.)
Maiſtre des Ports. An Officer that ouerſees the leuying of the Impoſition foraine, Reſue, & Haut paſſage.
Maiſtres rationnaux. Certaine officers which haue the letting of the Kings farmes.
Maiſtre des Requeſtes. The Maiſters of Requeſts; Looke Requeſte.
Le Grand Maiſtre. The Great Maiſter of France; the Lord Steward of the Kings houſehold; beretofore ſtiled, Le Comte du Palais; &, le Seneſchal de France.
Le grand Maiſtre des Arbaleſtiers. The Maiſter of the Croſſebow-men; an officer in date vntill the coming vp of Gunnes, and holding the ſame ranke, and authoritie that, at this day, belongs to Le grand Maiſtre de l'Artillerie. The Maiſter of the Ordnance.
Vn ſecond Maiſtre. The vſher of a Schoole.
Servir ſon maiſtre. To purge, vntruſſe, goe to the ſtoole.
A pere, à maiſtre, & à Dieu tout puiſſant, nul ne peut rendre l'equivalent: Prov. Looke Dieu.
Ce que maiſtre donne, & valet pleure, ce ſont larmes perduës: Prov. The grocme that wayles his maiſters gifts may well enough ſpare his teares.
Chaſcun eſt maiſtre en ſa maiſon: Prov. Euerie one rules in his owne houſe.
De grand maiſtre hardi valet: Prov. Said of a ſeruant, that bearing himſelfe on his maiſters greatneſſe, is more bold, and confident then otherwiſe he would be.
En pont, en planche, & en riviere, valet deuant, maiſtre derriere: Prov. In places of danger, or diſaſter, the ſeruant muſt precede his maiſter.
Fortune n'eſpargne ny ſerviteur ny maiſtre: Prov. Looke Fortune.
Iamais ne gaigne qui precede à ſon maiſtre: Pro. He neuer gaines that ſtands in ſuit with's maiſter.
Il eſt plus d'ouvriers, que de maiſtres: Prov. There be more workmen then skilfull workmen.
Il ſe peut bien ſeoir à table quand le maiſtre luy commande: Prov. He needs not wait that's bid ſit downe by his maiſter.
La maiſon fait cognoiſtre le maiſtre: Prov. We ſay, the ſeluidge makes ſhew of the cloth.
L'oeil du maiſtre engraiſſe le cheval: Prov. A horſe is fattened by his maiſters eye.
Les derniers venus ſont les maiſtres: Prov. Thoſe that come laſt (oft) get the maiſterie.
Nouveau apprenti n'eſt pas maiſtre: Prov. A nouice (or new-come Prentice) is no maiſter; viz. muſt neither looke for the reſpect, nor haue looked from him the skill of, a maiſter.
Qui a compagnon a maiſtre: Prov. He that hath a mate hath a maiſter.
Qui bon maiſtre ſert bon loyer en attend: Prov. He that waites on a good maiſter waites for a good turne.
Qui ſert Dieu il a bon maiſtre: Prov. The ſeruant of God hath a good maiſter.
Qui ſert le Roy il a bon maiſtre: Prov. No ſeruice to the King.
Tel maiſtre tel valet: Prov. Like maiſter like man.
Maiſtre: com. (Adiectiuely) chiefe, principall; whence;
Vn maiſtre cable, ou chable. A ſheat-cable.
Le maiſtre doigt. The middle finger.
Maiſtre-garde: m. A chiefe warden, or Maiſter-warden in a forreſt.
Maiſtrement. as Magiſtralement; (an old word.)
Maiſtre-pied: m. The ſtocke, or principall arme of a Plant.
Maiſtre-ſergent: m. A Maiſter-Sergeant, or chiefe Sergeant; an officer in forreſts.
Maiſtre-ſergenterie: f. The office, or walke of a Maiſter-Sergeant, in forreſts.
Maiſtreſſe: f. A miſtreſſe, dame, commaundreſſe.
La maiſtreſſe Egliſe. A Cathedrall Church, the miſtreſſe Church, or chiefe Church in a Towne (wherein this word, as well as Maiſtre before, is vſed Adiectiuely.)
Maiſtrier. as Maiſtriſer.
Maiſtriſe: f. Maiſterie, ſeigneurie, commaund, authoritie, ritie, dominion, rule, sway; also, cunning, skill, artificiallnesse, expert or excellent workmanship; also, a Maistership; the office, or place of a Maister; whence;

La grand maistrise. The office of le Grand maistre; (for whom, looke vnder Maistre.)
Il y a eu de la maistrise à faire cela. That matter hath beene cunningly, or workmanly handled.
Maistriser. To maister, gouerne, rule, sway; to bridle, order, containe, or keepe within compasse.
Maistroqueux. A maister Cooke. ¶Rab.
Majuscule: com. Somewhat greater, a little bigger; of good stature, of a reasonable age.
Maiz: m. Mais, Turkie corne, Turkie wheat; (the graine whereof the Indians make the most of their bread.)
Mal: m. An euill, mischiefe; hurt, harme, domage, wrong, displeasure, annoyance; also, a griefe, paine; sickneſſe, disease.
Mal de S. Acaire. as Acariastreté.
Mal aigre. A kind of wormes that breed in the gorge of a Hawke.
Mal d'Alcide. Hercules euill; the foule, or falling euill.
Mal d'amarry. The suffocation of the Matrix.
Mal de S. Apollonie. The toothache.
Mal de S. Avertin. Dizzineſſe; or any disease of the head.
Mal caduc. The falling sickneſſe.
Mal chaud, ou chaud mal. A continuall (or violent) burning ague; (whence the Prouerbe, De fievre en chaud mal. Out of the frying-panne into the fire.)
Mal de S. Claire. Red eyes; or, a painefull redneſſe of the eyes.
Mal des comices. The falling sickneſſe.
Mal de corne. The sitt fast; a hornie swelling on the backe of a horse.
Mal de craye. The stone-cray; a Hawkes disease.
Mal de cropion. The rumpe-euill; a disease wherewith all birds (especially such as be kept in cages) are sometimes troubled.
Mal aux dents. The toothache; also, extreame hunger, or famishment by reason thereof; Looke Dent.
Mal ferv. A Malander in the bought of a horses knee.
Mal S. Fiacre. An inflamed scab, or great wart in the fundament, the which it makes to swell.
Mal de flancs. A Pleurisie; or, as vnder Flanc.
Mal S. Franc[illegible]. Want of money, or, not a crosse in the purse (for those of his order must carrie no money about them.)
Mal de S. Genou. The Gowt.
Mal de S. Gilles. A Fistula, or Canker.
Mal de gosier. The Squinancie, or Squinzie.
Mal de S. Iean. The falling sickneſſe.
Mal de Mahumet. The falling sickneſſe (whereunto Mahomet was verie subiect.)
Mal de S. Mammard. Soreneſſe, or chaps, in the breasts of women.
Mal de S. Mathurin. Frenzie, madneſſe.
Mal de S. Medard. Looke Medard.
Mal de S. Mein. The wild scab, or mangineſſe; a kind of (most itching) leaprosie, bred of a salt phlegme.
Mal mort. A running scab, or thicke morphew, which couering all ouer the vlcers that be vnder it, seemes wholly dead: Some Northerne people call it, the Rigruffe (in beasts.)
Mal de Naples. The French Pocks; or, the Neapolitane disease, first gotten by the French (of the Spaniards) at the siege of Naples, Anno Dom. 1528.
Mal du pantois. Difficultie of breathing; See Pantois.
Mal du pion. A sickneſſe that comes by exceſſiue drinking.
Mal de pippe. Drunkenneſſe.
Mal de S. Quentin. The Cough.
Mal de S. Raphine. The wild Scab.
Mal de S. Roch. Scurfe, or scabbineſſe; an itching mangineſſe.
Mal sacrée. The Kings euill.
Mal de S. Sebastien. The Plague, or pestilence.
Mal subtil. The Ptisicke, or consumption of the lungs.
Mal de terre. The falling sickneſſe.
Mal de teste. The head-ache; (and sometimes) also, iealousie.
Mal de S. Valentin. The falling sickneſſe.
Mal de ventre. The wormes; or belly-ache; a painfull griping, or fretting in the guts.
Mal de ver. The Farcie in a horse.
Mal S. Vitus. A pleasant disease, wherein the patient leapes, daunces, and laughes all the while his fit is on him.
Chaud mal. as before in Mal chaud.
Gros mal. The falling sickneſſe; the foule euill.
Haut mal. The same.
Le haut mal de la corde. Hanging; a twitching vp in a rope.
Mal dessus mal n'est pas santé: Prov. Ill vpon ill is no health.
De mal est venu l'agneau, & à mal retourne la peau: Prov. From ill came the Lambe, and to ill goes it skinne; goods euill gotten are commonly ill spent.
A peine endure mal qui ne l'a appris: Pro. Hardly can he brooke miserie that neuer any bore.
Il est tost deceu qui mal ne pense: Prov. He that thinkes no harme is soone beguiled.
Tel se plaind qui n'a point de mal: Prov. Some though they feele no harme vnquiet are.

Mal: m. ale: f. Ill, bad, naughtie, lewd; scurvie; mischieuous, hurtfull, harmefull, shrewd; vnseemelie, vncomelie, vndecent; sicke, diseased, crazie, pained, sore, ill at ease.
La male bosse. A pestilent byle, or bunch; a plague-sore.

Mal. (Adverb.) Ill, euilly, badly, naughtily; mischieuously; hardly, vneasily; vnhandsomely, ill-fauouredly, scurvily.
Que bien que mal. Indifferently, so so; also, bittie missie, one way or another.
Ie fus bien mal de mon pere. I had my fathers anger, I got his displeasure, I was hardly vsed, ill intreated, by him.
Il me fait mal de luy. I am sorrie for him.
Ils me veulent faire mal de vous. They would haue me fall out with you.
Mon cœur luy est ou fait mal. I beare him a grudge, my heart cannot abide him.
Mal batu longuement pleure; &, Autant pleure mal batu qui bien batu: Prov. Looke Batu.
Mal fait qui ne parfait: Prov. He does ill that does not all; the end crownes the worke.
Mal iouë qui fiert la iouë: Prov. Looke Iouë.
Mal pense qui ne repense: Prov. Better not thinke at all then not to weigh the thoughts.

Mal poiſe qui ne contrepoiſe: Pro. He weighes but ill that weighes not one with another.

Mal ſert qui ne parſert: Prov. He ſerues but ill that throughly ſerues not.

Mal ſoupe qui tout diſne: Pro. Of a young ſpender comes an old beggar; of a riotous youth a ruinous age.

Qui mal entend, mal reſpond: Prov. He that vnderſtands ill anſwers vnfitly.

Qui bien void, & mal prend fait folie en bon eſcient: Prov. He that diſcernes well, and chuſes ill, is a true coxcombe.

Malabatre: m. Malabathrum; an aromaticall Indian leafe, which (as Plinie and Dioſcorides imagined) ſwimmes on pooles and ditches, without any apparent roote; but our Gerard (of another opinion) ſayes it is the leafe of a great tree growing in Arabia, and Cambaya, farre from the water ſide.

Malace: f. A ſtorme, tempeſt, or ill weather, at ſea.

Malade: com. Sicke, diſeaſed, crazie, out of temper, ill at eaſe.

Elle eſt malade. Said of a woman that hath her flowers.

A l'œil malade la lumiere nuit: Pro. Looke Oeil.

La mort n'a point d'ami, le malade n'a qu'un demy: Prov. The dead man hath no friends, the ſicke no true ones.

Point ne faut demander à malade s'il veut ſanté: Prov. An anſwer for thoſe buſie bodies, that caſt many doubts, and make many queſtions, in caſes alreadie reſolued on.

Maladerie: f. An Hoſpitall, or Spittle for the diſeaſed; alſo, the ſicke mans ward in any Hoſpitall.

Maladie: f. A maladie, ſickneſſe, diſeaſe.

Maladie de S. Iean. The falling ſickneſſe.

Maladie S. Main. Mangines, an itching leproſie; the wild Scab.

Maladie de S. Mathurin. Frenzie, extreame follie, madneſſe.

Les maladies viennent a cheval, & s'en retournent à pied: Pro. Diſeaſes come a horſebacke, and returne on foot.

De grande maladie vient on bien en grande ſanté: Prov. From a long ſickneſſe a laſting health.

Tard medicine eſt appreſtée à maladie enracinée: Prov. Sickneſſe once rooted, all Phiſicke comes too late.

Maladif: m. iue: f. Sicklie, crazie, queaſie, diſtempered, ill diſpoſed of bodie, ſubiect vnto ſickneſſe, apt to take diſeaſes.

Maladré: m. ée: f. Infected with a ſcurfe, or leaproſie. Rab.

Mal-adroict: m. cte: f. Vnwieldie, aukward, vnwheeme; vnapt, improper, vnfit; vnſeemelie, vnhandſome, vncomelie, without any manner of grace, decorum, or decencie.

Maladvis: m. Miſaduiſe, vnaduiſedneſſe, indiſcretion, inconſideration, raſhneſſe.

Maladviſé: m. ée: f. Ill aduiſed, vnaduiſed, vnwiſe, improuident, heedleſſe, inconſiderate, vndiſcreet.

Malaginer. To mingle, or incorporate ſeuerall things (eſpecially mettalls) together.

Malagme: m. A mollifying plaiſter for ſcabs, and hard impoſtumes.

Mal-aigre. A kind of wormes that breed in a Hawkes gorge.

Malaiſance: f. Vneaſineſſe, hardneſſe, difficultie, trouble.

Malaiſe: f. Diſeaſe, paine, trouble, diſquiet.

Malaiſé: m. ée: f. Vneaſie, troubleſome, difficult, hard.

Malaiſé a deſmeſler. Intricate, perplexed, much intangled.

Malaiſé de ſa perſonne. Vnwieldie.

Malaiſement. Vneaſily, difficultly, hardly, not lightly, with much paine, with great adoe.

Malaiſer. To diſeaſe, trouble, diſquiet, perplex.

Malandres: m. The Malanders; (a horſes diſeaſe.)

Malandrin: m. A caſted ſouldior without pay, or imployment.

Malarmat: m. A kind of rough-skaled Gurnard, which being aliue is red, but dying, of another colour.

Malart: m. A Mallard, or wild Drake.

Mal-avenant. Vncomelie, ill ſitting, vnhandſome, ill ſuiting, vnſeemelie; rude, vnciuile, vnmannerlie, ill behaued.

Malaventure: f. Miſaduenture, misfortune, diſaſter, miſhap, miſchance.

Bon guet chaſſe malaventure: Prov. Hee that would euer be well muſt euer looke well about him.

Malaviſé. Looke Maladviſé.

Malaxé: m. ée: f. Mixed, blent, and beaten together; alſo, kneaded, handled, or wrought with the hands, vntill it be ſoft.

Malaxer. To blend, and beat together, as egges; alſo, to ſoften, work, or knead vnto a ſoſtneſſe, to handle a thing vntill it be ſoft.

Mal-baſti: m. An ill fauoured, or vnfaſhioned fellow; one that hath neither manners, nor good making.

Mal-cindré: m. ée: f. Ill ſupported, weakely vnderpropped (by a weake, or ill-made Centrie.)

Malcontent. The name of a game at Cards.

Malcontent. Malecontent, moodie, diſcontent, melancholicke, angrie, diſpleaſed.

Mal-contentement: m. Malecontentedneſſe, diſcontentment, grudging, vnwillingneſſe.

Malcus: m. A Fauchion, Hangar, Wood-kniſe.

Male: f. A Male, or great Budget.

Sans cela il eſtoit trouſſé en male. Without that he had beene truſſed, or twitcht vp.

Male: com. as Maſle.

Maleable. as Malleable.

Male-boſſe: f. A peſtilent byle, or botch; a plagueſore.

Maledicence: f. Detraction, reuiling, ill ſpeech, hard cenſure, opprobrious words.

Malediction: f. A malediction, curſe, banning, imprecation, execration.

Malefaçon: f. An abſurditie, illfauoredneſſe, ill manner.

Malefaçons des procez. Faults committed in pleading.

Malefice: m. A miſchiefe; offence, great fault, naughtie deed, ill act, lewd part, bad pranke; alſo, a charme (whereby hurt is done;) miſchieuous witcherie.

Maleficié: m. ée: f. Deformed, diſfigured, maymed, weakened, diſabled, defective, by nature, enchauntment, or other accident; vnable to performe nuptiall rites.

Male-grace. Looke Malgrace.

Maleir. as Mauldire; (an old word.)

Malement. Ill, badly, lewdly, naughtily, miſchieuouſly, ſhrewdly, ſorely, hardly, hurtfully.

Malencontre: m. Miſchance, misfortune, miſhap, miſaduenture, calamitie, diſaſter, bad ſucceſſe.

Malencontreux: m. euſe: f. Vnfortunate, ſucceßleſſe, diſmall, ominous, ill lucke bringing.

Malendre: f. The Malanders (of horſes.)

Malen-

Malendurant. Tichie, impatient.
Malengin: m. Fraud, guile, craft, ſubtiltie, deceit, couſenage, trumperie, cautele, treacherie, circumuention, double-dealing, ill-meaning.
Malengineux: m. euſe: f. Deceitfull, fraudulent, couſening, ouer-reaching, falſe, double, trecherous.
Malengroin: m. Sullenneſſe, powting, ſurlyneſſe, a ſoure looke.
Mal-enthalenté: m. ée: f. Maliciouſly affected, ill-minded.
Maléole. as Malleole.
Maleſuade: f. Hunger (becauſe it perſuades but ill.)
Malesuade: f. A ſweating paine, or ſickneſſe.
Maletoſte: f. An extraordinarie tax, or ſubſidie leuied the yeare 1296 by Philip le bel; viz. (at firſt) the value of the hundreth, (and afterwards) of the fiftieth part of all, either lay-mens, or clergie-mens, goods; hence alſo, any impoſition, exaction, taxation.
Maletote. The ſame; or, as Maltote.
Maletoultе. as Maletoſte; (called ſo, becauſe held as Mal tollue.)
Maletoultier: m. A collector of taxes, or ſubſidies; a toll-gatherer.
Malette: f. A little male; a budget, or ſcrip.
Malette de bergier. A Shepheards ſcrip; alſo, the hearbe Shepheards purſe, pouch, or ſcrip; called otherwiſe Toywort, Caſeweed, Pickpurſe, and poore mans Parmacetie.
Malfaict: m. A miſdeed, fault, offence, treſpaſe, tranſgreſſion, abuſe, bad act, lewd tricke, foule part, naughtie pranke.
Malfaicteur: m. A malefactor, offendor, tranſgreſor, treſpaſſer, guiltie perſon.
Malfaiſant. Lewd, wicked, offending, faultie, naughtie, culpable; ſhrewd, miſchieuous, harmefull, hurtfull.
Mal-feable: com. Weake, or in whom there's no good truſting.
Malgiſant. A maiſterleſe man; or, ſuch a one as hauing no home to take vnto, is often ſped with a very bad lodging; alſo, a fellow of ill behauior, or lewd conuerſation; a naughtie-packe.
Malgrace: f. Diſfauor, diſpleaſure, bad acceptance, ill opinion; anger, blame, or hate incurred.
Malhabile: com. Vnable, vnwieldie, vnapt, vnfit, ſleight, weake, diſabled, without vigor.
Malhardi: m. ie: f. Daſtardlie, cowardlie, faint-hearted, white-liuered, vnmanlie, feareſull, timerous.
Malheur: m. Miſhap, misfortune, miſchance, aduerſitie, diſaſter, calamitie, miſerie.
Malheur ne dure pas touſiours: Pro. Ill lucke doth not alwayes laſt.
Malheur ne vient iamais ſeul: Prov. Miſchances neuer come ſingle; one miſfortune ſucceeds in the necke of another.
A quelque choſe malheur eſt bon: Prov. Tis an ill wind that blowes no man to good.
Pour neant recule qui malheur attend: Prov. In vaine he giues backe that lookes for ill lucke.
Vn fol cerche ſon malheur: Prov. The foole by prying finds himſelfe vnhappie; or, The prying fcole meets with his owne miſhap.
Malheure. à la mal. Vnluckily, vnhappily, vnfortunately, diſaſterouſly, in an euill houre.
Malheurer. To miſchieue, afflict, make vnhappie, inflict miſeries, lay calamities, on.
Malheureté: f. as Malheur.
Malheureuſement. Vnhappily, vnluckily, vnfortunately, ſiniſterly, diſaſterouſly, miſerably.

Malheureux: m. euſe: f. Vnhappie, vnluckie, ſiniſter, croſſe, vnfortunate, vnproſperous, diſaſtrous, miſerable, wretched.
Plus malheureux que le bois dont on fait le gibet. More vnhappie then the wood of a Gibbet.
Malheuſtre: f. The pinion of a birds wing.
Malice: f. Guile, deceit, couſenage, trumperie, treacherie, knauerie, falſehood, ſhifting; malice, miſchieuouſneſſe, ill meaning, a bad fetch, wicked ſleight, lewd deuice.
Homme ne connoit mieux la malice que l' Abbé qui a eſté moine: Pro. No man is better ſeene in knauerie then an Abbot that hath beene a Monke.
Malicieuſement. Deceitfully, craftily, guilefully, falſely, treacherouſly; maliciouſly, deſpightfully, miſchieuouſly, knauiſhly, with an ill meaning, with a bad intent.
Malicieux: m. euſe: f. Deceitfull, craftie, couſening, falſe, treacherous; deſpightfull, malicious; knauiſh, miſchieuous.
Malier: m. A Male-horſe, Trunke-horſe, or Sumpter-horſe; he that carries the Cloake-bag.
Maligne: f. A Springelyde; called ſo by the Salters of Xaintonge.
Maligne. The feminine of Maling.
Malignement. Malignantly, maliciouſly; lewdly, wickedly, naughtily, ſhrewdly, knauiſhly, miſchieuouſly; of ſet (and with a bad) purpoſe.
Malignité: f. Maligaitie; malice prepenſed, purpoſed villanie; miſchiefe intended vnto; ill-will, grudge, deſpight; wickedneſſe, lewdneſſe, naughtineſſe, knauiſhneſſe.
Maling: m. maligne: f. Malignant, ill-willie, grudge-bearing, deſpightfull, malicious; knauiſh, hurtfull, ſhrewd, villanous, naughtie, lewd, vicious, delighting in miſchiefe.
Malingre. Pomme de mal. A ſowriſh apple, tearmed, the Maligar apple.
Malingre: com. Sore, ſcabbie, ouglie, loathſome.
Malivole: com. Maleuolent, maleuolous, ill-willie, malicious, deſpightfull, churliſh, dogged, curriſh, repining at, ill minded vnto, fraught with rancour, full of hatred.
Malleable: com. Mallable, tractable, hammerable, plyant to the hammer, which may be wrought or beaten with the hammer.
Malleation: f. A hammering.
Mallece. Moloſſus; the dregs, or courſeſt, of Sugar.
Mallement. Greatly, much, mightily, a vile or filthie deale.
Malleole: f. The ankle, or ankle-bone; alſo, a veine that runnes along vpon the ankle.
Malletier: m. ere: f. Bearing, or belonging to, a male, budget, or wallet.
Mallette. as Malette.
Malmené. as Maumené. Miſuſed, &c.
Malobatre: m. as Malabatre.
Malot: m. A little Boare. Norm.
Malotru: m. uë: f. Forlorne, wretched, wofull, miſerable.
Vn povre malotru. A poore ſnake.
Malpatient de. Impatient of.
Mal-plaiſant. Vnpleaſing, vnacceptable, rude, lumpiſh, vnmannerlie, without grace, without faſhion.
Mal-ſain: m. aine: f. Vnholeſome; ſicklie, crazie, vnhealthie.
Malſeance: f. Vncomelineſſe, vnſeemelineſſe, vnhandſomeneſſe, illfauorednеſſe.
Mal-talent: m. Deſpight; ill will; anger gotten, diſfauor incurred.

Maltaſſé: m. ée: f. Indigeſted, ill-piled, ill-fauouredly made vp, vnorderly budled or iumbled together.

Maltaulte. as Maletoſte.

Maltaultier: m. A Collector of the Subſidie, a Toll-gatherer.

Maltote. as Maletoſte; or as;

Mal-toute: f. An exaction, impoſition, toll; a new, or extraordinarie taxation.

Maltraictement: m. Hard dealing, bad intertainment, rudeneſſe, harſhneſſe, inciuilitie, crueltie.

Malvaiſie: f. The wine Malmeſie.

Malubec: m. The falling ſickneſſe; tearmed ſo in ſome parts of Languedoc.

Malvedi: m. A ſmall Spaniſh coyne, ſix whereof are ſcarcely worth an Engliſh pennie.

Mal-verſation: f. Miſdemeanor, misbehauior, ill conuerſation, lewd carriage.

Malverſer en ſon office. To behaue himſelfe ill in his office.

Mal-veſtu: m. uë: f. Ill-clothed; ragged, or bare, in array.

Les mal-veſtus devers le vent: Prov. (Like our) the weakeſt to the wall; thoſe that worſt may are euer put to the worſt.

Malvoiſie: f. Malmeſie.

Malvoiſin: m. ine: f. Of Malmeſie.

Maluſité: m. ée: f. Ill-faſhioned, ill-mannered; rude, that hath not beene in much good companie; alſo, raw, vnexperienced, ignorant, a nouice.

Malvueillance: f. Malice, ill-will; hatred; pleaſure taken in the misfortunes of another.

Malvueillant. Maleuolent, malignant, malicious; that beareth a grudge, or oweth ill will, vnto; that ioyeth in the miſeries of another.

Mamaluc: m. A Mamaluke, or light-horſeman (in the Syrian, and Arabian tongues;) The Mamalukes were an order of valiant horſemen in the laſt Empire of Egypt.

Mamaye: f. A great Indian Peach whereof a kind of Marmalade is made.

Mambour, & Mambourg: m. A Captaine; alſo, the Gouernour of a Prouince; alſo, the Gardian of an infant, protector of a widow, &c.

Mambournie: f. as Main-bournie.

Mamelue. See Mammeluë.

M'amie: f. My friend, loue, deere.

Ma belle m'amie. My prettie Pug (ſo fooles, hugging their bables, tearme them.)

Par ſaincte m'amie. In ſtead of, Par ſaincte Marie. ¶Rab.

Mamillaire: com. Of, or belonging to the breaſts, paps, or dugs.

Additions mamillaires. That part of the braine which lyes next to the noſe, and where the ſence of ſmelling begins.

Procez mamillaires. Looke Procés.

Mammal: m. ale: f. Belonging to the breaſts, or paps.

Veine mammale. Seeke Veine.

Mammam. (The voice of infants) Mam.

Mammeaux: m. A kind of Panick.

Mammelette: f. A little dug, breaſt, vdder.

Mammeleux: m. euſe: f. Of, or belonging to, the dugs; alſo, hauing great dugs.

Mammelle: f. A dug, breaſt, pap; vdder.

Mammellement. Duggiſhly, breaſt-faſhion, pap-like. ¶Rab.

Mammelon: m. The nipple, or teat of a dug.

Mammelons. Be certaine little, red, hard, vlcerie, and teat like ſwellings, which breake out of the skin of the head, and yeeld a whayiſh, or wateriſh humor.

Mammelu. as Mammeleux.

Mammeluch. as Mamaluc.

Mammeluë: f. A fooles bable; ſo tearmed, becauſe ordinarily it is made to reſemble a laughing, and fat woman.

Mammeron. as Mammelon.

Mammillaire. Seeke Mamillaire.

Mammuque: f. A wingleſſe bird, of an vnknowne beginning, and after death not corrupting; ſhe hath feet a hand long, & ſo light a bodie, ſo long feathers, that ſhe is continually carried in the ayre, whereon ſhe feeds; ſome call her the bird of Paradice, but erroniouſly; for that hath wings, and differs in other parts from this.

Manable: com. Habitable; which may be inhabited, or dwelt in.

Manance: f. A dwelling, abiding, inhabiting in.

Manant: m. A dweller, abider, inhabiter, or inhabitant; properly ſuch a one as dwells where he was borne; alſo, a boore, clowne, binde, husbandman, countrey fellow.

Manat: m. A monſtrous Indian fiſh that reſembles an Oxe, and hath a flat backe, and a verie thicke skin.

Manbourg. as Mambour.

Mancelles: f. Great Iron rings whereby the thill-horſe &c, is faſtened vnto a cart.

Manche: m. The haft, helue, or handle of a toole; alſo, the necke of a muſicall Inſtrument; alſo, a mans toole.

Le manche d'une charruë. A Plough-tayle, or handle; the Plough-bale.

Le manche d'un eſpieu. The ſtaffe of a Bore-ſpeare.

Vn manche d'eſtrille. A dwarfe, elfe, dandiprat, low ſcrub.

Manche de raſoir. Vn nez faict à manche de raſoir. A Hawke-noſe.

Branſler au manche. To ſhake in the helue, to be vnſetled in heart.

Iecter le manche apres la coignée. To increaſe a misfortune by deſperate careleſneſſe; vpon the loſſe of ſome to forgoe all.

De l'arbre d'un preſſoir le manche d'un Cernoir: Prov. Looke Cernoir.

Manche: f. A ſleeue; alſo, a long narrow bag (ſuch as Hypocras is made in;) alſo, a flat, and large furnace, made ſomewhat like an Ouen, and vſed for the melting of mettall new come out of the Mine; alſo, a ſleeue-net, a narrow and long fiſh-net; alſo, a ſleeue-like narrowing of the ſea betweene two lands; whence;

La manche d' Angleterre. Saint Georges channell.

Manche de couſteau. The Pitot; a long, and round ſhell-fiſh.

Manche Lombarde. Seeke Lombard.

La manche de la parece. The Bellfrey. ¶Poictevin.

Manches de deux paroiſſes. Sleeues of two pariſhes; viz. whereof the vpper part is of one ſtuffe, and the nether of mother.

C'eſt bien vn autre paire de manches. This is another manner of matter.

C'eſtoit du temps qu'on ſe mouchoit encor à la manche. It was in the dayes of ſimplicitie, or ignorance; it was at a time when people either knew not, or cared not for, good manners.

Ils luy torchent le nez de ſa manche. They wipe his noſe with his owne ſleeue; they doe him a pleaſure, but tis with the helpe of his owne meanes.

Man-

Manché: m.ée: f. Hafted, helued.

Manchereau: m. A little haft, or handle.

Les manchereaux d' la charruë. The plough-handles, or plough-hales.

Mancheron: m. A bracelet, or bracer; alſo, a halfe-ſleeue, or wriſt-ſleeue; a ſleeue that couers the arme from the elbow to the wriſt.

Mancherons de robbes. The hanging halfe-ſleeues of ſome faſhioned gownes.

Manchette: f. A cuffe, or hand-ruffe.

Manchon: m. as Mancheron; alſo, a Snuffkin; alſo, a ſcarfe, bracelet, or other ſuch like fauour worne vpon the ſleeue, or arme in publike ſhewes, and aſſemblies.

Manchon d'hermines. A Maniple charged, or powdered, with Ermines.

Manchot: m. otte: f. Lame, that hath but one hand, that wanteth a limme.

Manciper. To diſpoſſeſſe himſelfe, to deliuer the poſſeſſion, or make liuerie and ſeiſin, of; to ſell, paſſe away, giue vp.

Mand. as Mandement. An old word.

Mandat: m. A Mandate, or Mandamus for the preferment of one to a Beneſice.

Mandataire: m. A Mandatarie; one that comes to a Beneſice by a Mandamus.

Mande. as Manne; a Maund. ¶Pic.

Mandé: m. ée: f. Commaunded; ſent, or called for; bid come; directed; appointed, charged.

Mandegloire: f. Mandrake; See Mandragore.

Mandement: m. A ſending, or calling for, alſo, a charge, bidding, or commaundement; a Mandate, Mandamus, Commiſſion, Warrant, Appointment.

Mander. To bid, or command; to call by commandement; to ſend, ſend for, ſend word of; to charge, or appoint.

A rien mander il ne faut point de meſſager; (a flowting anſwer for ſuch as ſay, Me voulez vous rien mander.)

A main lavée Dieu mande la repeuë: Prov. The heauens powre downe their bleſſings on th' vpright.

A toile ordie Dieu mande le fil: Prov. God furthers their indeauors that take paines.

Mandibules: f. The iawes.

Mandication: f. as Manducation.

Mandil: m. A Mandilian, or looſe Caſſocke.

Mandille: f. as Mandil.

Mandole: f. A Cackarell (fiſh.)

Mandore: f. A Kitt, ſmall Gitterne, or inſtrument reſembling a ſmall Gitterne.

Mandoſiane: f. A broad (and old-faſhioned) ſhort-ſword.

Mandouſſiane. The ſame.

Mandragore: f. Mandrake, Mandrage, Mandragon; whereof there be two kinds.

Mandragore femelle. The female, or blacke Mandrake, beares a darke greene leafe, and a long apple; but is otherwiſe like vnto;

Mandragore maſle. Male Mandrake, white Mandrake, which beareth a round apple.

Mandre: f. The Cell of a Monke, or Hermit; alſo, a houell, or ſhedd; a ſtall, or foddering place, for beaſts, in the fields.

Mandregloire. as Mandragore.

Manducation: f. An eating, or chawing, a grinding, or champing with the teeth.

Manducité: f. Great eating. ¶Rab.

Manée: f. A ſmall veſſell, or meaſure, whereof 96 make but one Minot.

Droict de manée de ſel. That meaſure-full vpon euerie horſe-load of ſalt brought into Bourges, and of euerie one that ſells any ſalt in Bourges; due to the Abbot, and Couent of S. Sulpice.

Manege: m. The manage, or managing of a horſe.

Manequin: m. A little, open, wide-mouthed, and narrow bottomd Panier, or Maund, vſed for the carrying both of victualls, and of earth; alſo, a Puppet; (See Mannequin;) alſo, a rude inſtrument of Muſicke; whence;

Iouër des cymbales, & manequins. To leacher.

Iouër des manequins à baſſes marches. The ſame.

Manequinage: m. Anticke ingrauerie, or caruing, in Wainscot, or Stone-worke.

Manette: f. A ſmall hand; alſo, a manacle, or hand-fetter.

Maneuvre. as Manouvrier.

Manganeſe: f. A certaine minerall which being melted with glaſſe, amends the colour thereof; there is alſo good blue, or a blacke enamell made of it.

Mangé: m. ée: f. Eaten, fed on.

Il a mangé le lard. He onely is guiltie of the theft, or couſenage.

A la fin ſçaura on qui a mangé le lard. The theeſe will at length be diſcouered.

Qui a mangé le lard ronge l'os. He that hath eaten the ſweet ſhall taſt of the ſoure; or, let him that hath gotten the beſt goe away with the worſt.

C'eſt trop mangé d'un pain en vn lieu. Wee haue ſtayed too long in a place, or ſtood too much on one matter.

Il a mangé de la biche blanche. Looke Biche.

Il a mangé les pigeonneaux. Said of one whoſe voice being hoarſe, hath ſome reſemblance with their cry.

Il a mangé de la vache enragée. Looke Manger.

Mangeaille: f. Meat, food, ſuſtenance, victualls.

Mangeaille pour les pourceaux. Swillings, waſhings, draffe, Hogs-waſh.

Il luy a baillé logis pour mangeaille. He hath aſſigned him a houſe to eat, or to dreſſe & ſpend his meat in.

Mangeant. Eating, feeding, falling to his victualls.

En mangeant l'appetit ſe perd: Prov. Eating and drinking will take away any mans ſtomacke.

En mangeant l'appetit vient: Pro. (Sometimes) the more one eats the more he may.

Bonne beſte s'eſchauffe en mangeant: Prov. A good beaſt heates it ſelfe while it eates; viz. eates hard, feeds heartily.

Mangeatif: m. iue: f. Eatable; which may be, or is fit to be, eaten.

Mangemerde: f. The name of a fiſh thats otherwiſe called, Saupe.

Mangeoire: f. A manger; alſo, the gullet, or ſwallow.

Manger: m. Meat, food, ſuſtenance, belly-timber, victualls, eating ſtuffe.

Chair de mouton manger de glouton; Prov. Looke Mouton.

Manger. To eat, feed, take ſuſtenance or nouriſhment, fall to his victualls.

Il mange bien. He is a daintie feeder, or, he keepes good meat in his houſe.

Manger ſon avoine en ſon ſac. as in Avoine; or, as Manger ſon pain en ſon ſac.

Manger ſon bled en herbe. To waſt his reuenue before it come in.

Manger le cochon enſemble. To complot, conſpire, ioyne in a practiſe, conclude an enterpriſe, together: (Belike from ſome notable meeting of conſpirators, whereat Pigs fleſh was their beſt, or onely fare.)

Manger les doigts. Vous en mangeriez vos doigts à force de lecher.) You would licke your lips after them.

Manger avec vne faim de biſcuit. To rauine, or eat verie greedily.

Manger à vn grain de ſel. To eat a man at a mouthfull (the cracke of a braggadochio;) alſo, to eat his meat haſtily, or greedily, without ſtaying for any ſawce, or ſeaſoning, other then a corne of ſalt will yeeld him.

Manger ſon pain blanc le premier. To ſpend his beſt abilities (in eſtate, or bodie) on his youth, and leaue naught but wants, and weakeneſſe for old age.

Manger ſon pain en ſon ſac. To ſnudge it, or munchion alone in a corner; to conceale, obſcure, or ſpend priuately his goods, good things, or parts, that others may haue no part of them with them.

Manger des pois verds au veau. Looke Veau.

Manger de la vache enragée. Il a mangé de la, &c. He is reduced vnto a great neceſſitie, or extremitie; he is in a miſerable taking; alſo, he hath endured much hardneſſe, or (as we ſay) drinke of many waters.

Donner à manger au chien, & au chat. To maintaine hoſpitalitie, to keepe a plentifull houſe.

Il eſt à table, & n'oſe manger; (Applyable to a miſerable ſpare-good.)

Il ſçait plus que ſon pain manger. He is no child, no nouice, no babe; he knowes more wayes to the wood then one.

A qui chapon mange chapon luy vient: Pro. Spend and God will ſend.

Aller & parler peut on, boire enſemble & manger non: Prov. Such as deſire to continue a friend, muſt not feed on him; or, tis better to viſit a friend ſometimes then to dwell with him euer.

Brebis contées mange bien le loup: Pro. See Loup.

Ce qu'on donne luit, ce qu'on mange puit: Prov. Th' effects of bountie ſhine, of eating ſmell.

Il fait mauvais aller au bois quand les loups ſe mangent l'un l'autre: Prov. See Loup.

Il ne faut pas manger des Ceriſes avec les grands ſeigneurs: Prov. Meane men are not to eat cherries (viz. are not to be verie familiar) with great Lords; leaſt the ſtones of the beſt flye faſter at their eyes then (their portion) the worſt into their mouthes. (Much alike whereunto, is;)

Il ne faut pas manger des prunes avec ſon Seigneur: Prov.

Les gros poiſſons mangent les menus: Pro. Poore men are (eaſily) ſupplanted by the rich, the weake by the ſtrong, the meane by the mightie.

Mauvaiſe eſt la ſaiſon quand vn loup mange l'autre: Prov. See Loup.

On ſe ſaoule bien de manger tartes: Prov. A man may take too much of a good thing.

Peu à peu le loup mange l'oye: Prov. By little and little the Wolfe eates vp the Gooſe.

Qui mange l'oye du Roy il en chie la plume cent ans apres: Prov. Looke Oye.

Qui a honte de manger a honte de vivre: Pro. He thats aſhamed to eat is aſhamed to liue.

Qui avec ſon ſeigneur mange poires il ne choiſiſt pas des meilleures: Pro. He that eates Peares with his Lord either cannot, or ſhould not, pick ſuch as he likes.

Qui ſe fait brebis le loup le mange: Prov. He that makes himſelfe ſimple ſhall be ſillily vſed.

Vn ſeigneur de paille mange vn vaſſal d'acier: Pro. A Lord of ſtraw deuoures a vaſſall of ſteele.

Mangerie: f. Gluttonie, rauening, deuouring, haſtie or greedie feeding; alſo, a roome, or houſe to eat in.

Faire mangerie avec. To eat, or keepe houſe with.

Mangeſon: f. An itch.

Mange-ſujet. A fit Epithite for a Tyrant.

Mangeves: f. Maſte, Akornes; any thing that wild Swine vſually feed on.

Mangeur: m. An eater, feeder, glutton, rauener.

Mangeur de charrettes ferrées. A notable kill-cow, monſtrous huff-ſnuff, terrible ſwaggerer; one that will kill all he meets, and eat all he kills.

Mangeur de crucifix. A notorious hypocrite; one who to ſeeme the more holie, is euer kiſſing of a crucifix.

Hardi gaigneur hardi mangeur: Prov. The better one falls to his meat, the better he followes his worke.

Mangeure: f. The feeding of wild Bores, &c.

Mangeurs. Qui eſtoient (jadis) ordonnez, & envoyez en garniſon pour contraindre vn obligé au payement de ſon deu, ou vn condamné à ſouffrir l'execution d'un Areſt, ou d'un mandement; & juſques à ce l'on vivoit en ſa maiſon, & en ſes biens, à ſes deſpens. ¶Ragueau.

Mangonel: m. as Mangonneau.

Mangoniſme: m. The craft of pampering, trimming, or ſetting out of ſaleable things.

Mangonne: f. A Brokers wife, or brokerlie woman.

Mangonneau: m. An old-faſhioned Sling, or Engine, whereout ſtones, old yron, and great arrowes were violently darted.

Mangonner. To pamper, trimme, ſleeke, or ſet out vnto the eye ſale things; alſo, to mangle, or disfigure by mangling.

Mangouri: m. A baſe Turkiſh coyne, whereof ſixteene doe little more then counteruayle our pennie.

Manguiere: f. A great-headed, and ſhort-ſtalked nayle vſed about ſhips.

Maniable: com. Tractable, wieldable, handleable, handſome, tollerable, paſſable.

Maniacle. as Maniaque.

Maniance: f. A managing, handling, wielding.

Maniaque: com. Mad, franticke, raging, furious, outragious, braine-ſicke, bedlam-like.

Morelle maniaque. Seeke Morelle.

Manicles. Manacles, hand-fetters, or gyues.

Manicordion: m. An (old faſhioned) claricord.

Manie: f. Madneſſe, furie, rage (by too great abundance of good bloud intoxicating the head.)

Manié: m. ée: f. Handled, handed, wielded, managed, often touched, or vſed.

Manié de fortune. Afflicted, or perſecuted by fortune, fallen into miſerie, come to decay.

Maniement: m. A handling, managing, wielding, vſing, (often) touching.

Maniement de ſa perſonne. The carriage of his perſon.

Manier. To handle, hand, manage, wield, vſe, touch.

Manier en biſſe. Looke Biſſe.

Manier tresbien ſes harpes. To ſtirre his fingers verie nimbly, or, to play a cleanlie tricke of legerdemain.

Maniere: f. A manner, faſhion, forme, kind, ſort; a cuſtome, vſe, wont, guiſe; a courſe, order, ſtile; condition.

Par maniere de dire. As it were, as one ſhould ſay.

Manieur: m. A handler, manager, wielder, vſer, toucher of.

Manieur de ſable. A Moulder, or caſter of Medalls, or prints in ſand.

Manifacture: f. Manifacture, workemanſhip, handie-worke.

Manifacturé: m. ée: f. Wrought, or done with the hands.

Manifacturer. To worke, or frame with the hands.

Manifeſte: m. A manifeſtation, or declaration; alſo, as la partie honteuſe; vnder Honteux.

Manifeſte: com. Manifeſt, apparent, euident, notorious, open, knowne, publicke, plaine, cleere, vndoubted, certaine.

Manifeſté: m. ée: f. Manifeſted, made apparent, publiſhed, diuulged, diſcouered, detected, reuealed, bewrayed.

Manifeſtement. Manifeſtly, apparently, openly, euidently, publickly, vndoubtedly, certainly.

Manifeſter. To manifeſt; publiſh, declare, detect, reueale, bewray, diſcouer, make plaine, cleere, open, apparent.

Manigance: f. An ill-ſet countenance, an vnſetled faſhion, an vnſtaied or vnſeemelie behauiour; alſo, couert dealing, priuate ſhuffling, ſecret practiſing or packing in a matter.

Manigotter. To handle, or finger much; buſily to trim, dreſſe, or fold vp with the hands, as children doe their babies.

Maniguet: m. The ſpice called Graines, or graines of Paradiſe.

Maniguette: f. as Maniguet.

Maniſle: f. The handle of a pot, &c.

Maniller: m. A bracelet maker; alſo, one that in Poviſh Churches gathers for a poore Preacher.

Manjore. A manger.

Maniot: m. A certain root which, boiled, is good meat, but raw, poiſon.

Manipule: m. A gripe, fiſtfull, handfull of; a bundle, a bottle; alſo, a wriſt-band; or, as Manipulon.

Manipulon: m. A Maniple, or Fannell; a ſcarfe-like ornament worne about the left wriſt of a ſacrificing Prieſt.

Manivelle: f. An inſtrument that goes with a vice, hauing at it end a booke, whereby diſioynted bones are ſet in their former places; alſo, the handle whereby a grindleſtone, &c, is turned; and hence;

Manivelles. The braces wherby a windleſſe, or windbeame is turned.

Manne: f. A maund, flasket, open basket, or pannier hauing handles; alſo, a veine of earth, or ſand, which giueth ſome hope of gold to be found; alſo, Manna, or the deaw of heauen, gathered in hot countries from plants, and trees wherein it congeales, and reſerued as a gentle purger of choler; whence;

Manne de Calabre. Calabrian Manna; the beſt, and moſt laſting Manna; the graines wherof be ſmall, beauie, white, cleere, tranſparent, and verie ſweet.

Manne de Cotton. Great graines of Manna reſembling lockes of woll, or bumbaſt; the worſe kind of Leuant Manna, and the worſt of all others.

Manne d'Encens. Graine, crummes, or mammockes of Incenſe falling from it while it is in loading.

Manne de fueilles. The beſt kind of Calabrian Manna, gathered from off the leaues of hearbes, and trees.

Manne de Levant. Leuant Manna; a ſecond (generall) kind of Manna, inferiour in goodneſſe to the Calabrian.

Mannequin: m. A little, open, wide-mouthed, and narrow-bottomed maund, flasket, or pannier; alſo, a little basket, leape-head, or weele, made of bullruſhes, and vſed by fiſhermen; alſo, a Puppet, or Anticke; Looke Manequin.

Mannequinage. as Manequinage.

Manneux: m. euſe: f. Belonging to a maund, reſembling a maund.

Manoir: m. A Manſion, Mannor, or Manior-houſe; the ſcite of a Mannor; a place, or chiefe dwelling place; alſo, a roome in a houſe.

Manople: f. A kind of long Gauntlet; or as Manipulon.

Manotte: f. A little hand, a childs hand.

Manottes. Manacles, hand-fetters, gyues.

Manouvrer. To hold, occupie, poſſeſſe; (an old Normand word.)

Manouvrier: m. A mechanicall workeman, or labourer, an artificer, or handicrafts-man.

Manque: f. Defect, lacke, want.

Manque: com. Defectiue, lacking, wanting; maimed, lame; declining, in the wane; alſo, leſſe; whence; Vademanque. Goe leſſe, at Primero.

Manquement: m. Want, lacke, defect, need; or a wanting, lacking; declining, waning.

Manquer. To want, lacke, need, faile of, be defectiue.

Manquer à ſa parole. To breake his word.

Manquerot. A maimed, or lame creature; one that wants ſome of his limmes.

Manſais. Deniers, & ſolz manſais. Be double the worth of Deniers, and ſolz Tournois.

Manſart: m. A Culuer, Cooſhot, Ringdoue: ¶Pic.

Manſelles. as Mancelles.

Manſionnier: m. A dweller, inhabitant, abider; one that hath a manſion in a place.

Manſuet: m. ete: f. Gentle, courteous, meeke, mild, humble; tame, tractable.

Manſuetement. Gently, meekely, mildly, courteouſly, tractably.

Manſuetude: f. Gentleneſſe, meekeneſſe, courteſie, mildneſſe, tractableneſſe, humilitie; tameneſſe.

Mante: f. A mantle; alſo, as Menthe.

Mante veluë. A rug, rough mantle, Iriſh mantle.

Manteau: m. A cloke; alſo, the mantle-tree of a chimney.

Le manteau d'vn cheval. His haire, or coat.

Les blancs manteaux. An antient Order of begging Friers, for whom S. Lewis built a houſe, or Couent in Paris; afterwards giuen by Philip the Faire vnto the Guillemins (an Order of Hermits inſtituted by Guillaume Duke of Guienne, and Earle of Poictou) who yet retaine it, and with it this title.

Droict de manteaux. Cloke-money; Looke Droict.

Pendre ſon manteau à foible cheville. To require aduiſe of a foole, or almes of a begger; vainely to relie on weake helpes, or ſet a his reſolution on a tottering foundation.

Coeur content, & manteau ſur l'eſpaule: Pro. See Coeur; ou, Content.

Fy de manteau quand il faict beau: Prov. A cloke is but a comber in faire weather.

Mantel: m. as Manteau.

Mantelé: m. ée: f. Cloked; couered with a cloke; ſhielded, or ſhadowed vnder a mantelet.

Manteler. To cloke; to couer with a cloke; to defend, ſhroud, or ſhield, as vnder a mantelet.

Mantelet: m. A little mantle; alſo, a mouable penthouſe, or ſhed of boords, vnder which ſouldiers approaching a rampire are ſhrowded, and defended from whatſoeuer is throwne downe by the beſieged.

Man-

Manteline : f. A mantle, sleight robe, or cloke, worne loosse about the shoulders ; also, a Friers weed, or habit.

Manthe. as Mante veluë.

Manticore : f. A rauenous, and mankind Indian beast, that hath a face like a man, a bodie like a Lyon, and three rankes of verie sharpe teeth.

Mantil : m. A table-cloth.

Mantin : m. A kind of Prawne.

Mantonel : m. The catch of a doore.

Mantonniere : f. A chocke, or bob vnder the chinne; also, the chinne-peece of an helmet ; also, a chinne-cloth, or the little peece of fine linnen wherewith a masked Ladie couers her chinne.

Habillément de teste à mantonniere. A caske, or an helmet hauing a chinne-peece.

Manuel : m. A Manuell ; a portable (prayer) booke.

Manuel : m. elle : f. Manuell, handie, of the hand, wrought or done with the hands.

Argent manuel. Present money, readie coyne.

Iustice manuelle. That rights it selfe ; Looke Iustice.

Seing manuel. Ones hand subscribed, marke or signe put to.

Manuellement. bailler m. To giue in hand, pay readie money, deliuer presently.

Manufacture : f. as Manifacture.

Manumission : f. A manumission, or dismissing ; a freeing, infranchising, setting at libertie, deliuering from bondage.

Manutenteur : m. A maintainer, vpholder, protector, countenancer.

Manutention : f. as Maintenance.

Mappemonde : f. A map of the world.

Mappule : f. A little peece of Lawne wherewith the (Sacramentall) Pix is couered.

Maquereau : m. A Mackerell (fish ;) also, a (man) bawd.

Maquereaux. Red scorches, or spots on the legs of such as vse to sit neere the fire.

Maquereau bastard. The bastard Mackerell ; somewhat lesse, and lesse good, then the right one.

Maquerelage : m. The practise, or trade, of bawderie.

Maquerelle : f. A (woman) bawd ; the solicitrix of lecherie.

Maquerelleux : m. euse : f. Full of bawderie, vsing the trade of bawderie, belonging to the bawdie art.

Maquignon : m. A Hucster, Broker, Horse-scourser, cousening Marchant.

Maquignonnage : m. Deceitfull brokage, bargaining for, or selling of, things ; hence, also, the trade of horsscoursing.

Maquignonner. To play the Broker, or Horse-scourser, to deale deceitfully in bargaines ; also, to play the bawd.

Mar : m. harenc de mar. A great, faire, fat, and full-rowed Herring.

Marabais. A kind of base coyne.

Maraine : f. A Godmother.

Marais : m. A marsh, or fenne ; Looke Marets.

Maramedi. as Maravedi.

Maran : m. An Infidell, miscreant, Apostata, Renegado, a Christian circumcised, or Iew turned Christian ; Looke Marrane.

Marant. as Mareant.

Marasme : m. A consumption in the highest degree ; an extreame, or totall consumption ; an exsiccation, or drying vp of the whole bodie.

Marasmé : m. ée : f. Wholly consumed, wasted, withered, exhausted, or drained of moisture.

Marastre : f. A stepdame, or stepmother.

Qui a marastre a le Diable en l'atre : Prov. He that hath a stepdame hath a Diuell to his dame.

Marastresque. Stepmother-like.

Maraud : m. A rogue, begger, vagabond ; a varlet, rascall, scoundrell, base knaue.

Maraudaille : f. A packe of lowsie rogues, a crue of beggerly vagabonds ; also, rascallitie, scoundrelisme.

Maraude : f. A begger-woman, great lazie queane, roguish hedge-whore, Tinkers-bitch.

Marauder. To beg, to play the rogue, or idle vagabond.

Maraudise : f. Beggerie, roguerie, idle knauerie, base vagabondrie.

Maravedi : m. A little Spanish coyne, whereof 34 make but the Royall, or vj. d. sterl.

Marbre : m. Marble.

Marbre gentil. The hard white marble, whereof statues, or images be commonly made.

Marbre grené. See Grené.

Marbre Parien. A marble of a whitish colour, which indures all weathers, and being polished hath a resemblance of flesh.

Marbre serpentin. A spotted marble, the ground whereof is darke greene, the spots light.

Marbre Thebaïque. Whereof there be two kinds ; one of a grayish ground spotted with two or three sundrie colours ; another blacke, and beautified with golden drops.

Le marbre de soy n'a que faire de peinture : Prov. A beautifull thing needs no lustre, an excellent thing no commendation.

Marbré : m. ée : f. Marbled, of marble, with marble, like vnto marble.

Pierre marbrée. Any hard, or grained stone, which, as marble, may be smoothed, or polished.

Marbreux : m. Full of, or abounding with, marble.

Marbrier : m. A marble-cutter, one that worketh in marble.

Marbriere : f. A quarrey of marble.

Marbrin : m. ine : f. Of marble, resembling marble.

Marc : m. Marke (a mans name ;) also, the mother, grounds, dregs, lees, bottome, or setlings of liquor ; also, the grosse, or thicke substance that remains of things which haue beene squeezed, or strained ; also, ground manured, or dunged for the next yeares tillage, (Looke the next marginall word.)

Marc des raisins. The mother of the grapes ; the husks, hullings, or skins of grapes after the last pressing.

Faire vn marc. To put grapes into the presse ; to make, or make readie, a pressing of grapes.

Marc : m. A Marke ; halfe a pound, or eight ounces of gold, siluer, or Billon.

Marc d'argent. Is esteemed at 10 l. Parisis by the customes of Melun ; and is due vnto a Lord for the right of Reliefe, and Rachapt, ouer and besides a yeares reuenew, if the land be valued at aboue 20 l. Parisis.

Droict de Marc. A Sol vpon euerie Marc of gold ; iij. d. vpon euerie Marc of siluer ; and j. d. vpon euerie Marc of Billon perfectly coyned, is the Pronost of the Mints fee, besides his ordinarie intertainment.

Chargé à poids de marc. Soundly charged, throughly laaden ; (appliable to one that hath taken in his liquor freely.)

Fiens de chien, & marc d'argent seront tout vn au iour de iugement : Prov. See Iugement.

Marcanet: m. A kind of riuer fowle.
Marcasite. as Marcasite.
Marcassin: m. A young wild boare; a shoot, or grice; also, a kind of mineral; whence;
Marcassin iaulne. Red vitriol; or as Marcasite.
Marcassite: f. The Marcassite, or fire-stone; a minerall that smells like brimstone; and is of two kinds; the yellow, shining as gold; and the white (the purer, and better of the two) like siluer.
Marcesche. March corne, Summer Barlie, Summer corne.
Marcez: m. March corne, Summer corne, such as is sowed about March; as Barlie, Oats, &c.
Marcgrave: m. A Marquis.
Marchage. Droict de marchage. Look vnder Droict.
Marchal. as Mareschal.
Marchand: m. A Marchant; a trader, a trafficker; also, an occupier, or tradesman; any shop-keeper that retailes, or sells wares of the better sort, as silkes, good clothes, or stuffes; whence;
Marchand de soye. A Silkeman.
Souper de marchand. A large, or great supper.
Vn marchand qui prend l'argent sans compter, ne peser. A theefe.
Se faire marchand de poisson la vieille de Pasques. To enter into a profession when there is no vse of it: to doe any thing vnseasonably, or too late.
Marchand qui ne gaigne perd: Prov. The Marchant that gaines not looses; and yet;
Il n'est pas marchand qui tousiours gaigne: Prov. He trades not well that alwayes is a gainer.
Marchand qui perd ne peut rire: Prov. A Marchant loosing cannot laugh.
Aujourd'huy marchant demain meschant: Prov. To day a Trader to morrow a Traytor.
Ou marchand ou larron: Prov. Either a trader, or a stealer; See Larron.
Bonne marchandise trouve tousiours son marchand: Prov. Good chaffer cannot want a chapman.
Marchand: m. ande: f. Of, or belonging to, a Marchant, or Market; well traded, much vsed, verie common.
Livre marchande. See Livre.
Papier marchand. Browne, or blotting, paper.
Place marchande. The market place, or place of ordinarie bargaining, and paiments; any free place where men may meet on euen tearmes; whither any man that lists may come; or where a man, while he lists, may stay.
Poids marchand. Looke Poids.
Marchandé: m. ée: f. Cheapened, bought and sold, bargained, coped, or agreed for; also, houered, or stood aloofe from; braued, affronted, or dealt with afarre off; also, delayed, or trifled out, as the time, for an aduantage, or through feare.
Marchandement. As a Marchant, Marchant-like.
Marchander. To trafficke, trade, play the Marchant, buy and sell; to cheapen, bargaine, cope, or agree for; also, to delay, or trifle out the time; also, to houer or stand aloofe from; to braue, or deale with, afarre off (before a closing) either circumspectly and for aduantage, or cowardly and in feare.
Marchander la peine d'aucun. To hire one to doe his worke.
Ils marchandent à se tourner. They be readie, or about, to turne.
Sans marchander. Presently, instantly, readily, out of hand, without any paultring, baggling, or standing on the matter.
Marchandise: f. Marchandise, commodities, ware, chaffer, stuffe; also, trading, trafficking, bargaining, occupying, buying and selling, mechanicall commerce, or negociation.
Marchandise de gueule. Victualls.
Marchandise Latine. The best ware, or choicest stuffe, called so by Marchants.
Demener marchandise. To trade, or tumble ouer commodities.
Marchandise n'espargne nuls: Prov. The Marchants ware bids men beware, for he will gaine by his father; or, Marchandise holds no friendship, yeelds no fauour, hath no consideration but of gaine.
Marchandise qui plaist est à demy venduë: Prov. Please the eye, and picke the purse; or, content the eye, your bargaine is halfe made.
Bonne marchandise trouve tousiours son Marchand: Prov. Good ware is euer furnished with chapmen; or, finds euer store of customers.
On n'a jamais bon marché de mauvaise marchandise: Prov. One can neuer haue ill ware cheap ynough; or, his bargaine is not cheape that hath ill ware for his money.
Marchant. as Marchand.
Marchant. Marching, stepping, treading, going, walking, pacing, footing it.
Marché: m. A Market; Marketstead, or Market place; also, a bargaine, or match.
Bon marché; & grand marché. Good cheape, dog cheape, a low rate, a reasonable price; whence;
Bon marché tire l'argent de la bourse: Prov. No pickepurse to a cheape commoditie.
Il n'aura ia bon marché qui ne le demande: Prov. Those that require not, haue not, things good cheape.
On n'a jamais bon marché de mauvaise marchandise: Prov. For naughtie ware no price is low ynough.
Le vin du marché. Looke Vin.
A l'hostel priser, & au marché vendre: Prov. Value at home, but sell in the market.
On ne s'en va pas des foires comme du marché: The case is not alike; for at Faires they pay toll, in Markets none.
Si le fol n'alloit au marché on ne vendroit pas la mauvaise denrée: Prov. If fooles went not to Markets bad wares would not be sold; (So fooles are sometimes good for something.)
Marche: f. A region, coast, or quarter; also, a march, frontire, or border of a countrey; also, a greece, the step of a staire; also, a step, the footing or print of a foot; also, a march, or marching of souldiers; also, a Virginall, or Organ, key; also, the finger-boord of a Violl.
Basses marches. Pedalls; the low keyes of some Organs to be touched with the feet; whence;
Iouër des manequins à basses marches. To leacher; and;
Tenir des basses marches. To hold of the smocke, or, his wife to be his maister.
Doubles marches. Rests, or breathing steps; the broad steps of a halfe-pace staire.
Enjamber sur les marches d'autruy. To vsurpe, incroach on, or meddle with, another mans right.
Marché: m. ée: f. Marched, walked, paced, stepped, troden, gone; proceeded in, or on.
Marchement: m. A marching, walking, pacing, stepping, treading, proceeding.

Mar-

Marche-pied: m. A foot-ſtoole; alſo, a ſtep, low ſtoole or bench, that helpes one to get vpon a higher thing.

`A marche-pied. A faſhion of fiſhing, wherin one goes ſtamping in the water, and carries before him (or another for him) a halfe bow-net.

Marcher: m. A pace, gate, walke, tread, ſtepping, going, footing.

Marcher. To march, goe, pace, walke, tread, ſtep, foot it; to proceed; alſo, as Marchiſer.

Marche cela Iaquet. Tread out you flattering rogue; a phraſe vſed in contempt of a baſe obſeruant paraſite, who ſerues for nothing but to applaud euerie doting ſpeech, and to tread out euerie dot of ſpit, his fond patron deliuers.

Marcher en pas de loup. To tread, or goe, like a theefe, cunningly, couertly, gingerly, faire and ſoftly.

Marcher de pied en terre. Il ne marche de &c. He is rapt, or raviſht with pride, or ioy; he knowes not the ground he goes on.

Marcher à quatre-pattes. To creepe on all foure like a beaſt.

Cela marche à quatre rouës. That goes very roundly forward.

Marchette: f. A little ſtep, a ſmall footing.

Marchettes. Small Organ keyes.

Marchir. as Marchiſer.

Marchis: m. A thicke trace, or tract of men, or beaſts; frequencie of ſteps, many footings together; alſo, a path beaten out by often patting, or treading.

Marchiſer. To border, adioyne, or lie ſo neere together that one touch another; to abutt, or bound one on another.

Marchons: m. Stillings for wine veſſells to ſtand on.

Marchure: f. A marching, walking, pacing, treading, ſtepping, footing, proceeding.

Marciage. Droict de mar. Looke vnder Droict.

Marcier. To receiue the rent, or fine, Marciage.

Marcoter. as Marquotter.

Marcotte. as Marquotte.

Marcou: m. An old male cat, a gib cat.

Mardecathene. Looke Mat de cathene, in Cathene.

Mardelle d' vne puits. The brinke, or brimme of a well; or, more properly, the round, and high border of wood, or ſtone, that compaſſes, beautifies, and keeps whole, the top of that brinke, or brimme.

Mardi. Tewſday.

Mardi gras. Shroue-tewſday.

Cela ſent ſon mardi gras. That is a moſt licentious act; or (in matters of diſcourſe) that is a moſt broad ſpeech; (from the libertie taken by many, that day, to tax men, and talke at their pleaſure.)

Mare: f. A ſtanding poole, or water neere a houſe fit for the watering of cattell, and other vſes of husbandrie; alſo, a little fiſh-pond.

Maré: m. ée: f. Moored; faſtened with cables, held faſt by ankers, as a ſhip in a harbor, &c.

Mareant. Mooring.

Marée: f. Sea-fiſh; alſo, ſalt water; alſo, the tide, or flowing of the ſea; alſo, a ſea, or billow, or the rolling of a billow; alſo, a wind that blowes from ſea.

Sentir la marée. To looke like a whore (Venus the Goddeſſe of good-fellowſhip was bred of the ſea-foame.)

Maréer. as Marer.

Marelle: f. A ſquare in a cheſſe-boord, or on the backſide of a paire of Tables; alſo, a Churchwardenſhip; and the place wherein Churchwardens &c, meet.

Marenge: f. Our (ordinarie) blew Titmouſe.

Marer. To moore, or be moored; to lie faſtened with cables, or hold faſt by ankers, within a harbor, or neere to a ſhore.

Mareſcage: m. A great marſh, fenne, or moore; a fennie, or mooriſh place, ground, or countrey.

Mareſcageux: m. euſe: f. Fennie, mooriſh, marſh-like.

Mareſchal: m. A Marſhall of a kingdome, or of a camp, (an honourable place;) alſo, a Black-ſmith; alſo, a Farrier, Horſeleech, or Horſe-ſmith; alſo, a Harbinger; and hence;

Mareſchal du corps du Roy. The Kings chiefe Harbinger.

Mareſchaux de France. The Lord Marſhalls of France; (whereof, in Francis the firſts time, there were but two, now there be ten) who hauing their ſeuerall Prouinces aſſigned them by the King, ride circuits into them, to be preſent at all generall muſters; to ſee how militarie diſcipline is obſerued in garriſons; to view the fortifications, and reparations of frontire townes; the munition, and victualls of Arſenalls, and ſtore-houſes; and laſtly, to prouide for the puniſhment, and ſuppreſſion of all vagrant, idle, and lewd rogues: Ils doivent ſe rendre aux armées les premiers en bon equipage; Et ſont ſous le Conneſtable (ſayes Ragueau) Vnder whom as they commaund all Dukes, Earls, Barons, Captains, and Genſdarmes; ſo may they neither giue battell, make proclamation, nor muſter any men, without his commandement (ſayes a good Engliſh Author.)

Mareſchal: m. ale: f. Of or belonging to, made or done by, a Smith, or Farrier.

Main mareſchale. A Smithes hand; a fiſt that works in a Smithie.

Mareſchaucée: f. A Marſhall ſhip; the place of a Marſhall; alſo, the Marſhall-ſey, or Marſhals Court.

Mareſchaucées: f. Timber, or ſtuffe to build withall.

Mareſchauſſée, & mareſchauſſées. as Mareſchaucée, & Mareſchaucées.

Marets: m. A Meere, Fenne, (ſmall) Marſh.

Il s'eſt ſauvé par les marets. Said of one that hath, with ſhame ynough, cleered himſelfe of a diſhonor, difficultie, or danger wherein he was ingaged.

Marez. as Marets.

Marfil: m. Iuorie; or, the Elephants tooth vnwrought.

Margaigne. as Mortgage.

Margaignon: m. A male Eele. ¶Langued.

Margaire. A Sauoyan bird of ſundrie colours.

Margariton: m. Pearle; or the powder thereof.

Margaſin. as Magazin.

Marge: f. The margent of a booke; alſo, any edge, brinke, or brimme.

Marge du dos. The inner margent; the ſpace left white betweene the letters, and binding of a booke.

Margelle. as Mardelle.

Marger. To make a margent; brinke, edge, or brimme.

Margne. as Marne.

Margot. (for Marguerite; or, a ruſticall diminutiue thereof;) Meg, or Peg.

Tieutieu margot. Come beaſt-come; a call for a Cow, vſed by countrey wenches.

La grande iument margot qui ſe bride par la queuë. A Ship, or Galley; alſo, a certaine engine vſed by falſe coyners.

Margotte. as Marquotte.

Margotté: m. ée: f. Dreſſed, or made to yeeld ſtore of ſuckers.

Mar-

Margotter. Looke Marquotter.
Margouiller. To gnaw; to mumble with the teeth, in ſtead of kiſſing to bite.
Margoute: f. as Marquotte.
Margueillier: m. A Churchwarden.
Marguerite: f. Margaret (a womans name;) alſo, a (Margarite) pearle; alſo, a Daiſie.
Marguerite blanche. The great white Daiſie, called Maudlinwort.
Marguerite des prez. Th'ordinarie, little, white, and wild Daiſie, called (otherwiſe) Bruiſewort.
A la franche Marguerite. After the plaineſt faſhion, in a homelie manner, euen as one thinkes.
Marguillerie: f. A Churchwardenſhip.
Marguillier: m. A Churchwarden.
Marguy: m. A Fauchion, Curtelax, Hanger. (v.m.)
Mari: m. A husband.
Mari cocu. An Hedge-ſparrow, Dikeſmowler, Dunnëcke; See Cocu.
Femme bonne qui a mauvais mari, a bien ſouvent le coeur marri: Prov. The good wife of an ill husband hath often a ſorrowfull heart of her owne.
Mariable: com. Mariable, weddable, mariageable.
Mariage: m. Mariage, matrimonie, wedding, wedlock; alſo, the mariage good, or portion which a man hath with his wife; alſo, a game at cards reſembling (ſomewhat) our Saint.
Aide de mariage. Looke Aides chevels.
Bref de mariage encombré. Which a woman may bring within the yeare and day after her husbands deceaſe, for the recouerie of her goods, and poſſeſſions alienes, by him or any other without her conſent, or by her ſelfe without his permiſſion, and authoritie.
Mariaulet: m. A man of no account, eſteeme, or credit; one that's not worthie of beliefe; an inſufficient witneſſe, whether it be becauſe of his yong age, or ſmall honeſtie; or, as Mariolet.
Marie: f. Marie.
Bain de Marie. Maries bath; a cauldron, or kettle full of hot water.
Herbe de S. Marie. Looke Herbe.
Seau de S. Marie. Maries Seale, our Ladies ſeale, blacke Brionie, the wild Vine.
Violettes de Marie. Marians Violets, Couentrie bells, Couentrie Rapes (of the qualities, kind, and (almoſt) the forme, of Canterburie bells.)
Marié: m. ée: f. Maried, wedded, eſpouſed.
La mariée. A Bride, a Spouſe.
Aujourd'uy marié demain marri: Prov. To day wiſefull, to morrow wofull.
Mariée: f. The caule, or kell of a beaſt.
Mariement: m. A marying, wedding, eſpouſing.
Marier. To marie, wed, beſtow in mariage, giue in wedlocke, ioyne in matrimonie.
Se marier. To marie, wed, eſpouſe, enter into wedlocke.
Marier la cave, & le puits. To mingle wine and water together.
Mariets: f. Mariets, Marians Violets, Couentrie bells.
Marieur: m. A matcher, a marier, a maker of mariages.
Marille: f. A Regiſter, or Matricular booke.
Marin: m. Marine; of the ſea; neere to the ſea; borne or bred in the ſea.
Herbe marine. Slanke, Wrake, Lauer, Sea-graſſe, weed of the ſea.
Paille marine. Looke Sagnie.
Vent marin. A Southerlie wind.

Marine: f. la mar. The ſea; or things of the ſea; as a tide, &c.
Grand homme de marine. An excellent Mariner, or Saylor; a great Sea-man.
Marine noire. The name of a grape.
Mariné: m. ée: f. Poiſſon mariné. That taſts much of ſalt water, or of the pannier; alſo, dreſſed, or handled like ſea-fiſh.
Marineſque. A la mar. Mariner-like; after the faſhion of Mariners.
Marineſques: f. Long Mariners ſlops, breeches, boſe.
Marinette: f. The Load-ſtone; (an old word.)
Marinier: m. A Mariner, Saylor, Ship-man, Skipper, Sea-man; alſo, as Nautil.
Il n'eſt ſi bon marinier qui ne periſſe: Prov. The skilfulleſt Mariners feed Haddockes.
Marinier: m. Of, or belonging to, a Mariner.
Pierre mariniere. The Adamant, or Magnes ſtone.
Marin-onfroy. The name of an apple, which is round on th'one ſide, and flat on th'other.
Marjolaine: f. Marierome, ſweet Marierome, fine Marierome, Marierome gentle.
Marjolaine d'Angleterre. Time (called ſo by many;) alſo, wild Origan, wild Marierome, Engliſh wild Marierome, groue Marierome.
Marjolaine baſtarde. Baſtard Marierome, Organie, Spaniſh Organie.
Marjolaine de Curé. Male Knot-graſſe, Birds-tongue, Swines-graſſe.
Marjolaine gentile. Marierome gentle, fine Marierome, ſweet Marierome.
Marjolaine ſauvage. as Marjolaine d'Angleterre.
La grande Marjolaine. The great ſweet Marierome; called thus (belike) to make a difference betweene it, and th'ordinarie Marjolaine, which is leſſe, and ſweeter then it.
Petite Marjolaine. Marierome gentle, fine Marierome, ſweet Marierome.
Primme Marjolaine. Fine Marierome, ſweet Marierome; alſo, Time.
Mariolement: m. Bawderie, laſciuiouſneſſe, a wanton, or luſtfull tricke, as the groping of a wench, &c.
Mariolet: m. A leacher, wencher, wanton youth, laſciuious yonker; or as Mariaulet.
Marioles: f. The waddles, and ſtones of a Cocke; (wanton meat.)
Marion: f. Marian (a proper name for a woman.)
Robin a trouvé Marion. Jacke hath met with Gill; a filthie knaue with a fulſome queane.
Marionnette: f. Little Marian, or Mal; alſo, a kind of ſmall German Ducket of baſe gold; alſo, a Puppet.
Mariſque: f. A great vnſauorie fig, that ripening, opens on the ſides, and diſcouers it ſeeds.
Marital: m. ale: f. Belonging to a mariage, or wedlocke (eſpecially on the husbands ſide.)
Maritime: com. Maritime; neere the ſea, bordering on the ſea, of the ſea ſide or coaſt; of, or belonging to, the ſea.
Marlane ſalé. A dried Whiting.
Marliere: f. A marle-pit.
Marlotte: f. A faſhion of light gowne, or mantle for the Summer.
Marmaille: f. Young raſcalls or ſcoundrells, rakehells or ſlipſtrings; the frie of the vulgar; a troupe of lewd, idle, or vnprofitable boberdiboyes.
Marmaride. Pierre mar. A kind of verie hard gray marble.
Marmaux. Arbres mar. Hedge-trees, wild trees: ¶Bourbonnois.

Marme rayée. A kind of ſundrie-coloured ſea-fiſh.
Marme. for mon arme, or, mon ame : ¶ Languéd.
Marmentau. Bois marin. A faire great wood, or beautifull tuft of high trees.
Marmes. A ruſticall oath ; as in Marme.
Marmite : f. A great pot, kettle, boyler, or boyling lead ; eſpecially ſuch a one as is vſed for the boyling of beefe in the kitchins of Abbeyes.
Marmiteux : m. euſe : f. Wretched, poore, miſerable, heartleſſe, that lookes pitifully on it.
Marmiton : m. A Scullion, or kitchin boy ; alſo, a greaſie, or ſlouenlie knaue ; and, a ſaucie, malapert, or knauiſh fellow ; alſo, a pettie, or young ſchoole-boy.
Marmitonnage : m. Scullionrie, or th' Office of a Scullion ; alſo, naſtineſſe, greaſineſſe, ſlouenlineſſe.
Marmitonne : f. A Kitchin-fluffe wench, or Kitchin wench ; a filthie greaſie queane.
Marmitonner. To play the ſaucie rogue, the malapert raſcall, to vſe knauiſh or ſaucie tricks ; alſo, to tend the beefe-pot like a Kitchin-boy.
Marmo. as Denté.
Marmonné : m. ée : f. Mumbled, muttered, vttered betweene the teeth.
Marmonner. as Marmoter.
Marmontaine. as Marmotaine.
Marmor : m. The Goldenie, or a kind thereof ; as Denté.
Marmorat : m. Morter, wherein, among other things, little peeces of the beſt marble are put.
Marmoſet : m. as Marmouſet ; Alſo, a lewd flatterer, or vicious fellow ; eſpecially the baſe flatterer of a Prince, who to feed his maiſters humor, applauds, and and imitates, his foulеſt vices.
Marmot : m. A Marmoſet, or little Monkie ; alſo, as ;
Marmotaine : f. Th' Alpine Mouſe, or mountaine Rat ; broad-backed, great-eyed, and ſhort-eared ; as big, but not ſo high, as a Conie ; her haire is, as a Badgers, long, and of diuers colours ; her voyce verie ſmall, and ſhrill ; her taile but ſhort ; her clawes ſo ſharpe, as with them ſhe quickly digs her a hole into the hardeſt earth.
Marmotan. as Marmotaine.
Marmote. as Marmotaine ; alſo, as Marmotte ; alſo, the riuer Lote ; a little muddie fiſh, beaded, skinned, and finned, like an Eele.
Marmoter. To mumble, mutter, murmure ; to ſpeake, or vtter a thing, betweene the teeth.
Marmoterie : f A muttering, or mumbling of words betweene the teeth.
Marmotonné : m. ée : f. Made to grumble, or, that yeelds a grumbling ſound.
Marmotonner. To grumble, mutter, or murmure ; to rumble, or make a rumbling noiſe.
Marmotte : f. A ſhe Marmoſet, or ſhe Monkie.
Marmotter. as Marmoter.
Marmouſelle : f. A little puppie, or pug to play with.
Marmouſerie : f. Frenzie, doating, raging, fooliſh melancholie ; (An old word.)
Marmouſet : m. The cocke of a ceſterne, or fountaine, made like a womans dug ; any Anticke Image, from whoſe teats water trilleth ; any Puppet, or Anticke ; any ſuch fooliſh, or odde repreſentation ; alſo, the Minion, fauorite, or flatterer of a Prince ; as in Marmoſet.
Marne : f. Marle ; a hard, and (moſt commonly) white earth, which in froſtie weather falls to duſt, and fattens the ground it is laied on.
Marné : m. ée : f. Marled ; fattened, or manured with (a whitiſh) marle.
Marner. To marle, or manure (with a white hard marle.)
Marneux : m. euſe : f. Full of (white) marle.
Marniere : f. A marle-pit.
Marochemin : m. Horehound ; or, as Marrubin.
Marolle. The name of a village, wherein a virgine of fifteene is hard to be found ; whence ; Pucelle de marolle ; Seeke Pucelle.
Maronne : f. Whitewort, Fedderfew, Feuerfew ; ſome alſo call ſweet Marierome ſo.
Maronnier : m. Looke Marinier.
Maronnites : m. A ſect of poore Chriſtians (in ſome parts of Turkie) that weare great belts, or girdles of leather.
Marotte : f. A (Princes) Scepter ; alſo, a fooles bable (becauſe made commonly like a Scepter.)
Il en eſt plus aſſotté qu'un fol de ſa marotte. He doats more on it then a foole does on his bable.
Il luy en fit porter la marotte. He made him the author, or commaunder of.
Au fol la marotte : Prov. The foole would haue a bable.
Fol eſt qui ſa marotte ne cognoiſt, & ne la maine comme il doit : Prov. He is an aſſe that knowes not, and cannot rule, his owne (familie, or affections.)
Si tous les fols portoient marotte, on ne ſçait pas de quel bois on ſe chaufferoit : Prov. If all that fooles are bables wore, of wood we ſhould haue but ſmall ſtore.
Marouque : f. The tough, and hard thorne, or ſcrubbie tree, called Paliurus, Ram of Lybia, and Chriſts thorne ; becauſe (as it is imagined) hee was crowned withall.
Maroute : f. Baſtard Camomill, falſe Camomill.
Marpaut : m. An ill-fauoured ſcrub, a little ouglie, or ſwartie wretch ; alſo, a lickorous, or ſaucie fellow ; one that catches at whatſoeuer dainties comes in his way.
Marquable : com. Markable, notable, of marke, of note.
Marquaſin : m. A young wild boare.
Marque : f. A marke, ſigne, token ; badge ; print, ſtamp ; ſpot ; note, annotation ; alſo, a diſtreſſe, arreſt, or ſeiſure of bodie, or goods ; alſo, as Merque ; alſo, a Marquiſdome.
Droict de marque. Looke Droict.
Faux marque. A tearme by wood-men beſtowed on the head of a deere, which hath more rights, or branches on th' one ſide then on th' other.
Homme de marque. A renowmed, or notable perſon ; a man of marke, or note.
Marqué : m. ée : f. Marked, noted, ſigned, ſpotted, printed ; bearing the badge, or ſtampe of ; alſo, heeded, obſerued, regarded.
Bien marqué. Good, honeſt, vertuous, well inclined.
Mal marqué. Lewd, naughtie, vicious, badly giuen.
Marquer. To marke, note ; ſigne, ſpot, ſet a print, or ſtampe on ; to heed, regard, obſerue, take eſpeciall notice of.
Cela ne marque rien. (Of a counter, &c) that ſtands for nothing.
Marquet : m. A ſmall Venetian coyne worth about iiij.d. Tourn.
Marquetage. as Marqueterie.
Marqueté : m. ée : f. Spotted ; diuerſified, or couered with ſundrie-coloured ſpots ; alſo, inlayed ; wrought all ouer

with ſmall peeces of ſundrie colours.

Marqueté d'eſtoilles. Starrie, ſet thicke with ſtars.

Marqueter. To inlay; to diuerſifie, flouriſh, or worke all ouer with ſmall peeces of ſundrie colours; alſo, to ſpot; to beautifie, or couer with ſundrie-coloured ſpeckes.

Marqueterie: f. Inlaying, or inlayed worke of ſundrie colours.

Marquette. as Marquet.

Marqueture: f. A marking, ſpotting, or beſpotting; alſo, as Marqueterie; alſo, a marke, or ſpot.

Marquis: m. A Marqueſſe; was in old time the Gouernour of a frontire, or frontire towne, and (as th'auncient Duke, and Earle) but an Officer either for life, or onely during the Princes pleaſure: Then was he inferiour to th'Earle of a Prouince, but ſuperiour to the Earle of an inland towne; And therefore, now that all thoſe great Earledomes be annexed to the Crowne, his place is, without queſtion, before any Earles.

Elle a ſon marquis. Saied of a woman that hath her flowers.

Marquiſat: m. A Marquiſate, Marquiſhip, or Marquisdome.

Marquiſe: f. A Marchioneſſe.

Marquiſotte. Barbe faitte à la marquiſotte. Cut after the Turkiſh faſhion, all being ſhauen away but the muſtachoes.

Marquote. as Marquotte.

Marquotte: f. A Sucker, or young plant, that ſpurts vp from the root of a vine, &c, or is of it ſelfe rooted.

Marquotter. To prune, or dreſſe a vine ſo, as it may yeeld ſtore of Marquottes, or Suckers.

Marrabais. as Marrane.

Marrabaiſe. Bonnet à la mar. A flat cap.

Marrain. as Marrein.

Marraine: f. A Godmother.

Marran. as Marrane; And moſt properly, the Chriſtian circumciſed, or turned Jew.

Marrane: m. A Renegado, or Apoſtata; a peruerted, or circumciſed Chriſtian; a Chriſtian turned Turke, or Jew; alſo, a conuerted, or baptized Moore, Turke, or Iew; one that turnes Chriſtian for feare rather then of deuotion; alſo, a Iewiſh, cruell, hard-hearted, or hollow-hearted fellow.

Marraniſé: m. ée: f. Marranized, renegaded; turned Turke, growne miſcreant, made a Iew; alſo, conuerted from a Iew to a (falſe, or falſe-hearted) Chriſtian.

Marrant. Digging, working, or fetching vp weeds, with a (French) mattocke.

Marraſſau: m. A kind of ſhort ſword or axe, for an Executioner.

Marre: f. A (French) Mattocke; alſo, the Saligot, water Calthrop, water Nut.

Marré: m. ée: f. Digged, wrought, opened, broken vp; fetched, or cut vp, with a (French) mattocke.

Marreau: m. The token of lead, &c, giuen for a remembrance, in Churches, to ſuch as meane to receiue the Communion; and in Tauernes, &c, to ſuch as cannot otherwiſe change money.

Marrein: m. Timber for building, or boords; hence alſo, Clapboord for caske; alſo, the beame of a Bucke; the branch of a Stag.

Pour neant va au bois qui marrein ne cognoiſt: Prov. In vaine goes he to the wood that hath no skill in wood; or, In vaine doth any man in forreſts poake, that takes a dotard for a timber-oake.

Marrer. To dig, labour, worke, open or breake vp; (alſo, to cut, or fetch vp weeds) with a (French) mattocke.

Marri: m. ie: f. Sorie, ſad, penſiue, aggrieued, afflicted, diſcontented, vexed at; repining, repentant; malecontent; angrie, fretting, chafing, diſpleaſed, offended, out of patience, in a fume.

Anjourd'huy marié demain marri: Prov. Maried to day, marred to morrow; to day wedded, to morrow wretched.

Femme bonne qui a mauvais mari a bien ſouvent le coeur marri: Prov. Looke Mari.

Marrine: f. A Godmother.

se Marrir. To grieue, or ſorrow for, take heauily, be ſad, or vexed at; to repine, repent, afflict himſelfe about; alſo, to fret, fume, chafe, be diſcontented, angrie, diſpleaſed, out of all patience.

Marriſſon: f. Griefe, ſorrow, ſadneſſe, penſiueneſſe, anguiſh, heauineſſe; repentance; enuie, repining; diſcontent, melancholie, malecontentment; anger, indignation, impatience, fretting, chafing, fuming, vexation of mind.

Marrobe: m. The hearbe Horehound; Looke Marrubin.

Marroche: f. A mattocke, or inſtrument like a mattocke.

Marrochon: m. A little (French) mattocke.

Marron: m. The (domeſticall, tilled, or) great Cheſtnut.

Marronnier: m. The great Cheſtnut tree.

Marrons: m. They which in great ſnowes make the way paſſable.

Marroquin: m. Spaniſh leather (made of Goats skins) or Goats leather not tanned, but dreſſed with Galls.

Marroquin: m. ine: f. Spaniſh, or Goats leather.

Marrouchouïn. as Marrubin.

Marrouſle. vn gros m. A big cat; alſo, an ouglie luske, or cluſter fiſt; alſo, a rich churle, or fat chuffe.

Marrube: m. as Marrubin.

Marrubin: m. Horehound.

Marrubin blanc. White Horehound.

Marrubin d'eau. Marſh Horehound, water Horehound.

Marrubin noir. Blacke, or ſtinking Horehound, black Archangell.

Marrubin puant. as Marrubin noir.

Marrubin ſauvage. Wild, or yellow, Horehound.

Marry. Seeke Marri.

Mars: m. (The moneth) March; alſo, (the Planet) Mars; alſo, yron (called ſo by Alchymiſts;) alſo, courſe graine; or as;

Les Mars. March corne, or corne ſowne about March.

Le flot de Mars. Looke Flot.

Montaigne de Mars. The fleſhie part of the hand betweene the thumbe, and little finger; or the muſcles whereof it conſiſts.

Violette de Mars. Th'ordinarie blew Violet.

Prendre Marthe pour Mars. To take his markes amiſſe.

Quand il tonne en Mars, nous pouvons dire helas: Prov. (So euill a ſigne is that monethes thunder held.)

Marſaul: m. The cane Withie, or cane Willow.

Marſés. bled Marſés. Looke Bled.

Marſois. &, bled Marſois. March corne.

Marſon: m. A ſhoat; a hog thats a yeare, or vnder a yeare, old.

Marſouin: m. A Porpoſe, or Sea-hog; alſo, the fat, or bacon-like, fiſh thereof.

Marſupie: f. A purſe, or poueh.

Martagon: m. The mountaine, or many-flowred, Lillie.

Martagon de Conſtantinople. The Lillie of Conſtantinople, the Byſantine Lillie.

Marte: f. The beaſt called a Martin.

Martes ſebellines, & ſoubellines, ou ſoublines. Sables.

Marteau: m. A hammer; alſo, a ſledge, or mallet; and (among Woodmen) a hammer that hath a ſtampe on the one ſide; wherewith the Surueyors, and Verderers of the Kings woods and forreſts, marke the trees which are to bee felled, and ſold; alſo, the hearbe Reedmace, Water-toarch, or Cats-taile; alſo, a certaine little bone ſeated farre within the eare; alſo, the Stithie (a beaſts diſeaſe.)

Marteau de mer. The huge, ouglie, vnluckie, ſtaring, and wide-mouthed, Mullet-fiſh.

A Preuve de marteau. Sound, currant, good, right ſtuffe.

Couché entre l'enclume & les marteaux. Seated in the middeſt of extremities, or in a dangerous ſtrait; imbarked into vnauoydable miſchiefs, or miſeries.

A l'enclume le marteau: Prov. (Said when a contentious, or litigious ſwaggerer meets, or is matched, with a worſe then himſelfe.)

A dure enclume marteau de plume: Prov. By patience we quaile, or quell all harſh attempts: and now adayes we ſee bags of wooll, and walls of ſoft earth oppoſed to the furie of the Cannon.

Martel: m. Jealouſie, ſuſpition; throbbing, or panting, vpon paſſion; a buzze in the head, a flie in the eare.

Martelage: m. A malling, or hammering; a beating, working, or marking with a hammer.

Martelé. m. ée: f. Hammered, malled; beaten, wrought, or marked with a hammer; alſo, ſpotted, or ſpeckled.

Marteler. To hammer, mall; beat, worke, or marke with a hammer; alſo, to ſpot, or ſpeckle.

Les dents luy marteloyent de froid. His teeth chattered through cold.

Martelerie: f. A hammering, or hammer worke.

Marteler: m. A little hammer; alſo, a Martlet, or Martin.

Marteleur: m. A hammerer; one that worketh with a hammer.

Marteline: f. A ſmall hewing picke, or pauing picke; a Maſons hammer, or picke.

Martellé. as Martelé.

Mattellement: m. A hammering, or malling; a beating, working, or marking with a hammer.

Marteller. Seeke Marteler.

Martengalle: f. A kind of daunce, as common in Provence, as the Branſle in other parts of France.

Marthe: f. Martha (a womans name.)

Prendre Mars pour Marthe. (In things of ſome reſemblance) to miſtake one for another.

Martial: m. ale: f. Martiall, warlicke, valorous; borne vnder the Planet, or being of the humor, of Mars.

Martin: m. Martin (a mans name.)

La S. Martin. Martilmas; or the feaſt of S. Martin the Biſhop, in Winter.

Eſtaffier de S. Martin. The diuell.

Eſté de S. Martin. The later end of Autumne.

Oiſeau de S. Martin. The Ring-taile, or Hen-harme.

Faire le preſtre Martin. To play both the Prieſt and the Clerke; to propound a queſtion, and make himſelfe an anſwer.

A la S. Martin lon boit le bon vin: Prov. At Martilmas wine is fit to be drunke.

Plus d'vn Aſne à la foire a nom Martin: Prov. If one will not another will; there be more wayes to the wood then one; or, as vnder Aſne.

Pour vn poil Martin perdit ſon aſne: &, pour vn poinct Martin perdit ſon aſne: Prov. Looke Aſne.

Martin: m. as Marte; A Martin.

Prendre martin pour regnard. (In alike things) to miſtake one for another.

Martiner. To quaffe, ſwill, guzzle (from S. Martins day, when commonly the French people begin to drinke new wine.)

Martinet: m. A Martlet, or Martin (bird;) alſo, a water-mill for an iron forge; alſo, a little wooden candleſticke hauing on th'one ſide a handle, and on th'other a hooke (moſt in vſe among Tauerners;) alſo, a kind of great hammer vſed in the breaking open of arbies; alſo, a Student, or Scholler, that lodges in the towne, and reſorts vnto Lectures, and Diſputations in Colledges; alſo, the game called Cat and Trap; alſo, a Saints bell, or Antham bell.

Martinet peſcheur. A Kings fiſher.

Grand Martinet. The great blacke Martin.

Martingale: f. A Martingale for a horſe.

A la martingale. Abſurdly, fooliſhly, vntowardly, groſſely, rudely, in the homelieſt manner.

Martre. as Marte; A Martin; alſo, a game played with huckle-bones, and a little ball.

Martroy: m. A place of execution, or puniſhment: (¶Orleannois.)

Martyr: m. A Martyre; one that ſuffers death for the truth.

Martyre: m. Martyrdome, death ſuffered for the truth, extreame paine, affliction, torment.

Martyrément. Martyre-like.

Martyrer. To martyr; torment, afflict extreamely, put vnto mightie paine.

Martyriser. To martyrize, to martyr.

Martyrologie: f. A Martyrologie; a Relation, Hiſtorie, or Booke of Martyrs.

Mary. as Mari.

Marzol: m. as Eſcourgeon; Called ſo, as it ſeemes, becauſe it is moſt commonly ſowne in March: ¶Piedmontois.

Marzolin: m. A kind of delicate Italian cheeſe made of ſheeps milke not curdled with runnet, but with Artichock flowers.

Mas de navire. The maſt of a ſhip.

Mas de terre. On Oxe-gang, plow-land, or hide of land, containing about 20 acres; (and hauing a houſe belonging to it.)

Maſcarade: f. A Maske, or Mummerie.

Maſcarer. To blot, ſoyle, blurre, ſullie, diſfigure.

Maſcaret d'eaux. A huge, and ſudden rauage, or inundatiõ of waters; (L'on appelle maſcaret vne grande montaigne d'eau qui ſe fait en la Riviere de Dordonne, vers les contrées de Libourné; Au temps d'eſté, es ſaiſons les plus paiſibles, & tout en vn moment elle ſe forme, & fait vne courſe quelquesfois bien longue le long de l'eau, & quelquesfois plus courte, renverſant les bateaux.)

Maſcaut. as Macault.

Maſcelles: f. The Jawes.

Maſchaut: m. A bag of money; or as Macault.

Maſché: m. Chewed meat, ſuch as Nurſes giue vnto their children.

Maſché: m. ée: f. Chawed, chewed, chammed, champed.

Il luy faut bailler la choſe toute maſchée. (Said of one thats either vnable, or too lazie, to manage a difficult buſineſſe; & therefore) it muſt be chawed, or tewed, vnto his hands.

Maſ-

Maschecoulis : m. The ſtones at the foot of a Parapet (eſpecially ouer a gate) reſembling a grate, through which offenſiue things are throwne vpon Pioners, and other aſſailants; whence;

Elle a les dents à maſchecoulis le haut defendant le bas. She hath a thin row of teeth, whoſe rottenneſſe, and ſtench driue men from her trench.

Maſche-crouſte : m. A gnaw-cruſt, hungrie companion, ſnatch-cruſt.

Maſchefer. as Machefer.

Maſchefouyn : m. A chuffe, boore, lobcocke, lozell; one thats fitter to feed with cattell, then to conuerſe with men.

Maſchefrain : m. A bridle-champer; a Lawyer (from his Mule, which attending while her maſter is in Court, hath leaſure ynough to champe on the bridle.)

Maſchelier : m. ere : f. Belonging to a Jaw, or chap.

Les dents maſchelieres. The cheeke-teeth, Jaw-teeth, grinders,

Maſchement : m. A chawing, chewing; champing; an eating, a gnawing with the teeth.

Maſcher. To chaw, or chew; to champe; to eat, grind, or worke with the teeth.

Maſcher en belin. To mumble like an old toothleſſe beldame.

Avaller gros, & maſcher dru. To leap ouer a block, and ſtumble at a ſtraw.

Maſcherivet. as Macherivet.

Maſcheur : m. A chawer, chewer; champer; eater.

Maſcheur. Chawing, chewing; champing; eating; whence;

Muſcle maſcheur. as Maſſeter.

Maſcheure. as Macheure.

Maſchiller. To nibble, or chaw prettily.

Maſchoire : f. A Chap, or Jaw.

Maſchurer. as Machurer.

Maſclon : m. The Cholicke of the ſtomacke.

Maſculeyté : f. Manhood, or the male kind.

Maſculin : m. ine : f. Maſculine, of the Maſculine gender; male, manlie, virile.

Maſle : m. A male, or he creature.

Maſles. The pintles of a ſterne; the yron pinnes that enter into the rings, or gudgeons thereof.

Maſle. Adject. Male, maſculine, virile.

Maſle-femelle : com. An Hermaphrodite, or one that is both man and woman.

Maſpeton : m. Laſerwort, Madigare (an hearb.)

Masquarade. as Maſcarade.

Maſquarizé : m. ée : f. Masked, in a maske, hauing a maske, or viſor on.

Maſque : m. A maske; a viſor.

Maſque de Careſme entrant. The picture of Shroue-tewſday; a guts, gulch, gorbellie, fat chuffe, or chops.

Lever le maſque à. To vnmaske; to publiſh, or lay open a thing which was cloſely couered, or carried.

Maſqué : m. ée : f. Masked, diſguiſed, wearing a viſor.

Maſquerade : f. A Maske, or Mummerie.

Maſquerie. as Maſquerade.

Maſqueure : f. A masking, mumming, diſguiſing.

Maſquin. de maſquin. in ſtead of Damaſquin : ¶Rab.

Maſquine : f. The repreſentation of a Lyons head, &c, vpon the elbow, or knee of ſome old-faſhioned garmẽts.

Maſſacre : m. A maſſacre, a generall ſlaughter, or murther.

Maſſacre d' vn cerf. The fall, death, or diſmembring of a Stag; alſo, his head, or hornes violently pulled off when he is dead.

Maſſacré : m. ée : f. Maſſacred, ſlaughtered, murthered.

Maſſacrer. To maſſacre, ſlaughter, murther.

Maſſacreur : m. A maſſacrer, ſlaughterer, murtherer.

Maſſe : f. A maſſe, lumpe; heape, loafe; round peece of any thing; an ingot, or wedge of mettall; alſo, a club.

Maſſe d' armes. A Battle-axe.

Maſſe de chair. The muſcle which poſſeſſeth, & filleth vp all the hollow bought of the ſole of the foot; (called ſo by moderne Anatomiſts.)

Maſſe d' eau. as L' herbe à maſſes.

L' herbe à maſſes. Water-toarch, Cats-taile, March-beetle, March-peſtill, Reed-mace, Dowch-downe.

Sergent à maſſe. Looke Sergent.

Maſſerotte : f. A Wood-cleauers beetle; alſo, the head, or but-end of a club, or beetle.

Maſſeter. One of the muſcles whereby the nether Jaw is drawne vpwards.

Maſſicor : m. A yellow colour made of lead; or, as;

Maſſicot : m. Oaker made of Ceruſe, or white lead.

Maſſier : m. A Mace-bearer, a Sergeant of the Mace.

Maſſif : m. ive : f. Maſſiue, ſolide, ſound, firme, cloſe, hard, ſtrong, vnbroken, not hollow, well knit, hard-packt, together.

Maſſir. To make maſſiue, ſolide, hard, ſound; to compact, to beat cloſe, ramme hard in.

Maſſitere : m. A kneader of bread, or of paſt: ¶Rab.

Maſſiveté : f. Maſſiueneſſe, ſoliditie, ſoundneſſe.

Maſſon : m. A Maſon; alſo, a kind of Mullet-fiſh.

Pet de maſſon. A fart in ſyrop; the fart that brings durt after it.

A propos truelle, bon iour maſſon. Looke Propos.

Il n'eſt pas maſſon qui pierres refuſe : Prov. The cunning Maſon workes with any ſtone.

Maſſonné : m. ée : f. Built of ſtone; hewed, ſquared, wrought, or layed, as a ſtone by a Maſon; alſo, (in Blazon) purfled.

Maſſonner. To build of ſtone; to make, or frame ſtone-buildings; to hew, ſquare, faſhion, lay ſtones; to worke Maſons worke.

Maſſonnerie : f. Maſonrie, Maſons worke, the Maſons trade; ſtone-worke, or building; the hewing, ſquaring, fitting, faſhioning, laying, or iuſt plating, of ſtones in building.

Maſſonnier : m. ere : f. Of, belonging to, ſeruing for, a Maſon, or Maſons worke.

Maſſoret : m. A Spirit, Ghoſt, Hobgoblin.

Maſſorets. Such Jewes as corrected the falſe-written words of Scripture, not blotting them out (for of that they made a ſcruple) but noting them with a little O, and ſetting downe their corrections in the margent.

Maſſuë : f. A club; alſo, the name of a great ſweet apple.

Mast : m. The maſt of a ſhip.

Maſter vn navire. To furniſh a ſhip with maſts.

Maſterel : m. A ſmall maſt; or any maſt but the maine one.

Maſtic : m. Maſticke; (a ſweet Gumme.)

Maſtic Achantique. A Gumme which growes on the top of the Caltborp, or Starre-thiſtle.

Maſtic de Candie. Yellow, and bitter Maſticke.
Maſtic de Chio. White Maſticke, better then the former.
Maſtic d'Egypte. Blacke Maſtick; more drying, and and leſſe binding then the reſt.
Maſtication: f. A maſtication, chawing, or chewing betweene the teeth.
Maſticatoire: m. A Maſticatorie; a medecine for the rhewme chawed, or held betweene the teeth.
Maſticatoire: com. Maſticatorie, chewing, champing.
Muſcles maſticatoires. The muſcles from which the Jawes receiue their chawing motion.
Maſtich. as Maſtic.
Maſtiché: m. ée: f. Mingled, or cloſed with Maſtick; wherein there is Maſticke.
Maſticine: f. Manna in graines, Manna of the Leuant; ſo tearmed becauſe it reſembles Maſticke.
Maſtin: m. A Maſtiue, or Ban-dog; a great (countrey) curre; alſo, a rude, filthie, curriſh, or cruell fellow.
Oncques maſtin n'aima levrier: Prov. See Levrier.
Qui de maſtin fait ſon compere plus de baſton ne doit porter: Pro. He that will conuerſe with clowns, muſt paſſe by rudeneſſe without frownes.
Maſtine: f. A Maſtiue, or Curre-bitch; alſo, a fell queane.
Maſtiné: m. ée: f. Lined by a Maſtiue, or great curre; alſo, rudely handled, filthily vſed, curriſhly dealt with.
Maſtiner. To line, as a bitch with a Maſtife, or great curre; alſo, to vſe filthily, handle rudely, deale curriſhly or cruelly with.
Maſtiquer. as Maſticher; Alſo, to infuſe, or put Maſticke, Roſen, &c, vpon a thing before it be ſoldered; alſo, to ioyne, or cloſe with Maſticke, &c.
Maſtoïde. Apophyſes maſtoïdes. Proceſſes of bones deſcending from the ſides of the head behind the eares.
Cavité maſtoïde. A hollow part of the head wherein are certaine little caues, or winding hollowes, which receiue, and yeeld backe reuerberation of ſounds.
Muſcle maſtoïde. A muſcle that bends, and bowes downe, the head.
Maſturbation: f. Filthie frigging.
Maſure: f. An old decayed houſe, or wall; the ruines of a building.
Maſure de terre. A quantitie of ground containing about foure Oxe-gangs.
Mat: m. A foole, fop, gull; mad-paſh, harebraind ninnie; alſo, a mate at cheſſe-play.
Eſchec & mat. Check-mate; alſo, an vnauoydable diſaſter, a remedileſſe miſchiefe, or miſchance.
Mat. Deaded, mated, amated, quelled, ſubdued, ouercome; alſo, as Flaccide.
Or mat. Vnpoliſhed gold.
Matachin: m. The Matachin daunce; alſo, thoſe that daunce it.
Matagaſſe: f. A ſtrike, ninmurder, wariangle: ¶Savoyard.
Matagot: m. A kind of Ape; alſo, an hypocrite: ¶Rab.
Matassin. as Matachin.
Mataſſiner des mains. To moue, knacke, or waggle the fingers, like a Fugler, Player, Feaſter, &c.
Mate: f. A number of ſprigs growing together vpon an hearbe; alſo, as Matte; whence;
Enfans de la mate. Ruffianlie cutters; Cheaters, Cutpurſes, &c.

Matelas: m. as Materas; Alſo, a kind of Violl, or Lutte.
Matelot: m. A Saylor, Shipman, Boatman, Waterman.
Matelotage: m. The hire of a ſhip, or boat, and of the Saylors, or Watermen thereto belonging; the fraight, or fare due for the vſe of a ſhip, or boat.
Mateologie: f. Vaine inquirie, or ouer-curious ſearch into high matters, and myſteries.
Mateologien: m. A vaine, or ouer-curious ſearcher into high matters.
Mateotechne. Vaine knowledge, crooked Art: ¶Rab.
Mater. To mate, or giue a mate vnto; to dead, amate, quell, ſubdue, ouercome.
Materas: m. A Matteraſſe, or Quilt to lie on; alſo, a quarrell (or arrow) for a croſſebow; alſo, as Herbe à Maſles.
Materas deſempenné. A quarrell without feathers, or an vnfeathered quarrell; alſo, a light-braind, giddie-humord, ſhittle-headed fellow.
Matereau. as Matz; or as Maſterel.
Materiaux: m. Any kind of rubbidge, or ſtuffe.
Materiel: m. elle: f. Materiall; ſtuffie, ſubſtantiall, well growne, well fed; alſo, dull, groſſe, earthie, or earthlie.
Materien. as Marrein. An old word.
Maternel: m. elle: f. Maternall, motherlie, of a mother, on the mothers ſide.
Maternellement. Motherly, like a mother; tenderly, kindly, carefully.
Maternité: f. Maternitie, motherhood, the being a mother.
Matetoultier. Looke Maletoultier.
Mathelin. as Mathurin.
Mathelineux: m. euſe: f. Franticke, wild, wood, halfe mad.
Mathematicien: m. A Mathematician; a profeſſor or practiſer, of the Mathematikes; alſo, a caſter of Natiuities.
Mathematique: com. Mathematicall, belonging to the Mathematicks.
Mathematiques: f. The Mathematicks; (comprehend foure of the liberall Sciences; viz.) Arithmeticke, Geometrie, Muſicke, and Aſtronomie or Aſtrologie.
Matheothecne. Crooked Art, vaine knowledge: ¶Rab.
Mathurin: m. The name of a Saint in Gaſtinois, held to be the Phyſitian, or Patron of mad fooles; alſo, a Mathurin Frier; (of th'Order of the Trinitie.)
Maladie de S. Mathurin. Frenzie, extreame follie, madneſſe.
Saillie de S. Mathurin. A fooliſh tricke, fond prank, mad part.
Mené à S. Mathurin. Gulled, groſſely beguiled, ouerraught, made a foole.
Matiere: f. Matter, ſtuffe, ſubſtance; a matter, a thing; an argument, or ſubiect to write, or diſcourſe of; a buſineſſe, or affaire; a cauſe, caſe, or Action in Law.
Matiere fecale. Dung, excrement, ordure.
Matin: m. The morning; the breake of day, beginning of the day.
Des le fin matin. Verie earlie, as ſoone as one can ſee.
Au matin les monts, au ſoir les fonds, &c. Looke Mont.
Les paroles du ſoir ne reſemblent pas à celles du matin: Prov. He that gines thee a good morrow, may yet before night procure thy ſorrow.
Le rouge ſoir, & blanc matin font resjouïr le pelerin: Prov. The euening red, and morning gray preſage a faire ſucceeding day.

Qui

Qui a bon voiſin a bon matin : Prov. He that hath a good neighbour hath a good morrow ; viz. good words next his heart a mornings; or, as in Avoir.

Tel au matin rit qui au ſoir pleure : Prov. Some begin the day with laughter, and end it with teares.

Matin. (Aduerbial.) Early, betimes in the morning; whence;

Lever matin n'eſt pas heur, mais deſieuner eſt le plus ſeur : Prov. There is leſſe happineſſe in earlie riſing then ſafetie in eating after one is riſen.

Il a beau ſe lever tard qui a le bruit de ſe lever matin: &; Qui a bruit de ſe lever matin peut dormir iuſques à diſner : Prov. Seeke Lever.

Mãtinal : m. ale : f. Earlie.

Matine : f. as Maſtine.

Matinée : f. A forenoone, or morning-tide, a whole morning, the ſeaſon of a morning; alſo, a mornings worke, or taske.

Regnard qui dort la matinée n'a pas la langue emplumée : Prov. The Fox that ſleepes a mornings meets with no feathered breakfaſts.

Matines : f. Matines, Morning Prayer.

Matines Pariſiennes. The maſſacre of Paris; which began about midnight.

Chanter Magnificat à Matines. To ſing Magnificat at Matins; to peruert th'order of things, or doe things out of order.

Plus eſtourdi que le premier coup de Matines. More drowſie, and amazed, then a Frier at the firſt toll of the morne-ſacring bell.

Le Retour de Matines : Prov. A miſchiefe done in the darke, or at vnawares; (from the cuſtomes of Friers, who commonly make choyce of that obſcure ſeaſon, for the ſurpriſing, and thumping of their hated companions; which hath bred another Prouerbe; viz. Il n'y a rien tant à craindre que le retour de matines.)

Matineux : m. euſe : f. Earlie, ſoone riſing, vp betimes.

Homme matineux ſain, alaigre, & ſoigneux : Pro. An earlie man is buxome, healthfull, carefull.

Matinier : m. ere : f. Of, or belonging to, the morning; alſo, Eaſterlie, of or towards the Eaſt; and hence;

L'Inde matiniere. The Eaſt India.

Matlas. as Materas.

Matlaſſé : m. ée : f. Of Materaſſes, or Quilts.

Matois : m. A vaine companion, worthleſſe perſon; or as Mattois.

Il entend le matois. He vnderſtands the whole traine, or plot.

Matou : m. A cat, a puſſe.

Matoüard : m. The ſame.

Matrac : m. A ſtraight, long, narrow-necked, and great, wide, round-bellied bottle, or violl, of ſtrong, and thick glaſſe.

Matraſſer. To mall, beat, or hew, downe; to bruiſe, or breake aſunder.

Matraz : m. A glaſſe bottle, or violl; or as Matrac; alſo, as Materas.

Matricaire : f. Fedderfew, Feuerfew, Motherwort, Whitewort.

Matricaire. Veine mat. Looke Veine.

Matrical : m. ale : f. Belonging to, or ſeruing for, the Matrix.

Entonnoir matrical. Seeke Entonnoir.

Matricave. Fedderfew, &c; as Matricaire.

Matrice : f. The matrix, mother, or wombe of a woman; alſo, a certaine veine that runnes along the flank neere the reines; alſo, as Matricule; alſo, a money-makers, or letter-founders, Matrcie; the mould or forme for the eyes of their markes, or letters.

Matricide : com. Mother-killing.

Matricile : com. Of, or belonging to, the matrix.

Matricule : f. A liſt, roll, catalogue, regiſter of names; a matricular booke.

Matrimonie : m. Matrimonie, mariage, wedlocke.

Matrimonial : m. ale : f. Matrimoniall; of, or belonging to, matrimonie.

Heritages matrimoniaux. Which come by the mother.

Matronal : m. ale : f. Matronall, matron-like, modeſt, motherlie, graue.

Matrone : f. A Matron, a diſcreet, or ſage dame; a ſober, modeſt, graue, motherlie woman.

Matrones. Damaske or Dames Violets, Queenes Gilloflowers, Rogues Gilloflowers, cloſe Sciences.

Mattarruys : m. A mad, raſh, harebraind aſſe; one that throws whats next him at any one that moues him.

Matte : f. Was heretofore (in Paris) a raskallie place, whereat common Gameſters, Cheaters, Conicatchers, and Cutpurſes vſually met: Thence, Enfans, ou ſuppoſts de la Matte; Such well-giuen youthes.

Matté : m. ée : f. Mated, amated, quelled, ſubdued, puld vnder, taken lower; tired, wearied.

Mattelé : m. ée : f. Clotted, knottie, curdled, or curdlike.

Matter. To quell, mate, amate; ſubdue, pull vnder, take lower; to giue a mate vnto.

Mattes : f. Curds, or curdles.

Matti : m. ie : f. Depriued of moiſture and verdure, dried vp; whence, hearbes dried vpon a hot ſhouell, tile, or in a ſtill, are ſaid to be, matties.

Mattois : m. A Setter, Cutpurſe; Cheater, Conicatcher; a ſubtill, or craftie fellow; alſo, as Matois.

Mattonné. Ciel mattonné. A curdled skie; or, a skie full of ſmall curdled clowds.

Mattraz. as Materaz.

Maturatif : m. iue : f. Maturatiue, ripening, ſuppuring.

Maturation : f. A maturation, ripening; ſuppuring, growing to a head, mattering, reſoluing into matter.

Maturer. To ripen, mellow, wax full, grow mature; alſo, to matter, to ſuppure.

Maturin. Looke Mathurin.

Maturité : f. Maturitie, ripeneſſe, mellowneſſe, fullneſſe; perfection of growth, and bigneſſe.

Matutinel : m. elle : f. Of the morning; alſo, timelie, or earlie in the morning.

Matz : m. The maſt of a ſhip.

Mau : m. An euill, miſchiefe, dammage, annoyance; paine, griefe, ſickneſſe.

Mau de pipe. Drunkenneſſe; or as in Pipe.

Mau de terre. The falling ſickeneſſe.

Mau. (for Mal Adject.) Bad, ill, naughtie; whence;

A mau chat mau rat : Prov. Two knaues well met.

Maubert. Place mau. The Marketſtead, and place of execution, for th'Vniuerſitie of Paris.

Cela ſent ſa Place Maubert. Thats clowniſh, rude, verie homelie.

Maubrenage. vne femme qui demeure à m. A ſtinking, or naſtie draggletaile.

Maucoeureux : m. euſe : f. Queaſie-ſtomacked.

Mauconduict : m. cte : f. Ill guided, badly gouerned.

Maudire. Looke Mauldire.

Maudiſné : m. ée : f. Ill dined, that hath had but a courſe dinner.

Maudiſſant. Curſing, banning, blaſpheming.

Maudiſſon: f. A curſe; Looke Mauldiſſon.
Maudite: f. A kind of ſandie-coloured vermine, like a Viper.
Maudolé: m. ée: f. Miſshapen, ill framed, ill-fauoured, luskiſh, without proportion.
Mauduict: m. cte: f. Vnmannerlie, clowniſh, ill-behaued, ill brought vp, vncinile, rude.
Mauffait: m. A Goblin, Bug, Diwell, Spirit.
Mauffe: f. A Bug, Fairie, ſhe Spirit. } old words.
Maufle: f. A wretch; or as Mauffe.
Maugiſant. Ill bedded, ill lodged, lying ill-fauouredly; or as Malgiſant.
Maugratieuſement. Haſtily, rudely, vnpleaſantly, improperly, vnpleaſingly.
Maugratieux: m. euſe: f. Vnpleaſing, rude, harſh, vnhandſome, vncomelie, vnſeemelie, without grace, without garbe.
Maugré. Looke Maulgré.
Maugréement: m. A curſing, banning, blaſpheming.
Maugréer. To curſe, banne, blaſpheme, reuile extreamly, raile on deſpightfully.
Maujoin: m. Th' Arabian Gumme called Beninne.
Maujoinct: m. cte: f. Looſſe, gaping, ill ioyned, ill couched, badly ſet together.
Maujoine. Barbier de mau. A Barber of a womens &c.
Maulavé: m. ée: f. Ill waſhed; ſlubbered, naskie, naſtie, foule.
Mauldict: m. cte: f. Execrable, accurſed; moſt vnhappie; alſo, curſed, banned, execrated.
Mauldire. To curſe, banne, execrate, werrie, betake to the diuell; alſo, to blaſpheme.
Mauldiſſon: f. A malediction, curſe, banning, execration; a blaſphemie.
Les mauldiſſons ſont fueilles qui les ſeme les recueille: Pro. Curſes proue choke-peares vnto thoſe that plant them.
Maulgré eux. Mauger their teeth, in ſpight of their hearts, againſt their wills, whether they will or no.
Mauloubet: m. The Wolfe (a diſeaſe.)
Maulubec: m. as Malubec; or, as Mauloubet.
Maulve: f. The hearbe Mallow; alſo, a Sea-mew, or Sea-gull.
Maulve blanche. The white Mallow; or as Guimauve.
Maulve cultivée. Garden Mallowes, Hockes, Holy-hockes.
Maulve grande. The great Mallow, or tree Mallow.
Maulve de Iardin. as Maulve cultivée.
Maulve ſauvage. The field Mallow, wild Mallow; our ordinarie Mallow.
Maulve terreſtre. Blacke Brionie; or an hearb that hath blacke berries, and is much vſed by Cutlers.
Maulx. Miſchiefes; Looke Mal.
Maumarié: m. ée: f. Badly matched, ill married.
Maumené: m. ée: f. Miſuſed, ſorely handled, extreamly perſecuted; purſued euere, hard laied to.
Maunet: m. ette: f. Vncleane, vncleanlie, ſullied, ſluttiſh, filthie, naſtie, ſlouenlie.
Mavortien: m. enne: f. Martiall.
Maupiteux: m. euſe: f. Pitifull, mercifull, mercileſſe, cruell, hard-hearted, rigorous.
Mauplaiſamment. Vnpleaſantly, vnpleaſingly, harſhly; vnhandſomely.
Mauplaiſance: f. Vnpleaſantneſſe, vnpleaſingneſſe, harſhneſſe, vnpleaſantneſſe, vnhandſomeneſſe.
Mauplaiſant. Vnpleaſant, vnpleaſing, harſh, vnhandſome, harſh.

Maupreſt. Vnreadie, vnprepared, vnprouided.
Maurelle. as Morelle.
Maurequine. Goutte maurequine. as Goutte ſerene; See Goutte.
Mauſade: com. Harſh, vnſauorie, lowtiſh, vnciuile, vnmannerlie, rude, vnproper, vnapt, vnſeaſonable.
Mauſadement. Harſhly, vnſauorily, vnproperly, vnaptly, vnſeaſonably, lowtiſhly, vnciuilly, rudely, vnmannerly.
Mauſadeté: f. Harſhneſſe, vnſauorineſſe, or want of ſauor; vnaptneſſe, vnhandſomeneſſe, vnſeaſonableneſſe; lacke of ciuilitie, rudeneſſe.
Mauſoigneux: m. euſe: f. Careleſſe, retcheleſſe, negligent.
Mauſolée: m. The ſtatelie ſepulchre of a great Prince, or Potentate.
Mauſoupé: m. ée: f. Ill ſupped, that hath had but a bad ſupper.
Mauſſane: The Wayfaring tree.
Mauvais: m. aiſe: f. Naughtie, bad, lewd, ill; ſhrewd, miſchieuous, hurtfull, vnhappie, knauiſh, curſt, churliſh, croſſe, froward, ſtubborne, obſtinate, ouerthwart; malicious; depraued, corrupt, mard.
Mauvais garçon. A ſhrewd lad; alſo, a ſhrewd, or tall fellow.
Mauvais oeil. Ivie Chickweed, Morgeline, Henbit.
Mauvaiſe tigne. A malignant ſcurfe bred in the head.
Faire mauvais. To deprane, marre, viciate, peruert, corrupt.
Faire le mauvais. To ſwagger; to boaſt, cracke, brag of his owne valour.
Sentir mauvais. To ſtinke, or ſmell ill, to be ſomewhat to blame.
Mauvais chien ne trouve ou mordre: Prov. The curriſh dog in fight not bold ſeekes where to ſnatch, not where to hold.
Mauvaiſe fille ſe mocque de ſa mere: Prov. A wicked daughter flowts her (witleſſe) mother.
Mauvaiſe herbe croiſt touſiours: Prov. An ill weed thriues apace.
Le mauvais emporte le bon. Where th'one of a maried couple is free, and th'other a villeine, their children ſhall be villeines, by the cuſtomes of Nevers, and Bourbonnois.
Il faut avoir mauvaiſe beſte par douceur: Prov. Looke Avoir.
Il n'eſt qu' vne mauvaiſe heure au iour: Prov. One day hath in it but one luckleſſe houre.
On n'a jamais bon marché de mauvaiſe marchandiſe: Prov. Bad ware is neuer cheape ynough.
Mauvaiſement. Badly, lewdly, naughtily, wickedly, vily, filthily; miſchieuouſly, hurtfully, ſhrewdly; frowardly, ſtubbornely, churliſhly.
Mauvaiſtié: f. Naughtineſſe, badneſſe, wickedneſſe, lewdneſſe, knauerie, miſchieuouſneſſe, ſhrewdneſſe, curſtneſſe, hurtfulneſſe; maliciouſneſſe; peruerſitie, ouerthwartneſſe, obſtinacie, ſtubbornneſſe.
Mauve. as Maulve.
Mauvis: f. A Mauis; a Threſtle, or Thruſh.
Max. as Mas.
Maxillaire: com. Of, or belonging to, the iaw-bone.
Dents maxillaires. The grinders, or cheeke teeth.
Os maxillaires. The bones into which the vpper teeth are fixt, in mans but two (diſtermable) in beaſts foure, two bigger and two leſſe.
Maxime: m. A maxime, principle, firme propoſition.
May: m. (The moneth of) May; alſo, a May-pole; whence;

A bon bluteur may propice: Pro. Somewhat as ſtiffe as a maypole does well with him that boults in a fleſhlie tub.

Il ne ſçait que c'eſt de vendre vin qui n'attend de May la fin: Prov. Belike becauſe he cannot before that time gueſſe what will be the next yeares Vintage.

May: f. A kneading trough, or tub; alſo, a ſtacke, or pile of wood, &c.

Maye: f. A kneading trough; a hutch, or binne; alſo, a halfe-thraue, or heape of corne (in the ſheafe.)

Mayenche: f. A Tiemuſe. ¶Savoyard.

Mayeres: f. The branches of Poplers, and Willowes, fit to make rayles, props, or ſtayes for Vines.

May-loubet. The diſeaſe which wee call the Wolfe. ¶Langued.

May-mis: m. iſe: f. Maimed.

Mayraſtre: f. A ſtepmother. ¶Langued.

Mays: m. Maïs, Turkie corne, Turkie wheat.

Maz: m. A ſmall countrey tenement; or, as Mas; alſo, the maſte of a ſhip.

Me. Me, or to me; a Pronowne (of the Datiue, or Accuſatiue Caſe) which euer goes before a Verbe, whereas Moy comes after.

Means: m. Void, and emptie places betweene beds in gardens, reſerued for ſpeciall hearbes; ſuch are the ſpaces left for Cardoons betweene rowes of Onyons.

Meat: m. A way, or open paſſage; a hole, or pore in the bodie.

Meat Cholagogue. Looke Cholagogue.

Mecanique: com. Mechanicall, belonging to an handicraft; baſe, meane, ordinarie, vile.

Mecaniquerie: f. Mechanicallneſſe; baſeneſſe of humor.

Mecaniqueté: f. The ſame.

Mecer. for Menacer; to threaten. ¶Rab.

Mechanique. as Mecanique.

Mechanizé: m. ée: f. Mechanicalized; made, or growne baſe, vile, ordinarie, meane.

Meche: f. as Meiche.

Mecheron: m. A little match, or candle-weeke; alſo, a ſparkle.

Mechine: f. A maid-ſeruant, a chamber-maid.

Mechoir. as Meſchoir.

Mect: f. A kneading trough, or tub; Looke Met.

Medaille: f. A medall; an auncient and flat iewell, ouch, or bruche; or, a peece of auncient coyne, or plate, wherein the figure of ſome notable perſon is caſt, or cut.

Medaillé: m. ée: f. Furniſhed, or ſet, with medalls.

Medaillon: m. A little medall, ouch, or bruche.

Medalle. as Medaille.

Medamothi. Of no place. ¶Rab.

Medard. The name of a ſanctified Biſhop of Noyon, and Tournay, in the yeare 524; by whoſe prayers (ſayes Gregoire de Tours) diuers priſoners haue beene deliuered from captiuitie; whence;

Mal S. Medard. (May be) captiuitie, or impriſonment.

Mede. A precious ſtone that yeelds a Suffron-like ſweat, and a taſt like wine.

Medecin: m. A Phiſition, a Leech.

Medecin d'eau douce. An vnskilfull, or vnexperienced Phiſition, a dunicall dog-leach; one that hath not trauelled farre for the (little) skill he hath: (Aſclepiades, a better Orator then Phiſition (as Plinie reports) was the firſt that allowed a Patient to drinke cold water; and thereupon cauſed himſelfe to be trumpted, The freſh-water Phiſition.)

Apres la mort le medecin: Prov. After meat muſtard; when ſteed is ſtolne ſhut the ſtable doore.

Bon eſt le medecin qui ſe ſçait guarir: Pro. He is a right Phiſition that can cure himſelfe.

De nouveau medecin cimitiere boſſue: Pro. A new Phiſition makes a Churchyard ſwell.

Vn piteux medecin fait vne playe mortelle: Prov. A pitifull Surgeon ſpoileth a ſore.

Ieune barbier vieil medecin: Prov. Looke Barbier.

Les maux terminez en ique (comme Hydropique, Hectique, Paralytique, &c) font au medecin la nique: Prov. Becauſe they be hardly cured.

Medecin: m. ine: f. Phiſicall, medicinall; belonging to Phiſicke, or to a Phiſition.

Doigt medecin. The ring finger, that which is next vnto the little one.

Medecinable: com. Medicinable, healable, curable.

Medecinal: m. ale: f. Medicinall, ſeruing for a medicine, curing, healing.

Medecine: f. A medicine, or phiſicke; the art of Phiſicke; healing, or curing; a remedie for diſeaſes; alſo, a ſhe Phiſition.

Contre la mort n'y a point de medecine: Pro. No Phiſicke can preuaile 'gainſt death.

Contre peché eſt vertu medecine: Prov. Vertue is a ſalue for ſinne.

Tard medecine eſt appreſtée a maladie enracinée: Prov. Grounded diſeaſes are incurable.

Medeciné: m. ée: f. Medecined, cured, healed.

Medeciner. To medicine, cure, heale, ſalue, leach; to apply a remedie; to practiſe, or miniſter Phiſicke.

Mediane: m. as Meſentere.

Médiane: f. The blacke, or middle veine; the inward branch of the ſhoulder veine, diſcending downe the arme vnto the hand, and there diſperſing it ſelfe among the fingers.

Mediaſtine: m. A partition made in the bodie by certaine thin skins which diuide the whole breaſt, from the throat to the midriffe, into two hollow boſomes.

Mediateur: m. A mediator, interceſſor, meane or means for; alſo, an arbitrator.

Mediation: f. Mediation, interceſſion, ſuite, or meanes made for; alſo, an arbitrating, or compounding of (other mens) controuerſies.

Mediatrice: f. A mediatrix, arbitratrix.

Medicament: m. A medicament, ſalue, medicine.

Medicamenter. To ſalue, cure, heale, apply a medicine, lay a plaiſter vnto.

Medicamenteux: m. euſe: f. A curing, ſaluing, healing.

Medication: f. as Medicinement.

Medicinement: m. A curing, ſaluing, healing.

Medier. To diuide into halues; alſo, as Moyenner.

Medieu, ou medieus. So God helpe me, or, by the faith of my bodie.

Medimne: m. A corne-meaſure, containing almoſt two of our buſhels.

Medin: m. An Egyptian coyne of ſiluer, worth about xx d Pariſis.

Mediocre: com. Meane; moderate, indifferent, reaſonable, competent, neither too big nor too little.

Mediocrement. Meanely, moderately, indifferently, competently, reaſonably, meaſurably, meetly well.

Mediocrer. To qualifie, temper, moderate, add a meane vnto.

Mediocrité: f. Mediocritie; a meane, meaſure, competencie, indifferencie; temper, moderation, qualification.

Me-

Medique: f. Medick fodder, Spaniſh Treſoile, Snaile Clauer.
Mediſſon. Looke Meſdiſſon.
Meditation: f. A meditation, or meditating; a deepe conſideration, carefull examination, ſtudious caſting, or deuiſing of things in the mind.
Mediter. To meditate, ſtudie, muſe on; to thinke ſeriouſly, reuolue ſtudiouſly, conſider deepely, deuiſe carefully, ponder diligently.
Mediterranée: f. The Mediterranean, or mid-earth ſea.
Medon: m. The drinke Mede, or Bragot.
Medullaire: com. Marrowie, of marrow.
Medulle: f. Marrow; pith.
Spinale medulle. Seeke Spinal.
Medulleux: m. euſe: f. Marrowie, pithie, ſtrong; full of marrow.
Meffaict: m. A fault, offence, treſpaſſe, miſdeed; a wrong, abuſe, diſpleaſure, bad part, ſhrewd turne.
Meffaict: m. cte: f. Miſdone, treſpaſſed, offended.
Meffaire. To treſpaſſe, offend, miſdoe againſt; to wrong, abuſe, deale treacherouſly, play falſe with.
Meffiance: f. Diſtruſt, miſtruſt, ſuſpition, iealouſie.
Meffier. Se meffier de. To diſtruſt, miſtruſt, haue in iealouſie, put ſmall confidence in.
Megalopſychie: f. Magnanimitie; or, as Magnanimité.
Megicier. as Megiſſier.
Megis: m. Tawings; the offalls, or peeces cut from skinnes in tawing; or the liquor wherein they are, or haue beene tawed.
Megiſſerie: f. The tawing, or dreſſing of (thiane) skinnes for Gloues, Purſes, &c.
Megiſſier: m. A tawer, or tawyer; a Fell-monger, a Leather-dreſſer.
Megiſte. Verie great. Rab.
Megle: m. A kind of forked Pick-ax, or Grubbing-ax.
Megre: f. Looke Maigre: f.
Megrelin: m. A leane ſcrag, lanke ſtarueling.
Megue. as Maigue.
Mehaigné: m. ée: f. Lamed, maymed; growne impotent, much weakened by extreame hurts receiued, care taken, or toyle indured.
Mehaigner. To mayme, or make lame with blowes; to weaken, bruize, or founder by extreame care, ſtripes, or toyle.
Mehaing: m. A mayme; or, an extreame weakeneſſe, impotencie, or abatement of ſtrength, in the bodie, by hurts receiued, care taken, or toyle indured.
Il n'eſt cheval qui n' ait ſon mehaing: Prov. No horſe without ſome bruize; no man without one fault or other.
Mejane: f. A mizzen ſayle; alſo, a Guilt-head, or Goldennie of a middle ſize.
Meiche: f. The weeke (or ſnuffe) of a candle; the match of a lampe; alſo, Match for a Harquebuſe, &c; alſo, a tent (for a wound) vniforme, or all of a bigneſſe, and therein differing from Tente, which is bigger at one end then at the other.
Deſcouvrir la meiche. as in Deſcouvrir. (from birds, or wild beaſts, which-uenting a match, doe quickly get them gone.)
Meicheron: m. A little match, weeke, or ſnuffe; alſo, a ſparkle.
Meignie: f. A meynie, or houſehold; See Meſgnie.
Meillauque: f. Turkie Millet, great blacke Millet.
Meilleur: m. eure: f. Better, worthier, honeſter; alſo, the beſt, or chiefeſt; as, Le meilleur de tous autres; &, la meilleure choſe qu' ils ont, &c.
Il a eu du meilleur. He hath gotten the victorie.
Courtes folies ſont les meilleures: Prov. The ſhorteſt follies are the beſt; (and thereof may the next Prouerbe be vnderſtood;)
Le plus bref eſt le meilleur: Prov. The ſhorter the better.
Qui avec ſon ſeigneur mange poires il ne choiſit pas des meilleures: Prov. Looke Manger.
Meilleurer. To improue, better; make better.
Mein: m. A proper name for a man; and particularly, the name of a Saint, who is held the Patron of the Scurvie; and hence;
Mal de ſainct Mein. The wild ſcab, mange, or ſcurvie.
Meix. as Mex.
Melancholie: f. Melancholie, blacke choler; ſadneſſe, penſiueneſſe, beauineſe, thoughtfullneſſe, care-taking; ſolitarineſſe, retyredneſſe.
Melancholie artificielle. Oyle of Vitriol, or Coperas; tearmed ſo by ſome Phiſitions, becauſe being ſpilled on the ground, it boyles of it ſelfe, like the Melancholie called, Atra bilis.
Melancholie louviere. Seeke Louvier.
Elle fait pluſieurs petites melancholies à ſon amy. She playes him many wanton trickes, or puts him into many prettie extaſies.
Melancholier. Se melan. To be melancholicke, ſad, penſiue, heauie; to ſorrow, grieue, take thought.
Melancholique: com. Melancholicke, ſad, penſiue, heauie, thoughtfull; retyred; ſullen; full of blacke choler.
Melandrin: m. A ſea-fiſh, that (his blackiſh colour excepted) reſembles the Pearch.
Melanterie: f. A cauſticke minerall (of the colour of Sulphure) found in Braſſe mines.
Melegette. The ſpice called Graines, or Graines of Paradice.
Meleſe: f. The Larch, or Turpentine tree; and (as Meleze) the gumme, or teare iſſuing from it.
Melet: m. A ſmall, great-eyed, and little-mouthed ſea-fiſh, otherwiſe much reſembling (though not ſo daintie as) the Anchoua, whereof ſome hold it to be a kind; or, as;
Melette: f. A verie ſmall, ſoft, and fat ſea-fiſh, bred of raine, and water, and called the Smie, or ſea-Groundlin.
Meleze: f. The gumme, or teare of the Larch tree; alſo, the tree it ſelfe; whence;
Reſine de meleze. The Turpentine thats ordinarily ſold by Apothecaries.
Meliceride: f. An impoſtume, or ſore, whoſe humor reſembleth honie.
Melichore. A winged Scorpion that hath two ſtings; alſo, a precious ſtone thats white on the one ſide, and of a honie colour on the other.
Melicrat: m. Metheglin, or Mede; drinke made of water and honie ſodden together.
Melilot: m. Melilot, Plaiſter Clauer, Harts Clauer.
Melilot d'Italie. Italian Clauer.
Melilot de montaigne. Herboriſt, or Tetrifolie; tearmed (Northward) Hader, or Halber.
Franc melilot. The ſame; or milke-Treſoile, ſhrub Treſoile.
Melin: m. Baſtard yellow, ſtraw colour, a colour betweene white and yellow.
Melioration: f. An improuement, a bettering; a making, or growing, better; and in Law, as Reparation

Vtile; for which looke Reparation.
Meliorer: To improue, better, mend, amend.
Meliſſe: f. The hearbe called Balme, or Bawme.
Meliſſe Conſtantinopolitaine. Molucca Balme; a rough Plant, whoſe flowers grow within cups or bells.
Meliſſe Moldavique. Moldauian, or Turkie Balme; a moſt ſweet and goodlie Plant.
Meliſſe ſauvage. Wild Balme, or Bawme.
Melitite. Pierre mel. Looke Pierre.
Melle. as Pomme Appie; alſo, a Medlar.
Mellifier. To make of honie.
Melliflue: com. Mellifluous, moſt ſweet, honie-ſweet, out of which honie floweth.
Mellindres: f. Delicate little pies made of Indian wheat, and ſugar.
Melline: f. A Filberd.
Melliturgie: f. The making of honie; Bees-worke.
Melodie: f. Melodie, harmonie, a tunable ſound, or ſinging; a muſicall, or ſweet Ayer.
Melodieuſement. Melodiouſly, harmoniouſly, muſically, tunably.
Melodieux: m. euſe: f. Melodious, muſicall, harmonious, tunable, eare-delighting, full of concords.
Melon: m. A Melon, or Million.
A peine connoiſt on la femme, & le melon: Prov. Seeke Femme.
Melonniere: f. A Garden, Ground, or Bed, of Melons.
Melopepon: m. A Melon-Pumpion; a certaine fruit that participates both of the Melon and Pumpion.
Melte: f. The circuit of a Judge, or Sergeant; the territorie wherein they exerciſe their iuriſdiction. ¶Wallon.
Melun. The name of a good towne ſtanding neere to the Riuer of Seine.
Anguilles de Melun. Seeke Anguilles.
Melze. as Meleze.
Memarchure: f. Surbating of the feet (of cattell.)
Membrane: f. A membrane; the vpmoſt thinne skinne of any thing; alſo, a skinne of Parchment; alſo, the pill, or pilling betweene the barke, and tree.
Membrane Allantoide. The middle of the three coats wherein an infant lyes wrapped in the wombe.
Membrane Amphibliſtroide. One of the foure principall membranes of the eye; is faſhioned like a net; conueyes the light vnto the Chriſtaline humor; and returnes all formes vnto the Optick ſinew, whence it carries them vnto the braine, which iudges of them.
Membrane Aragnoide. The ſpiderie membrane; iſſues from la pie mere, and incloſes the fore-part of the Chriſtaline humor; it ſerues (as the foyle in a Looking-glaſſe) to vnite, and retaine formes in the eye.
Membrane blanche. as Membrane Conjonctive.
Membrane Blepharoide. A ſmall membrane, whereby the waterie humor of the eye is diſtinguiſhed from the glaſſie one.
Membrane Conjonctive. The white of the eye; or the fourth principall membrane (that couers all ouer the white) of the eye.
Membrane cornée. The hornie membrane; another of the foure, which reſembles both in colour, and conſiſtence, a thinne peece of horne; it ſpringes from la dure Mere, and containes, by it hardneſſe, all the humors together, but ſerues eſpecially as a glaſſe, or ſpectacle vnto the Chriſtaline.
Membrane piliforme. One of the two ſmall membranes of the eye (Aragnoide the other;) iſſues from the Vvée; incloſes the fore-part of the glaſſie humour, where it prepares, and whitens the blood brought vnto it by many ſmall veines, and arteries, for the nouriſhment of the Chriſtaline humor.
Membrane Pleuretique. A large, and two-fold membrane, through whoſe doubles paſſe all the ſinewes, veines, and arteries, which are betweene the ribs, the inſide whereof (as alſo of the breaſt, or bulke) it wholly couers.
Membrane Raiſiniere. as Membrane Vvée.
Membrane Retiforme. as Membrane Amphibliſtroïde.
Membrane Vitrée. as Membrane Piliforme.
Membrane Vvée. The grapie membrane; one of the foure principall ones; (tearmed ſo, becauſe it reſembles the skinne of a blacke Grape) comes from la pie mere, and incloſes the eye on all parts, the ball excepted, where it is full of holes; it ſerues to comfort the Chriſtaline humor by the diuerſitie of the colours of it inward part; to keepe it from being hurt by the hornie tunicle; and to hold, and vnite, by it outward blackneſſe, the ſpirits which otherwiſe would be diſperſed.
Membraneux: m. euſe: f. Filmie, full of membranes.
Muſcle membraneux. as Peaucier; alſo, another which drawes the leg outwards.
Membre: m. A member, a limme; a part of the bodie, or of any other thing.
Membres des compagnies de gendarmerie. Places of note, or of commaund, in thoſe companies.
Membres d'eſperon. The gimmewes, or ioints of a Spurre.
Vn membre de veau, de mouton, &c. A ioynt of Veale, Mutton, &c.
Membré: m. ée: f. Membred (in Blaſon.)
Membret d'eſperon. The gimmew, or ioint of a Spurre.
Membreure. as Membrure.
Membru: m. uë: f. Big-membred, big-limmed, ſtrong, well-ſet.
Membrure de bois. A clouen boord, a ſhingle.
Membrures de pierre de taille. Such peeces of free ſtone as runne through a wall, and appeare on either ſide thereof.
Memelon. as Mammelon.
Memener. To miſuſe, moleſt, oppreſſe; (an old word.)
Meninges. as Meninges.
Memithé: m. The bitter, and ſtinking iuice of an hearb that growes neere vnto Hierapolis in Suria, and is called Glaucium, which Gerard holds to be the red-horned Poppie.
Memoire: f. Memorie, remembrance, mindfullneſſe; thought had, or mention made, of things abſent, or paſt; alſo, a memorandum; a Bill, or note of remembrance; and hence;
Memoires. Notes of, writings for, remembrance; and a charge, or inſtructions giuen in writing; alſo, Hiſtories, Chronicles, Commentaries, Records.
Il a memoire de lapin, ou lievre. He hath a verie bad memorie; or forgets in running what he runnes for.
Memorable: com. Memorable, remembrable, worthie of memorie, or of remembrance.
Memorablement. Memorably.
Memoratif: m. iue: f. Memoratiue, mindfull, often remembring.
Memorial: m. A memoriall, record, regiſter; a booke of remembrances, a note, marke, or token for remembrance.
Memorialement. Memorably.
Memorieux: m. euſe: f. Full of memorie, or of a good memorie.

Me-

Menaçant. Menacing, threatening.
Menace: f. A menace, a threat.
Menacé: m. ée: f. Menaced, threatened.
Menacement: m. A menacing, a threatening.
Menacer. To menace, to threaten.
Il ne le menace pas de poires molles. Tis no small matter, no sleight mischiefe, wherewith he threatens him.
Tel menace qui est batu: Prov. Some threaten that are beaten.
Tel menace qui a grand peur: Prov. Looke Peur.
Menaceur: m. A menacer, a threatner.
De grand menaceur peu de faict: Prov. Great menacers, little men-backers.
Menaceux: m. euse: f. Menacing, threatfull.
Menage: m. A bringing, leading, conducting; handling, manage, carriage.
Menandé. Surely, out of question, without doubt; (a Gossiplie oath, or asseueration.)
Mendé. as Menandé.
Mendeux: m. euse: f. Erronious, faultie, naughtie, lewd, false.
Suture mendeuse. The seame whereby the bone of the temples is ioyned with the scull.
Mendiant: m. A beggar.
Mendiant: m. ante: f. Begging.
Mendicité: f. Mendicitie, beggarie, beggarlinesse.
Mendience: f. A begging.
Mendier. To beg, to craue an almes, to goe from doore to doore.
Mendole: f. A Cackarell fish.
Mene: f. as Mendole.
Mené: m. ée: f. Led, brought; guided, conducted, directed; managed; moued, induced, persuaded; also, ouerraught, subdued, fetcht in.
Mené à S. Mathurin. Guiled, made a foole of.
Mal mené. Ill handled, abused, hardly vsed; sore layed to; wearied, tyred, iaw-fallen; imbossed, or almost spet, as a Deere by hard pursuit.
Meneau de fenestre. The transome, or crosse-barre of a window.
Menée: f. A plot, conspiracie, practise; priuate faction; a shift, subtilitie, deuise; a businesse carried closely; also, the direct, or outright course of a flying Deere.
La menée du Sergent. C'est quand le Sergent va sur les lieux du fief, & meine tesmoins pour l'aider en son exploict.
Vn faiseur de menées. A Polypragmon, medler, common barrater, busie bodie.
Mener. To bring, lead; guide, conduct, direct; also, to manage, or handle; also, to moue, induce, toll on, persuade; also, to subdue, ouer-reach, fetch in.
Mener l'asne. To be laughed at, or little accounted of, by all men.
Mener batant deuant eux. To driue, or chase before them with blowes; and in fight, to pursue hard, or giue hard chase vnto.
Mener à dy ay & hory ho. To put vnto carting, or cart-driuing; to bring vnto drudgerie.
Mener à la bonne eau. To steale (a horse, &c.)
Mener la geniſſe au Taureau. To play the bawd.
Mener la loy. To proceed in a suite; or, to follow the Law.
Mener les mains. To lay about him; deale blowes, fall to handie-strokes.
Mener les mains basses. To make a generall slaughter, to put all to the sword.
Mener au Tabourinet. Looke Tabourinet.
Mener le train de. To follow the businesse of.
Mener vne trompe. To driue a top; Looke Trompe.
Cela ne me meine pas. I am not ruled, nor swayed by that; I neither heed, nor respect it; it preuailes nothing with me.
Il y a vn mois que la lavandiere nous meine. The Laundresse hath put vs off this month.
Qui femme croit, & Asne meine, son corps ne sera ia sans peine: Prov. He that beleeues a woman, and leads an Asse, hath brought his bodie (and mind) t'an euill passe.
Les Oisons menent paistre les Oyes: Prov. Looke Oison.
Menestranderie: f. A companie of Minstrells.
Menestrandier: m. A Minstrell, or Fidler.
Menestrel. The same. (v.m.)
Menestrier: m. The same; also, as Gaian.
Menier. as Propre; (an old word.)
Meniguette. Looke Maniguette.
Meninges. Two skinnes, or filmes which enwrap the braine.
Mennetot. The name of a sweet apple.
Menon: m. A guelded Goat.
Menone. A Minstrell. (Poictevin.
Menotes: f. Manacles, hand-fetters.
Mensale: f. The Table-line in the hand; (a tearme of Palmistrie.)
Mensionnier. as Mansionnier.
Mensonge: m. A lye, fib, leasing, vntruth; a tale, jeast, mockerie, fable, false report.
Les songes sont mensonges: Pro. There is no truth in dreames.
Mensonger: m. ere: f. Lying, false, vntrue, fained, forged, fabulous; amisse.
Mensonger. To lye, fib, foist, fable, cog, faine; to forge, report, or deliuer, an vntruth.
Mensongerement. Lyingly, fabulously, falsely, vntruly.
Menstrual: m. ale: f. Menstruall, or menstruous; belonging, or like, vnto a womans flowers.
Menstrue: m. A womans flowers; her monthlie disease, or tearmes.
Mensurable: com. Measurable.
Mental: m. ale: f. Mentall, thoughtsome, belonging to the mind, (onely) in the mind.
Mentastre: m. Calamint, mountaine Mint.
Mente: f. The hearbe Mint, or Mints.
Mente aiguë. Speare-Mint, garden Mint, browne Mint, Mackerell Mint, our Ladies mint.
Mente aquatique. Fish Mint, water Mint, brooke Mint.
Mente chevaline. Horse Mint, wild Mints; water Mint.
Mente crespuë. Curled Mint, red garden Mints.
Mente de nostre Dame. as Mente Romaine.
Mente Grecque. The same.
Mente Romaine. Speare-Mint, balme-Mint, Mackerell Mint, garden Mint, browne Mint, our Ladies Mint.
Mente Sarrasine. The same.
Mente sauvage. Horse Mint, wild Mints; also, water Mint.
Menterau: m. A fabler, fibber, prettie liar.
Menterie: f. A lying, cogging, foisting, fabling, fibbing; also, a lye.
Menteur: m. A liar, fibber, foister, fabler, cogger, leasing-monger, false dicemer.
Homme plaideur menteur: Prov. See Plaideur.

Men-

Menteuſement. Moſt vntruly, verie falſely.
Menteux: m. euſe: f. Full of lyes, fraught with leaſings, fables, vntruthes.
Menthaſtre: m. Calamint, mountaine Mint.
Menthe. Looke Mente.
Menti: m. ie: f. Lyed, fained, foiſted, fabled.
Mentibules: f. The iawes.
Mention: f. Mention; remembrance; a nomination, or naming of; talke had, ſpeech paßed, of.
Mentionné: m. ée: f. Mentioned; nominated, named, remembred; ſomewhat ſpoken, or talked of; touched in diſcourſe.
Mentionner. To mention; remember; nominate, name; ſpeake or talke of; touch in diſcourſe.
Mentir. To lye, fib, fable, cog, foiſt, faine, forge vntruths, coyne leaſings, tell a lye; alſo, to doe any thing contrarie to it ſelfe; whence;
Bon cœur ne peut mentir: Prov. An honeſt heart cannot vtter (or be the author of) an vntruth; and;
Le bon ſang ne peut mentir. A noble nature will not yeeld vnto baſe conditions; or cannot, when occaſion is offered, conceale it ſelfe.
Mentir comme vn arracheur de dents. To lye like a tooth-drawer; (we ſay that Barbers haue all the newes in a countrey; and they that tell much newes tell many a lye.)
On ne doit point mentir en Vin: Pro. Wine telleth truth, and ſhould not be belyed.
Menton: m. The chinne.
Lever le menton à. To harden, aſſure, hearten, imbolden, incourage.
Rabaiſſer le menton à. To humble, deiect, bring low, plucke downe.
Tenir le menton à. To ſuccour, fauor, ſupport, maintaine, vphold.
Celuy peut hardiment nager à qui l'on ſouſtient le menton: Pro. He muſt needs ſwimme that is held vp by the chinne (ſay we.)
La vertu ne fut iamais à menton blanc: Pro. Vertue neuer grew old; the vigor thereof did neuer decay.
Mentonnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, the chinne.
Mentule: f. A mans yard. ¶Rab.
Menu. Le menu. The prettie diſhes, or fine meates at Table; alſo, the head, feet, and paunch of a ſheepe.
Menu: m. uë: f. Little, ſmall, fine, thinne, ſlender, ſubtill, exile.
Menus droicts. All vailes, or fees belonging to an officer; and particularly, the head, feet, skin, and intralls of a ſlaughtered beaſt; or all ſuch parts as a Cooke, or yeoman of the ſlaughter-houſe, reſerues for himſelfe.
Menus panais. The white Mallow, marſh Mallow, mooriſh Mallow.
Menues penſées. Paunſies, Harts-eaſe, loue or liue in idleneſſe; alſo, idle, priuate, or prettie thoughts.
Le menu peuple. The vulgar; the rude multitude; the meaner ſort; the raſcalt, or common people.
Menus poetaſtres. Common, paultrie, triuiall, ignorant, Poets.
Menus propos. Short ſpeeches, prettie ſayings, pleaſant conferences; alſo, idle chat.
Menu ver, ou vert. The furre Mineuer; alſo, the beaſt that beares it.
Par le menu. By parcells, by peeces, by retayle, peecemeale.
Menüailles: f. Small ware, ſmall traſh, ſmall offalls; a great ſort of little peeces, trinkets, or trifles.
Menuëment. Smally, ſlenderly, thinly, by little parcels, or peeces.

Menuet: m. The name of a ſweet apple, that yeelds excellent Cyder.
Menuët: m. ette: f. Smalliſh, little, prettie, fine, thinne.
Menuëté: f. Smallneſſe, littleneße, exilitie, ſlenderneße, fineneſſe, thinneſſe.
Menuiſailles: f. Small traſh, ſlender toyes, little trifles, or offalls; alſo, as Menus droicts, or, the head, feet, and paunch of an edible creature.
Menuiſe: f. Small fiſh of diuers ſorts; or, the ſmall fry of fiſh caſt into a Pond, &c, for the ſtoring thereof; alſo, a kind of net wherewith ſuch fiſh may be caught; alſo, any ſmall traſh, guts, or garbage; and the gobbets, or parings of fiſh cut, and caſt away by Fiſhmongers; alſo, a ſmall Gudgeon, or fiſh bred of the ſpawne, but neuer growing to the bigneſſe, of a Gudgeon.
Menuiſement: m. A miniſhing, extenuating, making ſmall; a crumbling, or breaking verie ſmall.
Menuiſer. To miniſh, extenuate, impaire verie much, make verie ſmall; to crumble; to grind, breake, or cut ſmall.
Menuiſerie: f. Seeling, wainſcotting, Ioyners worke; alſo, any ſmall worke.
Menuiſeté: f. Smallneſſe, littleneſſe, thinneße, fineneße, exilitie, ſlenderneße.
Menuiſier: m. A Ioyner.
Menuiſier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Ioyner, or to Ioyners worke.
Menuſaillerie: f. Small ſtuffe.
Menuville: f. as Manivelle (in the laſt ſence.)
Meon: m. Mew, Spignell, Baldimonie, Bearewort.
Mequine. as Mechine. ¶Pic.
Mer: f. The Sea; the Mayne; alſo, the hollowneſſe, or channell of a Wine-preſſe; the round concauitie wherein the grapes are preſſed.
Mer d'amont. The Adriaticke ſea; the ſea wherein Venice doth ſtand.
Mer d'aval. The Tyrrhenian, or Tuſcane ſea.
Mer majour. The Euxine ſea; the ſea which diuides Europe from Aſia.
Mer de procez. An infinite, or endleſſe ſuit.
Diable de mer. A ſea-Coot, or Cormorant.
La grande mer. The firſt Bull of Priuiledges graunted (by Paulus tertius) vnto the Feſuits.
Verd de mer. Sea-greene colour.
Entre deux mers. Is vnderſtood of the countrey that lyes betweene the two large Gaſcon Riuers Dordonne, and Garonne.
Meſler la mer, & le ciel. To make a horrible confuſion.
Singler en haute mer. To ſayle in the Mayne; to haue ſtuffe enough to worke on, or the world at will.
Tenir la mer. To commaund at, or be maiſter of, the ſea.
Tenir à la mer. To worke, or ſayle againſt the tyde.
Celuy qui ſe met ſur la mer ou il eſt ſol, ou il eſt pouvre, ou il a envie de mourir: Prov. He that vnto the ſea commits his bodie, is either poore, or deſp'rat, or a noddie.
Goutte à goutte la mer s'eſgoute: Prov. Looke Eſgouter.
Les Rivieres retournent en la mer: Prov. (Said when Princes doe ſqueeze out of their ſpungie Officers the moiſture which they haue purloyned from them.)
Qui envoye chetif à la mer il n'en rapporte ne poiſſon, ne ſel: Prov. A man either looſes, or gets naught, by ſending an vnfit meſſenger.
Qui eſt ſur la mer ne fait pas des vents ce qu'il veut:

veut: Prov. Winds are not ſubiect vnto thoſe that ſayle.

Qui veut apprendre à prier aille ſouvent ſur la mer: Prov. He that will learne to pray let him goe oft to ſea.

Merane. for Mejane. ¶Rab.

Meratre: f. A ſtepmother.

Merc de Chaſtel; du Gibet; de la Iuſtice. The ſeat, place, or marke of the houſe of a Lord Chaſtelain, and of (his) Gibbet, or Gallowes, which be ſignes of high Juriſdiction.

Mercadant: m. A poore marchant, paltrie tradeſman; one that deales but for ſmall, or ſleight ware.

Mercadence: f. Small trafficke.

Mercader: m. A Marchant, or Tradeſman.

Mercandeau: m. A paltrie marchant; poore bargainer, ſorrie chafferer, beggarlie chapman.

Mercandier: m. as Mercandeau.

Mercantil: m. ile: f. Marchantlie, marchant-like.

Mercenaire: com. Mercenarie, hireling, or hired; that takes hire, wages, or bribes.

Mercerie: f. Small ware, chaffer.

Mercerot: m. A Pedler, a paltrie Haberdaſher.

Merci: f. Mercie; alſo, pitie, compaſſion; tender-heartedneſſe; alſo, pardon, remiſſion, forgiueneſſe; alſo, a benefit, or fauour; alſo, thankes giuen for a benefit.

Relief à merci. The reuenue of one, or (as in ſome places) of euerie third yeare, yeelded for a Relief.

Merci: m. ie: f. Thanked; as in Dieu merci. God be thanked.

Merci-dieu vilain. Gods mercie villaine; or though I ſay it, you rogue (an angrie womans oath.)

Mercier: m. A good Pedler, or meane Haberdaſher of ſmall wares; a tradeſman that retayles all manner of ſmall ware, and hath no better then a ſhed, or boothe for his ſhop.

Roy des merciers. Looke Roy.

Tuer vn mercier pour vn peigne. To puniſh light faults with beauie penalties; or, to take a great reuenge of a ſmall wrong.

Chaſcun mercier priſe ſes aiguilles, & ſon panier: Prov. To euerie one his owne ſeemes faire.

A chaſque mercier ſon pannier: Pro. Let each man his owne burthen beare.

Il n'eſt pas mercier qui ne ſçait faire ſa loge: Prov. The Pedlers gaine will be but ſmall that cannot reare himſelfe a ſtall.

Petit mercier petit pannier: Prov. The little Pedler a little packe doth ſerue.

Mercier. (Of three ſyllables) to thanke, or giue thanks.

Mercredi. Wedneſday.

Mercuire: f. as Mercuriale.

Mercure: m. The God Mercurie; Planet Mercurie; drug Mercurie; alſo, Quick-ſiluer.

Il a du mercure à la teſte. He is fantaſticall, humorous, new-fangled, giddie-headed; alſo, he is verie craftie.

Mercurial: m. ale: f. Of Mercurie; made of Mercurie; borne vnder the Planet Mercurie; hence, humorous, fantaſticall, new-fangled; alſo, prating, talkatiue, long-tongued; alſo, craftie, ſubtill, deceitfull, theeuiſh.

Mercuriale: f. Mercurie, French Mercurie; an hearb whereof there be three kinds; a male, female, and;

Mercuriale ſauvage. Wild Mercurie, dogs Mercurie, dogs Cawle.

Mercuriales: f. After-noone Sittings, appointed to be held on Wedneſdayes, at firſt euerie fifteene dayes, or, at leaſt, once a month; afterwards (by an Edict of Charles the ninth, in the yeare 1566) once euerie three monthes, in all Townes of Parliament; and at length (by an Edict of H. 3. Anno 1579) in all Preſidiall Townes, and but once in ſix monthes: The Iudges in them be certaine ſelect Preſidents of the Place, who are to examine, and cenſure the faults committed by th' Officers of th' ordinarie Courts held there (or elſewhere within that Juriſdiction) and during the continuance of that buſineſſe muſt intend no other.

Mercurializer. To mercurialize it; to be humorous, fantaſticall, new-fangled; alſo, to prattle, bable, talke ouermuch.

Mercy. Looke Merci.

Merdaille: f. A crue of ſhitten knaues, of filthie ſcowndrells, of ſtinking fellowes.

Merde: f. Mans dung, turd, excrements, ordure.

Merde de fer. The droſſe of Iron.

Merde oye. A Gooſe-turd greene.

Robbe d' argent brodée de merde. An excellent Text ill expounded, or commented on; (for which cauſe Rabelais calls ſo Iuſtinians Inſtitutes.)

A cul de foirard touſiours abonde merde: Prov. There wants no turd at ſhitten fellowes tayles.

Le Porc a tout bon en ſoy fors que la merde: Prov. Looke Porc.

Merdé. In ſtead of, Mort Dieu.

Merdefer. The droſſe of Iron.

Merdefin: m. A Phiſition; tearmed ſo in deriſion.

Merdeux: m. euſe: f. Beſhitten, berayed, all-to-beturded, full of ordure.

Merdigues. Mother of God; (a ruſticall oath.)

Merdré. as Merdé. ¶Rab.

Merdugues. Mother of God; (a ruſticall oath, or Interiection.)

Mere: f. A mother; alſo, the wombe, or Matrix of a woman; alſo, the earth of a Fox, or hole of a Badger; alſo, a great ſalting-tub for Hogs-fleſh; alſo, a great pit, or trench, whereinto the ſuperfluous moiſture of waterie ground is conueyed by ſmall cuts, or ditches; alſo, the anterior, and inner ſide, or face, of an Aſtrolabe.

Mere des cailles. A Rayle; or, a brooke-Owſell.

Mere d' une fontaine. The head of a Fountaine, or Conduit, walled about with, or couered with a vault of, ſtone.

Mere grand. A grandmother, a grandam.

Dure mere de la teſte. The double skin that couereth th' outſide of the braine, and keepeth it from being hurt, or touched by the skull.

Pie mere. A thin, and cleere skin, or filme, next to the braine, the which it inwraps on all ſides, and nouriſhes by veſſels receiued from other parts.

C'eſt le ventre ma mere. I will come no more there, I will doe no more ſo.

Il s'en va prendre la mere au nid. Said of one that ſteales (in ieaſt) towards another, with a purpoſe to doe him ſome vnhappie tricke: Said alſo of a nice, and preciſe hypocrite.

Mere pieuſe fait ſa fille roigneuſe: Prov. A tender mother breeds a ſcabbie daughter.

La mere du timide ne ſçait que c'eſt de pleurer: Prov. The cowards dam knowes not what weeping meanes.

Mauvaiſe fille ſe mocque de ſa mere: Prov. Looke Mauvais.

Mere: com. Meere, vnmixed, ſole, right, pure, plaine, without art, of it ſelfe.

Mere goutte. Vnpreſſed wine, or oyle; ſuch as of it ſelfe, diſtills from the grapes, or oliues, immediatly after they be layed in the preſſe.
Bateau mere. A great ſalt-boat, or barke; or, the chiefeſt, or greateſt of a fleet.
Sentine mere. A little ſalt-boat, or barke.
Tout fin mere nud. Naked vp, or euen, to the bellie.
Mereau: m. A Counter (to caſt withall;) alſo, a Token (receiued at Church by one that meanes to communicate.)
Meregrand. Looke Mere.
Merelles. Le Ieu des merelles. The boyiſh game called Merills, or fiue-pennie Morris; played here moſt commonly with ſtones, but in France with pawnes, or men made of purpoſe, and tearmed Merelles.
Mere-perle. Mother of pearle.
Merge: m. A name for diuers water fowle, that vſe to ducke much; as the Puffin, Cormorant, Didapper, &c.
Meriane: f. Noone-reſt, ſleeping adayes, or at mid-day. ¶Norm.
Merianer. To reſt, or ſleepe at noone-tide.
Meridian. as Meridien.
Meridien: m. The Meridian; a circle which paſſing through both the Poles, and through our Zenith (whereſoeuer) diuides the Sphere into two equall parts; th'one Orientall, th'other Occidentall.
Meridien: m. enne: f. Meridian; South, or Southerlie; of, or belonging to, the Meridian, mid-day, or noone.
Meridional: m. ale: f. Meridionall, Southerlie, of the South, on the South ſide; belonging to noone-tide.
Cercle meridional. as Meridien; called ſo, becauſe whenſoeuer, and whereſoeuer the Sunne comes into it it is noone.
Merin: m. A Sergeant, common Bayliſe, or ſuch like rurall Officer in the Cuſtomes of La Bourt.
Meriſe: f. A ſmall bitter Cherrie.
Meriſier: m. The ſmall and bitter Cherrie-tree.
Merite: m. Merite; deſert; an act worthie of recompence.
Les merites d'un procez. The Pleadings of a cauſe; the Bill, Anſwer, Reply, and Reioinder; the titles alledged, prooſes produced, or matter contained, therein.
Merité: m. ée: f. Merited, deſerued, earned.
Meritément. Meritoriouſly, deſeruedly, worthily, with good cauſe.
Meriter. To merit, to deſerue.
Meritoire: com. Meritorious, well deſeruing, worthie of reward.
Meritoirement. Meritoriouſly, deſeruedly, worthily.
Merlan: m. A Whiting, a Merling.
Merlan ſalé. A dryed Whiting; the fiſh which we call (of it hardneſſe) Buckhorne.
Merlanc. as Merlan.
Merle: m. A Mearle, Owſell, Blackbird.
Merle bleu. A ſmall Owſell, that vſually builds among Rocks, and feeds on wormes, fruits, and ſeeds.
Merle de Breſil. A kind of Mearle of a liuelie red colour.
Merle au collier. A kind of Thruſh that hath a whitiſh ring about her necke.
Merle de mer. The Cooke-fiſh, or ſea-Tench; a duskie, and daintie fiſh, that reſemble a Perch.
Merle noir. The Blackbird, or ordinarie Owſell.
Grand merle. A Goat-ſucker; a mountaine bird, ſomewhat bigger then an Owſell, and leſſe then a Cuckoe.
Ie vous donneray vn merle blanc. I will performe impoſſibilities, or beſtow on you a moſt rare gift.

Merle: f. as Meſle; a Medlar.
Merlet: m. A battlement (of a wall.)
Merlette: f. A Martlet, in Blaſon.
Merlier: m. A Medlar tree.
Merlus, ou Merluz: m. A Mellwell, or Keeling, a kind of ſmall Cod whereof Stockfiſh is made.
Chauſſes à queuë de merlus. Looke Chauſſe.
Mermelade: f. Marmalade.
Merque. as Marque.
Merque de bois. A rowe, tuft, or groue of trees neere to a houſe.
Merques: f. Be, in a paire of beads, the biggeſt, or leaſt.
Merrain, & Merrien. as Marrein.
Mers. Batture faicte au deſſus des mers. Vpon the head, or face.
Merveillable: com. Maruellous, admirable.
Merveille: f. A maruell, wonder; miracle; a monſtrous thing, ſtrange accident, admirable matter.
A merveilles. Maruellouſly, miraculouſly, wonderfully, admirably, ſtrangely.
Pois de merveilles. The blacke Winter Cherrie, Indian Hart, or Hart-peaſe.
Merveille; ou, Pomme de mer. The Balſam, or Balme apple; (an herbe.)
Merveille femelle. The female Balſam apple; beares a purple flower, and differs from the male in all things but the fruit; which (though like vnto) is ſomewhat leſſe then his.
Merveille maſle. The male Balſame, or Balme apple, (tearmed particularly the apple of Ieruſalem) beares a faint-yellow, or ſtraw-coloured flower.
Merveilleuſement. Maruellouſly, miraculouſly, wonderfully, ſtrangely.
Merveilleux: m. euſe: f. Maruellous, miraculous, wonderfull, admirable, ſtrange.
Mery: m. The gullet, weaſon, or pipe, whereby meat paſſeth downe into the ſtomacke.
Més: m. A meſſe, or ſeruice of meat; a courſe of diſhes at table.
Belle chere vault bien vn més: Prov. A cheerefull looke fills vp halfe-emptie diſhes.
Qui a fourmage pour tous més il le doit couper bien eſpez: Prov. He that hath nought but Cheeſe at noone and night, muſt baniſh the Phiſitions penny-weight.
Mes. The Plurall of Mon; as, Mes livres, habits, &c.
Mes. for Plus, as Oncques mes. Neuer more.
Mes, in Compoſition, is as much as Mal, peruerting and turning to ill the ſence of the words it precedeth; as in Meſaiſe, Mesfaire, &c; Or as our Compounds, Vn, and Mis, which we vſe vnto the ſame purpoſe.
Meſadvenance: f. Vncomelineſſe, misbecomming.
Meſadvenir à. To misbappen, to ſucceed ill vnto.
Meſadventure: f. Miſaduenture, miſchance, misfortune, miſhap.
Meſadventuë: f. as Meſadventure.
Meſaiſe: f. Diſeaſe, trouble, moleſtation, calamitie, miſerie, affliction.
Meſange: f. A Titmouſe, or Tittling.
Meſange bleuë. Our ordinarie Titmouſe.
Meſange hupée. A copped ſmall Titmouſe that hath a blacke head ſpotted with white, a light-browne bodie, white breaſt, and aſh-coloured thighes.
Meſange à la longue queuë. The lög-tayled Titmouſe; liues, for the moſt part, among hills, and in high places.
Meſange nonnette. The little Titmouſe called a Nunne, becauſe ſhe ſeemes to weare (as a Nunne doth) a fillet about her head.

Meſaraïques. Veine mes. Looke Veine.

Meſarriver. To miſarriue, to happen, or come vnfortunately vnto.

A qui il meſarrive on luy meſfaict: Prov. (So apt are men to wrong th' vnfortunate.)

Meſchamment. Wickedly, impiouſly, vngraciouſly, naughtily, filthily, moſt impurely, ſcuruily, roguiſhly, knauiſhly, villanouſly; curſtly, frowardly, miſchieuouſly; paltrily, courſely.

Meſchance: f. A miſchiefe, or miſchance.

Meſchanceté: f. Wickedneſſe, impietie, vngraciouſneſſe, knauerie, naughtineſſe, villanie, vileneſſe; a bad act, lewd pranke, filthie part, ſinfull deed.

Meſchant. Wicked, impious, vngracious, naughtie, bad, lewd, villanous, roguiſh; vile, filthie, ſcuruie, moſt impure; alſo, paltrie, courſe, vnworthie; alſo, curſt, miſchieuous, harſh, froward.

Meſchant ouvrier ia ne trouvera bons outils: Pro. A bungler ſeldome fits him with good tooles.

Meſchantes paroles ont meſchant lieu: Pro. Bad words doe find but bad acceptance.

Meſchante parole iectée va par tout à la volée: Prov. A bad word caſt, ſoone roues, abroad.

De meſchant hommę bon Roy: Pro. The froward, or vntractable man proues a good King.

De meſchant hoſte bon reconduiſeur: Pro. A needie hoſt (or gheſt) a notable guide.

Tout meſchant eſt ignorant: Prov. All naughtie men are ignorant.

Aujourd'uy marchant demain meſchant: Pro. To day a Marchant, to morrow a miſcreant.

Bon baſtard, c'eſt avanture, mais meſchant c'eſt de nature: Prov. Baſtards by chance are good, by nature bad.

Sans eſtre pourſuivy le meſchant prend la fuite: Prov. The ſinner flyes before he be purſued; ſelfe-guilt, though nought elſe, makes a ſinner fly.

Meſche. as Meiche.

Meſcheif: m. Miſchiefe.

Meſcheniere: f. Candle-weeke Mullein.

Meſcheoir à. To mishappen, ſucceed ill, fall out vnluckily for.

A qui meſchet on luy meſoffre: Prov. Thoſe whom neceſſitie, or misfortune forces to ſell, are neuer offered the full worth of things.

Aux bons meſchet il: Pro. The beſt men (commonly) haue the worſt fortune; whereupon we ſay, The honeſter man the worſe his lucke.

Il n'eſt pas en ſeurté à qui ne meſcheuſt oncques: Prov. He ſtands not ſurely that did neuer ſlip.

Meſchine: f. A wench, maid ſeruant, miskin fro.

Meſchinon: f. A girle; a little, or young maid ſeruant.

Meſcle: f. Maßlin; Wheat and Rye mingled. ¶ Langued.

Meſcogneu. Il ne s'eſt point meſcogneu. He acknowledged, forgot not, was mindfull, or not ignorant, of.

Meſcognoiſſance: f. Vnacknowledgement, ingratitude, vnthankfullneſſe, churliſhneſſe; ignorance.

Meſcognoiſſant. Vnacknowledging, ignorant; ingratefull, vnreſpective, vnthankfull.

Meſcognoiſtre. To miſtake; ignore; forget; neglect.

Meſcompte: m. A miſreckoning, or wrong accompt; a miſtaking; fayling, or erring, in accompt.

Meſconſeiller. To miſcounſell, miſaduiſe, peruert, ſeduce.

Meſconte: m. as Meſcompte.

Meſconté: m.ée: f. Miſreckoned, miſcompted.

Meſcontentement: m. Diſcontentment, offence, ill ſatisfaction.

Meſcontenter. To diſpleaſe, diſcontent, offend, giue ill ſatisfaction to.

Se meſcontenter de. To take the pet, or pepper in the noſe, at; to be ill ſatisfied with; no way to like, or allow of.

Meſconter. To miſcount, miſreckon; fayle, or erre, in reckoning.

Meſcreable: com. Vnbeleeuable, ſuſpectable, not to be credited, vnfit to be truſted.

Meſcreance: f. Miſcreancie, misbeleefe, a wrong beleefe.

Meſcreant. Miſcreant, misbeleeuing; faithleſſe; incredulous, miſtruſtfull.

Meſcreu. as Meſcru.

Meſcroire. To miſtruſt, ſuſpect, haue little beleefe, put ſmall confidence, in; alſo, to play the miſcreant, or beleeue amiſſe.

Meſcru: m. uë: f. Miſtruſted, ſuſpected, not credited, no way beleeued.

Mes-dames. The title, or ſtile of the French Kings daughters.

Mes-damoiſelles. The title, or ſtile of the French Kings brothers daughters.

Meſdire. To depraue, reproach, reuile; rayle on, detract from, ſpeake ill of.

Meſdiſance. as Meſdiſſon.

Meſdiſant. Reproachfull, detractiue, obloquious, opprobrious, rayling, reuiling.

Il ne ſeroit nuls meſdiſans s'il n'eſtoit des eſcoutans: Pro. There would be none to rayle if none would beare.

Meſdiſſon: f. Reproach, obloquie, detraction, obtrectation, opprobrious ſpeech; reuiling, deprauing, rayling on.

Meſdonner. To miſgiue, or beſtow amiſſe.

Meſe: f. An eighth, or proportion of eight, in Muſicke; alſo, as Mere (wantonly.)

Meſeau: m. A meſelled, ſcruie, leaporous, lazarous perſon.

Plus craſſeux que la taſſe d'un meſeau. See Craſſeux.

Meſel. as Meſeau.

Meſelerie: f. Meſeldneſſe, leaproſie, ſcruineſſe.

Meſeleux: m. euſe: f. Meſeld, leaporous, full of the Scuruie.

Meſelle: f. A leaporous, or ſcruie woman.

Meſellerie: f. as Meſelerie.

Meſelleux. as Meſeleux.

Meſentere: m. The Meſenterium, or the middle of the bowells; or, the fat, thicke, or double skinnes that faſten them to the backe, and each vnto other.

Meſenterique: com. Of, or belonging to, the Meſenterium.

Arteres meſenteriques. Are two; an vpper, which diſtributes it ſelfe among the ſmall guts; and, an vnder one, which goes vnto the lower part of the Meſenterium.

Veines meſenteriques. Looke Veine.

Meſeſcrire. To write ill, or amiſſe, of; to write againſt.

Meſ-eſtimer. To miſeſteeme, or diſeſteeme.

Meſfaire. To wrong, abuſe, miſdoe vnto.

A qui il meſarrive on luy meſfait: Pro. Men (lightly) vſe him ill that hath ill lucke.

Meſfiance: f. Diſtraſt, miſtruſt.

Meſgarde: f. Heedleſneſſe, retchleſneſſe, improuidence, ouerſight, careleſneſſe, lacke of good-take-heed.

Meſgnie: f. A meynie, familie, houſehold; or houſehold ſeruants; Looke Meſnie.

Meſ-

Meſgue: f. Whay.
Mesguis. as Megis.
Meshaigne: com. Peeuiſh, wayward, froward, ill to pleaſe; (the humor of moſt lame perſons.)
Meshain. as Mehaing.
Meshingandé: m. ée: f. (Almoſt) off the hindges; looſe in euerie ioint.
Meshuy. Not to day, not this day, not till to morrow; (a word applyed it. [illegible] the whole later part of the day.)
Meſlange: f. A mixture, medley, meſh; mingling; hotch-pot, gallymaufrey; a compoſition, or collection of many ſeuerall things.
Meſlangé: m. ée: f. Mixed, mingled, melled, blent; iumbled, ſhuffled, budled together.
Meſlanger. To mingle, mix, blend; maſh, mell; iumble, ſhuffle; make a confuſed medley, buddle things together.
Meſlangeur: m. A mingler, mixer, blender; iumbler, ſhuffler, buddler of things together.
Meſle: f. A Medlar. ¶Pic.
Avec le temps, & la paille lon meure les meſles: Prov. Time and affliction ſupple harſheſt natures.
Meſlé: m. ée: f. Mingled, mixed, put among; melled; medled, intermedled; ſhuffled, buddled, or iumbled, with.
Cheveux meſlez. Tangled locks; alſo, gray haires; whence;
Vn homme meſlé. One thats full of gray haires; alſo, a generall ſcholler, one that hath a ſmattering of all Arts.
Peſle meſlé. Pell-mell, confuſedly.
Meſlée: f. A mixture, or medley; a blending, mingling, melling; alſo, a fight, fray, conflict, combat, bickering, battell.
Meſlément. Mixtly, confuſedly, in a buddle, as a hotch-pot, one with another.
Meſler. To mingle, mix, blend, maſh, mell; to buddle, ſhuffle, iumble; confound.
Se meſler de. To meddle, intermeddle, deale with, haue a hand in.
Se meſler du meſtier. Looke Meſtier.
Cela meſlera nos fuſées. That will vnite our cauſes, or make them alike.
Il eſt bien heureux qui ſe meſle de ſes affaires: Prov. Happie is he that followes his owne buſineſſe; Looke Heureux.
Qui ſe meſle d' autruy meſtier il trait ſa vache en vn panier: Prov. Looke Meſtier.
Meſleure: f. A medley, mixture; mingling; medling.
Meſlié. as Meſlé. ¶Vandoſmois.
Meſlier: m. A Medlar tree; alſo (the name of) a fruit full white Vine, whoſe leafe is almoſt round; whence;
Le meſlier commun. The moſt fruitfull kind thereof.
Le franc meſlier. Another, which beares the beſt fruit.
Le gros meſlier. Hath the greateſt ſtocke, and yeelds the greateſt grape.
Meſliers: m. The plurall to Meſlier; alſo, Vines of ſeuerall kinds, and colours growing together.
Meſlinge, & Meſlingé. as Meſlange, & Meſlangé.
Meſlinger. as Meſlanger.
Meſlouër. To diſpraiſe, diſcommend, detract from.
Meſmarché: m. ée: f. Trodden, or gone awry.
Meſmarcher. To tread, or goe awry, to ſet the ſteps amiſſe.
Meſmarchure: f. A wry ſtep, or treading; an ill poſture, or ſetting of the foot in treading; alſo, a wrinch, or ſtraine got in a bone, or ioint by ſuch treading.
Meſme: com. Same, the ſame, ſelfe, the ſelfe-ſame, the verie ſame.
A meſme terre. On the verie ground.
Eſtre à meſmes de quelque choſe. To haue a thing in his power, or choice.
I'eſtois à meſme de ce faire. I was euen readie, or about, to doe this.
I'ay faict de meſme vous. I haue done iuſt as you.
Vous n'eſtes pas à vous meſme. Your wits runne a wooll-gathering; or, you are not well in your wits.
Les Bourgeois (de ce païs) boivent de bon Vin, & leurs ſerviteurs de Meſme: An ordinarie Prouerb in Maine; from the equiuocation betweene this meſme, and Meſme the name of a Riuer in Le Perche.
Meſmement. Namely, eſpecially, chiefely, principally.
Meſmes. The plurall to Meſme; alſo, as Meſmement.
Meſmeté: f. Selfeneſſe, it ſelfe, it owne eſſence, or being.
Meſnage: m. Houſehold-ſtuffe, buſineſſe, or people; a houſehold, familie, or meynie.
Poiſſon de meſnage. as Belenne.
A profit de meſnage. Soundly, throughly, with a witneſſe, without ieasting or dalliance, to ſome purpoſe.
Faire mauvais meſnage enſemble. To agree illfauoredly together.
Remuer meſnage contre. To riſe vp, or make an inſurrection againſt; and hence;
Remueur de meſnage. An vnquiet, ſeditious, turbulent, or troubleſome fellow.
Tout vient à point qui tient meſnage: Prov. All's fiſh that comes to the houſeholders net.
Meſnagé: m. ée: f. Husbanded, thriftily vſed.
Meſnageable: com. Husbandable.
Meſnagement: m. Good husbandrie, thriftineſſe, frugalitie, warineſſe, prouidence; alſo, a husbanding, or thriftie diſpoſall, of things.
Meſnager: m. as Meſnagier; whence the Prouerbe; Prou deſpendre, & peu gaigner ſaccage le meſnager.
Meſnager. To husband, to vſe thriftily, gouerne diſcreetly, make the beſt or moſt of a thing.
Meſnagerément. Frugally, thriftily, prouidently, like a good husband.
Meſnagerie: f. Husbandrie, or huſwiferie; and the vſe, or practiſe thereof.
Meſnagier: m. An husband, an houſeholder.
Vn bon meſnagier. A thriftie, warie, frugall, prouident fellow, one that lookes verie well to his own profit.
Vn mauvais meſnagier. An vnthrift, ſcape-thrift, ſquãder-good, ſpẽd-all, riotous, diſſolute, careleſſe yõker.
Meſnagiere: f. A houſwife, or huſwifelie woman.
Meſnie: f. A meynie, familie, houſehold, houſehold companie, or ſeruants.
De nouveau Seigneur nouvelle meſnie: Pro. New Lords new Lawes.
De tel Seigneur telle meſnie: Pro. Like maiſter like meynie.
Meſoffrir. To vnderbid; to offer leſſe for a thing then tis worth; alſo, to wrong, miſuſe, abuſe.
A qui meſchet on luy meſoffre: Pro. Look Meſcheoir.
Meſolabe: m. An halfe Aſtrolabe; an Inſtrument vſed for the finding out of one, or many proportionall lines.
Meſoüan, ou meſouën. Henceforward, frõ henceforth.
Meſparler. To ſpeak ill, or amiſſe of; to depraue, diſpraiſe, miſterme, detract from.
Meſpartement: m. A misparting; an vnhoneſt, vnfit, or vnſeemelie diuiſion.
Meſpert: m. An halfe-part; or a keeping of a thing for halfe the profit comming of it.

Mesple: f. A Medlar, or Open-arse.
Mesplier: m. A Medlar tree.
Mesplier sauvage. The Hollie, Huluer, Holme tree.
Mesprendre. To erre, mistake; transgresse, offend.
Mespris: m. Despisall, disestimation, contempt, loathing, neglect, careless regard of.
Mesprisant. Contemning, despising, disesteeming, neglecting, heedlesse of.
Mespriſé: m. ée: f. Despised, disesteemed, contemned, neglected, not heeded, nought set by.
Mespriſement: m. A contemning, disesteeming, despising, disdaining, neglecting.
Mespriſer. To disesteeme, contemne, disdaine, despise, neglect, make light of, set nought by.
Mespriſereſſe: f. A coy, squeamish, or scornefull dame.
Mespriſeur: m. A disesteemer, contemner, disdainer, despiser; one that neglects, or makes light accompt of, things.
Mespriſon: f. Mispriſion, error; offence; a thing done, or taken, amisse.
Meſquin: m. A wretch, caitife, sillie groome, poore swaine.
Meſrien, & Meſrin. as Marrein.
Meſſadge, & Meſſadgerie. as Meſſage, & Meſſagerie.
Meſſage: m. A message, errand, embassage; also, a messenger, or embassador.
Meſsager. as Meſſagier.
Meſſagere: f. A she-messenger.
Meſſagerie: f. A messengership; the estate, office, or function of a messenger.
Meſſagier: m. A Messenger; Pursuiuant; Poste; Apostle.
Meſſagier ſolennel. An embassador.
Ne fais pas d'un fol ton meſſagier: Pro. Send not a foole on thine errand, make not a foole thy messenger.
Meſſe: f. The Masse, a Maße.
Meſſe de chaſſeur. A short, or soone-said Masse.
La meſſe Martingault. An Allarum, or Curfue bell, so tearmed by the inhabitants of Touraine.
Enfans de choëur de la meſſe de minuict. Quirresters of midnights Masse; night-walking rakebells, or such as haunt those nightlie Rites, not for any deuotion, but onely to rob, abuse, or play the knaues with, others.
Quand la meſſe fut chantée, ſi fut la Dame parée: Prov. When prayers were ended, Madame ends her pranking.
Meſſeamment. Vnseemely, ill-suitingly, vnhandsomely, ill-fauoredly, with small decorum, or comelineße.
Meſſeance: f. A misbecomming, vnsutableneſſe, vnfitneße, vnseemelineße, ill-fauorednesse.
Meſſeant. Ill-sitting, ill-suiting, misbecomming, vnbeseeming; vnhandsome, vndecent, vncomelie; vnworthie of.
Meſſel: m. A Masse-booke.
Meſſer: m. as Maiſtre; a Maister; whence;
La Caſe monſtre le meſſer: Prov. The house the owner shewes.
Meſſereſque. Generoſité meſſereſque. Italian generousnesse; or, the generositie of Italian gentlemen.
Meſſied. (A verbe Impersonall) Cela meſſied à. Misbecomes, ill becomes, or becomes not; is vnseemelie, vnhandsome, vnfit for, vnworthie of.
Meſſier: m. A keeper, or ouerseer of a Vineyard.
Meſſiffiant. Massing, saying or singing Masse.
Meſſiffier. To sing, or say Masse.
Meſſilier: m. Sergent meſſilier. An officer that lookes vnto Vineyards, and other fruit-bearing grounds.

Meſſion: f. La Meſſion. The Vacation (among Lawyers, and Schollers) during Vintage; for it begins the seuenth of September, and ends about the eleuenth of October. ¶Norm.
Meſſire. Sir; (The title of a Knight; of a Marchant; and of a countrey Curate.)
Meſſottier: m. A massing Priest; or a nickname for him.
Meſtaier. as Meſtayer.
Meſtairie: f. A great
Meſtais. as Meſtayer. beleeu-
Meſtayer: m. A Farmer; a Husbandman, or Plough-man; especially such a one, as by contract, is to yeeld halfe the profits, or increase of his land vnto him of whom he holds it; or such a one, as takes or sowes another mans land to the halues.
Meſtier: m. A Trade, Occupation, Misterie, Handicraft; also, need, lacke, necessitie, want, occasion for the vse, of a thing; also, a Weauers Frame, or Loome; also, the wort of Ale, or Beere; also, a kind of wafer, which is not altogether so thicke as the Gauffre.
Meſtiers. A certaine Game wherein all trades are counterfeited by signes.
Le meſtier de la guerre. The Art of Warre.
Le meſtier ord. Lecherie, or bawderie; Looke Femme.
S'endormir ſur le meſtier. Lastly to foreslow, faint in, or giue ouer, a businesse, when it is at the height, or halfe done.
Se meſler du meſtier. Femmes qui ſe meſlent du meſtier. That deale in the trade you wot of; that trade with their tayles.
Mourir de faim prés le meſtier. To starue in a Cook-shop.
C'eſt meſtier iuré, il n'en eſt pas qui veut: Prov. (Vnderstood of honestie.)
Mieux vault meſtier qu'eſparvier: Prov. Looke Eſparvier.
Qui ſçait meſtier il eſt renté: Pro. The industrious tradesmans rents come in apace; or, he that hath a good trade hath a goodlie reuenue.
Qui ſe meſle d'autruy meſtier il trait ſa vache en vn panier: Prov. As good milke a Cow into a Sive, as deale in an vnknowne Trade.
Meſtif: m. A Mongrell.
Les meſtis. Such as are of a meane estate, or condition.
Meſtif: m. iue: f. Mongrell; halfe the one halfe the other; whence;
Vn chien meſtif. A Mongrell; vnderstood, by the French, especially of a Dog thats bred betweene a Mastiue or great Curre, and a Greyhound.
Meſtivailles: f. Harueſt feasts.
Meſtivales. The same.
Meſtivé: m. ée: f. Reaped, as Corne in Harueſt.
Meſtiver. To reape, to make Harueſt.
Meſtives: f. Harueſt; Corne thats ripe, or readie to be reaped, or alreadie reaped, in Harueſt.
Meſtivier: m. A Reaper, a Harueſt man.
Meſtoyant. Middle, betweene both.
Meſvenir. as Meſadvenir.
Meſurage: m. Measurage; a measuring.
Droict de meſurage. The appointing, or proportioning of Measures, or the setting downe of their Assise, within a Territorie, belongs to none vnder the degree of a Lord Chaſtellain; for the authoritie of the Haut Iuſticier extends no further then to a bare examination of their iustnesse; also, Toll-Corne, and Toll-Salt.
Meſurant. Measuring, meating.

Mesure mesurante. The vessell, or instrument wherewith a thing is measured.

Mesure: f. A measure; scantling, rule, square, proportion, size; an instrument, or vessell of measuring; also, modulation, or time, in Musicke; also, a measure, meane, moderation, temperature; also, a particular Corne-measure containing about a bushell and a halfe. For land there be foure kinds of Mesures in France; one consisting of 22 foot to the P[illegible], and 100 Perches (in square) to the Arpent; T[illegible]nd (more common then that) of 20 foot to the Per[illegible], and 100 Perches to the Arpent; The third (least in vse) of 19 foot and a third to the Perch, and 100 Perches to the Arpent; The last (and most vsuall one) of 18 foot to the Perch, and (as in the rest) 100 Perches to the Arpent.

Mesure d'un moulin. A Mill-hopper.

Mesure de Roy. Looke Roy.

Appetissement de mesure. A certaine Impost vpon Wine retayled within Tours, Mehun sur Eure, Vierzon, and some other Townes; leuied towards the reparation of their walls, gates, bridges, causeyes, pauements, &c.

La petite mesure. The same.

A mesure que. As, euen as, still as, euer as; by how much, or looke how much that.

Oultre mesure. Profusely, excessiuely, vnmeasurably, extreamely.

Guider n'est pas iuste mesure: Prov. Coniecture is no iust measure; the iust conclude not by imagination; He often wrongs both himselfe and others, who makes a certain estimate, or giues a finall iudgement, vpon the first, or outward apparance of things.

Mesuré: m. ée: f. Measured, meated, proportioned, ruled, squared out; valued, rated; weighed, examined; moderated, tempered.

Mesure mesurée. The size, or quantitie of that which is measured.

Mesurement: m. A measuring, a meating.

Mesu[illegible] To measure, meat, proportion, rule; square out; examine, weigh; rate, value, esteeme; temper, qualifie, moderate.

Mesurer les sauts des puces. To loose time, or spend it most idly, fondly, vainely.

Qui mesure l'huile il s'en oingt les mains: Prov. Looke Huile.

Mesureur: m. A measurer, meater, surueyor.

Mes-usage: m. Misusage, bad vsage, ill handling.

Met: m. Sometimes vsed (by the Parisians) in stead of Maistre.

Met: f. A kneading trough, or tub; also, a binne to keepe bread in; also, the trough, gutter, or furrow of a Wine-presse; that whereinto the Wine falleth.

Metacarpe: m. The vpper part of the hand from the wrist to the knuckles, or the root of the fingers.

Metagraboulizé: m. ée: f. Puzzled in, dunced vpon.

Metagraboulizer. To dunce vpon, to puzzle, or (too much) beat the braines about.

Metail: m. Meßlin, or Maßlin; Wheat and Rye mingled, sowed, and vsed together.

Metairie: f. A Farme, Tenement, Countrey house.

Metais: m. A Farmer, or Husbandman; for he holds not by rent, &c; but onely tills, and orders the Farme as seruant vnto the owner.

Metaise: f. Such a Farmers wife.

Metal: m. Mettall, mettle.

Metalepse: f. A figure whereby a word is put from it proper signification.

Metalier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, mettall; full of, or abounding with, mettall.

Metallé: m. ée: f. Made mettall, reduced into mettall.

Metallier: m. A mettall-man; one that deales in mettalls.

Metallurgie: f. A search, or searching for mettall in the bowells of the earth.

Metamorphose: f. A Metamorphosis; a transformation of shape.

Metamorphoser. To transforme; to alter, or change the shape of.

Metaphore: f. A Metaphor; the translation, or change of a word out of it proper, into another, sence.

Metaphoriquement. Metaphorically, by translation, figuratiuely.

Metaphrene: m. That part of the backe which is ouer-against the heart.

Metaposcopie: f. A mans phisiognomie.

Metayer: m. A Farmor, or Husbandman; properly one that takes grounds to the halues; or binds himselfe, by contract, to answer vnto him, of whom he holds them, halfe, or a great part, of the profits thereof.

Metayere: f. (Such) a Farmers wife, or woman Farmer.

Metayerie: f. A Farme; also, the reuenues thereof.

Metayse. as Metaise; and as Metayerie.

Mete: f. A limit, bound; end.

Meteil. as Metail; also, typhe wheat, bearded wheat, flat wheat, Roman wheat.

Metelle. Noix metelle. The thorne apple, or thornie apple of Peru; an Indian nut, or fruit, which being eaten off, causeth an extreame vnmeasse, heauinesse, or drowsinesse.

Metempsicose: f. The transmigration, or passage of the soule from one bodie to another; (Pithagoras error.)

Meteore: m. A meteor; an imperfect mixture bred in the ayre.

Meteorologie: f. A discourse of Meteors.

Methelle. Noix methelle. as Metelle.

Methode: f. A methode; a short, readie, and orderlie course for the teaching, learning, or doing of a thing.

Methodique: com. Methodicall, orderlie.

Methridat: m. Methridate; a strong Treacle, or Preseruatiue deuised at first by the Pontian King, Mithridates.

Metiz: m. Mongrells; or, as Metis.

Metope: f. A Metope; a square space between Trigliphes in a Dorick frize.

Metopomantie: f. Diuination by the face. ¶Rab.

Metoyant. Diuiding into halues, parting in two; also, equally belonging to, or depending on, two; whence;

Mur metoyant. A partition wall.

Metre: m. Meeter.

Metrifié: m. ée: f. Made into meeter, put into verse.

Mets: m. as Més; a meße, course, or seruice of meat; also, a house, or tenement; and hence;

Chef mets. The principall Mannor-house of a succession, or familie. ¶Norm.

Mettable: com. Passable, allowable, of good sufficiencie, of currant value.

Mettant. Putting, setting, placing; pitching, planting; grounding, situating; bringing, sending.

Mette: f. (The drinke) Meade.

Metteur; & encherisseur de fermes. A chapman for Farmes; one that bids readily, or roundly for a Farme which is to be let.

Mettre: m. A Corne-measure in some parts of Burgundie, containing the halfe of a Bichot, or two & a halfe of that countrey bushels.

Mettre. To put, ſet, lay; place, pitch, plant, ſituate, ground; thruſt into; alſo, to bring, reduce, or ſend.
Se mettre à. To addreſſe, addict, or deuote himſelfe; to fall vnto, or goe in hand with.
Mettre aux ambles. To bring a man into a faire traine or forwardneſſe, of ſpeaking or doing a thing, before he know how he was drawne vnto it.
Mettre en avant. To produce, publiſh, diuulge, broach, or bring vp; to mention, alledge, exhibit, preferre, propound.
Mettre quelqu'un en avant. To forward, aduance, promote.
Mettre en barbe à. To oppoſe againſt, or confront with.
Mettre bas; whence, La lice a mis bas. The bitch hath whelped.
Mettre au bas. To depoſe, debaſe, deiect.
Mettre à la beſace. To beggar, impouerish, ruine, vndoe.
Mettre à blanc. To ſtrip, ranſacke; rifle, or depriue of all he hath; to turne into his ſhirt.
Mettre haut le blanc à la butte. To rate exceeding highly.
Mettre la bride ſur le col à. Seeke Bride.
Mettre ſur le bureau. To fall in talke of, to bring vpon the ſtage; alſo, to bring (a ſuit) vnto a publike hearing.
Mettre la campane au chat. To ſet at odds, or variance, to cauſe a difference, breed a quarrell betweene.
Mettre aux champs. Looke Champ.
Se mettre aux champs. To braue it, or put the better leg before; alſo, to roaue, roame, or fly out.
Mettre au chandelier. To vſe; intertaine, accept of.
Mettre les clefs ſur la foſſe. See Clef.
Mettre au contraire. To oppoſe, or obiect againſt.
Mettre corps, & cœur. To labour tooth and nayle.
Mettre de cul. To ouerturne, ouerthrow; confound; ouercome, vndoe.
Mettre ſur les dents. To bring vpon his knees; or, as in Dent.
Mettre par deſſus. To caſt, or heape vpon; to couer with; to lay ouer.
Mettre au devant. To oppoſe, or obiect againſt; alſo, as Mettre en avant.
Mettre en deux. (Of a Cloth, Couerlet, &c.) to double.
Mettre le doigt entre le bois & l'eſcorce. To be medling in, or verie buſie with, matters which belong vnto neere friends; alſo, to ſet them at odds.
Mettre de l'eau dedans le vin à. To temper, coole, tame, or take a hole lower. Il mit de l'eau dedans leur vin. He gaue them water to coole their pottage with.
Mettre par eſcrjt. To couch, digeſt, ſet downe in, commit vnto, writing; to record.
Mettre tout par eſcuelles. To make all ſplit;
Mettre à l'eſſor. To weather; ſoake, draine; Looke Eſſor.
Mettre eſtat en la cauſe. To ſtop, or ſtay the proceedings of the cauſe.
Se mettre apres ſon eſteuf. Looke Eſteuf.
Mettre la faucille en la moiſſon d'autruy. To thruſt his fingers into the diſh, his oare into the boat, that belongs vnto another.
Mettre à la flac. To ſquat, flat, ſquaſh, clap or poſſe downe; to giue a violent, or terrible fall vnto; hence, vtterly to ruine, or vndoe on a ſuddaine; alſo, to emptie a purſe; (of the flapping ſound of an emptie purſe.)
Mettre à fonds. To ſinke a Ship, &c.
Mettre en ieu. To produce, exhibit, ſhew forth; alſo, to ſtake at play.
Mettre au large. To diſplay, ſpread open, extend, inlarge.
Mettre ſa legitime au vent. Seeke Legitime.
Mettre à la litiere. To turne vnto baſe vſes, or tread vnder foot.
Mettre la main au baſton, ou à la verge. To part from, or diſpoſſeſſe himſelfe of, an Inheritance, by deliuering, in his Landlord's preſence, a rod, or little ſticke to the partie to whom he paſſes it.
Mettre la main ſur le collet de. To arreſt, or ſeize on, to take priſoner.
Mettre la main iuſques au coude. Looke Main.
Mettre la main à l'heritage. To fall downe vpon the hands.
Mettre la main à la paſte. To yeeld a helping hand vnto.
Mettre la main à la verge. Looke Verge.
Mettre ad metam non loqui. To driue to a nonplus, to put vnto ſilence.
Mettre à neant. To raze, abrogate, antiquate, auoid, make void.
Mettre au net. To clenſe, poliſh, trimme, ſmooth, make neat; alſo, to cleere, expound, explane; alſo, to write a thing faire.
Se mettre à l'ombre des bouchons. To get him into a Tauerne, to take ſanctuarie in a Tap-houſe.
Mettre in pace. To burie; (a Frierlie phraſe.)
Mettre la paille au devant de. To hinder, ſtop, interrupt, lay a blocke in the way of.
Mettre vn pain au four à. To doe a pleaſure (and ſometimes, a diſpleaſure) vnto.
Mettre en panne. Looke Panne.
Mettre peine. To labour, indeauour, trauell, toyle, beſtow much care, or great paines vpon.
Mettre à plein pied; &, ſur le plein pied. Looke Pied.
Mettre ſous pieds. To forgiue, and forget.
Mettre toutes pierres en œuvre. To make vſe of any thing; to vſe all the meanes, or imploy all the friends, he can make.
Mettre à la pile. Seeke Pile.
Mettre ſa plume au vent. To grow deſperate, careleſſe, retchleſſe.
Mettre à point. To garniſh, decke, tricke vp, ſet out; to dreſſe, make readie, furniſh with all the implements belonging to it.
Mettre au pouls failli. Seeke Pouls.
Mettre à raiſon. To reduce into, or compell vnto, order; Looke Raiſon.
Mettre ſur les rangs. To propound, mention, ſet on foot, fall in talke, begin a diſcourſe of; alſo, to flowt, mocke, deride, or ieaſt at.
Mettre au rouët. To plunge, gravell, confound. Looke Rouët.
Mettre le ſien. Il ſçait bien ou il met le ſien. He is a verie warie fellow.
Mettre ſus à; ou, mettre à ſus. To accuſe of, impute vnto, or charge with, a matter.
Mettre en ſa table. Looke Table.
Mettre à terre. To ſet aſhore; alſo, to hale, or draw aſhore.
Mettre en terre. To burie, or interre; to couer with, or put into, the earth.
Mettre par terre. To ruine, ouerthrow, pull downe.
Mettre en teſte à. To induce, perſwade, put into the head, or braines of; alſo, to confront with, or againſt.

On

On luy mettra la teſte aux pieds. He muſt be beheaded, they will haue his head.
Mettre en train. To introduce, exhibit; make an ouerture, ſet forward, breake the yce, or ſhew the way, vnto.
Mettre en vente. To expoſe vnto ſale.
Mais ſi ie m'y mets. But if I fall in hand with it, if I vndertake it, if I ſet to it.
Mettez fol à par ſoy, il penſera: Prov. Leaue a foole to himſelfe, and he will thinke, or (perhaps) make an end of the matter.
Mets raiſon en toy, ou elle s'y mettra: Prov. Hearken to reaſon, or ſhe will be heard; Let reaſons rudder ſteere thy prow, leaſt thou make wrecke on woes enow.
Metz: m. A meſſuage, tenement, or plow-land: ¶Wallon.
Meu: m. meuë: f. Moued; ſtirred; remoued; iogged, wagged; troubled; alſo, induced, inclined, perſuaded.
Ou eſt meu le hourd. Where the ſcuffling is begun; where blows begin to walk, thumps to be giuẽ, thwacks to be dealt.
Meuble: m. A mouable, or thing mouable; alſo, houſhold ſtuffe, implements, or furniture.
Les meubles ſuivent la perſonne. Looke Perſonne.
Meuble: com. Mouable, mouing.
Terre meuble. Soft, and ſhort earth (made ſo by often ſtirring.)
Meublé: m. ée: f. Furniſhed with mouables, (well) ſtored with houſhold ſtuffe.
Meubler. To furniſh with mouables, to ſtore with houſehold ſtuffe.
Meuf: m. The Mood of a Verbe.
Meuglé: m. ée: f. Lowed, bellowed.
Meuglement: m. A lowing, or bellowing.
Meugler. To low, to bellow.
Meule: f. A mill-ſtone; alſo, a grindleſtone; alſo, the cabbadge of a Deeres head; alſo, a ſlacke, troden cocke, or great cocke, of hay.
Meulette: f. A little Mill-ſtone, or grindleſtone.
Meulier: m. ere: f. Grinding; or belonging to a mill-ſtone, or grindleſtone.
Dents meulieres. The cheeke-teeth, or grinders.
Meulon de foin. A cocke of hay.
Meulonner. To make vp hay into cocks, or ſtacks.
Meulot: m. A little cocke of hay.
Meur. Looke Mur.
Meur: m. meure: f. Ripe, mature, mellow; alſo, diſcreet, conſiderate, aduiſed, ſettled, ſtayed.
Il en aura des plus meures du panier. He ſhall bee throughly payed, ſoundly handled, roundly dealt with.
Donner entre deux vertes vne meure. To ſeaſon matters, to iumble good and bad together.
Toutes heures ne ſont pas meures: Pro. All houres are not ſucceſſiue, or ſeaſonable.
Meure: f. A Mulberrie.
Meure de ronce. The blacke-berrie, or bramble-berrie.
Il ne faut aller aux meures ſans crochet: Prov. We muſt not goe about a buſineſſe without helpes to facilitate, and meanes to effect it.
Meurement. Ripely, maturely; diſcreetly, aduiſedly.
Meureté: f. Maturitie, ripeneſſe.
Meuri: m. Ripened, growne ripe.
Meurier: m. A mulberrie tree; of two principall kinds, a white, and a blacke one.
Meurier blanc. The white Mulberrie, is of 3 kinds; one bearing a white, another a red, and the third (and beſt) a blacke, berrie.

Meuriere: f. A ground, or groue of Mulberrie trees.
Meurir. To ripen, to make ripe.
Meuriſſon: f. A ripening; a making, or growing ripe.
Meurler. To low, to bellow.
Meurlon: m. The name of a certaine white vine, or grape.
Meurole de pommes. A hoord of apples.
Meuron: m. A blacke, or bramble-berrie.
Meurs: m. Manners, conditions, qualities, faſhions, cuſtomes, behauiour, carriage.
Meurte: m. The Mirtle-tree, or ſhrub; (ſweet-leaued, and euer full of leaues.)
Meurte blanc. The white Mirtle; hath ſmooth light-greene leaues, and beares white berries.
Meurte de Brabant. The ſweet ſhrub Gaule, or ſweet willow; the Dutch Mirtle tree.
Meurte eſtrange. The ſtrange, or forreine Mirtle; fuller of leaues (and thoſe broader pointed) then the ordinarie one.
Meurte des foreſts. A certaine hearbe whoſe tender ſprigs being ſodden are verie good meat; it beares a white flower, and reſembles Oake-fearne.
Meurte noir. Th'ordinarie Mirtle; or, any kind af Mirtle that beares a black berrie, and leaues of a darker greene then the white.
Meurte ſauvage. The wild Mirtle tree, or Mirtle ſhrub; alſo, Butchers Broome, Pettigree, Knee-holme.
Meurte de Tarente. Noble Mirtle; the leaſt, moſt common, beſt, and beſt knowne of all the reſt.
Oiſeau de meurte. A Mirtle Thruſh.
Meurtre: m. Murther, Homicide.
Meurtri: m. ie: f. Murthered; alſo, cruſhed, bruiſed, wan, lew, or bleake with beating, beaten blacke and blew.
Meurtrier: m. A murtherer, homicide, cut-throat, bloudie fellow.
Meurtrier: m. ere: f. Murthering, murtherous.
Meurtriere: f. A murthering peece.
Meutrieres. Holes (in that part of a rampire that hangs ouer the gate) whereat the aſſailed let fall ſtones on the heads of their too neere approaching aduerſaries.
Meurtrierement. Murtherouſly, cruelly, cut-throat-like.
Meurtrir. To murther, kill, ſlay, maſſacre; alſo, to bruiſe, or cruſh.
Meurtriſſure: f. A cruſhing, or bruiſing of the fleſh; alſo, the wan marke, or print of a ſtroake.
Meuſnier. A Miller; Seeke Munier; or Muſnier.
Meuſnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Mill, or Miller.
Meuſniere: f. A Millers wife, or woman Miller.
Meute: f. A kennell, or crie, of hounds.
Bailler la meute, & route à vn cerf. To follow him with a full crie.
Mex: m. A plow-land, and tenement thereto belonging; See Mas.
Meyans. as Means.
Meyme: f. Dung, durt, filthie, ordure.
Mezarin: m. A Phyſician: ¶Rab.
Meze: f. An vntilled waſt, or champian, wherein many ſeuerall mens cattell runne: ¶Auvergnois.
Mezeau. as Meſeau.
Mezelle: f. A kind of braſſe, or copper, good to make ordnance of.
Mezellerie: f. Mezeldneſſe, leaproſie.
Mezenge. Looke Meſange.

Me-

Mezereon: m. Dutch Mezereon, German Olive Spurge, Dwarfe Bay tree: (a small shrub.)
Mial. for Miel. Honie: ¶Norm.
Miaulement: m. A mewling, or mewing.
Miauler. To mewle, or mew, like a cat.
Miauleur: m. A mewler, or mewer.
Miauleux: m. euſe: f. Mewling, or mewing.
Miault: m. A mewing, or counterfeit voyce of wayling.
Mibaudichon. faire le mib. To doe a thing fooliſhly, or ill-fauouredly; vnhandſomely to goe about it.
Mibrutal: m. ale: f. Sauage, vnciuile, barbarous, halfe beaſt-like; almoſt as rude as a beaſt.
Micacollier: m. The Lote, or Nettle tree.
Miche: f. A certaine worme that feedeth on Bees; alſo, a fine Manchet, or, particularly, that kind of Manchet which is otherwiſe tearmed, Pain de chapitre: The countrey people of France call ſo alſo, a loafe of boulted bread, or Tems bread.
Miches du Convent militaire. Bullets, or ſtones.
Miches de S. Eſtienne. Stones.
Michel: m. Michael.
L' Ordre de S. Michel. Seeke Ordre.
Michelot: m. A Pilgrim to S. Michaels Mount.
Michemis: m. A Turkiſh fruict that ſomewhat reſembles the Apricocke.
Michette: f. A ſmall Manchet.
Michon: m. A ſot, blocke, dunce, doult, a iobbernoll, dullard, loggerhead.
Miclette: f. (The name of) a moſt excellent compoſition that ſtops all kinds of fluxes, and dries vp the ſuperfluous moiſture of the bodie.
Micocoules: f. Lote berries (be round, and hang by long ſtaulkes like Cherries.)
Micocoulier: m. The Lote, or Nettle, tree.
Micocoulier d' Afrique. Th' African Lote, or Nettle, tree; of whoſe blacke wood excellent Flutes are made.
Micourber. To bend, or bow himſelfe a prettie deale; almoſt, or halfe to double.
Micraine. as Migraine.
Microcoſme: m. A little world.
Microiſt. Looke My-croiſt.
Mideloret. (Coyned in deriſion of our) My Lord.
Midenier: m. Halfe a pennie, or halfe a fine.
Mideronner. To ſleepe in th' afternoone: ¶Norm.
Midi: m. Midday, noone; alſo, the South.
Poids de Midi. One of the Pyrrhenian mountaines, tearmed ſo, becauſe the Sunne lyes euer on it about noone.
Vent de Midi. The Southerne wind.
Cercher Midi ou il n'eſt qu' onze heures. To looke for a thing before it be readie to come; to picke a quarell without cauſe, or find a fault where there is none; alſo, to ſeeke for his owne hurt, or ſtriue to procure his owne harme.
`A midi eſtoille ne luit: Prov. Euerie thing hath it ſeaſon; and, he that looks for night at noone-dayes may well be tearmed mad, or blind.
Midy. as Midi.
Mie de pain. The crumme, or pith of bread.
Mie. (Adverb.) Not, not at all, no wayes, by no manner of meanes.
Mie en piece. Not of a long time, not of a great while.
Miel: m. Honie; alſo, ſweetneſſe.
Miel anacardin. A venomous, and exulcerating oyle found betweene the kernell, and outward rind of the fruit Anacardium.
Miel cuict. A kind of ſweet meat, or pancake made of, or ſeaſoned with, honie.
Miel Heracléen. Heraclian honie; cleeres the skin, and takes away the blacke ſpots that come by cruſhes, or bruiſes; but in lieu thereof, makes them ſneeze that ſmell at it, and mad that eat of it.
Miel vierge. Virgins honie, the honie which of it ſelfe, and without preſſing, diſtills from the combe.
Celuy gouverne bien mal le miel qui n'en taſte, & ſes doigts n'en leche: Prov. We ſay, he is an ill Cooke that lickes not his owne fingers; One may ſay, he is vnwiſe, who in the managing of publicke buſineſſe addes not ſomewhat vnto his priuate.
Qui n'a argent en bourſe, ait du moins du miel en bouche: Prov. He that hath not meanes to pay, at leaſt muſt frame his mouth to pray.
Trop achepte le miel qui ſur eſpines le leche: Pro. He buyes honie too deere that lickes it off thornes.
Vn'Abeille morte ne fait plus de miel: Prov. A dead thing is good for nothing.
Mielleuſement. Honie-like, ſweetly, deliciouſly, luſhiouſly.
Mielleux: m. euſe: f. Sweet, luſhious, delicious.
Miellier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, honie, full of honie, bearing honie.
Mielſaude. Metheglin; or honie ſodden, & therby made into drinke.
Mien: m. enne: f. Mine.
Il eſt des miens. He is one of my ſeruants, people, followers; he is of my traine.
Mies mies. The crie of new-borne children: ¶Rab.
Mi-eſté: f. Midſummer.
Mi-eſtoupement: m. An halfe-ſtopping.
Mieſure: com. as Mieſureux.
Mieſureſſe: f. Incontinencie, wantonneſſe, leacherie, laſciuiouſneſſe, luſtfulneſſe.
Mieſureux: m. euſe: f. Incontinent, laſciuious, wanton, leacherous, luſtfull, that loues to be fygging.
Miettes: f. Crummes, ſcraps, ſmall fragments, or mammockes of bread, &c.
Mieulx. Looke Mieux.
Müiere: com. Malapert, outragious, euer doing one miſchiefe, or other; or as Mieſureux.
Mieüresse: f. A ſaucie queane, a bold, impudent, or vnchaſt houſewife.
Mieux. Better; alſo, beſt.
Au mieux aller (ou faire, ou venir.) Fall out what can; let the beſt come to the beſt.
`A qui mieux mieux. The beſt take it, or, ſtriuing who ſhall doe beſt.
I'aimeroye mieux. I had rather, I would leuer.
Migeotté: m. ée: f. Well ripened, fully ripe: ¶Norm.
Migeotter. To ripen fully: ¶Norm.
Mignard: m. arde: f. Mignard, prettie, quaint, neat, feat; wanton; daintie, delicate.
Mignard en paroles. Faire-ſpoken, ſmooth-tongued, gently languaged; plauſible in ſpeech.
Mignardé: m. ée: f. Dandled, fadled, cockered, much cheriſhed, made a wanton.
Mignardelet: m. ette: f. Prettie, daintie, feat, peart.
Mignardement. Prettily, quaintly, neatly, finely, featly, daintily, wantonly; gently, ſmoothly, plauſibly.
Mignarder. To lull, fadle, dandle, cheriſh, wanton-like, cocker much, or make a wanton of.
Mignardeur: m. A luller, dandler, cheriſher; a ſoother, ſmoother, flatterer.
Mignardiſe: f. Quaintneſſe, neatneſſe, daintineſſe, delicacie, wantonneſſe; ſmooth or faire ſpeech, kind vſage.

Mig-

Mignardiſer. as Mignarder.
Mignie: m. A troupe, companie, or meinie; alſo, as Meignie.
Mignon: m. A minion, fauorite, wanton, dilling, darling.
Mignon: m.onne: f. Minion, daintie, neat, ſpruce, compt, fine, elegant, polite; alſo, pleaſing, gentle, kind.
Argent mignon. Readie money.
Dain mignon. A tame Deere.
Mignonne. ſa mignonne. His ſweeting, or ſweet-hart, his prettie minion, his louelie delight.
Mignonnement. Minionly, minion-like.
Mignonnet: m. A prettie, or young minion; a minikin.
Mignonneté: f. Minioniſme, quaintneſſe, trimneſſe, delicacie, ſpruceneſſe, featneſſe, fineſſe.
Mignonnette. as Mignonne.
Mignot: m. A wanton, feddle, fauourite; a dilling, dandling, darling.
Mignotement: m. as Mignotiſe.
Mignotement. Tenderly, nicely, fauorably, kindly, gently, cheriſhingly.
Mignoter. To dandle, feddle, cocker, cheriſh, handle gently, intertaine kindly, vſe tenderly, make a wanton of.
Mignotiſe: f. A dandling, fedling, cockering, cheriſhing, gentle handling, tender vſage; [illegible], wantonneſſe; tameneſſe, gentleneſſe.
Mignotises. Prettie dainties, or trinkets; fine toyes; affected delights.
Migraine: f. The Megrim, or head-ach; alſo, a Pomegranet; alſo, the great Sea-vrchin; alſo, Scarlet, or Purple in graine.
Migraine de feu. A ſticke, or brand of fire; alſo, a ball of wildfire.
Migration: f. A migration, a remouing, or ſhifting of places.
Migrelin: m. A ſmall thinne ſcrag, or tender ſtaruelling.
Migrer. To remoue, to flit, or ſhift from one place to another.
Mi-jour: m. Midday, Noone.
Mil: m. (The graine) Mill, Millet, Hirſe; Looke Millet.
Mil Sarraſin. French-wheat, Bucke-wheat, Bolymong.
Milace: f. A kind of the Holme, or Scarlet, Oake.
Milacié: m. ée: f. Mill-eating, millet-fed; a nicke-name for the Gaſcon, whoſe bread is, for the moſt part, made of Millet.
Milaire: m. A mile; alſo, as Cenchrite.
Milan: m. A Kite, Puttocke, Glead; alſo (the name of) a delicate peare.
Milan marin. A Gilden-pole, or kind of Gurnard, that ſhines in the night, and before change of weather flies (or ſeemes to flie) a little aboue the water.
Milan Royal. Th'ordinarie Kite, or Glead.
Pied de Milan. The hearbe Kites-foot.
Milandre. A little Dog-fiſh thats mortall enemie to mankind.
Miliart. Looke Milliart.
Miliaſſe: f. Thouſands, or, a huge number of; (derined, by the vulgar, from vne Ilias.)
Milice: f. warlike diſcipline, warfare.
La celeſtielle milice. The hoaſt of heauen.
Milieu: m. The middeſt, middle, or center of.
Dame du milieu. Seeke Dame.
Militaire: com. Militarie, martiall, warlicke, ſouldier-like.
Herbe militaire à millefueilles. Knights Milfoile, ſouldiers Yarrow.
Militer. To warre, goe a warfaring, be in warres, practiſe the feats of warre; to ſouldierize it.
Mille. A thouſand.
Millefeuil: m. as Millefueille.
Millefueille: f. Milfoile, noſe-bleed Yarrow, common Yarrow.
Millefueille aquatique. Water Yarrow; alſo, water Sengreene, water Houſleeke, Knights Pondwort, wading Pondweed, freſh-water ſouldier.
Millefueille grande. Great Yarrow (differs from the ordinarie one in onely bigneſſe.)
Millefueille iaulne. Knights Milfoile, ſouldiers Yarrow, yellow knighten Yarrow, yellow or little Yarrow.
Millefueille petite. The ſame.
Millegraine: f. Oake of Jeruſalem, Oake of Paradice; (an hearbe.)
Millene: f. vne mil. d'années. A thouſand of yeares.
Millepertuis: m. S. Iohns wort, S. Iohns graſſe.
Millepieds: m. The worme, or vermine; called a Palmer.
Milleraie: f. A peece of ground ſowed with Millet; a Millet-ground.
Milleret: m. A Middle Ray, the halfe of a Milleray; a peece of gold worth almoſt 7 s. ſterl.
Millerine: f. The ſtraw, or ſtubble of Millet.
Millefoudiers: m. Old maimed ſouldiers; ſuch as haue a thouſand ſous (or 5 l. ſterl.) of yearelie penſion.
Millet: m. Millet, Mill, Hirſe.
Millet d'Inde. Mais, Turkie corne, Turkie wheat.
Millet noir. Blacke Millet; and, as Millet de Turquie.
Millet Sarraſin. French-wheat, Bucke-wheat, Bolymong.
Millet de Turquie. Turkie Hirſe, Turkie Mill, blacke Millet.
Percer vn grain de Millet d'vn tarriere. To performe impoſſibilities.
Milliart: m. A thouſand millions of millions.
Millier: m. vn millier. A thouſand; a proportion, or number, of a thouſand.
Millier: m.ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a thouſand.
Milliesme. la milliesme partie. The thouſandth part.
Milliet: m. A ſerpent of a greeniſh colour.
Million: m. A million; ten hundred thouſand.
Millon: m. A kind of flint, or hard ſtone.
Milloque: f. Furmentie, or pottage, made of Millet: Rab.
Milods: m. Halfe-fines due in caſes of collaterall ſucceſſion vnto Cenſuel inheritance (as in Lodunois) or in caſes of Donation (as in Dauphine.)
Milort: m. My Lord; or as Monſeigneur (a word borrowed of, and imployed on, vs.)
Milrai: m. A Milleray; a coyne of gold worth betweene 13 and 14 ſhillings ſterl.
Milret. as Milleret.
Mime: m. A vice, foole, ieaſter, ſcoffer, dauncer, in a Play; alſo, a fooliſh, wanton, ſhameleſſe, ridiculous Poeme, part, or Play; alſo, a graue, and ſententious Poeme.
Mi-more: com. Swartie, blackiſh, halfe-Moore.
Minage: m. A meaſuring of corne by the Mine; whence;
Droict de minage. A fee due vnto ſome Lords vpon euerie Mine of corne thats meaſured within their territorie.
Minatere: m. A Miner, mine-man, mine-digger.

Mi-

Minau: m. A corne measure; as Mine.
Minauderies: f. Foolish trickes, apish pranks, mumpings, mowings.
Mince: com. Thinne, fine, slender, little, small.
Mincé: m. ée: f. Minced, cut verie small.
Mince-fueille: f. Feather few, fidder few, feauer few, Whitewort, called also, Motherwort, because tis good against the disease of the Mother (yet is not this the right Motherwort:)
Mince-fueilles. Thinne leaued, or hauing thinne leaues; whence; Armoise mince-fueilles. Thinne-leaued Mugwort.
Mincelet: m. ette: f. Somewhat thin, verie fine, small, slender.
Mincément. Thinly, slenderly, smally.
Mincer. To mince; to shred, or cut into small peeces.
Minceté: f. Thinnesse, exilitie, slenderneſſe, littlenesse, smallnesse.
Minchon: m. A sot, blockhead, loggerhead.
Mine: f. (The halfe of a Sextier, and 24 part of a Muid) A measure for graine, &c, containing somewhat lesse then two of our (London) Bushells; (if, as Nicot saith, it weighes but 110 pounds: But Vigenere vpon Liuie affirmes, that the Mine of wheat weighes about 120 pounds; marrie in Rie, sayes he, it comes but to 110;) also, a Mine, or caue digged vnder ground; also, a mine, or veine of mettall, &c.
Mine de Clermont (pour le bled.) Is the 12 part of a Muid; or iust as big againe as th'ordinarie one.
Mine de Paris. as th'ordinarie Mine.
Mine de plomb. An Orenge tawnie minerall vsed by Painters.
Plomb de mine. Blacke lead.
Mine de terre en la Chastellenie de Bulles. Containes 50 Verges of 24 foot to the Verge.
Mine de terre en Clermont. Containes 60 Verges of 22 foot to the Verge.
Mine de terre en la Seigneurie de Remy. Containes 80 Verges, at 22 foot and the third part of a foot to the Verge.
Mine: f. The countenance, looke, cheere, visage; the gesture, or posture of the face; also, fauor, phisnomie, feature, outward face, or shew.
Faire mine. To seeme, or make a shew of; whence;
Ce ne sont que mines.
Faire mines. To make faces.
Faire des mines. The same; also, to make an adoe, or shew of loathnesse to be drawne to a thing.
Faire la mine. To lowt, or lowre vpon.
Faire les mines. To make (strange) faces; also, to act, or play on a stage.
Faire bonne mine. To excuse, colour, beare out a matter handsomely; to set a good face on't, to make a good shew.
Faire bonne mine, & mauvais ieu. To set a good face on a bad matter; to beare out crosses with a cheerefull countenance; to affront miseries with a shew of mirth.
Il y a plus de mine que de ieu. There is more shew then substance, more ceremonie then soliditie, in it.
Miné: m. ée: f. Mined, undermined, supplanted; also, worne, or fretted away.
Miner. To mine, or vndermine; to supplant; weare, consume, or fret away.
Mineral: m. A minerall; a thing found growing in Mines; (hence) also, mettall.
Mineur: m. An infant; one that's in minoritie, or vnder age; also, a Miner, mine-denisor, mine-maker; also, as Miniere; whence;
Qui n'a mineur n'a honneur: Prov. He that wants money wants honour.
Mineur: f. The minor proposition of a syllogisme.
Mineure: f. as Miniere.
Mineux: m. euse: f. Outward, seeming, apparent; belonging to, or consisting in, the countenance, or gesture of the face; also, squeamish, quaint, coy, that minces it exceedingly; also, mining, or vndermining; also, full of mines.
Mingant: m. A broth thats thickened with the meale of pounded roots.
Mingrelet: m. ette: f. Thinne, gaunt, lanke, slender, leane, scraggie, meager.
Miniere: f. A mine of mettalls, or meralls.
Minime: m. A name of Friers instituted by François de Paule; a man renowned for holinesse of life during the raigne of Lewis th'eleuenth; who sent for him into France, in a hope, that by his meanes his life should bee prolonged.
Couleur de minimes. A light soot colour, hauing an eye of gray in it.
Gris de minime. The same.
Minime (blanche.) A Minume, in Musicke.
Minime noire. A Crochet.
Minime: com. The least, or smallest.
Minion: m. Synople, red lead, Vermillion; Painters red made of burned Ceruse.
Ministre: m. A Minister, Seruant; Officer; Deputie; Assistant; Instrument.
Ministres du Roy. His Agents; those that negociate, or deale, for him.
Ministré: m. ée: f. Ministred, serued; assisted; offered, yeelded, affoorded vnto.
Ministreau: m. A little Minister, small Officer, Assistant, or Seruant.
Ministrer. To minister, assist, serue vnto; also, to offer, or affoord vnto.
Ministresse: f. A Ministresse; a woman that assists, or serues vnto.
Minois: m. A sower face, harsh visage, crabbed countenance; a craftie, or discontented looke.
Minon: m. A little kitling; or such a tearme for a cat as is our Pusse; whence;
Il entend le chat sans dire minon. He apprehends the mans meaning before he speake vnto him.
Minons: m. Cat-tailes, or Catkins; the long aglet-like buds of nut-trees.
Minoratif. Medecine minorative. Gentle Physicke, Physicke that workes easily, or is of gentle effect.
Minorité: f. Minoritie, vnder-age.
Minot: m. The halfe of a Mine; three French Bushells; Looke Mine.
Minot d'avoine, de sel, & de legumes. Containes 4 French Bushells.
Minot de bled. (Th'ordinarie Minot) containes three Boisseaux.
Minot de noix, & d'oignons. Containes foure Boisseaux, and a halfe, of stricken measure.
Minu: m. The particular survey, or description which a purchaser is bound to deliuer vnto the Lord of whom his purchase is held.
Minué: m. ée: f. Diminished, minished.
Minuer. To minish, diminish, lessen, impaire, abate.
Minuict: f. Midnight.
Minute: m. A mite; the smallest of weights.
Minute: f. The (first) draught of an Euidence, or Pleading; a scroll, or scedule.

Mi-

Minuté: m. ée: f. Miniſhed, impaired, made little; abated; diſabled; alſo, drawne, or whereof a draught is made (in writing;) alſo, deuiſed, caſt, or concluded on, as the firſt proiect of a deſigne.

Minuter. To miniſh, diminiſh, impaire, leſſen, or make little; to diſable, or abate; alſo, to draw, or make a draught of, an Inſtrument in writing; and hence alſo, to deuiſe, caſt, or lay the firſt proiect of a deſigne.

Minuter les papiers de raiſons. To caſt, make vp, reduce to a head, his (ſtragling) accounts.

Mioche: f. A crumme, ſcrap, ſmall fragment, or mammocke of.

Mioler. To mew, or cric like a cat.

Mi-panché: m. ée: f. Halfe bowed, halfe declining, halfe hanging, downewards.

Miparti: m. ie: f. Parted in the middeſt, or into (equall) halues.

La Chambre mipartie. Looke Chambre.

Mipartir. To part in the middeſt, or into halues; to diuide into two equall parts.

Mipotence. en m. Made, or faſhioned, like a halfe gibbet; crooked, or bent into the forme of th'vpper part of a gibbet; as a tenter-hooke, &c.

Mique. A kind of haſtie pudding.

Miquelot: m. A Pilgrim to S. Michaells Mount; alſo, a poore, pettie, vagabond Pedler, that with a ſpritſaile croſſes from place to place, to vtter ſmall trifles, which he carries along with him in boxes.

Mirabolan: m. A Mirabolan plumme; Looke Myrabolan.

Mirach: m. Th'outward lower part of the bellie, couering all th'intrailles: ¶ Arabeſque: ¶ Rab.

Miracle: m. A miracle; a miruellous, or monſtrous thing.

Il n'eſt miracle que de vieux ſaincts: Prov. We doe not credit reports, or miracles of a freſh date; Antiquitie is reuerend, and of awfull authoritie.

Miracleur: m. A doer of miracles.

Miraclifique: com. Wonder-working.

Miraculeuſement. Miraculouſly, wonderfully.

Miraculeux: m. euſe: f. Miraculous, wonderfull, maruelous, monſtrous, beyond nature, paſt common vnderſtanding.

Miraillet: m. A Thornebacke which hath on either of her ſides, or finnes, a great eye-like ſpot; (a hard, and vnwholeſome fiſh.)

Miraillier: m. A looking-glaſſe-maker.

Miraillier: m. Of a looking glaſſe.

Miraine: f. Oake of Jeruſalem, Oake of Paradiſe: ¶ Savoyard.

Miramomelin: m. A Lord ouer Lords; an Arabian word vſed in ſome old French Authors.

Mire: m. A Phyſitian, Leech, Chirurgian.

Il n'a plus beſoing de mire. He hath no longer need, he hath no further vſe, of a Phyſitian; viz. he is dead.

Debonnaire mire fait playe puante: Prov. A gentle Chirurgian makes a ſtinking ſore.

Qui veut la guariſon du mire il luy convient tout ſon mal dire: Prov. He that lookes to be cur'd muſt all his ill diſcouer.

Mire: f. The leuell, or little button at th'end, of a Peece; alſo, the tuske of a wild Boare.

Miré: m. ée: f. Aimed, leuelled at; looked, viewed, beheld through; watched, pried into, neerely obſerued; alſo, long-tusked, full-tuſked, as a full-growne Boare.

Mirecoton: m. The delicate yellow Peach, called a Melicotonie.

Mirelicoton. as Mirecoton.

Mirelifique: com. Exceeding wonderfull, paſſing admirable, horribly excellent (a word of ironicall commendation, or amplification.)

Mirelifiques: f. Toyes, bables; trickes to mocke Apes, or amaze infants with.

Mirer. To aime, or leuell at; to looke, view, regard, obſerue, prie into, behold through, or throughly.

Se mirer. To looke in a glaſſe; to looke on, or into, himſelfe; alſo, to take notice of, or example by.

Dieu le vous mire. God reſtore it you, or reward you for it.

Dame qui trop ſe mire peu file: Pro. She that looks too much at her ſelfe lookes too little to her ſelfe.

Qui bien ſe mire bien ſe void; Qui bien ſe void bien ſe cognoiſt; Qui bien ſe cognoiſt peu ſe priſe; Qui peu ſe priſe Dieu l'aviſe: Prov.

Mires d'vn ſanglier. His tuskes, or tuſhes.

Miriade: f. A Miriade; ten thouſand.

Mirifique: com. Strangely wrought, maruellouſly acted, admirably done.

Mirlirot. as Melilot: ¶ Pariſien.

Mirloret: m. A neat, ſpruce, quaint, compt fellow.

Miroaillier: m. A looking-glaſſe maker.

Miroir: m. A Myrror, a looking glaſſe; alſo, an inſtrument wherewith Chirurgians dilate the parts which be naturally hollow (as the mouth, fundament, &c,) when they haue occaſion to looke into the bottome, or depth, of them.

Miroir d'Aſne. A white tranſparent ſtone, (or congealed humor of the earth) vſed in old time inſtead of glaſſe, (farre better then which) it indures th'extremities of heat and froſts, without breaking.

Miroir de noſtre Dame. as Miroir d'Aſne.

Le bay à miroir. A dapled bay.

Pierre à miroir. A light, white, and tranſparent ſtone, eaſily cleſt into thinne flakes, and vſed by th'Arabians (among whom it growes) inſtead of glaſſe; anights it repreſents the Moone, and euer increaſes, or decreaſes, as the Moone doth.

Il n'y a meilleur miroir que le vieil ami: Prov. An old friend an excellent looking-glaſſe.

Miroitier: m. A looking-glaſſe maker.

Mirond: m. de: f. Semicirculer, halfe round.

Mirouaillier. as Miroaillier.

Mirouaillier: m. ere: f. Often-looking, euer prying, into a glaſſe.

Mirouer. as Miroir.

Mirtil. A Mirtill berrie; alſo, a Salamander, or deafe worme.

Mis: m. iſe: f. Put, ſet, layed; placed, pitched, planted, ſituated, grounded; thruſt into; alſo, brought, reduced, ſent.

Mis en cueilleur de pommes. Tucked vp like an apple-gatherer, dreſſed like an apple-ſquire; in baſe, poore, or beggerlie array.

Mis à la pile, ou, au verjus. Trounſt, courſt.

Miſaille: f. A lay, a wager.

Miſaine: f. The foreſaile of a ſhip.

Miſanthrope: m. A hater of mens companie: ¶ Rab.

Miſe: f. Expence, diſburſement, money layed out, or the laying out of money; alſo, a chapter, or title of expences in an accompt; alſo, a price offered, or laied downe; alſo, the currantneſſe, or goodneſſe of coyne.

Miſe de faict. A iudiciall putting into poſſeſſion, for the preſeruation of the true owners right.

Folle miſe. So much as one hath bidden more then another, or farmer, chapman; which he is bound to pay if th'other refuſe the thing in bargaine.

Gens de mise. Persons of worth, sort, qualitie.

Mis-en-avant. mon m. My subiect, my matter, the thing which I haue propounded, or set on foot.

Miserable: com. Miserable, wretched, vnfortunate; piteous, wofull, ruthfull, distressefull; disasterous.

Miserablement. Miserably, wretchedly, wofully, ruthfully, distressefully; disasterously.

Misere: f. Miserie, wretchednesse, distresse; aduersitie, calamitie; wofulnesse, or a wofull case; also, a poore drinke made of the water wherewith bee-hiues haue beene washed.

Il suffit au jour de sa misere: Pro. One affliction suffices for one day.

Miserere. The name (and beginning) of one of the seuen (penitentiall) Psalmes.

Miserere mei. A voiding of th'excrements vpwards; comes of th'obstruction of the small guts, and is verie painefull, the patient imagining that his guts are pulled out, and broken.

Tu auras miserere iusques à vitulos. Thou shalt be soundly whipped.

Misericorde: f. Mercie, pitie, compassion, ruth, tendernesse.

Espée misericorde. A waued sword.

Misericordieusement. Mercifully, compassionately, pitifully.

Misericordieux: m. euse: f. Mercifull, pitifull; compassionate.

Misque: m. Mosse.

Missal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, the Masse.

Pain missal. A kind of wafer made only of flower, and a little salt.

Missel: m. A Masse-booke.

Missile. feu missile. A squib, or other fire-worke throwne.

Mission: f. as Mise; Expence, disbursement, charge: ¶Bourgongnon.

Missive: f. A letter missiue; a letter sent.

Missotage: m. Masserie, Masse-trinkets, Masse-stuffe; things belonging to the Masse.

Missotier: m. ere: f. Masse-monging, Masse-making; of the Masse.

Mistagogue: m. A teacher, or interpreter of mysteries, and ceremonies; also, a keeper of the Churches Reliques.

Miste: com. Neat, spruce, compt, quaint, picked, minion, trickesie, fine, gay.

Mistement. Neatly, sprucely, comptly, quaintly, finely, gaily, minion-like.

Mistigouri. My pillicocke, my prettie rogue: ¶Norm.

Mistion: f. A mixture, mash, medley, melling, blending; a confounding; a sophisification.

Mistionné: m. ée: f. Mixed, mingled, melled, blent; sophisticated by mixture.

Mistionnement: m. A mixing, mingling, melling, blending, medley-making; sophisticating.

Mistionner. To mix, mingle, mash, mell, blend or temper with, make a medley of; to falsifie, adulterate, sophisticate, by mixture.

Mistoudin: m. A neat fellow, a spruce companion.

Mistrouille: f. A foule great slut, a filthie draggletaile: ¶Norm.

Misy: m. A causlick drug, or minerall of a golden colour, and luster; found growing in little peeces, about, or aboue, naturall Chalcitis; whereunto it is like in vertue, and operation, though in temperature it be the more subtile of the two.

Mitaille: f. Great (or the grossest) file-dust.

Mitaines: f. Mittaines, Winter-gloues.

Ils ne se laissent prẽdre sans mitaines. They will not be taken without mittains; viz. much preparation, or adoe.

Mitan: m. The middest, or middle of: ¶Norm.

Mitanier: m. ere: f. Middle, of the middest.

Mitaut. la Region du m. The middle Region of the aire.

Mite: f. A Mite, the smallest of coynes; also, the little worme, called a Mite.

Herbe aux mites. Moth-Mullein.

Mithologie: f. Mithologie; an expounding, or moralizing, of fables.

Mithologiquement. Mithologikely; by a morall exposition of fables.

Mithre: f. Looke Mitre.

Mithridat: m. Mithridatum; Looke Methridat.

Mitifier. To soften; digest, concoct.

Mitigatif: m. iue: f. Mitigatiue, lenitiue, appeasiue.

Mitigation: f. A mitigation, qualification, allaying, tempering, assuaging, appeasing.

Mitigué: m. ée: f. Mitigated, qualified, moderated, allayed, assuaged, appeased.

Mitiguer. To mitigate, qualifie, temper, moderate, ease, assuage, allay, appease.

Mi-tirer. To draw out the halfe of.

Mitis. Nice, curious, precise; hypocriticall.

Miton: m. (The small worme, or vermine called) a Mite.

Mitou: m. A great cat.

Faire le mitou. To dissemble, or play the hypocrite; to put on a lowlie, meeke, humble, or afflicted countenance; to looke poorely, or pitifully on it.

Mitoüard: m. A cat; also, an hypocrite: ¶Rab.

Mitoufle: m. ée: f. Furred like a cat, or with cats skins; hidden in, wrapped, or lapped about with furres, or cat-furred garments.

Mitouïn: m. An hypocrite; a dissembler vnder the protection of a meeke, and lowlie countenance.

Mitoyen. as Moitoyen.

Mitraille: f. Broken brasse, or copper; or lumpes consisting of diuers mettalls, which haue beene mingled, and melted together.

Mitrant. Hooding, or crowning, with a miter.

Mitre: f. A Bishops miter; also, the hole (or cap) of a mans yard.

Donner la mitre, & la crosse à. To set a specious glosse of Religion on; or to authorize (an ill thing) by a goodlie shew of deuotion.

Mitré: m. ée: f. Mitred; hooded with a miter, wearing a miter; set on a pillorie, or scaffold, with a miter of paper on his head.

Mitrement: m. A mitring; a hooding, crowning, or couering of the head with a miter; for ornament, or in disgrace.

Mitrer. To hood, crowne, or couer the head with a miter, of rich stuffe for ornament (as at the consecration of a Bishop;) or of paper in disgrace.

Mixtion. as Mistion.

Mixtionné, & Mixtionner. as Mistionné, & Mistionner.

Mizone: f. The name of a delicate Italian peare that's ripe in August.

Mnadies. Barbarously for Bona dies. God-denne to you: ¶Rab.

Mobile: com. Mouable, which may be remoued.

Mobiliaire: com. as Mobile.

Mobilité: f. Mouableneße; a wagging, flitting, wauering, uering, inconſtancie, ficklenesſe.

Mocayart: m. The ſtuffe Moccadoe; or a kind thereof.
Mocqué: m. ée: f. Mocked, flowted, frumped, ſcoffed, ieaſted at; gulled, gudgeoned; alſo, diſappointed, fruſtrated.
se Mocquer. To mock, flowt, frump, ſcoffe, deride, ieaſt at, laugh to ſcorne; to gull, gudgeon; fruſtrate, make a ſoole of, diſappoint.
Vous vous mocquez du ieu. You doe but dallie.
Se mocque qui cloque: Pro. he mocks that leaſt may; the greateſt mockers haue cõmonly moſt imperfections.
Mauvaiſe fille ſe mocque de ſa mere: Prov. The ill-bred daughter mocks her ſillie mother.
La paelle ſe mocque du fourgon: Pro. One friend, or kinſman mocks another; he that might well be flowted flowts his neighbor.
Mocquereau: m. A mocking child, or, a little mocker.
Mocquerie: f. A mock, flowt, frumpe, ſcoffe, gibe, ieaſt, gull, gudgeon, deriſion; a mockerie, tale of a tub, ridiculous diſcourſe, foppiſh thing; alſo, a mocking, flowting, ſcoffing, frumping.
Mocqueur: m. A mocker, flowter, frumper, ſcoffer, gibber, derider.
Mode: m. as Meuf; A Mood.
Mode: f. Manner, ſort, faſhion, guiſe, vſe, cuſtome; way, meanes.
A la trotte qui mode. Setting the cart before the horſe.
Modeler. To modell, forme, faſhion, plot, caſt in a mould.
Modelle: f. A modell, patterne, mould, plot, forme, frame.
Modelon. as Modillon.
Moderateur: m. A moderator, gouernor, director, guider.
Moderation: f. A moderation, meane, temper, gouernement; a good diſpoſition, due proportion, right meaſure.
Moderatrice: f. A moderatrix.
Moderé: m. ée: f. Moderate, quiet, rulie, temperate, orderlie, patient; alſo, moderated, allayed, tempered; whoſe edge is ſomewhat taken off, or beart taken downe; alſo, ſloped, or cut aſlope.
Moderément. Moderately, temperately, quietly, orderly, patiently, with reaſon, in good rule.
Moderer. To moderate, qualifie, temper, quiet, order, gouerne, rule, refraine, hold in, vſe with meaſure, ſet a meane on; abate th'edge, allay the heat of; alſo, to ſlope, or cut aſlope.
Moderne: com. Moderne, new, of this age, of theſe times, in our time.
Modeſte: com. Modeſt, ſober, ciuile, baſhfull, ſhamefac'd, humble, maidenlie, mannerlie.
Modeſtement. Modeſtly, ſoberly, chaſtly, ciuilly.
Modeſteté: f. as Modeſtie.
Modeſtie: f. Modeſtie, moderation, ſoberneſſe, temperance, humilitie, baſhfulneſſe, maidenlineſſe.
Modicité: f. Modicitie, moderateneſſe, meanneſſe, littleneſſe.
Modie: m. An ancient Roman meaſure containing ſomewhat leſſe then our pecke, and halfe.
Modifiable: com. Modifiable, qualifiable.
Modification: f. A modification, qualification, limitation, exception.
Modifié: m. ée: f. Modified, moderated, qualified, limited.
Modifier. To modifie, moderate, qualifie, limit.
Modillon: m. A cartridge, or cartoose, a foulding bracket, or corbell.
Modulation: f. Modulation, harmonie, muſicall proportion, pleaſant tuning.

Module: m. A modell, or module; that wherby a whole worke is meaſured, proportioned, or ſquared; alſo, the meaſure, bigneſſe, or quantitie of a thing; alſo, a certaine meaſure in conduits, or conueyances of water; alſo, modulation, melodie, or meaſure, in Muſicke.
Modurre. as Madoure: Rab.
Moë. as Mouë.
Moëlle: f. The marrow of bones; the pith of plants; alſo, as Meule; a milſtone.
Moëlle de pain. The pith of bread.
Moëlleux: m. euſe: f. Marrowie, pithie, full of ſtrength, or ſtrong ſap.
Moëllon. as Moilon.
Moëtte. A Sea-mew.
Les Moëttes. Forerunners, foreriders, foretellers of ones comming.
Moëtte blanche. Th'ordinarie white Mew, or Seamew.
Moëtte cendrée. Th' (ordinarie) aſh-coloured Seamew.
La petite Moëtte. The ſmall aſh-coloured Mew, tearmed otherwiſe Hirondelle de mer.
Moeurs. Manners; Looke Meurs.
Moge: f. A meaſure containing about ſix buſhells.
Moiau. as Moyeu.
Moien, & Moienner. Looke Moyen, & Moyenner.
Moieu. as Moyeu.
Moignon: m. A ſtump, or, the blunt end of a thing.
Moignon des ailes. The ſtumpes, or pinions of the wings.
Moignon du bras. The brawne, or brawnie part of th'arme.
Gros moignons de chair. Great lumps, or gobbets of maſſie fleſh.
Moil: m. A ſea Barbell, or ſore Mullet.
Moile: f. An arch, damme, or bay of planks, whereby the force of water is broken.
Moileux. Looke Moëlleux.
Moillonneux: m. euſe: f. Full of rubbiſh, made of ruble; alſo, full of the ſoft ſtone Moilon.
Moilon: m. Rubbiſh, ruble, ſhards, ragged ſtones, peeces of ſtone hewed, or broken off; ſuch as walls are built, or parget made, of; alſo, the ſoft vpper cruſt of a quarrey of free ſtone; or a kind of ſoft, or tender ſtone, that lyeth ſome 10, or 12 foot thick aboue the hardeſt free ſtone, in the quarreyes about Paris.
Moilonneux. as Moillonneux.
Moindre: com. Leſſe, leſſer, inferiour to; alſo, the leaſt, ſmalleſt, lowmoſt.
Moine: m. A Monke; alſo, a caſting top; alſo, the little Titmouſe; alſo, as Albaſſan.
Moines de la Charité. An Order of Monkes, who by their ſtatutes are bound to viſit the ſicke, and bvrie the dead.
Moines de Grace. An Order of white Monkes, who weare great white croſſes on their boſomes.
Collation de Moine. A Monkes nunchion, a large collatiõ, as much as another man eats at a good meale.
Teſte de Moine. A blunt, and round-noſed Porpoſe; alſo, the hearbe Dandelion.
Avoir le moine. To be conſened, gleeke, poopt, boobed, croſſed, to haue ill lucke.
Bailler le moine. To crampe, alſo, to bring ill lucke vnto.
Bailler le moine par le col. To hang, or ſtrangle vp.
A la fin le regnard ſera moine: Prov. At length the Fox turnes Monke; (viz. when hee can play the knaue no lenger.)

Homme ne cognoiſt mieux la malice que l'Abbé qui a eſté moine: Prov. There is no knaue to the Abbot that hath beene a Monke; or no man knowes how to play the knaue better then he.

Il n'eſt envie que de moine: Prov. No enuie like a Monkes.

L'habit ne fait pas le moine: Pro. The Cowle makes not the Monke; euerie one is not a ſouldier that weares armor; nor euerie one a ſcholler thats clad in blacke.

Pour vn moine ne faut Convent: Prov. For one Monke needs no Monaſterie.

Moineau: m. A Sparrow; alſo, a Nouice; a young, or little Monke; alſo, a Rauelin in fortification; alſo, a certaine little peece of Ordnance.

Moineau de bois. The little Brambling, or mountaine Spinke.

Moineau de haye. Is not that which wee call the Hedge-ſparrow, but a little bird that liues altogether on flies.

Moineau de noyer. as Friquet.

Moineau à la ſoulſie. The ring-Sparrow; a ſmall bird that hath a yellow ring about it necke, and builds in the trunke of a tree; (Germanie hath many, England but few, of them.)

Herbe au Moineau. Ivie Chickweed, Henbit.

Paſſereaux, & Moineaux ſont de faux oyſeaux. A Prouerbe taxing the laſciuious conuerſation of Cloiſter-Sparrowes.

Moiner. To breed Monks, to play the Monke: ¶Rab.

Moinerie: f. Monkerie, Monachiſme, the ſtate or profeſſion of a Monke.

Moinichon: m. A little paultrie Monke.

Moins. Leſſe, leaſt.

Moins deux tiers. Lacking two third parts.

Vn moins de cent. An hundred wanting one.

Au moins. A tout le moins. Tout au moins. At leaſt, yet at the leaſt, neuertheleſſe, notwithſtanding, howſoeuer.

Le moins de mon plus. The moſt I can, the leaſt I ſh uld.

Ils portoient alors ie ne ſçay quoy de moins. They wore at that time ſome od thing or other of leſſe value.

Pour vn denier ny moins. The loſſe, or expẽce of one pennie will make me neuer a whit the poorer.

Moinſné. as Mainſné.

Mois: m. A month, or moneth.

Les mois des femmes. Womens monthlie flowers.

Mois blanches. A kind thereof tearmed by our women, the Whites.

Mois mort. The ſeaſon that is immediately before, or after, Chriſtmas.

Moiſe: f. Full length, or growth in fiſh; alſo, a halfe-beame of timber.

Moiſi: m.ie: f. Mouldie, hoarie, vinowed; alſo, muſtie, or fuſtie, by mouldineſſe.

se Moiſir. To wax mouldie, hoarie, vinowed; alſo, to grow muſtie, fuſtie; to get a white coat, and a ranke ſmell.

Moiſiſſure: f. Mouldineſſe, hoarineſſe, vinowedneſſe; muſtineſſe, fuſtineſſe.

Moiſon: m. The full length of a peece of cloth (which in old time was wont to be at the leaſt 20 elles;) alſo, the rent of a farme, or tenement, paied in corne, or other things in kind.

Vne truite de moiſon. A Full-growne Trout.

Moiſſine: f. A great bunch, or bundle of bunches of grapes; (an Overſeers fee in vintage-time;) alſo, a little knot of bunches, or cluſters, tied together with long ſtaulkes, and hanged vp to be kept long.

Moiſſon: m. A Sparrow; alſo, a kind of ſmall Parrat, called by th'Indians Tovis.

Moiſſon: f. Harueſt; reaping time.

Moiſſons. Harueſt; or harueſt fruit; the corne reaped in harueſt.

La moiſſon des avoines, orges, & legumages. Begins (in France) about the 16 of Julie.

La moiſſon des froments. About the 27 of Julie.

La moiſſon des ſeigles. Begins about the 27 of June.

La moiſſon d'vne vache. The milking of a cow, or as much as ſhe giues at a milking.

Droict de moiſſon. An yearelie rent, or duetie of corne paid vnto the King out of the towne, and iuriſdiction of Bourges.

Eſpée des moiſſons. Looke Eſpée.

Ie ne mettray la faucille en ſa moiſſon. I will not meddle with, or incroach vpon, his gettings.

En moiſſons Dames chambrieres ſont: Prov. See Dames.

Grande moiſſon l'obeiſſant recueille: Pro. Great is the harueſt that th'obedient gathers.

Telle ſemence telle moiſſon: Prov. Ill ſeed, ill weed; or, ſuch as the ſeed ſuch is the crop.

Moiſſonné: m.ée: f. Reaped, gotten, as corn in harueſt.

Moiſſonner. To reape, to make or get in, harueſt; to work harueſt worke.

Avec le temps lon moiſſonne: Pro. Looke Temps.

Moiſſonneur: m. A reaper, a harueſt man.

Moiſſonnier: m.ere: f. Of, or belonging to, harueſt.

Chevreau moiſſonnier. A fat Kid.

Faucille moiſſonniere. A reaping ſickle.

Oiſon moiſſonnier. A ſtubble gooſe.

Moiſſons. Looke Moiſſon.

Moite: com. Moiſt, liquid, humide, wet, ſweatie; giuing as ſtones in rainie weather.

Moiteau. as Motte; or, as Motteau.

Moiteur: f. Moiſture, moiſtneſſe, humiditie, wetneſſe, wateriſhneſſe.

Moitié: f. An halfe, or halfe part.

Moitié figues moitié raiſins. Betweene ieaſt and earneſt.

Moiton: m. The halfe of a Bichot; two buſhells and a halfe; and, in ſome places, three: ¶Bourguignon.

Moitoyen: m. Any whole thing that is enioyed in common, or by vndiuided or vndiuiſible halues.

Moitoyen: m.enne: f. Seuering, or parting in the middeſt seuerall poſſeſſions; alſo, enioyed in common, or by vndiuided or vndiuiſible halues; whence;

Mur moitoyen. A partitiõ wall, whereof th'one halfe or ſide belongs to one, & th'other to another; alſo, a wall wherin many haue parts according to the ſcope of their tenements, or ſtate of their tenures.

Moitoyennerie: f. Th'enioying of a thing by many in common; or by equall parts or vndiuided halues.

Moitoyrie: f. as Metairie; (An old word.)

Mol: m. Softnes; the ſoft, or ſofter part of a thing; whence;

Le mol de la jambe. The calfe of the leg.

Le mol de l'oreille. The lug, or liſt of th'eare.

Mol: m.molle: f. Soft, ſupple, ten[illegible] ſlithe, limber, [illegible] ant; eaſie, gentle, yeelding; mild, [illegible] ſoftly; daintie, delicate.

B. mol. B. flat, in Muſicke.

De B. carré en B. mol. Inconſtantly, or ſuddainely, from one matter into another.

Mol en putain de bordeau. As tender as a Prieſtes leyman (ſay we.)

Molaine: f. as Moulaine.

Molard. poire de m. A verie tender, & deliete peare.

Mo-

Molares. les dents mol. The cheeke-teeth, or grinders.
Mole: m. A Peere; a banke, or causey on the sea-side neere vnto a Rode, or Hauen.
Mole: f. A Timpanie, or Moone-calfe; a shapelesse lump of flesh, or hard swelling, in the wombe, that makes a woman seeme withchild; also, as Molebout; also, as Tenche de mer.
Molé: m. ée: f. Moulded; cast in, or framed by, a mould.
Molebout: m. A kind of great sea-lumpe.
Moleste: com. Troublesome, offensiue, irksome, grieuous, combersome, tedious, loathsome, painfull, burdensome, vnpleasing, noisome vnto.
Molesté: m. ée: f. Molested, troubled, offended, combered, vexed, annoyed, infested, afflicted; vrged, importuned.
Molestément. Troublesomely, offensiuely, combersomely, noisomely, to the wrong, or vexation of.
Molester. To molest, annoy, trouble, comber, vex, disquiet, offend, paine, infest, afflict; to vrge, presse, importune too much; be burdensome vnto, lye hard, and heauie vpon.
Molesteur: m. A molester, troubler, vexer, disquieter, annoyer.
Molestie: f. Molestation, trouble, annoyance; vexation, disquiet, affliction, offence, displeasure, irksomenesse, loathsomenesse, tediousnesse, too much importunitie, or busines.
Molet. Seeke Mollet.
Molette d'esperon. The rowell of a spurre.
Molibdene. as Plombagine; Also, the hearbe Lead-wort.
Moliere: f. A bog, or quagmire.
Moliere; whence, Pierre de moliere. A grindstone, or grindlestone.
Molin. as Moulin.
Moliner. To worke, or thicken in a mill.
Molinet. as Moulinet; Also, the roll wherein the whip of a Rudders tiller goes.
Chascun n'a pas son molinet: Prov. viz. Chascun ne dort en lict mol, & net.
Molinier: m. A Miller.
Molition: f. Indeauor, practise, attempt, enterprising, vndertaking.
Mollart. as Molard.
Mollasse: com. Quaggie, swagging, not firme, foggie, filthily soft, loathsomely supple, vnpleasantly pliant; quagmire-like.
Molle. (The name of) an Indian tree, of whose tender branches a kind of wine is made.
Mollement. Softly, supplely, tenderly; easily, gently, mildly; yeeldingly, remisly, effeminately.
Mollesse: f. Softnesse, suppleness, tenderness; limberness, pliantnesse; easinesse, gentleness, mildnesse, remisnesse, tractableness; wantonnesse, delicacie; faintnesse, effeminacie, cowardise; also, the monstrous appetite of some maids, and women, vnto paper, ashes, coales, and such other harsh, and vnsauorie acates.
Mollet: m. The fleshie part of the hand betweene the thumbe, and middle finger; also, the tip, lug, or soft part of the eare; also, the calfe of the leg; also, a muddie place in a riuer.
Mollet: m. ette: f. Somewhat soft, supple, tender; limber; tractable, remisse; delicate, effeminate.
Pain mollet. A verie light, crustie, and sauorie white bread, full of eyes, leauen, and salt.
Molleté. as Mollesse.
Mollette: f. A Mullet; a nipper, a pinser; also, the ramhead of a Iarne, or windlesse; also, the rowell of a spurre.
Mollette à brayer couleurs. A Muller; the little flat-bottomed stone wherewith a Painter grindes his colours.
Chaire de bois à mollette. A folding chaire of wood.
Mollice: f. as Mollesse.
Mollification: f. A mollification, mollifying, softening, suppling.
Mollifié: m. ée: f. Mollified, softened, suppled.
Mollifier. To mollifie, soften, supple; smooth, make pliant, gentle, tender.
Mollifieur: m. A mollifier, softener, suppler; smoother, appeaser.
Mollinets: m. The Jewells at th'end of bodkins; also, rings hauing pearles hanging at them.
Mollir. To soften, mollifie; smooth; to make gentle, tender, pliant; to loosen, slacken, relax; also, to make wanton, effeminate, faint.
Molu. Seeke Moulu.
Molosse: m. A foot of three long sillables, in versifying.
Moluë: f. Cod, or Greene-fish; Looke Moruë.
Molure. Seeke Moulure.
Molurien. (The name of) a certaine harmelesse serpent.
Molybdoide: f. Is held of some, to be, the minerall, and leaden-coloured, Calamine; of others (more properly) the oare of lead, or lead-stone vntried.
Mome: m. A Momus, find-fault, carping fellow.
Moment: m. A moment, a minute, a iot of time; also, moment, importance, weight, value, validitie, consequence; the vertue, force, or strength of.
Momentaine: com. Momentarie, transitorie, of little durance, of small continuance.
Momental: m. ale: f. Forcible, weightie, important, of moment; also, as Momentaine.
Momentané: m. ée: f. as Momentaine.
Momerie: f. Momerie, momisme, carping, fault-finding.
Mommerie: f. A Mummerie, a Mumming.
Mommeur: m. A Mummer; one that goes a mumming.
Mommon. as Mommeur; Also, a troupe, or companie of Mummers; also, a visard, or maske; also, a set, by a Mummer, at dice.
Il luy couvra son mommon. Il la besongna.
Mon: m. The giserne of a bird.
Mon: m. ma: f. My.
Mon. (A Coniunction) Asçavoir mon si. Whether; This in Demaunds onely; for otherwise tis vsed as an inforcement of an affirmation; whence; C'est mon; yes forsooth, truely, certainly, doubtlesse, indeed.
Monacal: m. ale: f. Monacall, Monasticall, monklie, belonging to a Monke.
Monacalement. Monastically, Monke-like.
Monade: f. An vnitie, or singlenesse; an one.
Monaquat: m. Monkerie, Monkship, Monkisme, Monachisme; the ductie, or state of a Monke.
Monarchie: f. A Monarchie; a kingdome; the gouernment of one absolute Prince.
Monarchique: com. Monarchall; belonging to a Monarchie, or Monarch.
Monarque: com. A Monarch; an absolute Prince.
Monastere: m. A Monasterie, Cloister, Abbey, Couent.
Monastique: com. Monasticall, Monklie, Monkish.
Moncaiart: m. Silke Meccadoe; or, a kind thereof.
Monceau: m. A heape, a masse, a pile.
Monceau de foin. A cocke, reeke, or stacke of hay.
Petit monceau de terre. A barrow, billocke, little hill.

Se retirer en vn monceau. To gather himselfe vp into a lumpe, or heape.

Avarice fait petit monceau: Prov. Looke Avarice.

De bien commun on ne fait pas souvent monceau: Pro. Of common goods men seldome gather heaps.

Monceler. To heape, or pile vp.

Moncelet: m. A little heape, masse, pile.

Moncet. as Moineau; A Sparrow.

Mondain: m. A worldling; one thats throughly acquainted with, or giues himselfe wholly to, worldlie businesses.

Mondain: m. aine: f. Mundane, worldlie, secular; prophane; dissolute, sensuall, fleshlie, epicurious.

Mondaniser. To world it, or, to play the worldling.

Mondanité: f. Worldlinesse; vanitie; sensualitie, fleshlinesse.

Monde: m. The world, the vniuers; all visible things vnder the cope of heauen; also, a (world, or) great number of people, great store of companie.

Le monde va tousiours à l'empire: Pro. The world growes euerie day worse and worse.

Qui veut la conscience monde, il doit fuir le monde immonde: Prov. He that affects a cleane conscience, must auoid vncleane copesmates.

Monde: com. Cleane, neat; pure, cleere, sincere.

Qui veut la conscience monde, &c. as before.

Mondé: m. ée: f. Cleansed, made cleane; also, pruned; picked, pilled; whence;

Orge mondé. Looke Orge.

Monder vn arbre. as Esmonder.

Mondificatif: m. iue: f. Mundificatiue, mundifying; cleansing, purging, purifying.

Mondification. A mundification, mundifying, cleansing, purging, purifying.

Mondifié: m. ée: f. Mundified, cleansed, purged, purified.

Mondifier. To mundifie, cleanse, purifie, purge, wipe, make cleane.

Mondinet: m. A neat, spruce, compt fellow.

Monettes: f. Warning, or admonishing women: ¶ Rab.

Monfaucon. The great gallowes of Paris; (standing on 16 stone pillers;) whence;

Banderolle à l' advenir de Monfaucon. One for whom the gallowes grones; one that deserueth, or is like to come to, the gallowes.

Monial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, a Monke.

Herbe moniale. Wild Larks-heele, Monks-hood with the purple flower.

Moniale: f. A Nunne.

Monilles: m. Necklaces, Tablets, Brouches, or Ouches; any such Ornaments for the necke.

Monine. as Monnine.

Moniteur: m. A monitor, admoniser, warner; a Summoner, an Apparitor.

Monition: f. A monition, admonition, monishment; an aduertisement, information, warning, summons.

Monitoire: m. A monitorie, or admonition; the censure, or sentence of a Bishop in an Ecclesiasticall Court.

Monitoire: com. Monitorie, monishing, admonishing, aduertising, warning.

Monitorial: m. ale: f. Monitorial, monitorie, admonishing

Monne: f. A Monkie, or Pug.

Monneage: m. An Aid, or Subsidie of 12 d. paid vnto the Duke of Normandie, each third yere, by euery housholder (except Church officers, beneficed men, Gentlemen, poore widows, & some other priuiledged persons) to th' end that the coine of the countrey might not be altered.

Monnier: m. The Cheuin, or Chub-fish.

Monnine: f. A Marmoset, or little Monkie.

Monnoyage: m. The making, or coyning of money; also, the fees due vnto money-makers.

Monnoye: f. Money, coyne, chinks.

Monnoyes. (as in, le faict des mon. les Generaux des mon. le Maistre des mon. &c.) The Mint.

Monnoye de Basoche. Counters, or Palace Crowns; any such trash currant among Pages, & yong Clerkes.

Monnoye de belistres. Lice.

Monnoye blâche. Brasse or copper coine siluer d ouer.

Monnoye de cordelier. Thankes, or a Benedicite; wherwith gray Friers, who are to carrie no money about them, vse to pay their shots.

Monnoye noire. Seeke Noir.

Monnoye de Roy. French money of gold, or siluer; so called in old time.

Monnoye de Singe. Moes, mumps, mouthes; also, friskes, leaps, gambolls.

Descrié comme la vieille monnoye. Stale, out of vse, out of date; also, of bad report, that hath but an ill name, in the world.

Payer toutes personnes en mesme monnoye. To vse, or answer, all alike.

Resembler la monnoye rongnée. To be illiterate, or vnlearned; Estre sans lettres.

A pauvres gens menuë monnoye: Prov. Small money suffices, or fits, the poore.

Monnoyé: m. ée: f. Coined, or made into mony.

Monnoyement: m. A coyning, or money-making.

Monnoyer: m. A Coyner, or money-maker.

Monnoyer. To coine, make monye, or make into money.

Monnoyeur: m. A Coyner, Moneyer, money-maker.

Monochordiser des doigts. To quauer with the fingers, to wag or play with them, as if he touched a Manicordion.

Monocle: com. One eyed; hauing but one eye.

Monocule. as Monocle.

Monogaine: m. One that neuer had but one wife.

Monologue: m. One that loues to heare himselfe talke; or talkes verie much about a verie little.

Monomachie: f. A Monomachie, or single combat.

Monon: m. A certaine little green-leaued shrub, which beares a red fruit resembling a small cherrie, but not to be eaten.

Monope: m. A Peonian beast, that is as big as a Bull, and neerely pursued squirts out a sharpe, and fierie ordure, deadlie to such as it lights on.

Monopole: f. A Monopolie; a priuat conspiracie, factious combination, vniust cõfederation; hence also, the sale of a marchãtable cõmoditie challenged by one, or few; th' ingrossing therof into one, or few mens hands, by Patent from the Prince, or packing with others.

Monopolé: m. ée: f. Monopoled, or monopolized; combined, conspired; ingrossed, as a commoditie, into one, or a few mens hands.

Monopoler. To conspire, or combine together; to molopolize it, or make a monopolie; One, or a few to ingrosse, and challenge the sale of, a commoditie, which many (if they had their due) should vtter.

Monopolier: m. A monopoler, or monopolizer; an ingrosser of sale commodities, by Patent from the Prince, or packing with others.

Monosyllabe: com. Of one sillable.

Monouc. An Eunuch: ¶ Turquesque.

Monseigneur. My Lord; (a title cõferred on such great men as be in degree, or authoritie, farre aboue vs.)

Monsieur. Sir, or Maister; (a title fit for an equall, or such a one, as is not much superior to him that bestowes it.)

Mon-

Monſieur, de trois au boiſſeau: &, de trois à vne eſpée. A thread-bare, ſingle-ſoled, courſe-ſpunne, gentleman.

Monſieur ſans queuë. A Cheater; alſo, a Maiſter without further addition; a gentleman without Arms, or Attendance; one thats troubled with no more gentrie then he needs.

Monſieur vaut bien Madame: Prov. A Lord deſerues (or is worth) a Ladie at all times.

Aujourd'huy monſieur demain Mouſcheur: Pro. To day a Maiſter, to morrow Maiſterleſſe.

Monſtier: m. A Monaſterie; alſo, a Minſter, or Cathedrall Church; (and ſometimes) alſo, any Pariſh Church.

Laiſſer le monſtier ou il eſt. Not to alter an auncient cuſtome; or, to leaue the determining of Church matters vnto Church-men.

Ce que l'enfant oit au fouyer eſt toſt connu iuſques au monſtier: Pro. The Pariſh quickly knowes what infants beare in priuate.

Monſtre: m. A monſter; a deformed creature; a thing thats faſhioned, or bred contrarie to nature.

Monſtre: f. A patterne, ſcantling, proofe, example, eſſay; alſo, a muſter, view, ſhew, or ſight; the countenance, repreſentation, or outward apparence of a thing; a demonſtration; alſo, a watch, or little clocke that ſtrikes not; alſo, the glaſſie box that ſtands on the ſtalls of Goldſmithes, Cutlers, &c.; and generally, any thing that ſhewes, or points at, another thing; whence;

La monſtre d'vn horologe. The hand of a clocke.

La monſtre d'vn maquignon de chevaux. The place wherein a horſe-ſcourſer ſhews his commodities.

Monſtré: m. ée: f. Shewed, repreſented; diſcouered, bewrayed; pointed at; ſignified, expreſſed, declared.

Monſtrée. as Monſtre; A view, ſhew, ſight, muſter of.

Monſtrement: m. A ſhewing, repreſenting, pointing at; a demonſtrating, expreſſing, declaring.

Monſtrer. To ſhew; repreſent; expreſſe, point at; manifeſt, ſignifie, demonſtrate, declare; diſcloſe, diſcouer, bewray, reueale.

Se monſtrer. To appeare, ſtand out, preſent or put forth himſelfe; alſo, to ſhew, or proue himſelfe.

Monſtrer la dent. To girne; to grow into choler.

Monſtrer le mouchoir blanc à. Looke Mouchoir.

Monſtrer les talons; ou le cul. To ſhew a faire paire of heeles; to runne away.

Monſtreur: m. A ſhewer, a demonſtrator.

Monſtrüeuſement. Monſtrouſly; miſhapenly, moſt deformedly, or defectiuely; againſt the courſe of nature.

Monſtrüeux: m. euſe: f. Monſtrous; miſhapen; defectiue, exorbitant, vnnaturall, or moſt contrary to nature.

Mont: m. A mount, hill, mountaine.

Les monts. (Without addition) are commonly vnderſtood to be the Alpes; High mountaines which diuide Italie, and France.

Mont Iovie. A riſing vnder (th'inſide of) one of the fingers.

Mont de pieté. A publicke ſtocke, or purſe maintained for the reliefe, aſſiſtance, and furtherance of young Tradeſmen.

Du mont à val. From the top to the bottome.

En mont. Vpwards, aboue, on high.

Par monts & par vaux. In euerie coaſt, in euerie place, euerie where, all the world through.

Promettre monts, & merveilles; ou, monts & vaux. To promiſe wonders, or golden worlds; (as ſome doe that either will not, or cannot, performe anything.)

Au matin les monts, au ſoir les fonds: Pro. So ſome men quickely fall from high full low.

Au matin vers les monts, au ſoir vers les fonts: Pro. A mornings walk vp th'hill, in th'euening downwards.

Mont. in ſtead of Moult. Much.

C'eſt mont. Looke Mon.

Montable: com. Mountable, aſcendable, climable.

Montagne. as Montaigne.

Montagner. faulçon mont. as Montain, or Montagon.

Montagon: m. A kind of hardie faulcõ, hard to be kept.

Montagu. The name of a beggerlie Colledge in Paris, founded in the yeare of Grace 1314.

Eſparvier de Montagu. A lowſe.

Montaignard: m. A mountainer, or mountaine man.

Montaigne: f. A mountaine, a great hill.

Montaigne de Mars. The fleſhie part of the hand betweene the thumbe, and middle finger; or the muſcles whereof it is made; (a tearme of Anatomie.)

Les hommes ſe rencontrent, & non pas les montaignes: Prov. Men meet often, mountaines neuer.

se Montaigner. To looke big on't; highly to exalt, or liſt vp, himſelfe.

Montaignette: f. A little mountaine.

Montaigneux: m. euſe: f. Mountainous, mountainie, Full of mountaines.

Montaignois: m. oiſe: f. Of or belonging to, reſiding or dwelling in mountaines.

Montaignolle: f. as Montaignette.

Montain: m. A kind of ſhort, ſtrong, and excellent (but ill to be kept) Faulcon, that vſeth to looke much on her feet; alſo, the little bird, called a Brambling.

Montanage. as Montenage.

Montance. à la mon. de cent. Ariſing, or amounting to aboue an hundred.

Montant: m. A Mountan; an vpright beame, or poſt in building; alſo, a boat that goes vp a riuer, or againſt the ſtreame; alſo, as Col rompu, or a ſmall riſing in the middle of the mouth of a bit; alſo, an vpright blow, or thruſt; alſo, th'aſcent, or riſing of a thing; or a thing, or any part thereof, conſidered in it aſcent.

Les montants d'vn lict. The bed-poſts.

Le montant du pied. Th'inſtup.

Montant. Mounting, aſcending, riſing, getting vp on; alſo, increaſing, or growing deere; alſo, ouerbidding another.

Monté: m. ée: f. Mounted, aſcended, riſen, got vp, got vpon.

Bien, ou mal monté. Well, or ill mounted; viz. well, or ill horſed.

Guiterre bien, ou mal monté. Well, or ill ſtrung.

Monté iuſques au nid de la pie. At the height of his fortunes; as high as his meanes, or worth, can raiſe him.

Il n'eſt pas aſſeuré qui trop haut eſt monté: Pro. He ſits not faſt whoſe ſeat is raiſd too high.

Montée: f. An aſcent, riſing, mounting, or climbing vp; alſo, the riſing part of a horſes bit.

La montée d'vn baſtiment. Th'upper part of a building; or, a repreſentation, or modell thereof, called the vpright plot of a building.

A haute montée le faix encombre; Prov. He that climbes high feels euerie ſmall weight heauie.

Apres grande montée grande vallée: Prov. After toyle reſt, after paine eaſe.

Apres grande vallée rude montée: Prov. The contrarie.

Montelet: m. A little mountaine.

Montenage: m. Toll paied vnto certaine Lords by ſuch as buy, and ſell beaſts, & other marchandiſe within their territories.

Monter. To mount, aſcend, riſe, climbe, to goe or get vp vnto; to leape as the male vpon the female; alſo, to increaſe, or grow deere; alſo, to ouerbid another; alſo, to ſhew in quantitie; to amount vnto; to raiſe, aduance, lift vp.

Monte monte. Words whereby yong Sparrowes are taught to climbe the lather.

Monter vn arbaleſte. To ſet a croſſebow in the ſtock.

Monter ſur l'aſne. faire ceſsion des biens. Looke Aſne.

Monter ſur ſes grands cheuaulx. To ſpeake high, ſtand vpon high tearmes.

Monter au greiner ſans chãdelle. To light in a turd.

Monter vne monſtre. To wind vp a watch.

Monter à la navire. To get a ſhipboord, to take ſhip.

Qui plus haut monte qu'il ne doit de plus haut chet qu'il ne voudroit: Prov. He that climbes higher then he ſhould falls lower then he would.

Monte-vin: m. A ſtrait-mouthed veſſell of glaſſe, which if you fill with wine, and another of the ſame faſhion with water, and then ſet this vpon that, the wine will ſtraight mount through the water to the top of the one veſſell, and the water deſcend through the wine to the bottome of th'other, without mixture of either with the other.

Monticule: f. A hillocke, a ſmall hill.

Montigené: m. ée: f. Borne, or bred on the mountains.

Mont-joye: m. The title of the chiefe Herauld in France.

Mont-joye: f. A barrow, a little hill, or heape of ſtones, layed in, or neere a highway, for the better diſcerning thereof; or in remembrance of ſome notable act performed, or accident befallen, in that place; alſo, a goale to run at; alſo (metaphorically) any heape.

Montoir. as Montouër; or the ſide whereon we get on.

Se ranger au montoir. Metaphorically from a horſe to a wench, that ſuffers a man to get on; or ſettles her ſelfe to giue him the eaſier getting on.

Montouër: m. A mounting blocke; or as Montoir.

Montroüage. as Montenage.

Montuëux. as Montaigneux.

Monture: f. A horſe to ride on, a ſaddle horſe.

Monument: m. A monument; ſepulchre, tombe; record, memoriall, remembrance of.

Moquer. Looke Mocquer.

Moquettes: f. Mockes, frumps, flowts, gudgeons.

Moral: m. ale: f. Morall, belonging vnto ciuilitie, or maners.

Moralement. Morally, in a morall ſence, or faſhion; alſo, doubly, or with a meaning different from his words.

Moraliſé: m. ée: f. Moralized, morally expounded.

Moraliſer. To morallize, to expound morally, to giue a morall ſence vnto; alſo, to act a Morall, or Enterlude of manners.

Moraliſeur: m. A moralizer, an expounder of moralities; an Ethicke Lectorer, or Philoſopher.

Moralité: f. Moralitie; a morall ſence, or ſubiect; alſo, a Morall, an Enterlude or Play of manners.

Morbifique: com. Vnwholeſome, infectious, diſeaſes-breeding, ſickneſſe-bringing.

Morbilles: f. The ſmall pockes.

Morceau: m. A morſell; bit, mouthfull; alſo, a gobbet, fragment, broken peece of, or peece broken off from.

Morceau d' Adam. The head of the wind-pipe, or throat, conſiſting of three little griſtles.

Se courroucer contre ſes morceaux. as vnder Courroucer.

Croupir aux eſcoutes de gras morceaux. To lye in wait for wealthie Offices, fat benefices, &c.

Cela leur fait tailler les morceaux plus menus. That makes them liue the more ſparingly, or pinch it the more.

A morceau reſtif eſperon de vin: Prov. Put on a reſtiue bit with ſpurres of wine.

Au ſerviteur le morceau d' honneur: Pro. The laſt morſell in the diſh is the ſeruants fee (ſome holding it but a rude part to leaue a diſh emptie.)

Morcel: m. as Morceau (in old French.)

Morcelaire. Collation morcelaire. A ſhort collation, a bit and away.

Morcelé: m. ée: f. Nibled, eaten by bits, bitten by little and little.

Morceler. To bite ſmall morſells, nibble, mince it, eat by little and little,

Morcelet: m. A bit, ſmall mammocke, or morſell.

Morche: f. Food, victuals, cheere, batling.

Morcillant: m. ante: f. Peecemealing, diuiding into morſells, or ſmall peeces; alſo, knapping, or nibling; biting faſt and ſleightly.

Vn oeil morcillant. A greedie, or hungrie eye; ſuch a one as expreſſes a great appetite to be at it.

Morcillé: m. ée: f. Peecemealed; diuided into ſmall morſells, or peeces; alſo, nibled; bitten faſt and ſleightly.

Morciller. To peecemeale; to diuide into ſmall morſells, or peeces; alſo, to nibble, or knapple; to bite verie faſt and verie ſleightly, like a rabbit that mumbles a hard thing which her teeth cannot pierce.

Mordacité: f. Mordacitie, eager detraction, ſharpe taunting, biting ſpeech, bitter tearmes.

Mordant: m. A kind of great, blacke, and ſlow Spider.

Mordant: m. ante: f. Biting.

Beſtes mordantes. The Wolfe, Boare, Otter, Fox, &c.

En mordant. Holding faſt, biting hard.

Mordeur: m. A biter.

Mordicant. Nipping, pinching, biting.

Mordication: f. A nipping, pinching, biting.

Mordienne. Gogs deathlings; a fooliſh oath in Rab.

Mordillé: m. ée: f. Nibled, gnawed; fretted, ſnipped off.

Mordiller. To nibble, gnaw, fret, ſnip off.

Mordiquer. To bite, pinch, nip.

Mordre. To bite, or ſet the teeth in; to gnaw, brouſe, champe, nibble; to pinch, nip, ſnip, or ſnap with the teeth; alſo, to ſting; alſo, to ſmell (whence, le mord; there your noſe;) alſo, to conceiue, apprehend, vnderſtand.

Mordre au baſton. pour le faire mordre, &c. To make him the more eager.

Mordre les doigts. To fret, or chaſe inwardly at a thing paſt helpe.

Mordre à la grappe: Il ſembloit mordre à la grappe. He ſpoke ſo heartily that he ſeemed to doe what he deliuered.

Mordre l' oreille à. as much as, flatter, ou careſſer mignonnement; wherin the biting of th'eare is, with ſome, an vſuall Action.

Mordre en riant. To quip, or taunt by way, or with a ſhew, of ieaſt; to ſhew a man a goood countenance to his face, and cut his throat behind his backe.

Il n'y pouvoit rien mordre. He could not skill of it, he knew not what to make of it; twas paſt his reach, out of his courſe, out of his element.

Vous avez bien envie de mordre ſur mon langage. You would faine take hold of, you hope for ſome aduantage by, my words.

Chien qui abbaye ne mord pas: Pro. Many words few, few, or no blowes; they ſeldome ſtrike home that threaten, or talke, much.

Homme mort mord iuſques, & par delà la mort: Prov. The bloud of the innocent cryes vnto God for vengeance, purſuing vnto, and ſtinging after, death the conſcience of a murtherer: Howſoeuer ſome may flatter themſelues with;

Homme mort ne mord pas: Prov. A dead man, (or as we ſay, a dead dog) bites not.

Mauvais chien ne trouve ou mordre: Pro. The curſt curre knowes not where to ſet his teeth.

On ne ſçäit qui mord ne qui rue: Prov. A man knowes not what may fall out.

Tel eſtrille fauveau qui puis le mord: Prov. Looke Fauveau.

Tel rid qui mord: Prov. Some laugh that bite, ſome ieaſt that gall; or as before in, Mordre en riant.

Mords: m. A Bitt for a horſe.

Mords. Bitten; gnawne, champed; nibled; nipped, or pinched with the teeth; ſtung.

More: m. A Moore, Morian, Blackamore.

Petit more. The name of an excellent Ordinarie in Paris.

Teſte de more. Looke Teſte.

Il a eſté pris comme le more. His cunning is diſcouered; or he hath couſened himſelfe in thinking to couſen others; he is caught in the ſnare he layed for another. (Francis Sforce the laſt abſolute Duke of Milain (ſurnamed the Moore, becauſe of his ſwart complexion, and the moſt craftie Prince of his time) hauing receiued a great ouerthrow, put on the apparrell of a Swiſſer, and thought ſo to haue liued, for a while, hidden among the Regiments of that Nation; but they within a while diſcouering, deliuered him vnto the French King, in whoſe priſons he ended his dayes.)

Moreau. Cheval moreau. A blacke horſe.

Morée: f. A kind of murrey, or darke-red colour.

Morel. as Moreau.

Morelle: f. The hearbe Morell, pettie Morell, garden Nightſhade.

Morelle furieuſe, ou maniaque. Mad, raging, or furious Nightſhade.

Morelle marine. A kind of ſleeping Nightſhade which growes in rockie places neere vnto the ſea.

Morelle mortelle. Dwale, Deaths hearbe, deadlie Nightſhade, great Nightſhade.

Morelle ſomnifique. Sleepie Nightſhade; or, as Morelle mortelle.

Morelles: f. Morell Cherries; late-ripe Cherries, dryed for Winter prouiſion.

Morene: f. as Hemorrhoide; the Emrods, or Piles.

Morengue. The name of a kind of Oliue.

Moreſque: f. A Mooreſſe, a ſhee Moore, a blacke woman.

Moreſque: com. Mooriſh, Moore-like, of the Moores.

Fueillage, & Ouvrage, moreſque. Moreske worke; a rude, or anticke painting, or caruing, wherein the feet and tayles of beaſts, &c, are intermingled with, or made to reſemble, a kind of wild leaues, &c.

Moreſſe: f. A Mooreſſe, a woman Moore, a blacke woman.

Moret: m. A kind of Lye whereof Sope is made; alſo, as Morée.

Morets. Des morets. winne-berries, hurtle-berries.

Morfe: f. A feaſting, or making of good cheere.

Morfée: f. as Morphée.

Morfiaille: f. Greedie eating, illfauoured or haſtie deuouring; alſo, bad or dead Wine, ſuch as is no better then droppings.

Morfiailler. To feed greedily, eat or drinke haſtily, and writhe the mouth illfauouredly in chawing, or ſwallowing.

Morfiailleries: f. Food or victualls greedily, and illfauouredly taken in.

Morfil: m. Fuorie, Elephants teeth.

Le morfil d'un couſteau. The edge-ſide of a new, and vnground knife.

Morfondement: m. as Morfondure.

ſe Morfondre. To take cold, catch cold, get a cold.

Se morfondre ſur. To ſtand long, or dwell much vpon.

Morfondu: m. uë: f. That hath taken, or caught cold; that hath got a cold.

Morfondure: f. A cold; or a taking of cold.

Morganegibe. A matrimoniall gift; or, ſuch a title as our frankmariage.

Morgeline: f. Fuie Chickweed, Henne-bit; alſo, the ſmall, or fine Chickweed; alſo, Pimpernell; whence;

Morgeline femelle. Blew Pimpernell.

Morgeline maſle. Red Pimpernell.

Morgoy, for Mort Dieu; (a ruſticall oath.)

Morgue: f. A ſad, or ſadned looke; a ſolemne, or ſeuere countenance; a ſoure face; an auſtere poſture, or ſett of the viſage; the mumping aſpect of one that would ſeeme grauer then he is; Alſo (in the Chaſtelet of Paris) a certaine Chaire, wherein a new-come priſoner is ſet, and muſt continue ſome houres, without ſtirring either head or hand, that the Keepers ordinarie ſeruants may the better take notice of his face, and fauour.

A le voir tenir ſi bonne morgue. Seeing him keepe his countenance ſo well, or ſet ſo good a face on the matter.

Morguer. To looke ſourely on, or make a ſoure face at; to braue or outface with a ſoure, ſolemne, or ſtout countenance.

Qui morgue le ciel, & fait gambades à la terre. that hangs on a gibbet.

Morgueſoupe. à la m. Whileſt they were eating their broweſe, or fat pottage.

Morgueur: m. A maker of ſtrange mouthes, or ſoure faces.

Morgueux. The ſame; or one that illfauouredly writhes his face to a ſhew of grauitie.

Morhouc: m. A Porpoſe, or ſea Hog. Breton.

Moribonde: com. Dying; or vpon the point of dying; readie to dye.

Morienne: com. Dying a naturall death; or, not killed, but dead of it ſelfe.

Morigené: m. ée: f. Bien mor. Mannerlie, well mannered, well behaued, of good carriage, well faſhioned, well brought vp.

Morille: f. The ſmalleſt, and daintieſt kind of red Muſhrome.

Pinſe morille. The game called, Hinch pinch, and laugh not.

Morillon: m. A ſhell-Drake; or broad-beaked waterfowle, whoſe head and neckes vpper part is of a ruddie, or Cheſtnut colour, the lower part of his necke, back and tayle being black, and the reſt of his back and his wings Mouſe-coloured; alſo, the name of a blacke grape that yeelds verie good Wine.

Morin. Vent morin. The South wind.

Morion: m. A Murrian, or Head-peece.

Morionné. Armed, or couered with a Murrian.

Lievres morionnez. (Sillie Artificers, or cowardlie Tradeſ-men, turned watchmen) the ordinarie watch- watchmen of good Townes.

Soldats morionnez. Footmen.

Morique. for Morisque. ¶Rab.

Morir. Looke Mourir.

Morisque: f. A Morris (or Mooriſh) daunce; alſo, the mizzen ſayle of a Ship.

Morme. The ruddie, and ſpotted ſea-Breame, or Goldennie.

Mormyre. as Morme.

Morne: com. Sad, heauie, lumpiſh, lowting; penſiue, agreeued, in a melancholie mood, all in dumpes; alſo, dull, ſtupide, ſottiſh, ſenceleſſe, blockiſh.

Lance morne. A launce with a blunt head; a tilting-ſtaffe.

Temps morne. Blacke, duskie, clowdie, gloomie, lowring weather.

Morné: m. ée: f. Dulled; blunted, vnpointed; alſo, tipped, headed, or pointed with.

Eſperons mornez. Spurres with blunt rowells.

Mornement. Sadly, penſiuely; moodily, lumpiſhly; dully, ſottiſhly; clowdily, lowringly.

Morner. To blunt, or dull the point of a weapon.

Mornifle: f. A daintie round Italian fruit, growing like a Toadſtoole; alſo, a tricke at Cards; alſo, a cuffe, or paſh on the lips.

Bailler mornifle ſur les levres du Roy. To coyne falſe money.

Moroche: f. The ſmalleſt, courſeſt, and dryeſt kind of Indian Wheat.

Moromantie: f. Fooliſh diuination.

Moron. as Mouron.

Morosité: f. Moroſitie, frowardneſſe, waywardneſſe, croßneſſe, ouerthwartneſſe.

Moroſophe: com. Fooliſh-wiſe.

Morphée: f. The Morphew.

Morphie: f. Fuorie.

Morpiaille. as Morfiaille. ¶Rab.

Morpion: m. A Crablouſe.

Grenier à morpions. A Harbour, or Garner for Crablice; a filthie, naſtie, ſluttiſh, or lowſie queane.

Morquacaſſé: m. ée: f. All-bruiſed, or out of ioint. ¶Rab.

Morrail de mulet: m. A kind of muzzle tyed about his noſe, and hauing hanged at it a great poake full of Hay, or Oats for him to feed on as he goes.

Morrailles. as Mourrailles.

Morre: f. A powch-mouth; a mouth garded with great, out-ſtanding, or ſlowching lips; (or, as Mourre.)

Morrion. as Morion.

Morrude: f. A Gurnard, or Carre-fiſh.

Mors: m. A bitt, or biting; alſo, as Mords.

Mors à diable. (So doe ſome call) the hearbe Auens, Bennet, or Bleſſed.

Mors du diable. Fore-bit, or Deuils-bit; (an hearbe.)

Morſaul. as Marſaul.

Morſillant, & Morſiller. as Morcillant, & Morciller.

Morſilleure: f. A peece-mealing; a breaking, or diuiding into many ſmall peeces.

Morſure: f. A biting; a champing, gnawing, or nibling; a pinching, or nipping with the teeth; alſo, a ſtinging; alſo, a bit; a morſell, or mouthfull taken with the teeth.

Morſure du diable. as Mors du diable.

En maigre poil a morſure: Pro. A bald head yeelds a lowſe a full bit; diſarmed of protection, ſoone harmed by oppreſſion.

Telle dent telle morſure: Prov. A ſharpe tooth a ſmart wound; ſuch as the tooth, ſuch is the bit.

Mort: f. Death; bane; a deceaſſe, or departure out of this life.

Mort aux boeufs. Ox-bane; an hearbe whereof if an Ox eat, he dies forthwith of the Squinzie.

Mort aux chiens. Dogs-bane; alſo, meadow, or wild Saffron.

Mort d'enfer damnation. Looke Enfer.

Mort aux oiſons. Henbane; alſo, Hemlocks.

Mort aux rats. The confection tearmed Ratsbane.

Mort Roland. Thirſt. ¶Rab.

Mort aux vers. The hearbe called Wormeſeed, ſea Wormewood, and Wormeſeed wort.

Donation à cauſe de mort. A Deed of gift, in the nature of a Legacie, or Will, reuocable during the giuers life.

A mort à mort. Kill, Kill; the cry of bloudie ſouldiors purſuing their fearefull enemies vnto death.

La mort l'attend à deux pas prés. Death is hard by him, or readie to ſeize on him.

Il eſt bon à aller querir la mort. He is a dreaming, lingering, or ſluggiſh meſſenger.

La mort n'eſpargne ny petit ny grand: Pro. Death baulkes no creature, ſpares nor ſmall nor great.

La mort n'a point d'ami, le malade n'a qu'un demy: Prov. Death hath no friend, the ſicke man but an halfe one.

Apres la mort le medecin: Pro. After death drugs; the miſchiefe paſt, a remedie.

Bonne la mort qui nous donne la vie: Prov. Good is the death which brings vs vnto life; Gods fauour's great not to repriue ſuch as end well, and die to liue.

Contre la mort n'y a point d'appel: Prov. From death there's no appealing.

Contre la mort n'y a point de medecine: Pro. No medicine againſt death; no remedie for death.

A longue corde tire qui d'autruy la mort deſire: Prov. See Corde.

Haine de Prince ſignifie mort d'homme: Prov. He whom a Prince hates is as good as dead.

Homme mort mord iuſques, & par delà la mort: Pro. Looke Mordre.

Le pourpre au ſoc mort d'egal poix balance: Prov. Death matches the poore clowne with purple Gallants.

Mort: m. morte: f. Dead, deceaſſed, departed; alſo, killed, murthered, ſlaine, made away.

Mort bois; &, Bois mort. Looke Bois.

Mort herbage; ou, Herbage mort. Looke Herbage.

Mortes œuvres. The ſides, or outſide of a ſhip from the wales vpward.

Morte ſaiſon. The time wherein Herrings, and ſuch like fiſh, being out of ſeaſon, are not, or ſhould not be, caught.

Le iour des morts. All-ſoules day.

Mal mort. See Mal.

La ſervice des morts. Dirges, Trentalls, Prayers, Vowes, or Sacrifices for the dead.

Se faire mort d'un fief. A father, &c, to paſſe ouer in his life time a fief, vnto his heire apparant.

Le mort execute le Vif. Looke Executer.

Le mort ſaiſit le vif, ſon heritier plus proche, & habile à luy ſucceder par couſtume generale de Frãce: ce qui a lieu en pluſieurs païs tant en ligne collaterale que directe, & tant par teſtament que ab inteſtat: Tellement que la iuſtice n'eſt pas ſaiſie de la ſucceſſion pour la delivrer à l'heritier. ¶Rageau.

Homme

Homme mort mord iuſques, & par delà la mort: &, Homme mort ne mord point: Pro. Looke Mordre.

Homme mort ne fait guerre: Prov. Dead men are quiet; the dead man makes no warre.

La guerre eſt la feſte des morts: Pro. Warre is the dead mans holyday.

Qui ſe combat n'eſt pas mort: Prov. A man's not dead as long as he doth fight: (Indeed there's oftentimes more life then honeſtie in a contention.)

Mortaillable: com. Subiect vnto his Lords Taxations, or vnto Mortmaine; or, as Main-mortable.

Mortaillablement. By, or in, Mortmaine; alſo, ſeruilly, ſlauiſhly, by villenage.

Mortaille: f. The Taxation, or Tax whereto a villain is ſubiect, either in his life time, or after his deceaſſe; at the (reaſonable) will of his Lord, or by cuſtome, or as he hath compounded with him.

Mortailler. A Lord to tax his villaines, or ſeruile Tenants.

Mortaiſe: f. A mortaiſe in a peece of timber.

Mortalité: f. Mortalitie, frailtie, ſubiection vnto death; alſo, a mortalitie, plague, murrein, rot.

Mortau. as Mortel (ruſtically.)

Mortel: m. elle: f. Mortall, humane, fraile, ſubiect vnto death; alſo, mortall, deadlie, bane-giuing, death-bringing, end-procuring.

Mortellement. Mortally, deadly, capitally, vnto the death, or vnto death.

Morte-main: f. as Main-morte; Mortmaine; alſo, the ſucceſſion of, or eſtate left by, illegitimated baſtards, vnnaturalized ſtrangers, and vnaffranchized villaines.

Mortement. Deadly, as one thats dead; alſo, weakely, faintly, without force, like one that is halfe dead.

Morte-payes: m. Dead-payes; Souldiors in ordinarie pay, for the gard of a Fortreſſe, or frontier Towne, during their liues. In France they be exempted from the Taille.

Morte-ſaiſon. The ſeaſon wherein Herrings, or other ſea-fiſh are not fit to be caught.

Congé de morte-ſaiſon. A Licence to fiſh in that vnſeaſonable ſeaſon.

Mort-gage, & Mort-gaige: m. Morgage, or Mortgage.

Mortier: m. A Morter (to bray things in;) alſo, the ſhort, and wide-mouthed peece of Ordnance called a Morter; alſo, Morter (vſed by Dawbers, &c;) alſo, a faſhion of Cap (with brimmes turned vp) worne by the Lord Chauncelor, and Preſidents of ſouereigne Courts on high dayes; alſo, a kind of ſmall-chamber-lampe.

Mortier de Sageſſe. An excellent Morter, made (by ſome) of the whites of egges, a little Maſtick, and Beane flower.

Le mortier ſent touſiours les aulx: Prov. A bad impreſſion made by nature, or an ill habit got by cuſtome, leaue euer ſome tacke of themſelues behind them.

Mortifere: com. Mortiferous, death-bringing, bane-giuing; deadlie, peſtilent.

Mortification: f. Mortification; a mortifying; a quelling, taming, or puniſhing of the fleſh; a deading of the appetite, a killing of luſt.

Mortifié: m. ée: f. Mortified; made tender.

Mortifier. To mortifie; to dead the appetite, quell, tame, or puniſh the fleſh; alſo, to mortifie, or make tender, fleſh thats to be eaten.

Iamais grain ne fructifie ſi premier ne ſe mortifie: Pro. Seed yeelds no fruit before it haue been mortified.

Mortifieur: m. A mortifier.

Mortmain. Looke Main-morte.

Mort-né: m. ée: f. Borne dead, ſtill-borne.

Mortuage: m. A Mortuarie; that which is due, or giuen, to a Parſon out of a dead mans goods.

Mortuaille. as Mortuaire.

Mortuaire: m. A funerall, or buriall; alſo, a hearſe-cloth, or funerall cloth.

Banquet de mortuaire. A funerall dinner, banquet, or feaſt.

Mortuaire: com. Belonging to a funerall, or to a Mortuarie.

Cloche mortuaire. A paſſing-bell; or, the bell that rings to a buriall.

Drap mortuaire. A hearſe-cloth.

Propos mortuaire. Talke of death, funeralls, or burialls.

Morvat: m. A dot of ſniuell, or of ſnot.

Morve: m. Snot, ſniuell.

Moruë: f. The Cod, or Greeneſiſh; (a leſſe, and dull-eyed kind whereof is called by ſome, the Morhwell.)

Moruë parée. Haberdine.

Moruë verte. Greeneſiſh.

Oeil de moruë. A great, out-ſtrouting, and dull-ſighted eye.

Tripe de moruë. Looke Tripe.

Morveau: m. Snot, ſniuell.

Le morveau de limaçons. The ſlyme of ſnayles.

Morvenic: m. The rough Cedar of Licia. (Provençal.

Morver. To ſniuell, be ſnottie, let ſnot fall.

Morves. Les m. de petit point. A kind of frenzie in a horſe, which during it neither knowes any that haue tended him, nor heares any that come neere him.

Morveux: m. euſe: f. Snottie, ſniuellie; ſlymie.

Il faut laiſſer ſon enfant morveux pluſtoſt que luy arracher le nez: Pro. Better a ſnottie noſe then none.

Moruyer. Poiſſonnier mor. A Fiſhmonger that ſells nothing but Cod, or Greeneſiſh.

Moſaïque: f. Worke of ſmall in-layed peeces; Moſaicall worke.

Moſcaire. Os m. as Os ſacré.

Moſcellin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, Muske.

Moſchardins: m. Small pellets, or graines of a delicate Paſte, made of Gumme Dragagant, Roſe-water, fine Sugar, Dragons bloud, and Muske.

Moſe: f. A patterne, as of one Herring in a barrell, ſhewing the goodneſſe of the reſt; or, as Moiſon.

Moſle. as Mole.

Moſlé. Bois moſlé. See Bois.

Moſler. To frame by mould, to caſt in a mould.

Moſleur. as Mouleur.

Moſquée: f. A Temple, or Church among the Turkes.

Moſquets. as Moſquettes.

Moſquette. as Moſquée; or a little Turkiſh Church; alſo, a Muſket (Peece.)

Moſquettes. Little iewells, earings, &c.

Mot: m. A Motto, a word; a ſpeech; alſo, the note winded by a huntſman on his horne; alſo, a quip, cut, nip, frumpe, ſcoffe, ieaſt.

Mot de gueule. A wanton or waggiſh ieaſt, an obſcene or laſciuious conceit.

Mot de rencontre. A wittie conceit; or, as in Rencontre.

Dire le mot. To breake a ieaſt.

Trencher le mot. To ſpeake briefely, and to the purpoſe;

poſe; alſo, to giue a quicke, and ſhort anſwer.

A bon entend tù ne faut qu'un demy mot: Prov. A good wit's well inform'd by halfe a Word.

Bons mots n'eſpargent nuls: Prov. Good words (or fit ieaſts) pay home.

En vne chanſon n'y a qu'un bon mot: Pro. There's but one good word in a ſong.

Motacille: f. A Wagtayle, or water-Wagtayle.

Moté. as Motet.

Mote. as Motte.

Motelle: f. A Powte, or Eele-powte.

Motet: m. A verſe in Muſicke, or of a Song; a Poſie; a ſhort Lay.

Moteur: m. A mouer, ſtirrer; perſuader, prouoker; a motioner.

Mothe. A little earthen fortreſſe, or ſtrong houſe, built on a hill; or, as in Motte.

Motif: m. A motiue; a mouing reaſon, argument, or cauſe; an incitement, inducement, or prouocation vnto a thing; alſo, the mouer, or author of an act.

Motoire: com. Mouing; that lends, yeelds, or affoords motion vnto.

Motrice: f. Mouing, ſtirring, inciting, inducing, perſuading, prouoking vnto.

Motté: m. as Motet.

Motte: f. A clod, lumpe, round ſodd, or turfe of earth; alſo, a little hill, or high place; a fit ſeat for a fort, or ſtrong houſe; (hence) alſo, ſuch a fort, or houſe (of earth;) alſo, the gryne, or Pubes; alſo, a Butt to ſhoot at.

Motté: m, ée: f. Set, or (vſually) ſitting, on a clod, or ſodd.

Motteau: m. as Mottelet; alſo, a clot of congealed moiſture.

Mottelet: m. A little clod, lumpe, ſodd, or turfe of earth.

Mottelette: f. as Mottelet.

Motteux: m. euſe: f. Cloddie, turfie, ſoddie.

Mouaillon: m. as Moilon.

Moüaner. To mawle, yawle, or cry like a little child.

Moüard: m. arde: f. Mumping, mowing, making mouthes.

Moucade: f. The Stuffe Moccadoe.

Moucadou: m. A hand-kerchiefe. ¶Poictevin.

Mouce. as Mouſſe; blunt.

Moucet: m. A Sparrow.

Moucet petit. A kind of ſmall hedge-Sparrow, which feeds altogether on flyes.

Mouchard: m. A ſpy, pike-thanke, eaue-dropper, promooter; alſo, a craftie, or ſubtill fellow.

Moucharder. To ſpy, watch, obſerue, or pry into other mens dealings; to eaue-drop it, or play the eaſing-dropper.

Mouche: m. A Ship-boy; or, a Saylor.

Mouché. A Vine-branch that runnes out in length, and is vnderpropped.

Mouche: f. A Fly; Looke Mouſche.

Mouché: m. ée: f. Snyted, wiped; ſnuffed; mocked; curtalled.

Mouchement: m. A ſnyting, or wiping of the noſe; a ſnuffing of a candle; a mocking; a curtalling.

Moucher. To ſnyte, blow, wipe, or make cleane the noſe; alſo, to ſnuffe a candle; alſo, to ſtrumpe, mocke, ſcoffe, deride.

Moucher la queuë d'un cheval. To curtall a horſe.

Les eſtoilles ſe mouchent. The ſtarres doe ſhoot, or fall.

Il ne ſe mouche pas du pied. He begins not at the wrong end, he does not things out of order, he ſpeaks not you; he is a ſubtill, craftie, or warie fellow.

Du temps auquel on ſe mouchoit encor à la manche. In a rude, ſimple, vnmannerlie, or ignorant age.

Moucheron: m. A little Fly; a Gnat; alſo, the little blacke patch thats glued by Maſticke, &c, on the faces of many; alſo, the ſnuffe, or weeke of a candle.

Avoir des moucherons en teſte. To be humorous, moodie, giddie-headed; or, to haue many proclamations or crotchets in the head.

Autant chie vn bœuf que mille moucherons: Pro. As much is ſhitten by one Oxe as by a thouſand Gnats; (Some by this Prouerbe meane, that ſparing ſhould be onely in great matters.)

Mouchet: m. A Musket; the taſſell of a Sparhawke; alſo, a little ſinging bird that reſembles the Friquet; alſo, an eare of ſome kinds of corne, as of Millet, &c; alſo, the Cats-tayle, or Aglet that hangs on Nut-trees; alſo, any manner of flap.

Mouchet petit. as Moucet petit.

Moucheter. Looke Mouſcheter.

Mouchettes: f. A paire of ſnuffers; alſo, a kind of flouriſhing among Caruers, &c.

Moucheur: m. A ſnyter, wiper, ſnuffer.

Mouchoir: m. A hand-kerchiefe.

Monſtrer le mouchoir blanc à. To make an offer of ſubmiſſion; or (after a ſound beating) to ſue vnto for peace.

Mouchon: m. A little Fly; alſo, the ſnuffe of a candle; whence;

Il gaſte vne chandelle pour trouver vn petit mouchon. He looſes much to recouer a little.

Moucle: f. as Moule; a Muskle.

Moudure. as Mouſture.

Moüe: f. A moe, or mouth; an (ill-fauoured) extenſion, or thruſting out, of the lips.

Faire la moüe aux harengieres. To ſtand on the Pillorie; (we ſay of one thats hang'd, he makes a wry mouth.)

Oncques vieil Singe ne fit belle moüe: Prov. An old-bred clowne was neuer mannerlie.

Mouée: f. Mouée de gens. A crowde, or thick troope, of people.

Mouelle. as Moelle.

Mouette, & Mouettes; as Moette, & Moettes.

Mouffle: f. A Winter Mittaine; alſo, as Mouſle; alſo, the vaulted couer, or lid of a Goldſmithes Crucible.

On ne prend pas tels chats ſans mouffles. Such places, or people are not to be woon without ſcratching, ſcuffling, ſtrugling.

Moufflet: m. ette: f. Hanches moufflettes. Plumpe, or full hips.

Mouſle: f. A truckle for a Pullie; alſo, as Mouffle.

Mougnon. See Moignon.

Mouillé: m. ée: f. wet, moiſtened, ſoaked, or ſteeped in liquor.

Se couvrir d'un ſac mouillé. Fooliſhly to thinke he couers his bard dealing with his idle pretexts; or, obſtinately to ſtand on prooſes, or alledge excuſes, which rather conuince, then cleare, him.

Mouillement: m. A metting, or moiſtening; a ſoaking, or ſteeping in moiſture.

Mouiller. To wet, moiſten, ſoake, or ſteepe in moiſture.

Mouiller l'ancre. To caſt anker.

Qui ſe garde deſſous la fueille deux fois ſe mouille: Pro. Seeke Fueille.

Mouillevent: m. A tipler, quaffer, bibber; one that ofte wets his wind-pipe. ¶Rab.

Mo-

Mouilleure: f. A wetting, or moiſtening; wetneſse, moiſture.
Mouilloir: m. A certaine little veſſell wherein Spinſters moiſten their fingers.
Mouillure. as Mouilleure.
Mouiſſon: f. A Cowes milking.
Moulage: m. Griſt, or a grinding; alſo, Multure, the fee, or toll thats due for grinding.
Moulaine: f. Mullein, Woll-blade, Long-wort, Hares-beard, Hig-taper, Torches.
Moulaine blanche. White Mullein, or white-flowred Mullein.
Mouldeur: m. A grinder.
Mouldre. To grind; alſo, to pownd, or ſtampe into peeces.
Qui ne peut mouldre à vn moulin aille à l'autre: Prov. Let him that cannot fadge in one courſe fall to another.
Qui premier arrive au moulin le premier doit mouldre: Pro. The firſt commer is to be ſerued firſt.
Mouldure: f. Multure, griſt, grinding; alſo, a pownding, or ſtamping into peeces.
Moule: m. A mould (wherein a thing is caſt, formed, or forged;) alſo, a high ſhore, or ſtrand by the ſea ſide; or, as Mole, a Peere, &c.
Le moule à chaperon, ou du chaperon. The head (of a woman.)
Le moule du gippon. The bulke, bellie, or bodie; whence, Coronner, ou doubler le moule du gippon. To feed exceſſiuely; or, as in Gippon.
Le moule du pourpoint; The bulke, or vpper part of the bodie; whence, Il y laiſſa le moule du pourpoint; He was killed, or left his carkaſſe, there.
Bois de moule. Billets, or logs, of a certaine ſize; or which haue beene aſſized by the Mouleur.
Chandelles de moule. Candles made in moulds; (great) Chriſtmas candles.
Moule de bois. A Wood-ſtacke, or pile of wood.
Moule: f. A Muskle (fiſh.)
Moulé: m. ée: f. Moulded; caſt, or framed in a mould.
Mouler. To mould, or caſt in a mould; to frame, or forge by mould; alſo, to appoint a mould for, preſcribe a ſize vnto.
Mouler vn viſage. To take the faſhion or print of a face by couering it with plaiſter, &c.
Il m'en a faict mouler. He hath put me to a good deale of paines by it.
Moulerie: f. A moulding; a forging by mould, a caſting in a mould.
Moulette. as Molette.
Mouleur: m. A moulder; a caſter, forger, or framer of things in Moulds; alſo, as Moulleur; alſo, an aſſiſer of wood (whether for building, or firing) an officer that lookes it be ſufficient both in ſize, quantitie, and qualitie.
Moulhe. Ma moulhe. My wife. ¶Gaſc.
Moulin: m. A Mill.
Moulin à bras. A Querne, or Hand-mill.
Amener l'eau au moulin. To bring water to the Mill; viz. fees, or crownes to the purſe.
Laiſſer de l'eau en ſon moulin. Seeke Eau.
Tirer l'eau en ſon moulin. To procure his owne gaine without any reſpect of others iuſt intereſt.
C'eſt la maiſtreſſe rouë qui tourne le moulin. This is a principall point, or doth all in all, in the matter.
Il nous reſte quelque autre moulin à tourner. There is yet ſomewhat elſe for vs to doe.

Aſſez va au moulin qui ſon aſne y envoye: Pro. He that ſends another, is as farre engaged as if he went himſelfe.
C'eſt au four, & au moulin ou l'on ſçait des nouvelles: Prov. An Ouen, and Mill are nurſeries of newes.
Chaſcun ira au moulin avec ſon propre ſac: Prov. Euerie one ſhall beare his owne burthen, or anſwere for himſelfe.
Le four appelle le moulin bruſlé: Prov. The guiltie accuſes the innocent.
On ne peut eſtre enſemble au four, & au moulin: Prov. One cannot be in two places, or follow two buſineſſes, at once.
Prodigue, & grand beuveur de vin, n'a du ſien ne four, ne moulin: Pro. The quaffing waſt-good quickly rids his hands of royalties, poſſeſſions, goods, and lands.
Qui ie ſois Officier au moins d'un moulin: Prov. Looke Officier.
Qui entre dans vn moulin il convient de neceſſité qu'il s'enfarine: Prov. He that goes into a Mill cannot auoid bemealing.
Qui mieux aime autruy que ſoy au moulin il meurt de ſoif: Pro. He that hurts himſelfe to helpe others, will dye of thirſt at the Mill-tayle.
Qui ne peut mouldre à vn moulin aille à l'autre: Prov. What one will not (or, if one will not) another will.
Qui premier arrive au moulin le premier doit mouldre: Prov. Firſt come firſt ſerued.
Raiſon eſt au moulin: Pro. (Belike becauſe Griſt is taken in, and deliuered out, by meaſure.)
Sous ombre d'aſne entre chien au moulin: Prov. Seeke Aſne, or Chien.
Mouliner. as Mouldre.
Moulinet: m. A little Mill; alſo, a Moriſdauncers Gamboll; alſo, a round feather on any part of a horſe; alſo, a Fencer-like round flouriſh with a two-hand ſword.
Moulinet à aeſle. as Ventail.
Moulinet à bras (pour monter arbaleſtes) A Rack for a Croſſe-bow.
Moulinet à braſſieres. The barrell of a Windleſſe, or Fearne.
Moulinier: m. A Miller, a Millner.
Moulle. as Moule.
Moulleur: m. A Grinder; alſo, as Mouleur.
Moullon. as Moulon.
Moulon: m. A dry wall made with lyme, or morter; alſo, a heape, or maſſe, of any ſuch thing.
Moulon d'eau. A great billow of water.
Moulon de foin. A ſtacke, or great cocke of Hay.
Mouloter. To ſeeke, or hunt after field-Mice.
Moult. Much, greatly, paſſing, exceedingly.
Moulture: f. Multure; a griſt, or grinding; the corne ground; alſo, the toll, or fee thats due for grinding; Looke Mouſture.
Bled moulture. Moulture Corne, or Meſlin; Wheat, Rye, and Barlie mingled together.
Moulu: m. uë: f. Ground; pownded, or broken into ſmall peeces.
Or, & argent moulu. Aſçavoir; deſtrempé, & meſlé avec vif argent, ou quelque liqueur, pour dorer.
I'ay le corps tout moulu. My bodie is all broken, lamed, or maymed.
Moulué. as Moluë.

Mou-

Moulure: f. A moulding; alſo, a mould; alſo, a moulding, an edge, or member ſtanding out from a peece of timber, ſeeling, or ſtone-worke, and diſtinguiſhed from the reſt by a line on either ſide of it.
Droict de moulure. Seeke Droict.
Mounier: m. as Muſnier; alſo, the bird called a Kings-fiſher; alſo, the little, long-tayled, and black-headed Titmouſe.
Mourable: com. Mortall; readie, or likelie, to dye; ſubiect, or neere, vnto death.
Mourant. Dying, deceaſing; decaying, periſhing.
Homme vivant mourant. Looke Homme.
On s'adviſe tard en mourant: Prov. Too late one takes aduiſe when he muſt leaue the world.
Mourene: f. A Lamprey; or, as Murene.
Mourin: m. The Corne-deuouring vermine, called a weeuell.
Mourir. To dye, deceaſe, depart this life; to periſh; to decay.
Tu me fais mourir. Thou vexeſt, or troubleſt me exceedingly.
Mourir ſur les coffres. To dye following the Court, or neuer to leaue the Court; (where poore wayters, and ſuitors vſually ſit, and reſt themſelues on their Patrons Trunkes, and Coffers.)
Mourir de faim pres le meſtier. To worke faſt, and thriue but ſlowly; or, to ſtarue in an abundant place, or Age.
Auſſi toſt meurt veau comme vache (& le hardi comme le laſche;) Pro. As ſoone dyes the yong as the old (the coward as the bold.)
C'eſt trop aimer quand on en meurt: Pro. He loues too much that dyes for loue.
En la peau ou le loup eſt luy convient mourir: Pro. See Loup.
Le loup mourra en ſa peau qui ne l'eſcorchera vif: Pro. A knaue will ſleepe in a knaues skin, vntill he either looſe it, or his life.
Envieux meurent, mais envie ne mourra iamais: Pro. The enuious are mortall, but enuie eternall.
Envis meurt qui appris ne l'a: Pro. He that hath not well learnt, is loath, to dye.
Il commence bien à mourir qui abandonne ſon deſir: Prov. Who quits what he deſires, begins to dye in earneſt.
L'un meurt dont l'autre vit: Pro. That whereof one dyes, another liues; that which is beneficiall to one, is banefull to another.
Qui bien veut mourir bien vive: Prov. He that would dye well muſt liue well; an honeſt life ends in a peacefull death.
Qui mieux aime autruy que ſoy au moulin il meurt de ſoif: Pro. Looke Moulin.
Va ou tu peux, meurs ou tu dois: Pro. Goe whether thou canſt, but dye where thou ſhouldeſt; goe any whether ſo thou dye at home.
Mourlon: m. The name of a fertile Vine.
Mouron. as Mourron.
Mourrailles: f. Barnacles for a horſes noſe.
Mourre: m. The face, or part of the face about the mouth (moſt properly) of beaſts; the muzzle, or chuffe.
Mourre: f. The play of loue; wherein one, turning his face from another, gueſſes how many fingers he holds vp.
Mourrin. A Mite, or Weeuell.
Mourron: m. The hearbe called Pimpernell; Some alſo tearme Chickweed ſo, becauſe of the reſemblance that is betweene ſome kinds of Chickweed, and Pimpernell.
Mourron baſtard. Baſtard Chickweed (whereof Gerard deſcribeth foure kinds.)
Mourron blanc. Ordinarie Chickweed.
Mourron bleu. Blue Pimpernell, female Pimpernell.
Mourron femelle. as Mourron bleu.
Mourron maſle. Male Pimpernell; the colour of whoſe flower is betweene a red, and a purple, and in ſome places fully red; and therefore it is alſo called,
Mourron rouge. Red Pimpernell.
Mourron quarré. So doe ſome (who expreſſe Chickweed by Mourron) tearme Pimpernell.
Mourron ſauvage. as Mourron violet.
Mourron violet. Purple Snap-dragon, or Calues-ſnowt is called ſo (but ſomewhat improperly; for Snap-dragon reſembles no manner of Pimpernell;) Some alſo call great Henne-bit thus.
Petit mourron. as Mourron quarré.
Mourru: m. uë: f. Chuffie, broad, out-ſtanding, like the face of a Lyon, muzzle of an Oxe, &c.
Mourrues: f. The Piles, or Emrods in the fundament; alſo, the Mumpes, or mourning of the Chyne.
Mouruë: f. The Mumpes; and (in a horſe, &c) the mourning of the Chyne.
Mouſce. as Mouſſe.
Mouſchard. as Mouchard.
Mouſche: f. A Fly; alſo, the play called Muſſe; alſo, a Spy, Eaue-dropper, Informer, Promooter.
Mouſche à chien. A Ticke, or Tyke.
Mouſche de lippée. A lickorous, or ſawcie companion.
Mouſche de mer. Th'ordinarie ſmall Muskle. (Langued.
Mouſche à miel. A Bee, the ſmall honie Bee.
Mouſches en laict. A cleere proofe, manifeſt thing, a plaine and palpable matter.
Abbreuvoir à mouſches. A wound, or bloud-wipe.
L'Aube des mouſches. Some three or foure houres after Sunne-riſe.
Chaſſeur de mouſches. A kill-Fly, kill-Cow, braggadochio, vaine fellow; whence;
Chaſſer apres les mouſches. To ſpend the time moſt idly, or vainely.
Maiſtre mouſche. (The name of a cunning Jugler; hence alſo) a craftie fellow, ſubtill companion, ſlye mate.
Teſte de mouſche. An imperfection in the eye, which makes the membrane Vvée peere out through the hornie tunicle, in the forme, and of the quantitie, of a Flyes head.
Quelle mouſche l'a piqué? what is the matter that ſo nettles him? what ſuddaine humor is there come vpon him?
On euſt dit qu'il n'euſt ſceu deſlier vne mouſche. One would haue thought he had beene verie ſimple.
Les mouſches vont touſiours aux chevaux maigres: Pro. Hungrie flyes are boldeſt with leane horſes; purloining officers with thred-bare peuſants.
Mouſchebout: m. The ſpotted Cod whereof Haberdine is made.
Mouſcher. To ſpy, pry, ſneake into corners, thruſt his noſe into euerie thing.
Mouſcheron: m. A Muſhrome, or Toad-ſtoole; alſo, a little Fly; a Gnat; alſo, an vpſtart Gentleman; alſo, as Moucheron.
Mouſchet. as Mouchet.
Mouſcheté: m. ée: f. Spotted; powdered with many ſpots of ſundrie, or the ſame, colours (eſpecially blacke;) alſo, alſo, pinked, or cut vpon with ſmall cuts.

Fuſtaine mouſchetée. Looke Fuſtaine.

Taffetas mouſcheté. Tuftaffata, or tufted Taffata.

Mouſcheter. To ſpot; to powder, or diuerſifie with many ſpots of ſundrie, or the ſame, colours (eſpecially blacke;) alſo, to pinke, or cut with ſmall cuts; alſo, to tuft, or ſet thicke with little tufts; alſo, to twinkle, or ſparkle, as a ſtarre.

Mouſchetiere: f. A Fly-flap; alſo, the end of a beaſts tayle.

Mouſcheture: f. A ſpottednesse, or ſpotting; alſo, a pinking, or tufting; alſo, little, and thicke ſpots; pinkes, or tufts, vpon a thing.

Mouſcheur: m. A Fly-Catcher; (or, a nickname beſtowed by the Italians, &c, on the French Monſieur.)

Aujourd'uy Monſieur demain mouſcheur: Prov. To day a maiſter, to morrow a micher.

Mouſchon: m. A little Fly.

Mouſque: m. A nickname, or name of contempt, for an ordinarie boy; whence, Venez ça mouſque; Come hither you raſcall; or come hither wag (for it implies only an extenuation without iniurie;) alſo, a man that hath loſt his eares; in which ſence it is alſo vſed Adiectiuely; as in Chien mouſque. A curtall, and eareleſſe curre; a dog that hath loſt both his eares, and his tayle.

Mouſquet: m. A Musket (Hawke, or Peece.)

Mouſquetaire: m. A Musketteere; a ſouldior that ſerues with a Musket.

Mouſſe: m. A Skipper; or, a Ship-boy.

Mouſſe: f. Moſſe; alſo, the moſſie downe that growes vpon Quinces, Peaches, &c.

Mouſſe marine. Sea-Moſſe, Corall-Moſſe, Coralline.

Mouſſe marine à larges fueilles. Slanke, Wrake, Lauer; alſo, Oyſter-greene, ſea Lungwort.

Mouſſe terreſtre, ou de terre. Common ground-Moſſe; alſo, Club-Moſſe, Wolfe-claw-Moſſe, Wolues foot.

La mouſſe luy eſt creuë au goſier. His mouth is all Moſſe-begrowne, his chaps haue long beene idle, he hath faſted long.

Iamais tu ne cueilleras mouſſe. Thou wilt neuer grow rich; from the Prouerbe;

Pierre qui ſe remue n'accueille point de mouſſe; Pro. The rolling ſtone gathers no Moſſe.

Mouſſe: com. Dull, blunt; edgeleſſe, or pointleſſe.

Mouſſé: m. ée: f. Dulled, blunted, made edgeleſſe, or pointleſſe.

Mouſſeau: m. A little round heape, or ball, of Moſſe.

Mouſſelu: m. uë: f. Moſſie.

Mouſſeron. as Mouſcheron.

Mouſſeux: m. euſe: f. Moſſie, full of Moſſe.

Mouſſon: f. A Cowes milke, or milking; as much as ſhe yeelds at a milking, or meale.

Mouſſu. as Mouſſeux.

Mouſt: m. Muſt; Wine vnrefined; new, or ſweet Wine; alſo, the wort of Ale, or Beere.

Mouſtache: m. A muſtachoe, or the Muſtachoes.

Ce ſeroit pour luy bien hauſſer les mouſtaches. This would make him raiſe his hope, or thoughts, to a verie high pitch.

Mouſtaché: m. ée: f. Hauing a muſtachoe, or long haire, on the vpper lip.

Mouſtarde: f. Muſtard.

Mouſtarde blanche. White Sennie, white Muſtard, garden Muſtard.

Mouſtarde noire. Common Sennie, field Sennie, field Muſtard.

Mouſtarde ſauvage. Treacle Muſtard, wild Muſtard, wild Sene.

Baveux comme vn pot à mouſtarde. As frothie as a Muſtard-pot; foaming at the mouth like a Bore (ſay we.)

Les Enfans en vont à la mouſtarde. It is ſo contemptible, or common, that Muſtard-pots are ſtopt with all.

Amuſer quelqu'un à la mouſtarde. To hold him buſied about trifles (from ſuch as trouble themſelues, and others in controlling ſleight expences (as, it is not poſſible that I ſhould haue ſpent ſo much in ſawce &c) and in the meane while paſſe ouer great matters.)

Mouſtarde apres diſner: Prov. After meat muſtard; helpe when danger, ſupply when want, hath left vs.

Mouſtardier: m. A Muſtard-pot; alſo, a maker, or ſeller, of Muſtard.

Mouſtardier: m. ere: f. Of, or affecting, Muſtard.

Mouſtele: f. The little beaſt called, a Weeſell.

Mouſtoile. as Mouſtele.

Mouſture: f. as Moulture; Multure; griſt, grinding; and the toll thats due for grinding; alſo, the meale that falls, as it grinds, into the bag, or Mill-cheſt.

Prendre d'un ſac deux mouſtures. To take double fees.

Mout. as Moult.

Moutardier: m. The great, blacke, and ſcriching Martin, or Swallow.

Moute: f. Multure, griſt, grinding.

Mouton: m. A Mutton, a Weather; alſo, Mutton; alſo, the battering Engine called a Ramme; alſo, a wild (Indian) Peacock; alſo, an ignorant, ſillie, or plain-dealing fellow; one thats eaſily ouer-raught, gulled, or beguiled.

Mouton à la grande laine. A Sheepe well-woolled, or of great burthen; alſo, a coyne of gold ſtamped on the one ſide with a Sheepe, on the other with a croſſe Fleury, hauing at each angle a Flower de Luce; (John Duke of Berry firſt cauſed it to be made about the yeare 1371.)

Pain mouton. Small white loaues (with outſides ſtuck full of graines of wheat) for children.

Sault du mouton. Looke Sault.

A nos moutons. To our matter againe.

Cercher cinq pieds en vn mouton. To expect more from a thing then it can yeeld.

C'eſt vn mouton de Berry, il eſt marqué ſur le nez. He hath gotten a rap ouer the noſe; (whereon the Shepheards of Berry marke their Sheepe.)

Sentir ſon eſpaule de mouton. To ſmell very ranke, or rammiſh.

A petite achoiſon le loup prend le mouton: Pro. See Loup.

Chair de mouton manger de glouton: Pro. Fleſh of a Mutton is food for a glutton; (or was held ſo in old time, when Beefe and Bacon were your onely dainties.)

Moutonnage: m. Toll payed vnto certaine Lords by thoſe that buy and ſell beaſts, or other marchandize, within their Territories.

Moutonnaille: f. Sheepe, Weathers.

Moutonnée: f. A tractable, fond, or ſillie wench.

Moutonnier: m. A Shepheard, or keeper of Sheepe.

Moutonnier: m. ere: f. Of Mutton; belonging to a Mutton, or Weather.

Mouvance de fief. A holding of, depending on, a doing of ſuit and ſeruice vnto, another, or a higher, fief.

Mouvement: m. A mouing, ſtirring; motion, agitation, courſe; agilitie; moueableneſſe; an inclination, diſpoſition, free will.

Mouvement de terre. An Earthquake.
Mouveur: m. A mouer, or ſtirrer; a ſtirring, buſie, or troubleſome fellow.
Mouvoir. To moue, ſtirre; iog, wag; to remoue; alſo, to induce, allure, intice, perſuade, incline, prouoke, incite; alſo, as Releuer, to bold land of; alſo, to breake vp land for fallow.
Mouvoir la Camerine. To ſtirre a ſtinking puddle; to bring a troubleſome, or filthie buſineſſe on the Stage.
Moux. The plurall of Mol.
Moy: m. Me, I; my ſelfe, I my ſelfe.
Il fait bien le quant à moy. He brags, or braues it exceedingly; he will not take it as he hath done.
Moyau: m. The middle, or center of; and (in a wheele) as Moyeu.
Au moyaũ de. In the verie bowels of.
Moyen: m. A meane; courſe, way; manner, ſort, forme, faſhion, order; occaſion, reaſon; indeauour; alſo, a moderation, or meaſure; alſo, a meanes, mediator; moderator; arbitrator; alſo, as Vireſon; alſo, the greateſt peece of the bottome of a Hogſhead, &c.
Moyen de feneſtre. The croſſe-barre of a window.
Homme ſans moyen. That holds of the King in chiefe, or by an immediate homage.
Moyen: m. enne: f. Meane, indifferent, moderate, meaſurable, competent, reaſonable.
Iuſtice moyenne. Looke Iuſtice.
Muſcle moyen. A muskle (in the hand) that ſerues to moue the thumbe towards the fingers.
Moyennant. Working, being the meane of, or a meanes for.
Moyennant que. So that, if ſo be that.
Moyenné: m. ée: f. Wrought by meanes; alſo, rich, well to liue, or that hath meanes to liue.
Moyennement. Meanely, moderately, meaſurably, reaſonably, indifferently, competently.
Moyenner. To worke, effect, or compaſſe (by meanes;) to be the meanes of, or a meanes for.
Moyenneté: f. Meaneneſſe, indifferencie, competencie.
Moyenneur: m. A meanes, mediator; ſtickler, arbitrator, moderator betweene partie and partie.
Moyeu: m. The yolke of an egge; alſo, the naue, or ſtocke of a wheele.
Moylon. Seeke Moilon.
Moyne. as Moine.
Moyneau. Looke Moineau.
Moynerie: f. Monkerie; the ſtate, or profeſſion of a Monk.
Moyneſſe: f. A Nunne.
Moynoton: m. A little Monke; alſo, the leſſe, or little Titmouſe.
Moyſe: m. Holie Moyſes; whoſe ordinarie counterfeit hauing on either ſide of the head an eminence, or luſter ariſing ſomewhat in the forme of a horne, hath imbouldened a prophane Author to ſtile Cuckolds, Parents de Moyſe.
Moyson. Size, bigneſſe, quantitie, full length.
Moyton. as Moiton.
Muable: com. Mutable, changeable, variable, vnſtedfaſt, vnſteadie, wauering, fickle, inconſtant, vnſtable.
Domaine muable. See Domaine.
Muableté: f. Mutableneſſe, changeableneſſe, variableneſſe, ficklineſſe, wauering, inconſtancie, vnſtableneſſe.
Muance: f. Change, alteration; and particularly, a variation, or change of notes in ſinging; viz. when in going either aboue, or below the ſix Notes (Ve, re, mi, fa, ſol, la) one of them is changed in the middle to gaine ground, and to knit the gradation; as if in ſtead of Ve, re, mi, fa, ſol, la, in aſcending, one ſhould ſing Vt, re, mi, fa, re, mi, fa, ſol, &c.
Mucagineux: m. euſe: f. Slymie.
Mucer. as Muſſer. To hide. ¶Rab.
Muche: f. A biding hole. ¶Norm.
Mucilage: m. Slyme; or, a ſlymie liquor drawne from ſeeds, roots, &c; and thence, a clammie ſap, glewie iuice, cleauing moiſture.
Mucoſité: f. Slymineſſe; or filthie, and hoare moiſture, as of ſlyme, ſnot, ſniuell, &c; or the filthineſſe thereof.
Mucqueux: m. euſe: f. Slymie; ſnottie, ſniuellie; (and hence) alſo, muſtie, or fuſtie.
Mucydan. Slymie; mouldie, hoarie, all the yere long. ¶Rab
Mue: f. A change, or changing; (hence) any caſting of the coat, or skin, as the muing of a Hawke; alſo, the age, or yeare of the age, of an Intermure, or white Hawke; alſo, a Hawkes Mue; and, a Mue, or Coope wherein fowle is fattened.
La mue d'un cerf. The caſting of his head; alſo, his head, or hornes being caſt.
La mue d'une femme. A womans muing; an elderlie womans wrinkled skin growne ſmooth, and ſleeke, by the helpe of corroſiue drugs.
Mué: m. ée: f. Changed, altered, transformed, metamorphoſed; alſo, mued, renued; caſt, as the coat, or skin.
Muel: m. A Maſons Plumb-rule.
Muement: m. A changing, altering, transforming; a turning, or caſting of the coat; a muing.
Muer. To chãge, alter, trãsforme, trãsfigure, diſguiſe, tranſlate, ſhift, varie; to mue, to caſt the head, coat, or skin.
Muere: com. Dampiſh.
Muerier. as Meurier.
Muet: m. A dumbe man.
Muet: m. ette: f. Dumbe, ſpeechleſſe, tongue-leſſe; ſtill ſilent, huſht; mute; Looke Mut.
Muet comme vn Francolin pris. Looke Francolin.
Plus muet qu'un poiſſon. More dumbe then a fiſh.
Muette: f. The Chamber, or Lodge of a Lieutenant, or cheeſe Raunger, of a Forreſt; alſo, a Hares neaſt, the forme, or place, wherein ſhe kindles.
Muſle: m. The ſnowt, or muzzle.
Mugault. as Macault.
Muge: m. (The ſea-fiſh called) a Mullet.
Muge volant. A kind of ſmall-mouthed Mullet, that hath long finnes like wings.
Amour de muge: Pro. Faithfull, and moſt affectionat loue of a wife; (the female Mullet chuſing rather to be caught by fiſhers then to abandon her Make.)
Mugereul: m. A kind of Mullet. ¶Narbonnois.
Mugir. To low, or bellow, like an Ox, &c.
Mugiſſement: m. A lowing, or bellowing.
Muglement. as Mugiſſement.
Mugler. To low, or bellow.
Mugot: m. A hoord, or ſecret heape of treaſure.
Mugotté: m. ée: f. Hoorded; alſo, ripened, as fruit in ſtraw
Mugotter. To hoord; alſo, to ripen, as fruit in ſtraw.
Muguet: m. Woodrow, woodroſe, woodrowell; alſo (and the more properly) as,
Grand muguet. The May-bloſſome, May-Lillie, Liricumſancie, Lillyconually.
Petit muguet. Pettie Muguet, Cheeſewort, Cudwort, Cheeſe-running, Maids haire, our Ladies Bedſtraw; alſo, the bearbe Harrewort, or Sharrewort.
Muguet: m. Vnim. A fond woer, or courter of wenches; an effeminate yongſter, a ſpruce Carpet-knight; alſo, a curiouſly-dreſſed babie of clowts.
Mugueté: m. ée: f. Courted, woed, ſued vnto, wherevnto loue is made.

Mu-

Mugueter. To court, woe, make loue, or be ſuitor vnto a a woman (Le plus ordinairement à mauvaiſe fin;) alſo, to ſneake in and out, or goe ſmelling (as it were) about a thing which he ſeekes to enioy; whence;

Mugueter vne ville. To attempt by all priuat meanes the ſurpriſall, or taking in, of a Towne.

Muguette: f. A Nutmeg.

Muguette de mouton. The nut of a leg of Mutton.

Muguetté, & Mugueter. as Mugueté, & Mugueter.

Muguot. as Mugot.

Muid: m. A great Veſſell, or Meaſure.

Muid de bled (meſure de Paris;) containes twelue Septiers; (the Septier two Mines; the Mine ſix Boiſſeaux; the Boiſſeau foure Quarts) which come to about fiue Quarters, a Combe, and a Buſhell of London meaſure.

Muid de charbon. Containes 16 Mines (which come to about 30 of our Buſhels.)

Muid de terre. C'eſt autant que 12 Arpens, ou Septiers.

Muid de Vin. Containes (aboue the lees) 36 Septiers of eight (Pariſian) Pintes to the Septier; (Three of them are to make a Tunne, ſay the Cuſtomes of Clermont.)

Muid de Clergie. Store of Clarkſhip, a buſhell of cunning, abundance of learning.

Muifle: f. A kind of Sardinian Sheepe, whoſe wooll is hairie like a Goats.

Muifleron. as Muifle.

Mular: m. A kind of great whall. ¶Langued.

Mulard: m. One that hath kibie heeles.

Mulaſſe: m. The ſea-monſter called, a Whirlepoole. ¶Marſeillois.

Mulataille: f. Mules; the generation, race, or kind of Mules; alſo, a troope, or companie of Mules.

Mulcté: m. ée: f. Fined, amerced, puniſhed by the purſe.

Mulctoire: com. Finable, worthie to be fined; alſo, fining, amercing.

Mule: f. A Mule; alſo, a kibe; Looke Mules.

Franche mule d'un bœuf. The purſe, bag, or skinne wherein the ſtones of an Ox, &c, be contained.

C'eſt vne mule. She is a barren Jade; (for Mules neuer beare young ones.)

Fantaſtique comme vne vieille mule. As humorous, and skittiſh as an old Mule.

Opiniaſtre comme vne mule. As headie, ſtubborne, or moodie, as a Mule.

Aller ſur mule. Il va ſur mule auſſi bien que le Pape. (An equiuocation, applyable to one that hath kibed heeles.)

Bailler du foin à la mule. To cheat, gull, couſen, ouerreach, concatch.

Brider la mule à. To daunce attendance on; or to drudge, or doe baſe offices for.

Brider la mule aux deſpens d'autruy. To doe his buſineſſe, or furniſh himſelfe with neceſſaries, at another mans charge.

Ferrer la mule à. Seeke Ferrer.

Il luy fit tenir la mule. He ouerruled, ouercrowed, ouermaiſtered him; he wrt euerie way too good for him; alſo, he made him daunce attendance, or ſtay long, for him.

De bonne mule mauvaiſe beſte. A prouerbe taxing the giddie and skittiſh nature of that beaſt.

A vieille mule frein doré: Pro. Said in deriſion of an old woman, that paints and prankes her ſelfe.

Qui ne s'avanture n'a cheval, ni mule: Prov. We ſay, nothing aduenture nothing haue.

Qui trop s' avanture perd cheval, & mule: Prov. Venture too farre you looſe all; (So the difference is, that the one wants but what he had not; the other looſes what he had.)

Mules: f. Mules; alſo, kibes; alſo, moyles, pantofles, high ſlippers.

Mulet: m. A Moyle, Mulet, or great Mule; a beaſt much vſed in France for the carriage of Sumpters, &c; alſo, a baſtard; alſo, the Mullet fiſh.

Tour de mulet. A iadiſh tricke.

Ferrer le mulet. as Ferrer la Mule.

Le mulet garde longuement vn coup de pied à ſon Maiſtre: Prov. The Moyle will one time or other lend his keeper a rap.

Muletaille. as Mulataille.

Muletier: m. A Mulletor, Moyle-keeper, Moyle-driuer.

Mulette: f. A little Mule; a ſmall kibe; alſo, the pannell, or bellie of a Hawke; alſo, the maw of a Calfe; which being dreſſed is called the Renet-bag, Freneſſ-bag, or Cheſlop-bag.

Muliebre: com. Womanlie, of a woman; womaniſh, effeminate.

Muliebrement. Womanly, woman-like; effeminately, womaniſhly.

Mulin: m. A narrow beele, and high coffin; ſuch as all Mules haue.

Mulin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, a Mule.

Mullon d'eau. See Moulon.

Mullot. as Mulot.

Mulon de foin. A hay-rick, hay-ſtack, or great hay-cock.

Mulot: m. A field Mouſe.

Muloter. To hunt for, or feed on, field-Mice; or to turne vp their neaſts, or teare open their holes for the Corne and Akornes which they haue hid in them.

Muloteur. Hunting for, or feeding on, field-Mice; or turning vp their neaſts, or tearing ope their holes, for the Corne, and Akornes which are hidden in them.

Mulotier. Sanglier mulotier. as Muloteur.

Multation: f. A fining, amercing, puniſhing by the purſe.

Multe: f. A fine, amerciament, penaltie, purſe-puniſhment.

Multer. To fine, amerce, lay a penaltie on, puniſh by the purſe.

Multicuple: m. A manifoldneſſe, great multiplication.

Multicuple: com. Manifold; abounding in multiplication, or of diuers multiplication.

Multipliable: com. Multipliable, increaſeable.

Multipliant: m. The multiplier; the figure whereby another figure is multiplied.

Multipliant. Multiplying, increaſing.

Multiplicable: com. Multiplicable, multipliable.

Multiplication: f. Multiplication; augmentation, increaſe, great ſtore, acceſſe.

Multiplié: m. The Multiplicand; the figure which is multiplied.

Multiplié: m. ée: f. Multiplied; increaſed, augmented (in number;) propagated.

Multiplicment: m. A multiplying; a propagating; an augmenting, or increaſing (in number.)

Multiplier. To multiplie; to augment, or increaſe in number; to propagate, ſtore; grow many.

Multiplieur: m. A multiplyer; propagator, ſtorer.

Multitude: f. A multitude, a many; a great number, companie, or ſtore, of.

Multre. The skinne wherein the Calfe lyes in a Hindes belly.

Murner: m. The little Wagtayle, or water-Wagtayle.
Mumie: f. Mummie; mans fleſh imbalmed; or rather the ſtuffe wherewith it hath beene long imbalmed (whether it be Piſſaſphalte, or Mirrhe, Saffron, Aloes, and Balme incorporated together.)
Munde: com. as Monde.
Mundé: m. ée: f. as Mondé.
Mundificatif: m. iue: f. Mundificatiue, mundifying; cleanſing, purging, purifying.
Mundifier. Looke Mondifier.
Muni: m. ie: f. Munited, armed, fenced, fortified; prepared; ſtored or furniſhed with, fully prouided of, all kind of neceſſaries.
Municipal: m. ale: f. Municipall; proper, or peculiar vnto one onely Citie; belonging to the freemen of one Citie, or to the right of freedome in a Citie.
Municipal. as Municipal.
Munier: m. A Miller, or Millner; alſo, a Pollard, or Cheuin (fiſh;) In ſome parts of France (but not ſo generally) the Bull-head, or Millers thumbe is alſo called Munier; Seeke Muſnier.
Munificence: f. Munificence, bountie, liberalitie, largeſſe.
Muniment: m. A muniting, ſtrengthening, fortifying; alſo, as Munition.
Munimens. Juſtifications of allegations, in law.
Munir. To munite, arme, fortifie, ſtrengthen, furniſh or ſtore with, prouide of all ſorts of neceſſaries.
Munition: f. Munition, ſtore, furniture, preparation, prouiſion; prouant, or victuals for an armie.
Munitionnaire: com. Storing or furniſhing with, prouiding of, munition, or victuals; alſo, belonging thereto.
Munitionner. To ſtore; to prouide of, or furniſh with, munition; to victuall before hand.
Muque. The nape of the necke.
Muqueux: m. euſe: f. as Mucqueux.
Mur: m. A wall; a rampier.
Ils tireront de l'huile d'un mur. They will draw oyle out of a wall; they will doe more then any bodie elſe can doe; (Ironically, of Chimicall Extractors.)
Se voyant au pied du mur ſans eſchelle. Seeing himſelfe neere to that he would haue without means to get vnto, or power to enioy, it.
Muraille: f. A rampier, a wall.
Ce mot te ſoit comme vne muraille d'airain. Aſſure thy ſelfe this word will be performed; thou maieſt reſt, or build, thou maieſt lay thy life, vpon it.
Muraillé: m. ée: f. Walled, rampired.
Muraillier: m. ere: f. Of walls; affecting walls, cleauing vnto walls, as Iuie.
Mural: m. ale: f. Murall; of, or belonging to, a wall.
Couronne murale. A Crowne, or Garland beſtowed on the ſouldior that firſt gets vp on the rampier of an aſſaulted towne.
Muré: m. ée: f. Walled, rampired; alſo, incloſed, or ſhut vp betweene two walls.
Vn plat de ſouppes haut murées. A diſh of vp-heaped, or high-roofed, browes.
Murene: f. A ſinne-leſſe, and tongue-leſſe fiſh, of a dunne colour powdered (eſpecially in the female one) with yellow ſpots; other wayes reſembling an Eele, or Congar, but that her bodie is, conſidering her length, ſomewhat thicker then theirs, and her mouth full of long, and ſharpe teeth.
Murer. To wall, to rampire; to furniſh, or compaſſe with walls; to ſtrengthen, or fortifie with rampiers; alſo, to incloſe, or ſhut vp betweene two walls.
Mureraie: f. A Groue of Mulberrie trees.

Muret: m. The purple ſhell-fiſh; alſo, a Bench (made againſt an out-wall) to ſit on.
Murette de poiſſon. Fiſh-broth, or ſawce wherein fiſh hath beene throughly boyled; alſo, the pickle wherein it is kept; Some alſo call the liuer, and long fat gut of a Pike, La murette.
Murgé: m. A heape of ſtones which haue beene picked vp out of a Vineyard, or Garden, in the dreſſing thereof.
Murler. To low, to bellow.
Murmuranteinent. Murmuringly, mutteringly, gruntingly, with a bumming, in a buzzing ſound.
Murmurateur: m. A murmurer.
Murmuration: f. as Murmurement.
Murmure: m. A murmure, or murmuring; a repining; a muttering, or diſcontented mumbling; a grudging, grumbling, or grunting; alſo, a humming, or buzzing noyſe.
Murmuré: m. ée: f. Murmured.
Murmurement: m. A murmuring; a grudging, or grumbling; a diſcontented muttering; alſo, a humming, or buzzing; a rumbling, or croaking.
Murmurer. To murmure, mutter, grumble; grunt; to grudge, repine at, or gainſay betweene the teeth; alſo, to buzze, or hummme like a Beetle, &c; alſo, to rumble, or croake, as the guts doe.
Muron: m. A Salamander. ¶Norm.
Murte: m. The Mirtle ſhrub; Looke Myrte.
Murtrir. as Meurtrir.
Muſaïque. See Moſaïque.
Muſangere: f. A Titmouſe.
Muſaphis: m. Doctors, Prophets, or great Diuines, among the Turkes.
Muſaraigne. A ſhrew Mouſe.
Muſard: m. A muſer, dreamer, or dreaming fellow; one whom a little thing amuſes, one that ſtands gazing at euerie thing; alſo, a pawſer, lingerer, deferrer, delayer; one thats long about a buſineſſe; a man of no diſpatch.
Muſard: m. arde: f. Muſing, dreaming, amuſed at, gazing or pawſing on, euerie thing; lingering, prolonging, delaying; of no diſpatch.
Mort muſarde. Thats long a comming.
Muſardie: f. A muſe, dumpe, ſtudie, dreaming; a pawſe, delay, lingering.
Muſc: m. Muske.
Muſcade: f. A Nutmeg.
Muſcadeau. Vin muſcadeau. as Muſcadel.
Muſcadel: m. The Wine Muſcadell, or Muſcadine.
Muſcadelle: f. A Muske-roſe.
Pomme muſcadelle. A Muske apple.
Muſcadet: m. as Muſcadel; alſo, a Cyder, which (made of a verie ſmall, and ſweet apple) reſembles Muſcadine in colour, taſt, and ſmell; alſo, the Muſcadine Raiſin.
Muſcagineux. Looke Mucagineux.
Muſcardins. as Moſchardins.
Muſcat: m. ate: f. Muskie, of Muske, ſweet as Muske, ſweetned or ſeaſoned with Muske, that hath Muske in it.
Ceriſe muſcate. The Muske (a delicate) Cherrie.
Raiſin muſcat. The Muſcadine Grape, or Muſcadine Raiſin.
Roſe muſcate. The Muske-roſe.
Muſcatelin: m. ine: f. as Muſcat.
Muſcateline: f. The Muske Peare; the ſmalleſt, ſweeteſt, and ſooneſt ripe of all other Peares.
Muſcellin: m. ine: f. Muskie, of Muske, full of Muske, ſweetned, or ſeaſoned with Muske, hauing Muske in it.

Huile

Huile muſcelline. Muske oyle; an oyle extracted from Muske, and other aromatick Simples; alſo, oyle of Ben; oyle drawne from the Nut, or fruit called Ben.

Muſchebout. as Mouſchebout.

Muſcle: m. The great ſea Muskle, or horſe Muskle; alſo, a (fleſhie) Muskle; the inſtrument of voluntarie motion, compounded of ſinewes, veines, arteries, tennons, and fleſh, and hauing a skin peculiar to it ſelfe.

Muſcoſitez: f. Slymie, or ſnottie humors.

Muſcule. Veine muſ. See Veine.

Muſculeux: m. euſe: f. Brawnie, fleſhie, muſculous, full of Muskles.

Veine muſculeuſe. Looke Veine.

Muſculoſité: f. A muſculous, or fleſhie ſubſtance; a brawnie ſtiffneſſe, hardneſſe, or fullneſſe of fleſh.

Muſe: f. One of the nine Muſes; alſo, a Muſe, Poeticall conceit, Vaine, Poeme, or Song; alſo, as Muſardie; alſo, Adams Appletree; alſo, as Toffe.

Donner la muſe à. To amuſe, or put into dumpes; to driue into a browne ſtudie; to make a man pawſe, or ſtudie, on the matter.

Faire ſa muſe. A male Deere to liſt vp his muzzle after he hath ſmelt at the females nature.

Muſeau: m. The muzzle, ſnowt, or noſe of a beaſt.

Muſeleux: m. euſe: f. Muzzelling, tying vp the muzzle, cloſing the noſe, or ſnowt.

Muſelier: m. ere: f. as Muſeleux.

Muſeliere: f. A muzzle; alſo, the noſe-band of a bridle; alſo, the prouender-bag that (vſually) hangs at a Mules noſe as he trauels; alſo, a Barnacle for an vnrulie horſes noſe.

Muſequin: m. A little dogs prettie ſnowt; alſo, an effeminate, or perfumed Courtier, that makes loue to euerie wench he accompanies; alſo, a place to muſe in, or gaze out at, as an open window, &c.

Muſer. To muſe, dreame, ſtudie, bethinke himſelfe of; to pawſe, or linger about a matter.

Il muſe quelque part. He ſtayes ſomewhere, or other.

Faire muſer. To amuſe, put into a dumpe, driue into a ſtudie; to deferre, delay, driue off, make ſtay his leiſure, or daunce attendance on him.

Tandis que le loup muſe la brebis entre au bois: Pro. While the Wolfe muſes the Sheepe eſcapes; or, as in Loup.

Tel cuide aimer qui muſe: Pro. Some meane to loue who doe but looſe their labour; or, ſome think they loue, and yet but looſe their labor.

Muſerolle: f. A Muſroll for a horſe.

Muſet. as Muſette (in the later ſence.)

Muſette: f. A little Bag-pipe; or (more properly) as Vielle; alſo, the Shrew-mouſe.

Muſicalement. Muſically, melodiouſly, harmoniouſly.

Muſicien: m. A Muſician; a profeſſor of Muſicke.

Les mauvais muſiciens ne ſont iamais ennuyeux à eux meſmes: Pro. Few men grow wearie of their owne abſurdities; few men diſtaſt their owne barſh imperfections.

Muſien: m. enne: f. Affecting the Muſes.

Muſimone. A beaſt thats bodied like a Sheepe, and coated like a Goat. ¶Rab.

Muſique: f. Muſicke, melodie, harmonie.

Vn Aſne n'entend rien en muſique: Pro. An Aſſe hath little skill in harmonie.

Muſnier: m. A Miller; alſo, a Pollard, or Cheuin; alſo, a Millers thumbe.

D'Eveſque devenir muſnier. To become of rich poore, of noble baſe, of venerable miſerable; to fall from a high eſtate to a low one; (The originall was, Devenir d'Eveſque Aumoſnier; but Time (and perhaps Reaſon) hath changed Aumoſnier into Muſnier.)

Muſnier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Miller.

Pulces muſnieres des Hoſtels-Dieu de Paris. Lice.

Muſquardin. as Muſcardin.

Muſquat: m. Muſcadine; or, a kind of ſtrong, and headie Wine.

Muſquat: m. ate: f. as Muſcat.

Muſqué: m. ée: f. Musked, bemusked; muskie, of Muske; ſweet as Muske.

Aiguille muſquée. (The musked) Pinkneedle, or ſhepheards Bodkin.

Muſquer. To bemuske, to perfume with Muske.

Muſqueté: m. ée: f. as Muſqué.

Muſquette: f. as Moſquette; alſo, a certaine yellow, and hard-rinded Peare.

Muſqueux: m. euſe: f. Full of Muske; alſo, as Mucqueux.

Muſſale: f. A kind of ſhell-fiſh that ſomewhat reſembles a Muskle.

Muſſe: f. A ſecret corner, priuie hoord, biding hole; an odd nooke to lay a thing out of the way in.

Muſſé: m. ée: f. Hidden, concealed, kept cloſe, conueyed out of the way; alſo, lurking, skowking, ſquat, layed cloſe.

Muſſer. To bide, conceale, keepe cloſe, lay out of the way; alſo, to lurke, skowke, or ſquat in a corner.

Muſſette: f. A little hole, corner, or hoord to bide things in.

Muſtelle: f. A Powte, or Eele-powte.

Mut: m. as Muſſette.

Mut. as Muet; Dumbe; whence;

Chiens muts. A kind of white hounds, which neuer call on a change; alſo, lyne-hounds; tearmed otherwiſe, Limiers de mut.

Mutation: f. A mutation, change, alteration; changing; exchanging; alſo, a ſhadowing with colours of a different kind; Looke Nuage.

Mute. Looke Meute.

Mutilation: f. A mutilation, mayming; diminution; the cutting of a principall member from the bodie.

Mutilé: m. ée: f. Mutilated, lamed, maymed; alſo, defectiue, imperfect, wanting a principall member.

Mutiler. To mutilate, mayme, lame; to make imperfect, or defectiue; to cut off, diminiſh, or take away a part of.

Mutin: m. ine: f. Mutinous, tumultuous, turbulent, vnquiet, ſtirring, ſeditious, factious.

Homme mutin, bruſque Rouſſin, flaſcon de Vin, prennent toſt fin: Pro. Looke Homme.

Mutinateur: m. A mutiner; a raiſer of broyles, beginner of ſtirres, breeder of tumults; a fire-brand of ſedition.

Mutination: f. A mutining; or, as Mutinerie.

Mutinement: m. A mutining, a factious repining, a turbulent ſtirring.

Mutiner. To mutine; factiouſly to repine at, ſeditiouſly to ſtirre, or be the author of a ſtirre, againſt a ſuperior.

Mutinerie: f. A mutinie; tumult, ſedition, inſurrection, vprore; a ſtirre, trouble, buſineſſe, ruffling, burlyburly.

Mutir. To mute, as a Hawke.

Mutuel: m. elle: f. Mutuall, reciprocall, interchangeable.

Mutuellement. Mutually, reciprocally, interchangeably, on equall tearmes, or one for another.

Mutules: m. Brackets, Corbells, or ſhouldering peeces; alſo, (& the moſt properly) Compartiments (in Building.)

Muy. as Muid.

Muyage. Bailler terre à muyages. To let ground for a certaine number of Muyds of Corne, to be payed in lieu of Rent.

Myagre. A great, thicke, and greenish Snake, or Sergent, that haunts houses to hunt Mice; and is therefore (and because she is not verie venemous) not much feared, nor often hurt, by such as know her.

Mycacoulier: m. The Lute, or Nettle tree.

My-chemin, à my-chemin. Halfe-way, in the mid-way.

My-cornu: m. uë: f. Halfe-horned.

My-croist: m. Halfe-increase; or halfe the profit that's made, halfe of that which comes of a thing; whence;
Bail de bestes à my-croist. A letting out of cattell to the halues.
Bailleur de febves à my-croist. A cousener, cheater, conycatcher, guller.

Myere: m. A Phisition, Leach, or Surgeon; whence;
Apres le cerf la biere, apres le sanglier le myere: Pro. (So dangerous are those beasts, when they be angry, vnto such as they can reach.)

My-forchu: m. uë: f. Halfe-forked.

Mygale. A shrew Mouse.

Mygrene. as Migraine.

My-iour. Mid-day, noone-dayes. ¶Rab.

Mylord. See Milort.

Myne. as Mine.

Mynsser. Looke Mincer.

Myope. A kind of dull-eyed Serpent, which hath feet though they be but little ones.

Myrabolan. as Myrobalan.

Myre: m. The male Lampurne, or Lamprey; also, as Mire; a Leech, &c.

Myrepsique. Balan myrepsique. The aromaticall, and oylie Nut, or Akorne, called Ben.

Myrique: f. The shrub Tamariske.

Myrmecique. Escadrons myrmecciques. Ants.

Myrobalan: m. An East-Indian Plumme called, the Myrobalan Plumme, whereof there be diuers kinds distinguished by seuerall names (as Bellerics, Chebules, Emblics, &c.)
Myrobalan citrin. The yellow, or Citron Myrobalan; whose tree is leaued like the Seruice tree.

Myrrhe: f. Mirrhe, or Myrre; a sweet Gumme whereof we haue but little, now a dayes, true, or vnsophisticated.
Myrrhe blanche. White Myrrhe, the best kind of Myrre.
Myrrhe Boetique. Comes from the continent of a certaine Boetian tree (at this day vnknowne).
Myrrhe Stacte. The best kind of Myrrhe; which (as Plinie thinkes) issues from the tree of it selfe; but is indeed the iuyce, or gummie liquor of the fattest Myrre, strained while it is new, and otherwise tearmed, Storax liquide.

Myrte: m. The Mirtle tree, or shrub; Looke Mourte.

Myrtil: m. A Mirtle berrie; also, the lesse kind of Myrtle, called Noble Myrtle.

Myrtilles: f. Mirtle berries.

Myrtin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, the Mirtle tree, or shrub.
Huile myrtin. Mirtle oyle; oyle extracted from Mirtle leaues.

Mysanthrope. as Misanthrope.

Mysoyé: m. ée: f. Made halfe of silke.

Mystagogue. as Mistagogue.

Mystaudique: com. Shewing mysticall; that makes a great shew of sacred matter, and yet in truth is nothing.

Mystaudiquement. Mystically or sacredly in shew, shallowly or prophanely in effect.

Myste: m. A Priest. ¶Rab.

Mystere: m. Misterie; a religious secret, hidden rite, obscure and high point of Religion.
Sans autre mystere. Without other ceremonie, without more adoe.

Mysterieux: m. Misterious, full of misterie, verie mysticall.

Mystique: com. Misticall, secret, sacred.

Mystiquement. Mistically, secretly, sacredly.

Mythologe: m. An expounder of fables.

Mythologie: f. An exposition, or moralizing of fables.

Mythologiser. To expound, or moralize, a fable.

My-voute: m. ée: f. Halfe vaulted, halfe arched.

N

NAbot: m. An ill-fauoured dwarfe, elfe, twattle.
Nabote: f. A woman dwarfe.
Nabotte: f. The same.

Nacelle: f. A Skiffe, Cock-boat, Wherrie, small long boat; hence also, a Boat-bowle, or a cup fashioned like a Boat.

Nacle. as Nacre.

Nacqueter. as Naqueter.

Nacre: f. A Naker; a great, and long shell-fish, the outside of whose shell is rugged, and browne of colour, the inside smooth, and of a shining hue; the forme (broad at the one end, and narrow at the other) somewhat like a Smithes bellowes; (it is but seldome, or neuer found on our coast.)
Nacre de perles. Mother of Pearle; the beautifull shell of another fish, wherein the best, and most Pearles be found.

Nadaïr. The Point which is directly opposite vnto the Zenith, iust vnder our feet.

Nadel: m. A Slow-worme, or Blind-worme.

Nadelle: f. A Sny, or sea-Groundlin.

Nafe. See Naphe.

Nagé: m. ée: f. Swumme, floated on.

Nageant. Swimming, floating.
Le mal an entre, en nageant: Prov. The vnseasonable yeare begins with raine.

Nagement: m. A swimming, a floating.

Nageoir: m. A swimming place, a water fit to swim in.

Nageoire: m. The finne of a fish; also, a round-set attire of fine, and well-starched Lawne or Cambricke, worne (for the most part) by widow-gentlewomen, betweene their haire (which it ouer-peeres) and their hoods.

Nager: m. as Nagement; a swimming; whence;
Il n'est nager qu'en grand eau: Prov. There is no swimming to the sea.

Nager. To swimme; also, to float.
Nager en grand'eau. To swimme in a spacious water; to practise in a soueraigne Court, studie in a famous Vniuersitie, traffique in a great Citie; generally to frequent, or negotiate in, places of most honor, most companie, or where a man may haue most scope.
Nager entre deux eaux. To diue, or swimme vnder the water; also, to stand on doubtfull, indifferent, or vncertaine termes; to play on both hands, hold with both sides, apply himselfe vnto the time; also, to change, or proceed in, a course betweene two extreames; also, to be in danger, or in an ill case, whatsoeuer fall out, howsoeuer matters goe.
Celuy peut hardiment nager à qui l'on soustient le menton: Prov. A seruice of the time, or of authoritie, may boldly swimme where another would sinke.

Il ne faut apprendre aux poiſſons à nager: Prov. We muſt not teach a fiſh to ſwimme; a ſcholler to read, a maiſter to worke, &c.

Nageur: m. A ſwimmer.

Les bons nageurs ſont à la fin noyez: Prov. Good ſwimmers at the length feed Haddocks.

Nageure: f. A ſwimming; a floating.

Nagueres; ou, n'agueres. Not long ſince, now of late, e're-while, euen now.

Nai: f. as Nef; A ſhip.

Naif: m. naïfve: f. Liuelie, quicke; naturall, kindlie, right, proper, true, no way counterfeit.

L'humeur naïfve. The radicall humor.

Naifvement. Liuely, naturally, properly, rightly, truely, in it owne kind.

Naïfver. To repreſent in liuelie colours, to preſent in it owne kind; to deſcribe rightly, or properly; to make ſeeme quicke, or it ſelfe.

Naifveté: f. Liuelineſſe, quickneſſe, kindlineſſe, proprietie, naturalneſſe.

Nain: m. A dwarfe, or dandiprat, an elfe, or twattle; one thats no higher then three horſe-loanes.

Naine: f. A ſhe dwarfe, or woman dwarfe.

Naintre, & Naintreſſe. as Nain, & Naine.

Naiſé: m. ée: f. Steeped, or ſoaked (as hempe) in water.

Naiſer. To ſteepe, or ſoake (hempe) in water.

Naiſſance: f. Birth; a beginning, ſpringing, riſing, firſt appearing; alſo, ones auncient inheritance.

Naiſſant. ſon propre naiſſant. His auncient inheritance; land whereto he was borne, or comes by deſcent.

Naiſſant conventionnel. Money giuen, by a father, or mother, to be imployed on a purchaſe for their child; or, the land purchaſed with ſuch money.

Naiſſant: m. ante: f. Beginning, ſpringing, riſing, firſt appearing, or comming into the world.

Heritage naiſſant. The land whereto one was borne; land that comes by lineall deſcent.

Naiſtre. To be borne, bred, or ingendred, of; to riſe, proceed, grow, ſpring, take beginning, from; to be produced, or brought forth, by.

Naïzer. as Naïſer.

Nambot: m. A dwarfe; elfe, little ſtarueling; a dandiprat, or low dapperling.

Namps: m. Mouables; chattells that moue, or may bee remoued; alſo, diſtreſſes.

Morts namps. Goods, houſhold-ſtuffe, any dead mouables, or chaffer which may be remoued.

Vifs namps. Cattell, beaſts, foule, fiſh; any goods that liue, or moue of themſelues.

Nampt: m. A diſtreſſe; a beaſt, or mouable diſtrained; alſo, a beaſt ſeized for Treſpaſſe, or Damage feſant; alſo, a ſeiſure, or diſtraining; (in which ſence our common Lawyers vſe Naam.)

Obligation par naipt. A bond, and pawne to boot.

Namptir, & Namptiſement. as Nantir, & Nantiſſement.

Nancelle: f. as Naſſelle.

Nani; ou, Nanin. No, not ſo, by no meanes.

Nantir: m. ie: f. Gotten, ſeiſed on; poſſeſſed of; alſo, deliuered into the poſſeſſion, or hands of; alſo, affected vnto; faſtened, or tied on; appointed, or pointed out, for; Or, to whom a thing is affected; on whom it is faſtened; for whom it is appointed, by Order, or in ordinarie courſe, of iuſtice.

Crediteur nanti de gage. That hath a pawne for his better ſecuritie.

Rente nantie. Dont le contract a eſté exhibé au Seigneur, ou à ſes Officers, pour acquerir droict reel, & hypotheque.

Sergent nanti de deniers. Into whoſe hands the money, made by the ſale of land, or goods in execution, is put.

Nantilles: f. Freckles.

Nántir. To conſigne, lay downe, deliuer into the hands of; to giue a ſeiſin, or poſſeſſion of; to tye faſt; affect, appoint, or point out, one thing for th'indemnitie, or aſſurance, of another.

Se nantir de. To ſeize on, to get the poſſeſſion of.

Nantiſſement: m. A conſignation, deliuerie, laying downe of; a yeelding of ſeiſin, a giuing of poſſeſſion, vnto; alſo, a publicke, or legall affectation, faſtening, appointing, or pointing out of one thing for the ſecuritie, or indemnitie of another; alſo, a ſeiſure, ſeiſing, or getting the poſſeſſion of.

Nantiſſement de l'execution. ſont les gages prins par Execution ſur vn debteur.

Napel: m. Helmet-flower, great Monkes-hood; (a venomous hearbe.)

Naphe. Eau de naphe. Orange-flower water.

Naphte: f. (Held to be liquid, or ſoft, Bitumen, or the ſtrayning therof, is in truth) a ſoft, & ſulphurous earth, or mould, which is eaſily inflamed by any fire thats neere it, and once fired will not be quenched, eſpecially not by water.

Napleux: m. euſe: f. Pockie, full of the (French) pockes.

Napolier: m. The Burre docke, Clote Burre, great Burre.

Napoller. as Napolier.

Nappe: f. A table-cloth.

Naquaire. A lowd inſtrument of Muſicke, ſomewhat reſembling a Hoboy.

Naque. as Nacre.

Naque-mouche: m. A Flie-catcher; a gaping hoydon, an idle gull.

Naquer. To gnaw, or bite often and with a harſh ſound, as a dog doth when hee gnawes his itching ballockes; whence, ce chien naque le cul; (which is alſo an equiuocation to, n'a que le cul.)

Naquet: m. The boy that ſerues, or ſtops the ball after the firſt bound, to make a better chace, at Tennis; a Court-keeper, or Tennis Court-keepers boy.

Naqueter. To ſerue (or ſtop) a ball at Tennis; alſo, to wait at a great mans doore; (and thence) alſo, to obſerue duetifully, attend on obſequiouſly

Naqueter les dents. To chatter the teeth.

Naqueter de la queuë. To wag the taile.

Narcaphthe: f. An Aromaticall Indian wood, called by ſome, red Stirax.

Narcisse: m. Narciſſus, Primroſe peereleſſe; the Daffodill, Daffodillie, or Daffodowndillie.

Narciſſe Conſtantinopolitain. The double-flowred Daffodill of Conſtantinople; alſo, the white ſea Daffodill, or white ſea Onion.

Narcotique: com. Stupefactiue, benumming, depriuing of ſence.

Nard: m. Spike, or Spikenard; (an hearbe.)

Nard baſtard. Lauender Spike.

Nard Celtique. French Spikenard, mountaine Spikenard.

Nard Gaulois. The ſame; or a baſtard kind thereof, which we alſo call French Spikenard.

Nard Indois. Indian Spikenard.

Nard d'Italie. Lauender Spike; eſpecially the common,

mon,or blew-flowred one.

Nard de Lentice. as Oignon d' Inde.

Nard de montaigne. Mountaine Spikenard.

Nard ruſtique. Wild Spikenard; Valerian, Capons-taile, Setwall; alſo, bearbe Auens, Bennet, or Bleſſed; alſo, Haſlewort, Fole-foot, Aſarabacca; (for euerie one of theſe bearbes is called by the Latines, Nardus ruſtica.)

Nard ſauvage. as Nard ruſtique; But eſpecially, Setwall; which is called in Latine as well Nardus ſylveſtris, as Nardus ruſtica.

Nard Syriaque. Syrian Spikenard, Indian Spikenard.

Nardin: m. ine: f. Of Nard, or Spikenard; whence;
Huile nardin. Spike oyle.

Nareau: m. A narrell, or noſethrill.

Nargues. Tuſh; blurt, piſh, fie, it cannot be ſo.

Naricard: m. A bottle-noſed boydon, a great-noſed gooſe; or (generally) one that hath noſe ynough to ſpare for his neighbours, or (as we ſay in ieaſt) one that hath no-noſe.

Nariller. as Naziller; (eſpecially in the later ſence.)

Narilles: f. (A Hawkes) narrells, or noſethrills.

Narine: f. The noſethrill.

Narquin. as Narquois.

Narquois: m. A Couſener, Impoſter, counterfeit Rogue; moſt properly, one of thoſe cheating and filching vagabonds, that call themſelues Ægyptians, or Bohemians; alſo, the gibbridge, or barbarous language, vſed among them.

Narrateur: m. A Narrator, relater, declarer, teller, ſhewer of.

Narratif: m. le nar. de lettres. The ſubiect, or contents, of letters.

Narratif: m. iue: f. Narratiue, declaratiue, declaratorie; reporting, relating, expreſſing.

Narration: f. A narration, declaration, relation, tale, diſcourſe, report.

Narré: m. as Narration.

Narré: m. ée: f. Told, ſaid, declared, related, reported, expreſſed, ſignified, ſhewen.

Narrement: m. A telling, declaring, reporting, relating, expreſſing, ſhewing, ſaying.

Narrer. To tell, declare, ſpeake, vtter, ſay, relate, report, expreſſe, diſcourſe.

Narreur. as Narrateur.

Naſal: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, the noſe.
Veine naſale. Seeke Veine.

Naſarde: f. A fillip; rap, or flirt, on the noſe; alſo, a frumpe, mocke, ieaſt, flowt.

Naſardé: m. ée: f. Filliped, or flirted, on the noſe; alſo, derided, frumped.

Naſarder. To fillip; to rap, or flirt, on the noſe; alſo, to frumpe, or breake a ieaſt on; play with the noſe of; alſo, to ſpeake in the noſe; whence;
Cette corde naſarde. This ſtring iarreth.

Naſeaux: m. The noſethrills, or narrells.
Fendeurs de naſeaux. Swaggerers, cutters.

Naſitort: m. Noſe-ſmart, garden Creſſe, towne Kars, towne Creſſes.
Naſitort ſauvage. Iberis, wild Creſſes; Sciatica Creſſes.

Naſomonite: f. A certaine blood-red ſtone ſtreaked with many blacke veines.

Naſquir. To be borne, brought forth, or bred of; to ſpring, riſe, haue a beginning.

Naſſe: f. A (wicker) Leape, or Weele, for fiſh; alſo, a bunch of reeds, or bullruſhes, &c, which boyes, that learne to ſwimme, lay vnder them.

Naſſel: m. The chinne-band of an helmet.

Naſſelette: f. A ſmall skiffe, ſkull, or cocke-boat.

Naſſelier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a skiffe, cocke-boat, or long boat.

Naſſelle: f. A skiffe, wherrie, or cock-boat; a ſmall boat (of what forme ſoeuer;) alſo, a boat-bowle, or cup; alſo, a hollow in a piller, &c, called, a Caſemate.

Naſſerie. as Naſsiere.

Naſsidure: f. Any ſwelling, or tumor in the bodie, at it firſt riſing, and before the kind thereof can be diſcerned: ¶Languèd.

Naſsiere: f. A Leape, Weele, or Weare to catch fiſh in.

Naſte: f. A kind of Pole-reed, or Cane; alſo, as Naphte.

Natal: m. le nat. de. The birth-day of.

Natal: m. ale: f. Natall, natiue; naturall; of, or belonging to, a natiuitie, or birth.

Natoire: m. A place to ſwimme in.

Natice. as Nerite.

Natif: m. iue: f. Natiue, originall, borne or bred in, deſcended of.

Nation: f. A nation, a people.

National: m. ale: f. Nationall, of a nation.
Concile national. Which is held by the Diuines of one onely nation.

Nationnaires. mes nat. My countrey-men; thoſe of my nation.

Nativité: f. Natiuitie, birth.
La nativité de noſtre Dame. The feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Ladie, kept ſolemnly, in many parts of Chriſtendome, on the 8 day of September.

Natreté: f. Knauerie, roguerie, gullerie, cheating; wilineſſe, couſenage.

Natte: f. A mat.

Natté: m. ée: f. Matted.

Natter. To mat, make mats; furniſh, hang, or couer, with mats.

Nattier: m. A Matter; or maker of mats.

Nattier: m. ere: f. Of mats, ſerning to make mats.

Naturaliſte: m. A Naturaliſt, or naturall Philoſopher.

Naturalité: f. Naturalitie, naturalization.

Naturalizé: m. ée: f. Naturalized, made a naturall ſubiect.

Naturalizer. To naturalize; to make a naturall ſubiect, or admit into the number of his naturall ſubiects.

Nature: f. Nature; eſſence, being; alſo, an (in-bred) condition, humor, qualitie, diſpoſition, inclination, propertie; manner, faſhion.
Nature faict chien tracer: Prov. Looke Tracer.
Nourriture paſſe nature: Prov. Nurture paſſeth nature, good bringing vp any breeding.

Naturel: m. Nature, or naturall diſpoſition, in-bred condition, qualitie, propertie; alſo, a Naturaliſt, or naturall Philoſopher.

Naturel: m. elle: f. Naturall; of, or according to nature; kindlie, right.
Fruicts naturels. Fruits naturall; ſuch as a thing yeelds either of it ſelfe, and in it owne nature, or by the helpe of induſtrie, or induſtrious culture.
Iour naturel. Seeke Iour.
Quint naturel. The portion of younger bretbren in th' inheritance left by their father; viz. a fifi part thereof, which is diuided amongſt them: (But this in ſome places onely; See Quint.)

Naturellement. Naturally, by nature, kindly, rightly, according to it owne propertie.

Nau. (Naufs Plurall) as Navire; A ſhip.

Nau. (Nauts Plurall.) A gutter on the top, or side of a house.
Navage. as Naufrage.
Naval: m.ale: f. Navall; of or belonging to ships, or a navie of ships.
Naucelle. as Naſſelle.
Naucheux: m.euſe: f. Queaſie-ſtomacked; readie, or apt to vomit.
Naudin: m. A noddie, ninnie, gooſecap, coxcombe: ¶Norm.
Nave. as Navire; A ſhip.
Naveau; m. The Navew gentle, French Navew, long Rape (a ſauorie root.)
Naveaux. Vſed ſometimes in equiuocation of Nezveaux; naturall calues, fooles bred, aſſes by birth.
Naveau blanc de Iardin. Th'ordinarie Rape, or Turnep.
Naveau rond. A Turnep.
Naveau ſauvage. Rampions.
Navée: f. vne Navée de. A ſhip full of.
Navet: m. The ſmall Navew gentle, the leaſt (and daintieſt) kind of the French Navew.
Gros navet. The great, and bitter root of white Brionie; or the bearbe it ſelfe.
Nauette: f. Rape-ſeed; alſo, as Naveau; alſo, a Weauers ſhittle.
Iouër de la navette. Looke Iouër.
Nauf: m. A ſhip.
Naufrage: m. Shipwracke.
Naufrageux: m. euſe: f. Wracking, ſhipwrack-bringing.
Naviculaire. Os na. The ſecond bone of th'inſtup, ſo tearmed becauſe faſhioned like a boat.
Navigable: com. Nauigable, ſailable, paſſable by ſhipping.
Navigage: m. as Navigation; Alſo, a Nauie, or Fleet.
Navigation: f. Nauigation, ſayling.
Navigé: m. ée: f. Nauigated, ſailed.
Naviger. To nauigate, or ſaile.
Navire: com. A ſhip; a barke, ſaile, or veſſell for the ſea; alſo, a Nauie, or Fleet of ſhips; alſo, the hollow, or ball of the hand.
Naulage: m. Fraught, or fare; the money paied for paſſage in a ſhip.
Naulager. To pay his fraught, paſſage, fare.
Naule. as Naulage.
Nauleage. The ſame; whence; Barques de nauleage; Wafters, or paſſage barkes.
Naumachie: f. A fight at ſea.
Navré: m. ée: f. Wounded, hurt; afflicted, vexed; nipped ſorely, wrung extreamely.
Navrer. To wound, hurt; bruiſe, wring ſore, nip cruelly, pinch extreamely; vex, afflict.
Navreur: m. A wounder, or hurter.
Navreur de gens. A cheating ſhifter, common borrower, couſener of all he deales with.
Navrure: f. A wound, hurt, bloudwipe, ſore nip, ſhrewd pinch, cruell blow; alſo, a wounding, or hurting.
Nauſeatif: m. iue: f. Loathſome, againſt the ſtomacke, that makes one readie to ſpue.
Nauſée: f. A will, or offer, to vomit, but no vomit; a diſpoſition, without power, to ſpue; alſo, a loathing, or abhorring, of meats, &c.
Nauſiclete: m. The Maiſter, or owner of a ſhip: ¶Rab.
Naut: m. as Nau; A gutter.
Nautil. as Nautile.
Nautile. The ſhellie Pourcontrell, made ſomewhat like a round, and open boat, and ſwimming euer (except in time of danger) with her bellie, or th'inſide of her ſhell, vpwards.
Nautonnier: m. A Shipman, Saylor, Mariner.
Naux. feſtes naux. for feſtes de Noel: ¶Poict.
Nayer en l'eau. as Noyer.
Nayf. Seeke Naïf.
Nazal: m. The noſe-peece of a helmet; the part thereof which couereth the noſe.
Nazard: m. A kind of barſh, or iarring wind-inſtrument.
Nazard: m. arde: f. Jarring.
Nazardant. Fillipping, or flirting on the noſe; alſo, frumping; breaking ieaſts vpon; alſo, iarring.
Nazarde. as Naſarde; Alſo, a kind of peare.
Nazarder. Seeke Naſarder.
Nazdecapre. Goodman Goats-noſe: ¶Rab.
Naze: f. A noſe: ¶Gaſc.
Nazeaux. Looke Naſeaux.
Naziller. To root with the noſe; alſo, to thruſt his noſe into euerie companie.
Nazilleux: m. euſe: f. Well noſed; or, hauing a goodlie noſe.
Né: m. née: f. Borne; bred; riſen, deſcended, proceeding from; growne, iſſuing, or come out of.
Teſte de cerf bien née. A Stags head that hath all it rights.
Né tout coiffé. A verie rich, or a verie baſhfull, man.
Né à tout le poil (le Diable l'a chié en volant.) A luſtie cutter, worthie gallant, braue man (Ironically.)
Ne. (Adverb.) Not.
Qu'il ne ſoit ainſi, voicy la raiſon. as the Latine Quin ita ſit: viz. That it is ſo: (Held more elegant then without ne, which to make negatiue the word pas muſt be added after ſoit.)
Ne. (Conjunct.) Nor, neither.
Neance: f. A deniall, denying, or gainſaying; a Trauers in law.
Neant. Nothing, nought; (a word euer ſet downe in the beginning, or end of an account which is not allowed.)
Choſe de neant. A trifle, nifle, toy; a friuolous, vnſeaſonable, or ſleight matter.
Mettre à neant. To abrogate, antiquate, aboliſh, auoid, make void; alſo, to ruine, ſubuert, raſe, deface, ouerthrow.
Tourner à neant. The ſame.
Pour néant demande conſeil qui ne le veut croire: Prov. In vaine th'incredulous counſell asketh.
Pour neant recule qui malheur attend: Prov. They that ill lucke attend giue backe vnto no end.
Pour neant va au bois qui marrein ne cognoiſt: Prov. To no purpoſe goes he, who knowes not wood, vnto the wood.
Qui voit enfant il voit neant: Prov. Man (ſayes the Pſalmiſt) being weighed vpon the balance, is lighter then nothing it ſelfe; what then can a child be but the nought of nothing?
Neantise: f. Triſling, idleneſſe, baſeneſſe, cowardiſe, vnworthineſſe.
Neant-moins. Neuertheleſſe, notwithſtanding; and yet.
Neant-prix. A verie low rate, a verie ſmall price.
Neble: f. A (little) clowd; amiſt, a fog.
Nebuleux: m. euſe f. Clowdie; miſtie, foggie.
Nebulon: m. A knaue, raſcall, villaine, varlet, paultrie companion, ſcoundrell, ſcuruie fellow.
Neceſſaire: com. Neceſſarie, needfull; vrgent; vneuitable, vnauoidable.

Neceſſairement. Neceſſarily, needs, of neceſſitie, of force.
Neceſſitaire : com. Needie, neceſſitous ; or, as Neceſſaire.
Neceſſité : f. Neceſſitie, need ; a hard ſtrait, narrow pinch, great preſſure, vrgent occaſion.
Les necessités de nature. Th'easing, or purging of the bodie ; ſuch things as muſt needs be done.
Chemiſe de neceſsité. A charmed ſhirt which (as ſome imagine) preſerues men in battailes, and eaſes women in their trauell ; ſo tearmed, becauſe tis not to bee vſed but in times of extreame neceſſitie.
Neceſsité eſt la moitié de raiſon : Prov. We ſay that neceſſitie hath no law.
Neceſsité fait trotter les vieilles : Pro. Need makes th'old wife trot (ſay we.)
Necessité rend magnanime le couard, & le puſillanime : Prov. Neceſſitie addes mettall to the meacocke ; makes the coward grow couragious.
Tel a neceſſité qui ne s'en vante pas : Prov. Some are in greater want then they will vaunt of.
Neceſſité : m. ée : f. Vrged, preſſed, inforced, compelled, by neceſſitie.
Neceſſiter. To neceſſitate ; to vrge, preſſe, conſtraine, compell, force by neceſſitie.
Neceſſiteux : m. euſe : f. Neceſſitous, needie, poore, indigent, beggerlie, in want.
Nectar : m. Nectar ; the drinke of the Gods.
Nectar : m. are : f. Of Nectar ; moſt ſweet as Nectar.
Nectarin : m. ine : f. Nectarine, of Nectar, diuinely ſweet, as Nectar.
Necyomance : f. Diuination by conference with dead bodies raiſed.
Neéſle. Gros de neéſle. A peece of coyne thats worth about iij. d. ſterl.
Nef : f. A ſhip ; a ſayle, a veſſell for the ſea ; alſo, the bodie of a Church.
Neffle : f. A Medler, or Open-arſe.
Nefflier : m. A Medler tree.
Negatif : m. Negatiue, inficiatiue, denying, ſaying nay.
Negation : f. A negation, deniall, inficiation, denying, nay.
Négative : f. A negatiue ; deniall, nay.
Negatoire : com. Negatorie, inficiatorie, negatiue, denying.
Negligemment. Negligently, retchleſſely, careleſly, heedleſly ; idlely, ſloathfully, ſleepily.
Tout eſt fait negligemment là ou l'vn a l'autre s'attend : Prov. While one another truſts the worke is left vndone ; (and ſo between two ſtooles the taile goes to the ground.)
Negligence : f. Negligence ; retchleſneſſe, careleſneße, heedleſneſſe ; neglect ; ſloath, lazineſſe, litherneſſe, ſleepineſſe, drowſineſſe.
Negligent. Negligent ; retchleſſe, careleſſe ; ſlacke, remiſſe ; lazie, litber, idle, ſloathfull ; drowſie, ſleepie.
Negliger. To neglect, deſpiſe, regard lightly, paſſe ouer ſleightly, make ſmall account of, ſet little by ; alſo, to be negligent, retchleſſe, careleſſe ; heedleſſe ; to ſlug it, to looke ill vnto.
Negoce : m. A buſineſſe, affaire ; charge, imployment ; occupying, trafficke, dealing ; labour, trouble, comber.
Negociateur : m. A Negociator ; trader, dealer ; factor, Agent, Solicitor ; follower, or manager of buſineſſes.
Negociation : f. Negociation, imployment, handling of affaires, managing of buſineßes ; trafficke, dealing.
Negocié : m. ée : f. Negociated ; handled, managed ; traded, or dealt in ; ſolicited, followed.

Negocier. To negociate ; manage buſineſſes, handle affaires, follow cauſes ; deale, trafficke, trade in matters.
Negocieux : m. euſe : f. Buſie, occupied, euer in action, euer dealing, much imployed, full of buſineſſe.
Negotiation ; &c. as Negociation ; &c.
Negre : com. A Negro, a Moore.
Negrier : m. A certaine wild vine that yeelds a blacke grape.
Negriez. as Negrier ; Alſo, the blacke grapes thereof.
Negroeil. as Nigroil.
Neige : f. Snow.
Neiges d'antan. Things paſt, forgotten, or out of date long agoe.
Neige en roſmarin. The beſprinkling of a Roſemarie branch with ſalt, or froathie creame.
Queſtions de neige. Fooliſh queſtions, idle, and friuolous demaunds.
Il a piſſé en beaucoup de neiges : Prov. Hee hath outliued many a bitter Winter.
Neiger. To ſnow.
Neigeux : m. euſe : f. Snowie, full of ſnow.
Neigre : com. Duskie, ſwart, blackiſh, of the colour of a Negro.
Nele : f. Cockle (growing among corne.)
Nelle. Seeke Neéſle.
Neller. To varniſh, enamell, or glaze with the fluffe Nelleure.
Nelleure : f. An enamell, varniſh, or glazing, one part whereof is of fine ſiluer, two of copper, and three of lead ; alſo, a varniſhing, or enamelling with all.
Nemorale : f. The wood Tortoiſe.
Nendea. No indeed-law, marrie no forſooth ; (a womans oath, or negatiue.)
Nenuphard. as Nenuphar.
Nenuphar : m. Nenuphar ; the Water Lillie, or water Roſe.
Nenuphar blanc. The white water Lillie.
Nenuphar iaulne. The yellow water Lillie, yellow water Roſe.
Nepheu. Looke Neveu.
Nephretique paſsion. Paine in the reines, by grauell, or the ſtone.
Nephritide. The ſame ; alſo, the ſtone, or grauell ſetled in the reines.
Nephrocartaticon. (in ſtead of Nephrocatarticon) Phyſicke that purgeth the reines : Rab.
Neptunales : f. Neptunes feaſts, or holy-dayes.
Neptune : f. Neptune ; the God of the ſea.
Neptunien : m. enne : f. Of the ſeas nature, of the ſea.
Neptunois : m. oiſe : f. as Neptunien.
Neraut : m. A certaine vine whoſe wood and grapes are verie blacke : it is leſſe hurt by froſts then any other, and yeelds a verie deepe-red wine.
Nerée. (The name of a God of the ſea ; hence alſo) the ſea.
Neret. le ſol nieret. Is about a quarter leſſe then the Tournois, or, one part in ſix, more then halfe the Pariſian ; for 60 s. nerets are worth 36 s. of Paris.
Nerf : m. A Synnow, (and thence, might, ſtrength, force, power ;) alſo, any band of yron wherewith a priſoner is fettered.
Les nerfs. The knuckles that ſticke out on the backe of a booke.
Nerf caverneux. A mans yard.
Nerf de cerf. A Stags pizzle.
Nerf feru. (In a man) frenzie, or madneſſe ; (in a horſe) a ſinew ſprung in the knee, or ſome other ioynt of the leg.

Neri-

Nerion. The ſhrub Oleander, Roſe tree, Roſe Lawrell, Roſe bay tree.

Nerite: f. A certaine little, round, and ſmooth ſhell-fiſh, or ſea-ſnaile, verie like the Periwinkle.

Nerme. Nothing.

Nerprun. Buck-thorne, way-thorne, Rhein-berries, Laxatiue Ramme.

Nerquois. Looke Narquois.

Nerte: f. The Mirtle ſhrub.

Oiſeau de nerte. The Mirtle Thruſh; called ſo becauſe ſhe feeds much on Mirtle berries.

Nerver. To tye with ſinewes.

Nerveures: f. Strong, or ſinewie bands; hence alſo, as Nervins; alſo, welts; alſo, carued ſtreakes in wood, or ſtone.

Nerveuſement. Strongly, ſtiftly, forcibly.

Nerveux: m. euſe: f. Sinewie, full of ſinewes; alſo, ſtrong, ſtiffe, pithie, forcible.

Nervins: m. Bolt-ropes; the cords wherewith a ſaile is hemmed.

Les nervins des bonnettes. The latchets wherewith bonnets be faſtened to a ſayle.

Nervoſité: f. Neruoſitie, ſinewie ſtrength, fulneſſe of ſinewes.

Nervu: m. uë: f. as Nerveux.

Nes. Looke Nez.

Neſple: f. A Medler, or Open-arſe.

Neſplier: m. A Medler tree.

Neſquin: m. A baſe fellow; or as Meſquin.

Neſſum. as Neſſun; (an old word.)

Neſſun. No one, no bodie, not any.

Net: m. nette: f. Neat, cleane, pure, cleere; ſpotleſſe, vnſpotted; poliſhed, ſmooth; briske, ſmug; faire.

Bien au net. Exactly, perfectly; alſo, verie neatly.

Cela eſt au net. That is fairely written.

Mettre au net. To cleanſe, make neat, ſmooth or trim vp; alſo, to cleere, expound, expreſſe, explaine.

Avoir le coeur net de. To be fully reſolued of, or ſatisfied in.

Netieures. Looke Nettieures.

Nettre dene. for Noſtre dame.

Nettelet: m. ette: f. Prettie and neat; minion, briske, ſmug, trickſie, ſmirke.

Nettement. Neatly, cleanely, purely, cleerely; ſmoothly, ſmug.

Netteté: f. Neatneſſe, cleanneſſe, cleanlineſſe, cleereneſſe; puritie, ſinceritie, integritie, perfect honeſtie.

Nettier. as Nettoyer.

Nettieures: f. The ſweepings of a houſe; any cleanſings.

Nettiſſoir: m. A combe-bruſh.

Nettoyable: com. Cleanſible, or cleanſable.

Nettoyé: m. ée: f. Cleanſed, wiped, ſcowred, purged, cleered, ſmoothed, ſwept.

Nettoyer. To cleanſe; wipe, ſweepe, ſcowre, purge; rub the durt, get the filth off; to cleere; ſmooth, make euen, or plaine.

Nettoyer au balay. To ſweepe; to make cleane worke, leaue nought behind, carrie all away.

Nettoyeures. as Nettieures.

Neuchu: m. uë: f. Knottie, knobbie, rough, vneuen.

Neud: m. A knot; a knob, or hard bunch; a ioynt in ſtaulkes; a knurre, or knurle in trees; alſo, the chiefe point, head, ſumme, or clauſe of a matter; the principall band, or bindge whereon it reſts, or hangs.

Les neuds des doigts. The knuckles.

Neud de la gorge. as Garigau.

A dur, ou mauvais neud mauvais coing: Pro. Said when a quarelling, troubleſome, or litigious fellow hath met with his match.

Neve: m. A mole, freckle, or other the like natural mark, or blemiſh on the bodie.

Neuëment. Simply, abſolutely; immediately, forthwith.

Neveu: m. A nephew; the ſonne of a brother, or ſiſter.

Neuf: m. neufve: f. New, freſh; vncouth, ſtrange, vnknowne, vnuſed, vnheard of, before.

Il eſt bien neuf. He is a verie nouice; he is verie ignorant, vnexpert, raw; he hath but ſmall experience in the world.

Faire pieds neufs. A woman to be deliuered of a child; a horſe to caſt his hooues.

Neuf. Nine (in number.)

Neufain: m. ine: f. Of nine; for nine dayes.

Neufaine: f. A ninth; a proportion, or the number, of nine; alſo, a terme, or the ſpace, of nine dayes; alſo, a vow of nine dayes, or for the performance of a thing nine dayes together; alſo, prayers made for a dead bodie the ninth day after his deceaſe.

Neufieſme. The ninth.

Droict de neufieſme. A ninth part of the cleere yerelie value of moſt of the Benefices in Britaine, exacted by the Pope.

Neufieſmement. Ninthly.

Neufme. as Neume.

Neufvaine. as Neufaine; whence;

La ſaincte neufvaine. The nine Muſes.

Neume: m. A ſound, ſong, or cloſe of ſong after an Antham, or the long holding of the laſt note of an Antham, &c; vſed much in the Quires of Cathedrall Churches.

Neutralité: f. Neutralitie; indifferencie; the being on neither ſide.

Neutralizer. ſe neut. To ſtand newter; to take neither part, helpe neither ſide; when two are at oddes to giue them the looking on.

Neutre: com. Newter, taking neither part, helping neither ſide; alſo, of the Newter Gender.

Corps neutre. Which is neither ill nor whole, ſick nor ſound.

Neuvaine. See Neufaine.

Nez: m. The noſe; alſo, ſence, or ſmelling; alſo, wit, or vnderſtanding; alſo, diſgrace, or ſhame.

Nez d' as de treuffle. A noſe like an ace of the clubs; a broad flat noſe.

Nez de cire. A noſe of wax; a thing that may bee brought vnto any forme, wrought into any faſhion, turned or changed any way.

Nez coupé. Saint Anthonies nut, Bladder nut, wild Piſtachoes.

Nez qui coupe. A notable ſpirit, ſearching wit, piercing apprehenſion, ſharpe vnderſtanding.

Haut nez. Chien de haut nez. A dog of a deepe noſe, or good ſent; alſo, a dog that hath wide narrells.

A nez frotté de vinaigre. Looke Vinaigre.

Le nez luy croiſt. Said of one that hath quietly ſwallowed, and baſely digeſted a publicke affront, or diſgrace.

Le nez auſsi plat comme vne Andouille. A noſe as flat as a Flooke (ſay we;) Looke Andouille.

Le nez faict à manche de raſoir. A high-raiſd, or hawke, noſe.

Le nez tourné à la friandiſe. Saied of a lickerous, or leacherous wench; or one thats not ſo good as ſhe ſhould be.

Avan-

Avantagé en nez. That hath a forward, or full-grown nose.
Avoir du nez. s'il a du nez. If he haue any wit, conceit, or iudgement.
Cela n'a point de nez. Is done foolishly, vnhandsomely, without any manner of garb; hath neither decorum without, nor sauer within, it.
Bailler sur le nez du Roy. To coyne false money.
Donner de la porte sur le nez à. To exclude, shut or keepe out; or, to shut the doore against.
Fermer l'huis au nez à. The same.
Laver le nez à. To schoole, censure, chide, reprehend, rattle soundly, reproue bitterly.
Lever le nez. To hold vp the head, pluck vp the heart, grow cheerefull, wax courageous.
Marqué sur le nez. C'est vn Mouton de Berry, il est marqué sur le nez; Looke Mouton.
Mettre le nez par tout. To thrust his nose into euerie corner; busily to search into, or meddle with, euerie thing.
Se prendre au nez. To acknowledge a fault, or find himselfe in th'errour, wherewith another is charged; whence;
C'est à luy à s'en prendre au nez. He may well ynough assume that imputation; tis for him to applie that censure to himselfe; also, tis long of himselfe, he may euen thanke himselfe for it.
Se prendre au bout du nez. Looke Prendre.
Pris du nez. That hath the murre, whose nose is stopped or stuffed with cold.
Refaire son nez. To picke, or gather, vp his crummes againe.
Ne regarder plus loing que le bout de son nez. To be negligent, careless, improuident, without any manner of forecast.
Il se retira avec vn pied de nez. He slunke away, or got him backe, with shame ynough: (sometimes pied is left out, but expressed with the hand; and then they say; Il se retira avec autant de nez.)
Saigner du nez. A mans heart to faint, or faile him; Looke Saigner.
Il se tint fort par le nez de ce refus. He remembred this refusall with a desire of reuenge, although at first he forbore to take notice of it.
Ils luy torchent le nez de sa manche. They wipe his nose with his owne sleeue, his taile with his owne shirt; they allow him meat, or meanes, out of his owne money.
Tordre le nez à. To wrest, bend, or plie a thing to his owne purpose.
Viedazer le nez à. To trouble, vex, molest; baffle, abuse.
Il faut laisser son enfant morveux plustost que luy arracher le nez: Prov. Better an inconuenience then a mischiefe; let the Henne liue although she haue the pip.
Ni. vn ni A no, nay, negatiue, deniall, refusall.
Ni. Neither; Seeke Ny.
Niais: m. A neastling; a young bird taken out of a neast; hence, a youngling, nouice, cunnie, ninnie, fop, noddie, cockney, dotterell, peagoose; a simple, witlesse, and vnexperienced gull; also, as Niez.
La place des niais à la table. Th'vpper end (where the wealthiest, or women, are placed.)
Niaiser. Looke Niezer.
Niaiserie: f. Simplicitie, fillinesse, childishnesse, want of experience, dotterelisme, fopperie, fondnesse; also, a fillie part.

Niance. as Neance.
Niant: m. A denier.
Niant: m. ante: f. Denying.
Niard. faulcon niard. A Nias Faulcon.
Nice: com. Liber, lazie, sloathfull, idle; faint, slacke; dull, simple.
Action nice. An Action vpon a bare promise, without article, or couenant.
Promesse nice. A single, or bare promise, without couenant, pawne, suretie, or obligation.
Nicement. Lazily, litherly, sloathfully; faintly, slackly, slowly; dully; simply, barely, singly.
Niceté. Sloath, litherneſſe, lazineſſe, idleneſſe; slackneſſe, slowneſſe; simplicitie, or simpleneſſe.
Nicette. pucelle nicette. A slow, dull, simple, foolish, or nice girle.
Niche: f. A Niche; a hollow seat, or standing for a statue, or image, made into a wall.
Nichée. as Niée.
Nicher. To neastle, build or make a neast in.
Nicheul: m. A neast-egge; th'egge thats alwayes left in a Hennes neast.
Nichil-au-dos. A doublet whose back is of courser stuffe then the forepart; and hence, any thing that makes an outward shew of goodnesse, or worth, which inwardly it wanteth, or commeth short of.
Nichilodo. The same.
Nicolas: m. Nicholas; a proper name for a man; and particularly the name of a Saint (Patron of the Russians, &c;) whose feast is the sixt day of December; hence;
Si l'hyver estoit outre la mer si viendra il a S. Nicolas parler: Prov.
Nicotiane: f. Nicotian, Tobacco; (first sent into France by Nicot (the maker of the great French Dictionarie) in the yeare 1560, when he was Embassador Leger in Portugall.)
Petite Nicotiane. Nicotian, yellow Henbane, English Tobacco; or, as Petum femelle.
Nicquet: m. A Burgonian (base) coyne, whereof three are worth 5 d. Tournois.
Nid: m. A neast.
Nid d'oiseau. Goose-neast, Birds-neast, an hearbe.
Nid de la Pie. Monté insques au nid de la Pie. At his full height; as high, or as great, as euer he can be.
Nids de Tirans. Cittadells, and Castells; tearmed so by the common people awed by them.
Il s'en va prendre la mere au nid. Looke Mere.
Nid tissu oiseau envolé: Prov. We loose an opportunitie while we spend time in preparations.
A tous oiseaux leurs nids sont beaux: Prov. Euerie bird likes his owne neast; euerie man thinkes well of, or is in loue with, his owne house, &c.
Tel oiseau tel nid: Prov. A house like th'inhabitant; such bird such neast.
Nideur: f. The stench, or fulsome sauor of things broiled, or burnt.
Nidoreux: m. euse f. Smelling or sauoring of (also, fulsome as the smell of) broiled, or burnt things.
Nidorulent. as Nidoreux.
Nié: m. ée: f. Denied, said nay vnto, disauowed.
Nieblé. as Niellé: Rab.
Niece: f. A neece; the daughter of a brother, or sister.
Nieds. as Niez, or Niais.
Niée de poulsins. A breed of chickins.
Nielle: f. Blasting, or mildew, whereby corne, &c, is withered, or burnt vp; also, the hearbe Nigella, Gith, Bishops-wort, Sweet-fanor, S. Katherines flower.

Nielle baſtarde. Cockle, field Nigella, baſtard Nigella.
Nielle blanche. White Nigella, white Gith.
Nielle des bleds. as Nielle baſtarde.
Nielle Citrine. The garden Nigella, whoſe ſeed is of a pale yellow, or Citron colour.
Nielle de Damas. Damaske Nigella.
Nielle domeſtique. Garden Nigella.
Nielle jaulne. as Nielle Citrine.
Nielle noire. Blacke Nigella; (a ſtranger in England as well as the white one; at leaſt our Gerard mentions neither of them.)
Nielle odorante. Ordinarie Gith, or Nigella.
Nielle Romaine. The ſame; called alſo by our Herbaliſts, Nigella Romana.
Nielle ſauvage. Wild Nigella, field Nigella.
Nielle: m. ée: f. Mildewed, blaſted.
Niement: m. A denying, diſaduowing; or gainſaying.
Niepce: f. as Niece.
Nier. To denie, diſaduow; ſay nay, gainſay.
Qui tout me donne tout me nie: Prov. Hee that grants me all, giues me nothing, I aske.
Nieſpe. An Aſpen tree.
Nieu. as Nid; A neaſt; whence;
Oeuf nieu. A neaſt egge; th'egge which is continually left in a Hennes neaſt.
Nieur: m. A denier.
Nieuſes. les n. de la maiſon. The ſweepings of the houſe.
Niez. as Niais; Alſo, a Nias hawke; alſo, an airie of hawkes.
Niezer. To deale ſimply, or ſillily; to carrie himſelfe like a nouice, or ignorant noddie.
Niezeté: f. Simplicitie, ſillineſſe, childiſhneſſe, ignorance, rudeneſſe.
Nifler. To ſnifter, or ſnuffe vp ſniuell; to draw it vp by drawing in the wind.
Nigaud: m. A fop, nidget, ideot; a doult, lobcock, vaine, trifling, or loytering fellow.
Nigaude: f. A ſillie, fond, idle, trifling wench.
Nigauder. as Niger.
Nigauderies: f. Fopperies, fooleries, fond, idle, trifling prankes.
Nigauld. as Nigaud.
Nigelle: f. Gith, Nigella, Biſhops-root, S. Katherines flower; Looke Nielle.
Niger. To triſle; to play the fop, or nidget.
Nigeries: f. Nidgeries, fopperies, fooleries, triſles, niſles, friuolous bables.
Nigeur: m. A nidget, fop, triſler.
Nigeuſe: f. A fond, or idle wench.
Nigroil: m. The ſea Breame.
Nigromance: f. Nigromancie, coniuring, the blacke Art.
Nigromancien: m. A Nigromancer, or Coniurer; one that practiſes the blacke Art.
Nihil. as Neant.
Mettre nihil en. To diſannull, annihilate, raſe, blot, or ſtrike out.
Nihil gris. A duſt, or ſoot, which mounting vp with the ſmoake of furnaces wherin copper, &c, is melted, ſticks to the rooſe of the houſe; tis called Gris vntill it come to it full perfection; for then it is white, and tearmed Nihil blanc.
Nihilité: f. Nullitie; the being nothing, or of no value.
Nille: f. The turning peg of a Vielle; alſo, the wire-band of a mill-ſtone.
Nimbot: m. A dwarfe, dandiprat, little skip-iacke, low dapperling, three-halfepenie horſe-loafe.
Nipes: f. Traſh, rags, niſles, triſles, things of a very ſmall value.

Niphleſet. Membre viril: Rab.
Nique. faire la nique. To mocke by nodding, or liſting vpof the chinne; or more properly, to threaten or defie, by putting the thumbe naile into the mouth, and with a ierke (from th'vpper teeth) make it to knacke.
Les maux terminez en ique font au medecin la nique: Prov. Such be Hydropique, Hectique, Paralitique, Apoplectique, Lethargique, &c, becauſe they are hardly, or neuer, cured.
Niquet. as Nique; Alſo, a knicke, tlicke, ſnap with the teeth, or fingers; a triſle, niſle, bable, matter of ſmall value; alſo, as Nicquet.
Niqueter. Il n'y a que niqueter. There is no cauſe of, or place for, mockerie; there is no fault to be found.
Niſi. ſoubs peine de niſi. Vnder the pain of curſe, or excommunication.
Niſſole: f. A whitiſh Dog-fiſh, which is indifferent good meat, or at leaſt, the beſt of Dog-fiſhes.
Nitouche. faire de la ſaincte nitouche. To play the hypocrite, or make an innocent ſhew; to ſeeme not to thinke of, or not to care for, a moſt affected thing.
Nitre: m. Niter; a (Salt-reſembling) ſubſtance of colour light-ruddie, or white, and full of holes like a ſponge; (diuers late writers ignorantly miſtake it for Salt-peeter.)
Nitre d'Afrique. A kind of light, and brittle Niter of a purple colour.
Sel Nitre. Salt-peeter candied, or fined like white Sugar-Candie.
Nitreux: m. euſe: f. Of Niter, full of Niter, ſalt, or brackiſh, as Niter.
Nitriere: f. The place wherein Niter is found, or gotten.
Nitroſité: f. Nitroſitie; the ſaltneſſe, brackiſhneſſe, or ſharpe taſt of Niter.
Niveau: m. A Maſons, or Carpenters Leuell, or Triangle; th'inſtrument whereby he is guided in the laying of his floores, &c; alſo, a Mariners ſounding plummet; alſo, a Periwinkle (fiſh.)
A niveau. Leuell, euen-floored.
Au niveau de. Euen, or leuell with; directly along with; vpon the ſame ground, or floore.
Nivelé: m. éc: f. Leuelled; meaſured, ſquared, or laid euen by a leuell; alſo, ſounded with a plummet.
Niveler. To leuell; to meaſure, ſquare, or lay euen by a leuell; alſo, to ſound with a plummet,
Niveleur: m. A Leueller; one that meaſures, or layes euen, things by a leuell.
Nivellement: m. A leuelling; alſo, a ſounding.
Niveter. To be idle, or lazie; alſo, to fidge, or be fidling here and there to no manner of purpoſe.
Noble: m. A Noble, in money.
Vn Noble Edouard. An Edward Noble; an old Engliſh coyne of gold, worth about 15 s. ſterl.
Noble à la Roſe. A Roſe-noble.
Noble: com. Noble, of a Gentlemanlie race, of gentle bloud; alſo, noble, gentle, generous of humor; worthie, gallant; excellent, famous.
Les Nobles. Gentlemen (of what ranke, or qualitie ſoeuer) are ſtiled thus by the French, without any ſuch diſtinction (betweene Noble, and Gentle) as we make.
La Noble fleur. Flower gentle, Flower amout, Flower valure.
Les parties Nobles du corps. The braine, heart, liuer, and thoſe parts of the bodie which feed, or depend on, them.
Les vilains s'entretiennent, les Nobles s'embraſſent; braſſent: Prov. Clownes intertaine one another coldly, Gentlemen courteouſly.

Noblement. Nobly, generouſly, Gentleman-like; worthily, gallantly, couragiouſly, freely.

Terre tenuë noblement. Land held by Knights ſeruice, or ſome other Gentlemanlie tenure.

Noblesse: f. Nobilitie, gentrie, generouſneſſe, gentlemanlineſſe; alſo, a noble inheritance, or houſe.

La nobleſſe (d'vn Royaulme.) The Gentrie, or Gentlemen (of a Kingdome) what ranke ſoeuer they hold, or what title ſoeuer they haue.

Noc. Con, Turned backward (as our Tnuc) to be the leſſe offenſiue to chaſt eares.

Nocher: m. A Pilot, or Steeres-man; the Mariner that directs, or gouerns, the courſe of a ſhip.

Le vent, la tempeſte, & l'orage, monſtrent du nocher le courage: Prov. The wind and tempeſt being outragious, trie whether the Pilot be couragious.

Nocturne: com. Nightlie, by night, in the night time.

Nodeux: m. euſe: f. Knottie, knobbie, full of knurres, ioynts, or hard bunches.

Nodoſité: f. Knottineſſe, knobbineſſe.

Noë. as Nouë.

Noel: m. Chriſtmas; the feaſt of the Natiuitie of our Sauiour; alſo, a Chriſtmas Caroll; See Nouël.

A Noel au perron, à Paſques au tiſon: Prov. At Chriſtmas in the Sunne, at Eaſter by the fire (you muſt warme you.)

Tant crie on Noel qu'il vient: Prov. So long is Chriſtmas cried that at length it comes; Looke Venir.

Noër. To ſwimme; or to gird, or iert, forward in ſwimming; (an old word.)

Noeud. as Neud.

Noeuf. as Neuf.

Noialliere: f. A Pepinnerie, or part of an Orchard, wherin the kernells, or ſtones of ſeuerall fruits are ſet, or ſowed for increaſe.

Noiau. as Noyau.

Noïé: m. ée: f. Drowned; whirkened, ouerwhelmed, as with water.

Noier. as Noyer.

Noif: f. Snow: ¶ Norm.

Noir: m. Blacke colour; blacking.

Le noir. Blacke game; as the wild ſwine, &c.

Noir: m. noire: f. Blacke, ſable; darke, obſcure.

Des noirs cappets; ou chapeaux noirs. A certaine hearbe whoſe blacke flowers reſemble ſmall hats; Dioſcorides, and Plinie, call it Lonchitis; but Mathiolus proteſts he neuer knew that any man had found it.

Beſtes noires. Wild ſwine.

Biſe noire. A North-eaſt wind blowing in cloſe weather.

Monnoye noire. Braſſe, copper, or yron coyne, vnſilnered.

Pierre noire. Blacke Oaker, or the blacke marking-ſtone.

Veine noire. Looke Veine.

Vin noir. Th'oldeſt, thickeſt, and deepeſt-coloured, red wine.

Il n'eſt ſi Diable qu'il eſt noir. He is not ſo bad as he lookes for; he is not ſo curſt, furious, or vntractable, as he ſeemes to be.

Noire geline pond blanc oeuf: Pro. A blacke Hen layes a white egge; many a foule women brings forth a faire child.

Noiraſtre: com. Blackiſh, obſcure, duskie, ſootie; ouercaſt.

Noirault: m. aulde: f. Swart, browne, dunne, duskie, ſomewhat blacke.

Noir-beau. A kind of dog.

Noir-brun. A blacke-browne, or darke-browne colour.

Noir-brun enfumé. as Couleur d'Enfer, (vnder Enfer.)

Noirceur: f. Blackneſſe, obſcuritie, darkneſſe.

Noirci: m. ie: f. Blacked, blackened; darkened, obſcured, offuſcated, ouercaſt.

Noircir. To blacke, blacken; bleach, darken, obſcure, offuſcate, ouercaſt.

Noirciſſant. Blacking; darkening, obſcuring.

Noirciſſement: m. A blacking; darkening, obſcuring, offuſcating, ouercaſting.

Noirciſſeur: m. A blacker, blackener; bleacher, darkener, obſcurer.

Noirciſſure: f Blackneſſe, darkneſſe, obſcuritie; ſwartneſſe, blackiſhneſſe, browneſſe; alſo, as Noirciſſement.

Noirelet: m. ette: f. as Noiret.

Noiret: m. ette: f. Blackiſh, duskie, obſcure, ſootie, ſwart, browne, dunne.

Noireté: f. as Noirceur.

Noireton: m. onne: f. as Noiret; or, A little blacke.

Noirettes: f. Blackiſh cliſts; alſo, ſmall Wallnut trees.

Noir-mordant. (The name of) a great, and verie venomous blacke Spider.

Noirté. as Noirceur.

Noir-ver: m. A wilding; or an apple, or peare that is not perfectly ripe: ¶ Norm.

Noise: f. A brabble, brawle, debate, wrangle, ſquabble, chiding, altercation, ſcoulding; a quarell, ſtrife, oddes, variance, difference, diſcord, or diſagreement, in words; alſo, a noiſe, bruit, rumbling, ſturre, hurrie, coyle, burliburlie.

Cercher noiſes pour noiſettes. To pick a quarell vpon a ſmall occaſion.

Qui femme a noiſe a: Prov. He that a wife hath ſtrife hath.

Noiſelier: m. A haſel; a haſel nut. ſmall nut tree.

Noiſelle: f. A haſel nut, or ſmall nut.

Noiſer. To brawle, chide, ſcould, brabble, ſquabble, wrangle, brangle, fall at odds, or be at variance, with; goe to ſuit, or hold debate, againſt.

Noiſette: f. A ſmall nut, or haſel nut; alſo, a Filbeard; alſo, a ſquabbling, or ſmall debate; a contention of little importance.

Noiſette des Indes. The drunken Date, called by the Arabians Fauſel, and of ſome vſe in Phyſicke.

Cercher noiſes pour noiſettes. as vnder Noiſe.

Noiſeux: m. euſe: f. Contentious, debateſull, quarelſome, litigious, troubleſome, brabbling, wrangling, moſt vnquiet.

Noiſif: m. iue: f. as Noiſeux.

Noiſille: f. A ſmall nut, or haſel nut.

Caſſer la noiſille. To cog a Die.

Noiſiller: m. A haſel [illegible] nut tree.

Noiſillier: m. ere: f. Full of, ſtored with, ſmall nuts.

Noiſillon: m. A haſel nut, a ſmall nut.

Noiſillons des Dattes. Little Date ſtones.

Noix: f. A Wallnut; alſo, the firſt bone of th'inſtup; the huckle bone.

La noix d'vne arbaleſte. The nut of a Croſſebow.

Noix de Cyprés. A cypres nut, or clog.

Noix galle, ou de galles. A Gall; alſo, an Oake-apple.

Noix Indique. Th'Indian nut Cocus (an excellent

Noix Iuglande. A Wallnut.

Noix de Iupiter. The ſame; called ſo in old time.

Noix

Noix methelle. A sleepe-procuring nut, or fruit, called by Gerard, the Thorne-apple, or Thornie apple of Peru.
Noix muscade. A Nutmeg.
Noix Persique. A Wallnut.
Noix de pin. A Pine-clog, or Pine-apple; also, a Pinet, the nut, or fruit of the Pine-apple.
Noix Pontique. The red Filbeard.
Noix royale. A Wallnut.
Noix vomique. Nux vomica, or, the vomiting nut: Some hold it to be the fruit of the Spurge Myrsinites; others, no fruit, but the root of an hearbe; howsoeuer, it is of a poisonous, deadlie, and stupifying qualitie.
En cela gist le goust de la noix. There is the pleasure, therein rests the sport of it; or therein consists th'onely point, or chiefe substance of the matter.
Nulle noix sans coque: Pro. No nut without a shell.
Qui a des noix il en casse, & qui n'en a il s'en passe: Prov. Nuts are time-trifles; it is a pleasure to haue them, and tis no great losse to want them; for oftentimes their crack doth cost more then their kernells are worth.
Noix chastaigne. Th'earth nut, Kipper nut, earth Chestnut.
Noix prunes. Plummes that come of a plumme grafted on a Wallnut tree.
Noleage: m. as Nolle.
Nolle: f. The fraught paid for lading, the fare due for passage, in a ship.
Nom: m. A name; the tearme or title, whereby a thing is called; also, a fame, bruit, report; whence, Il en a le nom.
Au nom de vostre beauté, oserions nous, &c. By your sweet fauour may we, or, may we for your beauties sake.
Nombles d'vn cerf. The numbles of a Stag.
Nombrable: com. Numberable, numerable.
Nombre: m. A number; a tallie, summe, list, reckoning, account; store, companie, multitude, quantitie of; also (in old French) a Band, Regiment, or Cohort of souldiers.
Nombre sourd. Looke Sourd.
Quatre mille de nombre faict. Full foure thousand.
Nombré: m. ée: f. Numbred; told, reckoned, summed, counted.
Nombrée. as Denombrement; or, A list, catalogue, register, survey, of.
Nombrement: m. A numbering; reckoning, telling, summing, counting.
Nombrer. To number, tell, reckon, summe, count.
Nombres. as Nombles.
Nombreur: m. A numberer, reckoner, teller, summer, counter.
Nombreux: m. euse: f. Numerous, manifold, many; also, consisting of, or directed by, number; whence, nombreuses loix. Verses.
Nombril: m. The nauell.
Nombril de mer. The Sea-nauell; a ruddie, & writhen shell-fish, as hard as a stone.
Nombril de terre. The hearbe Sow-bread, Hogs-bread, Swines-bread.
Nombril de Venus. Ladies Nauell, great Pennie-wort, wall Penniwort, Venus garden, Hipwort.
Nombriller: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, the nauell.
Ligature nombrillere. A band wherwith women tie vp their great bellies, and are thereby lightened of a great part of their burthen.
Nombrillet: m. A small nauell.
Nomination: f. A nomination, or denomination; a calling, naming, cleaping, tearming, or stiling; also, the nominating, choice, or election of a man; th'appointing, or pointing him out, for an imployment.
Nommé: m. ée: f. Named, called, cleaped, ecleaped, hight; stiled, entitled, tearmed; minged, mentioned, alledged; nominated, appointed.
A iour nommé. On a day certaine.
A point nommé. Expresly, of set purpose; also, to purpose, or, at th'appointed time; Looke Poinct.
Nommée: f. as Denombrement; or, A list, roll, catalogue, register, survey.
Nommément. Namely, by name, particularly, especially, expresly.
Nommer. To name; call, cleape, hight, entitle, tearme, stile; also, to ming, mention, alledge, or speake of; also, to nominate, or appoint by name.
Nommeur: m. A namer; also, a denominator; the figure thats vnder the line in an Arithmeticall fraction.
Nomothesie: f. The making, publishing, or proclaiming of a Law.
Nompair: m. Odnesse, or an vneuen number of.
Nompair. as Nompareil; Also, odde.
Nompareil: m. eille: f. Peerelesse, passing, excellent, beyond comparison.
Nompareille: f. The name of a delicate peare.
Nompareillement. Peerelesly, passingly, surpassingly; excellently.
Non. (Substan.) vn non de la teste. A nod that imports a deniall.
Non. No, not.
Non pas? Art thou not? is it not? &c.
Non que. Not onely; much lesse, or, much more.
Nonain: f. A Nunne.
Nonante. Ninetie; fourscore and ten.
Nonantiesme. The ninetieth.
Nonce: m. A Nuntio, messenger, tiding-bringer; and particularly, an Embassador from the Pope.
Noncer. To tell, declare, relate, report, bring tidings, deliuer newes of; also, to shew, betoken, signifie.
Nonceur: m. A reporter, teller, declarer, tiding-bringer, shewer, signifier.
Nonchalamment. Heedlesly, carelesly, retchlesly.
Nonchalance: f. Careleſneſſe, retchleſneſſe, heedleſneſſe; negligence, idleneſſe.
Nonchalant. Careleſſe, retchleſſe, heedleſſe; negligent, idle, secure.
Nonchalemment. as Nonchalamment.
Nonchalence: f. Careleſneſſe, retchleſneſſe.
Nonchalent. as Nonchalant.
Nonchaloir. To neglect, or be careleſſe of; not to reckon, heed, or accompt of; to liue in securitie.
Nonchalu: m. uë: f. Neglected, not heeded, smally tended, little cared for.
Nonciateur. as Nonceur.
Nonciation: f. A report, relation, message; or, a reporting, relating, newes-telling, message bringing.
None: f. The fourth Quarter, or ninth houre, of the day; happening in Summer about foure in th'afternoone; in Winter about two.
Nones. The Nones of a Moneth; the dayes next after the Kalends: In March, May, Iune, and October, there be six, in the rest but foure, of them.
Nonnie. (Adverb.) Neuer a bit, not a whit, not at all, by no manner of meanes.
Nonnain: f. A Nunne.
Nonne: f. A Nunne; also, as None; the ninth houre of the day.

Nonnette : f. A little Nunne.
Meſange Nonnette. A little Titmouſe, called the Nunne, becauſe ſhe ſeemes to weare a Nunne-like fillet about her head.
Oye Nonnette. A Brigander.
Pomme Nonnette. A kind of ſmall apple thats quickly ripe, and rotten.
Poule Nonnette. A little ſhort henne.
Nonobſtant. Notwithſtanding, neuertheleſſe, for all that.
Nonpourtant. Notwithſtanding, neuertheleſſe.
Non-prix : m. An vnder value, or vnder price; alſo, a verie ſmall rate, poore value, low price.
Non-valleur : f. A diſabilitie, or defficiencie; a defect in worth, or want in value.
Non-valoir : m. as Non-valleur.
Non-valoir d'eſtat. Looke Eſtat.
Nopçage : m. Mariage, wedlocke; alſo, the making of mariage; alſo, a marying.
Droict de nopçages. The fee due to Churchmen vpon mariages.
Nopces : f. A wedding, bridall, mariage.
Qui faict nopces, & maiſon met le ſien en abandon : Prov. Looke Abandon; or Maiſon.
Touſiours ne ſont pas nopces. A wedding day laſts not alwayes; iollitie, and good cheere continue not for euer.
Nopcier : m. ere : f. Nuptiall, bridall, of a wedding.
Nopciereiment. By way of mariage.
Nopſage. as Nopçage.
Nord : m. The North, or North-wind.
Nordeſt : m. A Northeaſt-wind.
Nore : f. The wife of a ſonne, a daughter in law.
Normand : m. A Norman; one of Normandie; (in old time all robbers weve called Normands, becauſe the Normans had often ranaged, and ouerrun France.)
Qui fit Normand il fit truand : Prov. Hee that made a Normand made a begger; (for that people, often fleeced by exactions, was woont to be none of the richeſt.)
Norrecquier : m. A chiefe ſhepheard, or heardſman, that ouerſees, or looks vnto, diuers mens cattell.
North. as Nord.
Nortoeſt. The North-weſt wind.
Noſocome : m. A ſpittle, or hoſpitall for the diſeaſed.
Noſſieurs. My maiſters.
Noſtradame : m. A cogger, foiſter, lyer; conie-catcher, couſener, impoſter.
Noſtre. Ours; our ſtuffe; belonging to vs.
Ils ſont des noſtres. They be of our ſide.
Rien n'eſt noſtre qui ne ſoit en nous propre : Pro. No thing, which is not our owne, can be faict ours.
Not : m. A Southerne wind.
Notable : com. Notable, known, of mark, eaſie to be diſcerned; famous, renowmed; worthie, excellent.
Notablement. Notably; worthily, ſingularly.
Notaire : m. A Notarie; a Scriuener, or Scribe, that onely takes notes, or makes a ſhort draught, of cõtracts, obligations, or other Inſtruments: theſe notes he may deliuer vnto the parties that gaue him inſtructions, if they deſire no more; but if they doe he muſt deliuer them vnto a Tabellion, who drawes them at large, ingroſſes them in parchment, and keeps a regiſter of thẽ; but this is not generally obſerued, for in ſome townes (& of late yeres in many) the Notaires are alſo Tabellions; And in former times the Kings Secretaries haue beene ſtiled, Notaires, & Secretaires du Roy.
Notaires Apoſtoliques. Are ſpeciall Officers appointed by the Pope, to take Procurations for the reſignation of Benefices, and to doe him ſome other the like ſeruices, within France.
Notaires gardes-notes. Officers appointed within euerie Bailliage, and Siege Royal (by Edict Anno 1575*) to receiue from the widows, or heirs of deceaſed Notaries all ſuch notes, draughts, & Records of Inſtruments as they left behind them; Since that time all Notaries, and* Tabellions haue beene, by another Edict, made Gardes-notes.
Notairial : m. ale : f. Drawne by, or paſſed before, a Notarie; belonging to th' Office of a Notarie.
Notamment. Namely, eſpecially, chiefly, principally.
Notariacon : m. The tricke, or art of a Notaries penne which makes a letter ſerue for a ſillable, or word; as &c for et cætera, and ſuch like.
Note : f. A note; a marke, ſigne, token; a pricke, cypher, letter; alſo, a blot, ſpot, blemiſh, touch, aſperſion, ill report; alſo, a note, or tune of Muſicke; alſo, a ſhort obſeruation vpon.
Changer de note. To alter the mind, purpoſe, or manner of ſpeech; or, as we ſay, to turne ouer leaſe.
Il n'entend note. He conceiues no one iot, he vnderſtands neuer a whit, of it.
Noté : m. ée : f. Noted, ſigned; marked, obſerued; blotted, ſpotted, blemiſhed, touched in credit.
Noter. To note, ſigne; marke, obſerue, or make a ſhort obſeruation on; alſo, to blot, ſpot, blemiſh; defame, reproue, touch in credit.
Nothe : com. Baſtard, adulterous; counterfeit.
Notice : f. Notice, knowledge, aduertiſement, acquaintance, vnderſtanding.
Notification : f. A notification, information, ſignification, aduertiſement.
Notifié : m. ée : f. Notified, ſignified, vnto; aduertiſed, informed, of.
Notifier. To notifie, or ſignifie, vnto; to aduertiſe, informe, giue notice, of.
Notoire : com. Notorious, euident, well knowne, manifeſt, open, plaine.
Notoirement. Notoriouſly, manifeſtly, euidently, openly, that all the world may ſee, or know, it.
Notorieté : f. Notoriouſnes, publication, manifeſtation.
Notte. as Note.
Nou : m. A knot; alſo, the knob, or bunch of the throat; alſo, a veſſell of ſtone like a Funt, holding water, wherin pots, and glaſſes, are ſet to coole.
Nou. A nou. Swimming, or, by ſwimming.
Noüageux : m. euſe : f. Knottie, knobbie; full of knurs, bunches, ioynts.
Noüailleux. as Noüageux.
Noüaine. Seeke Neufaine.
Novale : f. A vine lately planted; a ground newly broken, or ploughed vp; land thats turned from wood, or wild, to be arable.
Novalité : f. Innouation; or a renewing.
Novalitez. Nouelties, new things.
Novateur : m. An innouator; a forger of new things; alſo, a renewer of old ones.
Novation : f. An innouation; alſo, a renewing.
Noüe : f. A little law medow incompaſſed by, or lying ſo neere vnto the water, that it is often ſubiect to inundations, & euer ſeemes a float, and readie to ſwim; alſo, a gutter betweene two tiled rooffs.
Noué : m. ée : f. Tied on, faſtened with, a knot; alſo, all on knots.
Eſguillette nouée. A charming of the codpeece that reſtraines a man frõ the vſe only of his owne wife, or woman; Looke Eſguillette.

L'her-

L'herbe nouée. Centinodie, Knotgraſſe, Birds-tongue, Bloudwort, Swines-graſſe.

Nouël: m. (The feaſt of) Chriſtmas; alſo, a Chriſtmas Caroll, or ſong made to the honour of Chriſt; alſo, a voice of acclamation, or congratulation vſed by people welcomming ſuch as are gracious with them; See Noel.

Nouël nouvelet. The burden of a Chriſtmas Caroll: ¶Rab.

Novembre. Nouember.

Nouëment: m. A knitting, tying, or faſtening with knots.

Nouëment de jeunes arbres. The knotting of young trees; their ſpringing, or ſhooting out from knot to knot, or from ioynt to ioynt.

Novenaire. A ninth; or the number of nine.

Novenaire: com. The ninth; alſo, nine.

Nouër. To knit; to tie, faſten, or bind with knots; alſo, to knot (as a tree thats in growing.)

Il ne peut nouër au bout de l'an les deux bouts de ſa ſerviette enſemble. He is a cleane Gentleman, or hath nothing left him, by the yeares end.

Noverce: f. A ſtepdame, or ſtepmother.

Nouët: m. A little knot; alſo, a little linnen bag, or poke, hard tied vp.

Nouëure: f. as Nouëment.

Neuëuſe: f. Centinodie, Knotgraſſe, Birds-tongue, Bloudwort.

Noueux: m. euſe: f. Knottie, knobbie; full of knurres, ioynts, bunches, &c.

Novice: com. A nouice, a young Monke, or Nunne; one thats but newly entred into th'Order; alſo, a yongling, or beginner, in any profeſſion.

Novimeſtre: com. Of nine monethes; or, at nine moneths end.

Novitiat: m. A nouice; th'eſtate of a nouice, or the terme wherein one is in the ſtate of a nouice; alſo, a beginning, or entrance in any profeſſion.

Nourri: m. ie: f. Nouriſhed, fed; nurtured, foſtered; nuzled in, brought vp to.

Fleur de lis au pied nourri d'argent. Couped, or cut off; (a tearme of Blazon.)

Nourrice: f. A Nurſe.

Vn embonpoint de nourrice. A plumpe, fat, or fuggie conſtitution of bodie.

Nourrin: m. Th[illegible]ie, or brood of yong fiſh, reſerued for the ſtoring of a pond, &c.

Nourrir. To nouriſh, feed, ſuſtaine, find; nurture, foſter; nuzzle in; breed, or bring vp to.

Celuy la eſt bon pere qui nourrit: Prov. He that maintaines, or keepes a man, may well be tearmed his father.

Qui veut avoir bon chien il faut qu'il le nourriſſe: Pro. He that will haue a good dog muſt breed him to it.

Tel le chié nourrit qui puis mange la courroye de ſon ſoulier: Prov. Looke Chien.

Nourriſſable: com. Nouriſhable.

Nourriſſant: m. ante: f. Nouriſhing.

Nourriſſe: f. as Nourrice.

Nourriſſement: m. A nouriſhing, feeding, ſuſtaining; a nurturing, foſtering; breeding, bringing vp.

Nourriſſeur: m. A nouriſher, feeder, ſuſtainer; a foſter father.

Nourriſſier: m. A Nurſes husband, a foſter father.

Nourriſſon: m. A nurſling, nurſe-child, or nurſing child.

Nourriture: f. Nouriſſement, nutriment, ſuſtenance, food, meat; finding, maintenance; alſo, nurture, or bringing vp; alſo, cattell, or beaſts bred vp about a houſe; or the breeding thereof; whence;

Nouritures. The tending, feeding, or fattening of ſwine, cattell, or pulleine; alſo, the commodities, or proviſion yeelded by a countrey houſe towards that part of husbandrie.

Nourriture paſſe nature: Prov. Nurture ſurpaſſeth nature.

Nous. We, vs.

Nouveau: m. nouvelle: f. New; freſh, recent; ſtrange, rare; lately done, or made; vncouth, vnuſed, vnheard of before.

Nouveaux acqueſts. Looke Acqueſts.

Faicts nouveaux. ce ſont ceux qui n'ont eſté articulez au procez principal; ou encores qu'ils dependent d'iceux, ils ne ſont toutesfois les meſmes faicts, ains ſervent de les eſclaircir, & en donner plus ample intelligence.

Le laict nouveau. Beeſt, or Beeſtings.

Les vingt nouveaux. A certain lately-erected Court, conſiſting of twentie Preſidents, and (Aſſiſtants) Counſellors.

De nouveau tout eſt beau: Prov. Euerie new thing lookes faire.

De nouveau Seigneur nouvelle meſgnie: Prov. A new Maiſter, a new meynie.

Vieux peché fait nouvelle honte: Prov. Old ſinne breeds new ſhame.

Nouveauté: f. A noueltie; alſo, newneſſe, freſhneſſe; rareneſſe, ſtrangeneſſe.

Nouvelan: m. A new yeare.

Nouvelet: m. ette: f. Verie new; or prettie, and new; of late date, of a ſmall ſtanding.

Nouël nouvelet. See Nouël.

Nouvelis. as Nouvellis.

Nouvelle: f. A nouell, newes; tidings; an (vnexpected) meſſage; a ſtrange report; a diſcourſe, or tale vnheard of before.

Aſſez en dit qui apporte bonnes nouvelles: Prov. He ſpares no words that brings good newes.

C'eſt au four, & au moulin ou l'on ſçait des nouvelles: Prov. A common mill, and ouen, affoord much newes.

Hardiment heurte à la porte qui bonne nouvelle apporte: Prov. Looke Hardiment.

Trop toſt vient à la porte qui mauvaiſe nouvelle apporte: Pro. He that brings ill news comes too ſoone.

Nouvellement. Newly, lately, afreſh, not long ſince.

Nouvelleté: f. as Nouveauté; alſo, Nouel diſſeiſin; a new, or late interruption, or impeachment, of poſſeſſion; Looke Saiſine.

Nouvellis: m. Fallowes; ground that lies fallow euerie other yeare; or, as Novales.

Nouzille. as Noiſette, or Noiſille.

Noyau: m. The ſtone of a Plum, Cherrie, Date, Oliue, &c; alſo (but leſſe properly) the kernell incloſed therin; alſo, the Nuell, or ſpindle of a winding ſtaire; alſo, the mould thats within a peece of ordnance when it is caſt; alſo, the naue of a wheele; alſo, the briſket of a Deere; whence;

Rendre au noyau. To take th'eſſay of a Deere.

Noyé: m. ée: f. Drowned, whirkened, or ſtifled with; ouerwhelmed in, the water: (A Bowler is ſaid to be noyé, when his bowle toucheth th'end of th'Alley, for then it is out of play.)

Noyé en debtes. Sunke, vndone, ouer ſhooes, out at heeles, ouer head and eares, in debt.

Les bons nageurs ſont à la fin noyez: Prov. Good ſwimmers are in th'end orewhelmd.

Noyement : m. A drowning.
Noyer : m. A Wallnut tree.
Noyer. To drowne; to whirken, or fliſte with water, &c; To ouerwhelme in, or plunge vnder, the water.
Ce n'eſt rien, c'eſt vne femme qui ſe noye : Prov. A woman drownes her ſelfe, no force.
Qui a à pendre n'a pas à noyer : Prov. Hee thats borne to be hanged needs feare no drowning.
Quand vn chien ſe noye chaſcun luy offre à boire: Prov. Looke Chien.
Noyeraie : f. A groue, or Orchard of Wallnut trees.
Noynce. The knuckle of a finger; (an old word.)
Noyſette : f. A ſmall nut, or Haſle nut.
Noyſettier : m. A Haſle, or ſmall nut tree.
Noz ſieux. for mon fits ; My ſonne : ¶ Pic.
Nu. as Neud.
Le nu d' vne Colonne. The ſhaft of a piller, being (for the moſt part) naked, and bare of any worke.
Nu. as Nud; Naked, &c.
Nú à nu. Meerely, immediately, directly, without meſne, or meanes.
Nuage : m. as Nuée ; or, A thicke, and ſtorme-threatening clowd ; alſo, a repreſentation of th'aire, or of clowdes, in painting ; alſo, a ſhadowing (with darke colours vpon lighter of the ſame kind ; for if it be with colours of another kind, it is not tearmed Nuage, but Mutation, or, Changement.)
Nuage de corbeaux. A great flight of Rauens, obſcuring the skie with their thicke rankes.
Nuager. To clowd, beclowd, ouerclowd ; to ſhadow, obſcure, ouercaſt, as with clowds.
Nuageux : m. euſe : f. Clowdie, full of thicke clowds.
Nuance : f. A ſhadowing (with colours of one kind.)
Nuäux : m. Clowds.
Nubile : com. Mariageable.
Nubileux : m. euſe : f. Clowdie ; ouercaſt ; ſtormie, tempeſtuous.
Nubiloſité : f. A clowdineſſe, ouercaſting, darkneſſe of weather.
Nucque : f. The nape of the necke.
Nud : m. nuë : f. Naked, bare; vncouered, or diſcouered ; beggerlie, poore, without any clothes.
Nud comme vn ver. As naked as my nayle (ſay we.)
Mettre à nud. To bare, ſtrip, vncouer ; deſpoyle, or depriue of clothes.
Mieux vaut vn pied nud que nul : Pro. A bare foot is better then none.
On ne peut deſpouiller vn homme nud : Prov. A naked man cannot be ſtript of clothes.
Nudité : f. Nuditie, nakedneſſe, bareneſſe ; beggerie, pouertie.
Nudoſité. Looke Nodoſité.
Nue : f. A clowd.
Il penſe que les nues ſont pailles d' airain. Hee thinkes the clowds are braſen ſpangles ; like our ; he thinkes the Moone is made of greene cheeſe.
Nué : m. ée : f. Clowded ; ouercaſt, ouerſhadowed ; (in painting) ſhadowed.
Nuée : f. A clowd.
Peindre es nuées. To looſe time on impoſſible, or idle attempts.
Nuement. Nakedly, barely, beggerly, without means; alſo, meerely, directly, immediately, without meſne.
Nuer. To ſhadow ; to ouercaſt, ouerclowd.
Nueſſe : f. Th'extent, or compaſſe of a feodall, or cenſuel Seigneurie, whereof other Fiefs, or Cens are held immediately.
Nugicanoricrepe : m. An idle ſinger of lyes, or trifling matters.

Nuict : f. The night ; alſo, darkneſſe.
Nuict d' vn lievre. The tract, or pricke of a Hare going to reliefe.
Harenc de la nuict. A red Herring.
Herbe de la nuict. Looke Herbe.
En pleine nuict. In the darkeſt, or moſt ſilent part of the night ; when all is huſht, when euerie one's aſleepe.
Faire ſa nuict. To ſell vp his houſhold-ſtuffe.
Faire vn trou à la nuict. To walke, or goe abroad a-nights ; to trauell, or take a iourney by night ; alſo, to ſlinke, or ſlip away on a ſuddaine, or at vnawares.
La nuict donne conſeil : Prov. Like vnto our, take counſell of your pillow.
Ce qui ſe fait de nuict paroiſt de Iour : Prov. The Day bewrayes whatſoeuer was done by night ; or, the day diſcouers the harme that night hath done.
Contre la nuict s'arment les limaçons : Prov. as in Limaçon.
Nous achetons tout fors le iour, & la nuict : Prov. We all things buy ſaue day and night.
Nuictal : m. ale : f. Nightlie, by night, of the night.
Nuictamment. Nightly, by night, in the night; or, night by night, euerie night.
Nuictée : f. The ſpace of a night.
Nuict egal : m. Th' Equinoctiall.
Nuicteux : m. euſe : f. Nightlie, night-bringing ; darke, blacke ; ſilent, huſht ; (as the night.)
Nuïr. as Nuire.
Nuire. To hurt, offend, indommage, incommodate, annoy, hinder, doe a diſpleaſure vnto.
Nuiſance : f. Nuiſance, hurt, offence, annoyance, harme ; dammage, wrong, treſpaſſe.
Nuiſant : m. ante : f. Hurtfull, harmefull, ſhrewd, miſchieuous, offenſiue, noyſome ; alſo, hurting.
Nuiſible : com. as Nuiſant ; or, Likelie to hurt.
Nuiſif : m. iue : f. as Nuiſant.
Nuitamment. as Nuictamment.
Nul : m. nulle : f. None, not one, not any, no man or thing; alſo, blanke, idle, friuolous, of no value.
Nul miel ſans fiel : Prov. No honie without gall.
Mieux vaut vn pied nud que nul : Prov. Better halfe a loafe then no bread.
Ouvrage de commun ouvrage de nul : Prov. Seeke Ouvrage.
Nullement. In no caſe, at no hand, in no ſort, by no meanes, in no wiſe, not at all.
Nullité : f. A nullitie, annihilation, diſannulment, nothing.
Nulluy, & Nully. as Nul.
Numerable : com. Numerable, numberable.
Numereux. as Nombreux.
Numero. The number thats ſet on euerie Billet in a Lotterie.
Il entend le numero. He is throughly informed, or fully acquainted with the matter ; he knowes, what will befall, or betide him, beforehand.
Numeroſité : f. Numeroſitie, a great number of.
Numme : m. A little ſiluer coyne among the auncient Romanes, worth about three-halfepence ſterl.
Numulaire : f. Money-wort, bea[illegible] Two-pennie, Two-pennie graſſe.
Nuncupatif : m. iue : f. Nuncupatiue.
Teſtament nuncupatif. A Will nuncupatiue ; a Will not writte, but declared in words, before ſufficiet witneſſes : (This kind of will is no more allowed of in France, but abrogated both by Edicts, and by the late-reformed Cuſtomes.)

Nun-

Nundination: f. A trafficking in Faires, and Markets.

Nuptial: m. ale: f. Nuptiall, brydall, belonging to a wedding.

Le past nuptial. That which a Churchman takes for the marrying of a couple.

Nuque: f. The nape of the necke; also, the marrow of the backe bone.

Nutritif: m. iue: f. Nutritiue, nouriſhing.

Nuyct. Looke Nuict.

Ny. Neither, nor; (and ſometimes) or.

Pour vn denier ny moins. By one pennies expence, or loſſe I haue not much the leſſe.

Nyaie: f. An Airie, or neaſt full of.

Nyceté. Looke Niceté.

Nyche. as Niche.

Nyctalope: m. A night-wandering beaſt; alſo, a certaine hearbe that ſhines, and is ſeene a farre off, in the night.

Nymphal: m. ale: f. Nimphall; of, or belonging to, a Nimphe.

Nymphe: f. A Nimphe; alſo, a little extreſcence, or peece of fleſh, in the middeſt of a womans priuities.

Nymphée: f. The water Lillie, or water Roſe.

Nymphée grande. The great water Lillie, whereof there be two kinds, a white, and a yellow one.

Nymphée petite. The ſmall water Lillie (of two kinds, as well as the great one.)

Nymphette: f. A little Nimphe.

Nympheux: m. euſe: f. Nimphlie, Nimph-like, of a Nimph, or full of Nimphes.

O

O. An Aduerbe of calling; or the ſigne of the Vocatiue Caſe; whence, O Pierre retourne, &c.

O. A Coniunction ſometimes vſed in ſtead of Avec; whence, Venez O moy; I m'en vay O vous.

O. An Interiection of grieuing, wondering, wiſhing, anger, exclamation, deriſion, contempt, &c; and then ſignifies, Oh, alas, ay me, good Lord; Oh that, piſh, fy, tuſh, &c; Sometimes in ſpeeches of wonder, and mockerie, it is not expreſſed, but vnderſtood; whence, Le braue homme que voila! L'homme de bien! in ſtead of, O le braue homme! O le meſchant!

Obaine. Looke Aubaine.

Obedianciers: m. Foure Church officers, viz. a Deane, Archdeacon, Almner, and Sexton.

Obediemment. Obediently, obſequiouſly, dutifully.

Obedience: f. Obedience; or, as Obeiſſance.

Obedient. Obedient, obſequious, dutifull vnto.

Obeï: m. ïe: f. Obeyed; obſerued with dutie, yeelded vnto with ſubmiſſion.

Obeine. Looke Aubaine.

Obeïr. To obey; to obſerue dutifully, yeeld vnto ſubmiſſiuely; to be ſubiect, obſequious, or dutifull vnto; to doe whatſoeuer another will haue him doe.

Obeïſſamment. Obediently.

Obeïſſance: f. Obedience, obeiſſance; a dutifull obſeruing of, an obſequious yeelding vnto.

Obeiſſant: m. ante: f. Obeiſſant, obedient; ſubmiſſiue, obſequious, or dutifull vnto.

Grande moiſſon l'obeiſſant recueille: Prov. Seeke Moiſſon.

Obel: m. The white Popler tree.

Obeliſque: m. An Obeliske; a great, high, and ſquare ſtone, broad at the bottome, and leſſening towards the top like a Pyramides.

Obelon. A ſallade of ſodden Hop buds. ¶Rab.

Oberé: m. ée: f. Indebted.

Obereau: m. A hobbie (Hawke;) alſo, a young minx, or little prowd ſquall.

Oberon: m. The hand-vice, or toole, wherewith a Lock-ſmith holds a key as he files it.

Obeſité: f. Obeſitie; fatneſſe, groſſneſſe.

Obfuſquer. as Offuſquer.

Obice: m. A let, hinderance, obſtacle, impediment.

Obicer. Looke Obijcer.

Obiect: m. An obiect; the ſubiect of the ſight; any thing one lookes on directly; any thing that is before the eyes.

Obiect de teſmoings. A challenging of witneſſes.

Obiecter. as Obijcer.

Obiection. as Obiect; alſo, an obiection.

Obier: m. The Ople, water Elder, marſh Elder, Dwarfe plane, Whitten tree.

Obijcer. To obiect, or lay againſt; to vpbraid, or twit in the teeth with; to reproach, lay to the charge, caſt in the diſh, of.

Obit: m. An Obit, obſequie, buriall, funerall.

Objurgateur: m. A chider, a rebuker, a reprouer.

Objurgation: f. An obiurgation, chiding, rebuke, reproofe, reprehenſion, blaming.

Objurgatoire: com. Obiurgatorie, reprehenſiue, rebuking, chiding.

Objurguer. To chide, reproue, rebuke, taunt, reprehend, blame.

Oblade: f. A kind of great-eyed, and little-mouthed ſea Ruffe, or ſea Pearch, hauing a blacke ſpot on the roote of her tayle. ¶Marſeillois.

Oblat: m. A Souldior, who growne impotent, or maymed in ſeruice, hath maintenance, or the benefit of a Monks place, aſſigned him in an Abbey; alſo, the meanes, or place of a Monke; or of ſuch a ſouldior.

Oblat de religion. A Nouice, a Probationer.

Oblation: f. An oblation, an offering.

Oblectation: f. Oblectation, delight.

Oblecter. To oblectate, reioyce, delight, make ſport, giue paſtime, yeeld recreation, vnto.

Obliages. Droict d'ob. A Nomine pœnæ, or fine payed in ſome places (as within the dominion of Blois*) by Tenants, who haue not payed their rents, or performed their yearelie duties on their vſuall dayes.*

Obliaige. as Obliage.

Oblie. as Oublie. ¶Rab.

Obligation: f. An Obligation, or Bond; alſo, a beholdingneſſe.

Obligatoire: com. Obligatorie, obliging, binding.

Obligé: m. An Obligor; he thats bound in an Obligation.

Obligé: m. ée: f. Obliged, tyed, bound, bounden; beholden, indebted vnto.

Obligé en rolat. Subiect vnto the rigor of the Court of a Bailli.

Obliger. To oblige; ty, bind; to make bounden, or beholden vnto.

Qui bien veut payer bien ſe doit obliger: Pro. He that will pay well muſt giue good ſecuritie.

Oblique: com. Crooked, oblique, awry; ſideling, bowed, winding; trauerſe, croſſe, ouerthwart, contrarie to ſtraight.

Sphere oblique. Looke Sphere.

Obliquement. Obliquely, wryly, crookedly, aſide, acroſſe, atrauers, ouerthwartly.

Obliquité: f. Obliquitie, wryneſſe, crookedneſſe.

Obliteré: m. ée: f. Obliterated, abolished, worne, blotted, or scraped out.

Oblivieux: m. euse: f. Obliuious, forgetfull; also, causing forgetfulnesse.

Oblivion: f. Obliuion, forgetfulnesse; vnmindfulnesse.

Obloesion: f. Sore hurt, much annoyance, great harme.

Oblong: m. gue: f. Oblong, somewhat long.

Obmettre. Looke Omettre.

Obnubiler. To obnubilate, make clowdie, obscure, or darken, as clowds doe the skie.

Obnunciation: f. A forbidding of a thing vpon a foreknowledge, coniecture, or likelyhood of the ill successe thereof.

Obole: m. A halfepennie; a small coyne worth vij d Tourn. also, a halfepennie weight; 12 graines among Apothecaries, and 14 among Mintmen, and Goldsmiths.

Obole de Gueldres. A coyne worth ij s vj d sterl.

Obole de Horne. Is worth somewhat aboue xiiij d sterl.

Obole du Rhin. Whereof there be diuers sorts of different value, yet all of them betweene 22, and 27 solz Tourn.

Droict d'obole. Seeke vnder Droict.

Obombration: f. An obumbration, obscurement, shaddow, or shaddowing.

Obombrer. To obumbrate, shaddow, obscure.

Obre. Bastard blacke Hellebore, Lungwort, Christs-wort, Lyons foot, Lyons claw.

Obreptice: com. Obreptitious, stollen, foisted in, conueyed, nimmed, falsely come by.

Obreption: f. An obreption; the creeping, or stealing to a thing by craftie meanes; the getting, or obtaining thereof by dissimulation, or priuate cousenage.

Obreptisement. By stealth.

Obrize. Or ob. Gold perfectly fined, or tryed. ¶Rab.

Obrophore. A carrier of light. ¶Rab.

Obrué: m. ée: f. Ouerwhelmed; couered, or buried all ouer with earth, &c; drowned, lost, oppressed, confounded, ouercome.

Obscur: m. ure: f. Obscure; darke, mirke; duskie, gloomie, mistie, dimme; also, secret, close, mistical, diffused, hard to vnderstand; also, priuate, vnknowne, base, meane, of low parentage, of no reputation.

Obscurci: m. ie: f. Obscured; dimmed, darkened; cloaked, hidden, concealed; obnubilated, enwrapped in clowds.

Obscurcir. To obscure; darken, dimme, ouercast, or cast a mist ouer; to cloake, hide, conceale; obnubilate, enwrap in clowds.

Obscurcissement: m. An obscuring, darkening, dimming, ouercasting, ouershadowing.

Obscurement. Obscurely, darkly, dimly, clowdily, duskily; couertly, mistically.

Obscurité: f. Obscuritie, darkneße, dimnesse, clowdinesse, duskinesse, an ouercasting; closenesse, couertnesse, diffusednesse; a mistical sence, or hidden meaning in words.

Obsecration: f. An obsecration, beseeching, especiall desire, earnest intreatie, heartie prayer.

Obseques: f. Obsequies; funeralls, or funerall rites.

Obsequieux: m. euse: f. Obsequious, officious, dutifull, seruiceable, obseruant, obedient.

Observance: f. Obseruance, dutie, respect, regard; also, an obseruation; a law, discipline, ordinance; fashion, vse, custome.

Freres de l'observance. as Observantins.

Observantins: m. An Order of gray Franciscan Fryers.

Observateur: m. An obseruer, marker, regarder; also, an obseruator, monitor, bill-keeper, in Schooles.

Observé: m. ée: f. Obserued, kept, held; heeded, esteemed, regarded; watched, marked.

Observer. To obserue, keepe, hold; heed, esteeme, regard; watch, marke, espie, aduise.

Obsesseur: m. A besieger, a beleaguerer.

Obsister. To withstand, resist; gainesay; impeach, let, stop.

Obstacle: m. An obstacle, impeachment, let, hinderance, impediment.

Obstacleisment: m. A letting, hindering, impeaching; also, a stopping, or shutting vp.

Obstacler. To let, hinder, impeach; also, to stop (a doore, window, &c;) to shut vp a house.

Obstant. Withstanding, impeaching, letting.

Non obstant. Notwithstanding, for all that.

Obstaqué: m. ée: f. Hindered, letted, impeached, withstood.

Obstination: f. Obstinacie, wilfulnesse, selfe-will; stubbornnesse; also, constancie, perseuerance, resolution, in an opinion.

Obstiné: m. ée: f. Obstinate; wilfull, selfewillie, opinionatiue; stiff-necked, stubborn; firme, constant, resolute, persisting, determinately bent.

Obstinément. Obstinately; wilfully; stubbornly; firmely, resolutely, constantly.

s'Obstiner. Stubbornly to persist, or perseuere in; wilfully to harden, set, or bend his thoughts on; to maintaine earnestly, determine absolutely, obstinately to hold tacke.

Obtemperation: f. Obtemperation, obedience.

Obtemperé: m. ée: f. Obeyed.

Obtemperer. To obtemperate, obey; doe the will, follow the direction, be at the commaund of.

Obtenebrer. To obtenebrate, obscure, darken.

Obtenement: m. An obtaining, acquiring, atchieuing of, attaining vnto.

Obtenir. To obtaine, attaine vnto, atchieue, acquire, get.

Obtenu: m. uë: f. Obtained; atchieued, gotten, attained vnto.

Obtenuë: f. A purchase, acquisition, thing obtained, matter gotten.

Obtester. To obtest; coniure; humbly, or heartily to beseech; also, to inuoke, to call to witnesse, or call vpon for succour.

Obtrectateur: m. A detractor, deprauer, backbiter, slaunderer.

Obtrectation: f. Detraction, deprauation, backbiting, slaundering.

Obtundre. To beat, strike, or thumpe; to blunt, or make dull; also, to inculcate, or repeat often; to wearie, or cloy with words.

Obturateur: m. A stopper, or shutter vp.

Obturation: f. An obturation, a stopping, or shutting vp.

Obturber. To trouble, disturbe, disquiet; interrupt.

Obtus: m. use: f. Dull, blunt, edgeleße; weakened; without spirit.

Obtusement. Obtusely, dully, bluntly.

Obvention: f. A meeting with; comming against; happening, or chauncing vnto.

Obvention testamentaire. A Legacie bestowed by chaunce, or where it was not looked for.

Obvier. To meet with; to resist, or withstand a thing met with; to preuent, stop, forestall.

Obumbré: m. ée: f. Obũbrated, ouershadowed, obscured.

OCC OCC OCC

of a familie; alſo, a receiuer of the rents of a Benefice, &c, during vacancie.

Iouïr d'une choſe en forme d'oeconome. To poſſeſſe a thing onely as a Gouernour, or Steward thereof, during his owne life.

Oeconomie: f. Oeconomie; the gouernment of a familie; the rule, diſpoſition, or managing of houſehold affaires.

Oeconomique: com. Oeconomicall; of husbandrie, or houſehold buſineſſes.

Oedemateux: m. euſe: f. Full of, or ſubiect vnto, a flegmaticke, and paineleſſe tumor, or ſwelling.

Oedeme: m. A paineleſſe, wateriſh, and flegmaticke ſwelling, which preſſed downe with the finger, retaynes the impreſſion thereof.

Oedipodique. Iambe Oedipodique. A lame, or gowtie leg. ¶Rab.

Oeil: m. The eye; an eye; a ſight, a looke.

Oeil d'airain. A red, fierie, ſparkling eye; (Such a one as Lyons, and the leaporous haue.)

Oeil bigarré. as Oeil veron.

Oeil blaſtard. An eye whoſe Chriſtaline humor is growne white, and almoſt dryed vp; (an imperfection that befalls old people.)

Oeil de bœuf. The hearbe Ox-eye; alſo, fooliſh Mathes, vnſauorie white Cotula, white vnſauorie Camomill; alſo, an out-ſtrouting, or great gogle eye; and, prouerbially, ignorance, or a weake eye; alſo (in building) ſuch an ouerture as is made in ſome roofes, and cloſe walls, by a ridge-tyle (or in the forme thereof) to gaine light or ayre from without, or for the voiding of ſmoake from within.

Oeil de bouc. A rolling gogle eye; alſo, an eye that lookes aſquint vpward; an eye whoſe lid couers halfe of the ball; alſo, a ſhell-fiſh, called a Limpin, or Lempet.

Oeil de carré. A ſquinting ſide, or leering eye; alſo, a prowd, ſurlie, ſtatelie, or big looke.

Oeil de cerf. Looke Cerf.

Oeil de chat. Purple Snapdragon, Calues ſnowt (an hearbe;) alſo, a Cats eye; a ſight thats better in the night then by day; alſo, an out-ſtrouting eye; alſo, a white ſtone that gliſters like a ſtarre, and caſts an azure luſter.

Oeil de chevre. A whall, or ouer-white eye; an eye full of white ſpots, or whoſe apple ſeemes diuided by a ſtreake of white.

Oeil d'hypocrite. An often-twinkling eye.

Oeil de Iudas. The Nut, or Fryers peece of a Leg of Mutton.

Oeil de lievre. An eye which in ſleeping holds the lids open; alſo, an eye whoſe vpper lid by conuulſion, or otherwiſe, is hindered from couering the vpper part of the white.

Oeil de loup. A duskie, or darke eye.

Oeil de mauvais garçon. as Oeil de loup.

Oeil de moruë. A great, and out-ſtrowting (but dull-ſighted) eye.

Oeil de perdrix. A bright, or orientall rubie Red; alſo, a kind of Fig.

Oeil de rat. A ſmall eye, pinke-eye, little ſight.

Oeil roſti. A Carbuncle in the eye.

Oeil de travers. A ſquint, or leering eye.

Oeil veron. A deprauation of the eyes; when the Chriſtaline humor growes white, or is almoſt dryed vp in onely one of them; or when they are both of ſundrie colours; or when their apples be verie blacke; alſo, a whall eye; whence the Prouerbe, Le Cheval à oeil veron eſt meſchant, ou tout bon.

Blanc oeil. Gens aux blancs yeux. White-liuered, faint-hearted, people.

Blanc en l'oeil. Il n'a point de blanc en l'oeil. He is a verie ſpirit, he hath not a croſſe to bleſſe him with.

Buſche en l'oeil. C'eſtoit vn buſche en ſon oeil. That was a log, or beame in his eye; an hinderance to his ſight; that caſt a miſt ouer his vnderſtanding.

Gros oeil. A ſcornefull, big, ſurlie, or angrie looke.

Mauvais oeil. Iuie Chickweed, Henne-bit.

Perle de bel oeil. A pearle of an excellent colour, or luſter.

A yeux de cire. Looke Cire.

Les yeux plus grands que la panſe. One may ſooner, or had better, fill his bellie then his eye.

L'oeil tendu au bois. Warily, vigilantly, circumſpectly; that feares a ſurpriſall; that lookes verie well about him.

Il a vn oeil au bois, (ou aux champs) & l'autre à la ville. He lookes two ſundrie wayes, or heeds two ſeuerall things, at once.

Il a vn oeil à la poiſle, l'autre au chat. The ſame; or, as vnder Poiſle.

Faire les yeux; & faire les doux yeux. Looke Faire.

Lever l'oeil. Il n'y a homme qui oſe lever l'oeil devant luy. Euerie one ſtands in wonderfull awe of him; no man dare quitch, or ſtirre before him.

Il leur en pend autant en l'oeil. They are in the like danger; they muſt one day taſt of the ſame ſawce; as much euerie way hangs ouer their (careleſſe) heads.

Servi au doigt, & à l'oeil. Serued at a becke; diligently attended, excellently wayted on.

Tenir l'oeil à. To looke at ſeriouſly, view diligently; obſerue wiſtly, giue good heed vnto.

A l'oeil malade la lumiere nuit: Pro. An eye diſtempered cannot brooke the light; ſicke thoughts cannot indure the truth.

A cœur dolent l'oeil pleure: Prov. A weeping eye diſcouers the ſad heart; moiſt eyes mournefull heart.

Deux yeux voyent plus clair qu'un: Pro. Two eyes ſee better (two wits diſcerne more) then one.

L'oeil du maiſtre engraiſſe le cheval: Prov. See Maiſtre.

Le cœur ne veut douloir ce que l'oeil ne peut voir: Pro. What the eye cannot ſee the heart will not rue.

Nul ne ſçait ce qu'à l'oeil luy pend: Pro. No man knowes what will befall him, or how neere a miſchiefe is to him.

Orgueil n'a pas bon oeil: Prov. Pride lookes not well on any.

Quand les yeux voyent ce qu'ils ne virent oncques, le cœur penſe ce qu'il ne penſa oncques: Pro. New obiects breed new thoughts.

Qui n'a qu'un oeil bien le garde: Pro. Let him that hath but one eye keepe it well; let him that hath but one helpe ſtriue to preſerue it.

Toute choſe ſe vend au pris de l'oeil: Prov. Mans eye doth ſet a rate on euerie thing.

Oeillade: f. An amorous looke, affectionate winke, wanton aſpect, luſtfull iert, or paſſionate caſt, of the eye; a Sheepes eye.

Oeillade: m. ée: f. Often, or affectionately eyed; looked on wantonly, winked at laſciniouſly.

Oeillader. To eye often, behold affectionately, winke at laſciniouſly, looke on wantonly; to caſt a Sheepes eye at, to dart at with a paſſionate eye.

Oeilladette: f. A prettie winke, iert, caſt of the eye.

Oeilla-

Oeilladier: m. ere: f. Belonging to the eye, or looke; alſo, eying often, affectionately, or wantonly.
Oeillage de Vin. The filling vp of leakie Wine veſſels.
Oeillarder. as Oeillader.
Oeillé: m. ée: f. Full of eyes, decked or ſet thicke with eyes, like a Peacocks tayle; alſo, filled vp, as a leaking Wine veſſell.
Oeiller les Vins. To fill vp Wine veſſels which haue leaked.
Oeilleres. Bride à oeilleres. A bridle with eye-flaps for a fore-horſe.
Oeillet: m. A little eye; alſo, an oylet-hole; alſo, the young bud of a tree, &c; alſo, a Gilliflower; alſo, a Pinke.
Oeillet Dieu. Roſe-Campion (a flower.)
Oeillet d'Inde. The Turkie, or African Marigold, or Gilliflower; alſo, the French Marigold, or Gingioline flower (which is the ſingle kind of the African.)
Oeillets de Paris. as Catherinettes.
Oeillet de Provence. The ordinarie great, red, and double Cloue-Gilliflower.
Oeillet de roſette. A leſſe kind of the red Cloue-Gilliflower.
Oeillet ſauvage. A Pinke; alſo, the ſweet William, &c.
Oeillet de Turquie. as Oeillet d'Inde.
Bois ont oreilles, & champs oeillets: Prov. Woods haue their eares, and fields their eyes; euerie thing hath ſome inſtrument of, or helpe for, diſcouerie.
Oeilleté: m. ée: f. Full of eyes (like ill-preſt cheeſe, or light-wrought bread;) alſo, full of oylet holes.
Oeilleton: m. A Pinke, or ſmall Gilliflower; alſo, a little bud.
Oeillier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, an eye.
Veine oeilliere. Seeke Veine.
Oeillieres: f. The eye-teeth, or tuſhes.
Oeſipe: m. The filth, and ſweatie greaſineſſe of wooll growing on the flanke, and ſhoulders of a Sheepe.
Oeſon: m. The weaſon, or throat-pipe.
Oeſophage: m. The mouth of the ſtomack; alſo, the pipe that reaches from the mouth to the ſtomacke.
Oeſt: m. The Eaſt wind, or coaſt.
Oeſtre Iunonique. A gad-bee, horſe-flye, dun-flye, brimſey, brizze. ¶Kab.
Oeuf: m. An egge.
Oeufs brouillez. Looke Brouillé.
Oeufs de Paſques. Paſt, or Paſch-egges, egges giuen at Eaſter; whence;
Ils s'y attendoient comme à leurs oeufs de Paſques. They expected it certainely, they looked aſſuredly, or greedily, for it.
Donner des oeufs de Paſques à toutes reſtes. To bethwacke, belamme, belabor ſoundly; to lay about him luſtily.
Oeuf des Philoſophes. The veſſell wherein Alchymiſts put the ſtuffe which they hope will yeeld the Philoſophers ſtone.
Oeufs des poiſſons. The ſpawne of fiſhes; whence;
Harenc aux oeufs. A full-rowed, or hard-rowed Herring.
Oeufs à la tiblette. Egges and Collops.
Couver vn mauvais oeuf. To hatch an ill egge; to breed an vngracious child; to nouriſh an vnluckie, or miſchieuous deſigne.
Faire de ſes oeufs poules. To count his chickens before they be hatched.
Il n'y fera rien, non plus que le coq ſur les oeufs. He cannot be drawne to attend, or meddle in it.
Quitter vn bœuf pour prendre vn oeuf. To quit a great, for the gaine of a ſmall, thing; to change for the worſe.
Tondre ſur vn oeuf. To quarrell without cauſe, or find a fault where there is none; alſo, to pick a gaine out of a moſt bare, or barren commoditie.
Vn oeuf n'eſt rien; deux font grand bien; trois c'eſt aſſez; quatre c'eſt tort; cinq c'eſt la mort: Pro. One egge is none, two ſomewhat, three enow; foure be too much, fiue giue a deadlie blow.
De mauvais corbeau mauvais oeuf: Pro. An ill bird layes a naughtie egge; lewd creatures breed lewd creatures; as the damme or ſire, ſuch is the race.
Mieux vaut en paix vn oeuf qu'en guerre vn bœuf: Pro. Better is an egge in peace, then an Ox in warre.
Noire geline pond blanc oeuf: Pro. Looke Noir.
Tel cuide avoir des oeufs au feu qui n'a que les eſcailles: Pro. Looke Eſcaille.
Vne belle choſe eſt vn oeuf: Pro. An egg's a beautifull, or goodlie thing.
Oeuf-molette. Seeke Omelette.
Oeuvance. as Oeuve; (at Blois.)
Oeuve: f. The rowe, or ſpawne of a fiſh.
Oeuvé: m. ée: f. Layed, or ſet on, as an egge; alſo, ſpawned.
Oeuvre: f. A worke; deed; buſineſſe; labour, trauaile, toyle; alſo, worke, or workmanſhip; alſo, a place, or part of a Pariſh Church, wherein the Church-wardens, &c, ſit together on feaſtiuall dayes.
Oeuvre blanche; &, faiſeur d'oeuvre blanche. Looke Blanc.
Oeuvres fainctes. Imagerie, or imboſſed worke, ſet on, or appearing but halfe without, a wall.
Oeuvre de loy. An actuall diſpoſſeſſion, or tranſport of aliened Inheritances, Rents, Seruices, &c, ſuffered, or paſſed before the Landlord thereof, or his ſteward; or before other officers of the iuriſdiction of the place.
Oeuvre de ſinge. An idle, fooliſh, lewd, or impure act.
Bois d'oeuvre. Great Timber ſquared, cut out, or fitted for vſe.
Chef d'oeuvre. A Maiſter-peece.
Dedans, ou dehors oeuvre. Within, or without the walls of a houſe, &c; (a workmanlie tearme.)
Maiſtre des oeuvres. The Surueyor, or Ouerſeer of the Kings workes.
Maiſtre des baſſes oeuvres. A Jakes-feyer.
Maiſtre des hautes oeuvres. A Hangman.
Mortes oeuvres. The outſide of a Ship from the wales vpward.
Mettre toutes pierres en oeuvre. Looke Mettre.
A l'oeure on cognoiſt l'ouvrier: Pro. One may diſcerne a workman by his worke.
A bon iour bon oeuvre: Prov. A goodlie act on a godlie day; or, as we ſay, the better day the better work; (tis alſo taken Ironically, and in a contrarie ſence) he hath honoured ſo good a day with a goodlie act indeed; (of one that on a holy day commits a hainous deed.)
Il n'eſt oeuvre que d'ouvriers: Pro. There's no work, but by workmen, rightly done.
Le cœur fait l'oeuvre non pas les grands iours: Pro. Tis not long dayes, but willing hearts, that ſoon diſpatch a buſineſſe.
Tel autheur tel oeuvre: Prov. Like Author like worke; ſuch as the writer ſuch his booke.
Of. (An Interiection expreſſing a ſuddaine feare; aſtoniſhment, ſence of paine, or of diſdaine;) Oh, Ah, alas; out, fy, farre be it.

Offence: f. as Offenſe.
Offencé: m. ée: f. as Offenſé.
Offencer. as Offenſer.
Offencible. Looke Offenſible.
Offendre. To offend, hurt, miſchieue, harme, indommage, doe ſcathe vnto.
Offenſe: f. Offence, hurt, ſcathe, harme, wrong, iniurie, dammage, diſpleaſure; alſo, a crime, fault, offence, treſpaſſe, tranſgreſſion.
Offenſé: m. ée: f. Offended, hurt, wronged, iniured.
Offenſement: m. An offending, diſpleaſing, hurting, wronging, iniuring.
Offenſer. To offend, hurt, wrong, iniure, abuſe, harme, damnifie, doe ſcathe vnto.
Offenſible: com. Offencible, hurtfull, indommaging, dangerous.
Offenſif: m. iue: f. Offenſiue, hurtfull, diſpleaſing, troubleſome, noiſome, or dangerous vnto.
Offerte: f. An Offer, an Offering.
Offertoire: m. An Offertorie (in the Maſſe, &c.)
Offeux: m. euſe: f. Soppie; or full of lumpes, or gobbets.
Office: f. An Office; function, magiſtracie, dignitie, (publicke) charge; alſo, a mans dutie; alſo, an office, kindneſſe, pleaſure, ſeruice, good turne done one; alſo, diuine Seruice.
Offices extraordinaires. Are thoſe that concerne the Finances, Aides, Tailles, and ſalt Garners.
Offices ordinaires. The Offices of ordinarie Juſtice, and of the Kings Demaine.
Cauſes d'office. The cauſes which concerne a Lord Iuſticier.
Greffier d'office; &, Procureur d'office. A Lord Juſticers Clarke; Atturney, or Proctor.
Official: m. An Officiall; a Commiſſarie, or Chauncelor to a Biſhop, &c.
Officier: m. An Officer; alſo, a Magiſtrate; alſo, a Sergeant, or Catchpole.
Officiers d'armes. Heralds, of all ſorts.
Qui ie ſois officier au moins d'un moulin: Prov. Let me be an Officer though it be but of a Mill: make the King an Officer, and he will ſoone grow rich; (quoth an old Preacher in Edward the ſixts time.)
Officier. To ſay Seruice in the Church; alſo, to work, imploy, or buſie himſelfe about.
Officieux: m. euſe: f. Officious, dutifull, ſeruiceable, diligent, courteous, friendlie, readie at call, willing to doe pleaſures, or good offices.
Officine: f. A workhouſe, or ſhop.
Offrande: f. An Offering.
Offrant: m. ante: f. Offering, proffering.
Au plus offrant. To him that bids moſt.
Offraye: m. The great water fowle called an Oſprey.
Offre: m. An offer, proffer; bidding.
Offrir. To offer, bid, proffer; alſo, to preſent, or exhibit.
Offuſcation: f. An offuſcation; a dimming, obſcuring, blackening, darkening.
Offuſqué: m. ée: f. Offuſcated, obſcured, blackened, darkened.
Offuſquer. To offuſcate, obſcure, blacken, darken; dimme, ſhadow, caſt a miſt ouer.
Oger. The name of a ſharpe taſt-pleaſing apple.
Ogive: f. An Ogiue, or Ogee in Architecture; Looke Augive.
Ogoeſſe: f. An Ogreſſe, or Gunne-bullet (muſt be ſable) in Blaſon.
Ohie: f. Crazineſſe, indiſpoſition, diſtemper, weakeneſſe, faintneſſe, or feebleneſſe of the bodie.
Ohié: m. ée: f. Crazie, diſtempered, ſicklie, ill-diſpoſed; faint, feeble, weake.
Ohier. To diſtemper, make ſicklie or crazie; to weaken, enfeeble, make faint.
Oho. (Interject.) Oho? is it euen ſo? is it ſo indeed?
Oigneinent: m. An oyle, or ointment; alſo, an annointing.
Oignon: m. An Onyon.
Oignon de bois. The wild ſtarrie Jacinth, or Crowtoes.
Oignon de chien. Dogs Leeke, the buſh Jacinth, or tuft Jacinth; alſo, as Porreau de chien.
Oignon fendu. A Scallion.
Oignon de mer. The Squill, or ſea Onyon.
L'oignon du pied. The (bunchie, or out-bearing) root of the great toe; the fleſhie part of the ſole of the foot at the root of that toe.
Oignon ſauvage. The Squill, or ſea Onyon; alſo, the wild field Onyon, Bulbine, wild Bulbus, Corne Leeke, wild ſtarre of Bethlem; alſo, the hearbe that beares the purple Jacinth Vaciet.
Oignon ſectil. A Scallion.
Oignon teſtu. The ordinarie garden Onyon.
Il y a de l'oignon. There is a pad in the ſtraw, there's ſomewhat amiſſe among them.
Se mettre en rang d'oignon, & ne valoir vn'eſchalotte. To iudge too well of himſelfe, to take too much vpon him; to ranke himſelfe with, or compare himſelfe to, his betters.
A pain, & oignon trompette, ne clairon: Pro. See Clairon.
Apres Paſques, & Rogation, fy de Preſtre, & d'oignon: Prov. After the weeke of Eaſter, and Rogation, a Prieſt, and Onyons are abhomination.
Si tu te trouves ſans chapon, ſois content de pain & d'oignon: Pro. If thou want a Capon, fall to bread and an Onyon; or, let not the want of dainties diſcontent thee.
Oignoncettes: f. Ciues, Chiues, ruſh Onyons.
Oignonnerie. as Oignonniere.
Oignonnet: m. The Onyon Apple, or Peare.
Oignonnette: f. A Scallion; or, a wild Onyon.
Oignonniere: f. A Bed, Plot, or Garden of Onyons.
Oillet. Seeke Oeillet.
Oince: f. A Hawkes Pounce; (and thence) a hooke; and (as in Rab.) a hand, or fiſt; alſo, the beaſt called an Ounce, or Linx.
Oinct: m. as Oing.
Oinct: m. oincte: f. Annointed, greaſed, beſmeared, ſmeered.
Oindre. To annoint, greaſe, beſmeare, ſmeere.
Oignez vilain il vous poindra: Pro. (Like our homelie one) claw a churle by the breech, and he will ſhite in your fiſt.
Charité oingt, & peché poinct: Prov. Charitie annointeth, ſinne annoyeth; or, charitie quiets the heart, ſinne afflicts the ſoule.
On ne doit pas à gras pourceau le cul oindre: Pro. We muſt not greaſe a fat Sow in the tayle.
Oing: m. (Hogs) greaſe, or ſeame; ſmeare.
Oingtereule: f. Selfe-heale, Hooke-heale, Sicklewort, Brunell, Prunell, Carpenters hearbe.
Oingture: f. An annointing, begreaſing, beſmearing; alſo, annointment.
En lict de chien n'y a point d'oingture: Prov. The kennell of a dog ſmells not of Ciuet.
Oinze. An Ounce, or Linx. Rab.

Oiſeau: m. A bird, a fowle; and (particularly) a Hawke; alſo, a Hodd; the Tray wherein Maſons, &c, carrie their Mortar.
Oiſeau de bec. A hungrie, or greedie Paraſite; one in whom there is nothing but words.
Oiſeau dunette. A Thruſh.
Oiſeau de S. Martin. A Ring-tayle, or Hen-harme.
Oiſeau de meurte, ou de nerte. A Mirtle Thruſh.
Oiſeau de Paradis. Looke Paradis.
Oiſeau de proye. A Hawke, or Kite.
Langue d'oiſeau. Aſhen keyes.
Pain d'oiſeau. Stone-crop, Stone-bore, Mouſe-tayle, wild Prick-madame, Jacke of the Buttrie.
Parler comme vn oiſeau en cage. To babble, tattle, chatter, talke much to little purpoſe.
Oiſeau debonnaire de luy meſme ſe fait: Pro. The gentle Hawke (halfe) makes, or mannes, her ſelfe; a well-bred perſon is of a vertuous diſpoſition, needes not much tutoring, will of himſelfe be good.
L'oiſeau gazouille ſelon qu'il eſt embecqué: Pro. A man vſually ſpeakes as his humor moues, gaine leads, or paſſion vrges him, or (like a good bird) he vtters onely that which he was bid, or taught, to ſay.
A tous oiſeaux leurs nids ſont beaux: Pro. To euerie bird her neaſt ſeemes faire; moſt men like houſes of their owne contriuing.
D'oiſeaux, de chiens, d'armes, & d'amours, pour vn plaiſir mille douleurs: Pro. Looke Amour, or Armes.
Tel oiſeau tel nid: Pro. Like ayerie like Hawke; ſuch as the bird ſuch is her neaſt.
Vieil oiſeau ne ſe prend à reths: Pro. The old (in experience) are not ſubiect to ſurpriſalls.
Nid tiſſu oiſeau envolé: Prov. Tis a ſigne that the birds are flowen when Spiders build ouer the neaſt.
Qui veut prendre vn oiſeau qu'il ne l'effarouche: Pro. Deale gently with the bird thou mean'ſt to catch; be not too harſh to thoſe thou faine would'ſt win.
Trop tard crie l'oiſeau quand il eſt pris: Pro. When miſchiefes are befallen complaints auaile not.
Oiſel. as Oiſeau.
Oiſeler. To fall a birding, or flye out at birds, like a giddie, or ill-made Hawke.
Oiſeler vn faulcon ſur la grue. To fleſh or fly her vpon, to make or lureher vnto, the Crane.
Oiſelerie: f. Fowling, bird-hunting, bird-catching; a flying at, or preying on, birds.
Oiſelet: m. A little bird.
Oiſeleur: m. A Fowler, or Bird-catcher.
Oiſeleur: m. eure: f. Of, or belonging to, a bird.
Oiſelier. as Oiſeleur; alſo, a keeper (or one that hath the charge) of birds, or of fowle.
Oiſeliere: f. as Oiſelerie; alſo, a cage for birds, a coope for fowle.
Oiſeux: m. euſe: f. Lither, ſloathfull, ſluggiſh, full of idleneſſe; whence;
Fille oiſeuſe rarement vertuëuſe: Prov.
Oiſif: m. iue: f. Lither, lazie, ſloathfull, idle, negligent, retcheſſe; languiſhing; that hath but little to doe, or if he had much, would doe but little.
Fille oiſive à mal penſive: Pro. Looke Fille.
Oiſillon: m. A young bird, or ſmall bird.
Il bat le buiſſon ſans prendre l'oiſillon. He beats the buſh, and gets not a bird; much fruitleſſe paines he takes.
Oiſivement. Litherly, lazily, ſloathfully, idly.
Oiſiveté: f. Sloath, idleneſſe, litherneſſe, lazineſſe; negligence, retcheſneſſe; alſo, reſt, vacancie; a languiſhing, or burtfull eaſe.

Oiſon: m. A greene-Gooſe, or young Gooſe; a Goſling.
Oiſon bridé. A ſot, aſſe, gull, ninnie, noddie.
La mort aux oiſons. Henbane; alſo, Hemlocks.
Pied d'oiſon. Gooſe-foot, wild Orache.
Fourni d'entendement comme vn oiſon de creſte. As wiſe as Waltams Calfe.
Oiſon verd bon, griſon gueres bon: Prov. See Griſon.
L'oiſon n'eſt pas digne de monſtrer les paſquis à l'oye: Prov. (A checke for young men that preſume to teach their elders.)
Les oiſons menent paiſtre les oyes: Prov. (Said when ſubiects gouerne their Princes, children their parents, meane men the Magiſtrates, and ſeruants or ſchollers their maiſters; and is a note as well of weakeneſſe in the Geeſe, as of ſawcineſſe in the Goſlings.)
L'oye meine l'oiſon paiſtre: Prov. The Gooſe leads out the Goſling to the field; (contrarie to the former, and an argument of a well-proportioned gouernment.)
Oiſtre. as Huiſtre.
Oiſtriere. Looke Huiſtriere.
Oleagineux: m. euſe: f. Oylie, full of oyle; alſo, of an Oliue, or Oliue tree.
Oleaginité: f. Oylineſſe, or an oylie ſubſtance.
Oleandre. The Roſe tree, Roſe Bay, Roſe Lawrell, Roſe Bay tree.
Oleaſtre: m. A wild Oliue tree.
Olecrane: m. The end, or tip of the elbow; alſo, the elbow it ſelfe.
Oleëux: m. euſe: f. Oylie, full of oyle.
Oliban: m. Olibanum; Frankincenſe in drops; (ignorant Apothecaries tearme a kind of Roſen, great Incens, or Thus; and the right Incens, Olibanum; whereas Olibanum (in Greeke Libanos) and Thus be but one, and the ſame thing.)
Oliette: f. Poppie, Cheſbolls, or Cheeſe-bowles. (Wallon.
Oligarchie: f. An Oligarchie; or, the abſolute gouernment of a few principall men.
Oligophore. Vin ol. Weake, or ſmall Wine; ſuch as can beare but little water.
Olimpiade. as Olympiade.
Olivaire: com. Of an Oliue; like an Oliue.
Cautere olivaire. See Cautere.
Olivaſtre: m. A wild Oliue tree.
Olive: f. An Oliue; alſo, as Canepetiere.
Olivete: f. A ground, or groue of Oliue trees.
Olivette: f. A little Oliue; alſo, a little Oliue-bitt for a horſe.
Olivier: m. An Oliue tree.
Olivier domeſtic. The manured Oliue tree.
Olivier Ethyopie. The wild Oliue tree of Ethyopia.
Il a tous ſes oliviers courans. He hath his full ſwindge or libertie, he doth what he liſt.
Olivot: m. A great Oliue.
Olle: f. A ſeething pot.
Ollonnes. as Aulonnes.
Olmeau: m. A young, or little Elme.
Olometre. An Inſtrument wherewith all kind of dimenſions are, or all a thing may be, meaſured.
Olonne: f. Canuas for the ſayle of a ſhip; (as in Aulonnes;) and ſometimes alſo the ſayle it ſelfe.
Olphe. The Matt-ruſh, or Matt-weed. (Provençal.
Olybrius: m. The name of a ſwaggering Worthie, mentioned in ſome of the Romans (or old, and fabulous Poeſies, or Hiſtories) of France.

Faire l'Olybrius. To swagger, or play the terrible Roister; to pretend great furie, or talke as if no bodie were able to stand before him.

Olympe. Heauen (among Poets.)

Olympiade: f. An Olympiade; the space of foure yeares, or of fiftie moneths (each moneth containing thirtie dayes.

Omaille: f. Great cattell; as Oxen, Kine, &c.

Omase: m. The thicke, and fattie part of a Bullockes paunch; Some also take it for a fat Tripe, or Chitterling.

Ombelle: f. A little shadow; also, a fashion of little round fanne; or, as Ombrelle.

Ombilic. as Vmbilic.

Ombilical. as Vmbilical.

Ombrage: m. An vmbrage; a shade; a shadow; also, iealousie; suspition, an incling of; whence;
Donner ombrage à. To discontent; make iealous of, or put buzzes into the head of.

Ombragé: m. ée: f. Shaded, shadowed; couered; obscured, ouershadowed; also, put into a iealousie, or distrust.

Ombragement: m. A shading, or shadowing.

Ombrager. To shade, or shadow; to cast a shadow on, or giue shadow vnto; also, to couer, darken, obscure, ouercast; also, as Donner ombrage à, in Ombrage.

Ombrageusement. Obscurely, darkly, couertly; also, iealously; waywardly, skittishly.

Ombrageux: m. euse: f. Shadie, shadowie, couert, full of shade; obscure, darke; also, vmbragious; iealous, suspitious; also, giddie, skittish, bird-eyed, often starting, or starting at euerie feather.

Ombraire: m. An Vmbrello, or shadow.

Ombre: f. A shadow; also, a shade, or couert; also, a colour, cloake, vale, pretext, or pretence for; also, as Vmbre.
Combatre son ombre. To fight with his own shadow; to be angrie to no purpose, or take paines in striuing against no resistance; also, to deuise new matters, and afterwards inueigh against them; also, to reuile, or threaten, the absent.
Courir apres son ombre. To runne after his owne shadow; to spend his time verie madly.
Luicter cõtre les ombres. as Combatre son ombre.
Se mettre à l'ombre des bouchons. To shrowd himselfe vnder the shade of a Tapbouse; to slip into a Tauern.
Sous ombre d'asne entre chien au moulin: Prov. Looke Asne.
Il n'y a si petit buisson qui ne porte ombre: Prov. The least bush hath it shadow; The like is;
Vn poil fait ombre: Prov. A haire makes a shadow; the smallest things haue their shadowes; viz. their vse, or some ornament.

Ombré: m. ée: f. Embred, or shadowed; (a tearme of Blason.)

Ombrelle: f. An Vmbrello; a (fashion of) round, and broad fanne, wherwith the Indians (and from them our great ones) preserue themselues from the heat of a scorching Sunne; and hence, any little shadow, fanne, or thing, wherewith women hide their faces frõ the Sunne.

Ombreux: m. euse: f. Shadowie, shading, full of shade; couert, close.

Ombriere: f. as Ombrelle.

Ombroyer. To shadow, to cast or yeeld a shadow.

Omelette: f. An Omelet, or Pancake of egges; Looke Aumelette.

Omettre. To omit; pretermit, baulke, ouerslip, ouerpasse; to neglect, forget; leaue out, leaue vndone.

Omioteleftes. Alike-sounding clauses, or closes.

Omis: m. ise: f. Omitted, pretermitted, baulked, ouerslipt, ouerpassed; neglected, forgotten; left out, left vndone.

Omission: f. An omission; baulking, ouerslip, ouerpassing; forgetting, or neglect of; a leauing out, or letting goe.

Omitton: m. as Aumuce; a furred Ornament worne by Cannons.

Omniforme: com. Of, or hauing, all kind of shapes.

Omnigene: com. Of all kinds; also, most kind. ¶Rab.

Omnimode: com. Infinite in meanes; of euerie way.

Omnipotence: f. Omnipotencie, almightinesse.

Omnipotent. Omipotent, almightie, all-able.

Omoplates: f. The shoulder-blades. ¶Rab.

Omphacin. Huile omph. Oyle made of greene, or vnripe Oliues.

Omusse. as Aumuce.

On. (Such a Particle as our One, or somewhat more generall, and the signe of a Verbe Impersonall, or impersonally vsed; whence;) On dit, men say, people talke, its reported; &, on le voit par experience; men see it, or we see it, by experience.

Onagrier: m. ere: f. Of a wild Asse.
Le pas onagrier. A verie swift pace; (for such a one hath the wild Asse.)

Onc. (An Aduerbe of time;) euer, at any time; also, neuer.

Once: f. An Ounce, in weight; also, the spotted Ounce, or Lynx.
L'once de l'année. A moneth.

Oncial: m. ale: f. Of, or belonging to, or weighing as much as, an Ounce; whence;
Lettres onciales. Huge letters, great letters.

Oncle: m. An Vncle.
Celuy est bié mon oncle qui le ventre me comble: Pro. He is my neerest friend that fills my belly; or he is my kindest vnckle who doth feed me.

Oncles: f. as Ongles.

Oncques. (An Aduerbe of time) neuer.

Onction: f. Vnction, an annointing.
Onction feable. Seeke Feable.
Huile d'onction. The holie, or hallowed Oyle, vsed by the Church of Rome, in Baptisme, & Extreame Vnction.

Onctueux: m. euse: f. Full of Ointments; also, annointing; also, oylie, fattie, greasie.

Onctuosité: f. Vnctuositie, oylinesse; greasinesse, fattinesse.

Ond. D'ond. Whence; whereby. ¶Rab.
Iusques à dire d'ond venez vous. Extreamely, exceedingly, excessiuely, vnmeasurably. ¶Rab.

Onde: f. A waue; billow, surge of the sea; also, the tumbling tricke of touching the ground with the hands, and then comming ouer topsie turuie, diuers times together.
Camelot à ondes. Water Chamlet.
Bouillir vne onde. To boyle a while, or but for one bubble, or a wallop or two.

Ondé: m. ée: f. Waued; surging, wauing; also, streaked, wrought, or cut, like waues.

Ondée: f. A great and suddaine fall of raine; a gush, or gust, of raine; a power of raine.

Ondelé: m. ée: f. as Ondé.

Ondeler. To runne, or powre downe, by waues; or, as Onder.

Ondelette: f. A little weue, a small billow.

Onder. To waue; to make plaites, or streakes like waues; to worke, or flourish with waues.

Ondette. as Ondelette.

Ondoyant: m. ante: f. Wauing; surging, floating, swelling as, or with, billowes.

L'On-

L'Ondoyant
Ondoyé: m.
with billowes
Ondoyement swelling with gentle mouing
Ondoyer. To billowes; also in the wind.
Ondoyer v
uately, or in a Oneraire: co laden; whenc
Onereux: m. weightie, char
A titre one onereux. T yearelie rent, ties, or other Onglade: f. A of, nayles; a n Ongle: f. The talon (of an Ongle caba
Horse-hoofe,
Ongle odor smooth shell
Ongle d'un
the flower of Goutte sur l
drinke all but Sang aux on resolute, valo
pith, or stuffe,
Conduire à on; to leaue n Coniecturan whole by a lit
Couper les o
les à. To clip short, to weak
all meanes of Il s'est rongr beaten his br extreamely, in C'est belle b des ongles:
arm'd alike.
Onglé: m. ée furnished with Onglé[illegible]. Ach weather; also swelling of it the Hawe in Ongler. To scra
Onglet: m. A
Onglons de p vntill they be till they be ve dishes with v
Onguent: m.
thing fit to an Onguent compounded
Es petites bo
Men put in li haue many ti
Onguentaire

L'Ondoyante plaine. The Sea.
Ondoyé: m. ée: f. Waued, surged, floated; swolne with billowes.
Ondoyement: m. A wauing, surging, floating; a swelling with billowes; also, a dangling, flickering, or gentle mouing, in the wind.
Ondoyer. To waue; to surge; to rise in, or swell with billowes; also, to float; flicker, dangle, or moue gently, in the wind.
Ondoyer vn enfant. To christen a weake child priuately, or in a chamber.
Oneraire: com. Of burthen, for carriage, that may be laden; whence, Nefs oneraires.
Onereux: m. euſe: f. Onerous, burthensome, heauie, weightie, chargeable.
A titre onereux. Acquerir vne maiſon &c, à titre onereux. To buy a house, &c, thats lyable vnto an yearelie rent, annuitie, fine, or subiect vnto sundrie duties, or other charges.
Onglade: f. A scratch, or paw with, or the print, or marke of, nayles; a nayle-marke.
Ongle: f. The nayle (of a reasonable,) the claw, hoofe, or tallon (of an vnreasonable) creature.
Ongle cabaline. The hoofe of a horse; also, the hearb Horse-hoofe, Colts-foot, Fole-foot, Bull-foot.
Ongle odorant. Vnguis odoratus. A long, small, and smooth shell (of a fish) vsed in perfumes.
Ongle d'une roſe. The nayle, root, or white bottome of the flower of a Rose.
Goutte ſur l'ongle. Boire la goutte ſur l'on. To drinke all but a drop to couer the nayle with.
Sang aux ongles. Il a du ſang aux ongles. He is resolute, valorous, courageous; there is good mettall, pith, or stuffe, in him.
Conduire à l'ongle. To finish, or bring vnto perfection; to leaue no iot vndone of.
Coniecturant le lion par les ongles. Aiming at the whole by a little part; or, as vnder Lion.
Couper les ongles de prez à, & Rongner les ongles à. To clip ones nayles somewhat neere; to hold him short, to weaken, or disarme him, to take away from him all meanes of doing harme.
Il s'eſt rongné les ongles à l'eſtude de. He hath beaten his braines exceedingly, or weakened his bodie extreamely, in the studie of, or care about.
C'eſt belle bataille de chiens & des chats, chacun a des ongles: Prov. Faire is the strife when both are arm'd alike.
Onglé: m. ée: f. Nayled; hoofed; clawed, talloned, furnished with nayles, &c.
Onglée. Ache of the fingers ends in extremitie of cold weather; also, a paineſull slipping of the flesh from, or swelling of it ouer, the nayle; also, a web in a mans, and the Hawe in a horses, eye.
Ongler. To scratch, or marke with a nayle.
Onglet: m. A little nayle; hoofe, claw, or tallon.
Onglons de pourceau. Hogs-feet singed, then sodden vntill they be verie tender, then broyled on a gridiron till they be verie hard, and then boyled betweene two dishes with veriuice, vineger, pepper, and onyons.
Onguent: m. An vnguent, ointment, or oyle; any fat thing fit to annoint with.
Onguent Apoſtolorum. A certaine deterſiue salue compounded of twelue Ingredients.
Es petites boiſtes met on les bons onguens: Prov. Men put in little boxes precious ointments; little men haue many times rare gifts.
Onguentaire: com. Of, or belonging to, ointments.
Gland onguentaire. See Gland.
Onicocrite: m. A Iudger of dreames. ¶Rab.
Onicocritique: com. Iudging of dreames.
Oniropole: m. An expounder of dreames.
Onitide: f. Wild Marierome, groue Marierome.
Onocrotal: m. A Swan-like bird that brayes like an Asse; (or as Gouttreuſe.)
Onogire. Looſe-ſtriſe, Willow hearbe, or hearbe Willow.
Onomantie: f. Diuination by names; also, the skill of repeating many names by the art of Memorie.
Onomatopoſe: f. The faining of a name; or a word made by a certaine sound.
Onothomantie: f. Diuination by a mans name.
Onques. (An Aduerbe of time;) neuer.
Onques-mais. Neuer, at no time, nor tyde.
Onques-puis. Neuer after, at no time after.
Onse des doigts. The fingers ends vnder the nayles.
Onyche: m. The Gemme called an Onix.
Onymantie: f. Diuination by Oyle, and wax. ¶Rab.
Onzain: m. A small, or baſe coyne, worth xj d Tourn.
Onze. Eleuen.
Cercher midi ou il n'y a qu'onze heures. Looke vnder Midi.
Onzieſme. The eleuenth.
Opacité: f. Opacitie, shadineſſe, vmbrage, obscuritie, duskineſſe, gloomineſſe, thick-darkneſſe.
Opale: m. The Opall stone.
Opaque: com. Duskie, gloomie, obscure, thicke and darke, or thicke-shadowing, blacke.
Operateur: m. An Operator, a worker; also, a Quack-saluer, Cheater, Impoſter (called so at Tours.)
Operatif: m. iue: f. Operatiue, working.
Operation: f. An operation; worke; a working, doing, labouring, trauelling.
Operer. To operate, worke; labour, trauell; doe; act.
Ophiaſe: f. A sore which fretting the skin of childrens heads, maketh their haire fall off in diuers places; it commonly begins behind, and eats on forward vnto the forhead.
Ophioctene. A kind of the many-legd Scolopendra, and a mortall enemie to Serpents.
Ophiogene: m. The wild Parsenip called Elaphoboſcum, or Harts fodder.
Ophite: m. A kind of marble spotted like a Serpent.
Ophraye. as Orfraye.
Ophthalmie: f. A (red, and paineſull) inflammation of the vppermost skin of the eye, and consequently of the whole eye.
Ophthalmiſte: com. The vttermost skin of whose eye is inflamed.
Opiat. as Opion.
Opiate: m. An Opiat; a cordiall Electuarie.
Opier: m. The Ople, water Elder, Dwarfe plane, Whitten tree.
Opilation: f. as Oppilation.
Opiler. Seeke Oppiler.
Opinant. Opining, deeming, censuring, deliuering his opinion.
Conſeillers opinans. The Assistants of a Court.
Opination: f. An opination, opining, opinion-deliuering; also, opinion, iudgement, fancie, imagination; fame, reputation.
Opiné: m. ée: f. Opined; argued, discussed; censured, deliuered as an opinion.
Opiner. To opine; argue; censure; vtter his mind, say what he thinks, deliuer his opinion, or aduice, in.
On opine. Sentence is in giuing.
Opineur: m. An Opinor; one that deliuers his opinion.

Opiniastre: com. Opinionate, opiniatiue, obstinate, wilfull, self-willie, wedded to his owne humors, conceited of his owne iudgement, frowardly standing in a wrong, or ill opinion.

Opiniastre comme vne mule. As wilfull, or moodie, as a Mule.

Opiniastrement. Opiniatiuely, obstinately, wilfully, or as one thats wedded vnto his owne peruerted will.

s'Opiniastrer. To be opinionate, wilfull, obstinate; stiffly to maintaine, headily to stand in, or adhere vnto (an ill opinion.)

Les fievres s'opiniastrerent sur moy. Very much increased vpon me, or bent or setled themselues to afflict me.

Opiniastreté: f. Opiniatiueneſſe, wilfullneſſe, obstinacie, headineſſe; a headstrong maintaining of, or persistance in, (an ill opinion.)

Opiniastrie, & Opiniastrise. as Opiniastreté.

Opinion: f. Opinion; thought, conceit, imagination, surmise, coniecture, supposall, gueſſe, weening; also, an opinion, aduise, or saw; and, a censure, sentence, doome, iudgement; also, the prettie game which we call Purposes.

Autant de testes autant d'opinions. As many men so many minds; as many humors as heads.

Opion: m. Opium; the hardened iuyce of garden Poppie heads.

Opistographes: f. Papers written vpon on both sides. Rab.

Opobalsame: m. Opobalsamum; the gumme, or liquor which issueth from the wounded Balsame tree; Looke Basme.

Opobasme. as Opobalsame.

Opocalpase: f. A kind of poyson wherewith Mirrhe is (too often) sophisticated.

Oportet. (A Latin Impersonall) it ought, it must; whence;

Quand oportet vient en place il n'est rien qui ne se face: Pro. That which must be will be; absolute authoritie, or vrgent necessitie, are excellent workmen.

Oppilatif: m. Oppilatiue, obstructiue, stopping.

Oppilation: f. An oppilation, or obstruction.

Oppilé: m. ée: f. Obstructed, stopped, shut vp.

Oppiler. To stop, obstruct, shut vp.

Opportun: m. une: f. Timelie, seasonable, fit, right, conuenient; commodious.

Opportunément. Opportunely, timely, seasonably; fitly, conueniently; in good time, right in the nicke, iust when it should be.

Opportunité: f. Opportunitie; seasonableneſſe; fitneſſe of time, conuenience of place; a good occasion.

Opposant: m. An Opposant, or Opponent; a resister, withstander; contradictor.

Opposé: m. ée: f. Opposed, resisted, withstood; obiected vnto, protested against.

s'Opposer. To oppose himselfe, to resist, withstand; gainesay; to obiect, except, or protest, against.

Opposite: com. Opposite, aduerse, in opposition with, ouer against; placed, put, set, or obiected, against.

Opposition: f. Opposition; resistance, withstanding; a crossing, or gainsaying; an obiection, exception, or protestation, against.

Oppresse: f. as Oppression.

Oppressé: m. ée: f. Oppressed; ouercharged, ouerlayed, weighed downe.

Oppresser. To oppresse; ouercharge, quayle, ouerlay, weigh downe, make sinke vnder the burthen of.

Oppresseur: m. An oppressor; ouercharger, ouerlayer; extreame dealer; one that sinkes poore people with exactions, or taxations.

Oppression: f. Oppression; ouercharging, ouerlaying; an vnreasonable surcharge; a grieuous burthen, taxation, exaction; or the imposing of any of them.

Oppriuer. as Oppresser.

Opprobre: m. A reproach; a defamatorie taunt, rebuke, checke; a disgracefull twit, vpbraiding, reuiling; despightfull rayling.

Opprobrier. To reproach; to taunt, rebuke, checke despightfully; disgracefully to vpbraid, cast in the dish, twit in the teeth.

Oppugnateur. An oppugnator; assaulter, batterer, besieger; resister; wrong-doer.

Oppugnation: f. An oppugnation; assault, batterie; siege; open resistance.

Oppugné: m. ée: f. Oppugned; assaulted, battered, besieged; fought, or contended with; openly resisted.

Oppugner. To oppugne; batter, assault, besiege; resist, or withstand openly; fight hard, reason eagerly, labor earnestly, against.

Opter. To chuse, optate, elect; also, to wish, couet, desire.

Opthalmie. as Ophthalmie.

Option: f. Option, election, choice; also, a wish, or desire.

Optique: f. An Art whereby the reason of sight is knowne.

Optique: com. Of, or belonging to, the eye-sight.

Nerfs optiques. The sinewes from which the eyes receiue their sight.

Opulemment. Wealthily, richly, abundantly.

Opulence: f. Opulencie, wealth, riches; plentie, store, or abundance of meanes.

Opulent: m. ente: f. Opulent, wealthie, rich, well lyned, abundant in meanes.

Opulentement. as Opulemment.

Opuscule: m. A little Worke; small Booke, short Treatise.

Or: m. Gold.

Or d'Allemaigne. A kind of base Gold, the fist part whereof is Siluer.

Or blanc. as Or d'Allemaigne.

Or de Clitie. The Marigold.

Or en paille, ou de paillole. Spangle-Gold, or Gold beaten thinne for Spangles; Looke Paillole.

Or de pepin. Round, or massie graines of Gold.

Or ras. Smooth Gold, Venice stuffe.

Or Tholosain. A dismall, or vnluckie possession; (for euerie one that had it perished.)

Or traict. Gold wyre.

Il est de bas or, il craind la touche. He is a counterfeit, he feares to be tryed.

Or est qui or vaut: Pro. Tis Gold thats worth Gold.

A l'or le feu fort, au fort bras la luicte: Pro. Looke Bras.

Nul or sans escume. No Gold without some droſe.

Dans vne gaine d'or vn cousteau de plomb: Prov. A base heart vnder a rich habit.

Fy de plaisirs, d'estats, & d'or, qui de vertu n'a le thresor: Pro. Looke Fy.

Or. (Adverb.) Now; but; on, goe to, well now.

Or avant. On forward, on afore there.

Or bien. Well now, well then, therefore.

Or ça. Now then, or goe to; Or by equiuocation (as in the baſtie demaunds of Grippeminaud;) Gold here, cast Gold hether.

Or donques. Seeing then.

Or primes. Now at the length, not before now, but euen now, onely at this time, at this verie instant.

Or si. If then, since, or seeing that.

Or

Or ſus. Goe too, on forward, well then.

Oracle: m. An Oracle; a ſentence deliuered, an anſwer giuen, by God.

Oraculeux: m. euſe: f. Oracle-like, true as the Goſpell, infallible.

Orade: f. The Guilt-head; a ſea-fiſh.

Orage: m. A ſtorme, tempeſt, orage; outrage.

Le vent, la tempeſte, l'orage monſtrent du nocher ſe courage: Pro. Looke Nocher.

Touſiours ne dure guerre, ne orage: Prov. No violence, nor violent thing, laſts alwayes.

Orager. A tempeſt, or ſtorme to riſe.

Orageux: m. euſe: f. Stormie, tempeſtuous, raging, outragious.

Oraiſon: f. Oriſon, prayer; alſo, a ſpeech, language, diſcourſe, communication; oration.

Orange: f. An Orange; alſo, a kind of pernicious fire-ball; alſo, a certaine fowle.

Orangé: m. ée: f. Orange-tawnie, Orange-coloured.

Oranger: m. An Orenge tree.

Oraprimes. as Or primes.

Orateur: m. An Orator; Spoakeſman, Arguer, Pleader, Aduocate; Embaſſador.

Oration: f. An Oration, or Harang.

Otatoire: m. An Oratorie; a Cloſet, or priuate Chappell to pray in.

Oratoire: com. Oratorie, belonging to an Orator; of eloquence.

Oratoirement. Orator-like, eloquently.

Orayn. Whilere. ¶Picard.

Orbateur: m. A Gold-beater.

Orbatu: m. Leafe-gold.

Orbe: com. Blind, ſightleſſe; wanting, or depriued of, ſight; hence alſo, darke, obſcure, without light.

Coup orbe. A dry blow; a blow that neither makes ouerture, nor fetches bloud.

Orbiculaire: com. Orbicular, circular, globie, compaſſe, round.

Orbiculairement. Orbicularly, circularly, in a round compaſſe or forme; globe-like.

Orbiere: f. A blinding-boord, or head-boord (hung before the eyes of an vnrulie beaſt.)

Orbitaire: com. Belonging, or like, vnto the Orbite.

Orbité: f. Orphaniſme; lacke of parents; alſo, want of children; generally, any lacke, or want.

Orbite: f. The hole, or ſeat of the eye; the hole wherein an eye is placed.

L'orbite d'une poulie. The mortaiſe wherein the ſhiuer of a Pullie runnes.

Orcanette. as Orchanette.

Orchades: f. Great Ships; alſo, a kind of great fiſhes, mortall enemies to Whales.

Orchal. as Archal.

Orchanette: f. Orkanet, Alkanet, Spaniſh Bugloſſe, wild Bugloſſe.

Orche. à orche. On the left hand. ¶Rab.

Orchenie: f. A tranſpoſing.

Orches. as Orchades. ¶Rab.

Orcheſtre: f. The Senators, or Noblemens Place in a Theatre, betweene the Stage, and common Seats; alſo, the Stage it ſelfe.

Ord: m. orde: f. Filthie, naſtie, foule, ſluttiſh; durtie, berayed, ouglie, or loathſome to behold.

Ordelot: m. otte: f. Sullied, ſlubbered, ſtained, ſomewhat vncleane.

Ordement. Filthily, naſtily, ſluttiſhly, durtily, vncleanely, loathſomely.

Ordi: m. ie: f. as Ourdi; alſo, fouled, defiled, berayed, begrymed, ſoyled, ſlurried, ſlubbered.

Ordinaire: m. An Ordinarie; a Biſhop (or his Chauncelor, &c) within his Dioceſſe; alſo, an Ordinarie Table, dyet, fare.

Ordinaire: f. Les Ordinaires de Sorbonne. Certaine diſputations held among Sorbonniſts before they commence Doctors.

Ordinaire: com. Ordinarie; common, vſuall; alſo, proper, peculiar, in ordinarie, of ones owne.

Procez ordinaire. A ciuill Action, Cauſe, or Suit.

Ordinairement. Ordinarily, vſually, commonly, of cuſtome.

Ordinateur: m. An Orderer, Ordainer, Appointer.

Ordinateur des Threſors. The Lord high Treaſurer of France; called ſo in Philip the faires time.

Ordinatif: m. iue: f. Ordinatiue; order-ſhewing, order-declaring; ordering.

Ordir. as Ourdir; alſo, to foule, defile, ſoyle, beray, bedurt, begryme, ſlubber, ſlurrie, ſullie; blemiſh, diſtaine, inquinate, pollute.

Ordiſſeure: f. as Ourdiſſeure; alſo, a fouling, defiling, beraying, begryming, ſlubbering, ſullying; diſtaining, polluting.

Ordon: m. A ſlouen; a filthie fellow; alſo, the ranke, or rowe which a Reaper hath vndertaken to goe on in.

Ordonnance: f. An Ordinance; Edict, Order, Decree, Statute, Inſtitution, Conſtitution; a Precept, Appointment, Commaundement; alſo, a right, or due ordering, diſpoſing, digeſting, arraying, ranking, or marſhalling of things.

Engin de telle ordonnance. Of ſuch a bulke, ſize, or bore.

Gens d'ordonnance, ou, Genſdarmes des ordonnances. Looke Gendarme.

Ordonnateur: m. An ordainer, enacter, decreer; an orderer, diſpoſer; enioyner, appointer of.

Ordonné: m. ée: f. Ordained, enacted, decreed, inſtituted; ruled, appointed, commaunded, ordered, digeſted, diſpoſed, marſhalled, raunged; arrayed; fitly placed; well furniſhed, in full equipage; armed, equipped, or fitted at all points.

Ordonnément. Orderly, fitly, handſomely, iuſt as it ſhould be.

Ordonner. To ordaine, enact, order, decree; rule, determine; commaund, appoint; ranke, digeſt, marſhall, range, diſpoſe; array, prepare, furniſh, prouide of neceſſaries; arme, equip, or fit at all points.

Ordonneur: m. An ordainer, author, enacter, appointer, commaunder; alſo, an orderer, diſpoſer, marſhaller, fit ranker of things.

Ordonques. Seeing then.

Ordoyer. as Ordir. To defile.

Ordre de Vay. The name of a verie ſmall apple.

Ordre: m. Order; method, faſhion; diſpoſition; a rank, file, courſe, row, continuation; due place, or ſeat; fit ſtate, or poſture; alſo, the calling, degree, or eſtate of men; alſo, an Order, Societie, or Sect of religious men or women; alſo, a Companie, Fellowſhip, or Brotherhood of Knights, (tearmed) of the Order, and inſtituted by a Soueraigne Prince.

Les ordres, ou les ſaints ordres. Prieſthood, the Miniſterie; or the inſtitution of a Prieſt, &c; holie Orders.

Ordre de l'Anonciade. An Order of Knighthood inſtituted in the yeare 1350 by Amadeus Earle of Sauoy.

Ordre du croiſſant. The Order of the halfe Moone, inſtituted by René Duke of Anion Anno 1464.

Ordre du S. Eſprit. The Order of the holie Ghoſt; by Henry troiſiéme, in the yeare 1579.

Ordre de S. Eſtienne. The Order of S. Stephen; by a Duke of Florence in the yeare 1560.
Ordre de l'Eſtoille. The Order of the Starre; by John King of France in the yeare 1351. Looke Eſtoille.
L'Ordre de France. The Order of S. Michael.
L'Ordre de la genette. The Order of the Gennet; inſtituted long agoe by Charles Martel (the grandfather of Charlemaine*) and now cleane out of date.*
L'Ordre de la Iartiere. The Order of the Garter; by Edward the third in the yeare 1344.
Ordre de S. Michel. The Order of S. Michael; by Lewis the eleuenth in the yeare 1469. (There were two ſorts of it; viz. Le grand, & le petit Ordre; The Knights of that ſort wore a collar of maſſie gold, of this onely a ſilke ribbon.)
Ordre du porceſpic. The Order of the Hedgehog; inſtituted by Lewis Duke of Orleans, and the brother of Charles the ſixt.
Les Ordres du Roy. Both the Orders of S. Michael, and of the holie Ghoſt.
Ordre de la toiſon d'or. The Order of the golden Fleece; inſtituted by Philip the ſecond Duke of Burgundie, in the yeare 1430.
Ordre de la Vierge Marie. The Order of the Virgine Marie; was inſtituted by John King of France in the yeare 1365.
Il n'y a point d'ordre d'avoir fait cela. There was no reaſon, nor equitie in that act; there was no ſence to doe it.
Ordure: f. Ordure, filth, durt; naſtineſſe, impuritie, pollution.
Il y a de l'ordure dans leurs ſleuſtes. They are ſomewhat too blame; all is not right with them; ſomething is amiſſe among them.
Truye ne ſonge qu'ordure: Pro. A Sow dreames of nought but of durt.
Oré: m. ée: f. Prayed vnto; beſought, implored.
Le Ieudi, & Vendredi orez. Holie Thurſday, good Friday; Thurſday and Friday in the Paſſion weeke.
Le Sainct de la ville n'eſt point oré: Prov. We ſeldome craue the helpe of our owne Patron.
Orée: f. The ſide of a Riuer (or a Riuers ſide;) the ſea ſhore, or ſtrand; the skirt, coaſt, edge, or border of any place, &c; alſo, a ſhower of raine.
Oreille: f. An eare; alſo, attention giuen; alſo, free, or plauſible audience gotten.
Oreille d'aſne. Comfrey, Knitbacke, Blackwort; Looke Aſne.
Oreilles du cœur. The Auricles of the hart; two ſmall peeces of fleſh growing to the bottome of the heart; and ſeruing it, as ſinnels, to receiue bloud from the hollow veine, and as eares, to let in and out the ayre which the lungs haue prepared for it.
Oreille de Iudas. The Muſhrome, or excreſcence called, a Iewes eare.
Oreille de lievre. Scorpionwort, or Scorpiongraſſe; alſo, Buplurum, or Hares eare; alſo, a mizzen, or ſmacke ſayle.
Oreille marine, ou de mer. A kind of Oyſter.
Oreille d'ours. Beares-eare; a kind of mountaine Cowſlip.
Oreille de rat. as Oreille de ſouris.
Oreilles d'un ſoulier. The latchets of a ſhooe.
Oreille de ſouris. Piloſella, Mouſe-eare; alſo, a kind of Chickweed, or bearbe reſembling Chickweed, called, the right Mouſe-eare.
Conſeiller de ſon oreille. A Counſellor that hath his Princes eare; or, one whoſe diſcourſe, or aduice is moſt plauſible to the Princes eare.
Fer de fleiche à oreilles. A forked, or barbed arrowhead.
Haut d'oreilles. Somewhat deafe; thicke of hearing.
Pendant d'oreille. A Pendant; Pendant d'oreille de gibet. The furniture of a gibbet; a man that hangs on a gibbet, or would become one paſſing well.
L'oreille au vent. Attentiue, liſtening ſeriouſly.
A vne oreille. Said of Wine, thats excellent good; of Taffata, which is but ſlight, or ſingle.
Avoir l'oreille de. To haue at all times free acceſſe vnto, and a willing attention from; to be a principall fauorite of.
Il en a iuſques aux oreilles. He is vp to the eares in, or hath his whole fill of.
Chauver des oreilles. Looke Chauver.
Dreſſer les oreilles. To liſt, ſet, or pricke vp the eares; to prepare, or ſettle them to attention.
Sac plein dreſſe les oreilles: Pro. A full purſe, or fat bribe, commaunds attention.
Endormir ſur l'une, & l'autre oreille. To ſet with eaſe, or delights; to bring a bed.
Faire l'oreille ſourde. To be deafe of that eare.
Mettre le bouquet ſur l'oreille à. To expoſe vnto ſale; See Bouquet.
Mordre l'oreille à. See Mordre.
Partir les oreilles. To beare both ſides.
Pendre à l'oreille. Autant luy en pend à l'oreille. He is the more to blame, or hath the more to anſwere for.
Rompre les oreilles à. To trouble with ouermuch, or ouerlowd prating.
Tirer l'oreille. Ils ne ſe feront gueres tirer l'oreille. They need no long intreatie; they will be eaſily inuited, ſoone perſuaded, quickly drawne, vnto it.
A beau parler cloſes oreilles: Pro. Oppoſe to gloſing words a cloſed eare.
A paroles lourdes ſourdes oreilles: Prov. Heedleſſe attention vnto boggiſh tearmes.
Bois ont oreilles, & champs oeillets: Pro. (Wherein the Iewes-eare-Muſhrome is the woods eare.) Looke Oeillet.
Ventre affamé n'a point d'oreilles: Prov. The hungrie bellie hath no eares.
Oreillé: m. ée: f. Eared; well hung, or hangd; which hath great eares.
Oreiller: m. A pillow (for the head.)
Tenir la teſte ſur l'oreiller. To ſlug it, or loll it, a bed; to lye ouerlong in bed; to liue ſlouthfully, drowſily, retcheleſly, careleſly.
Oreiller. To hearken, liſten, giue eare, or attention vnto.
Orphée oreilloit les rocs. Orpheus gaue eares, or hearing, vnto rocks.
Oreillere: f. An Earewig.
Oreillet: m. An Earing; alſo, the eare-peece of an helmet, &c; the flap, or peece that couers the eare.
Oreillette: f. A little eare; alſo, an earing, or ſmall toy to hang at the eare.
Oreilleur: m. A harkener, or liſtener.
Oreilleure: f. An Earing.
Oreillier: m. as Oreiller.
Oreillon: m. A little eare; alſo, the handle, or eare of a porrenger, &c; alſo, a box, or cuff on the eare; alſo, an impoſtume, or ſwelling about an eare; whence;
Les oreillons. The Mumpes; or mourning of the Chine.
Les oreillons d'un fer de javeline. The forks, barbs, or iags of the head of a Iauelin.

Oren-

Orendroit. Now, or, about this time.
Orer. To pray; beseech, implore, desire.
Ores. Now, at this time.
D'ores en avant. Hence forward; from this time forth.
Orfanité: f. Orphanisme; the state of an Orphan.
Orfanté: f. as Orfanité; Also, barrennesse, want, or deprivation of children.
Orfaverisé: m. ée: f. as Orfavrisé.
Orfaveriser. To worke Goldsmithes worke, to play the Goldsmith.
Orfavrerie: f. as Orfevrerie.
Orfavrisé: m. ée: f. Wrought with Goldsmithes worke.
Orfavriser. as Orfaveriser.
Orfe: f. A kind of daintie Sea-Ruffe, or Sea-Pearch.
Orfebvre. Looke Orfevre.
Orfelin: m. ine: f. Orphan, fatherlesse and motherlesse, without parents.
Orfenin. as Orfelin.
Orfevre: m. A Goldsmith.
Orfevre de la terre. A Gardener; so tearmed of the excellencie of his worke, wherein he surpasses th'ordinarie Husbandman as farre as the Goldsmith a Blacksmith.
Orfevré: m. ée: f. Wrought with Goldsmithes worke.
Orfevrerie: f. The Goldsmithes trade, or worke.
Orfevresse: f. A Goldsmithes wife, or woman Goldsmith.
Orfevreux: m. euse: f. Furnished with, or trauelling in, Goldsmithes worke; also, full of Goldsmithes.
Orfevrie. as Orfevrerie.
Orfrais: m. Broad welts, or gards of gold, or siluer imbroiderie laid on Copes, and other Church-vestements: In old time the Jackets, or Coat-armours of the Kings Gard were tearmed so, because they were couered with Goldsmithes worke.
Orfraiz. as Orfrais; also, as Orfraye.
Orfraye: m. The great, and greedie water-fowle called an Osprey.
Orfres: f. Buds, &c; as Boutons.
Organe: m. An Organ, or Instrument wherewith any thing may be made, or done.
Organique: com. Organicall, instrumentall, vsed as a meanes.
Veines Organiques. Looke Veine.
Organiste: m. An Organist; one that vsually playes on a paire of Organs.
Organiste: com. as Organique.
Orgasme: m. An extreame fit, or expression of anger.
Orge: m. Barlie.
Orge emondé. Naked Barlie; a kind of Barlie whose huske, when it is ripe, falls from it of it selfe.
Orge mondé. The same; also, French Barlie, or pilled and cleansed Barlie; also, pottage, or pap made thereof; Barlie pottage.
Orge de muraille. Wild Barlie, purre Barlie, way Barlie, way Bennet.
Orge paumé. Beere Barlie, big Barlie, Barlie with the square eare.
Orge Pelé. as Orge mondé.
A grain d'orge. In a triangle forme.
Faire leurs orges. To make their market, or make vp their mouthes.
L'argent quand l'orge. One for another (is faire play.)
Semer vn grain d'orge pour attrapper vn pigeon. To giue, or loose a little in hope of getting much.
Orgée: f. Barlie gruell; Furmentie, or pottage of Barlie.

Orge-mondé: m. ée: f. Made of French Barlie, or naked Barlie.
Orgeol: m. A long wart resembling a Barlie corne, and growing on th'edge, or corner of an eye-lid.
Orgie: f. A fadome.
Orgies: m. The Sacrifices of Bacchus.
Orgoose. Licisque orgoose. A salt bitch: Rab.
Orgueil: m. A rowler, or, a round truncheon laid vnder a great stone, or peece of timber, for the more easie remouing thereof; also, as Orgeol; whence the Prouerbe;
Qui refuse à vne femme enceincte, vn orgueil luy vient à l'oeil.
Orgueil: m. Pride, swelling disdaine, statelinesse, hautinesse, lostinesse of mind, surlinesse, arrogancie, surquedrie.
Orgueil n'a pas bon oeil: Prov. He scuruily lookes that proudly lookes; or, as in Oeil.
Il n'est orgueil que de povre enrichi: Prov. There is no pride vnto th'inriched begger.
Orgueilleusement. Proudly, surlily, scornefully, arrogantly.
Orguilleux: m. as Orgeol.
Orgueilleux: m. euse: f. Proud, surlie, swelling; puft vp with a conceit of his owne worth; statelie, hautie, lostie-minded; scornefull, disdainefull.
Muscle orgueilleux. A muskle in th'vpper part of the cheeke, neere to the hollow seat of th'eye, which it drawes towards the temples.
Orgueilleuse semblance monstre folle cuidance: Prov. An hautie looke argues a fond presumption.
Deux orgueilleux ne peuvent estre portez sur vn Asne: Prov. Looke Asne.
Il n'est si grand despit que de povre orgueilleux: Prov. A proud begger is the despightfullest creature aliue.
Orgueilli: m. ie: f. Growne proud, statelie, surlie, puft vp with pride, swollen with disdaine.
s'Orgueillir. To wax proud, grow surlie, become statelie, take much state vpon him.
Orgues: f. Organs; wind-instruments; also, Barges for carriage, Westerne Barges; also, a kind of small Artillerie.
Dire d'orgues. vous dites d'orgues. You say blew; how say you to that; wisely brother Timothie; true Roger; did am did am.
Iouër des orgues. To play the lasciuious wanton, to leacher.
Oribus. Compere d'oribus. A superficiall, or hollow-hearted friend, or companion.
Pouldre d'oribus. Powder of proiection, or of the Philosophers stone; tearmed thus (in derision, and) because much gold hath beene wasted in the searching for it; thence also, any cousening, or iugling powder.
Orichal. as Archal.
Orient: m. Th'Orient, East, or East part of the world; the Sunne-rise.
Oriental: m. ale: f. Orientall, Easterlie; orient, bright, cleere.
Orienté: m. ée: f. Maison bien orientée. A house well set toward th'East; or whose forefront is made Eastward.
Vne pierre bien orientée. Verie Orient, or Orientall.
Oriere: f. as Orée.
Orifice: m. Th'orifice; mouth, brimme, or entrance into, a thing.
Oriflam. as Oriflambe.
Oriflambe. The great, and bolie Standerd, of France; borne borne at first onely in warres made against Infidells; but afterwards vsed in all other warres; and at length vtterly lost in a battell against the Flemings.

Orifiant: m. An Elephant.

Origan: m. Garden Organie, Spanish Origan, wild or bastard Marierome, English wild Marierome.

Origan de Candie. Bastard or wild Marierome of Candie.

Origan commun. English wild Marierome.

Origan Heracléen. Bastard Marierome.

Origan Onite. White bastard Marierome.

Origan sauvage. Wild Organie, groue Marierome.

Orige. Th'Orix; a fierce and cruell wild Goat; of a pale white colour, and a haire falling backwards to his hinder parts, and forward to his headwards; and hauing blacke, vpright, strong, and sharpe-pointed horns, wherewith he often kills the most valiant hunters, or beasts, that pursue, or assault, him.

Originaire: com. Originarie, naturall vnto, bis from the beginning.

Les originaires de la ville. Such as were bred, and borne in the towne.

Originairement. Originarily, originally.

Original: m. An originall; the first authentick, or true draught of a writing.

Originalement. Originally, from the beginning.

Origine: f. An originall; a birth, beginning, ofspring; stocke, pedegree, kindred; a ground, cause, head, fountaine, welspring.

Originellement. Originally.

Orillier. Seeke Oreiller.

Orillons: m. The Mumps, or an impostumous swelling behind the eares.

Orin: m. inė: f. Golden, of gold.

Orine. as Origine.

Oriol. as Oriot.

Orion: m. A thumpe, dust, cuffe, rap, knocke; also, a number of mischiefes, a multitude of euills; also, a certaine Signe of starres in the firmament.

Oriot: m. A Heighaw, or Witwall.

Oripeau: m. Base gold, leafe gold, false gold, Orpine, Painters gold; such gold as is laid on hangings; &c. of leather, &c.

Oripilation. ¶Rab. Looke Horripilation.

Orizon. as Horison.

Orle: f. A hemme, seluidge, or (narrow) border; in Blazon, an Vrle, or open border about, and within, a coat of Armes.

Orlé: m. ée: f. Hemmed, seluidged; welted, or bordered.

Orlement: m. A hemming, seluidging; welting, bordering.

Orler. To hemme, seluidge; border; welt th'edges, or sides of.

Orlet. A little hemme, seluidge; welt, border.

Orlure: f. A hemme, or hemming; seluidge, or seluidging; border, or bordering.

Ormaire. as Armaire.

Ormaye: f. A groue of Elmes.

Orme: m. An Elme tree.

Orme blanc. The white Elme, yoake Elme, Hornebeame, hard Beame tree.

Orme champestre. Th'ordinarie Elme.

Orme de montaigne. The mountaine Elme; or, the great broad-leaued Elme.

Orme sauvage. as Orme de montaigne.

Vn Advocat dessous l'orme. An obscure Lawyer; a pratling, or pidling Pettifogger.

Iuge dessous l'orme. The Judge of a village; an inferiour Judge; Looke Iuge.

Ormeau: m. A little, or young, Elme tree.

Ormeteau. as Ormeau.

Orne: f. The furrow made by a plough; the deepe rut, or tracke made by a cart wheele, in the ground.

Il conduisoit sourdement cette orne. Hee carried this businesse verie closely; he handled it so as few had notice, or got any inkling, of it.

Orné: m. ée: f. Decked, adorned, trimmed, tricked, garnished, imbellished, beautified, graced; gaily arrayed, gallantly furnished, finely set forth.

Ornement: m. An ornament, grace, beautie, imbellishment; rich, or comelie garnishment, goodlie furnishment, faire attire; also, an adorning, decking, trimming, tricking.

Ornément. Neatly, trimly, finely, gallantly, beautifully, gracefully.

Ornéomantie: f. Diuination by the mouing of birds.

Orner. To decke, adorne, trimme, tricke; beautifie, grace, garnish, imbellish; to set out finely, attire gallantly, furnish gaily.

Ornier: m. ere: f. Full of ruts, worne with many tracts.

Orniere: f. The rut, or tract of a cart wheele, &c.

Ornithogalon. Starre of Bethelem (an hearbe.)

Orobe: m. Orobus; the bitter Vetch, or Fitch.

Oroer: m. as Oratoire; An Oratorie.

Orologeur: m. A Clocke-maker, Watch-maker, Dyall-maker.

Oroscope: m. The Horoscope, or Ascendant, of a Nativitie; Looke Horoscope.

Orpeau. as Oripeau; or as;

Orpel: m. Siluer and by-gold; a kind of leafe-tinne, vsed in the siluering ouer of trifles for children.

Orphanité. as Orfanité.

Orphe: f. A kind of daintie sea Ruffe, or sea Pearch.

Orphée: f. as Orphie.

Orphelin. Seeke Orfelin.

Orphelinage: m. Orphanage; the state of an Orphan; a being (young, and) without parents.

Orphie: f. The Hornebeake, Hornekecke, Piper-fish, Garre-fish.

Orpigment: m. as;

Orpiment: m. Orpiment, or Arsenicke; a golden-coloured poison, or drug, found verie deepe in the earth.

Orpimenter. To mingle, or colour, with Orpiment.

Orpin: m. Orpine, Liblong, or Liue-long; an hearbe; also, Orpine, Orpiment, or Arsenicke; a drug.

Orpin rouge. Red Arsenicke; a bright-red colour found in gold, and siluer mines.

Orprimes. Looke Or.

Orque: f. A Hulke, or huge ship; also, the Ourke, a sea-monster, enemie to the Whall; (sometimes) also, the graue, or hell.

Orteil: m. A toe.

Orthodoxe: com. Orthodox, orthodoxall; of a right faith, true beliefe, sound opinion.

Orthogoiné: m. ée: f. Right cornered.

Orthogonal: m. ale: f. Orthogonall, right cornered.

Orthopnoïque: com. One whose light-pipes are so obstructed, or straitned, that he cannot breath but when he holds his necke vpright.

Ortie: f. A Nettle; the common Nettle, female Nettle, great Nettle.

Ortie blanche. The hearbe Archangell, blind Nettle, dead Nettle.

Ortie bruslante. The small Nettle, or small burning Nettle.

Ortie

Ortie cendrée. A kind of the ſea Nettle.
Ortie Grecque. The Greeke Nettle, Roman Nettle, male Nettle; ſome alſo call the ſmall red Nettle ſo.
Ortie grieſche. The ſmall ſtinging red Nettle; or as Grecque.
Ortie de mer. The ſea Nettle; an ouglie (but verie daintie) fiſh, which being touched, prickes like a Nettle.
Ortie morte. as Ortie blanche.
Ortie puante. The ſtinking blind Nettle, or dead Nettle; a kind of Archangell that ſmells moſt filthily.
Ortie Romaine. The Romane Nettle, Italian Nettle, male Nettle, Greeke Nettle.
Ortie rouge. as Poſterol; Alſo, the red Nettle.
Petite ortie. The ſmall Nettle, or ſmall burning Nettle.
Aſne d'Arcadie broute chardons, & ortie, quoy que tout chargé d'or: Prov. Appliable to a rich, and moſt wretched penie-father; one that all the yeare long beſtowes not a bit of good meat on himſelfe.
Ortié: m. ée: f. Nettled; pricked, or ſtung with Nettles.
Ortier. To nettle, to pricke, or ſting with Nettles.
Ortieur: m. A nettler.
Ortigue: f. as Ortie de mer.
Ortographié: m. ée: f. Ortographiſed, written rightly.
Ortographier. To Ortographiſe; to write, or uſe, true Ortographie.
Ortrait. as Retraict; A Priuie, or Jakes.
Orval: m. An inconuenience; alſo, as Orvale.
Orvale: f. The hearbe Clarie, or Cleere eye.
Orvale ſauvage. Wild Clarie, double Clarie, Ocle Chriſti.
Orvarris. as Hourvaris; Alſo, the crie of Huntſmen vnto their dogs, being at a default.
Orver, & Orvier: m. A Snake.
Os: m. A bone; alſo, the ſtone of a Date, Oliue, Peach, Plumme, &c; alſo, the Garguill, or Dew-claw of a Stag, Bucke, Roe, &c.
Os barré. The ſecond part of Os Ilium, not ſo broad as the firſt, and hauing on each ſide a large hole.
Os baſilaire. The Nape, or Nuke-bone; the bone whereby all the parts of the head are ſupported; ſome call it the Cuneall bone, becauſe it is, wedge-like, thruſt in betweene the bones of the head, and th'vpper Jaw.
Os Bertrand. The ſhare-bone; the coniunction of the two great bones whereto the thigh-bones are faſtened.
Os Bregmatis. Two trianguler bones in th'vpper part of the skull.
Os de coeur de cerf. The bone of a Stags heart; is found in the left ſide thereof (onely betweene the middle of Auguſt, and 12 of September) and is good againſt th'Emrods, and the trembling of the heart.
Os conjugal. Th'outward part, or end of the cheeke-bone towards the eare.
Os corbin. A certaine hollow bone in the rumpe, or crupper of a Deere.
Os coronal. The forhead bone.
Os du coulde. Th'vnder, and leſſe bone of the cubit.
Os couloir du nez. The head-bone, or inner bone of the noſe.
Os cribleux. as Os Etmoïde.
Os cuneiforme. The Cuneall, or fundamentall bone of the head.
Os Cyboïde. One of the bones of th'inſtup.
Os Eshonté. as Os frontal.
Os de l'eſperon. The leſſe of the two ſhanke bones.
Os Etmoïde. A bone full of little holes, and ſeated betweene the forhead bone, and the top of the noſe.
Os de la feſſe. The hip-bone, or huckle-bone.
Os frontal. The forhead bone.
Os furculaires. The points of the ſhoulder-bones forepart, meeting a little below the necke.
Os de la greue. The ſhinne-bone, or bigger bone of the leg.
Os de la hanche. The third part of Os Ilium; it ſelfe conſiſting alſo of three parts.
Os hyoïde. A bone in the root of the tongue, faſhioned like a Greeke Ypſilon.
Os de la jambe. as Os de la greue.
Os des Iles. Is ioyned to the tranſuerſe proceſſes of the ſacred bone; and diuided by Anatomiſts into three parts; the firſt whereof (being the higheſt, and broadeſt) retaines this name, th'other two are called otherwiſe.
Os jougal. as Os conjugal.
Os maxillaires. Th'vpper Jaw bones; thoſe wherein to the teeth are ſet; in men there are but two of them diſcerned, in beaſts foure.
Os naviculaire. The ſecond bone of th'inſtup; tearmed thus becauſe tis faſhioned ſomewhat like a boat.
Os occipital. The noddle bone; of an Ouall forme, and ſeated in the hinder part of the head.
Os de l'orbite. The whole cheeke-bone confining on the bottome, and outſide of the eye; or the bone which incloſes the eye.
Os parietal. A certaine bone in th'vpper, and forepart of the ſcull, neere to the Coronall ſuture.
Os du penillier, ou du penil. as Os barré.
Os petreux, ou pierreux. The bone of the temples.
Os de la pommette. The cheeke-bone.
Os de la pouppe de la teſte. The forhead bone.
Os du Rayon. Th'vpper, and bigger of the two bones of the cubit.
Os ſacré. The great bone whereupon the ridge-bone reſteth.
Os ſans nom. A certaine great bone which containes three others; viz. Os des Iles, Barré, & de la hanche; alſo, the three bones whereby the three great toes are ſuſtained.
Os ſcaphoïde. The skiffe-bone; or as Os naviculaire.
Os de ſeiche. A certaine marrowie, and ſpungie bone in the backe of the Cuttle fiſh, vſed by Phyſitians, and Goldſmithes, for cleanſing, and drying purpoſes.
Os du ſens commun. The forhead bone.
Os ſeſamoïdes. Certaine little flat bones wherewith the ioynts of the fingers, and toes are filled, ſetled, and ſtrengthened; their number is vncertaine, and their name they haue of the oylie graine Seſame, thewhich they ſomewhat reſemble.
Os de la ſouſgreve. The leſſe bone of the leg.
Os ſphenoïde. The fundamentall, or cuneall bone of the head.
Os ſpongieux. The ſpungie bone; ſeated in the bottome of the forhead bone, hard aboue the noſe; and full of holes like a ſpunge.
Os de la temple, ou temporal. The bone of the temples; a round bone in the ſide of the head.
Os zigoma. The end, or outward part of the cheeke-bone towards the eare; called thus at Paris.
A vn autre chien avec cet os. Allure ſome other with that bait; intice another with that pleaſure, treaſure, offer.
Perdre la chair pour les os. To looſe the fleſh for the bones;

bones; to leaue essentiall, for most idle, things.

A bon chien bon os : Prov. Looke Chien.

A vn bon chien n'escheut onques vn bon os : Pro. The bonester a man is the lesse is his preferment; the worse his lucke.

Deux chiens ne s'accordent point à vn os : Prov. Two dogs, and a bone, agree not in one.

Qui a mangé le lard ronge l'os : Prov. Let him that hath eaten the best feed on the worst; or, he that hath fondly wasted his best flesh, will be faine, at length, to picke the bones.

Souvent à mauvais chien tombe vn bon os en gueule : Prov. The veriest knaue hath oftentimes best lucke.

Osche, & Oscher. Looke Oche, & Ocher.

Oscines : com. Singing birds; those especially which presage ought by their singing : ¶Rab.

Oscitation : f. A gaping, yawning, sloath, idlenesse; negligence, retchlesnesse.

Osé : m. ée : f. Dared; presumed; aduentured.

Oser. To dare, presume, aduenture; haue the heart, or be so bold as, to doe a thing.

Oseraye : f. A groue, or ground of Oziers.

Osereux : m. euse : f. Full of; made with, Oziers.

Oseur : m. A hater; loather, detester.

Osier : m. The Ozier, red Withie, water Willow tree; also, Wicker; also, a basket of wicker; also, a rod or twig of Ozier, or of any other such pliant wood.

Franc Osier. The small Withie, twig Withie, Ozier withie, Spert.

Osiereux : m. euse : f. as Osereux.

Osmonde : m. Osmund, Osmund the water man, Osmund Royall, water Fearne, S. Christophers hearbe.

Osmonde royal. The same.

Ossàiller. To set, or worke, with bone.

Ossaillerie : f. Bone-worke; bone-stuffe; also, a working with bone.

Ossas : m. A great thicke bone.

Ossé : m. ée : f. Bonie, made of bone.

Ossec. as Lossec.

Osselet : m. A little bone.

Osselets. The game tearmed Cockall, or Huckle-bones.

Batre le tambour à coups d'osselets. To play at dice, or huckle-bones on a drummes head.

Osseuens : m. Bones; also, the stones of Apricocks, Peaches, Dates, &c.

Osset. as Osselet.

Ossu : m. uë : f. Bonie, big-boned, full of bones.

Ost : m. An Hoast, or Armie.

Ost banni. as Ban & Arriereban.

Aide de l'ost. Th'assistance a vassall is bound to yeeld vnto his Lord, either by prouiding him of men, or furnishing him with money, when he goes to the warres.

Seruice de l'ost. Is (especially) the vassalls personall attendance on his Lord vnto the warres.

Les Vivres suivent l'ost : Prov. Looke Vivres.

Ostade : f. The stuffe Worsted, or Woosted.

A demy ostade. Cut in panes, &c, like a Spanish leather Ierkin; (a Gascon phrase.)

Ostadine : f. Sattin of Cypres.

Ostage : m. An hostage, or pledge; a suretie, or gage; Looke Hostage.

Ostager : m. One thats deliuered in hostage.

Ostager : m. To take in pledge, or for a pledge; to receiue as an hostage.

Ostarde : f. A Bustard.

Osté : m. ée : f. Taken or carried away, remoued, withdrawne.

Ostel. as Hostel.

Ostement : m. A remouing, or taking away.

Ostenseur : m. Th'index, or hand of an Astrolabe.

Ostension : f. A shewing.

Ostentateur : m. An ostentator, boaster, bragger, vaunter.

Ostentation : f. Ostentation, bragging, boasting, vaunting, cracking.

Ostentatrice : f. An ostentatrix, braggardesse, boasting woman.

Oster. To remoue, withdraw; pull, take, or carrie away; to put off; bereaue, or depriue of; to lay, or get aside; to discharge, or deliuer; driue, or expell, from.

Ostez vous de là. Beware of that, no more of that if you loue me; also, get you hence, lets see your backe.

Oste-vent : m. A Porch or Portall contriued, a peece of cloth hung, or set vp, before a doore, to keepe off the wind, &c; also, a penthouse.

Ostiere : f. A Spittle, or Hospitall; whence;

Vn gueux de l'ostiere. A rogue, vagabond, or Spittle begger.

Ostize. A rent henne, &c, paid, or deliuered, in lieu of a dwelling house.

Ostracisme : m. Ten years banishment, wherewith the Athenian State allayed th'immoderate power of their great men.

Ostruce : f. An Ostridge.

Otarde : f. A Bustard.

Otardeau : m. A young Bustard.

Otruche : f. Maisterwort, false Pellitorie of Spaine.

Ottelles. Ottells, or Oates (in Blazon.)

Ottroy. Looke Octroy.

Où. (accented, an Aduerb) Where, whither, in what place; also, whereas.

D'où. Whence; of or from what place; also, whereof; as in this Prouerbe.

Non d'où tu es, mais d'où tu pais. Respect not whence thou commest, but whereof thou liuest.

Ou. (without accent, a Disiunctiue) Or, or else, either.

Ou. in some old Authors is vsed in stead of Au.

Oüaille : f. A sheepe.

Oüaine : f. A sheath : ¶Pic.

Oüaire : m. A great leather bottle, or budget like a bottle, for oyle, or drinke, to be kept, or carried in; (tis commonly made of a Goats skin, and the hairie side sometimes turned inward.)

Oval : m. ale : f. Ouall, shaped like an egge.

Ovale : f. An Ouall, an egge-like shape, or forme; a peece of worke fashioned like an egge.

Oüan : m. A gloue : ¶Pic.

Oüan. The last yeare; (an old word.)

Oüarir. as Guarir : ¶Pic.

Ovation : f. A small triumph granted to a Commaunder, that had gotten a bloudlesse victorie.

Oüazon. as Glazon : ¶Pic.

Oubier : m. The sap, white, or softest part of wood, subiect to worme-eating.

Oublayerie : f. The making of Wafers.

Oublayeur : m. A Wafer-maker.

Oubli : m. Oblivion, forgetfulnesse.

Oubliages. Certaine annuall rents due vnto some particular Canons of Nostre Dame de Gracay en Berri.

Oubliance : f. Oblivion, forgetfulnesse.

Oubliant. Oblivious, forgetfull; also, forgetting.

Oublie : f. A Wafer cake; such a one especially as is sweetened onely with honie; also, the thinne past that serues for the bottomes of Tartes, and March-panes.

Droict d' oublie. Is, in ſome places, a rent Capon hauing a Douzain, or Sol, in his mouth.

Oublié: m.ée: f. Forgotten, out of mind, out of memorie.

Oublier. To forget, put out of mind, blot out of memorie; to fayle in memorie, or in the remembrance of.

Oublier Dieu parmy tous les Saincts. Looke Sainct.

Il eſt bien fol qui s' oublie: Prov. He that forgets himſelfe's a verie gooſe.

Qui bien aime tard oublie: Prov. Hee that loues heartily forgets not eaſily; true loue is long a forgetting.

Oubliette: f. A dungeon, or cloſe roome, vnder ground for hainous malefactors.

Oublieur: m. A Wafer-man, Wafer-baker, or Wafer-maker.

Oublieux: m. as Oublieur.

Oublieux: m.euſe: f. Obliuious, forgetfull, vnmindfull of; alſo, of, or for, Wafers; whence;

Corbeille oublieuse. A basket to put, or carrie Wafers in; a Wicker basket.

Oublition: f. Forgetfulneſſe.

Ouche. The name of a fertill vine; alſo, as Oche; alſo, a ſpot of ground reſerued, neere to a houſe, for the ſowing of Beanes, Peaſe, or Hempe in.

Oudre: A Borrachoe; a great leatherne bottle, or budget like a bottle, made commonly of a Goats skinne, and vſed for the conueying of wine, oyle, &c, through places which cannot be paſſed by carts; alſo, as Oudre.

Oüe. as Oye; A Gooſe.

La petite oüe de viandes. The paunch, and intralls of edible creatures.

Oüeille. as Oüaille; A ſheepe; whence;

Chaſque oüeille cerche ſa pareille: Prov. Euerie ſheepe will haue his fellow; fooles hold there is no comfort but in companie.

Ouelle: f. The riuer Smelt, called ſo at Roan.

Ovent: m. A penthouſe of cloth, or wood, ouer a window or doore.

Over. To lay an egge.

Oüere. as Oüaire.

Oui: m. ouïe: f. Heard, hearkened, liſtened vnto.

Ouï-dire. Report, or hereſay.

Ouï-dire va par ville: Prov. Tell-tale is the towne Crier; hearſay goeth ſpeedily from doore to doore.

Ouiltre. as Oudre.

Ouïr: m. Hearing; the ſence of hearing.

Ouïr. To heare; to hearken, or liſten vnto.

Dieu gard de mal qui voit bien, & n'oit goutte. I would God had me if I conceiue it, or care a iot for it.

On n'orroit pas Dieu tonner. The noiſe is infinite, wonderfull the hurrie; Gods thunder it ſelfe could not be heard amng them.

Se faiſant ſi bien ouït en la bouche de. Shewing ſo well in, or comming ſo gracefully from, the mouth of.

Oy, voy, & de tais, ſi tu veux vivre en paix: Prov. Heare, ſee, and hold thy peace, if thou deſire to liue in peace.

Il n'eſt point de pire ſourd que celuy qui ne veut ouïr: Prov. No man's more deafe then he that will not heare.

Qui demande ce qu'il ne devroit il oit ce qu'il ne voudroit: Prov. He that aſkes more then he ſhould, heares more then he would.

Tout ouïr, tout voir, & rien dire, merite en tout temps qu'on l'admire: Prov. To beare all, ſee all, and ſay nought, merits eternall admiration.

Ouldre. as Oudre; Alſo, the Orke; a Sea-monſter, and the Whalls naturall enemie.

Oule: f. A ſurge, or great waue of the ſea; alſo, a great earthen pot.

Oulme. as Orme; An Elme.

Oulot: m. A kind of braſſe, or copper, fit to make Ordnance of.

Oulque: f. A Hulke.

Oultrage: m. Outrage, exceſſe, vnreaſonableneſſe; iniurie, wrong, abuſe, inſultation, much violence; extreame breach of duetie in what kind ſoeuer.

Elle eſt belle voirement, mais il n'y a rien d' oultrage. Her beautie though great could ill be ſpared; faire ſhe is indeed, but no fairer then ſhe ſhould be.

Ie ne vous demande rien d' oultrage. My demands are neither vniuſt, nor vnreaſonable.

Oultragé: m.ée: f. Outraged, wronged, abuſed; handled vilely, reuiled filthily.

Oultragement: m. An outraging, wronging, abuſing.

Oultrager. To outrage, wrong, iniure, abuſe; lay violent hands on, deale extreamely with, miſuſe vnreaſonably, reuile moſt ſpightfully.

Oultrageur: m. An outrager, extreame wronger, vnreaſonable abuſer of.

Oultrageuſement. Outragiouſly, exceſſiuely, moſt vnreaſonably.

Oultrageux: m. Outragious, exceſſiue, vnreaſonable, moſt fell, wrongfull, iniurious.

Oultrance: f. Extremitie, exceſſe, or exceſſiueneſſe; exceedingneſſe.

Combatre à oultrance. To fight at ſharpe, to fight it out, or to the vttermoſt; not to ſpare one another in fighting.

Oultré: m.ée: f. Pierced, opened, bored, ſtruck through, runne through and through; alſo, ſicklie, vnſound, or conſumed in bodie.

Oultré d' amour. Farre gone, ouer head and eares, in loue.

Chevalier oultré. Runne through; dead, laid along for dead.

Fleur oultrée. A fully-withered flower.

Loy oultrée. Quand quelque different eſt determiné par enqueſte, ou par brief: Ragueau.

Il s'eſt oultré. He hath murthered, or laied violent hands on, himſelfe.

Oultre. (Adverb.) Ouer, beyond, without; more, beſides, further; moreouer; on, forwards.

Paſſer oultre. To die.

Percé d' oultre en oultre. Runne through and through.

Oultrebord. Exceedingly, paſſing, beyond the bankes, or bounds of.

Oultrecouler. To ſurround, or ouerflow.

Oultrecuidamment. Ouer-weeningly, preſumptuouſly, arrogantly.

Oultrecuidance: f. An ouer-weening, preſumption, pride, arrogancie; too great a conceit of his own ſufficiencie.

Oultrecuidé: m.ée: f. Ouer-weening, preſumptuous, vaineglorious, arrogant, ſelfe-conceited, or too well conceited of himſelfe.

s'Oultrecuider. To ouer-weene; to preſume too farre on his owne ſufficiencie, to thinke too well of himſelfe.

Oultréement. Through and through; alſo, extreamely, exceſſiuely, exceedingly, beyond all meaſure.

Oultrefendre. To cleaue aſunder, to pierce cleane through.

Oul-

Oultrefendu : m.uë : f. Clouen aſunder, pierced cleane through.
s'Oultremarcher. To ouerreach in pacing.
Oultre-naturel : m.elle : f. Supernaturall, beyond nature.
Oultrepaſſe : m. An exceſſe, or tranſgreſſion; an eminencie, or eminent thing; a ſurpaſſing, or paſſing beyond.
L' oultrepaſſe des Advocates. The beſt, or moſt eminent Lawyer; the Paragon of Pleaders.
Oultrepassé : m.ée : f. Surpaſſed, ouerpaſſed, exceeded, outgone; tranſgreſſed; aduanced, proceeded, marched on; runne ouer; carried, or conueied ouer.
Oultrepaſſement : m. A ſurpaſſing, exceeding, excelling; an eminencie, ouerpaſſing, outgoing; alſo, an aduancement, proceeding, or marching forward.
Oultrepaſſer. To ſurpaſſe, exceed, excell, ouerpaſſe, goe beyond, outgoe; tranſgreſſe; runne ouer; alſo, to aduance, proceed, or paſſe, on; alſo, to carrie, conuey, or paſſe ouer.
Oultrepercé : m.ée : f. Pierced, thruſt, or ſtrucke thorow.
Oultrepercer. To pierce, thruſt, or ſtrike through.
Oultreplus : m. A ſurpluſage, an ouerplus.
Oultreplus. (Adverb.) Furthermore, moreouer, beſides that.
Oultrepreux. Extreamely valiant, hardier then the hardieſt.
Oultrer. To pierce, open, bore, thruſt, or ſtrike through; to runne through and through.
Oultrer vne iournée. To fight from morning to night; or to fight a battaile out.
Ourague : f. The channell, or conduit, whereby the vrine of an vnborne infant hath paſſage.
Ourche. The game at Tables called Lurch.
Ourdi : m. ie : f. Warped; wrought, wouen; alſo, begun, inuented, in the web; contriued, deuiſed.
A toile ourdie Dieu mande le fil : Prov. God helps them forward that haue well begun; or, begin to helpe thy ſelfe, and God will helpe thee: ſome expound it otherwiſe of helpe ſent (when the vſe of it is paſt) when a buſineſſe is diſpatched.
Ourdir. To warpe a web of cloth; to lay the warpe thereof, or put it into the loome; to begin a web, to begin to weaue; (hence) alſo, to inuent, contriue, begin; cauſe, procure.
Ourdiſſant. Warping, beginning to weaue, or worke; inventing, contriuing; procuring.
Ourdiſſeur : m. A warper; a putter of a web of cloth into the loome; hence alſo, a beginner, contriuer, inuenter, deuiſer.
Ourdiſſeure : f. The warpe of cloth; the threads that runne along in, or make the length of, a web of cloth; alſo, the warping thereof, or the laying of the warpe; the putting it into the loome; the beginning of a web, and (thence) of any work; a contriuing, inuenting, deuiſing; procuring.
Ourlé : m.ée : f. Hemmed.
Ourler. To hemme.
Ourlet : m. A hemme; Looke Orle.
Ourque : f. An Orke, a great Sea fiſh, the Whalls mortall enemie.
Ourreler. as Ourler. To hemme.
Ours : m. A Beare; alſo, the Northerlie ſtarres called Charles waine.
Ours de mer. A kind of ſhort, vnweldie, and thicke-ſheld Lobſter, hauing tenne feet armed with as many ſtrong blacke clawes.
Ail d'ours. Beares Garlicke, Ramſons, Ramſies, Buckrammes.
Oreille d'ours. Looke Oreille.
Patte d'ours. Brankurſin, Beares-breech; called alſo by ſome, Beares-foot, or Beares-claw.
Oursal : m.ale : f. Of, or belonging to, a Beare.
Ourſe : f. A ſhe Beare; alſo, the ſheat, or cable whereby the maine ſaile is faſtened to the Larboord (or left ſide) of a ſhip.
Aller à ourſe. To goe neere a wind.
Naviger à pogge, & à ourſe. To hold an vncertaine courſe at ſea. Looke Pogge.
Ourſé. as Dehouſé : ¶Rab.
Ourſeau : m. A little, or young, Beare; a Beare-whelpe, or cub.
Ourſelet : m. A little Beare.
Ourſet. as Ourſelet.
Ourſette : f. A young, or little, ſhe Beare.
Ourſillon : m. A verie little Beare.
Ourſin : m. The ſea Beare; or, a kind of the fiſh Tunnie.
Ourſin : m.ine : f. Beare-like, of Beares, belonging vnto Beares.
Ourſon : m. A Beare-whelpe, the cub of a Beare; alſo, a little Beare.
Ourſonne : f. as Ourſette.
Ouſclage : m. That which a contracted man giues to his affianced, or future wife.
Ouſtarde. as Outarde.
Ouſteron : m. A Reaper, or Mower; a Hind, or hireling, onely for Harueſt time, or worke.
Outarde : f. A Buſtard.
Outeron. as Ouſteron.
Outil : m. A toole, an inſtrument.
Meſchant ouvrier ne trouvera ia bons outils : Prov. A bungler cannot find (or fit himſelfe with) good tooles.
Outillemens : m. Stuffe, mouables, houſhold furniture, or implements.
Outin. as Autin.
Outrage, &c. as Oultrage, &c.
Outre : m. The Orke; A kind of huge fiſh of the ſea.
Outre : f. A Borrachoe; as Oudre.
Outre : com. Cocombres outres. Ouer-ripe, more then ripe, neere-hand ſpent, paſt the beſt.
Outré : m.ée : f. Pierced, bored, ſtrucke thorow, run thorow and thorow; Looke Oultré.
Outre. (Adverb.) Looke Oultre.
Outrepaſſe : m. An exceſſe, or eminencie; a ſurpaſſing; a tranſgreſſion; Looke Oultrepaſſe.
Ouvé : m.ée : f. Full rowed, as a fiſh.
Ouvert : m.erte : f. Ouert, opē; patent, euident, apparent; diſcouered, vncouered, plaine, without colour; alſo, gaping, wide, broad, large.
Fief ouvert. A Fief without ſeruices performed, or vaſſall to performe them; Looke Fief.
Heaulme doré, & ouvert. A gilt, and open helmet on a coat of Armes; the marke of a Vicount, Baron, or Chattelain; (who beare it gilt as Knights, to whom the wearing of gilt armour belongs; and open as Captaines, with Viſors liſt vp, the better to view their troupes.)
A huis ouvert. Plainly, cleerely, fully, wholly; publickly, in open Court.
Les priſons leur ſeront ouvertes. They ſhall be deliuered, or diſcharged.
Touſiours ouvert comme la bourſe d' vn Advocat. Alwayes open like an Aduocates purſe.

Ouver-

Ouvertement. Ouertly, openly; euidently, apparently, cleerely, plainely; publickly.

Ouverture: f. An ouerture, or opening; an entrance, hole, beginning made, path begun or beaten vnto; a motion made; also, an opening, manifestation, discouerie, vncouering.

L' ouverture des Estats. Th' assemblie of Parliament men; the beginning of their conference; the first Session.

Ouverture de fief. The change of Lord, or of Tenant.

Ouverture de rachapt. A fine due (in certaine cases) to the Lord feudal from a new possessor (Lord, or tenant) of an inferiour fief.

Ouverture de Regale. The vacancie of a benefice thats subiect vnto Droict de Regale.

Ouvertures de vendanges. A beginning of Grape-harueſt, appointed or permitted by the Iudge of the place.

Ouvrage: m. A worke; also, worke; also, workmanship.

Ouvrage de Marqueterie. Checker-worke, or Inlaid worke, of sundrie colours.

Ouvrage Moresque. Moreske worke; Looke Moresque.

Ouvrage de commun ouvrage de nul: Prov. Euerie bodies worke is no bodies worke; that which euerie one can doe is not worth doing; or, as good doe nothing as worke for a multitude.

Tel ouvrier tel ouvrage: Prov. Such as the workeman such his worke.

Ouvragé: m. ée: f. Wrought with a needle, sowed.

Ouvrager. To worke needle-worke, to sow.

Ouvrant: m. ante: f. Opening; also, working.

Ouvré: m. ée: f. Wrought, laboured, trauelled.

Ouvrée: f. The eighth part of a Bourgonian Iournau; Looke Iournau.

Ouvrer. To worke; to labour, trauell, doe, act; indeuor.

Il ouvre sagement en cet affaire. He carries himselfe discreetly in this businesse.

Le temps ouvre: Prov. Time workes (or weares) out euerie thing.

Ouvreur: m. An opener.

Ouvrier: m. A workeman; an Artificer, or handicrafisman; his crafts-maister; & generally, any worker, actor, framer, inuenter, contriuer, deuiser; also, an vndertaker.

Chaud ouvrier. (as we say) A hot chapman.

De main d'ouvrier. Done workmanly, framed excellently, in all perfection.

Ouvrier gaillard cele son Art: Prov. Th' industrious workeman shewes his skill to few.

Ouvrier mediocre à cheval; ouvrier gentil à l' hospital: Prov. The meane workman labours hard, & by much light gaine comes to a beauie purse; the skilfull one is (commonly) proud, vnthriftie, or sloathfull; and dies a wretched, or diseased begger.

Meschant ouvrier ne trouvera ja bons outils: Pro. Nere will the bungler fit him with good tooles.

Tel ouvrier tel ouvrage: Prov. A workman like his worke; or, like workeman like worke.

A l'oeuvre on cognoist l'ouvrier: Prov. The worke bewrayes the man that did it.

A l'hospital les bons ouvriers, en dignité les gros asniers: Prov. Bunglers grow rich, good workemen wretched; the cogging sot gets honour while the cunning workman starues.

Il est plus d'ouvriers que de maistres: Prov. There be more workemen then worke-maisters.

Il n'est oeuvre que d'ouvriers: Prov. No worke is rightly done but what a workeman does.

Ouvrier: m. ere: f. Working, labouring, trauelling; also, prompt, expert, of good dexteritie in a thing; whence;

Le gerfaut est ouvrier de prendre les oiseaux de riviere. The Gerfaulcon is apt, able, or accustomed, to prey on riuer fowle.

Iour ouvrier. A workie-day, a weeke-day (which is no holy-day.)

De main ouvriere. as De main d'ouvrier.

Ouvriere: f. A workewoman.

Ouvrir. To open; to set open; to disclose, discouer, bewray.

s'Ouvrir. To gape, chap, cleaue, riue; to part, burst, or goe asunder, of it selfe.

Ouvrir les Estats. To call, assemble, or begin a Parliament.

Ouvroir: m. A worke-house, or shop to worke in.

Ouy: m. ouie: f. Heard, hearkened, listened vnto.

Ouy. Yes, yea.

Ouye: f. Eare, attention, hearing; also, an eare; also, the hearbe called great Sengreene, or great Housleeke.

Les ouyes de poissons. The gills of ordinarie fishes; but of huge ones (as Whalls, &c,) the holes wherout they spout water.

Les ouyes d' vne Violle. The sound-holes of a Violl.

Ie n'en ay rien que l'ouye. I haue it no otherwise then by report, I came to it onely by heare say.

Ouystres: f. Oysters.

Oxicrat. Looke Oxycrat.

Oxidercique: com. Sharpening, or cleering the sight.

Oxigone. A sharpe-pointed angle.

Oximel: m. Syrop of vineger (made of honie, water, and vineger.)

Oximel squillitique. Hath the iuyce of the Sea-onion added vnto it.

Oxirrhodin: m. A liquid medecine of vineger and Rose-water; applied to the heads of the franticke.

Oxisacre. Syrop made of vineger and sugar.

Oxugoine: com. Sharpe-angled, sharpe-cornered.

Oxycedre. Cedar Iuniper, the crimson or pricklie Cedar.

Oxycrat: m. A potion, or drinke, made of vineger mingled with water.

Oxymel. as Oximel.

Oya. (An Interiection of wondering) is it possible! &c.

Oyard: m. A Gander.

Oye: f. A Goose.

Oye de mer. A Porpose, (because nosed like a Goose.)

Oye nonnette. A Brigander.

Bec d'oye. Wild Tansie, Siluer weed; also, the Porpose, or Sea-hog.

Col d' oye. The Port, or Vpset of some Bits, made round, and bowing like the necke of a Goose.

Merde oye. Goose-turd greene.

Patte d' oye. Looke Patte.

La petite oye. The giblets of a Goose; also, the bellie, and inwards or intralls, of other edible creatures.

Pied d'oye. Goose-foot, wild Orache; an hearb which is also called Swines-bane, because it kills the swine that eat of it.

Verd d'oye. A yellowish, or Goose-turd greene.

Ferrer les oyes. To spend both time, and labour verie vainely.

L'oye mene l'oiſon paiſtre: Prov. Carefull parents teach their children how to liue of themſelues.
L'oiſon n'eſt pas digne de monſtrer lés paſquis a l'oye: Prov. Seeke Oiſon.
Les oiſons menent paiſtre les oyes: Prov. The cart leads the horſe; the young inſtruct the old.
On plume l'oye ſans la faire crier: Prov. The ſimple gooſe complaines not of her plucking; a ſillie gull complaines not though you couſen him.
Peu à peu le loup mange l'oye: Prov. By little and little the Wolfe deuoures the Gooſe; by diligence, or degrees a man obtaines his purpoſe.
Qui ne fait comme fait l'oye, n'a de ſa vie longue ioye: Prov. (In commendation of the drinking of water)
Qui mange l'oye du Roy, il en chie la plume cent ans apres: Prov. He that eats the Kings Gooſe doth void the feathers an hundred yeares after: viz. He that purloynes the Princes treaſure payes in th'arrerages (by himſelfe, or his heires) one time or another.
Oye. grand d'oye. Great ſtore, huge plentie, much abundance: Rab.
Oyon: m. A greene Gooſe, or young Gooſe.
Oyre: f. An oyle-budget; a great leatherne bag, or bottle to keepe, or carrie oyle, &c, in; made, commonly, of a Goats skinne, and the hairie ſide, oftentimes, turned inward.
Oyſeille. as Ozeille.
Oyſeler. Seeke Oiſeler.
Oyſon. as Oiſon.
Oyzeau. Looke Oiſeau.
Oyzelerie: f. Fowling, bird-catching, birding.
Oz. Looke Os.
Ozane: f. The name of an apple.
Ozeille: f. Sorrell, garden Sorrell.
Ozeille de brebis. Small Sorrell, ſheepes Sorrell.
Ozeille petite. as Ozeille de brebis; or, ſmall Sorrell, barren Sorrell.
Ozeille Romaine. Roman Sorrell, round Sorrell, Tours Sorrell.
Ozeille ſauvage. Wild Sorrell, ſowre Sorrell, the ſowre Docke.
Ozeille de Tours. as Ozeille Romaine.
Ozene: f. A ſtinking ſore, or vlcer in the noſe; alſo, a kind of ranke-ſmelling Purcountrell fiſh, that feeds on Oyſters, and is fed on by Lampreyes.
Ozer. as Oſier.
Ozeraye: f. A groue of Oziers.
Ozereux: m. euſe: f. Of Ozier, of Wicker; alſo, full of Oziers.
Ozier: m. The Ozier, water Willow, red Withie tree; alſo, Wicker; alſo, a basket, or skip of Wicker; alſo, a rod, or twig of Ozier, or of any other pliant wood.
Franc Ozier. The Ozier Withie, ſmall Withie, twig Withie.
Oziere: f. A withie twig.
Ozme: f. A kind of ſinke, or pipe, ſeruing to conuey away filth.
Ozymel: m. Oximel; ſyrrop of vineger; made of honie, water, and vineger.

P

PAccages: m. Paſtures, paſture grounds, or feeding grounds.
Pace. mettre in pace. To burie.
Pache: f. A bargain, contract, accord, capitulation, agreement; a couenant, or condition agreed on.
Pacification: f. A pacification, quieting, appeaſement.
Pacifié: m. ée: f. Pacified, calmed, quieted, ſtilled, appeaſed.
Pacifiement: m. A pacifying, an appeaſing.
Pacifier. To pacifie, appeaſe, quiet, calme, ſtill.
Pacifieur: m. A pacifier, appeaſer, peace-maker.
Pacifique: com. Pacificous, peaceable; gentle, quiet, calme, ſtill.
Pacifiquement. Peaceably, quietly, calmely; gently.
Pacquet: m. A packet; a (ſmall) bundle, or fardle; a truſſe.
Il porte ſon pacquet. He carries his load about with him; (ſaid of one that is bulch-backt.)
Pacquette: f. Honiewort; (an hearbe)
Pact: m. as Pache.
Pactieux: m. euſe: f. Couenanting; contracting.
Paction: f. as Pache.
Pactionné: m. ée: f. Couenanted, conditioned, indented, promiſed; bargained, contracted, capitulated, agreed.
Pactionner. To couenant, condition; promiſe, indent; bargaine, cope, contract, capitulate, agree with.
Pactiſer. as Pactionner.
Padane: f. A kind of open bit which giues much libertie to the tongue of a horſe.
Padoen: m. as Padoence.
Padoence. A common paſture.
Padouen. as Padoence.
Padouyr les vns ſur les autres. Neighbours to lead their beaſts each into others paſtures, or to common one vpon the other.
Paduentage: m. Common of paſture in one, or diuers Pariſhes.
Paelle: f. A ſhouell; a fire-ſhouell; alſo, a Peele wherwith bread, &c, is ſet into an ouen; alſo, a footleſſe Poſnet, or Skellet, hauing brimmes like a Baſon; a (little) Panne.
Paelle à bourbe. A Scauingers ſhouell; a broad and hollow ſhouell of wood; ſuch a one as durt is vſually removed, or taken vp, with.
Paelle à frire. A frying-panne.
Paelle marine. The Sea-ball; conſiſts of the ſlender ſtaulks of the hearbe Alge, or of peeces of ſponges, compacted by the ſoame of the ſea, & by the working thereof caſt aſhore.
Il ne luy chaut d'avoir paelle puis qu'il n'y a plus que frire. He takes no care for that which he hath no further cauſe to vſe.
Tenir la queuë de la paelle. To haue th'abſolute gouernment of, or chiefe dealing in, a matter.
Qui tient la paelle par la queuë il la tourne là ou il veut: Prov. He that holds a frying-panne by the taile may turne it which way he liſt.
La paelle ſe mocque du fourgon: Prov. Said when one friend, or fellow, derides another.
A telle paelle tel fourgon: Prov. One ſlouen matcht with another.
Paellerée: f. A ſhouell-full, or Peele-full, of.
Paellette: f. A little ſhouell, fire-ſhouell, Peele, or panne.
Paellier: m. The landing-place of a halfe-pace ſtaire; euerie breed (which is commonly euerie fift, or ſixt) greeſe, or ſtep thereof.
Paellonnet: m. A ſmall panne, or (footleſſe) Skellet.
Paellonnette: f. as Paellonnet.
Paganiſme: m. Paganiſme, Heathéniſme, Gentiliſme; the religion, or ſtate, of the Gentiles.
Page: m. A page; a waiting, or ſeruing boy (in France, where where he hath often good breeding, he ought to be a Gentleman borne;) thence also, a Taylers boy; and,

Page de navire. A ship-boy.
Hors de page; & sorti de page. Adultus, past breeching, out of his waiting prentiship, growne a tall man, or, a full-growne man; (Huntsmen applie this phrase to a big Leaueret.)
Page: f. A page; a side, of a leafe.
Pageat, & Pageau. as Pagel.
Pagel: m. A little ruddie Sea-Breame, which resembles the Pagre so neere, as it is often mistaken for a little one; See Pagre.
Pageot. as Pagel.
Pagerot: m. A (paultrie) little page.
Pagnon. The pinnion of a clocke, &c; the nut, in whose notches the teeth of the wheeles doe runne.
Lanterne à pagnons. A paire of trundles, or trundle heads; part of a mill; as vnder Lanterne.
Pagnote: m. A Bisonian, scoundrell, cowardlie or scuruie souldier; one that hath neither wit, nor courage.
Pagre: f. A round-headed, hawke-snowted, red-mouthed, and strong-toothed Sea-Breame, that feeds much on shell-fish; in Summer she is ruddie of colour, in Winter skie-coloured; therin differing from the fish Pagel, which is alwayes ruddie.
Pagrure. as Pagul.
Pagul. The smooth-shelled Cray-fish, tearmed a Grampell, Grit, or Pungar.
Pagure. as Pagul.
Paianisme: m. Paganisme.
Païer. Looke Payer.
Paignon: m. A little loafe of bread: ¶Pic.
Pailerée. as Paellerée.
Paillace: f. A straw-bed; also, a wide vessell made of such stuffe as hiues be of, and somewhat resembling, though not so deepe as, a Bushell.
Paillard: m. A lecher, wencher, whoremunger, whorehunter; also, a knaue, rascall, varlet, scoundrell, filthie fellow.
Paillard: m. arde: f. Lecherous, whorish, wenching, lasciuious.
Couleur paillarde. A pale, bleake, or wan colour; the greene sickneße.
Paillard comme vn Moine; &, Paillard comme vn Verrat. As lecherous as a Goat (say we.)
Paillarde: f. A whore, punke, drab, strumpet, harlot, queane, courtezan, callet.
Paillarder. To lecher; bitch-hunt it; haunt bawdie houses; also, to tumble in the straw.
Paillardise: f. Lecherie, whoredome, venerie, obscenitie, vncleanneße; also, roguerie, knauerie, villanie, wickednesse; any filthie, or beastlie humor.
Paillasse. as Paillace.
Paillé: m. as Pailler; also, straw-colour; also, a Bishops Pall; whence;
Droict du paillé. Looke vnder Droict.
Paille: f. Straw; also, chaffe; the huske, or hull wherein corne lyeth; also, the first bud of a flower; also, a flaw in a blade, &c; also, a Spangle; See Pailles.
Paille folle de bled. Chaffe; the huske wherein corne lyeth; or, as vnder Fol.
Paille marine. as Sagnie.
Cheval de paille. A horse thats fed with straw in stead of hay; whence the Prouerbe; Cheval de paille, cheval de bataille.
Couleur de jaune paille. Straw-colour.
Loup en paille. See Loup.
Or en paille. Spangle gold; or gold beaten thinne for spangles.
Rats en paille. A rumbling, rustling, hurliburlie, confusion, sturre, coyle; or, as in Rat.
Plus ioyeux que rats en paille. See Rat.
Avoir d' autre paille au bec. Il a bien d'autre paille au bec. He hath other stuffe in him then you are aware of.
Il y a plus de paille que de grain. There is more chaffe then corne in him.
Estre en la paille iusques au ventre. To enioy all things in great abundance; to liue at verie great ease.
Faire à Dieu gerbe de paille. To deceiue, or depriue God of his right, especially in matters of tenthes; Looke Gerbe.
Mettre la paille au devant de. To interrupt; to hinder, stop, or stay the speech of.
Se remplir de foin, ou de paille. To stop, or fill his guts with any thing, as a horse that wanting hay falls to his straw.
Rompre la paille avec. To fall out with a friend, or acquaintant.
Avec le temps, & la paille l'on meure les mesles: Prov. In time, and straw are Medlers mellowed.
De mauvais payeurs foin, ou paille: Prov. Take any thing thats offered you by an euill debtor.
Nul grain sans paille: Pro. No corne without some chaffe.
Paille-maille. See Palemaille.
Pailler: m. A reeke, or stacke of straw; also, bed-straw; also, the part of an inner Court whereon straw is scattered for fowle to feed on; also, a dung-hill before a barne, or stable doore; whence;
Vne poule de pailler. A dunghill henne, a henne thats fed at the barne doore.
Pailles: f. Spangles; also, the flakes, or sparkles that flie from hammered, and red-hot yron, &c.
Il pense que nues sont pailles d' airain. (Much like to our) He thinkes the Moone is made of greene cheese.
Paillet: m. ette: f. Pale-red, pale-claret, flesh-coloured.
Pailléte. as Paillette.
Pailleté: m. ée: f. Spangled, bespangled.
Pailleter. To spangle, to bespangle, to trimme, or decke, with spangles.
Pailleteur: m. A Spangle-maker.
Paillette: f. A spangle; also, a sparkle.
Pailleux: m. euse: f. Strawie; chaffie; also, full of flaws.
Paillier: m. A chaffe-heape; or, a place wherein chaffe is kept; also, as Pailler.
Paillisson. A small frying-panne.
Pailliz: m. A heape of straw, or of chaffe.
Paillole: f. A spangle; whence; Or de paillole. Spangle gold; or gold thinne-beaten for spangles.
Pailloté. terre paillotée. Earth mingled with chaffe, or with straw.
Paillotes: f. Spangles; also, plates of Armour.
Pain: m. Bread; also, a loafe of bread.
Pain d'amande. Almond bread, or bisket made of Almonds; also, Marchpane.
Pain d'Argus. Spungie, or light, bread; bread full of eyes.
Pain d'aveine. Oaten bread; Jannocks.
Pain de balle. Vnranged bread; or, a course bread wherein there is much chaffe.
Pain benist. Holie-bread, vsed in Popish Churches.

Pain beniſt de la confrairie. Thumps, thwacks, blows
Pain beniſt de la S.Cy. Wine; or, any good drinke.
Pain beniſt d'Eſcoſſe. A ſodden ſheepes liuer.
Pain bis. Browne bread, houſhold bread, courſe bread.
Pain bis-blanc. Wheaten bread, or boulted bread.
Pain de bouche, as Pain mollet.
Pain bourgeois. Crible bread betweene white and browne; a bread (that ſomewhat reſembles our wheaten, or cheat) a loafe whereof is to weigh, when tis baked, 32 ounces.
Pain de braſſe. A great houſhold loafe of courſe bread, like our Cheſloafe.
Pain de brode. Browne bread, courſe houſhold bread; a loafe whereof is to weigh 96 ounces, or ſix pound.
Pain de Chailli. A verie white bread (named ſo of Chailli a village) the loafe whereof is to weigh 12 ounces, and to be ſold for 12 d. Pariſ. when a Septier of wheat is worth 20 s. Tourn.
Pain chalan. All kind of countrey-Bakers bread, that of Goneſſe excepted.
Pain à chanter. as Pain miſſal.
Pain de Chapitre. A fine, white, hard-kneaded, and flat manchet, weighing about 16 ounces.
Pain à cocu. The ſmalleſt, and daintieſt kind of red Muſhrome; alſo, as;
Pain de cocu. Cuckobread, Stubwort, wood Sorrell, wood Sowre, ſowre Trefoile, hearbe Alleluya.
Pain coquillé. A kind of hard-cruſted bread, whoſe loaues doe ſomewhat reſemble the Dutch bunnes of our Rheiniſh-wine houſes.
Pain de Cour. as Pain mollet.
Pain farain. A verie yellow houſhold bread, of the better ſort, and made in great loaues.
Pain de feneſtre. Browne bread.
Pain fraiſé. A Panadoe, of the crummes of ſtale bread, ſoaked a while in 2 or 3 changes of water, then boyled in a pipkin with butter, or any other ſweet, & fat moiſture; or in Capons broath; and often ſtirred.
Pain de Goneſſe. A delicate white bread, made in a village called Goneſſe; whoſe water is reported to be the chiefe cauſe of that delicacie.
Pains d' hoſtelage. Looke Hoſtelage.
Pain de meſnage. Ordinarie houſhold bread; (for the moſt part finer then browne, and browner then wheaten.)
Pain miſſal. A Wafer made onely of flower and a little ſalt.
Pain mollet. A verie light, verie cruſtie, and ſauorie white bread, full of eyes, leauen, and ſalt.
Pain de mouſtarde. A loafe, or ball, of drie, or dried muſtard.
Pain mouton. Looke Mouton.
Pain d'oiſeau. Stonecrop, Stonehore, Mouſetaile, wild Prickmadam, Pricker, Jacke of the butterie.
Pain de panniere. A great white loafe yeelded by the the tenants of S. Gondon ſur Loire vnto their Lord, yearely, and beſides their Cens.
Pain perdu. A broath made of wine, Roſe-water, and ſugar, egges, and bread.
Le Iour de pain perdu. Shrouetewſday.
Pain de la place. Brown bread, courſe houſhold bread.
Pain porcin. as Pain de pourceau.
Pain de Potenſac. A delicat bread made in a village called Potenſac, neere vnto Bourdeaux.
Pain de pourceau. Hogs bread, ſwines bread, ſow bread; (an hearbe.)
Pain de Quinque. See Quinque.
Pain de roſe. A Roſe-cake.

Pain rouſſet. Cheat, or boulted bread; houſhold bread made of Wheat and Rie mingled.
Pain de terre. The hearbe Sow-bread.
Gros pain. Courſe browne bread.
Petit pain. A little loafe of bread; alſo, ſpare diet, poore fare, thinne cheere; whence the Prouerb; Apres grand banquet petit pain. &, faire le petit pain. To liue neerely, ſparingly, nigardly; with a little.
Au pain, & au couſteau avec. Verie familiar, verie much conuerſant, at bed and at boord, as a companion, or haile-fellow well met, with.
De meſmè pain ſoupe; &, faire de tel pain ſoupes. Looke Soupe.
Eſtre en pain; ou hors de pain. Children to be vnder, or out of, the gouernment of their parents; hence alſo, Miſe hors de pain. An emancipation.
Faire pain ſeparé. To part houſholds; people of one houſe, or ſocietie, to diet ſeuerally, or liue by themſelues.
Manger ſon pain blanc le premier. To fare well at firſt and ill at laſt; or, to ſpend the beſt at firſt in hope the worſt will mend.
Manger ſon pain en ſon ſac. To play the ſnudge, or churle; to eat his victualls priuately, retiredly, or in corners.
C'eſt trop mangé d' vn pain en vn lieu. We haue too much vſed, attended, or vrged, one thing at once.
Il ſçait plus que ſon pain manger. He knowes more then th'eating of his bread comes to; he is no child, he is paſt a babe; his skill is more then ordinarie.
Mettre le pain en vn four froid. To put bread into a cold ouen; to imploy things idly, or on that which will not auaile them; or thinke to make vſe of things which are of no manner of vſe.
Mettre vn pain au four à. To doe a man a good (or euill) turne; to put a tricke on him, with a good (or an euill) intention.
Prendre vn pain ſur la fournée. To get a ſnatch at his wench thats readie to be maried.
Quiers tu meilleur pain que de fourment? Wouldſt thou haue better bread then's made of wheat?
Il veut beaux chiens à peu de pain. He lookes to be well ſerued, and yet will giue but little intertainment.
Pain tant qu'il dure, vin à meſure: Prov. Eat at pleaſure, drinke by meaſure.
A pain, & oignon trompette ne clairon: Pro. Look Oignon.
Nul pain ſans peine: Prov. Toyle hath a part in each thing we enioy; or, without ſome toyle no bread, no benefit.
Ou pain faut tout eſt à vendre: Prov. Where bread is wanting all is to be ſold.
A l'enfourner on fait les pains cornus (ou cocus: Pic.) Prov. In the beginning of a cauſe are faults the ſooneſt made, and (once made) worſt amended; or, the beginning ſhewes what to preſume of the reſt.
A la faim il n'y a point de mauvais pain: Prov. Hunger makes any thing taſt well.
Chaſque demain apporte ſon pain. All dayes produce their owne prouiſion.
Ia ne vienne demain qui n'apporte ſon pain: Prov. Let the next day produce it owne prouiſion; or, let him not come next day that now comes vnprouided.
Crouſtes de paſtez valent bien pain: Prov. Peeces of pie-cruſt are as good as bread; or, he doth no wrong that giueth cake for bread.
De tout s'aviſe à qui pain faut: Pro. Neceſſitie inuented ted all good Artes; want more then any thing makes men industrious.

Eau & pain c'eſt la viande du chien: Prov. Bread and water is but a dogs dinner.

Le chat a faim quand il ronge du pain: Prov. The cat's a hungred when ſhe gnawes a cruſt.

Selon le pain il faut le couſteau: Prov. We muſt proportion our expence by our meanes.

Tel a du pain lors qu'il n'a plus de dents: Pro. Some haue abundance when they cannot vſe it.

Tel grain tel pain: Prov. Such as the corne ſuch is the bread.

Vn meſme couſteau me coupe le pain, & le doigt: Prov. From one thing I receiue both good, and hurt.

Paincture. Looke Peincture.

Paindre. as Peindre.

Paineux: m. euſe: f. Breadie, full of bread.

Paintre. Looke Peintre.

Pair: m. A peere; a paragon; alſo, a match, fellow, companion; alſo, a paire, at Cards.

Pairs. Vaſſalls, or tenants holding of a Mannor by one kind of tenure; fellow vaſſalls, fellow ſubiects; alſo, the common Counſellors of incorporate townes haue beene tearmed Pairs.

Pairs de la Cour; ou Pairs de fief. Vaſſalls, ortëants, who ſit as Aſſiſtants, or Triers in their Lords Courts, (eſpecially when any cauſe that concerns his inheritance is iudged;) theſe Pairs are finable to the King for all ſentences ill giuen in thoſe Courts.

Pairs de France. The Peeres of France; in old time, and at their firſt inſtitution (by Loys le Ieune*) were but 12; ſix Spirituall;* viz. the Archbiſhop of Rheims, the Biſhops of Laon, & Langres (who alſo were ſtiled Dukes) the Biſhops (and Earles) of Beauvois, Chaalons, and Noyon; and ſix Temporall ones; viz. the Dukes of Burgundie, Normandie, and Guienne; the Earles of Flanders, Champagne, and Tholoſe: At this day all the former ſix continue; and in lieu of the later (whoſe eſtates haue beene, at ſeuerall times, either united vnto, or alienated from, the Crowne) there be more then ſix, either Princes of the Bloud, or the Princes fauourites; created at ſeuerall times, and equall among themſelues (and vnto the firſt Peers) in all manner of priuiledges.

Pair, & ſequence. A card-play ſomewhat like to our Poſt and paire.

La Cour des Pairs. A Court Baron, or Lords Court; and the Parliament of Paris, wherein the Peeres of France may ſit as Aſſiſtants.

Veine ſans pair. A branch of the hollow veine, whereby the ſpaces betweene eight of the lower ribs be nouriſhed.

I'entends le pair, & la couche. &, Prins au pair, & à la couche. as in Couche.

Pair. Like, alike, equall, matching, euen, meet.

Pair ou non. The game called Euen and odde.

A pair de. Like vnto, euen with.

Aller du pair avec. To goe ranke in ranke, or cheeke by iowle, with.

Mettre de pair avec. To compare, or ſet in equall ballance, with.

Paire: f. A paire, or couple of; alſo, a bet, or ſtake; whence;

Ie m'en vay de paire. I will not hold the match, I will be vnlaid againe.

Faire 3 paires de nopces. To make 3 mariages; and hence, in common ſpeech, they ſay; vne paire de Heures, ou de Pſeaumes; A Seruice booke, or Pſalter.

Pairie: f. A Peeredome of France; alſo, equalitie of ſubiects, or vaſſalls, in tenure, or in eſtate.

Pairrie: f. as Pairie.

Païs: m. A Countrey, or Region, Land, Prouince, (native) ſoyle; alſo, (any) ground, or ſoyle.

Païs couſtumier. See Couſtumier.

Païs de droict eſcrit. A countrey gouerned by the Ciuile Law.

Païs de ſuerie. The ſweating countrey; Cornelius his tub.

A travers païs. Rouing, at randome, at large.

A veuë de païs. Groſſely, haſtily, at firſt ſight, without certaintie; without any exact, or neere examination.

Eſtre bien de ſon païs. To be clowniſh, rude, ſimple, ignorant.

Gaigner païs. To ſteale on, rid ground, rid way.

Iecter leurs hommes à païs. To ſet their men on land, or aſhore.

Tirer païs. To flie directly forward; and, in trauelling, to goe on, or, to rid way.

Qui m'aura perdu ne m'aille cercher en ce païs là. Let not him that ſhall happen to looſe me looke to find me there.

Païſage: m. Paiſage, Landskip, Countrey-worke; a repreſentatiõ of fields, or of the countrey, in painting, &c.

Paiſant: m. A peaſant, boore, clowne, ſwaine, hind; a hob, or lõb, of the countrey.

Paiſible: com. Peaceable; quiet, calme, ſtill, gentle, mild, patient.

Paiſiblement. Peaceably; quietly, calmely, gently, mildly, patiently.

Paiſibleté: f. Peaceableneſſe, tranquilitie, quietneſſe, calmeneſſe, mildneſſe, gentleneſſe.

Paiſſage de beſtes. The grazing, paſturing, or feeding of cattell.

Paiſſe ſolitaire. A certaine black-browne mountaine bird, which reſembles a Throſtle, or Oꝛſell, and being incaged ſings verie ſweetly; or, as in Paſſe.

Paiſſeau: m. A ſtake, pole, pearch, prop, or ſtay, wherewith a vine, &c, is held vp; alſo, the vine ſo vnderpropped.

Saulter de treille en paiſſeaux. (In diſcourſe) to run giddily, or vncertainly, from one matter to another.

Paiſſeler. To vnderſet, or vnderprop with poles, or ſtakes.

Paiſſement. as Paiſage.

Paiſſiere: f. A banke, or cauſey, held vp, or in, by ſtakes.

Paiſſon: f. Th' Agiſtment, or Herbage of woods, or forreſts; feeding for cattell therein.

Paiſſonner. Cattell to feed, or brouſe, in woods, &c.

Paiſſu: m. uë: f. Fed on, grazed, eaten, by cattell.

Paiſtre. To feed, graze, eat, paſture on.

Paiſtre de parolles. To giue words in ſtead of money; to delay, put off, or toll on, with faire words.

La mauvaiſe garde paiſt ſouvent le loup: Prov. Ill watching often feeds the hungrie Wolfe.

Les oiſons menent paiſtre l'oye; &, l'oye mene les oiſons paiſtre. Two contrarie Prouerbes of Confuſion, and Order; Looke Oiſon.

Paiſtri, & Paiſtrir. See Peſtri, & Peſtrir.

Paix: f. Peace, quiet, reſt; a peace, accord, agreement, compoſition, attonement.

Homme de paix. A vaſſall; Secke Homme.

Maiſon de la paix. A Court of Iuſtice; a Law-Court.

Sergents de la paix. Ordinarie Sergeants, or Catchpoles, belonging to ſome Court.

Villes de paix. Peaceable, or priuiledged townes; thoſe wherein ſubiects are bound to keepe the peace, and to end their differences (if they will contend) by Law.

Tout en paix. Quietly, ſtilly, gently, faire and ſoftly.

La paix eſt la feſte de tous Saincts: Prov. Peace is all holy mens holy-day.

Achette paix,& maiſon faicte: Prov. Peace, and a houſe thats built, are to be bought.

Baſton porte paix quant et ſoy: Prov. A cudgell breeds the peace of him that beares it.

Mieux vaut en paix vn oeuf qu'en guerre vn boeuf: &, Mieux vaut ſervitude en paix que Seigneurie en guerre: Pro. Better a needie ſlaue in peace then a wealthie Lord in warre.

Oy, voy,& te tais, ſi tu veux vivre en paix: Prov. Looke Ouïr.

Peu,& paix don de Dieu: Prov. A little with peace is a great bleſſing.

Qui de tout ſe taiſt de tout a paix: Prov. Hold thy peace and enioy peace; vnſeaſonable talke is the mother of debate.

Paix. (An Interiection inioyning ſilence) peace, huſht, not a word.

Pal: m. A pale, ſtake, or pole; alſo, a putting to death by a ſtake thruſt (longwayes) through the bodie; much vſed among the Turkes; alſo, as Milandre.

Palabre: f. as Parole.

Palabreur: m. A pratler, babler, tatler; an idle or common talker.

Paladin: m. A Knight of the round table.

Il fait bien de ſon Paladin. He ſwaggers, brags, or ſtrouts it mightily.

Palais: m. A Palace; a Princes Court, houſe, or place; alſo, the houſe, or Hall, wherin Courts be kept in a town of Parliament; a Guild-hall, Shire-hall, Seſſions-houſe; alſo, the roofe, or palate of the mouth; alſo, the taſt.

Palais au Lievre, ou du Lievre. The ſmooth Sow-thiſtle, or ſoft Milke-thiſtle, called Hares Lettuce.

Doctrine du Palais. Ciuilitie, courteſie, good manners, courtlie behauiour or carriage.

Eſcus du palais. A kind of counters.

Gens du palais. Lawyers (of all ſorts.)

Iours de palais. Court-dayes, ſitting-dayes, Hall-dayes.

Les Pourſuyvans au palais. Suitors, Clients.

Souris de palais. An Aduocate, a Pleader; or (moſt properly) a Pettifogger.

Faire le palais. To plead, or argue at the barre.

Palalalan. The ſound of the French march.

Palamide: f. A young Tunnie; alſo, the Bonito (fiſh.)

Palamie: f. The bloudie riſis; a diſeaſe, or impoſtumation in the roofe of a horſes mouth.

Palatin: m. A generall, & common appellation, or title, for ſuch as haue any ſpeciall Office, or function in a Soueraigne Princes palace.

Comte Palatin. A Count Palatine; (is not the title of a particular Officer, but an hereditarie addition of dignitie, and honor, gotten by ſeruice done in a domeſticall charge; and he whom the Prince appointed to be chiefe Juſtice of a whole Prouince hath alſo beene intitled, Comte Palatin.)

Palatin: m. ine: f. Of, or belonging to, the palate; whence,

Lettres palatines. Such letters as be pronounced by the helpe of the palate; as G, T, R, &c.

Palatinat: m. A Palinatie; the title, or dignitie of a Count Palatine; alſo, a Countie Palatine.

Pale: f. The fowle called a Shoueler; alſo, a fire-ſhouell; alſo, a ſhouell; alſo, th'Indian fig tree.

Palée: f. A ſhouell full of.

Palefrenier: m. A Groome of a ſtable; a Horſe-keeper.

Palefroy: m. A palfrey; (was in old time, for the moſt part, vnderſtood of a horſe for a womans ſaddle.)

Palemaille: f. A game, wherein a round box bowle is with a mallet ſtrucke through a high arch of yron (ſtanding at either end of an alley one) which he that can do at the feweſt blowes, or at the nũber agreed on, winnes.

Palenc: m. The Pennant; a rope which helpes to hoiſe vp the boat, and all heauie marchandiſe, aboord a ſhip.

Palerée: f. A pale full of.

Palerons des eſpaules. The ſhoulder blades.

Palet: m. An yron peſtell; alſo, a ſmall beetle to play at ball with; alſo, a quoit.

Paleter du chanure. To pound, or bruiſe hempe with a peſtle, or beetle.

Palette: f. A Lingell, Tenon, Slice, or flat toole wherwith Chirurgians lay ſalue on plaiſters; alſo, the ſaucer, or porringer wherinto they receiue bloud out of an opened veine; alſo, a battle-doore.

La palette du genouil. The knee bone, or panne; the whirlebone of the knee.

Pigeon de palette. A rough-footed Doue.

Pal-fer: m. An yron-headed ſhouell, ſpade, or ſtake, vſed by Gardeners.

Pali: m. A pale, or thicke lath; a ſtake, pole, or pile.

Paliatif: m. iue: f. Palliatiue; cloaking, hilling ouer, couering, biding; ſhadowing, colouring.

Cures paliatives. Cures which haue not ſearcht to the root, or cauſe of a diſeaſe, but haue brought onely a ſhew of amendment; as when a wound is cloſed, and yet feſters at the bottome.

Medecines paliatives. Medecines which eaſe for a while, but heale not altogether; or, as in Cures paliatives.

Paliation. Seeke Palliation.

Palicer. as Paliſſer.

Palier. To palliate; to cloake, to couer, hide, or hill ouer; to ſhadow, to colour.

Paliſié: m. ée: f. Impaled, compaſſed with a pale, defended by a Paliſadoe.

Paligeneſie: f. Regeneration, or, diuerſitie of generation.

Palinodie: f. A palinodie, recantation, contrarie ſong, vnſaying of what hath beene ſaid.

Palinotode: f. Diuerſitie of birth.

Palis. as Pali.

Paliſer. To reueale, publiſh, bewray.

Paliſſade: f. A paliſadoe; a defence, or wall, of pales; alſo, a hedge-row of ſundrie fruit trees ſet cloſe together.

Paliſſe: f. as Paliſſade.

Paliſſé: m. ée: f. Paliſadoed, ſtaked, or paled about.

Paliſſer. To impale; to incloſe with pales, to defend with paliſadoes.

Paliſſon: m. A flat yron, or ſhouell to bake cakes on.

Paliure: m. The ſhrub called Ramme of Libia, or Chriſts thorne (becauſe it is ſaid he was crowned withall.)

Pall-allant: m. A ſtaulking, or ſtrouting braggadochio; or as Palalalan.

Pallamente: f. Part of the Orelop, or vpper decke of a Galley.

Pallares. A kind of Indian pulſe.

Palle. as Pale; alſo, as Palletoc; alſo, the beazill, collet, or head of a ring.

Palle: com. as Paſle; Pale.

Pallé: m. ée: f. Partie par-pale; a tearme of Blazon.

Pallemail. See Palemaille.

Pallement. Palely, bleakly, wanly.

Paller. as Parler. (an old word.)

Pallerons des eſpaules. The Omoplates, or ſhoulder blades.

Palleter. To ſcuffle, or fight with; (an old word.)
Palletie: f. A ſcuffling, skirmiſh, fighting.
Palletoc: m. A long, and thicke Pelt, or Caſſocke; a garment like a ſhort cloake with ſleeues; or ſuch a one as the moſt of our moderne Pages are attired in.
Palletoque. That weareth a Palletoc.
Pallette: f. A little ſhouell; a ſmall peele; alſo, a ſhoulder-blade.
Palleur: f. Paleneſſe, wanneſſe.
Palliatif. Looke Paliatif.
Palliation: f. A cloaking, couering, hiding, colouring.
Pallier: m. as Palluyer; alſo, the landing place of a halfe-pace ſtayre.
Pallir. See Paſſir.
Pallis. as Pali.
Palliſſade: f. A Paliſado, or defence of pales; alſo, a Parke, or place impaled.
Palliſſement: m. Paleneſſe; or, a waxing pale.
Pallonneau. Looke Palonneau.
Pallourde: f. A little, narrow, and ſeldome-gaping Cockle, which we alſo call, a Palour.
Palluyer: m. An Officer which with a ſhouell vnlades, or lades the ſalt which is for the Kings ſtore.
Palmaire: com. Belonging to, or being in, the paulme of the hand.
Palmant. He that bids moſt rent for a Leaſe, or money for an Inheritance, which is to be let, or ſold.
Palme: m. A hand-breadth, foure fingers, or three ynches in meaſure; alſo, a ſhaftment.
Le grand palme. Is twelue fingers, or nine ynches; a full ſpanne.
Pālme: f. The paulme of the hand; alſo, the Palme, or Date tree; Looke Paulme.
Palmée: f. A bidding of moſt, or out-bidding of all, for an Inheritance, or Leaſe.
Palmer. To ſtroake, ſmooth, lay, or ſtrike downe with the palme of the hand; whence;
Palmer les cheveux des orgueilleux. To quell, or abate, the buffe of the prowd.
Palmier: m. The Palme, or Date tree.
Palmier petit. The little wild Date tree.
Palmier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, the Palme tree; alſo, bearing a branch of Palme.
Heritage palmier. An Inheritance expoſed vnto ſale.
Palmite: f. The low, or little wild Date tree.
Palmule: f. A Date.
Palon: m. The broad end of a (woodden) ſhouell; or, as Maſſerotte.
Palonneau: m. A peece of a ſtrong rope doubled, & hauing a knot with an eye in the middle of it, whereby it ſerues to faſten draught horſes vnto the thill of a Cart, or carriage.
Palot: m. whence; Tenir palot à. To hold tacke, or keepe euen with; to hold at euen tearmes.
Paloüade: f. A kind of Spaniſh fiſh.
Palourde. See Pallourde.
Palper. To handle gently, feele tenderly, ſtroake ſoftly, touch gingerly; alſo, to flatter, ſoothe, cog, or collogue with, deceiue with faire words.
Palpitation: f. A panting, or often beating, as of a throbbing, or affrighted heart.
Palpiter. To pant, or throb; to beat, moue, or ſtirre verie often.
Palte. A ſoft, and delicate Indian fruit, which reſembles a great Peare, and hath a ſtone in ſtead of a core.
Palthoc. as Palletoc.
Paltoquier, as Palletoquier.

Paltret: m. A Cleaner. ¶ Bleſien.
Palu: m. A fenne, marſh; wet ground, or moore.
Paludament: m. A coat-armour, or horſemans coat; a iacket reaching to the knees.
Paludeux: m. euſe: f. as Paluſtre; or full of marſhes, fennes, moores.
Palveſate: f. A Targuet-fence, vnder which the ſouldiors that make approaches, or are vpon entring of a breach, be ſhrowded.
Palumbe: f. A Ringdoue, Stockdoue, Queeſt, Woodculuer.
Paluſtre: com. Fennie, marſh, marſhie, mooriſh.
Paluyer. See Palluyer.
Pam. as Pan; a ſpanne.
Pampe. Looke Pampre.
Pamphage. Eat-all, all-rauening, all-deuouring.
Pamphredon. A Hornet, or Ox-fly.
Pampier: m. ere: f. Of, or belonging to, a Vine-leaſe; alſo, bearing onely leaues.
Pampillettes: f. Spangles.
Pampre: f. A Vine leaſe, or Vine leaues; alſo, a young Vine-branch full of leaues.
Armé de pampre. Whitled, mellow, cup-ſhotten, that hath put on armour of pot-prooſe.
Pampré: m. ée: f. Full of, alſo, furniſhed, or couered with, Vine leaues.
Pamprer. To fill, furniſh, or couer, with Vine leaues.
Pan: m. A pane, peece, or pannell of a wall, of Wainſcot, of a glaſſe-window, &c, as Paneau; alſo, a pawne, or gage; alſo, a ſpanne; alſo, a toyle, or hay wherewith wild beaſts are caught; alſo, the skirt of a gowne; the pane of a hoſe, of a cloake, &c.
Pans. Looke after Panouere.
Panacée: f. Wound-wort, All-heale; an hearbe.
Panacée, à pan. A call vnto meat; like our, A manger.
Panache. Looke Pennache.
Panade: f. A Panado; crummes of bread (and currans) moiſtened, or brewed with water.
Panage: m. as Appanage; alſo, Pawnage; Maſtage for Swine; or the money due to the owner of a wood for the ſame.
Panaillon. See Penaillon.
Panaiz: m. A certaine root thats leſſe, and ranker, then the ordinarie Parſenip; otherwiſe reſembling it, and oft miſtaken for it.
Panaiz de Macedoine. The Macedonian Parſenip, whoſe iuice is much eſteemed of by beardſmen.
Panaiz ſauvage. Hercules Wound-wort, or All-heale; alſo, the wild Carrot; Some alſo tearme ſo, Cow Parſenip, medow Parſenip, Madnep.
Menus panaiz. The white Mallow, marſh Mallow, moorish Mallow.
Panary: m. A Felon, or Whitlow, at the end of a finger.
Panax. as Panaiz.
Pançart: m. A Gorbellie, great guts, fat gulch.
Pancarte: f. A paper containing the particular rates of Tolls, or Cuſtomes due vnto the King, &c; thus tearmed, becauſe, commonly, hung vp in ſome publicke place either ſingle, or within a frame.
Pance: f. The paunch, maw, bellie; alſo (the faſhion of) a great bellied doublet; or the great bellie of a doublet.
Il avoit les yeux plus grands que la pance. His eyes were bigger, or worſe to pleaſe, then his bellie.
A pance chaude pied endormi: Pro. When the bellie is full the bones would be at reſt.
De la pance vient la danſe! Pro. From the paunch comes comes your daunce; the bellie glutted sets the legs a-gog.

Goutte en la hanche fille en la pance: Pro. Looke Fille.

Qui a la pance pleine il luy semble que les autres sont saouls: Pro. He that hath gorged himselfe thinkes all mens mawes be full.

Rouge visage, & grosse pance ne sont signes de penitence: Pro. A Swizzers bellie, and a drunkards face are no (true) signes of penitentiall grace.

Panceron: m. A great bellie, gulch, or paunch; and particularly, the full-stuffed bellie of a doublet.

Pancerotte: f. A little paunch.

Pancette. as Pancerotte.

Panchaïque. Odeur Panchaïque. The smell of Arabian Frankincense.

Panchant. Bowing, leaning, inclining forwards; stooping, or hanging downewards.

Panché: m. ée: f. Bent, inclined, or bowed forwards; leaning, declined, hanged downewards; any way stooping.

Arbre panché. The ends of whose boughes hang downwards; as some hold all of a tree, whereon a malefactor hath beene hanged, will doe.

Panchement: m. A bending, leaning, bowing forwards; an inclining, or hanging downewards; a stooping, a declining.

De son propre panchement. Of his owne inclination, from his owne disposition.

Pancher. To bend, leane, or bow forwards; to giue, incline, or hang downewards; to stoope, to decline.

Pançu: m. uë: f. Gorbellied, great-paunched.

Pand. Looke Pan.

Pandectaire: com. Containing, or belonging to, all manner of bookes; or bookes that intreat of all matters.

Pandectes: f. Pandects; Bookes which containe all matters, or comprehend all the parts of the subiect whereof they intreat.

Pane. Looke Panne.

Pané: m. ée: f. Breadie, of bread; whence;

Eau panée. A Panado, a Mise.

Paneau: m. A pannell, of Wainscot; of a saddle, &c; also (in Masonrie) a patterne, mould, or scantling, (made of a thinne boord &c) whereby a stone is cut, and made fit for the place it is to stand in; also, the stone it selfe so cut; whence, Paneau de doile; a Cant peece.

Paneaux. Old rags, clowts, tatters; also, the hatches, or scuttles of a ship.

Panegyric: m. A Discourse, or Oration made in praise of a Prince, or Potentate.

Panerée: f. A Pannier full.

Paneron: m. A little Pannier, a small Doser.

Panerot: m. as Paneron.

Panes. Red pimples, or freckles on the face. ¶ Langued.

Paneté: m. ée: f. Made into bread.

Paneterie: f. A Pantrie.

Panetier: m. A Pantler.

Panetiere: as Paneterie; also, a Shepheards scrip; or the bag, or poke, wherein he puts his victuals.

Panets, & Panetz. as Panaiz.

Paneux: m. euse: f. Breadie, or full of bread.

Panic: m. The Graine called Panicke, and Indian Oatmeale.

Panic domestique. Ordinarie Panick.

Panic sauvage. Wild Panicke; fit onely to feed birds.

Panicault: m. The hundred-headed thistle, Field Eringus, Leuant sea-Holme, Champion sea-Hollie.

Panicault marin. Sea-Holme, sea-Hollie, sea-Huluer, Eringus.

S'en aller frotter le cul au panicault. To spend time idly, lazily, foolishly, or vainly.

Panice: f. A suddaine, and madding feare, which comes without any apparant, or knowne, cause.

Panicle: f. A little loafe.

Panier: m. A Pannier, or Dosser; also, a Pedlers packe; also, a fashion of Trunke made of Wicker couered with the hairie fell of a calfe; much in vse among the iourneying, and warfaring Lords of France, and carried by paires, on either side of a horse one.

Panier à vesses: C'est le Cul.

Anse de panier. An Hemycicle, or halfe-circle.

Les plus meures du panier. Looke Meur.

Le pis du panier. The worst of the matter.

Ses paniers sont pleins. She is sped, she is poopt, her panniers be full.

Chier dans le panier pour le mettre sur la teste. To disgrace, or dispraise a thing, the sooner to obtaine it; or, kindly to entertaine what he hath formerly contemned.

Adieu paniers vendanges sont faittes. (Applyable to any thing whereof we haue no further vse.)

A chasque mercier son panier: Pro. Euerie one is to support, or looke vnto, his owne charge.

Chasque mercier prise ses aiguilles, & son panier: Prov. Euerie Pedlar thinks well of his packe.

Petit mercier petit panier: Pro. See Mercier.

Qui fait corbeille il fait panier: Pro. He that can doe, or hath done, one thing, is the apter, or likelier, to do another.

Qui se mesle d'autruy mestier il trait sa vache en vn panier: Pro. He that meddles with another mans Trade, milkes his Cow in a Pannier; viz. looses his profit, and vndoes himselfe.

Paniere. Pain de paniere. See Pain.

Panifice: m. Bread-making; the Trade of a Baker; also, bread.

Panifier. To make, or bake, into bread.

Panil. as Panic.

Panilliere: f. The Gryne.

Panique: com. Distraught with causelesse feare. ¶ Rab.

